Tryouts for the Press Club were ... cussed at a short business meeting ... organization, held Friday noon, ... 30, in 3 North College.

Any woman desiring to scrub for ... Club who did not attend the first ... meeting is asked to notify Beatrice ... hill '32 at once.

TWENTY-FIVE CO-EDS ATTEND MOONLIGHT HIKE

Twenty-five co-eds led by Alice ... '34, went on the moonlight hike to ... Country Club, Tuesday evening, October 27. The newly-formed W. A. A. ... club directed the program of the ...

Do we need a cut system?

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 2072

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

SIXTY STUDENTS HOLD HONOR SCHOLARSHIPS

(Continued from page 1)

Debating

Editorial

Oratorical

TO VOTE THIS WEEK FOR W. A. A. FROSH EXECUTIVE

KEEP KISSABLE

SEALED IN MOISTURE-PROOF CELLOPHANE

WITH OLD GOLDS

It's not only good manners to avoid offending others with your smoking. It's good sense. The best way to insure your own enjoyment.

For the same reason that OLD GOLDS do not taint the breath, or discolor the teeth ... for that very reason OLD GOLDS are a finer smoke ... easier on the throat and more delightful in taste.

Pure tobacco ... that sums it up. Sun-ripened tobacco ... sweetened by nature herself. Tobacco so good it needs no added flavoring.

If you'll take a dare ... and try natural-flavored OLD GOLDS for a day ... we predict OLD GOLD will win another life-long friend!

NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

© P. Lorillard Co., Inc.

NO "ARTIFICIAL FLAVORS" TO TAINT THE BREATH OR STAIN THE TEETH ... NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1931 | NUMBER 14

OSMITH'S COMEDY IS W TAKING RAPID FORM R DECEMBER SHOWING

Stoops to Conquer" is Be- Rehearsed Under Metcalf's Direction by University Troupe

T OF FUN IS BASED I CONFUSING INCIDENTS

eman's Home Mistaken for Tav- by Expected Guests—Love ffairs—Final Disclosures, All Produce Merriment

Stoops to Conquer," a comedy in cts, by Oliver Goldsmith, is taking rapidly under the direction of Pro- Metcalf in preparation for pre- ion by the University Players on nber 3.

play is built around a humorous nt, occurring in a supposedly old , which really is the home of Hardcastle, played by Stuart Wright Two young men, namely, "Marlowe" Hastings, enacted by Paul Westin nd Sam Barker '32, respectively, e the way to an inn and are ed to the homestead of Mr. Hard-

Hardcastle lays a scheme to unite Neville, played by Hope Ranslow rich young lady, whose money, how- is in the hands of her guardian, Hardcastle, taken by Sylvia Boyd in marriage with Hastings. Such rothal, however, does not meet the action of Mrs. Hardcastle, who s a nephew, Tony Lumpkin, played red Householder '32, to marry Miss le. Therefore, a long trip is ed to get Miss Neville to an old for a visit. Of course, the plot is ung more complicated and the con- n is amusing.

ung Marlowe, in the presence of the st young maidens, did not say or do ing until he noticed a pretty bar- Marlowe falls for the barmaid is Miss Hardcastle. Dorothy by '33, masquerading), who "Stoops nquer."

ny Lumpkin, not caring for Miss ie, aided Hastings in his endeavor ope with Miss Neville, and leads arty around in a circle ending up horse pond in the back garden of Hardcastle estate, from which they el r Charles Marlowe, taken by C. J. '34, arriving in nick of time in- ces his son to Miss Kate Hard- the supposed barmaid. Few can ine young Marlowe's embarrassment he learns the truth.

he farce ends happily, with the lovers merrily united, and Tony finally left ursue his own happy-go-lucky course fe rmal dances, introducing the fra- social season for the current year, be held by six of Greek societies their chapter houses, on Saturday, mber 7. The fraternities, chaper- and orchestras are given below.

FORMAL DANCES OPEN GREEK SOCIAL SEASON

pha Tau Omega is holding an in- al dance at their new home at Williams Street. Prof. and Mrs. Stineford and Coach and Mrs. J. B. e will chaperone. Bob Minotti's piece orchestra will furnish music.

mbda Iota is having an informal at house with Freddie Lynch's orches- furnishing music. Prof. and Mrs. Bolton will chaperone.

the Phi Delta Theta house an in- al pledge dance will be held. Dr. and Charles Braun will chaperone. The k Pirates will furnish music.

ma Delta is holding their informal house. Prof. and Mrs. L. B. Prof and Mrs. K. J. Sheldon one. The orchestra will be Harmony Boys of Barre.

will also have an informal their house. The chaperones and Mrs. A. B. Buehler and Mrs. H. G. Millington. Serenaders are to fur-ma Epsilon will hold their ir house. The chaperones Mrs. R. W. Smith and O. M. Camburn. Lech- will furnish music.

the other fraternities are have dances in the near

EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY HAS MASQUERADE PARTY

At the formal masquerade party sponsored by Upsilon Tau Alpha, educational society for women, held at the Manor House on the corner of St. Paul and South Union Streets, Monday evening, November 2, there were fifty students in attractive costumes. The Hallowe'en decorations were very effective.

The evening's program featured games and dancing. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served.

Hostesses at the party were Catherine Clark '32 president of the organization, Margaret Foley '34, Selma Bloomenthal '35, Mrs. Guy Hosmer, Beryl Hosmer and Merrilyn Hosmer.

Mortar Board To Hold N. E. Meeting

Sectional Convention to be Entertained by Local Chapter Here Tomorrow and Sunday

The New England Sectional Convention of Mortar Board, honorary society for senior women, will be entertained here by the local Akraia chapter, November 7 and 8. The convention will officially open at 8.30 tomorrow morning, with registration at Redstone. Business sessions will constitute the program of the day, being held at Redstone from 9-12 in the morning and from 2-5 in the afternoon.

Meals will be served the delegates at Robinson Hall. Dean Patterson will be toastmistress at the formal banquet in the evening. She will welcome the active Akraia chapter, the Burlington alumnae, and the convention guests, all of whom are invited. The main speaker and guest of honor will be Dean Ross of Middlebury College. Mailla Putnam '32, is in charge of the quartet which will furnish music during the dinner.

A tea will be given by the Akraia chapter to the convention guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta House, 4 to 6 o'clock, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. S. Howell of Cambridge, Mass., national Mortar Board treasurer, and Mrs. F. W. Coffin of Syracuse, N. Y., sectional president, will be the guests of honor at the convention.

The entire Middlebury chapter consisting of eight girls, and one representative each from Cornell, Penn State, Swarthmore and Syracuse will be present. Two delegates will be guests at the Alpha Chi Omega House and two at the Kappa Alpha Theta House. Mrs. Howell will be the guest of Miss Marion Way, and Mrs. Coffin will be entertained by Mrs. E. C. Mower.

Akraia chapter of Mortar Board consists of Mildred Akins, Helen LeBaron, Janet Miller, Lillian Mount and Margaret Mower.

COUNTY COMMISSION TO ISSUE THREE BULLETINS

Three circulars of interest to Vermonters have just been issued by the Extension Service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College All three of them are reprints from "Rural Vermont, by Two Hundred Vermonters," published by the Vermont Commission on Country Life. They are Circulars No. 66, 67, and 68 and may be obtained by addressing a post-card request to Extension Service, Morrill Hall, Burlington, Vt.

The title of Circular No. 66 is "The Agriculture and Forestry of Vermont." The title of Circular No. 67 is "Summer Residents and Tourists in Vermont." The title of Circular No. 68 is "Rural Home and Community Life in Vermont."

The bulletins represent reports made by committees of the County Life Commission, in which the Extension Service played an active part.

MILITARY BALL TO BE HELD ARMISTICE DAY

The military ball sponsored annually by Scabbard and Blade Society will be held from 9 to 1 o'clock Tuesday evening in the gymnasium. Bob Minotti's orchestra will furnish music at this formal affair. Freshmen will be allowed to wear their blue uniforms. Tickets may be purchased from members of Scabbard and Blade for $2.00 each

Do we need a cut system?

Cynic Board Removes Six Men From Office For Failure To Work

Two News Editors, a Feature Editor and Three Reporters Lose Positions Upon Recommendation of Editor

SPORTS EDITOR GETS VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

The resignations of six men from the CYNIC editorial and reportorial board were accepted by majority vote for failure to fulfill the requirements of their office at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon.

These men are: H. M. Albert '32, sports news editor; Fraser B. Drew '33, general news editor; W. G. McDonald '33, feature editor; S. Fishman '34, G. L. Davis '34 and N. H. Kaplan '34, all reporters.

In commenting upon the work these men had done as members of the board, J. C. Carter, editor-in-chief, declared that the work of each averaged not more than ten column inches since the beginning of the year and that for this reason the CYNIC board no longer has a place for them.

At the same meeting the board gave S. Pelofsky, sports editor, a vote of confidence that he might be retained in complete charge of sports news. This action by the board followed after the CYNIC of October 30 had appeared with no sport news provoking much unfavorable student comment.

A committee to arrange a revised constitution with by-laws was appointed comprising J. E. Bigelow '33 and S. N. Spiller '33, news editors, with the editor-in-chief to serve as the chairman.

WOMEN TO DEBATE WITH CARLETON CUP AT STAKE IN HULL MUSEUM TODAY

Junior and sophomore women will clash in their first forensic contest of the season with the Carleton Cup at stake, when they meet at the Fleming Hull Museum auditorium, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock to discuss the pro's and con's of the proposition, Resolved: that the honor system of examinations be adopted at the University of Vermont.

The juniors will uphold the affirmative, arguing for the honor system, while the sophomores will argue for the negative. The Carleton Cup will be presented for the first time, to the winning team

The Oxford system of debate is to be used with speeches for the affirmative, 8-11-11, and for the negative, 11-11-11. Roberta F. Powers '32, member of Tau Kappa Alpha, and captain of the varsity debating team, will be the student chairman of this debate. The judges are to be members of the English department.

The affirmative team is composed of Antoinette Hubbard, Sophie Levin, and Carolyn Taft. Antoinette Hubbard and Sophie Levin are new to college debating, although they have both debated for their high schools, while Carolyn Taft is a member of last year's varsity debating team.

Helen Cook, Dorothy Harwood, and Elvira Farman compose the negative team, and have all had experience in freshman debating, while Miss Cook was on the freshman team that defeated the Middlebury freshmen at Middlebury last year.

MORTAR BOARD GIVES RATING OF DORMITORIES

The present rating of women's dormitories inspected weekly by members of Mortar Board and ranked accordingly to neatness of individual rooms, dormitory as a whole, and observance of quiet hours, is: Robinson Hall, Alpha Chi Omega House, Slade Hall, Allen House, Rand House, Redstone, Kappa Alpha Theta House, Grassmount, Campus House.

Take what is: trust what may be; that's life's true lesson.—ROBERT BROWNING

STUDENT UNION BUILDING CAMPAIGN WILL REOPEN

The fund for the Student Union building will again receive a boost when the combined Christian Associations sponsor a campaign soon asking the students and faculty to contribute

This decision was the outcome of a meeting held Wednesday evening at which Leonard Brock '34 was elected chairman of the campaign to serve with a member of the women's cabinet Each chairman is to select three assistants to work out the plans of the campaign with him.

At the same meeting Paul LaCrosse '32 was named director of Christian World Education. A report of the New England Field Council Study of the collegiate disarmament program was presented by LaCrosse who had been the delegate of the local group to the conference held recently at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It is possible that the problem of disarmament which is the subject of campus discussion in nearly all the colleges and universities will also be studied here.

Vermont To Debate Over Station WLOE

Three-man Team Leaves Today for Keene and Boston Sustaining Unemployment Insurance

Three veteran debaters are leaving today for a week-end trip which includes a debate with Keene Normal and a radio debate with Boston University over Station WLOE, which reaches from coast to coast. The men are Paul J. LaCross, '32; James E. Bigelow, '33; and R. Peardon Donaghey, '33, all members of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary debating society.

The subject for both debates is "Unemployment Insurance," the same topic which was used in the Bates-Vermont debate recently. Besides having used this topic already in one intercollegiate contest, the varsity men debated the junior varsity team of R. McCuin, C. Libby, and R. Van Dyke last Monday evening before the Essex Junction High School children and parents.

McGill Trip Next

Manager of debate, Paul J. LaCross, announces that on Wednesday evening, November 25, the eve of Thanksgiving, the varsity team will go to Montreal to meet the representatives of McGill University. The subject has not been definitely decided upon.

Other Debates Scheduled

Union College, of Schenectady, N. Y., has been definitely scheduled to debate Vermont on March 26, 1932. By coming here this spring, Union College definitely schedules the University of Vermont debaters for a radio debate at Schenectady next fall. Other teams which have been secured to come to the University of Vermont are: State Teachers' College of Albany, N. Y., Dartmouth, Rollins College of Florida of Winter Park, Fla., and the University of Florida of Gainesville, Fla. An Australian debating team has also asked to meet the University debaters next spring. If there are no obstacles or conflicting dates arrangements may be made to have them at Vermont

All seniors in the college of Arts and Sciences are required to meet in the Old Chapel on Monday, November 9. Senior reading requirements will be explained at this time, and reading given out. Seniors will be held responsible for all information given at this time.

Meeting will be at 4 in afternoon.

Note.—Chemistry and commerce and economics students excepted.

Prof. Frederick Tupper.

Fencing practice will start tonight at 4 o'clock in the auxiliary gymnasium, all candidates please report.

Members of all classes are eligible to try out for Bluestockings. More contributions will be welcome. Tryouts will close on Thanksgiving Day.

CLEAVES TELLS ABOUT PEOPLE AND WILD LIFE OF GALAPAGOS ISLANDS

Photo-naturalist Presents Lecture on Pinchot Expedition in Second of University Series

MRS. GIFFORD PINCHOT ONLY WOMAN ON TRIP

Party of Twenty-seven Cover More Than 15,000 Miles of Isolated Region in Seven Months on Board the Ship Mary Pinchot

Describing the customs of the people and showing pictures of the islands, Howard Cleaves, photographer and naturalist, told about the Gifford Pinchot expedition of 1929 to the Galapagos Islands at the second of the University lecture series in the University gymnasium last Tuesday evening. The lecture was arranged in celebration of the recent dedication of the Robert Hull Fleming Museum with Prof. Harry F Perkins, director, introducing the speaker

Of the party of twenty-seven persons who made the trip, Mrs. Gifford Pinchot was the only woman present, although several other women had made applications to go

The trip, which lasted for seven months, covered more than fifteen thousand miles in a part of the world little frequented by white men

Starting at New York City, the party traveled down the eastern coast, through the Panama Canal.

They visited a number of islands of the South Seas, including Cocos, the Marquesas, Tahiti and the volcanic Galapagos group.

Recently at Cocos, the speaker pointed out, three marooned men were rescued

Throwing various pictures on the screen which he had filmed as photographer of the expedition, Mr. Cleaves exposed about 35,000 feet of motion picture film, of which about 5,000 feet of the choicest views were shown to the audience. Included were several highly colored still pictures of scenes and people secured during the trip

Activities of the party on board the ship, Mary Pinchot, included catching of seals, and swordfish, and pearl diving

As he showed the pictures of birds and various animals Mr. Cleaves told his listeners that some of the birds were so tame on most of the islands that they would come up and take food from the hand. The birds had seen little of human beings, Mr. Cleaves said, and had no chance of becoming frightened of them In this manner, the speaker said, his attempts at photographing the wild life was facilitated

Daily life of the natives was also depicted on the screen along with pictures of their amusements, dances and other occupations

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORS GUESTS OF UNIVERSITY FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION

Discussion of Editors' and Business Managers' Problems to Feature Saturday's Conference

The annual conferences of high school editors and teachers of English with the University of Vermont will get under way in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum at 10 15 o'clock Saturday morning. Approximately 175 students and teachers are expected to attend, as the University has suggested that each school send two delegates, preferably, the editor in-chief and the business manager. School principals and English instructors who cooperate in the work of preparing the school paper have also been invited.

The program for the morning session has been arranged as follows: Walter H. Crockett, lecturer in journalism, to present the formal welcome and outline of the conference; Prof. Leon W. Dean, of the English department, is to talk on "Short Story Writing"; while "The Use of English" is to be explained by Prof Frederick Tupper, head of the University English department. A general discussion of the "Problem of the High School Editor," and the "Business Problems of High School Papers" will then follow

At 12.45 o'clock the visitors will be the guests of the University at a luncheon served at the Hotel Van Ness

Following the luncheon a teacher of English will speak on "The Relation of School Journalism to School Work," with a general discussion of the subject coming after

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
FRED W. HOUSEHOLDER '32 Managing Editor
SAMUEL Z. FELDMAN '32 Sports Editor
[illegible] M. HARRISON '32 Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS
[illegible]

SPORTS NEWS
[illegible]

WOMEN'S NEWS
[illegible]
Margaret Mower '32
[illegible]

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR
Paul J. LaCroce '32

FEATURE EDITORS
E. E. Carter, '33 T. F. Taylor '33

COLUMNIST
R. Weissman '34

TYPIST
Sophie Levin '33

REPORTERS

General News: R. M. Bingham '34, W. W. Brooks '34, W. Cohen '34, R. A. Cross '33, G. [illegible] '34, W. Plummer '34, M. J. Greenberg '34, R. E. McCann '34, R. W. Michelman '34.

Sports News: B. S. Birnbaum '34, C. J. Libby '34

Women's News: Norma Carter '33, Augusta Cohen '34, Dorotha Edwards '33, Dorothy [illegible] '33, Irene Kabel '34, Dorine Lee '33, Margaret Tower '33, Laura Tracy '34.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

[illegible] PARKER '32 ..... Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager
[illegible] Assistant Manager

Founded in 1883. Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year; single copy, five cents.

All business and other communications must be signed by the writer and addressed to the [illegible] Fourth College, phone number 1644. Any brief notices should be handed in at the [illegible] not later than 1:30 before 9 a.m. Sunday and Wednesday.

Acceptance for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 412 P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879, authorized October 16, 1926.

Official Publication Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. XL [illegible] Number 14

VERBUM SAPIENTI SATIS

The days when men, for political reasons alone, held positions on the "Cynic" board which requires that they have great executive responsibility, a nose for news and the capacity to present news in an interesting manner when it is news, is past.

No longer will men receive positions on the board of the "Cynic" who have not, by at least one-half year of faithful conscientious effort, proven themselves worthy of the name "Cynic Reporters."

Too long has fraternity politics sought to control the award of officers and promotion to higher departments. When personal glory and fraternity activity lists have become magnified the quality of the sports and news sections of the "Cynic" has correspondingly suffered. No high position will ever again be attained or held by the man who has not earned it on the face of his own merits. Never again will one earn a position who has not first demonstrated that he has an intrinsic interest in the work.

"Passing the buck" or shifting of responsibility has proven the unfortunate Nemesis of more than one Vermont organization. It is bred and fostered by not only dishonesty but by a skillful brand of indolence and faith in the altruism of friends or chapter associates who bestow political reward when no other is possible.

We hold no brief for those men who fail to execute the duties of their office and by the fruits of their work keep themselves often within reproach. Campus opinion is never too kind to the loafer.

With but few exceptions, the same man who is successful in hoodwinking the higher executive to whom he owes allegiance and to whom he is responsible in extracurricular activities, would receive passing grades in his academic work were it possible to use political influence or chicanery as the medium.

If the health of a student is at stake, if the grade of his scholastic work is jeopardized by the demands of a campus office, then the latter should give place to the former.

The excuse of being rushed to death by fraternity pledging and by examinations may be applied and granted by some organizations but, by its nature the "Cynic" cannot entertain such from every man and requires all to share alike in the responsibility of maintaining the quality of its news and editorial columns.

A counter charge of lack of cooperation is all too facile a means of combating an accusation of non-cooperation. It has too frequently been employed on the staff of the "Cynic." This publication, for one, will no longer tolerate indolence and shirking of responsibility from its editors and reporters. Let the recent repertorial failures and the consequential action by the "Cynic" board be a warning to all who see in mere membership on its staff an easy way to pad an "Ariel" list or add to the prestige of a campus group. We would not deny the honor of such positions to every fraternity at Vermont. We encourage participation by any freshman man who can develop the ability to write. Work on the "Cynic" and other news writing has a unique satisfaction, yet its demands are at times not trifling and its reward unfortunately neither pecuniary nor immediate. Notwithstanding it has much to offer to the student who is honestly interested.

A BUNCH OF NINNIES

Again the question of compulsory military training bobs up, this time in the editorial columns of the Florida Alligator. Recently Attorney General Mitchell sustained the interior department in ruling that students at land-grant colleges cannot be required to take military training. Land-grant colleges are those which receive revenue from land set aside by the Federal government in each state to aid agricultural and mechanical training.

This dictum was eagerly snatched up by the editorial writer of the Alligator. This is what he makes of it.

Why, then, are the students of this University made to drill military drill, which is not educational. It does not fit one for the situation which he is going to meet in after life. It does not train one morally, mentally, or physically, to sufficient degree to warrant its being foisted upon an unwilling student body.

When, then, are the young men of the state who attend this university not perhaps by choice, but because they are financially unable to go elsewhere, made to swath themselves in insane clothing and lug around dummy guns, like a bunch of ninnies?—B. U. News.

Campus Comment

[illegible]

The Survey of Vermont Fraternities which you published recently reprinted [illegible] ought to bring [illegible] [illegible] for digging into the facts and figures of fraternity membership. They reached back into pre-war days and uncovered something important. The investigators failed to understand the reasons. I think they would have been a lot stronger [illegible] had studied more into the workings of the Interfraternity Conference.

As a pre-war alumnus I am keenly interested in this seventeen-year review. Mr. Walden is quoted. "It is evident that there must have been a concentrated drive for fraternity membership back in 1914-15, when it suddenly reached about 85 percent."

The Interfraternity Conference, I recall quite clearly, was formed in 1914. That autumn the first rushing rules were applied. Freshmen were not yanked off trains at Charlotte and Hyde Park and pledged before they had found the campus. The fraternity and the freshman both gained by the new arrangement but the freshman was the greater gainer. He became acclimated and had a chance for a more deliberate and a wiser decision. The fraternity gained in strength and dignity, but could no longer control the number of its members unless it grossly violated the rules.

From the fall of 1914 until now with no radical changes in the rushing system fraternities have bid from 20 percent to 150 percent more men than they wanted. Large freshman delegations have resulted with a great handicap to fraternity unity and a high mortality rate.

Perhaps we can not blame the Interfraternity Conference year after year for being more timid than the council of the League of Nations. Attempts to investigate the worst infractions of rules have been rare. Discipline of members has been almost non-existent.

We can blame the conference for lack of ingenuity and absence of resourcefulness. The rules could be changed and greatly to the advantage of all fraternities. The fraternities and not the freshmen should hold the cards. The fraternity can express deep interest, the freshman can respond by his presence at appointed times in order of his preference at fraternity headquarters. The final commitment and pledging then rests under fraternity control.

Until some such plan is adopted, there will be excessive fraternity pledging and the unduly high membership, as the investigator notes now exists at Vermont.

The Singing of the Maine-Stein Song

The Carnegie Foundation, we fear, will be much chagrined to learn of a more potent medium for publicity than a college football team. Maine University with a total enrollment last year of [illegible] this year was overflooded with 10,000 applications of what we fondly hope are not so many aspiring crooners. We hope, too, that the incorrigible administrators of our houses of learning [illegible] and age will not go about subsidizing those megaphonists still mercifully at large among the unemployed.

To give pleasure to a single heart by a single kind act is better than a thousand head-bowings in prayer.—SAADI.

Another point made by Mr. Walden is that not over 50 percent of the student body should be fraternity members, while Vermont now has 70.4 percent. Who can remain patient while such a measuring stick is applied? If fraternity life is kept reasonably simple, if fraternity houses remain tax-exempt, if alumni continue to donate generously to building and maintenance funds, fraternity life need not be expensive. A great social and character-building influence should be available to all who can afford it.

Hamilton College has for years been built around the idea that fraternity membership was an integral part of college life. Those not bid get plenty of consolation and activity in a social and literary club which they are expected to join.

Study of the workings of this plan at Hamilton will convince most investigators that it is almost ideal. Why not hold this ideal before us instead of the 50 percent maximum of the Alpha Chi Rho surveyors?

Very truly,
DAVID W. HOWE '14.

The Cut System

The cut system as revised by [illegible] ministration Committee last year [illegible] much to be desired. The [illegible] unlimited cuts to a greater [illegible] a forward-looking step, but the [illegible] to only a small percentage of the [illegible] body. There are still 324 men [illegible] two lower classes who are allowed [illegible] one or two absences a semester [illegible] course, and 175 juniors and seniors [illegible] have but two cuts in courses not [illegible] major cards. There are only 88 [illegible] college who are allowed to regulate entirely their own attendance at [illegible] while the other 499 are bound by [illegible] sonably stringent rules. There [illegible] feel, too great a premium placed [illegible] scholarship.

We do not advocate the extension of the unlimited cut privilege. It [illegible] given to as many men as can use it with discretion, perhaps more, if the [illegible] certain sophomores is considered. What we do advocate is the striking of a happy medium between the two extremes of unlimiteds and one or two per semester. A single cut never proves much use. It is usually retained with zealous care for the black day when the alarm fails to go off or the [illegible] doesn't appear for wake-up duty. There is no opportunity to cut a class when unprepared, or when it is necessary to study for a written. Any system in which 15 percent of the men living under it are granted great liberties and another 15 percent moderate liberties, with the remaining 55 percent laboring under almost tyrannical regulations, is contrary to the spirit of democracy. We advocate further modification of the cut system.—Ieyan Argus.

The block of granite which was an obstacle in the pathway of the weak becomes a stepping stone in the pathway of the strong.—THOMAS CARLYLE.

Look Sensational — Look Cut Rate Prices

Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c. 51c, 61c
W[illegible]s 79c
Alarm Cloc[illegible]c, guaranteed

CIGARS
Reg. Prices Our Prices
10c 3 for 25c
2 for 25c 10c
White Owls—5c

CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs. for 27c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold

Gillette & Proback Blades
5 for 36c—10 for 70c

Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c

TOBACCO SPECIALS

All 10c pkgs. ....3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c

Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.

CITY NEWS AGENCY
148 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

Charter House strikes a new note in the scale of fine clothes for college men and young business men. Exceptionally fine garments reasonably priced, that meet every requirement.

Charter House
SUITS
$35 $40 $45
Two Pairs of Trousers

Miles & Perry Co.
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Since 1850

SPECIAL LUNCHEONS
now being offered
at the
Coffee Corner and Sandwich Cellar
• • •
Soup or Salad and Dessert
25c

SPORTING NEWS

TENS TACKLE CUBS MIDDLEBURY TODAY IN FIRST STATE GAME

llebury Frosh, Who Have ready Beaten Norwich 14-7, To Prove Tough for Yearlings

T YEAR'S CONTEST RESULTS IN DEADLOCK

or State Football Honors Ensues h Score of Deciding Game 13-13, fter Both Frosh Clubs Had Doubled Norwich

ll starting from the 3-0 defeat administered by the St. Lawrence Frosh, Vermont Kittens travel to Middlebury today for their first game in the Frosh series. Spirit seems to be running high, and every indication points toward a victory.

The Panther Cubs, on the other hand, have defeated the Norwich Rooks 14-7, but have lost by high scores to Clarkson Tech Frosh, and Clark School.

Reynolds, of course, will not see service for the Kitten line-up again this year; Captain Red Cook has been laid up with a bad knee, but will undoubtedly play today. Otherwise, the Kittens are just about set to go.

Last year the Vermont-Middlebury game ended in a tied for state honors, as each defeated Norwich and then deadlocked with each other in the deciding game. Not much has been heard from Middlebury, but it is certain they will be pointing for the game.

The probable line-up:

	Cubs
Schmarr	l.e., Dugan
Beardsley or Caracciolo	l.t., P. Whitney
Holley	l.g., Bergstorm
Hamilton	c., Marshall
Delfausse	r.g., R. Whitney
Cooke	r.t., Stafford
Sheehe	r.e., Tassi
Lanahan	q.b., J. Beardsley
Girard	r.h., E. Beardsley
Rock or Mori	l.h., Nash
McDonald	f.b., undecided

Do we need a cut system?

SPORTS SYMPOSIUM

There are plenty of football players on teams throughout the country who are unsung heroes because they occupy the bench the greater part of their football career. Over the air last year, the late lamented Knute Rockne of Notre Dame told one about Frank Carideo before he became a regular member of the varsity team.

There was a blackboard session on and the coach was saying, "Last down, 20 yards to go, Army's ball, score tied, now what would you do?" He was pointing at Carideo and Carideo promptly answered: "I'd move over on the bench so I could see better."

Carideo later was sent in at regular quarterback and he played there in such a manner that he became America's outstanding quarterback.

WILSON '34 WINS SILVER CUP IN TENNIS TOURNEY

Victor Defeats Fiske '35, in Straight Sets, 6-2; 6-0; 6-4, in Playoff Monday Afternoon

Hugh Wilson '34, walked off with the silver loving cup presented each year by the Physical Education department, when he defeated Cecil Fiske '35, in three straight sets to win the finals of this fall's college tennis tournament Monday afternoon. The score was 6-2; 6-0; 6-4.

The match, after the first two sets had gone easily to Wilson, took on real interest, when the set point at the close of the game was hotly contested. The victory gave Delta Psi the custodianship of the tennis trophy for the third year in succession.

This year, for the first time in the tournament's history, the runner up was presented with a silver medal.

Many delays, due to poor weather conditions, and numerous defaults, were responsible for the late finish of this year's tournament. Among those who reached the semi-finals were Bent '35, and Myers '34, both of whom fell to the racquet of Fiske. Mulcahy '34, also reached semi-final matches to be defeated by Wilson.

Time Out

Vermont will have a chance to redeem itself and get back into the affections of its supporters if it beats R. P. I. tomorrow. Certainly they will be evenly matched and it will be a question of light and the will to win. That's the story—will to win. Only Dartmouth's will power and refusal to lie down when the odds were against them were the factors in their favor against Yale. Can Vermont rise to such heights?

—time out—

SOME STATISTICS

Union, 21.....R. P. I., 0
Williams 35.....R. P. I., 13
Clarkson, 13.....R. P. I., 7
C. C. N. Y., 3.....R. P. I., 13
Long Island U., 12.....R. P. I., 0

—time out—

Massachusetts State College, formerly Mass. Aggies, has good reason to boast about their diminutive halfback, Louis Bush, who is leading the country in scoring honors. He boasts of scoring 96 points. Monnet of Michigan is runner-up with 94 points.

—time out—

This year is a critical year as regards Vermont football. With all the auspicious signs in the world the squad is running counter to expectations. The setting hen has been on the china egg long enough in the opinion of some. It's time it hatched something but ugly ducklings. We don't advocate win at all costs, but how about giving us something we can write home about. Chances are that next year will see an entirely new athletic system.

—time out—

It is to be hoped that the benefit performance, run at the Flynn last Sunday, netted enough money to keep some of the freshman stars in college. The sponsors of this affair certainly showed the proper spirit. Let's see more of it.

—time out—

In case you're interested, we're expecting Harvard to scalp the Indians by at least two touchdowns. We are not expecting Vermont to win, but they will—just to show us we can't predict.

Lillian: Don't you love driving on a night like this?

Wayne: Yes, but I thought I would wait until we got further out in the country.

RIFLE PRACTICE BEGINS IMMEDIATELY KULLMAN TELLS VT. MARKSWOMEN

At the meeting of all those women interested in rifle, held Friday, October 30, at 1.30 in the gym, an unusually large number of women was present. Preliminary practice started Tuesday, November 3, and classes will continue to be held from 2-5 every afternoon. Those who have taken rifle before, "the key women," will have general supervision and will assist the officers. Coaching will be under the general direction of Lieutenant Kullman, who spoke briefly to the interested group at the meeting Friday.

He told the group that rifle is about the best sport to coordinate mind and muscle, but that its main purpose is to teach fair play and sportsmanship. Lieutenant Kullman emphatically told the girls that even though they might be eliminated, as many would have to be, they should continue to practice. Owing to the lack of funds, the rifle team will not be able to join the National Rifle Association this year. Ethel Bishop '33, is manager of the local team.

HARRIERS TO HAVE EVEN BREAK IN R. P. I. MEET

Cross Country Run to be Held Saturday at Troy With Vermont Having Hard Work Ahead to Win

"The comparative scores give us an even break, but we will have to work if we win," declared Coach Archie Post in talking about his cross country team's chances when they run against R. P. I. Saturday at Troy.

Last week the harriers did not have many workouts, but Coach Post says there has been plenty of work set out for his men this week. Monday they had a long run, Tuesday they had a fast run and Wednesday they had their time trial. As Rensselaer is situated on a hill it is expected the course will be quite a hilly one.

Comparative scores indicate the run will be even as long as conditions are favorable to the Vermont men. R. P. I. has been defeated by Middlebury 18 to 37.

The men in order of their success in the last meets are:

R. P. I.	U. V. M
Gionetti	Hadley
Breen	Harwood
Bates	Brooks
Thompson	Varney
Porter	Barker
Idema	Leach
	Wilder

LILIAN COHEN TO TALK ON JEWISH LITERATURE

Lilian Cohen will speak on the subject "Jewish Literature" at the Channing Club, Sunday evening, November 8, at the Unitarian Church.

Do we need a cut system?

R. P. I. GAME TOMORROW OPENS AVENUE OF HOPE TO BATTERED CATS

Engineers Have Played in Hard Luck All Year, Losing to Union 33-0

VERMONT MUST BETTER FORM OF NORWICH GAME

Bove, Saba, Rapuano and Davis Should Bolster Vermont Chances But Victory While Logical is Uncertain

Coach Dunn's team travels to Troy, N. Y. tomorrow where they encounter the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute gridmen. The engineers have been playing in tough luck throughout the entire season thus far and expect to change their policy and repeat the victory of last season over Vermont which they won by one touchdown. The University of Vermont, on the other hand, has every reason to believe it should win; but statistics, while they prove many things, do not prove a football game. The very fact that Union defeated R. P. I. 33-0, and Vermont beat Union shows, according to statistics that the Cats should win and take the engineers for a track meet. But that is not the dope which the team believes, because to a man they know they will be playing a snappy aggregation tomorrow.

Last week the Catamount team was overwhelmed by a supposed inferior Norwich team. If the Vermont players repeat their last week's performance, they stand no chance of winning. Vermont has not won any games with the exception of the Union game, at the first part of the season. R. P. I. has not had a very full taste of victory, winning out only against C. C. N. Y. They have lost games to Springfield, Williams, Clarkson, Union, and Long Island University.

Bove to Pilot Game

"Bevo" Bove played a gritty game for the Cats last Saturday. If the big fellows cannot do anything, the little fellows will. The line, with a surprising regularity, crumbled as they did in the New Hampshire game. Bove will pilot the plays in tomorrow's game. Ed Saba and Rapuano will roam the backfield and carry the ball. Saba will do the kicking and all in his power to tear through the line. Rapuano will be remembered for the fighting trim he was in in the Norwich game. With Ed Winant on the passing end and Joe Delfausse on the receiving end of the play, there should a lot of ground gained by passing.

"Hipp" Davis, enormous center of the team, will materially aid the team on to victory if he is strengthened by the rest of the team. Bowers will be saved for the Middlebury game, although he is improving rapidly. Manning has recovered and will probably play guard along with Bedell. Morgan and Wegner will attempt to stop off-tackle plays, and stop up any guard plays which they are able to. If height meant anything, "Jack" and "Shorty" have it and should use their size. Rust will probably help Delfausse in winning down the kicks.

Dunn Challenges Team

The game will start promptly at two-thirty. Coach Dunn has issued no special statement to the press, feeling it better to let the team prove its own worth. Those who plan to attend should be there at two-thirty to give the team all the support they can.

Formals Are Coming

and

Listen To This

$27.50

Will buy a brand-new Tuxedo and Vest. The Tux is cut in the latest manner, is beautifully trimmed, and last year sold for $35.00.

• • •

Dress Shirts Dress Ties
Studs and Links Scarves
Suspenders Chesterfields
Hosiery Derbies

• • •

New Tuxedoes for Rental Purposes
$3.00 Per Rental

Hayes & Carney, Inc.
127 Church St.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

O'Coats

in a Demonstration of

Style, Quality, Value

$35

TURKS Burlington Vt

A. T. O. ENTERS FINALS BY VICTORY OVER SIGMA NU

[illegible]

Announcement

[illegible]

[illegible]

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
104 Main St. Burlington

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

STUDENTS!
Select your Personal
CHRISTMAS CARDS
where you will be assured of the Best and Most Artistic Greetings
See them today at
McAuliffe's
Church & College Sts.—Phone 630

FAVORS FOR PARTIES
Preston's Favors always bring favorable comment.
Unusual designs coupled with fine quality make for worth while gifts.
EACH GIFT NICELY CASED.
F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

Society Notes

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

[illegible]

ALPHA XI DELTA

[illegible]

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

[illegible]

Any freshmen desiring to scrub track, please report to C. J. Kilburn, G. MacKenzie or F. P. Kenyon at 4:00 any afternoon at the gymnasium

Any sophomores wishing to scrub the business side of the 1933 Ariel see G. M. MacKenzie at Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

Do we need a cut system?

Co-ed Notes

Last Monday afternoon, November 2, the [illegible] freshmen [illegible] through strong opposition to the goal.

The women's tennis finals between the [illegible] will be played [illegible]

The following students are at the Practice House this week: Theodora Wales '32, Ida Bennington '32, Doris Dumas '32, Ruth Brayton '32, house manager, Lucille Scott '34 waitress and Margaret Shanahan '32 and Eleanor Barker '33 [illegible]

Father: Doesn't that young man know when to say good night?

Daughter: I'll say he does! Fourteen times.

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS SOCIAL MEETING AT REDSTONE

Y. W. C. A. will hold a social meeting at Redstone, Sunday evening, November [illegible] There will be a musical program [illegible] All University women are cordially invited, especially those who are interested in the Y. W. This will afford a good opportunity for all University girls to meet together and to get better acquainted.

[illegible] Fraternity announces the pledging of two more freshmen, William Hauke of Burlington and William Carleton of Bradford.

Do we need a cut system?

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

NEWSPAPERS MAGAZINES
GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS & GIFTS SHOP
102A Church Street
LENDING LIBRARY GIFTS

VERMONT WOMEN MAY SIGN PETITION OF PEACE

"Any woman desiring to sign [illegible] tion for World Peace should [illegible] Redstone soon, states Sylvia [illegible] tary of the International Relat[illegible] and president of Y. W. C. A. [illegible] tion is to be sent from the women [illegible] United States to the Disarmament [illegible] ference at Geneva, demanding that the pledges which have been made by the various countries for reduction of armaments be enforced.

In Leathers and Fabrics
$6.00
B. J. BOYNTON

"We'd rather have a Chesterfield and now we'll tell you why..."

Three Stars of "Ziegfeld Follies of 1931"
Helen Morgan (on piano)
Ruth Etting (at right)
and
Harry Richman

Three mighty good reasons!

"MILDER"—smoke as many as you like! That's what every Chesterfield smoker knows . . . and it's not hard to prove, either. Just try this blend of milder, riper tobaccos!

"TASTE BETTER"—you'll like as many as you smoke! That's what more smokers are learning every day. Not over-sweetened, but just sweet enough for constant enjoyment. The mild, rich flavor of the finest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos.

"THEY SATISFY"—in every way! The tobacco, the paper, the package... everything about Chesterfield is the best that money can buy or that science knows about!

GOOD...they've got to be good!

©1931 Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1931 | NUMBER 15

Traynor Trophy To Go To Kappa Sigma

...cries Conservatism of Cut System Here and Calls for Student Opinions

...now student opinion at Vermont regarding the cut system ...has been evident of a laissez faire," stated H. M. Albert '32 ...man of the three-man committee appointed by the Faculty ...ent Council to present recommendations to that body at its ... meeting.

"By that I mean that the existing condition, although it placed ...nts in a quandary was better than trying for something else. In ... to remedy the situation sufficient student opinion must be brought ...ar in order to propose a change in the conservative system we ...here. No doubt if the students will back a cut system, the change ...d soon go into effect."

(Continued on page 4)

...ERONIANS OF LOWER ...LASSES TO VIE FOR ...BAILEY CUP THURSDAY

...idization of Vermont Ath... Will Be on the Mat— ...tors of 1930 Take Negative

...again men of the two lower ...s will clash in the annual Bailey ...ay on the forensic platform, but ...me it will be in the new Fleming ...Museum at eight o'clock, Thursday ...g. November 12, on the question, ...ved. That the University of Ver... should subsidize her athletes."

...J. E. Bigelow, in commenting ...the debate, said: "Frosh and ... will fight clean and hard to a ...n by three judges. The debate is ...hot subject: the teams, the best ...ble, the preparation, thorough and ...r enthusiastic audience is all that ...ded to make the evening a com... knockout. The Bailey cup never ...more perilously on balance than it ...ext Thursday."

How They Line Up

...freshmen, maintaining the affirma... presents W. H. Myers, G. W. Pat... R. S. Wright and W. Cass, alter... The sophomores supporting the ...t policy of the University will be ... Burrows, C. J. Libby, R. E. Mc... R. Van Dyke, who had previ... been slated for a place on the ...was forced to give up debating be... of illness.

Donor to be Present

...Bailey cup, presented by Senator ...A. Bailey of Winooski, has been ...ntested by the freshmen and only ...by the sophomores during the last ...years. It is expected that the cup ...be presented in person by its donor, ...graduate of the class of 1915. Mr. ... was one of the founders of Tau ...Alpha, at present a strong soci... and was also one of Vermont's best ...ers.

...present sophomore team won a ...decision last year on freshman ...and are out to maintain their rec...

...the evening will be Profs. ...Carroll of the political science de... A. G. Buehler of the econom... department, and L. A. Woodward ...department. Prof. Leon ... the English department will ...

Three Able Men

...veterans have on their line ... who have all been en... off-campus debates dur...man years and have done ...public speaking. However, ...present team here selected ...man team last year.

...of Richmond Hill, N. Y., ...his class, was a ranking ...man last year and thus ...part in an off-campus debate at ...

...Martin of Highgate, Vt., did ...account of debating last ...debated at Essex against ... He also took part in ...oratorical contest last ...

..., Jr., of Exeter, N. H., ...ed debater, did consider... the junior varsity last ...

...In spite of the experi... of the sophomore team, ...have put forth a strong ...inexperienced team ... Myers captained last ...

...nued on page 4)

Women's Rules Get Parent Approvals

Two Hundred Replies to Circular Letter Indicate 15 Percent Favor Controlled Smoking

Parental approval, judging from the answers to a circular letter which was recently sent to about nine hundred parents of the women enrolled at the University, meets the women's rules which are given to Student Union to enforce.

Much questioning by students of the present rule of Student Union which states that "college women shall not smoke in college buildings or in public places," has been met with the wish of the University authorities and the dean of women that the rule be retained. This, with the other rules of this women's

(Continued on page 3)

KEY AND SERPENT WILL AWARD ATHLETIC CUP TO OUTSTANDING FRATERNITY

To Rotate Among Societies Proving Selves in Competition —Award to be at Rally Friday Eve

CUP IS IN MEMORY OF PIE TRAYNOR '32 CAPTAIN-ELECT 1931 BASEBALL

Kappa Sigma Fraternity will be awarded the new Traynor Athletic Trophy at the Key and Serpent Rally preceding the Vermont - Middlebury football game next Friday evening according to an announcement made by C. S. Brown '33, president of the junior honorary society.

The trophy, now on display at Preston's jewelry store on Church Street, is a silver loving cup awarded for the first time this year, and presented by Key and Serpent, in memory of Edward J. ("Pie") Traynor, baseball captain-elect for 1931, who was killed in an automobile accident last year during Christmas vacation, December 26, near his home in New York City.

(Continued on page 3)

Cynic and Middlebury Campus Sports Writers to Exchange Grid Advances

An innovation in collegiate journalism will be inaugurated by the Cynic Friday when the advance story of the Middlebury game here Saturday will be written by the sports writer of the Middlebury Campus. At the same time a member of the Cynic staff will write the story appearing in the Wednesday issue of the Panther news sheet.

The editors of the two publications express the belief that much interest will be added to the game by the challenges and hopes of the opponents directly expressed through their publicity organs.

University Will Have Seismograph by Fall of 1932

Local Earthquake Recorder to be Under Direction of Professor E. C. Jacobs of Geology Department

A two-component Milne-Shaw seismograph, to be under the charge of Prof. E. C. Jacobs, head of the geology department, is to be installed at the University some time during the coming summer, as the result of a grant that has been received from the National Research Council.

For the establishment of this instrument it is necessary to build a suitable vault, underground, and at some distance from the museum building, and it is expected that the recording of earthquakes, which will add valuable testimony to the

(Continued on page 6)

CARLETON CUP GOES TO PRESENT JUNIORS AFTER HONOR SYSTEM VICTORY

Freshman-Sophomore Debate Had Been Postponed From Last Season's Forsenic Calendar

The Carleton cup, a trophy awarded to the winner of the freshman-sophomore debate, was presented for the first time to the present junior women's debating team which defeated the sophomore women in the first contest of the year, arguing the question, "Resolved, That the honor system of examinations be adopted at the University of Vermont," held last Friday afternoon in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum.

The debate had been postponed from last spring, and the cup will be held until next May by the present winners.

The juniors upheld the affirmative side of the proposition. The sophomores argued for the negative.

Roberta Powers '32, captain of the varsity debate team, acted as chairman with Profs. B. B. Wainwright, P. D. Carleton and Mr. D. M. Doten of the English department as judges. The Oxford system of debate was used, all speakers except the first affirmative were allowed eleven minutes each with rebuttal speech included.

The members of the junior team, in favor of the honor system, were Sophie Levin, Carolyn Taft and Antoinette Hubbard. The sophomore team was composed of Helen Cook, Dorothy Harwood and Elvira Farman.

Honor System

Speakers on the affirmative explained the honor system as a form of student government in which each student would neither give nor receive any aid in examinations, also that he report every violation seen of this rule. An honor court would be established whereby a student would be judged by his fellowmen and not by the faculty. The faculty's parental supervision, also its duties as policeman, would thus be done away with, and the gap now present between professor and student made considerably less. The modern idea of education is to teach moral responsibility with high ideals as well as material knowledge.

A student in college today is not only preparing for life but is actually living and should be given the chance to show himself honest, responsible and efficient, claimed the affirmative side.

At present, student opinion is seldom considered and students are obliged to accept the rules laid down by the administration. Vermont students are the right type to have an honor system—sensible, honest, eager to learn, and economical. Each would feel his own responsibility and importance, and cheaters would be shunned. Freshmen have not had much chance to show themselves capable and should be given this chance in college. The system, also, is not new, but has been used in a number of colleges for some time.

Too Much Responsibility

The negative side claimed that an honor system would be wrong, both theoretically and practically. To put a student on his own responsibility would mean giving him complete freedom which would result in complete lack of rules of conductivity. Speakers for the negative also stated that the first and second parts of the proposed system made it inconsistent; that is, the system first puts perfect trust in the student, then contradicts itself by telling the student to report dis

(Continued on page 6)

Armistice Day

Regarding the one minute of silence on Armistice Day.

Small help from that famed Silence can we win;
One voiceless minute in a world of din:
Sham peace, fast followed by the noise anew
Of martial pomps and armies in review!
What charm to quell War's madness must be sought?
Brief spell of Silence? Nay! long spell of Thought!

—Henry S. Salt.

Armistice

We face the nations with one hand outstretched
In greeting, and with peace upon our lips;
But in our hearts a question, in our minds
The haunting echoes of the song of war.
The song that sets the world a-tremble still
And shakes the very pillars of our faith.

How long before the peace can pass our lips,
Can claim our minds and drive out old distrust?
To doubt mankind is but to doubt ourselves.
When shall our fingers dare to drop the sword,
While with unquestioning eyes we reach two hands
In open comradeship to all the world?

—Eunice M. Lehmer.

FRESHMEN WILL WEAR BLUE UNIFORMS AT FIRST FORMAL OF THE YEAR

"Scabbard and Blade society offers the freshmen a great opportunity to initiate their new R. O. T. C. uniforms by wearing them at the formal military ball this evening," states Paul Westin, chairman of the dance committee. Features of the event which is to be held Armistice eve in the University gymnasium will include specialty dances by the chaperones and members of Scabbard and Blade; refreshments and music by Bob Minotti and his Whoopee Boys. The price is $2 per couple.

The military formal ball is an annual event and holds the reputation of being one of the most outstanding and colorful affairs of the year.

The gymnasium will be decorated with war regalia and weapons such as flags, rifles, sabers and machine guns.

The chaperones are: Col. and Mrs. F. F. Black, Major and Mrs. C. R. Haig, Capt. and Mrs. M. E. Craig, Capt. and Mrs. P. S. Campbell, and Lieut. and Mrs. J. W. Kullman.

Scabbard and Blalde, the senior military society sponsoring the affair, consists of the following senior men: Perry Bove, capt., Chester K. Bush, Edwin J. Mercier, Paul Westin, Allen O. Eaton, Samuel B. Barker and Howard W. Davis.

Pleased Audience Hears Two in Joint Classical Recital

A two-hour program of classical music was heard by a pleased student and faculty audience when Madam Elizabeth Bradish and Miss Miriam Marston appeared last Friday evening in the gymnasium.

Madam Bradish, dramatic soprano, and Miss Marston, pianist, are both members of the music department which was responsible for the arrangement of the program.

GREY FRIARS MEETS TO CONSIDER MANUSCRIPTS

Grey Friars, men's literary society, met for the reading of manuscripts last Thursday evening in the suite of P. J. LaCross at North Converse Hall.

Contributions of poetry, essays and short stories from applicants for membership were read and discussed. Since it was not an executive session none were accepted to membership. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and cider were served.

Do we need a cut system?

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORS DISCUSS PROBLEMS WITH ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

One hundred seventy-five editors and business managers of high school publications attended the annual editorial conference backed by the University last Saturday in this city.

The morning sessions were held in the Fleming Museum auditorium, where Walter H. Crockett, lecturer in journalism, presented the formal welcome and outline of the conference. Prof. Leon W. Dean of the English department discussed short story writing. Prof. Frederick Tupper, head of that department, explained the use of English for writers of news and literary publications.

At the luncheon held at the Van Ness business and editorial problems were discussed under the leadership of Mr. Crockett.

Each year the publications of the Vermont secondary schools are entered in a competition for the editorial scholarships which the University of Vermont offers. They are rated in three classes and judged by a board of three competent newspaper men of the State. Award is made according to the general literary and news merit of the publication as well as for notable progress in the face of difficulties

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS
[illegible]

SPORTS NEWS
J. P. Perrotti, '31

WOMEN'S NEWS
[illegible]
Margaret Mercer '32
Mary Bingham '32

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR
[illegible] '32

FEATURE EDITORS
[illegible]
T. I. Taylor, '33

COLUMNIST
E. Weissman '30

TYPIST
Sophie Levin '33

REPORTERS

General News: [illegible]
Sports News: [illegible]
Women's News: Norma Carder '32, Augusta Cohen '30, Dorothy Edwards '33, Dorothy [illegible] '32, Ruth Ridge '32, Thelma Lee '32, Margaret Tower '33, Laura Tracy '30.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

[illegible] Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager
[illegible] Assistant Manager

[illegible] during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year; single copy, five cents.

[illegible] must be signed by the writer and addressed to the Editor-in-Chief, phone number 1446. Any brief notices should be handed in at the [illegible] Tuesday and Wednesday.

[illegible] to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 34 P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879, authorized October 14, 1926.

[illegible] Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. [illegible] [illegible] No. [illegible] November 15

TRAYNOR TROPHY

We commend Key and Serpent [illegible] the splendid [illegible] of the activities of "Pie" [illegible] the possession of the [illegible] which through interfraternity competition has proven itself outstanding.

[illegible] among the fraternities at Vermont as one of the [illegible] of a healthy situation. Interest could [illegible] people whose interest is extra [illegible] as shown by the [illegible].

The success of the cup among the fraternities of the hill will not only [illegible] but will fittingly honor a man who did much [illegible] athletics at Vermont. The fraternity which receives the cup this year is the choice of Key and Serpent from all the others. It is a recognized leader in athletic activities. That the society [illegible] should be awarded the cup that is an honor. Since its members were collected and a letter by the achievement. May the most [illegible] which wins the cup each [illegible] be determined by less [illegible]

THE HONOR SYSTEM—A FAILURE

Those who heard the discussion of the honor system by the freshman and sophomore women can but [illegible] a system should exist [illegible] of Vermont. The following editorial was given the first prize of $25 in a contest sponsored by the Columbus Dispatch to select the best editorial printed in an Ohio college newspaper between [illegible] It was written by a member of the staff of the Ohio Wesleyan Transcript:

The honor system, as we have it here, is quite typical of honor systems all over the country. Its chief [illegible] is the lining [illegible] proposed by the students against the honor system. It is a fundamental principle of honor that a man's honor is his own affair. Therefore the honor system is supposed to work with the [illegible] as a purely personal [illegible] leaving the [illegible] of the honor system [illegible] upon which rests the [illegible] of the honor system [illegible] semester [illegible] Such is the [illegible] plan. In the [illegible] plan [illegible] honor [illegible] honor among students, and to enlist students who will actively support the honor system."

In the twenty years the honor system has been at Ohio Wesleyan, a large number of students have served as members of the Honor Court. Twenty of them have been chosen to act as president of the Court, and, as such, have been the chief representatives of the honor system to the public eye. A number of students have held memberships on the Committee of Seven. In the main, we feel all these students have been extraordinarily faithful in trying to meet the duties of their respective offices. They have given uncounted hours to the work of the honor system.

Yet the honor system has failed.

The reason for that failure is not hard to find. No Honor Court, no president, no Committee of Seven, can make the honor system work successfully alone. Close observers of the system in various colleges are unanimous in the assertion that unless the rank and file of the student body will take responsibility for reporting violations of the code, the system cannot function in any real fashion.

There may have been a time at Ohio Wesleyan when the student body as a whole gave this type of support to the honor system, when a large majority of students favored the reporting of cases of cheating. But that time is past.

Increasingly, every year, students have come to feel that the student who reports his fellows is more worthy of contempt than those whom he reports. Whether it is rational or not, we cannot help but hate the "tattler." And the student who is strictly honorable in his own work, writhes at the thought that he is expected to play the spy.

As a matter of fact, the honor system is misnamed. It should be termed the spy system. It is a travesty upon the fine idea of the word honor to apply it to such an institution. To pretend to uphold the "honor" of the college community by asking its members to do what they regard as dishonorable conduct is ridiculous.

[illegible] cases of the honor system there will what result. As we view it in a sober moment [illegible] that which existed before we had [illegible] Honor System is the only [illegible] should be [illegible] by [illegible] a form of [illegible] that will [illegible] honor a man [illegible] honor [illegible] honor [illegible] honor

PPA SIGMA TO GET KEY AND SERPENT CUP

...d from page 1)

...raternity Competition

...ded by Key and ... the trophy, which ...nually on a point ... will be presented ... proves itself out- ...ternity competition." ... as to whether activi- ...letics would be con- ...ing the cup and how ...dged, C. S. Brown '33, ... society, stated:

An Athletic Cup

... whether or not scho- ... influence the award, ... as touch football con- ... Walk stunts, the winner ... will be reckoned with. ... be kept in permanent ... fraternity but will ro- ... each year."

... whose memory the cup is ... was one of the last to ... baseball at the University in ... year. He was a member ... which formed three years ... "Larry" Gardner's first ... problem

... was born in Philadelphia, January ... and graduated from the Man- ... High School in Brooklyn, ... enrolling with the class of 1932 ... Commerce and Economics course ... ermont

... would have played his third ... at second base last spring. He par- ...ted in every minute of every game ... he was in college and attained a ... average of .235 his last season. ... was also high scorer in last year's ...raternity touch football tournament ...layed class basketball.

... belonged to Kappa Sigma frater-

...SITIONS ON ORCHESTRA GO TO 14 MUSICIANS

... of H. G. Bennett announces the re- ... of the tryouts for the University ...estra, which were held soon after ...pening of college, are as follows: ..., Miss Charlotte de Volt, instruc- ... violin; Jeanette Jerome, Madeline ...ero '35, S. B. Barker '32, Effie ... '33; viola, C. A. Rogers '35; cellist, ... Freda Harris; assistant dean of ..., Priscilla Perry '33; flutes, Eliza- ... Eckhard '33, A. F. Whiting '33, ...dy Miles '35; clarinets, F. House- ...r '32, Helen Heininger '35; pianist, ...ur Wilde '32.

...ll orchestra rehearsals are held ... Tuesday from 4 to 5.30 p.m. at the ... house. String rehearsals are held ...ursdays at the same time.

Announcement

...mbda Iota announces the pledging ...d E. Lamere '35, of Ludlow.

To Speak in Chapel

...he Rev. Herbert T. Wallace of ...ns, Vt., will speak in Chapel, ...rsday, November 18.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Vermont chapter of Alpha Xi Delta gave a shower for Ruth Conant Follett, after meeting. Mrs. Follett was formerly of the class of '33.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

The active chapter gave a Hallowe'en party in honor of Catherine Shaw '34, who was recently initiated.

Natalie Hawley '31 passed chocolates last Monday announcing her engagement to Louis L. Jones, Poultney, Vermont, a member of Phi Mu Delta fraternity. He is now employed as assistant manager of the store of the F. W. Woolworth Co. in Keene, N. H.

A new chapter has been founded at Duke University.

DELEGATES FROM THREE COLLEGES MEET HERE

Representatives from Cornell and Middlebury attended the annual convention of section one of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society which was held here last Saturday and Sunday.

They registered at Redstone in time for the morning session. Luncheon which was served at Robinson Hall was followed by the afternoon session. That evening the women were entertained by Dean Patterson at a banquet at Robinson Hall. Addresses were made by Dean Patterson and by Dean Ross of Middlebury. Elsie Roosa '33 sang several solos.

Sunday breakfast was followed by inspection of University buildings and trips to points of interest in Burlington.

A tea for the delegates was held at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Politics Again!

The natives of Hanover thought they had a plan for increasing the town's income when they forced the Dartmouth students, who were eligible, to vote so that they would have to pay their poll tax, but they were fooled. Not because they felt the loss of the money paid in the tax but because they resented having the townspeople ordering them around, the Dartmouth lads went to the first town meeting thereafter, and introduced and passed bills to build a town hall a foot wide and a mile high and to build a wall around the town eight miles high. The Hanoverians had to take the affair to Washington before they got out of building the proposed structures.—Maine Campus.

When you play, play hard; when you work, don't play at all.—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

DECRIES CONSERVATION OF CUT SYSTEM HERE

(Continued from page 1)

The outstanding points advocated by ...mbers of the student committee are ... Standardization for all University that ... that the system of cutting be alike in all departments.

2. Unlimited cuts for students on the Dean's List.

3. Unlimited cuts or voluntary attendance for seniors.

4. Recognition of Dean's excuses by all departments, professors and instructors.

5. All official cuts to be honored regardless of set limit.

6. Cuts following holidays to count double, instead of the penalty of probation.

7. Graduation of cuts, that is so many cuts for A and B students, and for C and D students.

8. Absences from classes because of circumstances if in excess of prescribed number, to be considered by the Dean and make-up privileges allowed.

Other Collegiate Systems

Investigation is being made as to cut systems of other colleges. The committee members have received data from Amherst, Wesleyan, Middlebury College, New Hampshire, Massachusetts State College, Williams, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, McGill and Bates.

Of all of these Middlebury's system finds favor with the committee. There seniors and juniors have the privilege of voluntary attendance at class exercises, but attendance is required of freshmen and sophomores in all the recitation and laboratory periods for which he has registered. The Dean's list allows voluntary attendance for all students with the exception that if in the opinion of the dean the privileges seem detrimental to welfare of any student, the student's name may be withdrawn from the dean's list at any time. Also excuses at Middlebury resulting from official cuts are recognized in all departments.

DIPLOMAS VS. DOGS

"College students might as well be given hot dogs as diplomas when they graduate from college, for at least they could eat the hot dogs, but they can do nothing with the diplomas." The foregoing statement was given by Dr. W. C. Krueger, instructor in psychology at Detroit College. Doctor Krueger also deplored the present system of required credits, and derided the idea of mathematics and the classics as ideal subjects for improving the mind.

A young salesman on a long road trip received this laconic telegram from his wife: "Twins arrived last night. More later."

Excitedly he wired back. "For goodness sake, honey, countermand later order. Two is plenty."

WOMEN'S RULES HAVE PARENT APPROVALS

(Continued from page 1)

...governing body, is observed by the ...women students by agreement with ...President G. W. Ireland and the Executive Council. Members of student ...council recently discussed the matter with ...President Ireland and the heads of the ...colleges.

Dean Marion Patterson, in commenting upon the results of the letter which she sent to the parents of the women, stated: "In the two hundred letters received to date, a small minority of the parents consisting of about fifteen per cent, express the opinion that smoking be controlled, but without the present drastic rule which forbids it. The majority, however, are strictly against their daughters' smoking.

"They are also in favor of the rule which forbids automobiling unchaperoned after eight o'clock in the evening and the attendance of women at public dances over which the University has no supervision. The opinions expressed by the parents will in no wise affect the rules but the local authorities wished to learn how the parental attitude compared with that of the students."

The letter stated that the University believes that certain things, not perhaps wise in college, may be permitted at home where the parents have a chance to know more of a daughter's social acquaintances and recreation that the local officials can be expected to know. It also added that the opinion of many of the women students is that the question of smoking, dances and automobiling are matters which they as individuals should be free to decide for themselves.

The general University regulation, while it places no ban on smoking by the women in residential buildings, forbids smoking by anyone in the classrooms and laboratories. The University Council does not permit the sale of tobacco in any form in either the Coffee Corner or the Sandwich Cellar or the University Store. A state statute of Vermont prohibits the furnishing of cigarettes or cigars to minors.

CONCERT TO BE WITHOUT PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT

There will be no piano to accompany the concert program to be given by the women's glee club assisted by Miss Charlotte deVolt, soloist, the University orchestra, men's glee club double quartet, and women's glee club double quartet at eight o'clock, November 20, in the auditorium of the new Fleming Hall Museum.

The women's glee club double quartet will sing selections alone and together with the men's glee club double quartet, who will also offer several selections alone.

He: What were you doing?
She: I was just blowing you a little kiss.
He: Well, don't be so lazy.

SHARPSHOOTERS START PRACTICE THIS WEEK

Lieut. Kullman Explains New "Honor System" Used in All College Matches This Coming Season

Rifle practice will start next week. About twelve men reported for the first official meeting of the year, Friday, November 6, at 1.30. Lieutenant Kullman explained the "honor system" to be used this year in all college matches. This system relies upon the honesty of the individual man, rather than upon instructor as in former years, to make his report correctly.

The first of next week a list of the men and time designated for each to practice will appear on the military bulletin board. It is necessary that everyone be present at every meeting in order to give each man a maximum amount of instruction needed. Lieutenant Kullman expressed the wish that the squad should be increased by twenty or more men. Many of the sophomores are now eligible to try for the team. The requirements for eligibility are the same as in other sports at the University.

Preliminary drill starts at once; by the end of next week the squad should be ready to take their trial shots and the following week to shoot for elimination. The first match will take place either the last week in November or the first week in December. Last year the team made a very good showing, especially at the New England meet. It is expected that several matches will be fired away from Burlington, possibly at Norwich and probably at Montreal.

My business is not to remake myself.
But make the absolute best of what God made.—BROWNING.

NOVEMBER 15th

THE LAST DAY TO SUBMIT THOSE LETTERS OF CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM AND SUGGESTIONS FOR THE

COFFEE CORNER

IN RETURN FOR THE BEST LETTER ONE STUDENT AND ONE MEMBER OF THE FACULTY WILL RECEIVE A $5.00 BOOK OF TICKETS

A Lovely Figure for every hour

Your firm young figure is only as lovely as a Maiden Form uplift and girdle can make it . . . and when fashion demands that bust, waist and hips be smoothly synchronized, Maiden Form will give you just the right amount of gentle moulding you need. Keep body freedom and gain new trimness by wearing the inner-pocket uplift and high-waist girdle shown at left.

Get the New Maiden Form Booklet from your dealer, or write MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO., Inc. Dept. C · 245 Fifth Ave., N.Y.

AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

"There is a Maiden Form foundation for every type of figure."

Above: "The Maiden" ette, a tailored uplift to accent the curve of the slender bust; boned all elastic shapin

Above at right: "Greecian," whose cross ribbon design deftly delivers the bust, for ever age figures; charming boneless junior girdle

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE

GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS

Maiden Form has a host of imitators. Insist on the genuine Maiden Form trade mark label.

The smoke you like . . . is the smoke she likes for you!

"I like to see a man smoke a pipe!"

You've heard your own girl say it, perhaps. You're sure to hear it wherever girls get together.

She likes you to smoke a pipe

They puff away at our cigarettes. But they like to see us have a go at the "strong silentman's smoke"—a companionable, time-proven pipe.

There is something satisfying about a pipe. It's a slow, reflective, hard-thinking smoke—or a calm, relaxing, restful smoke. The hunter's smoke, the fisherman's smoke, the engineer's smoke—a man's smoke, through and through.

And pipe smokers who know their fine tobaccos tell you there's no blend quite like the fine selected burleys of Edgeworth — the favorite tobacco in 42 out of 50 leading colleges.

A pipe is satisfying

Do try Edgeworth. Perhaps you will like it as well as most men seem to. Edgeworth is at your dealer's. Or send for free sample if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d Street, Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH

SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin

University Musicians Study Under Estelle Liebling, and at Columbia

INDOOR SPORTS FEATURE IN PHYS. ED. PROGRAM

Professor Prentice Outlines New Program for General Physical Education This Coming Winter

THE PSYCHOLOGY SITUATION

NO MORE LIPSTICK

LOWER CLASS TO CLASH OVER BAILEY CUP THUR.

Continued from page 1

Freshmen the Under-dogs

NOTICE

Members of all classes are eligible to try out for Bluestockings. More contributions will be welcome. Tryouts will close on Thanksgiving Day.

Any freshmen desiring to scrub track, please report to C. J. Kilburn, G. MacKenzie or F. P. Kenyon at 4:00 any afternoon at the gymnasium

Any sophomores wishing to scrub the business side of the 1933 Ariel see G. M. MacKenzie at Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

On account of the holiday on Armistice Day, there will be no Chapel November 11

Pick More Daisies

Do we need a cut system?

CAT HARRIERS GO TO DEFEAT AGAINST R. P. I.

Hadley and Wilder Finish First For Vermont Preventing Worse Than 23-32 Defeat

SENIORS COMPETE IN STATE MUSIC CONTEST

What Price Luckies?

No co-ed at Michigan State Normal College "known as a habitual user of cigarettes or who smokes in public places will be allowed to graduate." If the woman happens to be an occasional user of the weed, the fact will be noted on her report card and will count against her future chances of employment. Such a state of affairs on our campus would make graduation exercises look like a "man's retreat" and most girls would live with their parents forever.—The Crimson-White

Old Nassau Wins

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
181 Main St. Burlington

Directory Week-old, But Worn In Use by University Personnel

Little Buff Colored Book to See Year of Hard Service, as Evidenced by Opinions of a Faculty Man, and Various and Sundry Students

Co-ed Notes

OLD GOLD PRODUCERS HAVE NEW 12 PACK NOW

OLYMPIC STADIUM READY FOR TENTH OLYMPIAD

Los Angeles, California—Olympic Stadium, located in Olympic Park in the center of this city, has just been completed and ready for the Games of the Tenth Olympiad to be celebrated from July 30 to August 14, 1932. It has a seating capacity of 105,000 people. In it will be held the following events: Opening ceremony (Parade of Nations) July 30; track and field athletics July 31 to August 7; demonstration lacrosse August 7, 9 and 12; field hockey finals August 8 to 11; gymnastics, August 8 to 12; demonstration American football August 8; equestrian sports finals August 13 and 14; closing ceremonies August 14

HINTS TO THE PROGRAM SELECTOR

A plan has been worked out at Brown University whereby the student may consider the temperament of the professor as well as the desirability of the course in making out his program. On the opening day of college a "Who's Who" is given to each new student giving a short account of the degrees, professional experience, and principal publications of each member of the faculty.

Do we need a cut system?

Look Sensational — Look Cut Rate Prices

Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c, 51c, 61c
Watches 79c
Alarm Clocks, 79c, guaranteed

CIGARS
Reg. Prices — Our Prices
10c — 3 for 25c
2 for 25c — 10c
White Owls—5c

CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs. for 27c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold

Gillette & Proback Blades
5 for 36c—10 for 70c

Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c

TOBACCO SPECIALS

All 10c pkgs. ....3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c

Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.

CITY NEWS AGENCY
148 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

SPORTING NEWS

Vermont Kittens Destroy Cubs Championship Hopes

rosh Amass 20-0 Score Against Middlebury First-year Men—Schmarr Marks First Touchdown

NORWICH FROSH CADETS ARE HERE TOMORROW

Vermont Kittens played heads- Friday when they crushed ship hopes of the Middle- a decisive 20 to 0 score. took hold of every oppor- gained all its points during The first touchdown was by Schmarr after a successful ten- Red Cook grabbed a Mid- forward and ran 40 yards be- good interference for the second Rock accounted for the third, adding two placements.

last half was scoreless as Ver- kept the ball near mid-field. A marred the play during the half, making the field slippery.

Cubs only success was due to long from Allan to Zowistowski. Lana- at quarter, as well as Rock, Cook Schmarr were outstanding for the tten.

Norwich Tomorrow

The Kittens should take the Norwich ks tomorrow at Centennial Field. injury list is neglible for Vermont the spirit is bolstered by the fine win Friday. Should the Kittens succeed doing so it will be the first time in eral years that a Kitten aggregation brought home the bacon. Revenge the crushing defeat of the varsity at the hands of Norwich should be in order for Wednesday.

W. A. A. LINKS HEALTH WITH GOOD PERSONALITY

The Health Council of W. A. A. under the leadership of Miss Cummings has issued the following decree:

"Personality is made or marred by health of body, power of mind, and ease of social adaptation.

"In the world of today and for many days to come, we shall be faced with the question of employment or unemployment. More and more, people who are efficient in every way are going to acquire and keep their positions in the world.

"The problem is an individual one. Because of the close relationship of health to effective personality, college women should be interested and concerned with good health.

"The members of the Health Council are making very definite plans for emphasizing the health concept and for improving individual habits of living among the women of Vermont.

The Ultimate to the 'Nth Degree

No matter how much may be said of a suit of clothes ... no greater compliment is possible than the admiration and approval of knowing young women and the acceptance and enthusiasm of smart young men.

Such is the fame of Braeburn University Clothes

$35 and $40
two trousers

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 CHURCH STREET
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

VERMONT EDGES RIVAL SINCE SERIES START

Panthers Win Nine, Tie Four and Lose Eighteen Games Since Inception of Series in '94

Middlebury and the University of Vermont have been football rivals since 1894, when the Catamounts won two games out of three from the Black Panther team, back in the days when football was a fighting game. From then to the present time rivalry has been very great, and as the time for the present contest approaches the spirit between the two institutions becomes stronger and stronger. Middlebury's record has been far better since 1910 than prior to that time. They have won seven games, lost seven and tied four. In the years of 1921, 1922 and 1923 Vermont's gridiron men won the state's championship repeatedly from Middlebury. The latter eleven has won the title of the state five times out of the last seven years.

In 1923 when Captain Semansky, Gooch, Yarnall and Tarpey were carrying the ball for the Catamount eleven, Middlebury was defeated 13-0 in one of the bitterest contests ever witnessed at Centennial Field. In 1925, the Vermont squad found themselves facing one of the toughest schedules they have ever carried, including Dartmouth, Holy Cross, Springfield and Syracuse, with no coach and no assistant at the time and most of their men lost by graduation. After losing five out of six games, the Cats won the state championship by defeating their intense rivals. Middlebury's heavier line crashed through for a touchdown. Following that touchdown, Vermont's wirier players tightened up and were amply rewarded when Winchenbach intercepted a Middlebury pass and ran the ball into Middlebury's territory. By wonderful individual playing the team pushed over a touchdown. Conway's placement kick won the game.

When the two teams meet next week at Centennial Field, the largest crowd of the year is expected rain or shine. Coach Dunn's squad will show more fight if there is a large enthusiastic crowd of rooters.

Who Will Win?

Year	Vermont	Middlebury
1930	6	26
1929	0	19
1928	6	6
1927	13	7
1926	0	13
1925	7	6
1924	0	15
1923	13	0
1922	32	0
1921	14	7
1920	0	6
1919	14	20
1918	0	0
1916	2	6
1915	6	6
1914	0	0
1913	10	7
1910	14	3
1906	12	0
	11	0
1905	10	0
	11	0
1901	0	12
	20	0
1900	21	0
	31	6
1899	49	0
1897	16	0
1894	12	0
	0	14
	4	0

Time Out

VERMONT 0—R. P. I. 7

Just another game we should have won. And the line again is to blame. A smashing line attack in the last quarter by Rensselaer took the ball from midfield right over Vermont's goal line.

—time out—

Winant had kicked out of danger by booting the ball out of bounds at midfield. Then the line crumbled and the game was lost.

—time out—

Massachusetts State's unstained escutcheon received its first blemish when Springfield trounced it by the score of 21-3.

—time out—

Wah—Hoo—Wah. It was all sorts of a moral victory for Dartmouth when, battered and bruised, it led the Crimson 6-0 up to the last quarter. Then with about two breaths to play Wood shot a 40 yard pass to Hagerman—and, well, the rest is history.

—time out—

Newton Newkirk, in the Boston Post tells us that when the welcoming committee came to take "Pepper" Martin mother to the welcoming banquet they found that her gas and electricity had been shut off for non-payment of bills. Crash goes another idol.

R.P.I. Tramples Down Green and Gold 7-0 Last Saturday

Vermont Displays Expected Weakness and Is Easily Overcome by Engineers—Myers, R. P. I. Backfield Scores Only Touchdown—Winant and Bove Outstanding

CATAMOUNTS FAIL IN ATTEMPTED AERIAL GAME

Vermont showed the expected weakness and was trampled down by R. P. I. in the last quarter to the tune of 7-0.

Two things were responsible for the R. P. I. victory last Saturday and both were equally surprising. It was the unexpected strength of the Engineers in the line that shattered the Vermont forward defence, and drove the ball deep into Vermont territory. And it was the consistent line plunging of Myers, R. P. I., end shifted to the backfield, that placed the ball over the line for the only score of the game.

Myers revealed himself as a triple threat. Previously, at end, he had been the receiving part of the forward passing combination of the Troy team. Also, he had done most of the punting. Coach Glen Killinger experimented with Myers in the backfield at scrimmages last week, and at fullback Myers justified Killinger's judgment.

Five times successively in the last quarter Myers hit the line in straight plunges, beginning on Vermont's 15-yard line. On his third plunge he gave R. P. I. a first down on the Vermont 8-yard line. His next drive was halted on the 1-yard line. He again received the ball and broke through for the score.

The R. P. I. aerial offensive failed. The Green Mountain team, aware of the Engineers' strength in that department, was prepared and the Cherry and White switched to a line offensive with surprising developments.

Of thirteen first downs gained by R. P. I. only three resulted from forward passes. The Catamounts made first down only three times in the entire game.

The failure of the Rensselaer aerial attack is revealed in the statistics which show that of sixteen attempts, only three were completed. Vermont intercepted three, and the remaining ten were incomplete.

The Green Mountain team likewise failed in its aerial game. Out of ten tries, the Vermonters completed two. The Catamounts attempted five forward passes in the last quarter without completing one.

A fumble by Winant, Vermont left half, late in the game almost resulted in another score for R. P. I. He fumbled a lateral pass and Ablondi, left guard of R. P. I. scooped it up on Vermont's 25-yard line, where he was downed. Suk, left half, broke lose for a 20 yard gain, placing the ball on the Vermont 5-yard line. R. P. I. was offside on the next play and was penalized five yards. Diehl returned the ball to its former position with a gain of five yards around left end. The Cats tightened their defence and held the Engineers for downs on Vermont's 3-yard line.

Downs, R. P. I. left half, contributed the longest run of the game, a 25-yard gain in the third quarter. On a left end run he reversed his field and broke through for the gain.

Winant and Bove were the outstanding Vermont players. Bove did most of the carrying for the visitors. The Green Mountain team, however, lacked co-ordination and at no time was within threatening distance. — Knickerbocker Press

The kittens clawed their way to a 20-0 victory over the Middlebury cubs last Friday. At least one state championship team will represent the Green and Gold.

—time out—

Next Saturday—Middlebury here. If U. V. M. beats the Panthers it will be a triple tie. Already the odds are two to one against Vermont. But in case Vermont should win, why not a football rodeo for the benefit of charity? Two state teams to play one half, the winner to play the remaining team the second half. Expenses to be shared equally by Middlebury, Norwich and Vermont, the game to be played at Centennial.

"My father is Mayor," bragged the small boy, "and when he rides in a parade the motor cops go ahead and he doesn't have to pay any attention to the traffic rules."

"That's nothing," sniffed his friend, "my father's a truck driver."

SIGS MEET A. T. O.'S IN FINAL TOURNEY GAME

Final Tilt Scheduled at 10 A.M. on Centennial Field Tomorrow Both Teams Confident

Tomorrow morning at ten o'clock on Centennial Field, the Sigma Phis and the A. T. O.'s will struggle for the cup which symbolizes supremacy in the annual interfraternity touch football tournament. This cup was instituted two years ago by the physical education department, and the Sigs have won it both years.

The Sigs, champions of League 1, have entered the finals by defeating in the first round the Kappa Sigs 30-0, in the second round, the Phi Mu Delts 54-6, and in the semifinals, the S. A. E.'s 30-6. In League 2, the A. T. O.'s defeated the Phi Sigma Delts 12-0, the Tau Epsilon Phis 6-0, and in the semifinals last Wednesday, the Sigma Nus 18-0.

As can be seen from the comparative scores, the Sigs have the weight of past performances on their side, but the final result will not be known until the last whistle blows. Certainly the A. T. O.'s displayed surprisingly fine play when they upset the Sigma Nus.

Concerning the comparative play of the two teams, the A. T. O.'s place most of their hope on their zone defense and the smooth run and pass playing of Baldwin, Brislin, and Williams, while the Sigs rely on their well-timed team play and the bullet-like passes of Freddy Tupper.

The lineups will probably be as follows: For the Sigs, Billings, Tupper, Busch, Grant, Thompson, Morse, and Dunn, and for the A. T. O.'s, Kazlauskas, Brislin, Burke, Williams, Bussey, Baldwin, and Daigle or Gordon.

The LEEDS

A New Creation in English Type Cravats

Carefully fashioned after original patterns designed for the Prince of Wales. These superb Scarfs are outstanding values at

$1

TURKS
Burlington, Vt.

SIX FRATERNITIES HOLD INFORMAL DANCES AT THEIR CHAPTER HOUSES

TEAM THREE DEBATES THIRTEEN MONTH YEAR

UNIVERSITY WILL HAVE SEISMOGRAPH BY 1932

Continued from page 1

JUNIORS WIN CARLETON CUP IN CLASS DEBATE

Continued from page 1

FORTY-EIGHT ENROLL FOR BALLROOM DANCING

Forty-eight women were enrolled [illegible] last meeting of the ballroom [illegible] class which was held Friday [illegible]. Miss Baldwin has announced [illegible] dates if system gets will [illegible] If anyone is interested he is re[illegible] his name at the gymnasium. [illegible] lessons are given at $1 each.

CHICAGO STUDENTS NOW HAVE NEW CUT SYSTEM

Take It or Leave It

[illegible] the students [illegible] and the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Vermont Cynic

UME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1931 | NUMBER 16

bury middlebury

ENT GEOGRAPHER DEPICT FRENCH ALPS LECTURE TOMORROW

ieur Le Professeur Raoul chard to Feature Second of lliance Française Series

GRAPHY FROM NEW LANT TO BE DISCUSSED

e of the Earth, as Known in ce, Differs From American erpretation in That It Con- iders as Much Economic History as Geography

...eur le Professeur Raoul Blan- ...ent French geographer, ... the second of the series of ...tures sponsored by the Alliance ... and the University of Ver- ... he presents an illustrated ... the French Alps at the ... Museum Auditorium tomorrow ... eight o'clock.

... D. Evans, head of the his- ...partment, declared that "Mon- ...Blanchard is one of the best ...geographers in France. He is ...d a splendid lecturer and I am ... that he will prove pleasing to ... hear him. Geography, as it is ... France, differs from the geog- ...which we interpret here in Ameri- ...that it also contains as much of ... history as it does geography." ... Blanchard has been a pro- ... geography at Granoble, France, ...r and professor of geography ...ard since 1927. He comes here ... University every year. Lantern ...will be used to illustrate his lec-

EE SCRAPBOOKS NOW EEP PRESS CLUB WORK

les Concerning U. V. M., ler Care of Hope Ranslow 2, Received From Clipping Service

... scrapbooks, under the surveil- ... Hope Ranslow '32, are now ... Press Club to contain the vast ... rows articles pertaining to the ... that are received from a clip- ... to which the Publicity De- ... of Vermont subscribed to sev- ... ago.

... Leon W. Dean, of the English ... was most influential in ... books which are kept in the ... Editor of Publications in ... Building, and has assisted ... making of them.

... scrapbook contains all the clip- ... are sent out by Press Club, ... contains all the items about the ... which are found in High ..., while the third is filled ... concerning the University ... has been published by ... than the Press Club ... such as the Associated

... a scrapbook was started ... of interest, and which ... printed in the various ... High School magazines ... faculty, alumni, and stu-

OLOGIC SEMINAR HEARS VO SCIENTIFIC REPORTS

... seminar met last Tues- ... at 4:15 in the zoology office. ... affair for students who ... majoring in zoology. The ... meeting were Miss C. ... spoke on "Homing in ... G. Habecker, who spoke ... and Their Characteris- ... Salamander Hemidactylium

... speakers a general discus- ... participated in by all the mem- ... addition to the speakers. ... were Doctor Moody, As- ... Rowell, R. Aiken, Miss ... Agel and S. Z. Pelofsky. ... and I. Agel '32, poured.

Y. W. C. A. VESPER SERVICE HEARS TALK ON IDEALS

"Ideals should be a practical way of living and meeting the problems of the present day," declared Miss Florence Maddock of the State Y. W. C. A. in an informal talk on "Ideals and the changes which they undergo during four years in college," at the Vesper Service sponsored by Y. W. C. A. held at Redstone, Sunday evening, November 8 at 7.30. The program, under the direction of Norma Carder '33, and Daisy Putnam '34, also included a song service, the reading of several selections from Robert Frost's poetry by Gladys La Flamme '33, and a piano solo, "Prelude," by Chopin, by Ruth Tarleton '34.

Y. W. C. A. plans to conduct a similar Vesper Service once a month, to which all University women are invited.

The purpose of these services is to further friendliness on Vermont campus and to help keep the women in closer contact with one another.

SIR E. DENISON ROSS TO SPEAK ON PERSIAN ART IN UNIVERSITY LECTURE

Professor at University of London is Third on List of Lecturers Here This Fall

STEREOPTICON SLIDES TO ILLUSTRATE POINTS

Coming as the third speaker in the university series, Sir E. Denison Ross, Ph.D., F.R.G.S., Professor of Persian in the University of London will deliver a lecture on "Persian Art" in the University Gymnasium Thursday evening, November 19, at 8.00 o'clock. The lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views showing the development of Persian art and its masterpieces and will be broadcast throughout the hall by means of an amplifier.

Distinguished Explorer

Sir Denison Ross is a distinguished explorer and authority on the peoples and cultures of Central Asia, Persia, and India, and comes to Vermont through co-operation and arrangement of the American Institute for Persian Art and Archeology.

He has traveled widely in Asia and has seen service in India as Principal of Calcutta Madvasah, a position he held for ten years from 1901 to 1911. From 1911 to 1914 he was officer in charge of Records of government of India and assistant secretary in the Department of Education. During the years 1914 and 1915 he held important posts in the British Museum and since 1916 has been Professor of Persian in the University of London.

Author of Books

The speaker is the author of several books and articles and holds Fellowships in University College, London, and from Calcutta University, in India. He fills a lectureship in the Department of Portuguese Studies in Kings College, London, and is Foreign Corresponding member of the Hungarian and Portuguese Academies.

The Secretary of the American Institute of Persian Art and Archeology says of him, "Despite Sir Denison's heavy weight of scholarly writings and distinctions he is a finished public speaker, accustomed to popular as well as learned audiences."

Prof. A. R. Gifford, chairman of the university Lectures Committee in a release to the CYNIC in which he comments upon the good fortune of securing such a distinguished and eminent speaker for the University Lectures says:

Suggestive Art

"An alien and exotic art is always highly suggestive and stimulating—whether it be the Japanese Color Print or the Cave Paintings of Paleolithic Man. This is particularly true perhaps of Persian art in its culminating period. This art was characterized by an interest in decorative rather than pictorial effect and was remarkable for delicacy and richness of coloring. The free use of gold, of brilliant reds and rich blues, together with the inclusion of legends in the delicate Persian script, yields a brightly effect quite different from our occidental types. Though disregarding

(Continued on page 3)

JUNIOR ARIEL PHOTOS TO BE BEST SIZE FOR PURPOSE SAYS EDITOR

Russell Colburn Explains That Individual Cuts Must Follow Year Book Requirements

FRAT PICTURES TO VARY INVERSELY WITH GROUP

Other Features Not Yet Decided Upon Although No Radical Changes Are Planned—Arthur Studios of New York Taking All Pictures

"Individual photographs will be made in the size best suited for the purpose," said Editor Colburn following a question by a CYNIC reporter concerning the innovation of individual Ariel pictures and the possibility of their being of no use in illustrating the CYNIC news columns.

"The Ariel is not at odds with the CYNIC," Colburn continued, "but cuts of the juniors will not necessarily follow CYNIC picture requirements, but will be made large enough to fill the space needed by the width of the book."

In discussing the magnitude of the several fraternity photos Editor Colburn said that . . . "the size of each picture will vary according to the number in each fraternity, with smaller cuts for the larger groups, and larger cuts for the smaller organizations."

Actual plans for all Ariel features have not been decided upon, but according to Colburn various sections of the year book will be patterned after productions of past years.

When questioned about the increase in the size of the Ariel, the editor declared that no radical change was being considered. "This year," he said, "a better contract has been secured which will probably cut down expenses."

During the past month, group photographs have been taken by a representative of the Arthur Studios of New York City in the auditorium of the Fleming Hull Museum and individual fraternity pictures in the basement of the Billings Library. The photographer will return later in the year to take pictures of freshman women who are pledged to the sororities and of all groups not included in the first series.

VERMONT DEBATERS WIN EVEN BREAK FOR TRIP

Win Intercollegiate Decision at Keene and Lose Grammatical Decision to Boston U.

One victory and one defeat is the record of the Vermont debating team on the recent trip to Keene, N. H., and Boston, Mass., last Friday and Saturday evenings. Judging on an intercollegiate basis Vermont defeated Keene Normal School two to one. At Boston against Boston University the Vermont team lost a 3-0 decision in a debate broadcast over station WLOE, the judges making their decision on the grammar and radio broadcasting merits of the two teams. However, the spokesmen for the board of judges admitted that Vermont outclassed B. U. in point of arguments.

Unemployment Insurance

Unemployment insurance was the subject discussed in both debates with Vermont upholding the negative. The debaters for Vermont at Keene were P. J. LaCross '32, J. E. Bigelow '33, and R. P. Donaghy '33, speaking in the order named. The Keene debaters were Ernest Peltoner, Donald Presby, and Reed Hardy. The American style of debate was used with ten minute speeches and five minute rebuttals.

Radio Debate

Saturday evening over WLOE on Beacon Hill in Boston, the Oxford style of debate was used with twelve minute speeches and one seven minute rejoinder. LaCross, Bigelow, and Donaghey spoke as named for Vermont with LaCross delivering the rejoinder. For Boston University Harry Marcowitz, Donald Potter, and James McKenna spoke in constructive argument for B. U. and Potter in rejoinder.

The decisions in both debates were rendered by boards of three judges selected by the home team.

Colorful Peerade and Rally to Precede Gridiron Classic

Annual Homecoming Day, Featuring Clash With Middlebury, to be Ushered in Tonight by Noisy Pep Rally, and Concluded by Key and Serpent Dance

BANDS TO PAY TRIBUTE TO FAMED KNUTE ROCKNE

A torchlight peerade, starting at 7.15 o'clock tonight from the gymnasium and wending its noisy, colorful, way down College Street to City Hall Park, where it is to be followed by the annual Middlebury game pep rally, is being sponsored, this year, by Key and Serpent Society, in conjunction with the annual Homecoming Day. The junior honorary group is also in charge of the dance, to be held Saturday night after the all important football classic of the Green Mountain Conference.

Coach Dunn, Mgr. Al Eaton and Capt. Eddie Winant will all speak at the rally, as well as others who are interested in football at Vermont.

Following the evening's festivities the new "Pie" Traynor trophy will be awarded, and the peerade will reform and march back to the gym.

Tribute to Rockne

Middlebury College and the University of Vermont bands will join tomorrow in paying tribute with other musical organizations throughout the country to the memory of Knute Rockne, idol of the football world.

At the game at Centennial Field the combined bands under the leadership of Joseph F. Lechnyr, their director, will collaborate in playing the song "Carry on for Rockne," which was written by Austin Boyle and Walter F. Philipp, graduates of Notre Dame in the class of 1931.

Bands Colorful

An added attraction will be the colorful effect of the organization's uniforms which have been changed since last year. The Vermont boys will wear their new R. O. T. C. cadet caps and green and gold capes and the Middlebury bandsmen will be attired in white sweaters, blue trousers and blue and white capes and "overseas caps."

Special formations will be made by each band and Vermont and Middlebury song favorites will re-echo over Centennial Field.

Special Train for Midd Rooters

A special train arriving at 10.30 will carry the Panther student body and band to Burlington and at 1.30 a rehearsal of the two bands will be held with Joe Lechnyr conducting.

The song follows:

Carry on for Rockne,
Men of old Notre Dame
Fighting on with his spirit
To victory—you'll hear
His name (we're here Rock)
Hear the loyal thousands
Cheer the men in the game.
The wearers of gold and blue,
Her warriors are going through,
And Notre Dame will carry on.

The Dance

The Key and Serpent dance will be held Saturday at eight o'clock in the Gym. Music will be furnished by Bob Mipotti and his nine-piece orchestra. The chaperones will be Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Braun and Prof. and Mrs. Leon W. Dean. The committee in charge is headed by William MacDonald '33 and includes William Burke '33 and R. Colburn '33.

THREE LOWER CLASSES COMPETE FOR DEAN CUP

Freshman, Sophomore and Junior Women to Present One-Act Plays Tuesday in Hull Auditorium

Women's class plays, presented annually by the three lower classes under the direction of the Women's Dramatic Club, will be presented Tuesday evening, November 17, in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum with the Dean Cup being awarded, by the judges picked from the University professors, to the class which excells in merit of acting and delivery.

"Blue Ribbon Hat" a one-act play by Pauline Phelps will be presented by the following members of the freshman class; Mary Casey, Marie McGuire, Irene LaFountain, and Thelma Rosenburg, who are being coached by Elizabeth Woodward '34. Betty Boright, is acting as property manager; Ruth Shaefer as make-up manager; and Ruth Cannon as costume manager.

Good Medicine

Members of the sophomore class will present "Good Medicine," by Jack Arnold and Edmund Burke. Betty Googel, Elizabeth Fox, and Edith Place are being coached for this by Evelyn De Brune '32. The managers are: Elvira Farman, property; Marie Horak, costume; and Ruth Tarleton, make-up.

The one-act play to be given by the junior class is "Barren," by Constance Cowell Anderson. The cast includes Leah Gowen, Ethelda Miller, Mary Petras and Virginia Goodenough. The managers are Caro Wyman, property; Thelma Appell, make-up; Sophie Levin, costume. Doris Skinner '32 and Gwendolyn Shaefer '32 are coaching.

Winnowings To Be Ready Next Week

Vermont Literary Magazine to Have Frances Frost '31, Constance Stone '31, and E. Fitzgerald '32, Among Contributors

Winnowings of the Mill will appear about the latter part of next week according to Hope Ranslow '32, editor of Winnowings. The issue will have several entirely new features.

Prominent among these will be a poem entitled "Bird," by Frances Frost, who received her degree at U. V. M. last June. Miss Frost, who has already had two volumes of verse published, now has her headquarters in New York, and she is spending some of her time lecturing in various colleges.

The other poetry in this issue is by Gladys LaFlamme '33, a former contributor; Ruth Erwin '33; and Fred Householder '32.

Prize Winner Contributes

Constance Stone '31, who won first prize in the tri-state literary contest last spring, has contributed a story, entitled "Retreat." Miss Stone has formerly made various contributions to the magazine.

Edward Fitzgerald '32, also has a story, "Promise of Heaven" in this issue. Fitzgerald has already had poetry of note in Winnowings; and he won second place in the tri-state literary contest last spring.

There will also be a letter from Leonard Nason, a Norwich graduate, who lives in the Basque country. Mr. Nason writes short stories, some of which have been published in the Saturday Evening Post.

Copies of Winnowings may be obtained at the Book Store and are priced at $ .25 each or $1.00 for the year's subscription.

Praise loudly, blame softly.—CATHERINE II.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

Subscription $3.00 a

Printed by Publishers Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

November 17

OUR HUMBLE APOLOGY

"What's wrong with the team?" and the answer comes back typically collegiate, "What team?" Starting out with a victory Vermont fans settled back to see what they hoped would be a successful season. Then things went wrong. Somehow the team as a combination went wrong. Games that should have been victories were defeats. The consensus of opinion was, "The team is rotten and getting more putrid every day." Hurray, we have solved the difficulty. The team is rotten—that fixes it.

But let us not forget that the thing we refer to as a team is in reality a system. The eleven men that we see fighting on the gridiron represent a complicated machinery. For, behind every man battling out there on the turf there are probably clever men whom we never see and much less think about. If anything is rotten and getting more putrid every day it is not the eleven men we call a team, but the whole machinery that it represents. If anything needs changing it is that.

If you cannot say something good about a thing say nothing. My country right or wrong. My country! My Alma Mater above everything. Blind faithful allegiance without thought or reason.

This is a patriotism to which we cannot adhere. It seems to be the common fallacy, that if one does not criticize constructively, then one is criticizing destructively. That is not so. The bringing to light of a malignant disease at least leads to a diagnosis and perhaps a remedy if not an immediate cure. We cannot suggest a cure for the condition responsible for Vermont's poor showing on the football field, but we can bring to light the conditions responsible for it.

What's the matter with the team, is a question that not only the student body has asked, but also the alumni and faculty who have the interest of Vermont at heart. There is nothing the matter with the team! The eleven men who fought Saturday after Saturday, going down to defeat have not fought for themselves. They received no material gain. There is no glory or honor in playing on a team that is constantly humbled in defeat. There can be no pleasure in representing a school that constantly points the finger of scorn. Surely it is galling to be laughed at in derision. Yet the players have endured all this and more since the beginning of the season.

The campus moans, "Where are the teams of yesteryear? Where are the Gooches, the Semanskys, the Yarnalls, the Jack Smiths and countless others who brought glory to the Green and Gold?" We ask, "Where are the fans of yesteryear, the ones who marched in torchlight parades; who slept under the players' berths, in order to follow them on trips; who yelled themselves hoarse in victory or defeat?" They have gone with the stars who have gone. Things have changed. The system that was efficient in those days is now out of date and antiquated. Everything has been blamed from the water boy to the coach, but nobody has thought to analyze the subject in its entirety.

We can here offer no panacea. That is for others to do. We cannot offer a plan that will bring instantaneous success. We can merely bring to light different angles on the same situation. You owe an allegiance to your Alma Mater. It is your duty to ponder the conditions and weigh the facts. If they need remedying you must remedy them. That is all the allegiance you owe your University. To try to make it better. Not the blind faithful allegiance to binding, cramping, tradition but the intelligent thinking that makes tradition a living selective influence. There is a problem before the student body. It is one of athletics. Will they be content to rest and wait for others to lead them or will they be the leaders in a new reform?

It is time to admit our mistake. The team that we commonly thought of as eleven men, were not to blame. The boys, our classmates, our friends, who have endured both physically and mentally, while they represented us, have endured in vain. We have been utterly unfair in condemning them. They tried their best. While we sat in warm comfort, they practiced and played in cold, mud and rain. They played the game—we did not play the game.

We owe them an apology. There is only one way that we can apologize. The grandstand should be full of loyal rooters to cheer them on, whether in victory or defeat. When the team comes on the field there should rise a mighty cheer. We should be there in body and spirit and prove that the Catamount is not a traditional fossil but that it represents a living spirit. We should offer them our humble apology. WE SHOULD—BUT WILL WE?

S. Z. PELOFSKY.

A Student-at-Large

[illegible] Hall [illegible] Dartmouth [illegible] Dartmouth [illegible] Dartmouth

E. DENISON ROSS TO SPEAK ON PERSIAN ART

(continued from page 1)

...ments of perspective, ...position, there is a ... and luxuriance of ... renders this na... distinctive and in...

...like those sponsored in ...niversity, will be free to ...

...o employer, who has ...et for theatre): But this ...e evenin', I see!

...Well, you've nothing to do ...

...No, but it's my own time—...e for a matinee?

NOTICE

Members of all classes are eligible to try out for Bluestockings. More contributions will be welcome. Try-outs will close on Thanksgiving Day.

Any freshmen desiring to scrub track, please report to C. J. Kilburn, G. MacKenzie or F. P. Kenyon at 4.00 any afternoon at the gymnasium.

Any sophomores wishing to scrub the business side of the 1933 Ariel see G. M. MacKenzie at Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

If I cannot do great things, I can do small things in a great way.—Clark.

FORMER 4-H CLUBSTERS ATTEND GET-TOGETHER

All former 4-H Club members of the student body attended an informal get-together Thursday evening, November 12, in the Vermonters' Club House. Miss Martha Leighton, assistant state club leader, presided. The purpose of the meeting was that all the members might become acquainted.

Small Schoolboy (to his father): The world is round, isn't it?

Father: Yes.

Small Schoolboy: Then if I wanted to go east, I could get there by going west, couldn't I?

Father: Yes; and you'll be a taxicab driver when you grow up.—Answers.

Tickets November 14, 1931 Middlebury Game

Student tickets may be exchanged for Reserved Seat Tickets in the Old Mill Chapel at the following times:

Friday afternoon, 1-2 o'clock.
Friday afternoon, 4-5 o'clock.

No tickets will be exchanged at the Graduate Manager's Office.

S. C. Abell,
Graduate Manager.

The grammar lesson proceeded smoothly enough until the teacher asked a small boy what kind of a noun "trousers" was.

"It's an uncommon noun," was the reply, "because its singular at the top and plural at the bottom."

SENIOR TO REPRESENT U. V. M. AT OXFORD MEET

[illegible] Mount '32 president of the Women's Student Union, is representing the University of Vermont at the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Women's Intercollegiate Association for student government which is being held at Western College for Women in Oxford, Ohio, November 12, 13 and 14 of this week.

A customer sat down to a table in a smart restaurant and tied his napkin around his neck. The manager, scandalized, called a boy and said to him:

"Try to make him understand as tactfully as possible that that's not done."

Boy (seriously to customer): "A shave or hair cut, sir?"—Bruce Every Month.

FRESH in nature's way

CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FRESHNESS and flavor in a cigarette trace right back to natural moisture.

If you overheat or process tobacco so harshly as to dry out all natural moisture you drive out freshness and flavor too.

Camel never parches or toasts the fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos it uses—they are naturally smooth, cool, mellow, with natural moisture retained. That's why the Camel Humidor Pack proves such a blessing to Camel smokers—it brings them a fine cigarette fresh to start with, and fresh to smoke.

If you don't realize what natural moisture means in genuine freshness and flavor, switch to Camels and see.

Try this mild, slow-burning, throat-friendly favorite for just one day—then leave it, if you can!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

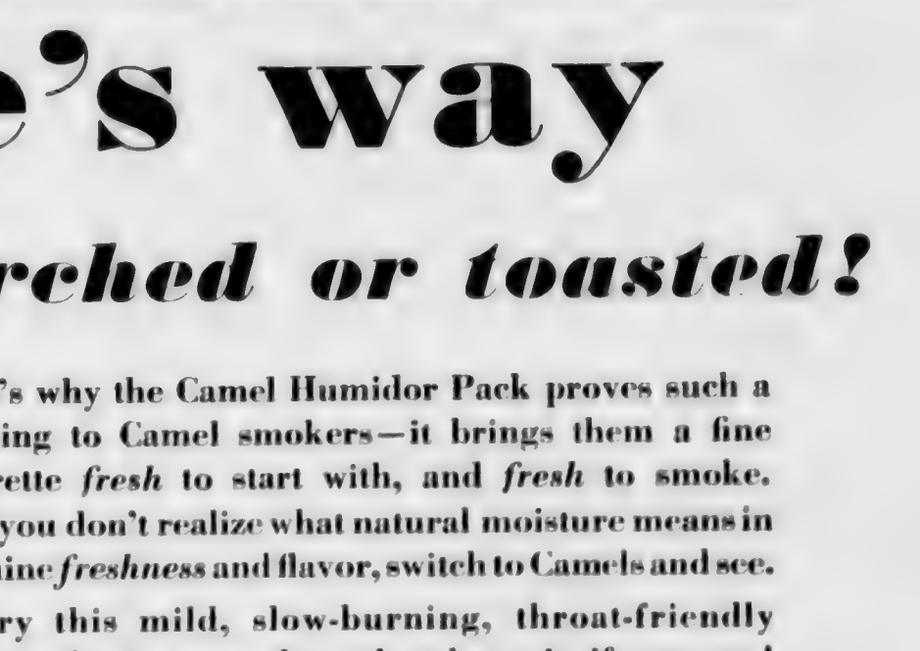
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Coast-to-Coast Radio Programs

CAMEL QUARTER HOUR, Morton Downey, Tony Wons, and Camel Orchestra, direction Jacques Renard, every night except Sunday, Columbia Broadcasting System



PRINCE ALBERT QUARTER HOUR, Alice Joy, "Old Hunch," and Prince Albert Orchestra, direction Paul Van Loan, every night except Sunday, N. B. C. Red Network

See local paper for time

CAMELS

Made* FRESH—Kept FRESH

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against sweat, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

© 1931, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

100 COUPLES DANCE AT ANNUAL MILITARY BALL

RESEARCH CLUB HEARS PROFESSOR D. B. CARROLL

VERMONT WILL DEBATE McGILL, ST. MICHAEL'S

Co-ed Notes

A certain sales manager has a loud voice. One morning, when he was shouting in his office the manager of the sector asked his secretary, "What's all this noise about?"

Mr. Blank is talking to London, sir," was the reply.

"Then who on earth doesn't he use the telephone?" asked the M. D.

Boston Courier and Guardian

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS

GOVE the Florist

184 Main St. Burlington

TELEPHONE 1613

Star Restaurant

Chinese and American Food

144 Church Street Burlington, Vt

The "GREENEBOWL"

OPENING

Four Course Dinner 60c

Friday, Nov. 13th, 5:30 to 7:30

Beginning Saturday, Nov. 14

Breakfast till 8.30
Luncheon 50c, 11.30 to 1.30
Dinner 60c, 5.30 to 7.00
Sunday Dinner 75c, 12.30 to 2.30
Sunday Supper Specials 5.30 to 8

Good Food Attractively Served

WEEKLY BOARD MAY BE ARRANGED

FACILITIES FOR PRIVATE PARTIES

388 Pearl St. Phone 4125

FREE

to the most popular U.V.M. Co-ed

A beautiful CO-ED
STORM COAT
and
A Pair of
STYLISH GAYTEES

• • •

VOTE for "Her", U. V. M. students. Simply write the name of the U. V. M. girl you consider the most popular. Bring your vote in person to the Walk-Over Shop. Let's Go.

WALK-OVER SHOP

84 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

Look Sensational

Cut Rate Prices Look

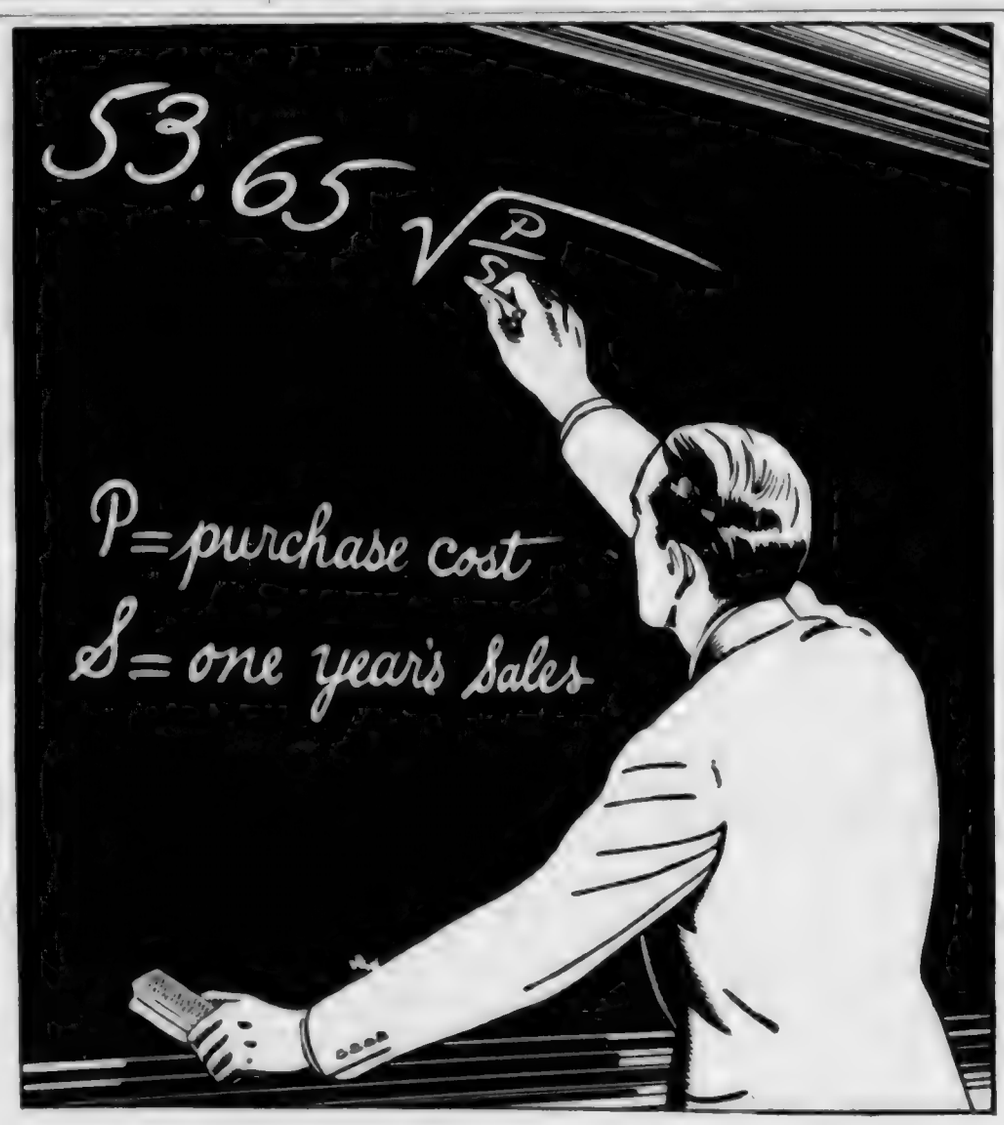
Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c, 51c, 61c
Watches 79c
Alarm Clocks, 79c, guaranteed

CIGARS
Reg. Prices Our Prices
10c 3 for 25c
3 for 25c 10c
White Owls—5c

CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs. for 37c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold

Gillette & Proback Blades
3 for 86c—10 for 70c

Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c



TOBACCO SPECIALS

All 10c pkgs. ....3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c

Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.

CITY NEWS AGENCY

140 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

A formula to end
"Mother Hubbard buying"

Bare "cupboards" or overstocked ones—are costly in any industry. In the Bell System a safe margin of telephone supplies must always be on hand to assure continuous, efficient service.

Telephone men attacked this problem of distribution in a scientific spirit—studied every angle of purchasing, shipping, warehousing, costs, methods. There emerged a mathematical formula. From this, tables have been developed showing just how much of any item should be stocked to meet requirements most economically. Result: investment in stock is kept low—turnover is speeded-up—99.25% of orders are filled without delay!

The working out of this formula is typical of the thought Bell System men give to improving the telephone art in all its phases.

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

SALE

on

Moore Fountain Pens

at the

Medical Book Store

• • •

A $5.00 Book of Tickets can be purchased at the Coffee Corner or Sandwich Cellar

SPORTING NEWS

ighting Panther Confident It Will Take Championship

ddlebury Editor Declares Grid Rivals Will Fight Hard Game—Blue and White to be Here En Masse Tomorrow—Comparative Scores Point to Panther Victory

ERMONT HAS ADVANTAGE IN FULL TEAM STRENGTH

ANTHONY BRACKETT
Middlebury College Campus")

November 13. The Mid- Vermont football teams will w on Centennial Field to ampionship of Vermont. gridiron rivalry began be- two colleges. It is no less than in the former years, teams from Middlebury and M not at a neutral point, Ver- and the enthusiasm spilled over This year no fisticuffs are but a game hard fought with both teams giving all is in order.

ddlebury should win. Comparative clearly indicate that. But in a -Middlebury contest compara- or any other sort of figures, ple import.

Neither Season Successful

ther the Vermont nor Middlebury can be termed unusually success- The Green and Gold started off in ashion by downing Union 7-0. all seers hailed Vermont as a der team that would go far in 1931. next week the Cats were beaten by Providence. Two weeks follow- also saw defeats, neither one to cially powerful colleges, St. John's 7 and Colby 7-0. Then New Hamp- trounced the Gold 42-0, to be fol- by Norwich 26-7. This last week P. I. took the measure of Vermont In fact, the only game in which Catamounts have looked especially good was the first one of the season against Union Middlebury did not open the season with so much promise. Columbia walked over the Blue team 61-0, and the next two weeks also saw defeats, Lowell Textile 21-13 and Massachusetts State 32-6 Then the Panthers managed to take the Coast Guard Academy into camp 15-0 But both Springfield and Clarkson Tech won over the Blue, 54-0 and 6-0, respectively. The last contest was close and hard fought, however, and the score might well have been the other way. At one time Middlebury had the ball on the six-inch line but failed to hit quite hard enough. Then of course the Blue and White downed Norwich last Saturday on Porter Field 31-6, the largest Middlebury-Norwich score in seven years.

Middlebury 44 Points Better

If comparisons are to be made, Middlebury would seem to be about forty four points better than U. V. M. Middlebury downed Norwich 31-6, Norwich beat Vermont 26-7, therefore Middlebury should be the sum of the two scores better, or forty-four points to the good. But more conservatively we find that Providence triumphed over both Vermont and Norwich, 27-13 and 24-0, respectively. Since Middlebury is twenty five points better than the Cadets, it is one point better than Providence, or fifteen ahead of Vermont. Then, again, Rensselaer beat Vermont 7-0 Clarkson down both R. P. I. and Middlebury 6-0. Thus if R. P. I. and Mid-

(Continued on page 6)

SIGMA PHIS THIRD TIME TOUCH FINAL VICTORS

Defeat A. T. O.'s 48-18 in Final Classic, Tupper Stars for Sigs, Williams, Brislin and Baldwin for A. T. O.

The Sigma Phis, playing their usual smooth brand of ball, decisively won the annual interfraternity touch football tournament for the third successive time last Wednesday morning at Centennial Field when they defeated the A. T. O.'s by the score of 48-18.

It was a fast and hard-played game throughout, with the Sigs having a continued edge on their opponents. The Sig team play was beautiful, and the A. T. O.'s, though sometimes brilliant, were inclined to be erratic.

Bussey kicked off for A. T. O. and Tupper, who got the ball, ran half the field to the A. T. O. 30-yard line only to have his pass intercepted by Brislin. A. T. O., seeming unable to gain appreciably, after several incompletes elected to kick. Bussey booted the ball to Tupper, who made another pretty run-back of 40 yards. It was soon after this that the Sigs got their first score. After several pass plays had put the ball in scoring distance, Freddy tossed a pass which, having bounced off the hands of two A. T. O.'s, bounced into the arms of Brute Billings. Brute bounced over the goal for the counter, and the score was 6-0 for the Sigs.

Tupper kicked off the ball and also his shoe. Brislin made the catch and A. T. O. gained 20 yards on the run-back. Two plays later came the first A. T. O. touchdown on a well timed triple pass, Baldwin to Williams to Bussey. Score 6-6.

Bussey kicked to Busch, who passed to Tupper, and presto, the Sigs had another score, Freddy running half the length of the field.

Busch made a beautiful kick-off. A. T. O., having brought the ball to mid-field, with one down left decided to kick. The Sigs made several incompletes and then, on the last play of the quarter, appeared to have scored on a pass to Thompson, but he had been touched by Bussey. Score after first quarter 12-6.

Early in the second quarter Busch intercepted an A. T. O. pass, and on the next play Tupper passed to Morse for the third Sig score. Busch kicked another nice spiral and Baldwin, who caught it, was nabbed by Billings on the 8-yard stripe. A. T. O. kicked and Tupper, getting the ball, cantered down the field and passed over the goal line to Dunn for another touchdown. Score 18-6.

For quite a time the ball see-sawed back and forth with neither side able to score. Thompson collided with his teammate, Tupper, and had his wind knocked out. He recovered in a few minutes, however, and gamely went on playing.

Then the A. T. O.'s got another score when Williams intercepted a Sig pass. Baldwin kicked and Busch speeded down the sidelines and passed to Grant for what seemed to be another Sig touchdown, but Busch had stepped outside. On the last play of the half Tupper shot a long pass to Billings, who was, however, tagged one yard from the goal. Score at half 24-12.

During the half the spectators, who had turned out in quite good numbers, climbed to the top of the east stand, where they watched the varsity scrimmaging in preparation for the Middlebury game.

(Continued on page 6)

Kittens Beat Plebes 42-0 in Annual State Classic

Lanahan, Schmarr and Rock Star for Vermont as Yearlings Win on Armistice Day

CHAMP TEAM IS TRIBUTE TO MENTOR JOHN BURKE

STATISTICS OF THE GAME

	Vt.	Norwich
First downs	24	1
Yards by rushing	399	22
Forward passes	11	7
Forward passes completed	7	2
Yards gained by forwards	106	13
Forwards intercepted by	2	3
Lateral passes	3	0
Laterals completed	3	0
Yards gained by laterals	34	0
Number of punts	1	7
*Average distance of punts	38	27.5
Runback of punts, yards	59	0
Fumbles	4	5
Own fumbles recovered	2	3
Penalties	4	2
Yards lost penalties	40	10

*From point where ball is kicked.

By NORMAN MYERS

Before a large holiday crowd at Centennial Field, Wednesday, the Vermont Kittens won the state freshman football championship when they crushed the Norwich Rooks 42-0.

Although it had been expected that Vermont would take the contest such a score had not been conceded the Kittens who had seemed to lack scoring power most of the time during the season. The victory was ample revenge for the defeat of the varsity at Northfield several weeks ago.

Vermont started slowly and the first half ended 12-0, but the Kittens came back with a snarl in the last half and amassed five more touchdowns even though the third-string men were playing for some minutes. A great show of pep and spirit was evident in every play; the long runs of the backfield could not have been possible much of the time had not the line formed excellent interference.

At no time was the Vermont goal threatened and only once did Vermont kick, and that once was a beauty by Cooke, which spiraled from mid-field, outside on the 12-yard line.

To place any one man as the only star would do injustice to the great performance of the whole Kitten group. Noticeable in the steam-rolled attack was Freddy Lanahan who piloted the Green and Gold most of the afternoon. Lanahan accounted for two touchdowns, the only tow of the first half, and showed rare ability at picking his way through the interference for long gains. Schmarr at left end was invaluable when it came to grabbing passes out of nowhere. He also scored several touchdowns. Red Cooke was through the Norwich line on almost every play and played heads-up football, scooping up Norwich fumbles at crucial moments. Giardi and Herb Hally did yeoman work in smearing the Maroon plays. Trafton, Chambers and Cornell shone for Norwich.

The initial score came right at the start of the game. Vermont kicked off to Norwich. A poor pass from center hurried the Norwich kick and the ball rolled six yards into the line where Ver-

(Continued on page 6)

FIFTY-FIVE PERCENT MIDDMEN ON VARSITY

Intramural and Varsity Sports Claim Close to 100 Percent of Males, Says Director Brown

Fifty-five percent of the eligible men in the student body of 352 at Middlebury College represent the college on a varsity team, according to statistics released by Prof. Arthur M. Brown, director of athletics and coach of track. The figures also show that Professor Brown's program of athletics for all undergraduates has been highly successful in the field of intramural sports, so that a total of over 89 percent of the men students are actively competing on some organized team, though computation of non-team members playing tennis, golf, and other individual sports is not included. A count of these men would doubtless bring the percentage close to the one hundred mark

Track claims the largest number of team members among the varsity sports with eighty-five men out, or 42 percent of the student body. Football is next with forty-two players, or 18 percent, and basketball and hockey follow with 27 and 26 respectively, approximately 11 percent each. Baseball, the fifth major sport, only calls out about 9 percent

Intramural basketball has the largest number competing in any one sport, with 112 in action, or a total of 34 percent of the students. Interfraternity baseball gets eighty-six men, or 26.4 percent of those eligible, but interfraternity track with seventy-four has a higher percentage of about twenty-eight, since all varsity contestants are ineligible

The winter season, when the golf links and tennis courts are not in use, puts the largest number of men on the teams, a total of 83 percent competing. In the spring, 64 percent of the students take part in the intramural sports program exclusive of those in varsity athletics and in individual or non-competitive athletics

Braeburns
Are Like That

There's something impressive about the PROM TUX. Something sincere, sure and suave. Yet a Braeburn usually listens to reason.

The Prom Tux
$35

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 CHURCH STREET
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

100%
CAMELHAIR PILE
OVERCOAT

Belt all around---natural and brown colors

$25

TURKS
Burlington Vt

CHARTER HOUSE
is a "buy" word on every campus because college men know they get more value, better style, finer fabrics and excellent tailoring when they buy a Charter House suit

Charter House
SUITS
$35 $40 $45
Two Pairs of Trousers

Miles & Perry Co.
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Since 1898

PANTHER CONFIDENT OF GRIDIRON CHAMPIONSHIP

Continued from page 1

Cats' Full Strength Better

All Vermont to Game

KITTENS BEAT PLEBES IN STATE CLASSIC 42-0

Continued from page 1

Do we need a cut system?

SIGMA PHIS THIRD TOUCH FINAL VICTORS

(Continued from page 5)

During the second half the Sigs were a pass Busch to Thompson to

The game closed with the Sigs into their opponent's territo

Final score 48-18

H. A. Prentice refereed the game and Taylor Post acted as linesman.

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested see H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

Announcement

Zeta Chi announces the pl

Harry Farrer '33 of Rochester games at U of Rochester, F. I at Framingham, Mass., G. P.

at Bethel and the replodging

Farley '35 of Granville and S ton '34 of Windham.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the

U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor

All Work Guaranteed

BOSTONIANS Shoes for Men

B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

NEWSPAPERS MAGAZINES
GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS & GIFTS SHOP
107A Church Street
LENDING LIBRARY GIFTS

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Vandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

Prize Cups and Trophies for All Events

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

STUDENTS!
Select your Personal
CHRISTMAS CARDS
[illegible] will be assured of the Best and Most Artistic
Greetings
[illegible]
McAuliffe's
Church & College Sts.—Phone 670

"I liked Chesterfield right from the start"

"NO, I don't know a blessed thing about how cigarettes are made. But, of course, I would want the tobacco to be PURE. And then I've heard that the blending is very important. I'd want that to be done just right.

"Then the paper. I don't like paper that you can taste—or smell when it's burning. I'd want that pure too.

"Another thing. I want to smoke whenever I feel like it—without worrying about smoking too many. So I want my cigarettes MILD.

"But the main thing, of course, is TASTE. I don't care for over-sweetened cigarettes. I much prefer those that are just sweet enough.

"Chesterfield seems to satisfy in every one of these ways. That is why I'd rather have a Chesterfield."

SMOKERS tire of too much sweetness in a cigarette, and they don't like rawness. For a steady diet, they want a cigarette like CHESTERFIELD — a mild and mellow smoke, free from any over-sweetness or any harshness or bitterness. That's why more and more smokers every day are changing to CHESTERFIELD.

Good . . . they've got to be good.

© 1931, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

ISSUE 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1931 | NUMBER 17

alth Week Program ill be Concluded by omen's Mass Meeting

aborating With National ovement, Health Council ponsors Four-Day Campaign Among Women

HION SHOW CLIMAXES EEK'S PLAN OF EVENTS

program, culminating in a which includes a fashion dancing, and announcement queen, to be held in the uesday night, November 24, sponsored by the Health Council, ment of the Women's Athletic in collaboration with National Week, and will start Thursday, November 19.

students will be asked, fraternity and house meetings, each with cards with those habits are customary, for four days beginning Thursday, November 19. This is done not with an effort towards a record, but with the idea in that the Health Council is interested in discovering what the general habits are and which ones need the most emphasis. The cards are to be signed only by the class numerals for statistical purposes.

During the four days posters and placards will be in evidence on the following: Nutrition, carriage, rest, exercise and mental hygiene.

Everyone is invited to attend a special lecture will be given by Prof. Bertha on "Nutrition," at her home at 10 Prospect Street, Thursday afternoon, November 19, at 4 o'clock. The Council feels that many students who are eating down town or who are getting their own meals would appreciate the opportunity to learn the requirements of a balanced meal.

Eleanor Rauh '32, Helen LeBaron '32, and Beverly Householder '30, all of whom are known to the students, will address the mass meeting which comes at the climax of the campaign, Tuesday evening, November 24, in the gymnasium at 8. The main event of the evening, a fashion show, to be modeled by twelve of Vermont's best looking and best standing and speaking in terms of posture, will feature sport suits, dress and sport costumes for afternoon and evening dresses.

The winners of the prize dance, with music furnished by an orthophonic victrola, depend on ease and grace, coupled with reasonably good posture and pleasing appearance, will be presented with a silver cup.

The posture queen, selected from the student body by the Health Council on the basis of posture at all times, general appearance, health and proportion, will be presented with a statuette "Peter Perfect."

REE GIVE SIX TALKS FOUR RURAL CHURCHES

Different addresses in four churches in rural Vermont were given when Paul Cross '32, Clarence Drown '34, and Hill '35 conducted the regular morning and afternoon and evening religious sessions at Richford, Berkshire and East Richford.

The morning LaCross conducted the Union church service at Richford Methodist Church and in the afternoon Hill officiated at the 25th anniversary services of the Berkshire Center Congregational Church.

In the afternoon service at the Richford groups in the town of Richford. He is the director of the Christian Association and LaCross is the director of Religious Education.

COLLEGIANS MEET TO FORMULATE PLANS

Farr '34 and Norma Twenty former 4-H Club under the supervision of assistant state Club Vermonters' Club House November 12.

business meeting R. R. P. Brush '35, Mary Cun- Madeline Ainsboro '35, and were named as a committee future plans. Games livened up the session.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

JUNIOR SOCIETY'S DANCE ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

Dancing to the melodies of Bob Minotti's nine-piece orchestra approximately 150 couples enjoyed a pleasant evening at the University gymnasium last Saturday, the occasion being Key and Serpent's first dance of the year. The junior honorary society under the leadership of W. G. MacDonald, chairman of the dance, were highly successful in their efforts. Many Middlebury students were observed among the dancers.

ROSS WILL LECTURE ON PERSIAN ART, THURSDAY

Noted Authority Will Give Illustrated Talk With Electric Amplification

Persian Art is the subject of the third University lecture to be given by Sir E. Denison Ross, professor of Persian at the University of London, and to be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, November 19 in the University gymnasium.

The lecture will be illustrated with steropticon views showing the development of Persian art and its masterpieces. An amplifier will be installed for the occasion.

"Sir E. Denison Ross has recently given to the New York Times an interesting interview which indicates that though he is the author of many scholarly studies in history, art and folk-lore, he is far from being a "Cloistered scholar." Sir Denison as an explorer has crossed a part of the Persian Desert, which is said to have not been crossed before by a white man.

He would do away with national armies and navies, with all submarines and the use of gas in warfare. Peace would depend upon an international police force, recruited from all nations, and with an international fleet.

In line with his desire to facilitate friendly relations and easy intercourse between the nations he advises a striking scheme for a new universal sign language based upon Chinese characters. One thousand signs would be ample and he would begin with a limited number, used for public notices on highways, and in railroad stations, etc. Such notices would be posted in the language of the country and in the universal script.

For a Universal Language

Thus the public would become accustomed to a universal code and the obstacles besetting Esperanto and other universal languages would be avoided. For this purpose the Chinese ideograph is best adapted, thinks Sir Denison. He has found that children learn them rapidly

(Continued on page 4)

Frosh Debaters Take Unanimous Decision in Annual Sophomore Tilt

Bailey Cup Winners Argue in Favor of Subsidizing Athletics at University of Vermont

WRIGHT, PATTERSON AND MYERS REPRESENT 1935

Contending that the student with athletic ability should be given the same opportunity as one who excells in other preparatory school activities, the freshman debating team won possession of the Bailey Cup for the coming year by taking a 3 to 0 decision from the sophomores in the auditorium of the Robert Hull Fleming Museum last Thursday evening.

The freshman team composed of Stuart Wright, George Patterson and William Myers upheld the affirmative side of the question "Resolved that the University of Vermont should subsidize athletes." The sophomores arguing for the negative were George Burrows, Realtus McCuin and Charles Libby.

Prof. Leon Dean of the English department presided with Professors Daniel Carroll of the political science department, Alfred Buehler of the economics department and Lloyd Woodward of the physics department as judges.

The Debate

The affirmative argued that athletes are not now given an equal opportunity with other students at the University because of the fact that scholarships are awarded by the University for proficiency in studies, in debating, in high school newspaper work and in oratory but that no scholarships are given for proficiency in athletics.

Encourage Good Athletes

They proposed that the boy who is exceptionally good in high school athletics should be encouraged to come to the University through means of competitive state-wide contests, rewards for which would consist of University scholarships to be presented upon recommendation of the high school principal. Receipt of a scholarship would not obligate the recipient to play on any team but it would be assumed that those good enough to be chosen for the honor would wish to continue their activity in sports after they entered college. Included in the plan would be the awarding of money prizes to deserving athletes at the end of the College year on the same basis as

(Continued on page 4)

Here's Where Your Money Goes! Student Activities To Get $33,030

Activity Fee, Paid by 1,101 Men and Women, Allotted in Several Directions—Men's Athletic Association Gets Highest Amount—Winnowings Receives Lowest Grant—Three Activities to Benefit by None of Men's Fees

The gross receipts for the year 1931-'32 from student activity fees paid by 1,101 students in the University amounts to $33,030. Of all the men and women who are required to pay the yearly tax of $30 only 132 are exempt by reason of their having been at least four years in a University course or because they hold a bachelor's degree or are otherwise exempt.

Of the total amount of $33,030 the greatest amount goes to the Men's Athletic Association which uses $15,582.50. The physical education department, which has been allotted $4,120 finds itself second on the list of expensive activities while the CYNIC comes third with $3,303 as its budget from the student fee. There is a class tax amounting to $3,078. The lowest amount for all student-operated activities goes to the Winnowings from the Mill, the literary magazine.

The men's fees total $17,580 while the women bear $15,450 of the burden of the activity appropriation. The group assessments are as follows: Academic men, 533—$15,990; academic women, 356—$10,680; teacher training men, 30—$900; teacher training women, 158—$4,740; medical men, 23—$690; medical women, 1—$30.

Activity Allotments

M. A. A.	$15,582.00
Physical Education	4,120.00
CYNIC	3,303.00
Class tax	3,078.00
W. A. A.	2,703.75
Debating	740.50
Men debtor balance	352.76
Women credit balance	113.31
Musical clubs	644.60
Men debtor balance, 1930-31	94.66
Women credit balance, 1930-31	168.89
R. O. T. C. band	550.50
Wig and Buskin	440.40
Student Senate / Student Union	309.00
S. S. credit balance	147.96
S. U. credit balance	195.34
Hockey Rink	275.25
Credit balance	49.62
Fencing	263.70
Credit balance	49.06
Agricultural judging team	205.10
Men's rifle team	200.00
Debtor balance	70.39
Winnowings from the Mill	165.15
Book rental, T. T.	150.00
Key and Serpent	146.50
Cap and gown rental, T. T.	75.00
Unassigned	77.05

(Continued on page 6)

Homecoming Day Brings Alumni to Eventful Week-end

Fraternities Send Out 1,400 Invitations to Parents and Graduates Who Return to Witness Middlebury Game and Participate in Pep Rally and Dances

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE STUDENTS THRONG CITY

Alumni, parents and friends of the University numbering about 200 returned to Vermont during the Homecoming Day celebration Saturday which was, according to poster announcements, under the direction of Key and Serpent the junior class honorary society. Invitation cards were sent out by the thirteen fraternities to nearly 1,400 alumni and parents asking them to participate in the week-end whose main feature was the grid battle between Vermont and Middlebury and whose other festivities included the torch-light parade to the City Hall, the pep rally, the Key and Serpent and fraternity dances.

Entertained at Fraternities

The homecoming program was organized on the same principle as similar events in other institutions. Visiting guests of the University were welcomed by chapter associates and by members of the class societies. Lodging was secured for them in most cases at their respective fraternities or at the local hotels. Many attended the fraternity dances and the Key and Serpent evening function while others returned to their homes after the Vermont Middlebury game.

Pep Rally and Dances

Nearly 100 students marched in torch light formation from the gymnasium to the City Hall Park, led by the R. O. T. C. band. The crowd formed about the bandstand where cheers and songs of Vermont were led by R. P. Donaghy, junior cheer leader of the Vermont outfit. Enthusiastic pep talks were given by Coach David Dunn, Prof. James Donahue, chairman of the Athletic Council and Capt. Edward M. Winant '32. At the close of the rally at the park, Kappa Sigma fraternity was presented the new Traynor Trophy by C. S. Brown '33, president of Key and Serpent society.

At the game Saturday which was attended by nearly the entire Middlebury College student body of 500, a musical tribute to Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football hero, was played by the two college band.

The events of the Homecoming Day were concluded Saturday evening by the Key and Serpent dance in the gymnasium. The orchestra was that of Bob Minotti and the chaperones were Professor and Mrs. L. W. Dean and Doctor and Mrs. C. E. Braun.

Chaperones were much in demand that day as Professor and Mrs. Dean had also served in that capacity with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Soule at the Delta Psi victrola party from 5 until 8 in the afternoon.

Sigma Phi held its annual pledge dance from 5.30 to 8.30 the same afternoon with Professor and Mrs. Paul D. Evans and Professor and Mrs. Claude L. Stineford as the chaperones. Bob Minotti's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

MORE RECEIVE WARNINGS THAN IN 1930 SAYS DEAN

Statistics Also Show Smaller Number of Scholastic Delinquents Than Two Years Ago

"Considering the total enrollment, it appears that there are fewer students under warning this year, at the start of the first semester, than two years ago; but, on the other hand, rather more than last year at the same period," declared Dean Swift as he submitted the recent under warning statistics to a CYNIC reporter.

The number of students now under warning after the conditional examinations given in September are as follows:

1932	12
1933	16
1934	29
1935	23
T.T.	11
Total	91

The freshmen under warning are composed of both those who were dropped last year and reentered, and those freshmen who were refused promotion last June. The sophomores under warning consist of both those who were dropped last year and reentered and those freshmen who were under warning last June.

For comparison, Dean Swift also submitted the statistics for former years:

Under warning:

Sept.	Srs.	Jrs.	Soph.	Frosh.	T.T.	T.
1930	5	12	27	17	11	72
1929	8	17	52	17	9	103
1928	7	17	44	20	12	100

After December grades are in the faculty will place under warning those freshmen who are failing two or more courses and will drop a few whose cases appear hopeless at this time.

The following excerpts from the University scholastic regulations concern students who are low in their courses:

7. A student who is delinquent in scholarship shall be given a "warning" by the faculty of the College in which he is enrolled. While under warning the student shall be debarred from membership in athletic teams, musical, dramatic, and debating clubs, publication boards, and other analogous University organizations until improvement in scholastic standing shall warrant participation in such extra scholastic activities.

8. Due notice of removal from under warning must be received by the student from the secretary of the College in which he is enrolled, before full University standing is regained. Parents of students under warning will be notified. Notices of warnings and of their removal will be mailed to the last local address of record and the student will be considered to have been officially notified when the notice is mailed whether it is actually received or not. Duplicates of these notices will be mailed to the president of the University and to the chairmen of the Senate Committees on athletics, non-athletic activities, and scholarships.

9. In the College of Arts and Sciences, removal of a student from under warning is at the discretion of the faculty. In general the Studies Committee to which power is delegated does not remove students from under warning unless the grades of more than one-half the total hours of entire live record are C or better and unless work done during the preceding semester is of satisfactory grade.

There is no index of character so sure as the voice.—DISRAELI in Tancred.

MUSIC GROUPS TO GIVE PRE-HOLIDAY CONCERT

Miss Charlotte de Volt, violin soloist, the University Orchestra, and Men's Double Quartet, will assist the Women's Glee Club in its annual pre-Thanksgiving concert to be presented at the Robert Hull Fleming Museum auditorium, Friday evening, November 20, at 8.15 o'clock.

The program released by Prof. H. G. Bennett, who is in charge, follows:

How Merrily We Live — Estes
The Silver Swan — Gibbons
The Nightingale — Weelkes

THE WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

Minuet in G Minor — Bach
Sarabande in D Minor — Bach
German Dances Op. 33, Nos. 6 and 7 — Schubert

THE UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA

Lift Thine Eyes from "Elijah" — Mendelssohn
The Straw Guy
See the Gipsy Munching Cheese
Hungarian Folk Songs harmonized by — Kodaly

THE WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

Minuet in G Major — Beethoven
Tambourin — Rameau

MISS DEVOLT
Accompanied by members of the Orchestra

Nottingham Ale — ascribed to Purcell

THE MEN'S GLEE CLUB DOUBLE QUARTET

Wassail Song — freely arranged by Vaughan Williams

THE WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB DOUBLE QUARTET
and
THE MEN'S GLEE CLUB DOUBLE QUARTET

THE VERMONT CYNIC

EDITORS

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

News Editor for this issue S. N. Spiller

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager

Assistant Manager

FRATERNITIES AND SCHOLARS

VERMONT WILL CARRY ON

Campus Comment

That Rich Persian Art

THE FORUM

Misses Are Not Sphinxes

Oregon in Australia

From the Australian press several thousand miles out across the Pacific, one reports on the Pacific Basin debate tour conducted by students from the University of Oregon. These students are conducting this venture in an attempt to promote good-will between Australians and Americans.

The three debaters, Robert Miller, Roger Pfaff and David Wilson are winning "convincing victories" by "overwhelming majorities," and "flooring Australian representatives by popping questions like machine guns," say two Sydney newspapers, the account in one having been written by Frank Russell, world-noted journalist and one of the few men to ever interview the Pope.

From the light of the Russell pen comes a column of praise and numerous impressions and accomplishments that the Americans are making.

"The boys dislike questions from interviewers," said this Australian, "designed to draw replies as to whether Australians are like Englishmen or Americans. They cannot understand this attitude.

"'Australia is a nation,' said Wilson. 'Why should you want to be like anyone but yourselves—or care what strangers think of you?'

"It was an acute remark. Provincialism shows its cloven hoof by too great a pre-occupation about what other people think," commented Russell on the adroit way in which the visitors had brought out an important international idea.

The writer praised the spirit in which the Oregon students were "lecturing, debating and inquiring, all in the interests of good-will and fellowship."

"Splendid samples of Young America, these; sincere, eager, bright youngsters, likeable and admirable, restless to learn and spreading the good-will they came to promote."

Soup kitchens and shows will be established on the campus of Oberlin College. Hunger-stricken students will find help through this work which is sponsored by the Student Council. A coffee house will be situated in the center of the campus and will dispense drinks to the hordes after they have negotiated the breadline.

Food tickets were handed out to the students after chapel. There will be entertainment to keep the spirits of these poverty-stricken students from sinking too low. But don't get excited—this is only a campus "mixer," following out the spirit of the depression.

A Chinese witness at Liverpool, Eng., County Court recently concluded the Chinese oath with the words: "And if I do not speak the truth, may my soul be dashed into a thousand pieces even as this saucer." At the same time he threw the saucer on the floor. The saucer, however, rebounded intact, and two further attempts to break it proved equally unsuccessful. It was not until the witness kneit down and hammered the saucer on the floor that it broke.—Norwich Union

Being Collegiate

Dance or Damage?

College Marriages

Wisdom by Wave-Length

urlington Symphony Orchestra Will Give Concert November 22 leading musical organiza- ton Symphony Orchestra sixty five members is now rst program to be given ternoon, November 22, at ears the University of be represented in the per- rchestra by members of l students.

following are members : Miss Frieda Harris, Jeanette Jerome, N. L. V. Rogers, David Jenks, Ruth Wood, Robert and Cowles, F. Foster.

Katherine Gutchell will be the at the first concert, presenting a piano solos.

Program

he orchestral program will include Franz Schubert's Symphony in B minor, Verdi's Jean D'Arc, Overture. Borodin's Polovetzian Dances from "Prince Igar," the beautiful Liebestraum of Franz Liszt and the "Song of India" by Rimsky-Korsakoff. A new composition by Ketelbey of England which bears the title of "By the Blue Hawaiian Waters" will be heard here for the first time and promises to be a real novelty. Conductor Joseph F. Lechnyr who organized the Symphony in 1922, is the director of Vermont's crack R. O. T. C. Band.

Students of the University can purchase special tickets for $1.00 for this season at the Book Store in the Old Mill.

Bits of Bunk

epping from a taxi in front of the s yesterday, a hurrying author pre- ed the driver with a twenty-dollar to pay a meter charge of $1.10. The er snorted, and remarked that it was irst twenty he had seen since shortly e the war, and to expect him to ge it amounted to mockery. The nger turned to an actor shading s on the Lambs stoop, and asked a dollar and a quarter.

I had a dollar and a quarter," re- ed the actor, "do you think I'd im- hanging around here?"—New Morning Telegraph.

d Giles had worked nearly forty s gardener and odd-job man, and apparently contented, until one day added the care of the poul- to old fellow's duties.

I set son to write on each egg the and the name of the hen that laid ed the employer.

following day Giles approached his set e hearing," he said.

ing." Why?" asked the other.

Well," came the answer, "I've done everything on this estate for the sixty years, but I bain't going to be slave to your blooming hens."

Yes, said the self-made man. "I was without a mother and father at nine s old and ever since I've had to battle e for myself."

How did you manage to support your- at first months?"

I married a baby show and won the prize.—Laval Monthly.

A porter newly employed by a large m spent his first day moving heavy filing cabinets. At quitting time he approached the head porter and said: ister, are you sure you got me down the pay roll?"

The head porter looked over his list of mes. "Yes," he said, "here you are— mson Odas Simpson. That's right, it."

Yes boss, that's right," said the new I just thought maybe you had Odas Sampson."

Two men, one decidedly glum of met on the street.

's business?" the first asked one.

the pessimist replied. "I an ambulance twelve miles, lawyer in it."—American anding on the corner, pay- m to anyone. He shook ntly and emphatically ex- no, no, no, no, no!"

paused and gazed at him he paid them no attention ed to exclaim: "No, No.

er shook him by the arm What's the matter, my all" came the reply. "I'm on a vacation."

arriving in this country after to the continent was asked on by the customs official port—"Anything to de-replied, sweetly, "nothing." lum," said the official, "am that the fur tail I see hang- your coat is your own?"

Any sophomores wishing to scrub the business side of the 1933 Ariel see G. M. MacKenzie at Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested see H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

A. S. M. E. GROUP HEARS PROFESSOR W. T. FULTON

A meeting of the Student Branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers was held November 15. Prof. W. T. Fulton talked on the subject "Modern Methods of Air Conditioning." He discussed the standard methods in use at present and also spoke of a new method by the Silica Gel process. Group discussion which followed the talk emphasized the present tendency toward humidifying our fair buildings.

Mrs Reed (with newspaper): It says here that a woman in Omaha has just cremated her third husband.

Miss Willing Heigho! Isn't that just the way? Some of us can't get one and other women have husbands to burn.—Boston Transcript.

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.
Two doughnuts and all the coffee you desire for 10 cents.
Brownies
Cup Cakes
Pastries
Sodas
LUNCHES

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

GOOD-BYE TEXTS

A trend in education has been to do without any text books. The experiment has been definitely established at the Ohio State University Elementary School. There are no definite books in history, geography and kindred subjects. Understanding of the subjects is obtained by projects and class discussion.

In certain classes it is both possible and desirable to do without text books. But, to replace text books a variety of opinions and books should be digested by the class. In this way the class can get many sides of the same subject. To coordinate these many and often paradoxical opinions should became the duty of the professor of the subject. The trend will undoubtedly spread, but it is highly doubtful whether it will become universal.—B. U. News.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

DUKE UNIVERSITY
School of Medicine
DURHAM, N. C.

Applications for admission to the first and third year medical classes entering October 1, 1932 should be sent as soon as possible, and will be considered in the order of receipt. The entrance qualifications are intelligence, character, two years of college work and the requirements for grade A medical schools. Catalogues and application forms may be obtained from the Dean.

"Of course I smoke Luckies — they're kind to my throat"

"Of course I smoke Luckies—I thought everybody did. They're kind to my throat—you don't hear them in the microphone. And that's a very neat little handle on your new Cellophane wrapper."

Ina Claire

Ina Claire wasn't content with being an acknowledged ruler of the American stage—now she's capturing Hollywood, too! Here she is in one of those stunning Chanel creations she wears in Samuel Goldwyn's production, "The Greeks Had A Word For It," a United Artists' picture. Don't miss that picture.

* * * * * *

Made of the finest tobaccos—The Cream of many Crops—LUCKY STRIKE alone offers the throat protection of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays—the process that expels certain harsh, biting irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

★Is Miss Claire's Statement Paid For?

You may be interested in knowing that not one cent was paid to Miss Claire to make the above statement. Miss Claire has been a smoker of LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes for 5 years. We hope the publicity herewith given will be as beneficial to her and to Samuel Goldwyn and United Artists, her producers, as her endorsement of LUCKIES is to you and to us.

Copr. 1931, The American Tobacco Co.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE; 60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras, and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N.B.C. networks.

MOISTURE-PROOF CELLOPHANE
Sealed Tight—Ever Right
The Unique Humidor Package
Zip—And it's open!

See the new notched tab on the top of the package. Hold down one half with your thumb. Tear off the other half. Simple. Quick. Zip! That's all. Unique! Wrapped in dust-proof, moisture-proof, germ-proof Cellophane. Clean, protected, neat, FRESH!—what could be more modern than LUCKIES' improved Humidor package—so easy to open! Ladies—the LUCKY TAB is—your finger nail protection.

Twelve U. V. M. Fraternities Have Definite Study Rules For Members

SENIORS RECEIVE LISTS OF REQUIRED READINGS

YOUTH AND THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

MELLIE

AUGUSTA COHEN, IS ASST MANAGER OF DEBATING

NOTICE

Members of all classes are eligible to try out for Bluestockings. More contributions will be welcome. Try outs will close on Thanksgiving Day.

FENCING

There will be a meeting of all those interested in fencing at four o'clock on Wednesday in the wrestling room of the gymnasium.

A meeting of the Vermont Rifles will be held at 1.30 on Wednesday in the gymnasium. All sophomores interested please report.

Proofs of Ariel photos must be called for at the Book Store as soon as possible. Bring receipts.

To Scout or Not to Scout?

Although football scouting has come in for much discussion and criticism during the past few years, it is almost unanimously agreed that among the nation's foremost coaches that the practice is a benefit to the game, according to Lee Cogle in an article, "Abolish Football Scouting" published in the December issue of Humor.

The old statement that "football would be more interesting for the spectator if the coach would cease to worry about what the opposition will do, or fail to do, next Saturday, and devote all his time and thought on preparation of his own squad for the game," is disproved in a number of instances.

General opinion on the subject from the statements of a number of coaches, bring to light that football scouting as a practice can be successfully eliminated. The point that the practice, properly controlled, is a benefit rather than an evil is also made.

On the subject of killing the practice of football scouting Heartly Anderson Notre Dame's new coach says: "Alumni and friends attending other games during the course of a season, will not refrain from sending charts and information to the head coach at their own institution."

In the opinion of "Rip" Miller, Navy coach, scouting gives the weaker teams an opportunity to build their defenses, and tends to equalize competition.

"Chuck" Meehan states: "It is not uncommon to see ten or twelve scouts seated together in the press box at any of N. Y. U.'s games and I am convinced that scouting, when done in an ethical and sportsmanlike manner, makes it possible for the public to see more interesting football."

Dick Hanley, Northwestern coach, also favors the scouting system. He says: "Legitimate scouting provides for planned offense and defense, and gives us the skillful game we have today rather than a hit and miss scramble. There are advantages to be gained by all concerned.

FROSH DEBATERS TAKE BAILEY CUP FROM SOPHS

(Continued from page 1)

Good Teams Advantageous

The freshmen in such a case, the affirmative speakers would be the speaking of more popular teams which would bring greater publicity and greater publicity would bring greater gate receipts which would [illegible] deficits similar to that incurred by the University last year and would also enable the University to spend more money on other College activities.

Overemphasis Dangerous

The negative speakers maintained that subsidization would overemphasize athletics and put sports on a professional basis instead of making them subsidiary to the [illegible] of College life as the [illegible] intended it to be.

Subsidizing athletes would cost immense sums of money, the negative speakers declared, and in addition there would be no [illegible] price to offer athletes as the larger [illegible] with more money would still get the best ones, as they could offer larger inducements than a small college like the University of Vermont. If Vermont did go after the best athletes the cost of getting them here would be so heavy that athletics would show even a greater deficit than has been the case in recent years. Subsidization of athletes in itself would not bring larger gate receipts to the University they declared.

Bona Fide Students Better

The negative further pointed out that it is much better to have a team of bona fide students who are doing their best for the College honor, even though they lose games, rather than to have a team of subsidized players who win games. Although the Vermont football team was nothing to brag about this year, the freshman team and the varsity baseball and basketball records should be viewed with pride, they declared.

The debate consisted of a series of seven minute constructive speeches with five minutes allowed for each debater in rebuttal. Speeches were judged on merits of debate and not in regard to the question.

This year's award to the freshman team is the second consecutive victory for first year debaters, the class of 1934 having received the cup last year.

Ephriam: What yo' all doin' wit dat papah, Mose?

Mose: Ise writing' mah gal a lettah.

Ephraim: Go 'way, Ebony, yo' kaint write.

Mose: At's all right, Smoke, mah gal kaint read.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

What if one of my scouts reports that a kicker is slow in getting his punts away? And then we are successful in blocking some of them? That kicker will profit thereby, for he will learn to get his kicks away more quickly. What if we find a ball carrier who can run in only one direction and stop him? That player will learn from experience that he has neglected one phase of the game."—Sports Editor, College Humor.

ROSS WILL LECTURE ON PERSIAN ART THURSDAY

(Continued from page 1

and "think it great fun," and the [illegible] of 1,000 Chinese characters w[illegible] hardship for school children.

A Liberal Scholar

The liberal character of Professor Ross scholarship is finely exemplified in a charmingly written popular work called "The Persians." This delightful little volume contains besides a sketch of Persian history, a series of journeys on Persian highways, and short sketches on the art, architecture, ceramics, [illegible] and paintings of Persia, also a [illegible] on Persian literature. "A juicy book" says the New York Times, "as full of interest as of information."

"The Persians" giving in popular form all that is needed for understanding Persian art, provides an excellent background for the illustrated University lecture in Persian art to be given by Sir Denison, Thursday evening.

Co-ed Notes

Classes in soccer are being held another week, on every day but Wednesday, when freshmen have classes in [illegible]ing.

Freshman hygiene lectures began yesterday. Dr. Katherine McSweeney is conducting the first twelve lectures which are held in the auditorium of the [illegible] museum every Monday and Tuesday.

Classes in rifle practised firing on Monday, November 16.

New Yorker (incredulously) And you mean to say that in California you have three hundred sixty-five days of sunshine a year?

The man from Los Angeles: I sure do so, sir, and that's a mighty conservative estimate.—Sunshine.

She prefers A PIPE

(For you)

HER name is Ruth. She's a popular co-ed on a famous campus. Yes she'll have a cigarette, thank you and smoke it very prettily). But for you she likes a pipe.

That's one smoke that's still a man's smoke. (And that's why she likes to see YOU smoke a pipe.)

RUTH

There's something companionable about a pipe. Friendly, cool, mellow . . . it clears your mind, puts a keen edge on your thinking.

And you sound the depths of true smoking satisfaction when you fill up its bowl with Edgeworth.

There, men, is a REAL smoke. Choice mellow burleys, cut especially for pipes—blended for the man who knows fine tobaccos. It's cool, dry, satisfying—and you'll find it first in sales, first choice of smokers, in 42 out of 54 leading colleges.

YOUR smile a pipe!

We'd like nothing better than to drop in tonight and toss our own private tin across your study table. But since that can't be, just remember that you can get Edgeworth at your dealer's—or write for free sample if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22nd St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH

SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

Look Sensational — Look Cut Rate Prices

Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c, 51c, 61c

Watches 79c

Alarm Clocks, 79c, guaranteed

CIGARS
Reg. Prices 10¢ — Our Prices 2 for 25c
2 for 25c — 10c
White Owls—5c

CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs for 25c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold

Gillette & Proback Blades
3 for 36c—10 for 70c

Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c

TOBACCO SPECIALS

All 10c pkgs. ...3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c

Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.

CITY NEWS AGENCY

108 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

Christmas is drawing near

The University Store

WILL HAVE MANY ATTRACTIVE ITEMS
AT UNUSUAL PRICES
FOR SALE THIS YEAR
ALSO A SPECIAL LINE OF UNIVERSITY SEAL
CHRISTMAS CARDS

SPORTING NEWS

ARLINGS BRING HOME STATE CHAMPIONSHIP; GOAL LINE UNCROSSED

est Material School Has Seen Recent Years Will Reenforce Next Year's Varsity

RKE PROVES ABILITY AS AN EXCELLENT COACH

... smashing victory over the ...men Wednesday brought ... most successful season in ... the U. V. M. freshman ... goal line was not crossed ... has exceeded the previous ...ed in 1926 when the un... ...outhmouth frosh vanquished ... frosh in their only set-back. ... the St. Laurence frosh ac... ...drop-kick, 3-0 victory over ... to mar the otherwise perfect ...

State Champions

... championship of course rests ... kitten aggregation. They ... St Michaels 32-0, Middlebury ... then ran wild against Norwich ... certain their title. ... scores are the probable indi... future strength in the Green ... Conference, Vermont can have ... reactions. Too often, however, ... story of good athletes and rather ... dollars. Last year was a very ... example when a corking good team ... into the record season es... by the present varsity.

... corking good spirit instilled in ... squad can only be attributed ... Johnny Burke now completing ... year here. There was some ... when the coaching staff was an... that Burke's fine record at Ver... Academy could be maintained but ... season has more than justified his ... The student body certainly ... appreciation of such honest pep ... has prevailed throughout all the ... And if you want critical opinions ... the students any time.

Galaxy of Stars

... freshman squad was made up of ... also had some training and ability ... took well to the Burke finesse. ... collection of backs would be re... to any mentor.

... Lanahan played a smart game ... the entire season. His sweep... ...ashing runs were a huge measure ... in ground gained. Outstanding ... were Libera Giardi, Johnny Reynolds ... his injury, Dante Mori, Don Rock, ... Passerini, Kingsland, McDonald, ... and Lazarus. The varsity could take pointers on the fierce tackling displayed at all times. In every game a substitute backfield carried on to perfection, every man doing a good job.

What a Line!

Usually the line of a football team is passed over because of the routine showing. Routine work it may be, but when routine is exceptionally well done then it ceases to be of that category. Such was the impregnable job the Kitten line performed. Led by Capt. Joe Hamilton, the line checked the opponents almost at will. Red Cook, Beardsley, Holley, Debellis before his resignation, Caracciola, Delfausse and Behringer stood the brunt, while the ends were well taken care of by Schmarr, Ricci, Nevulis, Libby and Sheehe. Of these Schmarr perhaps stood out by his superb ability in the phases of the passing game and defensive play.

Comparison with former stars could be quite easily made but these men themselves will place themselves in the Green and Gold history as indeed they already have done.

Season's Record

Kittens		Opponents
32	St. Michaels	0
7	Troy Conference	0
0	St. Lawrence frosh	3
20	Middlebury frosh	0
42	Norwich frosh	0
101		3

	TD	PTD	TP
Schmarr, c.	4	0	24
Lanahan, q.b.	3	0	18
Giardi, h.b.	3	0	18
Reynolds, f.b.	2	0	12
Rock, h.b.	1	2	8
Cook, t.	1	0	6
Kingsland, q.b.	1	0	6
Ricci, e.	1	0	6
Debellis, g.	0	3	3
	16	5	101

NEW FERTILIZER LAWS WILL HELP VERMONTERS

Vermont is cooperating with eleven other northeastern states in bringing about changes in fertilizer practices which will be helpful to farmers in buying fertilizers, according to L. S. Walker, chemist at Experiment Station, University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont, who has charge of the administration of the Vermont Fertilizer Control Law.

The new regulations that have been issued by the Experiment Station provide that after January 1 the nitrogen content of fertilizers must be stated in terms of nitrogen and not in terms of ammonia and that the percentages of nitrogen, phosphoric acid, and potash must be stated in whole numbers. The new regulations also provide that the analysis must be included as a part of the brand name.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

Time Out

What a game! Everybody's assets were frozen until the final whistle, then some of us had to liquidate on a one point margin. Some say it was a moral victory but the score is still 13-12, Middlebury's favor.

—time out—

For the first time in our four years a team took the field for Vermont that refused to admit defeat. The team looked like a different group. Which means that the coaches certainly worked wonders with that line last week.

—time out—

In case you are not aware of the fact, we do not write the column for the alumni weakling that uses these same ... to space its impertinent remarks.

—time out—

Girls certainly are interested in our athletics. Here's one that Anita—the girl reporter—contributed: "Many students, freshmen as well as upperclassmen, have been heard expressing the desir, that the freshmen would play the varsity football team. The opinion of everyone without exception is that the freshmen would win. Many varied reasons were given for the opinion. The main ones were that the freshmen are small and can get through the lines easily. They also have a great deal of power behind their arms." Wonder who told you, Anita?

—time out—

Rumors are flying thick and fast regarding radical changes which are scheduled to take place in the present coaching system. Although ungrounded, they serve as an indication of the awakening spirit of dissatisfaction.

—time out—

Basketball practice is scheduled to get under way tonight. May the same fortunes of the past fall the lot of our new mentor.

P. T. Dept. Names "All Touch" Team

Champs Place Entire Team on the Mythical Groups—S. A. E., A. T. O. 2 Each; K. Sig, Delta Psi One Each

Now that the tumult and the shouting of another touch football season has subsided and the cup is safely lodged at the Sigma Phi house once more, the question of "Who was who?" arises.

H. A. Prentice, director of physical education, and Coach Archie Post who officiated at most of the games have chosen from the various players two All Teams for this year. Their choices are as follows:

First Team

Tupper, (Capt.)	Sigma Phi
Williams	A. T. O.
Tomassetti	S. A. E.
Billings	Sigma Phi
Busch	Sigma Phi
Wright	Sigma Nu
Wilson	Delta Psi

Second Team

Mulcahy, (Capt.)	S. A. E.
Grant	Sigma Phi
Thompson	Sigma Phi
Morse	Sigma Phi
Dunn	Sigma Phi
Brislin	A. T. O.
Pires	Kappa Sigma

These men were chosen for all around ability, leadership, scoring power, speed, cool headedness, and sportsmanship.

It may be noticed that every Sigma Phi player is given a place on one of the two teams. Mr. Prentice explained this saying: "All the leading teams, Sigma Phi, S. A. E., A. T. O., and Sigma Nu, were very good. However, the Sigma Phi's played the best touch football this year we have ever seen. Their game was the most open and was nearest to the ideal touch football game which we are trying to develop."

Evolution in Hawaii

"I believe," said Doctor Shapiro, "that the Chinese-Hawaiians are a good cross; however, that is not our idea in this research. Our principle concern is work on the laws of inheritance—a genetic study. Hawaii is an excellent field and a pleasant place to work."

Work will continue for a year. Other than the fact that Chinese are taller than their parents, Shapiro refuses to make any statements as to any of the discoveries.

"I don't want to have to backwater later on," said Doctor Shapiro, smiling.

From this it is easy to see that Shapiro is very thorough and has sound proof to back up his statements, and maybe he is a little cautious, too.—Kaleo O Hawaii

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

Rejuvenated Cats Lose By 13-12 In State Title Tilt

Saba, Winant, Manning and Bedell Shine in Backfield With Line Showing Remarkable Improvement

CROWD ON EDGE TILL FINAL WHISTLE SHRILLS

By C. J. Lima

STATISTICS

	Vt.	Middl.
First downs	10	14
Yards gained on rushes	174	215
Forwards completed	2	1
Yards gained on forwards	20	35
Yards gained on laterals	3	65
Average distance of punts	43	33
Total runback of punts	199	83
Penalties	15	70

After the smoke of battle had cleared up last Saturday at Centennial Field it was found that Middlebury had won a hard-fought football game by the slim margin of one point. On the other hand, Vermont had accomplished what is commonly known as a moral victory by outplaying Middlebury in almost every department of the game. In the first three quarters the teams were pretty evenly matched, but in the last quarter Middlebury was powerless against a stone wall line defense.

It is not necessary to say that the game between the Panther and the Catamount elevens was the most interesting and most thrilling game played on Centennial Field for several years. Rivalling by similar circumstances was the game of 1927, when Vermont limped off the field with the state title and a 7-6 victory. There was a very large crowd at the game this year, and the weather conditions were ideal for a gridiron contest. The cheering sections of both colleges kept up a lively barrage of noise, which was befitting the rivalry between the two institutions.

After the game had started the spectators saw a rejuvenated and powerful Vermont team playing the game of its life. Every man was on his toes; every play speeded up. Incidentally much thanks is due to the freshman team which ran Middlebury signals all week when scrimmaging against the varsity. After the first quarter there was no one who could say that Middlebury would roll up a score of forty points against Vermont. Indeed the odds shifted to Vermont at this time.

It wasn't long after the opening of the second quarter that Middlebury scored her first touchdown by a perfectly timed pass to Hoyle. These sort of passes are rarely completed in games, and it is to Middlebury's credit that they were able to uncork such a wonderful pass when they needed it so much. In the punts, Vermont gained every time, thanks to the wily but powerful kicking of Ed Saba, who played quarterback for the Green and Gold eleven. Near the end of the first half Vermont pounded and passed her way into scoring position. A few seconds later and Saba scored on a difficult pass from Winant. At the half the game was anybody's game with the score 7-6 in Middlebury's favor.

Between the halves, Joe Lechnyr showed his skill by leading both the Middlebury and the Vermont bands in some colorful maneuvers. Vermont first paid tribute to the Panthers by forming an "M," and playing Middlebury's alma mater song, as both stands rose. Then the Middlebury band formed and played "Champlain" to the Vermont stands. Saturday was designated as Rockne Memorial Day, as a tribute to football's famous mentor, Knute Rockne. In commemoration, both bands played the song "Carry On For Rockne" in the shadow of the goal posts. Both stands stood on this occasion for the tribute which was so beautifully rendered.

Middlebury kicked off at the opening of the second half and Vermont soon scored again by a beautiful but of open field running by Captain Winant, who dodged through the entire Middlebury team, shaking off tacklers as he ran going nearly thirty-five yards for a touchdown. In response to this the Panthers scratched their way through Vermont by a 65 yard fighting march down the field in steam roller fashion. They made five first downs in their assault at this time. Vermont again responded and carried the ball down to Middlebury's 9-yard line, where they couldn't put it over in four downs. Saba failed to kick the placement which would have won the game for Vermont.

The fourth quarter saw a stubborn Blue and White combination stop repeated attempts on its goal line. Four time did they have to kick out of danger. During this quarter an almost entire new line went in to replace the tired but gritty men of Vermont who fought so hard for victory and earned it in their own fashion. The game ended in a rather peaceful fashion with no fights and very little horseplay.

Considering the team as a whole, there is nothing that can be said against them. They came very close to victory, closer than they have been for the last six weeks. The line redeemed a lot of previous bad qualities by some real defensive work. Praise must be extended for the exceptional work of Wood, Bowers, Farmer and Morgan. Powell, Press and Delfausse made some wonderful tackles which looked impossible. Together they made the Middlebury line look like cheese. In the backfield, Saba played a brilliant game which was stellar in its quality. Captain Winant made many fine gains for his team and deserves to be heartily congratulated. Bedell and Manning put up plucky games and, if it weren't for the latter's line plunging, Vermont would not have been as effective as they were.

First Quarter

Middlebury kicked off to Bedell of Vermont, who ran the ball down to Middlebury's 30-yard line for a 30-yard run. Vermont in a series of line plunges and an end run lost the ball to Middlebury on the latter's 22-yard line. Hoyle ran around Vermont's end for about 18 yards and a first down, the first of the game. After no gain in three downs, Yeomans kicked to Vermont's 15-yard line, where Saba ran the ball to the 20-yard line. Winant took the ball around the end for about nine yards. Saba made it a first down by an 11-yard run. Vermont made another first down when Manning took the ball. Attempting a lateral pass, Winant was nailed for a 15-yard loss, and then a 15-yard penalty put Vermont back to her own 30-yard line, where Saba kicked the ball over Middlebury's goal. Middlebury carried the ball by a series of end runs to Vermont's 20-yard line with three first downs. Vermont held for downs here and immediately got a first down before the quarter ended. Score 0-0.

(Continued on page 6)

Hi Fellas!

DIDJA GIVE THE BANDS THE ONCE OVER AT THE GAME SATURDAY?

Pretty snappy, eh! And "Joe" sure brought them up with "Carry on for Rockne"

We felt pretty good at the comments passed 'round 'cause Hayes and Carney, Inc., supplied the capes and caps for both the Vermont and Middlebury musicians

'NUF SED

Hayes & Carney, Inc.

127 Church St.

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

100%
CAMELHAIR PILE
OVERCOAT

Belt all around---natural and brown colors

$25

TURKS
Burlington Vt.

Here's Where Your Money Goes! Student Activities To Get $30,030

Continued from page 1

REJUVENATED CATAMOUNT ALL BUT CLAWS PANTHER

Continued from page 1

Second Quarter

Third Quarter

Fourth Quarter

Point after touchdown—Yeo

Substitutions: Vermont—Hayes for Bedell, Pratt for McGrath for Davis, Wilson for Powell.

Touchdowns—Hoyle (2), Yeo.

Point after touchdown—Yeo.

"I am going to fail and you will be a preferred creditor."

"Thank you," said the grateful business man. "How much do I owe you, dollar?"

"Nothing."

"Then how am I a preferred creditor?"

"You are a preferred creditor because you know now you are not going to get anything. The others won't know for several months."

Society

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Marianna Fauntleroy '37 visited at Kappa Alpha Theta House last the week-end.

ALPHA XI DELTA

The [illegible] is wearing a pin [illegible] Hampton Royal Fraternity [illegible].

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Jeanette Nash '37 was a house guest the week-end.

SIGMA GAMMA

A social meeting was held on Thursday evening at 4 Converse Terrace.

[illegible] Dow Sargent and Miss [illegible] all of the class of '31 visited in Burlington over the week-end.

KAPPA DELTA

Mildred Holmes '37 has returned from the infirmary where she has been confined for a severe attack of bronchitis.

Mildred Bartlett '37 is recovering from an operation on the throat for tonsilitis.

NO MON NO FUN

[illegible] survey recently brought to light the fact that college men and women are living their social lives in the [illegible] pattern. Bohemian ideas are still in university theory but [illegible] [illegible] practice.

Most of the students here [illegible] are not especially hurting [illegible] many cute names of Hayes and better [illegible] Many girls have not been invited out in spite of the fact that practice is [illegible] [illegible] are as consistent as in the days of plenty. Many fellows have the poor manners not [illegible] pocket and order [illegible] a drink.

Something should be done. Conversation would receive an allowance as high as that of the average college man. One of two things must happen: either the women must unanimously agree to reduce their allowance upon their escorts or they must [illegible] their vanities and [illegible] the [illegible] embarrassed will be paying [illegible] bill.

Such an arrangement as the latter would, most [illegible] to no one. If it were accepted as customary on the Hill as a temporary relief measure no embarrassment [illegible] would [illegible] at least [illegible] it a try.

If the women will not agree to either of the two plans suggested, the men should [illegible] something the dances. Think what fun it would be to say, "Sorry, we are having an [illegible] opportunity [illegible] an [illegible] arrangement to [illegible]."

[illegible] it works [illegible] Mars. No one [illegible] Lady Luncan

"I am going to preach next week," said the preacher, "and will remember that I promised to speak to you tonight on the Wonders Creation. Later said that I would not to prepare your minds by reading the seventeenth chapter of St Mark. Have your hymn [illegible] you have done so."

There [illegible] up.

"Thank you," the preacher continued. "As there are [illegible] chapters in St Mark, my subject will not be entirely inappropriate."

NO "SPECIALISTS" FOR FROSH

[illegible]

Phi Delta Theta announces the pledging of Lloyd Eads and Francis Wright of Charleston, N. H.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK
ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2870, 2871, 2872

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

"...and don't forget to keep kissable"

WITH OLD GOLDS

The marriage ceremony doesn't demand it. But the Newlyweds who take OLD GOLDS as their wedded choice in cigarettes are showing a nice consideration for each other.

For OLD GOLD is a pure-tobacco cigarette . . . 100% natural-flavored. Free of those greasy flavorings that burn into clinging, staining, and breath-tainting vapors.

To prolong that honeymoon charm, smoke pure-tobacco OLD GOLDS. No throat rasp, no smoker's cough can come from their clean, sun-ripened, nature-flavored tobaccos. And they leave no objectionable odors either on your breath or clothing, or in the room.

© P. Lorillard Co., Inc.

NO "ARTIFICIAL FLAVORS" TO TAINT THE BREATH OR STAIN THE TEETH . . . NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1931 | NUMBER 18

hanksgiving Dance Is Free For All

istian Association Plans for vent in Gymnasium and Also Discusses Campaign

Day for those students Burlington will be a time ymaking for the Vermont ciation is to sponsor its ance. It will be held the ember 26 in the Univer- dancing will be from clock and cider will be entertainment committee of Carter '33 is the head will its plans and announce the the chaperones as well as ds of the dance. It is to operation with the Y. W.

was taken Wednesday eve- meeting held by the men's the office in the Old Mill. same time L. N. Brock '34, re- head of the committee will maneuver the campus cam- the Student Union Building selected his associates. They are Carter C. H. Drown, P. J. La- D. W. Webster and L. Wood- all members of the cabinet which the campaign here December and Miss Claribel Morris '34 as co-chairman of the program is planned to hold a supper Monday December 7, preceding the two which the campaign will be run. those who are being considered appear on the program are President of Boston, head of the Alumni which has been influential in the funds for the proposed stu- activity structure here.

ROFESSOR BLANCHARD DESCRIBES "LES ALPES" eographer Stresses Difference Between Northern and Southern Alps in Illustrated Lecture entre le nord et le sud," point stressed at a lecture on Alps" given by Prof. Raoul Blan- eminent French geographer of the Grenoble, France, last Sat- evening, November 14, at the audi- the Robert Hull Fleming before an audience that filled Professor Blanchard first the northern Alps are in- the Atlantic, while the south- show a direct contrast by vir- receiving the influence of Mediterranean. The great difference two sections of the Alps is In the northern Alps, there veil of mirage and rain. There cold weather, nor is there heat. Consequently, the tem- most favorable to vegetation, luxuriant and abundant in During the winter months forests and prairies covered and ice give the impression of enchantant," so brilliant is the and when the snow melts we of great rapids and torrents power and grandeur.

Alps, continued Profes- are "les montagnes à attle raising is the most im- motion, while the southern "les montagnes à mouton," land is better suited for Here, contrary to the ct, there is little rain, lit no glaciers. Vegetation is ep being fed on alfalfa and raising of thyme and laven- important industry of the ing his lecture, the speaker, out the differences in the a transversal division, Alps from the point of meridional division. In the tains are not so high as terior, which are called The latter give the im- very unusual devastation, of big rocks, very gloomy character, and of singular shapes.

"Très Alpe"

Rousseau "Humanized" Mountains

Blanchard commented on the was not until the eighteenth

(Continued on page 4)

FRESHMAN WOMEN WIN DRAMATIC CONTEST WITH "THE BLUE RIBBON HAT"

Board of Faculty Judges Award First-year Class Verdicts Over Sophomores and Juniors

GENERAL PRESENTATION AND DELIVERY AID 1935

"The Blue Ribbon Hat" by Pauline Phelps, presented by the freshman players in the annual contest of one act class plays between the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, was awarded the Dean Cup for dramatics, according to the decision reached by Professors W. E. Aiken, L. W. Dean, and J. I. Lindsay of the English department, judging on the basis of general presentation and delivery, which were held in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum, Tuesday evening, November 17.

Blue Ribbon Hat

The winning production, "The Blue Ribbon Hat," is the amusing story of an unsuccessful actress who by means of a hat, traces her lost lover and finds happiness once more. The cast consisted of Marie Maguire, the loyal Irish maid; Mary Casey, the actress; Thelma Rosenberg, the annoyingly efficient hotel manageress; and Irene LaFountain, the helpful friend. Elizabeth Woodward '31 directed the play which was managed by Elizabeth Boright, Ruth Schafer, and Ruth Cannon.

Good Medicine

"Good Medicine," by Jack Arnold and Edwin Burke, given by the sophomores is a clever comedy in which a poor young doctor is amply rewarded for his honesty. The doctor was acted by Elisabeth Googel; the wife, by Elizabeth Fox; and the patient by Edith Place. The play was directed by Evelyn DeBrune '32, and managed by Ruth Tarleton, Mary Horak and Elvira Farman.

Barren

The junior play, "Barren" by Constance Powell-Anderson, deals with the self-sacrifice of a cotter's daughter in Northwestern Ireland who gives up her lover in America and her hopes of happiness to stay by her old mother and their bit of Irish land. Leah Gowen played the mother; Mary Petras, the daughter; Virginia Goodenough, the niece; and Ethelda Miller, the postman. The directors were Doris Skinner '32 and Gwendolyn Shafer '32. Caro Wyman, Thelma Appell and Sophie Levin were the managers.

VERMONT DEBATERS TO MEET MC GILL, ARGUING ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Wednesday evening, November 25, three Vermont varsity debaters will travel to Montreal to debate with McGill University on the subject, "Resolved that the United States should join the League of Nations."

Three Experienced Men

Paul J. LaCross '32, president of the International Relations Club, James E. Bigelow '33, who is specializing in International Relations and the Foreign Policies of the United States have been selected to represent Vermont along with R. Peardon Donaghy '33, the captain of the debating team. All three are experienced varsity debaters, members of Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary debating society, and keen rebuttalists.

Novel Debate Procedure

The debate will take place at one of McGill's famous "Mock Parliaments" in the following manner.

There will not be the usual division into the Canadian political parties of conservative, liberal, progressive and labour, but the house will only be divided into those who support the motion (the government) and those who oppose it (the opposition).

The Vermont debating team will be the leaders of the opposition, according to their stand on the subject before the house.

Two debaters from McGill will be selected to oppose them. As the subject is the League of Nations, the McGill men will lead the government.

(Continued on page 6)

Miss Eleanor Brannan Who Speaks at Fleming Museum Thanksgiving Eve.

RESEARCH CLUB PUTS IN FASCINATING EVENING WITH PROF. CARROLL

Five New Faculty Men Accepted to Membership Preceding Discussion of Vermont Legislature

By THEODORE TAYLOR

Lulled in the arms of Morpheus, the sharp ring of our commercial time-saver that Mr. Bell did so ingeniously burden us with, for the third time, interrupted any future relaxation. Raising the receiver, a metallic command blurted out instructions for my evening's activity and we innocently sauntered to Morrill Hall at the approach of eight o'clock Tuesday evening.

Entering a room on the second floor, the congregated assembly that met my eyes resembled a mass meeting of all the "Who's Who" clan upon the U. V. M. campus. As Mr. Stantiford secured the necessary permission for my entrance into this astute group, I realized I was in on a meeting of the Research Club. Timidity is too mild a description of my feelings for this assignment, but my confidence grew upon the suggestion that I make myself at home and join in the spirit of the meeting—given to me by the Secretary of the Club. The "spirit" was soon passed around, as is wont in men's meetings of this character, Robert Burns cigars took the form of "spirit" and Lady Nicotine presided with due respects to Dean Hills who acted in the capacity of chairman.

Prof. F. H. Sibley, Assoc. Prof. W. T. Fulton, Instr. W. P. Pierce, Prof. P. R. Miller and Instr. W. G. Van Note were considered and accepted members of the club, then Prof. D. B. Carroll began his lecture. Bicameral and Unicameral legislatures were treated in the subject, under the title of "Unicameral Legislature of Vermont."

Of English Origin

The history of bicameral type of government was reviewed from its English origin and its adoption by the American colonies in the national government and

(Continued on page 6)

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PRESS GROUP CONVENES

Cynic Not Represented But Norwich Guidon Sends Two Editorial Delegates

Sponsored by three fraternities and a student newspaper the annual convention of the National Collegiate Press Association will be held today and tomorrow at Lexington, Kentucky.

The Vermont CYNIC is sending no delegates, but R. A. Weston and D. E. Betts, senior editors of the Norwich University Guidon, are in attendance.

The three fraternities, Sigma Delta Chi, Theta Sigma Phi and Alpha Delta Sigma, and The Kentucky Kernel the student newspaper endorsed by the student group are planning a worthwhile meeting as well as many entertainment features all of which will make this an outstanding convention.

Program features include general meetings, speakers of note, and sectional meetings divided into three groups, weeklies and semi-weeklies, dailies, and business managers. There will also be round-table discussions for editors and business managers of college annuals. Entertainment features will include luncheons, a smoker, a dinner dance and a trip through the wonderful Blue Grass section of Kentucky, introducing them to the famous horse and stock farms and to Man O'War himself.

All delegates will be entertained at the fraternity and sorority houses during their stay in Lexington.

"SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER" UNDER PREPARATION FOR SHOWING ON DECEMBER 3

Annual Fall Dramatic Production to be Presented at Strong Theatre by University Troupe

METCALF AND PLAYERS ALL EXPRESS OPTIMISM

Rehearsals are being held at regular intervals and property managers are preparing costumes for characters who will be portrayed in "She Stoops to Conquer" the annual fall dramatic production which will be presented by University players at the Strong Theater on December 3.

During the past two weeks activity has centered about the Vermonters' Club House and the Old Mill, where both major and minor characters have been speaking their parts under the tutelage of Prof. John I. Metcalf, the coach of the play.

In discussing the comedy, Professor Metcalf described it as a very good play, well cast and bespeaking all signs of good entertainment.

A Masterpiece

Members of the cast praised the play as a masterpiece and spoke optimistically of its success.

Fred Houscholder '32, playing the part of Tony Lumpkin, "the happy-go-lucky clown of the comedy," stated that "it is a first-rate production which certainly ought to make a hit."

Portraying the character of Miss Hardcastle, who "stoops to conquer," Dorothy Murphy '33 expressed the thought that "it is surprising to note the modern ideas expressed in a comedy as old in years as is "She Stoops to Conquer."

Sam Barker '32, known as Hastings in the production, declared, "I never knew a revival such as 'She Stoops to Conquer' could be so much fun."

Stuart Wright '35, playing the scheming Hardcastle, described the play as "an interesting and masterful comedy."

Success Depends on Coaching

Attributing all success of the play to Professor Metcalf's coaching, C. Jack Libby '34, who assumes the rôle of Sir Charles Marlowe, told the CYNIC that "the success of a dramatic production depends upon the coaching which is received. Following this line of thought, the fall play should be an unqualified success."

Paul Westin '32, "Young Marlow" in the cast, added "If the audience enjoys the play as we do, everyone will be satisfied."

WOMEN WILL RETAKE STUDENT RULES EXAM

A re-examination of Student Government rules, required by Student Union Council of all freshman women who failed to take the first exam or to receive a grade of "B" on it, will be held Monday, November 23, at 4 o'clock in room 27, Williams Science Hall. If there are any errors in the following lists of those who are to take this examination, Mildred Akins should be notified at once.

T. Goodell, E. Saxie, M. McCracken, T. Jaquith, R. Wallace, E. Barker, H. McGreggs, F. Buck, M. Moore, M. McKee, E. Cook, E. Jones, M. Isham, A. Davison, M. Bartlette, H. Martin, I. Ainsworth, M. Peet, S. Littlefield, B. Fitts, T. Torrey, D. Peterson, T. Brosseau, P. Randall, P. Jones, T. Frumpkin, D. Pritchard, R. Wilkins, C. Jay, J. McNulty, E. Connelly, V. McGlynn, M. Ansboro, P. Coache, E. Davis, H. Donnelly, F. Hiscox, H. McGreggs, M. Phelps, S. Minor, E. Beckvold, P. Carricoda, P. Cotton, C. Cook, M. Cunningham, E. Dorsey, V. Dragon, V. Herr, G. Himmelstein, G. Hutchins, C. Kremski, G. Tamson, A. Lunnah, F. McDonald, M. Magee, D. Miles, E. Perry, A. Rock, B. Smith, A. Weir, R. Andrus, M. Carter, I. Caustic, J. Cheney, R. Davis, D. Grover, E. LaPierre, D. Marston, J. Olmstead, R. Owen, E. Pitts, F. Place, W. Rogers, K. Skerry, D. Spear, R. West, G. Whitney, and I. York.

One Needs Religion For Sense of Unity

So Declares Reverend Wallace, of Orleans, Wednesday Morning Chapel Leader

"Religion gives to man a sense of unity with himself, with his fellow man, with the world and with God," stated the Rev. Herbert F. Wallace, of Orleans, speaking before the faculty and student bodies Wednesday morning in the Ira Allen Chapel.

Reverend Wallace, now the pastor of the Congregational Church in Orleans, is a former professor of Hebrew at the Queen's College in Toronto.

Too many people, he emphasized, lead a life without coherence or unity. He compared the lives of men to either a brush heap composed of mere twigs and branches or to the tree which is an organic system. It is necessary to seek and find a satisfying unity and once this is found to cling to it tenaciously as the secret of inner power and peace with oneself and the external world. Religion, he pointed out, furnishes for man this unifying factor. If the old religion is broken down and worthless, it should be replaced by a modified type which satisfies the needs of the spiritual nature of personality.

U. V. M. STUDENTS ARE EXCELLENT GOVERNORS

Lillian Mount Makes Statement After Attending Women's Intercollegiate Association Convention

"The students at Vermont carry on the student government very well," stated Lillian Mount, president of Women's Student Union, who represented the University of Vermont at the twenty fourth annual meeting of the Women's Intercollegiate Association for student government, held at the Western College for Women in Oxford, Ohio, November 12, 13, and 14, where student government rules enforced at the thirty-five colleges there represented were compared and discussed.

At the first session of the convention, a very interesting address was given by Miss Florence Brewer Barckel on the topic "Should We Take More Seriously the Problem of World Disarmament." Miss Barckel answered the question by saying that disarmament should be taken very seriously because it means prosperity to the nation, whereas war means destruction and poverty.

Russian Life

In "The Social Program in Russia," the topic of a very dynamic address given by Dr. Warren Simpson Thompson, director of the Scripps Foundation of Miami University, the speaker emphasized that we should not criticize Russia too unjustly because she is in the making, she is trying out a new plan. Surely, life is on a higher level than it was when the Aristocrats held the serfs under them. We should be interested in a better social order, picking out the good things in it instead of condemning it because of its bad points. If it works out it will be a great society.

The topics discussed in the four discussion groups into which the entire body of delegates was divided were: The blanket tax, freshman attitude, regulation of campus activities and dormitory rules. Miss Mount said that the blanket tax at Vermont is as highly perfected a possible and is carried out better than in any other college.

It was found that freshman hazing is being abolished in most of the colleges but customs are still being kept, as is done here at Vermont.

From the discussion on dormitory government it appears that the honor system in social life does not work out as successfully as it does in scholarship. Co-operation is essential.

The point systems at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts are nearly perfect. The Student Union Council will soon conduct an investigation of the Vermont point system which is now inadequate.

They Do Smoke

As regards smoking, the majority of the colleges have some room where smoking is allowed. However, the colleges which do not have such a room prohibit smoking and enforce the rule very strictly. In colleges where this rule was enforced the girls complied with it in due respect of Student Government.

(Continued on page 6)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Sports Editor
Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

News Editor for this issue: J. E. Bigelow

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

[illegible] Subscription $3.00 a year

[illegible] Entered as second class matter [illegible] Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] November 18

A Student-at-Large

[illegible]

STUDENTS AND THE SINO-JAPANESE CRISIS

[illegible]

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

Bits of Bunk

[illegible]

Editorials

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

[illegible] Health Week [illegible] important department [illegible] importance by [illegible] "National" Health [illegible] Health [illegible] Afternoon [illegible] Health [illegible] all of us [illegible] opportunities [illegible] maintaining a high degree of health. Why not take [illegible]

A survey will [illegible] being given for the benefit of [illegible] pleased at frequent personal and general. The [illegible] all [illegible] competent physicians. In the [illegible] or college [illegible] it seems more or less of a "bother" [illegible] attend a [illegible] at a scheduled time [illegible] the attention [illegible] will be found that health is of as great, if not greater, immediate importance to the students than any [illegible] college. Without proof [illegible] what can one accomplish [illegible]

To stress the importance of general health and good posture, the Executive secretary, Miss Ella Gardner, a specialist in recreation, to [illegible] the [illegible] students to become them in their teaching duties [illegible] this will [illegible]. With proof should come from this [illegible]

Rose Haslow.

TO CLARIFY THE SITUATION

It is with regret that we learn that the refusal of the CYNIC to publish the results of the balloting in the recent Student Senate elections has been interpreted by some as a reflection upon the successful candidates. That CYNIC hastens to disavow any such intentions. Even were the integrity and capabilities of the members of the Senate less well known we should refuse to stoop to a campaign of personalities. To clarify the situation we restate the principles upon which our decision to refuse publicity to the list of Senate members is based.

I. It has been repeatedly emphasized in recent years that the CYNIC has no space available to publicize dormant organizations. Since an attack upon an organization for inactivity all too frequently raises other issues which, ultimately being the original question, the CYNIC has chosen simply to ignore the organizations in point.

In such instances the CYNIC has contented itself with printing in inconspicuous parts of the paper the results of their elections, as they occur from time to time. Just prior to the Student Senate elections, however, the CYNIC announced editorially that it would no longer afford to inactive societies even such publicity as this. The Senate, which does nothing from year's end to year's end, fell the first victim. It has been pointed out to us that our warning may have been too short, occurring just twenty-four hours before the Senate elections. For this reason we publish the list of Senate members elsewhere in this issue. This is the last time the CYNIC will deviate from the policy explained in this editorial.

II. Ever since the present method of nomination and election was adopted by the Senate the CYNIC has held it illegal. Thus far the position of the CYNIC has not been successfully refuted.

The constitution of Student Senate, as adopted by the men's student body in May, 1926, provides that "the new members shall be elected the first week in May by each of the classes by a plurality vote."

On April 10, 1928, the Student Senate amended the constitution, providing for a nominating committee "composed of the four class presidents and the president of the Senate to nominate the class representatives to the Senate." Instead of May, the elections have been held at the pleasure of the Senate. The new plan was held necessary to eliminate fraternity politics.

The CYNIC immediately took issue with the new plan. In a letter published May 29, 1928, a student writing in opposition to the plan made the following points:

(1.) "There is no clause, article, section or paragraph in the constitution relating to the amendment of the constitution."

(2.) "The men students still hold the sovereignty granted men under the charter of the Student Union." Hence, they retain the sovereign right of amendment of the constitution of any body they create."

(3.) A reference in the by-laws to the amendment of the constitution is noted as "an error."

"The fact that an error has been made in Section 5 of the by-laws in calling the by-laws the constitution is no ground for construing that the constitution is affected by this section."

The assertion that the present method of election would halt fraternity politics should be viewed in the light of election results. The Farmington Free Press stated that politics was evident in the results of the elections of one class at the recent polling. It is difficult to determine which class the Free Press had in mind. Out of seven seniors elected three belong to the same fraternity and three others to another. Of six juniors three belong to one fraternity and two others to another. Three of the sophomores elected are the known leaders of the fraternity combine which lost in the last class elections.

III. We call the attention of the student body to the following facts:

1. The Senate has repeatedly and wilfully violated article 7, section 3 of the constitution, which declares, "Reports of the meetings will be published in the CYNIC." The constitution provided for weekly meetings regarding the second week of college.

(2.) The functions of Student Senate are as explained by its president two years ago, now exercised by other organizations.

Seven of the present members of the Senate are members of Boulder, three of Key and Serpent, four of Gold Key. These same men are influential in numerous other organizations. Student Senate has good cause for its inactivity.

We trust that the policy of the CYNIC will not be regarded as reflecting upon the members of Student Senate. We freely admit their ability and integrity. Our policy does not concern itself with personalities. It is eager to give credit where credit is due, but only effort or achievement are entitled to credit.

"If [illegible] [illegible] Sunday [illegible] will be seen without [illegible] and [illegible]. Do you know what I marvel at most in the world? The [illegible] of [illegible] organization. There are only two forces in the world, the sword and the sword. In the long run the sword is always defeated by the mind.—Napoleon Bonaparte.

THE FORUM

Chaos Preferred to Japanese Salvation

Before the blue sky [illegible] us, before our [illegible] graves of our ancestors, we [illegible] and students solemnly swear [illegible] we [illegible] never to use any [illegible] Japanese. Should we break [illegible] Heaven and men [illegible] us.

Thus do the hysterical [illegible] Nanking, China, confirm their [illegible] fear. While in Japan we [illegible] Count Kozui Otani, the Japanese [illegible] bishop of Canterbury, expresses [illegible] of his nation in the following [illegible] ment:

"Red Russia is brooding [illegible] wherein Japan is the only stabilizing element. If America's moral [illegible] refused to Japan in the present [illegible] world may see Asia go Red [illegible] a free hand to fight chaos and [illegible].

Chaos and disorder have ruled [illegible] until they seem almost normal. [illegible] Chinese prefer chaos to salvation [illegible] race which they have traditionally [illegible] sidered inferior. It is as if the Mexicans should decide to end the lawlessness [illegible] the United States by invading [illegible]. Great danger confronts any nation [illegible] neighbor begins to preach a [illegible] ligation to save it from disaster. [illegible] Orient echoes of the days of '14. [illegible] The war horses snort.

All the pressure and authority [illegible] League of Nations seems impotent [illegible] coerce a great power like Japan. [illegible] smart M. Briand can only "state" [illegible] United States State Department [illegible] League council edge around and [illegible] the crisis with all the stately grace [illegible] dancing elephant act. Another [illegible] don nears.—Southern Californian.

Brainstorms Capitalized

The old intelligence tests the [illegible] in the army during the World War [illegible] dreams compared to that devised by [illegible] Robert Paris Carroll, of Teachers [illegible] lege, Syracuse University, built [illegible] the idea that speed in answering [illegible] has nothing to do with intelligence.

No one who has taken this [illegible] completed it; but that is part of Professor Carroll's design.

Here are some of the mental [illegible]:

"Do what the following disarranged sentences tell you to do;

"Here a and circle make [illegible] (Unscrambled: Make a circle and [illegible] here.) But eventually the poor [illegible] being examined comes to this one:

"Of antecedent this is see [illegible] pronoun verb pronoun the relative [illegible] derscore that you the a personal [illegible] of the pronoun and personal [illegible] relative write a pronoun the."

Then there are others, start [illegible] simply enough, like "Multiply [illegible] or multiply 4 by 6 and add 5 to [illegible] product," leading to this one:

"To the product of ⅝ of 64 [illegible] quotient obtained by dividing [illegible] difference between 5/16 of 96 and [illegible] by ½ of ⅜ of the sum of ⅞ of [illegible] 1/16 of 112, add 9/10 of ½ of the product [illegible] 42 and ¾ of the difference between [illegible] and 7/10 of 40." That's one nobody has answered yet. No computation can be done on paper.

Then there are words to be unscrambled; "Adl," lad, "ria," air, "olook" [illegible] which those who are attempting to [illegible] their intelligence find easy enough when they try "pernersnetiotiat" [illegible] "idnaotemnromec," it's a different story.—N. Y. U. Daily.

One of the compensations of the [illegible] War was the number of excellent [illegible] it produced. There was the better [illegible] story, as a classic instance, which [illegible] Bairnsfeather has made immortal; [illegible] certainly no better, however, and [illegible] not so deliciously subtle as the following:

A company of Tommies was detailed [illegible] guard a certain road and ambush [illegible] man patrol which was confidently expected. The instructions were to [illegible] the patrol if possible, to scatter [illegible] disintegrate it as a second choice [illegible] necessary to annihilate it. The [illegible] in general regarded the last alternative as the most certain to accomplish [illegible] desired end, and set themselves to [illegible] accordingly.

Midnight came and passed. [illegible] o'clock. Two. The patrol was [illegible] hours overdue. Three o'clock. [illegible] then four, and still they waited. [illegible] a voice, filled with concern, was [illegible] through the inky darkness:

"I 'ope as 'ow nothin' 'as 'appened [illegible] the beggars!"—Kalends.

More than half the students [illegible] University of Minnesota earn all [illegible] of their college expenses, according [illegible] study just completed by James [illegible] stattd, assistant professor of education [illegible] at that university, who will write [illegible] the young workers in his book, "[illegible] Self support," to be published by the University of Minnesota Press. Doctor [illegible] stattd found a law student cutting hair [illegible] a campus barber shop, a miner [illegible] after a paper route, and an engineer [illegible] played as a soda-jerker, and a [illegible] girl as a switchboard operator. [illegible] employed students get just as good [illegible] as those who do not work, and they [illegible] just as much interest in athletics [illegible] campus activities, it has been discovered.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

...opy of Dickens' "Posthumous" Work Presented to Billings Library

...RANSLOW '32

...arles Dickens' last work, ... Edwin Drood," which ... the time of the author's ... was professed to have ... humously, by Dickens ... a medium in the person ..., a resident of Brat... ...tly been presented to ...rary by Daniel Cady, a ...

... of 1872 Mr. James while in ... w... te a letter to himself, supposed to be from Dickens, announcing his intention to finish the book. The writing began about the middle of the next month, the medium going into his room alone either at six in the morning or at seven in the evening and sitting before his papers until he dropped into a trance. Sometimes only a half minute elapsed sometimes when weather was stormy it took him a half-hour to become the instrument of the great author. While in this state according to the man himself he was conscious of a figure sitting beside him, presumably that of Dickens. When he awoke hours after from the trance the floor would be littered with papers with the story of Edwin Drood scrawled upon them.

James was a foreman in a printing ... in Brattleboro according to the ... Dec. 11 September 11, 1875. He was a church going Episcopalian and a ... worker. He was an uneducated man according to his own assertions and totally incapable of imitating Dickens work except he had been a close student of the author. He had had no education after the age of thirteen and had never set down so much as a newspaper paragraph in his life.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle wrote an article about the alleged post humous writings of great authors in which much space was given over to the consideration of Mr. James work. It was published in the ... of December 1927. He considers the pros and cons of ... and admits that there are points of ... deception although the special correspondent of the ... was sure it was genuine. He ... the text ... and ... from the alleged ... which was which and tells that of there is any difficult in distinguishing these passages it is surely an argument in favor of the possible inspiration of this unlettered man.

The entire work covered 1,200 pages of sermon paper. When one remembers that the medium was occupied for ten hours a day at his business and that this work was carried out in a few months during his scanty hours of leisure one would say that if it were a practical joke upon the public it was one for which a considerable price was paid.

Never parched, never toasted

CAMELS are FRESH

in nature's own mild way!

EVERYONE knows now that Camels are the fresh cigarette.

If inquiry went deeper, it would reveal that Camels are the natural moisture cigarette.

That's important, because in handling fine tobaccos, when you process out natural moisture, you sacrifice freshness and flavor too.

Camel smokers needn't worry about that, because Camels are blended of fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that are never subjected to violent processing. They need no parching or toasting to make them smooth, palatable, cool.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack is such a boon to Camel smokers—it preserves the freshness, flavor, natural moisture, fragrance that are in this fine cigarette to start with.

Camels are fresh in nature's own mild way, and if you want to see what that means in unalloyed smoke-enjoyment, switch to them for just one day — then leave them, if you can!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, N. C.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Coast-to-Coast Radio Programs

CAMEL QUARTER HOUR, Morton Downey, Tony Wons, and Camel Orchestra, direction Jacques Renard, every night except Sunday, Columbia Broadcasting System

PRINCE ALBERT QUARTER HOUR, Alice Joy, "Old Hunch," and Prince Albert Orchestra, direction Paul Van Loan, every night except Sunday, N. B. C. Red Network

See local paper for time

CAMELS

Made* FRESH—Kept FRESH

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

©1931, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

Student Senate Constitution

[illegible]

By Laws

[illegible]

Election of Cheer Leader

[illegible]

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

[illegible]

PROFESSOR BLANCHARD DESCRIBES "LES ALPES"

Continued from page 1

[illegible]

Beauty Illustrated

[illegible] Professor Blanchard compared the views photographed to famous scenes. His pictures of the mountains, the atmosphere, the beauty of the village, and the contrasting with the mountains in the background.

An interesting picture was that of the village built right on the side of the mountain with the houses arranged like a staircase. La Grande Chartreuse, a very famous rock was shown, as were scenes of Grenoble, the famous watering place of Aix, was shown with its peaks encircled in mist. Napoleon's route to Elba and various mountain and valley views of historic beauty.

This was the second in the series of four French lectures sponsored by the Cercle Francaise and the University at present. Mrs. Paul D. Evans, president of the Alliance Francaise introduced as speaker Professor Blanchard who is professor of geography at Harvard University every year from September to December. He has been professor of geography at the University of Grenoble, France since 1929.

[illegible]

MUSIC GROUPS COMBINE FOR TONIGHT'S CONCERT

[illegible]

Girls Glee Club

Minuet in G Major Beethoven

Serenade in D Major Jarvis

German Dances Op. [illegible] Nos. 6 and 7 Schubert

Girls Quartette Orchestra

Life Divine Every Heart Sings Bond

Moonlight

Pale Moon Gus Van Der Grave, Mandolin Quartette Harmonica Duet, songs accompanied by Ford

Girls Glee Club

Minuet in G Major Beethoven

Graduation Lawrence

Mixed selection

accompanied by members of the Orchestra

Nottingham Ale [illegible] arranged by Purcell

Men's Glee Club Double Quartette

Wassail Song [illegible] arranged by Cheshan Williams

Women's Glee Club Double Quartette and

Men's Glee Club Double Quartette

The concert is free and open to the public

Basketball has started in gym classes in preparation for interclass basketball which will begin immediately after Thanksgiving.

THANKSGIVING CARDS
Don't Forget the Folks at Home
ISHAM NEWS & GIFT SHOP
102A Church Street
Open Evenings

A Real Trade
ALL
CHILTON PENS
AND PENCILS
In Our Stock
½ Off
While they last
All new designs and extra ink capacity
F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

SPECIAL OFFER
on
LAUNDRY BAGS
good for only November
23rd, 24th, 25th
Any Bag at Half Price
at
The University Store

KATHERINE McSWEENEY LECTURES ON HYGIENE

Freshman co-eds were told the importance of rest, proper exercise, and proper food in the lecture on "Hygiene," the general topic discussed by Dr. Katherine McSweeney, a graduate of the University of Vermont at the first of a series of health lectures given annually for the benefit of the freshman women, held in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum, Monday afternoon, November 16, at 3 o'clock.

The speaker also emphasized general living rules which enable one to live up to health habits as well as intellectual and cultural ideals, and enumerated the most common causes for ill health and ways in which they may most easily be removed.

NOTICE

Any sophomores wishing to scrub the business side of the 1933 Ariel see G. M. MacKenzie at Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested see H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

All Ariel proofs must be returned before Tuesday to a representative of the Arthur Studio, who will be in the Book Store to take orders.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

ELEANOR BRANNAN WILL SPEAK HERE ON AMERICA AT THE CROSSROADS WED.

"America at the Crossroads" is the subject of a lecture to be given in the Fleming Museum Wednesday, November 25 at 8 o'clock by Governor Brannan who will speak before the International Relations Club and the men's and women's Christian Association cabinets.

Miss Sylvia Boyd '33, vice-president of the International Club will preside as speaker of the evening and conduct a general business meeting.

The following girls are at the Commons house this week: Gwendolyn [illegible] '32, hostess; Elsie Tryon '32, hostess; Elizabeth Baker '33, hostess; Dorothy Cross '34, waitress; [illegible] Ansboro '35, and Alice Davis, freshman assistants.

The students of Coe College [illegible] are holding an intramural baseball pitching contest.—Boredom Organ

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

FREE
to the most popular U.V.M. Co-ed
A beautiful CO-ED
STORM COAT
and
A Pair of
STYLISH GAYTEES
• • •
VOTE for "Her", U. V. M. students. Simply write the name of the U. V. M. girl you consider the most popular. Bring your vote in person to the Walk-Over Shop. Let's Go.
WALK-OVER SHOP
84 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

MAIDEN FORM
A Fashion Necessity

Frocks relentlessly reveal each figure curve, making Maiden Form's gentle but firm moulding a necessity for even the slenderest of figures. Wear the exacting new styles with poise and comfort by wearing the Maiden Form uplift and girdle (or garter belt) best suited to your type.

Get the New Maiden Form Booklet from your dealer, or write MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO., Inc. Dept. C - 245 Fifth Ave.

AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE
"There is a Maiden Form foundation for every type of figure"

"Maidenette Double Support with lined band reinforcing uplift support high-waist slenderizing girdle of lastex

"New Moon" clever practical seamless [illegible] make it invisible beneath the [illegible] gowns. [illegible] batiste girdle

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE
GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS
Maiden Form has [illegible] Accept no substitute [illegible]

SPORTING NEWS

MONT HARRIERS ARE STATE TITLE WINNERS

t of Middlebury Saturday Score of 22-33 Means the First Title Since 1927

ODRUFF AND WILDER SHOW HEELS TO PACK

...cross country team won ... championship since the ...en they decisively de... squad from Middlebury ... was a fine day for a ...ermont harriers took a ...t the fact. Coach Post ...ine work with the team ...pects his team to defeat ...ow in the same fashion ...iams and Middlebury.

...ruff '34, the lithe runner ... the pack in Saturday's ...d without effort ahead ...ue and White opponent. ... the diminutive Aggie, ... to the Middlebury men ...ound the course and fin... Woodruff.

... showing this year with ... is mostly superior to the ...ear when Vermont was ...st Blue and White team. ...ish is as follows: Wood... Wilder, Vermont; Sears, ... Short, Middlebury; Brooks, ... Libby, Vermont; Harwood, ... Harwood, Vermont.

...17-43

Student Senate Members

...1932: R. W. Cobb, A. O. ... W. Jay, G. E. Wilder, J. W. ... Meehan, P. E. Westin, ...

...1933: J. E. Wood, T. F. Col... Mussuco, C. S. Brown, C. W. ...

...1934: W. B. Brislin, C. F. ... Libby, P. M. White.

...1935: K. J. Whalen.

...k the measure of the Uni... New York in a surprising up... What a blow to the east!

The Montana Kaimin.

NOW AT NEW LOW PRICES

Charter House SUITS

$35 $40 $45

Two Pairs of Trousers

Miles & Perry Co.

...GE CLOTHIERS

Since 1898

Coaches Dunn and Levine Pick All-Vermont Teams

FIRST TEAM		SECOND TEAM
Thrasher—Middlebury, co-Capt.	l.e.	Wood—Vermont
Morgan—Vermont	l.t.	Del Vecchio—Norwich
Jocelyn—Middlebury	l.g.	Farmer—Vermont
Corliss—Middlebury	c.	Fanos—Norwich, Capt.
Smith—Norwich	r.g.	Lemaire—Norwich
Hinman—Middlebury	r.t.	Lovell—Middlebury
Delfausse—Vermont	r.e.	Reid—Norwich
Holmes—Norwich	q.b.	Saba—Vermont
Winant—Vermont, co-Capt.	r.h.b.	O'Brien—Norwich
Manning—Vermont	r.f.b.	Hartwig—Middlebury
Hoyle—Middlebury	l.h.b.	Yeoman—Middlebury

KITTEN HARRIERS FRISK HOME WITH STATE TITLE

Closely Run Meet Packs Plenty of Thrills; Caracciolo Surprises Coach Tudhope

Last Saturday also spelled another state championship for the freshmen when a speedy yearling cross-country outfit crossed the finish line ahead of the Middlebury freshmen to win by the score of 31-24. The freshmen ran around the three-mile course in the rather slow time of 16 minutes and 18 seconds. Featuring this race was the outstanding performance of "Scratch" Caracciolo of Hartford, Conn., who never ran before the meet but placed eighth in the race and fifth for his team. On being questioned as to his condition, he stated, "Well, it was one perspiring grind after the first mile." "Scratch" has been playing football for the freshman team all fall.

The match was a little more closely run than the varsity race but Vermont showed a marked superiority over her rivals; nevertheless Hurley had a hard race, but in the end he triumphed over his nearest Blue and White competitor Seelye, who finished second. The men came out in the following manner: Hurley, Vermont, first; Seelye, Middlebury, second; Norton, Middlebury, third; Rogers, Vermont, fourth; and Southworth, Vermont, Merchant, Vermont, Bears, Middlebury, and Caracciolo in that order. Prior to this race the plebes have not shown very good promise when they dropped some easy meets.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

Time Out

This is championship week for the University of Vermont. The frosh brought home the bacon in the form of a yearling football title. The frosh harriers also won the hill and dale title. Then to top it all the varsity harriers turned in another state championship. Of course if you measure athletic success on a football yardstick we're not so good. But why be narrow? A good basketball team and a certain championship team in baseball will place us away up in the athletic firmament. Let's go in there.

—time out—

Tomorrow at Springfield. Will the team show the same dash and pep against Rothacker's charges as they did against the Beckmen? It's a hard question to answer. If they do it holds out great promise for next year. If they don't then the Midd game was a flash in the pan and the coaches are in for another ride. One thing is certain. The student body is behind the team win or lose and that ought to be pretty good incentive for the boys to put up a good scrap.

—time out—

Soon the would-be experts will be at it again, picking the all-American football teams. And we would want to be right in there with them, so we are going to present to our readers in the next issue an all-American team that will contain the names of at least one VERMONT player. Watch for it. We guarantee that this team would be unscored upon for it contains the greatest galaxy of names ever before assembled. If you think we are foolin' you are wrong as usually. WATCH FOR IT.

—time out—

Basketball has started under the tutelage of John Burke, past mentor of the frosh football team. And what a team! We expect the same kind of a basketball team Mr. Burke and we know you won't disappoint us.

—time out—

Outside of our own little feud with Springfield, the battle of the century will be at the Harvard Stadium tomorrow. The Crimson, undefeated, will meet a Bulldog determined to drag John Harvard down off its high pedestal. Gladiator Booth will match wits and skill with the fair-haired lad from Cambridge, Wood. What a game! And to think that all our thrills will depend on the whims of some temperamental prima donna of the microphone.

—time out—

Ted Husing famous mike artist of the Columbia Broadcasting Circuit has been barred from announcing at the Harvard Stadium. Seems as though he requested a diagram of Harvard's plays on the eve of the Army game and was promptly refused. So in picayune revenge he called Harvard's players all sorts of unnice things in his next broadcast of their game. Harvard resented this and barred him from further broadcasting. Imagine the nerve of the hombre requesting the diagrams of the plays that Harvard had gone to the difficulty of keeping secret for so long on the eve of a big game?

PRELIMINARY PRACTICE STARTS FOR RIFLE TEAM

Lieut. J. N. Kullman Coaches Squad in Elementary Phases of Target Shooting

Preliminary rifle practice for those men out for the Vermont Rifle Team started Monday and takes place every afternoon from 4.00-5.00 under the direction of Lt. J. W. Kullman, coach. This practice consists of the use of sighting bar and other elementary exercises. Actual firing on the indoor range will commence the first of next week. So far fifteen candidates have reported out. Most of these men have had previous experience last year. The first match will be fired the week of January 11. Matches will be run off thereafter until the first of April. Thus far only a tentative schedule has been arranged with the majority of the matches to be carried on by means of telegraph and a few shoulder to shoulder matches to be fired.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

VERMONT IS MEETING SPRINGFIELD IN FINAL

Vermont Catamounts With Spirits High Promise a Fight to Finish at Springfield

TEAM NEEDS SUPPORT TO SHOW AT ITS BEST

Tomorrow's game with Springfield, the last game of the season, will be of the same style as a National League baseball team playing an Eastern League team. Often in these games the underdog springs a surprise and comes out on top. In the majority of cases, however, the team which is picked to win usually does. If Vermont took the Springfield team over the bumps, the football world would be astounded. Getting down to earth, the Maroon and White outfit is highly favored to win over the Green and Gold eleven.

Springfield has shown wonderful ability during the past season and has suffered a defeat at the hands of a powerful New Hampshire eleven. On the other hand, the Maroon and White team has defeated Middlebury by an overpowering score. Springfield was the first team to beat the Massachusetts State Aggie team. Last year the Green and Gold came home with a smarting defeat of 89-0. Coach Rochacher's charges have not exhibited all individual work, but have shown wonderful teamwork in line smashes and all offensive work. "Rabbit" White is the outstanding triple threat of the Maroon and White aggregation. In the M. A. S. game he ran for two touchdowns with 30-yard and 70-yard runs.

Last Saturday's game showed much of Vermont's ability. Much teamwork was displayed and to a greater extent than before this season. Thus far, the football season has been rather unsuccessful. There has always been a rivalry between Springfield College and the University of Vermont. The rivalry is more intense during the basketball and baseball seasons because the teams are more evenly matched then.

In view of the plucky showing of the team against Middlebury, it seems that as large a crowd as possible should attend the game. The team needs as much support as it can get.

The line-ups:

SPRINGFIELD	VERMONT
Draper, l.e.	l.e., Delfausse
Cheney, l.t.	l.t., Morgan
Ball, l.g.	l.g., Pross
Kaminsky, c.	c., Bowers
Fowler, r.g.	r.g., Farmer
Batt, r.t.	r.t., Wegner or Powell
Wilson, r.e.	r.e., Wood
White, q.b.	q.b., Saba
Owl, h.b.	Bedell or Jay
Knowlton, h.b.	h.b., Winant
Hawks, f.b.	f.b., Manning

The last week-end was certainly a huge success in every way as far as Norwich was concerned. The game was the best that has been played on Sabine Field for ages. The team came out of its apparent mope and simply smeared Vermont. The Catamounts had no chance at all and their renowned Saba was hit so hard that he could not stand the pace. Norwich waded right through Vermont at the very start and kept it up for the rest of the game.

—The Norwich Guidon.

In a pre-football game student battle between members of Johns Hopkins U. and St. John's College, eighteen students were jailed, and a fire truck was stolen.

—Bowdoin Orient.

IT'S A GREAT GAME

This Business of Catering to the University Trade—and Year after Year We Get Keen Enjoyment From Doing Business with a Satisfied Group of Fellows.

This Year is no Exception. We are Here to Show You a Fine Line of Suits, Overcoats, Hats, Shoes and Haberdashery.

And We're More Than Satisfied with the Results

Drop in Any Time

Hayes & Carney, Inc.
127 CHURCH STREET

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Sport Togs

Correctness in Sport Attire is Essential to the Well Dressed Man

TURKS Burlington

RESEARCH CLUB HEARS PROF. D. B. CARROLL

(Continued from page 1)

Statistics Compared

U. V. M. STUDENTS ARE EXCELLENT GOVERNORS

(Continued from page 1)

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

STUDENTS!
Select your Personal
CHRISTMAS CARDS
where you will be assured of the Best and Most Artistic Greetings
McAuliffe's
Church & College Sts.—Phone 439

Society Notes

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

PI BETA PHI

Marion Jordan '31 and Margaret Stan[illegible] spent the week-end in town.

ALPHA XI DELTA

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

SIGMA GAMMA

KAPPA DELTA

O'NEIL TO SPEAK ON MENTAL HYGIENE BEFORE JOHN DEWEY CLUBSTERS

Faculty and Students Invited to Open Meeting to Hear Psychiatry Professor

8 o'clock in the Fleming Museum auditorium. Refreshments will be served.

VERMONT DEBATERS TO MEET McGILL NOV. 25

(Continued from page 1)

Leaders Speak in Order

The leaders of the parties will speak alternately as in an ordinary debate. The [illegible] the negative second [illegible] second speaker on the affirmative and then second on the negative. Each will speak for twelve minutes.

There will be three judges present to hear these four principal speakers, and when the last has finished, the judges [illegible] cards which [illegible] speaker or [illegible]

[illegible] the judges' vote will [illegible] announced at once but [illegible] cards have been signed. Any student in the house is at liberty to stand in his [illegible] and address or defend the question [illegible] as often as he wishes. As the subject is controversial enough, there should be some marked [illegible] difference of opinion.

Summary

When the evening draws [illegible] the speaker will then call upon [illegible] leaders of the opposition to [illegible] side. He will have the [illegible] defending the opposition's [illegible] and voicing their objections [illegible] ment.

After he has spoken, the [illegible] then call upon one of the leaders of the government to close the debate. He like manner will defend his side [illegible] fallacies in the other.

The summing up must be done in about five minutes for each side.

The house will then vote on the [illegible] bate. Not only will the students [illegible] counted but along with it the [illegible] general public who attend will [illegible] bers and sit on the Independent [illegible] but, who of course, cannot speak from the floor.

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

"They keep tasting better and better to me!"

Every Chesterfield is like every other one. No matter how many you smoke, the last Chesterfield of the day is just as smooth and sweet—as cool and comfortable—as the first.

They're milder, too! Chesterfield uses only mild, ripe, sweet tobaccos—the smoothest and ripest that grow.

Notice, too, how white and fine the paper is. It's the purest that money can buy.

All this care...to make Chesterfields taste better—to make them milder. And millions of Chesterfield smokers say it in their own way—"They Satisfy!"

GOOD...they've got to be good!

©1931, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1931 — NUMBER 19

Dairy Students Stand High In Three National Contests

V. M. Team Sweeps Through Eastern States, National Dairy, and Dairy Industries Expositions to Carry Off Important Cups and Medals

. PARK, JR., HIGHEST MONG JUDGERS OF MILK

... the Eastern States Expo- ... Springfield, Mass., where they ... of twenty-three high ... with ten other col- ... University of Vermont ... team has also swept ... contests sponsored by ... Science Association, at St. ... Atlantic City, capturing sev- ... important cups and ...

Park, Highest Individual

Park ... ranked highest among ... judges as a judge of milk ... He was awarded the ... by the International ... Milk Dealers, the gold ... by the Dairy and Ice ... Machinery and Supplies Asso- ... and a fine wrist watch pre- ... National Co-Operative ... Federation. H. J. Leach ... a judge of all products ... and second on ice cream ... C. E. Wright won sec- ... Holsteins at St. Louis, second on ... at Atlantic City and second on ... at Springfield. M. B. Morrill ... judging Ayrshires and ... breeds at Springfield.

Team Improves

... cattle judging contest at St. ... University of Vermont team ... team from Cornell Uni- ... was the only team to stand ... at the Eastern States Ex- ... the dairy products con- ... City they likewise ranked ... Pennsylvania team which beat ... narrow margin at Springfield. ... important awards gained ... at these three contests are ...:

Springfield they carried off the ... cups offered by the Na- ... Breeders' Association; ... National Dairy Exposition in St. ... competing with twenty-three ... second place in judging ... while at National ... Exposition held in At- ... sixteen teams, they ... a large cup by the Dairy ... Machinery and Supplies ... for ranking highest as ... team.

Awards

... Industries Exposition, At- ... teams, forty-eight in- ...
... on ice cream.
... dual on milk.
... As individual on ice ...
... on milk.
... on all products.
... dual on all products.
... Dairy Exposition, St. ... teams, sixty-nine in- ...
... on Holsteins.
... on Guernseys.
... on all breeds.
... As individual on Hol- ...
... dual on Jerseys.
... dual on Guernseys.
... States Exposition, Spring- ... thirty individuals com- ...
... on Ayrshires.
... on Guernseys.
... on all breeds.
... dual on Ayrshires.
... 12th. As individual on ...
... twenty-six individuals ...
... on cheese.
... ice cream.
... all products.
... milk.
... butter
... As individual on ice ...
... individual on cheese.
... on butter, cheese ...
... individual on milk.
... As individual on all ...

... show here showed ... has more possibili- ... realized.

WHAT ARE THE FACTORS OF MARITAL HAPPINESS?

As a part of a nation-wide survey of student opinion on the marital condition of American couples who have been married not more than fifteen years, a questionnaire has been filled out by students in the philosophy classes of Prof. A. R. Gifford here.

The questionnaire has been compiled by Prof. F. W. Burgess of the department of sociology at the University of Chicago in an effort to correlate the degree of marital happiness with economic condition, size of families, and employment of American husbands and wives. He has limited the study to couples who have seen not more than fifteen years of married life. Consideration was also given to divorced or reparated couples.

Professor Gifford in commenting upon the expected results of the survey expressed the opinion that the greatest value might be the increased interest in and knowledge of some of the situations that make for the happy marriage.

F. B. DREW WILL ATTEND INTERFRATERNITY MEET

Vermont to Send First Delegate to National Conference to Air Local Problems

Fraser B. Drew '33, of Randolph, has been chosen to represent the Vermont Interfraternity Council at the eighth annual meeting of the National Undergraduate Interfraternity Council, in conjunction with the meeting of the National Interfraternity Conference, November 27, 28, 29 at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York City. This is the first time that the local council has planned to send a delegate, and a junior was selected because he will be in contact with next year's council, and able to bring back many ideas that might be used here. Mr. Drew will be president of next year's Interfraternity Council at Vermont.

To Study Rushing

Delegates will attend the convention from most of the important colleges and universities in the United States, to present problems of local and national interest. The purpose of sending a Vermont delegate is to present the problems of our council and bring back for next year's council the systems of other colleges with regard to rushing.

Among the topics to be discussed are "The Work of the Interfraternity Council on the Campus," The Rushing Agreement in Practice," "Substitutes for Hell Week," "The Attitude Toward Scholar-

(Continued on page 2)

Posture Queen Is To Reign Tonight

A style show, a prize dance, and the announcement of the Posture Queen will be the main events in the program at the women's mass meeting tonight which brings to a close the Health Week, a nation-wide movement, sponsored locally by the Health Council of the Women's Athletic Association from November 19-24.

The style show, under the direction of Caroline Taft '33, showing costumes from a Burlington store, will have as models: Mildred Bartlett '35, Virginia Goodenough '33, Lois Harrington '32, Sylvia Holden '32, Alice McConnell '34, Lillian Mount '32, Charlotte Odell '33, and Katherine Rauh '32.

Speakers

Interesting talks will be given by Helen LeBaron '32, Katherine Rauh '32, and Beverly Householder '30.

The Posture Queen will be presented with a trophy in recognition of her comparative "perfect posture."

The winning couple of the prize dance judged according to ease and grace, good posture and pleasing appearance, will be awarded a prize. Social dancing will conclude the program.

ATHLETES AT VERMONT SHOW PREFERENCE FOR GENERAL SCIENCE STUDY

Fifty-eight Lettermen in Arts and Sciences College With Twenty-six in all Others

TWELVE EARN VARSITY INSIGNIA IN TWO SPORTS

The majority of athletes at the University of Vermont according to a recent survey, are students in the College of Arts and Sciences, with the general science curriculum the most popular among them. This College claims fifty-eight lettermen as compared with nineteen engineers, five agricultural students, and two medics.

The general science curriculum is taken by some twenty-four sportsmen, commerce and economics by twenty, literary scientific by five, education by four, chemistry by two, and classical by two.

Engineers favor mechanical engineering, nine taking that course, to six for civil and four for electrical. Five agricultural students and two medics have won their letters.

The class of '31 had more athletes than any other with thirty two to its credit, while '33 had twenty-eight and the present seniors twenty-three.

One Three Letterman

There was at Vermont last year one three letterman who made his insigma in football, basketball and baseball.

There were twelve two lettermen last year, combinations in this respect being greatly varied: Three playing football and baseball, two baseball and basketball, two football and hockey, one football and basketball, one football and track, one football and rifle, one basketball and tennis, one tennis and rifle.

A series of tables relative to the class, college, and course of the present lettermen follows:

By Class

Sport	'33	'32	'31
Football	6	6	7
Baseball	4	3	7
Basketball	4	3	3
Hockey	4	2	3
Track	2	2	2
Tennis	2	3	2
Cross country	1	3	1
Fencing	1	1	4
Rifle	4	–	4
Total	28	23	33

By College

Sport	A.S.	Eng.	Agr.	Med.
Football	11	7	1	0
Baseball	11	3	0	0
Basketball	10	0	0	0
Hockey	7	1	1	0
Track	3	3	0	0
Tennis	5	1	0	1

(Continued on page 2)

Two Speakers Here On Alternate Nights

Psychiatry Professor O'Neil to Address Dewey Club Tonight —Brannan to Address I. R. C. on Morrow

Departmental clubsters are to have the opportunity of hearing two well-known speakers prior to the Thanksgiving recess, as J. C. O'Neil, professor of psychiatry at the Medical College, is to address the John Dewey Club at 8 o'clock tonight, and Miss Eleanor Brannan, World Peace lecturer, who will speak on "America," is on the International Relations Club's program for tomorrow evening at the same hour. The Museum auditorium will be used for both meetings, and all students and faculty members are cordially invited to attend.

The "Mental Hygiene Movement" is the subject to be discussed by Professor O'Neil, when the John Dewey Club gathers tonight, from the viewpoint of its scientific development and practical application in experimental work, as well as in classroom study courses. The speaker is also the resident physician at the State Hospital for the Insane at Waterbury.

At the International Relations Club meeting, Miss Brannan will lecture on "America at the Crossroads."

Persian Miniature Greatest Work of Art Declares Ross

Lecturer Traces Semitic Influence on Life of People, Sketches History of Persian Art, Discusses Persian Poetry and Shows Lantern Slides

MEN TO WEAR CLOGS TO PREVENT ATHLETES FOOT

As a precautionary health measure against Athletes' Foot all men using the showers in the gymnasium are required to provide themselves each with a pair of wooden clogs.

"These clogs will be worn while the individual is taking a shower" stated H. A. Prentice, director of physical education. They are designed to prevent infection from the germs of Athletes' Foot and other foot diseases which are often contracted on damp toilet floors which are used by large numbers of persons.

Members of the freshman and sophomore classes are required to purchase a pair of these articles from the stock equipment room as soon as possible. The room is open from 4 to 6 every afternoon. They may also be secured from L. R. Durfey. The price is seventy cents a pair.

MUSIC GROUPS COMBINE IN PRE-HOLIDAY RECITAL

Women's Glee Club Aided Friday by Miss DeVolt, Men's Double Quartet, and University Orchestra

The Women's Glee Club, assisted by the University Orchestra, Miss Charlotte deVolt, and the Men's Glee Club Double Quartet, under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett, presented its annual pre-Thanksgiving concert Friday evening, November 20, in Fleming Museum auditorium to an audience composed of more than three hundred students, faculty members and Burlington friends.

The Women's Glee Club, whose voices blended perfectly in the rapidly moving, light strains, rendered, in a good interpretative manner, "How Merrily We Live" by Este, "The Silver Swan" by Gibbons, and "The Nightingale" by Welkes.

The University Orchestra offered three selections which showed precision and close cooperation. "Minuet in G Minor" by Bach, "Sarabande in D Minor" by Bach, "German Dances Op. 33, Nos. 6 and 7" by Shubert, all three of which were orchestrated by Prof. H. G. Bennett.

"Gloria in Excelsis Deo," composed by Elsa Kromers Bennett, was sung pleasingly by the Women's Glee Club Double Quartet, with meticulous ease.

Striking Change

Striking a different note, in a light, gay, and graceful tone, the Women's Glee Club offered with ease and perfection Mendelssohn's "Lift Thine Eyes," from "Elijah," the "Straw Guy" and

(Continued on page 4)

Council Discusses U.V.M. Cut System

Recommendations for changes in the system of attendance at classes, which were presented by a student committee, were discussed at great length by the Faculty Student Council at its monthly meeting held last Thursday afternoon.

The committee comprising H. M Albert, G. M. McKenzie and Margaret Tower, in a detailed report submitted to this governing body, recommended a cut system such as is in use at various New England colleges, and suggested changes that would have to be effected in the class attendance system here.

Dean Elijah Swift of the College of Arts and Sciences is to check up the methods used in each department in honoring absences and cuts from classes, as much of the report was based upon the objection of the students to the lack of uniformity in the granting of make-up privilege for cutting. No further action will be taken by the Council on the matter since it now rests with the outcome of the technical question of the uniformity of the attendance requirements in the several departments.

ART CRITIC SPEAKS AT FOURTH U. V. M. LECTURE

The Persian Miniature is the Greatest Work of Art Persia has Ever Produced, declared Sir E. Denison Ross of London University speaking at the fourth University lecture, in the gymnasium last Thursday evening.

Describing the invasion of Persia by the Arabs in the seventh century as the turning point in the history of the country, the lecturer told how a strong semitic influence was forced upon the people in regard to religion and language. "within a century or two," the speaker continued, "the majority of writers in Arabic were Persians."

The semitic influence persisted and artists living as late as the thirteenth century were hampered by prejudices against producing any living thing in art.

Language Unchanged

Comparing the Persian language of today with the English of Chaucer, Professor Ross told his listeners that there had been no change made in the Persian language since it emerged as a new speech in the tenth century. "Poetry is written in the same language today as it was in the tenth century," he said.

The lecturer sketched a history of Persian art, which, he declared, started with Cyrus and ended with Alexander the Great.

The Egyptians influenced architecture while the Greeks and Parthians left no mark in Persia after their invasion only from the Arabs did Persia receive any new ideas which were expressed in the Koran and Arabic alphabet which was now used by all classes of people, not being restricted to the priestly classes as in previous times.

Persian Poetry

Discussing Persian poetry from which he read several selections in the original, the speaker stated that he knew of only one case in which a poem had been perfectly translated from one language to another. This was the translation of the "Rubayat" of Omar Khayyam by Edward Fitzgerald, "If there is any thing to make me believe in reburth," he declared, it is the spirit of Omar reborn in Fitzgerald. There is nothing in Fitzgerald not in Omar when you read Fitzgerald it is what Omar is saying."

Sir Denison read other poems in his own English translation of them to illustrate the richness of rhyme and meter in Persian. The rhyme came from the Arabs who with the Chinese alone had poetry which was rhymed. Sir Denison explained that it was a hard task to translate Persian poetry as the best lyrics had a double meaning expressed in the mystic ideas of the poet.

The speaker described the Persians, in the words of Herodotus, as a people who can best adopt to their own use what comes to them from other nations.

Representative Art

Sir Denison showed several lantern slides of representative Persian art which was recently assembled at an exhibition at Burlington House, London. Among these were bronzes, miniature book illustrations, rugs and metal work pottery. The slides thrown upon the screen did the objects an injustice, Sir Denison said, as the richness of color and the workman's skill were not brought out. At one time, he added, the Persian artists' workmanship attained near to perfection but the standard has been broken and the Persians have not yet recovered from their period of decadence.

Popular Demand

Following the lecture the speaker read several other selections written at the thirteenth century at the request of members of the audience. He explained that he could not recommend them any translations as they were not in print, he having made them in the course of the evening. "It is impossible to translate without explanation," he said. "One day when I have a few minutes to myself I shall do some more translating."

The University of Mexico is the oldest institution of learning in America. It was established in 1551, ninety years before the establishment of Harvard University.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Sports Editor
Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

Helen Donahue, '32

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

T. E. Taylor, '32

COLUMNIST

TYPIST
Sophie Lavin '33

REPORTERS

General News: B. M. Bingham '34, W. W. Brisbin '34, W. Cohen '34, R. A. Cross '33, M. J.

Sports News: B. S. Burnham '34, C. J. Libby '33.

Women's News: Norma Corder '33, Augusta Cohen '34, Dorothy Edwards '33, Dorothy Margaret Tower '33, Laura Tracy '34.

News Editor for this issue S. N. Spiller

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

Published weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year.

All communications must be signed by the writer and addressed to the Vermont Cynic, please number 3094. Any news notices should be handed in at the room prior to publication, or mail before 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Entered at the postoffice at Burlington, Vermont, at special rate provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized October 24, 1918.

Office of Publication: Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. XL November 24, 1931. Number 19

WHY IGNORE THE FACTS?

The [illegible] conducted by Dean Patterson concerning [illegible] after 8 P.M. and attending public dances [illegible] seem to reflect in [illegible] the opinion of the parents as a whole for two reasons.

[illegible] replies were received and as there are five hundred [illegible] students here at Vermont, this is less than [illegible] and may hardly be regarded as speaking for the remaining [illegible]

[illegible] straw vote to determine the attitude of a [illegible] the subject and to this [illegible] parents who oppose their daughter's smoking, [illegible] would reply and the others [illegible] just would ignore it.

Therefore although five percent of those who answered the letter [illegible] smoking, and to the other before-mentioned views, it [illegible] the statement that this is the attitude of the majority of the [illegible] the logical conclusion to draw is that the [illegible] willing that their daughters indulge in these [illegible] of them were not sufficiently interested [illegible] with the Dean.

From the data obtained by Lillian Moore '32 who represented [illegible] at the Women's Intercollegiate Association last week, on rules [illegible] that restrictions as to rather surprising that [illegible] comparable to other student rules namely, [illegible] and late rules and in making the usual demand made by [illegible] maintaining or withholding attendance at non-college dances, [illegible] question of personal taste [illegible] rather to the individual or to the [illegible] a while that is amusing.

It is well known fact that to forbid one to do a certain thing only [illegible] the other and tempting to do that very thing. Regardless [illegible] rule forbidding public smoking by college women and its [illegible] and [illegible] among many of the [illegible] and customs. Why force them to lie about it? A [illegible] at Vermont would seem the surest solution of [illegible].

INACTIVITY OR CONFLICT?

[illegible] the national honorary classical fraternity which [illegible] to come to the front through its meetings to be held [illegible] in a majority vote in a meeting last [illegible] I believe held its first meeting of the year [illegible] the president [illegible] Tuesday night, November 17, and thus conflicted with the [illegible] of this place.

Every organization is founded on the basis of fulfilling some [illegible] purpose. After that purpose is made basis to keep the interest [illegible] the program or some external means, such as an already over-crowded social calendar and study schedule, so that the head of the [illegible] has not to put a meeting for an extended period of [illegible] weeks and then they not avoid conflicts with other social events [illegible] scheduled. It seems proof that either there are too many organizations or perhaps of that membership overlaps from one group to another so that the undivided attention and the best of one's efforts cannot be given satisfactorily to fulfilling the original intentions of [illegible] organizations.

Ross Hosmer.

All Ariel proofs must be returned before Tuesday to a representative of the Arthur Studio, who will be in the Book Store to take orders.

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested are H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

Customer: Are those eggs strictly fresh?

Grocer (to his helper): George are those eggs real enough to sell for

The Mystic Pen

UNFINISHED NOVELS

I

[illegible] very much like murder, Murchison, despite the obvities of the drained [illegible] and all the other paraphernalia [illegible] associated with newspaper [illegible] Jeepers hit a fag and inhaled the sticky vapor of one of his own Clementine tailor-mades. He was in a most amorous mood. Auspicious both for him and for the firm of Jeepers, Jeepers, Jeepers and Jeepers Ltd. which was his corporate name.

Running down criminal offenders was work not the least in Jeepers' line, yet he used to easily himself because of his many years mated with achievements permanently enscrolled upon the records of the yard, a person who could turn quite [illegible] hand at such things should the occasion arise. Hence the scene with Murchison, and M. P. and influential chief of staff in the depths of the organization.

The object of Jeeps ruminative discomfiture [illegible] stamped on the floor at their feet, a Trichinopoly stuck at an odd angle between the fifth and seventh buttons of his vest. The sixth button, strangely, was missing. Moreover, the deceased wore no trousers.

A burp at last descended from the sputtering end of the Clementine and came easily to rest on the nose, which, had it not been stiffened in the rigor mortis would doubtless have wrinkled and puckered itself in agony, for the Clementine had an unholy smell, dammit, they did, suh!

mp

II

(in the manner of Ben Hecht.)

"Comical! Comical! Most amusing!" sighed Daisy, and she swung another through the window. "It ought to bring him down, if it doesn't bring the guards out." The children were standing half-concealed in the shrubbery which surrounds the maisonette where lives our nero. Daisy maid a moue.

A crash of vita-glass in the lavatory fortunately found our Jimmy putting the finishing touches to a face which nature had failed to endow with a nose or a chin. But his great grandpappy, happening to fall in with some heiress or other, had managed to wangle a spot of seventy million or so by various deeds of crook or took and left it to Jim. That, my friends, is one of the reasons why he is so eagerly sought after, and why Daisy tosses bricks through his vita-glass windows from the lofty seclusion of the half-light of the strutters the hall wit!

"Horsy, put your tail up and spin the prop on number Ardeck," sighed Jim. I've been thinking of taking a few flips in my ship, and with Daisy watching, the thing will be quite amusing." He propped up the just used razor blade in a nick in the floor, so that his dear Susy might be sure to find something to complain of, if her wandering tootsies didn't find a splinter of glass or so.

"Great thing Imagination," sighed Daisy. Jim moved his arm to a more comfortable position and finished off the [illegible] with a few fast flips and fancy [illegible]. Another ecstatic sigh from Daisy. He barrel-rolled down the skyway and did a neat ground loop just in front of the office. He opened his eyes and reached for the dictaphone. Something under him stirred uneasily. He [illegible] it might be the prop still turning over, but it turned out to be Daisy, who, in a position far from comfortable, was breathing hard.

Being a true gentleman, Jim stood up and took off his hat. She rose to the occasion. "My, What a swell dive!" she sighed. "May I offer you a Trichinopoly?" He countersighed. "Noew Thenks," she sighed "I would like one of those cute calendars though."

"Well," he sighed, "it must have been my Sissy."

"So that's all there is to marriage!" she sighed.

mp

Woe! Woe!

Life is a phonograph record.
Late is an electrical transcription made exclusively for broadcasting purposes.
Life is a pain in the neck.
Love is a state of agitated metabolism.
Love is a sprained ankle.
Life is spilled milk.
Love is spilled beans.
Kisses are the zeros in the alphabet soup of life.
And Life, we beg to inform you,
Is just a bowl of cherries.
Nerts!

mp

Two corrections:
(1) It wasn't Lois, it was Lilian.
(2) The title of the last book reviewed in the issue of November 3 is "Virginity."

[illegible] Shall we go to the movies.
[illegible] We don't have to. Mother and [illegible] are going.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Elzada Fiske '30, Bertha Safford '31, and Eleanor Wood '31 spent the week-end in Burlington.

An informal dance was held at the rooms Saturday evening, November 21 with the Black Pirates furnishing the music. Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Kidder and Prof. and Mrs. C. F. Braun were the chaperones.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Alice Dodge '31 was in Burlington over the week-end.

SIGMA GAMMA

Lena Cochran '31 was in Burlington Wednesday.

KAPPA DELTA

The pledges entertained the active chapter with a poverty party and supper Thursday November 19. The alumnae present were: Catherine Courtney '27, Helen Lynch '27, Fannie Pierce, Betty Upton '28, Irene Marcotte '30, Anna Gray Tracy '30, and Winifred Stone '31.

The active members will hold a rummage sale the first Saturday in December.

The informal fall dance will be held at the Klifa Club, Saturday, November 28.

EPSILON SIGMA

An informal dance was held at the Phi Chi rooms on Church Street Saturday evening, November 21 with music furnished by Bisson's orchestra. Prof. and Mrs. L. W. Dean and Miss Catherine Courtney were the chaperones.

F. B. DREW WILL ATTEND INTERFRATERNITY MEET

(Continued from page 1)

ship," and "Whether Fraternity Obligations Should Yield to University Obligations if They Conflict."

A study of the activities of the member councils will be made with view to formulate plans to strengthen them as constructive influences in their respective schools.

Last year seventy-five delegates from sixty-eight different colleges and fifty-seven different fraternities attended the conferences.

"Good Thing," Says Dean

Dean Swift when asked about the idea of sending a delegate from Vermont said that he thought it would be a very worth while thing and that he knew the council would benefit by it.

"I hope that the Vermont Interfraternity Council will benefit by the exchange of ideas and plans at the 1931 conference," declared Mr. Drew. "It is our wish to make the fraternity rushing system at Vermont as efficient and satisfactory as possible."

ATHLETES AT VERMONT LIKE G. S. CURRICULUM

(Continued from page 1)

Cross country	2	1	2	0
Fencing	5	0	0	1
Rifle	4	3	1	0

By Course

Sport	G.S.	Ec.	L.S.	Ed.
Football	6	4	0	1
Baseball	4	4	1	2
Basketball	2	4	1	2
Hockey	4	2	0	0
Track	1	1	0	0
Tennis	1	2	2	0
Cross country	0	1	0	0
Fencing	4	0	1	0
Rifle	2	2	0	0

The chemistry curriculum has one track and one cross country man; while among the classical students there is a basketball player and a hockey man.

By Course—Engineering

Sport	M.E.	C.E.	E.E.
Football	4	3	0
Baseball	1	2	0
Basketball	0	0	0
Hockey	0	0	1
Track	2	0	1
Tennis	1	0	0
Cross country	1	0	0
Fencing	0	0	0
Rifle	0	1	2

The next issue of the Cynic will be published Saturday morning instead of Friday due to the holiday Thursday.

The sophomore class basketball team will start practice at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Players will report to C. J. Libby in the gymnasium.

HOUSEWIVES TO SAVE WITH QUANTITY BUYING

Every housewife knows [illegible] in quantity to better [illegible] goes hand to mouth. [illegible] Vermont extensionist in [illegible] Service of the University [illegible] and State Agricultural [illegible] say that considerable savings [illegible] even in small quantity buying [illegible] portant facts are kept in mind.

1. On many kinds of goods [illegible] in bulk is less than the price [illegible]. The saving on cereal foods [illegible] bulk instead of in package [illegible] as fifty cents on the dollar. [illegible] important because these are [illegible] must be depended upon for a large [illegible] on the food value in low [illegible].

2. The larger can or package [illegible] always is better than the smaller [illegible] vinegar by the gallon [illegible] the pint. There is a saving [illegible] twenty-three cents in the gallon [illegible].

3. The label on all canned foods tells something the purchaser [illegible] to know especially about the [illegible] the contents and the grade.

It is important to know the [illegible] grade of any product. Also, the cheaper grades will serve [illegible] as well as the more expensive. [illegible] ample, if you want a fish chowder [illegible] salmon loaf or croquettes, it is [illegible] know that canned salmon is [illegible] five different grades and prices [illegible] from eight or nine cents to three [illegible] per can of equal size. The two [illegible] kinds are the "chum and pink" [illegible] to ten cents a can, both wholesome [illegible] satisfactory when used in the way [illegible] gested.

When the family food costs are [illegible] sarily cut it is more important [illegible] that the housewife, where possible, [illegible] her own shopping, so that she may [illegible] prices and study comparative [illegible]. Large savings can be effected by [illegible] intelligent shopper.

Let's smoke a

MAN'S SMOKE!

•

WHEN the girls begin to cut corners in our cars and do back somersaults in our planes and borrow our cigarettes—then it's time to take to a pipe!

Her smoke's a cigarette!

Call it the last stronghold of masculine defence—or the one pet diversion our little friends keep their fingers off. Call it what you will—there's something downright satisfying, understanding, companionable about a friendly, mellow, MASCULINE pipe! It's a real man's smoke!

A pipe's a man's smoke

And a pipe's at its best when you fill it up with Edgeworth. There's a rare, mellow flavor to the Edgeworth blend of fine burleys that simply can't be touched. It's cut long—to give you a cool, slow-burning smoke. And you'll find it the favorite with smokers in 42 out of 54 colleges.

You can get Edgeworth wherever good tobacconists sell smokes. But if you've never tried it, we'd like the fun of treating you to that first satisfying pipeful. Just write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH

SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

SPORTING NEWS

KETBALL SEASON IS NDER WAY WITH THE ARSITY AND FROSH OUT

y Drills Feature Fundamen- and Hardening Exercises— Football Men to Report Later

...tball practice began last ... the gymnasium under ... the new coach, John H. ... ceeds Howard H. Pren- ... physical education de- ... h Burke, present fresh- ...ctor, comes to the Univer- ...ord of having guided his ... teams of the past ...defeated throughout their ...

...ssion consisted of a stiff ...ardening exercises, run- ...g practice, and some foul ... now on the practices ...ghtly except when the gym ...r lectures, dances, or other ...

...wealth of material this year, ...men graduated, and var- ...'ll have to be won through ... Captain Hank Durfey, Chet ... leading scorer, Freddy ...Talbert, Frank Pires, Jerry ... Winant, and Tom Collins ...from last year's squad, and ...Delfausse, Morse, Wilson, ...Meagan, Woodruff, Rust, and ... the freshman quintet.

... prospects of the team are ... schedule is the smallest in ... fourteen games arranged. ... reasons for this is that the ...cluded the game with Holy ... and two other games has been ...due to the decision of Holy ...inue basketball. Another ... that the games formerly played with non-collegiate Montreal organizations have been discontinued. The schedule is as follows:

Dec.
12 McGill ..... Here
16 Alumni ..... Here
Jan.
14 St. Michael's ..... Here
Feb.
2 Tufts ..... Here
6 B. U. ..... Here
9 St. Michael's ..... There
11 Norwich ..... There
13 M. A. C. ..... Here
18 Middlebury ..... There
19 Tufts ..... There
20 B. U. ..... There
23 Norwich ..... Here
25 Middlebury ..... Here
27 New Hampshire ..... Here

Approximately thirty freshmen report to Coach Archie Post three afternoons a week for practice. This group is a little smaller than last year's, but many players do not turn out for several weeks. Among those who have reported are Joly and Mahoney of Cathedral High, Rock of Spaulding, Bene of Williston Academy, Fisk and Wright of Charlestown, N. H., Shaffer of Naugatuck, Conn., and Reynolds of St. John's Prep.

Nine games have been arranged for the freshmen.

Jan.
9 T. C. A. ..... There
15 T. C. A. ..... Here
Feb.
6 Montpelier Seminary ..... Here
10 National Life ..... There
13 Clark School ..... Here
16 Montpelier Seminary ..... There
23 National Life ..... Here
26 Clark School ..... There
27 Dartmouth '35 ..... There

Gobble
Gobble
Gobble

Gobble Up
These Values While They Last

To make your Thanksgiving Day even more thank-full, we are offering the following items—

White Broadcloth shirts collar attached . . . $1.95

Pure thread silk, hand-clocked Hose $1.00

Initial linen handkerchiefs white and colors 50c

Hand framed Neckwear $1.00

Hayes & Carney, Inc.
127 Church St.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Featuring smart new Overcoats by Braeburn.

FIFTY STUDENTS HEAR RECREATION SPECIALIST

Fifty students attended the recreation forum, conducted by Miss Ella Gardner recreation specialist of the National Playground Association, sponsored by the University of Vermont and the Chittenden County Farm Bureau in the gymnasium Monday evening November 16.

The leader explained and taught games suitable for various occasions: active games, quiet games, relays and folk dances. This program was similar to other recreative forums which are being conducted throughout the state.

We came across some interesting statistics in the Syracuse Orange. "Fifty-five percent of the students have paid their tuition; forty percent deferred it; and five percent are football players." Just what does this mean?—Brown Herald.

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.

Two doughnuts and all the coffee you desire for 10 cents.

Brownies
Cup Cakes
Pastries
Sodas

LUNCHES

WOOD IS CAPT. ELECT OF '32 HOCKEY TEAM

Colgate, Dartmouth and Army are Among Eleven Teams Scheduled for This Year's Sextette

J. E. Wood '33, president of the junior class, has recently been elected captain of the hockey team to succeed R. Swain '33 who has not returned this year. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity and is prominent on the campus. For two years he has been an end on the varsity football team, a miler on the track team and exceedingly clever with the hockey stick. Besides participating in these sports, he also is a member of the Gold Key and Key and Serpent societies and the Student Senate.

Hockey practice will start early this year. It is expected to start about a week before Christmas recess. Amongst those who are expected to return for practice this year are: J. E. Wood '33, (capt.), I. W. Marvin '32, E. J. Mercier '32, R. H. McVetty '33, H. E. Bussey '32, G. J. Rapuano '33.

The hockey schedule for this year is arranged as follows:

Jan.
8 Colgate ..... There
9 Hamilton ..... There
13 Dartmouth ..... There
16 Conn. Agricultural College ... Here
Feb.
1 Middlebury ..... Here
6 St. Michael's ..... There
8 Middlebury ..... There
10 St. Michael's ..... Here
12 Mass. State College ..... Here
19 St. Stephens ..... There
20 Army ..... There

W. A. A. COUNCIL PLANS NEW MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Under the direction of Sue France '35, W. A. A. Council is making plans for a drive for more freshman members. The requisite for membership is acquisition of fifty points earned by keeping health cards, by participation in sports, extra physical education work and outdoor exercise.

PRESS CLUB COMPILES COMPLETE CARD INDEX

A complete card index of the names of all freshmen at the University of Vermont with their respective home addresses, names of local newspapers, preparatory schools and school papers has been prepared by the members of the Press Club this fall to aid in sending out notices of the many activities which freshmen are engaging in. In previous years it has been difficult to know to what school papers news should be sent

EDUCATORS TO DISCUSS SITUATION OF ATHLETICS

"The Present Athletic Situation," "Modern Developments in Education," "Intelligence in Varied Forms" are among the subjects to be discussed at the 40th annual meeting of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at the Hotel Statler, December 4 and 5, it was announced today by Prof. George S. Miller of Tufts College, secretary of the Association. Five hundred educators including college and secondary school administrative officers and executives will meet at several sessions for the consideration and discussion of common problems.

Over-emphasis on athletics, especially football, has caused so much comment by school and college heads that the entire Friday morning session will be given over to a discussion of the "Present Athletic Situation." Such speakers will contribute their opinions as Dr. Frank P. Day, president of Union College, well-known for his ideas for modifying athletics; Mr. Ralph L. Kendall, former president of the Suburban League and now Director of Athletics in Medford High School; Mr. Carl L. Schrader, state supervisor of physical education; and W. Barry Wood, Jr., captain of this year's Harvard football team.

I. R. C. PROVIDES BOOKS ON WORLD DISARMAMENT

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace has provided the following material and books to help make the International Relations Club programs stimulating, constructive and effective.

"These books," announces President P. J. LaCross, "are timely and pertinent to the coming Disarmament Conference next February and are now available to the students on the International Relations Club shelf in the Billings Library":

Text of the Draft Convention, Preparatory Commission for the Disarmament Conference.

"Disarmament," by Salvador de Madariaga.

"Scientific Disarmament," by Victor Lefebure, "a book that stands alone in its comprehensive scientific treatment of the disarmament problem."—New York Times Book Review.

"The United States and Disarmament," by Benjamin H. Williams, fresh from the press, written by the faculty adviser of the International Relations Club at the University of Pittsburgh.

"That Next War!" by K. A. Bratt, "a challenge to the world's intelligence."—Nicholas Murray Butler.

"Ten Years of World Cooperation," Secretariat of the League of Nations.

ELLA GARDNER TALKS TO EDUCATIONAL STUDENTS

Examples of good and poor posture were illustrated by Miss Ella Gardner, recreational specialist of the National Playground Association, of Washington, D. C., in her posture talk to an interested group of education students in the Fleming Museum Auditorium, Monday afternoon, November 16.

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

SPRINGFIELD GYMNASTS LEVY 78-0 DEFEAT AND END CATS' GRID SEASON

Future Football Relations Severed Because of Vermont's Inferiority in Past Few Years

University of Vermont's football eleven ended up a rather unsuccessful season with a 78-0 defeat at the hands of the Springfield gridiron warriors. At no time during the game did Vermont really threaten Springfield's goal although they once penetrated to their 16-yard line. The line did not function in a very satisfactory manner, compelling the secondary defense to do most of the tackling.

Saturday's game was the last in which sixteen Springfield letter men played. It will be the last game between the two colleges for several years to come. The rivalry between the two schools started in 1912, but Vermont has made such poor showing in the last few years that it was necessary to sever relations.

Brown of Springfield aided things materially for his team by scoring four touchdowns. Owl assisted his teammate in like manner by carrying the ball over for three more. A bad pass from center afforded the Gymnasts a break soon after Captain Knowlton had kicked off to Eddie Saba, who lugged the pigskin back to the 25-yard line from his own 5-yard line. Vermont could not make any impression on the Springfield defense, and Saba tried a punt. The pass from center rolled along the ground and Saba's hurried kick only went to Vermont's 48-yard line. Brown then went off tackle for nine yards and then for twenty-eight yards on a spinner. It took four shots at the Vermont line before Springfield went over.

After this touchdown, the Gymnasts had no trouble in putting over score after score. The score at the end of the first half was 20-0. In spite of the poor showing of the Catamount team, they held Springfield to a smaller score than last year when the tally was 82-0.

Captain Winant, Manning, Jay, Bove, Press and Davis played their last football game for the Cats.

The line-ups:

SPRINGFIELD	VERMONT
Winslow, Stone, Freeman, le	re, Wood, Blodgett, Rust
Cheney, Matheson, Jones, Bunds, lt	rt., Powell, Wegner
J. Fowler, Ball, Seferian, lg	rg., Farmer
Parkhurst, Kaminsky, Quirk, c	c., Bowers, Davis
Connors, Peterson, Stanford, rg	lg., McGrath, Press
Douglas, Batt, D. Fowler, Rigby, rt	lt., Morgan
Wilson, Kinney, Miller, re	le., Delfausse
Roberts, Meyers, White, qb	qb., Saba, Bove, Taft
Brown, Plumb, Owl, lhb	rhb., Winant
Knowlton, Shields, Plumb, rhb	lhb., Bedell, Jay
Hawkes, Smith, Mayer, Knowlton, fb	fb., Manning, Wesoly

Springfield 78, Vermont 0. Touchdowns, Brown 4, Shields 2, Mayer, Owl 3, Plumb, Roberts. Points after touchdowns, Knowlton (pass), Hawks, White 3, Brown. Referee, Waters of Wesleyan; umpire, Barry of Bowdoin; field judge, Ginsburg of Fordham; linesman, Keating of Fitchburg.

SPECIAL OFFER
on
LAUNDRY BAGS
good for only November
23rd, 24th, 25th
Any Bag at Half Price
at
The University Store

Sport Togs

Correctness in Sport Attire is Essential to the Well Dressed Man

TURKS
Burlington

THEATRE CLUB ACTS "THE PERFECT ALIBI"

LEAGUE OF NATIONS IS MC GILL DEBATE SUBJECT

MUSIC GROUPS COMBINE IN PRE-HOLIDAY RECITAL

Continued from page 1

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY WILL END WITH DANCE

ELISABETH MANDIGO TO CHAIRMAN XMAS VESPER

DEAN'S OFFICE ISSUES TOMORROW'S SCHEDULE

O'NEIL TALKS TONIGHT ABOUT MENTAL HYGIENE

"Mental Hygiene Movement" will be

THREE FRATERNITIES TO DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT

Prof. and Mrs. J. J. Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sinclair are to be the chaperones

Phi Sigma Delta will hold its dance following the Christmas holidays while

FROSH WOMEN DEBATE THIRTEEN MONTH YEAR

Resolved

was argued for and four in the tournament held at the Museum Thursday

Eliza Ray and Priscilla

for the affirmative on team opposed by R. Electa Sharon

Kittell

The team four Elizabeth

Irene Lafountain argued

Lee and Mary Peet

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 1977

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 83 or 84

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices
TRY US

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
204 College Street

Athletic Outfitters for
U. V. M.
W. E. Greene Co., Inc.
in consolidation
Patten, Irwin & White

"I protect my voice with LUCKIES"

"It's that delightful taste after a cup of coffee that makes Luckies a hit with me. And naturally I protect my voice with Luckies. No harsh irritants for me . . . I reach for a Lucky instead. Congratulations on your improved Cellophane wrapper. I can open it."

Edmund Lowe

Who can forget Edmund Lowe as "Sergeant Quirt" in "What Price Glory?" That mighty role made Eddie famous in filmland—and he's more than held his own in a long line of talkie triumphs. We hope you saw him in "The Spider." And be sure to see him in the Fox thriller "The Cisco Kid."

• • • • • •

Made of the finest tobaccos—The Cream of many Crops—LUCKY STRIKE alone offers the throat protection of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays—the process that expels certain harsh, biting irritants naturally present in every tobacco leaf. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. "They're out—so they can't be in!" No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against Irritation—against Cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

Copr. 1931 The American Tobacco Co.

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE, all modern measures with the world's finest dance orchestras, and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

★Is Mr. Lowe's Statement Paid For?

You may be interested in knowing that not one cent was paid to Mr. Lowe to make the above statement. Mr. Lowe has been a smoker of LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes for 6 years. We hope the publicity herewith given will be as beneficial to him and to Fox, his producers, as his endorsement of LUCKIES is to you and to us.

MOISTURE-PROOF CELLOPHANE

Sealed Tight—Ever Right

The Unique Humidor Package

Zip—And it's open!

See the new notched tab on the top of the package. Hold down one half with your thumb. Tear off the other half. Simple Quick. Zip! That's all. Unique! Wrapped in dust-proof, moisture-proof, germ-proof Cellophane. Clean, protected, neat, FRESH—what could be more modern than LUCKIES' improved Humidor package—so easy to open! Ladies—the LUCKY TAB is—your finger nail protection.

The Vermont Cynic

UME 30 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1931 | NUMBER 20

TY-FOUR TO GO ON AND E. EXCURSION TO W YORK CITY SUNDAY

nts and Faculty Members Visit Centers of Financial nterest on Monday and Tuesday

FFORD PRACTICAL PORTUNITY FOR STUDY

junior and senior students members in the department and economics are to leave for New York City, will make visits at several stock exchange, newspaper, offices and other centers interest during Monday and excursion is the first of its kind department and according to Prof. it it proves worthwhile, it sponsored again next year as a part of the department's program. D. Meredith, who will accompthe group on the trip, states that ld afford the students an opportunity visit the interesting official heads of many of the institutions which died in their commerce and eco- curriculum.

ther members of the faculty who e the trip are: Assistant profesGennette C. Davis, Florence M. ard and Grace Burwash, and Miss Morgan. A. O. Martinetti, a e student will also be included the excursionists.

party of students and faculty mem- will take a private car, at 9.50 Sunday on the Rutland Railroad, rive at New York City at 7.30 morning. They will return evening, December 1 on the which will reach Burlington Wednesday morning. The Pull- remain on the siding at the until 7.30.

Points of Interest

the following points will be New York Clearing House, the Stock Exchange, Federal steamer, Empress of Bri- New York, and the Hotel Luncheon will be at Athletic Club.

the excursion takes the visi- State Building, New Exchange, Chase National York Life Insurance Com- York Times, the Wana- Department Store, and various seniors will go on the Grant, P. B. Billings, H. Boynton, D. S. Webster, Gormond, Caroline Beggs, Katrina Munn, Elizabeth Dixon, Elizabeth Howe, Christine Bliss, Janet Mil- Wood, J. Stein, Edna Black- Kain, J. E. Clark and L. R.

also will go to New York Burke, C. A. Taylor, C. W. M. Webster, R. W. Ryan, and Wood

NCIS FROST '31, to K ON MODERN POETRY T CORNELL UNIVERSITY

M. Frost '31, one of most poets, will lecture on and give a reading of her Cornell University on Miss Frost's appointment ed Goldwin Smith lec- Her predecessors Garland, novelist, Col. discoverer and editor of the Andre Maurois, French biographer, Louis Unter- poet, J. W. Krutch, Lindsay, poet, and Lord tist. Miss Frost will be lecturer and the only years to appear before

Frost's poetry has won dis- tion through her two Wall (Yale, 1929), (Houghton Mifflin, contributions to many the Yale Review, the Poetry, American New Yorker, and book of verses will shed by the Houghton the daughter of Mr. and Frost of St. Albans, Vt.

(Continued on page 3)

ONE HUNDRED ATTEND SPECIAL ZOO. LECTURE

One hundred students, faculty members and visitors attended the special lom presentation of the life of several protozoa Monday afternoon at the Fleming Museum auditorium

One film depicted the life processes of the paromecium and a second described in detail several other single-celled creatures among them being the amoeba.

The microscopic films were produced by Francis Lloyd McDonald, professor of botany at McGill University in Montreal.

Prof. H. G. Perkins, head of the department of zoology here, gave an introductory talk in which he told of the scientific work of Professor Lloyd. The session replaced the regular Monday afternoon lecture of the class in zoology 11 and also entertained as its guests the geology class of Prof. C. G. Doll.

Vermont Debaters Meet Tufts Here On Unemployment

Visitors to Take Negative of Question Monday in Museum

The Vermont varsity debaters will find themselves aligned against Tufts Monday evening here in the Museum on the topic, Resolved that the several states should adopt a policy of compulsory unemployment insurance. Vermont will assume the support of the affirmative while the visiting team of forensians is to take the opposition. The American style of debate is to be used and there will be no decision by mutual agreement of the two groups.

The exact line-up at the time of going to press was indefinite but it is expected that three of the regular debaters will participate. The Tufts team meets Middlebury there Wednesday evening on the same question.

St. Mike's Next

The Vermont team will meet St. Michael's team on December 7 at Winooski Park in a three man debate on the subject Resolved, that Democracy is a failure in the United States." It is expected that tryouts will be held to pick the team for this debate.

Other debates which have been definitely settled and which are to be held at Burlington are with Dartmouth College of Hanover, N. H. on December 11; University of Maine, December 18; Wheaton College, champions of Illinois, on January 9. A week-end trip is planned for the Vermont team to meet Springfield College at Springfield and Plymouth Normal at Plymouth, New Hampshire February 26 and 27; Union College on March 24. Dates have not been definitely settled for debates with Albany State Teachers, Rollins College of Florida, and Clark University of Worcester, Mass. and others but a heavy schedule is in the offing according to Manager Paul J. LaCross.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS TO MEET IN BUFFALO

Hundreds of men and women college students sent by collegiate Christian associations will meet in the Eleventh Quadrennial Convention of the student volunteer movement to be held December 31 to January 3 in Buffalo, N. Y. The purpose of the gathering is the discussion of problems relative to the future of world Christianity and effective missions today.

This meeting of delegates from all the world comes at an opportune time as the Disarmament Conference at Geneva will convene within a month from the adjournment of the convention. One platform session will center upon war and disarmament.

Each of these preceding conventions has presented the claims of Christ and the needs of men everywhere for Him in terms of the world situation then existing. Each one in its message to students has helped to broaden horizons, enlist students for service abroad and influence countless hundreds to give themselves up in prayer, money, and energy to the extension of Christ's kingdom around the world. Aware of these values achieved in the past, the committee on arrangements is preparing a program which will attempt to deal with the world situation as it is found in the present day.

JAMES T. SHOTWELL TO GIVE FOURTH IN CURRENT U. V. M. LECTURE SERIES

American Authority on Foreign Affairs, Affiliated With Carnegie Endowment to Speak Here December 10

Mr. James Thomson Shotwell, trustee and director of the division of economics and history of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, will lecture in the University gymnasium Thursday evening, December 10, at eight o'clock, in the fourth of the series of university lectures.

American Authority

Mr. Shotwell is one of the foremost authorities in the United States on questions relative to international affairs. He remains continually in touch with the League of Nations, making frequent visits to Geneva, Switzerland, while in Europe.

He has recently returned from an extended trip in Europe and on December 10 will discuss various phases of the present international situation.

Has Been Here Before

He has previously lectured here, speaking in 1926 under the auspices of the University Lecture Series, and is an eloquent and forceful speaker. He was formerly professor of history at Columbia and is still on the roster, although he does no actual instructing. Aside from being an authority on international affairs, he has been in direct contact with leading statesmen of the continent.

Professor Shotwell was born in 1874 in Connecticut and has honorary degrees from Toronto University, Columbia University, Western Reserve, Dartmouth College, and McGill University. He has lectured before the Nobel Institute in Christiania and is a member of the Belgian Academy of Science, Letters, and Fine Arts. Also he has written several volumes on history, economics, and political science and has contributed to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

PI BETA PHI WILL GIVE OPENING DANCE TONIGHT

The newly finished chapter house of the Pi Beta Phi sorority will open its doors for the fall dance of the society which will be held there this evening. The house is situated on South Prospect street opposite the Redstone property and has been under construction since last year.

The evening's social function will be chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Kidder, Prof. and Mrs. I. E. Pooley, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Horrford. The orchestra will be the Black Pirates.

Lillian Mount '32 Is Posture Queen of U. V. M. Campus

Senior Chosen Unanimously, With Ara Armstrong and Lois Harrington Dance Winners

Lillian Mount '32, chosen unanimously by Health Council as Campus Posture Queen, was presented with a reproduction of "Winged Victory," while Ara Armstrong '33 and Lois Harrington '33, announced as winners of the prize dance were awarded a small silver loving cup at the women's mass meeting, the culminating event in the four days' health program sponsored by local Health Council, in collaboration with National Health Week held at the University gymnasium Tuesday evening, November 24. Other events in the evening's program were short talks, a style show, and social dancing.

Priscilla Perry '33, chairman of the evening, explained the purpose of Health Week to promote an active interest in health as a part of a college program and to lessen the illness prevalent each year. The results obtained from the health cards kept by the women of the University showed that the members of the junior class live most hygienically, fol-

(Continued on page 4)

PROF. O'NEIL MEDICAL COLLEGE PSYCHIATRIST SPEAKS AT DEWEY CLUB

Discusses Mental Hygiene Movement at Large Gathering of Psychology Group

DECLARES PREVENTION IS PRESENT METHOD

"The great ideal of the Mental Health Movement is to put within the reach of everyone the knowledge that will enable him to get the most of happiness out of life," declared Prof. J. C. O'Neil, psychiatrist, when he discussed the various aspects of the "Mental Hygiene Movement" before a gathering of the John Dewey Club, in the Museum auditorium last Tuesday evening.

Professor O'Neil first traced the brief history of this important movement, bringing out the rapid strides that have been made. It was, as he informed the audience, first conceived by a man who had long undergone mental disease. This man devoted his entire life, after being liberated from one of the asylums of his day, to the amelioration of people suffering from such ill. In inaugurating this stupendous project, Clifford W. Beards, the man under discussion, wrote his, "The Mind that Found Itself," and sent it to influential individuals throughout the country, not one of which but joined this most worthy purpose. The book relates, without bitterness or rancor, and in most readable literary style, the brutal treatment which Beards, himself, met at the hospital, if it could be called such, where he was kept.

The movement received instant acceptance, being taken up first by the state of Connecticut. It spread all over the nation, and in 1930 had reached such international prominence, that a conference was called at Washington for the discussion of Mental Hygiene, to which over fifty nations sent delegates.

Economic Aspects

The speaker, at this juncture, considered the economic aspects faced by this Mental Hygiene Movement.

"In June of 1929 there were some 395,000 people confined to mental institutions," he said, "which was an increase of over 28,000 the preceding year." It was also noted that in the same year at least 100,000 more were admitted to this type of hospital. Thus, according to statistics, the professor pointed out that one in every thirteen people are due to develop some form of mental ailment.

Billions Yearly

"Considering the above facts," continued O'Neil, who is also the resident psychiatrist at the state institution in Waterbury, "approximately 300,000 persons are supported by the states at a cost of $5 each per week." Considering again the costs of the buildings used, and the tremendous cost of crime, it is easy to see how billions of dollars are spent, or appropriated yearly because of mental illness.

The movement, which first started to better the institutions for the insane now includes every phase of human endeavor, giving its greatest attention to studying children under five years of age the most important age of life. The problems of the school child, of puberty and adolescence, of college men and women, and of industrial life, all interest the workers of the movement.

(Continued on page 4)

Two Students Earn Coffee Corner Prizes With Constructive Letters

Cynic Heeler Gallops Up and Unscarfs Mystery of Faculty Reluctance to Accept Five Dollar Book—Congenial Manager Reveals Plans for Modification of Enterprize—Flays Contrary Gossipers

By Theodore Taylor

Tuesday appeared, at first, to be a complete day—no Cynic assignments, and collection of material that usually goes with such work. But, Lady Luck deserted us at the Cynic office door, for our beloved Editor-in-chief, Joe, diplomatically presented me with the most detailed assignment—with his back to the one window in the room, he began a miniature lecture upon what a freshman would have considered a half-year course in journalism. The usual journalistic "Who, What, How, When and Where" would have been a "drop in the bucket" in comparison to Joe's elaboration.

As we galloped up the stairs, to an only afternoon class, we discounted fifty percent of Joe's remarks, and concluded that he wanted to know the results of the Coffee Corner contest, upon suggestions for the betterment of present conditions in this current problem on our campus.

Our Congenial Manager

After class, we made for the Medical Coffee Corner, where we had been informed, Miss Annis O. Barney, manager of the University Stores and Coffee Corner, could be found. We have always anticipated an interview with Miss Barney—her congenial manner and personality at all times—which is a universal consensus of opinion with those who have come in contact with her—is most friendly and places one at ease upon immediately opening conservation. Our introduction or message was quite appropriately prefaced by our stumble up to the counter and a few, unintelligible mumbles—which, to our surprise, she understood and began explaining what occurred in in the Coffee Corner contest.

Constructive Criticism

She informed us that the winning letters in this contest were written by Joe Carter—who incidently was the big voice back of this, our assignment—and Paul LaCross, one of our glib varsity haranguers. They presented the most original and constructive contributions for the Coffee Corner's improvement. With due respects to the winners, it appears there were few who contributed to the contest. In fact, the faculty were also invited to participate, but not one iota of a contribution was received from them. Possibly they felt that to compete with the student body was beneath them- anyway, the boys who won received $5 worth of a book of tickets. Hence the duplicate prize. The judges were Miss Barney and F. W. Kehoe, registrar.

Such suggestions as hamburg sandwiches and chocolate milk shakes were received. As for the former, it is impossible, because the Corner is an inside room and the staff could not accomplish such cooking activities there. As for the latter, they already serve them and to do so, in any other form, would be too expensive, for a machine investment would not compensate the returns.

There will be a change in the Coffee Corner. It is to be operated by one person from Christmas on, and the special breakfast at a flat rate will be continued as in the past month.

New Facilities

Miss Reba L. Carpenter has been transferred from the Medical Store to the Old Mill Coffee Corner, and is expected to be the only operator from Christmas on. She will be helped by an expected improvement in the store's facilities. A glass window is to be built to connect the broad counter with the back rooms. This will aid such matters, as quick notice of prospective customers and passage of food from the back room to the operator out front.

All such propaganda that hinges on the Coffee Corner's closing up, is merely gossip, for Miss Barney assures the student body that the Coffee Corner

(Continued on page 3)

4-H DAIRY CLUB LETTER JOINS PUBLICATION LIST OF EXTENSION SERVICE

A 4-H Dairy Club Letter, to be issued once a month, has joined the list of publications by the Extension Service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College. The November letter is the first in the series which will be edited by E. H. Loveland, Extension Dairyman, and will be distributed among all 4-H Calf Club members of the state. For sometime a similar letter has been prepared by A. W. Lohman, Extension Poultryman, for 4-H poultry members.

The first issue of the 4-H Dairy Club Letter has as its subject "Choosing the Dairy Calf." It discusses choice of breed, choice of individual, registration and health.

"Good cows and bulls grow from good calves," says Mr. Loveland. "The choice of the calf is an important feature of the beginning of the calf club year."

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Sports Editor
Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

News Editor for this issue S. N. Spiller

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

Published by the... weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year. Single copies 10 cents. ... should be addressed to the Business Manager, Billings Hall. All local matters should be handed in at the Cynic Office, Billings Hall, before 7:00 P. M. Sunday and Wednesday. ... provided for in Section ... Act of ... Authorized October 4, 1918.

... Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. XL November 27, 1928 Number 20

THEORY MEETS PRACTICE

[illegible] witnessed the spectacle motion picture of the life of several professors of the zoology class session last Monday afternoon. ... but courtesy of both the technique of photography and the work ... which it revealed to us.

... the principles and the method and character of one who gives his ... Students of both classes who ... the opportunity has agreed that such supplements to the curriculum ... but also invaluable. Lantern slides to the texts which ... necessarily cannot present, or all times practical demonstrations of ... topics they cover. Much fine work is being done by the faculty of ... department to accumulate material of value in this line. ... is a fascinating study of ... photography. The zoological department every year more ... realized its hopes for improved facilities for study and research.

... a success so crystal and a step will become an annual event ... president, Dr. Guy Potter Benton, to regard to the New York ... of the upperclassmen in the department of economics.

... who are among the forty-four who leave Sunday evening will ... the privilege of visiting many of the greater points of economic ... and financial interest. The department of economics will re... the invaluable educational value of such an excursion.

We hope those who are going will bear in mind the efforts of ... department is making this field trip possible and avail themselves ... every chance to bring back to Vermont the inspiration and enthu... which they gain through contacts made in New York.

A FOUR-YEAR EXAMINATION

Dartmouth and a few other universities in the East have recently introduced a system of comprehensive examinations to be given to the members of the graduating classes. The purpose of this move is to insure the scholastic authorities that the men about to receive a degree have covered a sufficient amount of the subject matter offered during their four years to warrant their receiving a diploma.

OUR OWN FACULTY

Vermont students received a ... treat in the personality of Doctor O'Neil, who addressed an interested group of students and townspeople Thursday evening at the Ira Allen Library Club.

... speaker is an abstract and ... portrayal portrayal of the high... Vermont is fortunate ... having him as a member of its ... faculty. He has a personal appeal which is charming and a thorough knowledge of and a faith in his subject.

... practical application of the theories of mental health are becoming more widespread every day. His discussion of the facts of the Mental Hygiene Movement were most interesting. Surely anyone who could quietly ponder the characteristics of mental hygiene would be not only an efficient organism but an intellectual one of the most congenial and valuable sort.

Vermont has many such men as Doctor O'Neil on her faculty. Some fifteen of her men are recognized in "Who's Who," while others have likewise achieved merited distinction through scientific ... of business skill. May they continue to retain the social appreciation which they have earned. Such men should not be without honor in their own college.

COMMUNISM IN NORTH CAROLINA

The fair young ladies of North Carolina are well on their way to being self supporting. Hair dressers, manicurists, seamstresses, cleaners' agents, saleswomen for different products advertise their services or their products on college bulletin boards.

These gems are now talking of running the campus on a communistic basis. The girls will raise the raw materials manufacture the products consume them and thereby reduce expenses to almost nothing. It is understood that a petition for the establishment of this plan will be drawn up when the leaders of the movement have straightened out details.

Absent-minded traveling salesman calling wife on phone: "Hello honey! Just arrived in town—how about a little party?"

ATHLETES AND STUDIES

[illegible] ... the old cant [illegible] ... the question [illegible] ... the college [illegible] ... the Dean's [illegible] ... the past couple of years only two-thirds sportsmen have made that select group.

Either the athletes spend too much time on things other than studies (opp. practices, games etc.) or the curriculum here are a bit stiff for the sportsmen.

Comparing athletics with other activities scholastically athletics suffers greatly. Deans lists are crowded with names of student leaders in other than athletic endeavors. We must not forget, however that athletics constitutes of a steady grind while some other activities are more or less of the in and out sort. Again students train for other activities on regular class work while athletics is a purely outside activity.

But all soft soap aside, the fact remains that Vermont needs more scholarly athletes. Seniors who go out to teach may use their coaching ability incidentally but primarily the secondary schools want good teachers. A good scholastic record is a mighty fine advertisement even for a three-letter athlete.

J. F. Bigelow

GLEE CLUB NEEDS MORE VOICES BEFORE TUESDAY

"In order that the University may be able to advance the required guarantee of $150 which must be deposited at the headquarters of the New England Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest, several more men are needed to add to the voices now eligible to participate," states Prof. H. G. Bennett.

At the annual contest which this year is to be held Friday evening, March 4, at the Symphony Hall Auditorium in Boston, Vermont, like the other institutions which will enter, will be required to sing three prize songs instead of the one which has been sung in the past. "This," states Professor Bennett, "will be in addition to the choice and college anthem and will necessitate a considerably greater amount of work in its preparation. Vermont in the past has been at a slight disadvantage in the competition because of the lack of a complete group of singers. She needs a larger number of trained voices to increase the volume of the singing which always is a governing factor in the judging.

The number needed is a maximum of thirty men and extra members are urged to sign up with Professor Bennett at the music building before next Tuesday (December 1 in order to assure the best possible chances of Vermont's entering a group of choristers. Any student who is a bona fide undergraduate and not under warning is eligible.

FACULTY ENTERTAINED AT EVANS ESSEX HOME

Prof. and Mrs. Paul D. Evans entertained a group of 150 faculty guests at a Sunday afternoon tea at their home in Essex Junction. The tea was given in honor of Prof. and Mrs. Howard Briggs and Prof. Herbert Putnam, the new members of the history department at the University. The centerpiece was of yellow chrysanthemums. The ladies who poured were: Mrs. J. A. Bullard, Mrs. G. F. Eckhard, Mrs. Guy W. Bailey, Mrs. H. F. Perkins, Mrs. Edmund C. Mower, Mrs. G. G. Groat, Mrs. F. F. Black and Mrs. Frederick Tupper.

Vermont a Misunderstood State Says Christman in Albany Paper

[illegible] ... signed by Henry T. [illegible] ... the Sunday book page of [illegible] ... Albany, N. Y., ... misunderstood ... state. Mr. Christman ... the ... character ... Vermonters is a unique ... the traditions and ideals ... the history of the state. The article ... is generally interesting with high ... from Vermont Scenes of Ver... books issued this year by the ... Press runs as follows. It ... interesting comment upon what ... neighbors think of us.

"... our neighbor states Vermont ... misunderstood. We think of the ... Mountain state as a vast wilderness with low fertile, productive valleys populated with cautious, conservative people. To the ... the land is full of contradictions ... It is a country of small ... and cities. We have come to consider it land of 4,000 twice as good as a ... of 2,000.

"I have found Vermont precisely opposite the peculiar thing pointed out and ... as very 'American,' declared ... Lewis after he had been drawn ... the beauty of Vermont's hills, 'the desire for terrific speed and the desire to make things grow.' 'I like Vermont,' he ... because it is quiet, because ... has a population that is solid and not ... mad by the American mania.'

Vermont has a total population of less ... 400,000. New York's approaches ... with New York City alone ... with a population more ... The Green Mountain State ... square miles with ... New York has 49,204 square ... what does this mean. ... taking Vermont with ... probably America's greatest ... is Vermonter. I understand ... has more persons represented ... Who than any other state.

The reason is that Vermont ... damentally unchanged from ... Ethan Allen or Chester A. Arthur ... president Vermont gave ...

The same rugged and indomitable ... acter stamped upon the pioneers ... Green Mountains is stamped ... Vermonters of today. They are ... living, slow growing and yet a ... of people living individual, ... lives. America's mad rush ... has still to penetrate the ... Vermont. Her people live ... soul and in consequence have ... devastating effects of machine ... man.

"When Calvin Coolidge returns ... native Vermont his silence ... economy of words bursts into ... as we might expect from a ... wild pined mountainside ...

"The four volumes (The Green Mountain Series) considered in this review ... to interpret Vermont in the light ... background, its present and future ... sibilities . . . the books are a notable ... tribution to an understanding of Vermont ... as well as a distinct and indispensable ... contribution to literature and history."

STUDENTS FACE MANY DIFFICULT PROBLEMS

Writing under the title "College-Student Problems," in the December Ladies' Home Journal, Dr. Karl Menninger says, in part:

"Young men and women who have entered college with high hopes of success, although often without any definite idea of what they want to succeed at, are right now—many of them—facing discouragement and distress. Some will have already dropped out, some will have been asked to leave because of unsatisfactory work, some will be out of funds. Others are about to desert their educational plans for a career in business or the Navy. Some are homesick, some heartsick, some physically or mentally sick; these, too, are very likely to drop by the wayside."

* * * *

"One of the commonest difficulties of college students is, of course, connected with the learning process—that is, difficulties in studying, reciting, understanding, and the like . . . Students frequently appear stupid because of emotional conflicts with the proper functioning of their intelligence."

* * * *

"By far the most painful manifestations of maladjustment are the moody reactions. It is an amazing paradox that among college students, whom we are apt to regard as the most jolly, carefree and gay of all individuals in the world, there exist the keenest depressions, heartbreaking discouragements and disappointments."

* * * *

"Many students go through all the motions of education, attend classes, appear to work hard, even get good grades, but substantially accomplish nothing. They elect profitless courses, study mechanically, interest themselves in nothing, create nothing, retain nothing. At the bottom of this is very often a fundamental hostility to the whole business of education because it represents the wishes of parents."

* * * *

Doctor Menninger also discusses the way in which psychological problems may bring about physical symptoms. Too over-sensitiveness, inferiority feelings, painful consciousness of and misunderstandings about sex may effect men, and how students can be aided. Ladies' Home Journal.

At the University of Washington an instructor met another loafing on the steps of one of the classroom buildings. When asked the reason for the man's he replied that he was giving his class a final exam. "But aren't you afraid they will cheat?" he was asked. "No, I fooled them," was the reply. "I took their grades in yesterday."

Results of the election for football captain and manager are as follows:

Captaincy—not yet decided.
Varsity manager—A. M. Sullivan.
Freshman manager—C. S. Brown.
Assistant varsity managers—D. W. Jenks, C. B. Eaton.—T. Cogswell.

Christmas Prices

THE LOWEST EVER OFFERED

ON

University Seal

AND

Fraternity Novelties

AT THE

University Store

DURING THE MONTH OF

DECEMBER ONLY

O STUDENTS EARN COFFEE CORNER PRIZE

(Continued from page 1)

...end of the year and, ...ntinue indefinitely It ...continue, if quality of ...sacrificed to keep its ...ading prices have not ...s quality. The food ...e best quality that can ...compliments of late has

Oriental Sandwiches

...point was raised during ... It appears, Miss Bar... the Vermonters do not ... type of sandwiches com... prefer the peanut-butter type to the tasty combinations that are generally very difficult to introduce to the U. V. M students. They pass over new ones and will not try any new type unless they are told of their contents—which one cannot blame them for. For instance, an oriental sandwich was on sale and would not go over. But when its name was changed to its contents which consisted of dates—it became popular. Dates are popular!

At the close of the interview, as our inquisitive questions petered out—we were assurred that the Coffee Corner was as interested in the students' wants as the students are for the Corner's continuance in the Old Mill—only, why cannot the students aid the Coffee Corner by cooperation with their endeavors?

FRANCES FROST '31 TO TALK AT CORNELL

(Continued from page 1)

She attended Middlebury College for three years in the class of 1927, but after leaving college for four years took her final work at Vermont, and was graduated last June. From 1927 to 1931 she lived in Burlington, and for a few months was a reporter for the Daily News. For a year and a half she taught a course in poetry at the University of Vermont. Last summer Miss Frost held a scholarship in the MacDowell Colony for artists at Peterborough, N. H., the first Vermonter to receive the honor. She has addressed special audiences in Burlington and St. Albans, and recently gave a reading at Wellesley College. She is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

FACULTY MEN ATTEND LAND GRANT CONVENTION

Several members of the faculty attended the annual meeting of the association of Land Grant Colleges which was held at Hotel Stevens in Chicago, November 16-17 and 18.

Those attending from Vermont included Dean J. L. Hills, J. E. Carrigan of the extension department, Prof. G. P. Burns of the botany department, A. R. Midgley of the Agronomy department, Prof. F. H. Sibley of mechanical engineering and Miss Marjorie F. Luce, state home demonstration agent.

Dean Hills attended a conference on Land Utilization which was called by secretary of agriculture, Hyde to follow the general association conference.

Miss Luce was a member of a special committee which was called by Secretary Hyde to organize and conduct a study of 4-H clubs for boys and girls as carried on by the extension departments of the State Agricultural Colleges.

"CUSS THE EDITOR" WEEK

For the past few years, weeks have been set apart for the recognition of various industries, societies and what not. Now comes a refreshing application of the idea by setting apart a week for general criticism of the newspaper. John L. McCarty, editor of the Dalhart (Texas) "Texan" instituted a "cuss the editor" week.

Prof. When you fellows stop making fools of yourself, then I'll begin.

"You needn't tell me —I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!"

Milder because they're fresh

CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FOLKS who smoke really fresh cigarettes made from choice sun-ripened tobaccos never have to give a thought to their throats.

That's because such fresh cigarettes retain natural moisture—and are gratefully smooth, cool, throat-friendly, mild.

Camels are the fresh cigarette—everyone knows that now—they're blended from the finest Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that money and skill can buy.

We would never dream of parching or toasting these choice sun-ripened tobaccos—that would only drive off or destroy the natural moisture that makes Camels fresh in nature's own mild way.

The Camel Humidor Pack protects a fine cigarette fresh with natural moisture—it could do little or nothing to freshen a cigarette that is dried-out or factory-stale.

If you smoke for pleasure, see for yourself what freshness means in mildness and flavor—switch to Camels for just one day—then leave them, if you can!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, N. C.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Coast-to-Coast Radio Programs

CAMEL QUARTER HOUR, Morton Downey, Tony Wons, and Camel Orchestra, direction Jacques Renard, every night except Sunday, Columbia Broadcasting System

PRINCE ALBERT QUARTER HOUR, Alice Joy, "Old Hunch," and Prince Albert Orchestra, direction Paul Van Loan, every night except Sunday, N.B.C. Red Network

See local paper for time

CAMELS

Made FRESH—Kept FRESH

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

© 1931, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

Have You a Cosmopolitan Appetite? Asks Prof. Terrill in Meal Talk

Food Luxuries

Watch Your Meals

PROF. O'NEIL SPEAKS AT DEWEY CLUB

(Continued from page 1)

Mental Health Characterized

LILLIAN MOUNT '32 IS COSTUME QUEEN

(Continued from page 1)

Don't Reduce

FRENCH CLUB TO HOLD SECOND MEET THURSDAY

THE HYMN OF THE SCRUB REPORTER

I have not the talent
To shine above my peers
I would enter the field
In the literal assessments
Have I gained written there
Tell me ye compilers all
Is my name written there?

Is my name written there?
On the page white and fair
In the "Cyn" of thy school.
Is my name written there?

Mary Parsons '35

Society Notes

DELTA DELTA DELTA

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Pauline Wolfe '34 was in town last week-end.

A girl may lose out from the bottom of her heart, but there's always room at the top for some other guy.

ENGINEERING APPARATUS HAS NEW ARRANGEMENT

A film critic says that all actors will at Hollywood if only they shoot fewer pictures and more

Look Sensational — Look Cut Rate Prices

Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c, 51c, 61c
Watches 79c
Alarm Clocks, 79c, guaranteed

CIGARS
Reg. Prices 10c — Our Prices 3 for 25c
2 for 25c — 10c
White Owls—5c

CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs. for 27c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold

Gillette & Proback Blades
5 for 36c—10 for 70c

Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c

TOBACCO SPECIALS

All 10c pkgs. ....3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c

Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.

CITY NEWS AGENCY
168 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

THE UNIVERSITY PLAYERS
Present
"She Stoops to Conquer"
By
Oliver Goldsmith
A five act comedy including

DOROTHY E. MURPHY
HOPE K. RANSLOW
SYLVIA A. BOYD
ISABEL HOLMES
PAUL E. WESTIN
SAM B. BARKER
FRED W. HOUSEHOLDER
R. STUART WRIGHT
CHARLES J. LIBBY

DIRECTED BY PROFESSOR METCALF
THE STRONG THEATRE, DECEMBER 3
TICKETS ON SALE AT THE UNIVERSITY STORE AND THE THEATRE BEGINNING DECEMBER 1

A Perfect Figure ~~ Moulded by MAIDEN FORM

In this day of sheer textured frocks and fitted lines, even the most perfectly proportioned of us must be properly "foundationed" ... and the most alert young moderns are finding in a Maiden Form uplift and girdle all they could desire in foundations. With Maiden Form's skilful moulding, even the most casual little campus frock becomes a model of smart trimness.. and sleekly moulded formal gowns becomes studies in rhythmic line.

Your favorite college shop will be glad to show you Maiden Form uplifts, girdles and garter belts.

MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO INC
Dept. C 245 Fifth Avenue New York, N. Y

AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

"There is a Maiden Form Foundation for every type of figure"

Slim figures favor the tailored "Maidenette" shown above to accent the sculptured roundness of the bust. The Maiden Form stepin of fashioned elastic slenderizes the figure for the slim below-the-waist frocks

The "Maiden Form Double Support", a full figure uplift with inside pocket and diaphragm band; brocaded batiste semi-stepin

"Greenshen" wrap cross-ribbon design deftly defines the bust for average figures. charming boneless junior girdle

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE
REG. U. S. PAT. OFFICE
GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS
Accept No Substitute... Insist on the Genuine MAIDEN FORM Label

SPORTING NEWS

...SS IS ALL-AMERICAN ...OICE SAYS G. E. PHAIR ... NEW YORK AMERICAN

...rge E. Phair we are ... you an All-American ... the name of a Vermont ... Phair is columnist ex... ... New York American.

VARSITY

.....	l.e.
...sland U	l.t.
.....	l.g.
.....	c.
VERMONT	r.g.
.....	r.t.
...Roberts	r.e.
...Roberts	q.b.
...Manhattan	l.h.
...ohnson	r.h.
...Oregon	f.b.

JAYVEES

...Springfield	l.e.
...Oregon State	l.t.
...Columbia	l.g.
...Michigan	c.
...Wesleyan	r.g.
...Wesleyan	r.t.
...Carnegie Tech	r.e.
...oston U	q.b.
...Chicago	l.h.
...Boston U	r.h.
...Stevens	f.b.

...re is so much material at hand ...son that we have found it neces... ... pick two All-American teams ... rugged, impregnable combination ... other a marvel of speed.

... foundation for the first team, we ...aced Stone at center. He will be ... by Flood at left guard and Press ... guard. The opposition would ... time making headway against ... and if you are a constant reader ... all about the power of the

...aking through the tackles would ...ther tough job. With Savage on ...side of the line and Fury on the ...what chance would the attacking ...are we ask you?

...how could anyone shake off the ...oth Burr at one extremity and

Time Out

Well, folks, we present in this issue our famous All-American Team that G. E. Phair of the New York American scooped on us before we could publish it ourselves. But, with permission of the copyright owners, we herewith present the theme song.

—time out—

Did you notice that most of our athletes prefer the G. S. course? That should be plenty of proof of the low coefficient of subsidization in U. V. M. If our athletes would not be picking the tough courses with the possibility of losing their jobs through ineligibility, we wonder how the courses of some of the athletes on noted teams would check up as regarded from the angle of difficulty. It would make an interesting group of statistics and we venture to assume that the subsidized athletes would be the ones taking the "snap" courses.

—time out—

Time Out certainly is appropriate right now. Football over—thank heavens—and basketball not quite started. Wonder what kind of a season we're going to have this year? A fighting five—and Burke sure knows how to make 'em fight—ought to win the majority of the games. Until we see the team in action we refuse to predict—we have been disappointed too often before.

—time out—

Prof. H. A. Prentice, we are told, has been chosen hockey coach for the season of '32. Good luck, "Bunny"! (We knew him when he was "Bunny" the All-New England basketball forward.) Coach Prentice succeeded Doctor Aldinger as head of the physical education department in 1928.

—time out—

To tell some people that they have athlete's foot is a compliment, we feel. However that may be, the new physical education ruling that all men wear clogs in the showers is certainly a good one, and shows the characteristically progressive attitude of this department. Tinea trichophytin can cause a lot of damage—the little ringworm.

—time out—

Big surprise! Watch closely, in Tuesday's issue, and you will see the brand new baseball schedule. Sorry, we can't spill the hot dope at this sitting, but the horoscope will be cast in Tuesday's issue.

Klinger at the other? These boys are also masters of the art of receiving forward passes. They hang onto the ball under any circumstance.

"Behind the line we have Battle at left half, a fighting athlete on offense and defense. His running mate is even more so. In fact, he's a Heller. At fullback is Rushlow, one of those old fashioned line plungers who can always make first down.

"Guiding this powerful team is a field general second to none—in fact a master mind. None other than Wiley, himself.

"The second team specialilzes in speed, even in the forward line. Rush is placed at center with Chase at his left and Swett at his right. You couldn't find a busier center trio than Chase, Rush and Swett, even in the Seventh Avenue Subway at six o'clock.

"Hammer at left tackle knocks the enemy silly and Mingle, on the other side of the line, is right in the middle of every play.

"When it comes to recovering a fumble, the two ends are in a class by themselves. If Hawks doesn't swoop down on the loose ball, Pouncey will pounce on it.

"The backfield is a combination of cunning, speed and ferocity, with Fox in there thinking, Stagg and Hart sprinting, and Lyon raging around the field, seeking whom he may devour."

NEW YORK TIMES SCORES SUBSIDIARY ATHLETICS

Campus Estimates of Football Hero Not Dependent on Athletic Powers, But on Personality

SUBSIDIZED ATHLETES

Renewed discussion of professionalism in college sports, touched off by The Spectator of Columbia University, may bring Americans closer to sanity and true sportsmanship with respect to these matters. Dean Gauss of Princeton—and any Nassovian will testify that he knows what's going on among the young men—writes that private subsidizing of athletes by alumni, especially football players, goes on in every institution, sometimes without the knowledge even of the player himself. Properly characterizing "our national psychology with regard to athletics" as "regrettable," the Dean concludes that "even professors must endure it . . . . with what patience they can command until such time as public and alumni opinion has been thoroughly reconstructed."

American college football has become a spectacle. The star player is a national hero. On the campus the students estimate him otherwise; he must do more than complete a forward pass and win the game. He must live up to a standard of ethics in personal behavior and ask and accept no favors outside the student code of sportsmanship. But the alumni think of him on the football field only, and the non-college public cares even less how the star player may be fitting himself for the world. The demand is for winning teams and spectacular players. Dean Gauss knows of one alumnus who increased an employee's salary so that he could send his son, a good halfback, to the employer's college. That is the prevailing spirit, and until Americans grow ashamed of doing such things secret subsidies will continue.

At Yale, Harvard and Princeton, which began the football tradition in this country, the faculties are nearly agreed that intramural games will help to check the growing commercial tendency of college athletics, particularly football. Yale has taken athletic control from the alumni and put it in faculty hands. The next steps will be more difficult: to give back the game to the players on the field; to arouse "house" spirit on the campus; to confine outside contests to one or two of the college's ancient rivals, eliminating the long journeys and pointless contests between a university in Vermont, let us say, and one in Arkansas.

When those things are done perhaps even the most enthusiastic alumnus may be persuaded that sportsmanship prescribes that a college or house team should be made of the materials which lie to hand, with no purchased tools or smuggled accessories. Until then we may as well agree with Dean Gauss that many of us are about as sportsmanlike in college contests as if we shot a sitting bird.

Maine is sitting on top of the State Series scramble now, even though the battle with Bowdoin is yet to be staged on Alumni Field this week-end. That game at Colby showed a smooth working group of Stein Songsters that can now fill the old tankard itself and celebrate.
—The Maine Campus.

Well, anyway, the Cadets looked pretty good in their blue uniforms and their drill tactics were almost up to par. (Par being the local R. O. T. C.)—The Connecticut Campus.

WORLD'S CHAMPS ARE ALL SET TO RETAIN TITLE

Gallery firing among the seventy-eight women who are now out for rifle practice, which is held every afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. in half hour divisions, began Monday, November 16; tryouts for the rifle team have just commenced.

Friday classes are reserved for the members of last year's team, who have returned, and for those new tryouts who are doing especially well.

The eight members of last year's team who reported for practice this fall are: Ethel Bishop '33, manager; Esther Smith '33, assistant manager; Marguerite Dunsmore '33, Ruth Goss '32, Daisy Putnam '34, Frances Thomas '33, Marion Urie '33, and Lenda Walker '33.

SPORTS SYMPOSIUM

The death of Richard Sheridan, plucky Army end who suffered a broken neck in the tilt with Yale two weeks ago, has aroused bitter editorial comment throughout the country. "Football has damned itself in the eyes of civilized people," is the keynote of the cry that has been raised.—Utah Chronicle.

Barry Wood is such a nice fellow—no 50-50 clubs for him, if you get what I mean—and he looks so dashing in the news reels that I choose Harvard to defeat those rude boys from Dartmouth.
—Southern California Trojan.

When Notre Dame's ground attack failed, she took to the air and completely demoralized a fighting Pittsburgh eleven. It is such versatility coupled with perfection in the fundamentals that has enabled the Irish to become the most powerful team in the land.—Holy Cross Tomahawk.

Harvard scored a smashing victory over a highly touted Texas eleven. The Longhorns' only bid to greatness was the long trip they undertook to the east and the enthusiasm of their followers. They were completely outclassed by the Crimson but fought with a courage reminiscent of the deeds of their forebears.—Holy Cross Tomahawk.

Two new aspirants for membership in the House of David have been discovered. Two men at the University of Missouri have professed their intention of letting their beards grow, unless the co-eds modify their Eugenic styles. We don't suppose there will be any effect produced, but at least these two men will serve as a visible protest to these "cock-eyed chapeaus."—Holy Cross Tomahawk.

Fair One: Who's that player warming up down on the field, Jack?

He: That's no player, Lil, that's the coach. His team is losing.—Holy Cross Tomahawk.

Lafayette College authorities plan to cooperate with Hoover's commission for unemployment relief in regards to Owen D. Young's suggestion that every college play one football game for charity.
—Bowdoin Orient.

The Kansas State College eleven has departed from the orthodox football lineup and devised one of its own. They have a line without a right tackle and a backfield with two fullbacks. To meet the requirements of the rule makers one of the backs moves up to the line before the ball is snapped back. The efficacy of this system has been demonstrated in Kansas Aggie victories over Kansas and Missouri.—Holy Cross Tomahawk.

Notre Dame's Hunk Anderson not only tore the Tartan jinx to little pieces, but rubbed it in with a flock of shock-troopers and then had Marchmont Schwartz confect a crazy quilt design of brilliant runs for the benefit of the battalion of the doubtful.—Southern California Trojan.

Middlebury 1931 Season

Columbia 61	Middlebury 0
Lowell Textile 21	Middlebury 13
Mass. State 32	Middlebury 6
Middlebury 15	Coast Guard 0
Springfield 54	Middlebury 0
Clarkson Tech 6	Middlebury 0

Norwich 1931 Season

Dartmouth 56	Norwich 6
Bates 34	Norwich 0
Mass. State 33	Norwich 6
Providence 24	Norwich 0
Norwich 26	Vermont 7

—Middlebury Campus

According to latest news reports St. Mary College is finding difficulty in booking football games for the coming season. Evidently the western teams fear the machine which "Slip" Madian has developed on the Pacific coast.—The Carroll News.

FOOTBALL SEASON ENDS WITH BUT ONE GAME WON

Middlebury and Union Games Only Bright Spots to Cheer a Fickle Student Body

Thanksgiving brought the close to many a college grid season. The University of Vermont ended up her own schedule last Saturday. A tired spirit, unsuccessful scores and disabled warriors ruled the practice sessions at the latter part of the season, and the team was not able to turn in the scores that the College liked to see. Yet the students failed to provide the proper support for a team, which was on its last legs.

One victory was credited to the team, and then seven successive defeats were registered. The only bright spot of the season was the thrilling game between Middlebury and Vermont. In this game the line and backfield cooperated to such a degree that the final result could not be forecast until final whistle was blown. Every man played a stellar game which kept the loyal rooters in suspense.

Beginning with the Union game the prospects for a successful year were very bright, and the team started the pigskin off with a victory. Enthusiasm reigned high until the St. John's game, when the gridmen played a mediocre type of football under a warm sultry sun to lose by two touchdowns. The following week the team traveled to Providence where they were again defeated and all the spirit, which was aroused, was squelched.

The final straw which broke the students' faith in the hard working line plungers, was a smothering by a powerful New Hampshire State eleven and immediately afterwards a defeat administered by the Norwich Horsemen. The eleven then traveled to Troy, N. Y. and was licked again, although the odds were all in favor of the Green and Gold aggregation.

The final game of the year is not worth mentioning. Although Vermont refuses to play large teams such as Harvard, Yale and N. Y. U., they play the Gymnasts from Springfield and receive a worse defeat at the hands of a smaller institute than by any of the larger schools.

FIVE FRATERNITIES HOLD DANCES WEDNESDAY EVE.

Five fraternities held their pledge dances last Wednesday evening to conclude the first round of society dances.

Kappa Sigma held its dance at the chapter house. Rialto's Dance Band played the music and Prof. and Mrs. B. C. Douglas and Prof. Melvin Laatsch chaperoned.

Delta Psi danced to the strains of Lechnyr's Band. Prof. and Mrs. F. D. Carpenter and Prof. B. F. Ladd were the chaperones.

Sigma Nu pledgees and members danced to the tunes of Lechnyr's Vermonters. Prof. and Mrs. L. W. Dean and Capt. and Mrs. M. E. Craig chaperoned.

Tau Epsilon Phi danced at the Hotel Van Ness with Max Bergman's orchestra playing the music. Prof. and Mrs. Floyd Woodward were the chaperones.

Phi Mu Delta traveled to Port Henry, N. Y., to dance to the strains coming from Don Murphy's Syncopators. Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sinclair were the chaperones.

Phi Sigma Delta will hold its dance following the Christmas holidays while other fraternities are as yet undecided as to dates.

Lambda Iota, Sigma Phi, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Delta Theta, Zeta Chi, Sigma Delta, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon had held their dances previously.

The joke was on somebody (we don't know whom) when Oregon State lined up against Washington State, the preliminary ceremonies were observed and ye kicker backed up to swing a lusty toe at the bone of contention. There was no such a thing! Somebody forgot to bring a ball.—Southern California Trojan.

Three sets of twins are among the members of Minnesota's tennis squad this year. We wonder how they are going to choose the number one player from among the sets.—The Daily Tar Heel.

Many of the cadets were extremely nervous in the last part of the first half when part of the second stringers were playing and Vermont was forcing them back faster and faster. It was indeed a relief when the whistle blew for the half.
—The Norwich Guidon.

For the smartly attired young University man

CHARTER HOUSE SUITS $35.

...H EXTRA TROUSERS

New Fall styles presented in hardy fabrics; tailored to meet every requirement of well-dressed University men.

CHARTER HOUSE OVERCOATS $40

...iles & Perry Co.

...LEGE CLOTHIERS

Since 1898

100% Camel Hair PILE O'COATS $25

A PARTICULARLY APPEALING COAT: WARM, ROOMY

TURKS of Burlington

JOHN H. BURKE THRILLS ETHAN ALLEN MEMBERS

"Offensive Football" is Coach's Topic As He Talks of Wood, Booth, Tactics, and Thrills

FRESHMAN WOMEN NAMED TO CLASS DEBATE TEAM

REQUIREMENTS FOR ETA SIGMA PHI MAY CHANGE

A change in membership qualifications [illegible] of Iota chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, na-

POPULAR GYMNAST IS CHOSEN HOCKEY MENTOR

[illegible] at a special [illegible] Howard [illegible], head of the physical education department, was appointed varsity hockey coach for the coming season. He takes the place of Hyman W. Abraham [illegible] after guiding the varsity [illegible] Abraham will [illegible] Thursday [illegible] Wednesday [illegible]

The girls in charge of the [illegible] agement house this week [illegible] Willard '32 hostess; Geor[illegible] '32 assistant hostess; Isabe[illegible] ck; Ruth Templeton [illegible] manager; Marie Horak '34 [illegible] Thelma Day '35 and [illegible] freshman assistants.

Zeta Chi announces the pledging of R. S. Wright '35 of Burlington.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

NEWSPAPERS MAGAZINES
GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS & GIFTS SHOP
182A Church Street
LENDING LIBRARY GIFTS

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

STUDENTS!
Select your Personal
CHRISTMAS CARDS
where you will be assured of the Best and Most Artistic
Greetings
See them today at
McAuliffe's
Church & College Sts.—Phone 629

FENNELL'S ORCHESTRA PLAYS AT V. C. A. DANCE

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

In Leathers and Fabrics
$6.00
B. J. BOYNTON

"Varsity"—a smart Gruen wrist watch for men—with link band $55
F. J. Preston & Son, Inc.
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church St.

WHY do more and more smokers say: "I've changed to Chesterfield"

BECAUSE . . .

THEY'RE MILDER. It's the tobaccos! The mildest that money can buy. Ripened and sweetened in the sunshine . . . cured by the farmer . . . then aged for two years in wooden hogsheads.

THEY TASTE BETTER. These tobaccos are put together right. Rich aroma of Turkish and mellow sweetness of Domestic, blended and cross-blended to Chesterfield's own BETTER TASTE.

THEY'RE PURE. Everything that goes into Chesterfield is tested by expert chemists. The purest cigarette paper made, tasteless, odorless. Sanitary manufacture . . . no hands touch your Chesterfields. They're as pure as the water you drink!

THEY SATISFY. You break open a clean, tight-sealed package. You light up a well-filled cigarette. Yes, sir . . . you're going to like this cigarette! And right there is where many a smoker changes to Chesterfield. They Satisfy!

© 1931, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1931 | NUMBER 21

HI OF DARTMOUTH BE HERE FOR VESPERS N SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6 or, Who Also Spoke Here in 9 and 1930 Holds Chair of Comparative Religion

AKER HAS KNOWLEDGE F MANKIND AND WORLD

's Representative at New York ce Conference, Constantly in Touch With Affairs on Three Continents, Lectures Extensively Over Country

Samuel L. Joshi of Dartmouth ge will conduct the vesper servjce Ira Allen Chapel, Sunday, De- r 6. Doctor Joshi, who spoke here larch, 1929, and also in February, holds the chair of comparative re- at Dartmouth.

is fascinating and compelling in anner and speech, is brilliantly edu- and has a polished and delight- clever personality. He descended good Brahman stock in western was partly educated in India and in the United States. He is an nus of Columbia University and has led extensively on three continents. has acquired a wide knowledge of and events and has developed an national mind. His appointment to comparative religion department at mouth College evoked favorable ents from the American press as as from the press of Great Britain India. He is constantly in touch the stream of current affairs in Europe and America. His broad ral outlook, resulting from the com- of Hindoo philosophy and ian traditions, qualifies him to with complete self-confidence, and aste and classic English, of some vital issues that are coming to forefront in the relations of the an nation with the races of Asia.

First Exchange Professor

ofessor Joshi represented India at international Peace Conference in York, delivered the Earl Founda- lectures in California, Carnegie dation lectures on International e, and the Rapis Foundation lec- s at the University of Cincinnati. He the first exchange professor from to this country. He has lectured sively from coast to coast during last eight years.

TIONAL 4-H BROADCAST ILL BE HELD SATURDAY

he Extension Service of the Univer- f Vermont and State Agricultural ge calls the attention of 4-H Club bers of the state to the national 4-H broadcast to be given December 5 month as the first of a series of bly programs sponsored by the Ex- n Service of the United States De- ment of Agriculture.

Learning to Know America's Music" e central theme for the new 4-H adcast achievement series beginning with December 5 program. Each of the bly programs ending with the one cled for June 4 will feature some ting phase of American music. music, negro music, patriotic religious music, country dance favorite music, and the music of te composers will be played by the ed States Marine Band and dis- ed by R. A. Turner during the series. last program, scheduled for July 2, be devoted to a music identification test. Each 4-H boy and girl will be the opportunity of identifying com- s played during the previous proand year a 4-H Club boy and a 4-H l are awarded the Moses 4-H ophy trophy in recognition of their ding 4-H qualities and their s as leaders of rural young The two winners of the 4-H test will be announced at 4-H Congress in Chicago, fol- they will be heard on the program and telegrams that have indicate that the National ment Radio Program on was enthusiastically received been revealed here for the a Knute Rockne Memorial Marine Park, Brooklyn, with a more than 10,000 people, ng football games.

REV. FERGUSON TO SPEAK CHAPEL HOUR WEDNESDAY

Rev. Alfred Floyd Ferguson, at present of the Congregational Church at Middletown Springs, a man keenly interested in social and political, as well as religious, questions will address the coming chapel gathering Wednesday, December 2.

Rev. Ferguson, who came to the United States about seven years ago, was born in Belfast, Ireland, in 1890. While still a young man, in fact at twenty years of age, he was a prospective candidate for Parliamentary honors in the British House of Commons. In Great Britain he was a member of several important committees and is favorable toward state old-age pensions, health and unemployment insurance. The Reverend is also a member of the League of Nations Union, disapproves heartily of war, and is an exponent of the World Court and International Justice. Besides his present position he has served churches in Warren and East Corinth.

MORTAR BOARD TO HAVE COFFEE CUP DISCUSSIONS

Better Co-operation and Greater Democracy is Sought Through Women's Bull Sessions

FREE TUTOR BUREAU IS ALSO TO BE INSTITUTED

Mortar Board will hold its first of a series of Coffee Cup Discussion Hours at 6.45 Thursday evening, December 3, at Robinson Hall. All women students are invited to come. "It is something new and different, not designed to be lengthy or boring," states Margaret Mower, president of the senior group. "The purpose held in mind by the organization is to serve after-dinner coffee informally as the opening note of a campaign among the women students for better co-operation and greater democracy on campus. It presents an opportunity for informal discussion of any nature desired by the students. It is, in a word, an open forum, a student bull-session! Mortar Board hopes to make it a howling success, and they are asking the women for their co-operation. You are not obliged to remain until the end—come when you can—go when you wish—it's very informal and is limited strictly to the women students of the University."

Free Tutor Bureau

Mortar Board is instituting a Free Students' Tutor Bureau for the benefit of those students who need help in college work. In order to maintain such a bureau, it asks students who are willing to devote an hour or so of their time to give their names to Margaret E. Mower at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, or to sign their names on a list on the bulletin board in the "Y" room. The bureau is not limited to women students, it includes any member of the student body. It is designed for the use of any student of the University who has low standing in his college work. That student may apply indirectly to the bureau through the Dean's office, or, directly, to Margaret Mower.

PI BETA PHI OPENS NEW HOME WITH FALL DANCE

The Vermont Beta of Pi Beta Phi opened their new home, on the northwest corner of South Prospect and Cliff Streets, with the fall dance last Saturday evening, November 28.

The chapter room, living room, dining room and hall were ready for the occasion. The rest of the house will not be altogether completed until the latter part of this week when the members of the active chapter plan to move into their rooms. Miss Edith Kirkland of the Westchester District Studios, New Rochelle, New York, decorated the house.

Music for the dance was furnished by the Black Pirates' orchestra. The chaperones were Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Pooley, Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Kidder, and Mr and Mrs. E. F. Horsford of Charlotte Miss Harriet Willard acted as chairman of the entertainment committee.

An important rehearsal of Men's Glee Club will be held tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in the Music Building. Prof. H. G. Bennett wishes to announce that further rehearsals will be determined at this meeting.

U. S. BOYCOTT THREAT COULD END MANCHURIA TROUBLE SAYS BRANNAN

Associate Secretary for War Prevention Council, in I. R. C. Talk, Regards Japan Aggressor

AMERICA CONFRONTED BY 1932 CONFERENCE

"Even a threat of an economic boycott on our part would have brought their military authorities to terms," declared Miss Eleanor D. Brannon of Washington, D. C., discussing Japan's military coup in Manchuria before a small group of members and friends of the International Relations Club in the Fleming Museum auditorium last Wednesday evening.

Miss Branan who is associate secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War chose for her topic "America at the Cross Roads," and included in her lecture a résumé of the present Japanese-Chinese situation along with a discussion of the World Disarmanent Conference which is to be held in February.

Japan Aggressor

"A nation proves itself the aggressor when it resorts to war instead of peaceful means of settlement" declared the speaker, "and in this respect Japan has proved itself guilty."

"America's aloofness from the League of Nations has hampered its growth and work for a stable world," Miss Brannan continued.

"Consider the present crisis in Manchuria. Japan lives by trade and the United States is the best customer, buying 46 percent or almost half of all Japanese exports. If the United States had been a member of the League the military party now in control in Japan would have known that we would stand with the League in an economic boycott, a peril too great to be risked."

Waiting

"At present," she stated, "no one knows where the United States will stand at a moment of crisis. We may describe the situation as one of waiting, the League is waiting for the United States and the United States is waiting for further procedure on the part of the League."

Exploding the theory that Europe alone could force the Japanese to peaceful terms, the speaker went on to say that even if the Europeans did attempt an economic boycott without participation of the United States, the Japanese could proceed merrily with their war as the European merchants would continue to go bankrupt and the United States would reap larger profits.

"The Soviets," the speaker added, "are so determined on peace that they are willing to overlook Japanese indifference in order to have a continuation of their industrial quiet as expressed in the terms of the 'Five Year Plan.'"

Tufts to Debate Here Tomorrow

Bigelow, Donaghy and LaCross to Meet McNiff and Sargent, II

A new debating rival comes to Vermont tonight to encounter the strong varsity in an Oxford style debate at the Fleming Museum. Tufts College for the first time will meet the Vermont varsity debaters on the question, "Resolved, that the several states should adopt legislation providing for a policy of compulsory unemployment insurance." Vermont has the affirmative and Tufts the negative. The debate is informal and will be a no decision tilt. Speaking for Vermont will be the usual three, R. P. Donaghy '33, J. E. Bigelow '33 and P. J. LaCross '32. Francis J. McNiff '33 of Hudson, Mass., and George B. Sargent, II, '32 of Brighton, Mass., will represent Tufts College. Prof. Newell Maynard, debate coach at Tufts, will also accompany the team.

The order of speakers: The first affirmative debater speaks ten minutes, each of the succeeding speakers talks fifteen minutes, then the first affirmative speaker returns for five minutes' refutation.

Student Troupe to Revive Famous Goldsmith Comedy in Annual Fall Theatrical

MC GILL DEFEATS U. V. M. IN DEBATE AT MONTREAL

League of Nations Proves Theme of Great Prejudice by Canadians

DEBATERS FOR VERMONT SHOW UP SPLENDIDLY

"Resolved that the United States should join the League of Nations" proved a subject too controversial for the University debaters, R. P. Donaghy, J. E. Bigelow and P. J. LaCross last Wednesday evening against McGill University at Montreal. The decision went against them two to one. However, in an audience vote on the merits of the question and in no way influenced by the debate the McGill student body and assembled citizens showed themselves to be over prejudiced in favor of the entry of the United States into the League.

Wesley Frost

The Montreal Daily Star reporting the debate mentioned Honorable Wesley Frost, American Consul-General in Montreal and one of the board of judges as having cast a dissenting vote holding the Vermonters' logic superior to that of the Canadians. In speaking of the Vermont debaters the Star said in part, "The verdict went against them not from lack of ability but because they had to defend the action of the United States in staying out of the League of Nations."

Mock Parliament

The debate was held in a so-called "Mock Parliament" under the guidance of the speaker H. Carl Goldenberg, president of McGill Debating Union. The speeches in the debate were twelve minutes in length with a five minute rejoinder for the first affirmative speaker.

The McGill debaters, A. H. Zaitlan and Wilson Beckett upheld the affirmative with Vermont taking the negative.

Following the constructive speeches while the judges had retired for consultation, the house was thrown open to informal discussion. Several McGill students primed for the occasion delivered lengthy prepared addresses which grew boresome because of their likeness to each other but which remained of interest because of the varied accents of the different speakers who represented all parts of the British Empire.

Summaries of each side were next in order, Zaitlan speaking for McGill and LaCross for Vermont.

Question?

A member of the audience inclined toward the American point of view asked the McGill debaters a question relative to the differences between the Monroe Doctrine and the League. Distraction was immediately evidenced in the affirmative camp and a hasty summons was sent for a young law student of McGill David Lewis who last year debated Vermont at Burlington, to come to answer the question.

After a half-hour's discussion Lewis with much hedging and beating about the bush concluded with the unsupported statement: "The League of Nations to be a League of Nations must be a League of Nations in order that we may have a League of Nations to be a League of Nations."

H. G. BENNETT TO DIRECT ANNUAL XMAS CONCERT

The annual Christmas concert will be given on Sunday, December 20, at 4 o'clock in the Ira Allen Chapel under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett, head of the Music department. At this concert the choir will be assisted by the University of Vermont Orchestra. Some selections will be rendered by the choir and orchestra combined and others will be presented separately. Christmas carols will be sung in both men's and women's voices and selections given from Handel's "Messiah" and the "Christmas Oratorio" by Bach. Soloists for the concert have not yet been decided upon.

"She Stoops to Conquer," in Five Acts, Will Be Presented Next Thursday Evening, 8.15 O'clock, at Strong Theatre

TICKETS NOW AVAILABLE AT STORE AND STRONG

"A revival of an old play, but one characterized by the most delightful humor and which is, of course, deservedly famous," declared Prof. John T. Metcalf, in part speaking of the annual fall play, "She Stoops to Conquer," which will be presented by a student cast Thursday evening, December 3, in the Strong Theater, at 8.15 o'clock.

"She Stoops to Conquer," or "Mistakes of a Night," is a comedy in five acts written by Oliver Goldsmith. It is under the direction of Professor Metcalf of the Psychology department, who, for several years has directed both the fall and spring plays presented annually by the student thespians of the University of Vermont.

The Play

Following is a résumé of "She Stoops to Conquer"

Stewart Wright, in the character of Squire Hardcastle, decides to marry his daughter Kate (Dorothy Murphy) to the son of Sir Charles Marlow (Jack Libby) an old and well-esteemed acquaintance. He informs Kate he has received an epistle from Sir Charles stating young Marlow (Paul Westin) is journeying to visit the Hardcastles at their home, and that he, Sir Charles, would arrive later. At this point the Squire's step-son, Tony Lumpkin (Fred Householder), a mischievous, loudish dissipator, also very fond of practical jokes, enters into the web of the plot. Young Marlow and his friend, Hastings (Sam Barker) lose their way and go to a hostelry. Tony, at the inn, with his debauching friends, seeking revenge on his step-father, deceives the two. He directs them to a supposed inn, which turns out to be the Hardcastle estate. On their arrival many disagreements and interesting situations develop. They think the Squire is an innkeeper, treating him as such to his surprise and disgust. Young Marlow has one outstanding eccentricity. Among respectable, cultured women, he is shy and easily embarrassed. Thus we see him when he first encounters Miss Hardcastle. Later, seeing Kate in simple house costume, he mistakes her for the barmaid and she, being young and foolish keeps up the deception. Thus the title, "She Stoops to Conquer," is derived. He (Marlow) loses all restraints, thinks she is barmaid, and makes atrocious love to her. In the meantime, there is a sub plot in the process of development. Hastings is in love with Kate's cousin and the Squire's ward, Constance Neville (Hope Ranalow). Mrs. Hardcastle wants her to forsake her true love, and marry the irrepressible Tony. There is, however, no mutual love between Tony and Constance.

The three vitally concerned in this tangle fix up a plan among themselves for Constance and Hastings to elope. Misunderstandings develop. Tony finally straightens this difficulty, whereupon Young Marlow is disillusioned as to the reality of the inn.

The arrival of Sir Charles Marlow smooths all existing entanglements, the affair is taken as a huge joke and, as can be said, the lovebirds live happily for ever and ever.

The Cast

The cast chosen from four classes consists of seven seniors, four juniors, four

(Continued on page 4)

SLADE HALL IS BEST OF WOMEN'S DORMITORIES

Slade Hall ranks first of the women's dormitories, as rated by Mortar Board members last week, on the basis of appearance of individual rooms, dormitory as a whole, and observance of house rules. Next in order are: Robinson Hall, Alpha Chi Omega house, Redstone, Kappa Alpha Theta house, Allen house, Rand Hall, Grassmount, and Campus house.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The official student newspaper of the University of Vermont

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] CARTER '32 — Editor-in-Chief
FRED W. HOUSEHOLDER '32 — Managing Editor
SAMUEL P. PELOUSKY '32 — Sports Editor
[illegible] M. [illegible] '32 — Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS
[illegible] '33

SPORTS NEWS
[illegible]

WOMEN'S NEWS
[illegible]

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR
Paul J. Lefevre '32

FEATURE EDITORS
[illegible] T. J. Taylor '33

COLUMNIST
E. Wiseman '34

TYPIST
[illegible]

REPORTERS

General News: [illegible]
Sports News: [illegible]
Women's News: Norma Carter '33, Augusta Cohen '34, Dorothy Edwards '33, Dorothy [illegible]

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

[illegible] — Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

[illegible] during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year. [illegible] Any local notices should be handed in at the Cynic office by 4 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

[illegible] at special rate provided for in Section [illegible]

Printed at Burlington Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] December 1, 1931 — Number 21

"HIE YOURSELVES TO THE STRONG"

It is noted with great interest that we note the coming presentation on Thursday evening next of the immortal Oliver Goldsmith's [illegible] "She Stoops to Conquer." A cast, selected by a most competent group of judges from among the aspiring young [illegible] has been striving for weeks now, polishing off the rough edges, carefully moulding itself to an ultimate stage of perfection, in order that an audience, critical though it may be, [illegible] Coach Prof. John T. Metcalf, not [illegible] a tragedy just as may well be said, a true inspirational leader, has been giving generously of his time, throwing himself into the work with a vigor born from a love of the theater.

We wonder, are we not strangely in view of noticeable demonstrations of the past, whether or not a certain cheerfulness shown by the cast as they proceed through final preparations, and whether or not an optimism as regards what show-night may bring, is all in vain. Do you not misunderstand, for there is always a feeling of satisfaction in a thing well done. Consider rather from this point of view. The play is unfortunately a University production; it should claim the attention of every student able to scrape up the cost of admission. It is as much deserving of student backing as any athletic contest in which the Green and Gold ever entered. The question, as it were, troubling us, is do other Vermonters feel as we do on the matter?

Certainly a student comes to college not merely to drudge his way day in and day out to classes, and just as certainly he does not come to spend four years of his life rollicking on a care-free way, searching to satisfy purely Hedonistic yearnings. To the dyed-in-the-wool individual, however, who attends an institution of learning, there is something [illegible] something higher back of it all. He finds, or should find, himself in a cultural setting (not, of course, denying the existence, at the moment, of [illegible] in a lighter mood, and faster tempo) waiting to be absorbed into his very life blood, as a part of his permanent make-up.

You ask, what has all this to do with the annual tall play coming this Thursday? Our answer is simply this: "She Stoops to Conquer" is one of the masterpieces of English literature, and as such alone should vitally interest you. More than that, to you who never have "taken in" one of Vermont's dramatic productions, there is some one part of your college education unnecessarily neglected, just one tiny blank space staring fretfully from out of the background of your cultural development.

We promise you, to be sure, nothing that will surpass your popular concept of Broadway's famed theatrical productions. You are, on the other hand, assured of a most pleasant evening of jolly good fun, sprinkled here and there with a bit of the darker side of life. You'll be carried back to the era of George Washington, and to rural England; while, to get back once more, a diligently studious cast will interpret for you the characters in their original roles.

Consider now, once more, will the endeavors of this earnest group of players, including Professor Metcalf, fail? Are they to look back with a tinge of bitterness to a December evening, in the year 1931, when they opened to a house in which but a few of the faithful gathered to do homage? We say they are not! They must not! If you feel lethargic and disinterested, get it out of your systems once and for all, and be yourselves on Thursday evening to the Strong Theater.

The purpose of an education is to help find the truth in order that we may do the right.—Ida Lloyd Edwards.

I judge people by what they might be—not are, nor will be.—Robert Browning.

A man's knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers.—Tennyson.

Campus Comment

[illegible] the Editor of the Cynic:

Upon [illegible] the local literary society [illegible] a better interest in the writing [illegible] Through its meetings [illegible] a prize was awarded [illegible] a humorous story in a meeting [illegible] I suppose [illegible] last meeting of the [illegible] the preceding issues on [illegible] [illegible] November 5 and [illegible] [illegible] to help the good [illegible]

[illegible] organization is founded on the [illegible] of promoting [illegible] worthwhile purposes. When that purpose is [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

SPORTING NEWS

aseball Schedule Released Shows Ten-Game Spring Trip

rsity Schedule Including Twenty-eight Games Extends Through Usual Southern Trip and Home Series

Abell, graduate manager, and Morgan '32, manager of varsity released the 1932 baseball Twenty eight games have been diamond team's competi- annual southern trip, which baseball season, takes in ten beginning with William and and ending with Rutgers Georgetown has been dropped schedule because the students vacation. There will be no Catholic University this year is no team for the current that school. On Memorial Columbians meet Tufts Col- at Dartmouth. The Green will play the West Point team this year.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE—1932

26	William and Mary	There
28	Univ of Richmond	There
30	Med. Col. of Va.	There
6	Navy	There
31	Univ of Delaware	There
1	Lehigh	There
2	Princeton	There
4	Manhattan	There
5	Seton Hall	There
	Rutgers	There
21	Tufts	There
22	Boston University	There
23	Boston College	There
5	Norwich	There
5	Boston University	Here
9	St. Michael's	There
12	Middlebury	There
14	Williams	Here
17	New Hampshire	There
18	Dartmouth	There
21	Dartmouth	Here
24	Middlebury	Here
29	Norwich	Here
28	Army	Here
30	Tufts	Here
4	St. Michael's	Here
17	St. Lawrence	Here
18	Alumni	Here

WOMEN'S HOOP PRACTICE WILL BEGIN THURSDAY

Women's basketball practice will begin Thursday, December 3, with the following practice schedule: Seniors and juniors at 4.00; sophomores at 4.30, freshmen at 5.00. All women who intend to practice are requested to sign their name, the position they play, and the number of years which they have played, on the designated chart in the "Y" room.

From all appearances the cheer leaders seem to have been playing pick-up in the card game at the stadium Saturday.

—University Daily Kansan.

JOHN H. BURKE

New mentor of the Catamount varsity football squad, who was recently appointed by the Athletic Council to succeed Coach Dunn, resigned.

Burke is New Coach; Bedell And Bowers are Co-captains

Former Kitten Coach and Present Basketball Mentor Will Take Over Reins from Dunn—Assistants not Announced—Co-captains a new Feature

SULLIVAN AND BROWN ARE THE NEW MANAGERS

John H. Burke was elected coach of varsity football at the last meeting of the Athletic Council as announced by Professor Donahue. He will probably have two assistants to help him produce winning combinations. The freshman coach and Burke's assistants will be announced later.

Coincident with this announcement came the news that W. R. Bedell and L. L. Bowers will be co-captains for the season of 1932. W. R. "Skippy" Bedell is a member of the class of '33, majoring in Economics and is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. L. L. Bowers is also a member of the class of '33, majoring in Education and is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Coach J. Homer Burke, former Vermont Academy mentor and successor to David Dunn, is also coach of the varsity basketball squad. He will have many of his former pupils working for him again next season in the persons of Saba, Sowka, now ineligible, Wesoly and a host of others not to mention the members of the past frosh team.

Burke plans to have his men working out all this winter in order to have them in proper condition for next year. His linemen he wishes to have take up wrestling and boxing while his backs will be busy handling a basketball. All three of these sports are excellent for football men to hold them keep in condition and to enable them to perform more efficiently in action.

With the coming of Burke as coach of the varsity both students and alumni see the end of Vermont's athletic depression and a return to the excellent teams of former years. J. Homer is an excellent handler of men and the type that calls out the best in his proteges. His past record speaks for itself and needs no repetition.

The elections of the following men to managerships were as follows: Varsity manager, A. M. Sullivan; freshman manager, C. S. Brown, assistant varsity managers, D. W. Jenks, C. B. Eaton, T. Cogswell.

FIVE VERMONT PLAYERS ARE ON COMPOSITE TEAM

Saba, Delfausse, Farmer Are Picked by Middlebury Sports Editor on First All-Team

Five Vermont players received positions on the composite all-state football team compiled by the Middlebury Campus from the all teams chosen by Coach David L. Dunn of Vermont, Coach Ben H. Beck of Middlebury, Capt. E. M. Winant of Vermont, the Norwich team and the Campus. These men were M. H. Farmer, J. J. Delfausse, E. G. Saba, J. L. Morgan, and Capt. E. M. Winant. The composite team was as follows:

First Team		Second Team
Thrasher, M.	le	le, N. Sipsey
MacLean, M.	lt	lt, V. Morgan
Lovell, M.	lg	lg, M. Jocelyn
Corliss, M.	c	c, N. Fanos
Farmer, V.	rg	rg, N. Lemaire
Martin, N.	rt	rt, M. Loveday
Delfausse, V.	re	re, M. Reid
Saba, V.	qb	qb, M. Yeomans
Holmes, N.	lh	lh, N. O'Brien
Hoyle, M.	rh	rh, V. Winant
Hartrey, M.	fb	fb, N. DelVecchio

The Norwich team included four Vermont men on its all team.

Norwich Team's Choice

First Team		Second Team
Thrasher, M.	le	le, N. Caswell
Martin, N.	lt	lt, M. Loveday
Lovell, M.	lg	lg, N. Bunting
Fanos, N.	c	c, M. Corliss
Farmer, V.	rg	rg, M. Jocelyn
MacLean, M.	rt	rt, V. Morgan
Sorenson, M.	re	re, V. Delfausse
O'Brien, N.	qb	qb, M. Yeomans
Hartrey, M.	lh	lh, V. Winant
Hoyle, M.	rh	rh, N. Holmes
DelVecchio, N.	fb	fb, N. Brown

Vermont's all-team, chosen by Coach Dunn with the help of Assistant Coach Levine, appeared in the Cynic of November 20.

All seniors who have not received their 1932 Ariels may do so by paying their Ariel tax at Book Store. Ariels are also on sale at the Book Store.—G. E. Wilder, Bus. Mgr.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL LEAGUE

FIRST HALF

Seniors vs. Juniors	December 8	6.00 P.M.
Sophomores vs. Freshmen	December 10	6.00 P.M.
Seniors vs. Sophomores	December 12	2.00 P.M.
Juniors vs. Freshmen	December 12	3.00 P.M.
Seniors vs. Freshmen	December 15	6.00 P.M.
Juniors vs. Sophomores	December 17	6.00 P.M.

SECOND HALF

Seniors vs. Juniors	January 5	6.00 P.M.
Sophomores vs. Freshmen	January 7	6.00 P.M.
Seniors vs. Sophomores	January 9	2.00 P.M.
Juniors vs. Freshmen	January 9	3.00 P.M.
Seniors vs. Freshmen	January 12	6.00 P.M.
Juniors vs. Sophomores	January 14	6.15 P.M.

Winner of first half will play winner of second half for the championship at date to be announced.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL VOTES INSIGNIAS TO ATHELTES

Fifty-five Green and Gold Athletes Honored at Meeting of Athletic Council Tuesday

Last Tuesday the Athletic Council gave out 55 sports insignia. Of these, 21 letters were given for varsity football and eight for varsity cross-country. Numerals were awarded to 19 freshman football and five cross-country men.

Of the 21 varsity football awards, nine went to sophomores. Football letters went to Capt. E. M. Winant, M. H. Farmer, J. J. Delfausse, J. M. Wood, E. G. Saba, S. H. Manning, W. R. Bedell, J. L. Morgan, M. L. Powell, Jr., L. L. Bowers, P. E. Bove, N. H. Press, H. C. Davis, F. E. Wegner, S. C. Taft, O. W. Jay, B. B. Blodgett, R. S. Wesoly, H. M. McGrath, J. A. Rust, G. J. Rapuano, and Manager A. O. Eaton.

Varsity cross-country letters were awarded to Capt. H. I. Varney, G. E. Wilder, J. H. Woodruff, R. P. Hadley, C. B. Harwood, R. I. Brooks, H. J. Leach, and Manager C. H. Wheeler.

Freshman football numerals were given to Capt. Joseph Hamilton, G. H. Beardsley, G. H. Cook, Jr., P. R. Caracciola, R. J. Delfausse, L. A. Giardi, H. J. Holley, J. L. Kingsland, Jr., F. J. Lanahan, D. F. Mori, A. V. Nevulis, J. Passerini, J. J. Reynolds, P. L. Ricci, D. J. Rock, N. J. Schaffer, H. R. Schmarr, and G. H. Sheehe. Manager P. E. Westin was given a minor letter.

Cross-country numerals went to the following freshmen: Capt. R. W. Hurley, Jr., M. E. Merchant, G. A. Rogers, J. G. Southworth, and W. D. White.

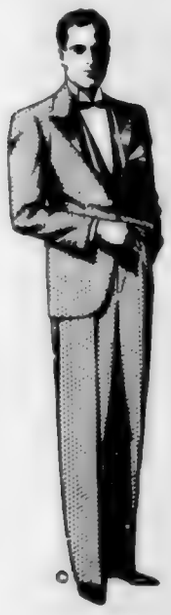
All college women living under Student Government Rules are required to meet Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Grassmount. Attendance will be taken.

The president of Eta Sigma Phi wishes to announce, that, in his absence, a method of holding meetings was arranged which is satisfactory to him. Indeed he had the the same idea. Meetings will be called regularly every two weeks, and those who can go, go, and those who can't, don't.

STUDENTS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE AT BOSTON

Several students, representing the University, will be sent by the Vermont Christian Association and the International Relations Club to the student disarmament conference which is to be held December 3, 4 and 5 at Boston.

The plans for the conference germinated in a series of spontaneous student movements in the various schools of Greater Boston, and the purpose of the meeting, as stated by the committee in charge, is to inform and inspire delegates who may be sent from the various colleges of New England. It is expected that at least 350 delegates are to be present at the conference, for which the registration is but $1.



Dr. Mary Woolley, president of Mt. Holyoke College, has been invited to act as chairman for this intercollegiate meet. In the opening evening, Thursday, the keynote speech will be delivered by Prof. S. Ralph Harlow of Smith College, to be followed by a talk by Prof. Sidney Fay of Harvard University.

"Round Tables"

The second day of the conference is to introduce a group of round table discussions lasting from 9 to 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, at which time Professor Harlow will tell of the Disarmament Conference scheduled for Geneva in 1932. "Militarism in Education" will be the topic of the Revs. J. Paul Williams of Massachusetts Agricultural College and Gardiner Day of Williams; while the "Influence of the Press for Peace" and "Student Organizations for Peace" will be generally discussed.

The program for the rest of the day will see "Student Activity for Peace in America" discussed by Prof. E. S. Brightman of Boston University; "Giving Our Time and Energy to World Disarmament" by Jessie Wilson Sayre, daughter of the late Woodrow Wilson; and "The Place of Russia in World Peace" by J. B. Mathews.

On Saturday the round tables will be continued, and student speakers from each college represented will have a chance to express themselves. The conference will then be concluded by summary and inspirational speeches by the Revs. Sidney Lovett and John Haynes Holmes.

A SMART
TUX

Coat, Trousers
and
Waist Coat

$25.00

TURKS of Burlington

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

Look Sensational
Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c, 51c, 61c
Watches 79c
Look
Cut Rate Prices
Alarm Clocks, 79c, guaranteed

CIGARS
Reg. Prices Our Prices
10c 3 for 25c
2 for 25c 10c
White Owls—5c

CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs. for 27c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold

Gillette & Proback Blades
5 for 36c—10 for 70c

Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c

TOBACCO SPECIALS
All 10c pkgs. ....3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c
Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.

CITY NEWS AGENCY
148 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

STUDENT TROUPE WILL GIVE GOLDSMITH'S PLAY

(Continued from page 1)

night-riders and one freshman. The complete personnel is as follows:

Young Marlow	Paul Weston '32
Hastings	Tom Barker '31
Tony Lumpkin	Fred Hunnewell '31
Squire Hardcastle	Stewart Wright '33
Mrs. Charles Marlow	Ann Louise '34
Diggory	S. Nathan Spector '31
Roger	S. Pierce '34
Tom	E. J. Hildreth '32
Jeremy	E. J. Fitzgerald '32
Landlord	J. F. Bigelow '33
Mrs. Hardcastle	Sylvia Wood '31
Kate Hardcastle	Dorothy Murphy '33

Assistant Stage Manager: Hugo Ramirez '31
Costumes: Isabelle Holmes '31

Tickets on Sale

The cast was selected by a committee of judges comprising Professors Asher Tupper and Messrs. Towne and Dean. The committee on properties is headed by James Marvin and Antoinette Hubbard while Margaret Martin heads the committee on costumes. The costumes date back to 1773, the era of George Washington, and the authentic effects will add a picturesque element to the production. Tickets are on sale at the University Book Store and the Strong Theater.

Instruction in bridge is regularly given at the College of the City of New York.

FOOTBALL HOP, TO BE DIRECTED BY MICHELMAN, SCHEDULED FOR DEC. 5

The Football Hop, one of the fall social season's most popular affairs, sponsored annually by the sophomore class is to be held, under the direction of Ralph Michelman '34 at the University Gymnasium, on Saturday evening, December 5.

During intermission as has been the custom, Key and Serpent society will present the senior football lettermen with Vermont blankets.

Chaperones for the dance, announced to the chairman, are Professor and Mrs. Carpenter and Professor and Mrs. Stmeford while Minotti's improved dance band is to furnish the syncopation.

Serving on the committee are Norman Meyers, Bernard Mulcahy and William Gilbert.

BOWLING CLASSES WILL START TOMORROW AT 3

Classes in bowling which will begin December 2 will be held at 3 and at 4 o'clock every Wednesday at the bowling alley opposite the Post Office.

There will be ten classes and three cuts allowed in order to make the class teams which are chosen at the end of that time. Freshmen especially are urged to come out and try for the team.

Smith bought a parrot which he was assured was a good talker and would soon learn to repeat everything spoken in its presence.

A month later, however, he returned to the shop with the bird.

"What's the matter with the parrot?" asked the dealer.

"W-w-why," replied Smith, "the d-d-darn b-b-bird s-s-stutters!"—Manchester Evening Chronicle.

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.
Two doughnuts and all the coffee you desire for 10 cents.
Brownies
Cup Cakes
Pastries
Sodas
LUNCHES

FRESHNESS
—that's the thing!
CAMELS are never parched or toasted

HAVE you noticed the new trend in cigarettes?—freshness is the popular thing.

That's because a fresh cigarette, as demonstrated by Camels, is something smokers have discovered as better than anything they ever tried before.

Camels are fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack because they're made fresh to start with — blended of choice, delicately mild, sun-ripened tobaccos in which the natural moisture and fragrant flavors are vigilantly safeguarded.

The tobaccos in Camels are never parched or toasted — the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees against that.

That's why we say with so much assurance that Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

Try Camels' freshness for a change. Switch over for just one day, then change back — if you can.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.

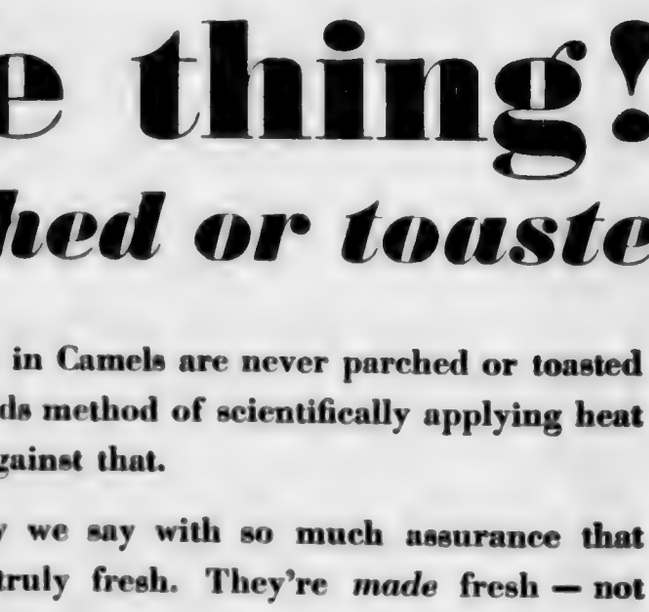
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Coast-to-Coast Radio Programs



CAMEL QUARTER HOUR, Morton Downey, Tony Wons, and Camel Orchestra, direction Jacques Renard, every night except Sunday, Columbia Broadcasting System

PRINCE ALBERT QUARTER HOUR, Alice Joy, "Old Hunch," and Prince Albert Orchestra, direction Paul Van Loan, every night except Sunday, N. B. C. Red Network

See radio page of local newspaper for time

CAMELS
Made FRESH—Kept FRESH

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfumes and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

© 1931, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1931 — NUMBER 22

ED STATES MUST CK LEAGUE TO SOLVE CRISIS IN MANCHURIA

nment Needs Citizen Support Declares Professor Carroll lear Discussion of Sino-Japanese Situation

A AGREES TO LET MISSION INVESTIGATE

e Occupation of Manchurian tory Rests Upon Twenty-one mands Forced Upon China reason to believe that, vernment of the United States ressionally support the League of positive action against Japan, problem in the Far East will be solved," states Prof. D. B. the Political Science Depart-the government of the States did start out courageously the League of Nations and ed to retrace its steps attacks from strongly supnationalist and die-hard isolationpapers. Instead of this, the needed and should have rewholehearted support of every citizen.

Council of the League of Nations, by the government of the States, has induced China to take all of her troops out of and to allow Japanese troops in Manchuria while an interCommission goes to the Far East out what is wrong with China. hey hope. Japan will allow them

Imperialism of Japan

ort of Japan to secure a foothold mainland of Asia dates from the Japanese War (1894-1895). The at stake in this war involved no hat Japanese lives or Japanese were in jeopardy. The war was fought because China objected g Japanese officials reorganize the ent of Korea, a dependency of In the treaty of peace, China ized the independence of Korea, Formosa and the Pescadores to and paid Japan a large indemnity. years later (1910), Japan annexed meantime, Japan had fought Rus04-1905) presumably because Rusterests were threatening to enupon the Japanese sphere of in in Korea. At the conclusion of ar, Russia was forced to surrender her rights in South Manchuria, cluded twenty-five year leases on uth Manchurian Railway and the extremity of the Liaotung Pen-

Twenty-five Year Leases

It should be added, perhaps, Roosevelt's offer of the good offices government of the United States a termination of the conflict the conference at Portsmouth ted a crushing defeat of Japan.) ment into the World War, pre because of her treaty of alliance England. But that alliance was enonto to protect the interests of the ntries in the Far East. The Far interests of England were not ed in August, 1914. Moreover, aty of alliance surely assumed that country would come to the aid other until requested to do so. entered the World War without ust from England that she do so. ver, England did not permit forces to act alone in the attack the German forces at Tsingtao.

enty-one Notorious Demands

the powers of Western Europe still involved in the World War, submitted (in 1915) her notorious demands to China. She tried publication of these demands accepted them in their en the ingenuity of an Ameriexpert reporter, they became world and Japan was forced them somewhat.

accepted them as originally would practically have sovereignty to Japan. Japan secure important conChina, including German Shantung and the extension of year leases which Japan from Russia to ninety-nine

Washington Conference, Japan surrender the Kiaochow

(Continued on page 3)

FOOTBALL BLANKETS TO LETTERMEN TOMORROW

Vermont's Annual Football Hop will be run off tomorrow evening at the University gymnasium. At this dance the Vermont blankets symbols of attainment on the football field will be presented to the graduating lettermen by Key and Serpent Society.

Minotti's orchestra will play for the dance which will be chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. Carpenter and Professor and Mrs. Stineford.

The committee in charge of the dance are Ralph Michelman, chairman, Norman Myers, Bernard Mulcahy, William Gilbert and Philip Gould. The dance is sponsored annually by the sophomore class.

Doctor Joshi Here Sunday

Dartmouth Professor Will Conduct Vesper Service at Ira Allen Chapel

SPEAKER IS WELL KNOWN TO VERMONT STUDENTS

An old friend of Vermont students will return to Burlington when Dr. Samuel L. Joshi of Dartmouth College conducts the vesper service at the Ira Allen Chapel next Sunday afternoon.

Doctor Joshi who has spoken here twice before is professor of comparative religions at Dartmouth.

Favorable Comments

He is fascinating and compelling in his manner and speech, is brilliantly educated, and has a polished and delightfully clever personality. He descended from good Brahman stock in western India, was partly educated in India and partly in the United States. He is an alumnus of Columbia University and has traveled extensively on three continents. He has acquired a wide knowledge of men and events and has developed an international mind.

His appointment to the comparative religion department at Dartmouth College evoked favorable comments from the American press as well as from the press of Great Britian and India. He is constantly in touch with the stream of current affairs in Asia, Europe and America. His broad cultural outlook, resulting from the combination of Hindoo philosophy and Christian traditions, qualifies him to speak with complete self-confidence, and in chaste and classic English, of some of the vital issues that are coming to the forefront in the relations of the American nation with the races of Asia.

Represented India

Professor Joshi represented India at the International Peace Conference in New York, delivered the Earl Foundation lectures in California, Carnegie Foundation lectures on International Peace, and the Rapis Foundation lectures at the University of Cincinnati. He was the first exchange professor from India to this country. He has lectured extensively from coast to coast during the last eight years.

DR. MIDGLEY TO SPEAK BEFORE RESEARCH CLUB

Dr. A. R. Midgley, research agronomist of the University of Vermont, will lecture on the "Cause and the Nature of Soil Activity" before the Research Club on December 15.

Doctor Midgley will explain that the soils east of the Mississippi River, are sufficiently acid so as to require some lime before they can produce the maximum crop yields. The cause of this acidity and the proper method to overcome it has received much attention from the agronomist and the soil chemist. Only recently has the main soil acid been isolated. The material resembles that used in the water softening industry, and exchanges base or hydrogen according to circumstances. When the material is freed of bases it becomes saturated with hydrogen and thus exhibits acid properties. The hydrogen can later be replaced by bases such as calcium when the limestone is applied.

In as much as the water softening industry has commercialized on a "base exchange" principle that is applicable to soils, the speaker will describe it in detail. Soil difference between the acid and humid regions will be discussed together with methods of determining soil acidity.

Kake Walk Appears Hull Down on Vermont's Winter Social Horizon

By William Bagley.

Kake Walk, an event unique to the University of Vermont, as no other college has presented anything like it in the past once again looms on the University social horizon. Now that Thanksgiving is over various fraternities whose turn it is to compete will begin to devote time and thought to the preparation of stunts and kake walking.

Spirit, such as this entertainment displays is found wherever there have been colleges. In the days before the Civil War it was shown at Vermont when each year the boys would exhibit their skill in military tactics. Next a sort of a peerade that students developed to give vent to excess spirit came forth which some years later it became customary for the junior and senior classes to put on some fantastic minstrel show the evening before the freshman-sophomore football game.

1893

In the CYNIC of December 23, 1893, lost among various items in the "Locals" column was found the following historic topic: "The social event of the season was the 'Kake Walk' held in Armory Hall, December 19. A large number of students were present and social hilarity was indulged in until a late hour. The costumes were very appropriate and formed a feature of the entertainment. The faculty and ladies were conspicuous by their absence. This was the humble beginning and even more humble announcement of the mighty Kake Walk as we know it.

Let us see what Dr. E. G. Randall '97 at present who took part in this orgasm known as the Kake Walk, writing in the CYNIC of March 16 1907, has to say about this original performance: "F. T. Sharp after one conference with a few men in No. 6 South College, wrote a letter inviting all those who might be interested to partake in a Kake Walk to be held in the old 'Drill Hall' under the Chapel the next evening." (This drill hall has since been divided into the rooms occupied by the college store, department of education and offices.)

The nature of the festivity was left to the ingenuity of the participants and the spontaneity with which all classes entered into the affair augured well for its perpetuity as a college custom. Very little was done in the way of preparation of the hall. Lanterns and lamps were produced to help out with the illumination. A goodly cake, notwithstanding it was an issue of the 'hash house' was provided.

Krazy Kake Walk

To quote from the '95 Ariel: "Three squeaking fiddles, a melodium and a trombone of brasse furnished the toon. And merry was the musick as they played, and joyous was the daunce as any maybe. . . . There were couples from the highest in military glory to the most abject barbarism of the South Sea Islands. There were highly tinted but comely ballet maids, howbeit of masculine proportions, clowns and gypsies. Hilarity was the order of the day and

(Continued on page 2)

THE UNITED STATES IN WORLD AFFAIRS TO BE

Will Be Professor Shotwell's Subject In Next University Lecture

The fourth University lecture will be delivered by James T. Shotwell, director of the division of economics and history of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, who speaks at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, December 10 in the gymnasium.

The topic of Professor Shotwell's discussion will be "The United States In World Affairs." The lecture is open to the public as well as the University and all who are interested are cordially invited. An amplifer will be used.

Since 1900 Professor Shotwell has been a teacher of history in Columbia University becoming adjunct professor in 1904 and full professor in 1907. In the field of historical criticism he ranks high, his book, "Introduction to the History of History" being regarded as an important contribution to the new history.

Since the closing years of the War Professor Shotwell has been actively engaged, and has played an influential rôle, in many activities related to organizing the League of Nations and its subsidiary bureaux, and to the education of public opinion in questions and problems and principles relating to the contacts and rivalries of nations in the international field. In 1929 he published "War as an Instrument of National Policy" and in 1931 he inaugurated The Carnegie Endowment Studies in World Economy with a notable essay called: "The conditions of enduring prosperity."

An Old Friend Here

Professor Shotwell lectured in the first series of University lectures at U. V. M. January 14, 1927. At that time he was on the eve of departing for Germany, where by government request he conducted a seminar and other courses for the official staff of the German foreign office. It is generally thought that he had a quiet but important part in certain events, the dénouement of which was the acceptance by the civilized nations of the Kellogg Peace Pact.

At the time of his first lecture at Vermont Professor Shotwell charmed his audience with his sonorous eloquence and impressed them with his intellectual power. Combining the temper of the scholar with the polish and the vigor of diction of the Websterian School, he discussed questions of international policy against a background of fact and opinion drawn from numerous and intimate contacts with men of prestige and power in the nations of the world and the activities of the League.

REV. FERGUSON SPEAKS ON RELIGION AND LIFE

Congregational Pastor of Middletown Springs Addresses Chapel Services Wednesday

"Religion and Life" was the subject given at Chapel exercises on Wednesday by the Rev. Alfred F. Ferguson, pastor of the Congregational Church at Middletown Springs, Vt.

"Life around us seems at first attempt too complex, and too baffling to explain," he began, following introduction by Dean Hills of the College of Agriculture. "If we watch the life of a great city as it passes in the streets, clubs and offices, it seems to defy all our interpretations."

Pathos and comedy, joy and bitterness, brutality and high idealism all mingle. There is all this vast mass of men and women, high and low, rich and poor, learned and unlearned, one with another, each life being its own secret, all of them going about their business, each seeking some purpose of his own, yet all apparently at cross purposes. The human drama has in truth no meaning except in so far as we succeed in relating all of it to God.

Our life within us is also a tangle of conflicting impulses, so hurried, so distracted, so unjust—a hundred tasks, a hundred hopes and fears, so seldom harmonized or unified. And there is that vital question: "What is the innermost meaning of this, my life?"

Essence of Life

To relate life in all its breadth and range to God, and the purposes of God, that, in its essence is Religion. To relate life to God whose character is revealed to us in Christ Jesus, and to live it in the spirit of the master, that is the Christian Religion.

If we look back on history, we will find that religion has always been a social thing, and Worship expresses itself in a score of different ways. The artist stung with the splendor of his vision, the researcher, with his austere recognition of the majesty of truth, the mother seeing God in the eyes of her child, the reformer opening his heart to the burning passion of peace and social justice, the saint in breathless adoration before the revelation of Love crucified—all these in their diverse ways are worshipping.

We cannot hold to any theory which would make religion just a department of life, side by side with our other activities. It embraces the ends of all right endeavors. It is an attitude of life as a whole.

"To be a disciple," the Reverend Ferguson concluded, "is to be a student, a learner in the school of the Master. And a man may be said to be finding Christ when he is learning to look out on life through the windows of His Divine Mind."

RECENT NEW YORK TRIP WAS HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL SAYS ECONOMICS PROF.

Professor G. G. Groat States Excursion Worthwhile, Now Plan To Make It Annual Affair

GROUP RETURNS FROM EDUCATIONAL VISIT WED.

Twenty-eight Juniors and Seniors With Six of Faculty See Financial Institutions Studied in Commerce and Economics Curriculum

"The trip was highly successful and everything went off according to schedule" said Prof. L. D. Meredith commenting on the excursion to New York City from which twenty-eight juniors and seniors in the commerce and economics department returned Wednesday morning.

The students were accompanied by Professors L. D. Meredith, Gennette C. Davis, Florence M. Woodward and Grace Burwash, Miss Louise Morgan and Mr. A. O. Martinetti. The trip was planned so that students in the department might have the opportunity to visit institutions studied in their curriculum. Prof. G. G. Groat states that "seeing the trip was a worthwhile event. Present plans are to make it an annual affair."

The members of the group visited on Monday, The New York Clearing House, the Gallery of the Stock Exchange, the Federal Reserve Bank, the Empress of Britian, port of New York and the Hotel Waldrof Astoria. They had luncheon at the Downtown Athletic Club. That evening through the courtesy of the National Broadcasting Company the group received ten tickets for the Boswell Sisters Program at the WABC studio.

On Tuesday the excursion took the visitors to the Empire State Building, New York Curb Exchange, Chase National Bank, the New York Life Insurance Company, the New York Times, the Wanamaker Department Store and various produce exchanges. At the New York Life Insurance Company, the students were greeted by the Vice-president Alfred L. Aiken who assembled all Vermont graduates in their employ. Darwin P. Kingsley, alumnus of U. V. M. chairman of the Board of Directors was unable to be present. The group formed in the directors room beneath an oil painting of Mr. Kingsley where a picture was taken. Mr. Mortorman M. Buckner the president of the company was in the picture.

The following seniors went on the trip: C. C. Grant, P. B. Billings, H. Petraglio, R. Boynton, D. S. Webster, L. Irish, F. R. Gorman, Caroline Beggs, Marie Tucker, Katrina Munn, Elizabeth Smith, Millicent Dixon, Elizabeth Howe, Isabel Holmes, Christine Bliss, Janet Miller, L. P. Wood, J. Stein, Edna Blackwood, J. L. Riani, J. E. Clark, and L. R. Durfey.

The juniors who went are: W. J. Burke, C. A. Taylor, C. W. Janke, D. W. Webster, R. W. Ryan and James E. Wood.

FOUR DELEGATES AT STUDENT CONFERENCE

Four men, representing the University of Vermont, left yesterday afternoon for Boston where they are attending the Student Disarmament Conference which is held at the Twentieth Century Club. The men who are in attendance are J. C. Carter, editor-in-chief of the CYNIC, P. J. LaCross, manager of the varsity debating team, W. Cohen, business manager of the 1935 Freshman Handbook, L. L. Woodward, director of Church Relations on the Men's Christian Association cabinet, and R. E. McCuin, assistant editor of the CYNIC.

Nearly 350 delegates from the colleges and universities are in attendance, being sent by the Christian Associations and International Associations of the various campuses. Speakers on the program include Prof. Sidney B. Gay of Harvard, Prof. Ralph Harlow of Smith, J. Paul Williams of Massachusetts Agricultural College, and Gardner Day of Williams, Prof. E. S. Brightman of Boston University, Jessie Wilson Sayer, J. B. Matthews, Rev. Sydney Lovett, and John Hayes Holmes.

S. K. Carter '33, left this morning for East Northfield, Mass. where he is the official delegate of the University at the Student-Faculty Conference which is being held December 4-6 at the Chateau

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Sports Editor
Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS
GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT
INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR
FEATURE EDITORS
COLUMNIST
TYPIST

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

Published every Tuesday during the college year. Subscription $2.00 a year.

Entered at the Burlington Post Office as second class matter.

Burlington, Vt. November 22

Campus Comment

KAKE WALK APPEARS ON THE SOCIAL HORIZON

(Continued from page 1)

Once Downtown

The Armory downtown ... the present Fletcher Library ... scene of many following ... the first one held in the ... on February 22, 1904.

The advertising posters ... have always had darky ... and words such as 'Koonville' ... darky pictures. The ... is that when the entertainment originated, coon songs ... soon everything was in vogue ... ideas have always been ...

Walkin-to'-de-cake was ... time the most important part ... gram, and for which the ... after prize was given. The ... formance also included a ... the participants, and any ... group of men wanted to ...

Christmas Suggestions at Special Mark-Down Prices

BRIDGE SETS
LEATHER NOVELTIES
WOODEN SEAL NOVELTIES
STATIONERY
SMOKING SETS

10c to $3.98

AT THE

University Store

EDITORIAL

THE NEW COACH

The recent appointment of Harry Burke by the Athletic Council ... the management of varsity football for the coming ... Council set a policy of substitution not only to those who have watched the ... development of the freshman teams but also to those ... whose games ... the varsity has been marked more by reticence than by ...

Winning teams are one thing and moral victories or seasons marked ... losing ... defeat are quite another. Ready football material ... players who enter the University with some training in the pre-... preparatory ... has been rare. Vermont has been handicapped by men ... coming from small state high schools know little or nothing of the game ... she has not departed.

Last year ... the Athletic Council has clutched at the will o'the-... which ... eventually ... to lead herself this season with what ... probably the worst record in all her grid history. Yet it has not despaired.

Coach has succeeded coach and been all but baffled by problems ... training, subsidization and scholarship. Athletic scholarships, long ... by many to bring the good players have failed to provide and sustain the second material. Football has been undeniably a dying sport at ... Lean years ... a student body given more to academic attainment and social prestige ... a hopeful yet critical alumni body ... an ... and publicity ... yet at times an unsympathetic press ... all have contributed to the pressure already being exerted upon the coaching system at Vermont. Apparently every panacea has been tried from the magic of the spirit of Notre Dame to grandstand cheers ... from the ... exhortation ... a gaily uniformed band to more intensive ... of the tactics of other winning collegiate elevens. Overconfidence has ... dogged back at great coaches and this in turn has been an alibi ... those who talk ... yet dared not spot inherent weakness in the ... Individual effort for personal or narrowed glory alone can never equal wholehearted team cooperation ... in bringing victory after victory to Vermont. The cancellation of grid relationships with a former ... because it has consistently had the edge on the local team is ... evidence to the contrary.

Although we recognize that every institution depends to a large ... upon guarantees from gate receipts of out-of-town games for its ... yet we see a great psychological influence from a large ... of home games. Vermont needs men who have both the brain ... the ... necessary to play good football for four years and not ... their privilege by low scholarship. Concentration of effort ... on one or two worthwhile extracurricular activities is highly desirable. Football training is strenuous and at times not too kind to the ... individual. Personal sacrifice is necessary in this as well as in ... other ... activities. Vermont also needs a coach whose major ... is football. She can no longer hazard her varsity reputation ... men who either have little except academic interest in the game or who are ... by a superabundance of other departmental or social interests.

We look for a more glorious season by appointment of Burke, who has already made himself outstanding here with a freshman team which won the State championship with ease and completed a season which saw the goal line crossed but once. Their record is indeed gratifying and even more so since we are assured that many of these men will become varsity squad material next fall. The new mentor was never a great player at Colby but he has been a keen student of the game at Springfield College and later at Knute Rockne's grid school ... coaches.

His experience has meant much to Burke and the freshman men. The varsity next year should see a grand transformation under his coaching. But it cannot be effected through sheer mentorial ability alone. It must be based upon a squad which is willing to live under the regulations of the game and simultaneously maintain scholastic eligibility and also upon a body of undergraduates who have confidence in both the coach and his pupils. Burke has an undeniable passion for both ... and gymnasium tactics. The Free Press quotes him as saying he "would have his guards and tackles keep in condition by boxing and wrestling and would keep his backs and ends busy ball handling at basketball." It also adds: Burke is well schooled in the modern brand of football and with the material which present conditions indicate will be available he should be able to develop the smartest teams Vermont has put out in a decade. Best of success to you, Johnny!

NEGRO SPIRITUAL LEADER TO LEAD CHAPEL SERVICE

Those who attend Chapel next Wednesday are in for a unique program, as Ernest Johnson, Negro spiritual leader, is to lead the service. He will, in all probability, conduct the entire half hour prayer meeting without the aid of the choir, and when not singing, he will devote his time to explaining the development of the spiritual.

Ernest Johnson studied under the tutelage of Roland Hayes, who is a leading exponent of spiritual singing. He is not new to Vermont listeners, as two years ago, at the State Conference of Congregational Churches in St. Johnsbury, he fascinated the large audiences, who gathered to hear him, with his remarkable voice, and inspirational talks.

THREE REEL FILM TO BE SHOWN BY A. I. E. E.

The student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers will show a three reel film, "The Single Ridge," at the Fleming Museum auditorium next Monday at 4 o'clock. The picture, which is furnished through the courtesy of the Okonite Company of New York City, shows in detail the gathering of crude rubber, its preparation, treatment and finally its application to wires for insulation purposes. There will be no admission. Everyone interested in the subject is cordially invited to attend.

Thelma Appell '33, is campus manager of bowling.

COMMENT

WOMEN AND WORK

Editor, The Cynic:

The writer of the letter in last week's Cynic has certainly overlooked the fact that the girls' social activities are considered a special and vital ... Girls are not sent here only to study. As businesses are considered a social unit, ... Girls are not sent here only to study. As businesses are considered a social unit, ... [illegible] ... a change in the rule [illegible] ... they are done.

To a backhouse the change suggested ... like a girl could go out week-ends ... last week before the last. Take our ... for a typical one. Yet if that were ... one had to look over the slips ... the rights one missed ... number taken, and keep track of hours borrowed from the next week so that she might make sure they were paid back. She never ... how she would understand the extent of ... bookkeeping in connection with the formal ... rules of women's government. The ... bookkeeping would be ... so much more complex were we to throw this added responsibility upon the house committees and the officers of the Student Union.

The main reason, however, is not one of bookkeeping. The principle upon which late nights out regulations are based is the fact that too much socializing interferes with studying. Too many girls come to college with ideas, derived from movies or fiction, that college is one long mad swirl of society life. All work and no play does make Jane a dull girl, but all play and no work makes Jane a very undesirable college girl—one whom we cannot afford to keep long at Vermont. To help freshmen to adjust themselves, to help them find this medium between work and play, it has proved necessary to restrict the number of social evenings. The number permitted is based on the experience of many years trial and not on the opinion of any single Student Union Council. The wise step seems to be to discourage the use of more than two social evenings. Because of unusual circumstances, we do permit girls to borrow. But we feel that they should so plan their living and their diversions, that this would be seldom necessary. We cannot further encourage the use of three evenings by permitting girls to borrow from past weeks. If girls know they might be inconvenienced next week by going out this, they will think twice before going. If it causes them no pain they will abuse the privilege.

We hope this is a satisfactory explanation of our stand. We know the girls may not agree with us, but the experience of other councils leads us to believe that we are right.

We wish to add that the writer of that letter chose a most unfortunate instance as illustration of her point. A careful study of the Student Union rules will show that any engagement on the night before a holiday does not count as a night out. So the Military Ball did not count, and any freshman could have attended both dances and still have had a 10 o'clock night besides.

By Roberta Powers '32

A Lovely Figure for every hour

Your firm young figure is only as lovely as a Maiden Form uplift and girdle can make it . . . and when fashion demands that bust, waist and hips be smoothly synchronized, Maiden Form will give you just the right amount of gentle moulding you need. Keep body freedom and gain new trimness by wearing the inner-pocket uplift and high-waist girdle shown at left.

Get the New Maiden Form Booklet from your dealer, or write MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO., Inc. Dept. C - 245 Fifth Ave., N.Y.

AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

'There is a Maiden Form foundation for every type of figure.'

Above: "The Maiden-ette," a tailored uplift to accent the curve of the slender bust, boned all-elastic ...

Above at right: "Green-Glen," whose cross-ribbon design deftly defines the bust, for average figures, charming between junior girdle ...

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE

STRAPLESS · GARTER BELTS

Maiden Form has a book of instructions, today on the genuine Maiden Form inside mark label.

Preliminary Schedule of Mid-Year Examinations

...must be reported at ...rar's Office. Medical ... than Saturday noon,

...nuary 18: Anatomy ..., Desc. Geometry, ...neer. History 12 (A Drawing. Sanitary En-

...nuary 18: Botany 12 ...nomics 6, Economics ... (T.Tr.), Forestry 1 ...stry 2, Home Ec. 21.

...January 19: French 1, ... 4 French 113.

...January 19: Bridge ... 4 (Market Milk), En... Field Crops, Greek 10b, ...rticulture 1a, Music 3 ... Physiology 1 (Arts), ...rnat. Relations), Rural ... Senior Elect. Eng. Lab., ... Vermont History.

...M., January 20: Pol. ... School Music 1. Pub. School

...P.M., January 20: A. C. ...nomics 9, English 7 (Am. ... History 11, Philosophy 4 ... Physics 105, Pol. Sci. 106.

...day A.M., January 21: Advanced ... Latin A, Latin B, Latin 1, ... 8 (Lucretius), Latin 15, ... Souls

...P.M., January 21: Arith. ... Chemistry 9, Chemis... Chemistry 111, Economics 1, ... 62, English 19, Music 5

...M., January 22: Chemistry ... 21, Chemistry 22, Chemis... Economics 63, Education 3, Elect. ... French 106, Greek 0, ... Ed. (T.Tr.), Latin 10, Mental ... Hr.), Philosophy 108.

...P.M., January 22: Chemistry ... Management (T.Tr.), Eco... 3, Economics 8, Economics 20, ... 58, Greek 2, History 1, His... of Art 1, Hygiene (T.Tr.), Psy... 100 (Exp.), Zoology 7 (Em...

...day A.M., January 23: English

...day P.M., January 23: Military

...day A.M., January 25: Geogra... phy (T.Tr.), Home Ec. 2, Home Ec. 10, Home Ec. 13 (The Family), Math. 1 (Arts and Ag.), Math. 1 (Arts) (Math. of Finance), Math 1, (Engineer Trig.), Math. 2 (Arts Calculus), Math. 2 (Engineer. Calculus), Math. 6 (Solid Geometry), Math. 103.

Monday P.M., January 25: Botany 4 (Plant Physiology), Botany 8 (Cytology), Child. Lit. (T.Tr.), Economics 2, Economics 13, Education 9 (Measure.), Elect. Design, Home Ec. 4, Latin 9

Tuesday A.M., January 26: El. of Elect. Eng., German 1, German 2, German 4, Livestock, Materials of Constr., Surveying

Tuesday P.M., January 26: Botany 2, Botany 3, Economics 10, Education 2, English 6 (Shakespeare), Geology 1, Geology 1a (T.Tr.), History 8, Music 1 (Appreciation), Philosophy 1 (Logic), Pol. Sci. 5.

Wednesday A.M., January 27: Farm Mechanics, Heating and Ventilating, History (T.Tr.), Hydraulics, Junior Elect. Eng. Lab., Spanish 1, Spanish 2, Spanish 3

Wednesday P.M., January 27: Botany 1, Economics 5, Economics 59, Education 1, French 112, History 7, Pol. Sci. 104, Pol. Sci. 112, Zoology 6 (Compar. Anat.).

Thursday A.M., January 28: Astronomy, Dairy Chemistry, Economics 14, Elem. Survey, Elect. Power Trans., Geology 2, Home Ec. 3, Home Ec. 7, Methods of Teach. Ag., Physics 1, Psychology 4 (Genetic), Sociology, Zoology 9.

Thursday P.M., January 28: General Elect. Eng., Psychology 1, Psychology 7 (Aesthetics), Psychology 22 (Compar.)

Friday A.M., January 29: Geology 3, History 2, Physics 104, Journalism, Reinforced Concrete, Solfeggio (Music 8a) (Music 8b), Zoology 2.

Friday P.M., January 29: D. C. Engineer., Education 7, French 108, History 5, Home Ec. 10 (Methods of Teach.), Home Ec. 333 (T.Tr.), Pol. Sci. 8, Psychology 3 (Social).

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

A Christmas bazaar will be held at the Alpha Chi house, Saturday, December 12.

Gertrude Bingham, a former U. V. M student and a '31 graduate of Michigan State, was a guest at the Alpha Chi house last week-end.

SIGMA GAMMA

Dorothy Brown '31 and Barbara LeBaron '31, were in town over the week-end.

INTERPRETATION RULES MEETING OF BASKETBALL

Coaches and Referees Will be Present to Hear H. A. Prentice Explain New Court Rulings

A basketball interpretation meeting will be held in the gymnasium on December 12 at 2 o'clock. Prof H. A. Prentice of the department of physical education will explain the new rulings and their effects on the game. H. A. Prentice is present coach of hockey and past basketball coach. Referees and coaches from all parts of the state will be present and the students are cordially invited.

Examination of referees will take place after the meeting and will be given by H. Bernard Levine, instructor in physical education and member of the State Board of Referees.

The art of basketball refereeing will be taught as a special course soon after the meeting and a definite date will be announced at the meeting. Instructor Levine will probably teach this course and it may be taken by any student in the University that is interested.

UNITED STATES MUST BACK LEAGUE–CARROLL

(Continued from page 1)

lease to China, but she refused a cash offer for the Tsingtao-Tsinan Railway (in Shantung), insisting on payment in installments over a period of years and assuming perhaps that some one would find ways of making the Chinese government sufficiently unstable to prevent the payment of these installments. At any rate, there now seems to be no prospect of an early elimination of Japanese influence in the administration of that railroad.

Occupation Based on Demands

The Russian leases in South Manchuria would have expired in 1923 if they had not been extended by the treaties into which China was forced by the twenty-one demands. Hence, it follows that any territorial or jurisdictional rights which Japan now has in Manchuria are the direct result of the twenty-one demands and are based solely upon that foundation.

In the spring of 1928, when the Nationalist armies under the leadership of Chiang Kai-shek were advancing along the railroad from Nanking to Peking (now Peiping), intending to drive Changtso-lin (Manchurian war-lord and former bandit) from control of the government at Peking and to establish a government for the whole Chinese nation based on the principles enunciated by Dr Sun Yat-sen, they found, when they reached Tsinan (western terminus of the Japanese controlled Tsingtao-Tsinan Railway), a Japanese force waiting for them with the apparent intention of preventing their passage northward. In fact, the Japanese troops fired on the Chinese forces. A grave international incident was avoided only by the determination of the Chinese commander not to be deterred from accomplishing his major objective. The Chinese troops avoided the Japanese force and finally captured Peking. However, before they entered Peking, Japan issued an ultimatum to the effect that the two belligerent Chinese forces would not be permitted to carry their conflict into Manchuria.

Chang Tso-lin had at one time, and probably it was still true in 1928, enjoyed Japanese protection and probably was financed by the Japanese government. However, when the Tsinan incident occurred in 1928, intense anti-Japanese feeling was aroused throughout China and Chang Tso-lin was moved to declare that, if Japan were going to fight the Nationalist forces, he would take the side of China against Japan.

When Chang Tso-lin retired from Peking, he took his forces north of the Great Wall into what had previously been his stronghold (Manchuria). But, as his private car was passing under a bridge, a bomb was dropped on the car and he was killed. Within a few days, the government of China announced that the bomb had been dropped by Japanese agents. This contention was apparently correct, for the Tanaka government (of Japan) was soon forced to resign because of popular opposition in Japan to the use of such methods (very shortly thereafter, General Tanaka, the leader of this military government, died mysteriously in the home of one of his "second wives") and was replaced by a civilian-controlled government. It should be added that the Prime Minister in this civilian-controlled government was assassinated about a year ago by a militarist fanatic and that the militarists have since been in the saddle.

While Depression Reigns

The military imperialists of Japan have waited for an opportune moment to strike. They had secured what hold they have on Manchuria while the nations of the western world had their hands tied by the World War. They are now striking when those nations are unable to interfere because of economic depression. They are apparently going to make certain that they drive out of Manchuria a government which they cannot control.

Japan contends that her primary purpose is to compel China to recognize as binding the treaties of 1915 on which all Japanese rights rest. But the Chinese government officially notified the League of Nations on October 24 that China would scrupulously respect the mandate of the Covenant of the League to enforce all treaty obligations and that she stood ready to arbitrate all differences with Japan over interpretation of treaties.

The Japanese ambassador to the United States is reported to have stated on November 10 that Japan would not take Tsitsihar, but Japan did take Tsitsihar on November 18. The Japanese forces recently embarked on an expedition to take Chinchow, the present seat of the government of Chang Hsueh-liang, but, for some unknown reason (though probably because of the indignant remarks of Secretary Stimson to newspaper reporters in which he pointed out that Japan had promised not to attack Chinchow), they were halted and presumably are now returning to Mukden. It remains to be seen how long they continue in the process of returning to Mukden.

Time Out

At last a coach with a system and a defined way of carrying out his plans. John H. Burke knows what it's all about and furthermore has the knack of imparting it to his pupils. His system is to get the best men available, teach them the fundamentals, give them a few refining polishes—deception and such like—hand them a football and a tough opponent on a Saturday afternoon and tell them to pull up their socks and play football. The result is usually a win. Some say he uses the Rockne system, but it's the Burke system pure and simple.

—time out—

While you're making out your date schedule leave open the evening of December 8. The seniors are going to tussle the juniors in a scrappy interclass contest that will mark the opening of indoor intramural sports. Later in the season "Pumpus" Levine promises to have the snappiest aggregation of pachyderms and boxers that have ever been witnessed before in these here portals. Many of our football stars will be represented in these meets as they are taking the sports to keep in trim for the season of '32.

—time out—

Say fellers, how would you like to battle the faculty? Here's a chance to get even. They have a basketball team! No kiddin'. A. Gershoy is their manager and if you want a game tell him, but you will have to arrange for the gym. Some of their shining lights are Pierce, Aiken, A. Gershoy himself, Rand, Carpenter and a few more threats. Here is your chance boys.

—time out—

Notre Dame has taken it on the chin a few times and it hurts. We have taken it for so many times it doesn't hurt anymore. But we're telling you, next season will be a different story to broadcast. Heck! Are we waxing optimistic? Well maybe we have reasons.

—time out—

Hold the presses! Last minute news! A change has been made in the interfraternity basketball schedule. The seniors will play the sophomores December 12 at 4.15; Juniors vs. Freshmen, December 15 at 6.00 p.m.; Juniors vs. Freshmen, December 16 at 4.00 p.m.

BASKETBALL SQUAD IS ROUNDING INTO SHAPE

Burke Pleased at Squads Performance at First Scrimmage of Season Last Monday

Basketball practice has been progressing regularly during the past two weeks under the direction of Coach Burke, and U. V. M. ought to be able to place a well-trained quintet on the floor for the first game which is with McGill here on December 12.

Most of the basketball players who were on the football squad have turned out, among them being Ed. Salsa, Morgan, and Deltausse, Chet Taft, the team's leading scorer last year, is also expected to report soon.

Coach Burke was very much pleased by the squad's showing in the first scrimmage last Monday night. Following the practice he said, "Things weren't going so well at first, but they look better now. We ought to have a pretty good team this year."

When asked concerning individual players, he said, "Pires is showing up well, and I am also quite pleased with Morgan. He ought to develop into a fine player."

The freshman squad also is being rapidly developed. Coach Archie Post has cut the number down to twenty-seven and plans ultimately to reduce the squad to twenty. These men will be divided up into four teams which will play a practice series before the beginning of the schedule.

Nearly all the players retained are highly experienced and many show much promise. Those who survived the cut are: Bent, Beardsley, Delfausse, Fisk, Giardi, Hamilton, Joly, Kingsland, Lanahan, Lazarus, Mahoney, Meligoms, Moore, Mori, Palmer, Piette, Reynolds, Ricci, Rock, Schafer, Schmarr, Sheehe, Skominski, Squires, and Wright.

Janet Miller '32, was recently made campus manager of basketball. Eighty-seven girls have signed up for this sport, practice for which started Thursday, December 3.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

There is no secret why college men choose Charter House clothes. They want to be well dressed at the smallest possible expense. There is only one answer.

CHARTER HOUSE SUITS
$35 $40 $45
Two Pairs of Trousers
Miles & Perry Co.
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Since 1898

A SMART TUX
Coat, Trousers and Waist Coat
$25.00
TURKS Burlington

Buy Your Gifts Here
We'll box them for you and mail them out on any specified date
NECKWEAR $1.00 to $3.00
GENUINE ITALIAN GRENADINES $2.50
SPUR ROYALES $1.50
Hayes & Carney, Inc.
127 Church St.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

DEMOCRACY IS SUBJECT OF ST. MICHAEL'S DEBATE

PROF. JORDAN TO MEET PRE-MED. STUDENTS MON.

DR. McSWEENEY SPEAKS BEFORE FROSH WOMEN

WOMEN'S CYNIC BOARD ADMITS FIVE MEMBERS

A la N. Y. U.

XMAS RECESS TO START SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19

Christmas recess will commence at 11:50 Saturday morning, December 19 instead of Tuesday morning, December 22 in accordance with action of the University Council following student suggestion that Monday should also be included among the vacation days. The recess will close at 7:30 Tuesday, January 5

Dean Elijah Swift, who makes the announcement, states that to compensate for the additional day the Easter recess will be shortened and students will be required to return to classes Tuesday morning, April 5 instead of Wednesday morning as had been scheduled by the University authorities.

ASSISTANT WOMEN'S DEAN ENTERTAINS AT MUSICAL

Mrs. Winifred C. Kilner, Mr. Bamforth, Mrs. E. W. Elder ... Joseph Elder.

A romantic lady was telling party that her husband proposed at a crucial match after having ... and out score. The [illegible] exasperated publicly "I [illegible] wrong dear. I was caught"

SELECT YOUR XMAS CARDS
Now and avoid that last minute rush
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
98A Church St
Open Evenings

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

XMAS THOUGHT
B. J. BOYNTON

What no shopping done?
And only a few shopping days
—Dear—Dear—
A hunting you will go—
The solution
Here you will find new creations in Jewelry, Silverware,
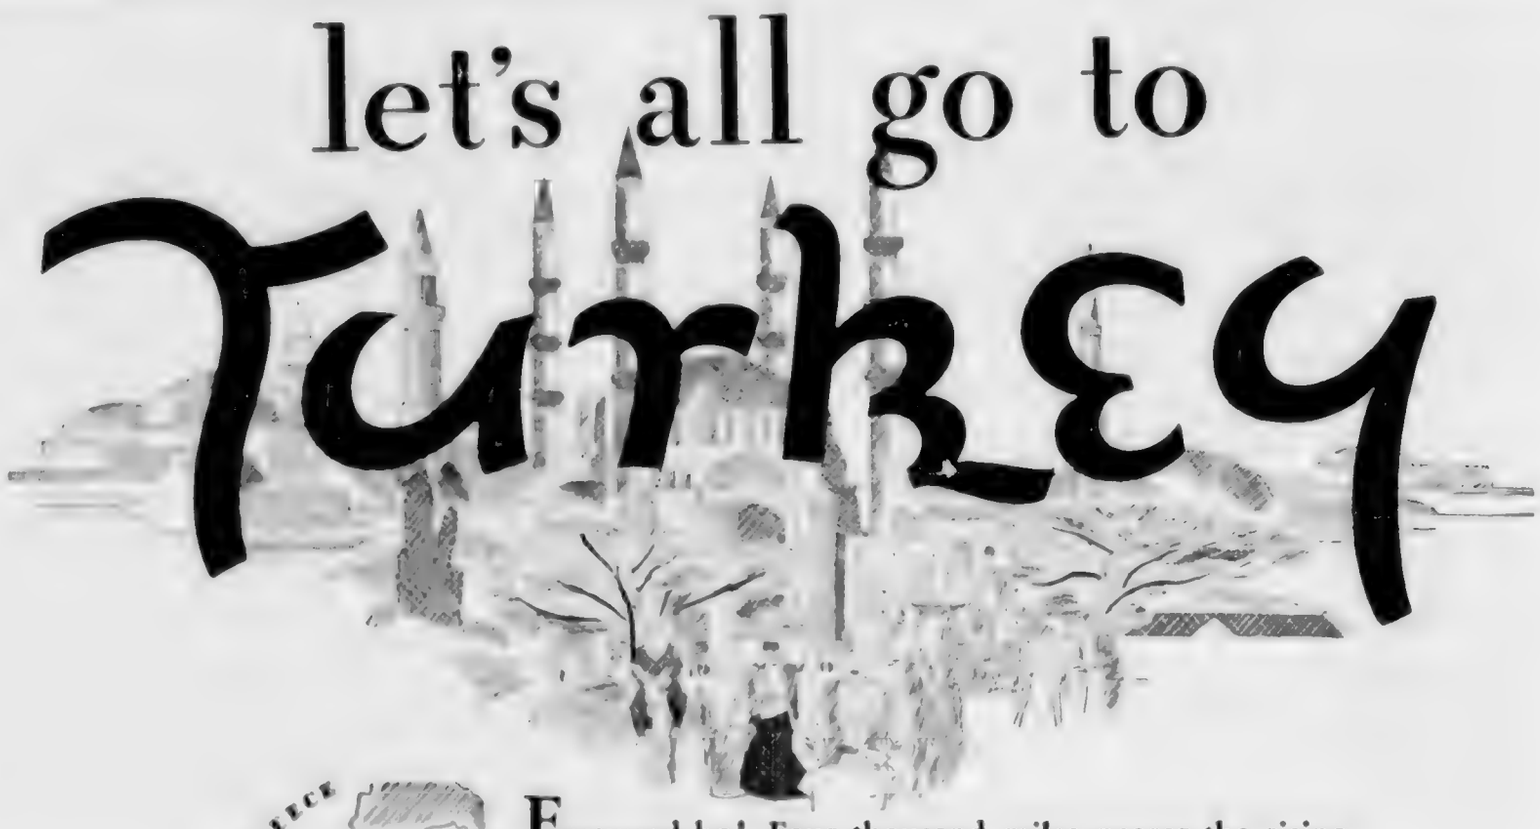
Giftware
"Gifts that Last"
F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street



CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

PHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

STUDENTS!
Select your Personal
CHRISTMAS CARDS
where you will be assured
the Best and Most Artistic
Greetings
See them today at
McAuliffe's
Church & College Sts.—Phone 629

let's all go to Turkey

Where Turkish tobacco grows

Eastward ho! Four thousand miles nearer the rising sun—let's go! To the land of mosques and minarets—so different from our skyscrapers, stacks and steeples.

Let's see this strange, strange country. Let's see the land where the tobacco* grows in small leaves on slender stalks—to be tenderly picked, leaf by leaf, hung in long fragrant strings, shelter-dried and blanket-cured. Precious stuff!

Let's taste that delicate aromatic flavor—that subtle difference that makes a cigarette!

In every important tobacco-growing center Chesterfield has its own tobacco buyers

XANTHI . . CAVALLA . . SMYRNA . . SAMSOUN . . famous tobaccos!

*Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the "spice," the "sauce"—or what rich, sweet cream is to coffee!

You can taste the Turkish in Chesterfield—there's enough of it, that's why. Chesterfield has not been stingy with this important addition to good taste and aroma; four famous kinds of Turkish leaf—Xanthi, Cavalla, Samsoun and Smyrna—go into the smooth, "spicy" Chesterfield blend.

This is just one more reason for Chesterfield's better taste. Tobaccos from far and near, the best of their several kinds—and the right kinds. And pure, tasteless cigarette paper, the purest made. The many requisites of a milder, better smoke, complete!

That's why they're GOOD—they've got to be and they are.

© 1931, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1931 NUMBER 23

B. Drew Attends nterfraternity Meet eld in New York City gs Back Information in Re- rd to Rushing, Hell Week, and Cooperative Buying

OS U. V. M. COUNCIL MPARATIVELY INACTIVE

system of rushing to be colleges throughout the not be practical because sizes of the various in- because of the differences ions," declared Fraser B. attended the annual Inter- ference of Interfraternity at the Hotel Pennsylvania in ork City, November 27 and 28, tative of the U. V. M. Inter- Council.

Conference, which discussed Hell Week, and Cooperative there were approximately sixty rom colleges all over the coun- ding Middlebury, Dartmouth, Lehigh, Columbia, North Caro- Pennsylvania State, University of rg, Ohio State, Washington State, late.

first matter to be discussed by this entative group was that of Rush- All the delegates took part, and the systems in use at their own ty, bringing up weaknesses, and for suggestions. The relative cut-throat rushing, as compared erred, and controlled first semester were touched upon, and it was that most of the institutions use e the cut-throat variety. Along this e, the council advocated the re- of expenses incurred during rush- ason.

U. V. M. Rushing Approved regards rushing at Vermont Drew that . . . . "our system seems very actory, and met with the approval se delegates from other colleges ard it."

t to be considered was Hell Week, operative Buying by fraternities tables. The tendency, at present, be toward the abolition of Hell while the consensus of opinion re- buying was that it is not prac- small colleges. It is, however, dvantageously at Universities like State, Oregon State, Colgate tsburg, where canned goods and are purchased collectively at a from 10 to 20 percent. The though, fail at Lehigh as well colleges where it was attempted. Washington State a complete sur- made of the way in which the

(Continued on page 4)

PINK PAPERED PICADOR APPEARS HULL DOWN ON JOURNALISTIC HORIZON

By Isham Farnes-Barnes

Chock full of two jokes and replete with a galaxy of clever witticisms, boners, gristlers, advertisements and filler comes el picador. The staff was nonplussed at the bootless task of conjuring with the mass of contribs.

New features comprise a woman's page, an "unmentionable" ad, pomes, drayma, voise, a wealth of illustration, and as mentioned before, two jokes. As is well known, el picador is a unique publication in the collegiate world. Letters congratulating the staff and threatening to dynamite the Old Mill have been received.

Watch for el picador Friday. Watch your adam's apple. El picador is never dry or roasted, and by the way, if you should have an inspiration between now and tomorrow morning, it has a chance to appear beside the work of such notables as Aloysius Farnes-Barnes, Aunt Nelly, Alvin Farnes-Barnes and your correspondent. We like the way they advertised because the lucky slab enables us all to open the mellophane wrapper with a crowbar. Is this statement paid for? . . . I say! !

Spiritual Leader Here Wednesday

Ernest Johnson, Who Conducts Coming Chapel Hour, Hailed As Interpreter of Religious Music

A unique chapel program has been arranged for next Wednesday, when Ernest Johnson, Negro spiritual leader is to conduct the service. The entire half-hour is to be given over to him, and he will devote his time to explaining the development of the spiritual, and to conducting the prayer meeting without the aid of the choir.

As an interpreter of religious music, especially the Negro spirituals, Ernest Johnson, is finding much favor among groups interested in this type of music. His quiet, winning personality adds greatly to the pleasure of his singing.

Ranked Among Artists

Mr. Johnson is a native of Massachusetts. He has studied with the internationally known tenor, Roland Hayes, also with Mr. Hayes' accompanist, Percival Parkham, and is taking his place among these artists, who through recent years have been making a definite contribution to the cultural life of the country.

Mr. Johnson is not new to Vermont listeners, as two years ago, at the State

(Continued on page 4)

Ideals of Life Cause Progress Says Dr. Joshi

Sunday Vesper Speaker Declares Aim of Religion is to Bring Man to World of Idealism

GOODNESS, TRUTH, BEAUTY, RELIGION'S VALUE SCHEME

"The great ideals of life, have always been the great inspirers of human progress," declared Dr. Samuel L. Joshi, in opening his address at the vesper services held in the Ira Allen Chapel last Sunday. Doctor Joshi who has spoken here twice before is professor of comparative religions at Dartmouth College.

Doctor Joshi brought greetings from the state of New Hampshire to its sister state, Vermont. He compared the similarities between them. "Vermont," he said, "is sandwiched in between the Adirondacks and the Green Mountains. Likewise New Hampshire is sandwiched in between the Green Mountains and the White Mountains."

The mountains of the sister states, he continued, reminded him of the many, many times he climbed various mountain ranges of India. "As you reach the top of the mountains," stated Doctor Joshi, "a new sense of perspective comes to you. In gazing over the many towns and villages scattered throughout the valleys, you feel yourself as having left the world of actuality for a world of idealism.

"The great ideals of life have always been the great inspirers of human progress," declared Doctor Joshi. "In all religions we find that those who are inspired, and who look upwards and forwards, prove to be the seers and the prophets of the human race." At this point Doctor Joshi traced the beginnings of several religions, including Confucius, the apostle of China; Mohammed, the apostle of Persia who believed that man's life shall be a continual conflict between good and evil; and Buddha, the founder of the religiosu movement in India, whose purpose was to hold up to mankind certain great spiritual ideals of perfection.

Man's Three Ideals

Here, Doctor Joshi brought forth three ideals characteristic of man. The first, he said, is the ordinary, the common ideal which regards the world of actuality rather than the world of idealism. The second is one of prime importance. It is a lofty ideal, a lofty conception of man's moral and spiritual being which cannot be reached by man or woman. Said Doctor Joshi . . . "It exercises a mysterious spell upon mankind which acts as a spur to human endeavor." The third of these ideals is the imaginary ideal, the visional ideal which often lingers in the souls and minds of men.

"The aim of religion," stated Doctor Joshi, " is to drive man to ascend from the world of actuality to the world of idealism. Dissatisfaction and discon-

(Continued on page 4)

DOCTOR JOSHI

Professor of Comparative Religion at Dartmouth College, who spoke at Sunday's Vespers Service in the Ira Allen Chapel.

Varsity in No-Decision Tufts Forensic Clash

Defend Adoption of Compulsory Unemployment Insurance Legislation by States

"Resolved that the several states should adopt legislation providing for a policy of compulsory unemployment insurance" was the subject of a no-decision varsity debate with Tufts College of Boston, Wednesday night before a very small gathering in the Fleming Museum.

R. P. Donaghy '33, J. E. Bigelow '33, P. J. LaCross '32, argued the affirmative side for Vermont, while Francis J. McNiff, of Hudson, Mass., and George B. Sargent, of Brighton, Mass., took up the negative for Tufts. Prof. Newell Maynard, debate coach at Tufts, accompanied the team on their trip. Prof. B. B. Wainbright of the English department acted as chairman.

Speakers, in order of the appearance with their allotted times, were: R. P. Donaghy, U. V. M., ten minutes; McNiff, Tufts, Bigelow, U. V. M., and Sargent, Tufts, with fifteen minutes each; and P. J. LaCross, U. V. M., five minute rebuttal.

Discard Dole System

Vermont used a defensive argument by first defining particular terms of the question such as the several states, legislation, and compulsory; showing particularly how such systems had worked in the past and were successful. The English system was brought up with the dole being discussed and finally discarded as not a policy of unemployment insurance. Donaghy made it clear that the present plan in America is inefficient and that a remedy was forthcoming.

Bigelow stated in the first place, quoting from sensational documents, that the compulsory unemployment insurance law must be handled by the state legislatures. Secondly, that by such a plan certain benefits would ultimately be derived. Listing these benefits Bigelow advanced the argument that justice for all would be promoted; that unemployment would be reduced; that it would level out the business cycle, which is the cause of depressions, and that it would lessen antagonism between capital and labor.

Insurance Fund

The affirmative introduced a plan which they asked the negative to discredit, and show a plan that would bring about as many benefits. Under this plan, which would provide an insurance fund for the workers, with administration under bureau of labor, one quarter would be supplied by the laborer, another quarter by the employer and the remaining half by the state.

The Tufts debaters agreed with the Vermonters that the situation was very serious and that something must be done, but they felt certain that a policy of unemployment insurance would not be effective. McNiff pointed out certain obstacles which confronted the business man that could not be eliminated by the affirmative's plan.

"We must aim at the causes of unemployment," stated Sargent, "and unemployment insurance does not touch upon the subject any more than Milady's hoop-skirt of old touched upon the wearer."

(Continued on page 8)

Able Peace Theorist To Lecture on World Affairs and the U. S.

Professor James T. Shotwell Here Thursday to Deliver Fourth of University Series

BROAD SUBJECT IS TO INCLUDE LATEST DOINGS

"There is probably no scholar or man of affairs in the U. S. A. better fitted to discuss the topic, 'The United States in World Affairs,'" declared Prof. A. R. Gifford in commenting upon Prof. James T. Shotwell, one of America's ablest peace theorists, who will deliver the fourth University lecture, the evening of Thursday, December 10 in the gymnasium.

"In sheer intellectual power and balance, in critical sanity and acumen, and in mental background derived from constant contacts with men of high station in European chancelleries, and in the league and its subsidiaries," continued Professor Gifford, "Professor Shotwell takes rank with such giants as Viscount Cecil, General Smuts and the very few who display their high level of intellectual insight, social consciousness, and practical sense. If in idealism none can surpass Professor Shotwell, in realism he also yields to none."

Russia in Manchuria

In selecting his topic, Professor Shotwell decided on one essentially broad, to allow himself a certain amount of latitude in adjusting his argument to the latest developments in league activities and international problems, connected with the clash of Japan and China in Manchuria, with Russia looming on the horizon. These recent events have drawn the United States into a more intimate and direct relationship with the League of Nations, and the far reaching cataclysmic possibilities if Russia should enter the Manchurian lists actively, have suggested that any moment might bring developments that would affect our own country by way of Europe more directly and more seriously than local happenings in Tientsin or Manchuria.

Professor Shotwell has been signally honored by several small nations in recognition of his distinguished efforts in the cause of security, minorities, small nations, and international peace. Belgium has made him commander of the Order of the Crown; and also an associate member of the Belgium Academy of Science, Letters, and Fine Art. Jugoslavia has made him commander of the Order of St. Sava; and Greece of the Order of the Saviour. Larger powers have also sought his counsel and advice.

A Man of Influence

In connection with organizing the League of Nations and its bureaus, and the subsequent activities of these agencies, Professor Shotwell has played an active, effective, and distinguished part. In 1917-18 he served as member of the preparatory committee for the Peace Conference and the following year became chief of the division of history, and member of the International Legislation Commission at the Peace Conference. In 1919 he was American member of the organizing committee for the International Labor Conference. Since 1924, as director of the division of economics and history of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, he has exerted a far reaching influence by his writings, his editorial work, and his personal contacts with men of position and power, both in our own country and abroad.

(Continued on page 8)

eview of "She Stoops to Conquer"

Players have on occa- a more sparkling per- not always has their act- smoothness which char- all play at the Strong night. For the most undoubtedly well-coached, from a pleasant and theirs was the satisfaction a critical and difficult all the éclat with which the play conquers her forward, suitor.

effectiveness is partly the cooperation of the not only to provide to promote the action, experience to find the taken. So well-taken, Fitzgerald, playing one of the performance, was a evening.

ing players there were there were as many as the play, for the con- performance also com- the quality of the der, perhaps, should be k which at times dis- ancy, but one would to find a star among ed to gain momentum ssed. Some of the ed to suffer at first, ould fall into their this process the audi- help all through the ough a critical atti- ed of an audience at familiar with the been disconcerting to the actors for their sallies to be greeted with but a sprinkling of laughter.

In spite of so manifest a handicap, however, most of the cast succeeded in exhibiting, from the first, some evidences of the ease that characterized the latter four acts. Dorothy Murphy, in the leading feminine lead Kate Hardcastle, was always at home, while Sylvia Boyd as the hypocritical stepmother and fond mother, and Stewart Wright as the dignified country squire, did ample justice to their rôles, Wright's manner improving as the action advanced. The part of the lover of inconsistent temperament, Marlow, was surprisingly well handled by Paul Westin.

Although the first act showed a slight stiffness, its serious defect lay in a lack of zest where spirited play would have been desirable. The players never really let themselves go. This was a defect which the cast never entirely overcame. For the most part, however, it did not slow up the action, for it was not evident in the work of the minor characters, of Miss Murphy or of Householder.

"She Stoops to Conquer," is a comedy of errors, of situations which must be subtly handled and correctly interpreted at all times, else they become confusing and the action baffles spectators and actors alike. That the meaning of every situation was clear to the audience and that the players conducted themselves easily is a tribute to the smoothness and efficiency of the presentation.

Tony Lumpkin, inimitably portrayed, here as elsewhere, by Householder, plays the mischievous imp in the second scene of the first act, directing two travelers, Marlow (Paul Westin) and Hastings

(Continued on page 4)

PROFESSOR S. E. BASSETT LECTURES AT BOWDOIN

Prof. Samuel Eliot Bassett, head of the Greek department, delivered a lecture at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, on Wednesday evening at 8.00 o'clock, December 3. The lecture was sponsored by the Bowdoin Classical Club and Professor Bassett gave as his topic, "On Reading Homer."

Professor Bassett was born in Wilton, Conn., on August 11, 1873. He attended Yale University and was graduated at an early age. He completed his studies at the University of Berlin, and The American School of Classical Studies at Athens, Greece. He is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Delta Phi, and Eta Sigma Phi fraternities.

He began his teaching career at Yale in 1902 in the capacity of instructor in Greek, coming, in 1905, to the University of Vermont. He also acts as an instructor in Greek and Archæology at the Columbia Summer School. In literary endeavor, he has been a contributor of numerous articles on Homeric meter and style to several publications; notably, The American Journal of Philology, The American Journal of Archæology and a large number of classical magazines. His name appeared in the Cynic issue of November 3, under the article on the University of Vermont faculty members listed in "Who's Who in America."

TO HAVE XMAS CONCERT ON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13

The Christmas concert which was to be given Sunday, December 20 in Ira Allen Chapel has been changed to December 13 because of the change in the Christmas recess. The concert will be given at 4 o'clock under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett, head of the music department, and Prof. Raymond A. Hall of the English department will read from the scripture.

The University of Vermont orchestra will play the pastoral symphony from Handel's "Messiah" and the lullaby from the "Christmas Oratorio" by Bach.

Selections will be sung by the choir with the orchestra accompanying. Two soloists will be Mailla Putnam '32 and S. Pierce, Jr. '34. Others are to be announced later.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Sports Editor
Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

Founded in 1883. Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year. Single copy, five cents.

All business communications must be signed by the writer and addressed to the Cynic office, Old Mill, phone number 1066. Any local notices should be handed in at the Cynic office not later than 5:00 P. M. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Burlington, Vermont, by special permit authorized by Section 397, P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879. Authorized October 14, 1922.

Office of Publication, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. 50 | December 8, 1931 | Number 23

C. AND E. PIONEERS

We note with interest that the commerce and economics department is inaugurating a new long range field of education. In endorsing an address trip to New York City, this paper wishes to heartily congratulate the undertaking, be our stay there short or long. The benefits derived are sure to be well worth the time and trouble the trip entails.

[illegible] origin of this sort are all too few in the average [illegible]. The extension of their number means a broadened outlook [illegible]. Every [illegible] should be taken [illegible] courses [illegible] but [illegible] rather than merely voluntary.

[illegible] was [illegible] that even the C and E [illegible] but we urge for [illegible] the [illegible] should be given an opportunity [illegible].

[illegible] is another example of practical [illegible] of text book principles.

[illegible] that is not often thought of. When [illegible] we [illegible] they are usually [illegible]. We believe that these trips should be made [illegible] the regular courses and [illegible] so that [illegible].

The most constructive example of [illegible] is a trip to a brick [illegible] is now planned. We believe that such trips should be taken [illegible].

The commerce and economics department have a marvelous begin[illegible]. We await news of these practical [illegible]. We believe they [illegible].

J. L. Borrow

NOTICE

The French Club will meet at 1:30 Thursday evening, December 10, with Miss Lilian Cohen at 82 Grant Street. Everyone interested in French is invited to attend.

Fraser B. Drew,
President.

All seniors who have not received their 1932 Arsels may do so by paying their Arsel tax at Book Store. Arsels are also on sale at the Book Store.—G. E. Wilder, Bus. Mgr.

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested see H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

Co-ed Notes

[illegible] bowling [illegible] began at Regal Bowling Alleys Wednesday, December 2. [illegible] will be held every Wednesday at [illegible] 4 o'clock.

[illegible] practice began Tuesday, December 1, with a large number [illegible].

[illegible] has been elected [illegible].

[illegible] December 14 [illegible] Phi Beta Kappa [illegible] Wednesday, December 16 [illegible]. Formal [illegible] a banquet [illegible] meeting [illegible] [illegible].

4-H ROUND-UP SETS UP NEW ATTENDANCE RECORD

The annual 4-H Club County Round-ups have once more gone into history, setting a new record in attendance and accomplishment. One was held in each of the eleven counties having a 4-H Club agent, and Lamoille County, which has no agent, sent twenty-five delegates to the Orleans round-up. At each round-up the state office of the Extension service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College was represented. In order to be eligible to attend a round-up a club member must complete the year's work and send in a record of it. Out of 4,300 boys and girls enrolled as 4-H members in the state, 2,900 attended the round-ups having met the requirements.

The general program for the day at most of the round-ups consisted of educational trips to industrial plants and the like in the morning, a banquet, with speakers, at noon, and in the afternoon games and pageants which had been selected from the Local Achievement Day programs as being especially good. The contests had parades with 4-H banners and costumes representing their various projects.

[illegible] college in the Northwest is to present a course this year entitled How to Get a Decent Wife.

All Ariel proofs must be returned to the Bookstore not later than Friday noon. If not returned by then a charge of $5 will be made by the studio.

Conservative Tone in Men's Autumn Suits

Dark Grey and Rich Blues and Browns Feature Fall Showing in Solid Colors Distinctive for English Cut and Style

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

SPORTING NEWS

IORS AND JUNIORS CLASH IN INTRA-GAME

ors are Confident of Winning ss Tilt Tonight. Seniors e Last Year's Runners up

SH CLASS TEAM IS ROM FIRST YEAR SQUAD

...lock the seniors will ... the first game of the ... interclass basketball ...se contest is expected ...re evenly matched and ... The final line-ups have ... upon, but it is probable ... Isenberg, Agel, and Gold- ... among those who will see ... seniors and Massuco, ... Calcagni, McGowan, ... Mahoney for the juniors. ... who is managing as ... in the junior team is es- ...lent that the juniors will be ... He said, "The juniors have ... one man, Valerio, who is out ... basketball. I think that the ... have a very good chance to finish ...ront in the tournament."

...terclass basketball tournament is ...al event in the inter-mural sports ... run off by the physical education ...ment and much interest is aroused. ...ear the senior, class of '31, team ...the tourney, with the class of '32 ... runner-up.

...wing the announcement which ap- ...d on the athletic bulletin board last ... that "Interclass basketball starts ... and class presidents should ap- ... a manager and organize practice ...ns at once," the senior team signed ... practices at 1 to 2 p.m. on Monday ...Thursday and the sophomores at the ...hour on Wednesday and Friday. ... next tournament game is between ...sophomores and the freshmen at 6 ... December 10. The freshman ...all be chosen by Coach Archie Post ...is freshman varsity squad.

Do you know the difference be- ... a taxi and a subway car?

No.

Fine, we'll take the subway.

Who with Larry Bowers will Co-captain Next Year's Varsity

PEACE THEORIST TO BE HERE FOR LECTURE THU.

(Continued from page 1)

Here in 1927

Professor Shotwell has lectured once before at U. V. M., appearing January 14, 1927, in the first series of University lectures. At that time he expounded and discussed his own definition of aggressive war as a basis of procedure for the League of Nations in attempting to restrain an outlaw nation that might resort to war as an instrument of aggressive nationalism or imperialism. Then, after speaking here, he left for an extended visit to Berlin, where, by invitation of the government, he conducted a seminar for the instruction of the staff of the foreign office.

His Writings

As an author, the professor has been prolific. His "Introduction to the History of History," 1921, is widely cited as a distinct contribution to the newer conception of history. In 1929 he published, "War as an Instrument of National Policy." He has been a joint author of several works in international topics; has contributed to the last edition of Encyclopedia Brittanica; served as editor of the Economic and Social History of the War; and inaugurated the Carnegie Endowment, "Studies in World Economy," with a notable essay, "The Conditions of Enduring Prosperity," in which he applied in detail the thesis: "The economic community has become an international or world community."

Time Out

Say outside of a few fraternity ping pong matches there isn't any more sports news than there are fleas on a Mexican hairless dog.

—time out—

There are all sorts of rumors floating around and as we can't seem to track them down we are going to repeat them as such—rumors. First and foremost is the one about there not being any hockey sextette this year. The boys seem to feel that it should be recognized as a major sport for a variety of good reasons. Then again there does not seem to be much interest evinced in this sport. However, if enough candidates showed up at last night's practice there will probably be a team. then again there might not be a team. you see it's a rumor. Too bad if there isn't for there are better facilities for this sport this year than there has ever been in the past.

—time out—

There are rumors that the following coaches will lose their jobs next year. Meehan of N. Y. U. Mal Stevens of Yale and his assistants Walsh and Friedman. Witmer of Princeton after an unusually poor season will probably hit the discard. A strong post season shuffle will probably take place in the mid-west and far-west also. Here's hoping that nobody draws a joker.

—time out—

Did you know that in all the years we have played McGill—how many Oscar?—they have never defeated us on our home floor? S'truth! Futhermore they won't this year either—pronounced, eye-there.

—time out—

"BE NIFTY" says J. Homer Burke and then you ought to see the boys step around that old basketball floor. Be nifty is now the squad slogan so if you hear it during the games you will know it's the old war cry and things are going to happen. Enthusiasm is rife, ripe and rabid and as high as the famous flood

Aiken Addresses Faculty Luncheon

Speaks at First in Series of Monthly Meetings of Vermont Chapter of A. A. V. P.

Professor Aiken, speaking briefly on the argument of Flexner's book on American, English, and German Universities, inaugurated the current series of luncheons given by the Vermont chapter of the American Association of University professors, at the Sherwood Hotel, Friday, November 13

After outlining Flexner's viewpoint, Professor Aiken offered some searching and suggestive critical comments.

The chapter has a program for the year organized around the topic: "Educational Ferment"; and various reform schemes in college education will be taken up at the monthly luncheons.

"Quality Education" Next

The December meeting will be held Friday, December 11, at which time Professor Wallace will discuss the new Haverford College project which it calls "Quality Education." In January, Dean Swift will present the Harvard Housing Program. "The Organization of the University of Chicago Schools and Colleges introduced by President Hutchins," will be the subject on which Professor Kidder will talk at the February luncheon.

Topics for later meetings include: "A Federal Cabinet Portfolio of Education," and "The New Policy for Faculty Control of Athletics Adopted at Yale."

Since the chapter organized on an active basis during the spring of 1930, Professor Gifford has served as president, and Professor Jacobs as secretary-treasurer. Additional members of the executive committee at present are: Professors Aiken, Lutman, Mower, Nutly, and Swift.

Membership now comprises about sixty faculty members of all academic grades, with three years of college teaching as pre-requisite to full membership. There is, however, a provision for a junior membership for any not yet fully qualified by three years of teaching.

It was a good many years ago that Deacon Callahan took his wife to the races.

Just as the horses were lining up at the barrier, Mrs. Callahan grasped the deacon nervously by the arm, and in a voice which was filled with emotion asked him for a safety pin, meanwhile grabbing frantically after something that seemed to be slipping around the knees.

Just then some one nearby shouted, "They're off!" And Mrs. Callahan fainted

Kettering, Calcamuni Captain who will Star in Basketball

"SCRATCH" AND "ITCH" FOOTBALL PUNSTERS NOW

Hartford boy's antics amuse home-town editor as he cites stories and capers.

Caracciola and Giardi, two former Hartford High football players, have attracted considerable attention by their gridiron labors with the freshman team at the University of Vermont this fall, but they are better known in the campus life for their whimsicalities.

Johnny Newell, their former coach at H. P. H. S. says he gets reports from the Vermont hills that these former pupils are the "life of the party" on the football squad and in the college life generally.

Caracciola's name is something of a tongue twister, so the students up there have labelled him "Scratchy" for short and, in order to preserve the affinity with his Hartford friend, have dubbed Giardi "Itchy."

Thus the team of "Scratchy and Itchy," which is as well known, if in a more limited field, as those other renowned teams—Clark & McCullough, Frankie & Johnny, Sears & Roebuck, Nip & Tuck, Fight & Win and Delaware & Lackawanna.

Thus the team of "Scratch and Itch," been too much for one of the professors at whose feet the Hartford youth sits several times a week and Caracciola has helped the prof in his dilemma.

As the learned man strives for the proper pronunciation when he wishes to call on Caracciola, the Hartford youth arises and says "Patsy is the name."

Holly, another H. P. H. S. gridiron gladiator, is also on the University of Vermont freshman team which has been doing things this fall thus bringing cheer to the varsity coach, with whom victories have been as rare as Chinamen in Congress.—Hartford Times

CHANGE IN EDUCATION CIVILIZATION'S HOPE

Prof. John Dewey in the second address of the "Men of America" series sponsored by the National Advisory Council on Radio Education, said that "unless education undergoes great transformations and prepares future citizens to deal effectively with present-day and anticipated problems, our civilization may collapse." He warned that: "The schools must meet new forces which may wreck us unless they are intelligently regulated and employed. How can education stand still when society itself is changing under our very eyes?"

Bush of Mass. State Again Heads Nations Scoring List

Louis Bush, the Mass. State star back, who ran wild over Middlebury is still leading scorer of the nation. He has a total of 96 points, having added thirteen in his team's 13-12 win over Amherst last Saturday. Angust Winters of Davis and Elkins trails twelve points behind Bush in the east. The Mass. State man has Monnett, of Michigan State as his nearest competitor with a toltal of 94 points.

The list of leaders follows:

East: Bush, Mass. State, 96.

Midwest: Monnett, Michigan State, 94.

Rocky Mountains: Christian, Utah, 74

—Middlebury Campus.

BASKETBALL SQUAD IS ROUNDING INTO FORM

Tupper, Morgan, Pires, Taft and Farwell are Outstanding on Nifty Squad That Excels in Foul Shooting

FIRST TEAM STILL IS UNCHOSEN BY COACH

Nightly practices in basketball will develop a fine court team this year. Coach Burke's men have been working very hard the last few nights and have improved a great deal since the first few days when the players were a bit rusty from a long layoff. With the first game in sight not far off, the team is making rapid strides towards fine form.

Nearly everyone from last year's squad is back and all the numeral men from last year's frosh team have reported. Wimant, Tupper, Taft, Pires, Durfey, Collins and Farwell of last season's men are out every night doing floorwork, passing, shooting, and signal drill. On the other hand Morgan, a potential center, Saba, Rust, Delfausse, Wilson, and Morse are the sophomore members of the squad.

Every one is developing to so even a degree that it is pretty near impossible to pick a team which will represent the University of Vermont at the intercollegiate contests. Coach Burke is emphasizing the importance of foul shooting and along that line the individuals of the team are making fast progress. If the team members get the idea of the new method it is possible to shoot an average of fifteen points out of twenty free shots.

This year's schedule though short, lists many important games including the state championship series which is a source of interest to everyone. The majority of the games are home games, which should attract the students' interest.

Jack Morgan is developing his tapping ability and can outjump the other members of the team. Beckley and Valerio are helping the speed of the varsity outfit. Tupper and Pires are pepping up the old fight talk during step shots and hook pass practice.

S'prise

You'd think a man who had been around as much as Santa couldn't have many surprises.

But he can. And he's lived and learned.

A modern Miss, Santa has found, is a practical young lady who buys her gifts for men at a man's store.

And this being a practical Christmas, we have made all the necessary preparations.

Intelligent suggestions gladly given.

Gifts of every conceivable kind, size and price.

Hayes & Carney, Inc.

127 Church Street

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 2072

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

A SMART TUX

Coat, Trousers and Waist Coat

$25.00

TURKS Burlington Vt.

"She Stoops to Conquer"

Continued from page 1

[illegible] Young Marlow . . Paul Westin '32
[illegible] Sam Barker '32
Tony Lumpkin . . Fred Householder '32
Squire Hardcastle . Stewart Wright '35
Sir Charles Marlow . . Jack Libby '34
Diggory . . S. Nathan Spiller '33
Roger . . S. Pierce '34
[illegible] L. E. Holbrook
[illegible] E. J. Fitzgerald '32
Landlord . . J. E. Bigelow '33
Miss Hardcastle . . Sylvia Boyd '33
Kate Hardcastle . . Dorothy Murphy '33
Constance Neville . . Hope Ranslow '32
Dolly . . Isabelle Holmes '32

Prof. J. F. Metcalf did an unusually good job at coaching. J. W. Marvin '32 was business manager. Margaret Ann Morley '32 had charge of costumes and Antoinette Hubbard '33 of women's properties.

PROF. SIBLEY AMONG "WHO'S WHO" AT VERMONT

Prof. Frederick H. Sibley of the Mechanical Engineering Department came to Vermont from the University of Nevada where he was Dean of the College of Engineering. His name is listed in "Who's Who in America," and should have been included with those of other members of the faculty which are so listed and were published in the Cynic.

Professor Sibley received the degree of B.S. at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and later that of M.E. from Case School of Applied Science. Following graduation he served on various engineering capacities until 1904 when he resigned a position as instructor of mechanical engineering on the faculty of Case School of Applied Science. He has since held professorships at the Universities of Alabama, Kansas and Nevada.

Professor Sibley is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the American Society of Civil Engineers, and the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education. He is the author of three engineering text books, "Elementary Mechanical Drawing," "A Textbook of Fire Mechanism and Engineering Thermodynamics."

"What's wrong with the family?" and "What's wrong with our students?" will be the topics of general discussion at a family council conference arranged by representatives of Oregon State College, Reed College and the University of Oregon.

Delegates to the conference who will meet at a hotel atop Mt. Hood, will consider the relationship between family and students and will continue present forum and discussion programs.

Boy, does he hit 'em? Tommy Lewis puts over that line.

Jeers and taunts, yells don't annoy him for he gets

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

PI BETA PHI CELEBRATES OPENING OF NEW HOME

Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi celebrated the opening of its new house on the corner of Cliff and South Prospect Streets by an informal dance for active members and alumni last Saturday evening, November 28.

Music was furnished by Doten's Black Pirates, while Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Pooley, Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Kidder and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hazlett acted as chaperones. A dance committee who had charge of the evening's fun and acted as hostesses was composed of Harriet Willard '34, Mary Bennett '34 and Alice Gunn '34.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

IDEALS OF LIFE CAUSE PROGRESS SAYS JOSHI

Continued from page 1

[illegible] grace . . . such are the ornaments of womanhood."

Religion's Scheme of Values

[illegible] offers a different scheme of values than the standard of values offered by secular [illegible]

"[illegible] with the standards of Truth," stated Doctor Joshi. "You cannot make terms with Truth. Truth must be accepted. The policy of Mahatma Ghandi is that the conduct of a politician should be based upon Truth and not upon compromise. Even the people of the Western Hemisphere," he continued "declare that Ghandi is right." In speaking of Ghandi, Doctor Joshi stated, "the true wealth of a nation is the possession of such men and women who are doing all in their power to reduce the gap between the actual and the ideal."

In discussing Beauty as the third gateway into the kingdom of God, he said "If the beauty displayed in the works of poets, artists, and others, have suggestions of Truth, those arts are capable of the praises of man. Thus we see that the obsession of the poet, the artist, or the scientist is to search out the Truth."

Foundation of Christianity

Said Doctor Joshi, "The life and personality of Jesus Christ, the founder of Christianity, reflects all three of these standards of spiritual greatness. He loved Beauty, he loved Truth, and he was Good. He also practiced that which he preached in his short life."

Man Is Ignorant

In closing his address, Doctor Joshi brought forth the primary belief of Plato in regard to mankind. He said, "the trouble with man is that he is ignorant. By ignorance, I do not mean that he does not know, but I mean that he does not know that he does not know. One of the aims of religion is to stab at man until he awakens to his danger."

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.
Two doughnuts and all the coffee you desire for 10 cents.
Brownies
Cup Cakes
Pastries
Sodas
LUNCHES

SPIRITUAL LEADER WILL CONDUCT NEXT CHAPEL

Continued from page 1

[illegible] Congregational Church [illegible] conducted the [illegible] preached to great [illegible] and inspirational [illegible]

Delighted Conference

[illegible] F. Fraser, secretary of [illegible] Congregational Conference [illegible] and delighted with Fraser [illegible] at the Vespers [illegible] and other sacred music. He [illegible] up to them there and his pupils [illegible] with equal appreciation. We [illegible] so fortunate as to become well acquainted with [illegible] and it would be hard to say that those who heard him were as much impressed by his winsome, happy personality as by his excellent singing."

When crossing the Common recently an old lady noticed one of those men who go around jabbing a pointed stick [illegible] to gather them up. [illegible] and she said, kindly [illegible] you find that work very tiring?" [illegible] no, mum," he replied. "You [illegible] have to do my father used to [illegible] Lafayette Lyre.

[illegible] looking at mother's new [illegible] hat. How that poor beast must [illegible] suffered that you could have such [illegible]

Mother: Hush, Roscoe. You should not talk so of your father.—Lafayette Lyre.

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

Northland Skis
Tubbs Snowshoes
Nestor Johnson Skates
Northland Toboggans
Athletic Goods—All Kinds
W. E. Greene Co., Inc.
in consolidation
Patten, Irwin & White
Burlington, Vermont

F. B. DREW '33, ATTENDS INTERFRATERNITY MEET

Continued from page

[illegible] cooperative housing plan [illegible] A system of [illegible] was adopted [illegible] which [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1931 | NUMBER 24

ollege Students Discuss Pressing World Problems

gates at Boston Disarmament Conference and Northfield Meeting Hear Authorities on Political Economic and Social Question—Urge Immediate Disarmament to Avert International Chaos

MANY IS KEYSTONE OF INTERNATIONAL CRISIS

of Vermont was represidents at the two interences held at Boston and Mass. last week. J. C. Carbess W. Cohen, and R. E. ssed the delegation which Disarmament Conference Twentieth Century Club, De- S. K. Carter was the representative at the Student Conference which was the Chateau of the Northfield East Northfield, Mass. No member was in attendance at this Boston conference nearly three d men and women were present most of the colleges, universities eral schools of New England and states. On the program were Prof. B. Fay of Harvard; Dr. Mary of Mt. Holyoke; Prof. Ralph of Smith College; Prof. E. S. man of Boston University; Jessie Sayre; J. B. Matthews of the ship of Reconciliation; John Holmes, pastor of the Commuhurch in New York; Paul Free of the National Council for tion of War, and A. J. Muste, own labor leader.

Disarm Now

an outcome of the Boston meet centered around the general disment problem with Germany as the of the international situation, llowing resolutions were adopted conferees:

olved, that the delegates here as- favor a fifty percent reduction aments within the year, followed percent reduction each year for od of five years.

at the United States take the in- immediate reduction of armaat compulsory military training in and colleges be abolished.

at the delegates to this conference to adopt the policy of non-partici- in the event of war as its means orting the Kellogg-Briand Pact."

ge lights of the addresses and were the need for interoperation, study of the facts present world condition, rapport between Russia and the other of the world, general disarma-

(Continued on page 2)

OFESSOR DOMBROWSKI O SPEAK HERE TONIGHT ON POET BEAUDELAIRE

Dombrowski, who occuFrench literature at the Montreal, speaks at 8 the Fleming Museum renouvellement de au XIX eme siècle." to the public.

comes here as a speaker the third of the series by the Alliance thers will be held at the present college well-known nineteenth has been lately the verse criticism on acmanism and his morte is much praised ol style and poetic Beaudelaire has been a ulty of the Summer since 1925 and is on the literature the French people.

February 16, 1896 in studied for several in Paris and from several degrees.

interrupted by the served. He was National Croix de suffered two wounds. recognized by the Following the Armstudies and in 1921 des lettres

CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA TO PRESENT CHRISTMAS CONCERT HERE SUNDAY

Music Department to Direct Pre-Holiday Event Featuring Handel and Bach Compositions

The annual Christmas concert to be presented by the University choir and orchestra under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett, Miss Miriam Marston, organist, and Miss Charlotte deVolt, concert master, will be held in the Ira Allen Chapel, Sunday, December 13, at four o'clock. The soloists will be Mailla Putnam '32, Ruby Jenness '34, Elsie Roosa '33, Samuel Pierce, Jr., '34, and Arlington Wilcox '35. The concert program, free and open to the public, will be as follows:

Organ Prelude: Chorale Prelude on "Es ist ein' Ros' entsprungen" Brahms
Processional: In dulci jubilo ....German
Sentences and Collect
Response: Lo, how a rose e'er blooming (Es ist ein' Ros' entsprungen) Practorius
Gloria in excelsis Deo Elsa Kremers Bennett
Carol: Angels o'er the fields were flying French

FROM BACH'S "CHRISTMAS ORATORIO"

Recitative: And there were shepherds
Chorus: Break forth, O beauteous, heavenly light
Recitative: And the angel said to them
Chorus: Within yon gloomy manger Lullaby
Recitative: And suddenly there was with the angel
Chorus: Glory to God in the highest
Scripture Reading

FROM HANDEL'S "MESSIAH"

Recitative: Comfort ye, my people
Chorus: And the glory of the Lord
Chorus: For unto us a child is born
Pastoral Symphony
Recitative: Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened
Air: He shall feed his flock
Air: Come unto him
Chorus: Hallelujah!
Hymn: Joy to the World .....Handel
Prayer and Benediction
Response: Silent Night .....Gruber
Recessional: Adeste fideles Traditional Organ Postlude: Rhapsody on Christmas themes .....Gigout

BLUESTOCKINGS EXTENDS PERIOD FOR TRY-OUTS

Bluestockings, women's literary organization, is extending the period for try-outs until the end of the Christmas recess due to inadequate quality of the contributions handed in this fall, according to a statement made by Hope Ranslow '32, president of the organization.

Each year a drive is made in the fall for new members, and elections are held shortly after Thanksgiving. However, this year there has been little from which to choose, and consequently the try-outs will be extended to the end of the Christmas recess; until then, anything in the line of poetry, short stories or essays may be submitted to Bluestockings members.

The authors of the manuscripts are kept secret until after they are judged, so the choice is entirely unprejudiced. The papers are first submitted to the following: Short stories, Hope Ranslow '32; essays, Marion Kiel '33; poetry, Gladys LaFlamme '33, who read them and submit the best to be read before a meeting of the entire organization by which they are judged.

Vermont has always had a literary organization among the women on its campus. A few years ago Bluestockings, a name taken from England and used to designate a group of women interested in the things for which Vermont Bluestockings stands, was adopted. The organization has always flourished, meetings being held once a month, and varied programs given throughout the year, which is the aim of the society.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR WALTER H. CROCKETT; JOURNALIST-HISTORIAN

Faculty Member Since 1915 and Vermont Publicity Director Dies Tuesday Morning

REGARDED AS ONE OF VERMONT'S GREAT MEN

Funeral services for Walter Hill Crockett, faculty member and editor of University publications, were held at the College Street Congregational Church yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Burial was in Lake View Cemetery. Governor Stanley Wilson was among the bearers. The University Campus Flag has been flown at half-mast.

Walter H. Crockett who had been ill with jaundice for several weeks died early Tuesday afternoon at the Mary Fletcher Hospital following an operation from which he did not recover.

Mr. Crockett was born at Colchester, June 26, 1870, and received his early education in the public schools of Colchester and Milton and at Mount Hermon School, Mount Hermon, Mass. He later was awarded a degree of Master

(Continued on page 4)

VERMONT WILL DEBATE DARTMOUTH THIS EVE

Capitalism Will Be Discussed by Representatives of Two Institutions

Two U. V. M. debaters will uphold the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved "That Capitalism is a Failure," against two Dartmouth debaters in the Museum at 8:00 o'clock. J. F. Bigelow '33 and P. J. LaCross '32 will debate for Vermont. The American style of debate will be used, each speaker talking twelve minutes in construction and six minutes in rebuttal.

A decision will be given by a board of three judges, Rev. H. O. Tatum of the Baptist Church, Miss Mary C. Alafat and Leon D. Latham, Jr., local attorney.

St. Michael's

Speaking in the order named R. P. Donaghey, Paul LaCross and J. E. Bigelow debated St. Michael's College to a no-decision debate last Monday evening at Winooski Park on the negative side of the subject "Resolved, that Democracy is a Failure."

E. J. Smith, James Dillon and Edward Foley were the St. Michael's debaters and the modified Oxford style of debate was used.

The affirmative, St. Michael's, based their arguments on the corruption and crime existing today, while Vermont argued that the benefits and progress of democracy far outshine its defects.

The St. Michael's College orchestra played several selections before and after the debate.

Breezy Debate

The debate was the first no-decision affair ever held between St. Michael's and Vermont and was a rather informal, humorous encounter. Both teams were free in their arguments and attempted to influence the emotions of the audience as much as possible. However officials at St. Michael's expressed satisfaction at the style of debate and negotiations are in progress for more such debates between the two institutions.

Phi Beta Kappa Elects Six Undergraduates as Members

Bush, Eaton, Householder, Varney and Misses Mosher and Powers Receive High Honor by Early Election to Scholastic Society

Four men and two women were awarded the highest honor a college student can receive when they were elected members of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic society, at the mid-winter meeting of Vermont Alpha Chapter held in the Marsh Room of the Billings Library last Wednesday afternoon.

The students admitted are: Chester K. Bush '32, Classical; A. O. Eaton '32, Civil Engineering; Fred W. Householder '32, Classical; Elizabeth E. Mosher '32, General Science; Roberta F. Powers '32, Literary Scientific; H. I. Varney '35, Medicine.

High Average Necessary

All those taken in had an average of not under 89 percent. A second election will be held by the society some time in June. In order to be a prospective candidate the student must have an average in all studies of not lower than 89 percent, with a good moral character a determining factor in his admission.

It is interesting to note that out of six electees four were men and two were women. In contrast to the number taken in this year six candidates were elected at the mid-winter session in 1929 and three in 1930. Last year two men and one woman were admitted at the first election.

The election took place at a special meeting of all members of the society. The following are officers of the chapter: President, Prof. W. E. Aiken; vice-president, Prof. G. V. Kidder; secretary, Mrs. Helen Stiles French; register, Prof. H. F. Perkins, and treasurer, Mr. F. W. Kehoe.

Initiations of those elected will be held this evening at 5.45 o'clock in the Ethan Allen Club. At this time President Aiken will present the new members with gold Phi Beta Kappa keys.

Active Leaders

All those elected to the society are prominent in campus activities.

Bush of Sheldon is a member of Eta Sigma Phi, honorary classical society, Interfraternity Council and Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is also an Advanced Military student.

Eaton of Worcester, Mass., is a Boulder member, has held positions in Key and Serpent, junior honorary society, and Gold Key, sophomore society. He has served as class president, varsity football manager and news editor of the

(Continued on page 3)

STUDENT UNION LEADERS CONDUCT CAMPAIGN FOR OBSERVANCE OF RULES

Group Chosen by Student Union Executive Board Holds Discussion Forums For Women

Campus leaders, selected by Student Union Executive Board, have been conducting inclusive meetings and discussion forums for dormitory, off-campus, and sorority groups during the past two weeks, in an active campaign instigated by Student Union Executive Board for the purpose of enlisting the whole-hearted support of the women students in the observance of Student Union rules in spirit as well as in letter.

The aims followed in the campaign which is being carried out by the Student Union cooperating with the Joint Conference Committee:

1. To give to the students a clearer conception of the aims, ideals and functions of the Student Union Association.
2. To make each individual student aware of her personal responsibility, in honor bound, to observe the rules both in spirit and in letter.
3. To interpret the rules and to clear up any misunderstandings so that no student can plead ignorance of the rules.
4. To promote greater cooperation between the student body and the duly constituted officers of the Student Union Association.
5. To impress upon the students that the Executive Board expects that each student will voluntarily obey the rules in the light of these explanations, but that it is likewise determined that these rules shall be enforced where necessary and that penalties shall be applied impartially to violators of the rules.

Leaders speaking at the meetings conducted at the dormitories and sorority

(Continued on page 3)

SPIRITUALS COMPRISE CHAPEL PROGRAM WED.

Describing the background of the songs he sang, Ernest Johnson, Boston negro spiritualist, conducted a half-hour program of negro spirituals at the mid-week chapel service last Wednesday morning.

Mr. Johnson was introduced by Prof. R. A. Hall of the English Department to five hundred students, faculty and townspeople who listened attentively throughout the recital.

As his first number Mr. Johnson sang the "Crucifixion," explaining that his interpretation of religion was through music.

Next he sang "Save Me O God My Lord" in a deep tenor voice accompanied by Miss Miriam Natilee Marston at the organ.

"Steal Away to Jesus," his third selection, Mr. Johnson said, was expressive of the American negroes living in the South lands following the slave insurrection. At this time negroes were restricted more to the "Big House" and as soon as possible they would steal away to sing spirituals as their method of worship. They would bend their heads into kettles, the speaker said, so as to drown the sound of their voices to prevent being caught.

"Swing Low Sweet Chariot" was the next number followed by It's Me O Lord Standing in the Need of Prayer," and "Go Down, Moses, Way Down into Egypt's Land." Concluding the program Mr. Johnson sang "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord."

The song "Swing Low," he said, carries with it the traditional ideas of certain negro tribes who were accustomed to put the body of their dead chieftain in a canoe and let it drift over the falls. At one time, the story goes, the chief was seen to stand erect before reaching the falls and ascend to heaven in a chariot.

ACTIVITY LEADERS ARE AMONG THOSE NAMED

ESTHER PITTS FOUND; PHONES FROM MONTREAL

A four-day search for Esther Pitts '35, missing since Sunday evening, ended yesterday morning when she telephoned her parents from the Windsor Station in Montreal. Her father, E. B. Pitts, of Colchester, in the company of Detective James Wood, drove to the Canadian city and returned with her yesterday noon. She was in a semi-hysterical condition at the time of the call.

Miss Pitts Sunday evening went out with the declared purpose of mailing a letter and failed to return to the home of Rev. H. O. Tatum, local minister, where she was working while attending the University.

While sensation-seeking metropolitan papers have followed possible clues and false leads, featured garbled stories and created many explanations of the girl's disappearance, local authorities working on the case were unable, at the time the Cynic went to press, to present an accurate account of the facts.

ETA SIGMA PHI INITIATES MISS JOYCE YOUNG '34

Joyce Young '34, was initiated into Iota chapter of Eta Sigma Phi at the regular meeting held at the home of Prof. G. V. Kidder on 26 Summit Street, Tuesday evening, December 8.

Following the business meeting Leah Gowen '33, briefly reviewed the life and works of Apuleius. Prof. J. I. Tinker, translated selections from the metamorphoses of Apuleius.

Refreshments of hot chocolate and sandwiches were served by the hostess.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Published ... New England ... Newspaper Association

EDITORS

... Editor-in-Chief
... Managing Editor
... Sports Editor
... Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

T. J. Taylor '33

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

... Business Manager
... Advertising Manager
... Assistant Manager

... Published ... during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a ... Entered ... Burlington, Vt.

... December ... 1932 ... Number 24

A GREAT VERMONTER

... the passing of Walter H. Crockett the University of Vermont ... one of her greatest men. His loss is ... the field of ... where ... the trust he made himself ... and ... a useful career as manager of publications but ... of the struggle for ... the profession ... actively ... to improvements in ... have it as the field of their ... work.

... a leader of ... he ... above all others in ... support, and ... for the ... of the people of Vermont as ... he gathered full measure ... and politics. He was a ... from ... boyhood ... active life of state one ... was ... in ... with the people and institutions of his State. His ... ideals ... made ... lessons. His achievements in the field ... of ... power ... give him a place among those who have ... the ... of his height. For his personal ... are with ... Public Good ... sincere ... unflagging industry, loyalty to ... cause ... to fail ... least ... the promotion of the ideals of the ... to ... possible ... He was an earnest and tireless ... citizen, never ... a moment or ever ... from the ... which he ... to ... As a man he was simple, modest, ... and ... above all ... kind.

... Free Press ... commenting upon his passing remarks that "The ... itself has lost one of its most faithful supporters who never ... an opportunity to advance its interests. These ideals were ... in ... loyal Vermonter in the very force of his ... life. He was in full accord ... never too busy to offer aid to all ... who ... it ... a ... patient and persistent in the ... of his purposes in maintaining the traditions of the Vermont as he ... it in his very ... Few persons knew the mind of Vermonters ... as ... Crockett. And few persons will ever attain such heights ... of ... ... with which they work. To President Bailey ... was a ... friend ... support ... in the administrative ... of the ... To ... Tupper ... his death is the ... possible ... and to Professor Dean, with whom he worked ... in the ... of ... Publications, he was a great man.

... Free ... states that "If any man ever left this world to seek a ... spot ... heaven than Walter Crockett was that man." ... thousands of ... throughout the State mourn the loss of a great ... an ... ... a powerful editor, an upright political ... and above all a friend." The University of Vermont and the ... of Vermont owe a debt of gratitude to him.

Walter Crockett was a great Vermonter.

COMMENDABLE PROGRAMS

... Dean ... and Professor ... are to be congratulated for the ... quality of the programs which they have enabled the students and ... to hear at the ... exercises during the past week. Doctor ... is a ... and ... scholar in the field of religion and ... studies. His ... and the depth of his interpretation of the ... situation, especially with reference to the relationship of India to the Empire gave him prestige here at Vermont which is enjoyed by too ... few.

Mr. ..., the ... colored singer of Negro spirituals, leading the service Wednesday, presented a treat which is rare on Chapel ... Although Congregational ... is the general rule rather than the exception among the creeds of the local campus, it soon loses its charm when overemphasized to the exclusion of ... sorts. Psalm, and general programs. The innovation of Wednesday morning is ... both its ... and reverential nature. The students as well as the faculty are interested in the music and Chapel speakers who have an international and progressive, as well as a ... and social outlook. May we urge the continuance of such varieties in the program.

STUDENTS DISCUSS SOME GREAT WORLD PROBLEMS

... continued from page 1)

... planning ... world ... and ... a ... Conference ... [illegible]

Germany May Crack Up

... [illegible] ... the ... point ... the ... problem of the ... was ... Economic ... ... the ... ...

IORS BEAT SENIOR CLASS COURTMEN IN LAST QUARTER RALLY

rently Superior Upperclass am Overtopped in Final Period by 19 to 16 Score

...ound in a fourth period ... defeated the seniors ... game of the interclass ...rnament last Tuesday ... Although the seniors ... the edge on their oppo- ... first part of the game, ... fought contest though- ...al result uncertain until ...

... center for the seniors, ...ing by following up a ... tapping the ball into the ... rebound. Then Massucco, ... Grant, tied the score for ... with a step shot. The men ... rather erratic during the ... ...ttes and missed frequently. ...d quarter Jay went in for ... the senior team and Bedell, ...ard on the juniors. Calcagni ...ul, raising the score to ... tried it with a floor shot. ...wever, put the seniors in the ... making a foul try good. ... knotted up. Proctor on a ... the score to 9-7, but Grant ...ed it with a floor shot. The ... ...k time out. Just before the ... put the seniors ahead with a ... Score at half 10-9.

...ened the third period with a ...increasing the senior lead to ... Blodgett, who was in for ... made a beautiful, "impossible," ... shot. Score 12-11. The play ... again with few attempts be- ... Bedell and Proctor both ... Then Riani, following ... attempt to climb his back, con- ...foul try.

...niors were still in the lead 13-11 ...beginning of the last period. ...g replaced Riani and Calcagni, ... Massucco opened with some ...d playing, making two goals in ...succession almost unassisted. Then ...made a foul, and the juniors were ...Manning, and then Grant ...made a personal goal. Proctor ...desperate goal for the seniors, but ...countered with another, and the ...ended with the score 16-19 for the ...

... Levine refereed the contest.

AUTOS TO RENT

By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.

Ward's Drive-Yourself

...ndow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

THELMA APPELL '33, TO MANAGE WOMEN BOWLERS

Thelma Appell '33, has been named campus manager of bowling. Forty-three women have enrolled in the classes which are held at the Regal Bowling Alleys opposite the Post Office and which are given over entirely to the women from three to five every Wednesday afternoon under the supervision of a member of the physical education department.

STUDENT UNION LEADERS CONDUCTING CAMPAIGN

(Continued from page 1)

meetings were Lillian Mount '32, Sylvia Boyd '33, Agnes Parsons '32, Elizabeth Mandigo '32, Caroline Taft '33, Emily Maslen '32, Sophie Levin '33, Georgia Nichols '32, Evelyn De Brune '32, and Virginia Goodenough '33.

In the course of the campaign the leaders stress particularly the fact that Student Government is always on trial. It was granted to the women students in the University of Vermont as a privilege because of its inherent educational values. "Its success or failure depends entirely upon whether or not the students assume personal responsibility for the observance of Student Union rules," declared Miss Nulty. "The administration in granting Student Government expected the women students of Vermont were mature and loyal enough to codify rules in harmony with the traditions and ideals of Vermont, keeping in mind the welfare of the women students, and that the student body would loyally abide by the decisions of their duly elected representatives.

"It is the hope of the Student Union Council that as a result of this campaign all loyal Vermont women will feel themselves in honor bound to obey all the rules. The students are warned, however, that in the future infractions of the rules will be considered as serious breaches of honor by both the Student Union Judiciary and the University Council."

LIEUTENANT PRENTICE TO REPORT FOR DUTY

First Lieut. Howard A. Prentice, army reserve officer, of 131 Bank Street, this city, has been ordered to report at Fort Devens on January 18 for a course of instruction. Lieutenant Prentice is assigned to the 388th Infantry of the 97th Division. He will be relieved from active duty at Fort Devens on January 31, according to the orders issued at army headquarters in Boston.

The faculty handball tourney will start about January 5. Handballs and free hours for handball gymnasium may be secured from the physical education office.—H. A. Prentice, Director, Physical Education.

Time Out

Last game of the season tomorrow night and last trial for Coach Burke's charges. McGill although never having defeated the Vermonters at Burlington are pointing to this game with the result that a hard contest might battle will probably be [illegible]. The score will also be very close.

—time out—

The b[illegible] are going at their practice with gusto. Gusto being a small black goat, possible, that the squad hand around to each other before the game and fondle for luck. Although nobody has seen the animule it is reputed to be very gentle and snaps only at managers and reporters.

—time out—

Our conjecture for the starting line up—and your guess is as good as ours—is as follows: Morgan will draw the starting assignment at center, Durfey and Tupper will play the forwards while Taft and Delfausse will guard the basket against the McGill forwards.

—time out—

Say, has Archie Post a sweet frosh basketball quintet? Yes, he has a sweet frosh basketball quintet. Did they lick the varsity in scrimmage the other day? Yes, they licked the varsity in scrimmage t'other day—and at least by seven points. We know very many students who are worrying more about the grades of the frosh athletes than they are about their own grades. We personally will give a great big cheer when we learn that the Yearlings are coming back to us for another year and we hope eligible to make good their promise athletically.

—time out—

If you're any kind of a sports fan you won't want to miss the basketball interpretation meeting tomorrow afternoon in the U. V. M. gymnasium. We guarantee that you will get a real insight into the fine points of the game and this will help you clear up the foggy points to the girl friend—providing of course that you're less in a fog than she is—about the game.

—time out—

Here is a fast one. The captain of last year's gymnasium team at McGill had a very appropriate name. When he was christened he was named George—no that isn't the joke—but his last name, which of course was bequeathed by his father, and not his mother's fault to be sure, is as we said before very appropriate, it is, to break the news abruptly, Dumbell. George Dumbell to you.

—time out—

Get an eyefull of this from the McGill Daily. Intercollegiate basketeers entrain for Burlington, where they stack up against the strong University of Vermont outfit. McGill has played the latter for the last few years, but has yet to defeat them on their own floor; last season, the Redmen defeated the Americans in Montreal, and so when the local cagers leave for the border on Saturday morning at 8.50, they will go with one thought in their minds: To turn back the Americans in their own den.

WOMEN'S DRAMATIC CLUB INITIATES NEW MEMBERS

At the meeting of the Dramatic Club, the honorary society for women who have taken part in class plays or who have acted as stage or property managers, held at Alpha Chi Omega house this afternoon at 4 o'clock the following women were initiated: Elizabeth Boright, Ruth Cannon, Mary Casey, Irene LaFountain, Marie McGuire, Thelma Rosenberg, and Ruth Shaefer, freshmen; Elvira Farmer, Elizabeth Fox, Elizabeth Googel, Marie Horak, Edith Place and Ruth Tarleton of the class of '34; Thelma Appell, Virginia Goodenough, Leah Gowen, Sophie Levin, Ethelda Miller, Mary Petras and Caro Wyman of the class of '33.

W. A. A. urges all women interested in outdoor sports to bring back skates, snowshoes and skiis with them after Christmas vacation.

SIX STUDENTS ELECTED TO PHI BETA KAPPA

(Continued from page 1)

Cynic. He belongs to Sigma Phi fraternity.

Householder of Burlington is president of Eta Sigma Phi and of Grey Friars, men's literary society. He is managing editor of the Cynic and a member of Wig and Buskin, men's honorary dramatic society. He was prominent in the Freshman Rules Investigation held last spring, and belongs to Lambda Iota fraternity.

Elizabeth Mosher of North Bennington is house president at Redstone. She is a varsity hockey player and was assistant photographic editor of the 1932 Ariel last year. Miss Mosher is an independent.

Roberta F. Powers of Morrisville is a varsity debater, president of Tau Kappa Alpha, national debating society, was women's editor of the 1932 Ariel, president of Delta Delta Delta sorority and a member of Student Union Council.

Varney '35, Medicine, of Bristol is Chairman of the Vermont Christian Association Cabinet, has been a member of Gold Key society and of the track and cross-country teams. He captained the cross-country team during the past season. Varney is an independent.

All of these students have consistently placed on Dean's List with high averages.

PROFESSOR C. E. BRAUN ENTERTAINS STUDENTS

An informal general discussion and tea was held at the home of Prof. C. E. Braun, when he entertained the group of students of which he is the counsellor. The men met primarily to consider the problems of scholarship and other adjustments, and the meeting was extended to include discussion of numerous political, economic, social and scientific topics. Similar faculty-student meetings are to be held in the future.

Owing to abuse of the privilege, the Librarian suggests that henceforth students will not be expected to use the office telephone in the Billings Library either for calling or receiving calls, the only exception being in the case of official calls. Those desiring to use a telephone will find a pay station in the passageway between the Reading Room and the Apse.

All seniors who have not received their 1932 Ariels may do so by paying their Ariel tax at Book Store. Ariels are also on sale at the Book Store.—G. E. Wilder, Bus. Mgr.

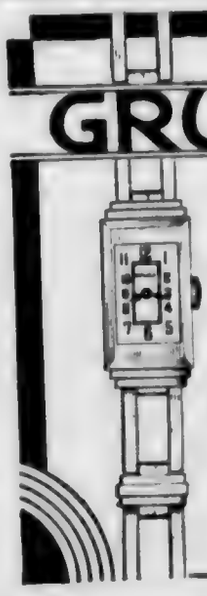
VARSITY OPENS SEASON TOMORROW NIGHT WITH MC GILL UNIVERSITY

Will Be First Contest For Green and Gold Under New Mentor, Canadians to Present a Veteran Team

The first intercollegiate game of the current basketball season will be played tomorrow evening on the floor of the gym. The team, which Coach Burke will put on at the beginning will be composed of veterans mainly. McGill University, which is famed for its hockey teams as well as basketball, will take on a comparatively weak Catamount varsity. In every game with the Canadians played at the University of Vermont, the Green and Gold basketeers have come out on top. Last year the Vermonters clashed with the red intercollegiate cagers on their floor and were barely defeated.

Both coaches have stressed the advantage of accuracy in foul shooting. Many a game has been lost by one or two points which could have been won if the free throws were used to a better advantage. Practice has been fast and furious with both teams in their pre-game season. McGill has worked against various city teams in Montreal, while Vermont has had enough on her hands in their encounters with a fighting frosh team. Last Monday the freshmen defeated the varsity in an afternoon practice game by a 23-16 score. The freshmen show plenty of promise as a result of their recent games.

Coach Van Wagner, McGill's basketball mentor, rejoices in the fact that he has several six footers on his team. He hopes to play Weber, Lewin and Krukowski as starters. Halpenney and Hammond, both veterans, will probably complete the lineup. McGill has two equally strong teams to use this year and expects to win from Vermont.



On the other hand, the University of Vermont outfit has two complete teams which to all appearances look superior to the team put out last year. Centering about Durfey or Morgan will be Pires and Tupper as forwards, and Taft and Saba and Talbert as guards.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the

U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor

All Work Guaranteed

GRUEN

Nassau—a 14 kt. solid gold case GRUEN Cartouche with link bracelet of harmonizing design

$67.50

F. J. Preston & Son, Inc.
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church St.

CHARTER HOUSE CLOTHES
$35

Charter House styles correctly interpret the desires of University men

Miles & Perry Co.
QUALITY CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

"HI FELLOWS"

RESERVE YOUR TUXEDO EARLY FOR THE CHRISTMAS FORMALS

WE'RE SETTING THEM ASIDE NOW SO DON'T BE LATE

Tuxedos for Rent
$3.00

Tuxedo and Vest
$25.00

DRESS SHIRTS
DRESS STUDS AND LINKS
SUSPENDERS
HOSIERY
DRESS SCARFS
DRESS COLLARS

Hayes & Carney, Inc.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

For distinctly men's Gifts,
buy at a man's store

TURKS
Burlington

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR WALTER H. CROCKETT

(Continued from page 1)

A Journalist

Vermont Historian

President Guy W. Bailey

Prof. Frederick Tupper

Prof. Leon W. Dean

Made FRESH

never parched, never toasted

CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

YOU probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh—not parched or toasted—and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing—switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, N. C.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's
Coast-to-Coast Radio Programs

CAMEL QUARTER HOUR, Morton Downey, Tony Wons, and Camel Orchestra, direction Jacques Renard, every night except Sunday, Columbia Broadcasting System

PRINCE ALBERT QUARTER HOUR, Alice Joy, "Old Hunch," and Prince Albert Orchestra, direction Paul Van Loan, every night except Sunday, N. B. C. Red Network

See radio page of local newspaper for time

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against sweat, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

CAMELS

Made* FRESH—Kept FRESH

© 1931, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

el picador

VOLUME 1 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1931 — NUMBER 2

Women's Page

By Nancy Barefax

Hello, dearest coeds! I am Nancy Barefax.
Tell me all your troubles. Listen to my wise cracks.
If you'll have faith in me
You very soon shall be
Such happy, snappy coeds!

With this little tone poem, dearest coeds, which I composed on my way to office, we initiate a new feature in el picador: a Woman's Page! Just think ! But come, let us start off on our successful college career with a few words the fundamentals of things—the cosmos—the cosmic—ah well. . . .

LIFE

It has been said, in jest, of course, that "Life is just a bowl of cher- ." Piffle, girls, pure unadulterated piffle! Don't believe a word of it. Life— us college women—is just one class after another. The good looking class the not-so-good-looking class, if you follow me; the course crabbing class the note taking class. It really is tedious. And besides, according to Emily te . . . . one doesn't take cherries from a bowl, in well regulated households.

LOVE

Love, of course, is a waste of time. Something for you to sandwich in be- en supper and studying . . . . or shall I say: between supper and breakfast. relaxation only, the practice of indulging in liking someone is on a par with ding Frank Fairwell, or our own dear Elsie Dinsmore. But even Kings and eens do it, so we are left in a quandary—but such a nice quandary. Oh Mr. bster!

POLITICS

Perhaps some of you would like the Manchurian situation explained. Well, s, I believe that the real cause of the dispute is—beans! Yes, those delicate a beans. It seems that Japan, or perhaps it was China, wanted to run beans g this trans-Tiberian railroad. But the Japanese, or wasn't it the Chinese s really very confusing, I know), didn't want the other fellow to run his beans their railroad. They were afraid this new Soviet Jumping Bean Commune t was going to compete with the Mexican Jumping Bean Association, would hold of the beans. But someone spilled the beans that they were running the ns, and that's how the battle started, and it's still going on. It seems one of Chinese generals, General Harsher, was captured right off. You remember headlines:

JAPAN TAKES HERSHER
MEASURES TO HOLD RAILROAD

Dear Miss Barefax: How can I become a Phi Bete? L. B. H.

This, girls, is a very pertinent question, culled from the thousands that flood desk every morning. Of course we would all like to be Phi Betes, but only clever few who really have the knack can accomplish it. We would suggest, preliminary measures, a few months spent in practice at deciphering various dwritings at various distances, with or without spectacles. So that (pun) won't make a spectacle of yourself. Then one should acquire a friend in r course who just dotes on taking notes. Unfortunately these are rare speci- s, and one is often forced to resort to taking one's own notes. A very bor- process when it's so much nicer to just sit back and watch the professor iculate, and sort of let the knowledge he's giving you soak in. We have ex- ded our allowance of space for today, so I am going to suggest that if you send a S. A. S. E. (stamped and self-addressed envelope) to me in care the station to which—I mean to our office, we will send our illustrated book- No. 1.36, entitled, "How to Become a Phi Bete" with a special supplement neck twisting exercises.

—ep—

EX-HALFBACK

By Ramsbottom Horseley

Coach Coppelbaum was frothing at the mouth. Horseley, the best halfback all the anatomy laboratories of the West, was on the primrose path again.

"Horseley," he roared.

"Yes, coach," he roars back.

"Who was that woman I seen you with last night?"

"Saw me with Coach Coppelbaum?" I remonstrated gently.

"Saw you with what?" he enquired.

"Why saw me with a saw of course, Coach Coppelbaum. What else?" I re- ed. So he threw me to the other halfback from the next table, and ejected me m the laboratory with a complete back. So now I am an ex-halfback though ave no arms, legs or head.

In a short time ex-halfback Horseley became a favorite in the social world. would recline on my connubial couch and debutantes would swim before my s.

"Hey you, put on a bathing suit." I protested at last when the thing got too omiscuous. "Who you think you are? Little Red Riding Hood?" Little Red ding Hood never wore a bathing suit; that is why Little Boy Blue was hiding the hay, and it is also why she was called Little Red Riding Hood. Well, any- y.

"Oh, hello, kid," the dame would snicker. "What the hell you doing in a ladies' imming pool?"

"Why, grandma, what big eyes you have," I replied. "I'm a big bathing suit n from Iowa."

"And do you think bathing suits me?"

"Not with a figure like that," I answered.

Another time, I was sitting on a bench when I heard a voice singing:

"Oh, the Judge on the Bench
He was kissing of a wench
Which distracted his attench
From the Jury."

So I sat up, and sure enough, I was kissing of a wench. It was not until it s too late that I noticed that it was a monkey-wench.

Once when I was sitting quietly in the Diocesan Billiard Hall growing moustache, a giraffe approached, humming:

"Giraffe see a lassie go this way, go that way."

"Ain't nobody been here since nine o'clock this morning," I answered. He is ll trying to figure it out, and with a neck like that he otta have a lotta nerve.

"Say, where'd you get the neck?" I enquired curiously.

"R.V.C.," he replied. "So you were out on the Municipal Golf Course too last ght?" It was then that spots began to swim before my eyes.

"Oh, Spots!" I called.

"Oh, hello, Ramsbottom," she replied. "Whatsa matter?"

"I tol yu once already not to swim before my eyes."

"Well, throw them in," said politely. "I can wait."

"Oh, but I never go out with waitresses," I protested. "Have you had much perience?"

"Sexperience?" she said enquiringly. "Oh yeah, here and there."

"Oh, delightful!" I commented. "And how about here?"

"Not that one," she replied modestly; so that was the end of that.

THE RETURN OF REGINALD
or
DON'T SELL THE OLD HOMESTEAD, GIVE IT AWAY
by

George Bernard O'Neill

DRAMATIS PERSONNAE

Mother Brown, a widow
Black, the banker
Reginald Brown, son of Mother Brown.

ACT I

Scene: The action takes place in the main room of a small cottage in rural England. Mother Brown is seated in the chimney corner, silently weeping. Her tears run down and form a pool on the floor. She is peeling onions.

Mother Brown: (To cat.) Where will we get the money? What will become of us?

Cat: Yow!

M. B.: And the banker, Black, comes this morning. If only little Reggie were here. I have heard that he is making good in the big city, selling bond—bread. Perhaps. . . . (There is a heavy knock at the door).

M. B.: Hark! Who is that? (Black, a huge, glowering man with handle-bar mustaches, enters.)

Black: It is I, Black. (He advances, slips in the tears, and tears his pants. He arises enraged.) Well, you old hag, can you pay me the three shillings?

M. B.: Ow!

B.: Or are you prepared to get out of this house? It is yours no longer. I have here a mortgage due these six hours.

M. B.: Ow!

B.: Come on. Hurry up. (He threatens her with his heavy cane.)

M. B.: Please. (She drops to her knees.) Please don't drive me out. It is so cold!

B.: Hurry up.

M. B.: Ow! (Her spirit is crushed . . . She creeps toward the door to which he points with his cane.)

(The door suddenly opens and Reginald, dressed in the height of fashion, comes bounding in.)

B.: (Aside.) Coises, coises, coises!

Reginald: What's going on here? (Advancing on Black.) What do you want, you snake in the grass?

B.: (Attempting to square himself and round the table at the same time.) Here is a mortgage. She owes me three shillings. She. . . .

R.: Take that, dog. (He tosses down a gold guinea and a plain water chaser.) And now, Black, let me say I think you're a bounder. (Black trembles.) In fact, you are an unmitigated bounder! (Black turns white, trembles more violently than before, and, having retrieved the money and bitten into it, scuttles to the door.)

B.: (Hissing) Phoney! Ferled again!

R.: Begone, you craven cur!

M. B.: Reggie, my little boy!

(Reginald has slyly removed his hair, monocle, chewing gum, and near-platinum cigarette holder and suddenly he stands revealed before her—the monster—in his true nature, J. Oscar Swithins, the perennial agent.)

R.: . . . and now, if I can only get twelve more subscriptions, I'll be able to enter coll . . . .

(Mother Brown shrieks and faints. There is a hurried curtain. That crazy Reginald has got his parts mixed again!)

Look for the next Little Melodramer in the next el picador. Don't read it!

Officer: Your name?
Private: Zybisko.
Officer: Your rank.
Private: I know it!

—ep—

Maine Professor Has Fine Collection of Coin—Headline in Maine Campus. We're sure glad someone has.

—ep—

HOT News Flash from Toyland: (AP) Santa Claus has hired a kiddie car to make this year's Xmas deliveries with.

el picador
"never dry or roasted"

ROD & STAFF
R. Weissman
W. Cass

An Ex-Official Looks at Life

Gloom House, Vermont, December 11, 1931.

It looks like a cold winter. On the other hand we may have a mild winter. Some authorities are of the opinion that we may have a little of both. If we have a mild winter it will be good for our unemployed. More of the homeless ones will be accommodated in the great open spaces of our municipal parks and playgrounds. If we have a severe winter, it will also be good for the unemployed. Shoveling snow and pulling sleighs will give many a vigorous exercise which will tone up the muscles which have been idle for so long, and store up the red corpuscles. Nature is sound. America is fundamentally all right. America will take care of her millions of unemployed. There is no depression. Some people have a lot of money. Some people have no money. A few people have most of the money. Most of the people owe the few people money. There should be a more even distribution. But those in moderate circumstances should not live beyond their means. This country should seek a balance between supply and demand. The political situation looks promising. Short selling is to be frowned upon in this crisis. There is no depression. The prospect of a rise in munitions stocks, rails, wooden markers and coffins looks favorable. Shultz is dead.

Signed. Alvin Farnes-Barnes.

EDITORIALS

Well, here it is and what can you do about it? In the face of the unmitigated subversive operations of those who claimed el picador would get stuck, we found another joke. With due deference to the age of said joke, we are not printing it. For our chronicle we shall record a slightly increased cooperation, and the enthusiastic addition of a capable assistant.

—ep—

We distinctly regret that we neglected, in Vol. I, No. 1, to make our appeal to the one group that saw the birth of el picador with active interest and new hope for big things at UVM, even while they regretted that common filler was used on page two.

We refer, of course, to the Alumni, and, concurrently or simultaneously, to the Alumnae. We wish to give you, most august body, the pleasure of contributing to our project what manner of interesting anecdote and humor you may have found in college or in that civilized part of the world which is not college.

What far-flung group can offer such a wealth of humor as can the loyal Alumni? It is our belief that you will not need to be urged, as does our present student body.

Picture of a co-ed attending a first night with a pair of low heels

Private: Aw, go to hell.
Officer: WHAT?
Private: Aw, go to hell, SIR!
Officer: That's better.

MAIDEN FORM
A Fashion Necessity

Frocks relentlessly reveal each figure curve, making Maiden Form's gentle but firm moulding a necessity for even the slenderest of figures. Wear the exacting new styles with poise and comfort by wearing the Maiden Form uplift and girdle (or garter belt) best suited to your type.

Get the New Maiden Form Booklet from your dealer, or write MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO., Inc. Dept. C - 245 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

"There is a Maiden Form foundation for every type of figure."

"Maidenette Double Support" with tricot band reinforcing uplift support, high-waist slenderizing girdle of batiste.

"New Moon" whose clever practically seamless pockets make it invisible beneath the sheerest gowns; boned peach lycra girdle.

"Gree-Vee", The Maiden Form uplift shown above, sculptures your bust in the youthfully rounded curves the picturesque new frocks demand. The Maiden Form girdle illustrated, of brocaded satin (fully boned) effortlessly prepares your figure for sleekly fitted hipline.

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE

GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS

Maiden Form has a line of corsetry. Accept no substitute. Insist on the Maiden Form Trade Mark label.

FUNERAL IS HELD FOR WALTER H. CROCKETT

(Continued from Page 1)

Prof. Leon W. Dow

Prof. Lee W. Bailey

Prof. Frederick Tupper

Made FRESH

never parched, never toasted

CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

You probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh—not parched or toasted—and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing—switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY
Winston-Salem, N. C.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company's Coast-to-Coast Radio Programs

CAMEL QUARTER HOUR, Morton Downey, Tony Wons, and Camel Orchestra, direction Jacques Renard, every night except Sunday, Columbia Broadcasting System

PRINCE ALBERT QUARTER HOUR, Alice Joy, "Old Hunch," and Prince Albert Orchestra, direction Paul Van Loan, every night except Sunday, N. B. C. Red Network

See radio page of local newspaper for time

● Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against sweat, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

CAMELS

Made FRESH—Kept FRESH

© 1931, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company

el picador

VOL. I — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1931 — NUMBER 2

Women's Page

By NANCY BARELAX

Hello, dearest coeds! I am Nancy Barelax.
Tell me all your troubles. Listen to my wise cracks.
If you'll have faith in me
You very soon shall be
Such happy, snappy coeds!

... little tone poem, dearest coeds, which I composed on my way to ... to inaugurate a new feature in el picador: a Woman's Page! Just think ... and let us start off on our successful college career with a few words ... essentials of things—the cosmos—the cosmic—ah well

LIFE

... been said, in jest, of course, that "Life is just a bowl of cher ... Piffle, girls, pure unadulterated piffle! Don't believe a word of it. Life ... lege women—is just one class after another. The good looking class ... the not-so-good-looking class, if you follow me; the course crabbing class ... note taking class. It really is tedious. And besides, according to Emily ... one doesn't take cherries from a bowl, in well regulated households.

LOVE

... love, of course, is a waste of time. Something for you to sandwich in be- ... supper and studying . . . . or shall I say: between supper and breakfast. ... relaxation only, the practice of indulging in liking someone is on a par with ... Frank Fairwell, or our own dear Elsie Dinsmore. But even Kings and ... don't, so we are left in a quandary—but such a nice quandary. Oh Mr. ... ter!

POLITICS

... perhaps some of you would like the Manchurian situation explained. Well, ... believe that the real cause of the dispute is—beans! Yes, those delicate ... It seems that Japan, or perhaps it was China, wanted to run beans ... the trans-Tiberian railroad. But the Japanese, or wasn't it the Chinese ... well, very confusing, I know), didn't want the other fellow to run his beans ... railroad. They were afraid this new Soviet Jumping Bean Commune ... going to compete with the Mexican Jumping Bean Association, would ... the beans. But someone spilled the beans that they were running the ... and that's how the battle started, and it's still going on. It seems one of ... generals, General Harsher, was captured right off. You remember ... lines

JAPAN TAKES HERSHER MEASURES TO HOLD RAILROAD

... Barefax: How can I become a Phi Bete? L. E. H

... girls, is a very pertinent question, culled from the thousands that flood ... every morning. Of course we would all like to be Phi Betes, but only ... who really have the knack can accomplish it. We would suggest, ... measures, a few months spent in practice at deciphering various ... at various distances, with or without spectacles. So that (pun) ... won't make a spectacle of yourself. Then one should acquire a friend in ... who just dotes on taking notes. Unfortunately these are rare speci- ... one is often forced to resort to taking one's own notes. A very bor- ... when it's so much nicer to just sit back and watch the professor ... and sort of let the knowledge he's giving you soak in. We have ex- ... our allowance of space for today, so I am going to suggest that if you ... S. A. S. E. (stamped and self-addressed envelope) to me in care ... to which—I mean to our office, we will send our illustrated book- ... entitled, "How to Become a Phi Bete" with a special supplement ... twisting exercises.

—ep—

EX-HALFBACK

By Ramsbottom Horseley

... Coppelbaum was frothing at the mouth. Horseley, the best halfback ... anatomy laboratories of the West, was on the primrose path again.

... Horseley," he roared.

... coach," he roars back.

... was that woman I seen you with last night?"

... me with Coach Coppelbaum?" I remonstrated gently.

... you with what?" he enquired.

... saw me with a saw of course, Coach Coppelbaum. What else?" I re- ... he threw me to the other halfback from the next table, and ejected me ... laboratory with a complete back. So now I am an ex-halfback though ... arms, legs or head.

... first time ex-halfback Horseley became a favorite in the social world. ... recline on my connubial couch and debutantes would swim before my

... not on a bathing suit." I protested at last when the thing got too ... Who you think you are? Little Red Riding Hood?" Little Red ... never wore a bathing suit; that is why Little Boy Blue was hiding ... it is also why she was called Little Red Riding Hood. Well, any-

... kid," the dame would snicker. "What the hell you doing in a ladies' ...

... grandma, what big eyes you have," I replied. "I'm a big bathing suit ...

... you think bathing suits me?"

... a figure like that," I answered.

... I was sitting on a bench when I heard a voice singing:

"Oh, the Judge on the Bench
He was kissing of a wench
Which distracted his attench
From the Jury."

... and sure enough, I was kissing of a wench. It was not until it ... I noticed that it was a monkey-wench.

... I was sitting quietly in the Diocesan Billiard Hall growing ... giraffe approached, humming:

... lassie go this way, go that way."

... been here since nine o'clock this morning," I answered. He is ... it out, and with a neck like that he otta have a lotta nerve.

... you get the neck?" I enquired curiously.

... replied. "So you were out on the Municipal Golf Course too last ... then that spots began to swim before my eyes.

... I called.

... Ramsbottom," she replied. "Whatsa matter?"

... already not to swim before my eyes."

... them in," said politely. "I can wait."

... never go out with waitresses," I protested. "Have you had much ...

..." she said enquiringly. "Oh yeah, here and there."

..." I commented. "And how about here?"

..." she replied modestly: so that was the end of that

THE RETURN OF REGINALD
or
DON'T SELL THE OLD HOMESTEAD, GIVE IT AWAY
by
GEORGE BERNARD O'NEILL

DRAMATIS PERSONNAE

Mother Brown, a widow
Black, the banker
Reginald Brown, son of Mother Brown.

ACT I

Scene: The action takes place in the main room of a small cottage in rural England. Mother Brown is seated in the chimney corner, silently weeping. Her tears run down and form a pool on the floor. She is peeling onions.

Mother Brown: (To cat.) Where will we get the money? What will become of us.

Cat: Yow!

M. B.: And the banker, Black, comes this morning. If only little Reggie were here. I have heard that he is making good in the big city, selling bond—bread. Perhaps. . . . (There is a heavy knock at the door.)

M. B.: Hark! Who is that? (Black a huge, glowering man with handle-bar mustaches, enters.)

Black: It is I, Black. (He advances, slips in the tears, and tears his pants. He arises enraged.) Well, you old hag, can you pay me the three shillings?

M. B.: Ow!

B.: Or are you prepared to get out of this house? It is yours no longer. I have here a mortgage due these six hours.

M. B.: Ow!

B.: Come on. Hurry up. (He threatens her with his heavy cane.)

M. B.: Please. (She drops to her knees.) Please don't drive me out. It is so cold!

B.: Hurry up.

M. B.: Ow! (Her spirit is crushed. She creeps toward the door to which he points with his cane.)

(The door suddenly opens and Reginald, dressed in the height of fashion, comes bounding in.)

B.: (Aside.) Coises, coises, coises!

Reginald: What's going on here? (Advancing on Black.) What do you want, you snake in the grass?

B.: (Attempting to square himself and round the table at the same time.) Here is a mortgage. She owes me three shillings. She. . . .

R.: Take that, dog. (He tosses down a gold guinea and a plain water chaser.) And now, Black, let me say I think you're a bounder. (Black trembles.) In fact, you are an unmitigated bounder! (Black turns white, trembles more violently than before, and, having retrieved the money and bitten into it, scuttles to the door.)

B.: (Hissing) Phoney! Ferled again!

R.: Begone, you craven cur!

M. B.: Reggie, my little boy!

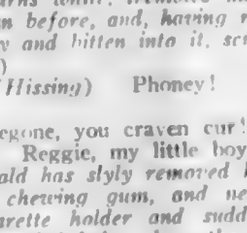
(Reginald has slyly removed his hair, monocle, chewing gum, and near-platinum cigarette holder and suddenly he stands revealed before her—the monster—in his true nature, J. Oscar Swithins, the perennial agent.)

R.: . . . and now, if I can only get twelve more subscriptions, I'll be able to enter coll . . . .

(Mother Brown shrieks and faints. There is a hurried curtain. That crazy Reginald has got his parts mixed again!)

Look for the next Little Melodrama in the next el picador. Don't read it!

Officer: Your name?
Private: Zybisko.
Officer: Your rank.
Private: I know it!



—ep—

Maine Professor Has Fine Collection of Coin—Headline in Maine Campus
We're sure glad someone has

—ep—

HOT News Flash from Toyland
(AP) Santa Claus has hired a kiddie car to make this year's Xmas deliveries with.

el picador
"never dry or roasted"

ROD & STAFF
R. WEISSMAN
W. CASS

An Ex-Official Looks at Life

Gloom House, Vermont, December 11, 1931

It looks like a cold winter. On the other hand we may have a mild winter. Some authorities are of the opinion that we may have a little of both. If we have a mild winter it will be good for our unemployed. More of the homeless ones will be accommodated in the great open spaces of our municipal parks and playgrounds. If we have a severe winter, it will also be good for the unemployed. Shoveling snow and pulling sleighs will give many a vigorous exercise which will tone up the muscles which have been idle for so long and store up the red corpuscles. Nature is sound. America is fundamentally all right. America will take care of her millions of unemployed. There is no depression. Some people have a lot of money. Some people have no money. A few people have most of the money. Most of the people owe the few people money. There should be a more even distribution. But those in moderate circumstances should not live beyond their means. This country should seek a balance between supply and demand. The political situation looks promising. Short selling is to be frowned upon in this crisis. There is no depression. The prospect of a rise in munitions stocks, rails, wooden markers and coffins looks favorable. Shultz is dead.

Signed, Horn Barrow Barnes

EDITORIALS

Well, here it is and what can you do about it? In the face of the unmitigated subversive operations of those who claimed el picador would get stuck, we found another joke. With due deference to the age of said joke, we are not printing it. For our chronicle we shall record a slightly increased cooperation, and the enthusiastic addition of a capable assistant.

—ep—

We distinctly regret that we neglected, in Vol. I, No. 1, to make our appeal to the one group that saw the birth of el picador with active interest and new hope for big things at UVM, even while they regretted that common filler was used on page two

We refer, of course, to the Alumni, and, concurrently or simultaneously, to the Alumnae. We wish to give you, most august body, the pleasure of contributing to our project what manner of interesting anecdote and humor you may have found in college or in that civilized part of the world which is not college.

What far-flung group can offer such a wealth of humor as can the loyal Alumni? It is our belief that you will not need to be urged, as does our present student body.

Picture of a co-ed attending a first night with a pair of low heels

Private: Aw, go to hell
Officer: WHAT?
Private: Aw, go to hell, SIR!
Officer: That's better

MAIDEN FORM
A Fashion Necessity

Frocks relentlessly reveal each figure curve, making Maiden Form's gentle but firm moulding a necessity for even the slenderest of figures. Wear the exacting new styles with poise and comfort by wearing the Maiden Form uplift and girdle (or garter belt) best suited to your type.

Get the New Maiden Form Booklet from your dealer, or write MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO., Inc. Dept. C · 245 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE

There is a Maiden Form foundation for every type of figure"

"Maidenette Double Support" with lifted band reinforcing uplift support, high-waist slenderizing girdle of batiste

"New" ... clever ... seam ... makes it ... the ... batiste girdle

"Free step", The Maiden Form uplift shown above, sculptures your bust in the youthfully rounded curves the ... new frocks demand. The Maiden Form girdle illustrated, of brocaded moire (fully boned) efficiently prepares your figure for ... fitted hipline.

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE

GIRDLES GARTER BELTS

Maiden Form has a host of admirers. Ask to see ... latest on the Maiden Form Trade ...

Bathos News

[illegible]

OUR OWN BONERS

[illegible]

Reports of Progress in Absorbing History of English Literature

[illegible]

The Harrowing Tale of Bill Knight and Jill the Gyp
or
Raking Up Scandal in the Wilds of the Big City

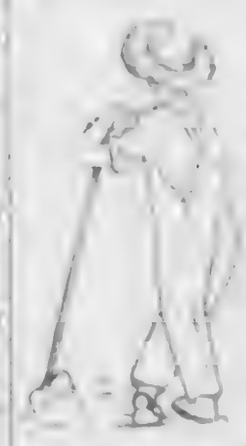
[illegible]

• • •

[illegible]

• • •

[illegible]



Sally Jill

[illegible]

Why was that lady I spotted you with?

[illegible]

Farnes-Barnes Can Now Eat Anything He Chooses

"I got so I couldn't eat anything without having trouble afterwards," says Mr. Farnes-Barnes, popular oil-rig builder and sapper of 221½ West Congress Street, Tucson, Arizona. "I would have heartburn and indigestion pains after meals. Of course it wasn't my wife's cooking.

"Nothing seemed to help me. I tried everything I could hear of or lay my hands on but my indigestion hung on for years.

"Then a friend got me to take some Zilch Jellap. I had almost immediate relief with the first two tablets, and with the eighth and ninth I felt as though I was floating on air. Now that I have been taking them for some time I find that I can eat meats and even a truffle or so or most anything and have no trouble. I want to tell others about Zilch Jellap because it sure helped me and I am getting twenty-five bucks for this testimonial which is more than I get for a week's work."

Thousands like Mr. Farnes-Barnes are finding quick, certain relief for sour stomach, (or acidity), or ingrown toenails by using Zilch Jellap. Chew a tablet and that feeling of weight and discomfort after eating just disappears. You too will seem to be "floating on air."

Wimmen

[illegible]

The recent remark of some public figure that the new slogan is "a chicken wing in every dinner pail" reminds us that we were hardly enough dumps to make a down payment on a Christmas goose. (Time: fifteen seconds.)

Making it Quite Clear

Miss Strickland attended the May school making her début in Boston during the season of 1929-30 when she became a member of the Junior League. Her fiance was graduated from the Harvard Law School in the class of 1930. . .
Burlington Daily News.

MENTAL ABERRATIONS

By Isham Harris [illegible]

[illegible]
He writes worse verse
[illegible]
[illegible] weathers.
The other day he tried to steal my [illegible]
[illegible] he tried to maim
[illegible]
[illegible] I got hot and steam
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
Said the wench
"Oh wrench I never could stand.
[illegible]
[illegible]
Thru sheer pity a dame I'm alotting...
(You're a cheat, its nothing.)
This likely looking wench
[illegible] bench. (P.S. Note: this is another bench.)
He can have her
for the stench of the wench on the bench could only come from cadaver.

• • •

A moral you want?
Seems I cawn't recall
Why I wrote this at all
Talk of benches and wenches
Is rather silly.
And if it isn't all Bull.
Then its El Picadilly.

The Wail of the Misogynist

By [illegible] Pascal, Esq.

[illegible]

Yeh... Women give me a pain
Especially my Jane
Or who was my Jane
I'll never seek her again

Her kisses taste flat
As a soggy felt hat
Her tresses so pat
I would use for a mat

I loved her as well
As any gal
But now I would sell
Her soul unto h

I loved her, I said
But now I see red
I would not be sad
If she was dead.

I was once so happee
That she loved me
I would now with glee
Hop into the sea

You ask why I sigh?
I'll tell you the lie.
She just passed by
With that dam' other guy.

The Rewards of Integrity

Paul Revere: (Galloping up to [illegible] in front of cabin one) Is your husband to hum?

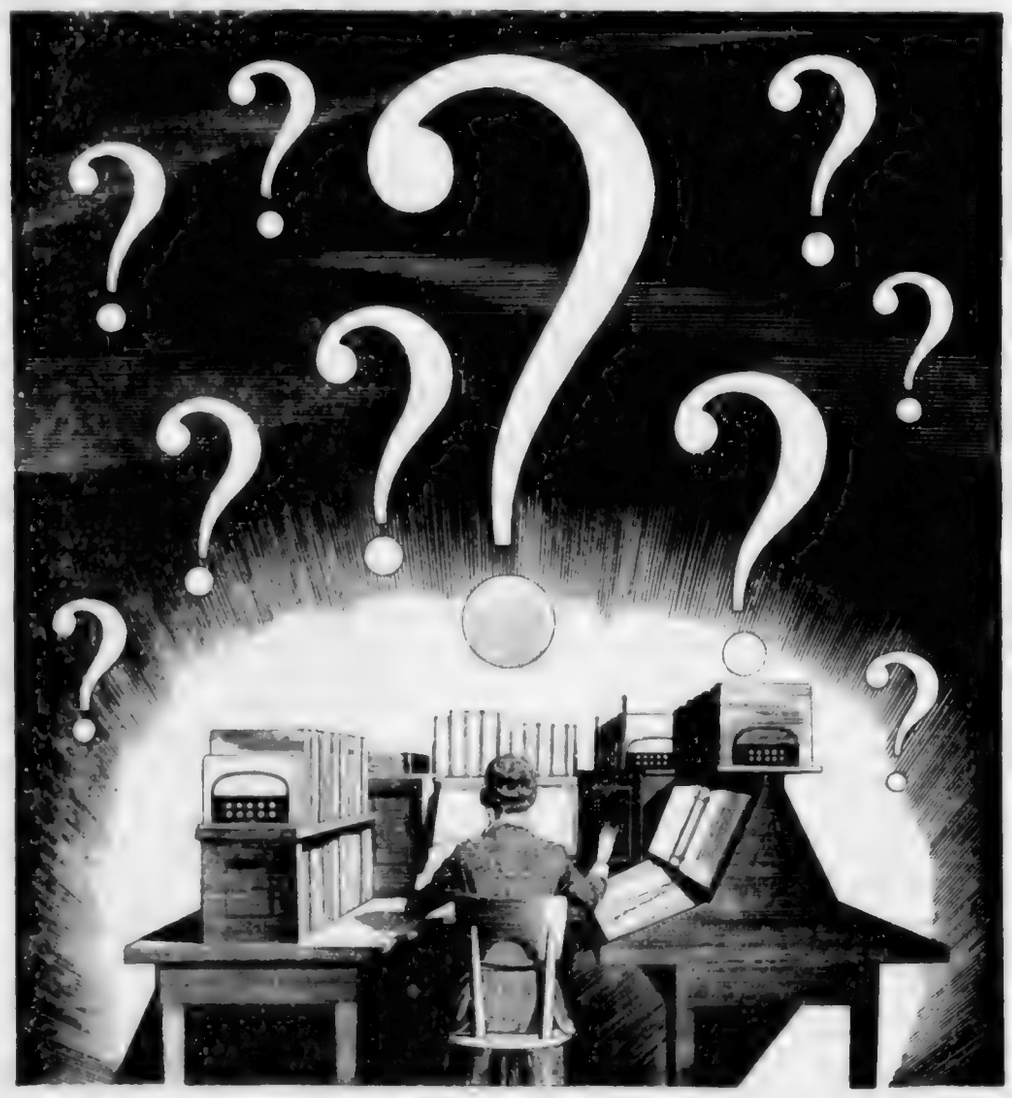
Lady: Yessuh



P. R.: Tell him the British is comin.

(At cabin thirteen) Is your husband to hum

Lady: My husband is an itinerant vendor an' he won't be back for months and months, sir

Pore P. R.: Well, well, well! Tell him the British are comin, when he gets back.

Lady: But . . . I

Problem: how to answer a million a day

Users of Bell System service ask "Information" more than 1,000,000 questions every day. Providing facilities for answering them promptly, correctly, was one problem put up to engineers of the Bell System.

So effective was their solution that this prodigious task is now a matter of smooth routine. They designed desks which enable each operator to reach quickly the listings of some 15,500,000 telephones. They developed apparatus which automatically routes calls to operators not busy—and should all operators be busy at once, it stores up calls and releases them in the order received!

Efficient telephone service depends upon working out interesting problems like this.

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

The Vermont Cynic

...SH | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1931 | NUMBER 25

...ONT EARNS VICTORY ...M DARTMOUTH HERE ...WITH TWO-MAN TEAM

...ism Is Flayed and Backed ...ebaters for Contribution and Failures

...DECLARES IT ONE ...F FINEST ARGUMENTS

...ebaters team ... and Lewis ... Dartmouth ... a decision ... coming at the ...

... of the ... present, "It ... that I ... an interesting ... that this is ... ...ver heard a ... here at the Uni...

... that capital ... United States ... aggregate ... of Dartmouth took the ... unusually small ... the judges of the ... Mr. C. Marat, Rev. ... Baptist Church, and ... local attorney.

...pitalism and Unemployed

... the constructive ... negative. He dis... the subject at ... ...ge of capitalism ... in the United ... began to outline ... system of capitalism ... complacency was di... ...apitalism. He de... ...ty of poverty which he ... be attributed to ... capitalism," he said, ... is a government of ... ...ple, and for the few." ... the fact that twenty ... the entire population ... per 95 percent of ... under the system of ...

... Nystrom of Columbia ... ...ect that intelligence ... United States today ... necessities of life ... ...ved the argument ... the lust for power, ... and for imperialism ... ...d to another war. He con... ...d by stating, "It may ... the best system we ...

...ed on page 4)

...ONT UNIVERSITY ...NCLUDES TWO DAYS ...F DAIRY CONFERENCE

... ...ral concer... ... ...ate were the ... ...l meeting ... ...Ohio Operator and ... ...ompanies ... ...ance for the ... Montpelier and ...

... Prof. H. E. ... ...ral and ... ...ge of the ... ... graduate ad... ... H. E. Brown ... ...gressional ...

...r for Speakers

... ...ment ... ...ed ... ...

GREY FRIARS TO MEET THURSDAY AT OWL HOUSE

... ...

Esther News

By Reeve MacCannan-McGillacuddy

Dramatis Personae. The abductors, the abducted, the district attorney, the line-up, and a couple cops.

[? Abducted ? ? ? Flashbulbs
Tonight Camera

? R.:
Ito you recognize
These guys?

Rich Innocent:
I'll say I do! (Prevolt.)
I'm there and yes.

D. A.:
Of all the guts.
Wanna guys to vote?
In this trap-
O Rap-
I claim as honors
That he's worth a million ransom?
You kidnapped him?

Abductor I:
I dunk, we did.

D. A.:
The saloons went dop?

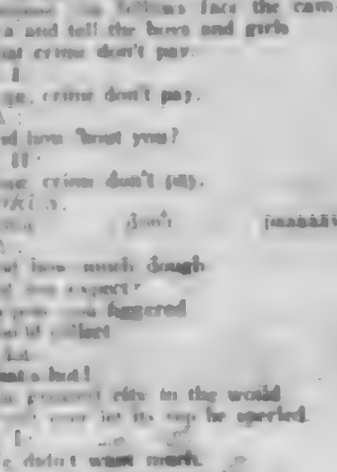
Abductor II:
I dunk so. Yop.

D. A.:
Well strike me pink.
Well, I'll be dam—
Smear the fellows face the cam-
I-ra and tell the boys and girls
That crime don't pay.

Abd. I:
Nope, crime don't pay.

D. A.:
And how 'bout you?

Abd. II:
Nope, crime don't pay.



Chorus.
Crime don't pay . . .

D. A.:
And how much dough
Did you expect?
I'm gone now buggered
You'd collect
A lot.
I hate hot!
I'm greatest city in the world
Where ever in its cup be sparkled.

Abd. I:
We didn't want much.
You said my sister much
Bad eggs.
Not the dregs
Of the civilization
That's running our nation.
A hundred grand
Is plenty sand
For us any day.

D. A.:
NAY! NAY! I say!

OUR OWN BONERS

1066 The Islands of Langerhans are off the coast of Norway.

1066 Overhead fire is when you fire up in the air so that it should hit the enemy.

1492 Angel's father was a pheasant.

1776 Example of personification: A frog eating a hessian.

Reports of Progress in Absorbing History of English Literature

1800 Schleswig Holstein is a cow.

1950 Hideath is an Anglo-Saxon word. Hi of means with—with is "this" spelled backwards. Widarth means like this.

1777 Seal bath is a bath of seal oil for whores.

1486 Mudred besieged the Tower of London because he wanted something inside.

980BC Whitby was an Anglo-Saxon port. Hastings was an author.

1189 Paul's letes were the Dis-ciples.

1189 Quem quaeritis means "who knows"?

"Rose," he whispered, his voice quivering, "our being here all alone just we two—and that big round moon, doesn't it get you at all? Don't you feel anything down deep?"

"Yes, George," she breathed slowly, slowly in that ecstasy that every girl knows but once. "I think I do. Yes, I feel I do feel something. George—way down deep."

She leaned forward. "Do you—will you—can you tell me what it is?" She was clinging to the precious moments.

"Yes, Rose, I can," he answered. "You're sitting on my hat."

The Harrowing Tale of Bill Knight and Jill the Gyp
or
Raking Up Scandal in the Wilds of the Big City

Bill Knight was right
Some night!
His sweater was red.
His head
was as bad as his sweater
The worst
on his ear was important.
(Remember the ear!)
A court had ordered that Bill and his Jill should not marry.
Why carry the poem any further. . . The joint that Bill ran
got him into the can.
He got out no doubt.
Lots of bail; no jail.
We forgot to mention the spot on Bill's chin
where a razor cut in.
That's part of my story. There's more:
From the jail
on the trail
of his Jill went Bill.
He was drunk.
The punk!
There was booze
in his shoes,
and his brain floated round in its ooze.

• • •

It wasn't Jill's party.
No sore in her heart,
for Bill
The pill!
She'd do her own parking
and plenty of sparking.
There was fun
in promiscuous kiss-
ing with Tony or Joe.
They all liked it so
It was dark on this lark.
Jill was cold
(Just the old dodge.) She reached out, slammed a clost on the fellow beside her.
Grabbed his neck
for a peck
at his lips . . . then the tips of her fingers got caught—
"A wart!
Bill! ! I'll kill!"
"Oh you will? ? ? —Silly Jill.
I value my life
here's a knife
in the ribs, for your nibs."
Jill was tight
Bill was tighter and Jill was much lighter
The knife was rusty
Bill's brain was dusty
That's why
a fly
crawls over his eye and his breathing is quiet
In fact I'd deny it. Instead,
he's dead

"Who was that lady I spotted you with?"

"That was no lady, that was your wife!"

Farnes-Barnes Can Now Eat Anything He Chooses

"I got so I couldn't eat anything without having trouble afterwards," says Mr. Farnes-Barnes, popular oil-rig builder and capper of 221½ West Congress Street, Tucson, Arizona. "I would have heartburn and indigestion pains after meals. Of course it wasn't my wife's cooking.

"Nothing seemed to help me. I tried everything I could hear of or lay my hands on but my indigestion hung on for years.

"Then a friend got me to take some Zilch Jellup. I had almost immediate relief with the first two tablets, and with the eighth and ninth I felt as though I was floating on air. Now that I have been taking them for some time I find that I can eat meats and even a truffle or so or most anything and have no trouble. I want to tell others about Zilch Jellup because it sure helped me and I am getting twenty-five bucks for this testimonial which is more than I get for a week's work."

Thousands like Mr. Farnes-Barnes are finding quick, certain relief for sour stomach, (or acidity), or ingrown tonsils by using Zilch Jellup. Chew a tablet and that feeling of weight and discomfort after eating just disappears. You too will seem to be "floating on air."

Wimmen

By H Farnes-Barnes

(As read over a frosh shoulder)

My teacher tole us to rite a theam on sum subjec of genral intrest so I decided to rite on wimmen. Of coarse a frosh is not supposed to know very much about wimmen but I was a big shot in hi school and had a car and all the gals was crazy about me. I had my first experiance with the speaker sex when I was a soph in hi school. I was onli sixteen and han'nt began to campain among the Amazons yet not very much when one day I got enuf curage to ast a dizzy blond for a dait. She had blue eyes and platinum hare and curves and things and was the kind of a gal what makes a fellow want to go places. Well I got the dait and my bruthers car and we went to the movies and then went to the park where we sit on a bench. She kept coming closer and I kept moving over until I was most off the bench. She sed what a nite for love." "I sed I geas I better be going." "Then she sed arent you forgetting sumthing." "What I gulped I got my hat aint I?" And befor I could get away she jumps up and kisses me right on the lips. I rode home with my wheals not touching the ground only here and there. I went to bed but didn't sleep much. Aint wimmen hell?

The recent remark of some public figure that the new slogan is "a chicken wing in every dinner pail," reminds us that we have hardly enough dough to make a down payment on a Christmas goose. (Time: seventeen seconds.)

—op—

Making it Quite Clear

Miss Strickland attended the May school, making her début in Boston during the season of 1929-30 when she became a member of the Junior League. Her finance was graduated from the Harvard Law School in the class of 1930. . .
—Burlington Daily News.

MENTAL ABERRATIONS

By Isham Farnes-Barnes

So I tunk off my hat and stepped up to hit with this ginko El Piradilly.
Did you thunk I could let this silly beat me on the make of a dame or filly?
No sirree, he may steal my stuff.
but I'll call his bluff.
To tick him I'm always ready.
He writes worse verse
the kind that's terse and full of goofa feathers.
Its well he means but hell, it seems
worse'n Vermont weathers.
The yother day he tried to steal my dame.
In many another way he tried to maim my self esteem.
Did I get hot and steam and angry seem?
I did not!
I grabbed the wench
while he did blench
and I said do you want to sit on the bench for the rest of the season?
Said the wench
"The wrench I never could stand.
Do you have to indulge in your teason?
(No! Ed. Note.)
Then I demand
That you flatten your hand on the beezer of this little wheezer."
The blow to his pride
hurt him more than his snide.
His ego in toto is rotting.
Thru sheer pity a dame I'm alotting...
(You're welcome, its notting.)
This likely looking wench
I met on a bench. (Ed. Note: this is another bench.)
He can have her
for the stench of the wench on the bench could only come from cadaver.

• • •

A moral you want?
Seems I cawn't recall
Why I wrote this at all.
Talk of benches and wenches
is rather silly.
And if it isn't all Bull.
Then its El Picadilly.

The Wail of the Misogynist

or "You Rascal, You!"

By Solomon Farnes-Barnes

Yeh. Women give me a pain
Especially my Jane.
Or who was my Jane.
(I'll never seek her again.)

Her kisses taste flat
As a soggy felt hat.
Her tresses so pat
I would use for a mat.

I loved her as well
As any gel.
But now I would sell
Her soul unto h . . .

I loved her, I said
But now I see red.
I would not be sed
If she was dead.

I was once so happee
That she loved me . . . .
I would now with glee
Hop into the sea.

You ask why I sigh?
I'll tell you the lie. . . .
She just passed by
With that dam' other guy.

The Rewards of Integrity

Paul Revere: (Galloping up to lady in front of cabin one) Is your husban' to hum?

Lady: Yessuh.

P. R.: Tell him the British is comin'

(At cabin thirteen) Is your husban' to hum?

Lady: My husband is an itinerant vendor an' he won't be back for months and months, sir.

Pore P. R.: Well, well, well! Tell him the British are comin, when he gets back.

Lady: But . . . !

Problem: how to answer a million a day

Users of Bell System service ask "Information" more than 1,000,000 questions every day. Providing facilities for answering them promptly, correctly, was one problem put up to engineers of the Bell System.

So effective was their solution that this prodigious task is now a matter of smooth routine. They designed desks which enable each operator to reach quickly the listings of some 15,500,000 telephones. They developed apparatus which automatically routes calls to operators not busy—and should all operators be busy at once, it stores up calls and releases them in the order received!

Efficient telephone service depends upon working out interesting problems like this.

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1931 | NUMBER 25

MONT EARNS VICTORY OM DARTMOUTH HERE WITH TWO-MAN TEAM

alism Is Flayed and Backed Debaters for Contribution and Failures

N DECLARES IT ONE OF FINEST ARGUMENTS

... man debating team, ... LaCross and James ... victorious over the ... Emerson Day and ... by a two to one decision ... last Friday evening at the ... Museum.

... Dean, chairman of the ... small audience present, "It ... with great malcontent that I ... the close of such an interesting ... debate. In fact, this is one ... debates I have ever heard in ... as professor here at the Uni-

... was, "Resolved, That capital- ... a failure in the United States." ... upheld the affirmative side of ... while Dartmouth took the ... standpoint. An unusually small ... was present. The judges of the ... were Miss Mary C. Alafat, Rev. ... of the Baptist Church, and ... Latham, Jr., local attorney.

Capitalism and Unemployed

... LaCross opened the constructive ... for the affirmative. He dis- ... the seriousness of the subject at ... saying, "The topic of capitalism ... very serious topic in the United ... today." He then began to outline ... the system of capitalism ... that unemployment was di- ... attributable to capitalism. He de- ... the horrors of poverty which he ... could also be attributed to ... "Under capitalism," he said, ... United States is a government of ... by the few, and for the few." ... forth the fact that twenty- ... 1 percent of the entire population ... United States pay 95 percent of ... income taxes under the system of ...

... quoted Paul Nystrom of Columbia ... to the effect that fifty-nine ... people of the United States today ... have the vital necessities of life. ... next advanced the argument ... to capitalism the lust for power, ... markets, and for imperialism ... us into another war. He con- ... argument by stating, "It may ... capitalism is the best system we

(Continued on page 4)

MONT UNIVERSITY ONCLUDES TWO DAYS OF DAIRY CONFERENCE

... professors and numer- ... out-of-state were the ... annual meeting of ... Plant Operators and ... Association in conjunction ... course conference for stu- ... Hall Wednesday and ... week.

... speakers were Prof. H. B. ... department of animal and ... chairman of the con- ... Frayer, dairy bacteri- ... Grinnell, agricultural ... Loveless, graduate fel- ... and H. E. Bremer, ... department of agriculture.

Visiting Speakers

... state speakers in- ... representative Fed- ... Washington, D. C.; J ... professor of dairy industry, ... College, Amherst. ... New York State ... Albany, N. Y.; F ... of dairy industry, ... professor of agricul- ... Cornell University. ... Wilson, dairy manu- ... bureau of dairy in- ... D. C.

... assisted also of dis- ... demonstrations in the ...

... Hotel Van Ness con- ... meet. Prominent ... Stanley C. Wilson ... industry in Vermont. ... The double quartet ... Vermont rendered

GREY FRIARS TO MEET THURSDAY AT OWL HOUSE

"Grey Friars, the men's literary society, will meet at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the chapter house of the Lambda Iota fraternity, and all members are requested to be present with manuscripts." So stated F. W. Householder, president of the group when interviewed by a member of the CYNIC reportorial staff last week.

All men in the academic college are eligible for membership in the society and may gain admission upon the submission of two examples of their own literary work. The manuscripts must be in two different fields and may be poetry, short stories, essays, sketches, novels, plays, or criticisms of any sort. The members will bring money to cover the amount of their dues to date. Plans for the regular semester banquet will be formulated.

MASSUCCO, TAYLOR AND BIGELOW WIN ELECTIONS FOR NEXT JUNIOR WEEK

Class of 1933 Names Chairman, Financial Manager, and Founder's Day Speaker with Ara Armstrong Vice-President

Francis J. Massucco of Bellows Falls was elected chairman of Junior Week at a meeting of the class of 1933 last Wednesday afternoon. Clement A. Taylor of Springfield, Mass. was named financial manager and James Edward Bigelow of Fair Haven was the class choice for Founder's Day speaker. Ara Armstrong of Belmont was elected class vice-president. All these students are among the leaders of the class being active in campus affairs.

Massucco was president of Gold Key society last year, a member of the 1933 Sophomore Hop committee, Kake Walk committee and class basketball team. He is now assistant manager of hockey, a member of Student Senate and a member of S. A. E. fraternity, and grind editor of 1933 Ariel.

Taylor is associate editor of 1933 Ariel, a member of the French Club, International Relations Club and of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is a feature editor of the CYNIC.

Cynic Man

Bigelow is managing editor of 1933 Ariel, news editor of CYNIC, a varsity debater, member of French and International Clubs and Interfraternity Council. During his freshman and sophomore years Bigelow captained his class debating team which won the Bailey Cup. Bigelow recently participated in the fall play and is manager of junior varsity and class debating as well as being assistant manager of debating. In his freshman year he was a member of the Vermont

(Continued on page 4)

U. S. PUBLIC OPINION MUST BE BIG FACTOR IN WORLD STATESMANSHIP

So Declares Prof. James T. Shotwell in Fourth of Current University Lecture Series

JAPAN ARMED TO TEETH MEANS ARMED FRANCE

"The only hope is to build up a structure of constructive statesmanship among the nations, in which effective, public opinion in the United States can play a large part," said Prof. James T. Shotwell speaking on "The United States in World Affairs" in the University gymnasium last Thursday evening.

Professor Shotwell is director of the division of Economics and History of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and came to Vermont as the fourth speaker in the University lecture series.

"President Hoover has said that his efforts for peace can only go as far as the voice of the United States citizens will support him," the speaker declared. "At present," he said, "the United States is approaching a testing point as to whether it will join other nations in establishing law and order in place of war."

The present troubled situation in the East must be cleared up before the Geneva Disarmament Conference in February. Professor Shotwell continued, or else the conference will be an absolute failure.

If Japan will continue to maintain her hold in Manchuria through force of arms it will mean a great increase in her military force. And with Japan armed to the teeth France will never consent to reduce her armaments.

Germany has already given notice that, if France and other nations do not reduce armaments the German nation will begin to arm again. For Germany says that the other nations have already violated the agreement to reduce armaments.

European Anarchy

"And of Germany, with Hilter in power, starts to arm, the result will be European anarchy," Professor Shotwell declared.

Centering his attention on the Manchurian dispute, the speaker told of the previous attempts, before the outbreak of the armed Sino-Japanese conflict, to to settle the disputes over the South Manchurian Railway through peaceful conferences carried on by the Institute of Pacific Relations. "Considerable progress was being made," he said, "by going into the detail of railway management and getting the minds of the contesting parties off their animosities."

That was in 1929, and things seemed to be going along smoothly. But new differences of opinion arose and fanned the fire into flame between Japan and China.

(Continued on page 4)

Christmas Program Affords Rare Treat to University Music Lovers

Reviewer Praises Meritorious Singing and Playing of Annual Concert Compositions by Soloists and Instrumentalists

BY I. M. I.

Once more the music minded among the student body and faculty, and also townspeople, were given a treat of great excellence when the music department presented its Christmas program Sunday afternoon in Ira Allen Chapel. With the exception of those who spend the Christmas season in large cities, we are afforded no other opportunity of hearing selections from the world's great Christmas music and such an occasion brings to the holiday season a particular and lofty joy. Professor Bennett had arranged a program from Bach's "Christmas Oratorio," Handel's "Messiah," carols from the German and French, and one number by Elsa Kremers Bennett. Those who did not recognize or notice Mrs. Bennett's name upon the program would probably have attributed the "Gloria in Excelsis Deo" to some of the early masters: it filled a worthy place in their company.

As a response to the first prayer the men's voices sang "Lo, How a Rose e'er Blooming," with truly professional finish. There was perfect accord, excellent balance, and concluding chords faded almost imperceptibly into silence.

Mrs. Bennett's composition was laid for women's voices, and very cleverly did they thread their way through the intricacies of this number. Here too was excellent balance and a fine presentation of different voice parts.

The French carol was new to us and very beautiful. All three of the above numbers were sung a capella, and proved the choir's reliability in intonation.

The choruses in the oratorios, which are such masterful, moving themes, were handled with great skill by the choir. Difficulties which can be surmounted but by much study and practice were conquered, and triumphantly the beauties of these works was revealed.

The first of the soloists was A. R. Wilcox '35, tenor, who sang two recitatives in the Bach oratorio with clear, pleasing voice, and excellent intonation. Miss Ruby Jenness '34, soprano, who also sang a recitative in this oratorio, has an agreeable voice, especially in the lower register. Miss Elsie Roosa '33, contralto, was heard in a recitative all too brief for the many who are fond of her voice.

S. Pierce, Jr., '34, tenor, sang the "Comfort Ye" air from "Messiah," and won much praise in his first solo before a Chapel audience. His voice is of unusual warmth and richness for a high tenor, and his enunciation was satisfying.

Miss Marilla Putnam '32, soprano sang with ease and finish the air, "He Shall Feed His Flock," from the "Messiah." Miss Putnam's singing is sincere and unaffected and her voice is very pleasing.

The orchestra, also under Mr. Bennett's direction, with Miss deVolt as

(Continued on page 2)

INITIATE SIX SENIORS INTO PHI BETA KAPPA AT FRIDAY BANQUET

Prof. Peach of Norwich Calls for Increased Effort of Humanists to Solve World's Problems

The annual induction meeting and banquet of Vermont Alpha Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa was held Friday evening at the Ethan Allen Club. Husbands and wives of members and members of Sigma Xi and their wives attended the banquet and address. There were sixty present at the banquet.

The newly elected seniors are Chester K. Bush of Sheldon, A. O. Eaton of Worcester, Mass., F. W. Householder of Burlington, Miss Elizabeth E. Mosher of North Bennington, Miss Roberta Powers of Morrisville and H. I. Varney of Bristol.

Prof. W. E. Aiken presided at the meeting. Miss Mary Bates reported on the Triennial Council meeting. Prof. Arthur W. Peach of Norwich University in his public address stressed the need of humanists to attack the problems of today's crisis. He declared that the practical men of the age have failed to solve the difficulties and the humanists are challenged to do their part for the world.

All the newly elected members of the society were present, except Fred W. Householder.

ALLIANCE FRANCAISE TO SPONSOR LECTURE GIVEN BY MONTREAL PROFESSOR

In the third of a series of lectures sponsored by the Alliance Française, Prof. Henri Dombrowski, who occupies the chair of French literature at the University of Montreal, will speak next Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the Fleming Museum. His lecture, which will be delivered in French, will be on Beaudelaire et le renouvellement de la poesie française au XIX siècle. The lecture is open to the public and five others are to be held at intervals throughout the present college year.

Beaudelaire

Beaudelaire, the well-known nineteenth century French poet has been lately the source of much pleasure criticism on account of his crude realism and his morbidity. Yet at once he is much praised because of his polished style and poetic rhythm.

Professor Dombrowski has been a member of the faculty of the Summer School at Middlebury since 1926 and is a recognized authority on the literature and social life of the French people.

He was born February 16 1896 in Toul, France. He studied for several years at the Sorbonne in Paris and from that University took several degrees.

His studies were interrupted by the World War in which he served. He was awarded the French National Croix de Guerre for having suffered two wounds. He was similarly recognized by the Legion d' Honneur. Following the Armistice he resumed his studies and in 1921 attained the agrégeé des lettres.

STUDENTS, VOTE HERE IN DISARMAMENT POLL

Express Opinions On General Problems in Nation-wide Intercollegiate Survey

In cooperation with the classes in social science, the International Relations Club is this week conducting a survey of student opinion at the University of Vermont on the subject of disarmament.

Under the direction of the intercollegiate Disarmament Council in New York, headed by Luther Tucker, Yale '31, a nation-wide student poll is being conducted with the purpose of encouraging student interest in the problem of disarmament and of crystallizing and expressing student opinion.

In nearly every college and university in the country this week polls are being held on the general problems which will come before the Disarmament Conference in Geneva in February, 1932. Study programs are being sponsored by about sixty-four different campus organizations, many of them national in their scope.

A form ballot is being filled out by the students in the various social science courses here and after the results have been tabulated, a summary ballot will be sent to the national office which will make a nation wide tabulation for presentation to the American delegation at the February conference.

Students have already expressed their opinion on the subject in the following eastern institutions: Yale, Columbia, Boston University, Dartmouth, Amherst, Harvard, Massachusetts State College, M. I. T., Mt. Holyoke, Smith, Skidmore, Florida State, North Carolina, Colby, Williams, Brown and Wesleyan.

In every case the poll has met the whole-hearted support from faculty and student organizations, and has been received with great success. Many colleges have sponsored Disarmament Weeks, while others have had debates, discussions, lectures and study programs.

The University of Vermont has cooperated through its courses in international relations, sending of delegations to the Intercollegiate Disarmament Conference in Boston, by faculty lectures in the city. The University lecture committee in bringing Professor Shotwell here and the chapel committee in presenting Doctor Joshi, both of whom spoke on international problems and world peace, have also aligned themselves in the local movement.

LaCross Gives French Version of Life of Champlain at French Club

Members of Le Cercle Lafayette Also Enjoy Refreshments and Ride Home

Members of Le Cercle Lafayette were the guests of Miss Lilian Cohen '30, graduate student in the French department, last Thursday evening, at her home on Grant Street. Paul J. La Cross '32 gave a delineation in his native French tongue on the life of Samuel de Champlain. The discourse was from the original writings of the French explorer and centered around the discovery of Lake Champlain. His historical fight against the Iroquois and the important results which accrued to France as the outcome of it were directly responsible for the loss of French prestige in the western world and spelled the doom of their further invasion in the New World.

Following the speakers, games of various sorts in French were enjoyed by the members. Refreshments of crackers, sardines and hot chocolate were served by the hostess of the evening. Miss Cohen. Prof. Roland Freeman Doane then took the members home in his car.

The next meeting of the club will be held in January following the Christmas recess. The program will be in charge of Esther Beardsley, S. K. Carter, and F. B. Drew, all juniors.

EDITORS SAY INTEREST IN WINNOWINGS AROUSED

Reports coming to the CYNIC from the editors and the business department of Winnowings From the Mill, the University literary magazine, indicate that student interest in the publication has been aroused.

A larger percentage of copies were printed, and more than the usual amount of magazines were sold after the subscription campaign had closed.

The first issue of the year which recently came off the press included a short story by Edward Fitzgerald entitled "Promise of Heaven," a poem entitled "Bird," by Frances Frost, four poems by Gladys LaFlamme, a letter from Leonard Mason, "A Take-off on the CYNIC," Local Talk, by Francis Colburn, and a story "Retreat" by Constance Stone.

The second issue of Winnowings will appear some time before midyears.

Classes in bowling met for the second time at the alleys, Wednesday afternoon, December 9. Mildred Akins '32 was the high scorer with 91. Of those who never had played before Jane Parsons '35 made the highest score of 73 and 76. Bowling is supervised by a member of the physical education department.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Sports Editor
Women's Editor

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

Published ... during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year. ... Any local notices should be handed in at the Cynic office ... Telephone ... Tuesday and Wednesday ... at special rate provided for in Section ... Act of ...

Office of Publication: Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. XL ... November 15, 1932 ... Number 28

Editorials

THE HOCKEY SITUATION

We have one of the worst hockey schedules in years." Howard Prentice enthusiastically declares. Yet at the same time there is much pessimism concerning hockey headed at the sport from not only the Lower Classes themselves but from those who are wont to be too much. We have ugly rumors of student payoffs and organized strikes against hockey.

Whether the pessimists or the optimists are correct time alone can tell. Certainly the prospect of relative prosperity and victory of five years ago "Campus" men were, meccas for the good athlete—for the student who had not only brawn but brain.

Such athletes were subsidized by alumni generosity, which, as usually ... with each added victory. Whether encroached upon by ... or by other effective action, these subventions somehow were abolished. Intensive investigation of many colleges revealed as the logical withdrawal of all of this support and simultaneously as a not too pleasant public reaction to the institution involved.

Straightway there arose the erroneous idea that athletics were doomed and that subsequent lessening of teams to realize their ideals in ... were almost traceable to withdrawal of material award.

This reasoning we believe to be fallacious. In the first place Vermont has ... men who were remarkable athletes who ... but lacked a position of glory in at least three sports. Sports ... have at times a profitable economic proposition.

Let us examine a contrast in hockey. The rink is the finest in ... with three ... to the hazard of uncertain early supply of ... and weather which is at some inconducive to a floor without blemish. Moving facilities for ... without doubt of great importance. Vermont is ... and it covered without rink ... covered to at ... and with only ... contrast to the spectator at the intercollegiate sport but to maintain the quality of the ice. Yet this can never be ... under the present system. The Athletic Association is doing ... Vermont hockey. And the ever present generosity of the ... has ... in the procession and maintenance of the rink. To most observers come from a benevolent and ... control ... .

Edward Prentice who is actively burdened with departmental ... besides as assistant professor of physical education is giving consistently ... hockey a ... in putting on a team this year with the assistance of ... Lawrence and Sutton and this without the slightest material ... He loves the work and is keenly interested in hockey. He ... believes that hockey can be a success.

His coaching program now is scientific and in line with the trend ... training programs now in operation in other collegiate circles. He continually keeps him ... progression in other collegiate circles. He continually keeps him ... abreast of the best methods by study and by direct contact with ... instructors.

Already ninety ... freshmen have reported for practice and ... Twenty ... have returned with other temporary or ... interest growing. Is this a stake? Hardly. Yet hockey to be a ... must have forty candidates who are willing to train consistently ... Third has been a dearth of men who can skate ... and keep in condition. There is at present a large ... to practice hockey given?

The new training system is new yet not untried in hockey. The ... undergo a period of cross-country training out of doors instead of in the gymnasium running track. This is a most effective system ... running at a time when there is little chance to skate and manipulate the sticks to ... of ice it is doubly effective. Hockey requires ... and very ... muscle flexibility and coordination but endurance ... being extremely. Coach Prentice believes these can both be effectively ... by running out of doors.

The hockey problem is both serious and involved. It cannot be ... in a day by a single radical change. And the sport cannot attain a ... foundation for at least two years. We offer the following suggestions which are primarily basic in order that hockey become a successful major sport. First about forty candidates must report and practice during the entire season.

Second the hockey team must win consistently for a period of at least ... years.

Third the sport must have greater support from the alumni both ... the provision of necessary material facilities and in the interest in ... Vermont which they can arouse in well-prepared prospective athletes.

The schedule this winter which opens soon after the Christmas ... should offer a splendid chance for the team to prove itself. Coach Prentice declares that hockey is without doubt one of the most popular collegiate sports of the immediate future. And his word is not mere optimism. Men, the hockey team can win. It will become in time a major sport. It depends upon you!

AID THE NEEDY STUDENT

With the branding of individual personal subsidization of athletes by alumni as unethical there confronts us the problem of how to enable the good athlete to come to the University and remain without being forced to leave under the pressure of financial stringency. Vermont has many men whose primary interest is in athletics and who will work the major portion of each day to secure the necessary funds to meet their expenses. Likewise, she has students who are splendid examples of executive ability and leadership in non-athletic fields and who are real students. Yet they, too, are faced with the prospect of temporarily suspending their pursuit of a formal education and at times bearing the burden of a heavy pecuniary debt.

The alumni of the University of Vermont, as meritorious and as generous as they are, have no reason or just cause for complaint when Vermont teams lose consistently. In their minds undergraduate energy and success must be expressed in the overt and spectacular manner of the team which can score victory after victory.

Instead of being divided into mutually exclusive and petty groupings the alumni need cooperation among themselves. The University needs them and in the form of increased public interest in all its problems. There is a want for direct alumni aid for needy and deserving students—not alone for the scholar or the athlete. No finer demonstration of intelligent and broad-minded benevolence could be given than in such aid.

A university becomes progressive and gains national recognition and distinction not through new material facilities alone—but through increased attention to the development of the personality of those who are proud to call her their alma mater.

The small preparatory school of Vermont state is notoriously defective in the preparation of its graduates—not only scholastically but in athletics. Athletic weakness can in a measure be compensated for by university coaches who have a faculty ranking and give their undivided attention to the production of well-trained teams. Yet fundamentally the problem is to get the good student—not alone the athlete but the man with an attitude which is not frivolous but serious.

Vermont is a small isolated university, yet she has never failed to make herself felt as a force in the collegiate world. She has problems, not all peculiar to her own campus, but nevertheless deserving of serious consideration by students and alumni. And many of these can never be solved except by closer study and concerted action by graduates and students.

She Stoops to Conquer

An impression of the play, gleaned from a hasty reading of the review which appeared in the Cynic and which was not written by Fitzgerald:

This ... Landmark ... the Classic ... by Shakespeare ... night of ... November ... the ... with ... the Fitzgerald players ... part.

The Fitzgerald ... employed, but ... Dame ... in ... part ... The play ... by Oliver Goldsmith ... comedy of a ... Marlow ... with ... Hardcastle ... Miss ... Hardcastle ... played by ... Fitzgerald. ... the leading role ... Marlow ... one of ... Mr. Fitzgerald ... with ... the Dame ... and ... Hastings ... the ... Fitzgerald ... Fitzgerald.

Messrs. Marlow and Hastings entered the ... the audience had already been treated to ... good comedy scenes. It was in these that Fitzgerald first demonstrated his ability with the ... with the Diggory played by E. Fitzgerald gave a better account of themselves than is generally required even of major characters.

Whenever Marlow ... played by Fitzgerald ... appeared with Kate Hardcastle (Fitzgerald) he handled the love scenes with ... and ... and treated the audience to some ... acting.

As Miss Neville, Mr. Fitzgerald managed to give a feeling of ease and ... was equalled by his handling of the part of Hastings.

Especially good was the scene in which Mrs. Hardcastle (Edward J. Fitzgerald) ... announces to her that her son Tony (nephew of E. J. Fitzgerald) marry Miss Neville (beautifully played by Edward Fitzgerald) pretends to the latter that she has lost her jewels. (In this scene Mr. Fitzgerald played the part of the ... with ... breathtaking artistry.)

All in all it was a grand play and thanks are undoubtedly due to the coach, Prof. Edward J. Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald '32 was business manager; E. J. Fitzgerald '32 had charge of costumes and Fitzgerald '33 woman's properties.

Signed

Edward J. Fitzgerald
Dorothy F. Murphy
Hope Ranslow
Sylvia Boyd
Paul Westin
Leon W. Householder, Jr.
Richard F. Holbrook
Lester Holmes
Peggy Ann Martin
Antoinette Hubbard.

Campus Comment

Individual Inclination

... college education is said to prepare ... for life at least partially ... all educational activities practical ... development of responsibility ... association ... and a broadened point of ...

The graduation of a college individual ... is a certainty situation ... has ... to ... with a more ... tendency ... the natural ... one ... must ... give a part in the ... of this event and his outward ...

Does the University of Vermont encourage the exercise of its students' ... rules. Does Vermont realize ... students have minds of their ...

Every individual has a conscience, though in some cases it may be pathetically weak, but it is there. Conscience and individualism go hand in hand.

In the time individuals enter college it seems reasonable that they have reached an age when they are capable of basing upon their own judgment, perhaps as regards such matters as smoking, or such a triviality as returning home when the movies are over, not when the hour of heroine are wavering between a happy reunion or otherwise.

Certainly a reasonably free exercise of the students' own judgments will not destroy the morale of the University.

Dorine Lee.

VT. CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AFFORDS RARE TREAT

(Continued from page 1)

concert master, added much to the program. The beautiful "Lullaby" from the Bach oratorio was played with flute solo by R. S. Jenks '32. The pastoral symphony from the "Messiah" was performed with sensitive feeling and fine understanding. They also accompanied several of the choruses, delineating so well the early much embellished accompaniments.

The final chorus of the afternoon, the "Hallelujah Chorus," brought the large audience to its feet in tribute to great music adequately performed.

Unseen, but very important in the afternoon's success, was Miss Marston who played organ accompaniments, and a most beautiful prelude and postlude.

The Rev. Raymond A. Hall presided as minister of the afternoon, and read appropriate scriptures and prayers.

Such programs extend the University's prestige in artistic circles. We are fortunate indeed, in having such a man as Mr. Bennett and his able assistants who can plan and direct such a meritorious program and give our musical students such extremely valuable training.

EDITORIALS

VACATION AHEAD

Without presuming to ... anyone of anything that ... doesn't know, it is well to be reminded of the beginning ... Christmas vacation next ... afternoon. It is assumed most students are well aware ... actual event but perhaps the significance and a word of ... ment would hence be of ... offered from the viewpoint ... observer.

To all the recess means ... and a short period of relief ... away from the steady grind ... daily requirements of student activities.

To some this two weeks ... is a time of financial re... Many students usually ... themselves gainfully in the ... of others. This year from ... dications the number will be ... greater than in any other ... the history of this University. ... indeed is the practice of ... during vacations. Vacations ... scholastic endeavor are greatly ... vanced by manual labor or employment which is a change from ... daily routine of college.

To a surprising few Vermont collegians the holidays mean ... couple of weeks filled with social events, travel and merry making. Those of us who are afforded the opportunity should be sure to make the most of it. Carried out sensibly and wisely such a program or itinerary brings the richer, better things to our realization. New faces, new personalities, new experiences, new associations will do what nothing else will do to make us human if we use them with discretion.

One more idea should be added to make this brief discussion complete. Though not the purpose of the vacation in any sense, and by no means the general practice of students during vacations, there is thrown open a last chance to bring those studies which are now low up to the level. In this period to come brief though it may be, there is ample opportunity to do sufficient studying to stay in college and remain out from under warning.

Experience shows us that a surprisingly large number of our fellows (male and female) will consider the ascent too steep to attempt a comeback. Some of our acquaintances we will undoubtedly miss following the holidays. The spectre of mid-year examinations will be too real.

Another even larger group will not heed the warning either. The spectre does not seem so real to them but reality will be ghostly at the reckoning nevertheless.

A two-week period of endeavor perhaps with the aid of a little tutoring will help considerably ... wards raising low grades. A thorough review or a two-week period of restudy perhaps using only ... time will give excellent results.

We urge those who need the reminder to take it. There are differences among students as ... gards the time necessary for ... prehension but study and ... will eventually bring results. ... University does not desire the ... merous mid-year graduates ... some past years. The scholastic rating of the University is an obligation placed on the shoulders of every man and woman for ... her own benefit if for no ... reason.

J. E. Bro...

NOTICE

Attendance at the women's mass meeting Tuesday, December 15, is compulsory. All women students not present will be fined twenty five cents each.

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested see H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

SPORTING NEWS

SH DEFEAT SOPHS; SOPHS BEAT SENIORS

, 14 and 33 to 24 are Scores of erclass Games, Featured by Excellent Playing

PHS COME BACK TO PSET DOPE AND SENIORS

[illegible] have been played off [illegible] basketball tournament. [illegible] afternoon the freshmen de- [illegible] by a 24-14 margin a [illegible] which seemed unable [illegible] and Saturday the sopho- [illegible] improved and playing fine [illegible] the senior team with a [illegible] This marked the second [illegible] the seniors, as they were beaten [illegible] the juniors who play the [illegible] at six o'clock.

[illegible]gh game started fast with [illegible] able to score during the [illegible] minutes. Brislin then sunk a [illegible] put the sophomores one point [illegible] ead. However, Scodinski soon [illegible] freshmen out ahead with a beau- [illegible]-arm toss from a difficult angle. [illegible] Joly missed a foul for the [illegible] Then Brislin sunk a shot [illegible] about mid-floor. Hamilton, in for [illegible]ski, see-sawed the lead back to the [illegible] with a step shot, making the score [illegible] period 4-3

[illegible] in the second period Joly and [illegible] each sunk a foul increasing the [illegible]n score by two points. The [illegible] unsuccessfully tried several longs. [illegible]reshman defense appeared especially [illegible]-w. Hamilton from the foul circle [illegible] ball through without touching the [illegible] Woodruff, sophomore forward, [illegible] one from mid-floor. It looked [illegible] basket, but the ball lodged behind [illegible]. Hamilton made his third floor [illegible] a pass from Mori. The sopho- [illegible] took time out and Meyers came [illegible] Green. Cogswell gave the sophs [illegible] points with a goal and a foul. 10-6 Hamilton and Kingsland, [illegible]ss subbing for Wright at forward, [illegible]made a basket for the freshmen. [illegible]s the lanky frosh sub center, just [illegible] a long one as the half ended.

[illegible] third period opened with the score [illegible] The freshman first team was in [illegible] Meyers gained a point on a tech- [illegible] The game was still going fast. [illegible]s missed two longs, and then Mul- [illegible] made a neat foul shot. Score 14-8. [illegible]enis added two freshman points. [illegible]ly missed and Scodinski made on [illegible]ble foul. Brislin just before the [illegible]e made a floor shot. Score at end [illegible]rd period 17-10

[illegible]odruff opened the fourth period [illegible] a nice shot from the side and a suc- [illegible]' foul try. Score 17-13. Meli- [illegible] with a floor shot and Kingsland [illegible] a foul raised the freshman lead to [illegible]. For a while the soph defense [illegible]ed better, but then, following a foul [illegible]rem, Scodinski and Joly each got [illegible]set before the final whistle. Final 24-14

[illegible]A. Prentice of the physical edu- [illegible] department refereed.

[illegible] sophomore-senior game was on [illegible]whole faster and more accurate as [illegible]ther scores indicate. Agel drew [illegible]blood for the seniors with a foul. [illegible]the sophs quickly recouped when [illegible]druff and Brislin made longs. Mul- [illegible]cahy took the ball out of [illegible]ands and ran down the floor for [illegible] shot and two more points. Score [illegible] Seniors time out. The next [illegible] Woodruff took the ball from the [illegible] and dipped the ball to Mulcahy, [illegible] shot the score to 8-1. The [illegible] played much better than on the [illegible] afternoon. Riani and Wood- [illegible] put points on fouls. Agel and [illegible] in quick succession made floor [illegible]. Cogswell made a foul [illegible] and then Riani scored [illegible] Green. Woodruff and [illegible] all made fouls and Green at the [illegible] made a floor goal. Score 17-8

[illegible] the last play of the second quar- [illegible]ters again worked the [illegible] Woodruff from the tip-off to [illegible] [illegible] made a foul, Baldwin, a [illegible] and Brislin, a foul. Score 20- [illegible] converted a foul and Riani [illegible] goal. The seniors took

(Continued on page 4)

DUKE UNIVERSITY
School of Medicine
DURHAM, N. C.

[illegible] for admission to the first [illegible] medical classes entering [illegible] should be sent as soon as [illegible] and will be considered in the [illegible] order. The entrance qualifica- [illegible]s are intelligence, character, two [illegible] college work and the require- [illegible] of all medical schools. Cata- [illegible] and application forms may be ob- [illegible] from the Dean.

W. A. A. DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS TO END JAN. 1

The Women's Athletic Association is now conducting a drive for new members among sophomore and freshman women, which will end January 1. Each council member is seeing a number of women and urging them to earn the fifty points necessary for membership, as well as advising them how to earn the points. Two points are given for each hour of hiking or other form of outdoor exercise. One-half hour may be counted but no shorter period of time. All points obtained during Christmas vacation will be given credit.

"BILL" BINGHAM'S CREDO FOR COLLEGIATE SPORT

Harvard Director of Athletics in Boston University Club News Cites Athletic Creed

Education has been entrusted with many responsibilities, and fortunately for our educational institutions they are in a continual state of change. Athletics, or, if you prefer, physical exercise, has likewise been kaleidoscopic in the development of our educational ideals. The athletic program always has been, is, and I trust, always will be, a subordinate part of a college curriculum. Where formerly it was tolerated in a negative way, now it is recognized as a positive part of the program.

It would be platitudinous to attempt to describe the various stages through which college athletics have passed during the last half century. Suffice to point out that the present attitude stresses recreation and a desire to provide facilities not only for intercollegiate teams, but for all who want to play and exercise.

Athletics in colleges are intercollegiate and intramural. Both are logical, and, when properly supervised, both have a definite place in the college curriculum Whether the contest be an English essay, a debate, or an athletic game, boys like outside competition. Outside competition in athletics is labelled "intercollegiate athletics." As in any serious form of competition, intercollegiate athletics require a certain degree of perfection, which inevitably means a disciplined training In football it is blocking, tackling, and interfering. In tennis it is hours and hours of forehand, backhand and chop stroking. In rowing it is months of practicing the catch, the finish, and the difficult slide control. This is not an arduous bore to the intercollegiate athlete, since he accepts it as a part of his program.

In intraumural athletics the attitude is quite different. Not desirous of perfection, he will not submit to the rigors of training discipline, but takes part in games for the recreational and physical benefits which come from informal competition. He does not care to practice, has no desire to perfect the mechanics of his game at the cost of personal sacrifice, and appears on the field only on days when games are scheduled. Who would argue that both do not have a place on a college athletic program?

Strange as it may seem, a successful intramural program is dependent on an intercollegiate program. Several years ago one of our large preparatory schools decided to dispense with all interscholastic games excepting a final contest with their traditional rival. They won this final contest, but the next year returned to interscholastic games. Asked the rea-

(Continued on page 4)

Time Out

The game as predicted was pretty close and at times looked like a negative quantity. Vermont this year is a passing, shifty combination, very nifty, and dangerous from anywhere within the center of the court, as was proven time after time. With some exceptions the men of the squad are of one calibre—good the exceptions are—better. McGill played a snappier brand of basketball this year than it ever has in the past. Coach Van Wagner's men are to be congratulated on their fine performance.

—time out—

Down at the University of Southern California one Howard Jones, head football coach, accused a substitute center of selling U. S. C.'s plays to Notre Dame. This was a week before. He demanded that the boy be arrested (unofficially) until after the game. The boy submitted protesting his innocence. The next Saturday U. S. C. won and the boy was released, demanding an apology of the president of the U. S. C. The president sidestepped, passing the buck to the head of the athletic department. He passed the buck to Jones and Jones was caught on a double pass and had to apologize to the boy before the squad. But that isn't enough! For there will be many who will think this apology a magnificent gesture on Jones's part and still think the boy corrupt. Surely the stigma cannot be erased by a mere "pardon me." The best Jones could do is to apologize at a mass meeting of the student body such as preceded the game. Since when does the great god football demand sacrifice of honor approved by the high-priest-coach?

—time out—

Prof. Frank S. Lloyd of N. Y. U. is directing a survey with the aid of the Board of Physical Training Experts in order to curb injuries from sports in the colleges of this country. Forty deaths a year, although claimed by some sports experts to be abnormally high and not likely to reoccur, are forty deaths too many. At Fordham four players were severely injured in the game with Bucknell. One player is dead and another if he lives will be a cripple. We suggest the abolishment of all wedge formations and the kickoff from a mound. The kickoff from a mound means a higher kick allowing the opposition to get down under the kick before the wedge was formed. However, this survey will cover—in addition to football—baseball, basketball, track, gym and all other college sports.

—time out—

Here are interesting figures and the mark of your intelligence depends on your ability to pick out the most important ones: 25,000 watched Army defeat Navy, 17-7. The Unemployment Fund will be aided by the sum of $350,000. Right Adolf—it's the $350,000

—time out—

The more we see of the Kittens court outfit, the better we like them. The first five are all varsity material, and they click as though they were old school mates.

—time out—

Condition is stressed in the program of Coach Burke, as it is one of the cardinal principals of athletics, its importance cannot be overstressed, nevertheless, the fact remains that the athlete himself must shoulder most of the responsibility in fulfilling this obligation to the coach and team.

New Clerk: You want me to clean the office. You said you had a man for the rough work

Boss: We have. He collects the bills

Catamount Quintet Wins 30-26 in McGill Opener

Burke's Team Show Promise as They Defeat Redmen in Close Exciting Game—Captain Durfey, Taft and Beckley Feature in Evening's Battle as Shifty Sure Shooters

H. A. PRENTICE EXPLAINS RULES AT SAT. MEETING

Frosh Squad Exhibits While Audience Gets Pointers and Asks for Explanations

Last Saturday afternoon the referees and coaches of the State went into a huddle while H. A. Prentice and H. Bernard Levine, high ranking officials explained and demonstrated the new rules at the U. V. M. gym.

New features this year are the restraining line, keeping the player one yard away from the man playing the outside ball, and the calling of held ball in case a player held ball for more than thirty seconds in his own back court while being guarded from a distance of one yard or less.

This year also a substitute can be sent in whenever the ball is dead whether before or after the foul is shot. It was recommended by the Guide that players be numbered on the front as well as the back in order to help the official identify the players. In the case of an injuried player the referee may call time out at his own discretion

The big change is of course the changing of the rest period from two to one minute. Both coaches and referees went on record as favoring the retention of the two minute time out.

Out of the thirteen who took the State Board exam for referees, eleven passed, which is an exceedingly high number.

GUIDE TO JUDGE RULES STILL LEFT AMBIGUOUS

All rules that were not cleared up at the interpretation meeting will be referred to Towers of the Official Guide and the answers will be published in Friday's Free Press and also in the CYNIC. A recommendation to extend time out to two minutes for high school players was read into the minutes of the meeting

SABA AND FARWELL ON VARSITY STARTING TEAM

The University of Vermont basketball team defeated the McGill quintet in a fast and rather rough game by the close score 30-26. Long weeks of tedious practice showed up the advantages of Coach Burke's system. McGill's six foot five based their points on passes and speed in cutting under the basket. The Green and Gold on the other hand stressed not only keeping possession of the ball but also the accuracy in foul shooting

Not long after the opening of the game Beckley, newly recruited sophomore player, sank a long shot and started the scoring. The score see-sawed back and forth throughout the entire game with one team first in the lead and then the other scoring a basket putting them out in front. Vermont sank her free throws very consistently and kept the score coming up point by point steadily. At half time the Catamounts were leading by four points. Soon after the second had started a couple of baskets by Lewin evened up the score, and made the game as uncertain as it had been. After this Vermont demonstrated her superior offensive form and kept McGill on the run for the remainder of the game

On the defensive game Morgan and Saba, both sophomore members of the Vermont five, showed up very well indeed. The former held Lewin, McGill's eagle eye of the court, scoreless, while he was playing center. Saba got the ball many times off the backboard and on various taps, assuring the home team's possession of the ball. With about two minutes to play McGill shifted her defense from her back court man to man to a full court defense. Only once during this time did they recover the ball from the Green and Gold basketeers, and, although the red college five was fighting fiercely, the Vermont men fought even harder

Vermont's attack on McGill's basket was featured by a running corner of fensive which almost assured the posses

(Continued on page 4)

For distinctly men's Gifts,

buy at a man's store

◆

TURKS
Burlington

Tuxedos For The Formal

PURCHASE OR RENT YOURS NOW AS THE CALLS FOR THEM HAVE BEEN COMING IN FOR THREE WEEKS. ALL TUXEDOS ARE OF THE LATEST CUT AND ALL HAVE THE WIDE TROUSER BOTTOMS

SELLING PRICE
COAT VEST TROUSERS
$25.00 and up
Rental Price $3.00

DRESS SHIRTS
STUDS
COLLARS
BOW TIES
HANDKERCHIEFS
DRESS SCARFS

Full Dress Suits Also

Hayes & Carney, Inc.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

VERMONT EARNS VICTORY FROM DARTMOUTH HERE

(Continued from page 1)

Hot headmen

Machine Age Responsible

LaCrosse Reexhibitation

STUDENT UNION STATES TIME TO RETURN HOME

MASSUCCO, TAYLOR AND BIGELOW WIN ELECTIONS

(Continued from page 1)

CATAMOUNT QUINTET WALLOPS MC GILL SAT.

(Continued from page 4)

BILL BINGHAM'S CREDO FOR COLLEGIATE SPORT

(Continued from page 1)

REV. J. W. BARNETT TO LEAD CHAPEL EXERCISE

Rev. J. W. Barnett, pastor of the Barre Congregational Church of Montpelier, is to conduct the Chapel exercises tomorrow, December 16.

The latter is a graduate of Butler College receiving the degree of Ph.D. from the same institution. He served congregations in Columbus, Ohio, Jefferson, Ohio, and Marblehead, Massachusetts, from the years 1898 to 1910; coming in 1910 to Barre where he was pastor of the Barre Congregational Church. In 1917 he resigned and took up war work with the Y. M. C. A. spending a year in London and South England and two years with the Navy in the Boston Area. Then for nine years he led the Union Church of Watertown, Massachusetts, where he built up a strong community.

About two years ago he was invited to preach Bethany Church temporarily, being called a few months later to the regular pastorate.

WOMEN'S MASS MEETING TO BE HELD IN GYM.

A women's mass meeting is to be held in the gymnasium tonight, December 15 at 7 o'clock. Social dancing and refreshments will follow a varied program.

Attendance at all events is required.

Ed. Are you engaged to Bob?

Sue. Yes. I have promised to marry him as soon as he has made his fortune.

Ed. That's not an engagement that's an option.

U. S. PUBLIC OPINION IS BIG FACTOR IN WORLD

(Continued from page 1)

Still Time

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION TO HOLD CELEBRATION

REDSTONE HOLDS HOUSE DANCE ON DECEMBER 12

Eastern couples danced to the music furnished by a orthophonic victrola at the informal Christmas house dance held at Grassmount Saturday evening, December 12 from 8 to 11 p.m.

Prof. and Mrs. R. P. Doane chaperoned the dance which was directed by Gertrude Himmelstein '34 and Ruth Reynolds '34. Guests of honor were Mrs. Anna P. Willard, Grassmount House Director and Miss Helen Nicholas, dietition.

Refreshment of punch and wafers were served during intermission and Christmas souvenirs from an artistically decorated Christmas tree were presented to each guest.

AUTOS TO RENT

By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.

Ward's Drive-Yourself

Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

FROSH DEFEAT SOPHS SOPHS BEAT SENIORS

(Continued from page

The sophomores started the ... with three scores, then ... converted a foul and Perry ... and Wright each made ... made a foul and ... stop shot. Score 22-20. ... the minutes by within one ... minutes by only a foul, but ... accurate toss and a foul ... with a rip shot gave the ... two points. Meyers made a ... the first score of the period. ...

But the sophs to one ... last period. Then Berry made ... foul and Axel both were ... cause of personals. The sophs ... team went to again. When ... converted a foul, Cogswell ... shot and Woodruff missed ... foul just before the end of the ... Coach Archie Post and ... refereed the contest.

CHRISTMAS PARTY TO BE HELD AT REDSTONE

Y. W. C. A. will sponsor a ... party at Redstone Thursday, ... 17 from 7:30 to 10. Specialty ... singing, social dancing and refresh... will be parts of the program. All ... are invited.

NEW BRIEFLET DESCRIBES HOUSE ORNAMENTATION

A short, one-sheet briefiet on ornamentation in house furnishings has just been issued by the Extension Service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College. The bulletin is identified as Briefiet 323, and may be had without charge by addressing a post card request to Extension Service, Morrill Hall, Burlington, Vt.

No wonder men smoke PIPES!

EVERY PIPE SMOKER has the satisfaction of knowing he has one masculine right that the women won't take away from him. They do leave our pipes alone.

The favorite smoke of college men

And though the girls may not know it, they're leaving us one of the finest smokes a man can have.

There's something calm and soothing about a pipe and good tobacco. It leads to clear-headed thinking. Perhaps that's why the leaders—the real men of the world—are pipe smokers.

A pipe is not the smoke for girls

College men like a pipe—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth, the favorite pipe tobacco in 42 out of 44 colleges. It's cut especially for pipes, to give a cooler, drier smoke. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burley with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 83 or 84

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

ALEX VERRET
111 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones 1876, 1877, 1877

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.
Two doughnuts and all the coffee you drink for 10 cents.
Specialties: Cup Cakes, Pastries, Sodas
LUNCHES

GUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
Elias Lyman Coal Company
208 College Street

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

Last Week to buy Christmas Gifts AT THE University Store

Gifts particularly appropriate for college friends are our specialty.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1931 — NUMBER 26

Merry Christmas

GREET PLAYERS TO ESENT TWO TRAGEDIES OF SHAKESPEARE HERE

pe Featuring Eminent Actor ll Enact Julius Caesar and Hamlet at Gymnasium January 12

LISH DEPARTMENT TO SPONSOR PROGRAM

Group of Students Studying kespeare Under Professor Tupper Will See Medieval Stage Productions

Shakespeare's greatest tragedies "Julius Caesar" and "Hamlet," will be given by the Ben Greet players, [illegible] of the department of [illegible] at the local gymnasium [illegible] are being produced by the company as a part of their transcontinental tour on which [illegible] colleges and universities [illegible] the country.

The productions will be given on the Shakespearean stage arranged [illegible] purpose. "Julius Caesar" will be [illegible] at 8:30 o'clock and "Hamlet" [illegible] given in its first quarto form at [illegible] in the evening. The admission [illegible] be adiusted later with special [illegible] student reserved seats.

Philip Ben Greet, the eminent [illegible] actor and producer will assume [illegible] the cast of each play. This [illegible] strolling players is one of [illegible] which have been on a tour of the [illegible] States since the revival of public [illegible]t in the Shakespearean drama during [illegible] past few years. Sir Philip and [illegible]ant cast of English players are [illegible]g to America by insistant de[illegible] leading universities and cities [illegible]ave had them and those that [illegible] them and were unable to secure [illegible]ring the past two seasons.

Interest High Here

[illegible]nterest in the plays of Shake[illegible] at the University is greater this [illegible] at any time in recent years. [illegible]ss in English 6 taught by Prof. [illegible]rick Tupper, himself a Shake[illegible] scholar has nearly one hundred [illegible]s which represents an unusually [illegible]nterest.

[illegible]ssor Tupper declares, "The Uni[illegible]s very fortunate in being able to [illegible] to the local campus a troupe of [illegible] such fame and of such high

(Continued on page 2)

MIDGLEY LECTURES EFORE RESEARCH CLUB

versity Research Agronomist Explains "The Cause and Nature of Soil Acidity"

The average individual usually [illegible] ideas on the causes and [illegible] of soil acidity" declared Dr. A. [illegible]dgley, research agronomist of the [illegible]rsity of Vermont in a lecture, "The [illegible] and Nature of Soil Acidity," de[illegible] before the Research Club, Tues[illegible]ning, December 15, in Morrill [illegible]

[illegible]ote Doctor Midgley . . . . "There [illegible] principal types of soil acidity. [illegible]st place, there is the removal of [illegible] by leaching; secondly, growing [illegible] and their removal; thirdly, com[illegible] carries large quantities [illegible] sulphates, and nitrates; and, [illegible] acids. Large quantities [illegible] such substance is produced [illegible] matter is decomposed."

[illegible] went on to say, "In [illegible]ses exchange material [illegible]turer elaborated upon [illegible] introducing several [illegible]esting tests and ex[illegible] course of his lecture, [illegible] the Jones and other [illegible]ning acidity.

[illegible]illard, head of the or[illegible] presided at the meeting. During [illegible]eting, the report of the [illegible] was read by the secre[illegible] W. R. Adams, Jr. Ap[illegible] five members were [illegible]

[illegible] will be held Tuesday, [illegible], time Asso. Prof. [illegible] the economic depart[illegible]an "Anti-Chain Store

English Department Receives Two Senior Reports to Date

Represent Response of Entire Class of 128—Each Student Must Submit Three Reports Before Mid-Years—Faculty Finds Itself Faced With Possibility of Reading and Grading Nearly 400 Directly After Recess

Only two written reports on the required senior readings have been submitted at the office of the English department to date, it was learned this week after a check-up with department members.

"This means," stated one member of the faculty, "that there will be around four hundred reports turned in before mid-years, all of which will have to be corrected and graded before that time. It looks to me as though the senior class will not enjoy much diversion from studies during the Christmas recess, and the prospects look good for a heavy burden on our hands between that time and mid-years."

The requirement of senior reports was instituted by the faculty of the Arts and Sciences College two years ago to replace the former requirement of senior debate which failed to satisfy the demands of instruction in its field. Last year some difficulty was experienced in obtaining all the reports from the members of the graduating class in time to get them corrected and graded without causing some delay in the issuing of the semester scholastic reports.

At the mass meeting of senior class held a few weeks ago in Williams Science Hall, Prof. Frederick Tupper, head of the department of English, explained the requirements. At that time mimeographed copies of the list of general and specific reading were distributed to those present.

The list is in two main divisions, for those men and women majoring in English and for those whose major is in some other field. It covers the works of about one hundred famous English, American and French authors and the Bible. Seniors majoring in English will submit nine reports for the year and all others will submit three reports this semester and three the second semester. Readings for special honors for students pursuing extra courses under this classification will be arranged by the English department with the candidates.

In explaining the requirements in detail, the department states that the word "Selection" means all the items listed under one author unless stated to the contrary. For example, all of the selections under Hazlitt will be read if that author is selected for one report. However, one of the works of Macaulay will be read.

The reports must be written in the form of reviews. They must give necessary information about the author, his works, style, plots, summary of the collections read and a brief criticism of style and subject matter. They must be placed in the box which is placed in the corridor near the English office which is located opposite Room 4, North College. The reports will be graded but will not be returned to their authors. Additional information and extra reading lists may be obtained from members of the English faculty. Reading lists are also posted on the bulletin boards.

NAME NEW ASSISTANT KAKE WALK DIRECTORS

C. S. Brown and E. B. Drew, both juniors, will serve this year as the assistant Kake Walk directors as the result of a meeting of the directors, Wilder and Marvin, which was held Sunday evening. M. H. Grower will serve as the announcer.

The committees are as follows: Ushering, S. H. Manning, chairman; G. S. Flagg, W. W. Brislin, S. K. Carter, M. B. Brown, and W. F. Kierney; seating, P. E. Westin, chairman, E. V. Kibby, M. B. Morrill, M. F. Mahoney, W. J. Gilbert, R. J. Charland, L. N. Brock and C. E. Dobson; lighting, R. A. Hyde, chairman, M. I. Benton, N. O. Wells and E. E. Williams; advertising, R. W. Cobb, chairman, F. W. Householder, W. C. Perry, G. M. McKenzie; stunts, A. O. Eaton, chairman, O. W. Jay, D. W. Webster, C. C. Grant, and H. M. Loudon; Peerade, R. I. Livingston, chairman, K. E. Boyden, J. F. Bigelow, C. W. Janke and C. B. Eaton. Kake Walking, S. B. Barker, chairman, C. H. Wheeler, W. G. McDonald, and L. M. Preedom.

CAPITALISM IS TO BE DEBATE SUBJECT WITH UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

Two Vermont Forensians to Meet Pine Tree State Men This Evening in Old Mill Chapel

Vermont debaters will end their current fall schedule tonight with a new opponent, the University of Maine, in a formal, American style debate, in the Old Mill Chapel on the question "Resolved, that Capitalism is a failure." Maine will defend Capitalism while the Vermonters on the affirmative will attack it.

Vermont took a 2-1 decision from Dartmouth College on the same question last Friday night. The same team, J. F. Bigelow and P. J. LaCross will again take the stand for Vermont.

Because of the French lecture which is being held tonight in the Fleming Museum the debate will be staged in the Old Mill Chapel. A decision will be rendered by a board of three judges.

Professor Dean will act as chairman. Thetwo-man style of debate will be used, each speaking twelve minutes in construction and six minutes in rebuttal.

(Continued on page 4)

REV. ALLAN P. SHATFORD TO SPEAK AT VESPERS

Montreal Canon, to be Here January 10, Preached Baccalaureate for Class of 1929

The Rev. Allan P. Shatford, of the Church of St. James the Apostle of Montreal, will conduct the vesper services to be held in the Ira Allen Chapel on Sunday, January 10. The speaker is not a stranger to Burlington, as he gave an address at a vesper service at the University, February 12, 1928 and preached the Baccalaureate Sermon June 16, 1929. At that time he was highly praised as a speaker by both college and townspeople.

Canon Shatford, as he is known in Montreal, is a native of Nova Scotia, Canada. He was educated at the University of King's College, Windsor, Nova Scotia, receiving his B.A. in 1895, his M.A. in 1898, and his D.C.L. in 1921.

Canon Shatford served four years during the World War with Canadian troops, was mentioned in despatches and awarded the Order of the British Empire. He is a Past Grand Master of Masons for Quebec, Canada, and has served as lenten preacher for the past seven years in Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Rochester and Boston. He has preached before the students and the faculty of McGill University, Toronto University, Cornell, University of New Brunswick, King's College, and Bishops College at Lennoxville, P. Q. He has spoken often before patriotic, literary, and fraternal organizations in Canada and the United States.

Omicron Nu, honorary home economics society, announces the pledging of Helen LeBaron '32, at a meeting held at the Home Management House, Saturday, December 5.

MORTAR BOARD DEBATES TOO RADICAL TO PRINT

Topics of discussion at Mortar Board's second Coffee Cup Hour were again barred from publication in the CYNIC as shown by reportorial investigations recently. The meeting was held Thursday evening, at 6.45 in Robinson Hall.

In speaking of the nature of the gathering, a member of Mortar Board said in part, "The general opinion of the girls who took part was that the topics discussed yere too radical for the perusal of the public at present. When the proper time comes we shall be glad to give any and all information to the CYNIC."

Results of Vermont Ballot on Disarmament

This ballot was submitted to 101 students in social science classes.

I. If all nations join in similar reductions in military and naval establishments intended for use against each other, how much disarmament would you favor?

None 7 25% 10 50% 27 75% 24 100% 34

II. Do you favor the American delegation to the General Disarmament Conference taking the initiative in calling upon all nations to join us in reducing armaments?

None 18 25% 9 50% 24 75% 13 100% 36

III. Do you favor our setting an example for other nations by reducing our expenditures upon armaments?

None 53 25% 13 50% 18 75% 7 100% 13

IV. Do you favor American adherence to the World Court upon the basis of the Root Protocols?

Yes 53 No 26

V. Do you favor compulsory training in colleges?

Yes 35 No 74

VI. Do you favor dropping military training entirely from college curriculums?

Yes 36 No 70

VII. Have you had military training?

Untabulated

SMOKING CONTROVERSY REACHES DENOUEMENT AT WOMEN'S MEETING

400 Hear Dr. McSweeney and Students Explain Difficulty in Modifying Rule at Vermont

STUDENT UNION CALLS MEETING FOLLOWING MORTAR BOARD DEBATES

Speakers Declare Time Not Yet Come for Release of Anti-Smoking Regulations Here

What is probably the dénouement of the recent widespread agitation for the abolition of the women's anti-smoking regulation was effected Tuesday evening when nearly four hundred women gathered in a mass meeting at the gymnasium under the order of Student Union. At this meeting Dr. Katherine McSweeney, Burlington physician and graduate of the University in the class of 1922, declared in a discussion of the rule, that the time has not yet come when the no-smoking rule can be abolished because of the attitude of the portion of the parent population of Vermont which is traditionally conservative and opposed to smoking among the women students. Doctor McSweeney was the third president of Student Union. That the position of the trustees is such that they would oppose any action on the part of the University to allow Student Union to modify its rule forbidding the women here to use any form of tobacco, was emphasized by Roberta Powers '32, a member of the Union and daughter of George M. Powers, a trustee. Miss Powers admits that she is not one of the staunchest supporters of the regulation although she does see the difficulty involved in asking for its increased lemency.

(Continued on page 3)

ARMAMENTS PRODUCE SUSPICION AND HATRED

Reverend Barnett Stresses Need For Good Samaritan Attitude Among Nations

"A world of suspicion, hatred and fear are the results of the present international situation in which 90 percent of the taxes of the people of England and America are consumed in paying for the waste of the World War and future wars," declared the Rev. J. W. Barnett of Montpelier, speaking Wednesday in chapel here.

This building among the nations for national defense is founded on the same vein of philosophy expressed in the parable of the Good Samaritan. The robbers who first encountered the ill-fated wayfarers were robbers and were intent upon robbing him. If this philosophy is followed in international relations it will give nothing but a world of chaos and confusion.

Help One Another

But if all men would adopt the spirit of the Samaritan that would give us a community that would not be a misnomer. We would have that ideal condition in which the world is a great brotherhood and all the nations help one another. "It is up to us," the Reverend Barnett declared, "to you and to me to determine which philosophy will be the dominant factor in shaping our lives."

"There are three basic philosophies of life," the speaker explained. All three of these are set forth in the story which Jesus told his disciples. First, there is the philosophy of the robbers who despoiled the ill-fated wayfarer. Their philosophy might briefly be summed up in, "What's yours is mine and I'm determined to get it." These unscrupulous persons, not at all particular as to how they obtained their living, fell on the

(Continued on page 4)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
EDGAR S. [illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Assistant Editor

NEWS EDITORS
GENERAL NEWS
[illegible]
SPORTS NEWS
[illegible]
WOMEN'S NEWS
[illegible]

FEATURE DEPARTMENT
INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR
[illegible]
FEATURE EDITORS
[illegible]
COLUMNIST
[illegible]
TYPIST
[illegible]

REPORTERS

[illegible]

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

[illegible] Business Manager
Advertising Manager
Assistant Manager

[illegible] during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year.

[illegible] Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Ten Timely Topics

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

SPORTING NEWS

AESTROS BEAT VARSITY 29-28 IN CLOSE BATTLE

ree Alumni Teams Play Hard Battle Against Younger Opponents in Thriller

ABA, POST, DURFEY PRENTICE STAR IN GAME

in basketball passed the Alumni teams de- in a whirlwind game g score of 29-28. All basketball games and cliqued in fine fashion. complete with the ex Luft their leading scorer was unable to be present. furnished throughout the No one conceded the grads but as the second half and baskets were dropped the outlook was more ful. Excitement and en- reigned supreme until the final 's gun. Old grads, who see the alumnus team trim certainly saw an eyeful. work of both teams was nice The team play of the varsity smoother and more polished than the alumnus five. On the other the latter's speedy offensive left courtmen flatfooted and chalked up two points for the mates. The foul shooting of the was not so perfected as it was Saturday's. In fact the Univer- team was beaten by one foul point little as it may seem brings out facts which Coach Burke is trying to the members of the quintet.

the last five minutes of play score did not differ by more than points. With the score 27-27, "Kiki" a comparatively simple step shot the alumnus team a whole basket lead. In a valiant effort to tie the Tapper succeeded in drawing a on him and sank his free throw. was called almost immediately wards.

members of the best basketball Vermont has ever put on the floor represented last Wednesday. Mem- of the second squad, including Post, Prentice and Estabrook played t game against a slow varsity. The team, which was also a fast one, ated some well-known Vermont centered around Sargent at center, stem and Morse at forward and and Halligan at guard.

varsity made the most of their team, which was in good condition ared to the somewhat rusty grads. showed some of his football spirit s plays but played a fine defen game. Beckley was wonderfully during the latter half of the a lively Archie Post. Durfey some beautiful shots during the Newton starred for his team When he fouled a man, he ished that the referee should against his team. He got Chapman by trying to sell rt after the shot.

VERMONT	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
	2	4	4
	0	0	0
	3	1	7
	0	1	1

(Continued on page 4)

SPALDING'S GUIDE PLACES HOCKEY QUINTET FIFTH

The University of Vermont hockey team has improved 50 percent during the past three years while under the tutelage of former Coach Abraham the "Spalding's Official Guide" revealed. Three years ago the team was listed in forty-fourth place and this year has jumped to twenty-second place.

"Spalding's Official Guide" lists three classes, A, B1, B2, and unclassified. Vermont is fifth in class B2 while Middlebury is third in class B1. Under the improved facilities and new coaching system it is expected that U. V. M. will be rated in a higher division next year.

SMOKING CONTROVERSY REACHES DENOUEMENT

(Continued from page 1)

Mortar Board Discussions

The meeting had been called at the instance of Student Union to clarify the divided campus opinion on the question of smoking which had been under heated discussion in two of the Mortar Board Coffee Cup Hours during the past two weeks. Members of this group and a large number of other students had reached no conclusions on the subject, and had expressed the preference that due to the character of some of the discussion hours that no reports be published in the columns of the CYNIC.

Other Business

At the mass meeting following the consideration and interpretation of some of the other rules of Student Union concerning "nights out" and absences, Norma Carder '33 was formally installed as the second vice-president. The duty of this officer is to increase the harmony of the relationships among the undergraduate women living outside the University dormitories.

At the close of the business meeting "The Blue Ribbon Hat," the one-act play which won the Dean Dramatic Cup in the recent play contest between the lower classes was presented. The rôles were assumed by Mary Casey, Marie McGuire, Irene LaFountain and Thelma Rosenburg, all freshmen.

The meeting was concluded with dancing among the women which lasted until 10 o'clock. Freddie Lynch's two-piece orchestra furnished music and Eskimo pies were served as refreshments.

Must Be Flexible

Doctor McSweeney, the main speaker of the evening, concluded her talk by stating that the present Student Union is much more democratic in character than it was ten years ago. She emphasized the fact that the constitution of any organization must be flexible to meet the demands of changes in the attitudes of the students whom it affects.

From year to year the student government constitution has been modified and liberalized to meet the demands of an increasingly democratic student body.

"Student government," she said "is difficult in any co-educational institution where the opportunities for a varied social life are greater than in women's colleges. The urgent need now is for active interest among the women students to build up and carry on a ruling body which will perpetuate Student Union as an adequate governing organization."

Time Out

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all. Here is a greeting especially for freshmen, Merry Christmas and may you all be eligible in 1932.

—time out—

Immediately after our return a full schedule of athletic events will fill our spare moments and moments not so spare. The first game of the freshman quintet is scheduled for the ninth against Troy Conference Academy at Poultney. The first hockey game is against Colgate at Hamilton on the eighth while the only home event will be St. Mikes game here on the fourteenth day of the first month of the new year.

—time out—

As regards the football schedule for next year dear boy and girl scouts we shall start off with a fairly easy game against St. Mikes College of Winooski. We shall in the nature of things be fairly easy victims against Dartmouth while Providence College starts to approach our own level. Against Colby we shall start to play in our own class but will revert to social climbing the next weekend against New Hampshire. Norwich our honored adversaries will be followed by Boston (beans) University. This game we consider to be a bad move as B. U. usually is a strong opponent and will afford no rest before the next state series clash and the season's final against Middlebury. A loss of all games but the ones against our rivals from this state will mean a successful season therefore the game against B. U. seems a disadvantage.

—time out—

No definite steps have been taken as yet regarding the policy which will be adopted in respect to fencing. In view of last year's fine record, although experienced material is lacking, we hope to see this sport continued.

—time out—

If you want to see some streaks of clever basketball just watch the alumni cagers tomorrow night. We have seen them practice and they bring back shades of the days when Vermont was on the top round of the New England basketball ladder.

—time out—

Prospective Catamount hockey representatives are working out daily under the direction of Coaches Prentice, Levine and Sutton. The material is experienced, the weather is the only thing preventing the pucksters from going into action.

TWENTY-ONE WOMEN TO COMPRISE RIFLE SQUAD

Twenty-one women have been chosen to make up the three sections of the women's rifle team after a six weeks tryout period of practice shooting. The final team will consist of fourteen who will be chosen from the following list after close competitive shooting directly following the Christmas recess.

Helen Allen '33, Dallas Fuller '32, Laura Towne '33, Frances Thomas '33, Geneva Wilcox '34, Helen Hosmer '35, Ruth Goss '32, Mildred Vosburg '34, Marion Urie '33, Claribel Morris '34, Daisy Putnam '34, Lenda Walker '33, Ethel Bishop '33, manager, Helen Miller '35, Ada Nunn '35, Esther Smith '33, assistant manager, Elizabeth Rich '35, Katherine Worthen '35, Esther Poling '35, and Priscilla Colton '35. Lieut. J. W. Kullman, Capt. M. E. Craig and Capt. P. S. Campbell are coaching women's firing.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE SEASON OF 1932

Sept. 24*	St. Michaels
Oct. 1	Dartmouth
8*	Providence
15	Colby
22	New Hampshire
29*	Norwich
Nov. 5*	Boston University
12	Middlebury

*Home games.

FROSH LICK JUNIORS THEN BEAT SENIORS

Undefeated Yearlings Win First Half of Tourney by Beating Juniors 26-21 and Seniors 33-22

The freshmen, having defeated the three upper classes, have now definitely won the first half of the interclass basketball tournament. Last Tuesday night they nosed out the juniors in the final period by a score of 26-21, and Wednesday afternoon they defeated the seniors by a 33-22 margin. The juniors and sophomores with one victory and one defeat each are tied for second. The seniors are in the cellar.

Junior-Freshman Game

The junior-freshman game was one of the most exciting played, the juniors leading until the third period when the removal of two first team men through the foul route and a frosh rally put the freshman definitely in the lead.

The game opened fast with Massucco early in the play gaining a point for the juniors on a foul. Bedell missed a long, and then Chick Grant, following a pass from Massucco, pivoted neatly and shot a goal. Score 3-0. Delfausse and Skodinski missed free throws for the freshmen. The freshmen seemed to have lost their shooting ability, missing several easy tries. Massucco scored again, making the final count of the period 5-0.

Burke opened the second quarter with a floor shot for the juniors. Meligonis, freshman forward, missed, and Mahoney and Massucco made fouls, raising the margin to 9-0. Then Kingsland broke the frosh scoring jinx by shooting a foul. Skodinski and Kingsland again in quick succession shot fouls and made the score 9-3. At this point Massucco, high scorer for the juniors, was removed for personals. The game went on fast and rough. Wright popped in a freshman basket following a foul shot by Kingsland which slipped off the rim. Burke and Grant with a floor shot and a foul respectively gave the juniors three points. Score at half 12-5.

Freshmen Even Count

Grant missed and Skodinski made a foul in the first minutes of the third period. Skodinski made a step shot on a pass from Delfausse. Score 12-8. Hamilton and Bob Grant both made fouls. Hamilton, getting the range of the basket, started his series of five floor shots with a goal from the side. Score 13-11. Burke went in for Chick Grant out on personals, and the juniors took time out. Hamilton and Meligonis put the frosh in the lead with quick baskets. Score 13-15. Bedell evened it up again with a long. Hamil

(Continued on page 4)

COUNCIL IS AGAINST HOCKEY AS MAJOR SPORT

Large Squad Reports Showing Splendid Attitude—Coaches Prentice and Sutton Optimistic

FOOTBALL MEN REPORT AS HOCKEY CANDIDATES

A decided interest in hockey is apparent even though the Athletic Council has refused to sanction it as a major sport. The threatened strike of players against a heavy schedule for a minor sport is a thing of the past. Realizing the attitude of the Council was correct when indifferent interest and financial reasons were given in the recent decision the players have all joined wholeheartedly into swelling the number of aspirants.

Large Squad Reports

The varsity candidates now number around twenty men while the frosh have nearly as many with sixteen. The need of ice is, of course, apparent but the boys are taking long conditioning cross-country runs daily, and should be in splendid condition.

Howard Prentice is being assisted by Ed Sutton and former coach Hy Abraham in getting his squad into shape.

Among the new varsity candidates are O. W. Jay, W. R. Bedell, I. H. Jardine, H. E. Bussey, and A. S. Wesoly.

The following frosh pucksters have joined their squad: M. H. Carlson, R. D. Burns, T. C. Burns, G. J. Cummings, A. I. Harding, S. E. Haskell, and I. R. Simonds.

Canadian Hockey Popular

It is interesting to note that less than a hundred miles away the interest of Canadians now centers heavily around hockey, until the Stanley Championship Series decides the victor of the long season. The writer has been to several of the major league hockey games and many of the high school games in Montreal. At all a good attendance was in evidence. The names of the stars and even the entire squad of the Montreal

(Continued on page 4)

Your Intimate Classmate Will Appreciate a Gift from Turk's.

◆

TURKS Burlington

THANKS A LOT, FELLOWS!

FOR THE VERY FINE BUSINESS YOU HAVE GIVEN US THIS FALL

AND—

Best Wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

We'll Be Seeing You in January

Hayes & Carney, Inc.

127 Church Street

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Dress Clothes

FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON!

113-12-31

TUXEDOS

$25 to $40

Correctly styled and tailored—NEW VALUES that haven't been possible for years!

STUDS — DRESS SHIRTS
LINKS — SILK SCARFS
SILK SOX — COLLARS
SUSPENDERS — TIES

Tuxedo Suits Rented!

OPEN EVENINGS TILL CHRISTMAS

Miles & Perry Co.

QUALITY CLOTHIERS

Established 1898

FROSH LICK JUNIORS THEN BEAT SENIORS

(Continued from page 1)

Freshmen Take Seniors

Fresh Coach Lead

MAESTROS BEAT VARSITY 29-28 IN CLOSE BATTLE

(Continued from page 1)

ARMAMENTS PRODUCE SUSPICION AND HATRED

(Continued from page 1)

COUNCIL IS AGAINST HOCKEY AS MAJOR SPORT

(Continued from page 1)

PROFESSOR DOMBROWSKI TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT

The faculty handball tourney will start about January 5. Handballs and free hours for handball gymnasium may be secured from the physical education office.—H. A. Prentice, Director, Physical Education.

All seniors who have not received their 1932 Ariels may do so by paying their Ariel tax at Book Store. Ariels are also on sale at the Book Store.—G. E. Wilder, Bus. Mgr.

SELECT YOUR XMAS CARDS
Now and avoid that last minute rush
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
162A Church St.
Open Evenings

Greeks to Spread Pre-Holiday Joy

Nine Fraternities to Hold Christmas Dances Tonight—Two Wait for Later Date

Tryouts for Sigma Delta Psi, the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity in athletics, will take place every Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested see H. A. Prentice of the physical education department.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

Society Notes

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Lindsay on Monday, December 14, with

PI BETA PHI

KAPPA DELTA

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

ALPHA XI DELTA

K. E. L.

Along with its scholastic and athletic worry Snap, stat mat back at Dartmouth, acts as chief of the local fire department

Confessions of a "Prexy"

A president has at last admitted the [illegible] The president of the University of Michigan, recently, stated that college life is too much of a grind for three out of four students.

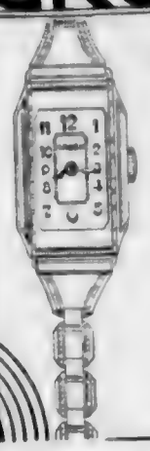
CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
134 Main St. Burlington

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

TO DEBATE CAPITALISM WITH MAINE UNIVERSITY

(Continued from page 1)



Conclude Fall Schedule

The Maine debate will [illegible] highly successful fall debating schedule [illegible] Vermont. Having [illegible] the Vermont [illegible] has had two [illegible] Penn College, a new rival, and a [illegible] who has debated [illegible] with Vermont has won [illegible] Dartmouth and Keene Normal [illegible] just starting the season. [illegible] Lowndes and McGill and [illegible] will debate again in the [illegible] Vermont will meet Wheaton [illegible] Wheaton House and a [illegible] here at Vermont on January [illegible] three-man debate on the [illegible] Resolved that Congress should [illegible] legislation providing for the [illegible] ban on cadavers." Vermont will [illegible] alternative while Wheaton will [illegible] negative. Last year during Vermont's western trip she won a [illegible] decision from Wheaton College.

Jayvees

The Lawyers expect to get busy after the holidays with debates at [illegible] and Milton and others not [illegible] arranged.

Resolved that the University [illegible] meet should subsidize athletes [illegible] question of debate Friday, January 4 [illegible] in Fleming Museum [illegible] the freshman women and men. [illegible] for the women will be Betty [illegible] Irene LaFountain, and Clara Jay [illegible] negative while the same team that [illegible] successfully defeated the sophomores namely, William Myers, George [illegible] son, Stuart Wright and William [illegible] alternate, will again take the affirmative

GRUEN

Holyoke . . . smartly plain GRUEN Cartouche, with fine engraving extending into matching bracelet 15 jewels
$37.50
F. J. Preston & Son, Inc.
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church St.

FOOTWEAR FOR XMAS
We Suggest
Gift Certificate
B. J. BOYNTON

THE SALE
on
UNIVERSITY SEAL JEWELRY
and
NOVELTIES
WILL CONTINUE THROUGH JANUARY, 1932
AT THE
University Store

GIFTS
FOR MOTHER OR FATHER AND THE FRIENDS BACK HOME!
Select yours at
McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

Look Sensational
Look Cut Rate Prices
Candy
Fresh, Guaranteed
lb. 41c, 51c, 61c
Watches 79c
Alarm Clocks, 79c, guaranteed
CIGARS
Reg. Prices Our Prices
10c 3 for 25c
2 for 25c 10c
White Owls—5c
CIGARETTES
2 Pkgs. for 27c
$1.26 Carton
Chesterfield, Lucky Strike, Camels, Old Gold
Gillette & Proback Blades
5 for 36c—10 for 70c
Candy and Chewing Gum
4 pkgs. for 15c
TOBACCO SPECIALS
All 10c pkgs. ....3 for 25c
All 15c pkgs. ....2 for 27c
All 25c pkgs. ....2 for 45c
Edgeworth
Lb. $1.25—½ lb. 65c
Velvet—Prince Albert
$1 lb.—50c ½ lb.
Union Leader
Granger
67c lb.—37c ½ lb.
CITY NEWS AGENCY
140 Church St. Open Evenings Till 10:30 Sunday All Day

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 49 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1932 | NUMBER 27

VENTION STRESSES VE AS SOLUTION FOR HE WORLD'S PROBLEMS

nt Volunteer Movement venth Quadrennial Meet in Buffalo Makes Proposals for Peace

ARNEY AND C. DROWN EPRESENT UNIVERSITY

[illegible] the practical appli- [illegible] of Jesus [illegible] solution of the cur- [illegible] political and economic [illegible] industrial life, was [illegible]sized at the Eleventh [illegible] convention of the Student [illegible] which was held [illegible] January 3 in Buffalo,

[illegible] from the University of [illegible] was sent by the Vermont [illegible]ociation, by means of a [illegible]ation, was made up of [illegible]'32 and Clarence Drown [illegible]ference were 2,200 stu- [illegible]g delegates from every [illegible] States and from every [illegible] Dominion of Canada.

Delegates Enthusiastic

[illegible] the meet was "The Liv- [illegible] the World of Today" and [illegible] around the need for mis- the vital part which they have [illegible] the solution of the problems [illegible]esent. Members of the delega- [illegible] "It was a most stimulating [illegible] and very valuable. It really [illegible] the seriousness of the in- [illegible] situation and made us feel [illegible]ge student has a great part [illegible] settling many of the perplex- [illegible]. The problem of world peace [illegible]rnament seemed to occupy a [illegible] of the attention of the speakers [illegible]ates. The authorities who spoke [illegible] gloomy about the problem of [illegible] yet believe that students, if [illegible] themselves now can effect [illegible] world needs more of the religion [illegible]."

(Continued on page 4)

LAMBDA IOTA TO HOLD ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

Tonight the Lambda Iota society will hold its 97th annual dinner dance at the Owl House. The committee of which Edward Moskal '33 is chairman promises that the favors will be novel. The decorations will be achieved by an ingenious system of indirect lighting.

The formal dinner will be at 6 o'clock and dancing will last until 1 o'clock. Bob Minotti's six-piece orchestra will play and the chaperons will be Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Braun and Prof. and Mrs. P. D. Carleton.

DEWEY CLUB TO INSTALL NEW MEMBERS JAN. 15

Beliefs of John Dewey and Josiah Royce Will be Upheld by Professors Dykhuizen and Gifford at Banquet

At a special initiation banquet to be held Friday evening, January 15 at the Greenebowl, the John Dewey Club will receive to membership those of the forty eligible men and women who accept its invitations. In addition it will hear Prof. A. R. Gifford uphold the credo of Josiah Royce, late American theistic philosopher, and Prof. G. B. Dykhuizen support the personal beliefs of John Dewey, American pragmatic philosopher and alumnus of Vermont in the class of 1872.

"The two opposing schools of thought will furnish a most interesting program and should show the new members what philosophy is," states J. C. Carter '32, president of the society.

Cards have been sent out by the executive committee inviting the eligible students to the banquet. The initiation ceremony will be held at 5.15 o'clock the same afternoon in the Marsh Room of the Billings Library preceding the banquet at the Greenebowl on Pearl Street.

Eligibility

All eligible students for the John Dewey Club of philosophy and psychology will be notified this week concerning the

(Continued on page 4)

Student Tickets For Ben Greet Players On Sale At Book Store

Famous Troupe, in Presenting Cæsar and Hamlet, to Use College Men as Supernumeraries

TRAGEDIES TO BE GIVEN IN GYMNASIUM JAN. 12

Student tickets priced at fifty cents for admission to each of the two stage presentations by the Ben Greet Players of the Shakespearean tragedies, are now on sale at the University Store and at Bailey's Music Rooms in this city. The famous troupe is being brought here under the auspices of the English department and will present "Julius Cæsar" at 3.30 and "Hamlet" at 8 o'clock Tuesday, January 12 in the University Gymnasium.

About twenty men students in the academic college are being selected for the rôles of supernumeraries in the two plays and will be admitted without the regular admission charge. About one-half of the entire seating capacity of the gymnasium is being devoted to the student tickets priced at fifty cents. Other seats may also be purchased at the prices 75 cents, $1, and $1.50.

"The two plays are being presented here," declares Prof. Frederick Tupper, "because of the high interest here in Shakespeare and because the department recognizes the high excellence of the Ben Greet Company, and especially of Sir Philip himself."

On Shakespearean Stage

Hamlet is being given in its first quarto edition and both plays will be produced on a reproduction of the Shakespearean stage with little scenery. Ben Greet, the eminent English actor and producer will assume a rôle in the cast of each play. The group of strolling players is one of several which has been on a tour of the colleges of the country during the past thirty years and has attained great popularity.

Ben Greet, who has been on the stage for fifty years, appears in every performance. In Hamlet he has both the rôle of Polonious and the First Grave Digger. He brings to the characters all the finesse of his innate artistry. Russell Thorndike plays the title rôle and gives it a splendid performance in both its reading and acting.

At Columbia and at Harvard Hamlet was a great success. The New York

(Continued on page 4)

UNIVERSAL RELIGION IS A HUMBUG SAYS FRAZIER

Chapel Speaker Warns of Danger in Composite Faith and Calls All of Value

"A personal religion based on the idea that all faiths are of equal value and that a universal religion is a practical and easy necessity is erroneous," affirmed the Rev. William F. Frazier of this city speaking at the weekly services of the Ira Allen Chapel held last Wednesday morning.

The Reverend Frazier selected as his scriptural theme two prayers from the letters of St. Paul and addressed a congregation of 210 students and faculty members. The choir under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett, rendered the anthem, "O, Sing Unto the Lord."

The speaker declared that a "humbug" religion which is dead and lifeless results when we attempt to combine the greater characteristics of all faiths. Each religion possesses innate qualities which individualize it but which render it useless when incorporated as a part of some composite faith. All religions differ, not only among themselves but also within themselves.

It is not fair, he continued, to ask of another in the light of our own is it true or false? Each way of thought has its own merits.

Just as the synthetic language, Esperanto, has failed to hold the imagination of those who sought in it a universal tongue embodying the virtues of all other languages, so a religion of similar nature will fail in its purpose. It must be real and effective, but cannot attain its goal because we will always turn to our own faith to understand the nature of the realities of life and universal values. Tolerance then of all faiths is needed.

DARLING LEAVES $5,000 EACH TO VT. AND MIDD.

Of $206,000 left in public bequests in the State of Vermont under the will of the late Elmer A. Darling of East Burke, who died last April 11, $5,000 each goes to the University of Vermont, Middlebury College, and the Bennington College for girls. The Lyndon Institute, of Lyndon Center was provided with two funds of $50,000 each, and the St. Johnsbury Academy, of St. Johnsbury, with $10,000, by the decedent. The remainder of the bequests went mostly to organizations of his native town, with his brother, Lucius A. Darling, and a nephew, Henry G. Darling, sharing equally the residue of the estate.

U. V. M. MEETS WHEATON IN COMING FORENSIC GO

Champions of Little Ten Conference to Debate Varsity January 9 in Museum

Debating at the University of Vermont will be resumed when a three-man team, consisting of R. P. Donaghy '33, J. E. Bigelow '33, and P. J. LaCross '32, meets Wheaton College of Illinois on January 9, in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. The topic to be debated is "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation providing for centralization of industry."

Wheaton College, champions of the "Little Ten," a mid-western debating league, met defeat in their last clash with Vermont, which took place last year when the Green and Gold forensists were on their extensive western trip. This year, as in the previous debate, a decision will be rendered by a board of judges.

The Vermont debating team has gained national recognition as a result of several radio debates and victories, and the Vermont-New York University debate, to be held on March 9, has been selected for inclusion in the widely known series of annual intercollegiate debate handbooks.

The topic, "Resolved that Socialism has more to offer than Capitalism" is according to Egbert Ray Nichols, of Redland, California, editor of the handbook, a very live topic and merits being placed in the handbook, which includes debates that are as fairly representative as possible of the whole United States and can be used in future years for reference by colleges and high schools.

Maine and Dartmouth

A two-man U. V. M. team, consisting of J. E. Bigelow and P. J. LaCross, won a two-to-one decision, rendered by a board of judges, over the University of Maine in the Old Mill Chapel Friday evening, December 18, the topic was "Resolved that Capitalism is a failure." The judges who rendered the decision were A. J. Simays, attorney, H. C. Arthurs, law student, and Ray Sheppard, law student. Prof. L. W. Dean presided. One week previous the same Vermont team won a decisive victory over a debating team from Dartmouth College on the same subject.

IMPROVE COFFEE CORNER DURING XMAS VACATION

Effect Changes to Facilitate Work and Increase Efficiency and Ease of Service

Radical material improvements in the Coffee Corner were effected during the Christmas recess, as the outcome of the recent investigation of its efficiency which was instigated by Registrar F. W. Kehoe. The cereal cabinet which was formerly immediately behind the front counter has been moved to the rear, and a large window installed in that place. This enables the clerk, Miss Reba L. Carpenter, to carry on her duties in the kitchen and at the same time attend to the student and faculty customers at the counter.

The enamel sink has been moved to a position facing the open window, and the counter, and the small electric oven-stove has its place in a nook near the kitchen. A new zinc top has been placed on the sandwich board before the window, and an opening placed conveniently for passing prepared foods from the kitchen to the counter.

Miss Carpenter states that the improvements will undoubtedly facilitate the work at the Coffee Corner and should be a means of increasing the efficiency and ease of the service.

REV. SHATFORD TO LEAD NEXT VESPER SERVICES

Canon of the Church of St. James the Apostle, of Montreal, to be Here Sunday Afternoon

SPEAKER SERVED WITH CANADIANS DURING WAR

A popular literary, patriotic, and fraternity speaker in the person of the Rev. Allan P. Shatford, canon of the Church of St. James the Apostle in Montreal is to conduct the vesper services to be held here Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Ira Allen Chapel.

The speaker has addressed the student and faculties bodies of McGill University, Toronto University, University of New Brunswick, Kings College, and Bishops College at Lennox, P. Q. He is a clear and forceful platform personality and has been received here in recent years with much interest.

He is a native of Nova Scotia, and was graduated from Kings College, Windsor, Nova Scotia in 1895. For four years he served with the Canadian troops during the World War, was mentioned in despatches and awarded the honor of Order of the British Empire. He is a Past Grand Master of the Masonic Order of Quebec and has served as Lenten preacher for the past seven years in Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Rochester and Boston.

MORTAR BOARD WANTS NEW LILAC DAY IDEAS

The Lilac Day pageant, presented each year under the direction of Mortar Board is to be re-written this year, with the hopes that Lilac Day, a beautiful custom of Vermont women, will be more effective than in years past. Mortar Board now formulating plans for this years' presentation, asks all women students who would like to do so, to write a pageant suitable for Lilac Day. The best one handed in will be used this spring adding one more page to the history of that event. All pageants should be handed to any member of Mortar Board before February 15.

Very closely connected with the Lilac Day tradition is Vermont's first dean of women, Pearl Randall Wasson, who thought that Redstone could be made more beautiful by having a hedge of lilacs on its lawn. The first Lilac Day was carried out under her guidance and the planting of the lilac became a day of festival and beauty. This year Lilac Day will be held on May 25, 26 or 27.

4-H CLUB ANNOUNCES STATE MUFFIN CONTEST

A State 4-H Club Muffin Contest is announced by Miss Martha Leighton, assistant state club leader, of the extension service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College. The contest is scheduled to begin Friday, January 1 and to close Saturday, February 13, 1932. On Wednesday, February 17, the contest will be judged in Burlington by Miss Leighton and Miss Lillian Anderson, extension nutritionist.

Any regular enrolled foods club member for 1932 is eligible to compete in the contest. Three prizes will be awarded. The first prize will be a metal kitchen table, the second prize a baking set, and the third has not yet been determined. The contest consists of making muffins and planning meals at which muffins are served. The exhibit on which the judging will be based will be six muffins from each competitor, three menus of meals at which muffins were served, and the club member's 1932 foods record to date.

During the first week in January, January 4 to 9, Miss Margaret Larsen of the Russell Miller Milling Company will give muffin demonstrations before 4-H Clubs in five counties of the state.

TWELVE ZOO. STUDENTS VISIT NEW YORK MUSEUM

Under the guidance of Prof. H. P. Perkins twelve zoology students visited the American Museum of Natural History in New York during the early part of the Christmas vacation. The visit to the museum is an annual one for a chosen group of zoology students each year. Authorities at the museum put all facilities of the institution, including the work rooms, at the disposal of the Vermonters. In particular, the zoology exhibits were studied.

Revised Schedule Mid-Year Examinations

[illegible]sed schedule of mid-year ex- [illegible]s as released today by Registrar [illegible]ver is as follows:

[illegible]minations will begin at 9 a.m. [illegible] and will be held in the gym- [illegible] otherwise announced by [illegible]:

[illegible] a.m., January 18: French 1, [illegible] French 4, French 113.

[illegible] p.m., January 18; Anatomy [illegible] (Agr.), Botany 12 (Water [illegible]descript. Geom., History 12 (A [illegible] Mech. Drawing, Sanitary Eng.

[illegible] a.m., January 19; Arith. [illegible] Chemistry 9, Chemis- [illegible]stry 111, Economics 1, [illegible] English 19, Music 5 [illegible]

[illegible] January 19: Eco- [illegible] 7 (Am. Lit.), Greek 1, [illegible] 4 (History), Physics [illegible]

[illegible] January 20: Chem- [illegible]stry 21, Chemistry 22, [illegible]nomics 63, Education [illegible] Greek 0, Intro. to Ed. [illegible] 30, Mental Hygiene [illegible] 108.

[illegible] January 20: Botany [illegible]nomics 6, Economics [illegible]s (T.Tr.), Home Ec. [illegible]

[illegible]uary 21: Advanced [illegible]A, Latin B, Latin 1, [illegible] Lucretius), Latin 15, [illegible]

[illegible]uary 21: Astron- [illegible]stry, Economics 14, [illegible] Elem. Surveying, [illegible] 3, Home Ec. 7, [illegible]g. Ag., Physics 1, [illegible] Sociology, Zoology [illegible]

[illegible]ary 22: Botany 1, [illegible]s 59, Education 1, [illegible] 7, Pol. Sci. 104, [illegible] (Compar. Anat- [illegible]

[illegible]ary 22: A. C. En- [illegible] General Elect. Eng. [illegible]uary 23: Military [illegible]

[illegible]uary 23: Psych. 1, [illegible] Psych. 22 (Com-

Monday a.m., January 25: Geography (T.Tr.), Home Ec. 2, Home Ec. 10, Home Ec. 13 (The Family), Math. 1 (Arts and Ag.), Math. 1 (Arts Math. of Finance), Math. 1 (Eng. Trig.), Math. 2 (Arts Calculus), Math. 2 (Eng. Calculus), Math. 6 (Solid Geom.), Math. 103 (Arts).

Monday p.m., January 25: Botany 4 (Plant Phys.), Botany 8 (Cytology), Children's Lit. (T.Tr.), Economics 2, Economics 13, Education 9 (Measurements), Elect. Design, Home Ec. 4, Latin 9.

Tuesday a.m., January 26: Elem. of Elect. Eng., German 1, German 2, German 4, Livestock, Materials of Constr., Surveying.

Tuesday p.m., January 26: Bridge Design, Dairying 4 (Market Milk), Field Crops, Greek 106, Horticulture 1a, Music 3 (El. Harmony), Phys. 1 (Arts), Pol. Sci. 3 (Internat. Relations), Rural Ed. (T.Tr.), Senior Elect. Eng. Lab., Steam Eng. Lab., Vermont History.

Wednesday a.m., January 27: Forestry 1 (General), Forestry 2, Pol. Sci. 1, Pub. School Music 1 (T.Tr.), Pub. School Music 2 (T.Tr.).

Wednesday p.m., January 27: Engineering Drawing, Geology 3, History 2, Journalism, Music 8a (Solfeggio), Music 8b (Solfeggio), Physics 104, Reinforced Concrete, Zoology 2.

Thursday a.m., January 28: D. C. Engineer., Education 7, French 108, History 5, Home Ec. 16 (Methods of Teach.), Home Ec. 333 (T.Tr.), Pol. Sci. 8, Psych. 3 (Social).

Thursday p.m., January 28: Farm Mechanics, Heating and Ventilating, History (T.Tr.), Hydraulics, Junior Elect. Eng. Lab., Spanish 1, Spanish 2, Spanish 3.

Friday a.m., January 29: Chemistry 104, Class Manage. (T.Tr.), Economics 3, Economics 8, Economics 20, Economics 58, Greek 2, History 1, History of Art 1, Hygiene (T.Tr.), Psych. 106 (Exp.), Zoology 7 (Embryology).

Friday p.m., January 29: Botany 2, Botany 3, Economics 10, Education 2, Elect. Commun., English 6 (Shakespeare), Geology 1, Geology 1a (T.Tr.), Heat Power Engineer., History 8, Home Ec. 1, Music 1 (Apprec.), Pol. Sci. 5.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

EDITORS

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

SPORTS NEWS

WOMEN'S NEWS

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

FEATURE EDITORS

COLUMNIST

TYPIST

REPORTERS

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Business Manager

Advertising Manager

Assistant Manager

Published ... Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Editorials

FOR LOVERS OF DRAMA

HOCKEY OPENS

THE 'OLOGIES

CONSTITUTION, VERMONT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

ARTICLE I
Name

ARTICLE II
Membership

ARTICLE III
Officers

Duties of Officers

ARTICLE IV
Meetings

ARTICLE V
Amendments

DAIRYMEN'S CONVENTION TO MEET JANUARY 12-14

HOW LITTLE CAN YOU LIVE ON? AT MT. HOLYOKE

Being Collegiate

Here's One

Our uncrowned heroine is the girl who pulled down the blinds during class because she couldn't sleep with the sun in her eyes. This happened at Ann Arbor.

$12 Tuition

Nearly fifty students were expelled from Oklahoma University this week. All but three were let out for low grades. O. U. charges $12 a semester to get educated. It does not want to expend money uselessly.

Of course all the other 5,267 students are absorbing liberal educations.

Teachers Do Chew

Chewing gum in the Sante Fe, New Mexico, shops ran out during the state teachers' convention held in that city. Not also did all brands of cigarettes where have we heard that teachers abhor the vulgar habit of chewing gum?

Skids for Capone

Northwestern University student a good example the other day when it uncomfortable for Al Capone's body guard. They entered the stadium impressively, but were stormed out by the students and notified through the student paper were not wanted again.

Some Teams May Have To

Vera Schaffer, the only native Ge attending Temple, frankly admits last time she attended a football and saw the players huddled toge thought they were offering a pr unison.

Cash in, Grads

The Dean of Boston Univer timates that a college degree $72,000. Several hard pressed are told, are seeking to have their in.

Restricted Endowment

A ten thousand dollar rug willed to Wilson College in Pe The rug is to be kept in a glass any student walks upon it sold for less than its original bequest is void.

Students at the University have come to the conclusion tambules are one of the necessities. The university wants to make plain whether tents were referring to tandy pet.

An assistant instructor was roll the other day without p the title at the first of the name she came to the name Ham. beating the game was absent but not keep the instructor from three times. On the third call to the back row spoke up with "No, no Ham this morning."

A Pleasure

At Cedar Crest a girl's school suspends the authorities in order to get a good bed and send the bill home, turned out the lights.

SPORTS NEWS

NIORS DEFAULT GAME TO JUNIORS IN OPENER

iors Drop Game to Sophs in Pre-vacation Tussle Giving Series to Frosh

COND HALF OF TOURNEY PROMISES CLOSE BATTLE

ight when at 6.30 only two seniors had ap- scheduled at 6 o'clock. Post who was to have the game off and awarded to default. "However," said "this decision may be been the first game of the interclass basket- The first half was won with the sophomore up by virtue of its ors by a score of 27-17 before the holidays.

Junior-Sophomore

their game with the before vacation did not live reputation gained in their with the victorious freshmen gave the second year men opened the scoring for the foul and a step-shot, and Green, Brislin, and Wood- respectively raised the margin at the quarter. The juniors to coordinate their attack frequently.

points picked up in the second Massucco, Bedell, and Grant gain- floor shot apiece, but Mulcahy, and Busch, who was in for who made a spectacular one- from the corner, did likewise sophomores. Score at half 16-6.

Sophs Hold Lead

the second half the junior play but the sophs maintained the point margin up to the final the score was 27-17. Bedell, and Grant led the scoring for while Woodruff, Mulcahy carried the brunt of the sopho- The players were handi- the last half by the noise and caused by the removal of the

VERNOR SELECTS PROF. LLENBERGER FOR BOARD

Howard B. Ellenberger, of the Agriculture, was appointed a the advisory and arbitration Gov. Stanley C. Wilson, in com- a request made by the New Dairies Inc. for action in the Ellenberger representing the Vermont, is professor of animal husbandry and is national presi- the American Dairy Science As- He is acquainted with the from both the scientific and members of the board who will to assume their new duties Frank P. Washburn, commissioner for Maine; Andrew Felk- commissioner of agriculture for New James O'Brien of Lee, Mass. and Harry R. Lewis, agriculture for Rhode

HOCKEY TEAM MEETS HAMILTON TOMORROW

Colgate has cancelled its game and tomorrow will only see but one mediocre hockey game at Clinton, N. Y. against Hamilton College. Mediocre because three stellar Vermont performers will be unable to play. McVetty, star forward, and Mercier his running mate are both suffering from painful leg and rib injuries. Rapuano at the present writing has not returned to practice.

Players that will make the trip will be picked from the following squad members: Captain Wood, Marvin, Jardin, Carlson, Reese, Concannon, Tomassetti, Boynton, Spicer, Cass.

The squad has been severely handicapped because of very poor ice conditions as last Monday was their first and only day of practice. Present weather conditions speak volumes for the need of a covered hockey rink.

Providing weather and ice are favorable, the Kitten sextette will battle the Cathedral High School pucksters this Saturday afternoon.

SCHEDULES RELEASED BY GRAD. MGR. ABELL

Varsity Tennis and Freshman Baseball and Football Schedules are Announced

Graduate Manager Sabin Abell has released the freshman football, baseball and varsity tennis schedule for the season of 1932.

Varsity Tennis Schedule

April
28	Amherst
29	R. P. I.
30	Boston U.
May
5*	St. Lawrence
13*	New York State Teachers
14	Middlebury
16*	St. Michaels
19*	Tufts
21*	Boston U.
23	St. Michaels
27*	Middlebury

Freshman Baseball Schedule

April
30*	Montpelier Seminary
May
5	Dartmouth '35
6	Dartmouth J. V.
7	Clark School
16	Montpelier Seminary
17*	Clark School
20*	Dartmouth '35
23	T. C. A.

Freshman Football Schedule

Oct.
1*	Troy Conference
7	Norwich
15*	St. Lawrence
22*	Middlebury
29	Montpelier

*Home games.

She: The doctor says your illness is all due to drink and that you must not take a drop more.

He: Yes, I didn't know it was such a serious illness. I thought it would just mean an operation.—Buen Humor (Madrid)

Time Out

Look at the top of the page—a New Year's gift. A new page head with the Catamounts and a [illegible] correct head. Sports News instead of Sporting News. In re the Catamounts; we had to go hunting for this animule in the thick forest south of Converse Hall and with the help of the nursing squad from the Mary Fletcher we finally found and conquered this ferocious beast. He was much scarred from a skirmish with the Middlebury Panther and severely resented our intrusion. But we have him and you see him on the top of the page, upper right and left hand corners.

—time out—

Among the famous New Year's resolutions that we have heard are the following:

Basketball squad resolve to win championship.

Frosh athletes resolve to be eligible for varsity sports after mid-years.

Eligibility managers resolve to function.

Fencing squad resolve to quit kidding and fence.

Military department resolve to revise and make a more lenient cut system.

Hockey squad resolve to win all their games.

Fraternities resolve to quit combining and will now amalgamate.

We resolve to stop bothering you after mid-years with such space filling comment as Time Out.

And maybe you will resolve to become University conscious especially about the athletic situation.

—time out—

The second half of the interclass contests are now on their way to a torrid session of basketball. Many a youngster shows marked ability and the manner in which Coach Burke watches these contests leads us to conclude that there may be varsity opportunities for some of these men.

—time out—

Are you in training for the mid-years, physically as well as mentally? Well, think it over. Physical condition can help you in your studies. Professor Prentice will be pleased to advise you.

—time out—

Vacation found our own Homer J. Burke at the Tuesday, December 29 session of the Football Coaches Association caucus held at Hotel Pennsylvania in dear old New York City. Homer was defeated in the story-telling contest by a chap named Welch from some place south of the Mason-Dixon line. Wonder did they ever hear tell of the Catamount team that went up to Hanover and licked the Big Green? A better story is about the marvelous no-win record hung up by our recent football teams. That one ought to win a brown derby.

—time out—

Prof. H. A. Prentice attended the meetings of the Society of Physical Directors of Colleges on December 28-29. Wednesday he attended the section meeting on administration of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. On Thursday the 31st both Professors Donahue and Prentice attended the National Collegiate Athletic Association's regular meeting. We claim that H. A. Prentice has set up a record for attending conventions. But joking aside this certainly shows a keen interest in one's work, don't' you think?

KITTEN HOOPSTERS TO BATTLE T. C. A. ON SAT.

Coach Post will travel with his squad of freshman hoopsters to do battle against the strong Troy Conference Academy team at Poultney this Saturday. "Archie" refused to divulge the names of the players he will take along, probably in order to keep the men guessing. A bigger guessing contest is to pick his starting line-up against T. C. A.

"They certainly have a poor playing court. Lighting conditions are so poor that one gets lost in the deep shadows. I hope that the facilities are better than they have been in the past," says Post.

Followers of the frosh team predict an overwhelming victory for the Kittens. With such players as Palmer, Hamilton, Robbins, Schmarr and a host of others equally good it looks as though the rabid fans predictions would be valid.

THE DIPLOMAT ON THE HEART OF THE ATHLETE

HARLOW BROOKS, M.D.

The subject of the heart of the athlete has occupied a great deal of attention in the past. Of late it has appeared less and less frequently in medical literature for the reason that the condition believed to be entirely the result of excessive physical labor or of heavy athletics has now been demonstrated to be the result of heavy exercise on a heart already diseased.

The modern view of the subject seems to indicate that given a perfectly healthy heart in a healthy body, such an individual may continue heavy exercise during the active physical years without permanent detriment to that heart. But if primary disease of the heart has preexisted, anything beyond temperance in the way of physical effort is attended with serious results in so far as the future is concerned, although usually the ultimate bad result and the failure of the heart do not appear until years after the heavy exercise has been taken.

When athletes or laborers are carefully chosen after thorough physical examination, and unless they suffer meantime some incidental disease of which rheumatism and the other acute infections are the most frequent, these persons may continue indefinitely athletics of a character suitable to their age. It is, however, never advisable for a mature or an old man to attempt to reproduce his athletic efforts of his college and youthful days. Most of the cases of failure of the heart have been the result of ineffective examination and of permission for such crippled individuals to undertake work which, because of a defective heart, they are not competent to sustain.

A study of the subsequent life history of the athletes at West Point, made by Colonel Reynolds and Colonel Chamberlin, showed that athletics had in no way been detrimental to life expectancy or physical efficiency in those cadets who have subsequently followed the Army. As a matter of fact, expectancy of life for the athletic cadet is rather better than that of the average Army officer. In both of the national academies, however, not only are all the candidates for athletic teams most carefully selected and after the most meticulous examina-

(Continued on page 4)

HOOPSTERS REPORT BACK AFTER VACATION REST

Vim, Vigor and Vitality Features Nightly Practice of Nifty Squad Set for Big Season

STATE SERIES TO OPEN WITH ST. MIKES JAN. 14

After a long rest, the cage squad has returned to its nightly practices and have exhibited pep and animation, that will assure the coach plenty to work with. Coach Burke, will start intensive work as soon as the boys have got their court feet. Scrimmages with the freshmen, passwork and signal practice will feature these nightly workouts, to train the men down for their game with St. Michael's College on January 14.

The first game of the state championship series will be played at Burlington. Its result will give the school an idea of how good the team really is and how they may come out in the title games. The McGill game showed a new team on the floor playing fairly good basketball, although at the alumni game the varsity was played to a standstill. Nevertheless, these practice games were just the kind of contests necessary to show up both the team faults and the individual faults. Vermont should have a championship team this year, but time will tell.

The St. Mike's team has also played several games; noticeable among them was a bad beating by a strong Dartmouth team. The Indians played over the Jaspers heads throughout the game and turned in a large score. The team from Winooski always has a fighting team on the floor, and the game next Thursday should be an interesting contest.

Durfey, Taft, Morgan, Beckley and Saba will probably be in the starting lineup. Three of these men, although they are new to varsity playing, have shown great promise and look as if they would develop as the season progresses.

The Coaches Confess

Turning out good football teams is a serious business in this day and age, but the mentors have time for their chuckles just the same, according to an article, "The Coaches Confess," published in the January College Humor.

Almost a new slant is given on the old game when leading coaches like Stevens of Yale, Zuppke of Illinois, Warner of Stanford, Kerr of Colgate, Bible of Nebraska, Cavanaugh of Fordham, Ingwerson of Iowa, and Madigan of St Mary's tell their funniest experiences.

As an example, Coach Zuppke tells this one:

"Just before the game I said, 'Nobody comes out until he is dead.'

"This ultimatum apparently had good effect and it wasn't necessary to make a substitution until late in the last quarter when one of the regular linemen was disabled. Our trainer went out and worked on him but it was clear he would have to leave the game.

"I hurried out a big, inexperienced substitute. He went over to the place where the disabled lineman was still stretched out, bent over him and then came running off the field back to the bench.

"'Why didn't you stay out there?' I yelled at the sub.

"'Why, Zup, you said nobody left the game but a dead man and he's still breathing.'"

SUITS & OVERCOATS
at
January Clearance Prices
$19.75 to $42.75
FOR $25 TO $55 GRADES
• • • •
MILES & PERRY COMPANY
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Since 1898

$25.00
Two Trouser Suits at this price. Formerly sold at $35.00
OVERCOATS 25% OFF
SELZ SHOES
$3.85 and $5.00
WHITE SHIRTS
3 for $4.00
(January Sale Prices)
HAYES AND CARNEY, INC.
127 CHURCH ST.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

TURK'S
Clean Sweep Sale
An annual event awaited by the student body. Suits, Overcoats, Furnishings, Shoes, Robes, reduced.
◆
TURKS Burlington
156-158 College Street

CLEMENT WILL PROVIDES PRIZE FOR BEST THESIS

Five Hundred Dollars to be Awarded for Paper Supporting Principles of Constitution

CONVENTION STRESSES LOVE IN WORLD AFFAIRS

(Continued from page 1)

Peace Proposals

TICKETS FOR BEN GREET PLAYERS NOW ON SALE

(Continued from page 1)

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT AND STATE IN LITIGATION

DEWEY CLUB TO INSTALL NEW MEMBERS JAN. 15

(Continued from page 1)

Owing to abuse of the privilege, the Librarian suggests that henceforth students will not be expected to use the office telephone in the Billings Library either for calling or receiving calls, the only exception being in the case of official calls. Those desiring to use a telephone will find a pay station in the passageway between the Reading Room and the Apse.

W. A. A. urges all women interested in outdoor sports to bring back skates, snowshoes and skis with them after Christmas vacation.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

PRESTON'S TRADE IN WATCH SALE

During January we will make a special allowance on your old watch toward a new one. Why not consider a new watch now?

We are showing many new styles and makes. We will gladly appraise your watch for allowance toward a new one.

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street
BURLINGTON, VT.

COLLEGE SUPPLIES

U. V. M.
DIE-STAMPED
STATIONERY

BANNERS PILLOW TOPS

McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

THE DIPLOMATE ON THE HEART OF THE ATHLETE

(Continued from page 3)

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

JANUARY SALES
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE
on NOVELTIES
and
JEWELRY

U. V. M. FARM CONDUCTING BEDDING MATERIAL TESTS

Four Years to Catch Up

Pikers

Collegiate Milkmaids

Wise Advice

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
182A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

BOULDER DANCE TO CLOSE SEASON'S SOCIAL EVENTS

U. V. M. TEAM TO DEBATE ESSEX JUNCTION TONIGHT

The Truth Would be Dangerous

Here's One Smoke for MEN

LET the little girls toy with their long, slim holders—let them park scented cigarettes with their powder compacts. That's the time for you to go in for a REAL MAN'S smoke.

She won't borrow your pipe!

And what can that be but a PIPE!

There's something about a time-proved, companionable pipe that does satisfy a man's smoking instincts. You become attached to it—like the way it clears your head, stirs your imagination, puts a keen edge on your thinking.

And you know the heights of true smoking satisfaction when you keep your pipe filled with Edgeworth. It's the finest blend of choice, selected burleys. And its mellow flavor and rich aroma have made Edgeworth the favorite among pipe tobaccos in 42 out of 54 leading American colleges and universities.

The smoke you can call your own

Edgeworth? You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or, if you wish to try before you buy, send for sample packet. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

The Vermont Cynic

LUME [illegible] BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1932 NUMBER 28

ENID CLARK

[illegible] this afternoon in the rôle [illegible] "Julius Cæsar," and this [illegible] Ophelia in "Hamlet."

ECT FOURTEEN MEN "SUPERS" IN TRAGEDY

Greet Players to Use Students for Mob Scene in "Julius Cæsar" This Afternoon

The Ben Greet Players present Shakespearean tragedy, "Julius Cæsar," in the University gymnasium this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, a cast of fourteen U. V. M. thespians, including James Marvin '32, business manager of Wig and Buskin, will appear comprising the Roman mob in the scene Mark Anthony's famous speech. All the fourteen men to be supers in this play had parts in the fall play, "Stoops to Conquer."

The following are those who will assemble in the mob scene: R. S. Wright '35, H. Hubbrook '32, E. J. Fitzgerald '32, [illegible] Weston '32, S. Pierce '34, S. N. [illegible] '33, C. J. Libby '34, W. F. Kenyon '34, C. J. Kilburn '34, R. Colburn '34, J. Williams '35, D. C. Hazen '32, and H. Patnode '35. All will wear togas befitting the mode of the times.

Hamlet

The matinee quarto of "Hamlet" is to be presented by Sir Philip Ben Greet's players tonight at 8.00 o'clock this evening at the gymnasium.

Mr. J. Brooks Atkinson, noted critic of the New York Times: "Mr. Greet's method of producing brings Shakespeare to life. It is the keenest sort of pleasure Shakespeare acted on its own boards. Mr. Greet has schooled his players in the forgotten art of speaking. You can actually understand the words and sense of what is spoken.

MEN TO NOMINATE 935 REGIONAL MEMBER

[illegible] Student Union Council will hold [illegible] second-year meeting in the [illegible] Council, Tuesday at 1.30. [illegible] be made for the freshman [illegible] the regional committee, [illegible] judiciary.

[illegible] recent new ruling, a [illegible] cents will be exacted [illegible] who were absent from [illegible] Union mass meeting. [illegible] to the vice-president of [illegible]

NIOR REPORTS DUE ON TIME SAYS TUPPER

There will be no extension of time [illegible] the senior reports due at mid-years, [illegible] Professor Tupper of the English department. Only those students [illegible] a special excuse or a valid reason for delay will be permitted to [illegible] in their reports at a later date. [illegible] the present time, of four hundred reports due, but few have as yet been handed in. The reports according to [illegible] English department will probably [illegible] to come in about the first week [illegible] the examinations. Students are requested to turn in their reports at once, in order that the department be not overwhelmed with work at examination time.

MRS. W. S. WEBB GIVES SET OF ANTIQUE FANS TO FLEMING MUSEUM

Shelburne Resident, Donor, Also Presents Glass Display Case to Contain Collection

DONATION REPRESENTS ART OF PAST CENTURY

Included Are Three Fans of Italian Origin, Three of French, Two of Iberian, Two of Dutch, One From England, and One From China

A set of twelve antique fans, collected from China, Italy, the Iberian Peninsula, France, Holland, and Great Britain, along with a fitted glass display case, were recently donated by Mrs. W. S. Webb, of Shelburne, to the new Fleming Museum.

Prominent among the collection is a Chinese fan dating back to the Chien Lung period, about 1795. Its sticks are lacquered in black and gold, while the leaf is painted on both sides with scenes containing many people with heads of ivory.

Another, an Italian fan of about the middle of the nineteenth century, is made with sticks of carved and gilded mother-of-pearl, in the Louis XV style. The leaf is of paper, decorated in the center of both sides with colored lithographs, at the ends with painted scrolls, trophies, and flowers. On the front is a representation of the muses; on the back, the sacrifice of Iphigenia.

An Iberian Fan

The sticks of a third fan are also of carved and gilded mother-of-pearl. The leaf is of paper with a border of wood-cut ornament in black and gold, combining Gothic and Renaissance architectual motives on the front. On the back the paper is embossed with rococo ornament colored in red, blue, and gold. The medallions contain lithographs, representing on the front (left to right) Might, Aurora, and an unidentified personage, possibly intended to personify Day; on the back (left to right) people conversing, (in the center) a family group on a sofa. This fan is of Iberian pattern (Spanish or Portuguese) dating back to the middle of the nineteenth century. It is possible that this fan may have originated in one of the Spanish or Portuguese countries of South or Central America, or in Mexico.

Of Italian Origin

The sticks of a fourth are also of carved and gilded mother-of-pearl. The leaf is of paper with a border of wood-cut ornament; on the front, in the neo-Renaissance style, are niches holding

(Continued on page 4)

N. E. INTERCOLLEGIATE GLEE CLUB CONTEST IS CANCELLED UNTIL 1933

"The New England Intercollegiate Glee Club Contest which was sheduled to be held at Boston, and which has been an annual event, has been suspended this year on account of the financial depression," Prof. H. G. Bennett announces. This will not, however, affect the local program of the Vermont Men's Glee Club. The New England Contest will be continued in 1933 under the provisions of the committee in charge.

Professor Bennett states that there is still need for a few more men to assume parts in the programs of the Glee Club. They may report to him at the Music Building at any time.

Stuart Wilson, English tenor, has been scheduled to appear under the auspices of the music department February 4 in the gymnasium. This is the first of a series of concerts and recitals to be given during next semester. The next event will be a combined concert and dance to be held Friday evening, February 26 also in the gymnasium. Tickets for faculty and students may be secured for both concerts in the Book Store after January 31.

At a recent meeting held in the Music Building G. M. McKenzie '34 and D. W. Jenks '34 were elected assistant Glee Club managers. Under the provisions of a motion adopted to cover the situation, R. R. Jenks '33 the present manager and the student leader, F. P. Colburn '33 will continue to hold their offices.

ALL FRESHMEN ELIGIBLE FOR CYNIC EDITORSHIPS

There is still time for freshman men to scrub the reportorial board of the Cynic. No previous training is necessary and all who try-out will be given instructions and assignments to cover general news about the campus. All who report to the editor-in-chief at any time this semester will be eligible for the positions of editor-in-chief, sports editor, managing editor and the minor editorships. An unlimited number will be given assignments in competition until the next selection of board members early next semester.

DEBATERS GAIN 2 TO 1 DECISION OVER WHEATON

Donaghy and LaCross Defeat Mid-western Team on Centralization of Industry Question

A two to one decision rendered the University of Vermont debaters victorious over the debating team of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., Saturday evening, January 9, in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. R. P. Donaghy '33 and P. J. LaCross '32 argued the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That Congress should adopt legislation providing for the centralization of Industry," while Paul Allen and Allen Zaun took up the negative stand for Wheaton College. The judges of the debate were Principal Stackpole of Winooski High School; Reverend Bowers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Winooski; and C. W. Cross of the Cross Insurance Agency, Burlington. Prof. L. W. Dean of the University English Department presided.

The University of Vermont opened its constructive argument with R. P. Donaghy, picturing the depression and inequalities of the present time, and gave the negative team three alternatives to choose from in readjusting the situation. The first was the present status quo, secondly, Government regulation or centralization and thirdly, Government ownership or Socialism. P. J. LaCross closed Vermont's argument by stating that centralization of industry was regulating industry from a central point by congressional legislation. Further he said that the negative could point out inefficiency in such organization, but at the present time all industries are at least 50 percent. inefficient and any plan which would aid in doing away in some little degree was appropriate. LaCross further showed how such would be operated by specialists and scientists in Washington for the benefit of all industries.

Wheaton College opened with Allen, who argued that they rejected all three of the alternatives given them by the Vermont team and would instead strengthen the anti-trust laws. After all he said the plan as put forth was only one gigantic merger. Further the plan should be rejected because it will not adequately meet the several causes of depression or over-production, or the farmers' relief problem. Jones argued that Vermont had not showed them how such a plan would operate, and then went ahead and showed that it couldn't work efficiently.

While Vermont was on its extensive western trip last year she met and defeated Wheaton College on the chain store question, with George Nelson '31, P. J. LaCross '32, and R. P. Donaghy '33 on the team.

C SET AS MINIMUM S. S. LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

"All students in the social science who are taking French 3, German 2, Spanish 2 or a course in Latin as a degree requirement will be required to attain at least a grade of C," states Dean Swift of the Arts and Sciences College. "This grade will be ipso facto regarded by the faculty as satisfactory evidence that the student has passed the course with a satisfactory reading knowledge. It affects all students who this year enrolled in any of the above courses as a language requirement of that curriculum."

The language emphasis has been considerably diminished in the curriculum since it particularly stresses studies in the social science group, and the faculty feels that any failure of a student to attain the required grade must be considered evidence that his pursuit of the course has not resulted in the ability to make practical use of at least the written language. The adjustment of any irregularities in meeting the requirement will be made in consultation with the dean.

1932 LECTURE SERIES OF ALLIANCE FRANCAISE TO OPEN JANUARY 15

Prof. Gaston Gille, French Political Student, to Discuss Aristide Briand in First Talk

SOCIETY TO CELEBATE ANNIVERSARY ON FEB. 6

"Aristide Briand" is to be the subject matter for Prof. Gaston Gille, a foremost student of the French political situation and who is now on the faculty at the College of the City of New York, when he opens the 1932 lecture series of the Alliance Française on Friday, January 15 at the Fleming Museum.

Following Professor Gille in the series, in the order of their appearance, will be Jules Champenois, presenting "Life in the Middle Ages"; Pierre Martino, who will give an illustrated lecture on "Landscapes in Algeria"; Prof. Andre Morize who will discuss "France and the World"; and Professor Fern and Baldensperger, a well known literary and history critic.

Professor Gille has been a participant in the meetings of the "Bureau d'Etudes Internationales," in Geneva, since 1926, and has closely followed the particular questions pertaining to France.

Anniversary Program

On Saturday, February 6 the Alliance Française presents Jules Champenois, the official lecturer of the Federation of the Alliance Française of the United States and of Canada. He will speak on "Jeux et Travaux en France au Moyen Age." This lecture will be illustrated from illuminated manuscripts of the time. Mr. Champenois, agrege of the Sorbonne, who received his Bachelorate of literature at Oxford, D.L.C., is a regular lecturer at the University of Oxford and London. On February 6 the Alliance Française will also celebate the anniversary of its foundation in Burlington. Preceding the lecture there will be a dinner at the Hotel Vermont Roof Garden at 6 o'clock. The banquet will be followed by one-half hour entertainment given by Professor and Mrs. Bennett, at the piano; Frederic Blais and Miss Marie Chaperon, vocalists and Miss Lilian Cohen, with a character study.

To Reveal Algiera

"Landscapes in Algeria" is the topic of the third lecture to be given Friday, March 11 by Pierre Martino, rector of the University of Algeria. Mr. Martino, a member of the College de France, is in Algeria at the present time and so his lecture here in Burlington will give vivid glimpses and fresh information.

France and the World

The fourth lecturer presented by the Alliance Française will be Prof. André Morize of Harvard University. His speech, "La France devant le monde moderne" will be an explanation of France's attitude and position in regard to the nations at the present time. An

(Continued on page 4)

DEWEY CLUB INVITES ALL ELIGIBLE STUDENTS TO BECOME MEMBERS

About seventy men and women in the academic colleges, who have satisfied the eligibility requirements for membership in the John Dewey Philosophy and Psychology Club have received cards from the officers inviting them to be present at the banquet and initiation which is to be held Friday evening, January 15.

All students who desire to accept membership in the society are requested to notify any of the present members or officers before tomorrow. The initiation ceremony will be held at 5.15 o'clock in the Marsh Room of the Billings Library and the banquet will follow immediately afterward at the Greenebowl on upper Pearl Street.

At the banquet Prof. A. R. Gifford, head of the department of intellectual and moral philosophy will uphold the personal beliefs of Josiah Royce, late American philosopher in the field of Theism. Prof. G. B. Dykhuizen, head of the department of philosophy is to defend the credo of Dr. John Dewey, famed American philosopher in the field of educational and pragmatic philosophy, and alumnus of the University of Vermont. An informal discussion period will follow the banquet.

FREDERICK SARGENT

He will star in "Julius Cæsar" this afternoon as Marcus Antonius and will assume the role of the King this evening in "Hamlet."

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION TO INAUGURATE SERIES OF DISCUSSION GROUPS

Cabinet Holds Enthusiastic Meeting and Sends Wire to President Hoover

In what the officers call the most stimulating meeting in years, the men's cabinet of the Vermont Christian Association met last Wednesday evening in a two-hour session and laid plans for the inauguration of discussion groups open to the entire University. These groups will meet at fraternity houses and homes of students who live in the city. Besides this many other topics of religion, international relations, social and industrial problems and personal questions were discussed by the men in meeting.

A report on the Student Volunteer Conference in Buffalo, which was attended by H. I. Varney and C. Drown was given by them. Acting upon the recommendation of this international convention, the Vermont Christian Association that evening sent the following telegram to President Hoover:

Herbert Hoover, President U. S.
Executive Offices
Washington D. C.

We, the Vermont Christian Association, heartily recommend that you appoint an American student as a member of the American delegation to the Geneva Disarmament Conference.

Signed,
HEWITT I. VARNEY, chairman

The members of the cabinet voted to bring with them to all future meetings at least one other student. Sunday morning the cabinet in a body attended the services of the First Congregational Church and will on subsequent Sundays attend the other churches of the city in sequence.

LA CROSS GETS ADVISORY COUNCIL APPOINTMENT

Receives Position as Field Secretary and Member of Boston Conference Board

Paul J. LaCross '32 has received notification of his appointment as a member of the advisory council and the University of Vermont field secretary of the Student International Relations Conference which is to be held April 15 to 17 at the headquarters of the Twentieth Century Club in Boston. He is president of the International Relations Club here.

His appointment was made by representatives from several schools and colleges in Greater Boston who met in executive session to coordinate the values of the recent Disarmament Conference held there and to lay the plans for the April congress on international problems.

At active or affiliated members of the advisory council are students from Middlebury and Vermont as well as thirty-eight other colleges, universities and schools throughout New England.

A class in "How to give parental reproofs" has been installed in the University of Kansas. It all came about by the professor's asking the class what they would say to a little girl who had told a lie.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The official Student Newspaper of the University of Vermont

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Women's Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS
[illegible] '32
[illegible] '33

SPORTS NEWS
[illegible] '32

WOMEN'S NEWS
[illegible] '32

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR
[illegible] '32

FEATURE EDITORS
[illegible]
T. I. Jayne '33

COLUMNIST
[illegible] '33

TYPIST
[illegible] '33

REPORTERS

General News: E. H. Dingham '34, W. W. Brown '34, W. Cohen '34, R. A. Cross '33, M. J. [illegible] '34, E. E. Mercom '34, R. W. Montgomery '34

Sports News: [illegible] '34, [illegible] '34

Women's News: Norma Cardoz '33, Augusta Cohen '34, Dorothy Edwards '33, Dorothy [illegible] '33, Mary Kidder '34, Dorothy Lee '33, Margaret Tower '33, Laura Tracy '34

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

[illegible] Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager
[illegible] Assistant Manager

Published every week during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year. Single copies 5 cents. Communications should be signed by the writer and addressed to the editor-in-chief. Business communications should be addressed to the business manager. Advertising rates will be furnished on application. Entered at the postoffice at Burlington, Vt., as second class matter. Publication office, 205 Pearl Street. Telephone 1644. Office hours: 4 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Burlington, Vt., under the act of March 3, 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized October 24, 1919.

Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Volume [illegible] Number 25

Editorials

NO STUDENT "OFFICIALS"

[illegible]

BUY TICKETS NOW

The Ben Greet Company advises us that the curtain on its stage this afternoon and evening for the two Shakespearean classics will rise promptly on time. All persons not in the gymnasium at the hour will be barred until the close of the first scene. Therefore we admonish students to purchase their seats in advance and thus save themselves the embarrassment of waiting in long queues outside the door.

The gorgeous imported period costumes which will gown the actors should alone be enough to complete the magic touch which the accomplished players, plot and expression will give to the two productions. But in order to be successful the presentation must be greeted by a large and appreciative audience. We do not need to invoke the appreciative element for it exists here in a splendid degree. But we do advise early purchase of tickets for an enjoyable afternoon and evening.

GOOD NEWS

Now we can speak with a clear conscience and rejoice in the good news which comes to us from the English office that all but some three hundred and ten senior reports have been passed in—and this without a hint of a request for an extension of time. Vermont students never did procrastinate; not even to mar the perfection of an incomplete scholastic record or make life miserable for their professors.

Congratulations, Vermont! The debate Saturday evening was one of the keenest and most closely contested arguments of the season. Although handicapped by the absence of her third man the varsity team gained a merited victory. She used effective arguments presented her case well and was at ease on the platform. We were most interested in the discussion.

"The best thing a young writer must expect, and yet can least of all suffer to experience. The best reply to all criticisms is to write better and to your enemies say, not then do you realize the truth in it. To be opposed is not to be vanquished, though a timid mind is apt to mistake every scratch for a mortal wound. I hope you will meet with as few obstacles as yourself can desire, but if you should you will find that they are to be overcome only to look them down is the first resolve of a young and brave spirit.—Irving.

The Mystic Pen

[illegible] the most interesting works of [illegible] that has come to our attention for [illegible] years is the world famous [illegible] [illegible] and a period of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

SPORTS NEWS

HS DEFEAT FROSH 25-10; SENIORS 44-10

nd-year Men Seem to Have ken Last Half of Tourney; Two Games Left

IORS PLAY FRESHMEN TONIGHT IN FINALS

been played off in the interclass basket- with but two more the sophomores seem nched. The sophs the freshmen last f 25-10 and Satur- the seniors by a nday night the juniors the seniors in a game uesday when players The score was 22-9. reshmen nosed out an exciting, nip and to be played are be- and the freshmen to- and the juniors and Thursday. If the the juniors Thursday, uestionably have won will enter the final game announced later with the who were victorious in the sophomores, displaying the same team play that enabled them to the seniors and juniors in the ball handily won from a freshman which appeared slower and less ac- than formerly. The frosh led 4-3 quarter, but Busch, Woodruff, and new player in the sophomore quickly brought the lead and vic- to the second-year team. The was sophomores, 25, and 10. Wilson was high scorer points.

Sophomores Beat Freshmen

Juniors' Day

accurate shooting won for the Friday when they took the a 22-9 defeat in a rather slow Bob Grant led the scoring with 9 The juniors steadily increased lead from the beginning when made an overhead step shot just the tip-off, and led 17-4 at the end third quarter. However, the play picked up in the final period the seniors forced the play to the who were trying to stall. Archie referred both of these games.

A Sophomore Picnic

sophomore team ran up the score yet attained in the tourney routed the seniors in the first the double-header Saturday. iors were handicapped by a lack substitutes which forced them, Bald- Agel having been removed for to play nearly half the game four men. It was in this last that the sophomores scored most, than tripling their points. Wilson led the scoring with 9 points. He closely followed by Busch and who only played the last quarter, points each freshman-junior game Saturday final score of 25-22 in favor of ish, was about the most exciting The tempo was fast all through, only did either team get more than point lead. The juniors led 4-2 at the end of the first quarter, the score was tied 8-8 at the half and the juniors again led 17-15 at the end of a whirl-wind third period. In the last quarter Kingsland, Joly, and Wright with a series of quick baskets wrested victory from the juniors. Wright, followed by Kingsland and Joly, was high scorer with 9 points. The scoring for the juniors was evenly divided, Massucco, Bedell, and Mahoney each gaining 5 points. Bumps Levine refereed the last two games.

Most Exciting

92 Percent of Students in Seventy Colleges Vote for Arms Reduction

Sixty-three Percent Favor U. S. Initiative, 74 Percent Uphold World Court, and 81 Percent Oppose Compulsory Drill in Nation-Wide Poll

A nation-wide straw vote on disarmament announced today by the Intercollegiate Disarmament Council from their offices in New York City, reveals 92 per cent of the 24,345 students voting in seventy different colleges in favor of reducing armaments and 63 percent for the United States setting an example by beginning to disarm without waiting for other nations. Luther Tucker, Yale '31, who is chairman of the Council, said the poll shows one-third of the students favor 100 percent cuts in armaments, provided all nations agree to the same ratio, while one in seven advocate a 100 percent cut for the United States without regard to other nations.

The poll shows a very strong feeling against the compulsory feature of military training in colleges. Eighty-one percent of the students voting on this question were opposed to compulsory drill. On the other hand, only 38 percent favored eliminating military training from all colleges. Of those voting one-seventh had had military training. Seventy-four percent of the votes cast supported American adherence to the World Court upon the basis of the Root Protocols.

Among the colleges participating in the poll were outstanding institutions in all parts of the country. Yale, Dartmouth, Amherst, Williams, Wellesley, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Vassar, Barnard, Syracuse, Bucknell, Pittsburgh, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Rollins, Kansas U., Nebraska, Washburn, Southern Methodist University, Occidental, University of Vermont and many other colleges cooperated in the vote. Student interest in disarmament is also revealed in the high percentage of those voting in many colleges. Eighty-four percent of the entire student body cast ballots at Amherst, 78 percent at Yale, 70 percent at Mount Holyoke.

All types of colleges participated in the poll, but there is little difference in the returns. The extremes are revealed in a theological seminary where no student opposed disarmament, and 45 percent favored total disarmament by example; and a New England college where 80 percent opposed the United States taking the initiative in disarmament. There is little sectional difference. Those favoring our taking the initiative in some disarmament are: New England, 60 percent; Central States, 62 percent; Middle Atlantic, 63 percent; South, 71 percent; Rocky Mountain States, 72 percent; and Pacific Coast, 78 percent.

Mt. Holyoke College where Miss Mary E. Wooley, recently appointed woman member of the U. S. delegation to the Disarmament Conference, has been president for thirty-one years, voted 3 percent against any disarmament, 19 percent against any reduction by example, 37 percent for total disarmament if all nations agree, 21 percent for total disarmament by example.

Students in institutions with compulsory military training voted 62 percent against compulsion, those in colleges with elective drill voted 83 percent against compulsion, and schools with no drill were 84 percent against compulsion.

The questions in the poll and the results were as follows:

1. If all nations join in military and naval establishments intended for use against each other, how much disarmament would you favor.

Eight thousand five voted for 100 percent reduction; 13,914 for reductions from 25 percent to 75 percent and 1,878 voted for no reduction.

2. Do you favor the American delegation to the General Disarmament Conference taking the initiative in calling upon all nations to join us in reducing armaments.

Yes 17,785. No 3,288.

3. Do you favor our setting an example for other nations by reducing our expenditures on armaments.

Yes 15,284. No 8,501.

One hundred percent 3,407; 25 percent 75 percent 9,138; none 8,501. (Not all voted by percentages.)

4. Do you favor American adherence to the World Court upon the basis of the Root Protocols.

Yes 12,848. No 4,548.

5. Do you favor compulsory military training in colleges.

Yes 3,720. No 16,030.

6. Do you favor dropping military training in colleges.

Yes 7,292. No 11,704.

7. Have you had military training.

Yes 3,760.

(The total number is probably larger, as not all colleges included this question.)

POSTURE TESTS GIVEN IN PHYS. ED. CLASSES

Posture tests are being given in the women's physical education classes, students being marked on their natural posture while marching. Mid-year tests are also being given to all women who are taking dancing as their indoor sport.

Bits of Bunk

"Ah, my dear young lady!" exclaimed the attendant at the awesome entrance of a silken-hung room. "You wish to consult Madame Maharajah, the great mystic of the Orient?"

"Yep," replied the caller. "Tell her that her kid sister's here and ma says she should get a couple of pounds of liverwurst on her way home."

"They say Boggs is crazy on the subject of golf, and his wife is equally crazy over auction sales."

"Yes, and the funny part of it they both talk in their sleep. The other night a lodger in the next flat heard Boggs shout, 'Fore,' and immediately Mrs. Boggs yelled, 'Four and a quarter.'"

The self-made man was in the midst of his first interview.

"How," inquired the reporter, "did you find time to read in those formative years?"

The self-made man patted his chest.

"I kept a good book open on my desk," said he, "and read it during telephone calls, while holding the line after someone's secretary had said, 'Just a moment, please!'"

An old maid was approached by a welfare worker.

"Will you subscribe for the Homeless Men Fund?"

"No," snapped the old maid. "But I might consider taking one of the men."

Owing to abuse of the privilege, the Librarian suggests that henceforth students will not be expected to use the office telephone in the Billings Library either for calling or receiving calls, the only exception being in the case of official calls. Those desiring to use a telephone will find a pay station in the passageway between the Reading Room and the Apse.

W. A. A. urges all women interested in outdoor sports to bring back skates, snowshoes and skiis with them after Christmas vacation.

VERGENNES PASTOR TO SPEAK IN CHAPEL HERE

The Rev. Charles S. Hagar of Vergennes will address the students and faculty as the concluding speaker of the semester on its weekly program tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The Reverend Hagar is the present pastor of the Congregational Church in Vergennes where he has been located for several years. Previous to his assuming of the duties of that pastorate he was located at Albany, N. Y.

VERMONT STUDENT BODY HAS TOO MANY SCHOOLS

By R. Weissman

"The trouble with the student body is that they are divided into too many schools. What they need is unity. They never get together to go over their songs and cheers. That's why the band has to be the inspiration for the team." Director Joe Lechnyr, of the R. O. T. C. Band was giving the boys what for, after complimenting them on their fine performance at the U. V. M.-Midd. game.

"But the songs have no pep!" sang out Private X., freshman. "The team doesn't feel so hot hearing the band sing 'We'll trim Harvard, We'll trim Yale' when they're on the short end of a score. It's no urge for them."

"Well, why don't you geniuses write some new words to these old songs. There isn't a man here but hasn't the intelligence to do it!" (Laughter.) Middlebury compliments.

The dean of Middlebury College complimented Director Lechnyr on the performance of the two bands at the Panther-Catamount scrap and informed him that, in his opinion, the two bands had more to do with furthering cordial relationships between the two colleges than anyone thing he could name.

As an aftermath of this discussion a member of the R. O. T. C. Band has composed new words to the song known as "Our Colors," including snappy verses for the introduction. It is felt that the new arrangement will bring out the pep and inspiration in the song. Here are the words:

There is a school in Vermont,
Set high upon a hill
It holds a lot of wildcats
Who are looking for BLOOD to SPILL
You FIGHTing HARDy sons of VERmont
Come on!! Let's see you score!
With might
Let's smite the foemen
And lick 'em forevermore!!!!!

Chorus

Say we can lick your Darn'd old team
Just watch our boys turn
On the steam
Rah Rah for Vermont,
Two Rahs for Vermont!
Fighting for Vermont
BOYS, LET'S GO!!!

The man in the club ordered a special whiskey, but complained of its weak quality when it arrived. "Well, sir," said the waiter, "I can only say that it is pre-war, sir."

"Indeed," said the member, "and when are we due for the next war?"

The Freshmen (we capitalize that word the first week) at the University of Florida must enter all buildings by climbing up the walls and in the windows.—News Report.

YEARLINGS WIN 23-17 FROM TROY CONF. ACAD.

Palmer, Skodinski Star on Offence, Schmarr on Defence, With Captain Newcity Shinning for Opponents

POST'S PETS SHINE IN WINNING SEASON'S FIRST

Displaying a powerful attack in the second half, the frosh opened their basketball season in an auspicious manner by tacking a 23-17 defeat on Troy Conference Academy, last Saturday evening at Poultney.

The losers opened up strong, in the first quarter, and were out ahead 6-2 at the end, however the frosh came back and knotted the count 9 all at half time.

The third quarter saw the Kitten attack begin to function and continue clicking through the last period to make the final count 23-17.

Palmer and Skodinski featured on the offence, while Schmarr shined on the defence. Captain Newcity was the shinning light both offensively and defensively for the losers.

"VIC" CHADBURN SCORES 100 IN BOWLING CLASS

High scores made by women in bowling classes last week were as follows: "Vic" Chadburn, graduate, 100; M. Akins '32, 93; T. Appell '33, 78; F. Dodds '34, 77; S. France '35, 97.

Three contests have been held in each bowling section. All four classes competed among themselves, two classes using the two alleys closest to each other.

BAKER IS HOSTESS AT PRACTICE HOUSE NOW

The following girls are at the Practice House this week: Cherolyn Barber '32, hostess; Marilla Putnam '32, assistant hostess; Zoay Bigelow '33, house manager; Margaret Tower '33, cook; Jean Kimloch '34, waitress; Madeline Ansboro '35 and Frances Hiscox '35, freshman assistants.

During an American Legion conference an elderly lady, alarmed by the antics of the Legionnaires, rushed up to a policeman, saying: "Can't you stop them, officer?"

"Lady," responded the cop, sadly, "there's an old man in Europe who tried to do that, and now he's sawing wood in Holland."

Bridget had been discharged. Extracting a $5 bill from her wage roll, she threw it to Fido.

Then the shocked mistress heard her exclaim: "Sur'n I niver forgit a friend; that's fer helpin' me wash the dishes."

The well prepared college hunter who spent two days building a blind was very much put out the other day when he bought his first hunting license and found by the state game laws that it is unlawful to kill birds while sitting.—Daily Kansan.

WINTER SPORTS ATTIRE

Everything you need to wear for Winter Sports

SKI SUITS, SKI BOOTS, MITTENS, TOQUES, SWEATERS, WOOL STOCKINGS

HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.

27 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

TURK'S

Clean Sweep Sale

An annual event awaited by the student body. Suits, Overcoats, Furnishings, Shoes, Robes, reduced.

◆

TURKS Burlington

156-158 College Street

Sober Advice to Freshmen

At the beginning of each year the freshmen class of Yale University is periodically assembled to face a series of lectures courses in social etiquette delivered by outstanding seniors. Each is the head of his respective fund in extra curricular activities. Each lecture while opening up glorious channels of expression to the ambitious and naturally gifted, is a solace talk. Instruction to the obliging men of outside interests dark suited

1932 LECTURE SERIES OF ALLIANCE FRANCAISE

(Continued from page 1)

talk will be

Professor Baldensperger

will give the last of this

Professor Baldensperger

and literature and history of and a

MRS. W. S. WEBB GIVES SET OF ANTIQUE FANS

(Continued from page 1)

A Dutch Representative

From France

Smarter Tones in Men's Overcoats

Ulsters Shorter and Fitted Coats Longer With Increase in Velvet Collar Garments for Outdoors and Business.

CHECK up of the season's football crowds north, south, east and west show a definite trend to shorter ulsters this winter for men's wear. Although the drift was observed in all groups it was most pronounced among college men. Where the prevailing lengths were fifty-two and fifty inches last season this season they are fifty and forty-eight. Many of the fifty inch garments have an all around belt and the forty-eight a half belt.

Fitted and semi-fitted overcoats are reported as longer. The closer bodied coats said to be most popular are from forty-six to forty-eight inches in length. A great many overcoats of soft, fleecy material were observed and not alone in ulster or semi-ulster type. Many of the fine, fleece coats were semi-fitted, with high square shoulders and half-belts.

In conformity with the prevailing color trend in suitings, overcoat colors run mostly to the darker shades, kept in the light, fleecy garments. Brown ulsters and semi-fitted coats have been exceedingly popular and many grays are seen. Even in the fleecy materials, the colors are of the silver sheen on blue or other dark background. Solid blue, in rich dark shades, continues its usual popularity.

A definite trend towards a fitted coat with a velvet collar was observed in the football crowds, especially among college men. These were in the dark shades and seemed to be especially the vogue also among young business men. But a few years out of college. Worn with a Homberg hat, starched, white collar and tie of colorful pattern to set off the dark suit and overcoat, this garment combination makes material for a smart ensemble for outdoors and business.

NOTICE

Humorous and clever snapshots—yes, and those featuring trick photography—are desired by the editors of the Ariel for publication in the 1933 issue. They should be presented to Elizabeth Eckhard or Russell Colburn or some other editorial representative and will be returned if identified by names on the reverse side.

An error in the volume number of the Cynic which was made in the issue of April 20, 1918 has been corrected in the issue of January 8. The correct volume for the current year is number 49 instead of 50.

Women on the faculty and among the graduate students who are interested in the formation of a basketball team are requested to meet at 4 o'clock this evening in the women's athletic office.

All students who have not received either their proof or any pictures they may have ordered, please communicate with Russell Colburn '33.

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2870, 2871, 2872

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

To MEN only!

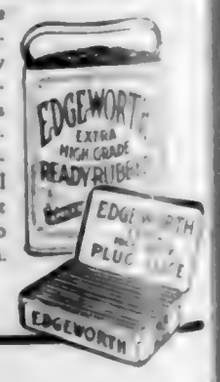
NO NEED to park a "Girls Keep Out" at the top of this advertisement. They'll shy off quick enough when they find out what it's about.

For it's a strictly masculine privilege—solace, satisfaction, retreat, call it what you will—the joy of smoking a pipe!

It's the smoke "for men only." Any girl will agree it's one of the few rights the women haven't crowded us on. And the only smoke for men, many a thoughtful smoker calls it. For the consolation, the rare comradeship, a mellow, well-aged pipeful and something every man does well to

She likes to see him smoke a pipe

And you taste the rich satisfaction of pipe smoking at its best when you fill up your bowl with Edgeworth. That's tobacco that's made for a pipe. Cut dry, slow-burning. Blended of fine mellow, full-flavored burleys.



You've a rare smoke coming if you've never tried Edgeworth. You will find Edgeworth at your tobacco dealer's. Or send for special free sample packet if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Virginia.

He needs his pipe

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

JANUARY SALES
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE
on NOVELTIES
and JEWELRY
-

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1932 — NUMBER 29

KE USE OF THE FIVE GNS OF WISDOM SAYS SHATFORD AT VESPERS

treal Canon Urges Vision, th, Humility, Reverence and Sacrifice in Talk

CTOR CHOOSES SUBJECT ON FEAST OF SCHOLARS

the five manifestations vision, faith, humility, sacrifice—and go to is the city of heart's Canon Allan P. Shat- the vesper services last the Ira Allen Chapel. ays," the speaker said, wisdom of the wise men star to Bethlehem and ne infant Jesus."

Feast of Scholars

who is rector of the James the Apostle in ed that he had chosen fitting to the feast of he liked to think of as ars.

wise men," he said, sdom in the way they their eyes, their feet, their hands."

their wisdom in using Shatford said that they of the star as well as The foolish see canvas nted out, "but the wise artist: the foolish see lath while the wise see great the foolish see rows of the wise see the meaning of The wise men had vision and externals.

showed their wisdom in the star. They did not wait nt scene, as one step at was enough for them. All great ories," the speaker declared, "were by persons who cared to take the step trusting that the way would ared to them step by step as went along, not by those who had until everything was mapped out start to finish."

freely confessing their ignorance asking for further guidance when reached Bethlehem in order to find Babe they manifested wisdom in their tongues. The wise of all times were who have come to a realization their own ignorance. The wise al- kneel before the great mysteries are beyond their ken. And the wise men showed further wisdom in their knees when they knelt be- the Babe in the manger.

The wise men used their hands wise- when they came bringing gold, incense and myrrh," the speaker ed, "it is not necessary to go the symbolism of these gifts," Rev. Shatford said. "It was enough that the men were the best things their coun- could afford." The wise besides the custom of revering what they gave them, also devote to the spirit of the inspiration the best gifts can bring.

EETING OF ALLIANCE TO HEAR GASTON GILLE

Gaston Gille, of the College of City of New York, will introduce 1932 lecture series of the Alliance when he talks on Aristide January 15, in the audi- Fleming Museum. This ture to be sponsored by in collaboration with versity of Vermont, this year.

Monsieur Gille has always had an in- and has followed its closely. He participated of the Bureau d'Etudes Geneva in 1926, and the tenth session of the at Williamstown in Gille will answer from any question regarding The discussion will be French assignments for fea- been posted in the Y should be given to on or before Feb-

Club held a meeting, ary 12, at 1.30 in the to make plans for fu-

The Ben Greet Players

The name "Ben Greet" has stood for many years as a warranty of Shakesperian performance of high excellence, and it was gratifying to discover that the name has not lost its power; that the white-haired Sir Philip still gathers about him players who do the name honor. The afternoon presentation was memorable because of the work of several individuals and equally memorable as a composite whole; noteworthy for the beauty and simple effectiveness of a presentation in which Roman togas only partially concealed gay Elizabethan costumes which stood out against the background of plain velvet curtains. It was not too difficult to imagine oneself a member of an afternoon audience in the London of Sidney and Raleigh who had crossed the Thames on a sunny afternoon and at three o'clock made his way to a strangely devised, six-sided wooden building in Bankside, the new Globe Theater.

The outstanding performance was, of course, given by Russell Thorndike as Brutus. It may perhaps be because this play is less often given that it seemed that Thorndike's Brutus was a greater piece of work than his Hamlet. Certain it is that this member of a famous actor family, brother of Sybil Thorndike, made the "noblest Roman of them all" live again in all his dignity and spiritual power. The contrast of temperament between this stoic and Cassius was sufficiently emphasized in the acting of W. E.

(Continued on page 4)

ENGLISH TENOR TO GIVE FIRST IN RECITAL SERIES

Steuart Wilson, to be Here February 4, Will Open Annual University Music Program

Steuart Wilson, English tenor, will give a vocal recital, the first of the series of concerts and recitals annually sponsored by the University, in the gymnasium on Thursday, February 4. Students and members of the faculty will be able to secure free tickets on application at the University Store beginning February 1.

Mr. Wilson's tentative program, announced by Professor Bennett of the Music Department, is as follows:

1. a. Aria from Church Cantata 93, Man hatte nur.....Handel
   b. Total Eclipse (from "Samson") Handel
2. Songs from "The Maid of the Mill" (in English) .....Schubert
   (Die Schoen Muellerin)
3. Three Shakespeare Songs
   a. O Mistress Mine
      Arr. by Elizabeth Maconchy
   b. Take, O Take
      John Wilson (1600)
   c. It was a Lover
      Arr. by Edmond H. Fellowes
4. Miscellaneous Folk Songs

Mr. Wilson

Although a young man, Mr. Steuart Wilson has lived a rather full life. He is one of those fortunate individuals who have been able to turn their hobby into their profession. Educated as a classical scholar at Winchester and the University of Cambridge, he was about to enter upon his professional career in 1914 when the war interrupted. He had an eventful career in the army, was twice seriously wounded, and received a decoration.

Then in 1919 he was at the "bottom of the ladder" again. However, it was not long before he was recognized, possibly because of his translations of Schubert and Schumann songs, and in five or six years his position in England's musical world was firmly established.

His first visit to this country was in November, 1929, when he made a tour to schools and colleges under the auspices of the School Concert Series. He again visited the United States in the fall of 1930. In all he has appeared before 120 schools and colleges and is well prepared to judge the tastes of the American college audience.

What seems to distinguish Mr. Steuart Wilson from other singers is his exclusive knowledge of music as a whole and his deep background of culture in the classical arts. People who have heard him are affected more strongly by his personality and his powers of interpretation than by his voice.

Professor Bennett Recommends

Professor Bennett, who heard Mr. Wilson sing at the convention of the Music Teachers National Association in Cincinnati said, "I enjoyed Mr. Wilson's program very much. Hs is an especially vivid interpreter."

Mr. Wilson has received many favorable press comments. Olin Downes of the New York Times said of him: "It was a pleasure to hear such an unusual program. . . . Mood, sentiment, and a deep understanding of the poetry of music, these qualities Mr. Steuart Wilson's audience was quick to appreciate."

Samuel Chotzinoff, formerly of the New York World, wrote: "Steuart Wilson is a nice-looking Englishman with a tenor voice. He must not, however, be judged by his voice which is in no way remarkable, but just a simple, unassuming, English voice. What is remarkable about Mr. Steuart Wilson is

(Continued on page 3)

TURKEY'S REFORMS WILL BE TOPIC OF W. B. WILEY

Traveling Secretary of Student Volunteer Movement to be Here Evening of February 17

Walter B. Wiley, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, will lecture at the University of Vermont Fleming Museum on the evening of February 17. His topic will be Turkey's Reforms. Mr. Wiley comes here under the auspices of the V. C. A. and the International Relations Club.

Dartmouth Graduate

Walter B. Wiley received his B.A. degree from Dartmouth College in 1918. During the academic year of 1919-20 he served for a few months as a Traveling Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement. In the spring of 1920 he went to Turkey as a tutor, but the disturbances in that region following the war compelled him to return after about a year and a half. He then took graduate work at Andover Seminary and completed his theological training at Yale Divinity School in 1924.

Social Reformer

In the fall of the same year he and his wife again sailed for Turkey under the American Board. In Marash, where drink and prostitution exact a heavy toll because amusement must be found either in the public coffee houses or in the red light centers, Mr. Wiley is introducing clean sport. He plays volley ball, basketball, baseball and tennis with the young men of the town. He gives English lessons, starts little libraries of decent books, opens his splendid home to social evenings, and in many other ways works through the power of his fine Christian personality.

During his furlough year Mr. Wiley has consented to visit a few schools under the auspices of the Student Volunteer Movement. He is well qualified to interpret the complex and rapid changes in the Near East to audiences in America. He is eager to share with college students his own deep interest in world wide conditions

JOHN DEWEY CLUB WILL INITIATE TWENTY-FIVE

About twenty-five men and women who have accepted the recent invitations to membership are to be initiated into the John Dewey Club at 5.15 o'clock this afternoon in the Marsh Room.

Following the initiatory ceremony they will attend the banquet being held in their honor at the Greenebowl on Pearl Street. It is expected about thirty-five members will be present.

The beliefs of Josiah Royce, American theistic philosopher, will be discussed by Prof. A. R. Gifford of the department of philosophy. Prof. George B. Dykhuizen, also of that department, will defend the credo of America's foremost pragmatic educational philosopher, John Dewey. A forum period will close the evening's program.

DEBATERS NEXT OPPOSE CLARK AND B. U. TEAMS

Clark University of Worcester, Mass., and Buds, the oldest debating society of Boston University, will be the next two opponents of the varsity debating team on 30th and February 1, respectively, in Massachusetts. Paul LaCross, James Bigelow, and Peardon Donaghy will comprise the team that will go.

At Clark University the Tau Kappa Alpha subject for this year will be debated, while at Buds the topic, Resolved, that the world has gone to the dogs, will be discussed with Vermont taking the affirmative in both cases.

Debates Scheduled

In the middle of February, Hamilton College of Clinton, N. Y., will appear at Vermont, while at the close of February the team travels to Springfield, Mass., and Plymouth, N. H., on a two day week-end trip. On March 9 the strong N. Y. U. college team will come to Burlington, and shortly afterwards, Union College of Schenectady, N. Y. Paul J. LaCross, debate manager, states that the annual Easter trip has been planned and contracts already sent to the colleges. The actual schedule will be released soon for publication in the Vermont Cynic.

Kake Walk Holds Sway With Exam Schedules in Campus Conversation

As examinations approach, Kake Walk, the event unique at U. V. M., takes its place as a topic for campus conversation. Intermingled with talk of revised schedules and the last minute rush for pre-exam requirements, student voices sound forth in varied discussions of new ideas for stunt and Kake Walking which will feature this year's Kake Walk, the thirty-fifth annual festivity to be presented in the University gymnasium.

This year's directors, George Everett Wilder '32 and James W. Marvin '32, state that they want the cooperation of all University students in making the thirty-fifth event a success.

They have recently issued the list of committees and their chairmen, who, together with the assistant directors, unite in supervising, ushering and seating, of spectators, lighting the hall, advertising the events and directing the Peerade, stunts and Kake Walking.

Floats May Be Smaller

Few changes will be made in the presentation of the Kake Walk but there is a possibility according to the directors that floats in the peerade will be smaller because of lack of space in the gymnasium. Preparations have been going on for three weeks and another week will probably bring the announcement of the list of judges who will eliminate stunts and award prizes on basis of originality according to an enumerated system.

Eight fraternities whose chance to participate comes this year will present their stunts to a preliminary committee of judges who will choose six to take part in the festival.

Sub-freshmen

In addition to students, faculty, and townspeople who make up the audience, the directors expect about one hundred senior boys from the different Vermont high schools to accept the University's invitation to attend the Kake Walk at the University's expense. As in the past the sub-freshmen will be quartered in the dormitories and fraternity houses during their stay in the city.

Last year the darkened gymnasium, as the scene of action, held forth a number of highly original floats in the peerade, with the award going to Kappa Sigma for its "Kake Walk Conditioner," the stunt prize to Sigma Phi, who presented "Peking's Prodigal," and the individual cup going to R. F. Kenyon '33 representing the Cynic.

Other floats depicted in the peerade ridiculed with burlesques on miniature golf, the coffee corner, Lucky Strikes, The Evil of Tatling, Scene on a Football Stadium, Crime and the Sport of the '80's.

The stunts in their scenes roamed the globe from China to Hollywood and carried such names as "A Catalyptic Cataclysm," "The World's Gone Miniature," "The Verbose Triangle" and "Parlor, Bedroom and Sink."

Cotton Babes

To render the atmosphere "Kake Walkish," Joe Lechnyr and his R. O. T. C. band will be present to make the gymnasium ring with the scintillating strains of Cotton Babes, the song unique heard at Kake Walks only.

Following the presentations of stunts on the second night the awards of cups and cakes which are constantly swelling in number each year, will be awarded to the winners.

Mason Grower '32 will be official announcer this year with Clarence Brown '33 and Fraser Drew '33 as assistant directors.

C. D. BOOTH TO LECTURE ON DISARMAMENT TOPIC AT MUSEUM FEBRUARY 2

Carnegie Peace Endowment Speaker Will Be Here Opening Day of Geneva Conference

I. R. C. SPONSORS TALK IN DISCUSSION SERIES

A representative of the Royal Institute of International Affairs in England, C. Douglas Booth, is to deliver a speech on the disarmament question, the day of the opening of the World Disarmament Conference at Geneva, Tuesday, February 2, in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. Mr. Booth will appear here under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; while the lecture is one of the International Relations Club's series.

Varied Career

C. Douglas Booth, traveler, publicist, lecturer, authority on Balkan affairs, who has spent a number of years in the Near East and the Balkans collecting political and economic material for a new book, will visit the International Relations Clubs during the winter of 1932. Mr. Booth is a member of the Royal Institute of International Affairs in England, to whom he submits fortnightly reports on his findings, and before whom he often delivers lectures upon international questions. He has also spent some time in study at the Academy of International Law at the Hague.

Scholar

Among his articles is a paper on "The Political Situation in Southeastern Europe," presented before the Institute, and published in the Journal of the Royal Institute of International Affairs. "Italy's Aegean Possessions," published in 1928, is also well known in the United States, as are his articles written for the American Peace Society of Washington, D. C., and published in The Advocate of Peace.

Traveler

Mr. Booth was born in Canada and educated at St. Andrew's College, Toronto, and at Loyola University. During the war he held the rank of Major in His Majesty's Forces. He has devoted seven years to the study of Mediterranean and Balkan problems, and has resided or traveled in Morocco, Egypt, Rhodes, Patmos, Athens and Belgrade.

Lecturer

His lecturing experience is varied and includes considerable political work for the National Liberal Party of England, work in the United States for Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives while with H. M. Forces during the war, and later experience lecturing in both England and the United States on international relations. Two years ago he visited more than fifty of the International Relations Clubs in the colleges and universities of the South and Middle West under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment.

VACCINATION NO LONGER AN EXPERIMENT SAYS DR.

Dr. Katherine McSweeney in her lecture to freshman girls on January 11 stated that this is no longer an experimental stage in smallpox vaccination. When this disease formerly came into a community it was a sure death warrant. Now the vaccine has been so perfected that each person owes it to himself to safeguard not only his own health but that of his neighbor by the process of vaccination.

People have said that a loss of the arm and even of life is the result of this practice. However, an occurrence such as this is very rare; that it is extremely unusual is evinced by the fact that 6,000,000 have been vaccinated in the army and navy without any disastrous results. Furthermore, the U. S. Public Health Service is charged with examining and testing vaccines. The service accredits them so that none can be offered to interstate commerce unless a license is received.

Preventive steps may also be taken for such diseases as typhoid fever, diphtheria, scarlet fever and infantile paralysis.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The Official Student Newspaper of the University of Vermont

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITORS

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Associate Editor

NEWS EDITORS

GENERAL NEWS

[illegible]

SPORTS NEWS

[illegible]

WOMEN'S NEWS

[illegible]

FEATURE DEPARTMENT

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

[illegible]

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible]

COLUMNIST

[illegible]

TYPIST

[illegible]

REPORTERS

General News [illegible]

Sports News [illegible]

Women's News [illegible]

News Editor for this issue S. N. Spiller

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

[illegible] Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager
[illegible] Assistant Manager
[illegible] Assistant Manager

[illegible] published weekly during the college year. Subscription $4.00 a year. [illegible] Advertising rates will be agreed to by the writer and addressed to the Business Manager, Cynic Office, Billings Hall. Any Cynic reporter should be handed in at the Cynic office, Billings Hall, by 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.

[illegible] entered at the postoffice at Burlington, Vt., as second class matter under the act of March 3, 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate provided for in Section [illegible] Act of [illegible], 1918 authorized October 14, 1919.

[illegible] Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] January 17, 1940 Number 20

Review of "The Winnowings"

By Phillips D Carleton

[illegible]

THE MUSE CONVERSES

Examinations

O students of U. V. M., why so [illegible] With the preoccupied [illegible] studied gesture. It [illegible] the [illegible] adventures. [illegible] [illegible] remembrance from the [illegible] about work these things [illegible] subjects. It is? How absurd! [illegible] study, try to parse and [illegible] comment to see the [illegible] of [illegible] current events.

Consider and see that there is worry about. In the [illegible] the term you were given [illegible] you might study or [illegible] suggest that study. If you [illegible] you know the work anyway [illegible] nothing to worry about.

If you [illegible] student [illegible] yourselves you may [illegible] cram for a few days and [illegible] days you may not cram. If [illegible] conscientiously for the stated [illegible] learn the stuff and pass [illegible] there will be nothing to worry [illegible]

If you don't cram, you still [illegible] alternatives you may try to [illegible] exam questions out of the [illegible] is usually almost impossible [illegible] always worth trying), or again [illegible] get. If you succeed in pumping [illegible] learn the questions, all's well [illegible] and there is nothing to worry [illegible]

If you don't succeed, or don't [illegible] method, there yet remain two [illegible] tives for you: you may try [illegible] through the quiz or you may not [illegible] succeed in bluffing through the [illegible] you're through with the subject [illegible] there is nothing to worry about.

If you fail in your bluff and [illegible] exam you can always come back [illegible] take the course over again next [illegible] So you see there is really nothing [illegible] worry about.

American That's an owl.

Englishman. Hi know hit's an 'owl, but 'oo in 'ell's 'owling name Tech Puppet.

And there's the case of the Scotch [illegible] producer who got rich from his [illegible] features. — Brown Kitty-Kat

What do you do for a living?

I work in a burlesque show.

Shake. — Penn State Lion

And there was the brilliant [illegible] who thought that a steeple- [illegible] pencil sharpener and the church [illegible] — Dartmouth Last Call

Ten Timely Topics

Take Fantasy Trend

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

RMAN PROFESSOR WILL E UNIVERSITY LECTURER

...of the Uni... will be the ... University lecture ...ver as his sub... Modern Civilization" ... at 8 o'clock, Feb... ...ing Museum ...ented through the ... Schurz Memorial ...oon with the Ger... the University lec... ...ture tour of Pro... ...s being given to com... ...ealth anniversary of ... speaker has visited ...d times previously. ...change professor at ...s 1906-08-09 and as ... Schurz at the Uni... ...n in 1912-13.

GLISH TENOR TO GIVE FIRST IN RECITAL SERIES

(Continued from page 1)

...y artistic things with

Diction Perfect

... this artist knows how ... music in such a man... ...ener may not, for once, ...ere first, but takes it ... both were born at the ... compared with the ... more celebrated singers ... Wilson's diction is ...ect. Another of his ...us is a musical taste. ... another is charm— and ...on's charm is based on ... enables him to gain his ...understatement—a meth... ...th all the ordinary tricks ...

...'s got eighteen legs and ... baseball team.—Reserve Red

Time Out

Time Out is here with a vengeance! Mid-terms has stepped looming on the horizon and has arrived in all its pristine glory. Again we ask, a little plaintively this time, how many yearlings will be back with us after this test period? Will the report wielding a red pencil "rub out" these gentlemen already inclined? A word of warning to you athletes who are on the border line. Don't try to crab your professors. There is a grand tradition on this campus that a student accepts his mark with fortitude. There are no favors asked and none are given. You as sportsmen should know that there is no appeal from the umpire's decision. Take it and like it. You have had your chance.

—time out—

Sports news is scarce and how it is scarce. Old man frost has not been too kind. Thusly hockey was hors de combat. Fencing is ipso facto defuncto although a trip is being planned to Montreal. Although you're not asking us we are telling you that here is good money thrown away. To our knowledge the team has done very little this year and if they merit a trip on past seasons records then accept our application for a Phi Bete key. This brings us to basketball, which is an oasis on the horizon. Unfortunately as the game is played so close to the dead line it cannot appear in this issue.

Bluestockings held a meeting Wednesday, January 13, at the Kappa Alpha Theta House, at which time the new members were elected. They will be announced in the next issue of the CYNIC.

Constable: Pardon, Miss, but there ain't no swimmin' allowed in this lake.

Donnia: Why didn't you tell me before I undressed?

Constable: There isn't any law against undressing!—Clarkson Green Griffin.

Athletic Journal Pays Glowing Tribute to Dr. L. J. Cooke, '94

...Athletic Journal devoted ... sports pays a glowing tribute ... Dr. Louis J. Cooke who obtained ... M D. from U. V. M. in 1894.

...present capacity at the Uni... of Minnesota as assistant director of physical education for men, as well as director of ticket sales and lecturer, he has carved himself a niche which would make any man proud to possess.

It seems Doctor Cooke was born on February 15, 1868, and the University of Minnesota on February 18, 1868. But what are three short days to Minnesota minds. They revere the doings of both their alma mater and of Doctor Cooke in one thought, for his age is figured just that of the university and his work outstanding.

Before he came to earn his degree at Vermont he went to the Y. M. C. A. Training School at Springfield, Mass. For seven or eight years after graduation he served as Y. M. C. A. physical director in Burlington and several cities in the Middle West.

His Minnesota history dates from 1897. During this time he has held the posts of director of the gymnasium, medical examiner and physical director. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa, a chapter of which he installed at Minnesota in 1898, of Alpha Sigma Phi, and Sigma Xi.

The article goes on to praise Doctor Cooke for enormous tasks he has undertaken at various times. He has, singlehanded, developed the entire physical education system of the university.

His interest in all sports has been apparent but basketball has shown him a wizard from the imagination of the game. The Doctor developed intramural and intercollegiate basketball. His success was pronounced when in 1901-02 he played a schedule of fifteen games without a single loss. In 1902-03 he was again successful winning the entire thirteen games of the schedule. Just to show the East that something could come from the Mid-west, he brought his team on a national trip to the East coast and played nine games in eleven days against major colleges.

Small wonder it is that on March 8 1926, the M Club sponsored a dinner in honor of Doctor Cooke and with all his basketball boys there he was presented with a regulation size silver basketball bearing the names of every player who had earned an M during the twenty-eight years of service. The M Club presented a fine gold watch and the Athletic Council awarded an M blanket and an honorary M.

We know that much as he prizes the material awards, "Doc" Cooke fondly remembers the host of friendly shadows which present themselves to him now and again, reminding him of the many contacts made with the hosts of U. of M boys to whom he has become endeared.

The Mystic Pen

UNDER THE COVERS

Following up a deserved success with her 1930 Pulitzer prize novel, Years of Grace, Margaret Ayer Barnes has produced a second novel that is epic in conception, design and sympathetic treatment.

Mrs. Barnes, who, five years ago had not a line of literary accomplishment to her credit, has developed an unusual situation in an unusual manner, lending an air of sensible power to the motion of her story. Instead of encompassing forty years, as did Years of Grace, Westward Passage is highly concentrated on seven days—Tuesday of one week through Monday of the next. Each chapter has its name day, and we are forced to express admiration of an author, who, while sympathetically handling a stream of consciousness that borders closely on first person reminiscence, can so effectively and unstiltedly mold into seven sharp chronological stages the incidents of a warm and moving action, establish definitely the background which gives depth and color, and build numerous characters into a vivid life, in the difficult medium of indirection.

Olivia, the center of the story, is a middle-aged woman. The idea of her being recaptured at this stage by the charm of her former husband while on a west-bound liner in mid-Atlantic is all the more poignant when we consider that such love is certain, if successful, to be strong and lasting; if not, to be held as extremely disastrous and evidence of a degenerate and hopeless fickleness. The meeting on the liner of former husband and wife is quite accidental. Olivia has re-married, of course, into the wealth which her struggling author-first-husband could not give her, and yet she is faced with the disturbing prospect of having to come in daily contact with him. Now a successful and glamorous author, he awakens a romantic mood in Olivia.

Complications in the persons of little Olivia, child of the first marriage, and the two children of the second, make Olivia's problem a torture. Arrived at New York, in the scenes of the old days of courtship and struggle, Olivia decides to run away with Nick to his Vermont workshop.

The result of that hasty overthrow of a carefully built security of family and social position is as interesting as it is unique and human.

Mrs. Barnes writes easily and completely. She finds the words which delineate her mood and uses them. An effective device in her hands is the use of italicizing to produce a peculiar emphatic effect in the introspective scenes. The dialogue is intensely real and human. This book will be especially interesting to many because considerable of the action takes place around Bennington, Vt. (Houghton, Mifflin, Pubs. $2.50.)

"Did you know that Carnera lost thirty-five pounds?"

"Yeh, he had a manicure."—Dartmouth Jack-o-Lantern

Another good place for zipper fasteners would be on string beans.—Nebraska Awgwan

DUKE UNIVERSITY
School of Medicine
DURHAM, N. C.

Applications for admission to the first and third year medical classes entering October 1, 1932 should be sent as soon as possible, and will be considered in the order of receipt. The entrance qualifications are intelligence, character, two years of college work and the requirements for grade A medical schools. Catalogues and application forms may be obtained from the Dean.

SYMPHONY TO PRESENT SECOND CONCERT SUNDAY

Burlington's Symphony Orchestra, one of the few representing a city of this size boasting almost complete orchestration, will give its second concert of the season Sunday, January 17, at the Memorial Auditorium.

This organization is now ten years old and during that time has given many concerts of great merit. The works chosen are from the old masters of symphony writing and also occasionally a composition from a more modern minded musician. The next program offers works of Beethoven, Rossini, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Strauss, Delibes, and Brahms, certainly an array to please all tastes.

Under Lechnyr's Baton

The orchestra is under the leadership of J. E. Lechnyr whose ability as a conductor is well known in college circles. His enthusiasm and experience have enabled him to gather and hold most of the city's leading musicians under his baton. The membership is further augmented by several members of the faculty and student body including Misses Frieda Harris, Doris Brown, Jeannette Jerome, Priscilla Perry, Ruth Wood, and M. B. Jenks, N. L. Raymond, C. A. Rogers, D. W. Jenks, R. S. Jenks, R. H. Cowles and F. Foster.

Miss Marian Keeler

The soloist for the coming concert is Miss Marian Keeler, soprano. Miss Keeler was for some years in the Eastman School of Music where she was in much demand for opera and concert singing. Later she sang at Roxy's Theatre in New York, with such success that she gave a request appearance in Washington, D. C., for Col. Charles Lindbergh and later for the inaugural festivities of President Hoover. Miss Keeler is charming and vivacious and has excellent stage personality as well as a beautiful voice.

As the concert comes on Sunday, tickets are not sold at the door but may be secured at student rates from any member of the orchestra, or at the Bookstore.

ALICE HOYT '34, WILL HEAD WINTER CARNIVAL

Alice Hoyt '34 is chairman of the winter carnival to be held at Redstone on either the 24, 25 or 26 of February. There will be events in skating, skiing, snowshoeing and running. Ten days before the carnival a paper will be posted in the Y room for signatures of those wishing to enter events. The interest shown in this occasion will determine whether or not the carnival is to take place. Everyone is urged to take an active part; or, at least, to come and make the event a success.

"I've been wanting to kiss you for an hour!"

"Well, forty-five minutes more of this one and you'll make it."—Brown Jug

Here's to the greatest gambler of all time—Lady Godiva. She put everything she had on a horse.—Witt

NOTICE

SENIORS

All senior reading reports are due at the office of the English department not later than tomorrow noon, January 16.

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

January Sale
All items of merchandise substantially reduced.
SUITS - - $25.00 and up
OVERCOATS 25% off
• • • •
HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.
127 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

JANUARY SALES
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE
on NOVELTIES
and
JEWELRY

SUITS & OVERCOATS
at
JANUARY CLEARANCE PRICES
$19.75 to $42.75
For $25 to $55 grades
Miles & Perry Company
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Since 1898

BETTER Clothes are Unobtainable.
—BURBERRY —LANGROCK
—HIGHGATE —SOCIETY BRAND
SUITS and O'COATS
in the Clean Sweep Sale
TURKS Burlington
156-158 College Street

THE BEN GREET PLAYERS

(continued from page 1)

Review of "Hamlet"

TELEPHONE 1613

Star Restaurant

Chinese and American Food

144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the

U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor

All Work Guaranteed

COLLEGE SUPPLIES

U. V. M. DIE-STAMPED STATIONERY

BANNERS PILLOW TOPS

McAULIFFE'S

Church & College Sts.

Phone 629

PRESTON'S TRADE IN WATCH SALE

During January we will make a special allowance on your old watch toward a new one. Why not consider a new watch now?

We are showing many new styles and makes. We will gladly appraise your watch for allowance toward a new one

F. J. Preston & Son

INCORPORATED

JEWELERS

17 Upper Church Street

BURLINGTON, VT.

SIGMA GAMMA

[illegible] was initiated on [illegible] 5 and a supper was served at the house [illegible] was entertained the active members, patronesses [illegible] 10 [illegible] 28 and Sister and Brother [illegible] he were in town over the week-end.

KAPPA DELTA

The following girls were initiated [illegible] Dorothy [illegible] Esther [illegible] Kendall '33.

[illegible] part. It is seem[illegible] master [illegible] But for the general [illegible] speaker, more [illegible] athletics [illegible] recently over[illegible] accident, by [illegible] hangings, by a sense [illegible] English

PROF. P. D. EVANS SPEAKS AT COLCHESTER MEETING

Prof. Paul D. Evans head[illegible] eccnts history department, was speaker at the brotherhood [illegible] the United Church at [illegible] Tuesday evening.

Taking as his theme "The [illegible] Russian Plan and What It [illegible] America," Professor Evans p[illegible] that activities in the Soviet regi[illegible] a real bearing upon the [illegible] No nation he stated, can live [illegible] art in this age of science [illegible] transportation.

Kissing your wife is like [illegible] play that doesn't itch. — Life

GREETING CARDS

For All Occasions

ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP

182A Church St.

NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS

GOVE the Florist

184 Main St. Burlington

BOSTONIANS Shoes for Men

B. J. BOYNTON

Shoes for the Family

65 Church Street

Burlington, Vt.

Copr. 1935 The American Tobacco Co.

"There are no better cigarettes"

HE BOBBED UP SMILING

Bob Montgomery has been on iron worker, deck hand, railroad mechanic and a boxed-at extra in Hollywood . . . He zoomed to the top in noise-reels because the gals were cuh-razy over his grin . . . And they'll go completely zoozy when they see him in his latest M-G-M, "PRIVATE LIVES" . . . He's stuck to LUCKIES these last 7 years . . . Not a buffalo nickel was paid for his statement . . . He gave it just for a pleasant "Thank You."

"I have always used LUCKIES—as far as I am concerned there are no better cigarettes—congratulations also on your improved Cellophane wrapper with that little tab that opens your package so easily."

Robert Montgomery

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

The Vermont Cynic

LUME 49 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1932 | NUMBER 30

ditorial Board Accepts Constitutional Merit System

de Cynic Merger Results From Joint Meeting of Boards—lections Removed From Traditional Politics—Constitution Rewards Personal Initiative and Lightens Editorial Duties

RNALISM STEP MEETS ITH HEARTY APPROVAL

a half century of politics as the ... choosing the candidates for ... the editorial board gave way ... when a new constitution ... adopted in the first joint meeting of ...'s and women's boards held ... afternoon, January 14.

... same meeting the merger of the ... editorial, and sports boards which ... been under separate responsi... with the women's board was ef... and provision made for the es... of a standard journalism ... for the use of the editors and ...

... constitution was drawn up by the ... committee comprising, J. C. Car... E. Bigelow, and S. N. Spiller, ... in executive conference with ... Harlow, the women's editor. The ... was presented at the meet... and adopted by an almost unanimous ... become effective Monday, January ... 1932

... to the adoption of the con... and the inauguration of the ... system, men and women had tried ... reporters and been promoted on ... bases. Before the method of ... qualitative inches of copy to ... was instituted under the regime ... Lisman in 1930, every officer ... higher editorships by the vote of ... board

... the new system a grade is given ... recognizes the exact amount of ... copy and the grade earned on a ... journalism examination.

Meets Approval

... constitution," states J. C. Carter, ... editor, "provides definite ... requirements for members of ... board, centralizes responsi... in the editor-in-chief, divides the ... of the publication among the men ... women and should create keener ... It makes unfair practice of ... impossible, assures that the most ... men and women will be elected, ... considerably the routine duties ... editors, gives every fresh... chance for promotion and should ... THE CYNIC a splendid journalism ... school."

... Leon W. Dean of the English ... the faculty advisor of THE ... when interviewed, stated: "It's ... thing that has ever been done for ... CYNIC."

How It Works

... is made for bi-weekly meet... the board at which principles of ... and the duties of the reporters ... will be discussed. Men and ... will cover the news on the cam... according to the standards ... prescribed style sheet.

... of reporters from the try-... will be made on the basis of per... grades derived partly from the ... amount of work which each has ... and in part from an examination on ... general news writing. Promo... the higher positions will be in a ... manner with more advanced ex... conducted by an examination ... comprising the senior editorial ... and the faculty advisor. Thus ... will be attained and held purely ... objective of the individual.

... members of the board during the ... years that they are connected with ... THE VERMONT CYNIC will ... experience in news reporting, edi... make-up work, writing headlines, ... and editorials, besides directing ... general policy of the paper and learn... the principles of newspaper work.

... semi-weekly ... divided among the mem... and reportorial staffs. ... reporters will take gen... to cover news beats ... These will be given ... editors in a system of rota... for even distribution ... news editors are in ... copy each issue, one ... primarily in charge of the ... and delivery of copy

Examination Committee

... senior editors serve with ... in the conduct of ex... the promotion of board ... offices: Editor-in-..., managing editor, ... recording editor.

DEWEY CLUB INITIATES 21 NEW MEMBERS AT SERVICE LAST MONTH

Group Hears Gifford and Dykhuizen in Interesting Philosophic Comparison

Twenty-one new members were formally initiated into the John Dewey Club Friday evening, January 15, in a Marsh Room ceremony which preceded a banquet in their honor at the Greenebowl on Pearl Street. The initiates chosen from students securing high grades in philosophy or psychology are as follows:

Calista Pecue, Vergennes; Mabel M. Farquhar, Bethel; Marion V. Urie, Craftsbury; Mildred Hastings, St. Johnsbury; Edith Wyman, Arlington; Jennie Needham, Brandon; Elsie Tryon, Proctor; Edna E. Herridon, Staatsburg, N. Y., Mary E. Mandigo, Barton; Virginia A. Goodenough, Jewett City, Conn.; Roberta F. Powers, Morrisville; Doris H. Skinner, St. Johnsbury, Alice M. Brooks, Swanton; Crystal M. Lawes, Ossining, N. Y.; and I. A. Agel, Burlington; G. W. Patterson, Vergennes; A. A. Maislen, Hartford, Conn.; M. Bergman, Burlington; H. Greenblat, New Britain, Conn.; H. Albert, Waterbury, Conn., and S. B. Barker, Montclair, N. J.

Dewey versus Royce

After the banquet Prof. A. R. Gifford briefly delineated the beliefs of Josiah Royce, America's theistic philosopher, and traced the influences which tended to mold Royce's philosophic assumptions. Prof. George Dykhuizen, speaking on John Dewey, brought out clearly Dewey's main philosophic beliefs and showed the sharp differences between Royce's absolutestic standards and Dewey's socially progressive views. Both speakers were interrogated at the end of their discourses by the student members present, a procedure which is usually followed at all meetings so as to bring out the student's own viewpoint on matters of philosophic importance. J. C. Carter, president of the club, introduced the speakers and presided at the initiation ceremonies.

FRESHMEN ELIGIBLE FOR GREY FRIARS SOCIETY

Men's Literary Group Offers Membership to Campus Writers In All Classes

"Eligibility for membership in Grey Friars, the Vermont literary society, has, since the passing of the mid-year examinations, been extended to members of the freshman class," states F. W. Householder '32, president of the organization. There are numerous benefits to be derived from the society and all freshmen are urged to consider seriously the opportunity to receive membership into the group.

The present active members are: S. B. Barker '32; A. L. Bartlett '33; C. Carter '32; F. P. Colburn '34; F. W. Householder '32; R. W. Hyde '35, Med.; P. J. LaCross '32; W. G. McDonald '33; and S. Z. Pelofsky '32. Professors Frederick Tupper and Leon W. Dean of the English Department here are honorary members.

Membership in the society, which was founded in the spring of 1928 for the purpose of promoting the appreciation and interest in literature among the students, is limited to sixteen active members which are, as nearly as possible equally divided among the four classes.

There is an opportunity for any man who is interested in literary work and who can so demonstrate his ability to become a member of this select group. The requirements for membership are that two manuscripts dealing in different fields of literature be presented to one of the active members for reading and criticism at the next meeting. The subjects to be written on include poetry, essays, short stories, or sketches.

(Continued on page 6)

SORORITIES OPEN DOORS FOR FRESHMAN WOMEN UNDER REVISED RULES

Season To Last Fifteen Days With Open Houses, Teas and Rushing

CONFERENCE DELEGATES TO MEET AT FOUR TODAY

Rushing for the seven Pan-Hellenic sororities here begins tomorrow evening when they open their doors to the freshman women under the regulations of the lately revised code of rules. They will have two open houses each, the second to be a tea and the final evening to be devoted to the rushing parties. The season will last from February 2 to February 17 inclusive.

"The rushing procedure is outlined in detail in the codified rules, a copy of which is posted on the walls of every sorority house, meeting room and in the 'Y' room in the Old Mill. Every freshman and upperclassman is required to be familiar with the regulations," stated Lois Harrington '32, president of Pan-Hellenic Council.

The open houses are according to schedule February 2, 3, and 4. The tea parties will be held February 5, 6, 8, and 9. February 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, and 17 has been set aside for the final rushing parties. Under the rules not more than $35 may be spent by a society in its rushing procedure. At the neutral period which begins at 10 p.m. February 17 restriction is placed upon the association among the freshman and upperclasswomen until the bids are issued by means of the preferential bidding system instituted last year.

Details concerning the requirements for membership in each of the seven sororities listed as members of the Pan-Hellenic Council will be found in the Women's Freshman Handbook. The following groups are local chapters of national sororities: Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Delta Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Delta and Alpha Chi Omega. Sigma Gamma alone is the local society. K. E. L., the Jewish society, is not a member of the council.

The representatives of each sorority in the Pan-Hellenic Council are requested

(Continued on page 6)

CYNIC BOARD CALLS FOR FRESHMAN REPORTERS

Competition is still open for freshman men and women from all the fraternity and non-fraternity members to serve as cub reporters on the staff of the CYNIC, and those who fill the necessary requirements and show the greatest proficiency will be selected as reporters at the annual meeting in March.

General instructions will be given to each person who tries out and he will be given news assignments once each week. The selection will be made in the regular fashion during the first week in March from the freshman candidates. Persons who have once tried out are still eligible to enter the competition again under the new system recently inaugurated. They should report any day in the office of the CYNIC in the north end of the Old Mill or should sign on the sheet in the office for assignments.

The present members of the staff in competition for reporterships are:

W. E. Cass '35; N. Gould '35; L. E. LaMere '35; T. B. Lessor '35; N. H. Myers '34; G. E. Ranslow '35; A. A. Ross '34; A. M. Wentzmann '35; and S. M. Wolk '35. Several more women reporters are needed to complete the list of reporters.

No previous experience is required. From the unlimited number of men and women who are offered an opportunity to do reportorial work will be chosen nine men and six women members of the freshman class who will serve for one year as reporters before being promoted to editorships on the board.

SIX COURSES CHANGE ROOMS THIS SEMESTER

Six changes in room assignments for the second semester are announced this morning by Registrar F. W. Kehoe.

Chemistry 1, Section 7, Hall A, Medical Building. English 1a3, Tuesday and Thursday, first hour, 28 Medical College. English 1f1, Wednesday and Friday, third hour, to be assigned. English 1 (Mr. Wainwright's section) first hour, Wednesday and Friday, 35 Medical College. English 2b, Monday and Wednesday second hour, Hall B, Medical Building. Political Science 1e, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, third hour, Hall B, Medical Building.

S. N. Spiller Is Elected Editor-in-Chief of Cynic

D. Jackman Becomes Women's Editor—Farwell Is Sports Editor—Bigelow Is Managing Editor—Carter Attains Recording Editorship—Janke New Business Manager

By what is the greatest majority vote ever recorded in the history of the editorial board of THE CYNIC, S. Nathan Spiller '33 was elected editor-in-chief Saturday afternoon, January 16 at the annual election. The new editor-in-chief succeeds Joseph C. Carter who retires from the position after having served for one year. The election of Spiller is pending ratification by the University Council and he will assume office as soon as this has been effected. The members of the Council are Pres. G. W. Bailey and Deans Marion Patterson, Elijah Swift, Joseph L. Hills, J. N. Jenne, and acting Dean George F. Eckhard.

Spiller's work on the reportorial and editorial staff of THE CYNIC has extended over a period of two years and a half. He was elected first to the position of assistant editor, then to the news editorship in which he has served during the past year. He is at present the sports editor of the 1933 Ariel and the treasurer of the John Dewey Club. He also served as an assistant editor of the 1934 Freshman Handbook, and assumed a rôle in the cast of the recent fall play, "She Stoops To Conquer." Spiller is a member of Phi Sigma Delta.

Senior Editors

At a meeting of the women's board held Thursday afternoon, January 14, Dorothy C. Jackman '33 was elected to the position of women's editor to succeed Rosetta Harlow '32, retired.

Carl W. Janke '33 was elected Friday afternoon, January 15, to the business managership, succeeding Samuel Barker '32.

The other senior editors are James F. Bigelow '33, managing editor; Jerome H. Farwell '33, sports editor, and Stanley K. Carter '33, recording editor. The sophomore news editors are: William W. Brislin, William Cohen, C. Jackson Libby, Realtus McCum, Augusta Cohen, and Laura Tracy. Theodore Taylor '33 is retained as feature editor, as is similarly R. J. Weisman in the position of columnist. The newly promoted members of the feature department are: Irving Lisman '34, intercollegiate editor; Norma Carder '33; Milton J. Greenberg '34, and Dorine Lee '33, feature editors. The selection of men and women reporters to fill the positions open to them will take place during the first week of March under the newly adopted merit system of credit and examination.

Edward E. Dunn '33 is the new advertising manager and the following men are the assistant managers: George H. Burrows '34, William J. Gilbert '34, and C. Jackson Libby '34.

Services Extensive

Miss Jackson, the new women's editor is a member of the Press Club and W. A. A., has served on various class committees and belongs to Sigma Gamma sorority. She has placed consistently on the Dean's Honor List each semester.

Bigelow, the new managing editor, is also the managing editor of the 1933 Ariel, a member of the varsity debating team and is affiliated with Zeta Chi fraternity. Janke the business manager has served for over two years as an assistant on the business board and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Farwell, who is newly elected sports editor is varsity basketball player and takes an active part in other sports activities. He belongs to Kappa Sigma.

Carter, like the other editors has served in the positions of assistant editorship and as a feature department member. He is to assume the duties of the newly-created office of recording editor and is a member of Lambda Iota. He is grand editor of the 1933 Ariel an officer on the V. C. A. cabinet and belongs to French Club.

The six sophomore news editors have all had extensive journalistic experience. Brislin was the editor-in-chief of the weekly Red and White at Rutland High School. He with Cohen, Libby and McCum has served for a year and a half as CYNIC reporter. Augusta Cohen is the assistant manager of women's debating and belongs to K. E. L. society. Laura Tracy is a member of the Press Club and W. A. A. and belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta.

The new board will commence work under the new constitution with the issue of Friday, February 5.

BOOTH TO SPEAK HERE TOMORROW NIGHT ON WORLD DISARMAMENT

Carnegie Lecturer Comes Coincident With Opening of Conference at Geneva

Coincident with the convening of the World Disarmament Conference tomorrow morning at Geneva, Switzerland, Douglass Booth will speak on the topic, "General World Disarmament" at a free public meeting to be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening in the Fleming Museum.

Mr. Booth is a representative of the Royal Institute of International Affairs in England and comes here under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment of the International Relations Club.

Balkan Authority

C. Douglass Booth, traveler, publicist, lecturer, authority on Balkan affairs, has spent a number of years in the Near East and the Balkans collecting political and economic material for a new book.

Among his articles is a paper on "The Political Situation in Southeastern Europe," presented before the Institute, and published in the Journal of the Royal Institute of International Affairs. "Italy's Aegean Possessions," published in 1928, is also well known in the United States, as are his articles written for the American Peace Society of Washington, D. C., and published in The Advocate of Peace.

Traveler

Mr. Booth was born in Canada and educated at St. Andrew's College, Toronto, and at Loyola University. During the war he held the rank of Major in His Majesty's Forces. He has devoted seven years to the study of Mediterranean and Balkan problems, and has resided or traveled in Morocco, Egypt, Rhodes, Patmos, Athens and Belgrade.

His lecturing experience is varied and includes considerable political work for the National Liberal Party of England, work in the United States for Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives while with H. M. Forces during the war, and later experience lecturing in both England and the United States on international relations. Two years ago he visited more than fifty of the International Relations Clubs in the colleges and universities of the South and Middle West under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment.

WILSON, ENGLISH TENOR, TO GIVE VOCAL CONCERT

Free Tickets Waiting at Bookstore for Recital Here Thursday

Stewart Wilson, English tenor, will give a vocal recital, the first of the series of concerts and recitals annually sponsored by the University, in the gymnasium at 8 o'clock Thursday, February 4. Students and members of the faculty will be able to secure free tickets on application at the University Store beginning today.

Mr. Wilson's tentative program, announced by Prof. H. G. Bennett of the Music Department, is as follows:

1. a. Aria from Church Cantata 93
   Man hatte nur ..... Handel
   b. Total Eclipse (from "Samson")
   Handel
2. Songs from "The Maid of the Mill"
   (in English) ..... Schubert
   (Die Schoen Muellerin)
3. Three Shakespeare Songs
   a. O Mistress Mine
   Arr. by Elizabeth Macconchy
   b. Take, O Take
   John Wilson (1600)
   c. It was a Lover
   Arr. by Edmond H. Fellowes
4. Miscellaneous Folk Songs

A Vivid Interpreter

Professor Bennett, who has heard Mr. Wilson sing in Cincinnati, says of him:

(Continued on page 6)

NEW EDITOR SUPPORTED BY HIGHEST VOTE EVER

By what is the greatest majority vote ever recorded in the history of the editorial board of THE CYNIC, S. Nathan Spiller '33 was elected editor-in-chief Saturday afternoon, January 16 at the annual election. The new editor-in-chief succeeds Joseph C. Carter who retires from the position after having served for one year. The election of Spiller is pending ratification by the University Council and he will assume office as soon as this has been effected. The members of the Council are Pres. G. W. Bailey and Deans Marion Patterson, Elijah Swift, Joseph L. Hills, J. N. Jenne, and acting Dean George F. Eckhard.

Spiller's work on the reportorial and editorial staff of THE CYNIC has extended over a period of two years and a half. He was elected first to the position of assistant editor, then to the news editorship in which he has served during the past year. He is at present the sports editor of the 1933 Ariel and the treasurer of the John Dewey Club. He also served as an assistant editor of the 1934 Freshman Handbook, and assumed a rôle in the cast of the recent fall play, "She Stoops To Conquer." Spiller is a member of Phi Sigma Delta.

Senior Editors

At a meeting of the women's board held Thursday afternoon, January 14, Dorothy C. Jackman '33 was elected to the position of women's editor to succeed Rosetta Harlow '32, retired.

Carl W. Janke '33 was elected Friday afternoon, January 15, to the business managership, succeeding Samuel Barker '32.

The other senior editors are James F. Bigelow '33, managing editor; Jerome H. Farwell '33, sports editor, and Stanley K. Carter '33, recording editor. The sophomore news editors are: William W. Brislin, William Cohen, C. Jackson Libby, Realtus McCum, Augusta Cohen, and Laura Tracy. Theodore Taylor '33 is retained as feature editor, as is similarly R. J. Weisman in the position of columnist. The newly promoted members of the feature department are: Irving Lisman '34, intercollegiate editor; Norma Carder '33; Milton J. Greenberg '34, and Dorine Lee '33, feature editors. The selection of men and women reporters to fill the positions open to them will take place during the first week of March under the newly adopted merit system of credit and examination.

Edward E. Dunn '33 is the new advertising manager and the following men are the assistant managers: George H. Burrows '34, William J. Gilbert '34, and C. Jackson Libby '34.

Services Extensive

Miss Jackson, the new women's editor is a member of the Press Club and W. A. A., has served on various class committees and belongs to Sigma Gamma sorority. She has placed consistently on the Dean's Honor List each semester.

Bigelow, the new managing editor, is also the managing editor of the 1933 Ariel, a member of the varsity debating team and is affiliated with Zeta Chi fraternity. Janke the business manager has served for over two years as an assistant on the business board and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Farwell, who is newly elected sports editor is varsity basketball player and takes an active part in other sports activities. He belongs to Kappa Sigma.

Carter, like the other editors has served in the positions of assistant editorship and as a feature department member. He is to assume the duties of the newly-created office of recording editor and is a member of Lambda Iota. He is grand editor of the 1933 Ariel an officer on the V. C. A. cabinet and belongs to French Club.

The six sophomore news editors have all had extensive journalistic experience. Brislin was the editor-in-chief of the weekly Red and White at Rutland High School. He with Cohen, Libby and McCum has served for a year and a half as CYNIC reporter. Augusta Cohen is the assistant manager of women's debating and belongs to K. E. L. society. Laura Tracy is a member of the Press Club and W. A. A. and belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta.

The new board will commence work under the new constitution with the issue of Friday, February 5.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Vermont

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34 [illegible] '34

[illegible] '34 Beatrice McCain '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] '34

[illegible] '34

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

[illegible] '34

W. J. Gilbert '34

[illegible] '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

[illegible] '34

COLUMNIST

[illegible] '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Ernest W. Dean

All editorial and business communications must be written and addressed to the proper department head at The Vermont Cynic Office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in at the office not later than 3 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Office telephone 1644.

Acceptance for mailing to postage outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 412, P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879, authorized October 14, 1926.

THE MERIT SYSTEM

[illegible] has been realized in the recent drastic reorganization and adoption of a constitutional merit system. For nearly fifty years politics had dictated the [illegible] on the editorial staff of the Vermont [illegible] The selections which had been made resulted in the [illegible] for the position. Not all too frequently had men worked for a considerable period of time and proven themselves [illegible] goal by lack of the necessary number of votes to carry them through to victory. Fraternity or [illegible] Cynic writers to the mere strength of opposing cliques which overlooked the personal qualifications involved.

[illegible] political plums, were put to selfish and ugly ends [illegible] the hope of the college extra-curricular life has reached its [illegible] Political log rolling, the backing of an editorial [illegible] to secure the support in another campus activity has [illegible] A college newspaper above all one [illegible] a publication [illegible] than once each week, depends for interest [illegible] and effectiveness not only on the freshness, accuracy and [illegible] of its news, but also on the vision, leadership and brilliance of its editorial [illegible] and special features. It offers splendid journalistic training and can ill afford to hazard its quality and general effectiveness to individuals who seek to attain and hold editorial positions [illegible] other ways.

The merger of the three "Boards" is a most effective means of assuring talented, keen competition, cooperation and centralizing responsibility in the hands of one capable executive head.

The adoption of a constitution reorganizing the entire editorial board and placing it on a merit basis was not only advisable but imperative. Loosely defined and questionable regulations in the form of [illegible] a detriment to the work of editors.

Co-operation had to be effected by the editors themselves even in the face of [illegible] Under the old system the [illegible] having established that the editor in chief should not only [illegible] policy and leadership bear criticism and praise alike and carry the high honor that is his but also perform all the routine labor of news reporting, editing and makeup.

Opportunities will be given assignments by the news editors, their work will be criticised if necessary and appropriate credit given. The man who learns the principles of general and campus journalism [illegible] will go a long way indeed. Instruction by and advice from his superiors has always been a primary requisite to the development of a news sense and the ability to write accurately and interestingly.

In the examinations a premium is placed upon the reporter and editor who not only do the greatest amount of peculiar work but also become the most proficient in principles of journalistic ethics, news writing, editing, makeup and proofing. Bi-weekly meetings will bring together all the members of the board for the discussion of points in the publication of the current issue, for criticism and for general information. No longer need a prospective journalist lose heart and lose the opportunity for valuable training because he "doesn't know how it's done."

Junior editors, who, like their senior fellow staff duties and assume positions of executive and advisory nature, will be chosen [illegible] of the Cynic board [illegible] of newspaper work that the Cynic has to offer. Every Greek letter society on the campus has in its membership one or more who are showing real excellent reporters and editors. However there are capable individuals among the non-fraternity groups. Any such believe that because they are in the excluded minority that they would do better to enter some other activity.

[illegible] work has much to offer. The work is instructive, satisfying and interesting. The two highest senior scholarships carry with them at once the greatest honor, the greatest respect of any undergraduate office as well as the most splendid opportunity for forward leadership in thought and action by the men and women who fill them.

As the retiring board ushers in the new it can but look with pleasure at its industry and support and wish the new editors well in their endeavors.

GREAT GOETHE SCHOLAR WILL GIVE UNIVERSITY LECTURE NEXT FRIDAY

[illegible] Kuehnemann, professor of the [illegible] at the University of Munich, [illegible]

The lecture will be delivered in English [illegible] Kuehnemann's command of the language is assured since he has served as visiting professor in this country at Harvard, 1908-1909, and at the University of Wisconsin, 1913-1914.

Goethe Centenary

This Goethe memorial lecture is included in the University series in participation in a world-wide celebration this centenary year. Naturally, the observance will be most extensive in Germany and particularly during the week March 20-27, Goethe having died March 22, 1832.

Besides presentation of a number of Goethe plays by troupes from leading theatres in the Reich and from Vienna, it is planned to have the veteran President von Hindenburg lay a wreath on Goethe's sarcophagus in the vault of the Grand Dukes of Weimar, at which time the bells of all German churches will be tolled. Numerous other festival performances are planned, such as a concert by the St. Thomas choir of Leipzig.

The University of Vermont in participating in this great cultural festival celebration has been fortunate to secure so distinguished and eminent a Goethe scholar as Professor Kuehnemann is, through the cooperation of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia. Professor Kuehnemann has come to the United States and is touring the country under the auspices of this foundation.

Famous for his interpretation of the poet's development in a monumental two-volume work which appeared in 1930 under the simple title, "Goethe," Professor Kuehnemann is also the author of philosophic and literary works relating to Kant, Herder, and Schiller. "His reputation," says the secretary of the Schurz Foundation, "rests equally on his achievements as a philosopher and as a literary historian."

Goethe as a Personality

By Prof. A. R. Gifford

"Express yourself, trust genius, do not slavishly conform to a mediocre social environment." This is the slogan of that cult of personality, rampant today, of which the diminuendo series—Ibsen, Shaw and Mencken—have more recently appeared as high priests. In the lofty ranges of distinguished genius and achievement of the past certain isolated peaks, better and grander than the rest, still fascinate the imagination and evoke an effort of emulation. There is Homer, that legendary figure, dim but glamorous in the mystery of the past, there are Socrates and Plato, ushering in the glory that was Greece, there are Dante and Petrarch, voices of a new life and a new spirit, and there too is Shakespeare, perhaps save Plato alone the most commanding figure of them all. In the galleries of greatness appears also Goethe, one of the warmest and most vibrant of personalities, one of the most picturesque and appealing, and of those pioneers and rebels of the Golden Age of German literature, the giant without peer.

Goethe, the centenary of whose death in 1832 is being celebrated this year by the literary world, stands closer to us, both in time and temper, than do those mighty men of older days and more formal ways. For Goethe, as for youth today, life is at once a protest and a quest. The protest is the rebellion of a dynamic and vibrant soul against those social and artistic conventions that crib, cabin and confine, the disdain of a noble spirit for all that savors of mediocrity, for all that suggests contentment to what ever is banal or petty simply because it is traditional, and the quest like our own today, is the ruinous of experience, riotous at times for that sublime height of attainment that will evoke the cry:

"Ah, sweet moment, thou art so fair."

For Goethe, as to his generation, art especially literary art, seemed to offer of all the richest field of expression and of realization, but in Goethe's life there is also a procession of fair women enchantment for the moment of that "eternal feminine that lures us on." In his amours Goethe is also very modern.

What real and glowing personality ever striving, never resting, always hoping and always willing, telling the world its aspirations, its sorrows, its adventurings in quest of life and experience, still in the quest of today, has given us a kind of moving picture of its own peregrinations in "Faust," that vast and charming dramatic poem, to which youth in all subsequent generations responds, as moth reacts to flame.

Constitution of the Vermont Cynic

[illegible] publication shall be [illegible] Vermont Cynic, the [illegible] newspaper of the University [illegible]

It shall be published semi-weekly [illegible] academic year by a [illegible] undergraduate [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] shall consist of the [illegible] duties as defined in [illegible] and regulations as defined in [illegible]

[illegible]

One Managing Editor

One Women's Editor

One Recording Editor

Four News Editors

Two women News Editors

One Columnist

Not more than four Feature Editors

One Intercollegiate Editor

Sec. 3. Reporters

Nine men Reporters

Six women Reporters

Any number of Cub Reporters

ARTICLE III Faculty Adviser

Section 1. There shall be one Faculty Adviser who shall be the chairman of the University Publications Committee or its deputy.

Sec. 2. He shall be a member of the Examination Committee defined in Article IV. He shall be invited to be present at all meetings of the Editorial Board, and shall be invited by the Editor-in-Chief to assume such other duties as may be assigned to him from time to time.

ARTICLE IV Examination Committee

Section 1. Membership

The Examination Committee shall be composed of the Editor-in-Chief, as chairman, the Sports Editor, the Women's Editor, the Managing Editor, the Recording Editor and the Faculty Adviser.

Sec. 2. Duties

It shall be the duty of the Examination Committee, in conference, to conduct reportorial try-out and advanced editorial examinations as required under Article X and as vacancies may arise from time to time. It shall announce the elections to and the promotions on the Board. It shall have full power to determine its own rules of procedure.

ARTICLE V Duties of Members

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Editor-in-Chief to conduct the editorial policy of The Vermont Cynic, to determine the quality of the news and other items published therein and determine the general welfare of said newspaper. He shall preside at all meetings of the editorial board. It shall be his duty to supervise and give instructions to the work of all other members of the editorial and reportorial staffs. He shall issue public calls for [illegible] and shall serve as a member of the Examination Committee.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Managing Editor to make up the review of the Editor-in-Chief issue of The Vermont Cynic in the printing establishment following a [illegible] dummy layout. He shall order the necessary cuts and mats for the issue scheduled for each week, and be responsible for their delivery to the printing establishment. He shall keep a record of the length of all items set in make-up and report same to the Recording Editor. It shall be his duty, under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief, to issue technical and other managerial instructions to members of the editorial and reportorial staffs. He shall serve as a member of the Examination Committee.

Sec. 3. The Sports Editor shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for the quality of the news and other items, as well as the make-up of the sports page. He shall prepare editorials and columns to be published therein and in other parts of the newspaper. He shall, under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief, deliver general sports instructions to members of the editorial and reportorial staffs. He shall serve as a member of the Examination Committee.

Sec. 4. The Women's Editor shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for the rendering of assistance to the senior editors in the performance of their duties. She shall prepare editorials and columns, and under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief shall deliver instructions to members of the editorial and reportorial staffs. She shall serve as a member of the Examination Committee.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Recording Editor to keep an adequate file of The Vermont Cynic, to maintain an efficient office morgue, and to serve as the secretary and clerk of all meetings of the Editorial Board. He shall immediately after the publication of each issue permanently record the authorship, editorship and credit lines of each item printed herein together with alterations and length out. He shall serve as a member of the Examination Committee.

Sec. 6. (a) The News Editors shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for issuing assignments to all members of the reportorial staff, revising all copy, devising lay-out of the pages, writing headlines and otherwise preparing the issue for prompt publication.

(b) Two men and one woman shall be in charge of each issue. Each man and woman once every third week shall be primarily in charge of assignments, editing, lay-out and headline writing. They shall be assisted by the two other news editors for the respective issue.

(c) Once every second week one woman news editor in addition to the regular duties, shall deliver the prepared copy and assist the Managing Editor in the make-up of the issue at the printing establishment. At all other times he shall assist the two other News Editors in the respective issue in the performance of their duties.

(d) Each News Editor shall from time to time under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief of the Women's Page prepare editorials for publication as required in Article VI. They may have other duties under the provisions of Article VIII.

Sec. 7. The Columnist shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for the preparation, at least once each week, of a column of general interest, he may have other duties under the provisions of Article VIII.

Sec. 8. Each Feature Editor shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for the preparation of original feature articles at least once each week, and may have other duties under the provisions of Article VIII.

Sec. 9. The Intercollegiate Editor shall be responsible to the Editor-in-Chief for the preparation of a column of intercollegiate editorial comment at least once each week, and necessary clippings. He shall have charge of the exchange service and shall maintain contact between The Vermont Cynic, the intercollegiate press associations and other organizations of journalistic interests. He may have other duties under the provisions of Article VIII.

Sec. 10. All reporters and cub reporters shall be responsible to the News Editors for the authenticity, and efficient and accurate preparation, in the manner prescribed by the standard Vermont Cynic style, of all news stories or other items assigned to them.

ARTICLE VI Eligibility

Section 1. All members of the editorial and reportorial staffs shall be regularly enrolled undergraduate students and shall have individual eligibility as stated below.

Sec. 2. The Editor-in-Chief, Managing Editor, and Managing Editor shall be male students of the junior class who have served for at least sixteen weeks and for at least sixteen academic months as members of the editorial and reportorial staffs, have been in, and satisfied in order, the requirements of the offices of Reporter, Cub Reporter, Editor, and shall have had published in The Vermont Cynic at least three editorials of not less that 200 words.

(Continued on page 3)

THE FORUM

To the Editor of the Cynic:

In these times a prize of $500 ought to be interesting, especially when it will be paid for a maximum of three thousand words on a lively subject obscured, it is true, by a less lively title.

The prize is known as the Percival Wood Clement Prize "for the best thesis in the support of the principles of the Constitution of the United States of America and the first ten amendments thereto."

It is an annual prize, open to students of the junior and senior classes of eighteen New England colleges, including yours. It has been in effect three years. The first year there were only five entries, the second only nine, and last year only twelve.

The donor, who died in 1927, was a former governor of Vermont and a devoted advocate of the rights of States against what he believed to be increasing encroachment upon them by the Federal Government. During his term as governor, he declined to call a special session of his State Legislature to ratify the Nineteenth or Women's Suffrage amendment. He was bitterly opposed to the Eighteenth or Prohibition amendment.

Said Governor Clement

In establishing this prize, Governor Clement sought to encourage young men and women to study the Constitution and its amendments, of which he once said:

"It is worthy of note that the first ten amendments . . . . were not grants of further power, but were limitations and restrictions upon the Federal Government . . . . three of the four most recent amendments, viz: the Sixteenth, Eighteenth and Nineteenth . . . . are direct invasions of State rights."

One would argue, for example, that the Prohibition amendment has no place in the Constitution by reason of the character and purpose of that document and its first ten amendments, would be well within the subject and might win $500.

At any rate, as trustee of this prize fund we would be grateful for your co-operation toward a wider knowledge of its existence and an increased interest in the competition for it. We must pay $500 every year to some one of you, and all we ask is a good run for the money. You can learn all about the terms and conditions from your own college authorities.

Yours hopefully,

State Trust Company.

SPORTS NEWS

ew Football Coaching Staff to Take Charge of Gridiron

an, Dartmouth All-American Guard to be Line Coach—Sutton to Coach Backfield—Levine Will Drum Up Freshmen an entire new foot- take the field. John signed to take charge and has asked Paul guard from Dart- and B. Sutton, Dart- three years to assist him. former assistant coach team will have complete freshman football team story of football at the Vermont has this an- made the football enthu- much. Only once in 1923 and 1924 has Ver- absolutely capable coaching. departure of Coach Keady in has been on the decline at now football ought to re- ...

members of the new staff have records in the field of Crehan, who will take ... hails from Roxbury, baseball, football and Commerce. In 1924 all-scholastic center. Later he went to Bridgton Academy at Bridgton, Maine, where he starred at the same three sports.

At Dartmouth he became varsity regular on the football team, playing tackle his last three years in college. The Indian teams were especially strong during this time, losing to only three colleges in hard-fought games. He was picked by Grantland Rice as one of the four best tackles in the country. He received his card of merit from the all-America football board.

Sutton, a pre-medical student here now, will coach the ball carriers. "Eddie" graduated from Dartmouth last year. This year he assisted Burke with the freshman team. He played varsity football for three years at Dartmouth and was picked by Tad Jones for the all-New England eleven.

"Bumps" Levine needs no introduction. His smiling countenance has been known on the Green and Gold campus ever since September, 1926. John Burke, the versatile coach, will lead the staff with his mastery strategy.

WINTER OLYMPICS OPEN THURS. AT LAKE PLACID

The stage is being set for the Winter Olympics at Lake Placid, which are scheduled to start on Thursday. Competitors from seventeen nations are entered for sports carnival held every leap year. This year's competition has come about under very peculiar circumstances because there has been no snow on which to practice for the events.

Last week saw all the teams in action after the first snowfall in weeks and everyone enthusiastic. The mile and one-half bob-sled run down the side of Mount Van Hoevenburg has been opened and the various teams have been working out on the run. The ski jump has also been opened, and the competitors have made the most of the time to get into form for the final tests.

FRESHMAN FORENSICISTS ARGUE ATHLETIC TOPIC

The freshman men debaters met the women's team of the same class on the topic "Resolved that the University of Vermont should subsidize athletes," Friday evening, January 15, in the Fleming Museum.

Irene LaFountain, Betty Boright and Anita Kittell comprised the women's team. Nathaniel Gould, Carl Rogers and Stuart Wright were the members of the men's team. Paul J. LaCross, varsity debate manager, served as chairman. No decision was rendered.

The freshman men, upholding the affirmative, based their case on the analogy of oratorical and debating scholarship. Athletic skill should be rewarded they emphasized. The women in refutation, pictured a college with athletes only and deplored the subsidization of athletes.

February Ushers in New Lease on Cat's Sport Life

Boston University to Meet Local Quintet Here—Month to See Play-offs of Most of Championship Games

TUFTS HERE TOMORROW EVE ON LOCAL COURT

Preliminary Workout Indicates Netmen Have Power to Toss Visitors Over Ropes

Tomorrow night the University of Vermont basketball team will combat a powerful Tufts College team at the gymnasium. The game will be the first after a long layoff, necessitated because of mid-years. So far as reports go the varsity boys came out on top with their important game with the hardest team they have played during exam time. Very little practice was done during this time but nevertheless, the team is full of fight in view of the contest. Most of the workouts have been in the Burlington High School gym. Last Saturday practice was held in the University gym, and the boys had a stiff preliminary workout. Eagerness and spirit prevailed at the scrimmage on Saturday. Perhaps the pep came when the boys realized that they are using the gym again for what it was meant to be used.

Tufts has not had but one defeat so far this season, and expects to encounter no trouble in licking a supposedly weaker Catamount squad. The Medford team has a fairly strong line-up to put on the floor. On the other hand Vermont has been handicapped by a two weeks' layoff and very little practice. To date Vermont has not met defeat at the hands of any intercollegiate five. One will remember the thrilling defeat over St. Michael's College in the first of Vermont's games in the state series. While tomorrow night's game has no bearing on the outcome of the Vermont championship, it will nevertheless test the metal of the Green five.

Coach Burke told the team that he was not so weak that he expected to see the team make a good showing against Tufts. Instead he expressed his desire to see the team go a step higher and take the Tufts team over the ropes. Why not take this attitude because it is only the difference of two or three points?

VERMONT TIED WITH NORWICH IN RIFLE NOW

February ushers in a new lease on the sports' world at the University of Vermont. Basketball games, hockey games and rifle matches will feature this short but interesting month, one day longer this year so that more could be done by the coaches. Starting with Saturday, the court team takes on Boston University on the home court. During the month most of the state championship games will be played off and many featured games in addition.

Hockey, despite its poor start may get off to a season. So far the team has had a very successful season, in fact, the most successful one it has ever had. Manager Tomassetti bewails the fact that the team has not been able to take the scheduled trips. None of the state series games in hockey have been played as yet, because there has been no ice. The team itself is not in the best of condition and will be out of practice when the season does start.

Basketball, under capable leadership looks very promising. Sometimes a good start portends a poor season. However, everyone hopes this will not be true. Norwich defeated St. Michael's with about the same score that Vermont took over the Violet team. Vermont's next game in the championship series comes with the Winooski Park men at their court and promises to be a thriller. Two games with Norwich and two with Middlebury follow very soon afterwards. New men will be out for the squad now that mid years are over. Perhaps, some of the old faces will not be seen on the floor.

Rifle news comes so infrequently that there are some in the college who are in doubt as to whether or not there is one functioning. Usually the team shoots about twenty telegraphic matches and six or seven shoulder-to-shoulder contests during the comparatively long month of February. Coach Kullman has been building up a strong team. Several newcomers have rounded out the squad to a maximum.

The standing in the state series to date is listed below:

	w	l	pct.
Vermont	1	0	1.000
Norwich	1	0	1.000
St. Michael's	1	2	.333
Middlebury	0	1	.000

STITUTION OF THE VERMONT CYNIC

(Continued from page 2)

The Women's Editor shall be ... of the junior class and shall ... addition the same eligibility re... as the Editor-in-Chief, ex... editor under the office of News ...

The Recording Editor may be a man or woman from the junior ... otherwise shall have in addi... requirements for eligibility ... Chief, except as differ... f News Editor.

The News Editors shall be ... of the sophomore class, have ... requirements of the office of ... at least seven consecutive ... months.

The Columnist, Feature Edi... Intercollegiate Editor shall be ... members of the sophomore class ... served for at least seven conse... academic months as Reporter and satisfied the demands of that office. ... discretion of the Editor-in-Chief may also have served in the office of ... Editor.

Reporters shall be members of ... freshman class irrespective of sex, ... have fulfilled the duties of cub ... for a period of at least one ... month.

ARTICLE VII Selection of Members

Section 1. Members of the reportorial ... be selected in competition from ... reporters by means of percentage ...

2. Cub reporters shall take ... assignments and as soon as they ... accumulated 40 credit inches of 8 ... 13-em measure solid copy or its ... are eligible to take assignments ... weekly and to take the try-out ex... At a meeting to be held dur... first week in March of each year, ... Examination Committee shall select ... cub reporters the 9 men and 6 ... Reporters who receive the highest ... per cent age grades derived in ... wing manner:

Each reporter shall be given full ... in column inches for all of his copy which appears in any issue and full credit for all copy which is omitted because of lack of space or editors' errors. One-half credit shall be given for all stories or items which are late, full reprints, or are omitted or altered because of errors and faulty style. No credit shall be given for headlines of full-face breaks accompanying the stories or for material added by the editors.

(b) The Examination Committee shall ascertain the percentage of the total credit inches of all the reporters which each cub's credit represents. This shall constitute ⅔ of his individual composite grade, ⅓ of which shall be the grade attained by him on the try-out examination.

Sec. 3. At the meeting of the Examination Committee which is held during the first week after mid-year examinations, 4 men and the 2 women News Editors shall be selected in the same manner from the fifteen senior reporters, except that the examination shall be of a more advanced type and the credits shall be those accumulated to date by the Reporter.

Sec. 4. At the same meeting the Examination Committee shall select in the following manner from the six News Editors, the five senior Editors each of whom shall hold office for one year.

To the total reportorial credits accumulated to date by each News Editor shall be added the total length in column inches of all stories and other articles which he has edited, together with the single column length of the headlines. One-half the original credit of stories which necessitate re-editing by the Editor-in-Chief shall be given to the News Editor who has first edited them.

A relative percentage grade derived from the total credit of all the News Editors shall constitute ⅔ of a composite grade, ⅓ of which shall be the result of a senior editorial examination.

(a) The man attaining the highest composite grade shall be designated the Editor-in-Chief.

(b) The higher ranking woman of the two shall be the Women's Editor.

(c) The man ranking second highest shall have the right to choose either the position of Sports Editor or Managing Editor. If he selects the former, an advanced examination stressing make-up, printing and managerial principles shall be given to the remaining two men. The man attaining the higher advanced composite grade, ½ of which shall be the result of the last examination and the other ½ of which shall be his senior composite grade, shall be the Managing Editor. In the event that the Managing Editorship is the position chosen, the selection of the Sports Editor shall be in the same manner prescribed above, except that the advanced examination shall emphasize the principles of sports journalism.

(d) The Recording Editor shall be the man or woman receiving the higher senior composite grade.

(e) In the event of a tie for any of the above positions, the Editor-in-Chief shall render the decision.

Sec. 5. The Columnist, Feature Editors and the Intercollegiate Editor shall be appointed by the Editor-in-Chief from the Reporters and News Editors who show special ability but who fail to attain higher positions.

ARTICLE VIII Vacancies

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Editor-in-Chief, the Sports Editor shall succeed to that office.

Succession shall similarly obtain to the office of Managing Editor by the Sports Editor, the Sports Editor by the Editor-in-Chief, who shall at the same time perform the duties of his own office; the Women's Editor by the Recording Editor or the second woman ex-News Editor; and the Recording Editor by the remaining male ex-News Editor.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of News Editor, Columnist or Intercollegiate Editor, the Feature Editor ranking highest shall succeed, provided he shall have fulfilled the requirements for that office. Vacancies in the offices of Feature Editor shall be filled by the appointment of the Editor-in-Chief from the Reporters who failed to attain the position of News Editor.

Similarly, vacancies in Reporterships shall be filled by special examination of the highest ranking group of cub reporters who failed to become Reporters.

ARTICLE IX Impeachment

Section 1. Any member of the editorial or reportorial staffs may be removed from office for incapacity, failure to perform his duties or for misdemeanors, by a ⅔ majority vote of the board. Vacancies shall be filled as provided for under Article VIII.

Sec. 2. Appeals from removal or for any other reason may be made in the following manner:

(a) Directly to the head of the department concerned.

(b) From the department head to the Editor-in-Chief, whose verdict shall ordinarily be final.

(c) From the Recording Editor to the Faculty Adviser.

(d) Directly to the Faculty Adviser.

(e) By any of the five senior editors to the University Committee on Publications whose verdict shall be final.

ARTICLE X Meetings

Section 1. A quorum of the board for the transaction of business shall comprise a majority of its members.

Sec. 2. All regular business of the board shall be transacted by a majority of the quorum present.

Sec. 3. In voting in business meetings only seniors, juniors and sophomores shall have the right to vote. Each member shall have one vote and it shall be in person only. The Editor-in-Chief shall have a vote only in case of a tie.

Sec. 4. At least 48 hours notice of all business meetings shall be given directly to the members of the board. All meetings shall be called by the Editor-in-Chief or upon the petition of a majority of the members of the board.

Sec. 5. (a) At meetings which shall be held bi-weekly journalism instruction shall be given to members of the editorial and reportorial staffs. Attendance by board members shall be required at each meeting unless an acceptable excuse is given. For failure to attend a meeting five credit inches shall be deducted from a reporter and fifteen credit inches from a News Editor, Columnist, Feature Editor or Intercollegiate Editor.

(b) A Reportorial try out examination shall be conducted by the Examination Committee during the first week in March. Advanced or senior editorial examinations shall be conducted the first week after "mid year" examinations.

ARTICLE XI Miscellaneous

Section 1. No member of the board who has not done reportorial work for at least one year shall have the right to vote in business meetings.

Sec. 2. All members of the board shall be elected first in the capacity of Reporter and only after they have fulfilled the necessary requirements.

Sec. 3. A member of the board who has been removed by the dean of his college for being under warning may be re

(Continued on page 6)

Last Two Days of Our Clean Sweep Sale

SUITS and OVERCOATS
One Half Price

TURKS
Burlington

156-158 College Street

A TUXEDO OFFER

$20.00

We have on hand a few tuxedos to retail at $20. These have been worn once or twice but are as good as new. This price includes Coat—Vest—Trousers.

• • • •

HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.
127 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Highlights of the Year

from former systems in University football history. The following teams

Dartmouth 1930 all American guard, will coach the linemen. Edmund [illegible] will coach the ball carriers: Hyman ("Bumps") Levine who will coach the

New Fleming Museum, more popular probably than any other of Vermont's buildings as a meeting place for societies and clubs—Its splendid permanent rare exhibits, art displays, and beautiful inner and outer architecture make it a prized asset of Vermonters.

Under the skilful leadership of Prof. H. G. Bennett the Men's Glee Club has risen in excellence during the past two years and last year it placed sixth in the New England Intercollegiate Contest at Harvard. It will not compete again until 1933 due to the suspension of the contest this winter.

ALLEN O. EATON '32. Last year as president of the class, he was the leader in the movement which resulted in the adoption by the class of the only constitution of its kind "on the hill." This year he crowned his activities by the honor of a deserved Phi Beta Kappa key at the fall election.

[illegible] CARTER '32

[illegible] comic pretended to hold the keen interest of [illegible] Freshmen. The winning contraption was a [illegible] in the "Kake Walk" which used entries from [illegible] fraternities.

Members of the class of 1906, costumed in the brilliant Mandarin regalia won the first prize for the Alumni Class [illegible] last Commencement.

Girls vote for PIPES (for men!)

ASK any girl you know to name her favorite smoke—for men! Ten to one she'll say a pipe!

She's discovered—trust her bright little eyes—that it's the BIG men, on the campus and off, who welcome the mental stimulation and relaxation they get from this real man's smoke.

She likes a pipe—for you!

And if she's very wise in the ways of smokers, she'll go one better than that. She'll tell you the men who know, smoke Edgeworth!

No two ways about it, you do get a doubly satisfying smoke when you fill up your pipe with this famous old blend. It's a happy combination of choice burleys cut long to give you a cool, slow-burning smoke. And its mellow flavor and rich aromahave made Edgeworth the favorite pipe tobacco on 42 out of 50 campuses.

A real man's smoke

Help yourself to a pipeful next time someone buys Edgeworth out of his pocket. Pick up the familiar blue tin yourself at any good tobacco stand. Or for a generous free sample packet write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH

SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

...e Bungalow type Chapter Home of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity—made possible by gen... ...Alumnus Chester A. Way.

RICHARD H. COWLES '31. "Dick" is a research student in the Department of Political Science—His career here as an undergraduate was a time of student leadership—He was the chairman of the committee which conducted the inter-collegiate investigation which resulted in the abolition of freshman hazing and compulsory anachronistic rules.

CHARLES A. PARK '32. Dean ranked highest among forty-eight students as a judge of milk at a judging contest held at Atlantic City. He won two gold medals and a fine gold wrist watch after having competed on Vermont's team in three National Contests.

...SIDENT G. W. BAILEY, who advised ...freshmen this year in his opening ...dress to blaze new trails, has been ...instrumental in securing the re... ...noteworthy material facilities at ... M and enhancing her influence ..., 1931.

HEWITT I. VARNEY '32. Now a freshman in the College of Medicine, but "Hewie" still maintains an active interest in academic Vermont—He is the chairman of the Vermont Christian Association Cabinet—Runs with the Catamount Harriers—Dangles a Phi Beta Kappa Key, newly acquired.

Everyone of the men on the team of Catamount harriers was in trim this year to maintain Vermont's prestige on the cinder path—Cross-country has always been a strong sport here—The team will whip into shape again next spring for further leg adventures.

JAMES W. MARVIN '32, president of the Interfraternity Conference. "Jim" was instrumental in securing the revision of the old rushing rules and the adoption of a new and effective code. His advice was consulted last year by Wilbur Walden, in the conduct of the campus survey on fraternity and non-fraternity members.

EDWARD J. FITZGERALD '32, a shining literary light of Vermont. Last spring "Eddie" tied with Frances Frost '31 for the third prize in short story entered in the Tri-State Literary Contest—Authoritative rumors have it that his first published novel will soon come from the press.

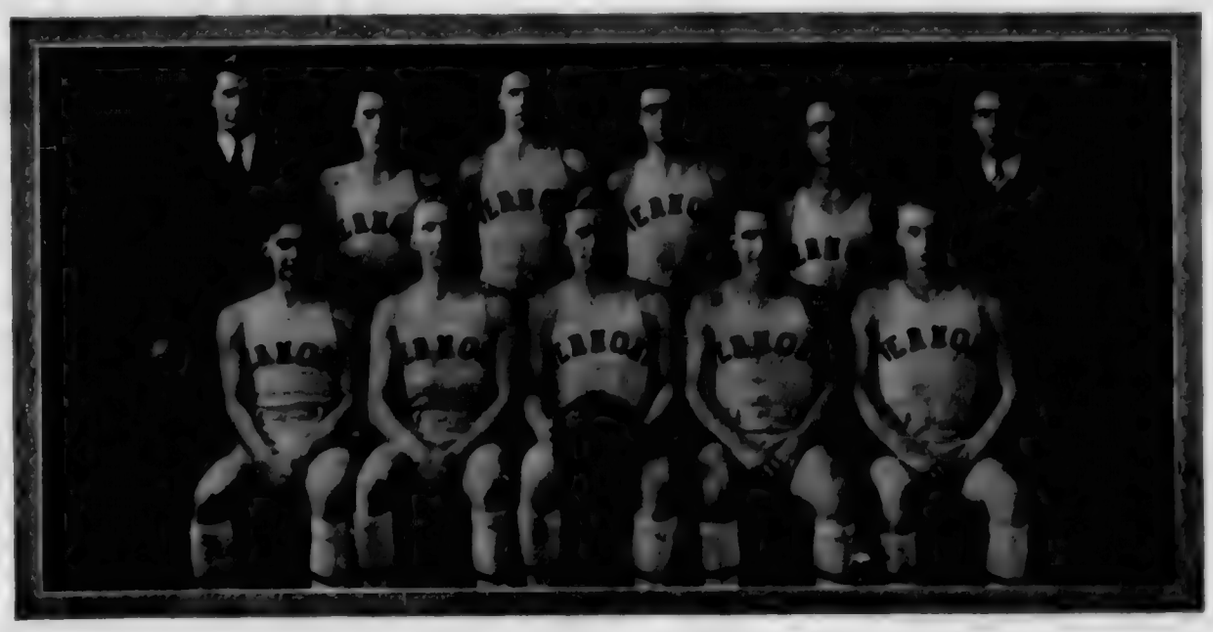
JANUARY SALES

at the



UNIVERSITY STORE

on

NOVELTIES

and

JEWELRY

The Varsity basketball squad which last year wound up a none too spectacular season—this month many of these same players will encounter Boston University as a starter for a hoped for successful score-board.

NOTICE

All news and reportorial assignments will be given in the office Tuesday afternoon, February 2, at three o'clock. They are for the following Tuesday issue and will be due not later than Friday noon.

There will be a business meeting Friday, February 5, in the Cynic office at 1:30. All freshmen wishing to work for assistantships should report at that meeting.

CONSTITUTION OF THE VERMONT CYNIC

(Continued from page 5)

SORORITIES OPEN DOORS FOR FRESHMAN WOMEN

(Continued from page 1)

Rushing Dates

	Open House	Tea	Final Party
Kappa Kappa Gamma	4	5	6
Alpha Delta Pi	4	5	6
Pi Beta Phi	4	5	6
Alpha Xi Delta	4	5	6
Delta Delta Delta	4	5	6
Alpha Chi Omega	4	5	6
Alpha Omicron Pi	4	5	6
Kappa Delta	Thursday	Friday	Saturday

FRESHMEN ELIGIBLE FOR GREY FRIARS SOCIETY

(Continued from page 1)

COLLEGES TO CELEBRATE DISARMAMENT PARLEY

WILSON, ENGLISH TENOR TO GIVE VOCAL CONCERT

(Continued from page 1)

WILEY TO SPEAK ABOUT REFORMS OF TURKEY

The civil and social reforms of Turkey will be discussed by Walter B. Wiley, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement who comes here Wednesday evening February 17 under the auspices of the International Relations Club and the Vermont Christian Association. His lecture will be delivered in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum.

Both Hewitt Varney and Paul La Cross, presidents of the above organizations affirm:

Mr. Wiley is well qualified to interpret the complex and rapid changes in the Near East to audiences in America. He is eager to share with college students his own deep interest in world-wide conditions.

Walter B. Wiley received his B.A. degree from Dartmouth College in 1918. During the academic year of 1919-20 he served for a few months as a Traveling Secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement. In the spring of 1920 he went to Turkey as a tutor, but disturbances in that region following the war compelled him to return after about a year and a half. He then took graduate work at Andover Seminary and completed his theological training at Yale Divinty School in 1924.

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

ALEX VERRET
111 CHURCH ST
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 3070, 3071, 3072

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
134 Main St. Burlington

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
386 College Street

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.
Two doughnuts and all the coffee you drink for 10 cents.
Brownies
Cup Cakes
Pastries
Sodas
LUNCHES

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 817 or 818

"There's none so good as LUCKIES"

SHE'S MISCHIEVOUS, RESTLESS, AND 20, WEIGHS 112 POUNDS.

Miss Harlow has smoked Luckies for two years . . . not one cent was paid for her signed statement. She rose to stardom in "Hell's Angels" . . . and if you've seen her new COLUMBIA PICTURE, "THREE WISE GIRLS," you'll understand why thousands of girls are trying to match her riotous pie-'num blonde locks. We appreciate all the writes of Luckies, and so we say, "Thanks, Jean Harlow."

"I've tried all cigarettes and there's none so good as LUCKIES. And incidentally I'm careful in my choice of cigarettes. I have to be because of my throat. Put me down as one who always reaches for a LUCKY. It's a real delight to find a Cellophane wrapper that opens without an ice pick."
Jean Harlow

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1932 | NUMBER 31

Elimination of Injustices is Primary Peace Requisite

Douglass Booth, Carnegie Lecturer of International Club, Declares America Must Take Initiative In Peace and Disarmament Move

SECURITY IS DEPENDENT UPON ARMS REDUCTION

...erica to step in and lead ...l peace and advance- ... Douglass Booth, Car- ... lecturer and authority ... speaking under aus- ...ational Relations Club ... Museum last Tuesday

...rements and injustices ...ed and settled before the ... problem of measuring ... the swords, the speaker

Eliminate Injustices

... solution of the disarma- ...uld be the elimination ...al injustices and other ... to stir up feeling and ...ations. Speaking from ... Balkan affairs Mr. ...its points with examples ...nations in that part of ... boundaries have been ...out regard to the races ...minorities are being op- ... the great powers, ... are oppressing and ...ple. In addition, high ...judices, unjust discrimina- ...ttitude of like influences ...toward the conflict of the ... these irritating factors ...with before people will ...have been removed and ...urable, disarmament will ...but sincere reduction ...not come first.

Security Through Disarmament

... Mr. Booth presented many ... large expenditures for ... Although men have argued ... of 'just wars,' such argu- ... the existence also of some ... which can decide what con- ... an unjust war," the ... declared. "Such authority does ... and it is foolish to bear the ... of armaments on the ... having to fight a just war at ... time," he continued. Security ... come through disarmament and ... organization of states in a co- ...was

... problem of disarmament has been ... for over a century since 1815, ... Mr. Booth, and yet nothing has ... accomplished.

... great difficulty lies in defining and ... the actual armaments, the ... said. All features of the nations, ... social, industrial and finan- ... included in the term, armament, ... attempt to discuss merely the ... without considering the other ... is mere hypocrisy. Yet, ... the speaker pointed out, no ... prepared to let its sovereignty ... upon

An Artificial Balance

... this method of preserving peace ... Mr. Booth said, the ... rested upon the theory of ... balance of power. But ... arrangement and is ... change and adjust- ...ation in Europe since the

(Continued on page 2)

PRESIDENT BAILEY TO BE GUEST OF HONOR AT ALLIANCE BANQUET SAT.

... Bailey and Dr. Jule ... the guests of honor ... roof garden of Hotel ...evening at 5.45.

... champenois agrégé of ... Oxford, B. Lit., ... at the University ...don (1919-1926) will ...ng Museum. His ... delivered in French ... France au Moyen ...ges d'Adelarde de ... illustrated with slides ...nuscripts.

... is a delightful ...ality has made him ... United States. He ...g the United States ... lecturer of the ... a large audience ...ed. All students in ...ested

...eam are Professor ... Chaperon, Miss ... Frederic Blais.

SORORITIES COMPLETE FIRST PHASE RUSHING WITH HOUSE PARTIES

Two Will Hold Teas Tonight and Two Others Tomorrow Evening—New Rule Effective

Last night saw the conclusion of the period of open houses for the seven sororities which were held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. Sigma Gamma and Kappa Delta will hold their teas tonight, while Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Beta Phi will hold theirs tomorrow evening. The other societies will entertain prospective members at teas next week.

Sigma Gamma will hold its tea at the home of Miss Marion Little at 210 S. Union Street. The second date in the rushing calendar will likewise be observed by Kappa Delta members at the Greenebowl on upper Pearl Street. The home of Mrs. L. W. Lowe at 81 Williams Street is to be the scene of the tea party of the Alpha Xi Delta society, while the evening will be celebrated in the same manner by the society of Pi Beta Phi at its new chapter house on S. Prospect Street. Delta Delta Delta and Kappa Alpha Theta are to hold their teas respectively Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. The latter will make use of its home on S. Prospect Street while the former is to be at the home of Mrs. S. R. Moulton on the same street

First Nights Successful

It is authoritatively stated that the first three rushing dates were successful at each house and saw a large number of freshmen and some sophomores in attendance.

Rushing will be held in accordance with the regular regulations of the Pan Hellenic Council with the exception that sophomores will not be invited to attend the teas and final open house rushing parties. This is the new ruling recently made by the intersorority governing body.

The final rushing parties will be held from February 10 to 17 and will be governed by rules setting the minimum expense for the party. Not more than thirty-five dollars may be spent by any one society in rushing its new members. At the neutral period, which begins at 10 p.m. Wednesday evening, February 17, restrictions concerning the association among members and students being rushed by each sorority, will be in effect as stated in the printed rules. Sophomores, like the freshmen, will observe the stipulations of the neutral period and the preferential bidding system.

FEBRUARY WINNOWINGS TO BE OFF PRESS SOON

Sales of First Issue Exceeds That of Last Year's Subscriptions

The February issue of the Winnowings from the Mill, the campus literary magazine, which will be off the press in the near future, will be featured by two prize articles of last springs' Tri-State Literary Contest. "A Thundering Hill," a short story by Frances Frost which split for third place with Edward Fitzgerald's "Promise of Heaven" in the contest and an essay, "Memories of a New England Childhood" by Margaret Rice '31, editor of Winnowings last year, which won second prize in the Tri-State are the features. "Song" by Lois Whitcomb '35, "Thoughts from a Hill," "Ghost of Spring," and "Meeres Stille" by Gladys LaFlamme '33, "Song of Late November" by Carolyn Cook '35 will appear in the poetry section. This issue also contains two sketches, "So This Is This" by Marguerite Dunsmore '32 and "The Blue Ship" by Ruth Erwin '34, also a letter, "My Dear" by Mary Norris '32.

The sale of the first issue was successful, exceeding that of last year and the board looks forward to an increase of sales with the publication of the second issue.

Spiller Resigns as Cynic Editor

New Rushing Rule

The following Pan-Hellenic Council rule regulating freshman rushing has recently been passed and is now in effect: Sophomores eligible for rushing are not to be invited to the rushing teas or last parties, but are to observe neutral period and the preferential bidding system.

KAKE WALK WILL OPEN FEBRUARY 20 FOR ONE EVENING OF FESTIVITIES

Novel Publicity Stunt Being Planned by Directors to Combat Depression Factor

"Kake Walk will be held on one night only this year, Saturday, February 20" declared this year's directors, G. Everett Wilder '32 and James W. Marvin '32. "It was decided to make this radical change because of the irregular attendance and financial losses incurred by Kake Walk the first night during the past few years. Kake Walk this year will be bigger and better than ever through its concentration in one night."

Tickets may be obtained and paid for, on Saturday, February 13, 1932, from 2 to 6 p.m., and on Monday, February 15, 1932 from 2 to 6 p.m. at the University Gymnasium. All tickets unclaimed by 6 p.m. Monday will be put on public sale Tuesday, February 16, 1932. This information has already been given out in the Kake Walk letters which have been sent to students and alumni of the University. The directors wish to impress upon the student body the necessity of securing their tickets early. A single performance of the thirty-fifth Annual Kake Walk is indicative of the fact that the limited number of tickets will see an early popular sale.

Publicity Stunt

One feature of this year's Kake Walk will be the novel publicity stunt, for which the directors and the advertising committee are formulating plans. They express the hope that no vacant seats will be found in the U. V. M. gymnasium the night of Saturday, February 20. The names of the fraternities which will present stunts for cups and cakes this year have not yet been announced, but as usual six will be selected from the original eight presented at elimination trials to be held just prior to the presentation of Kake Walk.

Drawings for positions by the various fraternities will be held as follows:

Peerade—R. J. Livingston, chairman; Lambda Iota house, Thursday, February 11, at 7 p.m.

Stunts—A. O. Eaton, chairman; Sigma Phi place, Friday, February 12, at 1.30 p.m.

Kake Walking—S. B. Barker, chairman; Sigma Nu lodge, Friday, February 12, at 7.00 p.m.

Humanity is Bound by Invincible Bonds

So States Reverend Jones of First Church in Wednesday Morning Chapel Service

"You are a prisoner," stated Charles S. Jones, new pastor of the First Congregational Church at Burlington in his chapel address on Wednesday. "We are all prisoners. Each man is a prisoner of his own bad habits, sin and evil actions. In some way or other we are all victims bound by pride, prejudice, time, circumstances, but above all, by happiness and sin. These meshes hold us just as surely as an enemy of society is guarded by the law."

There is no more universal or pathetic cry of humanity than that of deliverance from these invincible bonds. Trying to get out of a certain clique, group or strata, we find ourselves slowly and surely being placed deeper in this prison, behind stronger bars. We attempt to escape from our environment and the

(Continued on page 2)

Fraser Drew is Unanimous Choice as Editor-in-Chief

Attains Position Following Failure of University Council to Ratify Editor-Elect—Spiller and Carter Both Before University Committees in Process

BOARD NEAR DEADLOCK BY RESIGNATION NEWS

At a meeting Wednesday afternoon of the present and retiring editorial boards, which was attended by much keen discussion, Fraser B. Drew '33 of Randolph, was unanimously elected to the position of Editor-in-Chief of the VERMONT CYNIC. Drew's election followed the acceptance by a 12-11 board vote of the resignation of S. Nathan Spiller, who was elected to the same position by the largest majority vote in history at the January 16 meeting.

In the ratification process of the editor-elect, then assumed by the University Council, Spiller and J. C. Carter, the retiring publication head, had both appeared before members of the committee on non-athletic activities and the University Council. Following the election of Spiller by the CYNIC board the University Council failed to effect the ratification. His resignation was presented by President Bailey to Carter at the weekly meeting of the Council held last Monday afternoon. At the meeting of the editorial board the resignation was accepted and the new constitution which had become effective January 18, was temporarily suspended in order to enable the retiring men's board to elect the new editor. This action was taken because of the fact that the new regulations did not provide for the filling of the vacancy of an office whose incumbent had been elected under the rules of the former management.

Spiller's Resignation

The complete text of Spiller's resignation is as follows:

To the VERMONT CYNIC Board.

May I acknowledge with the utmost sincerity the deep appreciation I have for the support you accorded my candidacy for Editor-in-chief of the University publication.

It is with regret that I now submit, for your approval, my resignation from that office. Unfortunately, circumstances have forced me to take such extreme action.

(Signed) S. NATHAN SPILLER.

At the same meeting a unanimous vote elected Managing Editor James P. Bigelow '33 of Fairhaven, also one of the News Editors who had fulfilled the eligibility requirements for the senior editorial positions.

Three amendments were added to the newly adopted editorial constitution by vote of the board acting under it. Theodore Taylor '33 who will serve during the next year as a feature editor, was voted a CYNIC charm. Under the new constitution now in effect the columnist, feature, and intercollegiate editors will be awarded such insignia only upon retirement and when members of the junior class or above.

Drew Active Leader

Drew, the newly elected editor was editor-in-chief of the 1935 Freshman Handbook last year and is now serving as Kake Walk editor of the 1933 Ariel. On the CYNIC he has served as reporter, assistant editor, and news editor. During his sophomore year he was secretary of Gold Key, chairman of the Football Hop and won the Kirby Flower Smith Latin prize. He is treasurer of Eta Sigma Phi, the national classical society, president of Le Cercle Lafayette and treasurer of the junior class. He is assistant director of the forthcoming Kake Walk, director of publicity on the V. C. A. cabinet, and a member of International Relations Club. Drew is affiliated with Lambda Iota fraternity. He has placed on the Dean's high scholastic list every semester and will be next year's president of the Interfraternity Council

GIFFORD LAUDS GOETHE AS GREATEST OF GERMAN POETS, LITERARY MEN

Goethe and the Modern World Will be Discussed by Kuehnemann of Breslau Next Week

"Goethe, the centenary of whose death in 1832 is being celebrated this year by the literary world, stands closer to us, both in time and temper, than do those mighty men of older days and more formal ways. For Goethe, as for youth today, life is at once a protest and a quest. The protest is the rebellion of a dynamic and vibrant soul against those social and artistic conventions that crib, cabin, and confine; the disdain of a noble spirit for all that savors of mediocrity, for all that suggests conformity to whatever is mean or petty simply because it is traditional, and the quest, like our own today, is for fulness of experience, richness of life." Thus states Prof. A. R Gifford of Goethe, the greatest of German poets and literary artists.

Eugen Kuehnemann, professor of philosophy in the University of Breslau, Germany, will lecture on "Goethe and the Modern World," Friday evening, February 12 at 8 o'clock in the Fleming Museum.

This Goethe memorial lecture is included in the University series in participation in a world-wide celebration this centenary. Observance will be most extensive in Germany during the week of March 20-27, Goethe having died March 22, 1832.

The University of Vermont in participating in this great cultural festival celebration has been fortunate to secure so distinguished and eminent a Goethe scholar as Professor Kuehnemann, through the cooperation of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia.

TWO U. V. M. MEN LEAD SERVICES AT CAMBRIDGE

R. H. Bingham and C. H. Drown, both members of the sophomore class conducted the services of the Young Peoples' society last Sunday evening at Cambridge. They went under the direction of the deputations department of the Vermont Christian Association at the request of the pastor of that church.

Sigma Delta announces the pledging of Arthur Darden '35, of Townshend.

SOPHOMORE HOP TAKES PLACE TONIGHT IN HOTEL VERMONT DINING ROOM

The Sophomore Hop, the first formal event of the year, will be held tonight from nine to one in the dining room of the Hotel Vermont to the music of Bob Minotti's seven-piece orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Braun and Prof. and Mrs. W. G. Van Note will act as chaperones.

Tickets for the dance have been on sale at the price of $2.50 a couple, according to a statement by Gordon Davis, chairman of the committee.

Dancing will be preceded by a buffet lunch for the entertainment of the guests. Kay Durick is chairman of the committee in charge of refreshments, and D. E. Benneth, Jr., V. T. Drew, and P. D. Gould are the assisting members.

The program committee is composed of W. Gilbert, chairman, S. W. Fishman, R. Glasstone, A. Greene, and E. Woodward. P. E. Lanou is chairman of the committee in charge of decorations, and he is assisted by P. C. Cummings, Ruth Reynolds, and N. H. Myers.

STUDENT UNION COUNCIL ARGUES POINT SYSTEM

A meeting of Student Union Council was held Thursday noon in the Old Mill Chapel for discussion of the point system in giving Student Union honors. Charlotte Odell '33 is in charge of awarding points to members. Suggestions were also made at the meeting concerning a revision of the Women's Freshman Handbook.

NOTICE

All news and reportorial assignments will be given in the office Tuesday afternoon, February 3, at three o'clock. They are for the following Tuesday issue and will be due not later than Friday noon.

There will be a business meeting Friday, February 5, in the Cynic office at 1:30. All freshmen wishing to serve for associateships should report at that meeting.

CONSTITUTION OF THE VERMONT CYNIC

(Continued from page 5)

[illegible] in the office at the Thursday [illegible] upon termination of his connection with the paper, or upon [illegible] that office.

Sec. 4. A Managing Editor, Business Manager, Editor in Chief, Associate Editor, and the Managing Editor shall each be awarded an engraved certificate of merit, signed by the Board of Trustees, upon retirement from office. Each certificate shall state the office held and the length of time served.

Sec. 5. The Editor in Chief, Associate Editor, and Managing Editor shall be awarded a gold key upon graduation if they have served in their respective offices for a period of not less than one year.

Sec. 6. The Editor in Chief shall have the power to appoint all delegates to intercollegiate press conventions.

ARTICLE XII. Amendment and Amendments

Section 1. This Constitution and all the articles and provisions contained herein shall be ratified by a three-fourths vote of a joint meeting of the retiring and incoming 1931-1932 editorial and departmental boards. It shall become effective Monday, January 18, 1932, and all previous laws, regulations, and rules of said boards which are not contained herein are hereby rendered null and void.

Sec. 2. This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the Board. By-laws may be enacted by a majority vote of the Board.

Drafted in constitutional committee by the unanimous approval of its members, January 14, 1932. In witness whereof we hereby subscribe our names.

Joseph C. Carter '32
Chairman
Lewis Lee Barlow '33
S. Norton Spiller '33
Roberts Hardee '32
Stanley K. Carter '33

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 3970, 3971, 3972

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
286 College Street

DOWNYFLAKE DOUGHNUT and SANDWICH SHOPPE
Church and College Sts.
Two doughnuts and all the coffee you drink for 10 cents.
Brownies
Cup Cakes
Pastries
Rolls
LUNCHES

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 483 or 484

SORORITIES OPEN DOORS FOR FRESHMAN WOMEN

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] the president [illegible] meeting yesterday at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the [illegible] Memorial.

Rushing Dates

	Open House	Tea	Final Party
[illegible]	4	9
[illegible]	4	8	10
[illegible]	4	9	11
[illegible]	4	9	12
[illegible]	4	9	13
[illegible]	4	9	14
[illegible]	4	9	15
[illegible]	4	9	11
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

FRESHMEN ELIGIBLE FOR GREY FRIARS SOCIETY

(Continued from page 1)

The next meeting will be held this month and it is advisable to hand in any finished manuscripts as soon as possible. At this time also, there is an opportunity for a few upperclassmen to receive membership.

It has been the policy of the society to give a banquet twice a year at one of the local hotels at which men and women of the faculty and authors and prominent speakers from this and other states talk on literary and various intellectual movements of the present time.

[illegible] is known as Monsieur does [illegible]

COLLEGES TO CELEBRATE DISARMAMENT PARLEY

[illegible] at 11 am Vermont and [illegible] and private organizations [illegible] observing this day as [illegible] at the World Disarmament Conference at Geneva. Addresses [illegible] and all its [illegible] are being broadcasted at this time over several groups throughout the United States, Canada and the rest of the world.

Consideration is this direction was taken by the 1,200 students who gathered at Boston last December at the Eleventh Quadrennial Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement. The group expressed its satisfaction that Dr. Emma Wheeler, president of Mount Holyoke college, had been appointed a member of the American delegation at Geneva.

Following the wishes of the Buffalo convention, James Green, a senior at Yale University, an editor of the International, is now en route to Geneva to represent the American students at the World Disarmament Conference and to act as a Geneva correspondent.

"A penny for your thoughts."

"A penny, hell! It's the kind of thing you might expect a seat for on Broad[illegible]

WILSON, ENGLISH TENOR TO GIVE VOCAL CONCERT

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] enjoyed his program very much [illegible] an especially good interpreter [illegible] seems to distinguish Mr. Stewart Wilson from other singers is his command of knowledge of music as a whole and his deep background of culture in the musical arts. People who have heard him are affected more strongly by his personality and his powers of interpretation than by his voice.

Mr. Wilson has received many favorable press comments. Olin Downes of the New York Times said of him: "It was a pleasure to hear such an unusual program. Mixed sentiment, and a deep understanding of the poetry of music these qualities Mr. Steuart Wilson's audience was quick to appreciate."

For one thing this artist knows how to couple words to music in such a manner that the listener may not, for once, wonder which came first, but takes it for granted that both were born at the same time . . . . compared with the good diction of more celebrated singers than himself, Steuart Wilson's diction is not good, but perfect. Another of his unusual possessions is a musical taste.

And still another is charm—and Mr. Steuart Wilson's charm is based on reticence which enables him to gain his effect through under-statement—a method which is worth all the ordinary tricks of interpretation."

WILEY TO SPEAK ABOUT REFORMS OF TURKEY

The civil and social reforms [illegible] will be discussed by Walter [illegible] traveling secretary of the Student [illegible] teer Movement who comes here [illegible] day evening February 17 [illegible] auspices of the International [illegible] Club and the Vermont Christian [illegible] ciation. His lecture will be delivered [illegible] the auditorium of the Fleming M[illegible]

Both Hewitt Varney and Pa[illegible] Cross, presidents of the above [illegible] tions affirm:

Mr. Wiley is well qualified to [illegible] the complex and rapid changes [illegible] Near East to audiences in Amer[illegible] is eager to share with college [illegible] his own deep interest in world-wi[illegible] ditions.

Walter B. Wiley received his B.A. [illegible] gree from Dartmouth College in 1918. During the academic year of 1919-20 he served for a few months as a Traveling Secretary of the Student V[illegible] Movement. In the spring of 1[illegible] went to Turkey as a tutor, but [illegible] turbances in that region following [illegible] war compelled him to return after about a year and a half. He then took graduate work at Andover Seminary and completed his theological training at Yale Divinty School in 1924.

Copr. 1931 The American Tobacco Co.

"There's none so good as LUCKIES"

SHE'S MISCHIEVOUS, RESTLESS, AND 20. WEIGHS 112 POUNDS.

Miss Harlow has smoked Luckies for two years . . . not one cent was paid for her signed statement. She rose to stardom in "Hell's Angels" . . . and if you've seen her new COLUMBIA PICTURE, "THREE WISE GIRLS," you'll understand why thousands of girls are trying to match her riotous platinum blonde locks. We appreciate all she writes of Luckies, and so we say, "Thanks, Joan Harlow."

"I've tried all cigarettes and there's none so good as LUCKIES. And incidentally I'm careful in my choice of cigarettes. I have to be because of my throat. Put me down as one who always reaches for a LUCKY. It's a real delight to find a Cellophane wrapper that opens without an ice pick."
Joan Harlow

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1932 | NUMBER 31

Elimination of Injustices is Primary Peace Requisite

Douglass Booth, Carnegie Lecturer of International Club, Declares America Must Take Initiative In Peace and Disarmament Move

SECURITY IS DEPENDENT UPON ARMS REDUCTION

... America to step in and lead ... peace and advance- ... Douglass Booth, Car- ... lecturer and authority ... speaking under aus- ... International Relations Club ... Museum last Tuesday ...

... agreements and injustices ... and settled before the ... the problem of measuring ... the swords, the speaker

Eliminate Injustices

... solution of the disarma- ... would be the elimination ... injustices and other ... to stir up feeling and ... nations. Speaking from ... Balkan affairs Mr. ... has points with examples ... nations in that part of ... boundaries have been ... without regard to the races ... minorities are being op- ... even the great powers, ... Italy are oppressing and ... the people. In addition, high ... prejudices, unjust discrimina- ... multitude of like influences ... working toward the conflict of the ... of these irritating factors ... dealt with before people will ... these have been removed and ... is favorable, disarmament will ... follow but sincere reduction ... will not come first.

Security Through Disarmament

... Mr Booth presented many ... against large expenditures for ... "Although men have argued ... existence of 'just wars,' such argu- ... imply the existence also of some ... which can decide what con- ... a just or an unjust war," the ... declared. "Such authority does ... and it is foolish to bear the ... expense of armaments on the ... of having to fight a just war at ... time," he continued. Security ... come through disarmament and ... organization of states in a co- ... way.

... problem of disarmament has been ... for over a century since 1815, ... Mr Booth, and yet nothing has ... accomplished.

... great difficulty lies in defining and ... the actual armaments, the ... said. "All features of the nations, ... social, industrial and finan- ... included in the term, armament, ... attempt to discuss merely the ... without considering the other ... is mere hypocrisy. Yet, ... the speaker pointed out, no ... prepared to let its sovereignty ... upon.

An Artificial Balance

... this method of preserving peace ... Mr. Booth said, the ... rested upon the theory of ... the balance of power. But ... artificial arrangement and is ... constant change and adjust- ... situation in Europe since the

(Continued on page 2)

PRESIDENT BAILEY TO BE GUEST OF HONOR AT ALLIANCE BANQUET SAT.

... W. Bailey and Dr. Jule ... the guests of honor ... roof garden of Hotel ... evening at 5.45.

... Champenois agrégé of ... A., Oxford, B. Lit., ... at the University ... (1919-1926) will ... Museum. His ... delivered in French ... on France au Moyen ... d'Adelarde de ... illustrated with slides ... manuscripts.

... is a delightful ... ality has made him ... United States. He ... the United States ... lecturer of the ... and a large audience ... All students in ... invited.

... are Professor ... Chaperon. Miss ... Frederic Blais.

SORORITIES COMPLETE FIRST PHASE RUSHING WITH HOUSE PARTIES

Two Will Hold Teas Tonight and Two Others Tomorrow Evening—New Rule Effective

Last night saw the conclusion of the period of open houses for the seven sororities which were held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings. Sigma Gamma and Kappa Delta will hold their teas tonight, while Alpha Xi Delta and Pi Beta Phi will hold theirs tomorrow evening. The other societies will entertain prospective members at teas next week.

Sigma Gamma will hold its tea at the home of Miss Marion Little at 210 S. Union Street. The second date in the rushing calendar will likewise be observed by Kappa Delta members at the Greenebowl on upper Pearl Street. The home of Mrs. L. W. Lowe at 81 Williams Street is to be the scene of the tea party of the Alpha Xi Delta society, while the evening will be celebrated in the same manner by the society of Pi Beta Phi at its new chapter house on S. Prospect Street. Delta Delta Delta and Kappa Alpha Theta are to hold their teas respectively Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week. The latter will make use of its home on S. Prospect Street while the former is to be at the home of Mrs. S. R. Moulton on the same street.

First Nights Successful

It is authoritatively stated that the first three rushing dates were successful at each house and saw a large number of freshmen and some sophomores in attendance.

Rushing will be held in accordance with the regular regulations of the Pan-Hellenic Council with the exception that sophomores will not be invited to attend the teas and final open house rushing parties. This is the new ruling recently made by the intersorority governing body.

The final rushing parties will be held from February 10 to 17 and will be governed by rules setting the minimum expense for the party. Not more than thirty-five dollars may be spent by any one society in rushing its new members. At the neutral period, which begins at 10 p.m. Wednesday evening, February 17, restrictions concerning the association among members and students being rushed by each sorority, will be in effect as stated in the printed rules. Sophomores, like the freshmen, will observe the stipulations of the neutral period and the preferential bidding system.

FEBRUARY WINNOWINGS TO BE OFF PRESS SOON

Sales of First Issue Exceeds That of Last Year's Subscriptions

The February issue of the Winnowings from the Mill, the campus literary magazine, which will be off the press in the near future, will be featured by two prize articles of last springs' Tri-State Literary Contest. "A Thundering Hill," a short story by Frances Frost which split for third place with Edward Fitzgerald's "Promise of Heaven" in the contest and an essay, "Memories of a New England Childhood" by Margaret Rice '31, editor of Winnowings last year, which won second prize in the Tri-State are the features. "Song" by Lois Whitcomb '35, "Thoughts from a Hill," "Ghost of Spring," and "Meeres Stille" by Gladys LaFlamme '33, "Song of Late November" by Carolyn Cook '35 will appear in the poetry section. This issue also contains two sketches, "So This Is This" by Marguerite Dunsmore '32 and "The Blue Ship" by Ruth Erwin '34, also a letter, "My Dear" by Mary Norris '32.

The sale of the first issue was successful, exceeding that of last year and the board looks forward to an increase of sales with the publication of the second issue.

Spiller Resigns as Cynic Editor

New Rushing Rule

The following Pan-Hellenic Council rule regulating freshman rushing has recently been passed and is now in effect: Sophomores eligible for rushing are not to be invited to the rushing teas or last parties, but are to observe neutral period and the preferential bidding system.

KAKE WALK WILL OPEN FEBRUARY 20 FOR ONE EVENING OF FESTIVITIES

Novel Publicity Stunt Being Planned by Directors to Combat Depression Factor

"Kake Walk will be held on one night only this year, Saturday, February 20" declared this year's directors, G. Everett Wilder '32 and James W. Marvin '32. "It was decided to make this radical change because of the irregular attendance and financial losses incurred by Kake Walk the first night during the past few years. Kake Walk this year will be bigger and better than ever through its concentration in one night."

Tickets may be obtained and paid for, on Saturday, February 13, 1932, from 2 to 6 p.m., and on Monday, February 15, 1932 from 2 to 6 p.m. at the University Gymnasium. All tickets unclaimed by 6 p.m. Monday will be put on public sale Tuesday, February 16, 1932. This information has already been given out in the Kake Walk letters which have been sent to students and alumni of the University. The directors wish to impress upon the student body the necessity of securing their tickets early. A single performance of the thirty-fifth Annual Kake Walk is indicative of the fact that the limited number of tickets will see an early popular sale.

Publicity Stunt

One feature of this year's Kake Walk will be the novel publicity stunt, for which the directors and the advertising committee are formulating plans. They express the hope that no vacant seats will be found in the U. V. M. gymnasium the night of Saturday, February 20. The names of the fraternities which will present stunts for cups and cakes this year have not yet been announced, but as usual six will be selected from the original eight presented at elimination trials to be held just prior to the presentation of Kake Walk.

Drawings for positions by the various fraternities will be held as follows:

Peerade—R. J. Livingston, chairman; Lambda Iota house, Thursday, February 11, at 7 p.m.

Stunts—A. O. Eaton, chairman; Sigma Phi place, Friday, February 12, at 1.30 p.m.

Kake Walking—S. B. Barker, chairman; Sigma Nu lodge, Friday, February 12, at 7.00 p.m.

Humanity is Bound by Invincible Bonds

So States Reverend Jones of First Church in Wednesday Morning Chapel Service

"You are a prisoner," stated Charles S. Jones, new pastor of the First Congregational Church at Burlington in his chapel address on Wednesday. "We are all prisoners. Each man is a prisoner of his own bad habits, sin and evil actions. In some way or other we are all victims bound by pride, prejudice, time, circumstances, but above all, by happiness and sin. These meshes hold us just as surely as an enemy of society is guarded by the law."

There is no more universal or pathetic cry of humanity than that of deliverance from these invincible bonds. Trying to get out of a certain clique, group or strata, we find ourselves slowly and surely being placed deeper in this prison, behind stronger bars. We attempt to escape from our environment and the

(Continued on page 2)

Fraser Drew is Unanimous Choice as Editor-in-Chief

Attains Position Following Failure of University Council to Ratify Editor-Elect—Spiller and Carter Both Before University Committees in Process

BOARD NEAR DEADLOCK BY RESIGNATION NEWS

At a meeting Wednesday afternoon of the present and retiring editorial boards, which was attended by much keen discussion, Fraser B. Drew '33 of Randolph, was unanimously elected to the position of Editor-in-Chief of the VERMONT CYNIC. Drew's election followed the acceptance by a 12-11 board vote of the resignation of S. Nathan Spiller, who was elected to the same position by the largest majority vote in history at the January 16 meeting.

In the ratification process of the editor-elect, then assumed by the University Council, Spiller and J. C. Carter, the retiring publication head, had both appeared before members of the committee on non-athletic activities and the University Council. Following the election of Spiller by the CYNIC board the University Council failed to effect the ratification. His resignation was presented by President Bailey to Carter at the weekly meeting of the Council held last Monday afternoon. At the meeting of the editorial board the resignation was accepted and the new constitution which had become effective January 18, was temporarily suspended in order to enable the retiring men's board to elect the new editor. This action was taken because of the fact that the new regulations did not provide for the filling of the vacancy of an office whose incumbent had been elected under the rules of the former management.

Spiller's Resignation

The complete text of Spiller's resignation is as follows:

To the VERMONT CYNIC Board:

May I acknowledge with the utmost sincerity the deep appreciation I have for the support you accorded my candidacy for Editor-in-chief of the University publication.

It is with regret that I now submit, for your approval, my resignation from that office. Unfortunately, circumstances have forced me to take such extreme action.

(Signed) S. NATHAN SPILLER.

At the same meeting a unanimous vote elected Managing Editor James E. Bigelow '33 of Fairhaven, also one of the News Editors who had fulfilled the eligibility requirements for the senior editorial positions.

Three amendments were added to the newly adopted editorial constitution by vote of the board acting under it. Theodore Taylor '33 who will serve during the next year as a feature editor, was voted a CYNIC charm. Under the new constitution now in effect the columnist, feature, and intercollegiate editors will be awarded such insignia only upon retirement and when members of the junior class or above.

Drew Active Leader

Drew, the newly elected editor was editor-in-chief of the 1935 Freshman Handbook last year and is now serving as Kake Walk editor of the 1933 Ariel. On the CYNIC he has served as reporter, assistant editor, and news editor. During his sophomore year he was secretary of Gold Key, chairman of the Football Hop and won the Kirby Flower Smith Latin prize. He is treasurer of Eta Sigma Phi, the national classical society, president of Le Cercle Lafayette and treasurer of the junior class. He is assistant director of the forthcoming Kake Walk, director of publicity on the V. C. A. cabinet, and a member of International Relations Club. Drew is affiliated with Lambda Iota fraternity. He has placed on the Dean's high scholastic list every semester and will be next year's president of the Interfraternity Council.

GIFFORD LAUDS GOETHE AS GREATEST OF GERMAN POETS, LITERARY MEN

Goethe and the Modern World Will be Discussed by Kuehnemann of Breslau Next Week

"Goethe, the centenary of whose death in 1832 is being celebrated this year by the literary world, stands closer to us, both in time and temper, than do those mighty men of older days and more formal ways. For Goethe, as for youth today, life is at once a protest and a quest. The protest is the rebellion of a dynamic and vibrant soul against those social and artistic conventions that crib, cabin, and confine; the disdain of a noble spirit for all that savors of mediocrity, for all that suggests conformity to whatever is mean or petty simply because it is traditional, and the quest, like our own today, is for fulness of experience, richness of life." Thus states Prof. A. R. Gifford of Goethe, the greatest of German poets and literary artists.

Eugen Kuehnemann, professor of philosophy in the University of Breslau, Germany, will lecture on "Goethe and the Modern World," Friday evening, February 12 at 8 o'clock in the Fleming Museum.

This Goethe memorial lecture is included in the University series in participation in a world-wide celebration this centenary. Observance will be most extensive in Germany during the week of March 20-27, Goethe having died March 22, 1832.

The University of Vermont in participating in this great cultural festival celebration has been fortunate to secure so distinguished and eminent a Goethe scholar as Professor Kuehnemann, through the cooperation of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia.

TWO U. V. M. MEN LEAD SERVICES AT CAMBRIDGE

R. H. Bingham and C. H. Drown, both members of the sophomore class conducted the services of the Young Peoples' society last Sunday evening at Cambridge. They went under the direction of the deputations department of the Vermont Christian Association at the request of the pastor of that church.

Sigma Delta announces the pledging of Arthur Darden '35, of Townshend.

SOPHOMORE HOP TAKES PLACE TONIGHT IN HOTEL VERMONT DINING ROOM

The Sophomore Hop, the first formal event of the year, will be held tonight from nine to one in the dining room of the Hotel Vermont to the music of Bob Minotti's seven-piece orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Braun and Prof. and Mrs. W. G. Van Note will act as chaperones.

Tickets for the dance have been on sale at the price of $2.50 a couple, according to a statement by Gordon Davis, chairman of the committee.

Dancing will be preceded by a buffet lunch for the entertainment of the guests. Kay Durick is chairman of the committee in charge of refreshments, and D. E. Bennett, Jr., V. T. Drew, and P. D. Gould are the assisting members.

The program committee is composed of W. Gilbert, chairman, S. W. Fishman, R. Glasstone, A. Greene, and E. Woodward. P. E. Lanou is chairman of the committee in charge of decorations, and he is assisted by P. C. Cummings, Ruth Reynolds, and N. H. Myers.

STUDENT UNION COUNCIL ARGUES POINT SYSTEM

A meeting of Student Union Council was held Thursday noon in the Old Mill Chapel for discussion of the point system in giving Student Union honors. Charlotte Odel '33 is in charge of awarding points to members. Suggestions were also made at the meeting concerning a revision of the Women's Freshman Handbook.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

Business Manager
Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

ANNOUNCE THREE PRIZE WINNERS IN NATIONAL EDITORIAL COMPETITION

Vermont Enters With Twenty-three Other Writers of Student Peace Essays

Students Leading Thought

First Prize Editorial

Bits of Bunk

Smith College's 584 freshmen have been given college "bibles" neat little gilt-edge volumes that tell What Smith is all about. A few of the "hints" are:

"Communism has never been successfully worked out. Wear your own clothes and let others wear theirs."

"Bridge is the thief of time."

"Remember you came to Smith, not to Amherst."

"Answer your parents' inquiries about life at Smith. The president has not time to fill out questionnaires."

"Don't consider it necessary to diet before your first vacation. Your family will be just as glad to see you if you look familiar."

The dean of men at Princeton declared in a recent address that one-third of the undergraduates in American colleges and universities today had no business ever going beyond high school.

As a penalty for drinking a student at Centenary College was ordered by the judge to go to Sunday School six times.

Moral: Watch thou thy step.

II. Goethe a Philosopher

Prof. (sternly) This essay on Our Dog is word for word the same as your brother's.

Frosh Yes sir, it's the same dog.

NOTICE

Only freshman men and women are eligible for positions as reporters on the board of the Vermont Cynic, under the provisions of the newly adopted constitution. Candidates must enter competition immediately to be eligible to attain such positions when the selection is made during the first week of March

APPOINT TWO DELEGATES TO NORTHFIELD MEET

UNIVERSITY TEAM WILL DEBATE AT LOCAL CLUB

George W. Patterson '34 and Paul J. LaCross '35 will debate with Roberta Powers '35 and Ruth Erwin '34 at the Burton Club this afternoon on the topic Resolved that Burlington should adopt zoning regulations. Both Roberta Powers and Ruth Erwin have debated on this topic last year before other organizations in Burlington. George Patterson was on the freshmen team which won over the sophomores in the annual Bailey Cup Debate. Paul LaCross is manager and debater on the men's varsity debating team.

Temple University offers credits for studies in "Social Etiquette." Barnard College grants credits to all who take the course in "Resting" on the roof of Barnard Hall. New York University offers credits in "Personality Development." Southern California encourages students to look up their own family trees in a course in "Genealogy." "Waiting on Table" is in the curriculum at Ohio State.

HUMANITY IS BOUND BY INVINCIBLE BONDS

(Continued from page 1

ELIMINATION OF ALL INJUSTICES NECESSARY

(Continued from page 1)

war was used to illustrate the p... the speaker declared that there... strong tendency now towards ... Germany, fostered by Italy ... small extent by England.

Britain hopes to get the Unite... into the League of Nations, the... said, not because it would be good ... United States but because the l... the germ of a good thing. Great ... is gradually relinquishing its ... place as a leader of world affairs ... is using the League merely to ... the status quo in Europe and ... its dominant position.

The Wet Hen of South Dak... versity has been censored by a... the state legislature because the... sored a contest for the most ... lips." Abolition of the magaz... threatened if the editors failed to ... with the terms of the law.

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
102A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

Feathertouch

Speeds classroom notes and all writing

The ONLY Genuine Lifetime° Guarantee is Sheaffer's; do not be deceived! Other pens may be guaranteed against defect, but Sheaffer's Lifetime° is guaranteed against everything excepting loss for your lifetime. Sheaffer's Lifetime° pens from $7; Sheaffer's Feathertouch Lifetime° pens from $8; Sheaffer's Autograph Lifetime° with 14-karat solid gold band suitable for duplicate of your actual signature (serving for identification) from $13.50. Autograph pencils from $9. Other Sheaffer pens from $3, pencils from $2.50.

Here's a real news flash from Sheaffer to the college world ... announcing the new Feathertouch point! Speeds classroom notes. Fast as greased lightning in action ... as soft as a feather in its silk-smooth stroke! Sheaffer designers achieved Double-Control Flow for the first time in any pen! Specially treated upper gold section retards the flow to heart pierce, forming reservoir, while platinum-glazed channel induces just the right flow to iridium point. With incredible ease Feathertouch flashes your written work to a quick finish! Now available in all Lifetime° pens.

SAFETY SKRIP. SKRIP. FILLED. Sheaffer's Carry-no-lose Safety Skrip in your pocket or bag to close—prevents crushed linens, furniture—keeps fluid fresh, making all pens write better.

Sheaffer First in American Colleges

A disinterested survey shows Sheaffer first in fountain pen sales in 73 out of the 100 leading American Colleges having a registration of 1700 or more.

SHEAFFER'S
PENS·PENCILS·DESK SETS·SKRIP

W. A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPANY FORT MADISON, IOWA, U.S.A.
And All Principal Cities of the World

"Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. ©1934 W. A. S. P. Co.

SPORTS NEWS

OSTON UNIVERSITY TO PLAY GREEN AND GOLD SATURDAY NIGHT AT GYM

ontpelier Seminary Meets Kit-tens in Preliminary—Reynolds and Hamilton to be Missing basketball team tackles sity five at the gym- evening. Boston Uni- plays the Green and the record is three wins one for B. U. The will have a chance to this season, if the did against Tufts so far Massachusetts jinx this year for In football the Cata- terrific trouncing from In cross country ight match to Amherst, over Williams earlier However, Tufts beat sketball, with a return ty has had a fairly so far and will attempt Massachusetts slate clean in ment. Vermont on the t begin to rebuild the had before they played t team must prove its eted honor of varsity Last Tuesday night the

TENNIS MEN TO REPORT TO COACH CARPENTER

Tennis candidates of both varsity and freshman teams held a preliminary meeting Wednesday afternoon in the gymnasium with Coach F. D. Carpenter.

Tentative plans for the season were announced and a schedule for practice in the cage was assigned.

While last year's tennis season at Vermont was mediocre not much can be said at this time for the coming schedule six or eight weeks away. Among those who reported for the varsity squad were Captain Woodward, Albert, Tupper, Bisson, Wilson, N. Myers, and Mulcahy.

Not much is known of the frosh but those who reported have all had some high school or tournamemnt play. These include F. Wright, Fiske, Hart, W. Myers, Eastman, and Wescott.

second team showed the fans what Coach Burke taught his men in practice. Indeed the fast little crew of men effected the change in offensive which made the game a game and not a track meet.

If the shooting of the team is up to standard, the Catamounts stand a fine chance to win tomorrow night. However, if the team continues to play a dead game of ball, the second team will lead the way in the scoring.

Preliminary practices have been fast and furious since Tuesday and Coach Burke expects to have every man looking alive tomorrow night. The first team consisting of Beckley, Taft, Tupper, Morgan, and Durfey will probably start in tomorrow's game. On reserve are the second and third teams in readiness to snatch victory from defeat.

SOPHS TRIUMPH OVER FROSH FOR INTERCLASS CHAMPIONSHIP 32-22

Preliminary to Varsity Contest is Fast and Well Played—Cogswell and Bent are Stars

The smooth playing sophomore quintet decisively won the class basketball championship by 32-22 score from the freshmen last Tuesday night in the final game which was played as a preliminary to the varsity game with Tufts. Except for a few minutes early in the first period, the sophomores were never led by the frosh. The score at the half was 21-10 and at the beginning of the fourth quarter, 26-12. In the last period the frosh rallied valiantly but too late. Neither team was at its full pre-examination strength and both showed the lack of recent practice. Cogswell was high scorer with twelve points and Meligonis and Bent led the freshmen with six apiece.

Cogswell opened the scoring with a floor shot, but Meligonis and Rock popped two quick baskets to put the freshmen in the lead. Joe Delfausse and Morse tied the score with fouls and from then on the sophs were not headed. Following a freshman time out, Cogswell and Joe Delfausse gained seven points for the sophomores. Roly Delfausse stepshot, making the period score 11-6.

Squires gave the freshmen two points early in the second quarter by tapping Giardi's foul miss back into the basket. After that until the last period the sophomores steadily advanced their lead.

Frosh Rally

Going into the last period with the score 26-12 against them, the freshmen led by Bent, Meligonis, and Wright forced the play. Bent scored six points by himself. However, Green, Cogswell, and Brislin retained a safe lead for the sophomores. Harry Albert refereed and Jack Libby was time keeper.

(Continued on page 4)

Jumbos Triumph Over Cats 23-17 in Rugged Contest

Game Rough and Closely Contested at all Times—Coach Burke Uses Two Different Teams in Attempt to Wear Down Opponents

CATAMOUNT FENCERS DROP OPENER TO MC GILL

Score of Montreal Contest 21-4, Staged Saturday Evening at the Union—Wigger Stars for Winners

The Catamount fencers got off to an inauspicious start last Saturday evening in Montreal, when they were cut down by a veteran McGill team by a 21-4 count.

Handicapped by a dearth of experienced material and sufficient practice, the coachless Catamounts were at a decided disadvantage against the strong Redmen who are expected by their followers to clean up the Canadian intercollegiate matches at Kingston this month.

The bouts were fought out on the basis of three out of a possible five touches for a win. The Canadians opened up strong and ran up ten consecutive victories before Captain Shuman downed McAllister by a 3-2 count. Buglino followed this up by defeating Perrault 3-2. Berger then dropped a love set to Moll by a 3-0 count. In the second to last match Burrows for the Green and Gold gave good account of himself although losing to Demontigny 3-2.

All told McGill scored seventy-one touches, to the Catamounts thirty-five. Captain Wiggers, Moll and Demontigny were all outstanding for the winners, while Captain Schuman was the shining light for the Green and Gold.

CATS UNABLE TO HIT HOOP CONSISTENTLY

The University of Vermont basketball team lost its first intercollegiate contest of the year to Tufts College in a fast, rough, and rather loosely played game last Tuesday evening at the gymnasium by a 23-17 score. Tufts College exhibited a fast breaking, clever offensive, with a floor work which left Vermont far behind. Vermont's first five were replaced by a fighting second team when things looked very bad for the Green and Gold five.

Coach Burke showed his strategy when he put in the second team to replace the varsity. The seconds put up a game which matched that of Tufts. It must be admitted that the difference in the speed of the two Vermont teams was shown up. The speedy combination of Pires and Valerio ran the opposing teams guards ragged in their attempts. When in the second half Tufts was looking at its worst in condition, Burke put in the first team and before Tufts could recover itself, the score had been tied at fifteen all. However, as soon as Tufts speeded up their tactics, they ran up the score to the final one.

The loss of the versatile Eddie Saba was keenly felt by all members of the team. Nevertheless this did not account for the poor shooting of the team members. The foul shooting was not an iota as good as it was expected to be. The rough first half resulted in many free throws which Vermont did not avail themselves. During the last half Vermont tried by long shots to even up the score and lost many valuable points in this manner. Step shots were lacking as were follow shots.

The diminutive Mike Valerio played a fine game in the time the second team was on the floor. His fighting spirit undaunted by a small body was enough to worry the Tufts team. Farwell played a heady game at center. His clean passwork and floorwork pacified the other members. Winant and Collins speeded up the work off the backboards.

Tufts on the other hand kept in the same throughout the game. Cochran and

(Continued on page 4)

CATS MEOW

After an absence of half a year the heading for this column again appears. We hope you will like it.

Congratulations are in order to our new football coaching staff. May the successes of the past continue to befall the lot of the new mentors.

It usually takes some drastic upheaval to make people realize that something has gone wrong. That is what has happened to the athletic situation this mid-years.

The freshman athletic mortality rate is higher than usual, and the same trend is noticed among the upperclass athletes.

The same situation applies here as to the weather, everybody is always talking about it, but nobody ever seems to do much about it.

There used to be an eligibility department but it seems to have died a natural death, although the benefits of it were apparent.

It seems that Prevention rather than Cure should be stressed. Someone always has to take the initiative, let us hope someone does soon.

Boston University is here tomorrow night with a fast club. However, the Catamounts look good for a victory.

Herb Semino and Bill Lowder former Greater Boston schoolboy stars, are prominent in the Terriers attack.

TURKS of Burlington

Skii Clothing

Colder weather and snow in the offing suggest preparedness for winter sports.

Are you ready?

For Sport Togs---Turk's

Second Semester Books and Supplies are now on SALE at the UNIVERSITY STORE

BOSTONIANS Shoes for Men

B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

COLLEGE SUPPLIES

U. V. M. DIE-STAMPED STATIONERY

BANNERS PILLOW TOPS

McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

25 SUITS AND 25 OVERCOATS AT Half Price
Regular Prices $20 to $50
NOW $10 to $25

Miles & Perry Company
QUALITY CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

FORMAL CLOTHES FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Dress up in a new Tuxedo Friday Night.

Tuxedos	$25 and up
Dress Shirts	$2.50 to $3.50
Studs and Links	$1.00 to $2.50
Tuxedo Rentals	$3.00

• • • •

HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.
127 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Collegiate Newspaper Association

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

ANNOUNCE THREE PRIZE WINNERS IN NATIONAL EDITORIAL COMPETITION

Vermont Enters With Twenty-three Other Writers of Student Peace Essays

Students Leading Thought

First Prize Editorial

Bits of Bunk

South College's 584 freshmen have been given college "bibles" neat little gilt-edge volumes that tell "What South is all about." A few of the "hints" are: "Communism has never been successfully worked out. Wear your own clothes and let others wear theirs."

"Dodge is the thief of time."

Remember you came to Smith not to Amherst."

"Answer your parents' inquiries about life at Smith. The president has not time to fill out questionnaires."

Don't consider it necessary to diet before your first vacation. Your family will be just as glad to see you if you look familiar."

The dean of men at Princeton declared in a recent address, that one-third of the undergraduates in American colleges and universities today had no business even getting beyond high school.

As a penalty for drinking a student at Colorado University was ordered to go to college to go to Sunday School for three years.

Moral: Watch them the first

II. Goethe a Philosopher

Pupil (stands) This essay on Our Dog is word for word the same as your brother's.

Teacher Yes sir, it's the same dog.

NOTICE

Only freshman men and women are eligible for positions as reporters on the board of the Vermont Cynic, under the provisions of the newly adopted constitution. Candidates must enter competition immediately to be eligible to attain such positions when the selection is made during the first week of March.

APPOINT TWO DELEGATES TO NORTHFIELD MEET

and William ... meets on the men's ... Christian Asso... appointed Wed... to represent ... conference to ... '34 at Northfield, ... conference, at which ... from nearly ... will be pres... for Creative Liv... The leaders ... Page, editor of The ... director of social ... and writer for a peaceful inter... and Douglass V. ... professor of philosophy ... College.

... the student gathering ... the delegates and the ... It is expected that a ... will accompany the ... in accordance with the ... the New England commit...

UNIVERSITY TEAM WILL DEBATE AT LOCAL CLUB

George W. Patterson '34 and Paul J. ... '32 will debate with Roberta ... '34 and Ruth Erwin '34 at the ... Club this afternoon on the topic: ... that Burlington should adopt ... regulations. Both Roberta Powers and Ruth Erwin have debated on this ... last year before other organizations ... Burlington. George Patterson was on the freshmen team which won over the sophomores in the annual Bailey Cup Debate. Paul LaCross is manager and debater of the men's varsity debating team.

Temple University offers credits for studies in "Social Etiquette." Barnard College grants credits to all who take the course in "Resting" on the roof of Barnard Hall. New York University offers credits in "Personality Development." Southern California encourages students to look up their own family trees in a course in "Genealogy." "Waiting on Table" is in the curriculum at Ohio State.

HUMANITY IS BOUND BY INVINCIBLE BONDS

(Continued from page 1)

narrowness of our ... find it impossible.

People try to free ... Such an imprisoned ... methods. Some seek ... dom through dissipa... themselves as a result more dang... emeshed and more surely entangled. Others attempt an escape ... legitimate, though ... recreation. Still others ... through education. But ... with all their knowledge ... study they are still bo... circumstances. We come ... obtain deliverance from ... inferiority.

This latter group finds ... way out, another different way. ... is a way which will release ... prison bars of evil, from ... bonds of our environment ... stances. "That way is Christ," ... Reverend Jones. Seeking ... other methods of escape ... we find that through Christ ... deliverance to freedom.

ELIMINATION OF ALL INJUSTICES NECESSARY

(Continued from page 1)

war was used to illustrate ... the speaker declared that ... strong tendency now to... Germany, fostered by ... small extent by England.

Britain hopes to get the ... into the League of Nations, ... said, not because it would ... United States but because ... the germ of a good thing ... is gradually relinquishing ... place as a leader of world ... is using the League merely ... the status quo in Europe ... its dominant position.

The Wet Hen of South Dakota University has been censored by an act of the state legislature because ... censored a contest for the most ... lips." Abolition of the ... threatened if the editors failed to ... with the terms of the law.

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
182A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

Feathertouch

Speeds classroom notes and all writing

The ONLY Genuine Lifetime® Guarantee is Sheaffer's: do not be deceived! Other pens may be guaranteed against defect, but Sheaffer's Lifetime® is guaranteed against everything excepting loss for your lifetime. Sheaffer's Lifetime® pens from $7; Sheaffer's Feathertouch Lifetime® pens from $8; Sheaffer's Autograph Lifetime® with 14-karat solid gold band suitable for duplicate of your actual signature (serving for identification) from $13.50. Autograph pencils from $9. Other Sheaffer pens from $3, pencils from $2.50.

Here's a real news flash from Sheaffer to the college world ... announcing the new Feathertouch point! Speeds classroom notes. Fast as greased lightning in action ... as soft as a feather in its silk-smooth stroke! Sheaffer designers achieved Double-Control Flow for the first time in any pen! Specially treated upper gold section retards the flow to heart pierce, forming reservoir, while platinum-glazed channel induces just the right flow to iridium point. With incredible ease Feathertouch flashes your written work to a quick finish! Now available in all Lifetime® pens.

SAFETY SKRIP. SKRIP. ... Sold by Carry with ... lockable Safety Skrip in your ... purse or box to close—protects ... clothes, linens, furniture—keeps ... fluid fresh, makes all pens ... write better.

Sheaffer First in American Colleges

A disinterested survey shows Sheaffer first in fountain pen sales in 73 out of the 100 Leading American Colleges having a registration of 1700 or more.

SHEAFFER'S
PENS · PENCILS · DESK SETS · SKRIP
W. A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPANY · FORT MADISON, IOWA, U.S.A.
And All Principal Cities of the World
*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. ©W. A. S. P. Co., 1933

SPORTS NEWS

OSTON UNIVERSITY TO PLAY GREEN AND GOLD SATURDAY NIGHT AT GYM

ontpelier Seminary Meets Kitens in Preliminary—Reynolds and Hamilton to be Missing basketball team tackles ty five at the gym- evening. Boston Uiays the Green and record is three wins ne for B. U. The will have a chance to this season, it the did against Tufts far Massachusetts jinx this year for In football the Catatrouncing from In cross country match to Amherst, over Williams earlier However, Tufts beat football, with a return has had a fairly far and will attempt sachusetts slate clean in nt. Vermont on the begin to rebuild the had before they played team must prove its ted honor of varsity last Tuesday night the second team showed the fans what Coach Burke taught his men in practice. Indeed the fast little crew of men effected the change in offensive which made the game a game and not a track meet.

If the shooting of the team is up to standard, the Catamounts stand a fine chance to win tomorrow night. However, if the team continues to play a dead game of ball, the second team will lead the way in the scoring.

Preliminary practices have been fast and furious since Tuesday and Coach Burke expects to have every man looking alive tomorrow night. The first team consisting of Beckley, Taft, Tupper, Morgan, and Durfey will probably start in tomorrow's game. On reserve are the second and third teams in readiness to snatch victory from defeat.

TENNIS MEN TO REPORT TO COACH CARPENTER

Tennis candidates of both varsity and freshman teams held a preliminary meeting Wednesday afternoon in the gymnasium with Coach F. D. Carpenter.

Tentative plans for the season were announced and a schedule for practice in the cage was assigned.

While last year's tennis season at Vermont was mediocre not much can be said at this time for the coming schedule six or eight weeks away. Among those who reported for the varsity squad were Captain Woodward, Albert, Tupper, Bisson, Wilson, N. Myers, and Mulcahy.

Not much is known of the frosh but those who reported have all had some high school or tournamemnt play. These include F. Wright, Fiske, Hart, W. Myers, Eastman, and Wescott.

SOPHS TRIUMPH OVER FROSH FOR INTERCLASS CHAMPIONSHIP 32-22

Preliminary to Varsity Contest is Fast and Well Played—Cogswell and Bent are Stars

The smooth playing sophomore quintet decisively won the class basketball championship by 32-22 score from the freshmen last Tuesday night in the final game which was played as a preliminary to the varsity game with Tufts. Except for a few minutes early in the first period, the sophomores were never led by the frosh. The score at the half was 21-10 and at the beginning of the fourth quarter, 26-12. In the last period the frosh rallied valiantly but too late. Neither team was at its full pre-examination strength and both showed the lack of recent practice. Cogswell was high scorer with twelve points and Meligonis and Bent led the freshmen with six apiece.

Cogswell opened the scoring with a floor shot, but Meligonis and Rock popped two quick baskets to put the freshmen in the lead. Joe Delfausse and Morse tied the score with fouls and from then on the sophs were not headed. Following a freshman time out, Cogswell and Joe Delfausse gained seven points for the sophomores. Roly Delfausse stepshot, making the period score 11-6.

Squires gave the freshmen two points early in the second quarter by tapping Giardi's foul miss back into the basket. After that until the last period the sophomores steadily advanced their lead.

Frosh Rally

Going into the last period with the score 26-12 against them, the freshmen led by Bent, Meligonis, and Wright forced the play. Bent scored six points by himself. However, Green, Cogswell, and Brislin retained a safe lead for the sophomores. Harry Albert refereed and Jack Libby was time keeper.

(Continued on page 4)

Jumbos Triumph Over Cats 23-17 in Rugged Contest

Game Rough and Closely Contested at all Times—Coach Burke Uses Two Different Teams in Attempt to Wear Down Opponents

CATAMOUNT FENCERS DROP OPENER TO MC GILL

Score of Montreal Contest 21-4, Staged Saturday Evening at the Union—Wigger Stars for Winners

The Catamount fencers got off to an inauspicious start last Saturday evening in Montreal, when they were cut down by a veteran McGill team by a 21-4 count.

Handicapped by a dearth of experienced material and sufficient practice, the coachless Catamounts were at a decided disadvantage against the strong Redmen who are expected by their followers to clean up the Canadian intercollegiate matches at Kingston this month.

The bouts were fought out on the basis of three out of a possible five touches for a win. The Canadians opened up strong and ran up ten consecutive victories before Captain Shuman downed McAllister by a 3-2 count. Buglino followed this up by defeating Perrault 3-2. Berger then dropped a love set to Moll by a 3-0 count. In the second to last match Burrows for the Green and Gold gave good account of himself although losing to Demontigny 3-2.

All told McGill scored seventy-one touches, to the Catamounts thirty-five. Captain Wiggers, Moll and Demontigny were all outstanding for the winners, while Captain Schuman was the shining light for the Green and Gold.

CATS UNABLE TO HIT HOOP CONSISTENTLY

The University of Vermont basketball team lost its first intercollegiate contest of the year to Tufts College in a fast, rough, and rather loosely played game last Tuesday evening at the gymnasium by a 23-17 score. Tufts College exhibited a fast breaking, clever offensive, with a floor work which left Vermont far behind. Vermont's first five were replaced by a fighting second team when things looked very bad for the Green and Gold five.

Coach Burke showed his strategy when he put in the second team to replace the varsity. The seconds put up a game which matched that of Tufts. It must be admitted that the difference in the speed of the two Vermont teams was shown up. The speedy combination of Pires and Valerio ran the opposing teams guards ragged in their attempts. When in the second half Tufts was looking at its worst in condition, Burke put in the first team and before Tufts could recover itself, the score had been tied at fifteen all. However, as soon as Tufts speeded up their tactics, they ran up the score to the final one.

The loss of the versatile Eddie Saba was keenly felt by all members of the team. Nevertheless this did not account for the poor shooting of the team members. The foul shooting was not an iota as good as it was expected to be. The rough first half resulted in many free throws which Vermont did not avail themselves. During the last half Vermont tried by long shots to even up the score and lost many valuable points in this manner. Step shots were lacking as were follow shots.

The diminutive Mike Valerio played a fine game in the time the second team was on the floor. His fighting spirit undaunted by a small body was enough to worry the Tufts team. Farwell played a heady game at center. His clean passwork and floorwork pacified the other members. Winant and Collins speeded up the work off the backboards.

Tufts on the other hand kept in the same throughout the game. Cochran and

(Continued on page 4)

CATS MEOW

After an absence of half a year the heading for this column again appears. We hope you will like it.

Congratulations are in order to our new football coaching staff. May the successes of the past continue to befall the lot of the new mentors.

It usually takes some drastic upheaval to make people realize that something has gone wrong. That is what has happened to the athletic situation this mid-years.

The freshman athletic mortality rate is higher than usual, and the same trend is noticed among the upperclass athletes.

The same situation applies here as to the weather, everybody is always talking about it, but nobody ever seems to do much about it.

There used to be an eligibility department but it seems to have died a natural death, although the benefits of it were apparent.

It seems that Prevention rather than Cure should be stressed. Someone always has to take the initiative, let us hope someone does soon.

Boston University is here tomorrow night with a fast club. However, the Catamounts look good for a victory.

Herb Semino and Bill Lowder former Greater Boston schoolboy stars, are prominent in the Terriers attack.

TURKS Burlington

Skii Clothing

Colder weather and snow in the offing suggest preparedness for winter sports.

Are you ready?

For Sport Togs---Turk's

Second Semester Books and Supplies are now on SALE at the UNIVERSITY STORE

BOSTONIANS Shoes for Men

B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

COLLEGE SUPPLIES

U. V. M. DIE-STAMPED STATIONERY

BANNERS PILLOW TOPS

McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

25 SUITS AND 25 OVERCOATS AT Half Price
Regular Prices $20 to $50
NOW $10 to $25

Miles & Perry Company
QUALITY CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

FORMAL CLOTHES FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Dress up in a new Tuxedo Friday Night.

Tuxedos	$25 and up
Dress Shirts	$2.50 to $3.50
Studs and Links	$1.00 to $2.50
Tuxedo Rentals	$3.00

• • • •

HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.
127 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

"Pleased to Meet You," Reply To "I Killed My Grandmother"

And Amherst Grad Claims He Has Proved A Pet Theory When Michigan Governor Answers That Way To "Confession"

"Glad To Meet You," He Says

Governor Denies It

What Hoover Might Say

SOPHS TRIUMPH OVER FROSH IN CHAMPIONSHIP

(continued from page 3)

TWELVE COUPLES ENJOY DANCE AT SIGMA DELTA

COLLEGE HUMOR

JUMBOS TRIUMPH OVER CATS IN RUGGED FIGHT

(continued from page 3)

ODDS AND ENDS

At Creighton University in the first year French class, presided by one of his students, who, upon who the French word for coward should be translated, answered in a purely masculine manner. The professor then told him that the relation between a coward and was the fact that "They both around your neck."

Keeley: If Minnie in bathing water what does Minnesota soda? Cass: Aw, don't be so quaint soda water.

Totals

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

INADEQUATE INSURANCE IS NOT TRUE ECONOMY

TELEPHONE 3613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington Vt

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street
PRIZE CUPS
and
TROPHIES
Expert Repairing
and
Engraving
FRATERNITY JEWELRY

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1932 | NUMBER 32

Class to Give Hedda Gabler Play by Ibsen

Production at Museum Will Be Presented by Upperclass Students Without Professional Direction

FACULTY ENTHUSIASTIC OVER NOVEL PROJECT

"Hedda Gabler," a play by Henrik [illegible] presented Thursday evening February 11, at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum.

The production will be put on by students interested in dramatic performance faculty members, guests and students [illegible] directing and planning of the cast [illegible] will be managed by students. Admission to the performance will be free and the doors will close promptly at the start of the play.

The cast will consist of veterans who have taken part in university productions before. The players and the characters they will portray are:

Hedda Gabler..Dorothy E. Murphy '33
Mrs. Juliana Tesman..Sylvia Boyd' 33
Miss Elvsted.....Hope Ranslow '32
Berta the servant.....Kay Rauh '32
Tesman.....F. W. Householder '32
Judge Brack.....E. J. Fitzgerald '32
George Brack.....R. F. Holbrook '32

Cast of Actors

Dorothy Murphy has held parts in last year's Junior Week play and in "She Stoops to Conquer."

Sylvia Boyd took the character of Mrs. Hardcastle in "She Stoops to Conquer."

Hope Ranslow acted in "Summertime," "Dulcy" and in "She Stoops to Conquer."

Kay Rauh has appeared in "Summertime" and other productions.

Householder has held parts in "Summertime," "The Devil's Disciple" and "She Stoops to Conquer."

Fitzgerald who appeared in "The Dover Road," "Husband" and "She Stoops to Conquer" is a leader in the new dramatic movement.

Holbrook was last seen in the fall production of "She Stoops to Conquer"

All three male members of the cast are members of Lambda Iota Fraternity. Properties and costumes will be in charge of Margaret Ann Martin '32.

(Continued on page 2)

Freshman Women in Final Phase of Rushing Season Here This Week

Sororities Will Entertain Prospective Pledgees at Various Homes Preceding Issuance of Bids Under Preferential Bidding System—Local Attorney to Serve as Bid Counsellor

KUEHNEMANN TO SPEAK FRIDAY NIGHT ON "GOETHE AND THE MODERN WORLD"

German Literary Authority Touring the United States is Here as Fifth in University Series

Dr. Eugen Kuehnemann, professor of philosophy at the University of Breslau, Germany, will deliver the fifth University lecture at 8 o'clock, Friday evening, February 12, in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. His subject will be "Goethe and the Modern World," a centennial address in memory of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, the greatest German poet, who died in Weimar on March 22, 1832. The lecture, which is given in English, will be open to all members of the college and to the general public.

Professor Kuehnemann, who is touring the United States at the invitation of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation, ranks as one of the greatest living Goethe scholars. He gained considerable renown for his two-volume work entitled "Goethe" which appeared in 1930. He has been professor of philosophy at the University of Breslau since 1906 and is well-known in the United States from previous sojourns. He has acted as visiting professor at both Harvard and the University of Wisconsin and was a visitor in this country during the early years of the World War.

The centennial celebration of Goethe brings to light one of the most outstanding figures of literary history, whose work and life seem still in striking rapport with life and tendencies of today. The University of Vermont is extremely fortunate in obtaining the services of Professor Kuehnemann for this world-wide celebration. The speaker is most capable to treat with the great personality of Goethe, the poet, philosopher and prophet of the Golden Age of German literature.

NEUTRAL PERIOD WILL START WEDNESDAY EVE

Freshman women this week enter the final stage of sorority rushing which will begin tomorrow and last until February 17 after which the neutral period will begin under the preferential bidding system.

Already the freshmen have passed through two stages of the rushing season which began February 2. Open house nights afford a chance to acquaint themselves with the Greek letter groups. The second series open houses or teas extended from February 5 to February 9.

The preferential bidding system instituted last year will be in use again this year. The freshman women receive bidding cards which they file with the Dean of Women and upon which they indicate in order of their choice the desired sorority affiliation. The individual is thus considered a pledgee of the first sorority in her list which gives her a bid. She has however, the privilege of changing her preference without a penalty until 10 o'clock Wednesday evening by calling the attorney chosen by Pan-Hellenic Council. Otherwise if she breaks the pledge to one sorority she cannot be bid by another before the end of one calendar year.

Rules for the rushing season which will see about 125 women visiting the sororities are the recently revised regulations of Pan-Hellenic Council. They are posted in the Y room and in each sorority meeting house.

VERMONT TO SEND FIVE DELEGATES TO MODEL ASSEMBLY OF LEAGUE

We Are To Represent Australia and Dominican Republic at Brown University Meet

U. V. M. will send a delegation consisting of five members to the Model League of Nations Assembly to be held at Brown University at Providence, R. I., March 3, 4 and 5. The Vermont delegation will officially uphold the viewpoint of the Dominican Republic and Australia, and will be prepared to discuss the attitudes of some of the leading nations, as Germany and France, in regard to the questions of:

A. Present World Economic Situation B. Disarmament. C. Provision of the Treaty of Versailles with regard to the Polish Corridor. Manchuria

Any men and women who are interested in attending the conference should communicate with Prof. E. C. Mower of the political science department or Paul LaCross '32, president of the International Relations Club.

For the most part, the procedure used by the League of Nations will be used at the assembly. President Barbour of Brown University will deliver the opening address. This will be followed by the election of the president, the examination and adoption of the agenda, the appointment of committees and the regular reports.

Differing from the League of Nations, which calls on its speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak, the Model Assembly will recognize speakers for and against the resolution alternately. In the Model Assembly, the number of speakers will have to be limited, as may readily be seen. Therefore delegates should give a written notice of their desire to speak and an indication of the view they will defend. Speakers must, of course, be concise and to the point. Speeches should aim at persuading, since the aim of the discussion is the unanimous consent rather than a majority victory.

In the Assembly, speeches in French are summarized into English and vice versa by an interpreter. Representatives speaking in other languages, must have their speeches translated into French or English. In the Model Assembly, English will be the official language. Speakers may use other languages, but they will be expected to provide English translation. The names of countries will be called in French.

College Cadets Concertise Drill Squads Drill; Harmonize

Leading into a new year of musical activity, the R. O. T. C. Band, under the direction of Director Joe Lechnyr made its first public appearance at the Auto Show and Charity Bazaar sponsored by the local post of the American Legion, with a program of marches, medleys and fantasias, featuring a military mood.

The concert was followed by exhibition drills given by Delta Psi, winners of last year's award for fraternity drill competition, and by the sophomore class team, both under the capable direction of Col. Fred Black.

After a quick change to civilian clothes, the members of the band distinguished themselves as well by their various terpischorean maneuvers as they had in their previous lyrical labors.

BAILEY, CHAMPENOIS ARE ALLIANCE GUESTS

Alliance Française had as guests of honor Pres. Guy W. Bailey and Dr. Jule Champenois at a banquet given in the roof garden of Hotel Vermont last Saturday evening. The banquet was followed by a lecture by Doctor Champenois in the Fleming Museum.

The banquet was attended by about seventy-five Burlington people, including a number of instructors from the University French department. The program included short talks by President Bailey and Mrs. Paul D. Evans, president of the Burlington Alliance Française, a sketch by Miss Lilian Cohen, vocal solos by Mlle Marie Chaperon and Mr Frederic Blais, and a piano solo by Professor Bennett of U. V. M.

He spoke in French on Jeux et Travaux en France au Moyen Age et le livre d'heures d'Adelarde de Savoie. His lecture was illustrated with slides showing manuscripts of the Middle Ages. Doctor Champenois is at present the official lecturer for Alliance Française in United States and Canada.

Sub Freshmen Not to be Kake Walk Guests

Directors Will Not Issue Free Invitation As in Previous Years To Cut Extra Expense

PLANS FOR PUBLICITY STUNT NOW DROPPED

"Due to the fact that Kake Walk will be presented on one night only," declared G. Everett Wilder, Kake Walk director Friday, "sub-freshmen or the senior boys from the Vermont high schools will not attend the one night feature as guests of the University."

"Last year the two-day festivity netted only a $600 gain," Wilder continued, "and it is thought unwise to increase expenses any further by issuing the invitations. The high school students will be welcome at the regular price of admission."

Drop Publicity Stunt

Plans for a new publicity stunt relative to the methods of advertising which were being formulated by Directors Wilder and Marvin have been dropped. At present the advertising committee is functioning along the usual line of procedure. Other committees start their activities during the last week preceding Kake Walk which comes on the night of Saturday, February 20 in the University Gymnasium.

The orders for tickets are coming in fairly well, the directors state. All unclaimed tickets on Monday, February 15 at 6 p.m. will be put on public sale Tuesday, February 16.

Expect Full House

The directors express the hope that the thirty-fifth annual Kake Walk will draw a full house. A single performance, they say, is indicative of the fact that the limited number of tickets will see an early popular sale. By the end of the week, answers are expected from faculty members who will act as judges of events.

Thursday, February 11 is the day set for the first drawing of positions by the various fraternities. Chairman R. J. Livingston of the peerade committee will meet participants at the Lambda Iota house at 7 p.m.

The stunt committee of which A. O. Eaton is chairman will meet the following day at the Sigma Phi place at 1.30 p.m.

S. B. Barker, Kake Walk committee chairman will be present at the Sigma Nu lodge for position drawings at 7.00 p.m., Friday, February 12.

Opening of Disarmament Conference Described by James Green, Yale '32

[illegible] seriousness indicative of the [illegible] momentous deliberations lying [illegible] World Disarmament Conference [illegible] sessions this afternoon. [illegible] of powerful camera [illegible] microphones, of a large [illegible] representatives and of [illegible] gave a hint of the im[illegible] historical event in progress. [illegible] inscrutable, as at the [illegible] last Friday, W. W. Yen [illegible] Matsuke Sato, of Japan [illegible] the severe strain of the [illegible]

[illegible] Hugh Gibson, André [illegible] Grandi were most [illegible] by the eager spectators. [illegible] statesman without [illegible] read a lengthy keynote [illegible] slight show of emoration. Declaring that [illegible] work had already been [illegible] 1920, he summarized [illegible] of the League and the [illegible] formulation of regional [illegible] mutual security and the [illegible] conferences. He [illegible] passionate appeal for the [illegible] of the intricate problem [illegible] conference, and stated that [illegible] disappointment of hopes [illegible] and ultimate disas-

Spectre of War

[illegible] lies the grim specter [illegible] rapidly threatening to [illegible] darkness of this meeting [illegible] safety in both hemi[illegible] mission and press com[illegible] hovered over the unhappy [illegible] and are thoroughly [illegible] ing the future. It is [illegible] Japan will withhold an [illegible] of war until processes [illegible] mediation and settlement [illegible] operation. It becomes in[illegible] that the laxness of the [illegible] Great Britain and the [illegible] of the League have allowed unwarranted aggression into Chinese territory. Only the firmest protest of all governments can check the forces of militaristic imperialism apparently set loose in the Orient.

On the basis of the excellent draft treaty provided for the conference after years of careful preparation, it is possible that technical limitation or reduction may be achieved. Too much hope should be avoided, however, for false optimism is dangerous. The solution of European problems is confronting the conference before that of the Manchurian crisis, and rests both upon the ability of France and Germany to agree concerning Central Europe and armament status, and upon the willingness of the United States to cooperate fully in the settlement of the complex issues involved.

Optimism Hopeful Sign

This is literally a race with death. The sole source of optimism rests in the fact that the statesmen of every country are actually conferring in a desperate attempt to solve the disagreements threatening the downfall of civilization. The solution of the present anarchy can only be reached by the gradual delegation of sovereignty to a central government with authority to effect the pacific settlement of disputes, I believe it is to American interest to lead the way in this direction. Financial entanglements across the Atlantic and the Pacific have so thoroughly destroyed our political isolation that only a reversal of our attitude and policy can save our own as well as the world economic structure.

"It is constantly urged here that college students be made to realize immediately that in case of failure they face annihilation within thirty years. Participation in political life with a constant demand for constructive domestic and foreign policies is essential if the present generation is not to be swept into another catastrophe.

Doctor Dalton of Medical College Faculty Versatile in Health Work

Valedictorian of his class which graduated from the College of Medicine in 1903, for twenty years a member of the State Board of Health, since 1918 professor of hygiene and preventive medicine, writer of the first law for a district health officer system, inspector of summer camps, and one of the organizers of the Research Club—these are some of the many activities of Dr. Charles F. Dalton of the Medical College.

The following is an extract of an article on "Believers in Vermont" which we reprint from the Burlington Free Press:

Vermonters have always prided themselves that they lived in a healthy state. And they have had reason for that pride, not only because Vermont has naturally a healthy climate, but quite as much because the State has had a strong Department of Health which has kept up with the latest methods of handling public health matters and even taken the lead among the states in some such matters.

It has required an abiding faith in Vermont and her people to go forward with some of the activities which have been undertaken by the State Board of Health in recent years. And Dr. Charles F. Dalton, secretary and executive officer of the State Board of Health, has led the way in many of these activities.

Vermont Health Improved

The State Board of Health has taken the initiative in many important steps to improve the health conditions of the people of Vermont and to protect them against the possibilities of contracting contagious diseases. For it makes no difference how healthy the people of a state or community may be normally, they are still subject to the spread of germs, and that means disease if not controlled.

Vermont has an excellent record in the control of contagious diseases during the past decade. The late Dr. C. S. Caverly, who was president of the State Board of Health, was a pioneer in promoting research to discover cause and treatment of infantile paralysis, and the work has progressed largely through the influence of Vermont research in this field.

Because of research in this and other contagious diseases, resulting in important discoveries, because of the use of immunization serums and the education of the public along lines of preventive medicine epidemic disease in Vermont is fast disappearing. The old time infections like typhoid fever, diphtheria, erysipelas, scarlet fever, tuberculosis and smallpox are gradually giving way before scientific prevention. And it is through the guidance of the State Board of Health that information about these discoveries of science to prevent disease has been imparted to the people.

In this program for the prevention of disease, directed by the State Board of Health, Doctor Dalton has played an important part since he became a member of the Board in the latter part of 1912. Doctor Dalton is now the senior State Health Officer in New England in length of service. He is a Fellow of the American Medical Association and of the American Public Health Association.

Valedictorian 1903

He came to the University of Vermont College of Medicine, graduating with the class of 1903 and taking the first honor prize. He was valedictorian of his class. Before coming to college, he had done newspaper work on several Springfield papers.

After graduation from Medical College, he began the practice of medicine in Burlington in 1904. He had begun teaching in the College of Medicine before gradua-

(Continued on page 2)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

DR. DALTON VERSATILE IN HEALTH ACTIVITIES

(Continued from page 1)

gram have been organized by divisions. These divisions while engaged in their respective problems, still function as a unit under the State Board of Health, correlating their efforts for the general health program of the State.

First State Law

Preventive Work

One of the most important of these is the supervision of summer camps for boys and girls by the sanitary engineer of the state Board of Health, or under his direction. With the rapid increase of the summer camp, because this work has assumed unusual importance during the past decade. Efforts are being made to keep disease out of these camps both in the interests of the campers themselves and in the interests of the rural people who would be affected by spread of any contagious disease from the camps.

Doctor Dalton points out that this preventive work does not make much impression on the people, because it is negative work; that is, its purpose is to prevent disease and so long as disease is prevented people think very little about it. So when everything is going smoothly in health matters, it is assurance that the State Board of Health is doing a good job.

Doctor Dalton has held the important position of president of the Conference of State and Provincial Health Authorities of North America. He was president of the Vermont State Medical Society in 1929.

Goethe as the Prophet His Message to the Present-day

By Prof. J. K. Gutmann

that was true, vital and genuinely human. Through his insight and expression, life gains an inward freedom. Reality is invested with a new spiritual dignity.

In the tension of the times today, the protests of Romanticism against the cold formalism and sophistries of reason, against self-aligned interests and mediocrity dominated by conventions and by suppression of the spirit of youth, may protest and appeals. By his own work Goethe has creative genius that exalts emotion above nature as well as the suppression of tradition and author-

In the spirit of today with its vocal emotional expressions; the clamant demands of sex, and the thesis there is perhaps not a deeper lesson in the life of this great master of the gospel of emancipation of impulse, of living and individuality of expression. It is the moral suggested by a representative figure, Peer Gynt, creature of egotistic romantic champion, the Norwegian rebel of the north, Ibsen. Peer Gynt like Goethe has his quest; and quest entails many adventures, many thrills, and also leads into many culs de sac of suspicion and excitement and the lure of home or home leading to little but the thirst for fresh excitement, and more thrilling thrills but life's thirst quenching itself with draughts that double thirst. So at the close Peer Gynt peels an onion, stripping away sheath after sheath to find at last no central core, and this he says is Peer himself, no central core of being no motivating plan no coherence in life despite many swathings of experience. But with the life of Goethe with its Storm und Drang, its amours, its failure to achieve a single "finished whole" in any realm of creative activity, also points this moral, there is still in Goethe's rich and vivid life with all its peregrinations in the seas of sense and feeling, the dominating vision of personality as strong because unified, as free because brought into subjection to form. Whole my life must ever be—true to thought as well as feelings' claim.

As a part of the revolutionary system, planned by President Maynard Hutchins of Chicago University, 720 members of the class of 1935 will go to classes only when they feel like it. They are to read the books which interest them and consult their professors when they please.

Yale University is faced with a debt of $500,000 deficit this coming

The smoke you like... is the smoke she likes for you!

"I like to see a man smoke a pipe."

You've heard your own girl say it, perhaps. You're sure to hear it when girls get together.

She likes you to smoke a pipe

They puff away at our cigarettes. But they like to see us have a good "strong, silent" smoke"—a companionable, proven pipe.

There is something satisfying about a pipe. It's a slow, reflective, hard-thinking smoke—or a calm, relaxing, restful smoke. The hunter's smoke, the fisherman's smoke, the engineer's smoke—a man's smoke, through and through.

And pipe smokers who know their fine tobaccos tell you there's no blend quite like the fine selected burleys of Edgeworth — the favorite tobacco in 42 out of 50 leading colleges.

A pipe to satisfying

Do try Edgeworth. Perhaps you will like it as well as most men seem to. Edgeworth is at your dealer's. Or send for free sample if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d Street, Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms —Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

Bits of Bunk

Professor of botany examining specimen: "Where was yours, Mr. Jones?"

Student: "Please, sir, I don't know, sir."

Professor: "Well, you needn't be ashamed of it. Many people don't know."

Student: "Please, sir, I don't know, sir."

Professor: "Well, you needn't be ashamed of it. Many people don't know."

Student: "Please, sir, I don't know, sir."

Professor looked at him suspiciously, and demanded: "Say, haven't you ever seen a rat?"

A scout has been discovered who cannot tell water from land. When he was asked why he failed he replied in this wise: "There's no sense in telling those guys you don't understand it, there's just a few do understand them that passes me seconds of taking them a prize." Well!

That reminds us we have a lugubrian amongst our midst.

Waiter: These are the best eggs we've had in years.

He: Well, bring me some you haven't had so long.

And what were the two sing my good fellow? Lemon?

Shortstop.

Shortstop?

Yes, between second and third base.

Professor: Hello, Constance, will you go over a dance with me tonight?

Co-ed Friend: Yes, if you'll let Constance be your guide.

What's the matter with the car you bought last week?

Well, everything makes a noise except the horn.

A scout a day keeps the sheepskins away.

Lover: What has a man horse sense?

Her: When he can ride that.

Tell me, Mr. Williams, during recess?

No, I quit running with him.

I'm going to make a bubble of the airplane.

Oh, if you don't get off into the ground.

Lover: Darling, may I call you Mary?

Her: Yes, but her father doesn't.

Being Collegiate

He sure enjoys his daughter. Ohio State had thrashed her out and her irate parent has taken the case to court. He (Court of Appeals) gave the school the right based on such standards. His father has taken the case to the State Supreme Court where it will be decided whether Freshmen educators are to destroy in this and of interest to all state schools. The decision states that all state supported schools is open to all its citizens provided rules of decency and order are not violated.

The freshmen at Carnegie are required by decree of the upperclassmen to chew tobacco. This is because said upperclassmen do not think the first year men have acquired enough masculine qualities. It is easy enough to deduce that the seniors in high school are probably forced to roll their own cigarettes as a preliminary to their freshman chewing but only God knows what zealous rumors and seniors demand of the Tech sophomores.

At Gettysburg University recently the men proved himself to be a real "sport" among men. On going to his car to return from a dance he found it already occupied by two of the younger generation who were sitting on out. Choked to the memories of the good old days that welled up within him at the scene, he politely tipped his hat, gathered in Mrs. Dean and walked home.

Russia may have some queer ideas about running things for the good of the people but they have at least one that sounds good to us. Over there they figure a student in college is working just as much as is a laborer, so they pay wages to the students. A "four-year plan" like that would be popular here.

Freshmen at Beloit College take to the gutter when passing upperclassmen and are required to salaam the janitor on sight. Glad we're at this B. C. not that B. C.

The demand for courses in Journalism and schools of Journalism is a new development in many universities throughout the country. Several western schools have been petitioned by students to institute such courses. Enrollment in courses in Journalism has increased. Grant Ackerman of Columbia School of Journalism, states that newspaper work is a growing profession. In 1913 there were 500 newspapers and periodicals, in 1931 the list rose to 1,207. The future of journalism is one of progress.

CLASS TO GIVE HEDDA GABLER PLAY BY IBSEN

(Continued from page 1)

"Hedda Gabler" is one of Ibsen's best plays and is classed as one of the greatest modern tragedies. The interpretation given by the students will be a modern interpretation of the Archer translation.

Faculty Interest Keen

Much interest in the new project has been aroused on the campus and several comments have been received from the faculty.

Prof. J. T. Metcalf, coach of many college productions says: "I think it is a very interesting undertaking and a very fine play. I think it a good thing that the students are willing to work it up and give it. I am very much interested."

Prof. F. Tupper, English department head states: "The performance promises to be a very pleasant and enjoyable one and I look forward to a very gratifying evening's entertainment. The play is one of Ibsen's best and was presented in New York three years ago with tremendous success."

Prof. P. D. Carelton of the English department, who is much interested in Scandinavian literature says: "I wish to emphasize that this is purely a student production untouched by the faculty. I am sure there is no doubt of its success and feel certain that this excellent drama will be well interpreted.

Further productions will depend on the extent of student response.

"An old colored man," said a minister, came to me one day with the request that I pray for his floating kidney.

"Why Sam," I remonstrated, "how do you expect me to pray for some particular thing like that?"

"Wal, Parson," Sam retorted, "last week you all was a-prayin for de lost livers."

. . . .

Valentines

on display now

at the

UNIVERSITY STORE

. . . .

...ATS TO MEET HORSEMEN IN IMPORTANT TILT THURSDAY EVENING

...me to be Played on Cadets Surface—Horsemen Out for Victory—Have Won 3 and Dropped None

...Coach Burke's charg... entered for one of the ...contests, with Norwich ... the features of the ...Winter Carnival and is ...minary event to the ...

...on University and St. ...ts over, the Cats are ... Norwich game as one ...tive contests of the ...

...dvance dope the Horse... to win on their own ...rounds taken the measure ... twice and Middlebury ... Cats have succeeded in ... Michaelmen on the Univer...

... plans to start his regular ... Tupper and Captain ...wards, Morgan at center ... Taft in the backcourt.

...EN'S RIFLE TEAM HAS AUSPICIOUS SCHEDULE

...aptain Sheldon is Vermont's Highest Scorer and Second Highest In Series Match

...e telegraph match ending January ... rifle team defeated the Uni... Delaware while losing to the ... College of Mining and the Uni... Pittsburg by a close score. ... Sheldon was high scorer for ... and second highest scorer in ..., with a score of 377.

...Members of the men's rifle team are ... Sheldon, Dunham, Primpas, ... Gilbert, Germann, Burke, Bur... McIver, Perry, Preedom, Walter, ... Lucille Woodward, Davis, Westin, ... Donahue, and Manager Press. ... J. W. Kullman of the military de... is coaching the team.

Shoulder-to-Shoulder Matches

...15—Company K—10-man team—...here.
...20—Open.
...27—Norwich—There.
...Mar. 5—Norwich-M. I. T.—...Here.
...Mar. 12—McGill—There.
...Mar. 19—N. R. A.-West Point ...There.

Telegraph Matches

...13—Oregon Aggies, Mississippi ... M., University of Kentucky, R. ... C. and Varsity, Presbyterian Col... University of Washington, New ... Aggies, Michigan State, Culver ...ary Academy, Corps Area, 2nd ...prone and kneeling), University ... New Hampshire, N. R. A. Cornell.

...20—North Dakota University, ...th Dakota Aggies, Oklahoma Aggies, ... Area, 3rd stage (prone and stand... N. R. A. Rensselaer.

...27—New York Stock Exchange, ...versity of Kansas, University of Cali..., M. I. T. (freshmen), University ...Idaho, Corps Area, 4th stage (prone), ... N. Y. Boston.

...Mar. 5—Connecticut Aggies, Pennsyl... State (freshmen), N. R. A. ...ester, Iowa State, Syracuse Uni...

...Mar. 12—Gettysbury, Lehigh, Alabama ... N. R. A. Army.

...Mar. 19—Johns Hopkins, Georgetown, ...sas State Aggies (Hearst Trophy).

...Mar. 26—Polytechnic Inst., Brooklyn ...versity of Tennessee, Creighton, ...ana State.

INTERFRATERNITY BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

LEAGUE A

Delta Psi	Feb. 6, 4.30	Feb. 11, 6.00	Feb. 24, 6.00
Phi Mu Delta
Kappa Sigma	Feb. 6, 1.30
Tau Epsilon Phi
Alpha Tau Omega	Feb. 6, 3.30	Feb. 13, 3.00
Zeta Chi
Sigma Delta, bye

LEAGUE B

Sigma Nu	Feb. 5	Feb. 13, 2.00	Feb. 27, 6.15 (Preliminary)
Phi Delta Theta
Phi Sigma Delta	Feb. 6, 2.30		Feb. 25, 6.15 (Preliminary)
Sigma Phi
Lambda Iota	Feb. 9, 6.00	Feb. 13, 4.00
Sigma Alpha
Independents	Feb. 10, 5.30
Faculty

CATS EDGE ST. MIKES 3-1 IN HOCKEY OPENER AT FORT ETHAN ALLEN

Game is Slow Due to Poor Ice and Lack of Practice—McVetty and Jardine Score for Green and Gold

JIM MARVIN IS INJURED

The Catamounts got off to a successful start in their late hockey season opener, Saturday afternoon when they took the measure of St. Michael's by a 3-1 count.

The game was rather slow and ragged on the part of the Green and Gold due to lack of practice and previous competition, while the Hilltoppers had already benefited by two games.

Mac McVetty was outstanding on the Vermont attack with two goals, with Jardine adding another. Defensively Fullback Rapuano did the bulk of the work, although being frequently interrupted in his labors by trips to the penalty box. Bob Boynton also did well in the net, in his first game. Tupper, who scored the only Purple goal was about the whole show for the losers.

The victory was a costly one for the Catamounts in that Jim Marvin, the snappy little center ice man received a bad gash in the back of his neck which necessitated several stitches, and will probably keep him out of this week's competition.

Lineup:

Vermont	St. Michael's
Marvin, Wood (Capt.), c.	c., Kelley, Shannon, Tupper, Maill
Carlson, McVetty, r.w.	r.w., Benac, Lynch
Jardine, Mercier, l.w.	l.w., Howard, Richelaux
Rapuano, r.d.	r.d., O'Neil
Rees, Concannon, l.d.	l.d., DuPont
Boynton, g.	g., Duford

Goals—McVetty (2), Jardine (1), Tupper (1).

ELECTIVE RECREATIONS AND TOURNAMENTS ARE IN FULL SWING NOW

Interfraternity Basketball, Free Throw and Handball Tournaments Now in Progress

The physical education department has inaugurated its winter schedule whereby a student may elect ice skating and skiing in place of the regular work provided that he reports at the office before and after the period he has done the extra work. Many students have been interested in these sports and have tired of the routine work of the regular classes. To them it constitutes not only a diversion but a method of conditioning.

Soon after the interfraternity basketball schedule has been run through, the department will run off the annual boxing and wrestling tournaments for those who are adapted along gymnastic lines. Last year this tournament was very interesting and well run off.

For those who are well versed in the art of skating, skiing and snow shoeing, the winter sports tournament ought to provide sufficient material to keep the candidate busy. This carnival is run in conjunction with the fraternities, and the point system is used. Ski races, long distance, and dashes, skating races, both dashes and distance along with snow-shoe races comprise the summation of the events which take place in this novel carnival. It isn't as elaborate as the carnival taking place over in Lake Placid but it serves to amuse the Vermont student.

The handball tournament will start immediately. Handball has not grown up in Vermont as it has in other places for the simple reason that there is not a substantial court available. To those who come from larger city high schools, this form of amusement should be very interesting and very familiar.

To those who are good runners but are not good enough to make the varsity team, or who have not had the chance as yet, the interfraternity track meet should awaken in every track man a feeling of joy. Training has already started for it and the relay carnival. Those who have had experience on an indoor path should feel more at home although the gymnasium track is not as good as it might be.

Instructor Levine will hold classes in basketball officiating every Monday and Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Armory.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING INTERFRATERNITY GAMES

1. The officials and balls are furnished by the physical education department.
2. The preliminary and semi-final games consist of four, ten-minute periods. The final game shall consist of two twenty-minute halves.
3. Any team that does not appear on the floor at the scheduled hour shall forfeit the game.
4. Any man who has earned a varsity letter at Vermont or another college, or has participated in a varsity game and also the first ten men on the varsity and freshman squads are ineligible to play.
5. Each fraternity is to pay an entrance fee of $1.00 to the physical education department.

CAT'S MEOW

Sporting Editor—

The decided inclemency of that popular topic, weather, has left Coach Bunny Prentice's chargers higher and dryer than Senator Borah. We suggest that a silent prayer be offered for suitable hockey weather.

The one bright spot in the otherwise drab after mid-years eligibility situation is the possible eligibility of Bob (Gutsy) Grant the flashy leader of the 1929 frosh courtmen.

Norwich and Middlebury benefit by the addition of yearlings, being subject only to the one-half year rule.

The eagle eyes of Joe Leddy and Harold Sipsey have been highly instrumental in maintaining the unbroken string of soldier victories, including two over the Michaelmen and one over Ben (Sideline) Beck's charges.

Defensively the Horsemen are fortunate in possessing two veterans of the calibre of "Nasty" Fanos and "Long Gauge" Viethee.

CATAMOUNTS COME OUT OF SLUMP TO SWAMP BOSTON UNIVERSITY 34-19

Attack Functions Smoothly Against Pioneers—Tupper, Taft and Morgan High Scorers

FROSH WIN FROM M. S. AFTER TOUGH BATTLE

Vermont came out of the slump into which it had fallen before the Tufts game in an obvious manner, when the Catamounts swamped Boston University 34-19.

For the first time of the year the Green and Gold offense clicked consistently in big league style, with Captain Hank Durfey in the key position near the foul line feeding passes to his cutting teammates.

The Terriers, presenting a fast shot passing attack looked good at the start, but slow up considerably after the first ten minutes. However, in all fairness to the Bay Staters it should be said that they were handicapped by the absence of two regulars.

Fred Tupper, who led in the scoring for both teams opened the hostilities with a long backboard shot. McConnel the visiting right forward shortly earned the count when he dribbled into the corner and banked a pretty "lefty." With B. U. leading 5-4, Chet Taft connected from the side and gave Vermont a lead which was not threatened for the remainder of the game. The Catamounts' offense began to bear fruit with Tupper, Taft and Morgan doing the bulk of the scoring, brought th score up to 19-8 at half time.

The second half was a repetition of the first with the Catamounts becoming steadier and the Pioneers growing wilder and resorting to long off-balance shots.

With about twelve minutes to go, Coach Burke sent in the second string lineup, which seems to be a decided favorite with the crowd. They ran true to form and furnished plenty of action and speed in addition to providing some first-class vaudeville. Mazzarella and Lowder sank field goals for B. U. while Mike Valerio cashed in on two free tries after being temporarily incapacitated by a blow on the head.

At this stage Coach Burke inserted the third combination, which continued the good work. "Razor" Talbert drew a big hand when he attempted some sort of an off-court formation in the bleachers thickly populated by the fairer sex, directly back of the Vermont basket.

With about a minute of play remaining, the first team again took the floor to end the contest 34-19.

Lineup:

Vermont	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Tupper, r.f.	6	0	12
Valerio, r.f.	0	2	2
Saba, r.f.	0	0	0
Durfey, l.f.	0	0	0
Pires, l.f.	0	0	0
Wilson, l.f.	0	0	0
Morgan, c.	2	3	7
Farwell, c.	0	0	0
Carsley, c.	0	0	0
Beckley, r.g.	1	0	2
Winant, r.g.	0	0	0
Talbert, r.g.	0	0	0
Taft, l.g.	5	1	11
Collins, l.g.	0	0	0
Rust, l.g.	0	0	0
	14	6	34

(Continued on page 4)

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

No Man
HAS TOO MANY TIES. HERE ARE HUNDREDS TO CHOOSE FROM. EVERY ONE HIGH QUALITY. MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL.
35c, 3 for $1.00
$1.00, $1.50, $2.00
TURKS Burlington
156-158 COLLEGE ST.

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

SPRING SUITS
New Suits for Spring.
Suits by Adler-Rochester and Braeburn.
$25.00 to $40.00
(Four Pieces)
• • • •
HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.
127 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

WILSON, TENOR, CHARMS AUDIENCE AT RECITAL

By Marion Lamson '35

[illegible] of the [illegible] presented Stewart Wilson, tenor, in the University Chapel on Thursday evening, February 4 in a very interesting program, by which the Chapel audience [illegible] Mr. Wilson's personality and [illegible] his audience and himself. Through his soft and expressive voice, the artist [illegible] was especially pathetic and [illegible] through [illegible] emotional [illegible] he also [illegible] and to his audience.

The [illegible] of his [illegible] were [illegible] by the song [illegible] by Handel. In this the artist [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] were [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1932 — NUMBER 57

L SEVEN SORORITY INAL PARTIES TO CLOSE RUSHING PERIOD WED.

cal Sororities Will Entertain rospective Pledgees Preceding ssuance of Bids Under Pref-erential System

CUTRAL PERIOD WILL START WEDNESDAY EVE.

ushing period of the Greek-letter orities is being brought to a close by seven "final parties" given from dnesday, February 10 to Wednesday, ruary 17, in honor of eligible fresh- and sophomore women. Kappa a, Sigma Gamma, Alpha Xi Delta, a Delta Delta, and Kappa Alpha ta are entertaining the prospective ges in the order mentioned.

he final parties are the last in a series hree events which have been run off ach sorority; the first consisted of -house night from February 5 to 9; the second event was a group of ing teas by the several sororities. ntral period, in accordance with the ntly revised regulations of Pan Hel- Council will be observed from dnesday morning, February 17, at 10 ck, to Friday afternoon, February at four o'clock, and will be closed by issuance of sorority bids. The ferential bidding system, which was tuted last year will be in use again year.

ules for eligible women will be tly observed during neutral period, rding to a statement by Lois Har-ton '32, president of the Pan Hellenic anization in which the seven sororities affiliated. Fraternity and non-fra- women will be allowed to ex- nge only greetings of "Hello" plus first name during the neutral period.

XTEEN DEBATERS MEET TO DISCUSS NEW CLUB

new organization was formed Sun- afternoon when sixteen men and men students, including most of the ity debaters, met in the Fleming seum and formed plans for a debat- club.

Mr. P. D. Carleton, coach of women's ate, presided and R. S. Wright '35, the principal speaker. Wright ex- ned that the meeting was the idea P. J. LaCross '32, who had long ught that a more active interest in ating was desirable.

After a general discussion of ways and ans it was decided that the next meet- should consist of a radio dialogue by two members of the up. It was also decided that no mal organization of the group was essary or even desirable. The gather- adjourned after a discussion of cut ram. The next meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in Fleming Museum.

SLER SOCIETY TO HOLD THIRD MEETING MONDAY

The third monthly meeting of the Os- Council Society, newly formed medi- society, will be held next Monday ing in the auditorium of the Robert Fleming Museum, under the super- n of Drs. R. L. Maynard, W. T. R. D. Adams, and G. M. Sabin. Motion pictures will be presented ding the formation, analysis, and atment of hernia. Students and faculty the Medical College and members of medical profession at large have been ed to attend.

ENIORS TO INSTRUCT AT BURLINGTON AND ESSEX

Student teaching by University seniors ning Education 8 will begin soon. students have enrolled in this of whom twenty-five will teach the Burlington Junior and Senior schools and one in Essex Junction School. The seniors are: Mildred Carolyn Blake, Doris Brennan, Verna Carrier, Louise Alice Dalton, Helen Esielionis, Barnham Dallas Fuller, Velma Mildred Gile, Rosetta Harlowe, Caroline Howard, Elizabeth Pearl Jennings, Marie Maddox, Main Elisabeth Mosher, Lillian Eleanor Murch, Donna Oakes, Louise Pearson, Fletcher Doris Skinner, Dorothy Alice Warner and Edith Wy-

SIX KAKE WALK USHERS ARE ANNOUNCED TODAY

Six ushers have been appointed for Kake Walk according to an announcement made today by S. Manning '32, Kake Walk director. Those who have been selected are Elizabeth Barker '33, Vivian Hubbard '32, Ara Armstrong '33, Caro Wyman '33, Priscilla Perry '33, and Virginia Goodenough '33.

SENIORS ELECT EATON AS FOUNDER'S DAY SPEAKER IN MEETING WEDNESDAY

G. E. Wilder Will Be Chairman of Senior Week; F. R. Gorman is Financial Manager

A. O. Eaton was elected Founder's Day speaker, G. E. Wilder, was chosen chairman, and F. R. Gorman was selected as senior financial manager of Senior Week at a meeting of the senior class held Wednesday afternoon in the Williams Science Hall.

Janet Miller and J. W. Marvin, Jr., were chosen to fill vacancies in the faculty student council occasioned by the departure of Olive Fields and C. W. Tilley from College.

Eaton is a member of Sigma Phi fraternity. He served as manager of football and was chosen to Student Senate in his junior year. He is a member of Gold Key, Key and Serpent and Boulder societies and was a news editor on the CYNIC.

Wilder was a member of the 1932 Ariel Board, Key and Serpent and Boulder. He captained the track team last year and is one of the 1932 Kake Walk directors. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Gorman was chairman of the Peerade Committee of Junior Week last year, and he has taken part in class basketball and class baseball events. He belongs to Zeta Chi fraternity.

Miss Miller has been active in campus activities. She is a member of W. A. A. and Press Club. She played basketball on her class team in her freshman and sophomore years. Miss Miller is a Kappa Alpha Theta.

Marvin was assistant manager of track and business manager of Wig and Buskin last year. He has played on the hockey team every year and was a member of Student Senate his junior year. Marvin is one of the 1932 Kake Walk directors and a member of Delta Psi fraternity.

GOETHE LECTURE TO BE DELIVERED TONIGHT BY KUEHENMANN IN MUSEUM

"Goethe and the Modern World" Will be Subject of Lecturer in Honor of Poet's Centenary

"Goethe and the Modern World" will be the subject of the fifth University lecture to be delivered tonight at 8.00 p.m. in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum by Professor Kuehnemann, professor of philosophy at the University of Breslau, Germany. Professor Kuehnemann is considered one of the greatest living scholars of Goethe according to Prof. A. R. Gifford, chairman of the University lecture committee. The speaker is touring the country under the auspices of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia.

The University of Vermont in securing this lecture is participating in a world-wide celebration of this centenary year, Goethe having died one hundred years ago, March 22. The lecture will be delivered in English and will be open to all members of the College and the general public.

ELECTION OF FOUNDER'S DAY SPEAKER ILLEGAL

In violation of the regulations of the class constitution, the election of A. O. Eaton '32 Wednesday to the position of senior Founder's Day speaker was effected after the candidates had been named in a nominating committee meeting held the previous afternoon.

The view is entertained in several quarters of the campus that the election is illegal since under the provisions of the class statutes adopted last spring the announcement of nominations must be issued publicly one week before the election. The text of the clause is:

Article V—Nominations

"Section 1. The nominations for all the following Class Officers shall lay upon the table for one week, and shall be posted for that length of time upon the several bulletin boards: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Junior and Senior Founder's Day Speaker, all Commencement speakers representing the Class, and all permanent Class Officers."

Kake Walk, Unique Event Brings Stirring Strains of "Cotton Babes"

Stunts, Walkin' fo' de Kake, and Peerade to Reign Supreme at Next Saturday Night's Showing of Six Competing Fraternities

By R. W. COBB
Advertising Chairman

Kake Walk—Vermont's unique contribution to the collegiate world will soon be with us again. There is nothing like Kake Walk—nothing that sets the feet beating as the stirring music of "Cotton Babes" that is struck up by the band as the bell clangs and the first couple starts up the floor to the applause of the packed gymnasium. Once again, stunts, walkin' fo' de kake, and peerade reign supreme over Vermont's campus. Next Saturday night is the date and already the rush for tickets is well under way as no more tickets will be reserved for students after Monday afternoon.

Six fraternities are planning and plotting their varied and elaborate stunts as the days of final rehearsal and elimination draw near. The audience this year will witness six stunts which will be selected by the regular stunt judges from the eight fraternities privileged to enter the competition. These eight are Delta Psi, Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Phi Mu Delta, Tau Epsilon Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Phi Sigma Delta. These eight are redoubling their efforts since a part of one stunt or parts of several will be presented over the city radio station next Friday evening at 8.30 to 9.00 to the accompaniment of Joe Lechnyr's hand, a fixture at Kake Walk. The selection of these stunts rests solely upon their adaptability for radio presentation and in no way affects the judging.

Rehearsals and elimination are Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday night of next week, the order of the various fraternities being determined after the formal drawing this noon at the Sigma Phi house under the direction of A. O. Eaton '32 chairman of the stunt committee. The Peerade drawing took place last night at the Owl house under the direction of R. J. Livingston '32; while the Kake Walk drawing will occur tonight at the Sigma Nu house with S. B. Barker '32 as chairman.

Seven cups and three cakes will be presented to the winners of the various events, some of them permanently, including the cakes.

Those few of the undergraduate body who have not as yet secured tickets must do so without fail immediately as all tickets will go on sale Wednesday morning at Hayes and Carney's store on Church Street. Tomorrow afternoon and Monday afternoon orders will be filled in the gymnasium and tickets sold. That marks the only public sale of tickets on the hill except the night of the gala event, if there are any left to sell. By the way the ticket sale has been going this past week the directors are confidently looking forward to a complete sell-out.

The directors, J. W. Marvin '32 and G. E. Wilder '32, the assistant directors, C. S. Brown '33 and F. B. Drew '33, and the heads of the committees, are bending every event to make this, the Thirty-fifth Annual Kake Walk one that will be remembered.

To those who have never been on a Vermont campus when Kake Walk was going on a brief history will not be amiss. For a description just ask anyone who has seen a Kake Walk if he is going again. Back in 1893 Captain Tutherly, seeking to popularize his department, more than half promised the students a military Ball. Fortunately for Kake Walk he was not able to fulfill his promise and thus out of this disappointment and a hurried conference the Kake Walk was born.

(Continued on page 4)

Three and Nine-Tenths Percent of Student Body Fails

Arts Faculty Drops Twenty-seven in Comparison to Forty-Two Failures Last Year; Five Engineers and Eight Aggie Students Fail

MASSUCCO AND TAYLOR ANNOUNCE JUNIOR WEEK COMMITTEES TODAY

Drew Directs Prom; Miss Taylor Has Charge of Decorations; Spiller Heads Music Committee

Committees for Junior Week, which will be celebrated the entire week of May 9, were announced today by F. J. Massucco '33, chairman of Junior Week, and C. A. Taylor '33, financial manager. The committees as selected are as follows:

F. B. Drew '33, of Randolph, will head the Junior Prom Committee.

Committee on Decorations: Dorothy Taylor, chairman, H. W. Baker, H. Cohen, T. F. Collins, Jr., Esther Fishman, Eleanor Gates, Sophie Levin, M. T. Miltimore, M. F. Mahoney, Charlotte Odell, O. O. Sunderland, and L. L. Woodward.

Committee on Music: S. N. Spiller, chairman, O. H. Calcagni, E. E. Doten, Ruth Templeton, and J. L. Thompson.

Committee on Favors: G. M. McKenzie, chairman, Esther Leary, Mary Pratt, Margaret Tower, and J. E. Wood.

Committee on Refreshments: Ara Armstrong, chairman, Esther Beardsley, M. I. Benton, Hazel Daniels, and C. W. Janke.

Committee on Publicity: C. C. Grant, chairman, M. Agel, C. S. Brown, L. R. Dunham, and D. W. Webster.

Committee on Programs: H. Greenblott, chairman, Zoay Bigelow, Dorothy Jackman, W. G. MacDonald, and F. Pires.

Committee on Junior Banquet: S. K. Carter, chairman, Dorotha Edwards, R. H. McVetty, Caroline Taft, and T. J. Taylor.

Committee on Peerade: F. P. Kenyon, chairman, R. M. Bagley, M. Bergman, H. M. Farmer, Dorine Lee, and Marion Urie.

PRESIDENT BAILEY WILL NOT ENTER AS CANDIDATE IN GUBERNATORIAL RACE

In a statement made to the press this week, Pres. Guy W. Bailey dispelled prominent beliefs that he would be a possible candidate for the Republican nomination of governor of the State of Vermont in the September primaries.

President Bailey did not amplify his statement except to say that he felt his duty lay in his work for the University this year, and that it seemed proper to make this announcement lest his silence might be interpreted by any other possible candidate as an indication that he intended to enter the gubernatorial contest.

The Statement

"I am not a candidate for Governor. My many years of close contact with state affairs compels a most vital interest in all that pertains to the State of Vermont, and I am not unmindful of the honor and opportunity which comes to one chosen as its governor, but problems facing the University this year are such that I feel my entire time should be given to my duties here."

JACOBS WILL SPEAK ON VERMONT GEOLOGY

"Some Vermont Geology" will be the topic of the address to be given by Professor Jacobs, of Geology Department, at the monthly meeting of the Research Club which will be held at Morrill Hall, Tuesday, February 16, at 8 o'clock. Professor Cummings will be the speaker at the March meeting of the club.

According to the United Press, "rumble-seat colds" are blamed by university authorities for the epidemic of running noses which has spread so widely about the campus of the University of Kansas. The university physician has warned against "promiscuous oculation."

PERCENTAGE DROPPED IS LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Three and nine-tenths percent of the entire student body of all the academic colleges has been dropped because of scholastic failings, according to releases from the deans of the several colleges. These percentages compare favorably with the five and one-half percent of student failures last year.

The arts faculty has failed twenty-seven students at the preliminary dropping period, while forty-two had failed the previous year. Five engineers and eight agriculture students were dropped this year, as compared with eight engineers and no "aggie" failures last year.

From the office of Dean Swift of the Arts and Sciences College comes the news that the number of freshmen dropped is about 7.7 percent of the entire class, which is a greater percentage of freshman failures than the 6.9 percent of last year and 9 percent of the year before. Five, the number of sophomores who have been removed, is less than the number which has been dropped for the last three years. No juniors in the Arts and Sciences College have been dropped, and only one senior.

Two freshmen, two sophomores, and one senior were dropped from the College of Engineering, while four other men have been allowed to remain conditionally. In the College of Agriculture, six freshmen, two sophomores and no upperclassmen have failed this year, as compared with no failures at all last year.

A student, in order to be dropped, must have failed in more than one-half of his semester hours.

Speaking of freshmen adjusting themselves to college work, Dean Hills of the College of Agriculture, states: "Freshmen just have not taken hold of things yet. Give them a chance to make it up by Easter, and perhaps two out of three may go then, but at least one will be saved from failure."

Explaining the difference between last year's and this year's failures, a faculty member of the Engineering College declares, "Due to business conditions this year, the student is so much better off in college than he is outside, that it is the better policy to keep him attending college, even at some slight risk regarding his scholastic standing than to drop him outright."

BROWN SPEAKS ON "WHAT YOU KNOW ABOUT GOD"

"What do you know about God?" was the question asked by Rev. J. Grayson Brown of the Congregational Church of Rutland, who attended the chapel service on Wednesday morning, February 10.

"What you know about God is not what you have been taught, not what you have learned from your own theory, but from what you have become unaware of in the world about you," said the speaker. He said that we gain a knowledge of our lives by observation, not by any scientific or mechanical method. "I know that God exists, because he has visited my soul," asserted Reverend Brown. To illustrate his point, he delivered one of Charles Kingsley's poems in which the awakening of spring is compared with the awakening of awareness in man's soul. At the end of the service in lieu of a prayer, the speaker delivered one stanza of "Awareness" from the collection, "Quotable Poems" edited by Clark.

The choir, under the direction of Professor Bennett, sang Henry Purcell's "O, Sing unto the Lord."

NEW WOMEN'S ARCHERY CLUB STARTS THIS WEEK

An indoor archery club has been started this week under the supervision of the women's physical education department. Dividing those interested into two groups, one meeting Monday and the other Friday at 4 o'clock, competitions are held at the range at 68½ Church Street which is directed by Major C. I. Williams. Twelve people have signed up for this sport at present and the opportunity for joining is open to all.

WILSON, TENOR, CHARMS AUDIENCE AT RECITAL

MEDICS' OSLER SOCIETY TO SHOW HERNIA SLIDE

SEVENTY-FIVE COUPLES ATTEND SOPHOMORE HOP

CATAMOUNTS CAME OUT OF SLUMP TO TRIM B. U.

Kittens—Montpelier Sem.

APPROVED HOTEL LIST IS POSTED IN "Y" ROOM

BROWN, RUTLAND PASTOR TO BE CHAPEL SPEAKER

Dr. Fraser Metzger, dean ... Reports University stres... drinking situation in college ... cases better now than at ... days."

	G.	F.	Pts.
Anderson, lf
Williams, c
Rogers, rg
Bailes, lg
Buss, lg

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 40 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1932 — NUMBER 33

L SEVEN SORORITY INAL PARTIES TO CLOSE RUSHING PERIOD WED.

cal Sororities Will Entertain rospective Pledgees Preceding Issuance of Bids Under Preferential System

EUTRAL PERIOD WILL START WEDNESDAY EVE.

period of the Greek-letter being brought to a close by final parties" given from February 10 to Wednesday, 17 in honor of eligible freshand sophomore women. Kappa Gamma, Alpha Xi Delta, Delta, and Kappa Alpha entertaining the prospective the order mentioned.

parties are the last in a series which have been run off the first consisted of night from February 5 to 9; social event was a group of by the several sororities.

in accordance with the revised regulations of Pan Hel- will be observed from morning, February 17, at 10 Friday afternoon, February o'clock, and will be closed by sorority bids. The bidding system, which was last year will be in use again for eligible women will be observed during neutral period, a statement by Lois Har- president of the Pan Hellenic in which the seven sororities Fraternity and non-fra- women will be allowed to exgreetings of "Hello" plus during the neutral period.

XTEEN DEBATERS MEET TO DISCUSS NEW CLUB

organization was formed Sunwhen sixteen men and students, including most of the debaters, met in the Fleming and formed plans for a debat-

D Carleton, coach of women's and R. S. Wright '35, principal speaker. Wright ex- at the meeting was the idea LaCross '32, who had long that a more active interest in was desirable.

general discussion of ways and was decided that the next meet- consist of the enacting of a by two members of the It was also decided that no organization of the group was even desirable. The gathered after a discussion of cut The next meeting will be held afternoon at four o'clock in Museum.

SLER SOCIETY TO HOLD THIRD MEETING MONDAY

monthly meeting of the Os- newly formed medi- be held next Monday auditorium of the Robert Museum, under the super- R. L. Maynard, W. T. and G. M. Sabin. will be presented formation, analysis, and Students and faculty College and members of at large have been

ENIORS TO INSTRUCT AT BURLINGTON AND ESSEX

by University seniors 8 will begin soon. enrolled in this twenty-five will teach Junior and Senior ne in Essex Junction seniors are: Mildred Drake, Doris Brennan, Carrier, Louise Helen Esielionis, Dallas Fuller, Velma Rosetta Harlowe, Howard, Elizabeth Marie Maddox, Mosher, Lillian Donna Oakes, Pearson, Fletcher Skinner, Dorothy and Edith Wy-

SIX KAKE WALK USHERS ARE ANNOUNCED TODAY

Six ushers have been appointed for Kake Walk according to an announcement made today by S. Manning '32, Kake Walk director. Those who have been selected are Elizabeth Barker '33, Vivian Hubbard '32, Ara Armstrong '33, Caro Wyman '33, Priscilla Perry '33, and Virginia Goodenough '33.

SENIORS ELECT EATON AS FOUNDER'S DAY SPEAKER IN MEETING WEDNESDAY

G. E. Wilder Will Be Chairman of Senior Week; F. R. Gorman is Financial Manager

A. O. Eaton was elected Founder's Day speaker, G. E. Wilder, was chosen chairman, and F. R. Gorman was selected as senior financial manager of Senior Week at a meeting of the senior class held Wednesday afternoon in the Williams Science Hall.

Janet Miller and J. W. Marvin, Jr., were chosen to fill vacancies in the faculty student council occasioned by the departure of Olive Fields and C. W. Tilley from College.

Eaton is a member of Sigma Phi fraternity. He served as manager of football and was chosen to Student Senate in his junior year. He is a member of Gold Key, Key and Serpent and Boulder societies and was a news editor on the CYNIC.

Wilder was a member of the 1932 Ariel Board, Key and Serpent and Boulder. He captained the track team last year and is one of the 1932 Kake Walk directors. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Gorman was chairman of the Peerade Committee of Junior Week last year, and he has taken part in class basketball and class baseball events. He belongs to Zeta Chi fraternity.

Miss Miller has been active in campus activities. She is a member of W. A. A. and Press Club. She played basketball on her class team in her freshman and sophomore years. Miss Miller is a Kappa Alpha Theta.

Marvin was assistant manager of track and business manager of Wig and Buskin last year. He has played on the hockey team every year and was a member of Student Senate his junior year. Marvin is one of the 1932 Kake Walk directors and a member of Delta Psi fraternity.

GOETHE LECTURE TO BE DELIVERED TONIGHT BY KUEHENMANN IN MUSEUM

"Goethe and the Modern World" Will be Subject of Lecturer in Honor of Poet's Centenary

"Goethe and the Modern World" will be the subject of the fifth University lecture to be delivered tonight at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum by Professor Kuehnemann, professor of philosophy at the University of Breslau, Germany. Professor Kuehnemann is considered one of the greatest living scholars of Goethe according to Prof. A. R. Gifford, chairman of the University lecture committee. The speaker is touring the country under the auspices of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia.

The University of Vermont in securing this lecture is participating in a world-wide celebration of this centenary year, Goethe having died one hundred years ago, March 22. The lecture will be delivered in English and will be open to all members of the College and the general public.

ELECTION OF FOUNDER'S DAY SPEAKER ILLEGAL

In violation of the regulations of the class constitution, the election of A. O. Eaton '32 Wednesday to the position of senior Founder's Day speaker was effected after the candidates had been named in a nominating committee meeting held the previous afternoon.

The view is entertained in several quarters of the campus that the election is illegal since under the provisions of the class statutes adopted last spring the announcement of nominations must be issued publicly one week before the election. The text of the clause is:

Article V—Nominations

"Section 1. The nominations for all the following Class Officers shall lay upon the table for one week, and shall be posted for that length of time upon the several bulletin boards: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Junior and Senior Founder's Day Speaker, all Commencement speakers representing the Class, and all permanent Class Officers."

Kake Walk, Unique Event Brings Stirring Strains of "Cotton Babes"

Stunts, Walkin' fo' de Kake, and Peerade to Reign Supreme at Next Saturday Night's Showing of Six Competing Fraternities

By R. W. COBB
Advertising Chairman

Kake Walk—Vermont's unique contribution to the collegiate world will soon be with us again. There is nothing like Kake Walk—nothing that sets the feet beating as the stirring music of "Cotton Babes" that is struck up by the band as the bell clangs and the first couple starts up the floor to the applause of the packed gymnasium. Once again, stunts, walkin' fo' de kake, and peerade reign supreme over Vermont's campus. Next Saturday night is the date and already the rush for tickets is well under way as no more tickets will be reserved for students after Monday afternoon.

Six fraternities are planning and plotting their varied and elaborate stunts as the days of final rehearsal and elimination draw near. The audience this year will witness six stunts which will be selected by the regular stunt judges from the eight fraternities privileged to enter the competition. These eight are Delta Psi, Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Phi Mu Delta, Tau Epsilon Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Phi Sigma Delta. These eight are redoubling their efforts since a part of one stunt or parts of several will be presented over the city radio station next Friday evening at 8.30 to 9.00 to the accompaniment of Joe Lechnyr's band, a fixture at Kake Walk. The selection of these stunts rests solely upon their adaptability for radio presentation and in no way affects the judging.

Rehearsals and elimination are Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday night of next week, the order of the various fraternities being determined after the formal drawing this noon at the Sigma Phi house under the direction of A. O. Eaton '32 chairman of the stunt committee. The Peerade drawing took place last night at the Owl house under the direction of R. J. Livingston '32; while the Kake Walk drawing will occur tonight at the Sigma Nu house with S. B. Barker '32 as chairman.

Seven cups and three cakes will be presented to the winners of the various events, some of them permanently, including the cakes.

Those few of the undergraduate body who have not as yet secured tickets must do so without fail immediately as all tickets will go on sale Wednesday morning at Hayes and Carney's store on Church Street. Tomorrow afternoon and Monday afternoon orders will be filled in the gymnasium and tickets sold. That marks the only public sale of tickets on the hill except the night of the gala event, if there are any left to sell. By the way the ticket sale has been going this past week the directors are confidently looking forward to a complete sell out.

The directors, J. W. Marvin '32 and G. E. Wilder '32, the assistant directors, C. S. Brown '33 and F. B. Drew '33, and the heads of the committees, are bending every event to make this, the Thirty-fifth Annual Kake Walk one that will be remembered.

To those who have never been on a Vermont campus when Kake Walk was going on a brief history will not be amiss. For a description just ask anyone who has seen a Kake Walk if he is going again. Back in 1893 Captain Tutherly, seeking to popularize his department, more than half promised the students a military Ball. Fortunately for Kake Walk he was not able to fulfill his promise, and thus out of this disappointment and a hurried conference the Kake Walk was born.

(Continued on page 4)

Three and Nine-Tenths Percent of Student Body Fails

Arts Faculty Drops Twenty-seven in Comparison to Forty-Two Failures Last Year; Five Engineers and Eight Aggie Students Fail

MASSUCCO AND TAYLOR ANNOUNCE JUNIOR WEEK COMMITTEES TODAY

Drew Directs Prom; Miss Taylor Has Charge of Decorations; Spiller Heads Music Committee

Committees for Junior Week, which will be celebrated the entire week of May 9, were announced today by F. J. Massucco '33, chairman of Junior Week, and C. A. Taylor '33, financial manager. The committees as selected are as follows:

F. B. Drew '33, of Randolph, will head the Junior Prom Committee.

Committee on Decorations: Dorothy Taylor, chairman, H. W. Baker, H. Cohen, T. F. Collins, Jr., Esther Fishman, Eleanor Gates, Sophie Levin, M. T. Miltimore, M. F. Mahoney, Charlotte Odell, O. O. Sunderland, and L. L. Woodward.

Committee on Music: S. N. Spiller, chairman, O. H. Calcagni, E. E. Doten, Ruth Templeton, and J. L. Thompson.

Committee on Favors: G. M. McKenzie, chairman, Esther Leary, Mary Pratt, Margaret Tower, and J. E. Wood.

Committee on Refreshments: Ara Armstrong, chairman, Esther Beardsley, M. I. Benton, Hazel Daniels, and C. W. Janke.

Committee on Publicity: C. C. Grant, chairman, M. Agel, C. S. Brown, L. R. Dunham, and D. W. Webster.

Committee on Programs: H. Greenblott, chairman, Zoay Bigelow, Dorothy Jackman, W. G. MacDonald, and F. Pires.

Committee on Junior Banquet: S. K. Carter, chairman, Dorotha Edwards, R. H. McVetty, Caroline Taft, and T. I. Taylor.

Committee on Peerade: F. P. Kenyon, chairman, R. M. Bagley, M. Bergman, H. M. Farmer, Dorine Lee, and Marion Urie.

PRESIDENT BAILEY WILL NOT ENTER AS CANDIDATE IN GUBERNATORIAL RACE

In a statement made to the press this week, Pres. Guy W. Bailey dispelled prominent beliefs that he would be a possible candidate for the Republican nomination of governor of the State of Vermont in the September primaries.

President Bailey did not amplify his statement except to say that he felt his duty lay in his work for the University this year, and that it seemed proper to make this announcement lest his silence might be interpreted by any other possible candidate as an indication that he intended to enter the gubernatorial contest.

The Statement

"I am not a candidate for Governor. My many years of close contact with state affairs compels a most vital interest in all that pertains to the State of Vermont, and I am not unmindful of the honor and opportunity which comes to one chosen as its governor, but problems facing the University this year are such that I feel my entire time should be given to my duties here."

JACOBS WILL SPEAK ON VERMONT GEOLOGY

"Some Vermont Geology" will be the topic of the address to be given by Professor Jacobs, of Geology Department, at the monthly meeting of the Research Club which will be held at Morrill Hall, Tuesday, February 16, at 8 o'clock. Professor Cummings will be the speaker at the March meeting of the club.

According to the United Press, "rumble-seat colds" are blamed by university authorities for the epidemic of running noses which has spread so widely about the campus of the University of Kansas. The university physician has warned against "promiscuous osculation."

PERCENTAGE DROPPED IS LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Three and nine-tenths percent of the entire student body of all the academic colleges has been dropped because of scholastic failings, according to releases from the deans of the several colleges. These percentages compare favorably with the five and one-half percent of student failures last year.

The arts faculty has failed twenty-seven students at the preliminary dropping period, while forty-two had failed the previous year. Five engineers and eight agriculture students were dropped this year, as compared with eight engineers and no "aggie" failures last year.

From the office of Dean Swift of the Arts and Sciences College comes the news that the number of freshmen dropped is about 7.7 percent of the entire class, which is a greater percentage of freshman failures than the 6.9 percent of last year and 9 percent of the year before. Five, the number of sophomores who have been removed, is less than the number which has been dropped for the last three years. No juniors in the Arts and Sciences College have been dropped, and only one senior.

Two freshmen, two sophomores, and one senior were dropped from the College of Engineering, while four other men have been allowed to remain conditionally. In the College of Agriculture, six freshmen, two sophomores and no upperclassmen have failed this year, as compared with no failures at all last year.

A student, in order to be dropped, must have failed in more than one-half of his semester hours.

Speaking of freshmen adjusting themselves to college work, Dean Hills of the College of Agriculture, states: "Freshmen just have not taken hold of things yet. Give them a chance to make it up by Easter, and perhaps two out of three may go then, but at least one will be saved from failure."

Explaining the difference between last year's and this year's failures, a faculty member of the Engineering College declares, "Due to business conditions this year, the student is so much better off in college than he is outside, that it is the better policy to keep him attending college, even at some slight risk regarding his scholastic standing than to drop him outright."

BROWN SPEAKS ON "WHAT YOU KNOW ABOUT GOD"

"What do you know about God?" was the question asked by Rev. J. Grayson Brown of the Congregational Church of Rutland, who attended the chapel service on Wednesday morning, February 10.

"What you know about God is not what you have been taught, not what you have learned from your own theory, but from what you have become unaware of in the world about you," said the speaker. He said that we gain a knowledge of our lives by observation, not by any scientific or mechanical method. "I know that God exists, because he has visited my soul," asserted Reverend Brown. To illustrate his point, he delivered one of Charles Kingsley's poems in which the awakening of spring is compared with the awakening of awareness in man's soul. At the end of the service in lieu of a prayer the speaker delivered one stanza of 'Awareness' from the collection "Quotable Poems" edited by Clark.

The choir, under the direction of Professor Bennett, sang Henry Purcell's "O Sing unto the Lord."

NEW WOMEN'S ARCHERY CLUB STARTS THIS WEEK

An indoor archery club has been started this week under the supervision of the women's physical education department. Dividing those interested into two groups, one meeting Monday and the other Friday at 4 o'clock, competitions are held at the range at 68½ Church Street which is directed by Major C. I. Williams. Twelve people have signed up for this sport at present and the opportunity for joining is open to all.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible]
Women's Editor
Sports Editor
Managing Editor
Exchange Editor
Business Manager
Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34
[illegible] '34
Augusta Cohen '34
C. Jackson Libby '34
Realtus McCain '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible]

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

[illegible] '34
W. F. Gilbert '34
[illegible] '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

[illegible] '34

COLUMNIST

[illegible] '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

[illegible] during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a [illegible]

Editorials

CHOOSING A SORORITY

[illegible] life and after these days are over. [illegible] at nineteen and is treated like a [illegible] boy matures less rapidly than [illegible] enters at seventeen and is treated [illegible] man. To enter at the appropriate [illegible] and be expected to be rather above [illegible] below his maturity is the best way [illegible] velop manly character. Although [illegible] graduates have less freedom in the [illegible] of electives, and are more rigidly held [illegible] a higher standard of work, they are [illegible] duced to feel more responsibility [illegible] the past for their own education and [illegible] the well-being of the college to which [illegible] they have the honor to belong."

Although he said it was too early [illegible] predict the effect of the house plan under [illegible] which a large portion of the student body [illegible] lives in a group of seven houses President Lowell said, "they have started well," and "their members—graduates, tutors and associates—seem happy and contented, and few serious objections have arisen."

Fear Not Verified

A fear which had been "entertained by some people" that increased interest in scholarship as a result of such activities as the house plan, would lessen athletic prowess has not been verified, President Lowell said.

Improvement

Improvement on the mode of examination and the standard of scholarship attainment in the college "almost all round," President Lowell said, considering the graduate school of arts and sciences in his report. Because of the [illegible] in the college, a situation was created, he said, where "instead of the student bringing the man to the point where [illegible] had brought him, and carrying him forward as a scholar perfecting himself in his specific field, the two [illegible] overlap." This overlapping, "I am much mistaken" President Lowell said, "will be widely and generally covered in the coming years."—Boston Herald Press.

Three blonde co-eds of Vassar University recently debated with three brunettes from the same college on the subject that brunettes were more intelligent than blondes and won by a score of 47-28.

NOTICE

SOPHOMORE WOMEN

Any soph woman who thinks she has raised her marks to fraternity average during the past semester please notify Lois Harrington or Roberta Powers before Saturday, February 13. It will be impossible for Pan Hellenic to look up all marks, so if you have your average let us know. We will verify it and then you will be eligible to be bid.

There will be a meeting, which all girls eligible for pledging to a sorority are required to attend, in the Old Mill Chapel at 1:30 on Thursday, February 16. If they have questions of any kind about fraternity they must put them in the box in the Y Room by the last hour on Thursday morning, February 16. These questions will be answered at that meeting.

When is the greatest engineer the world has ever produced, and why?" was a question recently asked in a quiz in the department of physics of Wake Forest College. The paper of a freshman contained the following answer: "Hoover, because he ditched, drained and damned the United States in two years."

The Hunger of the Oldest University in America has just appeased. It is the Royal Pontifical University of Mexico, or the University of Mexico founded in 1553.

All freshmen wishing to scrub the business side of the Cynic will meet at the Cynic office on Friday, February 12, at 1:30 p.m.

CARL W. JANKE,
Business Manager.

STUDENT UNION NOTICE

Sophomores have an extra eleven o'clock night during the weeks February 8-22.

Campus Comment

To the Editor of the Cynic:

It has often occurred to me that the so-called relationship existing between [illegible] is one which is [illegible] narrowing the gap prevailing at the present time. From a reliable source I have learned that the efforts of the University's officials have not proven too successful. Authorities in charge of encouraging the idea may perhaps feel that the failure is due primarily to a lack of cooperation on the part of the student body. Their argument is not entirely unsound. For when they do invite members of their particular group to their own homes where they may assist in ironing out the difficulties which may arise, how many take advantage of the invitation?

If the particular individual does come, he is usually so frigid and tense in manner, so reluctant to give any information which may lead to the root of all his troubles that about all he has gained for his trouble is a mutual how-do-you do. A substitute for the present plan exists, one which should accomplish the purpose sought after.

Vermont, it is agreed, is a fraternity school, one where the Greek societies play a prominent role. Statistics prove that a great percentage of the male students [illegible] these organizations. Entertainments have been organized at a major part of the above, which would be feasible to invite individual members of the faculty to particular meals where closer contact might be secured. I am certain, moreover, that the [illegible] faculty would be delighted to attend these functions, where in a spirit of good fellowship they might secure a keener insight into the difficulties confronting the average student. Friendships arising from this plan might be formed which would last for years and remain a part of the reminiscences to which college men may look back long after matriculation.

In conclusion, by reversing the plan which Vermont now enjoys we should obtain the desired result. Instead of the invitation being extended by the faculty advisor under the new plan we should find the various fraternities acting as hosts; whereupon the disadvantages of the present system would be eliminated. What is the opinion of the faculty and undergraduate body?

Eugene S. Lyons, ex-'32

Bits of Bunk

And then there was the old grad who passed twenty speakeasies without going in—he was in a patrol wagon.—Colgate Scan Dal.

If every boy in the United States could read every girl's mind, the gasoline consumption would drop 50 percent.—The Battalion.

"Now I know how Dad felt when his Country Club was disbanded," said the senior upon graduation.—Notre Dame Juggler.

"Down in front, down in front."

What's down in front?"—Annapolis Log.

Wife (after accident): Where am I? Am I in Heaven?

Husband: No, dear. I'm still with you.—Green Griffin.

"What is the honorary fishing fraternity?"

"I give up."

"Beta, you sap. Beta."—Colorado Dodo.

A reformer is the kind of guy who would try to make you believe that he gave Eve back her apple.—Wesleyan Wasp.

The trouble with freshmen nowadays is that they get too many pats on the upper back and two few on the lower.—Amherst Lord Jeff.

Proms are paid for by fools like me,
But that is what I could never see.
(A touch of Sheets or maybe it was Kelley.)—Lehigh Burr.

Fond Mother: Willie, you've been a naughty boy. Go to the vibrator and give yourself a good shaking.—U. of S. California Wampus.

Leek: Is my face clean enough to eat with?

Dana: Yes, but you had better use your hands.—Illinois Siren.

First Racketeer (discussing proposed robbery): Between you and I it's bad business.

Second Racketeer: You're telling between you and I it's bad English.—Cornell Widow.

And then there was the sap soph who took three extra subjects so he would have more chance of passing one.—M. I. T. Voo Doo.

EPSILON SIGMA

The first rushing party will be held Friday evening, February 12.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Juna Housley was married to Dr. Willard Morse, a member of Sigma Phi fraternity, on Saturday, January 30.

PI BETA PHI

Ruth Templeton '33 was pledged Monday, February 1.

Margaret Stanley '31 was in town over the week-end.

K. E. L.

Pledging of freshmen will take place Sunday, February 14.

Being Collegiate

Why do so many people attend football games? A professor at the New Mexico State College gave the following opinion to one of his classes: "One-half go to see the game, while the other half go to see the band. The boys go to see the girls, and the girls go to see what the other girls are wearing.

A committee has been organized at the University of Oregon to record the activities of students on the campus. Its purpose is to encourage scholarship and widen student participation in activities.

"Jailbirds earn 15 cents a day to go to Collitch."—so reads a heading in the Minnesota Daily. Forty men from the state penitentiary are now enrolled in the corresponding department of the University of Minnesota.

Students at Columbia University are to have phonograph records made of their speaking voice when they enter the school as freshmen and when they graduate. These will be used by the English Department more clearly to point out speech defects and make possible their correction.

In order that every student may engage in some sport Syracuse University has added horseshoe pitching to its athletic curriculum.

Detroit University men are absolutely forbidden to smoke cigarettes on the school campus. The objection states that the butts litter up the campus, while pipes furnish a fertilizer for the ground.

Hamlin University, the oldest college in Minnesota, no longer requires students to have a certain number of credits for graduation. Instead they will progress as swiftly as they please, receiving a diploma when they have passed a comprehensive examination regardless of the length of time they have spent at Hamlin.

The Columbia Spectator finds some amusement in the fact that the playing of "Minnie the Moocher" was the last straw that caused some chaperones at a Barnard French Club dance to become quite angry—so much so, in fact, that they caused the abolishing of jazz bands from the next dances given at Barnard.

The headlines of most college papers lately have given the results of the disarmament ballot similar to the one voted on here. Such a vote has been forbidden at the University of Maine by the administration.

Poor Hawaiians—depression and all, [illegible] a raise in tuition fees at the University of Hawaii. This is to alleviate the high taxation on the payers. The raise is $20. The new fee is $50.

Have you heard the one about the instructor who began calling the roll with the class cards from another section? "What, that's just half of it . . . the first time students answered 'here' before he realized his mistake."—Temple U. News.

A professor in the department of biochemistry at the University of Toronto [illegible] that war, prohibition, birth control, and the fact that man is becoming tired of living may very probably result in the extinction of the race.

At the University of Berlin students pick their own professors. There are six weeks before the semester officially opens in which students may study and analyze the various professors offering each course.

Announce New Books at Billings Library

Miss Shattuck, head [illegible] Billings Library, today announced the following list of new books which have recently been added to the shelves:

Bagehot, Clare ed. [illegible] tions, 5 volumes.
Briggs, "Agony Column."
Boeckel, "Turn Toward Peace."
Boynton, "James Fenimore Cooper."
Burns, "The Red Harvest."
Cecil, Lady Gwendolen. [illegible] Robert, Marquis of Salisbury."
Dinsmore, "English Bible as Literature."
Fay, "Bernard Fay's Franklin."
Fisher, "Basque People."
Flanders, "Taming Our Machines."
Galsworthy, "Maid in Waiting."
Harkness, "Conflicts in Religious Thought."
Hausmann, "Kleine liebe zu Anna."
Hayes, "Historical Evolution of Modern Nationalism."
Hohman, "American Whaleman."
Hoskins, "British Routes to India."
Koht, "Life of Ibsen," 2 volumes.
Laski, "Liberty in the Modern State."
Lee, "King Edward VII," 2 volumes.
Lorwin, "Labor and International Relations."
Love, "Federal Financing."
Newburgh, "Exchange of Energy between Man and the Environment."
Oncken, "Napoleon III and the Rhine."
Robinson, E. A., "Collected Poems."
"Science and Religion," a symposium.
"United States National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement" publications.
Waliszewski, "Romance of an Empress, Catherine II of Russia."
Waliszewski, "Story of a Throne, Catherine II of Russia."
Weidlein and Hamor, "Science of Petroleum."

THE MUSE CONVERSES

STUDENTS MORE MATURE

Pres. A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University said the college student of the current era was more mature than was his predecessor of a generation ago. President Lowell's observations were contained in his annual report to the Board of Overseers.

"Our college students," said President Lowell in that portion of his report dealing with the house plan now in vogue at Harvard, "as a whole appear more mature than a generation ago, not only in scholarship, but also in their outside interest and in the sense of proportion and values which is the flower of maturity and this in spite of—perhaps to some extent because of—the fact that they are a year younger than they did in the early nineties.

Maturity

"Maturity is by no means wholly a matter of years. It depends much also on environment, and above all on responsibility. A youth who enters college at nineteen and is treated like a schoolboy matures less rapidly than one who enters at seventeen and is treated like a man. To enter at the appropriate age and be expected to be rather above than below his maturity is the best way to develop manly character. Although undergraduates have less freedom in the choice of electives, and are more rigidly held to a higher standard of work, they are reduced to feel more responsibility than in the past for their own education and for the well-being of the college to which they have the honor to belong."

Although he said it was too early to predict the effect of the house plan under which a large portion of the student body lives in a group of seven houses President Lowell said, "they have started well," and "their members—graduates, tutors and associates—seem happy and contented, and few serious objections have arisen."

Fear Not Verified

A fear which had been "entertained by some people" that increased interest in scholarship as a result of such activities as the house plan, would lessen athletic prowess has not been verified, President Lowell said.

Improvement

Improvement on the mode of examination and the standard of scholarship attainment in the college "almost all round," President Lowell said, considering the graduate school of arts and sciences in his report. Because of the [illegible] in the college, a situation was created, he said, where "instead of the student bringing the man to the point where [illegible] had brought him, and carrying him forward as a scholar perfecting himself in his specific field, the two [illegible] overlap." This overlapping, "I am much mistaken" President Lowell said, "will be widely and generally covered in the coming years."—Boston Herald Press.

Three blonde co-eds of Vassar University recently debated with three brunettes from the same college on the subject that brunettes were more intelligent than blondes and won by a score of 47-28.

In The Good Old Days

By MILTON J. GREENBERG

week of February has ever importance in the an- CYNIC comments on week-end athletic engage- aftermath of the mid year and the progress of feature the front pages.

1906 and true, their statement terials of the twelfth third volume pub- 10, 1906. "Now that earful and fateful fort- the poor undergraduate and confinement is per- again in quietness and routine of daily work."

1910 issue contains a lengthy ge the students to work greatest Kake Walk though it is twenty-two Walk becomes the conversation. Within I ask, will the thirty-fifth Walk have gained the being called the best of them

1914 years later comes the announce- Interfraternity Conference been formed, a constitution has been by that Conference and a com- been to study rushing rules.

1915

In the CYNIC published in February, 15, we learn that the rifle team easily at Notre Dame University 931 to 913. There is also a writeup on a Vermont victory over Tufts College in a relay meet at Boston. Yes, sir! Those were the good old days. Vermont always won and the old "Grads" will tell you!

1918

In 1918, he CYNIC carried an extra edition which went under the name of "Alternating Currents" and consisted of the weekly news of Depot Company F, Signal Corps, United States Army. Today there is much discussion among the student body as to the possible outcome of the Sino-Japanese War.

Here is something for the medical student. "Several weeks ago Major Leondaeuver was given power to enlist medics of the University of Vermont in the Medical Reserve Corps of the Army. Although, they are subject to call at any time, they will probably be allowed to finish their course." Buck up you "medics," we may not go to war after all.

1926

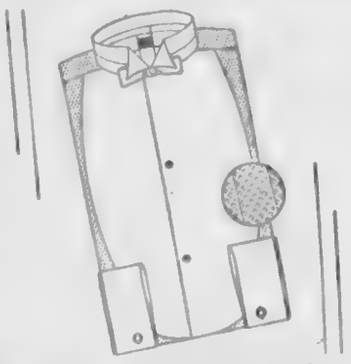
Passing through eight years, I came across the issue of February 13, 1926, containing a bit of news for our ever-hopeful bandman. The article describes the fame of the band as a result of the Washington trip the year before and the possible chances of a trip in the spring to Philadelphia representing the Vermont Post of the American Legion. It's been a long time since the last trip by our band but according to Joseph Lechynr, bandmaster, the organization may be surprised to learn they are going on a trip We Will Be Surprised.

1928

Two years later, that is in 1928, Vermont easily conquered Norwich in basketball, 40-15. It seems like a long time since Vermont has taken any state series title game by such a score. Of course, Vermont had good teams at that time. But surely, we've got them now.

In this same issue we again see that Kake Walk plays an important part in the makeup of the front page. The directors because of complaints received as to the length of the program, have cut down the number of stunts to six and they also innovated a new policy by allowing non-fraternity men to enter the Peerade Stunt. The Kake Kalk appears more strongly than ever in this article. "The Kake Walk must be bigger and better than ever."

More and More Formality



Tails for Evening Wear With Trend Towards Formal Accessories Noted Among Men at Social Affairs.

HOLIDAY social festivities have turned the attention of young men everywhere to the subject of evening dress and a review of prevailing styles shows that the trend is toward more and more formality. The movement in this direction, observed as definitely under way about two years ago, has been accelerated until it is, this season, not only the accepted mode but practically the imperative

The surest barometer is the full dress, or tail, coat. As a style feature, this garment has probably moved faster the last two years than anything made for men in a long, long time. It appeared in increasing numbers last season but this fall and early winter it has become almost unanimous for formal functions. Reports of stylists indicate that the return of women's evening dress to more formality has been largely responsible for the trend in men's evening cloths.

With the tails, of course, there must follow formality in appurtenances—hat, shoes, shirt, collar and overcoat. Opera hats are said to be the favorites still for formal evening wear but a growing trend toward silk hats is also reported. The dress pump in patent leather, rather than in dull finish, is growing in favor with the trend towards tail coats.

Styles in dress shirts seem to have settled quite definitely on the two-button shirt in birdseye pique, both ribbed and plain. The single button shirt is occasionally seen at the smarter affairs but by far the majority are two-button. The one-button, however, is popular with the tuxedo. A new wing collar, even smarter than the always smart wing, is worn this season with the tail coat and pique shirt. The collar is slightly higher, 2 to 2⅛ inches, the opening is slightly narrower and the tabs are more pointed though shorter. The most popular shirt opens in the back, so that the bosom always presents a smarter, smoother appearance and cannot be broken when studs are inserted. The bosom is also longer and more tapering, to slip snugly inside the higher-waisted trousers. Narrow spade, blunt end and square bow ties are equally good in black, for tuxedo, and white, for tails.

Newest dress shirt with (inset) enlarged view of bosom fabric.

EATON TO HEAD R. O. T. C. UNIT; C. BUSH, ADJUTANT

J. E. Willis '33 is Battalion Sergeant Major Military Department Announces

Allan O. Eaton '32 is the new commanding officer of the University R. O. T. C. battalion with title of major and C. K. Bush '32 is adjutant with title of captain according to an announcement released by the military department Wednesday. Master Sgt. J. E. Willis '33 is battalion sergeant major and the acting color sergeants are Corporals C. G. Bailey '34 and P. C. Cummings '34.

Company "A" will be commanded by Capt. S. B. Barker '32, with First Lieutenants M. H. Carpenter and F. V. Kosky '32 of the first and second platoons respectively.

F. I. Colburn, a first sergeant with [illegible] and N. H. Pierce [illegible] the class of 1933.

Sergeants include R. L. Brooks, D. C. King, M. A. Vaghris and H. I. Sheldon of the class of 1933.

Company A Corporals

Company "A" corporals are: L. A. Bannon, T. Cogswell, R. M. Donahue, C. H. Drown, C. B. Eaton, D. P. Germann, C. J. Libby, J. L. Morgan, D. J. Moriarty, N. H. Myers, S. Pierce, Jr., A. C. Pond, W. A. Ross, J. A. Rust, F. H. Spear, A. J. Spicer, G. Stone, H. P. Wetherbee, and D. H. Winters, all of the sophomore class.

Capt. C. A. Park '32 will command Rifle Company "B" of the sophomores with First Lieutenants E. J. Mercier '32 and R. A. Hyde leading the first and second platoons respectively.

H. M. Loudon '33, first sergeant will be assisted by Platoon Sergeants C. W. Utley '33 and L. M. Preedom '33 of the first and second platoons.

Company "B" sergeants are: R. C. Macomber, W. E. Shelc and A. C. Walker of the junior class.

Company B Corporals

Corporals, from the class of 1934 include: W. M. Adams, Jr., J. L. Beckley, W. W. Brislin, G. H. Burrows, A. H. Cass, J. J. Delfausse, M. D. Howe, P. E. Lanou, L. C. Laythe, J. J. McGrath, C. G. Otis, R. Powell, A. A. Ross, W. J. Ryan, H. J. Selib, R. T. Van Dyke, F. O. Walter, F. E. Wegner.

Company "C", freshman company will be commanded by Capt. H. W. Davis '32, and First Lieutenants C. V. Primpas '32 and P. E. Bove '32. First sergeant is E. L. Austin '33 and platoon sergeants, A. W. Baldwin and R. M. Bagley, both juniors of the first and second platoons respectively. Sergeants include: L. I. Bowers, M. Ciardelli, and H. M. Farmer of the class of 1933.

Company C Corporals

R. C. Abbott, T. C. Burnes, C. F. Fisk, R. H. Gay, M. L. Howd, S. T. Hubbard, G. V. Hutchins, G. A. MacDonald, W. M. Piette, H. S. Schmarr, G. H. Sheehe, G. L. Stratton, H. P. White, A. L. Williams, all freshmen.

Company "D", senior officers are: Capt. P. E. Westin, first lieutenant, F. J. Varricchione, and second lieutenant, F. L. Woodward of the first and second platoons.

M. L. Powell '34 is first sergeant, W. J. Gilbert '34 and L. E. Reed '33 are platoon sergeants. Sergeants: J. C. Gordon, C. C. Grant, and E. C. Gladding all of the class of 1933.

Company D Corporals

Corporals: H. H. Abbott, R. D. Burns, W. E. Cass, R. I. Delfausse, A. A. Hutchins, C. W. Meligonis, M. E. Merchant, A. V. Nevulis, C. A. Park, D. J. Rock, G. M. Sabin, F. W. Squires, E. R. Swartz, and W. D. White, of the class of 1935.

Fulton and Allen Broadcast Talks Over Station WCAX Friday Eve.

Prof. W. T. Fulton of the engineering department spoke on "Mechanical Engineering," and Dr. Truman I. Allen, professor of neurology in the Medical College and head of the Brandon State School discussed "Training of Mentally Handicapped Children" last Friday evening over station WCAX from 7:30 to 8:00 o'clock.

Following the twenty-minute program Vasti Bixby '34 accompanied a vocal [illegible] on the piano.

Professor Fulton's talk in part is as follows:

"For several years there has been [illegible] a tendency on the part of public [illegible] to regard engineering as a profession and the work of engineers [illegible] as [illegible] to recognize the engineering profession and the better economic [illegible] existing in the practice of engineering [illegible] people. It is not a [illegible] that engineering professions [illegible] a [illegible] Most people have correctly understood him to be a man who has been trained to apply to the requirements of private and public business the ideas, methods, and modes of thought typical of the exact sciences, with a proper understanding of commercial matters including management and economics.

"Under the broad heading of engineering, we recognize today several subdivisions. We have civil engineer with his bridges, highways and dams as a lasting monument to his profession. The electrical engineer with his amazing accomplishments in the generation and transmission of light and power. The mining engineer who by his genius, has converted the resources of the earth into dynamic wealth. The function of these engineering groups is rather clearly indicated by their names.

"We find then that the mechanical engineer has left the narrow field of machines, to make his influence felt in every phase of industrial life. His is one of the broadest professions open to the technically minded youth of today, and he who embarks upon a study of and a career in mechanical engineering may expect to find himself performing worthy and important functions in any one of the many and diversified branches of the day industrial life. His field is broad, and his services are recognized and usually well compensated."

Doctor Allen, speaking of mentally handicapped children, said:

"I am afforded the privilege of bringing to your attention certain aspects of the study and education of mentally handicapped children. The intellectually subnormal child constitutes one of the several well known types of problem children. For many years the care and training of the mentally handicapped has been accepted by the various states with an increasing sense of responsibility. It has become recognized as of state wide significance and measures have been instituted to secure more effective control and afford the maximum of help to this unfortunate class. It is obvious that a state wide program is necessary in order to meet a [illegible] state wide [illegible] this program must be based [illegible] and [illegible] with [illegible] a few exceptions have made use of all the measures that can be utilized in a [illegible]

"Maximum assistance to this class in [illegible] can be obtained only [illegible] a [illegible] Most people [illegible]

CONCERT TAKES PLACE OF SATURDAY LECTURE IN FLEMING MUSEUM

In place of the usual Saturday afternoon lecture in the Fleming Museum last week, a short concert, under the direction of Professor Bennett, was given by the Men's and Women's Double Quartets, illustrating folk songs of various countries.

A good-sized and enthusiastic audience heard this novel program. The Men's Double Quartet began with "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," a German Christmas carol harmonized by Praetorius, and "Angels O'er the Fields," a French Christmas carol. The Women's Double Quartet next sang "The Straw Guy" and "See the Gypsy Munching Cheese," representative of Hungarian folk songs. The English songs, "In Praise of Milk" and "Nottingham Ale," followed by the sailor chanties, "Away to Rio" and "Old Man Noah," were sung by the men. Ending the program, both men and women sang "Wassail Song," an English folk-song arranged by Vaughn Williams.

Those taking part were: Misses M. Putnam, V. Purinton, E. Perry, R. Jenness, E. Beardsley, M. Kane, E. Mandigo and N. Carder, all members of the Women's Double Quartet, assisted by M. Ansboro and R. Buxton, the men were: R. Jenks, S. Pierce, A. Wilcox, J. Jardine, D. Jenks, C. Hale, R. Wright, A. Williams. Women were directed by Professor Bennett and men by F. P. Colburn.

The honor system at Johns Hopkins University is a success according to the faculty of the school. The only drawbacks are that students are indifferent and that they are unwilling to report cases of cheating.

A professor may exclude any student he wishes, if said student is unsatisfactory.

Subscribe to the Cynic

Alumni and friends, read what Vermont students are thinking and doing.

Fill out this blank and send it to the Business Manager.

Please accept my subscription to the VERMONT CYNIC for one year.

Date 193

Name .....

Address .....

.....

SUBSCRIPTION $3 PER YEAR

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street
PRIZE CUPS
and
TROPHIES
Expert Repairing
and
Engraving
FRATERNITY JEWELRY

. . . .

Valentines

on display now

at the

UNIVERSITY STORE

. . . .

Poor Child Football

Place for Eugenics

Colleges Commercially Minded

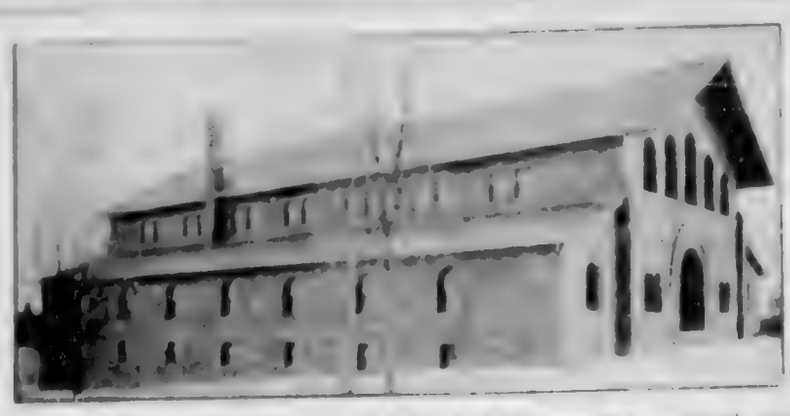
Overemphasis Pathological

Future Course

ZETA CHI AND S. A. E. HOLD ANNUAL INITIATION

ARE YOU A SUCKER?

Incompatible Ends



CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

TELEPHONE 1813
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
183 Church St
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

Kake Walk Unique Event

(Continued from page 1)

HELPFUL HINTS FROM ST. BONA VENTURE

Here are some more of many added among last sunday's to a school and happy life.

Never be glad after waking in the morning. (See Freud.)

Never retire until there is nothing else to do. (See all you can.)

Never sleep facing the east. (If you do you will surely be shamed when you open your eyes in the morning to-day never Sol will greet at his day's work already done. Or have you no conscience?)

Never sleep in bed. (Prepare the pit bed.)

Dr Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore College, recently declared that "the so-called bad boys in school, who refuse to submit to discipline and who create difficulties are frequently the more brilliant students."

Something new has been started at Harvard. At freshman lunch students of French and German may sit at special tables where the menu is printed and the conversation carried on in French and German. English is barred.

One amazed freshman asks: "Do molecules on a magnetic field ever get dizzy?"

And there is the freshman who thinks a psychic bid is a rush from a new fraternity.

The U. of Illinois is playing basketball on skates. Not satisfied with slippery courts, they're using ice.

Greatest optimist of the week: The co-ed who goes around claiming she is losing her mind.

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

Keeping ahead of the second hand

To keep telephone service in step with the swift pace of American life, Bell System men tackle many an absorbing problem, find many an ingenious solution.

For instance, they decided that precious seconds could be saved by a change in long-established operating routine. The operator used to repeat the number called by the subscriber — now she indicates that she understands by saying, "Thank you." To appreciate the importance of the second thus saved, just multiply it by the 40,000,000 conversations handled by operators on the average day.

In the telephone business, major improvements that save the subscriber's time and give him better service often result from just such apparently minor changes.

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

SPORTS NEWS

NTHER PUCK CHASERS BEAT CATAMOUNTS 9-2

ddlebury Decisively Wins cond Straight State Series Game Monday Afternoon

...anced another step to- ... another state hockey ... when the Catamounts were ... margin, Monday after- ... Middlebury ice ... which decided the issue ... manner was all Middlebury ... the Panthers leading 7 2. ... the poor ice and added ... at the part of the Cata- ... in giving Bob Boynton ... protection in goal, kept the ... adding but two goals in ... period and scoreless in the ...

... champs Captain Yoe- ... and Nelson were the big ... while Bakeman ex- ... the defense ... and Frenchy Mercier did ... offensive work for the Green ... with Fullback Rapuano bear- ... at the defensive duties.

	VERMONT
...	...g., Boynton
...	...r.d., Rees
...	...l.d., Rapuano
...	...c., Wood
...	...r.w., McVetty
...	...l.w., Mercier

... by periods:

	1	2	3—T
...	7	2	0—9
...	2	0	0—2

... Middlebury—Makela 3, Nelson ... 2, Pickens, Melbye. Ver- ... Mercier McVetty. ... — Middlebury — Pickens, ... Dwyer, McLean, Viehman, Allen. ... Carlson, Jardine, Concannon, ... Connelley.

TUDENTS AWAIT DAVIS CUP DRAW IN TENNIS

... made in Paris, Tuesday for ... Cup Championship Tennis ... awaited with keen anticipa- ... the tennis world. The draw com- ... was headed by Dwight H. Davis, ... of the cup and former champion ...

... two nations definitely have en- ... competition with several more ... In the North American zone ... United States and Canada were en- ... with the possible inclusion of Aus- ...

... United States squad will be com- ... much younger players than has ... been the custom.

... Shunted out of competition compara- ... early in the play last year by Great ... the American team will endeavor ... itself back in the rating held by ... country before the disastrous French ... took the prized trophy across ...

... exams University of Wash- ... students have to pass a hand- ... test before entering the stadium ... student tickets. The exam consists ... the name on a slip of paper be- ... committee who check the signa- ... that found in the student body ... There's one place where the proof ... in the pudding!

CAT'S MEOW

—Sporting Editor—

Boston University came and departed with an innovation in basketball coaching. The careful observer noted the absence of Coach Win Karlson from the Pioneer bench.

Captain Bill Lowder has complete charge of the team during the game, a policy which has created a great deal of comment both pro and con

At B U it is a comparatively recent development, having been inaugurated by the new dean of the department of physical education, Frederick Rand Rogers during last year's football season

The hockey team got off to an encouraging start against St. Michaels' only to be set back by the Black Panthers' in a rather decisive manner

With teams like M A C, Dartmouth and the Army remaining on the schedule, the propects for a successful season do not appear too rosy

Both the varsity and frosh looked impressive in their Saturday night contests. May the good work continue

Mass. State, whose maiden name was good old Mass. Aggie, appears on the scene tomorrow night for the first meeting with Vermont on the basketball court in many years.

Louis Bush, the East's leading football scorer last fall, is holding down a forward position for the Bay Staters Coach Burke's former pupil is also leading the basketball team in scoring.

In the preliminary, Clark School's strong team meets the Kittens The Hanover boys have several former Greater Boston schoolboy stars headed by Tony Genacaunez and Lou Messina, who are both heading for Dartmouth.

NO DEPRESSION IN THE TEACHING FIELD NOW STATES MR. ARMSTRONG

"Unlike many other professions and business enterprises, teaching will not suffer because of depression," states Mr Ernest Armstrong, of Rochester, N Y., who, as representative of the Interstate Teachers' Agency, is here at the University this week, interviewing seniors who are prospective teachers.

Numerous students of the education department have been interviewed, but nothing definite has been ascertained about the number of students who will get positions next year, according to a statement by Mr. Armstrong He would give no information concerning the number of U. V. M. students he has been able to place in schools. The number of students who secure positions has varied during past years.

All regular classes in physical education for women will be suspended during the week of February 15-20 and outdoor work will take its place. Each student is to take up any sport she wishes, as skating, snowshoeing, skiing or tobogganing, and report on her activities when classes are resumed.

CATS MEET MASS STATE AND BIG GREEN ON ICE

Game With Bay Staters to be Played Here This Afternoon—Game at Hanover Tomorrow

This afternoon the hockey team will be seen in action against a strong Massachusetts State ice team. The game will begin at four in the afternoon. Tomorrow the team travels to Hanover to contest the Dartmouth puck chasers The revised schedule makes it bad for them because there has not been an over abundance of ice on which to practice The men have been in very poor condition for this reason and cannot be expected to do as well as if they had had a month's practice on the ice.

Massachusetts State has defeated the Connecticut Aggies rather badly this year On the other hand Middlebury handed Vermont a bad polishing at the Middlebury rink last Monday. The score was 9-2 finally Mercier and McVetty went like a house afire on very poor ice in that game and skated rings around their opponents. The defense of the Green and Gold outfit is weak this year As usual the goalie has not functioned very good.

Dartmouth, tomorrow's opponent, has taken a bad beating from Yale already Dartmouth is out of Vermont's class in most sports, and the team intends to put up the best fight possible against them. Last year Dartmouth won by 10 to 0 score.

CATS MEET MASS. STATE ON COURT SAT. EVENING

Visitors Have Strong Team—Are Favored to Win in View of Season's Record—Frosh in Prelim.

With two objective state games over, the Catamounts close a hard week's work, playing Massachusetts State at the gym tomorrow night

The visitors will present a strong team centering around Louis Bush at forward, and two high-scoring guards in Captain Foley and Goggie Houran To date the visitors have enjoyed a highly successful season, reaching their climax Saturday night when they defeated Hamilton 42-20 at Amherst.

The Catamounts who are also traveling in high, are anxious to reopen basketball relations with the Amherst collegians with a win, as the visitors are regarded high in small college basketball circles this season. The regular starting five composed of Durfey and Tupper at forwards, Morgan at center, with Beckley and Taft in the back court.

Frosh Meet Clark School

In the preliminary game the Kittens meet Coach Joe Tansey's strong Clark School team To date the visitors have enjoyed a very successful season, having won handily over Kimball Union, Tilton and Holderness as well as Montpelier Seminary.

The Hanover boys boast a strong offense centered around Nicholson and Messina at forwards and Genacawicz at center.

The Kittens, however, are favored to win in view of the fact that they tacked a more decisive defeat on the Seminary boys. Coach Post will probably send Skodinski and Meligonis as forwards, Fiske at center, and Palmer and Schmarr as guards into the game.

KEEP OUT OF WAR

Whatever further insanity the Japanese militarists may be guilty of, the United States should not go to war against them We have no mandate to police the world. We cannot protect vast China by force of American arms. Nor can we preserve American interests by killing Japanese Even if we were victors in a war, we would lose more than we would gain.

Patience is required of us now, more than anything else. As the world's most powerful nation and as the world's credit control, the United States can wait. Soon or late Japan must come to us When she does come to us, there is bound to be an accounting under the American treaties which the Japanese militarists mistakenly think they have destroyed.—Extract from editorial in Washington (D C.) Daily News (a Scripps- Howard newspaper).

Madame Elizabeth Bradish, accompanied by Miss Miriam Natalie Marston will broadcast a program of vocal solos over Station WCAX, Friday, March 4 This program has been postponed from tonight its originally schedule date, due to the illness of Madame Bradish

St. Michael's Defeats Cats 22-11 in Important Game

Catamounts Offense Fails to Click, Being Held to two Field Goals by Close Covering Michaelmen—Keefe, Ruggerio and Maynes Star

S. A. E'S DEFEAT OWLS 32-18 IN FRAT TILT

Winning Aggregation Uses Two-team Combination to Pile Up High Score

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon basketball team defeated the Owls in a loose, but interesting game. The final score was 32-18 in favor of the Purple and Gold team. Under the capable coaching of Mike "Bearcat" Valerio, the Sig Alph team functioned as a unit of scoring power, although it was a team thrown together of men, who had not played with each other before the game. The Owls had trouble in stopping Enos Ramon, who garnered twelve points for the victorious team

At the half the score was 18 to 14 in favor of the Sig Alph squad Two complete teams were used by the winning combine, both functioning better than the Owl team. Wegner was the high spot of the winning team, and his lofty altitude should have helped him more than it did

Gordon Davis and Orson Walters had an agreement with each other to help the losing team. Accordingly, Walters passed Davis the ball under Davis' basket and the Owls were chalked up with another basket, which did not help their score materially Mulcahy played a steady and spirited game at forward, as he has played throughout the class league games. "Bernie" captained the class of 1934 team which won the championship.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM HOLDS FIRST MATCHES

All members of the women's rifle team for 1932 have been chosen and intercollegiate matches began this week Each team of the various colleges fired in its own ranges and will exchange scores by mail.

Members of the team are as follows: Frances Thomas '33, Daisy Putnam '34, Helen Allen '33, Lenda Walker '33, Claribel Morris '34, Laura Towne '33, Helen Miller '35, Dallas Fuller '32, Mary Poling '34, Ruth Goss '32, Marion Urie '33, Mildred Vosburg '34, Ethel Bishop '33 (manager), Esther Smith '33 (assistant manager).

The composite senior of the College of the City of New York weighs 145 pounds, is 20 years old, and has a feminine ideal "17 years and 4 months old, five feet and five inches tall, and weighing 117 pounds" which is just one pound lighter than Flo Ziegfeld's ideal

He thinks Albert Einstein is the world's greatest living genius and that Abraham Lincoln was the most illustrious American. He'd rather have a Phi Beta Kappa key than a "varsity letter." He expects to earn $5,000 a year within five years of graduation

We would call an optimist the girl who applies brilliantine to her hair the night before exams.

VISITORS AHEAD 9-7 AT HALFWAY MARK

Vermont failed to function properly on the St Michael's court last Tuesday evening, when they dropped their first game of the Vermont championship by a 22-11 score The Green and Gold outfit tried very hard to overcome their off night, but to no avail The forwards played very poorly, and scored only one basket against a strengthened St. Michael's defense John Keefe opened the scoring with a basket in the first few minutes of play. From then to the end of the game, St Mike's led in the scoring

Vermont asserted its superiority in foul shooting scoring seven points by this method. Chet Taft was effectually bottled up during the game, scoring only one field goal Coach Burke used both teams during the fray, but neither team could change the final result To date Vermont has lost every other game it has played, winning three and losing the same number in competition

The victory of the Michaelmen came as a surprise to everyone, although anything is liable to happen when Vermont travels over to Winooski Park to play basketball Usually the games are not decided until the final whistle The team itself was a little over confident as a result of the Boston University game, and their playing was way off form

John Keefe starred for his team in a way that thrilled his college mates His eight points in itself nearly spelled defeat for the Catamount aggregation Maynes and Ruggerio materially helped their team to victory by a brace of five points apiece St Michael's has won two games and lost three games in the state championship tournament.

The game was very slow as compared to the previous game with St Michael's,

(Continued on page 6)

SUITS
AND OVERCOATS
AT LOW
REDUCTION
PRICES!

TUXEDO SUITS

CORDUROY TROUSERS

LEATHER JACKETS

SPORT SWEATERS

Miles & Perry Company
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

SPRING SUITS

New Suits for Spring.

Suits by Adler-Rochester and Braeburn.

$25.00 to $40.00

(Four Pieces)

• • • •

HAYES AND CARNEY, Inc.
127 Church Street BURLINGTON, VT.

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

No Man

HAS TOO MANY TIES. HERE ARE HUNDREDS TO CHOOSE FROM. EVERY ONE HIGH QUALITY. MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL.

35c, 3 for $1.00
$1.00, $1.50, $2.00

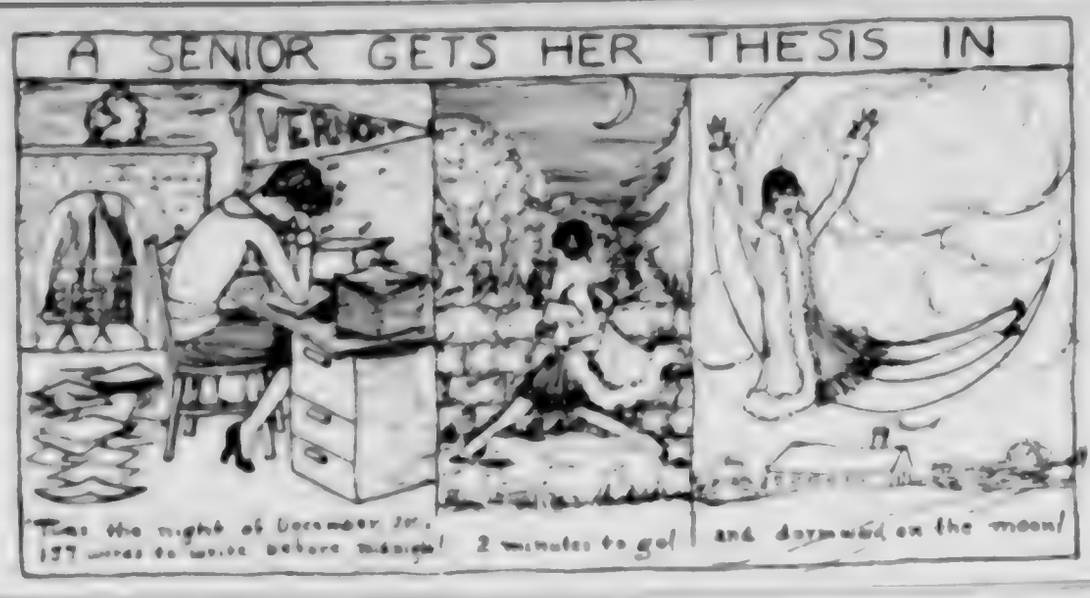
TURKS
Burlington Vt

156-158 COLLEGE ST.

BENNETTS WILL PLAY PIANO DUETS IN WCAX BROADCAST PROGRAM

ST. MICHAEL'S DEFEATS CATAMOUNTS 22-11

World Peace is Subject of Prize Essay Contest



HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

COLLEGE SUPPLIES

U. V. M. DIE-STAMPED STATIONERY

BANNERS PILLOW TOPS

McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 625

REV. CLARK REQUESTS U. V. M. DEBATE ANALYSIS

Vermont varsity debaters [illegible] Cross and James E. Ingo[illegible] and won over Dartmouth re[illegible] topic, Resolved, that [illegible] failure, have been asked [illegible] main points in their analysis [illegible] to the Rev. Ward R. Clark [illegible] minister of Saco, Maine. Mr. Clark wrote as follows

Mr. M. D. Powers,
Coach of Debate,
University of Vermont
Dear Sir

The enclosed clipping refer[illegible] coming Vermont-Dartmouth [illegible] pressed me

I wish you would send me a [illegible] of the points made by your team.

I am greatly interested in the prin[illegible]ciples that will guide Americ[illegible] place where labor may be [illegible] who want it at a fair compens[illegible] our people be prosperous in the [illegible] sense of the word.

(Signed) Cordially, gratefu[illegible]
WARD R. CLARK

Grinnell College has adopted a policy of withholding grades of students [illegible] graduation. Each student's work [illegible] reported as satisfactory, poor, or [illegible] Detailed rating will not be available [illegible] till the college course is completed.

Copr. 1932 The American Tobacco Co.

"LUCKIES are my standby"

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

Cash in on Pappa's famous name! Not Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.! For months he labored as a five-dollar-a-day "extra." Then he crashed into a part like a brick through a plate-glass window. Doug bosses like a pro, and we don't mean a palooka . . . he has muscles like a wrestler. When undressing, he hangs his clothes on the chandelier. The box offices like his latest FIRST NATIONAL PICTURE, "UNION DEPOT." Doug has stuck to LUCKIES four years, but didn't stick the makers of LUCKIES anything for his kind words. "You're a brick, Doug."

"LUCKIES are my standby. I buy them exclusively. I've tried practically all brands but LUCKY STRIKES are kind to my throat. And that new improved Cellophane wrapper that opens with a flip of the finger is a ten strike."

Douglas Fairbanks Jr.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 40 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1932 — NUMBER 34

ES EXPRESSION OF AN'S DIVINE HAPPINESS IN POETRY OF GOETHE

fessor Kuehenmann Lectures Participation With World-wide Centenary Celebration

LLS MODERN MIND ONE OF DETERMINATION

... Goethe is the expression ... happiness of being a ... Prof. Eugen Kuehenmann ... of Breslau, Germany ... ing, before an audience ... auditorium of the Flem... His talk on "Goethe and ... A.," constituted the fifth ... University series presented ...

... topic, Professor Kuehen... traced the foundations of ... and thought from medieval ... the eighteenth century, ... the evolutions that took place ... modern age. "The modern ... is the mind of self-de...

... next gave a story of ... to bring out Goethe's stand... idea of self-determina... one of the most brilliant ... history, Goethe proceeded to ... out his life so as to possess ... knowledge possible. He ... versatile scientist, being ... among his contemporaries in ... of science. But he was ..., searching through it all for ... of the unity of nature. ... to the people of his own ... in fact of even his own Ger... was a total stranger," declared ... Kuehenmann. "His personal ... and his own theories and research ... beyond their reach and knowl... it was no wonder that they ... understand and recognize him."

... showed the great effect ... and on his works of Goethe's ... with Schiller. "Goethe's ... he said, "was not the type of ... the manner of Goethe, but rather ... man in the manner of Schil... went on to bring out the phil... mind of Goethe at the dif... times in his life, and used quota... from Faust" to illustrate. Among ... was one of the better known, "I ... strange journey to betray ... to recognize myself in my ... being."

... Kuehenmann quoted several ... German and made the au... the poetry and power of ... He talked dramatically.

(Continued on page 3)

V. M. SENDS DELEGATES TO NORTHFIELD MEETING

... represented by two dele... Annual Mid-winter ... East Northfield, Mass. ... L. N. Brock '33 and ... 34 of the men's cabinet ... Christian Association at... meeting and took part ... centered about the ... For Creative Living in ... The women's asso... gates.

... forty delegates ex... and faculty advisors, ... England colleges were ... committee in charge of the ... L. H. Lee of Wil... Lord of Amherst, ... of Wesleyan, Gifford ... Mack of Massachusetts ... Ogden of Smith, ... Mt. Holyoke, Henri... England secretary, ... executive secretary ..., Jr., chairman.

The Leaders

... conference leaders on the ... were Kirby Page, ... World Tomorrow," and ... professor of phil... College.

... author of numerous ... on the Christian at... international rela... traveller and ob... in the East.

... has had much con... and spent last ... of West Vir... of the Univer... Rhodes scholar from ... received the degree ... from Harvard

VESPER SPEAKER TO BE AT CHAPEL EACH MONTH

Following the plan established last spring, University officials will bring a distinguished clergyman from outside the State to conduct the Vesper services in the Ira Allen Chapel, one each month during the remainder of the college year.

Sunday, February 21, Rev. Robert W. McLaughlin will speak, on March 6, Bishop John T. Dallas of Concord, N. H., and on April 17, Dean Charles R. Brown of New Haven, Conn.

Rev. McLaughlin is not a stranger to the University, as he has given addresses before audiences at Vermont on two occasions in recent years. He is a graduate of Oberlin College and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Olivet College in 1905 and from the University of Vermont in 1923. He was ordained a Congregational minister in 1895 and has served as pastor of churches of Ashland, Wis.; Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids, Mich.; Brooklyn, N. Y.; and Worcester, Mass.

Go right ahead slang is O. K. So says Dr. Kemp Malone of Hopkins University. Instead of being a sign of degeneration to the jargon of the jungle it is a "normal linguistic phenomenon."

F. W. Householder who assumed rôle of George Tesman in "Hedda Gabler" Ibsen play which will be given for the second time Thursday night.

Introducing Kake Walk, Greatest Show Event on this Campus Earth

By Irving Lisman

Ladeez and Gentlemen, you are about to see the greatest, biggest, wonderfulest, marvelest show ever presented on this campus earth. Stunts, dancing and a peerade. Plays that will cheer up the most dismal class, that will entertain the greatest misanthrope that ever walked this campus world. Stunts that will be presented by the greatest cast ever seen on one stage and they will be here, together, in four days, ninety-six hours, ladeez and gentlemen, only think! And the peerade; wait, let me pause just a moment, please, to visualize again that glorious march that will go down the ages in history as the peerade. Walking, riding, jumping, creeping, strutting, mincing; fast, slow, laborious, crying, laughing, talking, singing, playing, not a million adjectives could describe the peerade, no, not two million or three. People have been known to shriek as they have seen the march of marches go around the vast hall. Even the gymnasium, silent old monster that it is, offers up its own echo, especially reserved for peerade nights.

The Peerade

Every single portion of the march is an accomplishment all its own. Casts go from a minimum of one star actor to a dozen or less. Do you wonder that I wish to close my eyes, Ladeez and Gentlemen, for a short moment just to see again that dream of the year, that great show, that march of acts, the peerade?

But, hold. I've not told you all yet. I've saved it for the last, as a finishing stroke on those craven hearted ones who would stint themselves of the beauty, elegance, rhythm, words were not made to adequately describe it, of this great show. Let me say it to you in a hushed voice, befitting so high and mighty an entertainment. List then to me, Ladeez and Gentlemen, list well: the greatest thriller ever seen on campus earth or any other sphere, the greatest sensation-giving act ever displayed before man, from his lowly ancestor the parmecium to his highest descendant, the degenerate college student, is the walkin' fo' de kake. Aha, I see you blanch, you turn pale, you are faint, it has struck home, my great weapon has struck to your very hearts; you did not know that the Kake Walk, the one and only Kake Walk in captivity is to be here, in this very campus city in four days. Hush, and listen well and you can hear it gently tapping away in anticipation to its great feature Saturday. Do you know Ladeez and Gents, that to prepare for the tapping trapping twisting, twirling hopping, skipping jumping, gallivanting, and sprinting demands hours, nay, weeks and months of practice by the great troupe of Kake Walkers? Do you know that time has been that upon the entrance in the arena of the walkers, that the shout that has arisen has sunk even deeper than ever the buried city of Sarragossa? Do you know that these Kake Walkers have appeared in private and you before all the crowned heads of not only Europe, but of Asia, Africa, Australia, and both Americas? Do you know that the appearance of a group of Kake Walkers in a strike district stopped the rioting and sent all the participants to work, contented? Do you know that the most serious of revolutions in the world including the French, American, Russian and

(Continued on page 4)

LE CERCLE LAFAYETTE TO MEET ON MARCH 11

French Society Will Elect New Officers and Hold Social Program at Owl House

Le Cercle Lafayette will hold its March meeting on Friday, March 11, at 7.30 p.m., at the Lambda Iota House. At the business meeting which will precede, new officers will be elected to serve until next October. Caroline Howard '32 will speak on some phase of university life at the Sorbonne, which she attended last year. Several short French plays will be read by members of the club.

After the regular meeting an informal dance will be held until 11 o'clock. The chaperons will be Professor and Mrs. R. F. Doane and Professor and Mrs. A. N. Colton. Refreshments will be served by the committee in charge of the dance, of which Esther Beardsley '33 is chairman.

Reorganized in 1930

French Club was active at U. V. M. during the years immediately following the war but interest waned and it suspended meetings in 1928. Le Cercle Lafayette was reorganized in May, 1930, at which time officers were elected and regular monthly meetings were resumed, which have been continued until the present time. During last semester, the club held four meetings which were largely attended by students. The club is open to all students who are interested in French, whether they are enrolled in a French course or not. Meetings are conducted in French and are held at the homes of the various members or of the faculty advisors.

Retiring officers of Le Cercle Lafayette are: Fraser B. Drew '33, president; Esther Beardsley '33, vice-president; Stanley K. Carter '33, secretary; Lillian Mount '32, Treasurer; and Helen Esielionis '32, social chairman.

Professors Doane and Colton of the French Department are the faculty advisors, and Prof. A. B. Myrick and Mrs. P. D. Evans are honorary members.

GOLD KEY WILL ELECT OFFICERS TOMORROW

Gold Key, sophomore honorary society, will hold its semi-annual election of officers tomorrow evening at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house on Summit Street. The constitution calls for a new president, secretary and vice-president with the treasurer holding office throughout the school year.

Present officers of the society are: President, C. J. Libby; vice-president, W. W. Brislin; secretary, R. Powell; and treasurer, N. H. Myers.

Meetings are held at the different fraternity houses to which the members belong with a rotation of the alphabet determining the order.

The Ottawa Campus believes that cigarettes do people some good for without them how would advertising managers on college papers finance their publications?

Hedda Gabler Players Give Ibsen Drama With Success

Group of Veteran Actors, Without Supervision or Direction, Present Difficult Play in Museum Auditorium With Marked "Relish"

SORORITY WOMEN WILL HAVE NEUTRAL PERIOD STARTING TOMORROW

To be Observed From Ten O'clock in Morning Until Friday Afternoon at Four

REVISED PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL RULE TO GOVERN

Neutral period for Vermont fraternity women and prospective pledgees will begin Wednesday morning at ten o'clock and will be observed in accordance with the recently revised regulations of Pan-Hellenic Council, for three days, closing on Friday afternoon, February 19, at four o'clock, with the assurance of sorority bids. The new rules, which will apply this week, state that:

"Fraternity women and eligible students shall be permitted to exchange greetings of 'Hello' plus the first name, when meeting on campus or in the dormitories. Further conversation is strictly forbidden. This rule applies to sisters as well as to all others.

"Fraternity women shall not be seen around the Old Mill other than in going to and from classes while freshmen are signing their preferences at the Dean's office, in accordance with the newly installed preferential bidding system.

"Fraternity women shall not greet their pledgees on the campus at the close of the neutral period."

Seventy-three Women Eligible

Seventy-three women have attained an average which makes them eligible for sorority bids, according to a release by Miss Marion Patterson, dean of women. A uniform pledge average of 75 percent based on the grades of one semester in at least fifteen hours of regular college work in a regular four-year course is required by all the seven sororities who are members of Pan-Hellenic organization.

At a compulsory meeting of all girls eligible for pledging to a sorority held Thursday afternoon in the Old Mill Chapel, questions concerning fraternity were answered and explained.

The list of eligibles include: Madeline Ansboro, Mildred Baldwin, Helen Bellows, Betty Boright, Constance Calkins, Mary Casey, Priscilla Colton, Muriel

(Continued on page 3)

WILEY TO SPEAK WED. ON "REFORMS IN TURKEY"

Through the cooperation of both the women's and men's Christian Associations, Mr. W. H. Wiley of the Student Volunteer Movement, will be guest speaker at a banquet held at the Greenbowl rooms tomorrow evening. Mr. Wiley will have for his subject the "Student Volunteer Movement Here and Abroad."

At 8.00 o'clock Mr. Wiley will speak before the International Relations Club in the Fleming Auditorium on "Reforms in Turkey."

Thursday morning Mr. Wiley will speak before several classes in International Relations. And the same evening he will lecture at the mid-week service of the First Congregational Church.

THREE STUDENTS LEAD SERVICE AT LINCOLN

Carl Rogers '35, Alfred Whiting '33 and P. J. LaCrosse '32 under the direction of Mr. George R. Merriam of the State Y. M. C. A. journeyed to Lincoln, Vt., last week-end to take charge of the Lincoln Birthday services held at the Federated Church. The group led a young peoples meeting Saturday evening with Rogers and Whiting in charge of the musical portion of the program.

P. J. LaCrosse spoke at the morning service on religion and college life, while all three assisted with the Sunday school classes. In the afternoon a hike took place which was followed by refreshments at the church and the men next assisted further with the evening services.

CRITIC ENTHUSED OVER THURSDAY'S PRODUCTION

By Dana Dolan

The Group Players" ca village façade behind which are easily discoverable a half dozen or so students with a zest for the theatre and a definite knack for it) made so bold as to present one of the greatest and most difficult of modern plays, in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum Thursday night—and they turned the trick better than this generation of college students has seen it done. Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" is the first play presented by undergraduates here in years into which the participants could set their teeth. The point to be emphasized is that the undergraduate teeth were set voluntarily and spontaneously, that there was absolutely no supervision or directing of the process of setting, that the setting was accomplished with relish and success. This play, technically at least, the masterpiece of modern drama, requires acting of a subtlety and comprehension far-removed from the conventional postures of Goldsmith or the silhouette-like whims of Milne, it is mature business of the theatre. The caste obviously felt, and welcomed this as did the audience (which bulged the memorial precincts most gratifyingly). It is somewhat of an event in academic annals when a group of students discovers that it can amuse itself and a great many others by doing something decidedly worth doing. Starting from scratch, with no backing, no money, no compulsion, no suitable stage, with a temperamental lighting system pinch-hitting for proper curtain, with seven pieces of ingeniously procured furniture against a rough-and-ready backdrop of curtains (in lieu of the meticulously detailed Ibsen stage-set), in this situation and with this equipment "the group" put on Ibsen so that one recognized it as Ibsen.

Departs From Convention

In the same way that the presentation was a departure from conventional paths so will this review attempt to be, in that it will make no effort to arrange a politely descending scale of personal performance, but will concentrate upon the group achievement. The individual ability of the separate actors has been exhibited and catalogued often enough; Thursday night the display was the best that it has ever been, natural aptitudes were stretched to the utmost under the stimulus of personal intuative and enthusiasm. But Thursday night proved more than that. It proved that students are capable of literally building a play by themselves, of developing an intelligent interpretation of an intelligent play, of putting it on despite the inevitable flaws with compensative smoothness. Despite those who protest to see in her a simple study in aberration Hedda Gabler is a tremendously complex character; the men and women whose actions and instincts form the background against which this complexity is set (and out of which it grows) must be as clearly alive as Hedda herself, if the whole atmosphere of the perilous, genuine situation is to convince. Hedda real, tangible, arresting; her world comprehensible: these are the essentials if the genius in the play is to come over to the audience. Thursday night, as I have said, the trick was turned. It is not to be inferred that there were no flaws

(Continued on page 3)

"HEDDA GABLER" TO BE GIVEN AGAIN THURSDAY

Because of the enthusiastic response of the student body to last Thursday's production of "Hedda Gabler," Ibsen play, a second performance will be given next Thursday evening in the Fleming Museum Auditorium at 8.15 p.m. As seating facilities are limited and in order to defray expenses a charge of fifteen cents will be required for admission.

A spokesman for the cast in a statement to the Cynic expressed appreciation of support given the players by students and stated that the interest manifested demanded a second performance.

At present there is a possibility that the players will secure other engagements out of the city, but at the time the Cynic went to press no contract had been signed.

Tickets may be secured in advance from members of the cast, the English department or from the Everyday Book Store on College Street.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

Published semi-weekly during the college year by the Vermont Cynic Board of Control

Managing Editor
Business Manager
Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

OUR INTELLECTUAL SOCIETIES

"HEDDA GABLER"

The Mystic Pen

Being Collegiate

Bits of Bunk

Absent-minded traveling salesman calling wife on phone: "Hello, honey! Just arrived in town—how about a little party?"

Taxi driver: My, what a clutch!
Voice from rear: Say, keep your eyes to the front, this is none of your business

What did the doctor say when he came to the rush call?
Hello, baby!

Jim: Can you stand on your head?
Jack: No, it's too high.

Customer: I'd like to try that dress on that you have in the window.
Clerk: Sorry, miss, but that's a lamp shade.—Yale Record

Voice over phone: The senorita says she isn't in. Is there any message?
Other end of line: Yes, tell her that Carlos didn't phone.

"Have you a flashlight, usher? It's very dark in this theater."
"No, sir. I haven't, but if you will just step this way past these two young ladies you may find a seat."—Pitt Panther

Society

SIGMA GAMMA

The final rushing party ... February 11 from four ... Catholic Daughters.

KAPPA DELTA

Kappa Delta held its final ... in the Roof Garden of the ... ment, February 10 from four ...

Hilda Smith '31 of East ... Mass., is in town this week-end.

K. E. L.

Pledging of the freshmen ... Sunday, February 7, at the home ... Pearle Cannon '33.

A young Australian recently ... as a specimen to the ... of Toronto Medical School. ... among his qualifications as a ... the following, "make an impression when I drink, left foot is lighter ... right one, my right hand shook ... had pneumonia five times, and ... fits for seven years."

Sophomores desiring to scrub varsity baseball report to Assistant Managers Brock, Brown or Webster in the cage at 4 p.m. any afternoon.

WATSON MORGAN,
Mgr. Baseball

She prefers A PIPE

(For you)

HER name is Ruth. She's a popular co-ed on a famous campus. Yes, she'll have a cigarette, thank you (and smoke it very prettily). But for you she likes a pipe.

That's one smoke that's still a man's smoke. (And that's why she likes to see YOU smoke a pipe.)

RUTH

There's something companionable about a pipe. Friendly, cool, mellow . . . it clears your mind, puts a keen edge on your thinking.

And you sound the depths of true smoking satisfaction when you fill up its bowl with Edgeworth.

There, men, is a REAL smoke. Choice mellow burleys, cut especially for pipes—blended for the man who knows fine tobaccos. It's cool, dry, satisfying—and you'll find it first in sales, first choice of smokers, in 42 out of 54 leading colleges.

YOUR smoke—a pipe!

We'd like nothing better than to drop in tonight and toss our own private tin across your study table. But since that can't be, just remember that you can get Edgeworth at your dealer's now and for free sample if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

Senior members of the retiring CYNIC board who left office at the end of last week. Samuel B. Barker, business manager; Rosetta Harlow, women's editor, and Samuel A. Pinsker, news editor. The two are all members of the class of 1932.

"NEW REPUBLIC" OPENS $200 WRITING CONTEST

The New Republic magazine has announced a writing contest which is open to college students. The contest involves $200 in prizes.

The two hundred dollars prize money will be divided into four equal awards of fifty dollars each for the best editorial one thousand words in length for the best article of the most two thousand words, a fourth the best short sketch of a thousand words, and the best book review of any book published since January, 1932, not to exceed one thousand words.

The contest is open to any undergraduate or to American citizens in universities the editors of the New Republic have reserved the right to buy at the regular space rate any contribution which does not win a prize.

Contestants are allowed to submit manuscripts in one or more of the above four classifications. The contest closes on April 1, 1932. The judges will be the editors of the New Republic. All four winning manuscripts will be published in the New Republic. All entries should be addressed to the Contest Editor, New Republic, 421 West 21st Street, New York City.

[illegible]
I wonder where M. Gandhi
Carries his fountain pen
In which we can only infer
The things that he [illegible]
About this figure strange
Is where he keeps his watch
His latch-key and his change
Picture him, stuck for cab fare
The driver's withering glance
Umpfff—I suppose you left your roll
Home on your other pants!

"HEDDA GABLER" PLAYERS GIVE IBSEN'S DRAMA

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] there were many [illegible] usual). The total [illegible] was good—and that is [illegible] in fact, a compli[illegible] ourself cavilling at [illegible] interpretation, the [illegible] impersonations [illegible] as susceptible of [illegible] thus a genuinely [illegible] the University [illegible] Gabler" provided [illegible] as well as for [illegible]

[illegible] many of the apologies, [illegible] alike, which have [illegible] concerning dramatics [illegible] have been based on [illegible] It is indicated by the [illegible] production that there is [illegible] sufficient to handle really [illegible] plays, it is indicated by the [illegible] the audience that such plays [illegible] an enthusiastic hearing (if, let [illegible] whispered, the financial aspect can [illegible] satisfactorily adjusted as it was [illegible] night). Yet now that we have [illegible] the delicate subject of money, [illegible] be brazen and talk in figures. The [illegible] production for this play was [illegible] the equivalent of an orchestra seat [illegible] musical comedy (depression price). [illegible] a subsidy half as large as that [illegible] the literary magazine one of these [illegible] could be produced each month, or [illegible] more frequently. After such a [illegible] display of enjoyment and en[illegible] there was the other night [illegible] bad taste to mention the dire [illegible] financial," yet it can be softly [illegible] suggested that the value of a dozen such [illegible] would be fully as great [illegible] diverse other "activities" [illegible] supported). There can be [illegible] college dramatics save to [illegible] group in the interpreta[illegible] drama, and a larger group [illegible] whole college, if possible) [illegible] of it. The latter end [illegible] been defeated in the past [illegible] recent performances and ex[illegible] if we are to judge by [illegible] audience, frequent [illegible] seats (or as inexpensive as [illegible] multiply the second group [illegible] any broadening of cultural [illegible] to be fervently hoped [illegible] those of more and more in[illegible] exclusive specialization in [illegible] Courses in dramatics may lead [illegible] form of this specializa[illegible] participation in the put[illegible] and universal enjoyment [illegible] serve as a most satis[illegible]

[illegible] (most unexpectedly) that [illegible] both the ability and the [illegible] drama alive in a com[illegible] that we must no longer [illegible] that it was the stu[illegible] money in these qualities [illegible] the cause of the dramatics'

[illegible] no semester credits for [illegible] this play. Yet it is [illegible] for weeks thus in [illegible] thoughts of the greatest [illegible] last two hundred years— [illegible] such an experience may [illegible] as credit hours, may [illegible] things. It is even [illegible] "the Group Players" were [illegible] who learned things [illegible] performance of "Hedda [illegible] the creating of a "university [illegible] developed by the regents [illegible] of Wisconsin as a [illegible] the meager housing [illegible] several thousand stu[illegible] versity.

SORORITY WOMEN WILL HAVE NEUTRAL PERIOD

(Continued from page 1)

Conant, Carolyn Cook, Elizabeth Crockett, Mary Cunningham, H. Dorothy Donnelly, Helen Eine, Sarah Garfield, Helen Hemminger, Virginia Herr, Marjorie Jenks, Dorothy Kennedy, Alice Kettell, Cecila Kremski, Gail Lamson, Margaret Levarn, Grace Lutman, Marie Maguire, Eunice Mann, Anna Martone, Dorothy Miles, Helen Miller, Margeret Mallet, K. Sylvia Moser, Mary Moses, Helen Mount, Marie Nicholson, Margaret Nugent, Dorothy Paterson, Pearl Peacock, Evelyn Perry, Winifred Perry, Madeline Poole, Elizabeth Rich, Frances Richardson, Thelma Rosenberg, Sara Sachorn, Grace Spelman, Lucy Spiller, Dorothy Stoddridge, Barbara Taylor, Lizze Torrey, Mary K. Tupper, Barbara Wears, Anita Weir, Lois Whitcomb, Alice Winnett, Christine Yule, Evelyn Jones.

Four-year Teacher Training Students

Louise Goodsell, Fanny Hosley, Wilma Hurd, Katherine Hutchins, Margaret Keane, Irene LaFountain, Anna Smanda, Ruth Munson, Marion Parker, Phyllis Stockwell, Zilpha Watson, Elizabeth Fox, Alta Rock, Mary Parsons.

Upper class transfers from other colleges eligible for bids are: Carol McPherson '33, Alice McConnell '34, Mary Poling '34, and Rebecca Wallace '34.

SEES EXTENSION OF MAN'S DIVINE HAPPINESS

(Continued from page 1)

and his gestures and old-world platform courtesies, added beauty, strength, and emphasis to his eulogy of Germany's greatest poet. According to Prof. A. R. Gifford, chairman of the University lecture committee, Professor Kuehenmann is considered one of the greatest living scholars of Goethe.

This Goethe memorial lecture was included in the University series in participation in a world-wide celebration of the centenary of Goethe's death on March 22, 1832. The speaker is touring the country under the auspices of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation of Philadelphia.

CATS MEET PANTHERS THURSDAY EVENING ON START OE 3-DAY TRIP

Kittens Meet Montpelier Seminary in Return Contest at Capital City Tonight

The Catamounts, entering the varsity basketball wars, will make a trip to Middlebury to line up against the Middlebury [illegible]. This is the first of the three game [illegible] including Tufts and B. U. Coach Burda will probably start the best team [illegible] at his command, Capt. Dooley, Monrad, Hart and Beckley. However, the second and third teams will be there ready to dash in at the first sign of weakening.

If Vermont plays the calibre of basketball exhibited in the Boston University game and the Norwich game the contest is bound to prove interesting. Comparative scores thus far are apt to favor the Panthers, numbering Tufts, Boston University among their victims. They were nosed out in the Norwich game by one point at Rutland, while Vermont lost to the Horsemen by a four-point defeat at Northfield. Vermont lost to Tufts by practically the same margin that the Jumbos went down to Middlebury.

Coach Beck will probably start his regular team composed of Ashdown and Chalmers, forwards, Sweet at center, with Corliss and Mackenzie in the back court.

Frosh-Montpelier Seminary

This evening the freshman basketball team will journey to Montpelier to play the Montpelier Seminary quintet. The Kittens succeeded in defeating the Seminary team by a rather large margin in the game played here but a change in courts frequently results in a reverse in scores.

Montpelier Seminary has held its own with the high schools throughout the state thus far. Their bow to the frosh men has been their most disastrous defeat this year. Mid-years have taken their customary toll of the freshman athletic talent, however, and in the last trip to the captital city the Kittens went down before the National Life players 27-23.

ODDS AND ENDS

Wheaton College and Grinnell College have both banned the Chicago Daily Tribune from their libraries because of its stand against prohibition.

Oxford students in England are said to owe local shop keepers over a million dollars.

Swimming classes have become so popular at Union that basketball sections had to be totally eliminated or there were not [illegible] men to come out.

Statistics reveal that sixty former college athletic heroes are now presidents of colleges and universities in the United States.

Columbia has received $28,000,000 in gifts in the last year.

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

• • • •
New Fiction
includes
THE RESTLESS HEADS
MARY'S NECK
THE FLAME OF DEVOTION
MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE
• • • •

ALEX VERRET
12 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephone: 2870, 2871, 2872

A Perfect Figure ~~
Moulded by
MAIDEN FORM
In this day of sheer textured frocks and fitted lines, even the most perfectly proportioned of us must be properly "foundationed" . . . and the most alert young moderns are finding in a Maiden Form uplift and girdle all they could desire in foundations. With Maiden Form's skilful moulding, even the most casual little campus frock becomes a model of smart trimness . . and sleekly moulded formal gowns becomes studies in rhythmic line.
Your favorite college shop will be glad to show you Maiden Form uplifts, girdles and garter belts.
MAIDEN FORM BRASSIERE CO. INC
Dept. C 245 Fifth Avenue New York, N. Y.
AT DEALERS EVERYWHERE
"There is a Maiden Form Foundation for every type of figure"

Slim figures favor the tailored "Maidenette" shown above, to accent the sculptured roundness of the bust. The Maiden Form step-in of fashioned elastic slenderizes the figure for the slim-below-the-waist frocks.

The "Maiden Form Double Support", a full figure uplift with inside pocket and diaphragm band; brocaded batiste sem[illegible]

"Gree[illegible] cross ribbon design deftly defines the bust for average figures, charming boneless junior girdle

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE
REG. U.S. PAT. OFFICE
GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS
Accept No Substitute Insist on the Genuine MAIDEN FORM Label

All Quiet Now at Converse Hall Reveals Curious Feature Editor

Rumors of Recent Uprising at Dormitory Lead to His Reportorial Investigation—Finds Stillness Broken Only By Crooning Victrola

Author's Arena

Somewhere in China

Private Jones "What are we fightin' for anyway We have a Quaker President and here we are trying to get [illegible]

Private Jones "Say that was a swell idea Abbott Didn't that [illegible] would have put her [illegible]

Private Jones "Aw Abbott Don't that [illegible] remind you of [illegible]

Private Jones "Say Abbott Wasn't [illegible] Wasn't that [illegible] Wasn't that [illegible] Wasn't that

SPORTS NEWS

Cats Drop Close Games to Norwich and Mass. State

ersemen Keep Slate Clean by Winning 16-12—Forbes Plays Brilliantly for Winners—Game With Mass. State Proves to be Best of Season

TS DEFENSE WORKS WELL IN BOTH GAMES

ced another step for- straight conference cham- ng fighting Catamounts a 16 to 12 count.

battle and resulting tirely unexpected by the supporters, who, some- at the showing of their test by subjecting the both on the floor and many uncomplimentary alled for remarks.

was climaxed during the of play when Taft and and hissed as they shots.

started off at a rapid pace a 4-0 lead on baskets by Eddy, however the Cata- back strong to lead 7-6 at dropped in a basket to make at the beginning of the The count then remained the final five minutes. mitted an obvious foul when ot over, whose fumble was Eddy who dribbled in for This was followed by a Amos which gave Norwich was held for the remainder The final score being 16-12.

NORWICH

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
	2	0	4
	0	0	0
	1	1	3
	1	0	2
	0	0	0
	0	1	1
	1	4	6
	5	6	16

VERMONT

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
	0	0	0
	0	0	0
	0	0	0
	2	0	4
	0	2	2
	0	1	1
	1	0	2
	1	1	3
	4	4	12

Couture. Umpire, Sheridan.

Mass. State 17—Vermont 16

"Almost but not quite" might be the the game against the far- Massachusetts State team, when Vermont by the close score last Saturday night at the gym- the closest fought battle wit- this season. Even then should have taken the game, just a turn of the wheel of that hectic, exciting contest.

night's episode was by the team from Massachu- being beaten according and White coach. Their wins over Middlebury,

(Continued on page 6)

INTERFRAT LEAGUE FURNISHES INTERESTING GAMES—1ST ROUND OVER

Second Round Games Also Completed in Saturday Afternoon Contests—Kappa Sigs Win

In the last game of the first round of the interfraternity tournament, the Faculty trimmed the Independents in a hectic game by the score of 33-22 last Wednesday evening. The Independents were handicapped by a lack of practice together, and the score indicates the same. Bob Aiken turned in the high score of the game with fourteen markers for his team. Teams from Phi Sigma Delta, Kappa Sigma, Zeta Chi, Phi Mu Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, the Faculty, Sigma Nu and Sigma Delta have survived the first round of the annual tournament.

The score of the Faculty-Independent game is as follows

INDEPENDENTS

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Kingsland, r.f.	2	1	5
Riani, l.f.	2	0	4
Ryan, l.f.	1	0	2
Johnson, c.	1	1	3
Giardi, r.g.	2	0	4
Drown, l.g.	2	0	4
	10	2	22

FACULTY

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Pierce, r.f.	5	0	10
Aiken, l.f.	6	2	14
Jenks, c.	4	1	9
Martinetti, r.g.	0	0	0
Carpenter, r.g.	0	0	0
Gershoy, l.g.	0	0	0
	15	3	33

Second Round Results

In a second round battle the Kappa Sigma team swept the Phi Mu Delta team out of the tournament, by the low score of 21-16. During the game the Kappa Sigs used two complete teams and demonstrated their prowess by winning this hard fought game. In spite of the fact that the Kappa Sigs won the game by a seemingly sufficient score it wasn't till late in the game that they ran up a score of more than one point. Ken Smith and Orrie Jay led the scoring for their team, while Les Woodward and Burny Burnell tried their hardest for a Phi Mu victory. The Kappa Sigs will play either the Zeta Chi or the Sigma Delta team, on February 24, at 8 p.m.

Very recently Yale freshmen were blackmailed by two good-looking young women who refused to leave the men's dorm rooms until paid a small sum of cash. The blackmailers put in their appearance shortly after the six o'clock no women rule was in effect and threatened to scream for campus policemen unless they received the sum asked for

WINTER SPORTS EVENTS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY IN INTERFRAT CONTESTS

Zeta Chi Leads With 15 Points, A. T. O. Second With 11, Sigma Nu Third With 10

Coach Archie Post, director of intramural athletics states that he is satisfied with every event run off so far with the exception of snowshoe cross-country race in which very few were entered. The events which were to take place Thursday, namely the 220-yard snowshoe race and the Snowshoe dash around Converse Hall were changed to yesterday or tomorrow due to unfavorable weather. Coach Post is dissatisfied with the number of fraternities entered in winter sport events. Out of thirteen fraternities only five are represented.

Results to Date

Tuesday, February 9
220 yd. ski dash
1—Hoyt, Lambda Iota, time, 49[illegible] secs
2—Abbott, Sigma Nu
3—Daigle, A. T. O.
Ski race around Converse Hall
1—Dutton, Zeta Chi, time, 3.37[illegible] mins
2—Ricker, Zeta Chi
3—Abbott, Sigma Nu
Snowshoe cross-country
1—Barker, Sigma Nu
2—Starbuck, Phi Delta Theta
3—Reeves, Sigma Nu
Wednesday, February 10
440 yd. skating dash
1—McCrea, A. T. O., time, 58[illegible] secs
2—Douglas, Zeta Chi
3—Ricker, Zeta Chi
1 mile skating dash
1—McCrea, A. T. O., time, 4.24[illegible] mins
2—Douglas, Zeta Chi
3—Ricker, Zeta Chi
Chase, Phi Delta Theta, tie

Remaining Events

Thursday, February 11
220 yd. Snowshoe dash (between 1st and 2nd periods of hockey game)
Snowshoe dash around Converse Hall (between 2nd and 3rd periods of hockey game)
Game at approximately 4.40 p.m.
Monday February 15
4-man 220 yd. ski relay, 4.10 p.m.
4-man, 220 yd. snowshoe relay, 4.30 p.m.
Tuesday, February 16
3-man 220 yd. relay (skating) 7.15 p.m.
880 yd. skating race, 7.40 p.m.
Wednesday, February 17
Cross-country ski race, 4.10 p.m.

Standing of Fraternities

Zeta Chi	15
Alpha Tau Omega	11
Sigma Nu	10
Lambda Iota	5
Phi Delta Theta	3

CAT'S MEOW

—SPORTING EDITOR—

The upset suffered by the Catamounts at the hands of St. Michaels, has created no end of comment from the "I told you so" boys and other "Monday morning mentors." The best possible solution lies in the result of the play off scheduled for March 2 in the B. H. S. gym.

Middlebury by virtue of the one-sided victories which the Panther pucksters have been piling up is practically assured of another State title. That 23-2 swamping which was handed to St. Michaels Wednesday deserves recognition as a State record.

Spring weather has again caused the cancellation of three hockey games for the Catamount pucksters this week. Never before in the history of the sport here at Vermont have weather conditions been so adverse.

The showing of Coach Burke's charges at Northfield Thursday night was highly commendable, especially so in view of the terrific odds which they were up against.

It is poor policy to criticize officiating and we shall refrain from doing so and let the remainder of the Vermont rooters who saw the game be the judges.

We shall not refrain however from openly criticizing the unsportsmanlike attitude and tactics of the rabid Norwich crowd. Pardonable to some extent perhaps if we consider where it came from.

The Kittens also lost a close game to the Norwich Life Club the same night. However if the frosh remain intact we

FRANCE WINS WOMEN'S MOCK-OLYMPIC GAMES

France won the women's Mock-Olympics being conducted under direction of Miss Alice N. Blanchard of the Physical Education department it was announced Friday. The games modelled after the style of international events have been held during the past two weeks among the groups of women's gym classes.

Each class was divided into four groups of eight, and were given the names of Norway, France, England and Sweden.

Points were awarded for marching, apparatus work, foul shooting, general games and basketball.

The final score was France 13.5, Sweden 12.33, Norway 11.75, England, 10.25.

CATAMOUNTS BEATEN BY NORWICH FENCERS 14-6

Horsemen are Victorious in Their Initial Match of Season —Capt. Batchelder Stars

The Catamount fencers dropped their second match of the season when they were defeated by Norwich 14-6 at Northfield Friday afternoon. The match was the first for the soldiers who presented a strong combination in Captain Batchelder and Gregory. Captain Schuman was outstanding for the Green and Gold.

Summary:

Foil—Batchelder, Norwich, defeated Schumann 5-1, Kaufman 5-1, Berger 5-2, Burrows 5-0.

Gregory, Norwich, defeated Kaufman 5-2, Berger 5-1, Burrows 5-2.

Coolidge, Norwich, defeated Berger 5-2, Burrows 5-1.

Briggs, Norwich, defeated Berger 5-2.

Schuman, Vermont, defeated Briggs 5-2, Gregory 5-4, Coolidge 5-4.

Kaufman, Vermont, defeated Briggs 5-3, Schultz 5-1.

Burrows, Vermont, defeated Briggs 5-2.

Epee—Batchelder, Norwich, defeated Schuman 2-1, Berger 2-1.

Briggs, Norwich, defeated Schuman 2-1, Berger 2-1.

Results of Saturday's Games

Phi Sigma Delta 25, Sigma Nu 19.
Zeta Chi 39, Sigma Delta 20.
S. A. E. 34, Faculty 12.

One fraternity at the University of Missouri pledged forty men at the beginning of the semester but forgot to take their names and is now searching for the pledges.

[illegible] may expect a reversal of results in February 22.

Dartmouth still continues to be far and away the outstanding combination in the Eastern Intercollegiate League. Dolly Stark's third string material would be welcomed by most every New England mentor.

The game with Mass. State was the best of the season. It is a pleasure as well as an advantage to have clean, hard playing teams of the same calibre on the Vermont schedule.

The frosh unit showed Clark School its place in no uncertain manner. However, the Hanover boys keenly felt the absence of their star center Tony Geniawicz.

FROSH LOSE TO NATIONAL LIFE 27-24—WIN FROM CLARK SCHOOL 28-18

Defeat at Hands of Insurance Team is First of Season—Both Games are Well Played

Thrills, excitement, last minute rally and phenomenal plays were seen in Montpelier last Thursday evening when the National Life Insurance team took the fame of University of Vermont frosh team over the bumps for 27-24 defeat. It was the first defeat of the season for the yearling squad, which has won four games on its schedule to date. National Life has a very strong team and it was small wonder that the Green and Gold outfit lost, when such men as "Tim" Halligan played against them.

Schmarr was the outstanding player of the game. His shoots were very helpful to the frosh team and his guarding was outstanding. Vermont held the lead up to the latter part of the third quarter and then National Life forged slowly ahead. Vermont's last minute rally was to no avail, as time was too short. Palmer's man got away for three baskets in the last half, and put the insurance men far ahead. Far ahead, because one basket looms up very large near the end of the game.

National Life boasts of a strong team as many insurance company teams are apt to have. Tim Halligan was captain of the University of Vermont varsity squad in 1930. He was the star guard of the team. Sheridan, of the insurance quintet, stood out on his team and materially aided their score by the addition of nine points. He was selected as a New England all-scholastic man in basketball not long ago.

National Life will play on the gym nasium court on February 23. The Kitten outfit will be out for revenge, and the game promises to be a thriller. Skodinski was put out on fouls while trying to guard the powerful Halligan.

The score:

FROSH

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Skodinski, r.f.	0	0	0
Wright, r.f.	0	0	0
Maligonis, l.f.	3	1	7
Rock, l.f.	0	0	0
Fisk, c.	1	1	3
Schmarr, r.g.	4	0	8
Palmer, l.g.	2	2	6
	10	4	24

NATIONAL LIFE

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Sheridan	4	1	9
Pecue	0	0	0
Donnelly	1	1	3
Davidson	3	1	7
Portal	0	2	2
Halligan	2	2	6
	10	7	27

Frosh 28—Clark School 18

Last Saturday night, the freshman team defeated the Clark School quintet by the score 28-18. The freshmen worked together in fine fashion and were masters of the situation throughout the entire game. At half time the score read 10-8 in Vermont's favor. No one man on the yearling team was outstanding in the contest, but the entire squad worked together as a powerful scoring unit.

(Continued on page 6)

PAJAMAS and ROBES

Pajamas in all the wanted styles; made of heavy broadcloth and in wanted colors.

$1.95 to $5

Lounging Robes

Silk and Flannel Robes. Something every man needs. They make fine birthday gifts.

$7.85 to $25

TURKS of Burlington

156-158 College St.

Kake Walk Headquarters

at

Hayes & Carney, Inc.

SEATS NOW ON SALE

We've costumed most of the Kake Walk Participants

FROSH LOSE TO NATIONAL LIFE

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] the lengths of the other [illegible] accomplishments, as anyone can find out extemporaneously, is equal to [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]
[illegible]	4		4
[illegible]
[illegible]			4
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]	4		4
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]	4		4
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]	4		4

W. A. A. NOTES

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

KAKE WALK ISSUE

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1932 NUMBER 35

Directors Optimistic as 35th Kake Walk Draws Near

arvin and Wilder State Opinion That Performance Will Far Outclass That of Other Years—Is Greatest Annual Event at University of Vermont

OMMITTES COMPLETE WORK FOR CELEBRATION

at eight o'clock an g American col
ost undergraduate ty of Vermont,
s the strains of University Gym
ssion of this, the
a Kake Walk, are
and G. F. Wilder
ake directors are
ed L. E. Drew '33, were assistant di
and to their opinion
ion will far outclass
ce an an ingenuity
announcer of the
M. H. Grower '32
which have super different parts of the Ehring '33, H.
man, W. W. Brislin
'33, S. K. Carter '33,
and W. J. Kierney
F. E. Westin '32, chair-
'33, C. E. Dobson
'34, F. V. Kibby '32,
'33, and M. B. Mor
'32, R. A. Hyde '32,
Boston '33, N. O. Wells
Adams '33. Advertis
'32, chairman, F. W.
W. C. Perry '34, and
'33. Stunts—A. O.
man, O. W. Jay '32,
H. M. Loudon '33, and
'33. Peerade—R. J.
chairman, J. E. Bige
Loudon '33, C. B. Eaton
Locke '33. Kake Walk-
'32, chairman, W. G.
M. Preedom '33, and
...

OSLER SOCIETY VIEWS PICTURE AT MUSEUM

...showing the forma and treatment of incestured the fourth
g at the new Osler
the Fleming Mu
last Tuesday evening.
p also presented by
E. D. Adams, G. M.
...ster, and R. A. Cos
...ecovery department
...s were shown. Doc
...ted to the society
...ntract of Sir Wil
...on the club was
...n Campbell P. Har
...University, who lec
...annary meeting of
The first reel of
...rabod and pointed
...statems of the in
...cond reel took up
... of the case, and
... the actual opera

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS ENJOY WHITMAN'S TALK

...of the American
...Engineers enjoyed
...ance on Monday
...by L. C. Whitman,
...and Electric Com
...a graduate of
...ont in 1927. The
...the Power of the
...Hydro-Electric
...the most interesting
...Whitman. Mr.
...ed in a series
...the General
...ember assigned
...ecessary for
...that would
...ing

J. W. Mo...s '32
Co...

DEBATERS TO START ON THE ANNUAL SOUTHERN EXCURSION NEXT WEEK

"A Battle and a Victory a Day" is Motto—Not As Many Debates Listed This Year As Formerly

"A battle and a victory a day" will be the watchword of the varsity debaters on their southern trip according to P. J. LaCross '32 manager of debate. The trip will commence next week. The men making the trip are all seasoned veterans of past conflicts. J. F. Bigelow '33, R. P. Donaghy '32 and P. J. LaCross '32 have participated in the season's debates and Realtus McCann '34 is a member of the sophomore team. They plan to hold the first of a series of three debates next Thursday, February 25 when they meet the forensic stars of Clark University, Worcester, Mass. From the latter south will go the team to Springfield Mass. where they will meet arrangement with Springfield College and on Saturday the twenty seventh they debate Plymouth Normal, Plymouth, N. H.

A question of prime importance is on the slate for the first two encounters. It is a question from Pi Kappa Delta the national forensic debating society. "Resolved that Congress should enact legislation providing for the centralization of industry." The encounter upheld the affirmative on both debates. For the Plymouth Normal debate the question is: Resolved that mechanical and scientific progress does not contribute the most advantage to civilization." Again the U. V. M. men take the affirmative.

As to home debates two are announced to take place on the near future. One set of three on with Hamilton College on February 22. Resolved that capital punishment be abolished in the state of New York. The other on February 25 when Clark University debates P. J. LaCross and P. P. Donaghy '32.

The second home debate is scheduled for March 7 when Yale University debates on the question of the cancellation of the war debts. Negative engages the visitors while the affirmative will be represented at a later date.

GOLD KEY SOCIETY HAS SEMI-ANNUAL ELECTION

Brislin, Cogswell and Eaton Newly-elected President, Vice-President, and Secretary

...the semi-annual election of officers for the Gold Key meeting last Tuesday evening at the Sigma Nu house. Wallace Brislin was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year. Chet Eaton was elected vice-president. The recording secretary is Charles Cogswell. Walter Lang, retiring vice-president and Richard Powell, secretary.

Lang opened the meeting in the usual manner and presented the method of election to be used by secret ballot. On opening the meeting was found to be impossible on the following night would have to be days of the Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament. New nominations would be necessary yet also time to meet the team to be represented. The Basketball Board at its last meeting Wallace Gilbert was appointed chairman of the dance and Jim Cogswell, Chet Eaton and Coach Peck assisting him.

Brislin, the newly-elected president is active and his affairs attained extraordinary honors. He is a member of the Cynic and was a member of the championship class basketball team. Bill is a contending basketball and baseball player and was found at the front. He is pledging for membership and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Jim Cogswell has been on many committees and honors on the campus. He was a varsity guard on the class football team, and can be placed first baseball in a manner that is synonymous with a good baseball player. Last fall he became an assistant manager of football. He is a Sigma Nu.

Chet Eaton, also an assistant manager of football, plays an important part in the affairs of the sophomore class. Chet has done a lot of reporting work on the side.

CO-ED LITERARY SOCIETY ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

Election to Phinehalonga, women's literary society, were announced today by Hope Ranches '32 election were made on competitive basis in extemporaneous essays, poetry, and short stories. They are as follows:

Those contributing essays: Marguerite Dunsmore '33 and Frances Smith '33.

Those contributing poetry: Esther Reynolds '33, Caroline Cook '33, Ruth Lucas '34, Virginia Dunsmore '33, Mary Gilbert '34, Grace Lee '34, and Lois Wiswall.

Those contributing stories: Frances Cole, Marguerite Locke '33, Margaret Long.

According to Hope Ranches '32 there are a few more open vacancies in the society. Anyone eligible to the society may submit contributions to the Cynic box and will be announced at a later date.

PROTEIN IS AVAILABLE IN HOME-GROWN CROPS

One of the questions among the farmers throughout the present time is that of supplying proteins to the cows at the least possible cost today. P. R. Miller, extension specialist of the State Agricultural College in the summer that the growing of clover and alfalfa hay that contains adequate amounts of protein for the dairy cow is the most economical method of supplying protein. Experiments conducted at Pennsylvania State College have shown that cows can be fed entirely on home-grown crops for the winter season. Experiments at the Vermont Experiment Station have also shown that cows can be fed entirely on home-grown crops for the winter season. Experiments at the Vermont Experiment Station have also shown that cows can be fed entirely on home-grown crops for the winter season.

Six Fraternities to Present Novel Stunts at Celebration

Fraternities On Campus Prepare Carefully and Elaborately For the Best Kake Walk Ever Held at the University of Vermont

G. F. Wilder '32
Co...

SORORITIES HOLD FINAL RUSHING PARTIES; K. E. L. ENTERTAINS PLEDGEES

All Seven Members of Pan-Hellenic Council Close Rushing Period This Week

...Pan-Hellenic council closed rushing parties and K. E. L. ...pledged to membership ...

DIRECTORS GIVE SYSTEM TO BE USED IN JUDGING

...

...continued on page 3

GREEN MOUNTAIN CLUB HOLD MANSFIELD HIKE

...

FROSH LOSE TO NATIONAL LIFE

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] played for the Harvard team and was developing into another of the many fine guards produced by that institution. Lee was a sophomore last year and showed promise of developing into a star. Captain Hall and Lee starred for the losers. Hall was high scorer of the game with 4 baskets and 2 fouls for 10 points. Lee followed with 3 baskets and 3 fouls for 9 points. Hall substituted for Lee and Lee for Hall during the game. Referee, Hosner, V. S. B. Umpire, Sheridan, V. S. B.

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Hall, rf	4	2	10
Lee, lf	4	3	9
Hanson, c	1	1	3
Bailey, rg	0	0	0
Whitcomb, lg	0	0	0
Total	9	6	24

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Bush, rf	4	1	9
Hanson, lf	0	0	0
Fisher, c	0	0	0
Bailey, rg	0	0	0
Ahisteron, lg	0	0	0
Total	4	1	9

W. A. A. NOTES

[illegible]

An Introduction to the Fundamentals of Elementary Oompatology

New Higher Mathematical Branch Discovered at the University of Alberta

[illegible] lengths of the other [illegible] while in Oompatology time does not [illegible] Thus [illegible] reach [illegible]

LEAH GOWEN ELECTED EDITOR OF HANDBOOK

Leah Gowen '31 was elected editor of the Women's Freshman Handbook and Ruth Jenkins '31 was elected manager at a meeting of the Young Woman's Christian [illegible] Wednesday noon. [illegible] was the only [illegible] were made in the past meeting.

PHRENOLOGY FLOURISHING

Progress of Civilization in Massachusetts as Reported by the Amherst Student [illegible] Ali Pasha or Zoroaster or something [illegible] gift at throwing the proverbial bull. With [illegible] the [illegible] gallery [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

KAKE WALK ISSUE

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME [illegible] BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1932 NUMBER 35

Directors Optimistic as 35th Kake Walk Draws Near

Marvin and Wilder State Opinion That Performance Will Far Outclass That of Other Years—Is Greatest Annual Event at University of Vermont

COMMITTEES COMPLETE WORK FOR CELEBRATION

[illegible] eight o'clock an American col[illegible] undergraduate [illegible] of Vermont, [illegible] the strains of [illegible] University Gym[illegible] of this, the [illegible] Kake Walk, are [illegible] and G. L. Wilder [illegible] assistant directors are [illegible] and L. B. Drew '33 [illegible] were assistant di[illegible] ...ssed in their opinion [illegible] will far outclas[illegible] ...e year in increasing [illegible] announcement of the [illegible] M. H. Grower '32 [illegible] which have super[illegible] ...ferent parts of the [illegible] Usherine, S. H. [illegible]man, W. W. Brislin [illegible] '33, S. K. Carter '33, [illegible] and W. L. Kierney [illegible] F. E. Westin '32, chair[illegible] ...k '33, C. E. Dobson [illegible] '34, E. V. Kibby '32, [illegible] '33, and M. B. Mor[illegible] ...e, R. A. Hyde '32, [illegible] ...erton '33, N. O. Wells [illegible] Williams '33. Advertis[illegible] ...e '32, chairman, F. W. [illegible] ...W. C. Perry '34, and [illegible] '33. Stunts—A. O. [illegible]man, O. W. Jay '32, [illegible] H. M. London '33, and [illegible] '33. Peerade—R. J. [illegible] chairman, J. E. Bige[illegible] ...Bigelow '33, C. B. Eaton [illegible]ake '33. Kake Walk—[illegible] ...ker '32, chairman, W. G. [illegible] M. Freedom '33, and [illegible] '32.

J. W. Marvin '32
Co-director of 1932 Kake Walk

DEBATERS TO START ON THE ANNUAL SOUTHERN EXCURSION NEXT WEEK

"A Battle and a Victory a Day" is Motto—Not As Many Debates Listed This Year As Formerly

"A battle and a victory a day" will be the watchword of the varsity debaters on their southern trip according to P. J. LaCross '32 manager of debate. The trip will commence next week. The men making the trip are all seasoned veterans of past conflicts. J. E. Bigelow '33, R. P. Donaghy '32 and P. J. LaCross '32 have participated in this season's debates and Realtus McCann '34 is a member of the sophomore team. They plan to hold the first of a series of three debates next Thursday, February 25 when they meet the forensic staff of Castle Dare University, Worcester, Mass. On the twenty-sixth will see them at Springfield Mass. where they will meet Springfield College and on Saturday the twenty-seventh the debate Plymouth Normal, Piermont N. H.

A question of prime importance is on the slate for the two encounters. It is a question from Pi Kappa Delta the national forensic debating society: "Resolved that Congress should enact legislation providing for the centralization of industry." The Vermonters uphold the affirmative at both debates. For the Plymouth Normal debate, the question is: "Resolved that mechanical and scientific progress does not necessarily mean advance in civilization." Against the U. V. M. men face the affirmative.

As to home debates, two are arranging to take place on the west campus. The first of these is with Hamilton College on February 29. It is said that capitalism is arranged as opposite to the home of socialism and Communism will unite teams for the affirmative. The second debate will be [illegible] and E. P. Donaghy '32.

GOLD KEY SOCIETY HAS SEMI-ANNUAL ELECTION

Brislin, Cogswell and Eaton Newly-elected President, Vice-President, and Secretary

[illegible] was held at the Gold Key meeting last Tuesday evening at the Sigma Alpha [illegible] house. William Brislin '33 [illegible] ...ent of the organization. Thomas [illegible] ...ent. Chester Eaton was chosen [illegible] ...ecretary. The retiring officers [illegible] Charles [illegible] ...ceeded Wil[illegible] ...Henry vice-president and Rich[illegible] ...d Powell secretary.

[illegible] ...ppointed the meeting to the [illegible] ...ssued and announced the meth[illegible] ...d of election to be used by secret[illegible] ...ociety. On opening the meeting [illegible] ...ident Brislin commented on the [illegible] ...ching year would have to go down [illegible] ...e Intercollegiate Basketball Championship. Next [illegible] ...ctions would [illegible] needed [illegible] ...ers to place the team [illegible] ...ere appointed. The basketball boy [illegible] ...ch was also William Gilbert [illegible] ...appointed chairman of the dance [illegible] ...ee Cogswell, Chet Eaton and [illegible] ...ing him.

Brislin has been very active on the campus and was elected assistant manager [illegible] ...ear. He is a member of the [illegible] ...ty basketball team [illegible] ...ball and baseball [illegible] ...heard on the floor. He is pre[illegible] ...ing for medicine and is a member [illegible] ...Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Tom Cogswell has been on many [illegible] ...ts and teams on the campus. He was a junior guard on the class basketball team and last year he played [illegible] ...baseball in a manner that [illegible] ...ention as a good baseball player. [illegible] ...ell be brought on as assistant manager of football. He is a Sigma Nu.

Chet Eaton, also an assistant manager of football, plays an important part in the affairs of the sophomore class. Chet has done a lot of reporting work on the side.

CO-ED LITERARY SOCIETY ANNOUNCES MEMBERS

Elections to Phi Sokratean, women's literary society, were announced today by Hope Ratchford '32. Choices were made on a competitive basis on contributions of essays, parts and short stories. Hoyt arts a building.

Those contributing essays: Margaret[illegible] Dunsmore '33 and Frances Sum[illegible] '33.

Those contributing poetry: Esther Reardon '33, Carlie Cook '33, Ruth Hyde '34, Norma Donovan '33, Mary M. Cook '33, '34 and Dot Woodward '33.

Those contributing short stories: Eleanor Gates '33, Dorcas Jordan '33, Margaret Egan '33.

According to Hope Ratchford '32 there are a few more stories under discussion. Announcement of the complete slate of the local sorority will be made at a later date.

PROTEIN IS AVAILABLE IN HOME-GROWN CROPS

One of the problems facing the [illegible] ...ent farmer at the present time is that [illegible] ...ppling protein to the cows at the least possible cost and yet [illegible] ...ain maximum production at the same [illegible] ...ime, was the subject discussed by Professor P. R. Miller [illegible] ...gronomist at the State Agricultural College at the meeting of dairy farmers [illegible] ...ld in the Chamber of Commerce [illegible] ...ooms last Saturday afternoon. [illegible] ...ssor Miller explained in detail [illegible] ...ow this could be done by the use [illegible] ...ome crops grown on the farm. [illegible] ...ese crops are all grown very well [illegible] ...ermont and furnish a good deal [illegible] ...e protein required by dairy cows. [illegible] ...ese crops are especially good [illegible] ...e they can be grown with the [illegible] ...ditions that are found on the farm [illegible] ...ost farmers have the necessary [illegible] ...ipment to grow these crops and [illegible] ...e silo is used to store the crop [illegible] ...ey will keep for a number of years [illegible] ...ithout spoiling.

Six Fraternities to Present Novel Stunts at Celebration

Fraternities On Campus Prepare Carefully and Elaborately For the Best Kake Walk Ever Held at the University of Vermont

G. L. Wilder '32
Co-director of 1932 Kake Walk

SORORITIES HOLD FINAL RUSHING PARTIES; K. E. L. ENTERTAINS PLEDGEES

All Seven Members of Pan-Hellenic Council Close Rushing Period This Week

All seven sororities, members of Pan-Hellenic organization, ended their rushing season with their final rushing parties and K. E. L. local sorority pledged its freshmen. Bids were sent at the customary hour. Parties were held on Tuesday.

These parties ended almost two weeks of rushing. Several parties were held during the evening of bids. Pan-Hellenic rules state that no rushing parties may be held after the bids are sent out. Pan-Hellenic rules also state that no rushing parties may be held after the bids are sent out. Pan-Hellenic rules also state that no rushing parties may be held after the bids are sent out.

[illegible] ...ent of Pan-Hellenic Council [illegible] ...ent of Pan-Hellenic Council [illegible] ...ent of Pan-Hellenic Council [

THE VERMONT CYNIC

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

KAKE WALK

EXCHANGES

Campus Comment

In The Good Old Days

Thirty Years Ago

Ten Years Ago

Twenty Years Ago

Fifteen Years Ago

Five Years Ago

Bits of Bunk

SIX FRATERNITIES TO OFFER NEW STUNTS

(Continued from page 1)

Co-ed Notes

Society Notes

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

KAPPA DELTA

SIGMA GAMMA

K F L

Being Collegiate

NOTHING ELSE

Kake Walk In Review

BOARD FOR 1900 ERVIET [illegible] 1922

"AUTOMOTIVE" POWER OF THE [illegible] 1923

1898 THEN IT WAS IN DECEMBER

Popularity of Kake Walk is a Proof of Its Uniqueness

[illegible] Old Mill reading [illegible] at the Garret of the [illegible] Held Tonight" [illegible] ago. The printing [illegible] cided, and the show [illegible] were home about [illegible] beginning at the [illegible] 1897. It marked [illegible] what is the most [illegible] Kake entertainments [illegible] ever staged, most interesting [illegible] attractions they ever [illegible] shows, burning mail [illegible] are the creation of [illegible] a great extent, and [illegible] make the entire [illegible] and earth with laughter [illegible] one in tears, [illegible] of well-earned ap-

[illegible] Girl of "Cotton [illegible] tough the ball and [illegible] down the floor in [illegible] assortment feature [illegible] exactly thirty-five [illegible] evening, always [illegible] than any of the [illegible] annual carnival. [illegible] to its capac- [illegible] and gives back [illegible] thrilling march [illegible] ix, the band [illegible] and the walk [illegible] dancing, acro- [illegible] seen by every-

Kake Walk Has Developed

[illegible] Kake Walk [illegible] factors and the [illegible] Key Club in their [illegible] of merit. Another interesting feature of the Kake Walk of the time was a collapsible dragon's claw that floated [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] to the other.

Soon after the [illegible] the [illegible] Kake Walk [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

PROF. EVAN THOMAS GIVES CHAPEL ADDRESS

ODDS AND ENDS

A WINNER OF 1930 PEERADE

"I was afraid Grandfather would be Shocked ..

"HE'S rather a bossy old darling, and I didn't know how he'd like the idea of my smoking.

"The first time I lit a Chesterfield in front of him, he sniffed like an old war-horse ... and I braced myself for trouble. But all he said was, 'That's good tobacco, Chickabiddy.'

"You know Grandfather raised tobacco in his younger days, so he knows what's what. I don't, of course — but I do know that Chesterfields are milder. It's wonderful to be able to smoke whenever you want, with no fear you'll smoke too many.

"And it doesn't take a tobacco expert to prove that Chesterfield tobaccos are better. They taste better ... that's proof enough. Never too sweet. No matter when I smoke them ... or how many I smoke ... they always taste exactly right.

"They must be absolutely pure ... even to the paper which doesn't taste at all. In fact ... as the ads say ... 'They Satisfy!'"

CHESTERFIELD'S RADIO PROGRAM

Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, well-known soloist, will entertain you over the Columbia Coast-to-Coast Network every night, except Sunday, at 10:30 E. S. T.

● Wrapped in Du Pont Number 300 Moisture-proof Cellophane ... the best and most expensive made!

THEY'RE MILDER • • THEY'RE PURE • • THEY TASTE BETTER • • They Satisfy

SPORTS NEWS

BAT AND BALL RESOUND IN CAGE MANEUVERS

Gardner and Newton Have ... on Battery Candidates—Rutkowski and Tomassetti ... Veteran Pitcher ... Catcher Out

... encounter of three squads the processes ... Farmer have had ... the rest of the ... week. Also he and ... recently sent orders ... to report. Ottie ... garden while Dutch ... the hot corner ... good group for the ... the lack of experience ... receiving department ... sides Bowers who has ... experience behind the ... is trying his skill at ... and Maurice Ma... showing up well how... have been mentioned ... are Jack Morgan, ... and Mario Tomas... are still in the throes ... and the pitchers as ... staff. Then later, ... Kutter carried as Coach ... spring football practice ... time ... seem to show all the ... matter this year. The ... have nearly always ... changed outfits and ... dangerous. This year ... hold some really fine ... Army, Dartmouth, Tufts, ... trip now includes ten ... has confirmed their ... southern trip Vermont ... games ten of which are ... Boston University ... games have been cut ... Vermont has "picked ... would certainly come ... the past few years ... Seven Colleges ... and Mary ... of Richmond ... College of Virginia ... of Delaware ... Hall ... There ... University—There ... College—There ... There ... versity—Here ... 's There

CO-ED WINTER CARNIVAL TO BE HELD NEXT WED.

Girls Who are Interested Should Sign Up As Soon As Possible for the Events at Which They Excel

... Co-Ed Winter Carnival ... Wednesday ... Girls who are interested ... sign up as soon as possible ... the events at which they ... excel. The ... Mount, Lud Gosser and Lee ... in charge of the ... events. Elsie Mount ... chairman of the ... Virginia Dow ... Dot Porter ... Mary Strong ... A list of the ... the Y room and ... sign up before ... they want to enter. ... for them and ... participate. ... will be starting ... shooting and skating ... usual race. All in the ... the human sled racing ... These are ... sports of today and ... number of contestants ... according to individual ... be awarded to the ... second place. ... Last week ... sports for the ... the carnival which ... events at the W. ... Girls have had ... hours on the rink ... ing is under the ... Mount, Lud Gosser and Lee ...

CAT'S MEOW

—Sporting Editor—

The defeat at the hands of Dartmouth which the Catamount puckchasers suffered Monday on the Hanover ice was by no means unexpected. It only goes further to show the importance of practice and competition. The lack of ... here to vault of place ...

The Catamounts departed ... on a three-day invasion ... basketball camps. Prediction as to ... failure is an exceedingly ... proposition. Despite Coach ... be surprised if we won ... three neither would ... surprised if we lost ...

The game with Middlebury ... may not bear much importance ... the season outcome and standing ... the respective contestants in the Green Mountain Conference.

Coach Ben Beal ... charges have ... tasted the bitter cup of defeat ... veteran cindermen dropping ... meet decisively to St. Michael's and Norwich.

The game and farce tonight ... Medford collegians ... should prove to be very entertaining. In calendaring the Jumbos are set to be defeated in their own home.

The return contest with Boston University marks the ... The Pioneers have a tendency ... high scores on their ... evidenced by the 50-4 defeat ... inflicted at the hands of Providence ... Tiger sextet ...

RIFLE TEAM LOSES IN ALL WEEKLY MATCHES

Coach Kullman Expresses His Confidence in the Men and Strives for Victory

CATS SWAMPED 18-1 BY DARTMOUTH TEAM

FROSH OUT FOR BLOOD OF NATIONAL LIFE TEAM

Schmarr, Palmer, and Skodinski Have Led Scoring in Yearling Outfit to Date

Cats Meet Tufts and B. U. on Three-Day Mass. Trip

Both Opponents are Strengthened for Games by Return of Stars —Jumbos Have Not Been Defeated on New Floor

FRESHMEN WIN THEIR FIFTH GAME OF SEASON

Fisk Runs Wild Over Montpelier Seminary—Final Score is 23-13 —Post's Charges Clique in Smooth Fashion

REGULAR TEAM TO BE STARTED BOTH GAMES

SUITS
AND OVERCOATS
AT LOW
REDUCTION
PRICES!

TUXEDO SUITS

CORDUROY TROUSERS

LEATHER JACKETS

SPORT SWEATERS

Miles & Perry Company
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

Kake Walk Headquarters
at
Hayes & Carney, Inc.

SEATS NOW ON SALE

We've costumed most of the Kake Walk Participants

PAJAMAS and ROBES

Pajamas in all the wanted styles; made of heavy broadcloth and in wanted colors.

$1.95 to $5

Lounging Robes

Silk and Flannel Robes. Something every man needs. They make fine birthday gifts.

$7.85 to $25

TURKS
Burlington Vt.
156-158 College St.

THE FORUM

231 College Presidents Heads and Professors Petition Congress to Take War Department Out of the Hands of Educators. President Must Be Wooing Army Votes

GREEK-LETTER TEAMS ADVANCE IN SCHEDULE

Phi Sigma Delta 25-Sigma Nu 19

Zeta Chi 39-Sigma Delta 20

Sigma Alpha Epsilon 47-Faculty 13

ODDS AND ENDS

FOILMEN EXPECT TO DEFEAT NORWICH HERE

HANDBALL TOURNAMENT ADVANCES ONE ROUND

Students

Faculty

WE MUST READ IT

EXCHANGES

BAT AND BALL RESULTS IN CAGE MANUALS

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1932 — NUMBER 36

WEN SORORITIES TAKE ORTY-TWO PLEDGES AS RUSHING SEASON ENDS

pps Alpha Theta Leads List ith Eleven Pledges While lpha Chi Omega Takes Ten

MBER OF PLEDGES LESS THAN LAST YEAR

[illegible]ging of forty-two [illegible] rushing period ter[illegible] afternoon at four [illegible] twelve less than [illegible] accepting bids.

[illegible] final rushing parties [illegible] Wednesday immedi[illegible] neutral period last[illegible] list of eligibles this [illegible] considerably smaller than [illegible] only seventy-five [illegible] freshmen, instead of [illegible] preferential bidding [illegible] undecided.

[illegible] Theta leads the list [illegible] women, while Alpha Chi [illegible] Alpha Xi, follows close second [illegible] pledges.

Kappa Alpha Theta

[illegible] O'Connell of Brooklyn, N. Y., [illegible] Dunsmore of St. Albans, [illegible] Tupper. Barbara Wears, [illegible] Wentworth, Helen Heininger of [illegible] Mary Poling of New York [illegible] Natalie Richardson of Montclair, [illegible] Elizabeth Rich of South Manchester, Conn., Helen Miller of Dan[illegible] Mass., and Beatrice Lindsay of [illegible].

Delta Delta Delta

[illegible] Conant, Grace Lutman of [illegible], and Alice Chalmers of [illegible].

Pi Beta Phi

[illegible]abeth Crockett, Marjorie Jenks [illegible]rington, Betty Boright of Rich[illegible], Madeline Poole of Taunton, [illegible] Christine Mule of Palmer, [illegible] Barbara Taylor of Newport, [illegible] Hoyt of Salem, Mass., and Caro[illegible]ooke of Wellesley, Mass.

Alpha Xi Delta

[illegible] Moore of Fair Haven, Dorothy [illegible] of Atlantic City, N. J., and [illegible] Fox of New Britain, Conn.

Alpha Chi Omega

[illegible] Spelman of Rochelle Park, [illegible] Nicholson of Danby, Helen [illegible] of Burlington, Madeline Ans[illegible] Derby, Fanny Hosley of Man[illegible]ter, Vermont, Winifred Perry of Es[illegible] Junction, Irene LaFountain of [illegible], Eunace Mann of Walpole, [illegible] Priscilla Colton of East North[illegible], Mass., and Jane Parsons of Bur[illegible].

Sigma Gamma

[illegible] Kennedy of Waterbury, Doris [illegible] Wantsfield, and Edith Wyman [illegible].

Kappa Delta

[illegible] Reed of Arlington, Phyllis [illegible] Waterville, Alta Rock of [illegible], Lena Watson of North Troy, [illegible] Patterson of East Craftsbury, [illegible] Peacock of South Shafts[illegible]ury.

AGRICULTURE COLLEGE BUYS HEREDISCOPE

According to an announcement by Prof. M. B. Cummings of the College of Agriculture, the department of horticulture has recently purchased a herediscope, which is a device for demonstrating Mendelian heredity, and which will be used in a course in genetics. The purpose of the herediscope is to demonstrate visually the principles of Mendelian heredity. With it, the demonstrator can explain the three basic concepts of Mendelian namely, unit characters, dominances, and segregation. The advantage of the method is that it is much less abstract than the purely verbal or diagrammatic demonstration. Demonstration can also be made of single factor inheritance, multiple factor and color inheritance. The new device was bought from the American Genetic Association in Washington. It is used in quite a number of colleges in the United States today and its success has been noted wherever it has been put into operation. The herediscope is a new thing, this being the first year that it has been put out, but Professor Cummings feels that it will be very useful in the study of heredity at the University.

ASSEMBLY OF VERMONT WRITERS MEETS MAR. 10

Professors Dean and Tupper With Peach of Norwich, Will Conduct Open Forums

Professors Leon W. Dean and Frederick Tupper of the English department will be among others to address the First Educational Conference of the League of Vermont Writers which will be held at the Fleming Museum March 10. Membership in the organization is open to all Vermont writers either within or without the state.

The assembly will be called to order at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Pres. Walter J. Coates of North Montpelier presiding. After registration and assignments Prof. Leon W. Dean of the University of Vermont will conduct an open forum for the discussion of writing for money, taking up the requirements, the markets, literary agents, preparation of manuscripts, and exchange of ideas and experiences.

Prof. Frederick Tupper, head of the department of English at the University of Vermont, will act as chairman from 3.15 to 3.45 for an open forum on the subject of choice and treatment of themes, including the use of appropriate English, form and style, modes of expression, appeals to eye and ear, and models for writers today.

Prof. Arthur Wallace Peach, head of the English department at Norwich University, will serve as chairman from 4 to 4.30 of an open forum on general questions and answers regarding subjects pertaining to writing.

Between the afternoon and evening session, a light lunch will be served by the University staff.

Another public session will be held in the evening with music by University talent, reading and singing of Vermont folk songs under the direction of Mrs. Helen Hartness Flanders, and an address by the Rev. Arthur Wentworth Hewitt of Plainfield on "Sins of the Tongue."

All meetings will be open and free to students and faculty of the University.

ETA SIGMA PHI AND GREY FRIARS TO ELECT SECOND TERM OFFICERS

Greek Honorary Will Hold Meeting Tonight—Literary Society to Meet During Week—Elect New Officers at First Meeting

Iota Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, Greek honorary, will elect officers for the coming semester at its second monthly meeting tonight, and Grey Friars, men's honorary literary society, will hold elections some time during the week. At the meeting of the classical society the new officers will be installed and new members initiated. The regular meeting will follow the business meeting.

The retiring officers of Eta Sigma Phi are: Fred W. Householder '32, president; Doris Brennan '32, vice-president; Verna Carrier '32, secretary; Fraser B. Drew '33, treasurer; Sylvia Boyd '33, chorister; and Dorotha Edwards '33, reporter.

Officers Active

Householder is a member of Lambda Iota fraternity. He served as managing editor of the CYNIC last year and was an assistant editor of the 1932 Ariel. He is president of Grey Friars and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, John Dewey Club, Wig and Buskin and the University Orchestra.

Miss Brennan is a member of Sigma Gamma. During her sophomore year she was a member of the volleyball, archery, baseball and hockey teams. Miss Brennan is now a member of LeCercle Lafayette, W. A. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Verna Carrier belongs to Pi Beta Phi. She has been vice-president of her class and an assistant grind editor of the 1932 Ariel. Miss Carrier is at present a member of W. A. A., Y. W. C. A. and Press Club.

Drew is a member of Lambda Iota. He was editor-in-chief of the 1935 Handbook, secretary of Gold Key and chairman of the Football Hop. He is now editor-in-chief of the CYNIC, Kake Walk editor of the 1933 Ariel, an assistant director of the 1932 Kake Walk, president of Le Cercle Lafayette and treasurer of the junior class. He also belongs to the International Relations Club and the V. C. A. Cabinet and is president of the Interfraternity Council for the coming year. Drew is chairman of the Junior Prom.

Miss Boyd belongs to Alpha Xi Delta. She is president of Y. W. C. A., a member of W. A. A. Council and Masque and Sandal. She has taken part in "The Queen's Husband," "Hedda Gabler" and class plays. Miss Boyd is also a member of Le Cercle Lafayette.

Miss Edwards is a member of Kappa Delta. She has been active in dramatic work, taking part in "Queen's Husband" and class plays.

The retiring officers of Grey Friars are: Fred W. Householder '32, president; Samuel B. Barker '32, vice-president; Joseph C. Carter '32, secretary; and Paul J. LaCross '32, treasurer.

Barker belongs to Sigma Nu Scabbard and Blade, Boulder and John Dewey Club. He is president of Wig and Buskin and has been very active in college plays. He was business manager of the CYNIC last year and a member of the 1932 Ariel Board. Barker is a cross country man and belonged to both Gold Key and Key and Serpent.

Carter recently retired as editor-in-chief of the CYNIC. He is president of John Dewey Club and a member of International Club. He is vice-chairman of the V. C. A. Cabinet and directed two freshman camps. He was editor-in-chief of the 1934 Handbook.

LaCross is manager of debate and president of the International Club. He has served on the CYNIC Board as feature editor and intercollegiate editor.

EXTENSION SERVICE SCHEDULES RADIO TALK

The schedule of talks over WGY radio station of Schenectady by members of the Extension Service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College has been made up for another six months, extending from January to June. Ten talks, beginning January 14 and ending June 6, have been listed for this period. Two of the talks have already been given. The next will be February 25.

A. T. O., Delta Psi, and Sigma Phi Win Kakes

"It Might Be Verse" Takes First Honors in Stunts—Burke and Terrien Take First Prize in "Walkin' fo' de Kake"—Sigma Phi Wins Peerade

U. V. M. DELEGATION TO ATTEND MODEL LEAGUE

LaCross, Fleischman, Bigelow, McCuin and Patterson Will Go to Providence, Mar. 3, 4, 5

U. V. M. will send a delegation consisting of five members: P. J. LaCross '32, I. Fleischman '32, J. E. Bigelow '33, R. E. McCuin '34, and G. W. Patterson '34 to the Model League of Nations Assembly to be held at Brown University, Providence, R. I., March 3, 4, and 5. The Vermont representatives will officially uphold the viewpoint of the Dominion Republic and Australia, and will be prepared to discuss the attitude of some of the leading nations of the world in regard to the questions of "The Present World Economic Situation"; "Disarmament"; "Provision of the Treaty of Versailles," with regard to the Polish Corridor; and "The Manchurian Question."

On Thursday evening, March 3, the delegates will attend the International Relations Club meeting at Alumnae Hall of Pembroke University. The meeting will be held to arrange for a New England regional annual I. R. C. conference to take place every September, and to plan the program of the club for the following year.

In general the procedure used by the League of Nations will be continued at the assembly. President Barbour of Brown University will deliver the opening address. This will be followed by the election of the president, the examination and adoption of the agenda, the appointment of committees and the regular reports.

Differing from the League of Nations which calls on its speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak, the Model Assembly will recognize speakers for and against its resolution alternately. In the Model Assembly, the number of speakers will be limited and for this reason delegates should give a written notice of their desire to speak and an indication of the view they will defend. Speakers must be concise and their speeches should aim at persuading, since the aim of the discussion is unanimous consent, rather than a majority victory.

In the assembly, speeches in French are summarized into English and vice versa by an interpreter. Representatives speaking in other languages must have their speeches translated into English and French. In the Model Assembly, English will be the official language. Speakers may use other languages, but they will be expected to provide English or French translation. The names of countries will be called in French.

JOHN DEWEY CLUB WILL HEAR NORWICH PROF.

In a meeting tonight which is to be open to all men and women students and faculty members, Prof. Walter H. Gould, who occupies the chair of philosophy and education at Norwich University, will lead the meeting of the John Dewey Club at eight o'clock in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. Refreshments will be served free to the guests present at the meeting.

Professor Gould announces that his topic for discussion is "Types in Philosophy" and in developing it he will trace the background of some of the present schools of philosophical thought relating them to the earlier tendencies. He will discuss the modern schools and the contemporary leaders with reference to their practical application to the problems of contemporary society.

"The speaker is a popular member of the staff of the department of philosophy at Norwich, the military college of the State of Vermont. He has spoken at numerous collegiate groups about the State, has addressed church and non-sectarian gatherings and is an entertaining and brilliant scholar in his field. He should make a popular appeal to students and faculty members who hear him this evening," so

(Continued on page 4)

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON TAKES THREE SECONDS

Vermont's thirty-fifth annual Kake Walk wound up in a sensational culmination when Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Psi and Sigma Phi took first prizes and Sigma Alpha Epsilon all three seconds Saturday night at the close of the performance.

First prize in the peerade and with it the Hayes and Carney cup and cake went to Sigma Phi for its float, "Flow of Collegiate Energy." "Professor Zilch Solves the Depression," given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, took second place and the Preston cup. R. S. Brown '35, of Sigma Phi, took the cup offered by the University Store for the best individual entry with his satire entitled, "The Wilbur Fund."

Delta Psi took first in the stunts and the Briggs cup with their presentation, "It Might be Verse." Second prize in stunts and the Southwick cup went to "Past, Present and Future," given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Zeta Chi obtained honorable mention for their act, "Desert Justice."

The Boulder cup for the best Kake Walking couple went to C. M. Terrien '34 and W. J. Burke '33 of Alpha Tau Omega, and the Student Senate cup to F. O. Walter '34 and P. E. Lanou '34 of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The R. O. T. C. band furnished its usual Kake Walk music in a preliminary concert, during the program, and for the colored steppers. In appreciative acknowledgment of this Joe Lechynr and his boys were presented a large cake.

A Unique Performance

Stunsters took their audience over a period extending from the time of Ira Allen through the Sino-Japanese War. They treated them to melodrama and murder trial, and went from the midst of desert tribes to the interior of a radio broadcasting station. They added satire and fantasm to put their part of the performance on as high a level as that of other years.

Kake walkers, well matched in ability of performance, attempted new and startling steps decked out in original costumes.

"Flow of Collegiate Energy," first place winner in the peerade, showed a student pumping on a complicated apparatus with might and main to direct that precious fluid, energy, along proper channels and obtain corresponding results. But alas, like the three mythical sisters filling a tub with leaky buckets, his work seemed unavailing. As fast as he pumped, the liquid flowed out through four huge leaks, namely, Athletics, Social Functions, Kake Walks and Politics. As a result, by the time the flow of energy came to scholastic attainments, it was but a meagre stream. "Professor Zilch Solves the Depression," second-prize winner, showed the economist, surrounded by intricate mechanism, turning out predictions. "The Wilbur Fund" was personified by a youngster pedaling a tricycle with a nursing bottle dangling in front of him that continually eluded his efforts to reach it. A placard on his back read "Keeping U. V. M. Small."

William Burke '33 and Chris Terrien '34, stepping it for Alpha Tau Omega took first prize in "Walkin' fo' de Kake" when attired in gaudy red and green costumes, they drew great applause from the audience. An all-yellow costume featured the Sigma Alpha Epsilon couple who emerged with second place.

There were nine entries in the Kake Walk. Busch '34 and Fischer '33, who won second place in last year's Kake Walk for Sigma Phi were unable to compete because of illness. The Sigma Delta pair were likewise unable to enter.

Costumes of the walkers showed considerable variety and ingenuity. The dusky couples seemed to have a preference, however, for black and red or black and green outfits.

Many Clever Stunts

"It Might be Verse," rated first among the stunts, staged a murder trial in the dark with the actors outlined by white luminous painted strips attached to their costumes. The entire dialogue was enacted in doggerel or quasi-verse. The defendant was accused of murdering his wife. He was tried, convicted and marched up to the gallows between two guards to the tune of Dead March, the corpse swung aloft, the profile grotesquely illumined in the darkness.

(Continued on page 4)

Turkey Is More Progressive Than Any Other Country Says Wiley

[illegible] more progress in [illegible] than in any other [illegible] Walter B. Wiley, travel[illegible] the Student Volunteer [illegible]king at the meeting of [illegible] Relations Club last [illegible]ening at the Fleming [illegible]ated briefly the spirit [illegible] and Westernization [illegible] over Turkey since [illegible] the "Young Turkey [illegible]907 and the revolution [illegible] since that time the [illegible] of Turkey has been [illegible] from one that was [illegible] with the learning of [illegible] that completely [illegible]aching from the edu[illegible].

[illegible]ous teaching cannot [illegible] below eighteen [illegible]sick persons. The [illegible] they are then too [illegible]ous teachings which nullify freedom of choosing one's religion.

In conclusion, Mr. Wiley said that it was the purpose of the Student Volunteer Movement to bring into Turkey the idealism of the West, along with scientific progress.

Dervishes, who in general may be compared to Christian monks of old, and who formerly filled the highways and byways of Turkey, have been almost entirely eliminated.

The most important reform is the Westernization program which Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the country's ruler, has introduced through his own government officials. The introduction of European clothes and manners with the consequent elimination of the women's veils and the men's fez or traditional headgear has been made with the intention of making the Turkish people thoroughly familiar with Western ideas.

Turning to the present evils in Tur-

(Continued on page 4)

THE FORUM

FOLLMEN EXPECT TO DEFEAT NORWICH HERE

HANDBALL TOURNAMENT ADVANCES ONE ROUND

EXCHANGES

BAT AND BALL RES... IN CAGE MAN...

WE MUST READ IT

GREEK-LETTER TEAMS ADVANCE IN SCHEDULE

Phi Sigma Delta 25-Sigma Nu 19

Zeta Chi 39-Sigma Delta 20

Sigma Alpha Epsilon 47-Faculty 13

ODDS AND ENDS

"Cream of the Crop"

"LUCKIES are certainly kind to my throat"

HOT TAMALE!

Lupe landed in Hollywood with one lone dollar and no part to play . . . But now she has nine (or more) 15 canaries the world's loudest lounging pajamas and dozens of men go-go about her. We hope you liked her in the M-G-M Picture "THE GUILTY LOVE SONG," as much as we did. Lupe's been a LUCKY fan for two years . . . There was no [illegible] "financial consideration" for her statement. Gracias, Lupe!

"No harsh irritants for Lupe. I'm a LUCKY fan. There's no question about it—LUCKIES are certainly kind to my throat. And hurrah for that improved Cellophane wrapper of yours—it really opens without a tug-o'-war—thanks to that tab." Lupe Velez

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1932 — NUMBER 36

VEN SORORITIES TAKE ORTY-TWO PLEDGES AS RUSHING SEASON ENDS

ppa Alpha Theta Leads List ith Eleven Pledges While lpha Chi Omega Takes Ten

MBER OF PLEDGES LESS THAN LAST YEAR

...ding of forty-two ...rushing period ter... afternoon at four ...ge twelve less than ... accepting bids.

... final rushing parties ... Wednesday immedi... neutral period last... list of eligibles this ...derably smaller than ... only seventy-five ...al freshmen, instead of ...preferential bidding ...ceeded.

... Theta leads the list ...men, while Alpha Chi ... last year headed the ... N, follows close second ...

Kappa Alpha Theta

... Worstell of Brooklyn, N. Y., ... Fitzsimmons of St. Albans, ... Tupper, Barbara Wears, ... Helen Heininger of ... Mary Poling of New York ... Richardson of Montclair, ... Elizabeth Rich of South Man... Helen Miller of Dan... Miss and Beatrice Lindsay of ...

Delta Delta Delta

... Cossant, Grace Lutman of ... and Alice Chalmers of ...

Pi Beta Phi

... Crockett, Marjorie Jenks ..., Betty Boright of Rich... Madeline Poole of Taunton, ... Christine Mule of Palmer, ... Barbara Taylor of Newport, ... Harper of Salem, Mass., and Caro... Wellesley, Mass.

Alpha Xi Delta

... Moore of Fair Haven, Dorothy ... of Atlantic City, N. J., and ... Fox of New Britain, Conn.

Alpha Chi Omega

... Spelman of Rochelle Park, ... Nicholson of Danby, Helen ... Burlington, Madeline Ans... ... Fanny Hosley of Man... ... Winifred Perry of Es... ... Irene LaFountain of ... Grace Mann of Walpole, ... Colton of East North... ... and Jane Parsons of Bur...

Sigma Gamma

... Leonds of Waterbury, Doris ... Smithfield, and Edith Wyman ...

Kappa Delta

... of Arlington, Phyllis ... Waterville, Alta Rock of ... Watson of North Troy, ... of East Craftsbury, ... Babcock of South Shafts...

AGRICULTURE COLLEGE BUYS HEREDISCOPE

According to an announcement by Prof. M. B. Cummings of the College of Agriculture, the department of horticulture has recently purchased a herediscope which is a device for demonstrating Mendelian heredity, and which will be used in a course in genetics. The purpose of the herediscope is to demonstrate visually the principles of Mendelian heredity. With it, the demonstrator can explain the three basic concepts of Mendelian namely, unit characters, dominances, and segregation. The advantage of the method is that it is much less abstract than the purely verbal or diagrammatic demonstration. Demonstration can also be made of single factor inheritance, multiple factor and color inheritance. The new device was bought from the American Genetic Association in Washington. It is used in quite a number of colleges in the United States today and its success has been noted wherever it has been put into operation. The herediscope is a new thing, this being the first year that it has been put out, but Professor Cummings feels that it will be very useful in the study of heredity at the University.

ASSEMBLY OF VERMONT WRITERS MEETS MAR. 10

Professors Dean and Tupper With Peach of Norwich, Will Conduct Open Forums

Professors Leon W. Dean and Frederick Tupper of the English department will be among others to address the First Educational Conference of the League of Vermont Writers which will be held at the Fleming Museum March 10. Membership in the organization is open to all Vermont writers either within or without the state.

The assembly will be called to order at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Pres. Walter J. Coates of North Montpelier presiding. After registration and assignments Prof. Leon W. Dean of the University of Vermont will conduct an open forum for the discussion of writing for money, taking up the requirements, the markets, literary agents, preparation of manuscripts, and exchange of ideas and experiences.

Prof. Frederick Tupper, head of the department of English at the University of Vermont, will act as chairman from 3.15 to 3.45 for an open forum on the subject of choice and treatment of themes, including the use of appropriate English, form and style, modes of expression, appeals to eye and ear, and models for writers today.

Prof. Arthur Wallace Peach, head of the English department at Norwich University, will serve as chairman from 4 to 4.30 of an open forum on general questions and answers regarding subjects pertaining to writing.

Between the afternoon and evening session, a light lunch will be served by the University staff.

Another public session will be held in the evening with music by University talent, reading and singing of Vermont folk songs under the direction of Mrs. Helen Hartness Flanders, and an address by the Rev. Arthur Wentworth Hewitt of Plainfield on "Sins of the Longue."

All meetings will be open and free to students and faculty of the University.

ETA SIGMA PHI AND GREY FRIARS TO ELECT SECOND TERM OFFICERS

Greek Honorary Will Hold Meeting Tonight—Literary Society to Meet During Week—Elect New Officers at First Meeting

Iota Chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, Greek honorary, will elect officers for the coming semester at its second monthly meeting tonight, and Grey Friars, men's honorary literary society, will hold elections some time during the week. At the meeting of the classical society the new officers will be installed and new members initiated. The regular meeting will follow the business meeting.

The retiring officers of Eta Sigma Phi are: Fred W. Householder '32, president; Doris Brennan '32, vice-president; Verna Carrier '32, secretary; Fraser B. Drew '33, treasurer; Sylvia Boyd '33, chorister; and Dorotha Edwards '33, reporter.

Officers Active

Householder is a member of Lambda Iota fraternity. He served as managing editor of the Cynic last year and was an assistant editor of the 1932 Ariel. He is president of Grey Friars and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, John Dewey Club, Wig and Buskin and the University Orchestra.

Miss Brennan is a member of Sigma Gamma. During her sophomore year she was a member of the volleyball, archery, baseball and hockey teams. Miss Brennan is now a member of Le Cercle Lafayette, W. A. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Verna Carrier belongs to Pi Beta Phi. She has been vice-president of her class and an assistant grind editor of the 1932 Ariel. Miss Carrier is at present a member of W. A. A., Y. W. C. A. and Press Club.

Drew is a member of Lambda Iota. He was editor-in-chief of the 1935 Handbook, secretary of Gold Key and chairman of the Football Hop. He is now editor-in-chief of the Cynic, Kake Walk editor of the 1933 Ariel, an assistant director of the 1932 Kake Walk, president of Le Cercle Lafayette and treasurer of the junior class. He also belongs to the International Relations Club and the V. C. A. Cabinet and is president of the Interfraternity Council for the coming year. Drew is chairman of the Junior Prom.

Miss Boyd belongs to Alpha Xi Delta. She is president of Y. W. C. A., a member of W. A. A. Council and Masque and Sandal. She has taken part in "The Queen's Husband," "Hedda Gabler" and class plays. Miss Boyd is also a member of Le Cercle Lafayette.

Miss Edwards is a member of Kappa Delta. She has been active in dramatic work, taking part in "Queen's Husband" and class plays.

The retiring officers of Grey Friars are: Fred W. Householder '32, president; Samuel B. Barker '32, vice-president; Joseph C. Carter '32, secretary; and Paul J. LaCross '32, treasurer.

Barker belongs to Sigma Nu, Scabbard and Blade, Boulder and John Dewey Club. He is president of Wig and Buskin and has been very active in college plays. He was business manager of the Cynic last year and a member of the 1932 Ariel Board. Barker is a cross country man and belonged to both Gold Key and Key and Serpent.

Carter recently retired as editor-in-chief of the Cynic. He is president of John Dewey Club and a member of International Club. He is vice-chairman of the V. C. A. Cabinet and directed two freshman camps. He was editor-in-chief of the 1934 Handbook.

LaCross is manager of debate and president of the International Club. He has served on the Cynic Board as feature editor and intercollegiate editor.

EXTENSION SERVICE SCHEDULES RADIO TALK

The schedule of talks over WGY radio station of Schenectady, by members of the Extension Service of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College has been made up for another six months extending from February to June. The talks beginning January 14 and ending June 6 have been listed for this period. Two of the talks have already been given. The next will be February 25.

A. T. O., Delta Psi, and Sigma Phi Win Kakes

"It Might Be Verse" Takes First Honors in Stunts—Burke and Terrien Take First Prize in "Walkin' fo' de Kake"—Sigma Phi Wins Peerade

U. V. M. DELEGATION TO ATTEND MODEL LEAGUE

LaCross, Fleischman, Bigelow, McCuin and Patterson Will Go to Providence, Mar. 3, 4, 5

U. V. M. will send a delegation consisting of five members, P. J. LaCross '32, I. Fleischman '32, J. E. Bigelow '33, R. E. McCuin '34, and G. W. Patterson '34 to the Model League of Nations Assembly to be held at Brown University, Providence, R. I., March 3, 4, and 5. The Vermont representatives will officially uphold the viewpoint of the Dominion Republic and Australia, and will be prepared to discuss the attitude of some of the leading nations of the world in regard to the questions of "The Present World Economic Situation" "Disarmament" "Revision of the Treaty of Versailles" with regard to the Polish Corridor" and "The Manchurian Question."

On Thursday evening, March 3, the delegates will attend the International Relations Club meeting at Alumnae Hall of Pembroke University. The meeting will be held to arrange for a New England regional annual I. R. C. conference to take place every September and to plan the program of the club for the following year.

In general the procedure used by the League of Nations will be continued at the assembly. President Barbour of Brown University will deliver the opening address. This will be followed by the election of the president, the examination and adoption of the agenda the appointment of committees and the regular reports.

Differing from the League of Nations which calls on its speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak, the Model Assembly will recognize speakers for and against its resolution alternately. In the Model Assembly the number of speakers will be limited, and for this reason delegates should give a written notice of their desire to speak and an indication of the view they will defend. Speakers must be concise and their speeches should aim at persuading, since the aim of the discussion is unanimous consent, rather than a majority victory.

In the assembly, speeches in French are summarized into English and vice versa by an interpreter. Representatives speaking in other languages must have their speeches translated into English and French. In the Model Assembly, English will be the official language. Speakers may use other languages, but they will be expected to provide English or French translation. The names of countries will be called in French.

JOHN DEWEY CLUB WILL HEAR NORWICH PROF.

In a meeting tonight which is to be open to all men and women students and faculty members, Prof. Walter H. Gould who occupies the chair of philosophy and education at Norwich University, will lead the meeting of the John Dewey Club at eight o'clock in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. Refreshments will be served free to the guests present at the meeting.

Professor Gould announces that his topic for discussion is "Types in Philosophy" and in developing it he will trace the background of some of the present schools of philosophical thought relating them to the earlier tendencies. He will discuss the modern schools and the contemporary leaders with reference to their practical application to the problems of contemporary society.

"The speaker is a popular member of the staff of the department of philosophy at Norwich, the military college of the State of Vermont. He has spoken at numerous undergrad groups about the State, has addressed [illegible] and is an entertaining and brilliant speaker," he said. He should make a considerable appeal to students and faculty members. Next Tuesday evening [illegible]

(Continued on page 4)

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON TAKES THREE SECONDS

Vermont's thirty-fifth annual Kake Walk wound up in a sensational culmination when Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Psi and Sigma Phi took first prizes and Sigma Alpha Epsilon all three second Saturday night at the close of the performance.

First prize in the peerade and with it the Hayes and Carney cup and cake went to Sigma Phi for its float, "Flow of Collegiate Energy." "Professor Zilch Solves the Depression," given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, took second place and the Preston cup. R. S. Brown '35, of Sigma Phi, took the cup offered by the University Store for the best individual entry with his satire entitled, "The Wilbur Fund."

Delta Psi took first in the stunts and the Briggs cup with their presentation, "It Might be Verse." Second prize in stunts and the Southwick cup went to "Past, Present and Future," given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon Zeta Chi obtained honorable mention for their act, "Desert Justice."

The Boulder cup for the best Kake Walking couple went to C. M. Terrien '34 and W. J. Burke '33 of Alpha Tau Omega, and the Student Senate cup to F. O. Walter '34 and P. E. Lanou '34 of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The R. O. T. C. band furnished its usual Kake Walk music in a preliminary concert, during the program, and for the colored steppers. In appreciative acknowledgment of this Joe Lechyan and his boys were presented a large cake.

A Unique Performance

Stunsters took their audience over a period extending from the time of Ira Allen through the Sino-Japanese War. They treated them to melodrama and murder trial, and went from the midst of desert tribes to the interior of a radio broadcasting station. They added satire and fantasm to put their part of the performance on as high a level as that of other years.

Kake walkers well matched in ability of performance attempted new and startling steps decked out in original costumes.

"Flow of Collegiate Energy," first place winner in the peerade, showed a student pumping on a complicated apparatus with might and main to direct that precious fluid, energy, along proper channels and obtain corresponding results. But alas, like the three mythical sisters filling a tub with leaky buckets, his work seemed unavailing. As fast as he pumped the liquid flowed out through four huge leaks, namely Athletics, Social functions, Kake Walks and Politics. As a result, by the time the flow of energy came to scholastic attainments, it was but a meagre stream. "Professor Zilch Solves the Depression," second-prize winner, showed the economist, surrounded by intricate mechanism, turning out predictions. "The Wilbur Fund" was personified by a youngster pedaling a tricycle with a nursing bottle dangling in front of him that continually eluded his efforts to reach it. A placard on his back read "Keeping U. V. M. Small."

William Burke '33 and Chris Terrien '34, stepping it for Alpha Tau Omega took first prize in "Walkin' fo' de Kake" when attired in gaudy red and green costumes, they drew great applause from the audience. An all yellow costume featured the Sigma Alpha Epsilon couple who emerged with second place.

There were nine entries in the Kake Walk. Busch '34 and Fischer '33, who won second place in last year's Kake Walk for Sigma Phi were unable to compete because of illness. The Sigma Delta pair were likewise unable to enter.

Costumes of the walkers showed considerable variety and ingenuity. The dusky couples seemed to have a preference, however, for black and red or black and green outfits.

Many Clever Stunts

"It Might be Verse," rated first among the stunts, staged a murder trial in the dark with the actors outlined by white luminous painted strips attached to their costumes. The entire dialogue was enacted in deepest of quiet tones. The defendant was accused of murdering his wife. He was tried, convicted and marched up to the gallows between two guards to the tune of Dead March, the corpse moving about the proble greatly, [illegible] in the darkness.

(Continued on page 4)

Turkey Is More Progressive Than Any Other Country Says Wiley

... more progress in ... than in any other ...ter B. Wiley, travel... the Student Volunteer ... at the meeting of ... Relations Club last ...ng at the Fleming ...

...ted briefly the spirit ... and Westernization ... over Turkey since ... the "Young Turkey ...7 and the revolution ... that time the ... of Turkey has been ... from one that was ... with the learning of ... that completely ...ing from the edu...

... teaching cannot ... below eighteen ... sick persons. The ... they are then too ... teachings which nullify freedom of choosing one's religion.

In conclusion, Mr. Wiley said that it was the purpose of the Student Volunteer Movement to bring into Turkey the idealism of the West, along with scientific progress.

Dervishes, who in general may be compared to Christian monks of old, and who formerly filled the highways and byways of Turkey, have been almost entirely eliminated.

The most important reform is the Westernization program which Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the country's ruler, has introduced through his own government officials. The introduction of European clothes and manners with the consequent elimination of the women's veil and the men's fez or traditional headgear has been made with the intention of making the Turkish people thoroughly familiar with Western ideas.

Turning to the present evils in Tur...

(Continued on page 4)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

THE UPWARD TREND

Being Collegiate

The Mystic Pen

UNDER THE CLOVE

THE FORUM

Group of Economists and Sociologists to Study Conditions in Soviet Russia This Summer

CAT'S MEOW

Sports Editor

Middlebury

SUNDAY SERVICE HELD AT IRA ALLEN CHAPEL

A. T. O., DELTA PSI, AND SIGMA PHI WIN KAKES

(Continued from page 1)

A Mad winter Nightmare.

"They Even Have Them" an act presented by Alpha before the microphone staged a musical comedy

group of melodeons cowb

agile old rustic fiddler

tew beauty secrets, a theories and topics of the

among other things broad fore signing off the cowb launched into a wild strains of "Put on the Old which drew great applause audience

Phi Mu Delta enacted a

ing to the Japanese War.

have come and gone at the Vermont with their usual

sults. It is only a step astrous results" to a hardboiled recruiting "rookies" and war with Japan. The next in a military hospital

monters have all managed to

They get together in a final old Vermont spirit, but one

bers is unable to finish the

There was a large entries. Among those that greatest acclaim from the

"The Bridge Battle on the horseme vs. Benz," "Wa

Writers," "Efficiency Exp of Collegiate Life," and "

his sheets and safety pins

The Judges

Four sets of judges

Directors Marvin and Wilbur

each to decide in tryouts, and kake walking.

Judges for elimination

Prof. D. B. Carroll

science department, Prof

the English department, and

T. Metcalf of the psychology

Judges of the peerade

F. F. Black of the milit

Prof. Paul D. Evans of partment, and H. Dean superintendent of schools

Judges of the stunts were

Carrell, Prof. Leon W

John T. Metcalf, Hon

Moulton, Justice of Supreme

Vermont, and Dr. Charles

Burlington.

Judges of the kake walking

George F. Eckhard of the department, Robert Met ton, and John L. Southwick

Free Press.

In commenting on the

and stunts presented Pr

Dean said: "I thought the

was very good this year

large variety of stunts of exceptional order."

Co-director G. F. Wilbur

Kalk Walk was, in my

the best I have seen, and standard of other years who took part certainly for the time and effort into it."

ODDS AND ENDS

The editor of the

that life is just one

Some drop in for a

in for a drop.

The Juniors at B. U.

if they think ten dollars

their Prom. If they do to indicate a feature of

he believes can best be cuts. The big reduction are men's and women's cost of the orchestra.

One of the deans at lost a bag of bananas

The dean is on a str constitute a major

More than one-third of the U. of North

watering.

SPORTS NEWS

OLD VERMONT RIVALS TO BE PLAYED BY CATS

Middlebury and Norwich Provide Opposition in Next Two Contests

[illegible] Vermont basketball [illegible] last night and will [illegible]days night in two [illegible] series. To-date the [illegible] won one game and [illegible] for a rather poor [illegible]rsday the team dropped [illegible] to the Middlebury five [illegible]ry floor. The Green and [illegible] dropped a fast game to [illegible]t held a week ago.

[illegible] team has had a very [illegible] so far, seeming to lack the [illegible] in any game. The scores [illegible] been unusually close and [illegible] been fought very hard [illegible] spirit has flagged at the [illegible]. Perhaps with the crowd [illegible] team at the gymnasium [illegible] they may perform bet[illegible] Vermont leads the Green [illegible] in the cellar, with St. Michael's, Middlebury and Norwich [illegible].

[illegible]rosh travel to the gymna[illegible] en masse to see their team [illegible]quer Vermont. The Nor[illegible]s undefeated thus far, this [illegible] it looks as if they would [illegible] nemesis tonight. There is [illegible] that the team is fighting, but [illegible]mething lacking. The Cata[illegible] seem to play a much better [illegible] their home floor than they do [illegible]ps. To date they have won [illegible]legiate contests out of five [illegible] Barrington.

[illegible]Burke is undecided whom he will [illegible]Tuesday night. Usually there is [illegible] of antagonism between [illegible] and Norwich. It is up to the [illegible] support the basketeers and show [illegible] that they want them to lick Mid[illegible].

ARMY BEATS VERMONT IN FINAL HOCKEY GAME

[illegible] University of Vermont hockey [illegible] returned to Vermont last Sun[illegible] being trounced by the Army [illegible] by an 8-0 score. The team [illegible] three defeats this season [illegible] earned one victory, and not[illegible] this rather poor record, [illegible] Catamounts stand second in the [illegible]. Middlebury won the [illegible]ionship by two easy vic[illegible]s St. Michael's and Vermont. [illegible] Saturday's game at West [illegible] the Army rinkmen opened up [illegible] with a barrage of six goals [illegible] minutes of play. From [illegible] the end of the game the con[illegible] was closely fought and was very [illegible] to watch. The Green and [illegible] was unable to do any [illegible] during the remainder of the [illegible].

[illegible] has not been able to prac[illegible] this season, whereas Army [illegible] kept rink which affords [illegible] to practice. Last year [illegible] a 4-1 in the West Pointers [illegible] Vermont played there. The [illegible] the Army boys was the last [illegible] the schedule.

[illegible] at Bradley Tech is such a [illegible] offer writer that his fraternity [illegible] has him to mimeograph copies [illegible] to his models.

CO-EDS HOLD CARNIVAL ON BACK CAMPUS WED.

The annual women's winter carnival will take place on the [illegible] campus tomorrow at [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible] there as entertainment [illegible] and [illegible]. Wa[illegible]ket sports of all kinds [illegible] [illegible] tobogganing skating [illegible] and ski obstacle contests, with skating included, will be on the program.

The carnival will be in charge of Jackie Hoyt '34, chairman, with Lillian Mount '32, Lois Harrington '32, Jenny Putnam '34 and Ara Armstrong '33 as members of the committee.

Judges are the Misses Libanus Cummings and Alice Blanchard of the physical education department and Miss Vera Chadburne, U. V. M. '31.

KITTENS ADD ANOTHER VICTIM TO THEIR LIST

Enosburg Falls Defeated by a Far Superior Basketball Team From University of Vermont

The freshman basketball team added another victim to its list when it defeated a far inferior Enosburg Falls High School team by a 33-17 score last Friday night. Coach Archie Post's men had a hard time getting used to the floor and were trailing at the end of the first half. However, when Palmer and Schmarr began to get going they ran up the score in short order with ease. This game was the last for Fisk and Schmarr on the freshman squad, and they made the most of it.

At the first part of the game the team did not click the way it usually does. Most of the strangeness was due to the floor, however. As usual, Schmarr stabilized the men so that they were able to think more clearly and play better basketball. Fisk played a smooth game and was essential in the team play. Mcligonis went very well at forward.

The freshman team only play a few more games, and they will have completed a most successful season no matter whether they win or lose the remainder of their games. The chances are that they may not be defeated, but they have some stiff competition ahead of them when they meet the Dartmouth freshman team, which is usually as good as the Indian varsity.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT ISSUES REGULATIONS

"More than six unexcused cuts constitute a failure in the course, and each unexcused absence will cause a deduction of two percent from the student's grade," according to the new military regulations issued by the military department. Notices on the military bulletin board state:

"Attendance at all formations is required, and will not affect the student's grade except as indicated below: Work lost by absences from formations, which are excused by the dean of the college in which the student is enrolled, must be made up by work assigned by instructor. Excused absences not made up at time assigned become unexcused absences. Excuses for such absences must be presented promptly after the return of the student to classes, and they will not be accepted later than one week after such return.

FRAT TEAMS TO PLAY IN SEMI-FINAL GAMES

Kappa Sigma Tackles Zeta Chi While Sigma Alpha Epsilon Takes on Phi Sigma Delta

[illegible] Wednesday evening the Kappa Sigma basketball team will meet the Zeta Chi team in one of the semi-final [illegible] the interfraternity league which is nearly over. Both teams are in fairly good shape and the game promises to be one of immense interest. Kappa Sigma seems to have a slight edge over Zeta Chi, but this should not make much of a difference when the teams encounter the other.

Ormie Brown and Orrie Jay com[illegible] Jess Smith made 4 points [illegible] which put [illegible] two teams in the schedule so far. Tau Epsilon Phi defaulted to the Kappa Sigs while the Phi Mu Delts lost out in a fast contest. On the other hand, the Zeta Chi men, led by Green, Ricker, Myers and Morse, have run roughshod over one of their opponents and just barely nosed out of the other game. Sigma Delta fell in a walkaway, while the Alpha Tau Omega team came within two points of defeating the Zeta Chis.

In the other bracket, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon team will take on the Phi Sigma Delta quintet as a preliminary to the Middlebury game Thursday evening. S. A. E. has trimmed the Owl team and the faculty representatives in the tournament, both by large scores. Mulcahy and Ramon, both Barre boys, have led the way for the team.

Phi Sigma Delta has repulsed Sigma Nu and won from the Sigma Phi quintet. The Phi Sigs have a smooth-working combination with "Murph" Freiberg and Tisby Feshman as the stellar units, which will give S. A. E. a run for the game. Both the Sig Alph-Phi Sig and the Kappa Sig-Zeta Chi games will start promptly at six.

KITTENS PLAY NATIONAL LIFE QUINTET AT GYM

Yearling Team is Out for Blood of the Only Team to Date Which It Has Not Defeated

The toughest game on the frosh schedule will be played tonight at the gymnasium as a preliminary contest before the varsity takes on Norwich. Both the varsity and the freshmen are playing their opponents for the second time. Both teams are out for blood. The freshman outfit seems to have the hardest nut to crack. National Life has not lost many games this season and has defeated some very powerful [illegible], among them may be numbered the freshman team.

Last Wednesday evening the insurance team traveled to Boston and played the Whirlwinds, New England [illegible] champions, and lost by one point. The game was a see-saw contest throughout. When the National Life Insurance team come up to Burlington to play the Kittens it will have the advantage in experience and size. The team is made up, for the most part, of old college players and [illegible] school stars. When the Green and Gold team traveled to Montpelier to play the life insurance squad, they were defeated by three points in a fast moving, uncertain game. With only a few minutes to go, National Life scored three baskets which put them out ahead with a lead too much for the frosh to overcome. Nevertheless, the game was hard fought and the teams proved evenly matched.

Halligan and Sheridan are the mainsprings in the clockwork of the Montpelier team. Both are famous players and have had long years of experience. However, the team is not perfect and the Cat-cat squad under Archie Post's guidance will attempt to prove the fact. Schmarr cannot be counted on to work at guard for the yearling team as he is under warning. In like manner Leske will not be playing for his class team. Both entered their game in freshman basketball competition last Friday night and therefore it is a slightly weakened team that will play tonight. Post expects to use Del[illegible]fausse in place of Schmarr, while Skodinski will probably do the tapping for the Kitten five. Mcligonis and Rock will most likely start at forward. Palmer will complete the team with Lenihan on the side for any necessary substitutions.

The freshman team has won for itself the same name as the other years'

(Continued on page 4)

Cats Drop All Three Games on Only Road Trip of Season

Panthers Win Important Conference Game 32-27—Tufts Administers Second Defeat 30-20—B. U. Adds Third With a 36-32 Victory

FRED TUPPER LEADS IN SCORING FOR CATS

MIDD. 32—VT. 27

Middlebury broke into the winning column for the first time in state competition at the expense of Vermont [illegible] Friday night. The [illegible] shoves the Catamounts into the cellar position in conference standing with but one victory [illegible].

The game was fast throughout although featured by close refereeing. The Panthers were out ahead most of the first half by a single point margin, but the Green and Gold tallied before the whistle and at half time held an 18-16 advantage.

The second half found Middlebury playing strong basketball, with Sweet and MacKenzie breaking away from their men to score. Their efforts were offset to some extent by the excellent work of Fred Tupper and Chet Lattrell [illegible] two engineered a brilliant rally in the closing minutes which left [illegible] Middlebury's advantage.

Line-ups:

Middlebury	g	f	pts
Chalmers, r.f.	1	0	2
Belfonti, r.f.	1	2	4
Ashdown, l.f.	1	2	4
Elmer, l.f.	0	0	0
Sweet, c.	4	3	11
Olsen, c.	0	0	0
MacKenzie, r.g.	4	1	9
Carlisle, l.g.	1	0	2
Hoyle, l.g.	0	0	0
Fiddler, l.g.	0	0	0
Baumgartner, r.g.	0	0	0
	12	8	32

Vermont	g	f	pts
Tupper, r.f.	5	1	11
Saba, r.f.	0	0	0
Durfey, l.f.	0	3	3
Pires, l.f.	1	0	2
Morgan, c.	0	2	2
Berkeley, r.g.	1	1	3
Winant, r.g.	0	0	0
Taft, l.g.	3	1	7
Collins, l.g.	0	0	0
	10	7	27

Referee—Cassidy.

TUFTS 30—VT. 20

Tufts took its fourth straight victory in its new Physical Education Building Friday night, downing the Catamounts for the second time this season by a 30-20 count.

The Green and Gold, obviously tired by the trip, were not up to scratch and were unable to cope with the superior teamwork of the Jumbos.

Tufts opened up strong and after the first ten minutes Coach Lon Morley began substituting his second-string material, Robinson being the only Brown and Blue starter to play the entire game.

Ap Cochrane with 12 points and Capt. Jack Fine with 7 led the Jumbos' attack while Fred Tupper with [illegible] points led the Catamounts [illegible] second straight night.

Tufts	g	f	pts
Andy, r.f.	2	0	4
Fine, l.f.	2	3	7
[illegible]	0	0	0
Robison, c.	1	0	2
[illegible]	0	1	1
[illegible]	1	0	2
O. Cochrane, l.g.	0	1	1
[illegible]	0	0	0
[illegible]	0	0	0
	13	6	30

Vermont	g	f	pts
Taft, l.g.	2	0	4
Winant, l.f.	0	0	0
Beckley, r.g.	1	0	2
Collins, r.g.	0	0	0
Morgan, c.	2	0	4
Durfey, l.f.	1	0	2
Tupper, r.f.	5	3	8
Saba, r.f.	0	0	0
	9	3	20

Referee—Clark.

B. U. 36—VT. 32

The Catamounts dropped their sixth straight game Saturday night when B. U. by virtue of a strong rally in the closing minutes nosed out the Catamounts 36-32.

The Green and Gold opened up strong and were out ahead 14-7 at half time. However, as has been the case in previous games when they were leading at half time, the opponents came back strong to take the game.

For the winners, Capt. Bill Lowder at left forward and Yale Matzkin at center were the shining lights, often [illegible] with Red Mazzotta and Herb [illegible] doing the bulk of the defensive work.

Capt. Hank Durfey with 10 points and Ed Winant subbing for Chet Lattrell made into the scoring column for the first time this season with 7 points, were outstanding for the Catamounts.

Helen G. Carter, a perfectly good name under most circumstances, caused quite a scandal on the campus of the University of Michigan when it was discovered that "she" resided at the Phi Kappa Psi house. However, Helen claims it is all a mistake and that "she" is a "he" and that the name is Helon and not Helen.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

THE NEW SPRING STYLES ARE HERE
TOPCOATS — SUITS — HATS
AND ACCESSORIES
Drop in and look them over
HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

PAJAMAS and ROBES
Pajamas in all the wanted styles; made of heavy broadcloth and in wanted colors.
$1.95 to $5
Lounging Robes
Silk and Flannel Robes. Something every man needs. They make fine birthday gifts.
$7.85 to $25
TURKS Burlington Vt.
156-158 College St.

GYMNASIUM TO BE SCENE OF SCHOLASTIC GAMES

Sabin Abell, Graduate Manager of University of Vermont, to Have Charge of Annual Event

Co-eds Bare Hidden Scorn For Gullibility of Dates

Dean Swift Issues Tentative List of Averages of Students Attaining B

KITTENS PLAY NATIONAL LIFE ON GYM FLOOR

(Continued from page 1)

JOHN DEWEY CLUB TO HEAR NORWICH PROF.

(Continued from page 1)

Owing to scholastic failure students of the University of pest (Hungary) committed sui ing one week.

TURKEY IS PROGRESSIVE COUNTRY SAYS WILEY

(Continued from page 1)

EXCHANGES

Author's Arena

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
298 College Street

ALEX VERRET
111 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
FREE DELIVERY

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR PLEDGING GIRLS
Dress up for your pledge parties with a
Bonat Permanent Wave
85 to 87
The Bonat Wave leaves your hair soft, silky and glowing with life.
Drop in ..... or 'phone for an appointment
JACQUELINE'S BEAUTY SHOP
Corner Bank and Center Sts.
Entrance 2 Center Street
Telephone 2256

When an author can write this of herself you know she can write an interesting story. "I was born January 29, 1905. I saw America first. I was born in New York City but saw San Francisco during my seventh week. My parents were in the show business. I was educated in a public school. I did not graduate and did not reach high school. I have been on the stage but was not a good actress. I tried the other side of the footlights and was a notable success as an usher. I have been a typist in two or three offices and was never discharged though none of my success is comparable to that of my ushering days.

She wrote "Women Live Too Long." It is in the Lending Library at the UNIVERSITY STORE and is well worth reading.

Let's smoke a
MAN'S SMOKE!
•
WHEN the girls begin to cut corners in our cars and do back somersaults in our planes and borrow our cigarettes—then it's time to take to a pipe!

Her smoke a cigarette
Call it the last stronghold of masculine defence—or the one pet diversion our little friends keep their fingers off. Call it what you will—there's something downright satisfying, understanding, companionable about a friendly, mellow, MASCULINE pipe! It's a real man's smoke!

A pipe's a man's smoke
And a pipe's at its best when you fill it up with Edgeworth. There's a rare, mellow flavor to the Edgeworth blend of fine burleys that simply can't be touched. It's cut long—to give you a cool, slow-burning smoke. And you'll find it the favorite with smokers in 42 out of 54 colleges.
You can get Edgeworth wherever good tobacconists sell smokes. But if you've never tried it, we'd like the fun of treating you to that first satisfying pipeful. Just write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.
EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO
Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1932 — NUMBER 37

...TAMOUNTS COMPEL ...HORSEMEN TO BOW IN FIRST DEFEAT OF YEAR

...psey, Norwich Court Star In... ...red in Rather Rough Game— Score is 31-22

...CTORY CONFIRMS CATS' HOME FLOOR RECORD

...ceeded to meet the Uni... ...Vermont quintet and was met ... upset that has even been ... Green Mountain League fol... ...years. The Green and ... ...up a 31-22 victory in ... ...ington. The game was ... ...guarding, and long shots ... ...sides.

...tioned wonderfully well ... court confirming their ... their being a fine home ... date, the team has won ... home games and has as... ...quarters by its good team ... ...esday night's win over ... was the first defeat of the ... and incidently the first ... starts in state series'.

...l undecapped at the very ... game by an injury to ... guard. Sipsey has been ... ...ter the Norwich out... ...essential to the team's play. ... the game late in the ... astounded everyone by ... ...ected field goals. One man, ... did not stem the onslaught ... victory hungry Cata... ...mount trampled over an ... Norwich squad. Incidently ... losing streak was ...

...scored thrice going for Vermont ...ield goal. During the ... the score was nip and ... the end of the period the score ...or of Vermont. During ... enthusiasm reigned on ... audience. The Cats' ... during the game did not ... even though they were ... Vermont has lost many ... during at the half.

(Continued on page 4)

...ODEL ASSEMBLY TO BE CONDUCTED SIMILAR TO LEAGUE AT GENEVA

...Will be Held March 3, 4, 5 at Brown University, Providence, R. I.

... Assembly, to be held at ... ...versity, Providence, R. I., ... 5, will be conducted in ... ...ilar to that of the League ... Geneva with certain modi... ...It will be composed of dele... ...ing each member state, ... shall include six delegates, ... to the chief delegates ... to the vice delegates. ... attend from this university are ...gelow '33, P. J. LaCross '32, G. ...'34, I. Fleischman '32, and ...Quin '34.

... each delegation will be ...rman. The president of ...bly will be elected by ... the beginning of the ... to the place of the six ... three chairmen are to be ...ree committees on the ...tical organizations, dis... ...political questions. Com... the Model Assembly, ... Four, is as follows: ...rld Economic Situation. ... the Treaty of Versailles ... the Polish Corridor.

... of the Model As... ...nearly the same as those ... Nations. The Assembly ... address by the acting ...ncil; this is followed ... President Barbour of ... A report of the ...ce will be given and ... be elected. Next, an ...endum will be had, ... after its adoption its various items ... to the committees. ... will then be elected ...mittee will be ap... the work of the ... and previous As...

FLEMING MUSEUM SCENE OF INTERESTING EVENTS

The month of March issues in many interesting events in the Fleming Museum.

They are:

Ariel pictures—February 23-27.

Sorority pictures for freshmen girls who have just been pledged.

John Dewey Club meeting—February 24.

Women's varsity debate with McGill—February 29.

Meeting of Vermont writers—March 10.

French lecture—March 11.

Women's debates—March 12.

Mr. Moody's zoology classes will see moving pictures (2 p.m.)—March 14.

French lecture—March 15.

French lecture—March 16.

Women's debates—March 18.

WRITERS' CONFERENCE TO CONVENE FOR FIRST TIME ON MARCH TENTH

Students and Faculty to be Admitted Gratis to Afternoon and Evening Assemblies

The League of Vermont Writers will hold its First Educational Conference on March 10, 1932 at the Fleming Museum. The league is an association of all Vermont writers, who upon payment of one dollar become voting members.

The afternoon program, from 2 p.m. to 4.30 p.m. will be conducted as an open forum with Professors Leon W. Dean, Frederick Tupper, and Arthur Wallace Peach acting as chairmen. This program follows a general assembly, registration, and assignments.

Prof. Leon Dean, as chairman of the forum, will discuss with those present, "Writing For Money." This speech will include such topics as requirements of markets, literary agents, and preparation of manuscripts.

"Choice and Treatment of Themes" will be the subject of Prof. Frederick Tupper's discussion under which topic use of appropriate English, form and style, modes of expression, appeals to eye and ear, models for writers today will be discussed.

The open forum will be concluded under the chairmanship of Prof. Arthur Wallace Peach, taking up general questions and answers, which will speak on topics, including newspaper work and amateur writing.

A lunch will be served on the grounds by the University staff between this program and the evening session, commencing at 7 p.m. "Sins of the Tongue" will be the subject of an address by Rev. Arthur Wentworth Hewitt, D.D. The program also includes "Folk Songs and Balladry of Vermont" by Mrs. Helen Hartness Flanders and music by University talent. The evening session is open to the public, twenty-five cents admission to those not presenting membership cards which have recently been distributed. Both afternoon and evening sessions are open and free, to students and faculty of the University.

REV. CONNOR SPEAKS AT MID-WEEK CHAPEL

The Rev. Harvey F. Connor of the local Methodist Episcopal Church spoke to a good-sized audience of students and members of the faculty at the mid-week Chapel service Wednesday morning.

He said that a good many people today are nearly dead. Many people cease to live when they are only twenty while others live until they are over fifty. Everyone should be able to live every minute, every hour, every year of his life. "Jesus came to this earth so that man might have life and have it more abundantly."

FACULTY NOTES

Mrs. J. E. Donahue and Mrs. P. D. Evans of Essex Junction are to entertain ladies of the faculty of U. V. M., February 24, at 2.30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Donahue. The ladies are invited to make up tables of bridge, the price being fifty cents for each person. In the evening a bridge party will be held at 7.45 at the home of Mrs. Evans. Here the gentlemen are invited to accompany the ladies. The proceeds of these parties are to be contributed to the Loan Fund of the Ladies of the Faculty for needy U. V. M. women.

The women are invited to bring friends with them in the afternoon. Those who do not play bridge may bring sewing or work at puzzles which will be there.

ARIEL PICTURES MUST BE TAKEN MONDAY AND TUESDAY, SAYS EDITOR

Colburn Sets Monday and Tuesday as Deadline for All Photographs Not Yet Taken

INDIVIDUAL PHOTOGRAPHS NEW FEATURE THIS YEAR

"Ariel photographs for fraternity and sorority pages, and for the Junior section will be taken Monday and Tuesday, February 29 and March 1, in the Fleming Museum Auditorium. It is extremely important that the photographer finish his part of the Ariel on the two days mentioned, and therefore all remaining fraternity, sorority, and Junior section pictures must be taken then," states Editor Russell F. Colburn '33.

"Appointments are not necessary. The photographer will be 'at home' in the Museum from 8.30 to 12 o'clock, and from 4 to 6 o'clock, ready to take any picture required. Also, if any fraternity freshmen, either pledgees or members, have failed to have pictures taken, or if any person is dissatisfied with proofs previously made, February 29 and March 1 are the dates when everything will be cleared up."

New Feature This Year

A new feature of this year's yearbook will be the composite picture to be used in place of the group picture. Instead of attempting to get all members of a fraternity together at one time for a group picture, individual photographs will be placed by the photographer upon one page. The result will have the same appearance as a group picture, as there will be no apparent division between the individual pictures.

Sports Editor S. N. Spiller '33, reports favorable progress in his section, and that he is waiting upon the engravers. In addition, the interfraternity section will not be scattered throughout the issue, but will be given consecutive pages of its own, while the freshmen will also possess a section of their own, instead of being put in different places at the end of each major sport as in previous years.

G. M. MacKenzie '33, the business manager, states that 500 books will be printed by the engravers, the Hammersmith-Kortmeyer Company of Milwaukee, Wis. The price of a single book will be four dollars and fifty cents.

Editor Colburn has already received proofs of the front cover and title pages and states that "Everything is swimming along smoothly, and the departments are pretty well up to schedule."

PROF. GOULD SPEAKS ON "TYPES IN PHILOSOPHY"

Prof. Walter H. Gould, of Norwich University, addressed an open meeting of the John Dewey Club last Wednesday evening in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. About two dozen members and guests were present. Professor Gould, who took as his topic, "Types in Philosophy," was a chaplain during the World War, now holds the rank of major, and consequently has a rich background upon which to draw. At present he occupies the chair of philosophy and education at Norwich.

Professor Gould, in a very instructive talk, outlined briefly the various major divisions of philosophy with special emphasis upon the distinctions between realism, idealism, and materialism. Starting with the early Greek philosophers, he traced the development of philosophy through Epicureanism and Stoicism, up to pragmatism and the new critical realism. He stated that it was unfortunate that philosophers used such altisonant phraseology and endeavored to explain the meaning of all the esoteric terms so dear to philosophers.

A vigorous discussion followed, centering mainly about the physics and Oswald Spengler's "Der Untergang des Abendlandes."

Ronald H. Bingham '34, was elected to membership following his presentation of a paper on "The Fundamentals of Cartesian Philosophy." He stressed those factors responsible for Descartes' thought, and the effect of his work upon subsequent philosophical developments. After the presentation of his paper, the novitiate was subjected to a rigorous cross-questioning. The meeting closed after the serving of refreshments.

Zeta Chi announces the pledging of George V. Hutchins '35 of Albany.

Swift Issues List of High Ranking Honor Students

Five Seniors and Two Juniors Attain All A's—No Sophomores or Freshmen on Top List—Seniors Also Lead in 90% Average

VARSITY DEBATING TEAM LEAVES FOR SPRINGFIELD AND PLYMOUTH NORMAL

Centralization of Industry and Mechanical Progress are Subjects to be Argued

VERMONT LOSES TO HAMILTON AT MUSEUM

The men's varsity debating team left this morning for Springfield, Mass., to engage with Springfield College tonight in the opening debate of its annual southern trip. The men making the trip, R. P. Donaghy '32, P. J. LaCross '32, and J. E. Bigelow '33 have participated in this season's debates, and R. E. McCuin '34, as alternate has been recruited from the sophomore team. Tomorrow they will journey to Plymouth, N. H., to encounter Plymouth Normal in the evening. A debate, which was scheduled for last evening with Clark University of Worcester, Mass., was recently cancelled.

Vermont will uphold the affirmative in the first encounter, arguing, "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation providing for centralization of industry," a question offered by Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary debating society. For the Plymouth Normal debate, the question is "Resolved, that mechanical and scientific progress does not necessarily mean advance in civilization." Here the U. V. M. men have the negative.

The next home debate is scheduled for March 9 with New York University as the opponent. The question to be used represents another nationally significant issue, and will be included in the National Debate Handbook series for 1931-32. It is "Resolved, that socialism has more to offer than capitalism." A two-man team consisting of P. J. LaCross '32 and J. E. Bigelow '33 will argue the affirmative case for Vermont. The team confronts Keene Normal on March 23 in a return debate upholding the affirmative on the question "Resolved that the United States should cancel her war debts." March 24, a team representing Union College in Schenectady, N. Y., comes to Burlington to tangle arguments with Vermont on the question of Unemployment Insurance. Here the U. V. M. forensists will maintain the negative standpoint. These home debates will be held in the Fleming Museum Auditorium.

Teams composed of varsity and junior varsity debaters will conduct a series of Grange debates, with the first taking place March 7 at the Charlotte Grange Hall on the question of the Vermont Tax Issue, and the second will be held March 15 at the Lincoln Grange, also on the Tax Issue. Other junior varsity debates are being planned and will be announced later.

Last Tuesday evening, a two-man team consisting of P. J. LaCross '32 and R. P. Donaghy '32 suffered a 3 to 0 defeat at the hands of a team from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., upholding the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that capitalism is unsound in principle."

SORORITIES HAVE THEIR PLEDGE DANCES SOON

Several sorority pledge dances will take place, Saturday, February 27. Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Gamma, Kappa Delta are holding their dances then while Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Delta Delta are having their dances on March 5.

Professor and Mrs. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair will chaperone the dance held at the Pi Beta Phi house on South Prospect Street. The Black Pirates will furnish the music.

Sigma Gamma will hold their dance February 27. Professor and Mrs. Deane and Professor Rowell will chaperone, and Lechyne's orchestra will play.

At the Kappa Delta, Professor and Mrs. Briggs and Professor and Mrs. Burke will chaperone while Bissonette's orchestra will furnish the music for the dance.

WOMEN LEAD MEN IN TOTAL NUMBER RANKED

Following is a list of students who have attained an average of B or better for the first half year.

In making out the lists an A is counted as 95 percent, a B as 85 percent, a C as 75 percent and a D as 65 percent. An A average means a record with no grade below A; ½A-½B is an average of 90 percent or the equivalent of a record in which half the grades are A and half are B or better. A-B average is an average of 85 percent. Nothing below 85 percent is regarded as a B average. A student may, however, have grades below B provided these are balanced by a sufficient number of grades of A, and still attain a B average.

1932

A Average

S. B. Barker, Cornelia J. Baylies, Edna Herndon, H. C. Torrey, F. Tupper, Jr.

½A-½B Average

Elizabeth E. Belcher, C. K. Bush, R. T. Conner, E. J. Fitzgerald, Lucy Hope, F. W. Householder, Jr., H. S. Jackson,* M. Elizabeth Mandigo, Elizabeth Mosher, Donna Oakes, Roberta F. Powers, Kathryn Rauh, Margaret A. Watkins.

*Short card.

B Average

Edna M. Blackwood, Doris Brennan, Ruth M. Buxton, Louise M. Clark, Mary Clough, Alice Dalton, Millicent Dixon, Rosetta M. Harlow, Caroline Howard, Elizabeth G. Howe, O. W. Jay, Clara M. Kellogg, Crystal Lawes, A. A. Maisden, Lillian Mount, Margaret E. Mower, Hope Ranslow, S. Shindler, Doris H. Skinner, Edith Wyman.

1933

A Average

O. A. Boyd, L. L. Woodward.

½A-½B Average

Natalie E. Carleton,* F. B. Drew, Elizabeth Eckhard, Dorothy M. Edwards, Mildred Hastings, Dorothy Lackman, C. W. Linke, Grace L. Johnson, Katherine Nowland.

B Average

M. L. Bergman, R. F. Colburn, Eleanor Eggleston, Marion C. Fairbanks,* L. H. Farwell, P. P. Fischer, Norma Freeman, Eleanor M. Gates, Elizabeth Hollis,* Antoinette Hubbard, Madeline E. Johnson, Marion E. Kiel, Gladys M. LaFlamme, M. T. Miltimore, Dorothy F. Murphy, Mary Petras, Marjorie Scott, E. J. Swinyer, S. Katherine Tolman, Esther J. Urie, D. W. Webster, A. F. Whiting.

*Short card.

1934

½A-½B Average

J. L. Beckley, Stella Brown, Grace Harris, C. J. Kilburn, Jr., J. M. Monte, Greta Peterson, Ida Saiger.

B Average

Mary W. Bennett, B. S. Birnbaum, C. B. Eaton, Alice S. Gunn, Helen Jenkins, M. Kramer, Ellen A. Pearl, Ruth Reynolds, Helen Rockwell, Jenny Scutaro, Marion E. Waite, Rebecca Wallace, H. C. Wilson, Joyce Young.

1935

½A-½B Average

Helen Bellows, Betty Boright, Dorothy F. Kennedy, Anita L. Kittell, H. Klavan, Grace Lutman, Marie L. Maguire, Alma Martenson, D. A. Newton, Mary N. Tupper, H. B. Whipple.

B Average

Mildred F. Baldwin, F. C. Braley, Constance M. Calkins, W. E. Cass, Muriel H. Conant, R. J. Delfausse, S. Adele Garfield, D. C. Gregg, Margaret A. Levarn, B. J. Ludwig, Mary E. Moore, A. V. Nevulis, Margaret P. Nugent, Evelyn Perry, Elizabeth E. Rich, A. E. Schildhaus, P. Sussman, A. P. Wilcox, Alice M. Wyman.

Teacher Training (Two- and Four-year)

½A-½B Average

Shirley Capen, Elizabeth A. Page.

(Continued on page 4)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Collegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34 [illegible] '34
[illegible] '34 [illegible] '34
[illegible] '34 [illegible] '34
[illegible] '34 [illegible] '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] '34
[illegible] '34

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

[illegible] '34
[illegible] '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

[illegible] '34

COLUMNIST

[illegible] '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Lew W. [illegible]

Editorials

KAKE WALK

[illegible] the planning of the 1932 Kake Walk announcement that the [illegible] would be held on early one night there [illegible] "I told you so." [illegible] Kake Walk [illegible] It is a thing of the past a [illegible] when [illegible] The original [illegible] the student [illegible] Kake Walk the [illegible] [illegible] Kake Walk [illegible] [illegible] wrong. [illegible] [illegible] Kake Walk, and agree. The quality [illegible] the walking. The cost of the participants, the [illegible] Kake Walk is not the big [illegible] We regret the absence of an [illegible] Saturday night. "I [illegible]

CAMPUS COMMENT

[illegible] would have been sadly lacking in expression [illegible] two people have had the interest [illegible] the campus on the way to write to the editor and air their views [illegible] The Cynic is Vermont's official student news- [illegible] It should reflect the thoughts and the opinions of the student [illegible] We are not accepting support nor [illegible] We have an abundant [illegible] but we want to [illegible] We want campus comment.

NOTICE

There will be a sleigh-ride on Sunday, February 28, starting from the College Street Congregational Church. Members of the Collegium, or any college student who wishes to go, may secure places by phoning Katherine Starbird, 748-W. The cost of twenty-five cents includes the supper.

Students Gain Power

[illegible] powers [illegible] the College [illegible] powers [illegible] by the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

EBATE SOCIETY OPEN TO ANYONE INTERESTED

M Debate Society will 4 o'clock p.m., Sunday, in the Fleming
Prof P. D. Carle
Department M D
Roberta Powers
'35, have tenta
gram. Two other discussion by the Socratic dialogue is open to all stu
learn to "think on debate extemporaneously usually deal with students are familiar.
no dues, no mem
Previous meetings have successful

captain of the varsity explained that although the would be out of town for they would return in time

Letters for the Band," permission of the copy-
At Bradley Tech the
bers of one student re-
love letters be mimeo-
they could use them as

MARIO TOMASSETTI '32
Manager of 1932 Green and Gold hockey sextet

BUNNY PRENTICE
Head of the Physical Education Department and Coach of Hockey

RAYMOND COBB '32
Advertising Manager of the Thirty-fifth Annual Cake Walk

"Sure, they Taste Better"

● "I'm sort of restless . . . always on the lookout for something that hits the old taste spot . . . and clicks! But I've noticed that I never get tired of Chesterfields. They always taste better to me.

"That can't be an accident. It stands to reason . . . a cigarette that always tastes better . . . has got to be made better. You know what I mean . . . purer materials . . . more up-to-date ways of working. I'm willing to bet that's why my last Chesterfield of the day is as mild and satisfying as the first!"

LIKE TO HEAR A REALLY GOOD RADIO PROGRAM?

● Tonight . . . tune in on the Chesterfield broadcast at 10:30 Eastern Standard Time and listen to music by Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, popular baritone. It's on the Columbia Network every night, except Sunday.

THEY'RE MILDER • • THEY'RE PURE • • THEY TASTE BETTER • • They Satisfy

©1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

THE NEW CHAPTER HOUSE OF PI BETA PHI

WOMEN'S DEBATING TEAM OPENS FORENSIC SEASON HERE MONDAY EVENING

To Meet McGill on Capitalism Question—Vermont Will Uphold Affirmative

SWIFT ISSUES LIST OF HONOR STUDENTS

(Continued from page 1)

RULES FOR WRITING CYNIC COPY

CATAMOUNTS DEFEAT HORSEMEN

(Continued from page 1)

VERMONT

	g	f	pts
Lupper, r f	2	4	8
Taft, r f	2	3	7
Flynn, l f	2	1	5
	0	1	1
	3	0	6
	0	0	0
	1	2	4
	0	0	0
	10	11	31

NORWICH

	g	f	pts
	0	0	0
	2	1	5
	0	0	0
	1	3	5
	0	0	0
	2	1	5
	0	2	2
	2	1	5
	0	0	0
	7	8	22

ODDS AND ENDS

A western prefers to advises men to marry those women who can run the hundred yard sprint in thirteen seconds.

According to Case Tech, students use "narrow" electric light bulbs, leak door, and commit other crimes, which are opposed to the conventions in society are to be subjected to a psychoanalytical examination. The purpose of the test will be to determine why students do things at college which they would not do at home.

A prize winner at a recent University of Toronto masquerade ball was dressed as Mahatma Ghandi, with loin cloth and all. All ? ?

Prof. Lilab M. Vaughan of Boston University writes. "The college girl of today does not have to face community opposition to college education for girls. Her problems are those of financial and social adjustment to the college world. The girl comes to college with a feeling of independence and self sufficiency." And leaves with the independence and self sufficiency in the chemistry laboratory.

CO-ED CHRISTIAN GROUP ANNOUNCES NOVEL PLAN FOR PROMOTING AMITY

Get Together for Girls to be Held Tomorrow Evening at Vermonters' Clubhouse

Y W C A announces an [illegible] which is to be [illegible] will be held at [illegible] Vermonters' Clubhouse [illegible] the purpose [illegible] girls to [illegible] and talks and [illegible] dances and [illegible] girls on campus. Leah [illegible] chairman of the committee in charge, extends a welcome [illegible]

There will be another [illegible] sponsored by Y W C A on Tuesday evening, February 28. [illegible] will be the speaker [illegible] will be another [illegible] Y W C A wants everyone who [illegible] and to invite another [illegible] a pleasant and companionable [illegible] Y W C A this year [illegible] Sylvia Read '33 has [illegible] and has been [illegible] this group of college [illegible] [illegible] planning dates and [illegible] [illegible] of the Y M C A [illegible] [illegible] basketball team [illegible] Vermonter a member of Y [illegible] [illegible] this was Y W C [illegible] could be more easily [illegible] [illegible] out its purposes to [illegible] year.

Last fall the first women [illegible] at Redstone merely a [illegible] Many girls attended [illegible] were disappointed that there [illegible] [illegible] on this campus for just [illegible] ings in which people could get [illegible] and participate in an hour of [illegible] restful diversion.

At Christmas time a Christmas [illegible] was planned chiefly for girls [illegible] dormitories. Games, social dancing and refreshments, made the [illegible] a pleasant one for those who [illegible] present.

Magazines and toys were collected [illegible] distributed through the help of Miss [illegible] brook of the Education Department [illegible] getting people of the rural districts [illegible] contact with current literature which [illegible] could not otherwise have.

Recently plans have been made [illegible] vide personal service for the women [illegible] are ill. This work is in charge of Elizabeth Mandigo '32, chairman of the Social Service Committee.

Leah Gowen '33, who has recently been elected editor of the Women's Handbook for 1932-33 has already started on the work, and investigations of handbooks in other colleges and universities are being made, which may possibly aid in the effort which must be expended in the revision of this next year's Handbook.

Norma Carder '33, director of the Women's Freshman Camp for 1932 has chosen two assistant directors, one from the freshman class and the sophomore class, namely, Daisy Putnam '34 and Madeline Ansboro '35. Miss Putnam is a member of Alpha Xi fraternity, a member of the Health Council and Y W C. A. Council, has played on class [illegible]

(Continued on page 6)

There are two new drawings in the University Store done by a Summer School student. One is of the Ira Allen Chapel and the other is Billings Library. These sell for 50c each and are well worth owning.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
184 Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

FOR YOUR DANCES AND PARTIES
Decorations
Favors
Powdered Wax
Art Materials
McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

SPORTS NEWS

NTERFRAT TRACK MEN PRACTICING FOR MEET

elay to Take Place Very Soon—Dashes, Hurdles, Distances and Weights Among Events of Meet annual interfraternity has been set by Archie and director of inter- Saturday afternoon Depending on the number putting out relay teams, relays may be staged 11 14 and 16.

said "We would like to fraternities entered in both meet as possible. Entries not be later than March who are to compete must at least five times previous date. Fraternities should intention of entering or not in the relays as soon as getting in touch with me by at the physical education the longer runs, the track in the cage and includes and a thirty-yard dash. which count toward the final track meet, are run off in an fashion, only two fraternities at once. A team consists of each man runs three laps The two contesting teams opposite sides of the track all relays, the baton change 20 yards.

twenty men have been reporting track work since the recess ended. However, Coach expects the number to increase within the next month. Last year Nu won both the relays and the

GIRL SCOUTS WILL HAVE TRAINING COURSE

Miss Marjorie Puddington, a member of the National Training Staff of Girl Scouts, will give a training course for leaders the week of February 29 at the Athena Club every afternoon from two to four o'clock. A special rate of fifty cents for the course is being offered college girls who are interested in Scouting. For further information, or if you wish to enroll in the course, call Mrs. Lutman, telephone 1556-W.

EXCHANGES

aeronautical courses will be the University of Southern through the winter season authorities. These courses carried on for several years the initiation of a new course our law will include courses insurance and transport workers at Yale University show the railroads how to more efficiently. President R. Angell recently appointed Howard A. Boardman of the Graduate School to direct a study railroads' problems in the mod- al setting." One fault may the high rate. The lowers are than the uppers which are lower.

was expelled from Wesleyan for violating the honor system

BILLINGS LIBRARY HAS A LARGE COLLECTION

The Billings Library contains approximately one hundred and twenty-eight thousand volumes and forty-six thousand pamphlets and is the largest collection of books in the State. It is a government depository library, receiving as such all the publications of the United States Government generally distributed. All the leading periodicals, including many foreign ones, and the most important transactions of learned societies are received currently.

The privileges of the library are granted freely to those not connected with the University, and books are loaned frequently to high schools and to persons living at a distance. The library borrows for its graduate students from Dartmouth, Yale, and Harvard, whenever they have a need for books which the library does not have.

In addition to the main collection of books in the Billings Library there are department libraries in the Williams Science Hall, the Old College Building, Morrill Hall and the College of Medicine Building.

FRESHMEN TRAVEL TO HANOVER FOR TWO GAMES

Dartmouth Freshmen and Clark School Formulate Stiff Opposition for Kittens

The freshman basketball team will leave today for a two-day trip to Hanover, N. H., where they will play Clark School tonight and the Dartmouth freshman team tomorrow evening. These are the last two games on schedule.

In these two games the freshmen will be handicapped by the absence of Fisk and Schmarr who have been barred from intercollegiate contests because of eligibility rules. Both men have been strong points in the Kitten attack throughout the season.

The Kittens have already come to grips with Clark School, whom they succeeded in defeating in the game played here. They have yet to meet the Dartmouth yearlings for the first time. Without doubt Dartmouth is the strongest aggregation they have come in contact with this year. They are credited with a victory over Harvard freshmen and have piled up overwhelming scores against all their opponents this year.

If the Kittens return home with a victory over either one of their opponents it will be all to their credit. They are playing Clark School on a strange court and with the recent loss of two of their regulars. In the Dartmouth game they are lining up against one of the strongest college freshman fives in the East.

Co-eds at Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., have decided that the ideal college man must be:

A man who shoots a flattering line—without laughing.

A man who tells funny jokes—only once.

A man who won't believe just anything—unless you want him to.

A man who sings love songs in your ear—and can carry a tune.

A man who keeps you guessing—for a while.

A man who is totally indifferent towards girls—except you.

A man who is so forth and so on—ad infinitum.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sporting Editor—

Congratulations are in order to Coach Burke and the Catamount courtmen for the efficient manner in which the unbroken string of Norwich victories was abruptly snapped.

It seems to be a bad month for the records to become blemished. Last Saturday night Passaic High of N. J. was defeated for the first time in sixteen years on their home floor by a strong Trenton High club.

Here in New England Dartmouth has met with two successive league defeats at the hands of Cornell and Columbia. New Hampshire also entered the losing column for the first time two weeks ago when Providence College shut the Wildcats out without a single field goal.

These cases only go to show that the best of them have to fall eventually.

The teamwork exhibited by the Catamounts was decidedly superior to that of the Horsemen. In fact, with the possible exception of the Tufts game, all of the home games, Coach Burke's charges have clicked as a unit.

The Wildcats boast a very strong combination this year featuring Gormley at forward, Conroy at center, and Bronstein at guard.

NEW HAMPSHIRE HERE TOMORROW EVENING

Contest Winds Up Cats' Home Season—Visitors Have Strong Team—Regular Five to Start

Vermont officially closes its home season tomorrow night when the strong New Hampshire quintet appears on the local court.

To date the Wildcats have enjoyed a very successful season, losing only to Providence College in a home game, and to Massachusetts State by a two-point margin at Amherst. Their strong attack is centered around Gene Gormley former St. Anslem's star along with ex-Captain Eustis at forwards, Capt. John Conroy at center and Bronstein, former Manchester Central luminary at guard.

The Catamounts, although they have a tendency to put up clever exhibitions in the home gym, enter the contest as underdogs, in view of the splendid record which the Blue and White has achieved.

Every member of the squad is in excellent condition from the first stringers down to the captain of the third team. Coach Burke will probably sent his regular starting five composed of Tupper and Pires at forwards, Morgan at center, with Beckley and Taft in the backcourt.

"I started with nothing but my own intelligence."

"It must be fine to say you started with nothing at all."—Banter.

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

WRESTLING AND BOXING TOURNEY TO COME OFF

Candidates Start Training for Annual Carnival in Latter Part of Next Month

Candidates for the boxing and wrestling tournament which is to take place during the latter part of next month are being signed up now. It is imperative for all those desiring to enter to sign up at once at the physical education office. Special training classes will be held on Mondays and Wednesdays at 4 p.m. in the small gymnasium. The list of entries is not completed as yet.

The boxing and wrestling tourney will take place on the following dates:

Preliminaries: March 14, 16.
Semi finals: March 21.
Finals: March 23

In the wrestling tournament the weight classification is:

1. Bantam weight—115 lbs. and under.
2. Special weight—125 lbs. and under.
3. Light weight—135 lbs. and under.
4. Welter weight—145 lbs. and under
5. Middle weight—158 lbs. and under
6. Light heavy weight—175 lbs. and under.
7. Heavy weight—Unlimited.

The following rules will hold for the tournament:

1. Contestants Eligible
   (a) Any person in college not having received an academic degree.
2. Contestants must weigh in the day of their bout.
3. Length of Bouts
   (a) Preliminary bouts shall consist of 10 minutes.
   (b) Two extra 3-minute bouts shall also be wrestled if no decision can be reached after the first 10 minutes.
   (c) Championship bouts shall be 12 minutes and two extra periods of 3 minutes to decide the winner, if no decision can be reached at end of regular match.
4. Legality of Holds
   (a) Shall be decided by the referee and explained to the contestants before bout.
5. In Case of Injury (accidental)
   (a) Bout shall stop for 3 minutes and after expiration of period shall be forefeited if injured contestant is unable to continue.
6. Default
   (a) If contestant fails to appear 5 minutes after scheduled time, he shall forfeit the match.
7. Falls
   (a) Pin fall shall only count. Flying or rolling falls shall not be considered.
8. The referee and the judges shall render a decision in case of no fall. Aggressiveness and wrestling ability shall be the main considerations.
9. The Referee's Power
   Shall have power to render any decision not covered in the above rules.
10. Medals, properly inscribed, shall be awarded the winners of each class.

Although the health department at Syracuse University has issued a license to a vendor of cider, officials have decreed that students may not buy it because of its tendency to ferment.

Another course has arrived! The latest is a course in Izaak Walton's gentle art at Stanford University. A great many students have been angling around for a long time.

FROSH TAKE REVENGE ON NATIONAL LIFE TEAM

Wonderful Passwork Features The Freshman Offensive—The Score is 24-12

Setting a pace that the National Life Insurance team could not combat with, the University of Vermont freshman basketball team took the initial contest of Tuesday evening by a 24-12 score. The yearling team was out for the blood of the team which had previously administered their only defeat of the season, and they swept down on the National Life team like a flood from the ocean. When the smoke of battle had cleared away, the freshmen were ready to play several hours more, probably in the same manner with which they had been playing. The Kittens demonstrated the best passing game that has ever been witnessed at the University in years. Each man had almost automatic coordination, and the team played the insurance men off their feet. Only when the tricky Tim Halligan appeared to play for the Montpelier squad was there anything that smelled of opposition.

Coach Post has trained a team that has met every bit of opposition thus far this season and has won with overwhelming scores. The victory last Tuesday evening was the seventh for the freshman team. Considering that they had lost two of their very best men by warnings, it is a miracle that they went so good in the game.

No one man's playing was outstanding during the game. Palmer, Skodinski, Meligonis, Rock and Delfausse played wonderful games. There were no substitutions on the part of the frosh team. The passwork was phenomenal, and the shots were few and far between, but they were usually good when attempted. Vermont had the ball most of the time, and, when they did lose it, they quickly recovered possession of the spherical object.

National Life, playing as they did last Tuesday evening could not beat the freshman outfit if the latter were a high school team. On the Montpelier squad there was none of the cooperation that the onlookers expected to see. There was no teamwork, that is bred by long years together. The team from the State capital tried too many football passes, and they tried rough tactics, but neither were of any avail.

Halligan inspired some spirit in his team when he went in, at the beginning of the second half. In spite of the fact that he went into the game as late as he did, he amassed as many points as the rest of his team combined. On the other hand Skodinski was the high point man of the evening with his eight tallies for the frosh. "Last Half Skoddy" got going in the latter half of the game and went wild.

The score:

National Life	g	f	pts
H. Donnely, r.f.	0	1	1
Gross, l.f.	1	0	2
Davidson, c.	0	0	0
Portal, r.g.	0	0	0
Halligan, r.g.	2	2	6
E. Donnely, l.g.	1	1	3
	4	4	12

Frosh	g	f	pts
Rock, l.f.	1	1	3
Meligonis, r.f.	1	2	4
Skodinski, c.	3	2	8
Palmer, r.g.	1	3	5
Delfausse, l.g.	2	0	4
	8	8	24

PAJAMAS and ROBES
Pajamas in all the wanted styles; made of heavy broadcloth and in wanted colors.
$1.95 to $5

Lounging Robes
Silk and Flannel Robes. Something every man needs. They make fine birthday gifts.
$7.85 to $25

TURKS Burlington Vt.
156-158 College St.

SPRING
SUITS
TOPCOATS
Hats Gloves
Tuxedos
and Accessories
SHIRTS COLLARS
STUDS TIES
Miles & Perry Company
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

THE NEW SPRING STYLES ARE HERE
TOPCOATS — SUITS — HATS
AND ACCESSORIES
Drop in and look them over
HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

RULES FOR WRITING CYNIC COPY

(Continued from page 4)

ODDS AND ENDS

CO-ED CHRISTIAN GROUP ANNOUNCES NOVEL PLAN

(Continued from page 1)

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men

B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

Copr. 1931
The American Tobacco Co.

"Now I use LUCKIES only"

"I have had to smoke various brands of cigarettes in pictures, but it was not until I smoked LUCKIES that I discovered the only cigarettes that did not irritate my throat. Now I use LUCKIES only. The added convenience of your improved Cellophane wrapper that opens so easily is grand."

Sue Carol

POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL

Sue Carol's wealth was a hindrance rather than a help. Hollywood thought she was ritzy, but Sue soon proved she was a "regular guy" . . . she made 14 pictures her very first year . . . her latest is UNIVERSAL'S "GRAFT." She has reached for a LUCKY for two years. Not a farthing was paid for those kind words. That's white of you, Sue Carol.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

And Moisture-Proof Cellophane Keeps that "Toasted" Flavor Ever Fresh

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and Walter Winchell, whose gossip of today becomes the news of tomorrow, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Flooding Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
144 Main St. Burlington

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

PRIZE CUPS
and
TROPHIES

Expert Repairing
and
Engraving

FRATERNITY JEWELRY

The Vermont Cynic

OLUME 49 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1932 | NUMBER 38

SHOP DALLAS TO E VESPER SPEAKER

Hampshire Clergyman to eak at Service in Ira Allen Chapel March 6

VE BACCALAUREATE AT 1928 COMMENCEMENT

aker Has Led Vespers Twice Be- re. Receiving Doctor of Divinity Degree From U. V. M. Here in 1927

Dallas of the ... New Hampshire ... at the vesper services ... day, March 6, in the ... Bishop Dallas has ... at on several occasions. ... be led vesper services ... commencement speaker, ... baccalaureate sermon in the ...

Yale 1904

... holds a B.A. degree ... which he received ... he was graduated from ... Seminary of New ... ordained a deacon in 1908, ... priest in 1909 by Bishop ... of Connecticut. During ... 1910 to 1912 he served ... Taft School in Water- ... In 1912 he became head- ... the position for several ...

... war he did religious work ... with the Young Men's ... Association, and was active in ... camps. Devens and Riley dur- ...

... became curate of St. John's ... Waterbury, Conn. From 1920 ... was rector of St. Thomas ... Hanover, N. H. In 1925 he ... St. Paul's Cathedral of ... and on May 4, 1926 he ... consecrated bishop of the New ... diocese.

Doctor of Divinity From U. V. M.

... Dartmouth College in Han- ... conferred upon him the Doc- ... degree. In 1926 Norwich ... conferred him in the same man- ... 1927 he received the D.D. de- ... the University of Vermont ... Berkeley Divinity School. ... Dallas is a member of the ... Chapt. and a trustee of the ... St. Paul and St. Mary in Con- ...

WELVE SENIORS FAIL TO WRITE REPORTS TO DATE

... reports on the re- ... readings for last semes- ... been submitted at the ... English department to ... yesterday. None ... reader's reports, which ... have as yet been ...

... to hand his reports ... an X in the English ... obliged to take an ... the March recess ... receive a passing ...

... for senior reports ... the arts and sciences ... ago to replace a ... of senior debate ... by the demands of ... Much difficulty ... in previous years ... reports from members ... class in time to get ... and graded without ... in the issuing of ... reports.

... readings is in ... for those men and ... English and for ... is some other ... the works of about ... English, French, ... also the Bible. ... are majoring in ... reports for the ... are required to ...

... written in the ... This must give ... about the au- ... plots, summary ... and a brief ... matter. They ... the box which is ... near the Eng- ... Room 4, North Col- ... will not be re-

ued on page 4)

PLAN STUDENT DANCES

Faculty-Student Council Contemplates Series of Social Gatherings With Low Price of Admission

At the meeting of the Student Faculty Council held last Thursday at four o'clock in the Marsh Room of the Billings Library, plans were discussed for the inauguration of a series of student dances.

According to a statement from Deans Patterson and Swift, faculty members of the council, the object of the dances will be to give all students an opportunity of a social gathering at the lowest possible admission price, the admission being for single tickets rather than for couples. Dancing will commence as early as dancers arrive and will close at the same time as the movie shows downtown.

During the coming week conferences will be held with representatives of the student body to make the plan complete with all details.

Dean Patterson who is much interested in the plan will welcome any students who have new suggestions to make.

Class representatives of the council are 1932: H. M. Albert, I. W. Marvin, E. J. Mercier, Janet Miller and Lois Harrington. 1933; Ara Armstrong, L. N. Brock, G. M. MacKenzie, Margaret Tower and C. D. Watson. 1934; W. W. Brislin and B. J. Mulcahy.

VERMONT STUDENTS TO ENTER 6TH ANNUAL TRI-STATE LITERARY CONTEST

Universities of Maine and New Hampshire Participating—English Department in Charge of Manuscripts

Vermont students will soon enter for competition in the Sixth Annual Tri-State Literary Contest, details concerning which will be announced by the English department which has charge of all manuscripts submitted from U. V. M.

The contest, which Vermont won last year, is held with the universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont participating. It consists of a competition in poetry, essays and short stories for which three prizes of $25, $15 and $10 are awarded in each group.

Each college sends in three entries in each group. The contributions are rated by judges of national literary repute, three judges being sent by each of the three institutions and each group judges one class of literature.

Points are awarded for first, second and third places in each class and the university totaling the most points wins the contest. Vermont, whose contributions have rated the greatest number of points, has held first place more times than either of the other two contestants. Janice Goodrich '30, a former editor of Winnowings From the Mill, to date has received more points than any other entrant from Vermont.

Begin Contests in 1926

The contests were started in 1926 at the suggestion of the University of Maine and all three short story contests that year were won by Vermonters, Florence Chapman, Bertrand Chapman and Elizabeth Warner Morrill.

In 1927 Pauline Sullivan and Merta E. Munro of Vermont took first and third in the short stories, Lewis Leary and Janice Goodrich tied for second in verse.

In 1928 Merta E. Munro won the short story contest, Ann K. Perkins won the essay contest, and Wilmond S. Parker won the poetry contest, giving U. V. M. three first places.

In 1930 University students took three thirds, Mary Turner in short

(Continued on page 4)

STUDENTS LEAVE THURS. FOR MODEL ASSEMBLY

Six students leave Thursday, March 3, to attend the Model League Assembly, to be held at Brown University, Providence, R. I., from March 3 to 5. This assembly will be conducted in a manner similar to that of the League of Nations at Geneva with certain modifications. It will be composed of delegations representing each member state, each of which will include six delegates.

Those to attend from this University are J. E. Bigelow '33, I. Fleishman '32, P. J. LaCross '32, Realtus McCuin '34, G. Patterson '34 and S. Nathan Spiller '33.

MRS. MURRAY JACOBY TO SPEAK THURS. AT SIXTH UNIVERSITY LECTURE

Speaker is Wife of Special Envoy From U. S. to Coronation of Abyssinian Emperor

WILL SHOW PICTURES OF PAGEANT IN MUSEUM

Mrs. H. Murray Jacoby wife of the special envoy who represented the United States Government at the coronation of the Emperor of Abyssinia in 1930, will be the speaker at the sixth University lecture this Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the Fleming Museum auditorium.

Because of limited seating capacity the lecture will be open only to members of the University.

The lecture will comprise motion pictures of the coronation of Haile Sellassee, who is known as "Emperor of Abyssinia, Conquering Lion of Judah, King of Kings of Ethiopia," and a descriptive talk on the life and customs of the people of the country.

The Lecturer

Mrs. Jacoby accompanied her husband to this the "last great pageant of the African continent" and secured the motion pictures which she will display and explain along with a collection of paintings by native artists showing life in Abyssinia; and a collection of Ethiopian curiosities and "objets d'art."

Professor Gifford Says

In a release to the CYNIC today Prof. A. R. Gifford, chairman of the lecture series, says:

"Feudalism still lives on in this distant and isolated land. To the person of the dusky King of Kings is attached a mysterious glamour in virtue of his claim of direct descent from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. The interest is increased by the relation of the coptic church and coptic writings to the history and spread of Christianity.

"The glittering and spectacular pageant of pomp and splendor was prepared by a million slaves working for months. In barbaric finery and splendor a thousand tribal chieftains attended, their royal offerings borne to the village capital by camel and horse and on the heads of slaves. The Duke of Gloucester and other high ambassadors of all Christian countries, dashing Rolls Royce motor cars, and other symptoms of civilization added a dramatic touch of contrast to the picturesque anachronisms which have per-

(Continued on page 4)

GLEE CLUB GIVES DANCE AT B. H. S. GYM THIS FRI.

A combination of song and dance is the program for this Friday evening, March 4, when the U. V. M. Glee Club holds its dance at 8.30 o'clock in the Burlington High School Gymnasium. In the words of Mgr. R. S. Jenks '35 Med., "since we were unable to take part in the New England intercollegiate contest for glee clubs, we have determined to put on a concert of our own."

Dancing will be from 8.30 to 12 o'clock, with the interpolated harmonies of the glee club and the double quartet presented at intervals throughout the evening. A ten-piece unit of Lechnyr's Vermonters will furnish the music for the dancers.

Tickets for the dance are one dollar a couple. F. P. Colburn '34 is the student director who will lead the glee club in its numbers, but the double quartet will be unassisted by a director. The program includes three of the songs which were intended to be sung at the contest in Boston, while the double quartet will give the numbers sung at the first glee club concert. The program follows:

Glee Club

"Fight"—Finnish student song arranged by Faltin.
"Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming"—Praetorius.
"Dance of the Gnomes"—MacDowell.
"Fain Would I Change That Note"—Vaughn Williams.

Double Quartet

Sea Chanteys—"Eight Bells," "Away Rio," "Old Man Noah."
Old English Songs—"In Praise of Milk," "Nottingham Ale."

CYNIC SURVEY SHOWS RUSHING SYSTEM OF CAMPUS SORORITIES IS UNPOPULAR

Criticism Centers Chiefly About Belief That Rushing Period is Too Long and Strenuous—Say Final Parties Must be Made Simpler

LOIS HARRINGTON '32, president of Pan-Hellenic who says a meeting will soon be called to remedy rushing problems.

CHANGE NEEDED SOON

Pan Hellenic President Says Meeting Will be Called Soon to Decide Upon What Can be Done to Remedy Rushing Problems

Results of a CYNIC investigation conducted during the past week indicate a marked trend toward adverse criticism of present methods of rushing by Greek letter sororities on the campus. Opinions were solicited from fraternity and non-fraternity students, faculty members and organization heads.

Rushing Period a Strain

Criticisms center chiefly about the belief that the rushing period is too long and for that reason is a strain both on fraternity women and rushees. The consensus of opinion concerning the final rushing parties is that they must be made simpler. That the last event is the needed climax of rushing is agreed by all, and each group denies that it would be wise to do away with the concluding entertainment of rushees, but the belief is prevalent that some reorganization will be necessary in the near future.

"It is entirely too prolonged," is the opinion of Lillian Mount '32 president of Women's Student Union, in speaking of the three week period now in vogue. "However," Miss Mount goes on to say, "it still remains that open houses are important in order that all freshmen may have an equal opportunity to acquaint themselves with any of the fraternities in which they are interested; in a similar matter the teas are important because at those events the fraternity women may select those freshmen in whom they are interested."

Causes Drop in Grades

"There is always a perceptible drop in the grades of women during the rushing season," is the assertion of numerous professors. "Because of the neglect of studies at this time, something should be done to change the present system of rushing," the instructors further report.

"The job of rushing is made entirely too intense," is the comment of a faculty member, when questioned concerning the difficulties of fraternity rushing.

Preferential System Favored

Student opinion concerning the method of issuance of bids is almost unanimously in favor of the preferential system, the CYNIC research reveals. With but few exceptions the freshmen accept the mode of choosing their sorority affiliation as the best possible. "It is the only way

(Continued on page 2)

COMBINED GLEE CLUBS WILL PRESENT OPERA AT STRONG ON APRIL 14

Tryouts for "Casi Fan Tutte" Cast in Progress Under Music Department's Supervision

The combined men and women's glee clubs will present the opera "Casi Fan Tutte" by W. A. Mozart, April 14, at the Strong Theatre. According to a statement recently issued by Professor Bennett of the Music Department, the cast has not been selected, although tryouts are now in progress.

The opera-farce "Casi Fan Tutte" or "The School for Lovers," was first produced at Vienna, in 1790. The music was composed by W. A. Mozart and the English version of the words was translated and adapted from the original Italian by Rev. Marmaduke E. Brawne.

The Characters

Fiordiligi, Dorabella	sisters, ladies of Ferrara	Soprano, Mezzo-Soprano

Despina, their waiting maid ..... Soprano
Ferando, an officer in love with Dorabella ..... Tenor Guglielmo, an officer in love with Fiordiligi ..... Bass
Don Alfonso, an old philosopher ..... Baritone
Soldiers, Servants, Musicians, Boatmen and Wedding Guests.

The Story

The scene of the opera is laid at Naples. The officers have been singing the praises of their mistresses, and are induced by the sneers of Don Alfonso (a confirmed doubter of women's fidelity) to lay a wager that Fiordiligi and Dorabella will stand any test of their constancy. Don Alfonso is resolved to teach them a lesson or he binds them to his implicit commands for two days. He then informs the ladies that their lovers are suddenly called to war and witnesses their tearful parting and hears them vowing eternal constancy. The lovers have just departed when Don Alfonso, with the help of Despina, the maid, brings them back disguised as foreigners to their mistresses. They make violent love and, being rejected, pretend to poison themselves. Apparently they are in the agonies of death when Despina, disguised as a doctor, restores them by her powers of mesmerism.

Act Two

In act two they follow up the impression they have made on the ladies' companion and encourage [illegible] and presents Ferrando's picture as a remembrance of her to the disguised Guglielmo. Finally Fiordiligi yields

(Continued on page 4)

DREW CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF CLASSICAL SOCIETY

Eta Sigma Phi Elects Boyd, Vice-president, Carleton, Secretary, and Wilson, Treasurer

Fraser B. Drew '33, of Randolph was elected president of Eta Sigma Phi at the meeting of the honorary classical society last Thursday night. Sylvia V. Boyd '33, of West Newton, Mass. was chosen vice-president; Natalie E. Carleton '33, of Burlington, secretary; and Hugh C. Wilson '34, of Windsor, treasurer.

Officers Installed

Following the election, the new officers were installed by the outgoing president, Fred W. Hoffmeister '32. A short business meeting was held during which candidates for admittance to the society at the next meeting were chosen. The first meeting of the month will be held at the home of Prof. John T. Metcalf of the psychology department at a date to be later announced. Prof. James E. Pooley of the Greek department will be the speaker of the evening.

The newly elected officers of Eta Sigma Phi are all active on the campus. Drew is a member of Lambda Iota Mu, Boyd of Alpha Xi Delta and Wilson of Delta Psi. Miss Carleton is an independent.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

Ten Timely Topics

By Tara Tantara Tiro

STAFF PREPARING PURPLISH PICADOR

Prize Ticket Offered for Funny Features

CYNIC SURVEY SHOWS SYSTEM UNPOPULAR

(Continued from page 1)

Question of Grades

Propose Combined Meeting

Bits of Bunk

World Sages Endorse College Education

Loyalty

BAILEY RECEIVES LETTER ABOUT LAW SCHOLARSHIP

The name of Sophie Levin '33, should be included on the Dean's list of those having a B average.

Students Live in French At McGill Summer School

For the last ten years a steadily increasing number of students from the states and Canada, of both sexes and all ages (last year's summer student was seventy-two and the junior sixteen) have flocked to McGill University in Montreal the heart of French Canada to attend the four weeks residential summer course conducted by the McGill department of French under the direction of Prof. René de Roulet, Agrege es Lettres, assisted by a staff of exclusively Old Country French professors. The idea of actually living in French for the duration of the course has proved highly practical in Montreal where French theatres cinemas, restaurants, churches, newspapers and magazines all contribute to the reality of the experience.

Courses include elementary, intermediate and advanced classes, and certificates are awarded to those who pass the final examinations with success, or college credit may be obtained on graduate degrees. Students are pledged to speak French exclusively throughout the course.

The programme of studies in additional to the usual courses include special classes in phonetics and diction, supervised conversation groups, lectures on the modern French novel drama, and illustrated lectures on the History of French Art.

Dramatic performances are organized for recreational hours comprising the performance of French plays. French musical entertainments, weekly dances, sightseeing tours and visits to explore the romantic past of New France, visits to art collections and sports for the athletically inclined, the Royal Victoria College the counterpart of the school standing in its own grounds has its own tennis courts.

Women students are lodged in the Royal Victoria College and new wing, the men in Strathcona Hall.

COLLEGE HUMOR

For Better or Worse

Her Father: You are going to marry that impudent little fellow, Percy! Why, you used to say you would never marry a man less than six feet high.

Daughter: Oh I know, Dad! But I decided to take off twenty percent for [illegible]

Mutual

Sweet Daughter: Father, I'd like to go somewhere a whole day without once scolding or preaching you.

Wise Dad: You have my consent, child.

You can always tell a freshman
By his look and modest air
You can always tell a sophomore
By the way he combs his hair;
You can always tell a senior
By his theories and such;
You can always tell a senior
But you can't tell him much.

—Grinnell

I hear he made the swimming team
Oh, the other boys helped a little.
—Exeter

Being Collegiate

A class in "How to give [illegible] has been included in the curriculum at Indiana. It is said the graduates by asking [illegible] they would say no to a [illegible] a lie.

At Syracuse University a [illegible] and she's ever [illegible] he suggested it, they [illegible] must say one [illegible] read another.

Or as the geographies [illegible] Darling & Sapp [illegible] New [illegible] Chinese.

Harvard University [illegible] lectures, 1,500 of which are [illegible] and the total student [illegible] for 7,905.

In 1926 an average [illegible] University of Minnesota [illegible] seventeen cents.

Darts out at thirty-four [illegible] try for repeal of dry [illegible] endorsed by the Tar Heel [illegible] Carolina U.

Ad in Morrill Dial: [illegible] suggested gentleman who [illegible] red velvet beret from the [illegible] Ash Wednesday and wore it [illegible] night while studying pieces [illegible] the Dial's office.

Here's to the greatest [illegible] times: Lady Godiva [illegible] had on a horse.

"Hush dear" said the mother [illegible] the sandman is coming."

"O K with me ma," said the more modern child, "slip me a [illegible] won't tell dad."

Nothing has been dented [illegible] stocking without a leg.

"By the way, do you take [illegible] apart when you ask him for [illegible] on your allowance?"

I don't have to, he invariably [illegible] pieces when I mention it.

Students at North Carolina [illegible] preparing to enter into the N[illegible] ble tournament. It is said [illegible] cleaners expect more business.

According to the custom [illegible] last spring, all track officials [illegible] gheny College wear tuxedos [illegible] officiating.

One of the "hard-boiled" professors [illegible] M. I. T. who has the reputation [illegible] pecting his students to [illegible] machinery off-hand, was caught [illegible] to figure out the workings of [illegible] marksmanship gadget in a [illegible] It took him half an hour [illegible] drop the blame thing.

Johns Hopkins U. is going [illegible] survey of the "slanguage" of [illegible] A list and the meanings will be [illegible] and compared to the words used [illegible] colleges.

Northwestern U. Students [illegible] tables on their professors and [illegible] what they thought of them. [illegible] of students cast ballots on "the [illegible] like most," and "the course [illegible] most." In addition they were [illegible] to grade each subject and the [illegible] in charge.

Some of McGill boxers were [illegible] fied recently when it appeared [illegible] were too heavy. The scales [illegible] are too antiquated.

West Virginia's Athenaeum [illegible] out that in a news reel [illegible] West Virginia theater which [illegible] the Notre Dame football [illegible] dressing room between halves [illegible] intelligible words spoken by [illegible] ty college men were [illegible] "Yeah."

It's great being a [illegible] sure. Nothing to do but [illegible] to fill up space. Think [illegible] be silent. Gotta save all [illegible] finals and try to get [illegible] please do not note. [illegible] Exam.

"One of the most common [illegible] deafness is trouble in the [illegible] says a doctor. We are thankful [illegible] only two.

A student in the University [illegible] nesota School of Law [illegible] through school by working [illegible] an undertaking established [illegible] probably dead tired every [illegible].

Dean Phillip A. Parson [illegible] versity of Oregon isn't [illegible] modern youth is wild. It's [illegible] it isn't wilder than it is.

One way to waste your [illegible] dream and bewail the time [illegible] ready wasted.

Strange but the average [illegible] himself and his life [illegible] all others returns at [illegible]

SPORTS NEWS

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON WINS FINAL FRAT GAME FROM KAPPA SIGMA TEAM

Winners Awarded Key and Serpent Trophy—Score 25-20 at End of Game—Bowers and Mulcahy Star

Alpha Epsilon five, playand well coordinated basketthe hard-fighting Kappa a 25-20 score in the the interfraternity bassent last Saturday after By virtue of this gains possession of the ent trophy which the won last year.

fast and hard fought, S A E's seemed to have their own way dur- leading 18-13 at the However, the Kappa Sigs, re- ten minutes rest, came last-half rally that almost up to the victors. Mul- scorer with 10 points, Ramon, the other Violet for- scored 6 points, he was in ponsible for the Sig Larry Bowers led the for the Kappa Sigs with 9

Spectators' Interest Keen

quite a lot of feeling dis- beginning of the game on the onlookers. Bowers a foul for the opening score, following up Ramon's the lead to the S. A. E.'s the score with a foul, and Mulcahy advanced it two with difficult tosses. Ken a foul and Ramon, a floor the score in S. A. E.'s were not headed again Kappa Sigs. The players were and rough, seeming to for- the game was being played with twenty-minute Werner and also Calcagni, on from Massucco, each two points with step Ramon, completely guarded, the most spectacular shot overhead, backward and arm. When the score was Sigma took time out and substitutions, but Massucco made and Mulcahy popped two, margin to 17-5. The Kappa was inaccurate and the offense was clicking. Mulcurred a foul and then Bowand Joe Delfausse put on rally for the Kappa Sigs minutes of the first half. 18-13 looked tired as they came the second half, but the speed lacked. During part of the boys went wild and seemed what game they were play- passes were hurled and crashed head-on into bleachers. After a min- he continued playing, Ken Smith opened the scor- a couple of fouls and Cal- a floor shot from about Joe Sowka followed suit. Sigs were pressing the Sowka made a foul, Kappa Sigma within two S A E.'s. Ramon and who dribbled half the court, raised the ante a leaving the score 22-20. and the game grew tense. finally cinched the game shot and a foul. During the last minutes there was much frantic rushing around and many missed shots, and the game ended characteristically with half the players piled up on the ball in mid-court.

S. A. E. 24—Phi Sigma Delta 22

In the best game of the tournament to date the Sig Alphs barely nosed out a fighting Phi Sig team by the close tally of 24-22. The game was very fast and rough. "Chunk" Ramon and "Petit" Mulcahy starred for the victors. "Chunk" had the best floor work of the game. He opened the scoring by a pretty basket from out in the center of the floor, and later on in the contest he made a beautiful one-hand shot from around foul circle after having pivoted. The man who perhaps did the most for the Phi Sig team and certainly excelled in all departments of the game was Barney Goldberg, who in all probability should make the all-tournament team. His playing was fine and certainly interesting to watch.

Phi Sig had the lead during most of the game, and were barely ahead in the final minute of play. With the score tied 22-22 a jump ball was called by Referee O'Halloran, and a double foul was called for pushing and hipping. Lazarus protested and the referee called a technical foul on him. The two shots gave S. A. E. the game and the right to enter the finals against Kappa Sigma.

Kappa Sigma 30—Zeta Chi 14

In a fast and interesting contest the Kappa Sigs took over Zeta Chi by the score of 30-14. The game was marked by fast, hard passing, fine teamwork, and a marked absence of spectacular shots. The Kappa Sigs displayed by far the best offensive system of any team in the tournament to date. They also had a tight defense, which effectively bottled up the fighting Zeta Chi forwards. Kappa Sigma played well as a unit, and only Joe Delfaussee stood out for his floor work and shooting. Myers made some pretty shots, but he also missed several tries. The score was 14-4 at half time.

Freshman rules at M. I. T. require that first-year men run at least one errand an evening.

CAT'S MEOW

—SPORTING EDITOR—

The defeat which Middlebury handed the Catamounts Thursday night was somewhat unexpected. In fact many fans are still talking about it.

Sweet and MacKenzie had "on" nights as they did in the previous contest with the Cats. In addition Captain Ashdown stole the entire show scoring fourteen points, and playing a strong floor game.

In decided contrast, the Green and Gold appeared way off form especially during the last half, when their efforts to stem the Blue and White tide went for naught.

As in previous games, Coach Burke's charges started off strong and as usual led at half time, but to date the Catamounts have not established a reputation for being strong finishers.

The play-off with St. Mikes sheduled for tomorrow night should in any event prove close.

Tupper and Taft who usually do most of the scoring for the Green and Gold, and Keefe and Tierney for the Hilltoppers will bear watching.

CATS MEET ST. MIKES IN PLAY-OFF WEDNESDAY NIGHT AT AUDITORIUM

Local Championship to be Decided—Game Starts at 8.30—Cats Have the Edge

The local collegiate basketball championship will be decided tomorrow evening when the Catamounts play St. Michael's a post season playoff.

In the first regular scheduled meeting of the two teams at the gym, the Green and Gold triumphed 29-19 by virtue of a brilliant rally in the closing moments of the contest. The Hilltoppers came back strong to grab off the second meeting by a 22-11 count on the Winooski Park surface.

According to comparative scores the Catamounts have a slight edge, although their rivals have played a more consistent brand of basketball throughout the season. In any event the game should prove to be very interesting, and a large crowd is expected as both clubs have a large local following.

The game is scheduled to start at 8.30 p.m. with Hansner and Sheridan, both popular officials handling the contest.

Graduate Manager Sabin Abell wishes to call attention to the fact that the Student Athletic Tax Book Tickets will not be good for admission to the game, and that student tickets may be purchased for fifty cents.

Probable starting line-ups:

VERMONT	ST. MICHAEL'S
Tupper, r.f.	r. f., Keefe
Pires, l.f.	l.f., Ruggerio
Morgan, c.	c., Maynes
Winant, r.g.	r.g., Tierney
Beckley, l.g.	l.g., Meade

DAIGLE CAPTURES TWO FIRSTS IN TOURNMENT

Winter Sports Carnival Near Completion With A. T. O. Gaining in Race

In the three winter sports events that were run off last Wednesday afternoon Alpha Tau Omega captured two firsts, Zeta Chi, one first and two second places, Sigma Nu, one second and two third places, and Phi Delta Theta, one third place.

The results of the events and entries:

220-yard Snowshoe Dash

1. N. E. Daigle '34, first — Alpha Tau Omega
2. A. A. Hutchins '35, second — Zeta Chi
3. S. B. Barker '32, third — Sigma Nu
4. G. O. Ricker '34 — Zeta Chi
5. R. H. Wescott '35 — Sigma Nu

Time: 52⅕ seconds.

880-yard Snowshoe Dash

1. N. E. Daigle '34, first — Alpha Tau Omega
2. A. A. Hutchins '35, second — Zeta Chi
3. S. B. Barker '32, third — Sigma Nu
4. G. O. Ricker '34 — Zeta Chi
5. R. H. Wescott '35 — Sigma Nu

Time: 2.54⅘ minutes.

Cross-country Ski Race

1. S. A. Dutton '34, first — Zeta Chi
2. H. C. Abbott '35 second — Sigma Nu
3. J. F. Syme, Jr. '35, third — Phi Delta Theta
4. N. H. Myers '34 — Zeta Chi
5. T. M. Reeves '35 — Sigma Nu
6. R. H. Wescott '35 — Sigma Nu
7. S. H. Pearson '35 — Alpha Tau Omega

Time: 21.56 minutes

NOTICE

All sophomores wishing to scrub track report at the gym to Asst. Mgr. F. P. Kenyon, C. T. Kilburn and G. M. McKenzie.

T. W. MARVIN, Manager.

The sophomore class team challenges any team in its class to play games against them. Any team interested, please call C. J. Libby, manager, 2932.

Student tickets will not be good for the play-off game between St. Michael's and Vermont on March 2.

The statue of "The Christian Student" which stands on Princeton campus was recently redecorated with a coat of bright orange paint. The artist to date have not been apprehended.

Vermont Wins and Loses in Two Interesting Contests

Middlebury Takes Over Catamounts 33-32—While Green and Gold Humbles New Hampshire Boys 30-26—Scheduled Games Completed

FROSH WIN OVER CLARK SCHOOL BUT LOSE TO DARTMOUTH YEARLINGS

Season Very Successful—Palmer, Skodinski and Schmarr Lead Rest of Team in Tallies

The University of Vermont freshman team divided their bill on their trip to Hanover, N. H., wining from Clark School by a 36-25 score and losing by an overwhelming score to the Dartmouth freshman team, 41-10. Notwithstanding the defeat by the Dartmouth five, the frosh have completed an exceedingly successful season having won seven games and lost two.

The Green and Gold men had a stiff battle with the Clark School quintet winning out in a close battle in the second half. The first period found the frosh trailing 7-2 and rather discouraged. Then the yearling outfit staged a comeback and put the score up to 12-15 in Clark School's favor.

The second half found the Vermont offensive functioning as smoothly as it did in the National Life game. The team fairly blazed a trail to the basket. Skodinski scored five baskets in this hectic half. His scoring was a feature of the rallying offensive that overpowered the Hanover team led by Meagher and Cross. Vermont scored twelve field goals to Clark School's five baskets in the latter half.

The score:

VERMONT

	g	f	pts
Meligonis, r.f.	3	0	6
Rock, l.f.	1	0	2
Goldberg, l.f.	2	0	4
Skodinski, c.	6	0	12
Palmer, r.g.	4	3	11
Delfausse, l.g.	0	1	1
Totals	16	4	36

CLARK SCHOOL

	g	f	pts
Cross, l.g.	4	0	8
Bowes, r.g.	0	0	0
Mahoney, c.	2	0	4
Messina, l.f.	4	3	11
Nicholson, r.f.	1	0	2
Totals	11	3	25

Frosh Trail Dartmouth

In Saturday night's game, the Dartmouth '35 quintet undefeated to date took the plugging Vermont '35 men over the ropes by the overwhelming score of 41-10. In the worst defeat of the season for the yearling team, the Dartmouth men were held to a comparatively close score when they played the Vermont five.

None of the Green and Gold players could break loose with the sterling quality defense provided by the Indian five. Skodinski alone was fortunate enough to add two ringers to his teams score. Bon-

(Continued on page 4)

GRANT PLAYS CLASSY BASKETBALL FOR CATS

The University of Vermont quintet clicked in true fashion last Saturday evening to defeat a strong, fast basketball team from New Hampshire State College. The score was 30-26 at the end of the game in favor of the Catamount basketeers. The style of game was in direct contrast to the game against Middlebury, played last Thursday. The floor work was speedy throughout the entire game. Except for the first part of the first half Vermont outplayed the men from Durham, N. H.

The game opened with New Hampshire scoring almost immediately. The Blue court five used a fast breaking offensive which completely baffled Vermont for the first ten minutes. The State men used a blocking off play that was very successful in scoring, but once the Green and Gold men caught on to the trick they followed them around more closely.

New Hampshire rang up a 12-4 score before Vermont even got going. Things looked very discouraging for the Burlington team. However, the half ended almost before either team knew where they were at. At this time Vermont had brought the score up to 16-14. The starting combination of Grant, Winant, Morgan, Beckley and Pires began to go rather effectively. Taft and Tupper entered the game soon before the half had ended.

The second half opened up with New Hampshire continually on the defensive. The Green and Gold court team held the ball most of the time and scored a basket now and then. The score was up and tuck during the entire half. The Vermont men tied the score with a final splurge and from then to the end of the game they had things pretty much their own way.

"Bob" Grant, the man who has been waiting for nearly three years for the chance to play on the varsity basketball team, was the high point man of the evening. His floor work was very aiding to his team. Grant scored 13 points. Morgan and Taft did most of the following from the backboard. The Vermont players seemed to be in better condition than the men from New Hampshire.

Vermont won two out of three in one week, which is fairly good for the Catamount team. The men did not expect to win from New Hampshire and the victory will help their morale a little for the St. Michael's game tomorrow evening.

The score:

VERMONT

	g	f	pts
Grant, r.f.	5	3	13
Pires, l.f.	0	0	0
Tupper	2	1	5
Taft, l.f., l.g.	1	2	4
Morgan, c.	0	1	1
Beckley, r.g.	2	1	5
Winant, l.g.	0	2	2
	10	12	30

Custom Tailoring

And when we say Custom Tailoring we mean every garment cut, trimmed and made in our own shop from the finest imported woolens from the best mills in England, Scotland and Ireland.

You have the opportunity of seeing the woolens in the piece, careful and painstaking fitting before the garment is finished.

TURKS Burlington

156-158 College St.

Drop in and see the Newest Creation in

NECKWEAR

THE LATTICE CRAVAT

$1.00

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.

127 Church Street

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

V. C. A. Employment Bureau Active in Aiding Needy Students

More Than 250 Students Have Already Received Permanent Positions of Part-time Jobs After Applying at the "Y" Office

LE CERCLE LAFAYETTE TO MEET ON MARCH 4

French Club Changes Date for Social Meeting to be Held at Owl House COMBINED GLEE CLUBS WILL PRESENT OPERA

(Continued from page 1)

MRS. MURRAY JACOBY TO SPEAK THURSDAY

(Continued from page 1)

"HEDDA GABLER" TO HAVE 3RD AND 4TH SHOWING

FROSH WIN OVER CLARK LOSE TO DARTMOUTH

(Continued from page 1)

Summary of Season

TWELVE SENIORS FAIL TO WRITE REPORTS TO DATE

(Continued from page 1)

PLANS FOR I. R. MEETING NEARING COMPLETION

Is the Uniform Losing Its Lure?

VERMONT STUDENTS TO ENTER TRI-STATE CONTEST

(Continued from page 1)

Mr. Horace B. Eldred, director at the Fleming Museum, on "Birds" at the weekly Saturday morning lecture hour for children at the museum. In the morning the children gathered for the weekly story hour at 10.

FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL

Residential Summer School (co-educational) in the heart of French Canada. Old Country French staff. Only French spoken. Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced Courses. Certificate or College Credit. Excursions, entertainments, sight-seeing, etc.

Fee $140. Board and Tuition, June 30 to July 31. Write for circular to Secretary, Residential French Summer School

McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL, CANADA

Here, MEN, smoke a man's smoke

A PIPEFUL of good tobacco is distinctly a man's smoke. The women (long may they wave!) have taken over most of our masculine privileges. But pipe smoking still belongs to us.

The pipe is not for pretty girls.

In every walk of life you'll find that the men at the top are pipe smokers. And most college men agree that the pipe offers the rarest pleasures a man could ask of his smoking.

When you smoke a pipe, be sure you choose the tobacco that will give you the greatest enjoyment. In 42 out of 54 colleges Edgeworth is the favorite. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22nd St., Richmond, Va. Sample is free.

Here's the smoke for a man, a pipe and good tobacco

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

ALEX VERRET
111 CHURCH ST
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 2072

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
186 Main St. Burlington

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 811 or 411

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

"THESE RESTLESS HEADS"
and
"MARY'S NECK"
with
"THE FLAME OF DEVOTION"
and
"WOMEN (who) LIVE TOO LONG"
a
"MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION"
with
"THE STRANGE ADVENTURES OF JONATHAN DREW" are in the
LENDING LIBRARY
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 49 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1932 — NUMBER 39

awes to Speak on Crime and Prison Methods arden of Sing Sing Will Give inal Lecture in Universnty Series March 17

WILL BE IN GYMNASIUM

warden of Sing Sing expert in reformatory
ture on the social as-enforcement, crime, and the evening of Thurs-in the gymnasium. This ture in the current
be open to the public.
the lecture's choice of Prof. A. R. Gifford, head of the ecture committee states, "His ecides the conviction that average human beings, that the most effective way crime, and that capital
s to defeat its own aims."
ving as warden of Sing
1920 Mr Lawes has lectured social aspects of delin-crime, and has also written ks is the author of "Man's of Death," "Life and Death
Sing," and several monographs punishment, prisons, and last year Mr. Lawes was a delegate International Prison Congress at and in 1925 he was a representaprison conference in England.

later acted as president of the Association of America in 1922, ard of the American Prison in 1923. He was honorary the American League to Capital Punishment in the fol-year.

Lawes is at present a trustee
Mutual Welfare League of Sing and a member of the Na-
of the United States Feder-
He also belongs to the committee of the National Com-
Law Observance and Enement.

Mr Lawes began his career as a guard Prison, in New York, in and was transferred to Auburn the following year.
years he served as chief and clerk of the New York tory in Elmira. In 1914 overseer of New Hampton
New York City Reforma-superintendant of the re-
from 1915-20.
problems today are so
of crime and law en-comment of Professor speaks with greater and the criminal than

FRENCH CLUB TO HOLD MARCH MEETING TONIGHT

will hold its March o'clock tonight at the
After a short busi-
bers of the club will French. Caroline
on some phase of the Sorbonne, which will be held from
by Prof. and Mrs.
and Mrs. A. N.
and Mrs. R. F.
ittee in charge of the
Luther Beardsley '33,
Hunt '35, F. B. Drew
and W. D. White

LAMBDA IOTA HOLDS ANNUAL INITIATION

sorority held its formal
House on Monday
29, 1932. Eight fresh-were initiated.
alumni were present
The initiates are: Jose
Collier, Howard H.
Mass.; Lawrence
Carl B. Henning
Lloyd E. Lamere
Parmalee of Auburn,
Neumann of Niagara
Clinton White, Jr. of Norton R. Wilcox of

WINNOWINGS FROM THE MILL APPEARED MONDAY

Contains Short Stories, Essays, Poems, and Sketches by Alumni and Students

Containing short stories, essays, poems, and sketches by alumni and members of the student body, the second issue of Winnowings from the Mill, Vermont's literary magazine, made its appearance Monday, February 29.

"Thundering Hills" by Frances Frost '30, and "Promise of Heaven" by E. Fitzgerald '32 are features of the issue. These short stories tied for third place in last year's Tri-State Literary Contest.

Three short poems "Thoughts From a Hill," "Ghost of Spring" and "Meers Steille" are written by Gladys Lal Iamme '33. "Meers Stille" is translated from the German original by Goethe.

"Memories of a New England Childhood" is a short story by Margaret Wright '30. This selection placed second in the Tri-State Literary Contest last spring.

Featured in this number are several short poems by members of the freshman class, who were chosen as members of Bluestockings, women's literary society, through these contributions. The poems are "A Song" by Lois Whitcomb and "Songs for Late November" by Carolyn Cook.

Concluding articles in this month's magazine are "My Dear," a letter, by Mary Morris '32, and "So This is This" an essay by Marguerite Dunsmore '33. "Blue Ship" by Ruth Erwin '34, is an essay describing a tea shop on the Boston wharf.

DELEGATES TO MODEL ASSEMBLY LEAVE WED.

Vermont delegates to the Model League Assembly left Wednesday for Providence, R. I. They are J. E. Bigelow '33, P. J. LaCross '32, G. Patterson '34, R. McCuin '34, I. Fleischman '32, and S. N. Spiller '33. The conference is being held at Brown University from March 3 to 5. It is conducted in a manner similar to the Geneva Peace Conference and, begins on the same day.

On Thursday evening the delegates will attend the International Relations Club banquet at Pembroke Hall. Plans for an annual regional International Relations Clubs meeting will be discussed. Friday evening a formal reception dance at Brown University will be held for all the delegates to the Assembly.

The Assembly will open with an address by the president of the council. This is followed by an address by President Barbour of Brown University. The various committees will report and the new president will be elected. An examination of the agendum is held and after its adoption the various items are given to the committees.

The resolutions which will be discussed are: Budgetary limitation, a resolution to the effect that an International Air Force be established, a resolution concerning effectives and formation of a permanent disarmament committee.

The Vermont delegation will officially uphold the viewpoint of the Dominican Republic and Australia. They are prepared to discuss the attitudes of some of the leading nations in regard to the questions of the present world economic situation, disarmament, provision of the Versailles Treaty with regard to the Polish Corridor, and the Manchuria situation.

A long discussion will involve the question of compulsory military training.

ABYSSINIA IS SUBJECT OF JACOBY LECTURE

"Abyssinia" and the people and customs of the country, was the subject of the lecture given by Mrs. H. Murray Jacoby Thursday evening in the Fleming Museum.

Motion pictures of the coronation of Haille Sellassee, the emperor of Abyssinia, were a feature of the evening. The lecturer also accompanied her talk with a display of native paintings.

Mrs. Jacoby procured her collection of pictures and illustrations on an expedition into Africa with her husband, the special United States Envoy at the coronation of the Abyssinian emperor.

The British Colonial office has risen in defense of polygamy in its African colonies on the grounds that the natives are happier when allowed to follow their own customs.

BISHOP DALLAS WILL BE VESPERS SPEAKER SUNDAY

Bishop John T. Dallas of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New Hampshire will be the speaker at the vesper services Sunday, March 6, at four o'clock in the Ira Allen Chapel.

The vespers topic will not be announced until the date of the services, according to a statement by President Bailey.

Bishop Dallas has spoken at Vermont on several occasions. In 1929 and 1930 he led vesper services and in 1928 was a commencement speaker, giving the Baccalaureate address in the Chapel.

PROF. H. G. BENNETT, who will direct the music of the "School for Lovers" to be presented on April 15.

LIEGE MUSICAL QUARTET WILL PRESENT PROGRAM

Henry Koch, Joseph Beck, Jean Rogister, and Lydia R. Schor Will Entertain

BENNETT GIVES PREVIOUS LECTURE ON TUESDAY

Henry Koch, violinist, Joseph Beck, violinist, Jean Rogister, violinist and Lydia Rogister Schor, cellist, member of the Liege Quartet of Belgium, will present a musical program on Wednesday evening, March 9, in the Fleming Museum. The entertainment is sponsored by the music department and students and faculty are invited to attend.

A lecture will be held previous to the concert by Prof. H. G. Bennett on some of the music to be played. It will be held on Tuesday evening, March 8, at 8:15 in the Music Building on 85 South Prospect Street. "Since many people enjoy elaborate compositions more if they have previously analyzed them," states Professor Bennett, "a few of the more complicated numbers on the program will be taken up." The lecture will be open to all holders of concert tickets.

In speaking of the nature of the work which will be presented, Mr. Bennett states that the program will be of the type usually given in large cities or educational institutions, including a major work by Beethoven and some modern selections.

All four members of the concert quartet belong to the same school, the Conservatoire Royal of Liege, from which come the artists Vieuxtemps and Cesar Franck. The four musicians have been trained individually and possess numerous distinctions.

In praise of the quartet's work K. Schneider the critic, writes "The executive talent of the four instrumentalists places the 'Quatuor de Liege' among the best European groups of the kind."

The New York Times of February comments, "The four musicians prove to be vigorous players. Their interpretations are sympathetic, authoritative, and sincerely artistic in works of the classic, romantic, and modern periods."

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at the price of $1.00. A reduced rate of 50c will be allowed for students and faculty. Married members of the faculty may purchase two tickets at 50c each. Student tickets will be on sale at the University store in the Old Mill, beginning today. There will be no reserved seats, and the 50c student tickets will be purchasable only in advance. Only $1.00 seats will be available on the night of the concert.

CAST OF CASI FAN TUTTE IS ANNOUNCED TODAY

The Misses Putnam, Perry and Odell, Jenks, Wilcox, and Rand Will Take Leading Parts

Marilla Putnam '32, soprano will take part of "Fiordiligi." Charlotte Odell '33 mezzo-soprano, will be Dorabella, D. W. Jenks, bass, will act as Guglielmo, and A. R. Wilcox '35, tenor will appear as Ferranda, in "Casi Fan Tutte," the two-act opera which will be presented by the combined men's and women's glee clubs on April 14 in the Strong Theater.

The character of Don Alfonso will be taken by F. B. Rand '33, baritone and the role of Despina will be presented by Priscilla Perry '33 soprano. Announcement of the members of the cast was made today by Professors H. G. Bennett who will direct the music and J. L. Metcalf who will act as coach of dialogue. Selections were made on the basis of tryouts held this week in the music building.

Overture music and accompaniment for the selections of "The School for Lovers" will be rendered by the University orchestra. The parts of soldiers, servants, musicians, boatmen, and wedding guests will be taken by members of the glee clubs.

Miss Putnam has had experience in several college operas. She appeared in "Trial by Jury" as the "plaintiff," and took the character of "Ruth" in "Pirates of Penzance." Priscilla Perry carried the part of Kate in "Pirates of Penzance" last year.

Jenks, Rand, and Wilcox are active members of the musical clubs. Jenks and Rand appeared as policemen in "Pirates of Penzance."

ALLIANCE FRANCAISE PRESENTS MR. MARTINO

Will Talk on "Landscapes in Algeria"—Lecture to be Illustrated by Lantern Slides

Pierre Martino, lecturer, teacher, and literary critic, will be presented by l'Alliance Française on Friday evening, March 11 in the Fleming Museum, on the subject of "Landscapes in Algeria." The talk will be illustrated with lantern slides and films. This is the sixth in a series of eight lectures sponsored by the French society.

Mr. Martino is an exchange professor at Harvard and a member of a staff of literary reviews. He has written several books about the French writers of the Napoleonic and later literary periods.

The speaker resided in Algeria for twelve years. He is the dean of the faculty at the University of Algiers, and a graduate of "l'Ecole Normale Superiore."

As an incentive to students to attend the lectures presented, and to derive benefit from them, l'Alliance is offering a prize of twenty-five dollars to any French student at the University of Vermont who will most successfully pass a written examination on lectures, given by l'Alliance. In addition to the written examination the three or four students who have attained the highest marks in it may also take an oral examination covering the lectures.

Monsieur John Champenois, the last lecturer presented by l'Alliance has offered a prize of a set of books to the man who does the most proficient work in French at the University.

ETA SIGMA PHI TO HOLD INITIATION MEETING TUES.

Iota chapter of Eta Sigma Phi will hold its first meeting of the month Tuesday evening, March 8 at 8 o'clock at the home of Prof. John T. Metcalf of the psychology department at 45 Kingsland Terrace.

Two new members, Ida Saiger '34 of Burlington, and Helen Bellows '35 of Newport, will be initiated.

The program of the evening will be in charge of Sylvia A. Boyd '33, the newly elected vice-president and will consist in part of selections from the "Birds" of Aristophanes, which will be read in translation by members of the fraternity.

"G. K. Chesterton says there are only three things in the world that women do not understand and they are liberty, equality, and fraternity." If Mr. Chesterton would visit the Green Mountain University, he would see the women's lack of understanding fraternities.

Large Number on Engineer's Honor Roll

Dean Eckhard Issues Newly Complied List Including Thirty-Three Percent of Students

SENIOR CLASS LEADS WITH FIFTEEN MEN

The College of Engineering list of students who have attained high marks for the past semester was released last Tuesday by Dean G. F. Eckhard. Nine students have attained an average above 90 percent, fifteen men have marks between 85 and 90 percent and the remaining eighteen have ranks above 80 percent. Thirty-three percent of the members of the Engineering College are on the newly compiled list.

As is usually the case the senior class has the largest number of representatives on the list. Nearly half the men of the engineering class of 1932 are on the honor roll. The sophomores have eight men on the list which is exceptional since the second year in the engineering course is the hardest one. The freshmen and the juniors follow in close order after the seniors and sophomores.

The List

90% Average

1932

R. W. Cobb, P. Demase, A. O. Eaton.

1933

O. O. Sunderland

1934

R. H. Bingham, D. W. Jenks, G. W. Patterson

1935

J. M. Libby, M. Merchant.

85% Average

1932

B. D. Dimon, R. A. Hyde, F. L. Meeham, C. H. Wheeler, W. Young.

1933

W. E. Shelc, E. E. Whitney, E. F. Williams.

1934

J. J. Delfausse, M. D. Howe, D. C. Whitney.

1935

D. E. Behringer, D. A. Giardi, M. Patch, F. W. Squires.

80% Average

1932

B. G. Boyles, G. W. Colby, J. J. La Marche, E. J. Mercier, K. Ricketson, M. Tomassetti, P. E. Westin.

1933

A. W. Baldwin, E. S. Judkins, R. C. Macomber.

1934

W. W. Colburn, C. J. Libby, W. A. Ross, E. H. Spear.

1935

A. G. Buxton, G. W. Hading, R. G. Stiles, A. L. Williams.

"CROSS SHADOWS OF WORLD PERSONALITIES" WILL BE I. R. TOPIC

"Cross Shadows of World Personalities" has been accepted as the theme for the Student International Relations Conference which will be held at the Twentieth Century Club in Boston on April 15, 16 and 17.

The convention (a sequel to the Student Disarmament Conference) held last December will open on April 15 and will consist of two sessions. In each session [illegible] will be discussed. Also the needs of each [illegible]. One hour will be given to the speakers and an hour allotted to student questions and discussion.

Jessup Cooper of Radcliffe will act as the student chairman. Features of the conference include a discussion of world and economics, a discussion of armament and security, the Far eastern situation and the international problem of Latin America. The Twentieth Century [illegible] on April 16 comprise additional features of the conference.

Speakers for the conference will be invited from a group including Charles Jefferson, Norman Thomas, Rabbi Harry Levi, Samuel Guy Inman, Lucius Porter, John Nevin Sayre, Sherwood Eddy, Augustus O. Thomas, Newton D. Baker, Harry Emerson Fosdick and Anderson Houghton.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

Campus Comment

at the last town meeting, voted four ... of $80 each for its ... the faculty's desire to keep them ... preparation of a scheme of exercises to ... grotesque phraseology of the author's conclusion put the whole article beyond the ... security of ... takes upon ... attacking two members of a department of the University in suggesting that ... grammar ... fundamental inadequa... to be found in the pages of ...

The contributor quoted adopts the attitude that the CYNIC should be free from criticism of the sort even suggests that ... nothing but praises for the much ... this is forthcoming ... the staff will be hurt ... no longer.

I would, at this point, suggest that ... staff glance through ... issues of the CYNIC ... appeared since last September. The grammatical inaccuracies are ...

In the issue for October 2 there appeared the beautiful sentence which cries out for correct at last translation: "To those ... who come here under the impression that the cap must be worn ... the rule will be enforced we will ... This appeared in an editorial. Admittedly, there is a majestic incoherence about it but at first, a second and ... third reading fails to gather from ... meaning.

Other sentences will be listed without comment.

In the issue for October 6, 1931: "We strongly advise the freshman to affiliate himself with a group whose spirit of ... is of the highest, whose members are well known on campus and which is generally respected."

October 27, 1931: The CYNIC recognizes it as unquestionably as defunct and ... beginning to live by shady means."

October 30, 1931: "Secondly it must be ... that a similar study was made ... years ago by a student and faculty group ... failed in its duties because the ... were not keenly felt." In that same ... keener than the need for a ... gymnasium is the Student Activities ... building the fund for which has ... steadily during the past five years ... student and alumni contributions."

November 3, 1931: "More and more ... colleges realizing that to provide an adequate training, a student must have a well-rounded, well-balanced education."

... sentences of ... and semester ... attacks on ... Cora Landers ... ment instructor ... regrets ... most amusing.

In the ... paragraph ... following sentence ... seems to recommend ... literary production ... The paragraph ... member of the Cynic staff ... literary and ... ing sees the persons ... participate in "fast ... competitions is chosen ... in the CYNIC. The ... member of classical ... could miss the pleasure ...

In that same paragraph ... subject. Two ... twenty Protestants ... Professors Peach ... Sam Coates ... a double team ... would be interesting ... double team.

In the fifth paragraph ... covered this sentence ... integrate and campaigns ... nations fall and the best ... race and men gang ... sentence is not only grammatical ... but it is rhetorically ...

In the same issue appears the following inaccuracies. The ... ning reports as the ... seniors majoring in English ... curriculum is seventeen ... year. They also confused ... of past tri-state contests.

In the issue of Friday, ... 1932, the CYNIC in a heading ... Vermont women's debating team ... affirmative of a question and ... gave them in negative.

Last semester they published ... date for the handing in of ... and in one issue published ... on fraternities under the ... impression that one of them ... irony vein was intended as a ... The contrast between the ... the heads supplied by the ... was fairly indicative of the ... polity with which they have ... fact, of grammar, and ... rhetoric.

In conclusion may I point ... this listing of mistakes in recent ... the CYNIC I have listed no ... the defense of which they may bring ... time-worn phrase: "A typographical error." If the CYNIC really ... be taken more seriously it should ... studied attempt to overcome ... deficiencies rather than an attempt ... persuade the faculty and students ... from justifiable criticism.

EDWARD J. ...

LOST AND FOUND

Lost: A military cap ... 2736.

Lost: A pair of men's ... leather gloves. Finder ... 3505-R or 1523-J.

Tau Kappa Alpha key ... noon with name on reverse ... turn to Roberta F. Powers, 21 ... Terrace.

Six women fainted from ... Lawrence Tibbett sang at ... in Baltimore.

Ten Timely Topics

TARA LANTARA THIRD

... engineers' membership and office holding, we must abolish the privileges themselves, but no alternative suggests itself. The ... of the debate club will bear ...

... organization is not essential to ... of a group is amply demonstrated by the recently organized Group Theatre, whose successful opening ... brought them to the stage ... after an unusually successful ... Theatre, which was founded ... by a group of students ... Group Theatre is not ... but it is ... that the ... Theatre's success ... by women. How ... the ... and the Student ... of the women ...

... of the past few ... activities ... have undoubtedly proved enlightening ... to the writers. It is ... that should ... have been undertaken ... of us ... We suggest ... ... to ... life with a ... interesting ... proportion of ... from a ... Institute. In ... with ... the University has ... of bringing ... to ... the University will ... Such an ... would clear up many of the ... that are the subject ...

... effect has the depression had on ... students at the beginning ... have expressed that some ... are living ... and ... college to avoid a year ... time. It is ... graduation ... ... whether these students had ...

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
102A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

FOR YOUR DANCES AND PARTIES
Decorations
Favors
Powdered Wax
Art Materials
McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

SPECIAL LENTEN LUNCHES are being served
at the
COFFEE CORNER
and
SANDWICH CELLAR

SPORTS NEWS

POST CHALLENGES MEN OF GREEN AND GOLD TO PARTICIPATE IN TRACK

Toughest Schedule in Years to be Run Through—Yet There are Few Veterans or New Candidates

... times I have been tempted ... written something for the ... at the urge ere the manu... started. Now, however, ... tive. Something must ... done about track at the ... of Vermont!

... me summarize briefly the ... this sport here at Vermont ... At the beginning of the sea... ... saw track down and out. ... No coach, no appropriation, ... interest. But there was ... Prof. "Jack" Latty was ... coach, a very small ap... was made and track at the ... old college was saved. In... more than saved, it was re... under Latty's tutelage and ... with driving energy and enthusiasm, ... at hand was worked into ... championship calibre the first year, ... back to Vermont a crown which ... seen for eight long years. In ... repeated the performance, ... State championship by an ... margin than in the previous ... since that time, we have had fair ... with now and then an out... ... but the State crown has ... consistently away from our cam...

Now let us see why this has been the ... for the past few years. Each year ... some good men who cannot help ... because they are in scholastic ... Each year we have some ... strong track men at "dear ... and year time. Each year we have ... some men who fail to do ... to the University and to them... ... not working and training hard ... to be at their best. They make ... to improve themselves. Each ... are in college a goodly number ... have potential track ability, ... could do something and amount ... on a track and field team ... would come out of their lethargy, ... are not hampered by warnings ... financial difficulties nor by any ... circumstances. These reasons explain

(Continued on page 4)

AT PRESTON'S
Dollar Day
SATURDAY, MARCH 5
PACKAGE SALE
$1.00 EACH
SATURDAY ONLY
F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

W. A. A. NOTES

Last Wednesday at the business ... after the first practice was held for ... on bowling.

A making practice for the three women ... will be held on Wednesday, March 7 ... at 4 o'clock at the bowling alleys.

The three highest scorers from each ... will compete in the tournament on ... March 16.

High scores thus far are: For the ... graduates, Vera Chadbourn 100; under ... graduates, Florence Morse 84, 100; Dorothy Sweeney 32, 99; Sue Franz 85, 97; Lois Whitcomb '35, 96.

Bowling teams will be announced next ... week by Miss Cummings of the physical education department.

VERMONT RIFLEMEN LOSE NORWICH MATCH

The Vermont men's rifle teams lost a close match to the Norwich sharpshooters by the score of 1,537 to 1,541, in its first shoulder-to-shoulder encounter of the season last Saturday afternoon. Captain Sheldon was high man for Vermont with a rating of 274, and Howe of Norwich was second with 270.

The results of the match were as follows:

NORWICH

Carron	264
Cummings	249
Howe	270
Elliot	240
Carter	256
Stebbins	262
Total	1,541

VERMONT

Sheldon	274
Burke	269
Dunham	249
Primpas	238
Perry	257
Park	250
Total	1,537

Tomorrow Vermont travels to Northfield to fire a triangular shoulder-to-shoulder match with Norwich and M. I. T.

The following are the results of the weekly telegraph matches fired to date:

Week ending February 27.
Vermont	1,718
N. Y. Stock Exchange	1,864
U. of Kansas	1,813
U. of California	1,897
NRA Vermont	1,255
NRA Boston University	1,298
Week ending February 20.
Vermont	1,715
North Dakota U.	1,803
North Dakota Aggies	1,864
Oklahoma Aggies	1,864
NRA Vermont	1,231
NRA Rensselaer	1,230
Week ending February 13.
Vermont	1,723
Mississippi A. & M.	1,724
U of Kentucky (R. O. T. C.) and varsity	1,895
Presbyterian College	1,776
New Mexico Aggies	1,760
Culver Military Academy	1,838
U. of New Hampshire	1,831

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

CATAMOUNTS EDGE ST. MIKES IN FINAL HALF RALLY FOR CITY TITLE

Grant Runs Tierney, Purple Star, Ragged in Thriller at Auditorium—Game Ends at 18-17

The Catamounts of Vermont basketball team broke their jinx at last and took the ... Mikes game by the close score of 18-17 on the Auditorium surface last Wednesday evening. This far this season the Catamount basketeers have not copped a contest played on a foreign court, and the St. Michael's game broke the streak. The team played very poorly during the initial half of the game and the Purple five had the ball nearly all the time. However in the second half the Green and Gold players were inspirited with a snappy vim which finally won the game for them.

The game opened with Vermont scoring the first three points and seeming much better than the Michaelmen. In the next few minutes, however, St. Mikes bombarded the Green and Gold backboard with such a barrage of shots that the Catamount players were in a whirl. The remainder of the half found the Purple five leading with a rather comfortable lead. Ruggerio went very good for the Winooski Park combine scoring two of their baskets. Dunn guarded Pires in a manner that was all too effective. His following-up of the ball from the Vermont board assured St. Mike's possession of the ball all the time.

When the whistle for the second half was blown, Vermont was at the small end of a ten to six score. Two baskets in Wednesday night's game seemed a very great lead. Grant at left forward started things off for Vermont with a beautiful loop shot. The Vermont players began to play real fast basketball, and they started to pass the ball in a snappy fashion. The scoring was nip and tuck for ten minutes; Beckley and Tupper scoring very nice shots for Vermont while Meade ran up the count for the Purple.

With about four minutes to play Grant scored one from off at the side putting Vermont into the lead which they held to the end of the game. Beckley did some nice stalling work in the final three minutes running Ruggerio off his feet. Only seven personals were recorded in one of the cleanest games of the year.

The score:

VERMONT

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Pires, l.f.	0	0	0
Grant, r.f., l.f.	3	2	8
Tupper, r.f.	1	0	2
Morgan, c.	1	0	2
Winant, r.g.	0	1	1
Beckley, r.g.	2	0	4
Taft, l.g.	0	1	1
Farwell, l.g.	0	0	0
	7	4	18

ST. MICHAEL'S

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Noel, r.f.	0	1	1
Ruggerio, l.f.	3	0	6
Maynes, c.	1	0	2
Tierney, r.g.	0	2	2
Meade, l.g.	3	0	6
	7	3	17

Referee—K. C. Hausner, Port Henry, N. Y.
Umpire—R. Sheridan, V. S. B.

Senior Interscholastic Tournament Starts Today

Eleventh Annual Event Finds Bellows Falls, Rutland, Spaulding, Cathedral, Proctor, Burlington, Hartford High Schools and Bellows Free Academy as Contestants

ONE UNDEFEATED TEAM LISTED AMONG ENTRIES

SCHEDULE OF GAMES

Friday afternoon
2:00 p.m.—Bellows Falls vs. Rutland.
4:00 p.m.—Spaulding vs. Cathedral.
Friday evening
7:30 p.m.—Proctor vs. Burlington.
8:30 p.m.—Bellows Free Academy vs. Hartford.
Saturday afternoon
Semi-finals
1:30 p.m.
2:30 p.m.
Final game—8:30 p.m.
Head official, Edwin Dunn of Adams, Mass. Assistant, Thomas Shea of Springfield, Mass.

Bellows Falls vs. Rutland

The first game of the tournament brings together two very strong teams in Bellows Falls and Rutland High Schools. Rutland runner-up to Proctor High in the Southern Vermont Tournament is one of the tournament favorites according to advance dope, although they have dropped contests to Bennington, Cathedral, and Spaulding as well as to Proctor.

Led by Capt. Jack Brislin and George Chalmers the Marble City entry presents a strong offense, as well as a tight defense centered around Hop Hostler and Bob Lindsey.

Bellows Falls High again enters tournament competition after a few years absence with a potentially strong contender for honors. The selection of the southeast border town came only after much deliberation on the part of the Headmasters' Club, as Middlebury, Bennington and Brattleboro were also considered as possibilities. However their impressive record of ten wins in fourteen starts gained them the edge over the other contestants.

Spaulding vs. Cathedral

In the second game of the afternoon Spaulding High of Barre and Cathedral High of Burlington will meet for the third time this season. Each has recorded a victory over the other on their respective home floors.

The local entry which has played in and out basketball during the entire season and is virtually a one man team centered around its brilliant captain, "Pickles" Evelti the state's leading scorer, and an all state forward last year.

In decided contrast to Cathedral, Spaulding after a slow start, has played steady consistent basketball all year. Although not flashy Coach Bill Wilbur's charges have encountered more than moderate success and were the only unit which was unconditionally chosen at the last meeting of the Headmasters' Club.

Proctor vs. Burlington

In the first game of the evening, Proctor High, the only undefeated team in the State, stacks up against Burlington High, champions for the last two years. In view of its impressive record, including the 20-16 defeat of Rutland for the southern Vermont title, Coach Rupert Spencer's tall charges have a undeniably strong offense which is expected to be more than the comparatively small Burlington team can check.

However, Coach Buck Hard teaches ... basketball and what is ... important they actually practice it. Burlington is always a good ... team and fine work may be expected from it.

B. F. A. vs. Hartford

... final game of the first round features Bellows Free Academy of St. Albans and Hartford High of White River Junction, the state champions of 1929. Hartford has virtually had its own way among the high schools in its section and was defeated by Proctor in the southern Vermont tourney by a single point in an overtime period.

Coach Dante Ami's St. Albans boys have had a fairly successful season, and are a much stronger team than last year, but according to advance dope are considered one of the weakest teams in the tournament.

FINAL EVENTS OF THE WINTER SPORTS MEET HAVE BEEN POSTPONED

Result of Entire Tournament Rests on the Outcome of two Skating Races

Last Tuesday afternoon weather conditions still prohibited the running-off of the two final ice events in the interfraternity winter sports competition.

These events are the three man 220 yard relay and the 880 yard skating dash and upon them rests the outcome of the whole tournament. The point standings to date are: Zeta Chi 34½; A. T. O. 29; Sigma Nu 15; Lambda Iota 5; and Phi Delta Theta 4½. The outcome of the 220-yard relay cannot be prophesied, but Johnny McCrea of A. T. O. is generally conceded first place in any skating race he enters. With the 5-3-1 method of scoring his victory in the 880 yard dash should put A. T. O. ahead other things being equal. However, Zeta Chi has been in the habit of winning both second and third places in most of the events which they enter.

There is also additional 5-3-1 scoring for the "best balanced" teams. So, as Coach Archie Post says, "there are several possibilities."

A meeting of Bluestockings for the initiation of the new members will be held at the Theta House, Wednesday, March 9, at 4 o'clock.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

Drop in and see the Newest Creation in
NECKWEAR
THE LATTICE CRAVAT
$1.00
HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

SPRING
SUITS
TOPCOATS
Hats Gloves
Tuxedos
and Accessories
SHIRTS COLLARS
STUDS TIES
Miles & Perry Company
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

Custom Tailoring
And when we say Custom Tailoring we mean every garment cut, trimmed and made in our own shop from the finest imported woolens from the best mills in England, Scotland and Ireland.
You have the opportunity of seeing the woolens in the piece, careful and painstaking fitting before the garment is finished.
TURKS Burlington Vt.
156-158 College St.

VERMONT WINS DEBATE FROM SPRINGFIELD FRI.

[illegible] to give up their [illegible] position they [illegible] unanimously maintained, even if they have to [illegible] plan of government.

Meet Plymouth Saturday

Coming Debates

Impossible

POST CHALLENGE MEN

(Continued from page 3)

GLEE CLUB DANCE IS TONIGHT IN B. H. S. GYM

[illegible] dance and concert, sponsored by the Men's Glee Club, will be brought March 4 [illegible] by the Glee Club Quartet [illegible] Chamberlain [illegible] Thursday [illegible] Mary [illegible] Play [illegible] all [illegible] Committee [illegible] Mary [illegible] Play [illegible] Mary [illegible] Play [illegible] Committee [illegible] Mary [illegible] Play [illegible] Committee [illegible] Mary [illegible] Play [illegible] Committee

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1932 — NUMBER 40

Vermont Writers to Open Conference at the Fleming Museum

Success of Meeting Will Mean Beginning of New Era in Vt. Literary History Says Coates

MEN'S DOUBLE QUARTET TO PRESENT PROGRAM

...ational Conference of ...Writers' League, which will ... afternoon and evening of ...h 10, at the Fleming ... open and free to students ... the University. The ... association of Vermont ... within or outside of the ...ment of one dollar, the ... the right to vote. The ... Walter John Coates, of ...pleher, as president, and ... Wentworth, of Rutland, ...ester, was first organized ... hold various social gather... together meetings for the ... getting the various state ...ciated with each other, but ...t of its public conferences. ... of the coming meeting, ... says: "If this meeting ...ed successfully, it will be the ... a new era in the history of ... and would-be ...

... Leon W. Dean and Frederick ... V. M., and Arthur Wallace ... Norwich University, as chair... conduct the afternoon program ... to 4:30 p.m., as an open ...

... of the forum to be held ... o'clock, Prof. Leon W. Dean ... "Writing for Money," in... topics as requirements of ... literary agents, and preparation ...

... to 3:45, Prof. Frederick ... head of the Department of ... the University of Vermont, ... chairman for an open forum ... ghost. "Choice and Treatment ... discussing use of appropriate ... form and style, modes of ex... appeals to eye and ear, and ... writers today.

... 3:30, Prof. Arthur Wallace ... of the English Department ... University, will conduct an ... on general questions and ... concerning newspaper work and ...

... staff will serve a buffet ... grounds between the after... sessions of the pro... Rev. Arthur Wentworth ... Plainfield, will address the ... Sins of the Tongue" In... program there will be a ... Folk Songs and Balladry ... by Mrs. Helen Hartness ... addition, the Men's Double ... V. M. will present a fifteen... of old English songs ... including "In Praise of ...ham Ale," "Eight Bells," ... and "Old Man Noah." ... session will be open to the ... cents admission being ... not presenting program ... recently been distributed. ... program is free to the stu... of the University.

Picador Copy Petering

Frantic Punsters Promise Friday Issue

Contributions flooding the ... office for the coming issue of el picador have not started flooding, according to a statement given out by the editor as he frantically clutched classic puns out of thin air at a late hour last night. The offer of a prize ticket has not stimulated the imagination of any of the 1,012.9 students now attending classes it was alleged.

The James Barnes canal, together with a Grimes Graeme or two, has been dragged out in full force to supply laughs for the lethargic and bon mots for the morose, creating an atmosphere of joie de vivre, dolce far neite and je ne sais quoi, all for the same price. "Nevertheless, notwithstanding and, moreover," the editor was alleged to have remarked, "The undergraduate body has been remarkably devoid of interest in this noble achievement, which, it is hoped, will soon outstrip national and collegiate humor rags, not to mention burlesque of the cleverest type."

Today has been set as the deadline for humor copy. It is hoped that contributions will be forthcoming in sufficient number to make the picador a worthwhile sheet, and offer some competition for the prize ticket.

MODEL LEAGUE FINDS JAPAN IS THE AGGRESSOR

Resolution of College Delegates Proposes Moral Pressure But Lacks Unanimous Vote

The model session of the League of Nations, in which the representatives of twenty-eight New England colleges and universities have sat as national delegations in the manner of Geneva, discussing world problems at Brown University for two days, embodied its conclusions Saturday in a series of resolutions.

The Chinese appeal to the League for a settlement of the Sino-Japanese conflict, which was referred by a model session of the League Council to the plenary session of 350 student-delegates sitting as a League Assembly, provided considerable discussion and a resolution denouncing Japan as the aggressor in fact if not in law.

The resolution further proposed to bring the moral pressure of the disapprobation of the world to bear upon Japan by a withdrawal of all diplomatic representatives from Tokyo. The vote by national delegations was 38 for and 15 against. Even with this preponderant vote, however, the resolution was lost because under Article 15 of the League covenant, such action requires a unanimous vote.

In duplication of the action taken Friday at Geneva, this model assembly then unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon Japan and China to take measures to make military commanders on both sides cease hostilities, and to have the powers interested in Shanghai report on the result as well as to cooperate in the

(Continued on page 4)

NO MAN IS BETTER EQUIPPED FOR DISCUSSION THAN WARDEN LAWES

So Says Prof. Gifford of Lecturer Who Will Speak on Crime and Prison Methods Mar. 17

DARROW PRAISES BOOK

Calls His Work, "Life and Death in Sing Sing," One of Best Things Ever Written Upon Capital Punishment

"There is probably no man in our country better equipped by knowledge of crime conditions and criminals, for a competent and interesting discussion of questions relating to crime, law-enforcement, and prison discipline," says Prof A. R. Gifford of Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing Prison who will lecture at Vermont in the University lecture series the evening of Thursday, March 17.

Head of Sing Sing Since 1920

Warden of the most famous prison in the world since 1920, Mr. Lawes has had a distinguished career. Besides serving as president of The Wardens' Association of America (1922) of The American Prison Association (1923), he was sent to England as United States delegate to The International Prison Congress in 1925. He is a member of advisory board to the National Commission on Law Observance and Enforcement, and is also honorary president of the American League to Abolish Capital Punishment.

Popular Lecturer

Warden Lawes has been in great demand as a lecturer on the public platform and has also written a study of human nature in prison life and the person of the criminal, under the title: "Life and Death in Sing Sing." This book has been highly praised by Henry Ford, and Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University. Of it Clarence Darrow says: "It is one of the best

(Continued on page 2)

MRS. JACOBY SPEAKS ON THE CUSTOMS AND PEOPLE OF ABYSSINIA

Taking as her subject "Abyssinia," Mrs. H. Murray Jacoby delivered a lecture in the Fleming Museum last Thursday evening in which she described the customs and the people of the country with the aid of motion picture slides. Mrs. Jacoby obtained her collection of pictures and illustrations on an expedition into Africa in 1930 with her husband, the United States Envoy. At this time they attended the picturesque coronation of the emperor, Haile Selassie.

The Ethiopians, or Abyssinians, as they are commonly called, trace their origin from the Queen of Sheba and King Solomon, said Mrs. Jacoby in introducing her audience to the little known East African empire.

The speaker related the legend in connection with the pair of the original dynasty, telling how the queen was tricked by King Solomon when she came to visit him. King Solomon, enamoured of the queen, asked her to become one of his many wives. Since she was a queen she refused. Solomon then inveigled her into an agreement to become a member of his harem if he found her taking any articles from her bedroom.

The shrewd king had entertained her at a supper which was made up of highly peppered confites. Becoming thirsty, during the night she took a silver vessel to fill it with water. Solomon's spies discovered this and reported her. She lived up to her agreement and returned to her kingdom with King Solomon's son to found a long enduring dynasty. This legend is still prevalent among the Ethiopians.

The Ethiopians call themselves Amharas. They settled their country hundreds of years ago, migrating from Arabia. They are similar to the Egyptians in many respects. They have swarthy complexions, long hooked noses, and thin lips.

It is said that they adopted Christianity as early as 350 A.D. Later they took over the mono-physite view in the controversy over the dual or the single nature of Christ. At the present time their bishop is appointed by the Patriarch of Alexandria.

Feudalism still exists in the country to some extent. For a long time the closed door policy similar to that of Japan was in force.

The Abyssinians rank high as a military nation having been defeated only once by a British punitive force under

(Continued on page 2)

WOMEN TO DISCUSS POINT SYSTEM AT MASS MEETING

Women's Student Union mass meeting, scheduled for Thursday evening, March 10, at seven-thirty in the gymnasium will be the scene of discussion of several topics, including the point system of awarding honors to women.

The Council proposes to eliminate the office of chairman of the social calendar, whose duties are not clearly defined. A discussion will be held and a vote will be taken on the question.

The Council has found, as a result of recent investigations, that the Regional Committee has been of little value. This topic will be discussed and its elimination voted on.

The point system will be fully explained. Charlotte Odell '33 is in charge of investigations and is being assisted by the vice-presidents of the several classes, who will speak on the values and the use of the system.

This is the first mass meeting of the semester and attendance is required of all women.

ALLIANCE FRANCAISE TO HAVE 4 MORE SPEAKERS

Prof. Martino Speaks Friday—Mme Audet, Profs. Morize, Baldensperger to Lecture in Future

Prof. Pierre Martino, professor of French literature at the University of Algiers for the past 12 years and exchange professor at Harvard University this semester, will speak in French on "Landscapes in Algeria," Friday March 11, at 8 p.m., at the Fleming Museum under the auspices of the Alliance Française and the University of Vermont. His address will be illustrated with slides and films.

Professor Martino is a well-known literary critic and author of many books. Some of his best known works are "L'Orient dans la Litterature Française," "Stendral," "Verlaine," and "Parnasse et le Symbolisme."

He will be entertained while in Burlington by Prof. and Mrs. Frederick Tupper. His lecture is the fifth in the series sponsored by the Alliance Française and the University.

An April 7, Mme Louis Audet, professor at the Conversatory of Music, Montreal, will give a concert, supported by five of her pupils at 7:30 o'clock at the Fleming Museum for the benefit of the Alliance Française. She will speak on "La Chanson Canadienne," illustrated with songs and costumes.

On April 16, Prof. André Morize, of Harvard University, will speak on "La France devant le monde moderne," followed by a discussion.

On May 16, Prof. Ferand Baldensperger, exchange professor at Princeton University this semester, will speak on "Une crise du roman Français."

Next September, students at the University will have as a fellow student a French girl, coming here under auspices of the University, the Bureau of International Education, and the Alliance Française. In exchange for her scholarship, she will help students with their conversational French.

The annual meeting of the Federation of Alliance Française will take place in New York at the Hotel Plaza, Friday and Saturday, April 1 and 2. Paul Claudel, French ambassador, will speak. Members of the Alliance Française in Burlington planning to be in New York at the time are asked to communicate with Mrs. Paul D. Evans, Essex Junction, who will be the official delegate from Burlington.

SPIRIT OF IDEALISM NECESSARY SAYS DEAN

It is necessary to keep a high tone and a spirit of idealism on the paper, said Prof. L. W. Dean, CYNIC faculty advisor addressing members of the editorial board at the bi-weekly meeting held Wednesday in Room One, North College.

"The real college newspaper man," he stated, is one who knows news and is able to recognize it from the daily routine."

Emphasizing accuracy as the chief prerequisite, the speaker pointed out that "it is the essential, college papers fall down on." Although the college group of journalists is not checked and kept up to accuracy by its readers, the time and effort it takes to keep up a good standard is worthwhile, he stated.

The three qualities of a good reporter, Professor Dean said, include a nose for news, promptness and the ability to be accurate adding that "It is essential that the newspaper man be conscious of his public as an opinion of the University and the board is formed from the CYNIC which passes to high schools throughout the state."

Attempt to Oust Fraternity Combines at Thurs. Meeting

Society Representatives Convene at Mortar Board's Invitation to Consider Signing Pledge

THOUGHT "GOOD IDEA BUT IMPRACTICABLE"

Fraternity politics found their way to the campus Thursday night at the meeting of fraternity, sorority and honorary society representatives held in the Billings Library. The meeting was called by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, to consider the adoption of a pledge which would eliminate the evils of political combines.

Among the thirty students present were members of Mortar Board, Boulder, Pan Hellenic, Gold Key, Key and Serpent, Interfraternity Council, the CYNIC, and delegates from nine fraternities and five sororities.

A proposal that combines be abolished by means of a fraternity pledge, "to keep out of combines," was considered but it was the opinion of the members present that the plan was excellent but futile.

Most of the speakers felt that the plan would not succeed because it would be practicably impossible to get all of the fraternities to sign the pledge, and having signed it, it would be difficult to make them live up to the pledge.

The Pledge

The pledge reads: "We, the undersigned, hereby pledge ourselves not to enter into any joint agreements, known as 'fraternity combines.' This pledge becomes valid only on the condition that it receives the signature of every fraternity."

Although most of the members felt that this plan would ultimately fail—it was thought, however, that it would bring before the student body that necessity of a reform.

Open Politics Favored

Several speakers were in favor of bringing politics and campaigning out into the open without attempting to eliminate combines as an evil.

C. J. Libby, president of the class of '34, favors this plan. He believes that

(Continued on page 2)

BASKETBALL HOP WILL BE SAT. SAYS COMMITTEE

At a meeting held at the Phi Delta Theta house last week, the date of the annual Basketball Hop was fixed for Saturday night, March 12, according to plans made public by the dance committee.

Music by the Cunarders will be presented from 8.30 to 12. As is customary, Gold Key will sponsor the affair, with a committee of W. J. Gilbert as chairman, assisted by T. Cogswell, C. B. Eaton, C. J. Libby and N. H. Myers.

LIEGE QUARTET PRESENTS CONCERT TOMORROW NITE

The Liége Quartet will give a concert tomorrow evening at 8.15 in the Fleming Museum.

Members of the quartet are Henry ... violinist; Joseph Beck violinist; Jean Roguster, viola; Lydia Roguster Seiber, violoncellist.

... to avoid a deficit in the concert ... and faculty members will have to buy tickets and will be admitted at the reduced rate of 50 cents.

The 50-cent tickets can be obtained only at the Bookstore, and dollar tickets only will be on sale at the door tomorrow night.

The program will be as follows:

"Quartet" ..... Debussy
"Two Sketches" ..... Goossens
"Quartet" ..... Riels
"Quartet," Op. 130, with Grand Fugue, Op. 133 ..... Beethoven

Le Menestrel of Brussels, commenting on the quartet, says, "The Liége Quartet is one of the very best we possess. Composed of first-rank artists, it has played with perfect and rare mastery the Quartet No. 9 of Beethoven."

The Washington Star says, "The music auditorium of the Library of Congress was filled to capacity with an audience which included Mrs. Hoover, the Belgian Ambassador and a number of other distinguished guests. The quartet showed fine sense of coordination."

Annual Conference of State Schools With University Opens Friday at B. H. S.

Those Attending in Cooperation With Champlain Valley Teachers' Ass'n Will Include Secondary School Principals and Teachers

...eventh Conference of the ...ent with the University ... the Champlain Valley ...ation will be held in this ... and Saturday, March ... Burlington High School. ... this conference will in... ... and teachers of the ... of Vermont.

... among the speakers will be ...nson, president of Colby ... address those attending ...hool conference on "The ... of Instruction in the ... Through Supervision." ... be at 10.30 o'clock, Fri... Another speaker will be ... L. Bailey, commissioner ... who will present at the ... at 9:50 o'clock an ad... dualized Instruction in ... High Schools."

... committee from the University of Vermont comprises Prof. George G. Groat, Prof. B. Holmes Wallace, Prof. E. C. Jacobs, Prof. George P. Burns and Prof. B. C. Douglass.

The groups will confer in a general meeting at nine o'clock Friday morning, Miss May I. Donnelly, chairman, presiding.

Following address of Commissioner Bailey, the secondary school conference group, meeting at Room 30, will hear President Johnson and at 11.15 o'clock a discussion led by Theodore Kambour, principal of Montpelier High School will be given and at 11.30, an address by Supervising Principal Eugene H. Clowse of Richmond.

Speakers at the afternoon session, with Prof. E. C. Jacobs as chairman, will be Dean Elijah Swift of the College of Arts and Sciences, Herbert D. Pearl, assistant

(Continued on page 4)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Collegiate Newspaper Association

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

IN ANSWER

Author's Arena

It's well nigh petered out.

Cheer our teams when they face defeat
Like other loyals do.

Make old Ira kick his heels

Or which I'm sorely proud?

ATTEMPT TO OUST FRATERNITY COMBINES

(Continued from page 1)

Society Notes

The pledges of Alpha Chi Omega and Kappa Delta were hostesses to the pledges of the other Greek sororities at two teas given on March 3 and March 4, respectively. Alpha Chi Omega entertained at their chapter house on Main Street and the Greenbowl was the scene of the Kappa Delta tea. Winifred Peet served as chairman of the Alpha Chi Omega tea with Madeline Ames, Mona Nicholson, and Jane Parsons on the committee. The Kappa Delta tea was in charge of Wilma Hurd. The reception committee was composed of Susan Lardner, Phyllis Stockwell, and Zelpha Watson. Alta Rock, Mable Earl Hulett and Gretchen Wilcox had charge of arrangements.

Exeter women will be initiated to Phi Sigma Kappa women's literary society, tomorrow at 4.00 o'clock in the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Elections to the society were made on a competitive basis on contributions of original poetry and short stories. Those who are to be initiated include Margaret Drummond '33, Frances Spoon '33, Louise Lounsbery '33, Carolyn Cook '35, Ruth Hyatt '34, Norma Freeman '32, Alice Mackenzie '34, Lois Whitcomb '35, Dorothy Cutler '35, Marjorie Jenks '35, and Margaret Kann '35.

Four sororities held their pledge dances Saturday night. They were all informal. Kappa Alpha Theta entertained at their house on South Prospect Street. Mr. Murray Lantsch and Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Bixby chaperoned the party, and the Black Pirates furnished the music. Harriet Peart '33 and Marjorie Hayden '34 were the committee in charge.

Alpha Xi Delta held their dance at their rooms at 193½ College Street. Helen Jenkins '34 was in charge of arrangements. The music was furnished by Jones's orchestra. Prof. and Mrs. G. V. Kidder were the chaperones.

Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Braun and Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Stinchfield chaperoned the party given by Delta Delta Delta at the Edge Club on Pearl Street. Lynch's orchestra played. The committee in charge consisted of Helen Cunningham '32, Crystal M. Lawes '32, Virginia T. Lynch '34 and Hazel F. Daniels '34.

Jean Fraser '34 was in charge of the Alpha Chi Omega dance which was held at their house on Main Street. The orchestra was Lechnyr's Vermonters. Prof. and Mrs. P. D. Carleton and Prof. and Mrs. R. F. Doane were chaperones.

Eight freshmen were initiated to K. L. E. at a formal banquet held Sunday evening at the Hotel Vermont. The initiates are: Helen Fine of Hartford, Conn., Edith Spitler of Barre, and Theresa Rosenberg and Ida Hershberg of Burlington.

MRS. JACOBY SPEAKS ON ABYSSINIAN CUSTOM

(Continued from page 1)

The national garment is the [illegible]. This garment has a border designates the rank of the [illegible] bread wrapped around [illegible] stew is the main [illegible] people. A drink similar to [illegible] found in mediaeval Europe [illegible] beverage among the Ethiopian [illegible] warriors are still in stage [illegible] carrying rhinoceros hide [illegible] wicked looking spears.

The climate of Abyssinia [illegible] and comfortable although [illegible] situated only eight degrees [illegible] equator. The country has [illegible] its own to the sea. It [illegible] strip of land bordering the [illegible] has now become Eritrea and [illegible] British Somaliland controlled by Britain, France and Italy.

Faculty Members Speakers Over Radio

On the program of WCAX [illegible] station, Saturday night were [illegible] Brown and J. A. Bullard of the Medical and Engineering Colleges.

Doctor Brown, who is a professor of anatomy and superintendent of the Mary Fletcher Hospital, spoke on "[illegible] in Health." Doctor Bullard [illegible] structs in mathematics and [illegible] took as his topic "The Relation [illegible] Mathematics to Engineering."

We know why men smoke PIPES

•

WOMEN don't smoke pipes. They're not the style for women. But pipes are the style for men, and more than that, a pipe and good tobacco gives a man greater smoking pleasure than tobacco in any other form.

A pipe is not for girls

In 42 out of 54 American colleges and universities Edgeworth is the favorite pipe tobacco. Cool slow-burning burleys give this fine tobacco exactly the character that college men like best of all.

A pipe is a real man's smoke

Try a tin of Edgeworth yourself! You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or if you prefer, you can get a special sample packet free: write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va., and ask for it.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

MISS MARSTON WILL GIVE ORGAN RECITAL SUN.

DELTA PSI INITIATES PLEDGEES MONDAY

PROF. GIFFORD PRAISES LAWES, WHO WILL SPEAK

(Continued from page 1)

In this year of depression 44 institutions report a 6 percent rise in enrollment

SPORTS NEWS

OURNAMENT HELD AT THE GYM NEARLY TOO LARGE FOR OFFICIALS

lany Tricks Used to Get in and Others Attempted to Maintain Seats for Games

...scholastic senior bas- ... which has attracted ... to the University of ... was perhaps one of ... its type held in ... The crowd sur- ... ear and as may have ... seats were always at a ...

...kets at L. P. Wood's ... Store were sold out ... Many people had to be ... the reserve seat section ... not half enough seats ... strip tickets for the en- ... sold like wildfire until ... more.

... seats many people came ... doors were opened up. ... as two hours before the ... was a very large crowd ... at the gymnasium doors, ... Many schemes were ... seats; some were novel, ... work. Some men at- ... overnight but were ... girls, thinking to be better ... came up to the gym at ... testing that they had ... classes. They got in, ... then they waited four ... the game started.

... worked in unison and the ... takers ought to be con- ... the strictly business man- ... they did their work. Sabin ... in charge of the tourna- ... hard to make the annual ... and certainly did a good ...

FRESHMEN LOOK VERY GOOD NOW SAYS COACH

... men look pretty good to me," ... Newton, coach of freshman ... interviewed. "So far we ... only the battery men, but ... to come."

... men who are candi- ... positions are Schwartz, ... Anselm's luminary, Collins, ... former Red Sox hurler, and ... receivers who look pretty ... Shedlock, Garrett and Skinner. ... are all good stick men. ... expects a snappy infield ... all-round outfield. Schmarr ... both meligibles, who are ex- ... out after Easter will proba- ... themselves.

... expect to begin practice ... Boni, Palmer and Mahoney. ... forward to just as suc- ... as their other teams have ... football, basketball and ... The schedule has not as ... completed and will be ... soon.

Discusses the Depression

... Meredith of the economics ... discussed the business depres- ... called the natural result ... in operation, Friday ... Post commanders' school ... Fort Ethan Allen.

TOURNAMENT SELECTIONS

First All-State Team

Baccei, forward, Proctor.
Chalmers, forward, Rutland.
McKernan (capt.), center, Spaulding.
Lindsey, guard, Rutland.
Jack Shand, guard, Proctor.

Second All-State Team

Evelti, forward, Cathedral.
Falzarano, forward, Hartford.
Dick Shand, center, Proctor.
Conti, guard, Spaulding.
Hostler, guard, Rutland.

Most Valuable Player

Captain McKernan, Spaulding.

CO-ED CLASS BASKETBALL NOW IN FULL SESSION

The annual interclass basketball tournament for co-eds opened last Tuesday afternoon, when the frosh second team won from the sophomore second team by a 13-4 score and the sophomore varsity team conquered the senior team by a 20-12 tally. On the face of things it looks as though the seniors were not going to annex the class championship as is usually the case.

Miss Blanchard of the women's physical education department and Helen Mount '35 manager of basketball picked the following teams to represent their various classes in the tournament. On the freshman first team are Dorothy Grover, Irene LaFountain, Helen Mount, Marie Maguire, Marguerite Miller, and Norma Jones. The substitutes are Christine Yule, Elizabeth Rich, Mary Tupper and Edith Hard. The second team consists of Marguerite Burnap, Helen Fine, Fanny Hosley, Ruth Wilkins, Ruth Shaefer, and Thelma Frumpkin with Wilma Hurd, Dorothy Kennedy, Barbara Weirs, Ruth Beckvold and Doris Long as substitutes.

The sophomore team varsity is comprised of Margaret Wellinger, Jennie Scutakes, Eola Goodrich, Ruth Johnstone, Helen Fogg, and Mary Horak. The subs are Vivian Hubbard, Florence Morse, Joyce Young, and Edith Rogers. On the second team are Eulalie Powers, Betty Lane, Helen Roberts, Ruth Reynolds, Daisy Putnam, and Marjorie Hawthorn. The substitutes are Elizabeth Woodward and Eugenia Powers.

The junior team is composed of Ethelda Miller, Mary Petras, Esther Urie, Catherine Armstrong, Margaret Tower, Marion Urie, and Mary Lobdell. The substitutes are Thelma Appell, Carolyn Nichols, and Zoay Bigelow.

On the senior team are Winifred Graham, Mildred Akins, Janet Miller, Doris Skinner, Katherine Rauh and Lillian Mount. For subs there are Doris Brennan and Louise Clark.

HIKES FOR GIRLS TO BE SPONSORED BY W. A. A.

Plans for a series of hikes to be sponsored by W. A. A. have been completed by the committee in charge. The committee consists of Jackie Hoyt '34, chairman; Billie Mount '32, assistant; Thelma Appell '33, Mary Petras '33, and Twink Mount '35.

The first hike is scheduled for March 12 and will be a treasure hunt. A sugar party hike has been planned for March 19. On April 16 the hikers will be taken to the foot of Mt. Philo by cars and from there they will climb to the top and have supper. The last one will probably be a fox and goose hike on April 20.

POST DRAWS UP LIST FOR INTERFRAT RELAYS BEGINNING TOMORROW

Eight Fraternities Compete in First of Series of Races

The schedule for interfraternity track relays beginning tomorrow afternoon has been released by Archie Post director of intramural sports.

On Wednesday, March 9:

First race—Kappa Sigma vs. Delta Psi.

Second race—Sigma Nu vs. Owls

Third race—Sigma Phi vs. Alpha Tau Omega.

Fourth race—Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Phi Sigma Delta.

The first race will begin at 4:15 sharp, and the other races will be run at ten-minute intervals. Any team not ready to start at the scheduled time, unless they have a good reason, will be disqualified. Anyone wishing to learn the methods of starting, the passing of the baton and the lining up should see Archie Post this afternoon for information.

On Friday, March 11:

First race—winners of the first two races.

Second race—winners of the second pair of races.

Third race—Zeta Chi vs. Sigma Delta

Fourth race—Phi Mu Delta vs. Phi Delta Theta.

The relays, which have attracted considerable student interest for several years, are run off in an elimination fashion with four-man teams, each man running three laps or 330 yards, and opposing teams starting from opposite sides of the track. Points are given towards the final scores in the interfraternity track meet, which is scheduled for March 19, to the winning teams in the relays.

Last year the the Sigma Nu team, consisting of Bedell, Huey, Wright and Flagg, won the relays with the Kappa Sigs a close second. Bedell, running fourth man for the Sigma Nus, made the best time of the relays, covering the three laps in 42 seconds. Although the Sigma Nu team has been broken up, last year's Kappa Sig quartet of Delfausse, Wesoly, Smith, Jay, will enter the races intact and will bear watching.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sports Editor—

As the "all" season is in full swing, it is rather imperative that our contribution be added.

At the request of your correspondent, the members of the Department of Physical Education, Messrs. Prentice, Post, Levine and Burke cooperated in picking out two all-star teams from the Interfraternity League.

Here are their choices:

First Team

Mulcahy, forward, S. A. E.
Golberg, forward, Phi Sigma Delta.
Busch, center, Sigma Phi.
Massucco, guard, S. A. E.
Delfausse, guard, Kappa Sigma.

Second Team

Ramon, forward, S. A. E.
Myers, forward, Zeta Chi.
Green, center, Zeta Chi.
Sowka, guard, Kappa Sigma
Smith, guard, Kappa Sigma

Honorable Mention

Aiken, Faculty.
Pierce, Faculty.

It is hardly possible to pick out any stronger combinations therefore, if any one is disappointed over these selections just pick your own.

The eleventh annual senior interscholastic tournament was a great success from all angles. We pause to congratulate Tournament Director Sabin Abell and all others directly or indirectly connected with the efficiency by which it was characterized.

U. V. M. Professor Abroad

In Athens, Greece, on Washington's birthday the Athens American Legion Post held a special meeting observing the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington. At that meeting, according to an Athens newspaper, Prof. S. L. Bassett, instructor in Greek at the University of Vermont, spoke on the life of Washington. Professor Bassett is on sabbatical leave from the University this year and is making a visit to the scenes of many Greek classics.

Barre Team Edges Proctor to Make Title in Final Game

McKearman, Star Spaulding Center, Receives Most Valuable Player Cup for His Phenomenal Work in Aiding His Team to Win

WINNERS TAKE RUTLAND, LOSERS OUST HARTFORD IN P.M.

In as thrilling and as closely contested a game as was ever played on the gymnasium floor, Spaulding High School nosed out Proctor High School 14-13 for the senior interscholastic championship. The playing, which was hard and clean on the part of both teams, kept an overflow audience, which was packed into every available inch of the gym, in a continual uproar.

The Spaulding squad appeared first on the floor for warm-up work and drew a big hand from the large Barre delegation. Proctor soon followed and was met with a no less noisy reception.

The game started promptly at 8.30. Soon after the tip-off Gallus, Proctor guard, fouled McGoff, who promptly missed his single attempt from the free stripe. Baccei, Proctor's all-state forward, opened the scoring soon after, by connecting a free throw at the expense of Manera. This seemed to inspire the down-state combination and Dick Shand followed up with two pretty baskets on fast cuts, bringing the total up to five. At this point Spaulding called for time out for a general reorganization along the defense lines.

Upon the resumption of play George of Spaulding was fouled by Dick Shand, but failed to connect. Baccei brought the Proctor total up to seven with a beautiful long shot from the side. George soon put Spaulding into the scoring column with a long shot, making the score 7-2 as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

Angwin, Spaulding's midget forward, replaced Manera soon after the opening of the period. McKearnan, captain and all-state center for the past two years, broke into the scoring column by tapping in a rebound. Baccei was fouled by Angwin, receiving two free throws, but failing to connect; however, George of Spaulding, in attempting to get the rebound, tapped the ball into the basket, making the count 9-4 for Proctor. McKearnan connected on a long shot just before the period ended, making the score 9-6 in favor of Proctor.

Third Quarter

Baccei opened the scoring when he popped one in from under the basket, in so doing he was fouled by Conti, and made the attempt good, bringing the count to 12-6 in Proctor's favor. Conti added three points to the Spaulding total when he shot a foul and immediately scored on a pretty cut. As the period ended Proctor was stalling, in an attempt to preserve its 12-9 lead.

Fourth Quarter

McKearnan brought his team's total up to eleven, when he scored on a pass from McGoff, who soon knotted the score twelve, all on a foul shot at the expense of Baccei.

The crowd became hysterical as McGoff continued his good work by shooting the winning basket on an overhead shot from the foul line, giving Spaulding a 14-12 lead. Dick Shand brought the count to 14-13, by adding a foul at the expense of Angwin.

With but a few minutes of play remaining, Spaulding stalled but called for time out with ten seconds remaining. Upon resuming play Dick Shand managed to get off a hurried long shot which failed to connect, and the game ended 14-13.

The score:

Spaulding

	Gls.	Fls.	Pts.
Manera, r.f.	0	0	0
Angwin, r.f.	0	0	0
McGoff, l.f.	1	1	3
McKearnan, c.	3	0	6
George, r.g.	1	0	2
Conti, l.g.	1	1	3
	6	2	14

Proctor

	Gls	Fls	Pts
J. Shand, r.f.	1*	0	2
Baccei, l.f.	2	2	6
R. Shand, c.	2	1	5
Carlson, r.g.	0	0	0
Gallus, l.g.	0	0	0
	5	3	13

*Basket made by George of Spaulding.

Score by periods:	1	2	3	4
Spaulding	2*	6	9	14
Proctor	7	9	12	13

Umpire, Dunn. Referee, Shea.

Spaulding 22—Rutland 20

In a game which was full of thrills of every sort, a hard fighting Spaulding team nosed out a stubborn Rutland five in an overtime game last Saturday afternoon by a 22-20 score. The game completed the Barre quintet's second contest of a hard schedule for the cup.

The Red and White men led throughout the entire game, and it wasn't until there were only two minutes to play that McKearnan sank the basket that tied the game at 18-18. Immediately afterwards Jack Brislin, star defensive man of Rutland, sank two free throws, bringing the score up to 20-18. It looked as it Spaulding had no chance to take the game because Rutland was playing a smooth defensive contest. Nevertheless, young Angwin, the diminutive forward of the Barre outfit, made an impossibility a possibility and sunk the floor basket right under the hoop that tied the score at 20 all just before the final gun went off.

In the overtime period which ensued MacDonald, substituting for Manera, sank the tally that won the game. Intense spirit, hard, fast playing and good basketball were all seen in that last three minutes as both teams tried their utmost to win the game. Rutland played a wonderful game despite the fact that they lost.

The feature of the game was the shooting of the tall Spaulding center, McKearnan. The all-tournament man sank three shots from beyond the center of the floor in the last quarter rally on the part of Spaulding. Jack Brislin played a fine game. He broke up many plays by intercepting passes. Perhaps the star of the Rutland team was Chalmers, who did his best for the old Red and White.

(Continued on page 4)

Custom Tailoring

And when we say Custom Tailoring we mean every garment cut, trimmed and made in our own shop from the finest imported woolens from the best mills in England, Scotland and Ireland.

You have the opportunity of seeing the woolens in the piece, careful and painstaking fitting before the garment is finished.

TURKS Burlington

156-158 College St.

Drop in and see the Newest Creation in

NECKWEAR

THE LATTICE CRAVAT

$1.00

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.

127 Church Street

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

MODEL LEAGUE FINDS JAPAN IS THE AGGRESSOR

(Continued from page 1)

These Committees Report

Disarmament Move Fails

Polish Corridor Remains

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF STATE SCHOOLS

(Continued from page 1)

PROF. CARROLL LISTS 3 CAUSES OF JAP DISPUTE

BARRE TEAM EDGES PROCTOR TO GET TITLE

(Continued from page 1)

Proctor 31 — Hartford 18

Rutland Trims Bellows Falls

Spaulding Defeats Cathedral

Proctor Conquers Burlington

Hartford Topples B. F. A.

Staging one of the greatest comebacks in the history of the senior tournament, Hartford defeated St. Albans in

VARSITY DEBATERS MEET N. Y. U. ON QUESTION OF SOCIALISM VS. CAPITALISM

VERMONT CO-EDS MEET McGILL IN DEBATE

THE LENDING LIBRARY in the UNIVERSITY STORE is adding each month the latest offering of the MODERN LIBRARY, which publishes one new title a month of the best of MODERN LITERATURE. These books should be of particular interest to the ENGLISH CLASSES.

LIVE in FRENCH

Residential Summer School ... educational ... Only French spoken ... Intensive Elementary ... Advanced ... Write at once to Secretary, French Summer School

McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL, CANADA

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2870, 2971, 2972

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

The
BENTLEY SCHOOL
Is the largest professional school in the United States which is devoted exclusively to training men to become specialists in accounting and finance. Completion of the course requires two years.

¶ Graduates are employed in 29 states and 14 foreign countries as office managers, cost accountants, resident auditors, travelling auditors, statisticians, comptrollers, treasurers, branch managers, public accountants, etc.

¶ Modern business demands the services of men qualified to do some one thing particularly well.

¶ The man who knows a little about many things in business but not much about any one of them is greatly handicapped when he competes with men who are highly skilled in the principles and technic of some one department of business.

¶ Men with college experience have particularly favorable prospects in the public accounting profession as well as in business, provided their technical training is adequate.

¶ A catalog will be sent upon request. Please mention your college paper when writing.

The Bentley School of Accounting & Finance
921 Boylston Street, Boston (Kenmore 0755)
H. C. Bentley, C. P. A., President

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1932 | NUMBER 41

Campus Heads Reveal Views in Interviews

Politics Cannot be Abolished is the General Sentiment of Fraternity Presidents

ANOTHER MEETING THIS AFTERNOON AT LIBRARY

[illegible] with fraternity leaders indicates that fraternity opinion is against [illegible] and resolution as it was [illegible] Thursday. "As far as we [illegible] there is no workable plan, [illegible] ready for political combines. [illegible] a collection of words [illegible] nothing. In other words, [illegible]" So stated A. J. Baldwin, president of Alpha Tau Omega, [illegible] interviewed by a CYNIC reporter. He added: "If there was some method, some rule to follow, serious consideration would be possible."

Many leaders argued that even if the members of a fraternity did sign the resolution it would not be binding upon the individual members, and that no fraternity would sign the resolution as a whole. Roberta F. Powers '32, Tri Delt president, said: "If the president of a house signed the pledge on behalf of the sorority that does not affect the individual. There is no use in attempting to sign an agreement of this sort because it will never be possible to govern or restrict the actions of the individual."

Opposing combines themselves, there are two opinions held by leaders. The first is that no plan is possible for ousting politics with any degree of success, and that they are an unavoidable evil, the second holds that politics may be removed at least partially, and the third maintains that politics are an integral part of the ideal college, and as such should remain. One person upholding the last opinion is S. B. Barker '32, president of Sigma Nu, who states: "I think it unfortunate that combines seem to be necessary. It is also unfortunate that we have had it necessary to resort to that sort of thing sometimes to get themselves

(Continued on page 2)

CARTER CHOSEN HEAD OF CERCLE LAFAYETTE

French Club Elects Officers at Monthly Social Gathering

[illegible] K. Carter '33 of East Corinth was elected president of Le Cercle Lafayette at a meeting held at the Lambda [illegible] last Friday evening. Helen [illegible] '33 of Burlington was elected [illegible] Esther Beardsley '33 of [illegible]d, Conn., secretary; Leah [illegible] Concord, N. H., treasurer; [illegible] Cummings '34 of Burlington, [illegible]. These new officers are [illegible] November, 1932.

[illegible] business meeting, Caro[illegible] '32 spoke before an audience [illegible] students on student life [illegible] which she attended last [illegible] Howard had many interest[illegible] to show which she took [illegible] Paris and vicinity.

[illegible] dance was held from 9 [illegible] Prof. and Mrs. A. N. Col[illegible] F. Doane of the French [illegible] patroned.

[illegible] of the French Club [illegible] the campus. Carter is a [illegible] Iota. He is record[illegible] Cynic, grind editor of [illegible] director of entertainment [illegible] and secretary of Inter[illegible] Club. Last fall he [illegible] of the 1931 freshman [illegible] chairman of this year's [illegible]quet.

[illegible] was recently pledged to [illegible]a. She is a CYNIC re[illegible]mber of W. A. A. and Miss Mount is especially [illegible]thletics.

[illegible] belongs to Kappa [illegible] served as assistant editor [illegible]rts news editor of the [illegible] member of the Univer[illegible] Club.

[illegible] a member of Alpha [illegible] was recently elected [illegible] Women's Freshman [illegible] Owen is a member of [illegible] and Pan-Hellenic Coun[illegible] in class dramatics. [illegible] belongs to Lambda [illegible] member of the Sopho[illegible] and was one of the [illegible] the 1931 freshman

MILDRED AKINS '32, who will retire as president of W. A. A.

VERMONT FORENSIANS TO MAKE EXTENDED TOUR TO WEST AND SOUTH

Team to Travel Through Eleven States in Longest Trip Staged in Recent Years

The spring debate schedule has just been released for publication by manager of debate P. J. LaCross '32. The schedule, calling for twelve debates, has been ratified by the faculty committee on non athletic extra curricular activities, consisting of George F. Eckhard, acting dean of the College of Engineering, George P. Burns, head of the department of botany, and Paul D. Evans, head of the department of history.

The trip, starting on March 28 and extending to April 10, will cover 3,040 miles and will take the debaters as far west as Iowa and as far south as Georgia. The team will debate in eleven states—Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

The following questions will be debated:

1. Resolved: That the United States should cancel all of her war debts.

2. Resolved: That America should adopt a policy of compulsory unemployment insurance.

3. Resolved: That the United States should embody legislation embodying the features of the Stuart Chase (centralization of industry) plan.

4. Resolved: That capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound in principle.

It is noteworthy that the Vermont team, in every case, has accepted the question proposed by the home team, reserving only the right to choose between the affirmative and negative.

Debates will be held at the following institutions in the order named: College of the City of Detroit, Detroit, Mich.; Columbia College, Dubuque, Iowa; Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill.; Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio; University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky.; University of Chattanooga, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Morehouse College, Atlanta, Ga.; West Virginia Collegiate Institute, Institute, W. Va.; West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, W. Va.; Virginia Union University of Richmond, Va. (debate to be held at Baltimore, Md.); Susquehanna College, Selinsgrove, Pa.; New York University, New York City.

Manager LaCross states that the experience derived from last year's western trip will go far to assure the success of this year's extensive schedule. He also says that this year's trip is the most comprehensive planned in recent years.

Last year's trip, while comprising more debates, covered a much smaller territory. Last year's team engaged in nineteen debates, winning seven and losing four. The others were either no decision contests or else no report is available. Wins were scored over such outstanding institutions as Northwestern University, Wheaton College, and John Carroll University.

The personnel of the team is undecided, as the try-outs are yet to be held. However, P. J. LaCross '32, R. P. Donaghy '33 and J. E. Bigelow '33, all Tau Kappa Alpha men, are strong contenders for positions on the team.

The University of Vermont has an enviable record so far this year. Only one contest has been lost at home, and wins have been scored over such strong teams as Dartmouth, Maine, Wheaton College and New York University.

BASKETBALL FESTIVAL TOMORROW EVENING AT GYM TO BE GALA EVENT

Professor and Mrs. Braun and John Burke, Basketball Coach, and Mrs. Burke to Chaperon Affair

BASKETBALL MEN ARE ADMITTED FREE THEN

Committee Members Express Their Confidence That the Dance Is to be a Success

The annual Basketball Hop will take place tomorrow evening in the Gymnasium from 8.30 until 12:00. The yearly festival, which is always popular in the annals of the college social events, will be sponsored by the Gold Key Society. Basketball men will be admitted free to the dance in their honor. The Cunarders have been hired to play for the evening's dancing and the music promises to be good.

In the receiving line will be Professor and Mrs. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Burke, William Gilbert, the dance committee chairman, and William Brislin, president of the organization. Coach Burke, however, will not endeavor to keep his men in training during the dance, and will probably frolic with the rest of the dancers. Robert Grant, Hank Durfey, Jack Morgan, Eddie Winant, John Beckley, Jerome Farwell, Michael Valerio, Jesse Rust, Sydney Carsley, Tom Collins, Frank Pires and Ed Saba are the basketball men who will probably be there. Manager Meehan, who has worked on many a dance committee, will be there in the capacity of one who is enjoying the dance tomorrow evening.

There will be no special decorations for this pre Easter frolic, but the dance will be a novel affair. Punch will be served between dances to the thirsty. According to Bill Gilbert, who is in charge of the event: "We want a capacity crowd, because there is usually plenty of room in the gymnasium."

Tom Cogswell states: "Let's have lots of enthusiasm tomorrow night, and give the court men a good time. They deserve it for all the hard work they have had." Cogswell has charge of the programs for the gala affair tomorrow.

Chet Eaton, who has worked hard so that everyone will enjoy himself, says: "It's your own fault if you do not have a good time, because I know I certainly will have one."

Norm Myers, always rather stand and cautious, repeats: "You know the limit of your own pocketbook. We know that ours is just about the same as yours. If you come it will set you back only one dollar."

Jack Libby is non-committal in saying that "I know that I always have a good time at any Gold Key dance."

TWELVE STUDENTS ON AGGIE SCHOLASTIC LIST

Dean Hills, of the Agricultural College, announces that there were a good number of the students in the State Agricultural College who made the high honor list for the past semester. Velma Purington '34 and Ethel Bishop '33 were the only students to have all "A's" for the last half. Laura Johnson '33, Esther Leary '33, Isobel Torrens '33 and Ruth Johnston '34 were fortunate enough to secure a mixed average made up of half "A" and half "B." Those who rank with the "B" list are Lois Harrington '32, Helen LeBaron '32, Maurice Morrill '32, John Buchanan '33, Robert Towne '33 and Cola Watson '33. With a few exceptions the above students have maintained good marks during their entire college career.

KAPPA SIGMA TO HOLD INITIATION BANQUET

Alpha Lambda of Kappa Sigma held its thirty-ninth annual initiation Monday evening, March 7. The following men were initiated: G. H. Cook, Jr., '35 of Leominster, Mass.; C. J. Howe '35 of Tunbridge; G. W. Patterson, 3rd, '34 of Vergennes; W. M. Piette '35 of Newport; W. M. Waterman '35 of Vergennes. Several alumni were present at the ceremony.

Another initiation will be held tomorrow afternoon when the following men will be initiated: S. Rogers '35 of Burlington; W. R. Skinner '35 of Bethel; E. C. Sowka '34 of New Britain, Conn. The annual initiation banquet will be held following the ceremony.

LILLIAN E. MOUNT '32 outgoing president of Student Union.

LILAC DAY PAGEANT TO BE HELD AT REDSTONE ON MAY 25TH THIS YEAR

Mortar Board Takes Charge of Annual Event Which is to be Given Each Year Instead on Biannually

The most beautiful of traditions of Vermont women, Lilac Day, will take place this year on May 25. This annual event is put on at Redstone at the time when nature is best fitted to beautify the pageant. Mortar Board, the senior honorary society for women, has complete charge of the plans for the yearly event. Formerly Lilac Day was held every other year but due to its ever-whelming popularity and beauty, it is now put on every year. Lilac Day commemorates the first Dean of Women, Pearl Randall Wasson.

Dean Wasson wished that Redstone might be made more attractive by a large hedge of lilacs, and that the planting of each lilac might be a day of festival and beauty with the same haze of tradition as the commencement ivy on the library.

This year's pageant has been written by Gladys Laflamme '33. The following girls have been chosen members of the cast:

Beauty	Carolyn Taft '33
Queen of Lilacs	Hope Ranslow '32
Woodland Sisters	Sylvia Farnham '32
Strange Queen	Katherine Rauh '32
The Lake	Lillian Mount '32
The Mountains	Janet Miller '32
The Trees	Helen LeBaron '32
Vermont	Margaret Mower '32

Mildred Akins is directing the event, while the dancing is under the supervision of Anne Baldwin. The list of dancers will be announced later. Janet Miller has charge of the costuming, with Helen LeBaron in charge of the programs, and Margaret Mower doing the advertising.

CO-EDS DEBATE TONIGHT WITH PEMBROKE TEAM

Virginia Goodenough '33, Laura Johnson '33 and Sophie Levin '33 will represent Vermont in the second women's varsity debate of the season, with Pembroke College of Providence, R. I., in the Old Mill Chapel this evening. The subject of debate will be "Resolved: That capitalism is a failure." The home team will uphold the negative of the question.

Margery Smith, Alice A. Harson and G. Dorothea Elwell will argue the affirmative for Pembroke. The judges for this evening's debate have not been selected as yet.

On Saturday evening, March 12, in the Fleming Museum, Vermont will meet a team of two from Hunter College of New York City on the subject "Resolved: That capitalism is doomed." Roberta Powers '32, captain of women's debate, and Caroline Taft '33 will maintain the affirmative for U. V. M.

Professor Dean will act as chairman of the Hunter debate. Both debates will be free and open to the public.

Ninety percent of the students of the University of London expressed a disbelief in God in response to a questionnaire sent to them.

Vermont Wins Victory Over N. Y. U. Team

Bigelow, LaCross and Donaghy Argue Affirmative of Question of Capitalism vs. Socialism

OLD MILL CHAPEL IS SCENE OF ARGUMENT

The Vermont men's varsity debating team, consisting of Reardon Donaghy, James Bigelow and Paul LaCross, defeated the New York University forensics, James Keller and Augustus Ehrone by a two to one decision of the judges in an American style debate in which U. V. M. upheld the affirmative of the question Resolved: That socialism has more to offer than capitalism, last Wednesday evening in the Old Mill Chapel. Prof. Leon Dean acted as chairman. The judges were Mr. John Colburn, Mr. George Stackpole and Mr. W. R. LeBaron, principals of Burlington High School, Winooski High School, and Essex Junction High School, respectively.

Donaghy opened the constructive argument for Vermont, denouncing capitalism by his statement, "Capitalism means money in the hands of a few, regardless of the rights of the many." He then presented the theme of socialism as "a system of cooperation, of systemized control, to take the place of the present chaotic condition. Socialism," he said, "would not bring forth a new Utopia, but we can say that it has more to offer than the present inefficient system." Concluding his arguments, he summarized socialism as being economically, culturally, politically and socialy beneficial.

Keller, the first speaker for N. Y. U., maintained that "the affirmative must prove that there are inherent evils in the present capitalistic plan, and that their plan will cure those evils, thus proving its practicability." Continuing his defense of capitalism, he said, "Underneath capitalism we see certain promise of the rising condition of the laborer. Under capitalism an incentive is set up. The laborer has something to work for and due to this incentive there results an increased competitive efficiency." Quo-

(Continued on page 6)

STUDENT UNION, W. A. A., AND Y. W. C. A. TO ELECT

Annual Election to Take Place in Week of March 15 to March 24

Elections for officers of Student Union will be held from March 15 to March 24 inclusive. On March 15 the board will nominate candidates for president and they will be voted on by ballot on March 17 and 18. On the following Tuesday March 22, nominations for the other officers will be announced and the women students are to vote on either March 23 or 24. These officers are elected annually by plurality vote of the women students.

The outgoing officers are: President, Lillian E. Mount '32; vice-president, Sylvia Boyd '33; secretary, Priscilla Perry '33; treasurer, Helen LeBaron '32; chief justice, Agnes Parsons '32; chairman of Program Committee, Charlotte O'Dell '33; Student Union editor of the Handbook, Elizabeth Mandigo '32.

The officers of W. A. A. will also be elected during that week; nominations for president will be on March 16 and balloting will be on March 19 and 20. All women who have earned their fifty points for W. A. A. membership are eligible to vote for these officers.

The outgoing officers of the controlling organization of women's athletics are: President, Mildred Akins '32; vice-president, Caroline Taft '32; corresponding secretary, Margaret Crane '33; recording secretary, Janet Miller '32; treasurer, Katherine Skinner '32; publicity manager, Claribel Morris '34; senior executive, Lois Harrington '32; senior executive, Lillian Mount '32; junior executive, Ara Armstrong '33; sophomore executive, Daisy Putnam '34; freshman executive, Sue France '35.

The University branch of the intercollegiate Women's Christian Association will hold its election during the same week.

The outgoing officers of Y. W. C. A. are: President, Sylvia Boyd '33; vice-president, Beatrice Freeman '32; secretary, Daisy Putnam '34; treasurer, Priscilla Perry '33; chairman of Conference, Lillian Mount '32; chairman of Social Service, Elizabeth Mandigo '32.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

FACULTY ADVISER

GRIT

practice. Then look at the University of Vermont who going on a long

LAST YEAR

Charles J. Lyons

Campus Comment

IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS

30 Years Ago

20 Years Ago

10 Years Ago

Vermont beats Dartmouth in football

5 Years Ago

A capacity audience attends the dedication of the new Ira Allen Chapel

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE AT MUSEUM TONIGHT

COLLEGE HUMOR

Prof. What do you consider the greatest achievement of the Romans?

Coed. Speaking Latin.

"I'm getting hot a message."

"You know how promptly I do such thing mine dearest."

Host. Now how do you like Bach, Beethoven?

Guest. I dunno. I never backed one.

"How cud I make good fudge?"

"Ask her parents."

"I know a man who composed under water. 'Far Light and Above.'"

"How did he like it?"

"He didn't."

"You cannot read the sign. I know. Your astigmatism must be well fixed."

"That college asked me to go to the basketball tournament last night. What will I do?"

"Why, just act as an old flame."

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

ALPHA XI DELTA

SIGMA GAMMA

EPSILON SIGMA

WOMEN'S NOTES

CAMPUS HEADS REVEAL VIEWS IN INTERVIEWS

(Continued from page 1)

CLASSES IN ART HELD WEEKLY IN MUSEUM

Four classes in two different branches of free-hand drawing are conducted every week by instructors in the Fleming Museum. These classes make it possible for townspeople as well as college and high school students to obtain instruction in the art of free-hand drawing for the initial charge of one dollar. The classes have been organized largely by Mr. Harold Knight, a local artist employed by McAuliffe and Company, who is now in charge of operation of the museum activities.

The college group meets twice a week, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 8.30 to 10.30 o'clock. It is conducted by Miss Elizabeth Colburn, art instructor at the U. V. M., the subjects being models or other material at hand in the museum. Each member has his own drawing board and materials, which are paid for by the initial fee of one dollar.

Two classes meet on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock, for high school townspeople. Mr. Harold Knight conducts a commercial art course and Miss Katherine Worcester, a local artist, gives instruction in drawing from models.

The high school class, under the direction of Mrs. Doane of the high school, is held every Friday afternoon from 3.30 to 5.30 o'clock. Drawings are made from material in the museum.

FREE VERSE—TAFT

This is to tell
About the dumb bell
Who came into the class
To get a book about Russia
And who went away
With the second volume
Of the encyclopedia
Because it was marked
On the back
V. I. A.—BOY

Mercy buckets! [illegible]

You Tell'em, I stutter

BOOTH GIVES SERMON ON CHRIST AT CHAPEL

THOMAS BRADLEE PRIZE OPEN TO AGGIE PUPILS ward is in Commemoration of lis Work in Extension Service at the State Agricultural College whose untimely death work in 1931 is still fresh

many of the students, particularly attractive per-ways. To all who with him he showed nature and friendly spirit ready to help those who
That his name should be one who has been con-
the University seems very been done by the estab-
Thomas Bradlee prize,
description of which has
by the College of Ag-

nity dollars, established of the late Thomas Bradlee, the Agricultural Extension
the University of Vermont
State Agricultural College, from 1931 may be awarded annually by the faculty of the College of Agriculture to that student of either sex said College, in the senior or junior year who, having done consistently good 4-H club work prior to entrance, has maintained scholarship rank of conspicuous merit and has at the same time manifested high traits of character.

In the event that no student qualifies as above indicated, the faculty may waive the requirement respecting 4-H club work and award the prize to any senior in said
College or, at its option, may award it to any former 4-H club member who has completed a four-year course in either the College of Arts and Sciences or Engineering, on recommendation of their deans.

EASTER VACATION FROM MARCH 25 TO APRIL 5

Dean Swift of the Arts
College, the annual Easter will begin on Saturday, March
7.30 p.m., and will close on Tues-
April 5 at 7.30 a.m. The day of has been changed one day ahead from the day it was originally
This change was made in order that the length of the Christmas vacation would be balanced.

Morning classes on Friday, March 25, the academic and medical colleges will be set an hour ahead of the usual schedule so that pupils may make the noon trains from Burlington. Afternoon classes will begin a half hour before the customary time.

Students should make it a point to avoid absences on the days before or after the vacation. Any person desiring an excuse should make out an application to the dean of his college in writing setting forth reasons for absence and must give his mail address.
Such applications should not be filed later than March 21 at noon.

The University Council will consider and pass upon these applications only if the reasons set forth are of sufficient importance to merit an excuse. Students will be notified of the Council action not later than Tuesday evening on March 22.

Words From the Wise

...ong will teach you how to live, better than preacher or book.—GOETHE.

Cooperation is not a sentiment. It is an economic necessity.—CHARLES STEIN-METZ.

...write well is to think well, to feel well and to render well; it is to possess at once intellect, soul, and taste.—
[illegible].

...Bible, we weave a thread of
...and at last we cannot break
it.—HORACE MANN.

...believe that easily which you hope
earnestly.—TERENCE.

Every person has two educations, one which he receives from others, and one, more important, which he gives to himself.—GIBBON.

...get to the end of your rope,
tie a knot and hang on.—ROOSEVELT.

...able to approach a difficult
...from the try-angle.—Selected.

...would keep his friendship in
...—DOCTOR JOHNSON.

...your needs answered—
Florida Flambeau.

...mascot of one of the
...recently lost three of his
...Last year the brothers
...their pet, oldest of all
...mascots, would have new teeth to replace fangs worn down by fighting and carrying sticks. For a few days the dog proudly displayed his new molars, but after the next fight he came home without them.

The Vermont Kittens Successfully Completed the Season Under Archie Post

YACHTING EVENTS ARE TO FEATURE OLYMPICS

Will be Held July 30 to August 14 as Part of the Games of the Tenth Olympiad

Yachting events of the games of the Tenth Olympiad to be celebrated in Los Angeles from July 30 to August 14 will be held at Los Angeles-Long Beach Harbor [illegible] Olympic Stadium.

The Olympic yacht races will be held from August 1 to 14, inclusive, and will be participated in by yachts of the inter-national rule class, the international one design class, the international star class and the Olympic monotype class. The latter class will race over a [illegible] course inside the breakwater of the harbor, while the other classes will race on courses outside the breakwater.

The Gerlach Barklow Motor Yacht Club have been placed at the disposal of the yachting committee. These include [illegible] dressing rooms, lockers and shower baths for the crews and marine piers for convenient [illegible] as well as anchorage for visiting [illegible].

Spectators will be able to witness the yacht races from the tower-ing sidehills on Point Fermin and from the government breakwater which extends from that point about two miles to form the outer harbor of the city of Los Angeles.

Old Lady: Why, I wouldn't cry like that, my little man.

Boy: Cry as ya darn please, this is my way.

© 1931, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Light up . . . Convince Yourself that Chesterfields Satisfy

FLIP OPEN a pack of Chesterfields! Help yourself to a cigarette . . . Light up . . . and let's get the facts.

Mister . . . you're dead right. They're milder!

It's no secret in tobacco circles that Chesterfield buys the finest tobaccos that grow . . . Turkish and Domestic . . . sun-ripened, mellow, pure!

Chesterfields are blended first . . . then cross-blended . . . to make them milder . . . and milder still! There's no mistaking that rare balance of flavor built up by Cross-Blending. You enjoy it in every fragrant puff!

Even the cigarette paper is different. Cleaner, whiter, tasteless . . . the purest that money can buy.

Listen, smokers . . . this is straight. You can't put taste in a cigarette . . . unless quality goes in, too.

● Pass your verdict on Chesterfield's Radio Program, too! Nat Shilkret's 35-piece Orchestra with Alex Gray, soloist, are on the Columbia Network every night except Sunday, at 10:30 Eastern Standard Time.

THEY'RE MILDER • • THEY'RE PURE • • THEY TASTE BETTER • • They Satisfy

College Men Put Over Tab-Collar Shirt

Fad Turns Into Popular Demand as Males in all Walks Take It Up

(illegible) ...

... with a fine grain. These patterns come in handkerchief and all the accepted shirt fabrics of the material. Another ... cloth has "candy" stripes, which are slightly more pronounced.

The same color and pattern combinations are seen in madras, which is also offered in solid blue, tan and green. Another popular shirt is an Oxford with tab collar in solid blue, tan, silver and green. Tabs are also ... with white ground ... with white ...

The ... tab collar ... that would ... the ... a ... the ... and the ... and ... a ... attached ... This is ... to ... the ... tab ... are ... and ... a ... tab ... It ... at ... off ... as ... tabs ... the ... collar and ... it ... A ... and efficient feature is a ... strip of celluloid, which slips into the front point on either side underneath and keeps the front of the collar erect.

Comfort and smartness for the tabs are provided by expert shaping of the collar to the neck. Some of the first English tab collars were too full and high at the sides, causing a wrinkle or fold around the bottom of the collar on each side. Now they are cut out like a regular, starched, separate collar and present a smooth surface all around. They are 2¼ inches high in front, 1⅝ inches at the sides and 1⅝ inches in the back.

STUDENTS TRAVEL TO CHARLOTTE TO DEBATE

Bigelow and LaCross Argue Against Rogers and Myers—Wright Chairman

... last Tuesday night two debaters ... the Lincoln Grange here ... program. ... carried out the ... a debate was held ... Lucy Lane Wright ... Carl Rogers '35 ... the negative side of the ques... Paul LaCross '32 and James ... upholding the negative. Stuart ... acted in capacity of chairman. ... were then discussed ... the audience ... on the opposite ... and voted in favor of the affirmative.

After the debate had been concluded William Myers played several selections while Carl Rogers accompanied him on the violin. Several stunts were presented by Paul LaCross and Carl Rogers in ... the Grangers took part. Songs ... were also added to ... the program very successful.

Tonight the University of Vermont debaters are scheduled to appear at the Lincoln Grange to take charge of the program, including an entertainment and a debate. The question to be discussed is "Resolved that civilization is going to the dogs." The debaters will have supper at the homes of the various Grange members prior to the debate.

MARGARET MOWER '32 ... at meeting of Monroe ... week ago.

MARCH 25 IS LAST DATE TRI-STATE MANUSCRIPTS MAY BE SUBMITTED

March 25 has been set as the last day on which manuscripts may be submitted for the seventh annual Tri-state Literary Contest.

Of the three contestants, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, who have participated for six years, Vermont has won first place three times, New Hampshire twice, and Maine once. Vermont has also taken second place twice and third place once.

The English Department ... in charge of manuscripts is especially desirous of receiving contributions from freshmen. Contributions may be given to any member of the department.

Formerly it was necessary to hand in three copies of each manuscript submitted, but this year only one copy is required. Typewritten copy is preferred.

Edward Fitzgerald '32 is the ... winner from Vermont who is in college. He won first prize ... in 1930 and shared the third prize in short story last year with Frederic W. Frost '31.

Being Collegiate

Penn State is giving free dancing lessons in order to encourage attendance to the various dances.

Six hundred seventy-five checks, totaling $7,000 have been returned to students of the University of North Carolina. One student has been dismissed, sixty-three have been put on probation and several were not allowed to register for the new semester. The University is cooperating with the stores and banks of Chapel Hill on the payment of bills by students.

The ... student ... ever ... registered at Ohio State University ... when the Ohio American Legion adopted a resolution declaring that military training is a part of the curriculum of land grant colleges and that, as long as it is, officials of the institutions are to be commended for carrying ... out the ... of land and sea ... minority."

Military training is valuable, the Legion said, not as a means of training for war but because it teaches self-protection.

Meanwhile editors of the New Free Lance and ... campus student publication which ridicules the "administration controlled" Ohio State Lantern, official university publication, delivered to the campus ... latest issue criticizing Dr. George W. Rightmire, president, for not putting into practice his convictions against military drill. The sheet quoted a dispatch from Chicago to the Christian Science Monitor on Doctor Rightmire's proposal to the Association of Land-Grant Colleges that compulsory peace training be substituted for compulsory war training.

"Asked in an interview if he thought such a course might offer training just as patriotic as the military course, Doctor Rightmire answered, 'probably more so,'" the article quoted the Monitor as saying.

"Yes, Doctor Rightmire has a conviction," commented the student publication. "Perhaps. We will know definitely when he makes an open and sincere effort to put his splendid idea into practice."—Maine Campus.

Bits of Bunk

"What was George Washington ... for?"

"His memory."

"What makes you think his ... was so great."

"They erected a monument to ..."

Wild Throw

Wise: I saw Mary out with Bob last night. Thought she had thrown him over.

Wiser: She did, but you know how a girl throws.—Drexel Drexerd

She (to one-armed driver): For goodness sake, use two hands.

He: Can't. Gotta drive with one.

"I don't like to ride with you you're too reckless."

"Yes, we've had some tight squeezes haven't we?"

She Knew Better

Mother (to Ethel, age 4½): This is your new nurse, Ethel. Come here and give her a nice kiss.

Ethel: Yes—and get my face slapped like daddy did.

Northern Vermont Artists to Exhibit at Museum

... has been made that the annual ... exhibition of Northern ... artists ... be held at the Fleming Museum on May first to eighteenth inclusive.

... the ... contributors will ... a ... of ... work ... Prof. ... Wood ... evening from under the auspices of the Fleming Museum Art Association. ... are held each Wednesday evening ... commencing the first week ... Professor Wheeler ... and Miss Katherine Wheeler ... the ... year ... Professor ... the ... Miss ... Miss ... Miss

SPORTS NEWS

TREASURE HUNT HELD FOR CO-EDS TO START TOMORROW AT GYM

Jackie Hoyt and Billie Mount in Charge of First of Series of Novel Hikes to be Run by College

CHANCE TO EARN MORE W. A. A. POINTS

Plan Has Worked Successfully at Other Colleges and Has Been Very Interesting

...afternoon at 2 o'clock the ... will start on the Treas... hike idea. The hikers ... gymnasium where they ... the first instructions as to ... going, why they are go... they will do.

... the first of a series of ... by W. A. A. under the ... Jackie Hoyt '34 and Billie ... Mary Petras '33, is chair... committee in charge of this ... Frances Sinon '33, Marie ... and Margaret Kenney '33, ...

... Party hike is scheduled for ... The women will be driven ... and then they will walk ... up in the hills where ... furnished refreshments. The ... by Twink Mount '35 with ... Lafontaine '35; Fanny Hosley ... Hurd '35 and Christine Yule ... assistant directors.

... Easter recess a hike to the ... Pisgo on April 16 has been ... by Thelma Appell '33 assisted ... Pisgo '35; Betty Fox '34 and ... Cassels '33.

... like a fox and goose chase is ... Jackie Hoyt '34 and will be ...

... opportunity for all women ... not only earn W. A. A. points ... part in some of the most ... interesting hikes that have ... held at U. V. M. This method ... been tried out successfully ... women's colleges.

... the first year that anything ... been tried by the Women's ... Association, but the plan is a ... to interest co-eds in outdoor ... Enough interest is manifested ... of hikes that is being run ... the physical education depart... arrange a longer list for next ...

... who is interested is cordially ... attend any of these walks. It ... a good idea to wear a pair ... shoes.

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM WINS THREE, LOSES ONE

... famous women's rifle team, ... national recognition last year ... the season with but one ... recently added three wins and ... to their record for this season ... returns from telegraphic ... Vermont defeated Kansas State ... 490 to 493 in the week of ... 14 while Northwestern and ... reported the small end of the ... ing week, 492 to 477 and ... 489 respectively. In that same ... lost to Wyoming, 492 to ... by Coach Kullman.

The University of Vermont Varsity Basketball Squad

SHARPSHOOTERS LAST IN A TRIANGULAR MATCH WITH NORWICH AND TECH

Sheldon, Individual High Scorer —M. I. T. First and Norwich Second at Northfield Range

Massachusetts Tech finished first, Norwich second, and Vermont third in a triangular rifle match held on the Norwich range last Saturday afternoon. The Boston shooters amassed a score of 2,280, Norwich made 2,191, and Vermont had 2,173.

Sheldon of Vermont was the meet's high individual scorer with a total of 271 in a possible 300. Dunham of Vermont and Bassinor and Foote of Tech each fired the next best score, 267, while Howe of Norwich was one point behind them with 266.

The summary:

M. I. T.		N. U.		U. V. M.
Bassinor	267	Howe	266	Sheldon	271
Foote	267	Caron	253	Dunham	267
Spiegel	260	Moffit	253	Burke	249
Hodges	256	Carter	248	Gilbert	247
Crick	256	Stebbins	239	Park	242
Lyon	253	Cum-		Preedom	232
Hopkins	243	mings	238	Donahue	230
Eddy	238	Williams	237	Perry	223
Shapiro	240	Cuff	231	Primpas	212
		Elliott	226
	2,280		2,191		2,173

Notice from Corps Area informed Lieutenant Kullman, coach of the rifle team, that Vermont is to participate in the national shoot which is a duplication of the Corps Area shoot just completed in which M. I. T. stood first, Connecticut Aggies second, and Vermont third. The national shoot must be fired between March 16 and April 16.

Starting yesterday, five members of the team have been engaged in the Hearst trophy match which must be completed today. They are Captain Sheldon, Dunham, Gilbert, Donahue and Preedom. Tomorrow the rifle team journeys to Montreal to fire a match with McGill University. The prone position is the only position to be contested.

CAT'S MEOW

Sports Editor

With the basketball season officially closed, we may look back with pride to the record achieved by both the Catamount and Kitten teams.

For the first time in three seasons the varsity managed to cop six victories, and in addition lost only three home games.

The frosh maintained an unblemished home record, and lost but two games on foreign courts, a fine record.

Coaching, material and cooperation are all important requisites to insure success; knowing that all three factors were present throughout the season we congratulate the players and coaches, Burke and Post.

Proctor High School in being the runner-up for the senior honors deserves a great deal of credit. Capt. Dick Shand played through the last two games with an injured ankle and Ed Baccei went through the final game with a broken nose.

The overflow crowds and incapacity of the facilities of the gymnasium make it imperative that the Twelfth Annual Tournament be held in the Memorial Auditorium.

The only reason for the tournament being held at the gym this year was due to the fact that the city fathers absolutely refused to install showers for the participants.

A professor at Creighton University told his French classes that the relation between a woman and a cravat was that they were both always around your neck.

FOUR TEAMS TRIUMPH IN LAST WEDNESDAY'S INTERFRAT RELAY RACES

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Phi and Sigma Nu Win First Set of Contests

The first set of interfraternity track relays was run off Wednesday afternoon at four in the gymnasium under the direction of Archie Post, director of intramural athletics. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi were the winners of the first quartet of races, beating out Phi Sigma Delta, Delta Psi, Owls and Alpha Tau Omega respectively. Kappa Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon won their races by default, but Sigma Nu, last year's champions, and Sigma Phi had stiff competition to win.

Sigma Nu ran against a fighting fast Owl team, but easily won, when the anchor man on the Lambda Iota squad passed out. The most interesting race of the afternoon came when Sigma Phi nosed out Alpha Tau Omega by a hair. Brown, Bush, Tupper and Billings represented Sigma Phi and they went very good until Lenihan ran against Billings. The diminutive chap from Rutland gained visibly on his man making the race much closer than it had been. Art Blakey ran a smooth race for the Alpha Taus. The Kappa Sigs had a time trial notwithstanding the fact they were not racing and did the twelve laps in two minutes and fifty-one seconds, which is record time.

This afternoon, Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu will attempt to best each other. Last year in the finals, Sigma Nu nosed out Kappa Sigma in a flashy manner. Today, however, the latter team is favored to triumph. Sigma Alpha Epsilon will take on Sigma Phi. The latter team is expected to win in this case also, although the S. A. E. team showed up very well last year with Mulcahy, Valerio, Tomassetti and Calcagni running.

BASEBALL HAS BEGUN AS EVIDENCED BY THE ACTIVE CAGE MANEUVERS

Team Still Lacks Strong Battery Staff for Hardest Schedule in Years

COACH GARDNER IS CONFIDENT OF TEAM

Infield Is Strongest Part of an Otherwise Strong Varsity Squad

Baseball starts with the ring of the bat on the horsehide covered sphere, and ... the smell of ... the leather of gloves ... the ... sphere, and world... over the coach completes the atmosphere ... the cage in the pre-season practice of the varsity baseball squad before it goes to the sunny southland.

Coach Larry Gardner, king of coaches at the University of Vermont, is back for another year to make the team which will represent the Green and Gold on the diamond. Coach Gardner has turned out some very successful teams in the years he has been at Vermont. He draws from the men their maximum capability and makes winners out of them.

The most important part of the team finds Vermont lacking in a wealth of material. The pitching and catching staff of the Catamount nine has been ably depleted by graduation and the rest of the team will have to be more than usually good to alleviate the weakness. To be sure, Chet Rutkowski, Vermont's star hurler, is back for another season in the mound, but one pitcher cannot carry alone the burden of an intensely heavy schedule without weakening. Spicer, Brunell and Beckley from the frosh team last year are out in the cage lumbering up their arms in preparatory practice. Each aspires to a varsity position. For catchers there are no regular varsity men back, but there are many good aspirants to this position. Tomassetti, who was on the varsity squad last year is working hard along with Jack Morgan, varsity basketball center and tackle on the grid iron team.

At the initial sack Eddie Winant is already in action for this position. His basketball days are over for the Green and Gold, but his services are always needed on any varsity squad. The infield finds many candidates working out for coveted positions on the varsity. Bob Macomber, Tom Cogswell and Dutch McKay form three of the strongest infield men who are out for second base positions. Frankie Pires is hitting the ball around, after chasing a basketball around all season. He is out for shortstop. Ben Baker and Ben Rubino are working hard for the privilege of playing at the hot corner. The infield seems to be one of the strongest Vermont has ever had in recent years. All the men can hit and they can scoop up the ball in professional manner.

The daisy field finds a wealth of material practicing batting in the indoor workouts. Collins, Jay and Taft are trying their hand at it. The first two played varsity baseball last year. Gardner sees no reason why this year's team should not be as successful as any of the other teams in recent years. As usual the team does not hope to win many of the games it plays on the southern trip, but they are all good practice games. Vermont is at a disadvantage because it can have no outdoor practice before it leaves on one of the hardest trips any varsity team ever takes.

EASTER FORMALS

Dress up for the Easter Formals

TUXEDOS $25 (Complete)

Also

DRESS SHIRTS — DRESS TIES
STUD and LINK SETS — DRESS COLLARS

Everything You Need

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

CHARTER HOUSE
SUITS
FOR SPRING

Waffle weaves are presented exclusively in Charter House Clothes for spring. A new type of fabric pattern that will lead the way in clothes popularity.

SUITS $30 and $35
With Two Trousers

TOPCOATS
$25 and $30

Miles & Perry Company
QUALITY CLOTHIER
Established 1898

Custom Tailoring

And when we say Custom Tailoring we mean every garment cut, trimmed and made in our own shop from the finest imported woolens from the best mills in England, Scotland and Ireland.

You have the opportunity of seeing the woolens in the piece, careful and painstaking fitting before the garment is finished.

TURKS
Burlington Vt.

156-158 College St.

VERMONT WINS VICTORY OVER N. Y. U. TEAM

Continued from page 1

BISHOP DALLAS SPEAKS AT VESPER SERVICE

Frugality

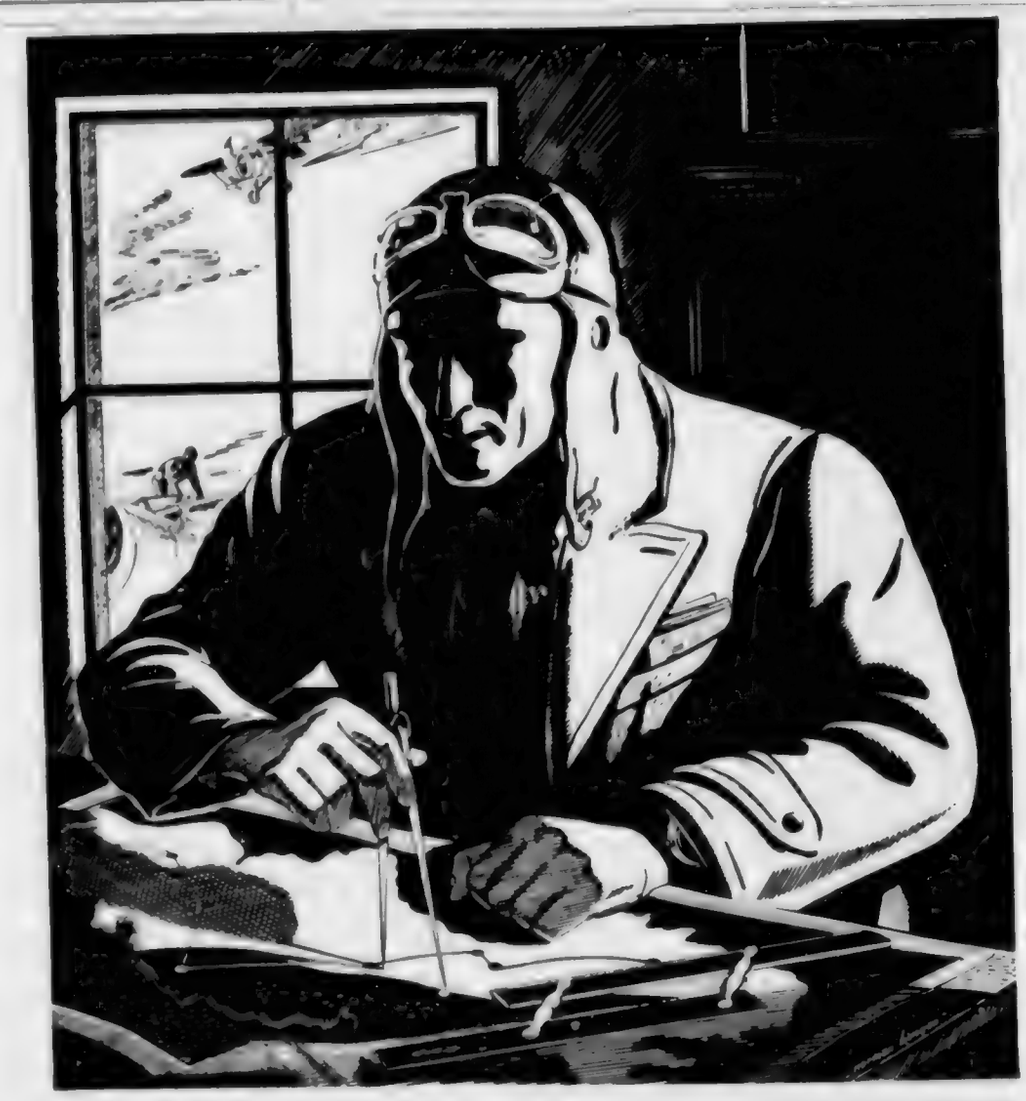
HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

FOR YOUR DANCES AND PARTIES
Decorations
Favors
Powdered Wax
Art Materials
McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street
PRIZE CUPS and TROPHIES
Expert Repairing and Engraving
Fraternity Jewelry

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
102A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington



BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

In the Modern Library Series
just added to the
LENDING LIBRARY
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE
are the following
Dostoyevksy: CRIME AND PUNISHMENT
Stoker: DRACULA
Tchekov: THE SHORT STORIES OF ANTON TCHEKOV
Dreiser: SISTER CARRIE
Mann: THE MAGIC MOUNTAIN

—and that's what the statistician does for industry

Definite knowledge of "where we are" and "what lies ahead" is as vital in business as in flying. For this expert navigating, the Bell System has long relied upon statisticians.

These men study present and prospective industrial, economic and social conditions in all parts of the country. They gather facts—analyze them, correlate them, discover their significance to the telephone business, draw guidance from them. They study and forecast the changing requirements of the public for telephone service. They estimate the probable future demand for new services, such as radio telephony to foreign lands and ships at sea. They keep the executives advised as to current progress towards the objectives thus carefully determined.

Only by plotting a course scientifically can the Bell System continue to develop along sound lines.

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1932 | NUMBER 42

Warden Lawes of Sing Sing Will Speak Here Thursday

Prominent Criminologist Will Deliver Lecture at Gymnasium on "A Practical View of the Problem of Crime and the Criminal"

THIS WILL BE LAST OF UNIVERSITY LECTURES

... warden of Sing Sing ... an expert in re... will deliver a lec... View of the Problem ... Criminal," Thursday ... nasium. This lecture, ... al aspects of law en... and prison methods, will ... of the current Uni... will be open to the ...

... the lecturer's choice of ... R. Gifford, head of the ... committee, states, "His ... the conviction that ... age human beings, that ... the most effective way ... and that capital pun... defeat its own aims."

... serving as warden of Sing ... Mr. Lawes has lectured ... social aspects of delin... and is, moreover, the ... Mark's Judgment of Death," ... Death in Sing Sing," and sev... on capital punishment, ... and penology. He also has served ... capacities connected with law ... and enforcement.

... Lawes through his numerous ac... has attained a national reputa... last year S. J. Woolf, interviewed ... behalf of the New York Times. ... interview, Warden Lawes ex... his attitude towards his prisoners ... wing manner:

... human nature depends upon ... approach. If you are looking for ... you will be sure to find them. ... humans are wholly good. On ... hand, if you want to find good, ... it in a large measure. In ... good from bad, or bad from ... the secret of dealing with ... nature. I have always tried to ... maintain a middle course. A man cannot ... made over by magic process. But if ... find the things he will respond ... readily, you will be able to ... that contact so as to affect his ... attitude toward life."

Has Faith in the Criminal

... drawn by Lawes of a Sing ... gives the reason for his faith ... criminal as an average ... can be regenerated to self... trustworthy, and social living. ... the last attempt to escape ... Sing," says the warden, "when

(Continued on page 4)

DEWEY CLUB TO HEAR METCALF ON "INSANITY"

... Insanity" is to be the ... Prof. John T. Metcalf's talk ... the Dewey Club Wednesday, ... 23. This monthly meeting of ... the Dewey Philosophical and ... Club is scheduled for ... evening in the Flem... auditorium, and the fac... body, as well as all ... invited to hear Professor ...

... the speaker's topic, ... president of the club ... editor-in-chief of the ... comment:

... than insanity, al... abnormal a characteris... often right where the ... wrong. Our speaker ... experiments in the ... testing and analysis ... His intensive study of ... states and the field ... well qualify him ... able and thoroughly ... of the relationship ... between the charac... and the insane ... Professor Metcalf has a ... studies of characters ... life, and from his...

... Metcalf, Ph.D., has ... M. for over ten years, ... general psychology, ... esthetic, and abnormal ... a contributor and ... journals of psy... and experiment. ... to initiate R. H. ... the meeting. He ... newly initiated on the ... manuscript on ... Mental System."

FRATERNITIES PREPARE FOR EASTER DANCES

Nine Greek Letter Societies Plan to Have Dances on March 18, Two on March 25

"Spring is here"—poetically speaking—and the depression seems to have little dampening effect upon the fraternal spirit of annual Easter celebration, since every Greek letter society on the hill is preparing for the spring dance. Friday, March 18 is the popular night, while Delta Psi and Phi Delta Theta are the only fraternities to select the twenty-fifth. All dances will be house dances.

The music for Alpha Tau Omega's formal will be furnished by Bob Minotti's Band. The chaperons are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burke and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Jenney.

The Kappa Sigs formal dance, chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. George V. Kidder, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Abell, will be synocopated by the Ribbon Kings.

Formal is the order for Sigma Nu. The orchestra is Billy Murray's from Barre, and the chaperones are Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Adams, Mr. Melvin Laatsch, and Dr. Yvonne Turk.

The frosh are in charge of Lambda Iota's informal, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Van Note, and Prof. and Mrs. W. T. Fulton are chaperoning.

Phi Mu Delta will celebrate the arrival of spring with an informal for which Freddie Lynch's orchestra will play. The chaperones are Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Stineford, and Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair.

The Phi Sigma Deltas are not holding their formal dance now, but are indulging in a victrola party, the chaperones being Prof. and Mrs. F. D. Carpenter.

The spring frolic of Sigma Alpha Epsilon will be chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Pooley, Mr. Milton H. Aldrich, and Miss Cornelia H. Collier. Joe Lechnyr's Vermonters will furnish the musical agony.

Sigma Delta's informal is also in charge of the freshmen, who have engaged Don Preston's orchestra for the harmony. The chaperones will be Prof. and Mrs. L. B. Puffer, and Prof. K. J. Sheldon.

The Black Panthers from Middlebury have Sigma Phi's rhythmic pulsations in hand, and Prof. and Mrs. A. N. Colton will act as chaperones.

The informal on Zeta Chi's slate will be supported by the Globe Trotters of Barre as "jazzeers," and Prof. and Mrs. H. G. Millington, with Mr. and Mrs. George Ward of Essex Junction as chaperones.

The above fraternities are all dancing on the evening of March 18, and the following will hold their dances on the twenty-fifth.

The terpsichorean impulses for Delta Psi will emanate from Kitty Karr's orchestra, with Dr. and Mrs. Paul K. French, and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burke acting as chaperones.

Phi Delta Theta will have a formal, and the harmonists will be the Cunarders.

ANNA ROME GIVES TALK ON JEWISH CUSTOMS

Saturday afternoon, Miss Anna Rome addressed an audience composed principally of children at the Fleming Museum. Her interesting illustrated talk concerned Jewish holidays and the customs thereon.

The most outstanding of these holidays and customs are here mentioned. New Year's Day is in September, and is a day of meditation. Sabbath Day, on which candles are lighted, starts Friday night and ends Saturday night. This is a day for spiritual improvement and rest. The Passover commemorates the day of delivery which was commanded by Moses. When the Jews left Egypt they left in haste and didn't have time to let their bread rise. Therefore, at the present time, during the Passover, for eight days the Jews eat only unleavened bread. During this time, at every Jewish table, a chair is left vacant for Elijah, who, they believe, disappeared. In June, when the fruit begins to ripen, Shevuoth, the day on which the Commandments were given, is celebrated.

DEAN SWIFT DISCUSSES COLLEGE PREPARATION BY THE HIGH SCHOOLS

Believes That Inadequately Prepared Student From Rural School Should be Given Chance

FACULTY MEMBERS SPEAK

"Shall the colleges, by a rigorous entrance examination, eliminate weak students who are likely to fail, or shall they, as a western college professor put it, take 'em in on anything, put 'em through the mill, and drop 'em out.'"

Dean Swift, speaking before the twenty-seventh conference of the schools of Vermont, with the University of Vermont and the Champlain Valley Teachers' Association, Friday afternoon, said that in his personal opinion, the boy from the small, remote high school, who is perhaps inadequately prepared, should be allowed to come in and try. "If he has the stuff in him, he will make good."

The subject of his address was: "What Can the High Schools Do to Improve the Preparation of Students for College?" "A large percentage of U. V. M. freshmen drop out or are dropped out," said Dean Swift, "and the mortality is even higher in many western universities."

Four members of the Vermont faculty were asked to give their opinions upon the preparation of college students. Professor Donahue would like the entering student to be able to read a mathematical problem, and know what is in it; to have the habit of doing his own work himself, and to be definite. "Too many students use a shotgun instead of a rifle when aiming at the mathematical target."

Professor Aiken thinks that a student should be able to spell, that he should understand the fundamentals of grammar and punctuation, that he should be able to express himself in writing coherently and without gross errors.

Professors Prindle and Kidder stated that the high school student has attempted too many subjects, instead of concentrating upon the mastery of essentials. It is better for the student to know ten facts than to half know thirty they said.

Professor DeForest says that three years are necessary for an adequate preparation for college French. The students have a scattered knowledge of many topics of French grammar, few know any one thoroughly. The written work handed in is often slovenly.

Discussing the causes of failure in college Dean Swift said that most students could have remained in college if they had really wanted to more than they

(Continued on page 4)

French Society Hears of Algeria

Last Friday evening at the Fleming Museum a large audience "accompanied" Prof. Pierre Martino, Dean of the University of Algiers, on a promenade touristique through Algeria, the land of dramatic contrasts.

Professor Martino believes that the best qualities of the French may be seen in Algiers, their energy, their sociabilite, their power of assimilation. He also believes that the French rule imposed on the troublesome tribes is bringing prosperity to the land.

He took his hearers on an imaginary trip from Algiers to Biskra, first making a loop along the shores of the Mediterranean, then to El Kantara, the "gate of the desert" and then farther south into the Sahara and the oasis city of Biskra.

Large European cities are growing up in Algeria, the largest and best known being Algiers. Only in the quarter of the Kasbah does one find oneself in an oriental atmosphere, surrounded by picturesque, rambling houses, walking along narrow-roofed streets, climbing long flights of stairs, meeting the native Algerians, the men in European costume, the women in colorful oriental garments.

The district of Kabili is rough and mountainous, but it is nevertheless one of the most populous regions of the world, with exactly the same number of inhabitants to the square kilometer as Belgium. The roads are thronged with people, especially women carrying water jars, sometimes of antique design, more often the omnipresent gasoline tin.

Hard to Describe

Very different is the region of lofty plateaus to the south of Algiers. It is hard for a lecturer, even a most clever one, to describe this region, for there is

(Continued on page 2)

Spirit of Honorary Groups Saves Diamond Trip South

Members of Student Senate, Gold Key, Key and Serpent and Bolder Convene in Sunday Meetings to Discuss Astounding Report

OFFERS PLAN TO ABOLISH COMBINES IN POLITICS

Albert, Faculty-student Council Member Proposes Creation of a Student Congress

In a statement to the CYNIC yesterday, Harry M. Albert '32, a senior representative to the Faculty-student Council, offered a plan which would do away with the existing combine system of engineering student politics.

The plan, which will be considered at tomorrow's meeting of society representatives called by Mortar Board, embodies three main proposals, and calls for the abolition of class offices, and Student Senate, together with the creation of a student congress to be regulated by a constitution, which shall be drawn up by representatives from the entire student body.

Albert, who was quoted in Friday's CYNIC as unreservedly in favor of present political methods, today lampooned student critics, who termed all efforts at reform "futile and impracticable."

Referring to his suggestions made yesterday, in an interview with a CYNIC reporter today, he said: "After reading comments of campus leaders which showed their desire for some plan to rid the Vermont campus of the so-called 'unfortunate' and 'dirty mess,' I feel that if the groups are willing to sacrifice petty, individual desires for the good of all, this plan will prove successful. If the plan is 'novel' and has appeared before 'eternity,' the organized groups should give it their 'sincerest considerations.' It will be a start toward putting an end to the inheritance and trading of certain offices and the tendency to keep positions in the hands of a select minority. It will give every student with ability 'who does not go out for office because he does not want to dabble in the dirty mess of combines,' a place in the stars. It will distribute offices in a fair manner."

The Plan

The plan as received by the CYNIC yesterday:

"Whereas existing systems of student politics have proved unsatisfactory.

I. Be It Resolved

A. That class offices and student senate be abolished and a constitution be drawn up by representatives of the student body.

B. This constitution shall provide for a Congress whose membership shall include one member of each fraternity and sorority from each class and two independents from each class.

II. Be It Resolved

A. That officers who are members of the Congress be provided for in a constitution and that they must secure a petition signed by fifty students which shall enable them to announce their candidacy.

B. Freshmen shall be admitted as Congress members after having followed the same procedure at the beginning of the second semester.

III. Be It Resolved:

A. That a rotation system be installed by which dance and prom chairmen, alumni council members, permanent class officers, Kake Walk committees, Junior and Senior Week officials be appointed by the respective groups, who shall have at a designated time their turn to hold office, as provided for in a constitution.

B. Meetings:

1. The Congress shall meet in separate councils or as a body of the whole at least once each month.

2. The entire student body shall meet at least once every two months. This shall be provided for in a constitution.

C. Exceptions:

1. The Faculty-student Council shall retain its status quo, excepting that candidates for student membership file a petition signed by proportionate number of the students from the several colleges and classes.

The Research Club, composed of members of the faculty, will hold a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in Morrill Hall. Prof. M. B. Cummings, professor of horticulture, will be the speaker. His subject will be "Fertility in Fruit Blossoms."

INTERVIEW WITH PRES. BAILEY IS FAVORABLE

Pep Rally for Team's Send-off Is Planned for Next Wednesday Evening—Attendance of Every Student Necessary

For the first time in several years, the members of Boulder, Key and Serpent, Gold Key and Student Senate gathered together in two meetings at the Sigma Nu house last Sunday afternoon and evening and functioned in a manner that was fitting the various honorary societies on the campus when they announced that they would back and help support the baseball team's annual southern trip which had been cancelled by vote of the Athletic Council at a meeting last Saturday afternoon. Ed Winant, president of Student Senate, took charge of the joint meeting of the class societies.

Sunday afternoon's meeting resulted in a discussion of the matter at hand and the selection of an investigation committee to interview President Bailey concerning the status of the matter at hand. The committee, composed of Ed Winant, chairman, Raymond Cobb, Boulder representative, James Wood from Key and Serpent, John Beckley, member of Gold Key, and David Webster from Student Senate, reported at the evening meeting that a new action had been taken, reinstating the games on the schedule and making it possible for the team to make the trip.

Athletic Finances Low

Saturday afternoon's meeting of the University of Vermont's Athletic Council revealed the fact that, since the athletic budget was running under and no financial backing was forthcoming to make up for the deficit, the Green and Gold baseball team would be unable to make the annual southern trip this year, which for over thirty-five years has been a feature of the college. The announcement threw the baseball fans into consternation. Ed Winant, president of Student Senate, called a meeting of all members of Student Senate, Gold Key, Key and Serpent and Boulder early Sunday morning. Nearly every member of these organizations responded to the urgent call and assembled to do business. Wholesale backing was guaranteed by the men in the societies, and different methods of raising money were discussed.

At the evening meeting the committee reported that a new action had been taken after the afternoon visit to President Bailey with a petition signed by the various class presidents and honorary society members. It was also decided that a mass meeting would be held a week from tomorrow.

(Continued on page 4)

MUSIC DEPARTMENT TO GIVE EASTER CONCERT

The annual Lenten Easter Concert will be given this year at 4 p.m., Sunday, March 20, in the Ira Allen Chapel, by the members of the University Choir under the direction of Prof. Howard Gordon Bennett with the assistance of the University Orchestra with Miss Miriam Natalie Marston as organist, and Miss Charlotte deVolt as concert-master of the orchestra.

Included on the program will be the compositions which have been performed at former concerts: Selections from Handel's "Messiah," and the final chorus from Bach's "St. Matthew Passion." Works which have not been performed here before will be: "Adoramus Te Christie" by Palestrina, sung by the men of the choir, "Christ is Risen" by Kalstalsky, sung by the women of the choir, and "Christ ist Erstanden" by Elsa Kremers Bennett. This last is a setting of the Easter hymn from Goethe's "Faust" sung by the whole choir; it will not only be in observance of Easter, but will also be celebrating the 100th anniversary of the death of Goethe, who died March 22, 1832.

Rev. R. A. Hall, assistant professor of English at the University, and pastor of the Congregational Church of Charlotte will read the scripture. The soloists will be Mailla Putnam '32, Elsie Roosa '33, S. Pierce, Jr., '34

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
Women's Editor
Sports Editor
Managing Editor
Business Manager
...Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34
[illegible] '34
[illegible] '34
C. Jackson Libby '34
Realtus McCuin '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] '34
M. I. Greenberg '34
[illegible] '34
F. I. Taylor '34

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G. H. Burrows '34
W. J. Gilbert '34
Charles T. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

I. Lasker '34

COLUMNIST

F. J. Wiseman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

[illegible] Subscription $3.00 a year. Communications must be signed and addressed to the proper [illegible] Entered as second class matter at the Burlington, Vt. Post Office. [illegible] Publication Office, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] Number 42

Seniors Encounter Hazards in Instructing at Secondary Schools

[illegible]

Often Become Discouraged

[illegible] teacher's methods of [illegible] the great professional test [illegible] Students of education have come to realize the part that effective teacher training plays in the [illegible] of public schools. The progress in the science is bound up in the progress of the preparation of teachers. Two things implied in training for a profession are a liberal education and a course in just how practice those things learned. [illegible] an academic one home economics girl who is teaching a foods class mentioned an experiment that her students were trying out upon some white rats to which they were attributing the results of certain foods upon the rats. In this type of work the girl of a practical art as well as an intellectual bent had a chance to display her ability. In many cases the practical girl has suffered, because her teachers have been quite ignorant of the practical type and could not understand her. She was misunderstood and labeled a failure, because she was not fit for that for which she had no taste.

Classes Willing to Cooperate

On the whole the student-teachers have found their classes very willing to cooperate with them in spite of the fact that their attempts at times may be rather crude. Following is an example of one [illegible] as told by one teacher. John who had been sitting with his elbow on his desk and his hand over one ear had answered "No" to the various questions [illegible] Are you sick? Are you tired? Does [illegible] But upon asking "What is the matter, the puzzled teacher received the answer, "My other ear hurt me last night so I used it all the night and now I'm trying to find out what's the matter with me."

Paging Mr. Shaw

George Bernard Shaw has made the statement [illegible] who can do, those who cannot teach," but the following [illegible] seems to present a great refutation of what a number of others are said to contradict Mr. G. B. Shaw's statement.

"Dear God there are teachers
Fearless of conduct
Wise dealings
Who see their tasks as well as eager eyes and loyal hearts.
Rich wisdom, pure acts
Sometimes it brings fame
Yet always it brings the gifts of the Magi
Heavy gold, faith, and trust in them
Me teacher."

Heavy frankincense—love and glowing hearts that sweet it. I see in wistful, timid heart which reckons all not in dollars.

Thus all this it me is a teacher and believes

And I would believe, aye fervently
In children in teachers in teaching
Teaching thought science a task, with facts to teach
But teaching a privilege a gift with children to learn
With Angelo Patri I look ahead a thousand years and I see not cities not navies warships nor soldiers – but children, little, laughing happy children and I put my hand in theirs and among dreams of sunshine and endless happy days
For I am a teacher

Bits of Bunk

When dad gets the bills it's good old college daze for him.

At Oberlin College, co-eds are allowed to smoke in their rooms if they provide fire extinguishers.

Students at Wisconsin receive credit for bull sessions.

It is a wise cook that knows its own pup.

B. U. was the first institution in America to give a Ph.D. to a woman.

The opposite of setting-up exercises is relating.

Life is something like a laundry. You get out of it what you put in, but sometimes the worse for wear.

Mrs. : I wouldn't cry for the best man living.
Mr. : No need to, my dear—you've got him.

90 Delegates Attend Meeting of Vt. Writers

Coates, Tupper, Dean and Peach Address First Educational Conferenc of Vermont League

OPEN FORUM FEATURES SECOND PART OF CONFAB

[illegible] Vermont Writers was held Saturday March 3 during the afternoon and evening in the auditorium of Fleming Museum. Walter J. Coates president of the League called the meeting to order at which about ninety writers were present and gave a brief summary of the League. He told how it was founded at Springfield two years ago, stating that the object of the State Literary League is to encourage writers and to bring the best in Literature to the people. He explained that the League is an educational organization which has helped people to the extent of a better understanding. His purpose in starting the League was to create a practical effort to improve the literature of Vermont. Mr. Coates gave a brief outline of the League's organization, its membership and its monthly publication, The Green Mountain Writer.

Prof. Leon Dean, director, welcomed the delegates. Then introduced the topic of "Writing for Money."

Writing for money is not writing for art, it is writing for money and all that writing for money is and writing for money is not writing for money is not writing for money is not

SPORTS NEWS

SPAULDING HIGH TO PLAY IN NEW ENGLAND TOURNEY MAR. 18 AND 19

State Senior Champions Accept Invitation of Newport Officials —State Junior-Senior Date Play-off Changed to March 22

...the fact that the officials of ... Interscholastic Tourna... consent to accept or even ... state junior champions as ... Spalding High has definitely ... invitation extended to them ... senior championship, to ...

...cept this invitation it was ... date of the junior-senior ... state title which was ... March 19 at the gym, to ... March 22. This change ... last week by the execu... of the Headmasters' Club ... Murray Wilbur of Spauld...

...on the part of Spauld... a very favorable reaction ... basketball circles of the ... everyone feels that it is ... necessary that our State be ... New England competition. ... also receives much sup... of the fine showing that ... High made at the tourney ...

...recalled that the local team ... to Rogers High of New... first game, put up a fine game ... by a narrow margin, and ... Rogers High breezed through ... the New England title with ...

...this year's champions are not ... as smart a team as last year's ... combination, whose "Stalling ... was highly effective in all its ... Spalding High has an excep... ... center in Capt. John ... and it was chiefly through the ... rangy pivot man that Burling... High was eliminated last year.

...event we may be assured that ... boys will give good account of ... whatever their competition ...

SEVENTY-FIVE COUPLES ATTEND BASKETBALL HOP

...seventy-five couples attended the ... Basketball Hop sponsored by ... Key sophomore honorary society, ... night in the University gym... The Cunarders played for the ... which was chaperoned by Coach ... Mrs. J. E. Burke and Dr. and Mrs. ... Braun. The committee in charge ... of W. T. Gilbert, chairman, T. ... C. B. Eaton, C. J. Libby and ... Myers.

Wanted: Snapshots suitable for the Ariel. This includes all snapshots of college life. Please give them to Russell Colburn, Margaret Powers or leave them in the Ariel box "this week." Put your name on the back of these pictures and they will be returned to you.

Try-outs for women's sextet, which will be women's chorus of Opera Cosi Fan Tutte, will be held next Wednesday at 4.00. Try-outs will be in combinations, so everyone wishing to try out be on time.

PROF. H. G. BENNETT.

GIRLS' BOWLING FINALS TAKE PLACE TOMORROW

The girls bowling tournament resulted in the following scores. The finals will be run off tomorrow on the seniors M. Yates has 86.6, D. Sweeney 85.7 and D. Brennan 81.1. On the juniors, I. Thomas rolled 84.1, T. Appell 78.3, M. Urie 78.9. The sophomores, headed by B. Woodward with 83.0, had F. Morse with 80.5 and D. Putnam 76.2, with J. Dodds, alternate, 75.1. The frosh pulled down 320.3 points, headed by L. Whitcomb with 83.8, followed by M. Tupper with 81.8, H. Heininger with 81.4, and E. Bechtold, alternate, with 73.3.

MANY GIRLS TURN OUT FOR TREASURE HUNT

Amusing Incidents and Chocolates Feature Novel Hike Sponsored by W. A. A.

Saturday afternoon, March 12, at two o'clock about forty girls turned out for a W. A. A. treasure hunt, which was directed by Mary Petras '33 and her assistants.

At the appointed time, the girls gathered at the gymnasium and were given the first clue, a six-line poem directing them to

"where a man
Holds clutched within his iron hand
The words proving our destination."

After a little concentration, the girls rushed down to greet Ira Allen. The message that this stately gentleman bore told the curious seekers about a weather prophet who could give the next clue. As if on wings, the girls flew to the Weather Bureau, where, from high steps, Leah Gowen spied the clue resting on the bark of a pine tree. This said to "trod a sylvan path." Its command was carried out, and the fourth clue was found on a fence. The weather-beaten fence said, "Robins build their nests in halls. Go, the treasure calls." As may easily be guessed, the next stop was at Robinson Hall, where a paper was found on which was a message telling of a "ready stone to throw at her who starts to groan." The majority of the group rightly guessed that Redstone was the next stop, but Billie Mount went up into the infirmary to find the groan.

From Redstone, the trail led to the Country Club and from there to Prospect Street. Here on a tree was an arrow, meant to direct the group. However, someone had turned it so that it pointed in the wrong direction, and about fifteen girls hiked about half a mile out of their way, before their error was discovered.

After this, the girls followed the trail to the quarry, Prospect Park, down South Willard Street, and up Main Street to the barn in back of the Alpha Chi Omega house. Here, after poking timorously into crevices filled with a terrifying darkness, the treasure seekers found three boxes of candy, upon which they immediately feasted. When the last chocolate disappeared, it was discovered that the candy had nothing at all to do with the treasure hunt, but was the property of the janitor.

Led by clues, the hunters went "into a musty, dim, damp, dark cell
Where in crevices great treasures dwell."

Once in the cellar of the Alpha Chi Omega house, the searching girls

(Continued on page 4)

SPEEDY RACES FEATURE THE QUARTER FINALS IN INTERFRAT RELAY BOUTS

Kappa Sigma, Sigma Phi, Phi Mu Delta, and Zeta Chi Win Their Contests Last Friday

In the fastest race run to date in the interfraternity relays Kappa Sigma nosed out last year's champs, Sigma Nu. Both teams were speedy and, although Kappa Sig won by a substantial margin, the result was never sure during the contest. The winners' time was beneath two minutes and fifty-two seconds. Every man ran a beautiful race and the baton changing was smooth. Abbott and Bedell were outstanding for Sigma Nu. The entire Kappa Sig team are in a class by themselves and heavy favorites to win the title.

In a much closer but slower race Zeta Chi eked out a win over Sigma Delta. It was Sigma Delta's race until it came to the anchor men, when George Hutchins beat the Sigma Delta's anchor man after overcoming a handicap of about twenty feet. This feat was the outstanding event of the day. The winners turned in the comparatively slow time of 3:09.

Sigma Phi's crack team took over a much inferior S. A. E. team. The Sigma Phi team, composed of Tupper, Busch, Brown and Billings, put on a classy exhibition of running and baton changing. A fighting but inferior S. A. E. team went down to defeat in spite of Wilder's great run as anchor man. The winning time was 2:59.

In a close contest Phi Mu Delta won from the Phi Delts. Young, Brooks and Hurley were outstanding for Phi Mu Delta. These three ran "heady" races and all came in strong on their final lap. Sims for Phi Delt ran a beautiful race but his handicap was too large. He went around in 43 seconds. The winners' time was 3.02.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sports Editor—

The sudden fall of Dartmouth from the top of the Eastern Intercollegiate League, has been one of the outstanding upsets of the current season. Ted Husing, Barry Wood's pal, over a month ago predicted that the Big Green was all set for a long slide and that Columbia was all set to annex its third straight title. To date he is not so far off.

We are glad to hear that Spaulding High has accepted the invitation to enter the New England tournament at Newport, R. I. The splendid showing of Burlington High there last year went a long way to add to the prestige of interscholastic basketball in this State.

Concluding from the brand of basketball which Spaulding displayed throughout the tournament this year, it appears obvious that Vermont will be well represented.

The capacity crowds which attended all of the tournament games this year, convincingly prove that interest in basketball is far from being on the decline.

The annual intramural boxing and wrestling tournament sponsored by the department of physical education which got under way yesterday provided the fans with plenty of thrills and laughter.

Interfraternity relays are also creating a great deal of interest this year. The winners of the preliminaries all looked strong.

The handball tournament sponsored by the physical training department is nearly finished with "Chief" Pires and "Hap" Taft (the Squire of Essex) looming up as potential champs.

When a swimming team like Yale's wins sixty meets in a row as they have been doing in the past eight seasons, it is time they had a shake-down.

Prof. H. G. Bennett, when interviewed by a Cynic reporter, stated that rehearsals were held every day last week for the opera "Cosi Fan Tutte," which will be presented April 14 at the Strong theater. Dramatic rehearsals are expected to be held this week. Professor Bennett said he was not quite ready to announce the choruses, but will do so soon.

Survey Reveals That The Athletes' Marks Are High

Managers and Team Members are Included on Various Deans' Lists at University of Vermont

ENGINEERS RANK FIRST, ARTS MEN SECOND

Tupper, Cobb, Eaton, Beckley and Park Have Marks Near the Phi Beta Kappa Line in Recent Markings

In reviewing the honor lists of the various colleges, it is surprising to note how many athletes and managers of athletics have attained high ranks during the past semester. Not only do they show that there are some high marks on the different teams, but they also reveal the fact that many athletes find time to study despite the popular fancy that a person goes under warning because he spends too much time with his team.

The Engineering College contributes the largest number of men to this group, and the Arts and Sciences College rates next. Allen Eaton, manager of football last fall heads the number of football players who are in the ranks of the honored. Joe Delfausse and Orrie Jay knocked the marks down during the first semester despite the fact they were on the football team. On the championship frosh team Rody Delfausse, "Itch" Giardi, Dave Behringer, and Jim Libby made high marks. Paul Westin, frosh manager, made the list.

Both varsity and frosh cross country runners had some high marks. Ev Wilder, star runner of the championship team, had an average over eighty. Bill Cass was on the Arts and Sciences honor roll. Sam Barker had an all "A" list to head the marks of the squad.

Basketball finds Manager Meehan of the varsity team and Manager Boyles of the frosh squad leading their teams in the good marks. Fred Tupper, star forward of the team, pulled down an all "A" average. Jerome Farwell and John Beckley pulled up the marks of the teams in a phenomenal manner. Of the freshmen, Delfausse, Patch and Squires made the dean's honor roll.

The rifle team contributes Dean Parks, who has nearly a ninety average but did not make the honor roll. Mario Tomassetti, manager of hockey, and Frenchie Mercier, star player, were both on the Engineers' honor roll. Ray Cobb, manager of frosh baseball, Bob Macomber, second baseman on the diamond team last year, and Les Woodward, captain of tennis, were included on their respective high honor list.

Sports Calendar

Wednesday—Final interfrat relays.
Saturday — Interfraternity track meet.
Wednesday—Preliminary wrestling matches.
Monday, March 21—Semi-finals of wrestling.
Wednesday, March 23—Finals of wrestling.

EQUESTRIAN EVENTS TO FEATURE OLYMPICS

Riviera Country Club to be Scene of Equestrian Competition Including Pole and Steeplechase

Los Angeles, Calif.—Participants in the equestrian events of the games of the Xth Olympiad, to be celebrated in this city from July 30 to August 14, will find that excellent facilities for their sport have been provided.

Riviera County Club, near Santa Monica and the Pacific Ocean, is thirty minutes from Olympic Stadium. The fashionable new clubhouse is surrounded by 320 acres of beautiful grounds containing five polo fields, excellent stables and quarters for grooms and attendants. Lounge and dining facilities as well as lockers and showers are provided in the clubhouse for the riders. Grandstands have been built to accommodate 5,000 spectators.

At this club will be held the individual dressage competitions on the morning and afternoon of August 10, the training test of the three-day event on the morning and afternoon of August 11, and the start of the endurance test (steeplechase) of the three-day event on the morning of August 12. The jumping test of the three-day event will be held in Olympic Stadium on the afternoon of August 13, along with the presentation of winners of the individual dressage held on August 10. The Prix des Nations will be held in Olympic Stadium on the afternoon of August 14, preceding the closing ceremony of the games.

PHI MU DELTA HOLDS FORMAL INITIATION

Phi Mu Delta fraternity announces the initiation, on March 6, of the following men: Forrest C. Braley '35, of Hartford; George W. Harding '35, of Woodstock; Charles I. Keelan '35, of Montgomery; William H. Myers '35, of Burlington; Carl A. Rogers '35, of S. Wallingford; Alden J. Spicer '34, of Essex Jct. Prof. L. D. Meredith, of the department of economics, was also initiated into the fraternity.

"What do we call a man who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested?"

"A teacher."

MOTION PICTURES OF GYPSY MOTH SHOWN

Motion pictures released from the United States Department of Agriculture were shown Monday, March 14 at 2:00 p.m., in the Fleming Museum Auditorium.

The Gypsy and Brown Tail Moths' Life History and as Insect Enemies, as well as "The Corn and the Borer" will be shown under the sponsorship of the department of zoology.

The University of Kansas publishes a Black List of professors who keep their classes after the bell rings.

EASTER FORMALS

Dress up for the Easter Formals

TUXEDOS $25 (Complete)

Also

DRESS SHIRTS DRESS TIES
STUD and LINK SETS DRESS COLLARS

Everything You Need

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Custom Tailoring

And when we say Custom Tailoring we mean every garment cut, trimmed and made in our own shop from the finest imported woolens from the best mills in England, Scotland and Ireland.

You have the opportunity of seeing the woolens in the piece, careful and painstaking fitting before the garment is finished.

TURKS Burlington

156-158 College St.

PROFESSOR LEON DEAN ADDRESSES PRESS CLUB

Social Meeting Held at Pi Beta Phi House is First Since Admission of New Members

MRS. CUMMINGS IS HONOR GUEST AT UNIVERSITY TEA

WOMEN DEBATERS WIN IN TWO FORENSIC TILTS

MANY GIRLS TURN OUT FOR TREASURE HUNT

(Continued from page 3)

SPIRIT OF HONORARIES SAVES SOUTHERN TRIP

(Continued from page 1)

WARDEN LAWES WILL SPEAK HERE THURSDAY

(Continued from page 1)

Clifford Praises

U. V. M. vs. Hunter

Society Notes

SIGMA GAMMA

ALPHA XI DELTA

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

PI BETA PHI

"What do you do for a living"
"I work in a burlesque show
"Shake"

DEAN SWIFT DISCUSSES COLLEGE PREPARATION

(Continued from page 1)

Marriage is made the happiest when it is made possible

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

PERFECT YOUR FRENCH
Residential Summer School
Beginners, Intermediate, Advanced
Write for circular to Secretary, Residential French Summer School
McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL, CANADA

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 2072

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 811 or 812

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Tandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

Have you thought of making
DENTISTRY
YOUR LIFE WORK?
The Harvard University Dental School offers an unsurpassed course in this field of health service with emphasis on medical associations. A "Class A" school. Write for catalog
Leroy M. S. Miner, D.M.D., M.D., Dean, Dept. C, 188 Longwood Ave., Boston, Mass.

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

for fuller figures
MAIDEN FORM RECOMMENDS
"DOUBLE SUPPORT"

With Maiden Form foundations, it's easy for any woman to acquire the smart new "shapely" silhouette which fashion favors. No matter what your figure type, these lovely garments are scientifically designed to mould perfectly—to give you a subtly uplifted bust, a slender waist and smoothly rounded hips. You'll like their daintiness and their exquisite workmanship, as well as the beautiful lines they give your figure, and you'll simply be enthusiastic about their marvelous wearing qualities.

Ask your dealer to show you Maiden Form Styles, or write us for booklet.

Maiden Form Brassiere Co., Inc.—Dept. C-88
245 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

Women with fuller figures find this Maiden Form "Double Support" Brassiere gives them ideal "uplift" support—and perfect comfort. Shown with a lovely all-elastic girdle—made especially for and imported by Maiden Form—to round the hips and slenderize the waistline.

Brassieres $1.00 to $2.95
Girdles $2.95 to $12.50
Garter Belts $1.00 to $2.95

"Non-A-Lastic" (front)—a new girdle with special non-stretchable center front for abdomen control. "Grecian Moon" brassiere has clever elastic insert between "uplift" bust sections.

"Maidenette Seamless" a new "wisp of a brassiere", for slight figures, with tiny seams under the bust so that they're practically invisible. The dainty garter belt is not trimmed with lace.

Look for the Name
The Maiden Form BRASSIERE
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.
GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS

No wonder men smoke PIPES!

EVERY PIPE SMOKER has the satisfaction of knowing he has one masculine right that the women won't take away from him. They do leave our pipes alone.

The favorite smoke of college men

And though the girls may not know it, they're leaving us one of the finest smokes a man can have. There's something calm and soothing about a pipe and good tobacco. It leads to clear-headed thinking. Perhaps that's why the leaders—the real men of the world—are pipe smokers.

A pipe is not the smoke for girls

College men like a pipe—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth, the favorite pipe tobacco in 42 out of 54 colleges. It's cut especially for pipes, to give a cooler, drier smoke. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1932 — NUMBER 43

Plans For Twenty-Fourth Summer School Completed

Opens July 5 and Closes August 13 With Total Enrollment Set at One Thousand—Professor Douglass in Charge of Annual Session

CREDITS WILL BE SAME AS IN REGULAR SESSIONS

...ally completed for the ... 1932, which we ex... ...essful as any thus far ... University," said Prof ... the department of edu... ... interview. This year, ... session will open Tuesday, ... August 13, 1932. The ... be limited to 1,000, the ... ing last year, and a full ... expected.

... Session is an integral ... work of the University. It ... to derive the benefit of ... and at the same time to ... opportunities in a de... region. Although it is ... character, and provides a wide ... courses in the languages, mathe... sciences, particular emphasis ... the social sciences, in... education," according to the Cer... Professor Douglass goes ... The number of courses last ... was 120, and will not be less than ... this year. It is possible to obtain ... the regular college year courses ... Summer School, for instance in ... where practically all of the ... courses are accessible."

Various Groups

... gives the various groups ... needs are met by the Summer ...

Students or teachers who have com... a full college course and who de... take work which will be credited ... a Master's degree.

Students with adequate preparation ... desire to take work of college grade ... college credit (Such students should ... the approval of courses which they ... the dean of the college in which ... are enrolled.)

Teachers in elementary or secondary ... who desire to take courses for ... professional improvement and for credit ... toward state teachers' certificates of ... higher grade.

Students who desire to remove col... entrance conditions. (Students who ... to take courses for this purpose ... only after consultation or ... correspondence with the Registrar of the ... University.)

Students who wish special instruc... in commercial subjects, art or music.

... last year twenty-three states, Quebec, ... Japan were represented in the student ... Of the total enrollment of 1,000, ... were Vermont residents. Of this ... 404 were Vermont teachers, princi... and superintendents. Three hun... students came from U. V. M., or ... colleges and 210 were graduate ... In 1923, the first season of the ... School, 558 attended, and the ... increased each year, until it ... 1000 in 1931. That is the limit ... year. Of the fifty-eight members

(Continued on page 4)

MISS MARSTON GIVES ORGAN RECITAL SUNDAY

... afternoon, March 13, from 5 to ... Miss Miriam Natilee Marston, ... piano, organ and public ... at the University of Ver... ...ed a large audience with ... at the Ira Allen Chapel. ... was offered by the depart...

... opened her program with ... Sonata," a most fitting ... was followed by Bach ... in D" which was played ... manner. Haydn "An... played in commemo... centennial of Haydn's ... que and soothing with ... throughout.

... C Minor," which is ... pleasing preludes for ... by the variations ... modulations. Its vari... quickly change from ... organ properly ela... combinations of ... melodies charac... Miss Marston por... Pastoral."

... is a typical example ... which is always melo... to listen to. Bairstow ... dramatic with quick ... to soft.

... to perfection ... Springtime" of Steb... was concluded by the ... Finlandia" by Sibelius. ... moods of the people. ... their hymn of hope.

TWO VARSITY DEBATES AGAINST KEENE NORMAL AND UNION NEXT WEEK

Co-ed Forensicists to Hold Sway in Contest With Boston University Tonight

The next debate scheduled for the men's varsity debating team is with Keene Normal School of Keene, N. H., on Wednesday evening, March 23, at the Fleming Museum. The Vermont team will have the affirmative of the question, Resolved, That the United States should cancel all of her war debts. The decision will be rendered by three judges. Those who will debate are Charles Libby '34, Robert Van Dyke '34, James Bigelow '33, and R. Peardon Donaghy '33, alternate.

Following this debate will be one with Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., on Thursday evening, March 24, at the Fleming Museum. The University of Vermont will have the negative of the question, Resolved, That Congress should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance. At this debate also there will be a three-judge decision. The debaters will be R. Peardon Donaghy '33, James Bigelow '33, and Paul LaCross '32.

Tonight Roberta Powers '32 and Caroline Taft '33 will represent Vermont in the fourth women's debate of the season, in the Fleming Museum. The U. V. M. representatives will uphold the affirmative of the question, Resolved, That capitalism is unsound in principle, against a Boston University team.

Prof. Leon W. Dean will act as chairman of the debate. Three judges will award a decision. These debates are free and open to members of the University and the general public.

WIG AND BUSKIN HOLDS INITIATION AND BANQUET

Wig and Buskin, the honorary dramatic society, met last Wednesday at 5.00 p.m. to initiate the new members who were elected at a previous meeting. After the meeting of the old members and the new members at the Delta Psi house to elect officers for the coming year, a group picture was taken and a formal banquet was held at the Hotel Vermont. At the afternoon, William Perry '34 was elected president of the organization and Charles J. Libby '34, vice-president. William MacDonald '33 was chosen business manager.

During the day the prospective initiates were required to tread the campus walks attired in tuxedos. To complete the rig, a black mask and hat were also worn. In the evening, the new men tramped down Main Street in military fashion much to the astonishment and amazement of the onlookers.

At the feast, Professor Tupper gave an enjoyable talk on his memories concerning the "Old Days of Drama at the University." Professor Metcalf, coach of many college amateur productions followed up Professor Tupper's speech with a short interesting address of his own. Samuel Barker '32, outgoing president, called on Charles Libby to address the members in the absence of the new president.

The recently initiated men are Harold Adams '32 of Rutland, Richard Holbrook '32 of Burlington, Nathan Spiller '33 of Barre, George MacKenzie '33 of Williamstown, James Bigelow '33 of Fair Haven, Samuel Pierce '34 of Roselle Park, N. J. and Stuart Wright '35 of Burlington. All these men have either been in a play or have taken part in the business activities of some college dramatic production.

An instructor at Catholic University of Washington recently deplored the lack of good musical programs on the radio. He said that very few really good musical programs now are being broadcast, and that if a good program should happen to be on it would be interrupted in the interesting part to present Russ Columbo or Kate Smith. He termed modern musical programs "jungle noise."

COMMITTEE NOMINATES CLASS DAY SPEAKERS

At a meeting of the nominating committee for the senior class, speakers for Senior Week who come from the class of 1932 were nominated. The following names will be voted on at important meeting of the senior class this afternoon at the Science Hall at 4.00 p.m.:

Class Marshal—Paul Westin.

Class History—Lillian Mount, Roberta Powers.

Class Essay—Samuel Barker, Fred Householder.

Pipe Oration—Raymond Cobb.

Boulder Oration—Allen Eaton.

Class Poem—Edward Fitzgerald.

Campus Oration—Roberta Powers, Helen LeBaron, Katherine Rauh.

Ivy Oration—Verna Carrier, Helen LeBaron.

General Lafayette Statue—Joseph Carter.

Ira Allen Statue—Paul LaCross.

Nominations may also be made from the floor for these orators.

ANNUAL EASTER CONCERT WILL BE HELD SUNDAY IN THE IRA ALLEN CHAPEL

Music Department Will be Assisted by University Choir and Orchestra in Lenten Presentation

BENNETT WILL BE PERSONAL DIRECTOR

The Lenten Easter concert by the University choir, assisted by the University orchestra, will be held Sunday, March 20, at 4.00 p.m. in the Ira Allen Chapel.

The program will be under the personal direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett of the music department. The following will assist at the concert: Miss Miriam Natilee Marston, organist; Miss Charlotte deVolt, concertmaster of the orchestra; Miss Martha Putnam '32, Miss Elsie Roosa '33, and Mr. Samuel Pierce '34 soloists. Rev. Raymond Avery Hall, professor of English, will read from the Scriptures. The concert is free and open to the public.

The Program

PART I. LENTEN MUSIC

Organ Prelude: Chorale Prelude on "Herzlich tut mich verlangen." (Passion Chorale) ..... Brahms

Hymn: Pange Lingua Gloriosi Proelium Certaminis ..... Gregorian

Processional Hymn: O Sacred Head Now Wounded. (Passion Chorale) ..... Hassler

Scripture Reading and Prayer

Response: Adoramus te Christe ..... Palestrina

Air: "He Was Despised," from the "Messiah" ..... Handel

Chorus: "Surely he hath borne our griefs," from the "Messiah" ... Handel

Recitative: "Thy rebuke hath broken his heart," and Air: "Behold and see if there be any sorrow," from the "Messiah" ..... Handel

Chorus: "Crucifixus," from the B Minor Mass ..... Bach

Final Chorus from the "St. Matthew Passion" ..... Bach

PART II. EASTER MUSIC

Scripture Reading

Carol: "Christ is Arisen" ..... German "Christ ist erstanden"

Elsa Kremers Bennett

Air: "I know that my Redeemer liveth," from the "Messiah" ..... Handel

"Christ is Risen" ..... Kastalsky

Chorus: "Worthy is the Lamb," from the "Messiah" ..... Handel

Chorus: "Hallelujah," from the "Messiah" ..... Handel

Hymn: "The strife is o'er" arranged from Palestrina

Prayer and Benediction

Response: "Christ is Arisen" ..German

Recessional Hymn: "O Filii et Filæ" ..... French

Organ Postlude: Christo Trionfante (introducing "O Filii et Filiæ") .. Yon

SIGMA DELTA HOLDS ANNUAL INITIATION

Sigma Delta held their annual initiation and banquet at the chapter house last Monday afternoon and evening. About thirty were present at the banquet. The following, all members of the class of 1935, were initiated: W. B. Carleton, of Bradford; R. W. Dunham, of North Bennington; W. R. Hauke, of Burlington; H. R. Sanderson, of Brandon.

Combine Probe Instigated at Mortar Board Meeting

Committee of Nine Headed by Allen Eaton as Chairman to Conduct Comprehensive Study of Political Influence in Student Affairs

REVELRY WILL REIGN IN NINE FRATERNITY GATHERINGS TONIGHT

Annual Easter Festivals Will be Held at the Local Chapter Houses From Nine to One

Revelry will reign throughout the fraternity circle tonight as the annual Easter dances once again hold sway. Two fraternities plan to hold their dances on March 25. All dances will be held at the respective chapter houses. Most of the dances are informal and hours ranging between eight-thirty and one o'clock.

The music for Alpha Tau Omega's formal will be furnished by Bob Munot's band. The chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burke and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Jenney.

The Kappa Sigs' formal dance, chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. George V. Kidder and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Abell, will be syncopated by the Ribbon Kings.

Sigma Nu

Formal is the order for Sigma Nu. The orchestra is Billy Murray's from Barre, and the chaperones are Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Adams, Mr. Melvin Loatch, and Dr. Yvonne Turk.

The trosh are in charge of Lambda Iota's informal, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Van Note and Prof. and Mrs. W. T. Fulton are chaperoning.

Phi Mu Delta will celebrate the arrival of spring with an informal for which Freddie Lynches orchestra will play. The chaperones are Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Stanford and Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair.

The Phi Sigma Deltas are not holding their formal dance now, but are indulging in a victrola party, the chaperones being Prof. and Mrs. F. D. Carpenter.

S. A. E.

The spring frolic of Sigma Alpha Epsilon will be chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Pooley, Mr. Milton H. Aldrich, and Miss Cornelia H. Collier. Joe Lechnyr's Vermonters will furnish the musical agony.

Sigma Delta's informal is also in charge of the freshmen, who have engaged Don Preston's orchestra for the harmony. The chaperones will be Prof. and Mrs. I. E. Puffer and Prof. K. J. Sheldon.

(Continued on page 2)

REVEREND HALL SPEAKS AT CHAPEL WEDNESDAY

The Wednesday morning chapel services opened with the organ prelude, "Oh, the Lilting Springtime," a composition of Stebbins. The university choir offered as their morning selection, "Surely He Hath Borne Our Grief-" from Handel's "Messiah."

Rev. R. A. Hall, the conductor of the services, spoke of the great change which is inevitably to take place in every one of us. His text was taken from the fifth chapter of Acts. An appropriate version of the text is, "They were wondering what would happen next." This attitude of baffled expectancy is one which is prevalent in this modern world of science. With the great amount of progress accomplished scientifically in the last few years one cannot help but wonder what will happen next. This attitude of expectancy is easily and appropriately applicable as a means of measuring our lives: does the world look up to us with an expectant air? This attitude seems to be lacking in the religious realm of modern world. In order to regain it we must, so to speak, "be born again," must give ourselves to something greater than ourselves, must make a great renunciation. This generation is doomed until the spiritual change has moved within its soul.

The organ postlude was "Tocatta Prelude on the Plain-Song, Pange Lingua" by Bairstow. This is a Lenten selection.

PELOFSKY PRESENTS NEW PLAN OF TICKET ELECTION

Investigations are to be conducted concerning politics in various offices by a committee whose members were nominated and elected for that purpose as a result of the second meeting called by Mortar Board, held in the Children's Room of the Fleming Museum, Wednesday, March 16. All but five fraternities, one sorority, Intrafraternity Council, Pan-Hellenic, Key and Serpent, and Gold Key were represented at this meeting.

The members of the committee are A. O. Eaton '32, chairman; R. W. Cobb '32, E. R. Gorman '32, S. Z. Pelofsky '32, H. I. Woodward '32, H. M. Albert '32, Roberta Powers '32, Janet Miller '32, and I. E. Bigelow '33. The office of chairman is entirely supervisory and carries no vote. This group will conduct investigations concerning the Inlook Board, athletic managerships, and Bake Walk elections as affected by present political combines.

Albert's Plan

After Chairman Margaret Mower '32, president of Mortar Board, had declared the meeting open, H. M. Albert of Phi Sigma Delta presented his plan for the complete abolition of Student Senate and class offices, as printed in the CYNIC for March 15. Two main objections to this plan were that in the first place it was considered too unwieldy and impracticable in application; secondly, the abolition of class offices was not desirable. It was also argued that politics would not be eliminated by the plan. In defense of the Student Senate, A. J. Baldwin '32, of Alpha Tau Omega, stated: "The Student Senate has justified its existence by its action regarding the southern baseball trip, even if it never does anything else for five years."

Pelofsky Offers Plan

Amid the storm of objection which was raised against Albert's plan, S. Z. Pelofsky of Pan Hellenic Phi introduced a new and different plan for consideration. In presentation, he declared that his plan would bring politics out into the open while keeping the advantages of politics without their ordinarily attendant evils. It embodies election by ticket.

1. Nominations to be by committee at least two weeks before election, or by petition of twenty-five members at the same time.

2. Nominee must post a list of his committees at least one week prior to elections which contains all the names of the committeemen, including chairmen and personnel, as well as their fraternities.

a. Name to be on ticket only with the consent of the person named, and subject to university eligibility rules.

b. If nominee fails to assign committee offices as named he shall be punished by forfeiture of office.

3. The fraternities represented must differ by at least one-third of their number in each succeeding year.

(Continued on page 2)

NOMINATIONS FOR WOMEN STUDENT OFFICERS HELD

Nominations for the executive officers of the women's organization have been made. The students are to vote on Thursday, March 17, and Friday, March 18. All women students are eligible to vote for the officers of Student Union and Y. W. C. A. Only those students who have handed in their fifty W. A. A. points may however vote for the W. A. A. officers. Nominations and voting for the other officers will be held at a later date.

List of nominees:

Y. W. C. A.

President, Claribel Morey '34, Doris Putman '34; vice-president, Marie Horak '34, Muriel Magee '34; secretary, Sue France '35, Priscilla Colton '35; treasurer, Mary Petras '33, Gail Clausen '33.

Student Union

President, Sylvia Boyd '33, Priscilla Perry '33.

Women's Athletic Association

President, Ara Armstrong '33, Priscilla Perry '33, Caroline Taft '33.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
Women's Editor
Sports Editor
Managing Editor
Feature Editor
Business Manager
Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34
[illegible] '34
William Deacon '34
[illegible] '34
C. Jackson Libby '34
Realtus McCuin '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible]
M. I. Greenberg '34
[illegible] '34
T. I. Taylor '34

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G. H. Burrows '34
W. J. Gilbert '34
Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

I. Leeman '34

COLUMNIST

R. I. Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

[illegible] Published in the Thursday issues weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year, single copy five cents.

All [illegible] communications must be signed and addressed to the proper department head at the cynic office, North College. Short notices must be handed in at the office not later than 7 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Telephone 1466.

Entered for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 412, P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879 authorized October 16, 1926.

[illegible] Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] Member '34 [illegible] Number 45

In only a little over a week ago that a group of delegates returned from the Model Assembly of the League of Nations held at Brown and Pembroke Colleges in Providence, R. I. In fact more than three hundred college students returned to their respective colleges in all parts of New England after such conferences and delegations were a week of fun and games, but the very fact that twenty-eight colleges at considerable sending well over three hundred delegates to discuss the various problems and policies of nations shows that the student body is concerned with the affairs with which the world is now struggling and if the assembly should have accomplished nothing more than to have expressed the feelings and attitude of the youth it has done a splendid.

Dr. Albert D. Good, acting President of Brown University stated at the opening session, "That contrary to common opinion, the average college student is interested with the graver and more worldly things as shown by the sessions and which these delegates took up their work. There is significance in the fact that the collegiate world actually sent a representative to the Disarmament Conference in Geneva, and shows that the youth of today is preparing for the man of tomorrow.

The assembly was conducted in a manner strictly following the agenda of the League of Nations. The committee rooms were at all times filled with constructive argument and facts. The delicate questions and the problems was considered on the floor of the assembly, when the nations took the stand for the policy advocated by their governments.

Prof. C. MacDonald who has attended several League of Nations meetings gave a summary of the assembly at which he stated that never before had he attended a conference in which the delegates were as fully prepared and serious as at the present session. Taking situations as found and fully discussing the points at the case as well as arriving at a conclusion toward the discovery with which the problems were dealt.

Perhaps the greatest handicap that the League of Nations has to deal with was in evidence at the Model Assembly. It is in the rule of unanimity. The fact that one dissents shows that countries would object even to the slightest restrictions and thus block the rule of the majority.

I hope that such conferences and assemblies instead of being a waste of time and money, best exemplify the voice of the student world which today will be the voice of the nation tomorrow.

R. I. McCuin

ALUMNAE OF ALPHA CHI OMEGA WILL FORM CLUB

A new group called the Alumnae Club of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority has recently been organized in Burlington and the purpose of forming the present society, which was formed by the efforts of a committee of [illegible] is to promote friendship among the alumnae of the sorority in this city. Mrs. [illegible] is chairman, assisted by Mrs. [illegible] secretary, and Mrs. [illegible] treasurer. Meetings will be held every [illegible] at the homes of the members in the form of a tea at the members' homes on Main Street. There will be a membership committee, the chairman of which is Mrs. Alpheus C. Hill, also of this city. Although the organization is a new one all Alpha Chi Omega members in Vermont residing in this city may be considered as non-resident members of the club.

REVELRY WILL REIGN IN FRATERNITY CIRCLES

(Continued from page 1)

The Black Panthers from Middlebury have signed Phi Epsilon Pi's orchestra to play at both the Pan and Mrs. A. N. Collins will act as chaperones.

Zeta Chi

The [illegible] at Zeta Chi's [illegible] will be entertained by the Glee Trustees on Saturday as patrons and Prof. and Mrs. [illegible] Mallinson, with Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]

MYERS RECEIVES PRESS APPOINTMENT FOR STATE TENNIS ASSOCIATION

News has been received of the appointment of Norman H. Myers, U. V. M. '34, as the Press Representative of the Vermont State Tennis Association. The latter was based on previous newspaper writing and interest in state tennis affairs. Myers served as an editor on the Ariel and [illegible] and as sports editor of the senior year book. He was manager and a player on the high school tennis team, state champions for two years.

Myers is a member of Zeta Chi fraternity, treasurer of Quad Key, has played freshman tennis and basketball, sophomore basketball and is a member of the varsity tennis squad. He has taken part in class activities, serving on various committees.

The New England tourney gets under way today at Newport R. I. We wish the Spaulding High team as representatives of our state all the luck in the world.

George Ward of Essex Junction is [illegible].

Delta Pi and Phi Delta Theta will hold their dances March 25. The Delta Pi will have the Kitty Karr's orchestra with Dr. and Mrs. P. K. French and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burke as [illegible]. The Theta dance will be formal and the Comanders will supply the music.

COMBINE PROBE IS INSTIGATED AT MEETING

(Continued from page 1)

A Faculty-Student Council to judge as to eligibility of nominee's ticket as defined in this plan.

Advantages of This Plan

[illegible] unity and the education [illegible] under the [illegible] consistent [illegible] system. Election of persons eliminates the possibility of vote splitting [illegible] members against the possibility of [illegible] ing offices in a combine, such as [illegible] rotation eliminates continuance of combines and thus curtails promises [illegible].

A [illegible] placed on the nomination ticket if ineligible, according to university rules there can be no excuse for his removal except failure to keep campaign promises, and failure to keep promises will result in forfeiture of office.

4 Adequate student representation such as Faculty-Student Council would [illegible] judge as to [illegible] eligibility on [illegible] according to the rotation clause and to judge as to nominee's failure to keep campaign promises.

Further Advantages

This plan would allow non-fraternity members a voice in student activities, henceforth mainly controlled by fraternity. Although it is true that the greater number are fraternity members the control of [illegible] is far out of proportion to that number.

This plan is particularly applicable to such offices as the Student Union, class offices, Faculty-Student Council, [illegible] and [illegible] work committees. A vote was taken to ascertain the sentiment of the group as to the advisability of bringing political combines out into the open. The meeting was unanimously in favor of such an action.

Several minor questions were then discussed relative to the size of an investigating committee, of whom it should be composed and just what its duties should be. As a conclusion to the discussion three motions were introduced by A. O. Eaton of Sigma Phi, one by E. E. Gorman of Zeta Chi and one by S. Z. Pelofsky of Tau Epsilon Phi in regard to such a committee. The motions in combined form are:

That a committee of eight members and one chairman be elected whose purpose shall be investigation into the affairs of political combines upon our campus, as follows:

Sub Committees

Two members will examine S. Z. Pelofsky's plan, two will investigate the [illegible] with the idea of a possible merit system to be instituted, two will investigate the system of athletic managership elections, and two will investigate Kake Walk elections. The examination of S. Z. Pelofsky's plan will of course include class offices, Faculty-Student Council offices, etc.

These motions were carried unanimously. It was then decided that this committee should make its reports directly in the columns of the Cynic from which the various fraternities could get their information. Each fraternity will then vote upon these reports as presented by the committee. A meeting will then be called by the chairman of the committee which delegates from each fraternity will attend. These delegates will inform the meeting of the stand their different fraternities have taken in regard to the aforementioned reports, and the results obtained by this meeting will be published in the Cynic.

At Texas Christian University, the students play bridge during chapel to enliven the proceedings.

Northland Skis
Tubbs Snowshoes
Nestor Johnson Skates
Northland Toboggans
Athletic Goods—All Kinds

W. E. Greene Co., Inc.
in consolidation
Patten, Irwin & White
Burlington, Vermont

TUFTS COLLEGE
DENTAL SCHOOL
Founded 1868

[illegible] men and women [illegible] for a profession of [illegible] interest and opportunity. Recent research has enlarged the scope of every phase of dentistry. The field demands more than ever before men and women of ability, trained by extensive training. Such training [illegible] begins on September 29, 1931. For catalog and guide [illegible]

William Reid, D.M.D., Sc.D., Dean
416 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Tennis in Review

At the recent [illegible] of the Hazen Junior Singles Tennis Trophy the Vermont Tennis Association completed another step in its aim to promote tennis [illegible].

It is our aim, as we [illegible] that the [illegible] awarded a [illegible] and every [illegible] in the state [illegible] in the country [illegible] and what is more gratifying a large percentage of these are Vermonters. All the colleges of the state [illegible] by members of the [illegible] as well as students. Players from every section of the state, both men and women [illegible] the three days play. The junior events have attracted a star group of players from all New England and the Middle Atlantic states. Last year's play saw excellent competition in both singles and doubles.

The University of Vermont plans a fine schedule which will probably suffer due to spring weather conditions. Middlebury College is planning to resurface their entire group of twelve courts which should give them the best set in the state. Norwich discontinued tennis due to lack of courts. St. Michael's is planning a great team with some very good players among the underclassmen. As yet Vermont is the only team to commence practice which is held in the baseball cage.

Inquiries are already coming into the office of the secretary of the Vermont Tennis Association as to local summer tournaments and conditions. Reports would indicate that nearly every community of any size in that state is sponsoring the game either through clubs or city-owned courts. Many college men are working in some capacity or other in these enterprises.

Norman H. Myers,
Press Representative
Vermont State Tennis Asso.

B. U. gets 26 tons of mail a year.

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

WHAT A WHALE OF A DIFFERENCE A HUNDRED TEN YEARS HAS MADE

By Monroe K[illegible]

What a difference one hundred years has made in the [illegible] tered by the students at [illegible] 1822 the total charge for [illegible] rent, and the use of the [illegible] twenty dollars a year and the board was from one dollar and a half a week. To give an idea of total expenses, the following Pliny Moore Corbin 1822 [illegible] was revealed in a letter to his [illegible] 1822. As released in a recent [illegible] Alumni Weekly:

Tuition for the two last years	$4[illegible]
Board bill remaining unpaid	[illegible]
Doctor Smith's bill remaining [illegible]
Bill for washing clothes for the [illegible] two months	[illegible]
Music for commencement	[illegible]
Printing order of commencement exercises	[illegible]
Use of gown for speaking	[illegible]
President's fee for signing diplomas	[illegible]
Perhaps the bill of postage for [illegible]	[illegible]
	$[illegible]

In addition the item of wood was added in the list of expenses for the year as being from two to three dollars.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

REMEMBER
HOME FOLKS
at
EASTER
Select Your Easter
Greetings at
McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

THE WAY YOU LOOK
Means
POPULARITY AT FRATERNITY DANCES
Or
SECLUSION IN YOUR ROOM
A "Bonat" Permanent Finger Wave or Facial will aid to beautify
DROP IN OR 'PHONE FOR AN APPOINTMENT
JACQUELINE'S BEAUTY SHOP
Corner Bank and Center Sts., Entrance 3 Center Street Phone 2856

BUY YOUR Easter Gifts
at the
University Store
• • •
SEAL NOVELTIES
STATIONERY
UNIVERSITY PICTURES
FELT GOODS

SPORTS NEWS

GYMNASIUM SCENE OF INTERFRATERNITY TRACK MEET TOMORROW P.M.

Sigma Nu, Last Year's Winners With Kappa Sigma are Top-Heavy Favorites for This Year interfraternity indoor track place tomorrow at 2.00 in . There is a total of 132 be scored in the meet the interfraternity relays run off during the past ited with ten points in the runner-up is awarded will be run off in the fol-

trials and finals....2.00 p.m.
.....2.10 p.m.
.....2.20 p.m.
2.20 p.m.
hurdle—
als and finals .....2.30 p.m. finals
men against time) .2.40 p.m.
trials .....2.50 p.m.
hurdles—
trials and finals .....3.00 p.m.
.....3.10 p.m.
.....3.40 p.m.

meet will be conducted under the England Intercollegiate Athletic rules. Fraternities intending must submit a list of men for checking eligibility.

rules:

bona fide students of the Aca- and Medical Colleges who have their degree may compete.

men may not compete in which is their speciality.

these men who have reported for at least five (5) times previous March 19, will be allowed Be sure your name is regis- the manager of track and that attendance is checked each time you fraternity, intending to compete, submit to A. T. Post, director of athletics, at once. A list of who are to represent the fraternity a more accurate check for eligi- may be kept.

the past two years Sigma Nu has off with the interfraternity track Last year they won by outscoring Sigma 41-34½.

last year's winners who are college and eligible for competi- are Smith of Kappa Sigma who won yard dash, with Bedell of Sigma and Tupper of Sigma Phi in second third place, respectively. Manning of Mu Delta, Bowers of Kappa Sigma, Daigle of Alpha Tau Omega placed the shot put last year.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon still has Wilder the mile run. Phillips of Sigma Nu second in the high hurdles, while from the same house placed in low hurdles last season. Tupper, and Smith all placed in the broad Kappa Sigma is the favorite to tomorrow's event although Sigma has a fighting chance at the title.

Academy in winning the championship deserves a great The total enrollment of the school is very small, and the basketball are of necessity team has remained prac- for the last three seasons, thus benefited by experience.

SHARPSHOOTERS BEAT MCGILL AT MONTREAL

Burke is Individual High Scorer With 106 Out of a Possible 200 Points

Last Saturday afternoon the Vermont men's rifle team defeated the McGill sharpshooters by the score of 1,150 to 1,094 in an international match, involving the prone position only, on the McGill range at Montreal. Burke, of the Green and Gold squad, was individual high scorer, shooting a possible 100 and a 96 to total 196. Five of Vermont's six men secured higher ratings than the highest McGill man

The summary

U. V. M.		McGill
Primpas	193	Crawford	187
Dunham	191	Bishop	184
Burke	196	Harris	190
Gilbert	194	Mussen	180
Sheldon	193	Beatty	184
Donahue	183	Smith	169
	1,150		1,094

Others who made the trip included Acting Coach A. R. Roller and managers N. H. Press and I. Lisman

Lieutenant Kullman, coach of the rifle team, recently issued the results of the Hearst trophy match which was fired on March 10 and 11. The scores are as follows

Name	Prone	Sit.	Kneel.	Stand.	T
Sheldon	50	49	46	40	185
Dunham	47	45	44	37	173
Laythe	45	46	42	34	167
Donahue	49	44	41	37	171
Preedom	49	49	39	27	164
	240	233	212	175	860

The squad is now engaged in firing in the national shoot which they were asked to enter, because of their high rating in the recent Corps Area Shoot In that contest in which nine teams were entered Vermont scored third place

The results of the weekly telegraph match for the week ending March 5 have been reported as follows

Vermont NRA	1,276
Worcester NRA	1,221
Vermont Weekly	1,276
Connecticut Aggies	1,348
Idaho	1,378

KAPPA SIGMA WINS IN FINAL INTERFRAT RACE

Winners Outclass Opponents in Baton Passing, Time and Running ability

Kappa Sigma defeated the Zeta Chi relay team in an easy race last Wednesday afternoon at the gymnasium. The time of two minutes and fifty-five seconds was rather slow compared to what the Kappa Sig regular team has done. Wednesday's race found Meligonis and Meehan, running instead of Jay and Wesoly Notwithstanding this fact every one of the Kappa Sigma runners gained on his opponent on the round. Zeta Chi ran a smooth race was entirely outclassed by the speedy scarlet uniformed men. According to times, Sigma Nu and Kappa Sigma had the best teams in the interfraternity relay races, although the latter defeated the former in a quarter-final contest

WRESTLING TOURNAMENT MATCHES FEATURED WITH FOUR FALLS FROM FIVE

Varricchione and Caracciolo Stage Fastest Fistic Bout in Boxing Exhibits Seen at Vermont in Addition

Monday afternoon the preliminary rounds in the wrestling tournament and the boxing exhibitions were run off under the direction of H B Levine instructor in those branches. The second set of preliminaries took place on Wednesday afternoon and is to be followed by the semi finals on March 21 and the finals on March 23

Wrestling fans were treated to some brisk and vigorous bouts during the course of the afternoon. Four out of five matches were won by falls. If a fall was not obtained within ten minutes the contest was decided by vote of the judges

In the 135-pound class F. W. Bancroft '35 won from R. Levin '34 in the opening match by a fall in 7.40

W. W. Segur '35, in the 145-pound class, scored the record time victory of the afternoon by throwing his opponent, D. E. Bennett '34 in three minutes flat

In the 158-pound class E. E. Miller '34 won by a fall over J. J. McGrath '34 in 3.28 in a hard-fought contest

The only judge's decision bout was won by C. F. Dobson '34 over L. H Berry '34 in the 175-pound class. Dobson succeeded in clambering on top of his opponent where he clung until the referee's whistle ended the match

L. A. Giardi '35 in the 175-pound class succeeded in vanquishing C. R. Barber '35 by a fall in 6.37, for the closing bout "Itch" began with a flying start and almost floored Barber in the first minute but the latter settled down and gave his opponent a tough rub before being canvassed

Although there were no decisions in the boxing matches and they were regarded as exhibition matches, nevertheless they were packed with punch. The pugilists went about their work with as much vigor as the matmen, and filled the fistic encounters with plenty of pep

They were all three-round bouts of two minutes duration. In the first match G. V. Hutchins '35 and F. Douglas '33 mixed up the scrimmage with plenty of foot work and punches. Douglas, a star performer of last year seemed to be poorly conditioned, while Hutchins entered the fight coming directly from an interfraternity relay.

In the bout between F. J. Varricchione '32 and H. Finks '34, boxing fans saw some unique tactics employed "Chichi" planted himself solidly in the middle of the ring while Finks warily circled the edges, darting in every now and then to be repulsed by head-racking punches

E. M. Shufelt '35 and I. J. Chase '35 were evenly paired in another bout

In the last boxing exhibition of the afternoon "Chichi" Varricchione returned to the ring to encounter some of the toughest opposition he has met in college in P. R. Caracciolo '35. A "Scratch" and "Chichi" furnished some of the best amateur boxing ever seen in the tournament

Their antics brought forth great applause as "Scratch" mimicked the feintings of his opponent and got in some clever rabbit punches. "Chichi" warmed up from his bout with Finks was compelled to put his best glove forward to keep on even terms with his adversary

H. B. Levine refereed with Howard Prentice, John Burke and Prof. P. D. Carleton acting as judges.

Baseball Campaigners Are In Readiness For Sojourn

Last Year's Regulars to Make Trip According to Larry Gardner, Coach of State Championship Nine—Team Strong Enough

PEP RALLY WEDNESDAY

SPORTS CALENDAR

Saturday, March 19. Interfraternity track meet.
Tuesday, March 22. Evening, play-off between winner of junior and senior scholastic basketball tournaments, Spaulding vs. Bradford.
Wednesday, March 23. Pep rally for send-off of baseball team. Everybody attends!
Thursday, March 24. Baseball team encamps southward on noon train.

VARSITY MEN TO ELECT CAPTAIN AND MANAGER

Ten Men on Basketball Squad Receive Letters for Services in 1931-32 Season

The votes for varsity basketball captain and manager are being held this week, following the letter awards at last Saturday's meeting of the Athletic Council The following men received letters John J. Beckley '34, of Great Neck, N. Y., Thomas F Collins, Jr., '33, of W Hartford, Conn., Capt. Lyman R. Durfey '32, of Burlington, Jackson L. Morgan '34, of Burlington, Francis X. Pires '33, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Edward G. Saba '34, of Willimantic, Conn., Chester M Taft '33, of Essex Junction, Frederick Tupper, Jr., '32, of Burlington, Edward M Winant '32, of Bronx, N. Y., Michael A Valerio '34, of Amsterdam, N. Y The seniors on the team are Captain Durfey and Fred Tupper, both forwards, of Burlington, and Ed Winant, a guard, of Bronx, N. Y. All the letter men are eligible to vote for captain

In the vote for manager, the team's vote counts one fourth, and the votes of Manager Edward L Meehan, of Fitchburg, Mass., who also received his letter Saturday, Graduate Manager Abell, and Coach Burke, are weighted equally with that of the team. The assistant managers are: W. J. Burke, of Rutland; R. F Colburn, of Burlington; and L. E. Reed, of Wolcott

Freshman Numerals

The freshmen are voting this week for the post of honorary captain The following men received numerals and are eligible to vote Roland J Delfausse, of Rockville Center, N. Y.; Cecil E. Fisk, of Charlestown, N H; Chris W. Meligonis, of New Britain, Conn.; Raymond E. Palmer, of Burlington; Donald J Rock, of S. Barre; Herman R. Schmarr, of New Britain, Conn.; Edward L. Skodlinski, of Amsterdam, N. Y

The annual interfraternity track meet sponsored by the department of physical education which is to be run off tomorrow afternoon should create a great deal of interest

In addition to creating interfraternity competition, it also serves as a stimulus to interest varsity and frosh candidates

Boys in Eager Spirits to Swing Bats on Moist Turf Once Again as Time for Trek Approaches

Six days from yesterday morning at twelve o'clock the pride of the University of Vermont will depart for the sunny South to open the annual Green and Gold baseball campaign. Despite the scare that was thrown in the ranks of diamond enthusiasts not so long ago the boys are waiting and are full of pep to swing bats on the green of an open air diamond Coach Gardner is giving the boys their final grooming before the annual migration

For various reasons the athletic department did not reveal the names of the men who were certain of making the Easter vacation journey. In an interview with Coach Gardner, six men were stated as being certain to go South. Captain Orson Jay, star outfielder and home-run king of last year's State championship team, heads the list of those who will absolutely make the trip. Ed Winant, veteran first sacker will make his last trip to the warm climates with the Green and Gold outfit this year. Bob Macomber, second baseman, "Dutch" MacKay, former third baseman and Frankie Pires will complete the roster of the infield

Star Pitcher

Rutkowski, the man who defeated Dartmouth in four contests out of five, will head the list of pitchers, and will encamp with the team next Thursday Collins, the only other veteran varsity man, is also going then. In the list of probabilities for pitching berths are John Beckley, Spud Farmer and Babe Spicer. Although these last named are not certain to go, they are in line for positions

Twenty three men have been retained on the squad regardless whether they make the trip or not. No lettermen were dropped from the squad, but the final cut has not been effected as yet Ben Rubino, Tommy Cogswell and Andy Wesoly are recruits from last season's frosh team, and they all know baseball Among the catchers are Harry Baker, last year's third sacker, Mario Tomassetti, Connecticut aspirant, Maurice Mahoney, Jack Morgan and Chet Taft The catching staff constitutes perhaps the most inexperienced sector of the team, and deserves more consideration than any other part of the squad

Plans are being rounded out for the pep rally next Wednesday night for a team send off. The evening will be featured by speeches by Larry Gardner, prominent Green and Gold diamond coach, and Orson Jay, captain of the University of Vermont nine. Cheers, songs and explanations will fill out the remainder of the mass meeting

They can't make a wet prisoner dry by bailing him out

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

EASTER FORMALS
Dress up for the Easter Formals
TUXEDOS $25 (Complete)
Also
DRESS SHIRTS — DRESS TIES
STUD and LINK SETS — DRESS COLLARS
Everything You Need
HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

CHARTER HOUSE
SUITS
FOR SPRING
Waffle weaves are presented exclusively in Charter House Clothes for spring. A new type of fabric pattern that will lead the way in clothes popularity.
SUITS $30 and $35
With Two Trousers
TOPCOATS
$25 and $30
Miles & Perry Company
QUALITY CLOTHIERS
Established 1898

Comparison Will Prove
LANGROCK CLOTHES
Are Economical
Because—
they give full value—and more
—in appearance
—in correct style
—in wear-resistance
—in lasting service
COMPARE BEFORE YOU SELECT
$45 to $55 Ready for Service
$65 And More To Measure
TURKS Burlington
156-158 College Street

PLANS FOR THE SUMMER SCHOOL NEAR COMPLETION

(continued from page 1)

Credits Same as in Regular Session

Maximum Expenses

ARIEL TO GO TO PRESS NEXT WEEK SAYS CHIEF

The 1933 Ariel will be sent to the

PROF. KIDDER SPEAKS AT KAPPA PHI KAPPA

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
102A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street
PRIZE CUPS and TROPHIES
Expert Repairing and Engraving
Fraternity Jewelry

BOSTONIANS Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

"Choosey" People like the way they TASTE..

IT'S just what you'd expect. People who enjoy the good things of life... are constantly looking for something better to eat and drink...and smoke.

In cigarettes this better taste can come only from finer ingredients. Chesterfields are more satisfying to the cultivated palate. For one thing, there's never any attempt to skimp on Turkish leaf.

These richly flavored Turkish tobaccos are added with a generous hand.

In fact Chesterfield's new way of mingling tobacco flavors and aromas is really the equivalent of an entirely new kind of tobacco . . . one that combines the best qualities of Turkish and fine Domestic leaf.

Perhaps you've noticed too, that the paper in Chesterfields is whiter...purer. It burns without taste or odor.

Smoke Chesterfields whenever you like...They're mild and pure. They'll never tire you as an over-sweetened cigarette might easily do. Light up and see for yourself. They satisfy!

● Listen in...Hear the Chesterfield Radio Program. Nat Shilkret's brilliant orchestra and Alex Gray, popular baritone. Every night, except Sunday . . . Columbia Broadcasting System . . . . 10:30 E. S. T.

© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

THEY'RE MILDER • THEY'RE PURE • THEY TASTE BETTER • They Satisfy

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1932 | NUMBER 44

Counsels Cut of all Expense

President Bailey Calls for Economy in View of Depression

FEW DONATIONS MADE

Large students should not incur unnecessary expenses in the face of the present economic depression," was President Guy Bailey's advice to undergraduates in an interview with a CYNIC reporter yesterday. The average parent is faced with a discouraging situation," President Bailey continued. "No matter what his income may be, his income is materially reduced and as yet there is not much hope for the immediate future that promises substantial relief. Each student should make some sacrifice in order to relieve his parents of their load."

What do you think the effect of the depression has been on the University of Vermont in particular?" the reporter asked.

The President's reply was immediate. "Like all educational institutions the University has been affected by the depression in three respects: First, as to the amount of large gifts; second, as to small contributions; third, as to income from investments of stocks.

Alumni contributions have been negligible during the past two years because no appeals have been made to them.

Prospective large donors complain that shrinkage of stock values and the interests thereon prevent them from giving serious considerations to the matter of substantial gifts. Furthermore income tax laws both state and federal operate against the allowance of contributions as deductions."

"Have you any knowledge of students who have left college because of financial reasons alone?" was the next question asked.

"The percentage of students who have left on account of financial reasons is very small" the President replied, "because of the unusual efforts made by the administration to aid students who were deserving and were in need."

"Have you any idea as to the amount of loans or trust funds which have been taken out by students this year?"

The President had his figures available. During the first few days of the first semester the University loaned to students, $30,317.33, temporarily. The amount loaned at the beginning of the second semester was $32,167.83. Loans from the regular loan funds in addition to the foregoing amount came up to $24,513. During the year, many loans have been secured from banks. "In fact from one

(Continued on page 4)

JOHN DEWEY CLUB MEETS TOMORROW IN MUSEUM

Will Hear Prof. Metcalf Speak on "Genius and Insanity"

The John Dewey Club is to hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow night at eight o'clock in the children's room of the Fleming Museum. The meeting will be an open one and students and faculty members are invited.

Prof. John T. Metcalf of the Psychology Department will speak on "Genius and Insanity." Professor Metcalf, Ph.D., has taught at U. V. M. for over ten years and instructs classes in genetic, æsthetic, abnormal, and also general psychology. He is a contributor and co-editor of several journals of psychological research and experiment.

The club will initiate R. H. Bingham '34 before the meeting opens. He was admitted on the strength of an original manuscript which he wrote on the topic "Descartes' Philosophical System."

THREE DAYS LEFT FOR CONTEST'S DEADLINE

Although there three more days left in which to turn in manuscripts for the Vermont State Literary Contest, it is hoped that contestants will submit their manuscripts before the deadline arrives. As yet only a few manuscripts have been received and the English Department is anxious to be receiving more.

During the Easter recess, members of the English Department will correct the manuscripts which have been received, and will determine those who will enter the contest.

Prof. Leon Dean of the English Department is quoted as saying, "March 25 is the deadline. Essays, poems, and short stories will be received until that

STAY AWAY, IS WARDEN'S ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN

"I don't want to see any of you down at Sing Sing." So said Warden Lewis E. Lawes when interviewed by a Cynic reporter Thursday night after his lecture on "A Practical View of the Problem of Crime and the Criminal."

The inquisitive questioner, apparently out of a stock of queries, had asked, "What opportunity is there for advancement in your profession and would you recommend it to young men today?"

SIGMA GAMMA LEADS IN SCHOLASTIC HONORS FOR THE SIXTH TIME

Sigma Phi Ahead of Men's Groups in Semester Rating

REGISTRAR ISSUES LIST

Sigma Gamma, local sorority for the sixth consecutive time led all Greek letter organizations in scholastic ranking according to the comparative ratings for the first semester released by the registrar's office. The women's societies as usual led the fraternities with the exception of K. E. L., local campus society which dropped from fourth to ninth place below Sigma Phi which led in the men's groups. Sigma Delta rose from ninth to fifth place and Lambda Iota went from first to second place among the men's societies. Several of the other fraternities fell in relative standing including Phi Delta Theta which went from tenth to thirteenth place.

Among the women's groups, Kappa Alpha Theta rose from seventh to second place, Pi Beta Phi from sixth to third and Kappa Delta from eighth to fourth. Alpha Chi Omega fell from second place to seventh. Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Delta Delta also fell behind, the former going from third to fifth and the latter from fifth to seventh place.

The List

The list of sororities and fraternities in order of their respective ratings according to statistics published in the registrar's office: Sigma Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Sigma Phi, K. E. L., Lambda Iota, Tau Epsilon Phi, Phi Mu Delta, Sigma Delta, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Sigma Delta, Kappa Sigma, Delta Psi, Zeta Chi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta.

WOMEN DEBATERS LOSE TO BOSTON UNIVERSITY

Boston University won a two-to-one decision in a closely contested debate against the University of Vermont women's team at the Fleming Museum last Friday evening.

Roberta Powers '32 and Caroline Taft '33 upheld the affirmative of the question "Resolved that Capitalism is a Failure" against a Boston University team consisting of Louise Spiers '32 and Elizabeth Couser '32. There was a slight misunderstanding concerning the subject of the debate, as the University of Vermont team had expected to argue the question "Resolved that Capitalism is Unsound in Principle," while the Boston University debaters believed the question was "Resolved that Capitalism is a Failure." To decide the issue, a coin was tossed, and the Boston University debaters winning, chose their subject. The first speaker for the affirmative was allowed twelve minutes; the next three, twenty minutes; then the first affirmative speaker had eight minutes for rebuttal.

An informal discussion followed the debate. The decision was awarded to the Hub city forensians after a thirty-five-minute conference of the judges.

Prof. L. D. Meredith presided, the judges being the Hon. Aaron Grout, Rev. P. C. Ladd and Mr. William Edmunds.

TAU KAPPA ALPHA TO INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

According to a statement by Roberta Powers '32, president of Tau Kappa Alpha, Vermont's honorary debating society, new members will be initiated into the organization shortly after Easter vacation.

Miss Powers also said that Tau Kappa Alpha will send a delegate to the extemporaneous speaking conference at Rutgers College in New Brunswick, N. J., which is to be held some time during April.

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS CONCERT PRESENTATION

Choir Under Prof. H. G. Bennett's Direction Pleases With Easter-Lenten Music

FREE PRESS PRAISES

A large audience filled the Ira Allen Chapel Sunday where the annual Lenten-Easter concert was presented under direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett of the music department. He was assisted by the University orchestra with Miss Miriam N. Marston as organist. Miss Charlotte deVolt was concert master and Mailla Putnam '32, Elsie Roosa '33, and S. Pierce '34 were soloists. Prof. R. A. Hall of the English Department read the scriptures.

The Free Press Says

The Burlington Daily Free Press in its review of the presentation in Monday's paper states:

"Mr. Bennett not only chooses his numbers with great taste and a fine sense of proportion but he evidences great skill in training the voices under his baton. Rarely can one hear the fresh loveliness of youthful voices used with such finish and artistic balance. Their attacks, whether loud or soft, are very sure, and the concluding chords are perfectly balanced to the very end. The quality of tones is most satisfying and there is no evidence of fatigue even after so arduous a program as that of yesterday.

"The soloists of the afternoon added much to the pleasure of the hearers. All the solos were from Handel's Messiah. Miss Elsie Roosa, contralto sang 'He Was Despised.' Her voice is warm and appealing and was particularly well adapted to this air which she sang with simplicity and sincerity. Samuel Pierce, Jr., sang the difficult recitative, 'Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart' and air, 'Behold and See If There Be Any Sorrow.' Mr. Pierce has an easy, clear tenor voice of delightful quality, and he sings with good enunciation. Miss Mailla Putnam, soprano, who has been heard with pleasure many times in choir programs, sang 'I Know That My Redeemer Liveth.' Her voice is clear, pleasing and of good range, and she sings with ease and perfect intonation. Miss deVolt accompanied Miss Putnam.

"Of the choruses, one cannot mention all, though to single out a few is scarcely fair to the others. The final chorus from Bach's St. Mathew's Passion was a masterpiece of voice balance, and so also was the Handel 'Worthy is the Lamb.' The Hallelujah chorus seemed to have a particularly successful rendering — crisp, clear and full of assurance.

"Elsa Kremers Bennett contributed a setting of 'Christ is Erstander' from

(Continued on page 2)

We Must Regard Criminals as Individuals Says Warden Lawes

So Declares Before Crowded House in Final Univ. Lecture

PUBLIC IS UNKNOWING

"Crime is a social problem which must be studied by regarding criminals as individuals and not as a group of persons all having certain like characteristics. No man or woman was born a criminal," declared Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing, speaking to an audience of more than one thousand persons in the University Gymnasium last Thursday evening. This lecture, entitled "A Practical View of the Problems of Crime and the Criminal," was the sixth and last in the current University series.

Warden Lawes pointed out the seriousness of the crime problem of today in his statement that, "More than 400,000 persons are in this country's prisons, workhouses and reformatories today. In Sing Sing alone I have more than 2,300 prisoners. The seriousness of the crime problem can best be realized upon considering the theory that only 10 percent of all criminals are caught." This number of "Anti-Socialists," he stated, is greater than the standing army of the United States. He spoke of the unknowing public which promptly forgets a person who is sent to a reformatory. "The problems of life do not vanish when a person enters a prison," he said. "Of course if we believe a man was born to be a criminal, there is nothing more we can do but to lock him up and keep him locked up, but, no man or woman was born to be a criminal."

He commented upon some of the queer laws existing in several of the states. "In a certain western state," he said, "it is a crime to smoke a pipe in public. Well, sometimes it is a crime, at that. In Texas, if a man shoots at another fellow who he thinks caused the alienation of affections of his wife and misses, he is tried and imprisoned, if he kills him, he is freed."

Tells of Personal Experiences

Reciting his personal experiences Warden Lawes told of beginning as a guard at Dannemora Prison. He spoke of "deplorable" conditions existing there at that time in contrast to the modern system. In those days, few if any normal actions were permitted in prison life.

From Dannemora, Mr. Lawes said he went to Auburn where prisoners were permitted to work during the day instead of being kept in solitary confinement all the while. The Auburn system is now

(Continued on page 2)

TEN FRATERNITIES HOLD ANNUAL EASTER DANCES

The "Hill" echoed with melody Friday evening, March 18, when ten of the Greek-letter fraternities frolicked at their annual spring dances held at the respective chapter houses. Four of the dances were formal.

Bob Minotti's band played for Alpha Tau Omega's formal. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burke and Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Jenney chaperoned.

The Kappa Sigs danced to the accompaniment of the Ribbon King's harmony. Their dance was formal and was chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. George V. Kidder, and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Abell.

Coon Sanders syncopated while the Lambda Iotas, under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Van Note, and Prof. and Mrs. W. T. Fulton, enjoyed their frolic in an informal dance. The freshmen had charge of the affair.

The informal of the Phi Mu Delts was chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Stineford, and Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair. Freddie Lynch's orchestra harmonized.

A victrola party was enjoyed by the Phi Sigma Delts. Prof. and Mrs. F. D. Carpenter chaperoned.

The musical rhythm for the Sigma Alpha Epsilon spring frolic was furnished by Lechnyr's Vermonters. The dance was chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Pooley, Mr. Milton H. Aldrich and Miss Cornelia H. Collier.

The frosh who were in charge of the Sigma Delta dance engaged Don Preston's orchestra to furnish the jazz. The chaperones were Prof. and Mrs. L. B. Puffer, and Prof. K. J. Sheldon. The dance was informal.

The rhythm for Sigma Nu's formal emanated from Billy Murray's of Barre and the chaperones were Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Adams, Mr. Melvin Laatsch and Dr. Yvonne Turk.

The Black Panthers from Middlebury furnished the music for the Sigma Phi dance. Prof. and Mrs. A. N. Colton acted as chaperones.

The Zeta Chis enjoyed their informal as the Globe Trotters of Barre played. Prof. and Mrs. H. G. Millington, with Mr. and Mrs. George Ward of Essex Junction chaperoned.

Delta Psi and Phi Delta Theta will hold their dances on the twenty-fifth.

The harmony for the Delta Psis will come from Kitty Karr's orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. Paul K. French, and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Burke will chaperone.

The Phi Delta Thetas have engaged the Cunarders for their formal.

Noel Coward's "Hay Fever" is to be Junior Week Dramatic Production

Societies Select Three-act Comedy at Combined Meeting—Tryouts Held Yesterday and Today in Room 4, North College

At a joint meeting of Wig and Buskin with Masque and Sandal which was held in the Old Mill Chapel last Friday "Hay Fever" by Noel Coward was selected as the dramatic production for Junior Week. Mr. Coward has written several other very successful plays, such as "Vortex."

The first tryouts for this three-act farce were held yesterday afternoon in Room 4, North College, and they will be continued this afternoon, at the same place and time. Everyone who has any interest at all in dramatics is welcome, and Wig and Buskin urges that more men show up at the tryouts.

At the Friday meeting, five plays were discussed, but the choice soon lay between "Hay Fever" and "Yellow Jacket," and "Hay Fever" was chosen, for two reasons given by the group which selected it. First, it is more interesting and humorous than "Yellow Jacket," and second because in "Yellow Jacket" the costumes would constitute too expensive an item.

Nine characters complete the cast for "Hay Fever"—five men and four women. The scene is laid in the hall of a country house at Cookham, England, for all three acts. The entire play centers about the character of Judith Bliss, a celebrated actress who has retired to live with her husband, David Bliss, and their two children, Sorel and Simon Bliss, in supposed peace and quiet.

The Blisses are entirely unconventional, have always brought their children up "to be free about things," and ordinary conventional, everyday people can't un-

(Continued on page 4)

RUTH KOBEL '34 IS NEW NEWS EDITOR OF CYNIC

Ruth Kobel '34 was elected to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Laura Tracy '34 from the position of Cynic News Editor last Friday afternoon, at the biweekly meeting held in 1 North College. An amendment to the Constitution was added providing for the filling of vacancies not mentioned in the Constitution upon recommedation of the editor subject to a majority approval of the board.

The office of contributing editor entailing the right of voting after completion of one year's work was also created. The second amendment concerning the new office provides for students who have come out for the Cynic staff in their second or third year in college who are otherwise not eligible for office or promotion. Reporters from the sophomore or junior classes will secure this position after fulfilling editorial requirements approved by the editor-in-chief and the editorial board.

Miss Kobel, who was the next highest ranking women's reporter of last year's board is a member of Press Club and W. A. A. She belongs to K. E. L.

Co-ed frat pin wearers in Ohio are liable to a fine of twenty dollars or thirty days imprisonment or both under a state law.

PROF. CARPENTER HEARS HERR HAUPTMANN SPEAK

Returns From New York Where the Famous German Writer Gave Readings

Prof. F. D. Carpenter of the German Department returned last Wednesday, March 16, from New York City where he went to hear Gerhart Hauptmann, the German writer speak. Under the auspices of the Germanistic Society of America and the Institute of Arts and Sciences of Columbia University, Mr. Hauptmann gave readings in German, from his own works, on Monday evening, March 14, at the MacMillin Academic Theatre in New York. An audience of over two thousand people from all over the eastern part of the country, packed the theatre to hear the world famous dramatist. "It was a wonderful experience," said Professor Carpenter, "to see and hear the voice of the man who occupies the greatest position of all living German writers."

"Der Arme Heinrich," one of his later plays, was the first selection offered by Mr. Hauptmann. He followed this by reading the second act from one of his earliest plays, called "Hanneles Himmelfahrt." The writer then read four of his lyric poems, which concluded the program.

In 1912, Gerhart Hauptmann was awarded the Nobel prize for literature. He has produced many of his plays and they were very popular with the German public. His latest play, "Vor Sonnenuntergang" is now being produced very successfully in Berlin.

Hauptmann, a man in his late sixties, now occupies the same position in German literature as Goethe held one hundred years ago. "It is a curious thing," said Professor Carpenter, "that Hauptmann as he grows older, closely resembles Goethe in appearance and manner."

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Women's Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Recording Editor
[illegible] Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34 [illegible] '34 Augustus Tilden '34 Jackson Libby '34 Realtus McCain '34 William Prouty '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] '34 M. L. Greenberg '34 Dionne Lee '33 T. L. Taylor '33

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

R. Isaacson '34 W. J. Gilbert '34 Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

I. Lyman '34

COLUMNIST

R. J. Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

[illegible] published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a [illegible] Entered at the [illegible] post office as second class matter. Communications must be signed and addressed to the proper [illegible] Editorial [illegible] Business communications must be signed and addressed to the proper [illegible] Editorial [illegible] Business office of the paper in the Union building. Brief notices must be handed [illegible] Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to [illegible] Entered as second class matter at the post office at Burlington, Vt., under the act of March [illegible] 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section [illegible] Act of October [illegible] 1917, authorized [illegible]

[illegible] at the Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] Number 44

IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

[illegible] members of the [illegible] at the head of the [illegible] fraternity politics [illegible] to maintain that the campus [illegible] proved that it can't be done." This contends to [illegible] handled with the [illegible] [illegible] to find a [illegible] kind of [illegible] organization.

In the meeting held in the Mansfield last week the [illegible] was defeated. An attempt to abolish the present system [illegible] as "a [illegible] was [illegible] The [illegible] of politics was the [illegible] which halted the proposed proposal to eliminate Student Senate and have officers at once by [illegible] Senate has on more than one occasion indicated its willingness to function as a worthwhile [illegible] And yet one representative made the preposterous statement that the Senate's action in [illegible] the southern baseball trip [illegible] sufficient to justify its existence even if it will not do anything else for another five years. Have affairs reached such a state that organizations are to be formed as long as they have one spark of useful life? The Senate does not represent the student body nor can the fraternities themselves. It does reflect the views and ideas of certain guiding [illegible] who have no experience in membership and hang [illegible] their possession mark by the side of membership rolls.

As opposed to the existing trend toward conservatism the creation of a student congress would [illegible] the beginning of a marked reform. Under such a system of government would put the entire student body to a vote at regular [illegible] The [illegible] of a student congress would be determined by campus politicians as a dangerous move because it might possibly give the wishes of the majority an airing.

Student offices have too weighty a significance to applicants of Ariel honors for their abolition ever to be proposed. If superfluous student offices were eliminated, who would call the few meetings held at intervals during the year to decide matters of class policy? Who would discuss the honor of the class when [illegible] were termed "questionable"?

An [illegible] embodying no favorable results should have no further place in student organization. It should be abolished and representative government put in its place.

Committees may be appointed, and investigations made but as long as camouflaging goes on for protection of selfish interests no solution of the student government problem can be made. Fraternity politics must either be eliminated entirely or brought out into the open and made a channel through which individual ability may be recognized. No matters stand, fraternity politics is masquerading and concealing itself with a hood of concealment. It is a wolf in sheep's clothing.

DEPLORABLE

It is on occasions such as the final [illegible] lecture at which Warden Lawes of Sing Sing spoke that the necessity of a student union building and auditorium becomes apparent. When about fourteen hundred persons including townspeople and University students pack a hall to hear a nationally famous lecturer speak it becomes especially irritating to lose the import of the whole talk in the then important business of grabbing a chair which looks serviceable enough to withstand the demands of an hour's sitting.

Not only is the constant squeaking of seat and floor annoying and insulting to the man occupying the rostrum but it is also a bad reflection upon student opinion and alumni interest which constantly request, ignoring the pressing need for a suitable hall which might be erected at nominal cost and which would provide facilities for housing student meetings, celebrations and presentations.

The gymnasium has long proved its uselessness as a gathering place where one may come in contact with the outside elements which the University lectures committee so ably provides.

—W. C.

STATE APPLE GROWERS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

A conference of Vermont apple growers to discuss their production and marketing problems will be held in Rutland on April 5 and 6, under the auspices of the Vermont Extension Service. The program will cover subjects which are of general interest to all orchardists, and will include a banquet on Tuesday evening, April 5.

Talks or demonstrations will be given on such subjects as apple packing, apple [illegible] control, [illegible] orchard fertilizers, long-time apple outlook, use of New England quality label, apple orchard taxation and year-around orchard management practices.

The conference will be held in the Neighborhood Rooms of the Marble Savings Bank at Rutland commencing at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 5. Full particulars will be sent to orchardists, or may be obtained from the Vermont Extension Service, 481 Main Street, Burlington, Vermont, or from any county agricultural agent.

Dancing partners at Heidelberg must maintain the decorous distance of a half-a foot from each other at all times.

Ten Timely Topics

Tara Tantara Theo

Among the principal reasons for college failures as recently listed by Dean Swift, are inability to study, laziness, unwillingness to do hard work, and outside distractions. [illegible] we know who can think [illegible] something about [illegible]

Fraternity politics is to the fore again. Those of us who can remember back to the time when seniors were sophomores will recall a persistent and vigorous attack waged by the Cynic against fraternity politics. As a result of that campaign the Cynic was able to accomplish without question a long delayed housecleaning among its own staff, the [illegible] [illegible] altogether from its elections, and many a group toed the mark for several months. And the Cynic launched an attack on the honorary societies for playing politics in their elections. A mass meeting was called to wipe politics out of the honorary societies. Oh, no! It was the editor of the Cynic!

It is on record that the meeting failed of its purpose but because the administration refused to stand back of the Cynic the campus politicians regarded their intrigues as vindicated and plunged even more heavily into politics then ever before. The filthy hand of fraternity politics might now be seen where politics had hitherto been undreamed of. The younger fraternities, which hitherto had been relatively inactive politically, stepped into politics on their own. Some of them have boosted large memberships and therefore many votes, and time and again they have beaten [illegible] for positions which the latter had come to regard as their own.

Two years ago it was the younger houses and the Independents against the older houses. Today, the latter, having learned what fraternity politics can mean, are themselves leading the housecleaning. Only two or three, who never had much to lose, are holding out.

No one's olfactory apparatus is so weak that he can not smell rats in the immediate vicinity when a campus "leader" tells him that fraternity politics can not be abolished. Personal motives too often hide behind such convictions.

Fraternity politics is most insidious when it obtrudes itself into contests for editorships, managerships, and other offices whose incumbents should be men and women of ability. Most of these offices require a special kind of ability. To allow honor-grabbers who possess the requisite amount of political support to entrench themselves as editors, managers and directors, bodes no good to the conduct of these offices. If, furthermore, diligence in the performance of their duties is required of candidates for a given office, it is criminal to hand over that office to the candidate who has not been noted for his industry.

As to the class officerships, student senatorships, and the like, for which the different fraternities stage some of their bitterest contests, but which make few demands upon the abilities or the industry of their incumbents it matters very little how the latter are chosen.

If the conferences now being held to consider the problem of fraternity combines take politics out of the Ariel elections, show the Athletic Council just how powerful the combines are in the election of managers, and evolve a method for the choice of Kake Walk directors with an eye to the elimination of politics, their sponsors will have earned for themselves a high place in the regard of their fellow-students.

The plan of a student congress, to be composed of one representative of each class in each fraternity and of two independents from each class, has much to commend it.

It will give equal representation to all groups, including the independents, in the management of campus affairs.

If it works through committees, it will not be unwieldy.

It will eliminate some political footballs by dropping student officers and the Student Senate. (We must admit that at first we were all admiration for the brilliant gentleman who produced that gem of eloquence. "The Student Senate has justified its existence by its action regarding the southern baseball trip, even if it never does anything else for five years." Following out the logic of this pearl of wisdom, we arrive at what we have long contended. That a man who does his work faithfully for a whole year should continue to receive the rewards, salaries and honors pertaining to his postion, even if he never does anything else for five years. We'd all be on easy street in no time.)

A student congress would restore what we have long needed, a permanent working machinery for student action. It is really such a congress which is now contemplating the destruction of fraternity combines. It was such a congress which protested so effectively against the elimination of the southern baseball trip, for the Student Senate was forced to summon other students to its conferences in order show that their protests were the product of a general student sentiment. Give such congresses permanence and power, let them meet and act in the open, and they will be the greatest possible force for good.

What to do about committee appointments will occasion the enemies of the combine many a headache. Open politics will probably prove to be the best solution. Advance publication of committee slates will forestall doublecrossing, which has been too frequent in the past. Enforced rotation of political allies will prevent the entrenchment of machines.

The matter must not be allowed to drop. Experiences has shown that the efforts of such men and women as compose the committee to investigate politics at Vermont will be wasted unless something is done before the year is out.

The Mystic Pen

UNDER THE COVERS

New Books of Monumental Importance

Aiming countless shafts of satire at every aspect of our twentieth century humbuggery, Wyndham Lewis has caused a [illegible] and confusion, both in England and America. Lauded to the skies in his noble purpose by such personalities as W. B. Yeats, Augustus John, Richard Aldington and H. G. Wells, Lewis has achieved a super-infra-Rabelasian opus with the fare, the subtlety the agonized writhings of a thousand Aristophanes, Popes and Voltaires. In The Apes of God, the countless poseurs, in art, literature, psychology, sex, social life—all are ripped to the marrow in a merciless exposition of their insignificance. A Petronius gone berserk, says his publisher. And Lewis justifies the epithet. The book deals definitely with the ramblings through the pseudo-Bohemia of London of one Daniel Boleyn, whom the author likes to call a split-man. Under the tutorship of Horace Zagreus, an albino of remarkable discernment, Boleyn is given insight into the private lives of every type of sham intellect. What is not delineated through his eyes, the author makes sure to give us in other manner. The rich remnants of the retiring (de)generation, the post-war healthy animals with nothing to do, the amateur artists and critics, business men, orgies that fail miserably to live up to the classical standard—all are lampooned with a brilliance of wit attaining unusual proportions. Even Zagreus, the superman, turns out to be an Ape. The author has taken pains with his format and use of drawings and type faces to help his impression. Nowhere does the moral tone give us cause to call Lewis a Rabelasian pretender. His sincerity is unquestionable.

This book points by implication a series of morals which would enrich anyone's code. The book has been called a stupendous farce. Through the farce stalks the actuality. In The Apes of God we see not only the lapdogs, poseurs and sexual eccentrics (whose glorification has clogged our contemporary literature) given the microscopic treatment they deserve, but much further, we have the configuration of a decadent post-bellum order whose influences have made enormous inroads upon our own centers of population here in America, reaching their stultifying tentacles of intellectual stagnation, under the cloak of pretense, even unto the foothills.

It is interesting to note that Lewis, though an Englishman, was born in Maine. His novel has none of the "outland" markings of the average overseas product. His style is international. He has, for once and all, laid the ghost of intellectual sham. The Book: The Apes of God. (McBride, $3.)

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDS CONCERT

(Continued from page 1)

Goethe's Faust, and Mr. Bennett had orchestrated the accompaniment. The composition was almost a hymn of victory, so convincingly were the harmonies built up to an irresistible climax. The chorus sang this number in German.

"To sing unaccompanied is the real test of a chorus and Mr. Bennett seems particularly successful in this. The male choir sang the Palestrina 'Adoremus te Christe' in Latin with real organ quality. The women sang Kastalsky's 'Christ Is Risen' with good quality and balance.

"The entire program was a beautiful and appropriate commemoration of the Lenten-Easter season and led all hearers into reflections and inspirations befitting the occasion."

University of Chicago professors are divided on the question whether a snorer produces more noise on the intake or the exhaust.

MUST REGARD CRIMINALS AS INDIVIDUALS

(Continued from page 1)

used throughout America [illegible] found that constant [illegible] often caused insanity.

Mr. Lawes explained that a [illegible] not a jail. It is regarded [illegible] munity center which [illegible] munity activity.

From Auburn the lecture [illegible] to the New York State [illegible] Elmira, N. Y. There he found [illegible] inmates were treated alike. [illegible] with a six-year-old mind was [illegible] to perform a task, requiring the [illegible] igence of an eleven-year-old, [illegible] failing, was whipped. The warden said that he doesn't believe in whipping. He learned that in Delaware, where [illegible] the lash, the same men are [illegible] and again. They are used to [illegible] "Many of our prisoners [illegible] juvenile institutions where they are [illegible] ped nearly every day," he declared.

From Elmira, Mr. Lawes went [illegible] to the New York City Reformatory, under his administration the [illegible] changed from the city to a farm at [illegible] Hampton, N. J. His next promotion was to Sing Sing.

Involves Huge Responsibility

At this point, the warden told [illegible] responsibility incurred by one who becomes chief executive of "such a huge penal institution." He explained that prisoners not only must be kept from escaping, but also from committing [illegible]

The prisoners constitute a cross-section of a community. There are [illegible] tally defective and persons with [illegible] A number of different [illegible] represented. "Education," he [illegible] said, "doesn't of itself make one [illegible] although it enables one to see the [illegible] of crime. There is no more reason to [illegible] the mentally defective than among persons of normal minds."

In telling of prison life in general [illegible] Sing Sing, he spoke of the Mutual Welfare League, a self-governing body which the prisoners have. In the old days prisoners earned only a cent and a half a day. For the relief of the widows and children of a man who was executed, the prisoners once donated $2,680. Some of them gave five years' pay. The warden spoke of this as "a social act from a group of anti-social men," and he emphasized the significance in the study of criminology. Today, the prisoners at Sing Sing can earn as high as thirty cents a day and they are permitted to spend half of what they earn.

In the exposition of his duties he [illegible] reached the point where he told about the death house and executions. "I would not, like wars, brutalize men," he said. He also stated that the report that prisoners about to be executed were given drugs was entirely untrue. "The only dope we give them is religion. Sometimes they take it and sometimes they don't," he said.

Opposes Capital Punishment

Warden Lawes explained that he "might believe" in capital punishment were it enforceable. "We kill 110 persons a year in this country, and there are 10,000 homicides."

In conclusion the warden declared that crime is a problem of youth. He does not believe that criminals are born, but that they are made, principally during the period of life when they are young and their minds are most receptive. "Should go going out into life," he said, "should influence public opinion."

An open forum took place after the lecture. Responding to a question asked at that time, the warden said that [illegible] out of four first offenders sent to Sing Sing never come back. "They may be good citizens, but at least they are negatively good, and they don't rate."

The question was asked, "What would you do with murders, Warden Lawes?" He answered, I'd keep the man in prison as long as possible because after all, the people who commit murders are usually penniless and have no [illegible] Yes, I suggest life imprisonment."

In reply a query about the cause of prison riots his answer was [illegible] hope," and one of the main contributing factors to this loss of hope [illegible] Baumes Laws which demands [illegible] for certain felonies. The result was unrest among many of the prisoners. "these sparks of unrest were fanned to sedition by certain desperate men who are found ever ready in any prison to precipitate a riot."

Prof. A. R. Gifford of the [illegible] department and chairman of the University lectures, introduced Warden, and mentioned the latter's book, "Twenty Thousand Years in Sing Sing," which has been selected by the Book of the Month Club.

MEDICS HEAR DR. KITTELL ON THE THYROID GLAND

A lecture, "Diseases of the Thyroid Gland," accompanied by [illegible] featured the appearance of Dr. Kittell, surgeon of the [illegible] Boston, at the monthly meeting of the Osler Clinical Society held in the Medical Building last Wednesday evening. The program was in charge of Dr. Sabin, professor of clinical surgery in the Medical School.

Six students of the [illegible] Denver were suspended [illegible] tended class in bathing [illegible]

SPORTS NEWS

PEP RALLY FOR TEAM TOMORROW

Kappa Sig Stars Beat Sigma Nu

Last Year's Champs Make Disappointing Showing as Phi Mu Delta and Sigma Phi Place

MANY FAST RACES RUN IN INTERFRAT CARNIVAL

[illegible] the most successful interfraternity track meets ever staged at the University of Vermont, the Kappa Sigma track team ran away with the meet to take an easy first place. Last year's champions placed fourth in one of the biggest upsets of Vermont track. Phi Mu Delta took second place, and Sigma Phi placed third out of the nine entrants.

Three records were smashed in Saturday's doings at the gymnasium. All the entrants in the shotput beat the record of previous years to raise the footage to thirty-seven feet, four and one-half inches. Bowers was the man who made the winning throw, although Manning, Daigle and Cook also broke the record. In the 16-pound weight throw Child led the way with a heave that was one inch over the old record.

The thirty yard dash started things off in the afternoon. Billings copped first place in a fast spurt. It tied the old record. In the pole vault Lanahan and McDonald were tied for the highest jump with nine feet and nine inches. The mile run was one of the fastest races of the year and resulted in a victory for Ev Wilder, veteran track and cross country star. The time was record-breaking.

The broad jump found Jay stretching his legs to win with a run and jump of nineteen feet and four and a half inches. In the thirty-yard high hurdles Billings won another first place to win out against Syme and Proctor and create a new record. In the quarter-mile Delfausse had no trouble in winning his specialty in the fast time of fifty-nine and two-tenths seconds.

Jimmie McKay took first place in the thirty-yard low hurdles and incidently cracked the record for a loop. The concluding two-mile event found Harwood coming out with plenty of reserve against Hadley, who was expected to triumph. Adams and Bowers tied in the high jump. Brooks ran a fast race to take the half-mile.

The results:

Thirty-yard dash: Billings, Sigma Phi, first; Bedell, Sigma Nu, second; Smith, Kappa Sigma, third; Syme, Phi Delta Theta, fourth. Time 3⅗ seconds.

Shotput: Bowers, Kappa Sigma, first; Manning, Phi Mu Delta, second; Cook, Kappa Sigma, third; Daigle, A. T. O., fourth. Winning put 37', 4½".

Pole vault: Lanahan, A. T. O. and McDonald, Kappa Sigma, tied for first; Sawka, Kappa Sigma, third; Tupper, Sigma Phi, fourth. Winning vault, 9', 9".

Mile run: Wilder, S. A. E., first; Proctor, Phi Mu Delta, second; Leach, Independents, third; White, Owls, fourth. Time 5-09⅗ seconds.

Thirty-five pound weight: Child, Sigma Nu first, Manning, Phi Mu Delta, second; Cook, Kappa Sigma, third;

(Continued on page 4)

WINANT DEFEATS TAFT IN FINAL OF HANDBALL

Eddie Winant '32, versatile athlete of the University of Vermont, defeated Chet Taft in the final match of the handball tournament by a 21-19 score. This tournament was the first of its kind to be held at Vermont, and quite a lot of interest was exhibited in it.

CO-ED COURT TOURNEY FINDS TWO TEAMS TIED

Freshmen Win and Lose in Week's Play to Tie Sophs in Girls' Basketball

The junior girls' basketball team defeated the freshmen, 19-17 in an overtime period. Despite the close score the game was slow with the juniors managing to keep their early lead until the final minutes when the frosh tied the score.

Both teams played better basketball during the overtime period.

By defeating the sophomore basketball team Thursday 12 to 3 the freshmen are now tied for the first place in the co-ed interclass basketball tournament.

The teams were evenly matched, and during the first quarter the sophomores collected their only floor basket.

At the end of the first half the freshmen were leading 7-3. In the second half they kept the sophs from scoring and themselves gathered six points.

The present rating is sophomores and freshmen tied for first; juniors, second and seniors last.

SENIOR GIRLS TAKE THE BOWLING CHAMPIONSHIP

With a total score of 751 the senior woman's bowling team won the interclass championship Wednesday, March 16.

The juniors were close second with a score of 740, the sophomores had a total of 710 points while the freshmen amassed only 663 points.

The highest individual scorers for each class were: Seniors, Mildred Akins 90; juniors, Frances Thomas 105; sophomores, Betty Woodard 86; freshmen, Lois Whitcomb 88.

Vic Chadburn, graduate student, although not in the tournament made the highest score 109 that has been made this year in bowling.

Rehearsals of the cast of "Cosi Fan Tutte" have been held every day the past two weeks except last Saturday. The first dramatic rehearsal was held at 4.00 p.m., Thursday, March 17. The two finals have been thoroughly learned from the musical standpoint, and dramatic work will be based only on the music as it is learned.

Professors C. Groat, R. Deane, and Julian Lindsay have recently been absent from their classes because of illness.

All freshmen at the University of Maryland are required to work one day out of every week on the school paper.

Playoff Tonight for School Title

Spaulding Court Team Fresh From Defeat at New England Tourney Plays Bradford

BOTH TEAMS HAVE AN ABUNDANCE OF SPIRIT

This evening at eight o'clock the Spaulding High School basketball team, winners of the senior inter-scholastic tournament, will line up against the Bradford Academy five, victors of the junior tourney, for the Vermont State High School Basketball Championship. The game will take place in the University gym under the direction of H. A. Prentice and H. B. Levine of the Physical Education Department.

Although Spaulding is generally conceded the contest, nevertheless the Red and White quintet will have to set a fast pace to take the little wonder team from the northeast into camp.

The Bradford five has gone out of its way to take on many senior teams throughout the state this year with a considerable degree of success. They have scored close to 1,000 points in the season's contests. As trump cards they have Murphy at center and Kelly at left guard, both high scorers during the winter.

Spaulding comes north for this post season game right after a hard trip to Newport, R. I. in which they lost to Northampton 33-22 in the first round of the New England Interscholastic Tourney. They have gone through a lot of basketball this season and as a team lost fifty pounds in the senior tournament.

In the center court the Barre team easily matches Murphy, Bradford's ace with McKearnan, all-tournament man with thirty points. In the race for honors in the back courts Conti, one of the fastest players in the tournament, is pitted against Kelly of Bradford.

Both Bradford and Spaulding have shown a remarkable fighting spirit throughout the season. Both teams come from behind in the semi-finals of the state tournament to win the junior and senior tourneys respectively.

Bradford was not eligible for the trip to Newport, R. I. which Spaulding made since the officials of the New England Interscholastic Tournament will not accept a junior high school team as a contender.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sports Editor—

The Pep Rally sponsored by the Honorary Societies on the campus, scheduled for Wednesday night is a laudable effort on the part of these groups to stimulate interest and backing for the team as it departs on its Southern trip.

The success of this rally depends upon the degree of student backing which it is to receive, as evidenced by student attendance.

The sports department therefore makes sincere personal appeal to all students to turn out Thursday night and give the team an encouraging send-off.

The play-off for the state championship between Spaulding High of Barre and Bradford Academy should prove to be very interesting.

The Senior Champs have an edge over their Junior Rivals in that they are more accustomed to the gym floor, and have played against faster and more experienced competition during the year.

Bradford on the other hand, in being the under dog has everything to gain and nothing to lose. The team is enjoying the benefits of over a week's rest, while Spaulding is somewhat tired due to its trip to the Newport tourney.

Although Spaulding was eliminated in the first round of the tourney, last Friday 33-22 by Northampton High, the champions of Western Massachusetts, the Senior champions are to be congratulated for the fine showing they made.

SPORTS CALENDAR

Tonight—
Bradford vs. Spaulding.
State Scholastic Title.
Wednesday afternoon—
Finals in Wrestling Tourney.
Evening
PEP RALLY.
Thursday noon—
Team leaves for South.
Friday—
Last day of school.

FROSH DIAMOND TEAM HAS FINE PROSPECTS

Outdoor Practice to be Held After Easter Vacation When a General Call Will be Made

Coach Newton is very optimistic concerning the prospects of the freshman baseball team this year. When interviewed he expressed his hearty approval of the material at hand for the coming season. As yet there has been no outfield or regular infield practice but even in the cage some men are showing up to a great degree of efficiency. The frosh will start outdoor practice after the Easter recess.

For infielders Ramon, Rock, Delfausse and Burns seem to be shaping up in accordance with the standards of a good ball player. They are all good batters and can scoop up the fast ones in snappy fashion. Ramon played with Spaulding and later with Montpelier Seminary at first base. Rock also hails from Spaulding playing second base. Roly Delfausse comes from the far south of Long Island, Rockville Center to be exact. Burns comes from Vermont Academy.

The Kitten battery men who have been practicing with the varsity for nearly a month now are rounding their arms into good form, and will be ready to toss them into the freshman batters at field practice soon. The outstanding mound man is "Gordy" Sheehe from Newport. Carlson is shaping up well under the constant coaching of "Doc" Newton. Swartz, Collins and Libby are performing well in their battery aspirations. On the receiving end Garrett, Skinner and Starbuck are giving the pitchers the signals in preliminary work. The frosh schedule has not as yet been released by Manager Cobb, but is in the process of making.

TENNIS SQUAD GROWS AS SEASON DRAWS NEAR

Coach Carpenter's group of tennis men is gaining in numbers during the daily workouts in the cage. At present around a dozen or fifteen men are reporting for practice with several more yet to come out. Workouts have been confined to stroke practice and placements. Captain Woodward, Terrien, Myers, Powell, Carsley, Mulcahy, Holbrook and Morse have shown up well. Tupper, Wilson and Albert will probably soon put on an appearance.

The tennis season opens next month with the annual Boston trip which will include matches with Amherst, M. I. T. and Boston University. Six men will make the trip this year instead of the former number of four. Coach Carpenter refused to state any possible combinations at this early stage in the practice season.

Gym to be Scene of Enthusiasm

Thirteen Men to Make Annual Trip to Southland With Coach Gardner Starting Thursday Noon

RALLY SPONSORED BY HONORARY SOCIETIES

A pep rally which is to be attended by both men and women students will be staged tomorrow evening to give the baseball team a rousing send off before they leave on their annual Southern venture on Thursday noon. Boulder, Key and Serpent, Gold Key and Student Senate are sponsoring the mass meeting. The purpose of the assembly is to stir up enthusiasm in the invasion of the sunny South, by the Catamount nine.

Vermont is the only team in all New England which is making a Southern trip this year. In fact it was due only to the action of the honorary societies that they are making the journey. Usually the team does not make out very well on the annual trek, but when they come back they are in fighting trim to take on and defeat any opponent at Centennial Field. The team has been making a long trip at the beginning of the season for over thirty-five years, and for thirty five years they have had some very good ball teams with one or two exceptions.

Coach Larry Gardner announces that the following men are making the trip: Tomassetti and Taft, catchers; Rutkowski, Beckley, Farmer and Spicer, pitchers; Winant, first base; Macomber, second base; Pires, short stop; Wesoly, left field; McKay, third base; Captain Jay, center field, and Collins, right field. All of the men are hardened ball players and eight have had experience with the varsity before. Winant, Jay and McKay all played ball as freshmen in the infield, four years ago. Their mate, Pie Traynor, one of the best men Vermont has ever had completed the infield then. Rutkowski, the only veteran hurler Vermont has, will assume the burden of the pitching duties. Wesoly, Beckley and Spicer were recruited from the frosh team.

In tomorrow evening's program there will be four speakers, all of whom are making the trip. They will give brief résumés of their experiences with the team. Graduate Manager Sabin Abell and Coach Larry Gardner will represent the more mature interests while Captain Orrie Jay and Manager Watson Morgan will speak for the students.

As a feature of additional interest A. T. Post, track coach, has announced that Kappa Sigma, recent winners of the interfraternity relay title, will take on an all college team composed of Flagg, Billings, Tupper and Hutchins, the outstanding men on their respective teams. Kappa Sigma now holds the official relay record of 2.50 Delfausse, Wesoly, Smith and Jay will pass the baton for the scarlet squad.

Professor Snyder of Northwestern University said, "Fun is the most important thing that we get out of college."

CONGRATULATIONS!

Sincere congratulations and best wishes to the BASEBALL SQUAD on their departure for the South.

DROP IN AND WE'LL FIT YOU OUT

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Comparison Will Prove
LANGROCK CLOTHES
Are Economical

Because—
they give full value—and more
—in appearance
—in correct style
—in wear-resistance
—in lasting service

COMPARE BEFORE YOU SELECT

$45 to $55
Ready for Service

$65
And More To Measure

TURKS Burlington Vt.

156-158 College Street

THE FORUM

A QUESTION OF SEX

By J. M. W.

DISCUSSES STERILITY OF CULTIVATED FRUITS

COUNSELS CUT OF ALL EXPENSES

(Continued from page 1)

KAPPA SIG STARS BEAT SIGMA NUS

(Continued from page 8)

SENIORS HOLD ELECTIONS THIS P.M. IN SCIENCE HALL

"HAY FEVER" TO BE JUNIOR WEEK PRODUCTION

(Continued from page 1)

SIGMA NU, KAPPA SIGS HOLD ANNUAL INITIATIONS

DEBATERS MEET KEENE WED. AND UNION THURS.

FACULTY CLUB ELECTS MOWER AS PRESIDENT

BEST COAL AND SERVICE

• • •

Elias Lyman Coal Company
286 College Street

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2870, 2871, 2872

FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL
Residential Summer School (co-educational) in the heart of French Canada Old Country French staff. Only French spoken. Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced. Certificate or College Credit. French entertainments, sight-seeing, sports, etc.
Fee $140, Board and Tuition, June 25 July 31. Write for circular to Secretary Residential French Summer School
McGILL UNIVERSITY
A-32 MONTREAL, CANADA

BUY YOUR Easter Gifts
at the
University Store
• • •
SEAL NOVELTIES
STATIONERY
UNIVERSITY PICTURES
FELT GOODS

The
BENTLEY SCHOOL
Is the largest professional school in the United States which is devoted exclusively to training men to become specialists in accounting and finance. Completion of the course requires two years.

¶ Graduates are employed in 29 states and 14 foreign countries as office managers, cost accountants, resident auditors, travelling auditors, statisticians, comptrollers, treasurers, branch managers, public accountants, etc.

¶ Modern business demands the services of men qualified to do some one thing particularly well.

¶ The man who knows a little about many things in business but not much about any one of them is greatly handicapped when he competes with men who are highly skilled in the principles and technic of some one department of business.

¶ Men with college experience have particularly favorable prospects in the public accounting profession as well as in business, provided their technical training is adequate.

¶ A catalog will be sent upon request. Please mention your college paper when writing.

The Bentley School of Accounting & Finance
921 Boylston Street, Boston (Kenmore 0755)
H. C. Bentley, C. P. A., President

el picador

VOLUME 1 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1932 — NUMBER 3

Woman's Page

By Nancy Barefax

Today, girls, a moral with a moral. A little storyette of open intent. The way of the transgressor, remember, is transgressing.

TABLE TALK

It is generally known that women love to "gab" (slang, it is, but commonly accepted), yet any man will have to admit that they possess the knack for talking and talking well.

Yet, at times, co-ed conversation slants the wrong way as to college life. Like a woman's changing mind the conversation vacillates, once, animated with the spirit of victory (speaking now concerning athletics) and then again, dulled by the sense of defeat.

Such is co-ed table talk between bites:

"Are you going to root for our old team tonight, Pat?"

One co-ed cheerfully grins across the dinner table at Pat, the woman with no spirit for basketball—and just for the simple reason, that, last time, oh, just Thursday night the score was 35 to 22 in favor of Middlebury.

"What, me?" (wrong pronoun, but it does happen in the best of the college educated circles—it's just informal). "Root for Vermont? Nope—not even going. What's the use? It'll probably be 50 to 12 tonight!"

And would you believe it—she disdainfully shoves away a nice, fat, baked potato. Oh well, that's to be expected—anything to keep slim (by the way, the subject of reducing rarely ever fails to enter the course of conversation during dinner) and, hate to say it, anything to keep grouchy too, so it seems. Though she wouldn't be if she had a little pep, that is fighting spirit, they call it, don't they?

"Pat, they're all O K—they do their best!"

"Yes, they start out well, I'll grant that, but they peter out. You can't tell me they have as much pep or fighting spirit and what-not as I have—"

"As you have until the team slumps. Yes? Why don't you get out in the floor and show them how to play?"

Disgust dominates the scene and the victim takes refuge behind a glass of water.

That little dissertation cut, but in the end, Pat or whoever she may be, is properly squelched, as she should be—because pep and fighting spirit always win out in the grand finale.

REWARDS OF CUTTING

Here's another snatch of table talk.

"That Math!"

"Well, that German! Gee, I could choke that prof—"

"Why not try attending classes for a change?"

Listen to this—(incidentally it's a parody on "Why Dance?"—"Pourquoi Danser?)" Tune it up yourself.

"Why cut? Let us stroll to our Botany where sunflowers nod (and try not to envy them).

Pause—telephone rings. A pantomime ensues as to who shall satisfy its insistent call.

"Toll call for you Bumps."

The toll call is finished, the charges successfully understood as reversed—homeward—but, the entrance of a glum, dejected Bumps into the dining room hushes all criticisms of prof this and that.

"Well, no more dates for little Bumps. Dad just told me that I'll have to rate with the Math professor or out I go. Sounds like kindergarten talk!"

What—another telephone call for Bumps? The masculine voice, this time, more gentle. A date with the best dressed man on campus (and shush, he has a car AND a newly acquired cheque, straight from home this very day)!

"Oh well, that test tomorrow won't count so much. It's the first since mid-years. So long, girls. See you at eleven ten—or try to!"

Curtain falls in June. It's a sad tale, but oh, so true, so unbearably true! Should she do a "Hedda Gabler" act, or should she become reconciled and join oh yes (tearfully) old man Math on a date, which lasts another whole year, at least' just eleven ten.

Too bad—but that first test counted so much, and she didn't realize it. Too bad! One might as well get married as take math twice.

THE MISOGYNIST WAILS AGAIN

"'N Double Check"

The embrace was long and rather warm
But soon suddenly we broke free.
"I'm through with you," I said, "You're
The first girl ever kissed by me."

"I'll be frank with you," the girl replied,
"It's easy to discern,
That when you think you're pretty
smart
You've got a lot to learn!"

—ep—

Who's a wise Elsie?
Who told me if I played at the Flynn
I'd be made

VEGETABLE ZOUP

(A Depression Drama With a Tremendous Moral)

Characters: John, who owns a vegetable market. Mary, his wife.

Mary: Oh, John, where have you been? What's tomato?

John: Down on Onion Street at the store, of corns. Not one customer today! People all buy canned vegetables. Do you know that vitamins—no, you probably don't. Well, I'm disgusted. I'm going down to the river endive in.

Mary: But something is sure to turnip!

John: Yes, but what will we do in the meantime? I can't pumpkin for any more money. My dad's broke, too, and your parsniped his nose at me when I asked for a loan. I artichoked him!

Mary: John! Oh, I know what we can—.

John: I don't care for any of your ideas. You carot for all I care! (Shoves her, and she falls into the corn-er.)

Mary: Peas don't beet me, John! They'll raise your celery soon.

John: I'm sorry, Mary. I didn't mean to squash you. (They embrace and he squashes her.)

Mary: My idea was to join the ranks of the unemployed. Then we could get some of that lovely vegetable soup they hand out at the community kitchen.

John: You're a genius, Mary. Lettuce go places and celebrate.

—ep—

Sword Swallower: Cripes, Lupe, you've been cutting garlic with my scmitars again!

—adapted from the Lampoon.

STUNT THEY WOULDN'T SHOW AT KAKE WALK

El Picador's Own

"Guaranteed to have no plot, continuity, climax, or sense. Supply your own characters, write your own ending. Hate your own stunt. See if we care!)

Dramatis Personae
President Hoover
Mr Jones, one of his secretaries
Pluto, Ruler of the Nether Regions
Jonah, Caesar, Napoleon, Carrie Nation, Washington and any other characters of the past you expect in a Kake Walk which you would like to supply.

Scene I

Herb: (To secretary) Jones, I've just received a cable from Pluto, and . . .
Jones: Pluto What?
Herb: Pluto, ruler of the underworld. . .
Jones: But I thought Capone . . .
Herb: You know, Pluto, king of the Nether Regions.
Jones: Neither what regions?
Herb: Down below.
Jones: Down below? Oh hell, yes. . .
Herb: What?
Jones: Hell, Ruler of Hell.
H.: Well, I'm going to appoint a new commission and you are it.
No. 13943-A: You're to go to hell and see if you can get any new ideas on the depression. All good men are dead.
J.: There's the senate, Mr. President.
H.: That's what I was thinking of.
J.: May I ask a question? What's the best way to get to Pluto's realm?
H.: Why should I know?
J.: Well you've sure been through hell for the past few years.
(That's about enough of that, lights!)

Scene II

(Theme Song, "We're Knocking Them Cold in The Styx")
Charon, the Boatman: All aboard. Pay now 10 percent discount for Canadian money. Here!
J.: What?
Ch.: Pay. Ten cents.
J.: Did you say ten cents?
Ch.: I said ten cents.
J.: But I'm the president's commission.
Ch.: In that case you work. Grab an oar there and row.
J.: But how can I row? I never did a stroke of work in my life!
(Ho, hum! Lights)

Scene III—(aw, hell)

Jones: Good day, Mr. Pluto. Nice place you have here.
Pluto: Like it? Come again when you can stay longer. You want to interview some residents? Well here comes Jonah interview now.
Jonah: Good day, gentlemen. Mr. Jones, that's a nice suit you're wearing. How much did you pay. . .
Jones: Mr. Jonah, I'd like to ask your opinion concerning the depression.
Jonah: I'll have to ask you fifty cents for depressin' of that suit, Mr. Jones.
Jones: I'm afraid you don't gather Mr . . . Who's that? (Caesar approaches)
Pluto: Jonesy, I'd like to have you meet Julius.
Jones: Pleased to meet you, Mr. Caesar. How's your gaul? Oh, by the way, have you any ideas on the depression?
Caesar: Well I've always heard that de prussian military forces. . .
Napoleon (Coming up): There you go! The trouble with the world today is that modern generals of industry have forgotten that an army always marches on its stomach and. . .
Caesar: Arma virumque cano troiae. . .
Jones: And what does that mean Mr. Caesar?
Caes: It means that if an army can march on its stomach, it must be true then that Robinson Crusoe could sit down on his chest.
Napoleon: Oh, yeah?
Caes: Yeah!
Nap.: Says you!
Caes: Says me!
Jonah: Gentlemen!
Carrie Nation: (Rushing up and beating the roudies with her hatchet) Gentlemen! The demon rum again! Cease this brawling! What you tink dis is, yer boit'day?
Pluto: There, there, Carrie! Meet Mr. Jones from America.
Carrie: Well?
Jones: Charmed, Mrs Nation, and how are all the little republics? To what,

(Continued on following page)

Mrs. A.: So that's a lap dog?
Mrs. Q.: Yes. Isn't he adorable? Fido, come over and lap the lady.—lifted from the Okla. A. & M.

Farnes-Barnes For President

March 21 (AP)—(Affectionate Press)—At a late hour last night Ruthven Farnes-Barnes, patriarch of the Farnes-Barnes tribe, after imbibing copiously from his favorite bay rum lotion, announced to an expectant group of mothers that he would run for President of these U. States. His platform, he stated, would be one of the most solidly constructed in the history. "Beer," said the venerable old gent, "will be sixty percent proof, meaning what I mean is, the proof of the pudding is in the pudding." As a national slogan, Farnes-Barnes advocated the time honored saying, everywhere on the popular tongue: Who was that crop I seeded you with? That was no crop, that was my gizzard. This, he believes, will line him up with the farmers (when they are all due to be shot).

"Halitosis," carelessly drawled the candidate in his soft drawl, "is the national menace. The first steps I shall take to remove this menace will be to exterminate such species of onions as punsters, congressional commissions, congress and the national debt." The cannedelate then crawled out from under the table and composed himself (three-four time) for his final remarks. A colorful figure, with red nose and blue circles sub oculos, Farnes-Barnes promised to be one of the most promising candidates.

Among those planks on the colonel's platform which are not wet are those planning to make unemployment universal and convert all piccolo players to flutes. "You can fool some of the people," says Ruthven Farnes-Barnes, in his most impeccunious tones, "some of the time. And," he continued, "you can fool some of the people some of the time!" "But," he cautioned as a parting word to parents, kidnappers and members of depress, "you can't fool," here he paused for breath, "some of the people some of the time."

A girl I hate
Is Ethel Dunn
Always grunts, "You
Call that fun?"

—ep—

A gal to date
Is Jenny Lister.
Has no prying
Little sister.

—ep—

Producer (to prospective chorine): "How old are you, young lady?"
Young Thing: "I'm nineteen, going on nineteen."

el picador

"never dry or roasted"

ROD & STAFF

R. Weissman

W. Cass

MONEY IN WRITING!!!

The Farnes-Barnes School of Journalism

Read this unsolicited testimonial from one of our many successful graduates, Rudolph Grimes-Graeme:

"Writing is the most lucrative profesh in do woild. Why I once got twenty grand just for two words, just a guy's name, which I wrote on a check. Later on I even got twenty years for the same thing. I attribute all my success to dear old F. B. S. J."

(Signed) Rudolph Grimes-Graeme.
Alias Rudy the Rat.

Hear this whole-hearted recommendation written from his palatial winter home near Sing Sing, N. Y. by one of the most successful writers in the country! And remember that before he took our course, he couldn't even write his name! (He can't now. He writes other peoples'.)

Write us in care of the Cynic and have us send you our free booklet telling of the opportunities in the romantic and remunerative field of writing. Our curricula is complete, from simple foundry practice (forgery) to will-changing—with even an attractive elective in counterfeiting.

Our instructors are all Cynic trained men, and live up to the Cynic motto of "The truth, the whole truth, and nothing like the truth."

The Farnes-Barnes School of Journalism.

Siamese Twin on-the-left (to Siamese Twin on-the-right): You must have had a swell time last night.—I look like a wreck today.—stolen from W. Purple Cow.

—ep—

PEEPING THROUGH YANKEE KEY-HOLE

McGill Takes a Cut at the Bambino

Col. Ruppert: "What's on your mind, Babe?"

The Babe: "I've gotta have more coin, Colonel!"

Col. R.: "Don't you realize that you are already getting more money than the President of the United States?"

Babe: "Why not? What could Hoover do for the Yankees with two men out and the winning run on third?"

Col. R.: "How much money do you want, Babe?"

Babe: "How much have you got. Beg pardon, Colonel, I mean how much are you willing to pay?"

Col. R.: "You're already getting $80,000 a year with extras."

Babe: "I know, but I want $85,000 a year and a three year contract."

Col. R.: "That's a lot of money, Babe, especially in these hard times when every cent counts."

Babe: "Not when you need a long hit to cop the pennant."

Col. R.: "I think I have been very liberal with you, Babe, I am paying you the highest salary in the history of baseball."

Babe: "And I'm giving you the most home runs ever known, Colonel."

Col. R.: "Money isn't everything, Babe."

Babe: "Now don't try to get me to swing at those low ones."

Col. R.: "Well, Babe, the Yankees can't afford to pay more money. Other clubs have cut their pay roll."

Babe: "Hark!"

Col. R.: "What?"

Babe: "I think I hear the turnstiles laughing at that one, Colonel."

Col. R.: "We don't seem to be getting anywhere, Babe."

Babe: "No, we're both fanning at fast ones. Now all you've gotta say is 'yes' or 'no'."

Col. R.: "We might get together on a $1,000 increase, but . . ."

Babe: "Five thousand, Colonel. And stop pitching low to me."

Col. R.: "We might get together on the five thousand dollar increase, Babe, but I couldn't give you a three year contract."

Babe: "Why not, Colonel?"

Col. R.: "Your best days are over and how do I know you won't be useful to me three years from now?"

Babe: "They'll still be playing the game with bats in 1934, won't they?"

Col. R.: "Presumably, but . . ."

Babe: "And they're not going to take away the fences around the ball parks?"

Col. R.: "Not that I know of, Babe."

Babe: "Well, then, why hesitate, Colonel?"

Col. R.: "Oh, well, I'll think it over. In the meanwhile I'll give the newspapers the usual stuff saying that we can't reach an agreement and that you're the first hold-out of the season."

Babe: "Okay, Colonel, it'll help along the publicity. So long and don't forget . . . . $85,000 for three years."

THE FORUM

A QUESTION OF SEX

DISCUSSES STERILITY OF CULTIVATED FRUITS

SIGMA NU, KAPPA SIGS HOLD ANNUAL INITIATIONS

DEBATERS MEET KEENE WED. AND UNION THURS.

FACULTY CLUB ELECTS MOWER AS PRESIDENT

COUNSELS CUT OF ALL EXPENSES

(Continued from page 1)

KAPPA SIG STARS BEAT SIGMA NUS

(Continued from page 8)

SENIORS HOLD ELECTIONS THIS P.M. IN SCIENCE HALL

"HAY FEVER" TO BE JUNIOR WEEK PRODUCTION

(Continued from page 1)

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 2072

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
• • •
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL
Residential Summer School (co-educational) in the heart of French Canada. Old Country French staff. Only French spoken. Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced. Certificate or College Credit. French entertainments, sight-seeing, sports, etc.
Fee $140. Board and Tuition, June 25 July 31. Write for circular to Secretary Residential French Summer School
McGILL UNIVERSITY
A-32 MONTREAL, CANADA

BUY YOUR Easter Gifts
at the
University Store
• • •
SEAL NOVELTIES
STATIONERY
UNIVERSITY PICTURES
FELT GOODS

The BENTLEY SCHOOL
Is the largest professional school in the United States which is devoted exclusively to training men to become specialists in accounting and finance. Completion of the course requires two years.
¶ Graduates are employed in 29 states and 14 foreign countries as office managers, cost accountants, resident auditors, travelling auditors, statisticians, comptrollers, treasurers, branch managers, public accountants, etc.
¶ Modern business demands the services of men qualified to do some one thing particularly well.
¶ The man who knows a little about many things in business but not much about any one of them is greatly handicapped when he competes with men who are highly skilled in the principles and technic of some one department of business.
¶ Men with college experience have particularly favorable prospects in the public accounting profession as well as in business, provided their technical training is adequate.
¶ A catalog will be sent upon request. Please mention your college paper when writing.
The Bentley School of Accounting & Finance
921 Boylston Street, Boston (Kenmore 0755)
H. C. Bentley, C. P. A., President

el picador

VOLUME 1 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1932 | NUMBER 3

Woman's Page

By Nancy Barefax

Today, girls, a moral with a moral. A little storyette of open intent. The way of the transgressor, remember, is transgressing.

TABLE TALK

It is generally known that women love to "gab" (slang, it is, but commonly accepted), yet any man will have to admit that they possess the knack for talking and talking well.

Yet, at times, co-ed conversation slants the wrong way as to college life. Like a woman's changing mind the conversation vacillates, once, animated with the [illegible] victory (speaking now concerning athletics) and then again, dulled by the sense of defeat.

Such [illegible]ed table talk between bites:

"Are you going to root for our old team tonight, Pat?"

One [illegible] cheerfully grins across the dinner table at Pat, the woman with no spirit for basketball—and just for the simple reason, that, last time, oh, just Tuesday night the score was 35 to 22 in favor of Middlebury.

"What, me?" (wrong pronoun, but it does happen in the best of the college educated—it's just informal). "Root for Vermont? Nope—not even going. What's the use? It'll probably be 50 to 12 tonight!"

And would you believe it—she disdainfully shoves away a nice, fat, baked potato. Oh well, that's to be expected—anything to keep slim (by the way, the subject of reducing rarely ever fails to enter the course of conversation during dinner) and, hate to say it, anything to keep grouchy too, so it seems. Though she wouldn't be if she had a little pep, that is fighting spirit, they call it, don't they.

Pat, they're all O K—they do their best!"

Yes, they start out well, I'll grant that, but they peter out. You can't tell me they have as much pep or fighting spirit and what-not as I have—"

As you have until the team slumps. Yes? Why don't you get out in the field and show them how to play?"

Disgust dominates the scene and the victim takes refuge behind a glass of water.

That little dissertation cut, but in the end, Pat or whoever she may be, is properly squelched, as she should be—because pep and fighting spirit always win out in the grand finale.

REWARDS OF CUTTING

Here's another snatch of table talk.

"Hate Math!"

Well, that German! Gee, I could choke that prof—"

Why not try attending classes for a change?"

Listen to this—(incidentally it's a parody on "Why Dance?"—"Pourquoi Danser?") Tune it up yourself.

Why cut? Let us stroll to our Botany where sunflowers nod (and try to make cows them).

Pause, telephone rings. A pantomime ensues as to who shall satisfy its [illegible]

"It's call for you Bumps."

The toll call is finished, the charges successfully understood as reversed—somewhat [illegible], the entrance of a glum, dejected Bumps into the dining room [illegible] all criticisms of prof this and that.

"Well, no more dates for little Bumps. Dad just told me that I'll have to rate with the Math professor or out I go. Sounds like kindergarten talk!"

What—another telephone call for Bumps? The masculine voice, this time, smacks [illegible] A date with the best dressed man on campus (and shush, he has a [illegible] a newly acquired cheque, straight from home this very day)!

"Oh well, that test tomorrow won't count so much. It's the first since mid-[illegible] Sorting girls. See you at eleven ten—or try to!"

Curtain falls in June. It's a sad tale, but oh, so true, so unbearably true! Should she do a "Hedda Gabler" act, or should she become reconciled and join (oh so tearfully) old man Math on a date, which lasts another whole year, and [illegible] eleven ten.

Concluded—but that first test counted so much, and she didn't realize it. Too bad! One might as well get married as take math twice.

THE MISOGYNIST WAILS AGAIN

"'N Double Check"

[illegible] was long and rather warm
[illegible] suddenly we broke free.
[illegible] with you," I said, "You're [illegible] girl ever kissed by me."
"I'll be back with you," the girl re-
[illegible] easy to discern,
[illegible] you think you're pretty
[illegible] got a lot to learn!"

—ep—

[illegible] Those?
[illegible] told me if I played at the Flynn

VEGETABLE ZOUP

(A Depression Drama With a Tremendous Moral)

Characters: John, who owns a vegetable market. Mary, his wife.

Mary: Oh, John, where have you bean? What's tomato?

John Down on Onion Street at the store, of corns. Not one customer today! People all buy canned vegetables. Do you know that vitamins—no, you probably don't. Well, I'm disgusted. I'm going down to the river endive in.

Mary: But something is sure to turnip!

John: Yes, but what will we do in the meantime? I can't pumpkin for any more money. My dad's broke, too, and your parsniped his nose at me when I asked for a loan. I artichoked him!

Mary: John! Oh, I know what we can—.

John: I don't care for any of your ideas. You carot for all I care! (Shoves her, and she falls into the corn-er.)

Mary: Peas don't beet me, John! They'll raise your celery soon.

John: I'm sorry, Mary. I didn't mean to squash you. (They embrace and he squashes her.)

Mary: My idea was to join the ranks of the unemployed. Then we could get some of that lovely vegetable soup they hand out at the community kitchen.

John: You're a genius, Mary. Lettuce go places and celebrate.

—ep—

Sword Swallower: Cripes, Lupe, you've been cutting garlic with my scmitars again!

—adapted from the Lampoon.

STUNT THEY WOULDN'T SHOW AT KAKE WALK

El Picador's Own

[illegible] to have no plot, continuity, climax, or sense. Supply your own characters, write your own ending. Write your own stunt. See if we care!)

Dramatis Personae
President Hoover
Mr. Jones, one of his secretaries
Pluto, Ruler of the Nether Regions
Jonah, Caesar, Napoleon, Carrie Nation, Washington and any other characters of the past you expect in a Kake Walk which you would like to supply.

Scene I

Herb: (To secretary) Jones, I've just received a cable from Pluto, and . . .
Jones: Pluto What?
Herb: Pluto, ruler of the underworld. . .
Jones: But I thought Capone . . .
Herb: You know, Pluto, king of the Nether Regions.
Jones: Neither what regions?
Herb: Down below.
Jones: Down below? Oh hell, yes. . .
Herb: What?
Jones: Hell, Ruler of Hell.
H.: Well, I'm going to appoint a new commission and you are it.
No. 13943-A: You're to go to hell and see if you can get any new ideas on the depression. All good men are dead.
J.: There's the senate, Mr. President.
H.: That's what I was thinking of.
J.: May I ask a question? What's the best way to get to Pluto's realm?
H.: Why should I know?
J.: Well you've sure been through hell for the past few years.
(That's about enough of that, lights!)

Scene II

(Theme Song, "We're Knocking Them Cold in The Styx")
Charon, the Boatman: All 'aboard. Pay now 10 percent discount for Canadian money. Here!
J.: What?
Ch.: Pay. Ten cents.
J.: Did you say ten cents?
Ch.: I said ten cents.
J.: But I'm the president's commission.
Ch.: In that case you work. Grab an oar there and row.
J.: But how can I row? I never did a stroke of work in my life!
(Ho, hum! Lights)

Scene III—(aw, hell)

Jones: Good day, Mr. Pluto. Nice place you have here.
Pluto: Like it? Come again when you can stay longer. You want to interview some residents? Well here comes Jonah interview now.
Jonah: Good day, gentlemen. Mr. Jones, that's a nice suit you're wearing. How much did you pay. . .
Jones: Mr. Jonah, I'd like to ask your opinion concerning the depression.
Jonah: I'll have to ask you fifty cents for depressin' of that suit, Mr. Jones.
Jones: I'm afraid you don't gather Mr. . . . Who's that? (Caesar approaches)
Pluto: Jonesy, I'd like to have you meet Julius.
Jones: Pleased to meet you, Mr. Caesar. How's your gaul? Oh, by the way, have you any ideas on the depression?
Caesar: Well I've always heard that de prussian military forces. . .
Napoleon (Coming up): There you go! The trouble with the world today is that modern generals of industry have forgotten that an army always marches on its stomach and. . .
Caesar: Arma virumque cano troiae. . .
Jones: And what does that mean Mr. Caesar?
Caes: It means that if an army can march on its stomach, it must be true then that Robinson Crusoe could sit down on his chest.
Napoleon: Oh, yeah?
Caes: Yeah!
Nap.: Says you!
Caes: Says me!
Jonah: Gentlemen!
Carrie Nation: (Rushing up and beating the roudies with her hatchet) Gentlemen! The demon rum again! Cease this brawling! What you tink dis is, yer boit'day?
Pluto: There, there, Carrie! Meet Mr. Jones from America.
Carrie: Well?
Jones: Charmed, Mrs. Nation, and how are all the little republics? To what.

(Continued on following page)

Mrs. A.: So that's a lap dog?
Mrs. Q.: Yes. Isn't he adorable? Fido, come over and lap the lady.—lifted from the Okla. A. & M.

Farnes-Barnes For President

March 21 (AP)—(Affectionate Press)—At a late hour last night Ruthven Farnes Barnes, patriarch of the Farnes-Barnes tribe, after imbibing copiously from his favorite bay rum lotion announced to an expectant group of mothers that he would run for President of these U. States. His platform, he stated would be one of the most solidly constructed in the history. "Beer," said the venerable old gent, "will be sixty percent proof, meaning what I mean is, the proof of the pudding is in the pudding." As a national slogan, Farnes-Barnes advocated the time honored saying, everywhere on the popular tongue: Who was that crop I seeded you with? That was no crop, that was my gizzard. This, he believes, will line him up with the farmers (when they are all due to be shot)

"Halitosis," carelessly drawled the candidate in his soft drawl, "is the national menace. The first steps I shall take to remove this menace will be to exterminate such species of onions as punsters, congressional commissions, congress and the national debt." The cannededate then crawled out from under the table and composed himself (three-four time) for his final remarks. A colorful figure, with red nose and blue circles sub oculos, Farnes-Barnes promised to be one of the most promising candidates.

Among those planks on the colonel's platform which are not wet are those planning to make unemployment universal, and convert all piccolo players to flutes. "You can fool some of the people," says Ruthven Farnes-Barnes, in his most impecunious tones, "some of the time. And," he continued, "you can fool some of the people some of the time!" "But," he cautioned as a parting word to parents, kidnappers and members of depress, "you can't fool," here he paused for breath, "some of the people some of the time."

A girl I hate
Is Ethel Dunn
Always grunts, "You
Call that fun?"

—ep—

A gal to date
Is Jenny Lister.
Has no prying
Little sister.

—ep—

Producer (to prospective chorine): "How old are you, young lady?"
Young Thing: "I'm nineteen, going on nineteen."

el picador
"never dry or roasted"

ROD & STAFF
R. Weissman
W. Cass

MONEY IN WRITING!!!
The Farnes-Barnes School of Journalism

Read this unsolicited testimonial from one of our many successful graduates, Rudolph Grimes-Graeme:

"Writing is the most lucrative profesh in de woild. Why I once got twenty grand just for two words, just a guy's name, which I wrote on a check. Later on I even got twenty years for the same thing. I attribute all my success to dear old F. B. S. J."
(Signed) Rudolph Grimes-Graeme.
Alias Rudy the Rat.

Hear this whole-hearted recommendation written from his palatial winter home near Sing Sing, N. Y., by one of the most successful writers in the country! And remember that before he took our course, he couldn't even write his name! (He can't now. He writes other peoples'.)

Write us in care of the Cynic and have us send you our free booklet telling of the opportunities in the romantic and remunerative field of writing. Our curricula is complete, from simple foundry practice (forgery) to will-changing—with even an attractive elective in counterfeiting.

Our instructors are all Cynic trained men, and live up to the Cynic motto of "The truth, the whole truth, and nothing like the truth."

The Farnes-Barnes School of Journalism.

Siamese Twin on-the-left (to Siamese Twin on-the-right): You must have had a swell time last night—I look like a wreck today.—stolen from W. Purple Cow.

—ep—

PEEPING THROUGH YANKEE KEY-HOLE

McGill Takes a Cut at the Bambino

Col. Ruppert: "What's on your mind, Babe?"

The Babe: "I've gotta have more coin, Colonel!"

Col. R.: "Don't you realize that you are already getting more money than the President of the United States."

Babe: "Why not? What could Hoover do for the Yankees with two men out and the winning run on third."

Col. R.: "How much money do you want, Babe?"

Babe: "How much have you got? . . . Beg pardon, Colonel, I mean how much are you willing to pay?"

Col. R.: "You're already getting $80,000 a year with extras."

Babe: "I know, but I want $85,000 a year and a three year contract."

Col. R.: "That's a lot of money, Babe, especially in these hard times when every cent counts."

Babe: "Not when you need a long hit to cop the pennant."

Col. R.: "I think I have been very liberal with you, Babe, I am paying you the highest salary in the history of baseball."

Babe: "And I'm giving you the most home runs ever known, Colonel."

Col. R.: "Money isn't everything, Babe."

Babe: "Now don't try to get me to swing at those low ones."

Col. R.: "Well, Babe, the Yankees can't afford to pay more money. Other clubs have cut their pay roll."

Babe: "Hark!"

Col. R.: "What."

Babe: "I think I hear the turnstiles laughing at that one, Colonel."

Col. R.: "We don't seem to be getting anywhere, Babe."

Babe: "No, we're both fanning at fast ones. Now all you've gotta say is 'yes' or 'no'."

Col. R.: "We might get together on a $1,000 increase, but . . ."

Babe: "Five thousand, Colonel. And stop pitching low to me."

Col. R.: "We might get together on the five thousand dollar increase, Babe, but I couldn't give you a three year contract."

Babe: "Why not, Colonel?"

Col. R.: "Your best days are over and how do I know you won't be useful to me three years from now?"

Babe: "They'll still be playing the game with bats in 1934, won't they?"

Col. R.: "Presumably, but . . ."

Babe: "And they're not going to take away the fences around the ball parks?"

Col. R.: "Not that I know of, Babe."

Babe: "Well, then, why hesitate, Colonel?"

Col. R.: "Oh, well, I'll think it over. In the meanwhile I'll give the newspapers the usual stuff saying that we can't reach an agreement and that you're the first hold-out of the season."

Babe: "Okay, Colonel, it'll help along the publicity. So long and don't forget . . . $85,000 for three years."

TRIFLES AND TROLLEY CARS or THE ABSENT-MINDED BUSINESS MAN

THE CRAP SHOOT OF THE CENTURY

As Announced by

Ladies and gentlemen, we are going to broadcast the most unusual [illegible] ever [illegible] the challenge [illegible] Farnes Barnes, the Bull Moose Drug and Orchard [illegible] champion of the [illegible] Hotel. The contest is to be held [illegible] photographic atmosphere of the Jack Dempsey training camp [illegible] Oswald! Be sure to get a [illegible] Oswald! Be sure to get a close-up [illegible] Oscar! Oscar now [illegible] between the points [illegible] Oscar! Oscar! Oscar!

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1932 — NUMBER 45

...ESTIN TO BE SENIORS' ...ARSHAL; E. WILDER WILL ...IVE LAFAYETTE ORATION

...hirty Members Attend Class Meeting—Quorum Assembles by Four-thirty

...ARKER AND ... EATON TO SPEAK

...e Allen Oration Will Be Given By Barker; Eaton Will Deliver Boulder Address

... chosen marshal of ... G. E. Wilder was ... Lafayette oration, ... at a class day election ... class held in Room ... Science Hall. Only ... the entire graduating ... meeting. It was four- ... quorum of seniors ... the class day ballot. ... selected to give the Ira ... O. Eaton was ... Boulder on Class ... was elected as the ...

... sults are: Ivy oration, ... class poet, E. J. Fitz- ... Lillian Mount; class ... Householder; campus ora- ... Powers, and address to un- ... J. LaCross.

... class marshal the name ... was nominated from the ... on the ballot, but P. E. ... had originally been on the ... to fill the office.

... the Lafayette orator G. E. ... name was written on the ... mination from the floor, ... plurality vote over J. C. Car- ... originally placed on the ... P. J. LaCross was nominated at ... the address to under- ... was unanimously elected. ... vice-president of the ... chairmaned the meeting.

... manager of the freshman ... He is a member of Delta ... was a Kake Walk director ... and is an S. A. E.

... the vice-president of Grey ... president of Wig and Bus- ... He retired this year from the posi- ... manager of the CYNIC ... member of Sigma Nu fraternity ... society.

(Continued on page 2)

SPRING OPERA CAST WELL BALANCED, SAYS BENNETT

Predicts Players of "Cosi Fan Tutti" Will Do Parts in Exceptional Way

... well balanced and promises ... in an exceptional way," ... G. Bennett, director of ... in commenting to a ... on the spring opera ... April 14.

... by Mozart will be ... Fleming Museum. That ... especially appropriate for ... is the opinion of Pro- ...

... ment will be presented ... but elaborate cos- ... will be used. The ... are small, some mem- ... taking part in the chorus ...

... number of Mozart's operas ... are comic and in Europe, are generally ... ters. In Germany be- ... were presented in the ... When "Cosi Fan Tutte" ... the Metropolitan Opera ... York City, a special small ... its production. The ... of Mozart's mature ... ted for its ensembles ... and quartettes.

... working at present on ... it will play, as well ... ment of several other ... those selections will be ... while other accom- ...

... tertainment will be the ... that the glee clubs ... They put on their ... '27 when they sang a ... production "Dido and ... In 1928 Gounod's ... appeared. Both of ... the gymnasium.. In ... Sullivan's "Patience" ... Strong Theater, where ... since then have ap- ... in 1930, Gilbert and ... "Trial By Jury." and Gluck's ... and last year Gilbert ... Pirates of Penzance."

Vermont Has Four Topics on Slate of Southern Debating Trip

War Debts, Capitalism, Centralization of Industry, and Unemployment Insurance Will be Forensic Questions

War Debts, Capitalization, the Centralization of Industry, and Unemployment Insurance are all on the argumentative slate for Vermont's west southern debating trip. P. J. LaCross '32, R. P. Donaghy '32, J. E. Bigelow '33 and K. E. McCuin '34, compose the varsity quartet whose forensic weapons will combine in the forthcoming U. V. M. offensive.

The zero hour for the first encounter is three o'clock, central standard time, Saturday, March 26, the enemy the College of the City of Detroit and the battlefield Detroit, Mich. The bone of contention is, Resolved, That capitalism is a failure in the United States. Detroit is the capitalistic stronghold of America and that ammunition will be plentiful is the opinion of the Vermont squad.

Not content with wounds to be sustained at the City of Fords, the team has challenged Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., to come to blows over the same subject on the following Monday, March 28.

Tuesday will see the Vermont representatives in Dubuque, Iowa, whereon Columbia College is entrenched. The belligerent inspiration is, Resolved, That the United States government should enact legislation embodying the essentials of the Stuart Chase Plan.

Ohio State University is scheduled for Wednesday at Columbus, Ohio. The two teams will argue, Resolved, That all World War intergovernmental debts and reparations should be cancelled.

Unemployment insurance will next receive forensic attention, at Lexington, Ky. Sylvania College will debate Vermont's team on Thursday.

The tradition of April Fool's Day will be commemorated when the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn., will attempt to convince the home team That the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance.

Saturday, April 2, the team will be entertained in Atlanta Ga., at Morehouse College. While there the team will debate the same subject as was discussed the day previous.

From Georgia the debaters will go to Fairmont, West Virginia, to encounter a team from the West Virginia State College that The United States should cancel all of our war debts. This debate is scheduled for Monday, April 4.

They remain in West Virginia for the next day's debate trapping to Buckhannon to argue the Centralized control of industry with West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Baltimore, Md., the home of the Junior Order University, is the next port of call. There on Wednesday, April 6, the subject for debate is, Resolved, That the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance.

Resolved, That capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound in principle is the meentive for the wordy battle to be staged in Selinsgrove, Pa., at Susquehanna University, for the following day, Thursday.

On Friday, April 8, once again a team from U. V. M. will give forensic combat to a New York University team. The debate, which will be held at University Heights, N. Y., concerns the topic Resolved, That Congress should enact legislation providing for the centralized control of industry.

The transportation medium of the quartet will be McCuin's car. The various debates have been worked out in U. V. M.'s home contests, and Coach M. D. Powers, who is responsible to a large extent for the victories Vermont has obtained thus far this season, states that there is no reason apparent to him why Vermont should not win every debate on the proposed trip. Manager LaCross is certain that "the result of the scheduled trip will be Victory with a capital 'V'."

KATHRYN RAUH '32, who will take the title rôle in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever," comedy to be presented Junior Week.

WILDER DRAWS UP LIST OF COMMITTEES FOR SENIOR WEEK AFFAIRS

Many Prominent Seniors Included on Newly Formed Groups for Annual June Function

Everett Wilder '32, chairman of Senior Week has released a list of committees regarding the occasion. The committees are represented by many prominent members of the class of 1932. Senior Week, which is to be held before graduation day, is under the financial guidance of Bud Gorman '32.

The selected committees are:

PROM: S. H. Manning, chairman, E. J. Mercier, J. W. Marvin, Carolyn Begg, Roberta Powers.

MUSIC: H. M. Albert, chairman, M. B. Morrill, Elizabeth Smith, Edna Herridon, Evans and Pierson, I. Pelotski, O. Jay, Crystal Lawes, Katherine Skinner, Caroline Howard.

REFRESHMENTS: C. K. Bush, chairman, Nathalie Carleton, M. H. Grower, Jr., R. A. Hyde.

DECORATIONS: G. S. Flagg, chairman, S. B. Barker, C. L. Topping, P. E. Westin, C. B. Cross, E. J. Fitzgerald, Joanna Tewksbury, Isabel Holmes, Christine Bliss, Helen Esielionis, Irene Hall.

CLASS DAY COMMITTEE: F. W. Householder, chairman, D. E. Child, Hope Ranslow, Margaret Mower.

CLASS WALK: E. V. Kibby, chairman, K. E. Boyden, Orabella Main, Verna Carrier.

BOATRIDE: A. A. Maislen, chairman, P. F. Billings, Lilian Mount, Mildred Gile.

QUESTIONNAIRE: E. M. Winant, chairman, R. F. Holbrook, Lois Harrington, Doris Skinner.

INVITATIONS: A. J. Baldwin, chairman, M. E. Dober, Marie Tucker, Mildred Akins.

BANNER: R. J. Livingston, chairman, F. Tupper, Jr., Hildur Wilde, Charlotte Kidder.

CANE: M. Tomassetti, chairman, L. J. Irish, B. G. Boyles.

It is the wish of Doctor Perkins to interview the chairmen of these committees before they start to function. He is well acquainted with the duties of each, being chairman of the graduation and Class Day exercises.

Such an arrangement can be made soon after the Easter recess by the chairman of Senior Week and each committee chairman will be notified.

KATHRYN RAUH AND E. J. FITZGERALD WILL TAKE LEADS IN "HAY FEVER"

Three-act Comedy by Noel Coward Will be Given in Strong During Junior Week

COACH SUGGESTS NEW PLAY

Professor Metcalf Asks If Candidates Wish to Change Play Because So Many Appear to Try Out

Kathryn Rauh '32, and E. J. Fitzgerald were chosen to take the leading roles of "Hay Fever," Noel Coward's three act comedy which will be given Thursday of Junior Week in the Strong Theatre. The final tryouts for the play were held Tuesday afternoon, March 22, in Room 1, North College.

Approximately thirty students tried out for the spring drama. Those who were eliminated on Monday were replaced by new candidates on Tuesday, the second day's tryouts lasting for two hours.

During the final tryouts on Tuesday, due to the fact that so many candidates were present, Professor Metcalf, who conducted the tryouts and who will coach the production asked if the group were in favor of changing from "Hay Fever" to "Yellow Jacket" because the latter would allow more members in the cast, and would be much more sophisticated. The group suggested that he decide which play should be given, bearing in mind that "Hay Fever" had been selected at the joint meeting of Wig and Buskin and Masque and Sandal on Friday, March 18. Professor Metcalf's choice was "Hay Fever," the play already before the candidates.

The other characters who were chosen at Tuesday's tryouts are: Dorothy Murphy '33 who will carry the rôle of Sorel Bliss, and F. W. Householder '32, who will take the part of Simon Bliss. P. E. Westin '32, who will act as Sandy Tyrell, and Roberta Powers '32, who will assume the rôle of Myra Arundell; R. S. Wright '35, will take the part of Richard Greatham; Dorothea Edwards '33, will act as the character Jackie Carpton, and Marie Maguire '35, will assume the rôle of Clara.

Miss Rauh has taken part in several college plays. She acted in "Dear Brutus" and "Summertime" in 1929 and 1930, and took part in "Hedda Gabler" this year. She is a member of the senior basketball team. Miss Rauh belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta.

Fitzgerald has had leading rôles in "Hedda Gabler," "She Stoops to Conquer," and the "Queen's Husband." He was a member of the CYNIC editorial staff last year. He is a Lambda Iota.

Miss Murphy received dramatic experience in "Hedda Gabler," in which she carried the leading part, and in the "Queen's Husband" she took the rôle of

(Continued on page 4)

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE OF RE-EXAMS

Eighty Tests Will Be Given April 1-4 in the Science Hall Lecture Room

Three days of the Easter recess are set off for re-examinations, according to the schedule announced this week by Registrar F. W. Kehoe. Examinations in eighty courses will be given on Friday, April 1, Saturday, April 2, and Monday, April 4, in the large lecture room of the Science Hall.

The morning tests will begin at nine o'clock, while those held in the afternoon will begin at two o'clock.

The Schedule

The schedule, for Friday and Saturday, is:

Friday a.m., April 1: Heating and Ventilating.

Friday p.m., April 1: Mats. of Constr.

Saturday a.m., April 2: Botany 2, Bridge Design, Chem. 9, Chem. 23, Descr. Geom., Econ. 1, Econ. 6, Educ. 2, English Meth. (T.Tr.), Embryology, French 1, French 106, French 112, History 2, H. Econ. 1, H. Econ. 2 (Foods), Hydraulics, Mech. Drawing, Music 1 (T.Tr.).

Saturday p.m., April 2: Arith. Methods (T.Tr.), Botany 3, Chem. 10, Chem. 21, Econ. 3, Econ. 8, Econ. 9, Educ. 1 Educ. 3, Elect. Power Trans., English 1, French 4, Gen. E. E., Geography (T.Tr.), German 1, German 2, History 1, H. Econ. 7, H. Econ. 13 (The Family), Physics 1, Psychology 4, Spanish 1.

(Continued on page 4)

BAILEY SAYS PLANS FOR NEW DORM UNDER WAY

Plans for the building of a new women's dormitory, near Redstone on South Prospect Street, are being formulated, according to a statement by Prof. Guy W. Bailey in a CYNIC interview this week. The house will accommodate approximately one hundred people, with single rooms for all inmates.

Money is being raised for the dormitory at the present time. President Bailey states that one hundred and twenty thousand dollars have already been pledged for the building, and that one hundred and eigthy thousand dollars more are necessary if the dormitory is to be built.

CO-ED ORGANIZATIONS ELECT HEADS THIS WEEK

Voting Will be Completed This Afternoon; All Election Results to be Announced After Vacation

This week the Old Mill has been the scene of nominations and ballot casting for student offices by all the women's organizations on the campus. Voting will be completed late this afternoon, and all election results will be announced immediately after the Easter recess.

Student Union's nominations for six offices are: for chief justice Caroline Lott '33 and Elizabeth Eckhard '33; for the position of vice-president, Catherine Durick '34, Ruth Tarleton '34, and Dorothy Harwood '34; for the office of second vice-president, Helen Jenkins '34, and Grace Harris '34; for secretary, Charlotte Odell '33, and Antoinette Hubbard '33; to serve as treasurer, Priscilla Perry '33, Ethel Bishop '33 and Margaret Crane '33; to take charge of the social calendar, Claribel Morris '34, Ruth Reynolds '34, and Mary Bennett '34.

Candidates who are being voted on for positions on the W. A. A. Council include: To fill the office of vice-president, Margaret Crane '33, and Alice Hoyt '34; for the position of recording secretary, Margaret Tower '33, and Mary Lobdell '33; for corresponding secretary, Susan France '35, and Elizabeth Rich '35; to act as treasurer, Jean Kinloch '34, and Elizabeth Woodward '34; for publicity manager, Ruth Erwin '34, and Esther Smith '33, two to serve as representatives of the senior class, Priscilla Perry '33, Leah Gowen '33, Caroline Taft '33, and Elizabeth Eckhard '33, one to be chosen as junior class representative, Daisy Putnam '34, Grace Harris '34, and Claribel Morris '34; one to be selected as sophomore representative, Marjorie Jenks '35, Helen Mount '35, Marguerite Millet '35, and Mary Kay Tupper '35; for Handbook editor of W. A. A. section, Ruth Tarleton '34, and Ethelda Miller '33, for chairman of Health Council, Katherine Tolman '33, Helen Jenkins '34, and Antoinnette Hubbard '33; for chairman of Outing Club, Mary Petras '33, and Esther Urie '33.

Dramatic Club will elect its members directly after the Easter recess and the names of juniors who will enter Mortar Board next year will be announced in Chapel on Founder's Day.

CO-ED FORENSIANS LEAVE TO ENCOUNTER BATES

The women's varsity debating team left Wednesday, March 23 for Lewiston, Maine, where they debated with Bates College on Thursday evening. The Vermont team will uphold the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, that legal censorship of books, plays, magazines, and movies should be abolished."

The members of the team who will take part in the debate are: Laura Johnson '33, Sophie Levin '33, and Roberta Powers '32.

The co-ed forensians will hold their next debate with Middlebury College, at Middlebury on April 13.

A debate with St. Lawrence University will also take place during the month of April.

DISCUSS TEACHING AIMS IN PROFS' SYMPOSIUM

Local Chapter of American Association of University Professors Meet in Museum

"Aims and Methods of Teaching" was the subject of discussion at a symposium of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors held at the Fleming Museum, Tuesday evening, March 22.

Papers were presented by heads of the various departments of the University including: Prof. L. M. Prindle of the Classical Department; Prof. F. Tupper of the English Department; Prof. P. D. Evans of the History Department; Dean Swift of the Mathematics Department, and Prof. H. G. Perkins of the Zoology Department. The discussions were all centered upon the purposes of teaching as applied to the special departments of the speakers. An open forum followed the talk.

The factors which were shown necessary to successful teaching, in the various papers were: A knowledge of subject matter; care in the preparation of lectures and discussions, enthusiasm on the part of the teacher; an ability to arouse and hold the interest of the students, and skill in presentation of material.

The central organization of the American Association of University Professors is at present making a study to improve methods of teaching in universities. The local symposium was held in sympathy with the larger movement.

Prof. A. R. Gifford is president and Prof. C. C. Jacobs is secretary of the local chapter which has about sixty members.

TRIFLES AND TROLLEY CARS OF THE ABSENT-MINDED BUSINESS MAN

By Lionel Farnes Barnes

The car moving for a trolley. It gradually dawned on me that I might also have one for a trolley. Perhaps not the one the running [illegible] but [illegible] a trolley. Particularly a [illegible] moving. My head seemed heavy [illegible] Ah, something to be attended [illegible] with cautious care. Really [illegible] Oh, but [illegible] I [illegible] down [illegible] to accident. Oh, yes, [illegible] it is said that the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1932 | NUMBER 48

...WESTIN TO BE SENIORS' ...MARSHAL; E. WILDER WILL ...GIVE LAFAYETTE ORATION

...Thirty Members Attend Class Meeting—Quorum Assembles by Four-thirty

...BARKER AND EATON TO SPEAK

...rs Allen Oration Will Be Given By Barker, Eaton Will Deliver Boulder Address

...was chosen marshal of ... and G. E. Wilder was ... the Lafayette oration, ... at a class day election ...ior class held in Room ... Science Hall. Only ... the entire graduating ... meeting. It was four- ...are quorum of seniors ... on the class day ballot. ...-elected to give the Ira ... and A. O. Eaton was ...resent Boulder on Class ... W. Cobb was elected as the ...aker.

...results are: Ivy oration, ... class poet, E. J. Fitz- ...story, Lillian Mount; class ... Householder; campus ora- ...Powers, and address to un- ... P. J. LaCross.

...the class marshal the name ... was nominated from the ...d on the ballot, but P. E. ...had originally been on the ... chosen to fill the office.

...f the Lafayette orator G. E. ... name was written on the ...mination from the floor, ...a plurality vote over J. C. Car- ... was originally placed on the ... P. J. LaCross was nominated at ...ng for the address to under- ...and was unanimously elected. ...Powers, vice-president of the ...chairmaned the meeting.

... was manager of the freshman ... He is a member of Delta ... Weber was a Kake Walk director ...ear and is an S. A. E.

...Barker is the vice-president of Grey ... and president of Wig and Bus- ... He entered this year from the posi- ...of business manager of the CYNIC. ... a member of Sigma Nu fraternity ...of Iconian society.

(Continued on page 2)

SPRING OPERA CAST WELL BALANCED, SAYS BENNETT

Predicts Players of "Cosi Fan Tutti" Will Do Parts in Exceptional Way

...well balanced and promises ...parts in an exceptional way," ...Prof. H. G. Bennett, director of ... Fan Tutte" in commenting to a ...reporter on the spring opera ...presented April 14.

... by Mozart will be ... Fleming Museum. That ... especially appropriate for ... is the opinion of Pro- ...

...ment will be presented ...setting, but elaborate cos- ...properties will be used. The ... are small, some mem- ... taking part in the chorus ...

...number of Mozart's operas ... in Europe, are generally ...theaters. In Germany be- ...they were presented in the ... When "Cosi Fan Tutte" ... at the Metropolitan Opera ... York City, a special small ... for its production. The ...ject of Mozart's mature ...noted for its ensembles ...and quartettes.

...is working at present on ... it will play, as well ...ment of several other ... these selections will be ..., while other accom- ...iano.

...entertainment will be the ...a that the glee clubs ... They put on their ...27 when they sang a ...s production "Dido and ... In 1928 Gounod's ...ter" appeared. Both of ... the gymnasium.. In ... and Sullivan's "Patience" ... Strong Theater, where ... the presentations since then have ap- ...are, in 1930, Gilbert and ...llivan's "Trial By Jury," and Gluck's ...rpheus," and last year Gilbert ... Pirates of Penzance."

Vermont Has Four Topics on Slate of Southern Debating Trip

War Debts, Capitalism, Centralization of Industry, and Unemployment Insurance Will be Forensic Questions

War Debts, Capitalization, the Centralization of Industry, and Unemployment Insurance are all on the argumentative slate for Vermont's west-southern debating trip. P. J. LaCross '32, K. P. Donaghy '32, J. E. Bigelow '33, and R. E. McCuin '34, compose the varsity quartet whose forensic weapons will combine in the forthcoming U. V. M. offensive.

The zero hour for the first engagement is three o'clock, central standard time, Saturday, March 26, the enemy the College of the City of Detroit, and the battlefield Detroit, Mich. The bone of contention is, Resolved, That capitalism is a failure in the United States. Detroit is the capitalistic stronghold of America and that ammunition will be plentiful is the opinion of the Vermont squad.

Not content with wounds to be sustained at the City of Fords, the team has challenged Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., to come to blows over the same subject on the following Monday, March 28.

Tuesday will see the Vermont representatives in Dubuque, Iowa, wherein Columbia College is entrenched. The belligerent inspiration is, Resolved, That the United States government should enact legislation embodying the essentials of the Stuart Chase Plan.

Ohio State University is scheduled for Wednesday at Columbus, Ohio. The two teams will argue, Resolved, That all World War intergovernmental debts and reparations should be cancelled.

Unemployment insurance will next receive forensic attention, at Lexington, Ky. Sylvania College will debate Vermont's team on Thursday.

The tradition of April Fool's Day will be commemorated when the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn., will attempt to convince the home team That the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance.

Saturday, April 2, the team will be entertained in Atlanta, Ga., at Morehouse College. While there, the team will debate the same subject as was discussed the day previous.

From Georgia the debaters will go to Institute, West Virgima, to convince a team from the West Virginia State College that The United States should cancel all of our war debts. This debate is scheduled for Monday, April 4.

They remain in West Virgima for the next day's debate, traveling to Buckhannon to argue the Centralized control of industry with West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Baltimore, Md., the home of the Junior Union Univers[illegible] is the next port of call. There on Wednesday, April 6, the subject for debate is, Resolved, That the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance.

Resolved, That capitalism as a system of economic organization is unsound in principle is the incentive for the wordy battle to be staged in Selinsgrove, Pa., at Susquehanna University, for the following day, Thursday.

On Friday, April 8, once again a team from U. V. M. will give forensic combat to a New York University team. The debate, which will be held at University Heights, N. Y., concerns the topic Resolved, That Congress should enact legislation providing for the centralized control of industry.

The transportation medium of the quartet will be McCuin's car. The various debates have been worked out in U. V. M.'s home contests, and Coach M. D. Powers, who is responsible to a large extent for the victories Vermont has obtained thus far this season, states that there is no reason apparent to him why Vermont should not win every debate on the proposed trip. Manager LaCross is certain that "the result of the scheduled trip will be Victory with a capital 'V'."

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE OF RE-EXAMS

Eighty Tests Will Be Given April 1-4 in the Science Hall Lecture Room

Three days of the Easter recess are set off for re-examinations, according to the schedule announced this week by Registrar F. W. Kehoe. Examinations in eighty courses will be given on Friday, April 1, Saturday, April 2, and Monday, April 4, in the large lecture room of the Science Hall.

The morning tests will begin at nine o'clock, while those held in the afternoon will begin at two o'clock.

The Schedule

The schedule, for Friday and Saturday, is:

Friday a.m., April 1: Heating and Ventilating.

Friday p.m., April 1: Mats. of Constr.

Saturday a.m., April 2: Botany 2, Bridge Design, Chem. 9, Chem. 23, Desc. Geom., Econ. 1, Econ. 6, Educ. 2, English Meth. (T.Tr.), Embryology, French 1, French 106, French 112, History 2, H. Econ. 1, H. Econ. 2 (Foods), Hydraulics, Mech. Drawing, Music 1 (T.Tr.).

Saturday p.m., April 2: Arith. Methods (T.Tr.), Botany 3, Chem. 10, Chem. 21, Econ. 3, Econ. 8, Econ. 9, Educ. 1 Educ. 3, Elect. Power Trans., English 1, French 4, Gen. E. E., Geography (T.Tr.), German 1, German 2, History 1, H. Econ. 7, H. Econ. 13 (The Family), Physics 1, Psychology 4, Spanish 1.

(Continued on page 4)

BAILEY SAYS PLANS FOR NEW DORM UNDER WAY

Plans for the building of a new women's dormitory, near Redstone on South Prospect Street, are being formulated, according to a statement by Pres. Guy W. Bailey in a CYNIC interview this week. The house will accommodate approximately one hundred people, with single rooms for all inmates.

Money is being raised for the dormitory at the present time. President Bailey states that one hundred and twenty thousand dollars have already been pledged for the building, and that one hundred and eigthy thousand dollars more are necessary if the dormitory is to be built.

CO-ED ORGANIZATIONS ELECT HEADS THIS WEEK

Voting Will be Completed This Afternoon; All Election Results to be Announced After Vacation

This week the Old Mill has been the scene of nominations and ballot casting for student offices by all the women's organizations on the campus. Voting will be completed late this afternoon, and all election results will be announced immediately after the Easter recess.

Student Union's nominations for six offices are: for chief justice, Caroline Taft '33, and Elizabeth Eckhard '33; for the position of vice-president, Catherine Durick '34, Ruth Tarleton '34, and Dorothy Harwood '34; for the office of second vice-president, Helen Jenkins '34, and Grace Harris '34; for secretary, Charlotte Odell '33, and Antoinette Hubbard '33; to serve as treasurer, Priscilla Perry '33, Ethel Bishop '33 and Margaret Crane '33; to take charge of the social calendar, Claribel Morris '34, Ruth Reynolds '34, and Mary Bennett '34.

Candidates who are being voted on for positions on the W. A. A. Council include: To fill the office of vice-president, Margaret Crane '33, and Alice Hoyt '34; for the position of recording secretary, Margaret Tower '33, and Mary Lobdell '33; for corresponding secretary, Susan France '35, and Elizabeth Rich '35; to act as treasurer, Jean Kinloch '34, and Elizabeth Woodward '34; for publicity manager, Ruth Erwin '34, and Esther Smith '33; two to serve as representatives of the senior class, Priscilla Perry '33, Leah Gowen '33, Caroline Taft '33, and Elizabeth Eckhard '33; one to be chosen as junior class representative, Daisy Putnam '34, Grace Harris '34, and Claribel Morris '34; one to be selected as sophomore representative, Marjorie Jenks '35, Helen Mount '35, Marguerite Millet '35, and Mary Kay Tupper '35; for Handbook editor of W. A. A. section, Ruth Tarleton '34, and Ethelda Miller '33; for chairman of Health Council, Katherine Tolman '33, Helen Jenkins '34, and Antoinnette Hubbard '33; for chairman of Outing Club, Mary Petras '33, and Esther Urie '33.

Dramatic Club will elect its members directly after the Easter recess and the names of juniors who will enter Mortar Board next year will be announced in Chapel on Founder's Day.

KATHRYN RAUH '32, who will take the title rôle in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever," comedy to be presented Junior Week.

WILDER DRAWS UP LIST OF COMMITTEES FOR SENIOR WEEK AFFAIRS

Many Prominent Seniors Included on Newly Formed Groups for Annual June Function

Everett Wilder '32, chairman of Senior Week has released a list of committees regarding the occasion. The committees are represented by many prominent members of the class of 1932. Senior Week, which is to be held before graduation day, is under the financial guidance of Bud Gorman '32.

The selected committees are:

PROM: S. H. Manning, chairman, E. J. Mercier, J. W. Marvin, Carolyn Beggs Roberta Powers.

MUSIC: H. M. Albert, chairman, M. B. Merrill, Elizabeth Smith, Edna Herndon.

FAVORS AND PROGRAMS: J. Pelofski, O. Jay, Crystal Lawes, Katherine Skinner, Caroline Howard.

REFRESHMENTS: C. K. Bush, chairman, Nathalie Carleton, M. H. Grower, Jr., R. A. Hyde.

DECORATIONS: G. S. Flagg, chairman, S. B. Barker, C. L. Topping, P. E. Westin, C. B. Cross, E. J. Fitzgerald, Joanna Tewksbury, Isabel Holmes, Christine Bliss, Helen Esielionis, Irene Hall.

CLASS DAY COMMITTEE: F. W. Householder, chairman, D. E. Child, Hope Ranslow, Margaret Mower.

CLASS WALK: E. V. Kibby, chairman, K. E. Boyden, Orabella Main, Verna Carrier.

BOATRIDE: A. A. Maislen, chairman, P. E. Billings, Lillian Mount, Mildred Gile.

QUESTIONNAIRE: E. M. Winant, chairman, R. F. Holbrook, Lois Harrington, Doris Skinner.

INVITATIONS: A. J. Baldwin, chairman, M. E. Dober, Marie Tucker, Mildred Akins.

BANNER: R. J. Livingston, chairman, F. Tupper, Jr., Hildur Wilde, Charlotte Kidder.

CANE: M. Tomassetti, chairman, L. J. Irish, B. G. Boyles.

It is the wish of Doctor Perkins to interview the chairmen of these committees before they start to function. He is well acquainted with the duties of each, being chairman of the graduation and Class Day exercises.

Such an arrangement can be made soon after the Easter recess by the chairman of Senior Week and each committee chairman will be notified.

CO-ED FORENSIANS LEAVE TO ENCOUNTER BATES

The women's varsity debating team left Wednesday, March 23 for Lewiston, Maine, where they debated with Bates College on Thursday evening. The Vermont team will uphold the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, that legal censorship of books, plays, magazines, and movies should be abolished."

The members of the team who will take part in the debate are: Laura Johnson '33, Sophie Levin '33, and Roberta Powers '32.

The co-ed forensians will hold their next debate with Middlebury College, at Middlebury on April 13.

A debate with St. Lawrence University will also take place during the month of April.

KATHRYN RAUH AND E. J. FITZGERALD WILL TAKE LEADS IN "HAY FEVER"

Three-act Comedy by Noel Coward Will be Given in Strong During Junior Week

COACH SUGGESTS NEW PLAY

Professor Metcalf Asks If Candidates Wish to Change Play Because So Many Appear to Try Out

Kathryn Rauh '32, and E. J. Fitzgerald were chosen to take the leading roles of "Hay Fever," Noel Coward's three-act comedy which will be given Thursday of Junior Week in the Strong Theatre. The final tryouts for the play were held Tuesday afternoon, March 22, in Room 1, North College.

Approximately thirty students tried out for the spring drama. Those who were eliminated on Monday were replaced by new candidates on Tuesday, the second day's tryouts lasting for two hours.

During the final tryouts on Tuesday, due to the fact that so many candidates were present, Professor Metcalf, who conducted the tryouts and who will coach the production asked if the group were in favor of changing from "Hay Fever" t o "Yellow Jacket" because the latter would allow more members in the cast, and would be much more sophisticated. The group suggested that he decide which play should be given, bearing in mind that "Hay Fever" had been selected at the joint meeting of Wig and Buskin and Masque and Sandal on Friday, March 18. Professor Metcalf's choice was "Hay Fever," the play already before the candidates.

The other characters who were chosen at Tuesday's tryouts are: Dorothy Murphy '33, who will carry the rôle of Sorel Bliss, and F. W. Householder '32, who will take the part of Simon Bliss. P. E. Westin '32, who will act as Sandy Tyrell, and Roberta Powers '32, who will assume the rôle of Myra Arundell; R. S. Wright '35, will take the part of Richard Greatham; Dorothea Edwards '33, will act as the character Jackie Coryton, and Marie Maguire '35, will assume the rôle of Clara.

Miss Rauh has taken part in several college plays. She acted in "Dear Brutus" and "Summertime" in 1929 and 1930, and took part in "Hedda Gabler" this year. She is a member of the senior basketball team. Miss Rauh belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta.

Fitzgerald has had leading rôles in "Hedda Gabler," "She Stoops to Conquer," and the "Queen's Husband." He was a member of the CYNIC editorial staff last year. He is a Lambda Iota.

Miss Murphy received dramatic experience in "Hedda Gabler," in which she carried the leading part, and in the "Queen's Husband" she took the rôle of

(Continued on page 4)

DISCUSS TEACHING AIMS IN PROFS' SYMPOSIUM

Local Chapter of American Association of University Professors Meet in Museum

"Aims and Methods of Teaching" was the subject of discussion at a symposium of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors held at the Fleming Museum, Tuesday evening, March 22.

Papers were presented by heads of the various departments of the University including: Prof. L. M. Prindle of the Classical Department; Prof. F. Tupper of the English Department; Prof. P. D. Evans of the History Department; Dean Swift of the Mathematics Department; and Prof. H. G. Perkins of the Zoology Department. The discussions were all centered upon the purposes of teaching as applied to the special departments of the speakers. An open forum followed the talks.

The factors which were shown necessary to successful teaching, in the various papers were: A knowledge of subject matter; care in the preparation of lectures and discussions; enthusiasm on the part of the teacher; an ability to arouse and hold the interest of the students; and skill in presentation of material.

The central organization of the American Association of University Professors is at present making a study to improve methods of teaching in universities. The local symposium was held in sympathy with the larger movement.

Prof. A. R. Gifford is president and Prof. C. C. Jacobs is secretary of the local chapter which has about sixty members.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

[illegible] Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Women's Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Business Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34 Augustus Larson '34
[illegible] '34 C. Jackson Libby '34
[illegible] '34 Realtus McCuen '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] '34
M. [illegible] '34
[illegible] '34
T. L. Taylor '33

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G. H. Burrows '34
W. J. Gilbert '34
Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

L. Lyman '34

COLUMNIST

R. J. Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

[illegible] during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year, single copies five cents.

[illegible] must be signed and addressed to the proper department and left at the Vermont Cynic office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in not later than 5 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Other material [illegible]

Application for entering as second class matter pending. Acceptance at special rate provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized October 14, 1926.

[illegible] Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] Member of Board [illegible] Volume 45

Professor Bassett Gives Address on Washington in Athens, Greece

[illegible] Professor Bassett, head of the Greek Department, delivered an address [illegible] Washington [illegible] Athens, Greece, in the hall of the Hellenic Association of Boston. Professor Bassett is spending his sabbatical year in Greece.

The Address

The address was printed verbatim in the February 27 issue of the Athens News. Professor Bassett said in part:

"In addressing the American Legion of Athens I am reminded of my Fellow Americans and Fellow Greeks.

"I am [illegible] the 24th and therefore [illegible] Washington as a great man and as a great man.

Not a Prophet or a Genius

Among the great men of history there have been prophets, men with a more than human vision of a better future for mankind.

"Washington was not a prophet. There have also been men of genius, who have evidenced some unusual capacity in art or science or literature, as generals of states men, far beyond the experience of mankind that it seemed superhuman.

By the verdict of history Washington was not one of these. Yet although he was neither a genius nor a prophet he holds a unique place among the men of all time and he does this by reason of his qualities as a man.

Heroic Human Qualities

Few human beings lack these qualities utterly but in Washington they reached heroic proportions.

It was by his heroic human qualities and not by prophetic vision or by the gift of genius that Washington made possible the establishment of the American nation, and by the same qualities that he made an indelible impression upon the government of that nation during the formative years of its infancy.

"It is most appropriate that in Athens which through Socrates first taught the world the supreme importance of developing the highest qualities of the man, we should pay tribute to the memory of Washington, who contributed to the permanence of free government by reason of his human qualities.

Like Homeric Heroes

"Washington was a man, even as you and I, but unlike us, he was a man of heroic size.

"Homer would have said of him surpassing the men of today. He was a man writ large in letters of gold. He had the qualities of other men of his class, who were Virginian gentlemen, but these qualities in him reached heroic proportions. They were Homeric like those which flourished in the time of which Homer sings in the springtime of the human race, when life was deeply and strongly lived in all its joys and sorrows, and in all its responsibilities and obligations.

"Like Homer's heroes, Washington enjoyed the good things of life, 'the dance and the song, which are the garnishments of the feast.'

First in the Hearts of His Countrymen

"As any Homeric prince he found enjoyment in increasing his country estate, as he got acres with its cattle and its tilled fields.

"His temper would sometimes blaze out like the wrath of Achilles, but unlike Achilles after the brief outburst Washington cherished no grudge.

"His laughter was Homeric, boisterous with the joy of living and like Homer's heroes he was not ashamed of tears. When he bade farewell to his officers at the close of the war he threw his arms around them, and kissed them with tears of emotion, and when he delivered his farewell address to Congress we are told that his eyes were wet.

"So he was seen as newmen of history because of the heroic proportions of his notable qualities as a man he was first in the hearts of his countrymen.

Sheer Force of Character

But Washington revealed in still grander proportions—and this is the secret of his greatness—a more positive, more effective, more irresistible human quality which alone meets every test in a great crisis.

"There has never been any doubt what this quality was. Sheer force of character was the secret of Washington's greatness.

Fifty years ago every American child knew to heart the story of Washington and the cherry tree. how as a small boy, possessed of his first hatchet, he cut down his father's favorite cherry tree, and when his father questioned him about it, he admitted that he cut it down, because as he said, 'I cannot tell a lie.'

Cherry Tree Story True

The cold light of historical criticism has relegated this story to the realm of myth. Yet this myth of Washington and the cherry tree is in the highest sense true.

"The story of the cherry tree pictures concretely, vividly, and unforgettably the historical truth that sheer force of character that is a serious recognition of the deeper responsibilities of life and of the basic principles of right living and an unswerving loyalty to both, is the human quality which is essential in the effective life, especially in its crises, great or small, for it is like a rock that cannot be shaken by any storm of adversity.

"In the dark days of Valley Forge when the Continental army was reduced to a few thousand half-naked, half-starved soldiers, when the Confederacy was all but bankrupt in finances and—what was worse—in morale, America still had a sufficient asset in the sheer force of character of George Washington.

International Significance

"It was by this his sheer force of character that Washington laid the enduring foundations of American democracy; it was this which gave his life historical significance and made it a lasting possession of humanity, and it is this that lends to this 200th anniversary of his birth, a timely and an international significance.

"The present world crisis has arisen not unnaturally after a century in which human progress has been too largely one-sided.

"The improvement of the conditions and means of living has outstripped the progressive development of the principle of living.

Need of Men Like Washington

"The world has been so much interested in producing wealth that it has not had much time to give to producing character. In prosperity this lack of an even balance between the things of the man and the man himself is less noticed, but in a crisis like the present the need of men like Washington is apparent.

"The world today is rich in resources, in the materials of prosperity; the only shortage is in morale and in leaders of strong character, confident themselves, and trusted by their countrymen.

"Suppose these were today in every nation—as fortunately there are in some nations—one man who like Washington because of his lovable human qualities and above all by his sheer force of character could unite and inspire with confidence the people of his own nation, and of the other nations.

"There would be a speedy solution of the world's present difficulties. And only such men can save civilization in crises that are likely to occur from time to time hereafter.

Tribute to His Fame

"Homage of the lips, and mere passive recognition of Washington's greatness is doing but half-hearted honor to his memory. The ancient Hellenes of the Age of Pericles paid a more sincere tribute to the great men of their heroic past by imitating and emulating them.

"The greatness of our present age is largely due to our use of the physical power which past ages have stored up in the earth for us.

"We are fools if we fail to make an equal use of the power of the human spirit, developed by the heroic great of all time, of whom Washington was one.

"The obligation which rests upon us and upon all the millions who remember Washington today is to see that his heroic qualities are indispensable in our present civilization, that we give them preference in the exercise of our franchise, and that we do what we can to focus the attention of education and of all agencies for moulding public opinion in the need for developing a serious recognition and a loyal acceptance of the deeper responsibilities of life, what we call the force of character.

"Then we shall be profiting by the lesson of history; we shall be doing what we can to avoid a further one-sided progress of humanity, and we shall be paying the most profound and effective tribute to the undying fame of Washington."

Society Notes

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

[illegible] of the McGill chapter of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

PI BETA PHI

[illegible] Pi Beta Phi held a [illegible] [illegible] March 9 at the Algiers Room. The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Mary Liddelle, Ruth Templeton, Betty Boright, Carolyn Comstock, Elizabeth Crockett, Marjorie [illegible], [illegible] Barbara Taylor.

The toastmistress at the banquet was Florence Arms. Other speakers were Sylvia Farnham '32, Priscilla Perry '33, Dorothy Harwood '34 and Marjorie Jenks '35.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Initiation was held at the chapter house on 192[illegible], College Street, Wednesday afternoon, March 23. The initiation banquet was at the Hotel Vermont. There were four new members initiated.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

The initiation was held Thursday, March 17. Afterward was the initiation banquet, which was held on the Roof Garden of the Hotel Vermont. Miss Marion Baldwin was toastmistress, and the following were speakers: Beatrice [illegible], Margaret Tower '33, Helen Mount '35 and Marjorie Perrin for the alumni.

About forty people were present. The initiates are: Madeline Ansboro '35, Eunice Mann '35, Winifred Perry '35, Margaret Kane '35, and Helen Mount '35.

After the banquet Katrina Munn '32 and Madeline Ansboro '35 entertained with selections on the violin and piano.

SIGMA GAMMA

Initiation was held at the rooms Monday, March 21. The initiation banquet took place at the Hotel Sherwood. The toastmistress was Marion Sylvester '25. The speakers were Donno Oakes '32, Norma Carder '33, Ruby Jenness '34, Dorothy Kennedy '35, and Frederika Northrup '26. The initiates are Edith Wyman and Dorothy Kennedy.

KAPPA DELTA

A bridge party was held at the Vermonters' Club House Tuesday evening, March 22.

K. E. L.

A meeting was held at the home of [illegible] Cohen Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

Gertrude Lyons '32 is spending her three weeks vacation in Burlington.

Campus Comment

[illegible] Cynic:

[illegible] the student body and [illegible] responded to the [illegible] that financial stringency would [illegible] the cancellation of this [illegible] trip was a revelation of [illegible] many have of recent [illegible] lacking from the [illegible].

Vermont spirit is not dead. It may at times be [illegible] or not dead. Vermont's honorary societies are not worthless groups of campus Czars and politicians [illegible] bodies which are capable of reflecting student opinion in an organized way. Their effectiveness has been well demonstrated. The southern trip has been saved.

To many the anxiety which followed the Athletic Council's announcement that the southern trip must be cancelled, was [illegible] it revealed the real interest of the student body in athletics. It took just this emergency to force the reserved Vermonters to show their spirit.

The team and coaches now realize that the student body is behind them. But let's give them a real send-off at the mass meeting on Wednesday night.

Sincerely,
CHESTER B. EATON '34.

SENIORS CHOOSE WESTIN AND WILDER AT MEETING

(Continued from page 1)

A. Eaton is a recently elected member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is president of Boulder and vice-president of Scabbard and Blade. Eaton is a member of Sigma Phi. He acted as manager of football last fall.

Cobb is a Delta Psi. He is treasurer of Boulder society and also acted as manager of freshman football.

Miss Carrier holds the position of social chairman of Press Club and is the retiring secretary of Eta Sigma Phi. She is a Pi Beta Phi.

Fitzgerald was poetry editor of Winnowings last year, and is a member of Wig and Buskin. He placed first in the 1930 Tri-State literary contest for his poetical contribution, and tied last year for third place in the short story competition.

Miss Mount heads Women's Student Union and is a senior executive of W. A. A. She is chairman of Y. W. C. A. conference and treasurer of Mortar Board. Miss Mount is an Alpha Chi Omega.

Householder is the president of Grey Friars and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He was president of Eta Sigma Phi and managing editor of the CYNIC last year. Householder is a Lambda Iota.

Miss Powers is captain of women's varsity debate and chairman of Tau Kappa Alpha. She heads the business department of Winnowings and is vice-president of the senior class. Miss Powers is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and belongs to Delta Delta Delta.

LaCross is a varsity debater, and president of the International Relations Club. He is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, and is manager of varsity debate.

Connecticut Aggie College is having a wave of antagonism to its "incompetent and lax student group called the Student Senate."

The Mystic Pen

UNDER THE COVERS

As a change from the [illegible] and physical detail of the psychological stream of treatment, and as the [illegible] what promises to become a reaction, comes Lanham's novel. Flesh is Heir. The small hint of the content [illegible] chosen the decade 1920 [illegible] background. As represented new type of book, one [illegible] in applying the customary [illegible] adjectives. The author [illegible] youth is more honestly [illegible] a description of its ideal [illegible] than in the more common [illegible] tion of its cynicism and [illegible].

Roger Baum, Kirstein's [illegible] taken as a prototype [illegible] generation rising after the [illegible] 1920 we find the young [illegible] boarding school. Here he [illegible] into the wretchedness of [illegible] fear through the dominance [illegible] sane classmate who makes [illegible] tempts upon the boy's life. Roger, impelled by a "romantic [illegible] ment" at the immediate [illegible] surrounding him, can not avoid [illegible] continue friendship with the [illegible] manages to torture him [illegible] such a strange fashion the [illegible] through school, a stained glass [illegible] two European tours, Harvard [illegible] depths of the lives of his sister and friend, always with his romantic [illegible] that shies completely from [illegible] of morbid cynicism.

One can not help feeling that the book is strongly autobiographical. Despite the almost complete absence of [illegible] scenes, there is an omnipresent [illegible] of the author's confidence in his new [illegible] turalism without superficial analysis. The tang of the continental Ernest Hemingway is strong, yet Kirstein has given [illegible] dialog the quality of a moving [illegible] and interest. It is in his conversation and detail of action that the reader [illegible] the mood of the moment, rather than the device of introspection or [illegible]. This type of treatment is more [illegible] than surface indications show. Through the whole story runs the pleasant [illegible] of a great excitement at life in the [illegible]. The optimism and farsightedness [illegible] pressed by the author is a hopeful [illegible] for contemporary literature.

Readers of Flesh is Heir will [illegible] themselves reflected in its pages.

Mr. Kirstein while at Harvard [illegible] the Harvard Society for Contemporary Art, which has regularly [illegible] exhibitions. He is well known as [illegible] the co-editors of Hound & Horn, a creative periodical which has displaced [illegible] five years the old Dial.

The Book: Flesh is Heir, by [illegible] Kirstein, (Brewer, Warren, Putnam, $2.50)

Troubles, like babies, grow larger by nursing them.

BUY YOUR

Easter Gifts

at the

University Store

• • •

SEAL NOVELTIES

STATIONERY

UNIVERSITY PICTURES

FELT GOODS

SPORTS NEWS

SPAULDING WINS FROM BRADFORD IN PLAYOFF AS MCKEARNAN STARS

Game is Dull and Uninteresting as Score is Run Up to 38-21 in Easy Fashion

MAX POWELL PRESENTS VICTORS WITH TROPHIES

[illegible] Spaulding basketball team defeated but weak Bradford team in the title playoff [illegible] evening between the junior tournament champions by the [illegible] The game was a rather [illegible] filled with bursts of fine [illegible] featured by none of the [illegible] playing that was exhibited in [illegible] tournament held at the Uni- [illegible] gymnasium three weeks ago.

The first quarter saw both teams fighting for the lead in an interesting manner. However the Barre team led by John McKearnan acquired a lead of 6-2. The latter team proceeded to make monkeys of the Bradford defense, getting the ball on the backboard in a decisive manner and thus made the score. The quarter ended with Spaulding at the large end of the 10-2 score.

McGoff opened up the second period scoring by a foul line field goal. Murphy of Bradford scored on a quick shot that brought the Bradford rooters to their feet. The Green five displayed a fast working offensive which was very effective in getting the ball within a scoring area, but the shots went wild usually. McKearnan went on a scoring rampage and made three field goals in this high scoring quarter. The Admirals garnered four baskets in this quarter to bring the score up to 22-10 at half time.

The next two periods were intermingled with some of the poorest basketball seen on the Vermont gym for a long time. Wild passes, many shots off balance that missed the basket by wide margins, and poor teamwrok on both sides were seen in the latter half of the game. Spaulding managed to keep their lead, and at no time were they threatened. Their brand of basketball was far superior to that of the winners of the junior tournament. They made some wonderful plays in this game which roused the enthusiasm of both sides. The Barre boys did a lot of unnecessary fouling to complete the departure from the ethics of a good court game. The final score of the game was 38-21 with the Maroon and White men on the lead.

After the game, Max Powell, alumnus of the University of Vermont, presented Captain McKearnan of the Spaulding team the cup for the state championship and the ball used in the playoff game. Each man on the winning team received basketball trophies to hang on watch charms. Sabe Abell was in charge of the playoff game.

The box score:

BRADFORD

	g	f	pts.
Osgood, l.g.	0	0	0
Hawes, l.g.	0	0	0
Kelley, r.g.	1	0	2
Murphy, c.	4	0	8
Rogers, l.f.	1	1	3
Springstead, l.g.	0	1	1
Hodge, r.f.	3	1	7
	9	3	21

SPAULDING

	g	f	pts.
Angwin, r.f.	2	1	5
McGoff, l.f.	3	1	7
McKearnan, c.	8	0	16
Conti, l.g.	4	0	8
Pontiggi, l.g.	0	0	0
George, r.g.	0	0	0
MacDonald, r.g.	1	0	2
	18	2	38

Score by quarters:

Spaulding	10	12	8	8	38
Bradford	2	8	6	5	21

Referee—Levine V. S. B. Umpire—Prentice V. S. B.

BASKETBALL ELECTIONS RESULT IN DEADLOCK

Reed Picked for Manager, Colburn, Frosh Manager and Brislin, Libby and Tobin for Assistants

The vote for captaincy of the 1932-33 basketball team resulted in a tie. Graduate Manager Abell states that a new vote will be taken to break the deadlock. This is the second tie in a major sport captaincy this year. The football elections resulted in a tie between Wedell and Bowers.

Lyman Reed '33 was elected manager of varsity basketball for the coming season. Russell Colburn '33 was chosen as manager of the freshman team for next year. The former is an electrical engineer and is a member of Delta Psi fraternity. Colburn is an S. A. E. and is very active in the campus affairs, being editor-in-chief of the 1933 Ariel.

The assistant managers are William Brislin '34, Charles Libby '34 and Donald Tobin '34. Libby and Brislin are both members of Gold Key and the CYNIC Board. The former is president of the sophomore class. Tobin, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, is well known on campus walks.

ARCHERY IS PROMINENT AT VERMONT THIS YEAR

This winter, archery has become much more prominent as a college sport at this University than in previous years. Many students are participating in this sport and are improving rapidly in marksmanship under the instruction of Major Charles L. Williams.

The shooting is done at Major Williams' range on Church Street. The range is about sixty feet in length, and the target is a standard one, having its rings colored from the inside to the outside in white, red, blue, black and white. The respective points of these colors are 9, 7, 5, 3, 1. Four ends of six shots each constitute one string. 216 is the highest possible score. However, any score over 100 is considered very good.

Up to the present week, the highest scorers are as follows:

Marie (Sunny) Maguire '35, 193; Katrina Munn '32, 188; Lenda Walker '33, 159; Evelyn DeBrune '32, 150; Marion Urie '33, 147; Helen Jenkins '34, 140; Helen Cunningham '32, 138; Charlotte Kidder '32, 136; Constance Calkins '35, 125; Mary Bennett '34, 115.

All those who are interested in archery will find the range open to them on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from two to three o'clock and on Friday and Saturday from two to four.

NEW GRAPPLING CHAMPS CROWNED AT FINALS OF ANNUAL TOURNAMENT

Bingham, Lyford, Brislin, Segur, Giardi and Isenberg Win in Interesting Matches

The final bouts in the wrestling tournament were run off Wednesday afternoon in the gym before a crowd of about 250 spectators. This concludes the tournament, and all titles have been decided with but one exception. In the 158-pound class E. E. Miller '34 was unable to meet F. J. Varricchione '32 and the bout has been postponed until after the spring vacation.

The title-holders: R. H. Bingham '34 in the 115-pound class; F. A. Lyford '33 in the 125-pound class; W. W. Brislin '34 in the 135-pound class; W. W. Segur '35 in the 145-pound class; L. A. Giardi '35 in the 175 pound class; I. Isenberg '33 in the unlimited class.

All of the championship matches were of twelve minutes' length and were won by either a fall in that time or a judge's decision. Professor Carleton of the English Department, Mr. Kiphuth of the German Department, H. A. Prentice of the Physical Education Department, and E. B. Sutton acted as judges. Time was kept by Mr. Kiphuth and the bouts were officiated by H. B. Levine of the Physical Education Department.

The matches were vigorously contested. Two of them were won on falls. The matmen realizing that it was their final attempt packed the bouts with action. At the close of the matches the winners were presented with small gilt medals by the Physical Education Department.

The contest opened up with an exhibition in which the two Bingham brothers battled a burly bout. The two diminutive grapplers had finally been persuaded to meet, and the match was loudly welcomed by wrestling fans. They went at their work with great seriousness and drew much applause and advice from the spectators. The match was finally declared a draw.

The best bout of the entire tournament was staged in the 145-pound class when Segur, one of the most finished matmen of the tournament, met his match in F. B. Moore '35. Although Segur won on a time advantage of 6:29, the bout was one of the fastest and roughest witnessed and Moore set his opponent a fast pace throughout the fight.

Lyford and Keelan put on a realistic tumbling spectacle. The contestants were well matched and Lyford finally won by a narrow time advantage of 3:15.

Brislin in the 135-pound class scored the first fall of the afternoon when he threw F. W. Bancroft '34 in 10:04.

J. McGrath, substituting for E. E. Miller, met F. J. Varricchione in a 10-minute exhibition bout. Although "Chicci" was a little out of his element he forced the fight to McGrath and staged a rough and tumble bout.

"Scratch" Giardi met Galvin for the title in the 175-pound class. Neither combatants could secure a fall and Giardi finally won by a time advantage of 9:16.

In the unlimited class Isenberg gained the other fall of the afternoon by throwing S. E. Haskel '33 in 9:45.

In the semi-finals which took place on Monday afternoon every match but one ended in a fall.

EXTENSIVE SCHEDULE IS ARRANGED FOR TENNIS

M. E. Dober, manager of varsity tennis, announces that the team has an extensive schedule on its hands this year. The list of games includes a Massachusetts trip with matches scheduled with Amherst College, Worcester Polytechnic Institute, and Boston University.

Tennis Schedule

Apr. 28	Amherst	There
Apr. 29	Worcester Poly. Inst.	There
Apr. 30	Boston University	There
May 5	St. Lawrence	Here
May 13	N. Y. State Teachers	Here
May 14	Middlebury	There
May 16	St. Michael's	Here
May 19	Tufts	Here
May 21	Boston University	Here
May 23	St. Michael's	There
May 27	Middlebury	Here

The free-hand drawing classes held weekly in the art museum were held during the past week as usual. On Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 8.30 to 10.30 o'clock, the college group met in the museum under the supervision of Miss Elizabeth Colburn.

Baseball Team to Start Invasion of the Southland With Game Tomorrow

Team Leaves in Blaze of Enthusiasm as Gymnasium Resounds to Cheers of Ardent Fans in First Pep Rally in Years—Abell, Gardner, Newton Among the Speakers

ITINERARY LISTS NINE GAMES TO BE PLAYED

The gymnasium echoed with the enthusiastic cheers of many rooters as they assembled Wednesday evening in a mass meeting to give the baseball team a hearty send off for the southland. Six speakers gave short talks and music was furnished by the R. O. T. C. Band under the leadership of Joe Lechnyr.

An additional feature of interest was the relay race in which the Kappa Sigma champion interfraternity relay team made up of Wesoly, Jay, Smith and Delfausse defeated an all-campus team composed of Billings, Flagg, Bedell and Hutchins. Kappa Sigma almost equalled their new record of 2:50 set in the interfraternity with 2:50⅕.

A. O. Eaton '32 acted as master of ceremonies for the evening. "One thing that Vermont is known all over for, is its baseball team," he began. The southern trip is an excellent form of advertisement for the school. Since the last similar pep rally was held when Sabin Abell, present graduate manager was then undergraduate manager of the team, he was the first speaker on the program.

"This rally is the best thing you can do for the team ready to leave for the South," Manager Abell stated. "It is one of the finest indications of student spirit that I have seen since I've been here."

Orie Jay, captain of the team, was the next speaker up. He was introduced by Al Eaton as the typical Frank Merriwell who had come through with that much needed hit in the ten inning game with Dartmouth two years ago.

Jay announced that there was a certain amount of social prestige which a university nine was bound to obtain on such a trip. As "social lion" of the team he rated Frankie Pires first, with Dutch Mackay, "the slugging Baptist from Mattapan" a close second. Orrie then related several amusing anecdotes which had happened on the different diamond trips he has made. In closing he expressed a vote of thanks to the honorary societies who had made the trip possible. Undergraduate manager, Watson Morgan '32 followed with a short talk in which he outlined the itinerary with humorous digressions.

Bob Ready '24 who used to be on the receiving end of Doc Newton's pitching was unexpectedly called on for the next speech by Al Eaton. Bob pointed out that Vermont was one of the few teams that could see their way clear to a southern trip this year. "Just one parting shot," the speaker concluded. "The fellows who don't make this trip deserve just as much credit as those who are going."

Doc Newton, veteran campaigner of '23 and '24 and present coach of the pitching staff followed his old battery mate on the platform. "I think the team will come back fifty-fifty or better," was his verdict.

Larry Gardner, coach of the team and former star third baseman of the Cleveland Indians, was the last speaker of the evening. "Just to show you that I'm not going to compete with those soap box orators that have gone before me I'm going to come down to level," Coach Gardner began as he leaped down from the platform.

He took the opportunity to reiterate some of the points that the preceding speakers had brought out and to thank the honorary societies for their part in making the trip possible. Each member of the team seated on the platform was introduced by the master of ceremonies. Five members were unable to be present. Jay, Beckley, Collins, Farmer, Macomber, Mackay, Pires, Rutkowski, Spicer, Taft, Tomassetti, Wesoly, Winant and Manager Watson E. Morgan left Thursday morning.

The Prospects

The schedule of the team includes ten games on the annual southern trip. The initial game is at William and Mary College at Williamsburg, Virginia, tomorrow in the afternoon. The team is not in the best shape possible to take on the team who have been working out on solid, open air turf. However, the practice the team will obtain will depend entirely on the number of games played. The trip includes some of the strongest teams in the east on the schedule. After the contest at William and Mary the team will trek to Richmond, Virginia to confront both the University of Richmond and the Medical College of Virginia. Both games promise to be of an exciting nature. Most of the colleges the Catamounts oppose have Vermont listed as their opener. In that respect the Green and Gold diamond warriors have a slight edge over their opponents.

From Richmond, the team will encounter the Navy nine at Annapolis for a difficult contest. As in other sports the Navy teams rank high. At Newark, the Vermont baseball men will take the University of Delaware team by storm in an opening game. The team will play most of their games around this area for a few days. The next day, they will travel to Bethlehem for a hard battle with Lehigh University.

At Princeton, the next game on the list, the University of Vermont will furnish opposition for a strong Tiger outfit. Following the opening game with the Green and Gold nine, the Orange and Black stickwielders encounter the Philadelphia Athletics in a practice game. After a day's layoff, Manhattan will be contested in New York. Manhattan concentrates to a certain degree in diamond work, and the Vermont players will probably have a stiff time to win from the New York team.

Two more games complete this extensive schedule which the team has already embarked upon. The first is an encounter with Seton Hall at South Orange, New Jersey. Seton Hall had one of the snappiest ball clubs in the east last year winning the majority of their games. The other game which concludes the southern trip is the Rutgers game. Last year the team won from the New Brunswick men in a fighting fashion. It

(Continued on page 4)

Comparison Will Prove
LANGROCK CLOTHES
Are Economical

Because—
they give full value—and more
—in appearance
—in correct style
—in wear-resistance
—in lasting service

COMPARE BEFORE YOU SELECT

$45 to $55 Ready for Service

$65 And More To Measure

TURKS Burlington

156-158 College Street

EASTER CLOTHES
FOR COLLEGE MEN!
CHARTER HOUSE
SUITS
$30 $35

TOPCOATS
$18 $30

NEW HATS
$3 $7

Miles & Perry Company
COLLEGE CLOTHIERS
Since 1890

FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL
Residential Summer School (co-educational) in the heart of French Canada. Old Country French staff. Only French spoken. Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced. Certificate or College Credit. French entertainments, sight-seeing, sports, etc.
Fee $140, Board and Tuition, June 25 July 31. Write for circular to Secretary Residential French Summer School
McGILL UNIVERSITY
A-32 MONTREAL, CANADA

TUFTS COLLEGE
DENTAL SCHOOL
Founded 1900
College men and women—prepare for a profession of widening interest and opportunity. Recent research has enlarged the scope of every phase of dentistry. The field demands, more than ever before, men and women of ability backed by superior training. Such training Tufts College Dental School offers to its students. School opens on September 29, 1932. Our catalog may guide you in choosing your career. For information address
WILLIAM RUSH, D.M.D., Sc.D., Dean
416 Huntington Avenue Boston, Mass

BASEBALL TEAM LEAVES FOR SOUTH TOMORROW

(Continued from page 1)

The Itinerary

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE OF RE-EXAMS

(Continued from page 1)

1936 CO-ED HANDBOOK WILL BE IN NEW FORM

ZETA CHI HOLDS PRE-VACATION TEA DANCE

RAUH AND FITZGERALD TO HAVE LEADS IN PLAY

(Continued from page 1)

FRESHMAN CAMP WILL BE HELD AT HOCHELAGA

VERMONT WINS KEENE NORMAL SCHOOL DEBATE

REV. CASHMORE IS CHAPEL SPEAKER WEDNESDAY

LOST

LOST—A red and black fountain pen near Room 3, South College. Finder please return to P. C., care Cynic office.

RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVE.
Opp. New Fleming Museum
MEALS LUNCHES
HOME COOKING

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Vandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

REMEMBER
HOME FOLKS
at
EASTER
Select Your Easter
Greetings at
McAULIFFE'S
Church & College Sts.
Phone 629

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
164 Church Street Burlington Vt.

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street
PRIZE CUPS
and
TROPHIES
Expert Repairing
and
Engraving
Fraternity Jewelry

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
162A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

Industry takes a hint from the kitchen

The domestic art of baking is closely paralleled in telephone manufacture at Western Electric, where plastic molding is an exact science.

Telephone bell boxes, for instance, are no longer formed of metal. They are molded from a phenol plastic compound—containing carbolic acid, formaldehyde and other ingredients—because Western Electric manufacturing engineers saw the way to make a better product at lower cost. These men developed a new and exceptionally efficient type of plastic molding press—and determined precisely how long to bake the mixture and the exact temperature to use.

In quickly taking advantage of the new art of plastic molding, Bell System engineers once more showed that they have the kind of imagination that keeps American industry forging ahead.

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1932 | NUMBER 46

STETSON, LIBBY, EATON ELECTED BY V. C. A. TO HOLD IMPORTANT ROLES

Cabinet Chosen at Friday Afternoon Meeting to Serve for Next Year

ALL MEN HAVE MANY POSITIONS ON CAMPUS

Varney, Drew and Cohen Retire from Chairman, Handbook Editor and Business Manager

[illegible] Stetson '34 of New Haven, [illegible] chairman of the men's [illegible] the Vermont Christian [illegible] at the annual election held [illegible] afternoon. Charles J. Libby [illegible] Hill, N. Y. was un- [illegible] editor-in-chief of the [illegible] Handbook, and Irving [illegible] Burlington was elected [illegible] Chester B. Eaton '34 [illegible] director of next year's fresh- [illegible] Other officers elected were: [illegible] '33, vice-chairman; C. B. [illegible] secretary; R. E. McCuin '34, [illegible] finance, W. D. White, Jr. '35, [illegible] publicity; S. K. Carter '33, [illegible] entertainment; R. S. Wright [illegible] director of student service; C. H. [illegible] director of deputations; R. H. [illegible] '34, director of church rela- [illegible] and C. B. Harwood '34 director [illegible] world education.

[illegible] of the V. C. A.'s new officers are [illegible] campus affairs. Stetson, who [illegible] H. I. Varney as head of the stu- [illegible] cabinet is a member of Sigma Delta [illegible] and Gold Key. Last year he [illegible] as secretary of the V. C. A., [illegible] manager of Freshman Camp and [illegible] the University at the Mid- [illegible] Northfield Conference. Libby [illegible] assumes the position held last year [illegible] F. B. Drew is a member of Sigma [illegible] Epsilon and is vice-president of [illegible] and Ruskin. He is president of the [illegible] class and was last semester's [illegible] of Gold Key. Libby is a news [illegible] and assistant business manager of [illegible] CYNIC and an active debater. He [illegible] recently elected an assistant manager of basketball and has placed consistently on the Dean's list. He managed [illegible] victorious 1934 class basketball team [illegible] has numerous other honors.

[illegible]man who succeeds W. Cohen '34 as [illegible] manager is a member of Phi [illegible] Delta and intercollegiate editor [illegible] CYNIC. Brock and McCuin be- [illegible] Zeta Chi. McCuin is a news edi- [illegible] the CYNIC and a varsity debater. [illegible] is a member of Sigma Phi and [illegible] Key and was an assistant camp [illegible] in 1931.

White and Carter are members of [illegible] Iota. White is a CYNIC re- [illegible] and a member of Le Cercle [illegible]. He won numerals in fresh- [illegible] cross-country last fall and is a mem- [illegible] of the track squad. He placed on [illegible] last semester. Carter is [illegible] editor of the CYNIC and a grind [illegible] of the 1933 Ariel. He is president [illegible] Le Cercle Lafayette, secretary of the [illegible] Relations Club, and chair- [illegible] this year's junior banquet. He

(Continued on page 6)

JENNE ASKS FINANCIAL AID FOR DISPENSARY

[illegible], dean of the Medical [illegible] told the Burlington [illegible] that more money [illegible] be appropriated for the [illegible] which the Medical School [illegible] purposes of instruction.

[illegible] April meeting of the [illegible] said, "We ask the city [illegible] charters and the necessary [illegible] the service. We'll pro- [illegible] stated.

[illegible] the Board, acting on [illegible] recommendation, appointed [illegible] committee to confer with the [illegible] and report back to the [illegible] recommendations.

[illegible] explained that the Free [illegible] founded by the Medical [illegible] operation with the city [illegible]. The city originally [illegible] a year for the running [illegible] dispensary. This amount [illegible] but is now inadequate [illegible] of the institution. In [illegible], nine hundred pa- [illegible] at a cost of $2,100, [illegible] since increased to [illegible]. Due to the discrepancy [illegible] expenses and the [illegible] large deficit occurs each [illegible] be met by the Univer-

"Cosi Fan Tutte" to be Presented Thurs.

Glee Clubs Will Give Famous Mozart Opera in the Evening at the Fleming Museum

The opera, "Cosi Fan Tutte," the first Mozart production which the Glee Clubs at Vermont have attempted, will be presented Thursday evening at the Robert Hull Fleming Museum.

The libretto for this opera was written at the request of Emperor Joseph II, from events that had actually taken place in Vienna. The man chosen to do this work was a priest, Lorenzo Da Ponte, with whom Mozart had worked before on the operas "Le Nozze Di Figaro" and "Don Giovanni."

The story opens with Ferrando and Guglielmo, two young Neopolitan officers, engaged to be married to two young ladies, Fiordiligi and her sister Dorabella, sitting in a cafe with Don Alphonso, a cynical old gentleman, who doubts the constancy of the two sisters, and tells the officers so. After some heated discussion, Don Alphonso wagers a hundred guineas that he can prove their faithlessness. His plot is to have the officers disguise themselves and woo the sisters. They are aided in this plot by Despina, the ladies' maid. This character, too, disguises herself twice during the action of the opera. Each officer woos and wins the other's betrothed, but the libretto does not make clear which of the sisters they take, when they finally reveal their identities. The use of disguise was a favorite Viennese theme.

The rôle of Fiordiligi is considered very difficult because of the long range required to sing it. When "Cosi Fan Tutte" was first presented in January, 1790, that part was played by Madame Ferrares del Bene, who had a voice which (to quote E. J. Dent) "might well be envied by any soprano and by any contralto as well."

One of the most amusing trios in the opera is a laughing trio by the two officers and Don Diovanni. Another amusing scene is the one in which Despina, disguised as a doctor, strokes the two officers, who are supposed to have taken poison, with a magnet, declaring herself to be a disciple of the great Doctor Mesmer. Doctor Mesmer was, in fact, one of Mozart's most intimate friends.

The opera brought to Mozart much fame, but it did not do much for Da Ponte, for soon after the death of Joseph II, he was forced to leave Vienna. He went to Trieste, fell in love with a young English girl, Nancy, and in order to marry her had to leave the church. This made him work for his living. He went from place to place and finally settled in New York City, where he taught

(Continued on page 6)

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE

Preliminary Schedule Shows That Final Exams Will Start On May 31 and End June 11

The preliminary schedule of final examinations has just been released from the office of the Registrar F. W. Kehoe. The examinations start on Tuesday a.m., May 31 and end on Saturday p.m., June 11. All conflicts must be reported at the Registrar's Office, Room 1, Medical Building, not later than Tuesday, April 12.

The Schedule

Tuesday a.m., May 31: Home Economics 2, Home Economics 5, Home Economics 8, Home Economics 16 (Methods of Teach.), Math. 1 (Arts, Anal. Geom.), Math. 1 (Arts, Math. of Finance), Math. 1 (Engineer., Anal., Geom.), Math. 2 (Arts, Calculus), Math. 2 (Engineer., Calculus), Math. 7 (Arts, Advanced Algebra), Math. 103 (Arts, Advanced Calculus), Math. 105 (Arts, Theory of Functions).

Tuesday p.m., May 31: Farm Management, Greek 106, Home Economics 11 (A & B), Pol. Sci. 3 (Internat. Relations), Rural Education (T. Tr.), Solfeggio (A, B, & C).

Wednesday a.m., June 1: Astronomy, Dairy Bacteriology, Economics 14, Forestry 2, General Forestry, Geology 2, Home Economics 9, Industrial Engineering, Physics 1, Psychology 5 (Abnormal), Senior E. E. Lab., Zoology 10.

Wednesday p.m., June 1: Electric Communication, Engineering Drawing, Genetics (Ag.), History 12, Mechanical Drawing.

(Continued on page 4)

JAMES DOWD BRENNAN PRESIDENT OF ALUMNI COUNCIL DIES SUDDENLY

Prominent Banker Succumbs at Home in Swampscott, Massachusetts After Brief Illness

WAS GRADUATED FROM VERMONT, CLASS OF 1903

James Dowd Brennan, president of the Atlantic National Bank, of Boston, and better known in Burlington as the president of the Alumni Council of the University of Vermont died Friday at his home in Swampscott, Mass., as the result of cerebral hemorrhage, following an illness of two weeks. He was fifty-one years of age. He graduated from the University in the class of 1903 and had been very active in support of University development for a number of years.

Mr. Brennan was born in Huntington, Vt., April 20, 1881. He received his schooling in Vermont, following which he entered banking. He was employed by the Beacon Trust Company, of Boston. In 1910 he was appointed State bank examiner for Massachusetts and three years later he was appointed national bank examiner and chief national bank examiner of the First Federal Reserve District. In 1918 he joined the staff of the First National Bank, of Boston, as vice-president. It was only last month that he was elected to the presidency of the Atlantic National Bank. Mr. Brennan was very active in banking affairs and many high honors came to him.

Mr. Brennan was elected president of the Alumni Council of the University in June, 1927, and continued in that position up to the time of his death. He was very active in reorganizing the Council to put its activities on a basis more consistent with the income from the Loyalty Fund, which has been its chief support for a number of years. He received the honorary degree of LL.D. from the University in 1931. He was a member of the Lambda Iota Fraternity.

Something of the esteem in which Mr Brennan was held in banking circles may be understood from the fact that when he was elected as vice-president of the First National Bank, of Boston, it was necessary that the Comptroller of Currency at Washington receive letters from all the national banks in his district to the effect that although he necessarily knew all the ins and outs of their methods and conditions, they had no objections to his accepting a position with a competing national bank. Officials of all these banks wrote to the Comptroller expressing utmost confidence in Mr. Brennan as a man who would in no way make use of information which he held concerning their affairs.

Mr. Brennan is survived by his wife, Edith Poor, of Andover, Mass. Funeral services were held Sunday at his Swampscott home, the Rev. James D. Cummings, pastor of Holy Name Church, officiating. Burial was made in Christ's Cemetery, Andover, Mass.

PLANS FOR SPRING PLAY PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Preparations for Noel Coward's play, "Hay Fever" which will be given in the Strong Theater, Thursday of Junior Week, are progressing rapidly. A rehearsal was held Thursday night, April 7, at 7.30 o'clock, at the Vermonters' club house. The play, which is now appearing in Boston, centers its action about the character of Judith Bliss, a well-known actress who has retired from her professon to live with David Bliss, her husband, and their two children, Sorel and Simon Bliss. This action concerns mainly the Blisses' unconventional way of life and the reaction of various guests in their home to the consequent idiosyncrasies of their conduct.

The cast, chosen as a result of the tryouts held March 21 and 22, consists of nine characters—five men and four women.

Katharine Rauh '32 and E. J. Fitzgerald '32 will play the parts of Judith Bliss and Simon Bliss. Dorothy Murphy '33 will play Sorel Bliss; F. W. Householder '32, Simon Bliss; P. E. Westin '32, Sandy Tyrell; Roberta Powers '32, Myra Arundell; R. S. Wright '35, Richard Greatham; Dorothea Edwards '33, Jackie Carryton; Marie Maguire '35, Clara.

All freshmen desiring to scrub freshman baseball report to Ly Reed in the gymnasium at four o'clock any afternoon.

University Secures Curtis for Commencement Speaker

President Bailey Announces That Vice-President of the United States Will Speak Here in June—Most Distinguished Speaker Since Coolidge Spoke Here in 1920

CHARLES CURTIS

Vice-President of the United States who will be commencement speaker here on June 20.

DEBATING TEAM RETURNS FROM SUCCESSFUL TRIP

Forensists Back With a Perfect Record Having Lost No Debates on Annual Western Tour

Although at present complete authentic information is unavailable, the varsity debating team has completed its second annual invasion of the Middle West and South without defeat. A telegram was received by the Burlington Free Press late Friday night from Paul J. Lacross '32, manager of the team and the only senior making the trip. It read: "Won Susquehanna University unanimously three judges New York University no decision undefeated trip."

The debaters left Burlington, Friday, March 25. Saturday night they defeated the College of the City of Detroit on the question, "Resolved: That capitalism is a failure." This was an audience decision, according to a wire from Lacross.

The following Monday the team was scheduled to debate Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill. Although no word has been received on this contest it is assumed that the team either won or that it was a no decision affair. The subject was the one argued at Detroit.

Tuesday, March 29, the quartet encountered Columbia College, of Dubuque, Iowa. According to the Free Prss, Vermont won an audience decision on the subject, "Resolved: That the United States should enact legislation embodying the features of the Stuart Chase plan."

The next day found our forensists at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. No information is available on this debate, which was held on the question of war debt cancellation.

Thursday, the Vermont debaters tackled a college in Lexington, Ky., and came away with a critic judge decision. According to the Free Press, our opponents were Transylvania College. The CYNIC of March 25 said it was Sylvania College, while the CYNIC of March 11 asserted that it was the University of Kentucky. Your best bet is Transylvania, since the Burlington Daily News agrees with the Free Press, and Sylvania College is a mythical institution. Unemployment insurance was the bone of contention.

April Fool's day our team engaged in a no-decision encounter with the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., on the previous day's question of unemployment insurance.

April 2 our representatives were at the extreme southern point on their trip. Morehouse College, of Atlanta, Ga., was let off with a no decision contest according to a wire from Lacross. Unemployment insurance was the proposition for the third successive day.

(Continued on page 2)

REV. L. H. HOUGH TO GIVE BACCALAUREATE ADDRESS

Charles Curtis, Vice President of the United States, will be the Commencement speaker on Monday, June 20, according to an announcement made last week by President Guy W. Bailey. The baccalaureate sermon, on Sunday, June 19, will be given by the Rev. Lynn Harold Hough, professor of homiletics at Drew University, Madison, N. J.

Mr. Curtis is the most distinguished speaker U. V. M. has secured since Calvin Coolidge delivered the Commencement address twelve years ago. At that time Mr. Coolidge was the governor of Massachusetts having just been nominated for the vice-presidency.

Charles Curtis is of Indian descent. His grandfather was a member of the Kaw tribe. Born in Topeka, Kan., January 25, 1860, he lived on the Indian reservation with other Indian boys. A press release to the CYNIC says: "It was not until he was ten years old that fate broke in upon his life."

"Back in 1870 the western tribes were often on the warpath, and one afternoon the Cheyenne warriors, enemies of the Kaws for many generations, swooped down on the camp decked out in feathers and war paint. The Kaws barricaded themselves as best they could and fought off the enemy until nightfall. Their position became more serious as night came on, and they decided to send a messenger to Topeka, sixty miles away. Their horses had been captured, so the journey must be made on foot. Charlie Curtis was selected because he had been over the road, and knew the languages of both tribes. He succeeded in getting through the Indian lines, covering the sixty miles to the town of Topeka and sending relief in time to save his tribe.

"Charlie was an expert at riding and, when he had secured aid for his people, he found a job as a jockey, and took to the circuit in the cattle country instead of returning to the Kaw reservation. He once attempted to ride Headlight, a renegade horse of great speed, not yet properly broken. Charlie tackled him, and the horse plunged through the fence at the half mile post. The Senate leader bears the scars on his hands today."

Became a Hack Driver

"After five years of riding, he became too heavy to ride any more, and applied to the proprietor of a livery stable for a job. He got one, and became the driver of a night hack on the streets of Topeka. Even in the young towns of the West there was no post more lowly than that of driving a night hack. Curtis had a lawyer friend who told him about law, and for years he read law by the light of the lamps on his hack while waiting for 'fares.' He took his college course in this curbstone university, often interrupted by the erratic desires of those who make up the personnel of the night life of any town. But in the end he passed his bar examinations, in 1881, was admitted to practice, and became the junior member of a law firm. A senior partner fell by the wayside through liquor just as a sensational murder trial was approaching its climax, and Charlie had to step into the breach. On that day he made his reputation as a criminal lawyer.

"As a result, much has been written of this quiet, dark man, his attitude toward blocs and factions, and the position he assumed as leader of that most august of legislative bodies on such questions as relief of farmers and the publication of income tax returns."

Mr. Curtis was elected county attorney of Shawnee County in 1884 and re-elected in 1886. He was elected to the 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th and 60th Congresses, and in January, 1907, he was elected to the United States Senate to fill out the unexpired term of a senator who had resigned, and also for the full term beginning March 4. He was president pro tempore of the Senate for a brief session in 1911.

He again received the nomination for United States Senator over J. L. Bristow in 1913, and won the election over Democratic and Progressive candidates. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1920 and became the Vice-President in 1928.

The Baccalaureate Speaker

The Rev. Lynn Harold Hough is considered one of the most eloquent preachers in this part of the United States. He was born in Cadiz, Ohio, September

(Continued on page 8)

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

Editor-in-Chief
Women's Editor
Sports Editor
Managing Editor
Recording Editor
Business Manager
Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

Augusta Cohen '34
C Jackson Libby '34
Realtus McCuin '34

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G H Burrows '34
W J Gilbert '34
Charles J Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

R J Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof Leon W Dean

Founded in 1961. Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year, single copy five cents.

All editorial and business communications must be signed and addressed to the proper department head of The Vermont Cynic Office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in at the office not later than 1 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Office telephone 1644.

Acceptance for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 460 P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879, authorized October 14, 1926.

Office of Publication, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. XL — April 12, 1932 — Number 46

THE SOUTHERN TRIP

[illegible] the barren wastes, icy blasts and snow-clad [illegible] of Vermont to the warm sunny climes below the Mason-Dixon line, a region noted for cherry blossoms, beautiful creeds, good [illegible] and as every springtime, the scene of an invasion by the [illegible] hordes. During the past few years we have hesitated [illegible] ourselves by long [illegible] but this year we removed during the remainder of [illegible] the glorious sounds announced during the remainder of [illegible]. This year [illegible] best to marriages as well as depres[illegible]. Vermont's baseball team [illegible] the South.

This year Coach Lucien Gardner was faced with as serious a problem as any baseball coach encounters, that of building up a battery almost [illegible] of experienced and ineligibles.

[illegible] was accustomed as a matter of course to fill this [illegible] position, but graduation [illegible] to put forward more than creditable [illegible] in the persons of Eddie Wheaton who is opening the [illegible] season behind the plate, nothing well and leading the [illegible] batting [illegible] congratulations are also in order to [illegible] Hank Foss, Dusty Maurer, Bob Macomber and Tom [illegible] all of whom performed in every contest. The new [illegible] pitching staff [illegible] Wes Ashton, Lou Farmer, [illegible] Wendell Spencer and Eddie [illegible].

[illegible] our readers may have surmised, we [illegible] Vermont has established an enviable reputation on [illegible] baseball circuit, and we would not [illegible] as a [illegible] and [illegible] to hold prospects [illegible] spotting [illegible] and [illegible] to be remembered. With [illegible] material [illegible] and natural talent to [illegible] the [illegible] will [illegible] in store for [illegible] and [illegible] that [illegible] of Vermont [illegible] the baseball field, who undoubtedly forgot their troubles during the remainder of [illegible] to lend [illegible] support to their team during the remainder of the season.

Jerome Lawrence

Fountain of Youth

[illegible] one of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

CURTIS WILL SPEAK HERE AT COMMENCEMENT

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] received his A.B degree [illegible], in 1898; B.D. [illegible] Theological Semi- [illegible] graduate work at [illegible], received the D.D [illegible] from Scio College, [illegible] Biblical Insti- [illegible] Drew Theological [illegible] from Allegheny [illegible] D from Albion [illegible] versity of Detroit, Wesleyan University, [illegible] He entered the Methodist Episcopal [illegible] He was pastor at [illegible]s: 1904; First Church [illegible] 1904-1906; King's [illegible] 1907; Third Church, [illegible], N. Y., 1907-1909; [illegible] Church, Brooklyn, 1909- [illegible] Vernon Place Church, Bal- [illegible] 1914; professor of historical [illegible] Biblical Institute, 1914- [illegible] Northwestern Univer- [illegible]30, pastor of Central M. E. [illegible] Detroit, Mich., 1920-1928; [illegible] Presbyterian Church, Mont- [illegible] 1928-1930; professor of homiletics, [illegible] University, Madison, N. J., 1930 to the present.

Mr. Hough was president of the De- [illegible] Council of Churches, 1926-28; vice-president of the Religious Educational Association, 1926-28; president of the Religious Educational Council of Canada, 1928. He is a Scottish Rite Mason, 33rd degree, Knight Templar.

Mr. Hough is also a well-known author, having published twenty-six books since 1906. He has written the Sunday School Lesson Exposition for the New York Christian Advocate, also lectures on theological literature and philosophical topics. He was sent to Great Britain to speak on the aims of the World War, by the Lindgren Foundation of Northwestern University in 1918. He was editor and contributor to "Whither Christianity," 1929, and contributing editor of Christian Century.

GIRLS TO COMPETE IN INDOOR MEET AT GYM

An indoor meet will take place between the freshman and sophomore classes in physical education Friday evening, April 15, at 8 p.m. under the supervision of Miss [illegible] and Miss Pendleton of the department of physical education. Miss [illegible] in the events and records of the contestants are expected to be present.

The [illegible] for the meet follows:

1. Competition in marching to see which class has better marching tactics
2. Games [illegible]
3. Competition in marching to see which group has better marching tactics
4. Circle [illegible]
5. Tap dancing [illegible] first, freshmen second
6. Demonstration dancing by the advanced class in dancing

All trophies and awards given through the department of physical education will be presented at this time. The results of the indoor archery tournament, which is to be shot during the week of April 17 between the sophomores and freshmen at the indoor archery range on Church Street will also be announced at the meet. The archery scores will count with the scores in the other competitions of the meet. The judges will be announced later.

A co-ed in the Marquette School of Journalism, when interviewed, gave her views on American manners and customs as contrasted with those of her native Latvia. The young lady is never at a loss for words for she speaks Russian, German, Latvian, and English with equal fluency. She stated that in America the students play more in the high schools than they do in her native land and she was puzzled at the American custom of the women speaking first to men acquaintances when they meet on the street, the fact that men put their feet on the table, and the college custom of men going without garters.

NOTICE

Senior Class Photo to be taken at 10.20 Wednesday morning on the Chapel steps.

DR. O'NEILL ADDRESSES CO-ED HYGIENE SECTIONS

Doctor O'Neill [illegible] at the heads of the Vermont State Hospital for the Insane at Waterbury gave an interesting lecture [illegible] hygiene last of the two sections of the freshmen women's hygiene class at Westminster this year. April 6 in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum. He will give another lecture on the same [illegible] tomorrow afternoon.

In his talk Doctor O'Neill mentioned the fact that scientific treatment of mental hygiene began only a few years ago. He also gave some examples of recent developments in this field. Especially important was his definition of mental health, which he said is characterized by a sense of well-being, by clearness of thought, by accuracy of memory and by a cheerful attitude toward life.

Northeastern University is running a school song contest. Five songs have already been submitted. The competition was arranged in answer to the large amount of criticism brought up concerning their present school songs. The prize is twenty five dollars in cash.

BEST COAL AND SERVICE

• • •

Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

JOHN DEWEY CLUB WILL HEAR PROF. J. T. METCALF

The John Dewey Club will hold its [illegible] meeting on Tuesday evening, April 12, at 8 p.m. in the Children's Room on the second floor of the Fleming Museum. The meeting will be open to all members of the student body and the faculty.

Prof. [illegible] Metcalf, Ph.D. will speak on "Genius and Insanity." Professor Metcalf of the Psychology Department has taught here for many years and is able to present [illegible] concerning genius, insanity and allied [illegible]. He is a contributor and editor of several journals of psychological research and experiment.

BISHOP ATTAINS HIGH HONOR ON CO-ED TEAM

Edith Bishop '33 was chosen honorary captain for '32 of the women's rifle team. She shares this honor with Edith Pettell and '31 last year's crack shot of the co-ed sharpshooters. Miss Bishop has been a member of the rifle team for three years, being manager this year in addition. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. She was elected to Omicron Nu and has placed consistently on the Dean's list.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS

GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

ALEX VERRET
111 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 1070, 2071, 2072

At George Washington University women are induced to try out for the debating team by the promise that they will be taught to argue with their future husbands.

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

Have you thought of making
DENTISTRY
YOUR LIFE WORK?
The Harvard University Dental School offers an unsurpassed course in this field of health service, with emphasis on medical correlations. A "Class A" school. Write for catalog.
Leroy M. S. Miner, D.M.D., M.D., Dean, Dept. C, 188 Longwood Ave., Boston, Mass.

Ask the nearest Chesterfield smoker

They'll tell you—

they're milder,
they taste better

Chesterfield Radio Program

MON & THUR.	TUES. & FRI.	WED & SAT.
BOSWELL SISTERS	ALEX GRAY	RUTH ETTING
10:30 p.m. E.S.T.	10:30 p.m. E.S.T.	10 p.m. E.S.T.

[illegible]KRET'S ORCHESTRA every night but Sunday
NORMAN BROKENSHIRE, Announcer
COLUMBIA NETWORK

© 1932, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Left to right: Debating Team which returned Sunday from a successful tour of the Middle West and South. The team made a perfect record, winning each decision encounter. The first tilt was with the College of the City of Detroit on the capitalism question. The forensians, from left to right: Professor Morgan '34, James F. Ingerson '33, F. Reardon Donaghy '33, and Paul J. LaCross '32

DRAMATIC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS AT MEETING

Goodenough, Petras, Kendall and Horak to Serve for Coming Semester in Co-ed Histrionic Group

[illegible] president of Dramatic Club Thursday at [illegible] meeting held in the old Mansfield Chapel. Other officers elected were secretary, Mary Petras '33, treasurer, Mesbora Kendall '33 and chairman of publicity, Marie Horak '34.

[illegible] of the most important of work given to the publicity manager before each play, the club decided it was important enough to be an elected office. The position would be made an office to be known as chairman of publicity.

The retiring officers are Lois Harrington '32, president, Ara Armstrong '33, secretary, and Catherine Woodward '32, treasurer.

[illegible] is a member of the class volleyball team, varsity and class hockey teams. She is a member of the Glee Club, and is on the varsity swimming team. She is a member of the board of Homemakers from the Old Mill. Miss Goodenough is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Mary Petras has been very active in [illegible] during [illegible] and has been a member of hockey, basketball, and baseball three years, and volleyball two years. She was captain of basketball her Senior year, and is captain of hockey this year. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Mesbora Kendall is a member of the Glee Club and has played on various class athletic teams. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Marie Horak has played hockey and basketball two years and volleyball one year. She is a member of Y. W. C. A. and of W. S. A. Among her class numbers Miss Horak belongs to Newman Club and Press Club.

SHARPSHOOTERS NAME BILL BURKE AS CAPTAIN

At a meeting of the University of Vermont rifle team William Burke '33, of Rutland, was elected captain of sharpshooters for the [illegible] year. [illegible] '34 of Burlington, was appointed manager for the coming year. Burke is a consistent high scorer on the team. He also was elected president of the Vermont Rifles. H. Sheldon '33 is vice-president, R. M. Dunsmore '34 is the new treasurer, and [illegible] Johnson '34 the new secretary. Louis J. W. Kullman is the executive officer within the organization. [illegible] '34, Lucille '34.

The following men received letters for their services during the [illegible] season: H. Sheldon '33, W. Gilbert '34, L. Dunham '33, C. L. Parker '33, R. W. [illegible] '34, A. [illegible] '33, E. H. [illegible] '33, S. M. Press '33, manager.

PATTERSON SPEAKS TO ENGINEERS

C. W. Patterson '34 spoke before the U. V. M. chapter of American Institute of Electrical Engineers, March 7 on the "Transmission System."

He was the winner of the Vermont Electric Power Company's prize contest for the best paper on the subject. Patterson explained the importance of transmission and high voltage direct current transmission. He also explained the advantages of the three-wire unit. By illustrating by means of a diagram of a typical electric circuit with vector diagram diagrams. An open forum followed the talk.

Boston University students will have plenty of comebacks at their president, now they have learned of his youthful weaknesses for cheese, onions and green apples.

MORTAR BOARD DANCE TO BE HELD APRIL 15

Mortar Board will hold its second [illegible] dance at the Mansfield [illegible] Friday, April 15 from 9 to 12. Music for the evening will be furnished by Lechner's orchestra. Prof. and Mrs. A. N. Colton will chaperone.

This year the admission has been reduced from $1.25, the former price, to $1.00 per couple. Tickets are now on sale at the Book Store and can also be purchased from the following: Mortar Board girls, Margaret Moser, Helen [illegible], Muriel Aiken, Lilian Mount, [illegible] Miller, and also from the house presidents and [illegible] Converse, Converse Annex, Dana Hall, Home Economics, Cook, Schafer, Campus House, Emily Maslen; Allen House, Lucy Hoge, Robinson Hall, Esther Smith, Redstone, Betty Mosher; [illegible], Margaret Crane, Grassmount, Rose Harlow, Alpha Chi Omega House, Leah Cowen, Pi Beta Phi House, Betty Howe, Kappa Alpha Theta House, Agnes Parsons.

ODDS AND ENDS

We borrow from the Hobart Herald [illegible] Duke University students recently devised their own experiments in psychology. The experiment was to find the average length of time it took a bull session to turn to subjects concerning women. The average time was ten minutes. Their method was to start conversation on any subject except that of women.

In the Boston University News we read: "It looks to this observer as though the powers behind the grid team are at last doing some shopping around for football material, a step which should have been taken long ago."

A food specialist at the U. of M. is [illegible] bean sprouts as a green vegetable, and threatens the popularity of the baked bean with this new vitamin-filled treat.

A complete book on Pre-Volstead recipes was found by a janitor at M. I. T., rummaging among a pile of volumes discarded from the library. The treasure has been placed in the Information Office, where it is serving as a reference text for students of ancient history and chem.

This is what appears on the top of a Haverford College examination books: "N. B.—Students are requested to write on every page i.e., on both sides of each leaf until all the questions have been answered."

Billy Share, a sophomore at Ohio U., was eligible for only one week and during that time broke two college track records. Then he became ineligible for further competition.

Official disapproval was voiced at the University of Washington when a campus organization offered a prize to the man who appeared at a dance clad in the [illegible] part of garb.

The [illegible] Nebraska University states that love is one of the main reasons for freshmen flunking out of college. No particular reason was given for blaming it on the freshmen.

Forty-two states proved [illegible] at the time of Yale. Forty students attended [illegible] while the other twenty men reported to the hospital the next day.

A vote taken at the University of [illegible] shows one cause of the many [illegible] which the students daily observe on their instructors using nail tapers to polish fingernails, sitting [illegible] behind the desk, snapping a rubber band during exams, wearing [illegible] neckties, and breaking pieces of chalk during lectures.

The quickest way to lose your balance is to overdraw your account.

Author's Arena

A Hole in a Stocking

By N. B. C.

While trying to think up a subject for a feature in the CYNIC the other day, I asked a friend to suggest a suitable topic. Apparently not wanting to think about the matter the person replied, "Oh, write about a hole in a stocking." Pleasant suggestion! Well! I came home and began to think about the matter.

'A hole in a stocking.' I had seen times when that was the last thing in the world which I wanted to see or hear about. Now, for want of better material, I had to think about it. 'A hole in a stocking.' What could I write about a mere insignificant thing like that. So I sat hopeless, thinking about nothing—for that's what a hole is, isn't it? I stopped right there—what is a hole in a stocking anyway? Why, it is a place worn out by use, leastwise as regards a stocking. A place worn out by use. That brought a new idea.

I had seen people like that, people worn by use, as it were, like the hole in the stocking. People who had come in contact with the sharp edges of life, people whom fate had not touched lightly, people who did not see what they wanted in life yet struggled on, all these people worn by use. Everyone has seen and known people such as these for we ourselves are like those people. Every day of our life things happen to us which are not mere trifles at least for the time being whether it be scholastic work, achievement of one sort or another, fraternity or what not, these all demand our time, energy, and support if we are alive and wide awake. We are worn by use, and we must face the facts of life.

After having thus mused I came back to my hole in a stocking. What could be done about it? I remembered hearing my mother remark, "Only one thing can be done—and that is to mend it as soon as possible." Oh, I hated to mend stockings. It was not easy, and I could not do it too well. And mother added as she taught me how to darn, "You must mend it on the wrong side so as to make it look smooth and neat on the right side."

Here then, was the thing to do for the hole in a stocking. It must be mended. What about these people worn by use? They too must be made new by some means. The only way this could be effected is identical with the one applied to the stocking—mending. These people—we—must so interweave the thread of friendliness, enthusiasm, faith, courage, and vision, into the lesions of our souls, that the world sees us not worn by use—but with a spirit, vitality and personality, not uncrushed — rather strengthened and made greater by renewal—like the mended stocking.

The freshman class of Bates College has voted to abolish Garnet Key, sophomore honorary. Freshman rules will be under the care of the Student Council. The Council has recommended that the frosh rules either be abolished or drastically reduced.

The reasons for the abolishment of the Garnet Key and for tempering initiation are known to everyone. The convicting charge in the indictment of the Garnet Key is that it has failed miserably. No [illegible] cannot be made to [illegible] and [illegible] members of that society when from the start they are antagonized and opposed by a small group of that society which in the case of freshman initiation, has had least experience in the group, and least right to demand conformity to false and temporary conventions, which in themselves are flippant, puerile, and provocative of ill feelings.

Connecticut Agricultural College wants to change its name. Only one-fifth of its students are taking the Aggie course. President McCracken believes that the change will bring the college a new dignity and a greater place in the educational world than it now holds. The alumni, fourteen hundred strong, are also in favor of the change.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Apr.
14. Spring opera—"Cosi Fan Tutti."
15. Mortar Board dance.
17. Vesper service in Chapel.
18. Research Club.
21. Women's mass meeting.
23. Band.
26. John Dewey Club.
28. Concert.
29. Women's fraternity dances.
30. Founder's Day.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sports Editor—

In view of the commendable record achieved by the baseball team on its annual southern trip, we extend sincere congratulations to the individual members as well as Coach Gardner.

Particularly gratifying was the performance of the new members of the team including Tomassetti, Wesoly, Beckley, Spicer and Farmer, while the work of the veterans was of the same high calibre as of the past.

The prompt and efficient action of the honorary societies in assuring the southern trip, has obviously borne fruit.

Spring football, under Coaches Burke and Sutton got away to an encouraging start yesterday afternoon, when a large group of candidates met for preliminary instructions at the gymnasium.

The Easter vacation has brought interesting news from the Columbia campus, where Reed Harris, editor-in-chief of the Spectator, has been expelled from this honorable institution as a climax to his attack on the existing athletic conditions.

Like so many other impassioned reformers, Mr. Harris cast forethought and discretion to the winds, in his serious indictment.

Freshman rules, dirty politics, cut systems and compulsory military training are all popular campaign platforms, but Mr. Harris departed from tradition in bringing charges of professionalism against the present athletic policy at Columbia.

As were his charges severe, so was the punishment meted out to him. In conclusion it is no doubt befitting to add that it is a mark of intelligence to profit by the mistakes of others.

JUNIOR GIRL PLEDGED TO NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Ethel Bishop '33, of Springfield, Vt., has recently been pledged to Omicron Nu, the national honorary home economics society. Members are chosen to Omicron Nu on the basis of scholarship, college spirit and promise of future attainment. Lois Harrington '32 and Helen Le Baron '32 are the two active members of the society in college. Miss Bertha Terrill, [illegible] Home Economics, Miss Florence Eaton, Miss Alice Blundell, and Miss Viola Lothrop, of the College of Agriculture, are also members of this honorary society.

A Chicago surgeon speaking before the American College of Surgeons Convention in Pittsburgh stated that college football, boxing and basketball, are doing irreparable damage to students physically. He said that modern youth are living too fast, staying out too late at night, drink too much bad liquor and must slow its pace considerably if it expects to attain a ripe old age.

It grows more obvious every day that the people who claim the world needs a new religion are those who haven't tried the old one yet.

CO-EDS WILL DEBATE AT MIDDLEBURY TOMORROW

To Uphold Negative of Capitalism Question in Decision Tilt

Tomorrow three members of the women's debating team [illegible] to Middlebury where they will [illegible] Middlebury College women's [illegible] Vermont will argue the negative of the question, "Resolved That Capitalism Has Proven A Failure." A decision will be given and the Oxford style of debate will be used.

March 24, a team composed of Louise Johnson '33, Roberta Powers '33, and Sophie Levin '33 met representatives of Bates College in Lewiston, Maine, on the question, "Resolved that Legal Censorship of Books, Plays, Magazines and Movies should be abolished." They upheld the affirmative with the Misses Rebecca Carter, Helen Hamlin and Lucy Perrigo speaking for the Maine College. The debate was a formal one and the Oxford style was used. Mrs. [illegible] W. Roberts of Bates College was the chairman and no decision was rendered.

Saturday, April 9 a Vermont team composed of Helen Cook '34 and Virginia Goodenough '33 lost a decision to a group from St. Lawrence College in the Fleming Museum. The Green and Gold defended the negative side of the question, "Resolved That Capitalism Has Proven A Failure." The Oxford style was used.

Plans are now being completed for a debate between the freshman and [illegible] more women for possession of the Carleton cup. A debate between the Vermont freshmen and the first year women at Middlebury is also being arranged.

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE

(Continued from page 1)

Thursday a.m., June 2: General E. E., German 1, German 2, German 4, Junior A. C., Power Stations.

Thursday p.m., June 2: French 8, History 4, History 5 (English), Home Economics 12, Home Economics 61 (T. Tr.), Machine Drawing (Mechanism), Music 1 (Appreciation), Philos. 109, Social Ethics (Philos 31), Stock Feeding.

Friday a.m., June 3: Arith. Methods (T. Tr.), Chemistry 9, Chemistry 29, Chemistry 111, Economics 1, English 20, Economics 61, Music 5 (Counterpoint).

Friday p.m., June 3: Economics 2, English 7, Greek 1, History 11, Philos. 5 (History), Philos. 109 (Metaphysics), Public School Music 2 (T. Tr.).

Saturday a.m., June 4: Chemistry 1, Chemistry 15, Chemistry 21, Chemistry 22, Chemistry 23, Economics 63, Education 4, French 106, Geography (T. Tr.), Greek 0, Sociology, Special Methods (T. Tr.).

Monday a.m., June 6: French 1, French 3, French 4, French 113.

Monday p.m., June 6: Economics 5, Education 5, History 7, Pol. Sci. 104, Pol. Sci. 111.

Tuesday a.m., June 7: Botany 2, Botany 3, Economics 11, Education 6, English 6 (Shakespeare), Geology 1, Geology 1a (T. Tr.), History 8.

Tuesday p.m., June 7: Botany 7 (Seed Embry.), Botany 8 (Plant), Children's Lit. (T. Tr.), Economics 2, Educational Measurements, Elect. Engr., Latin 106 (Virgil), Pol. Sci. 6, Psychology 106 (Experimental).

Wednesday a.m., June 8: Elements of E. E., Heating & Ventilation, Psychology 1, Psychology 2 (Applied), Psychology 7 (Aesthetics), Senior A. C.

Wednesday p.m., June 8: Economics 7, Economics 12, English Methods (T. Tr.), Philos. 2 (Ethics), Zoology 3 (Home Ec.).

Thursday a.m., June 9: Farm Mechanics, History (T. Tr.), Spanish 1, Spanish 2, Spanish 3.

Thursday p.m., June 9: Botany 4 (Plant Physiology), Chemistry 104, Economics 8, Economics 20, Economics 58, Greek 2, History 1 (Ancient), Music 3 (Elem. Harmony), Reading Methods (T. Tr.), Zoology 7 (Embryology).

Friday a.m., June 10: Horticulture, Latin B, Latin 1, Latin 2, Latin 4 (Methods), Latin 16 (Dorace), Mechanics, Public School Music (T. Tr.), Soils & Soils Mgt. 1, Zoology 1 (Pre-Medic).

Friday p.m., June 10: Pol. Sci. 1.

Saturday a.m., June 11: Chemistry 60, French 112, Geology 5, History Intro. to Ed. (T. Tr.), Pol. Sci. 2, Zoology 2.

Saturday p.m., June 11: Home Economics 1, Junior I.

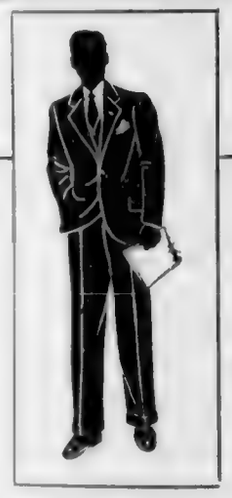
SHARPSHOOTERS DROP TWO WEEKLY MATCHES

The University of Vermont [illegible] has received results of two [illegible] graphic matches with John Hopkins University and Georgetown University [illegible] were fired before vacation started. The Green and Gold sharpshooters were unfortunate and found themselves [illegible] both of the other colleges. Hopkins' aggregate score was 1,773 to Vermont's 1,745. Hopkins' 1,835 and Georgetown's 1,800. Vermont's individual scores were Shelton 350, Gilbert 350, Park 346, Donahue 345, Burke 344. Both Gilbert and Shelton shot perfect prone targets.

SPORTS NEWS

COURT QUINTET BETTER THAN LAST YEAR'S TEAM ACCORDING TO RECORDS

Opponents Have Scored Only Nine Points More Than the Green and Gold Basketeers



TUPPER AND TAFT LEAD IN INDIVIDUAL SCORING

Much Excellent Material on Horizon for Next Season's Basketball Outfit

[illegible] the record of six games won [illegible] lost does not sound so [illegible] the 1931-1932 Vermont [illegible] really did a much better [illegible] year. In the first place [illegible] team only won four games, [illegible] while in the second place, [illegible] opponents only scored nine [illegible] in fifteen games than the [illegible] This indicates that the [illegible] were generally close. Vermont's [illegible] victory was when they [illegible] Boston University 34-19, almost [illegible] U.'s score. On the other [illegible] Catamounts lost to Middlebury [illegible] score when something went [illegible] with the team. The distance [illegible] the scores in all the other [illegible] was not over six baskets.

[illegible] Tupper, veteran forward, play- [illegible] his last year for Vermont, led the [illegible] scoring honors with 77 points, [illegible] Chet Taft was runner-up. Johnny [illegible] the big sophomore find, was [illegible] with 59 points. Captain Hank [illegible] and Ed Saba were forced to re- [illegible] from the team at mid-years, which [illegible] their chances at scoring honors, [illegible] both placed well upon the list. [illegible] Grant, who only played in the last [illegible] games, also showed up very well. [illegible] only three men graduating this [illegible] and with Coach Burke remaining [illegible] with the team next year, the [illegible] for the 1932-33 season are ex- [illegible] bright. There are also many [illegible] performers to be gleaned from [illegible] ranks of this year's frosh: Palmer, [illegible] Skodinski, and Fiske, to men-

(Continued on page 6)

Polo Coats

The season's most remarkable Sport Coat. They come in the most appealing lines.

They fit both the pocketbook and the personality.

TURKS of Burlington

156-158 College Street

SCHMARR NAMED FROSH CAPTAIN BY BASKETEERS

The numeral men of the freshman basketball team elected Hermie Schmarr of New Britain, Conn. as their captain. Although Schmarr went under warning after mid-years, the Kitten basketeers made their choice, because he was the outstanding player of the squad in the game in which he did play. The old Vermont Academy star played fine basketball during the season. His guarding was instrumental in winning many of the tough games on the yearling schedule. He was also tied with Skodinski and Palmer for the average number of points per game at 6.1 tallies. "Hermie" was the leading scorer on the strong Kitten football team and is now practicing hard for a position on the yearling nine.

ON MONDAY FOOTBALL CANDIDATES TO MEET FOR SPRING TRAINING

Football Must not Interfere With Track or Baseball Stresses Coach Burke in General Call

FORTY-EIGHT GRIDIRON MEN HAVE SIGNED UP

Six-week Preliminary Session Sets Precedent for Vermont Football History—Actual Practice Wednesday

"I want only those men who are not interested in other sports to come out next Monday for spring football," stated Coach John Burke. "All men in college who are interested in football or have played before should by all means come out for the preliminary training which will be given in the next six weeks."

For the first time in the history of the University of Vermont football, has such a lot of time and interest been devoted to gridiron tactics. Prior to this year, only two weeks of loosening up exercises were given in the spring and in this time there was no real training gained. With the advent of John Burke to the head of the coaching staff of the varsity Catamount football staff, real interest has been aroused in the annual major fall sport. Paul Crehan, who will assist the members of the coaching staff in the line developing, will appear on the scene of action on the third week of spring training.

The first practice will be held Wednesday afternoon when preliminary conditioning will begin. Uniforms will be issued this Monday at the general meeting of football aspirants. The first two weeks will be devoted entirely to what is termed the non-contact fundamentals. The third week will include live fundamentals. Then for ten days initial signals drill, combined with the knowledge of the plays will take place. Following this the spring training will be concluded by two regulation games, which will not only give the players and spectators a chance to the new plays and tactics run through, but will give the student body a chance to become interested in the doings of the team.

The primary purpose in the spring training is not only to start conditioning the players, but to impart confidence to those who are new to the game. Many of the men who intend to come out for football are at present engaged in some other line of sport, such as baseball, track or tennis. Spring training is most emphatically not for these men. Coach Burke stresses the fact that spring football should not interfere with the other sports.

The following men have signed up for spring practice: Behringer '35, Cummings '35, Piette '35, Drown '34, Rome '34, Stratton '35, Winters '34, Patnode '35, Moore '35, Johnson '35, Sokolov '33, Galvin '34, Greenan '34, Cass '34, Powell, Rapuano '33, F. E. Douglas '35, Silverstein '34, F. Douglass '33, Green '35, Tolman '35, Lazarus '35, Finks '34, Pond '34, Brosseau '34, McCrea '35, Saxton '35, Howard '34, Ricker '34, Berry '34, Ghillani '34, Logan '34, Hale '35, Haskell '33, Cross '34, Hill '35, Fiske '35, Sowka '34, Valerio '34, Selib '34, Press '33, Blodgett '33, Rust '34, Park '35, Beardsley '35, Wood '33, Cohen '35, Daigle '34.

A straw vote poll taken by the Des Moines Register and Tribune at Columbia College showed the political preferences of the students at the institution. Al Smith received 208 votes for presidential preference followed by Franklin Roosevelt with 64, Albert Ritchie with 44, William Murray with 24, Herbert Hoover with 3, and Owen D. Young with 2. In regard to prohibition nine votes were cast for maintenance, 230 for repeal, and 228 for light wines and beer

WEALTH OF MATERIAL FIGHTING FOR PLACES ON YEARLING INFIELD

Three Complete Infields on Hand, With Four Entire Batteries From Which Newton May Pick

FIELD PRACTICE BEGINS WHEN GROUND PERMITS

Three More Games Scheduled on This Season's List Than on Last Year's Schedule According to Manager Cobb

Forty frosh have reported for baseball since Doc Newton issued his general call for candidates Tuesday afternoon. Coach Newton says that the material is the best he has ever seen, not only in baseball ability, but also in desire to learn and willingness to cooperate. "Prospects are better than ever," he said when interviewed.

The team begins a heavy schedule here April 30 against Montpelier Seminary. There are three games more this year than on last year's program. The list arranged by Manager Cobb is as follows:

Apr. 30	Montpelier Seminary	Here
May 5	Dartmouth '35	There
May 6	Clark School	There
May 12	Troy Conference Academy	Here
May 16	Montpelier Seminary	There
May 17	Clark School	Here
May 20	Dartmouth '35	Here
May 27	Troy Conference Academy	There

Out of the wealth of material that has presented itself Coach Newton has selected three complete infields all equally balanced.

The first sackers are Hermie Schmarr of New Britain, Conn., basketball star and high scorer on last year's frosh gird team; Whitey Palmer of Burlington, high scoring guard of the Kitten hoopsters, and Ed Skodinski of Amsterdam, N. Y., another star on this winter's frosh quintet. Skodinski is the only southpaw candidate.

The outstanding keystone contenders are Bobby Burns of Woburn, Mass., considered the best second baseman in Greater Boston last year; Pete Joly of Burlington and Cathedral High, an outstanding second baseman in Vermont last year; M. A. Patch of Windsor is also showing up well at second.

There are also three experienced men fighting for the hot corner position. Freddy Lanahan of Rutland, speedy quarterback of the championship frosh grid team, is fighting against Enos Ramon of Barre, and Roly Delfausse of Rockville Center, L. I., N. Y., hoop and grid star, for the coveted third base post.

Last but not least are the shortstops: Chris Meligonis, star Kitten hoopster and member of the pony backfield is competing with Don Rock of Barre, another Kitten hoopster, and Buster Garret of Enosburg Falls for this position.

While there are three infields, there are four batteries to pick from. The hurlers are Ray Collins, Jr. of Colchester, son of the former Red Sox pitcher, and Hammy Carlson of Brookline, Mass., and Newfield Prep. Ed Skodinski, a portsider and also a first baseman is slated for mound duty as is also Eddie Swartz of Marlboro, Mass., a former St. Anslem's star.

The four receivers are: Gordon Sheehe of Newport, Bill Skinner of Bethel, Ted White of Boston, Mass., and Herb Holley of Hartford, Conn.

Coach Newton has not selected any outfielders yet as the men have not got out of the cage. Red Bent of Gardner, Mass., George MacDonald of Detroit, Mich., and John Mahoney of Burlington are prospective gardners and Coach Newton says that some of the infielders who are too good to leave out of the batting order may be converted to the outfield.

Other men who have reported are: Bob DuPlessis of Meriden, Conn.; Bob Gay of Bethel; Art Hardin of Northfield; J. L. Kingsland of New York City; Jim Libby of Richmond Hill, N. Y.; J. E. Mahoney of Springfield, Mass.; Bill Morgan of Roxbury; J. Pogar of West Pawlet; Carl Saxton of New London, Conn.; John Simonds of Gardner, Mass.; F. W. Squires of Charlotte; Kem Whalen of Burlington; Dick Woodard of Hyde Park; Bill Starbuck of Springfield, Mass.; Dick Barber of Glens Falls, N. Y.; Tony Nevulis of New Britain, Conn.; Bill Toomey of Royalton; Jim Burdett of Whitehall, N. Y.

Ray Cobb '32 of Bennington is managing the team.

And said a professor one sweet, smiling day: "If you fellows want to ask any questions you better ask them now for you probably know what you don't understand better than I do."

Batwielders Perform Well On Annual Southern Tour

Effective Manner in Which Team Played Reflects Much Credit to Admirable Handling of Nine by Coach Larry Gardner

By Sabin Abell
Graduate Manager of Athletics

The Green and Gold baseball team has completed the first phase of their 1932 diamond season. On the southern trip the baseball men performed in a fine manner, which reflects much credit to the admirable handling of the team by Larry Gardner, the coach. During the invasion of the southland, the team won two games, lost six and did not play two games because of weather conditions. All the games with the exception of the Manhattan and Seton Hall contests were closely and hard fought. Many games were dropped in the ninth inning despite the intense fighting spirit of the Catamount nine.

Rutkowski pitched great ball in every game, allowing a total of thirty-four hits in four hard-fought games, including a thirteen-inning game with Rutgers, a pitching duel with Princeton, a loss to William and Mary and a win over Navy. Winant, the versatile "Eddie," led the way at the bat. The game with the Medical College of Virginia was called off on account of wet grounds. The University of Delaware game was cancelled because of rain.

William and Mary 2—Vermont 0

The University of Vermont baseball team opened their 1932 season by playing mid-season ball, and losing a close contest to William and Mary at Williamsburg, although outhitting their opponents six to 4. Christensen hit a fly to left field and was safe at first, when Wesoly was unable to snarl the ball out of a cloud of dust which swept the field, and came home on LaCroix's home run. Three William and Mary pitchers kept the Vermont hits well scattered, not allowing more than one in any inning. Rutkowski pitched very effectively, allowing only two hits in the first seven innings. In the field, McKay had a nice day, accepting eight chances with one error. Frankie Pires started the season off with hits in his first two trips to the plate, and McKay was the only other player on either team to hit safely twice.

University of Richmond 7—Vermont 6

Johnnie Beckley, pitching his first varsity baseball game, limited his opponents to six hits while his teammates were collecting nine, but costly errors enabled Richmond to win over Vermont. At the end of the sixth inning it looked bad for Vermont when the score was 6 to 1 against them, however they went out and scored three runs in the first of the seventh on four bases on balls and McKay's single. With this encouragement, Tomassetti first up in the eighth singled to center field, and Orrie Jay hit one of those long home runs between left and center field tying the game up at six all. Rutkowski playing left field and first up in the ninth hit for three bases, but Taylor bore down and retired the next three men in order. Beckley retired the first twelve men to face him in one, two, three order.

Navy 8—Vermont 9

Vermont landed hard on two Navy pitchers to win over Navy in a free-hitting contest featured by the good stickwork of Rutkowski and Winant, Chet securing four out of five including a double and Edding getting three out of five including a triple.

The winning runs were scored when Jay first up in the fourth was hit by a pitched ball, Pires walked and Winant tripled scoring Jay and Pires. Winant scored a moment later on Rutkowski's single to right field. The last run was made when Chet was safe on an error, advanced to second and third on long fly's to right and center field by Wesoly and McKay, and came home on Macomber's single.

Macomber secured two hits and accepted eight difficult chances without an error. Andy Wesoly made a circus catch of Hurley's long fly when he started up a bank, fell backwards and caught the ball sitting for the third out.

The score:

UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

	a.b.	r.	b.h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Jay, c.f.	4	1	1	1	0	0
Pires, s.s.	4	2	1	1	3	1
Winant, 1b.	5	2	3	11	0	0
Rutkowski, p.	5	2	4	2	3	0
Winant, 1b.	5	2	3	11	0	0
McKay, 3b.	4	1	1	0	2	0
Macomber, 2b.	5	0	2	3	5	0
Collins, r.f.	5	1	1	0	0	0
Tomassetti, c.	5	0	0	6	1	0
Totals	40	9	13	27	14	1

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Vermont	0	2	3	3	0	1	0	0	0
Navy	3	0	4	0	0	0	1	0	0

Lehigh 7—Vermont 9

Five runs in the third inning, when Vermont drove Layton from the mound gave the Green and Gold a lead which Lehigh was unable to overcome. Glick who replaced him was not treated much better as four more runs were scored in the fourth, seventh, eighth and ninth innings.

Spud Farmer allowed but one hit in the first five innings, but ran into difficulty in the sixth when his control went bad, and was replaced by Spicer who let his opponents down with two hits for the remainder of the game.

Tom Collins with three hits led the Vermont attack while Jay, Winant, and McKay each collected two. In the field, Winant featured by accepting fourteen chances at first base without error.

The score:

UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

	a.b.	r.	b.h.	p.o.	a.	e.
Jay, c.f.	4	3	2	1	0	0
Pires, s.s.	3	0	0	2	2	1
Winant, 1b.	4	1	2	13	1	0
Wesoly, l.f.	4	1	0	1	0	0
McKay, 3b.	4	1	2	0	0	0
Macomber, 2b.	5	1	1	2	6	0
Collins, r.f.	5	1	3	2	0	2
Tomassetti, c.	5	0	0	5	1	1
Farmer, p.	2	1	1	1	3	1
Spicer, p.	2	0	1	0	3	0
Totals	38	9	12	27	16	5

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Vermont	0	0	5	1	0	0	1	1	1
Lehigh	0	0	0	0	0	5	0	0	2

Princeton 6—Vermont 5

A ninth inning rally by Vermont stopped just short of overcoming Princeton in a pitchers battle between Chet Rutkowski and Archer. Wesoly first up grounded out to first base, McKay drew

(Continued on page 6)

Sport Shoes---

We're showing a large line of Sport Shoes in prices ranging from

$5.00 to $7.00

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.

127 Church Street

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

BATWIELDERS PERFORM WELL ON SOUTHERN TOUR

(Continued from page 5)

Manhattan 17 Vermont 1

Seton Hall 18—Vermont 4

Rutgers 5—Vermont 4

WOMEN ATHLETES TO HAVE FINE QUARTERS AT COMING OLYMPICS

FOUR FENCING LETTERS AWARDED TO FOILSMEN

The fencing team although not successful this season has completed a short but full schedule. The men who earned their letters as swordsmen were Capt. H. [illegible] '33 Med., C. C. Kaufmann '35 Med., J. J. Bugbee '35 Med. and Mgr. C. H. Burrows '34. Next year's outlook seems to be very dark with only Utley '33 and Burrows '34 remaining to wear the foils.

The results of the schedule:

		For	Opp.
Feb. 7	McGill	4	21
Feb. 13	Norwich	6	14
Feb. 27	Norwich	6	14

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP RECEIVED BY LAATSCH

Melvin H. Laatsch, instructor in political science has been awarded the Travelers Fellowship in International Law and Relations at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. This is the first time that this research fellowship has ever been awarded to an instructor at Vermont.

The award given only to teachers of international relations, carries with it the privilege of studying, for a year, at any university in America or Europe. Mr. Laatsch has decided to study at Princeton, beginning next September. He will remain there during the scholastic year 1932-33.

Mr. Laatsch's home is in Birmingham, Ala. He graduated from Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pa., in 1926, making Phi Beta Kappa in his junior year and was also valedictorian. He took his Master's degree here in 1928 and has been teaching international relations at Vermont since that time. Mr. [illegible] specialty is Latin-American relations and he expects to concentrate on that subject at Princeton next year.

Cashier: You say Dr. Okay to lend the freshman a dollar?

Representative from Washoe County: Sure. He's so honest he never even owes anybody an apology.

—our very own.

LIVE in FRENCH

Residential Summer School (co-educational) [illegible] Inclusive Elementary, Intermediate Advanced. Write for circular to Secretary, Residential French Summer School

McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL, CANADA

8-22

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
NEW YORK

CO-EDUCATIONAL

College Graduate or Two Years of College Work with Good Grades Required

[illegible]

STETSON, LIBBY, EATON HOLD IMPORTANT ROLES

(Continued from page 1)

COURT QUINTET BETTERS LAST YEAR'S TEAM

(Continued from page 5)

	[illegible]	17	23
	[illegible]	34	39
	St. Michael's	31	23
	Norwich	12	16
13	Mass. State	19	13
	Middlebury	27	32
	Tufts	20	40
20	Boston U.	32	8
23	Norwich	32	20
27	Middlebury	22	33
27	New Hampshire	30	26
March 5
2	St. Michael's	18	17
	Total	358	367

KEY AND SERPENT DANCE OPENS SPRING SEASON

The Key and Serpent dance, which was the first social event of the spring season was held last Saturday evening, April 9 at the U. V. M. Gymnasium. There was dancing from 8 to 12 to music by the "Cunarders." Doctor and Mrs. Brown chaperoned.

J. E. Wood '33 was the chairman of the committee in charge, and he was assisted by P. P. Fischer '33 and W. J. Burke '33.

CO-ED VARSITY MEMBERS ANNOUNCED AT BANQUET

[illegible] was central campus [illegible] and Thursday evening [illegible] at Delectores Hall for [illegible] basketball teams. [illegible] the varsity basketball [illegible] Those are Mary [illegible] and Margaret Wellinger '34 [illegible] Marie Mangone '35 and Ara [illegible] Helen Begg '34 [illegible] and Mary Lowell '33 side center.

The tables were prettily [illegible] with [illegible] and pineapple [illegible] [illegible] was served [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1932 | NUMBER 47

YLVIA BOYD ELECTED PRESIDENT OF WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

aft, Durick, Jenkins, Odell, Perry and Morris Have Important Roles to Fulfill for Next Year

LL MEMBERS ARE WELL KNOWN IN CAMPUS LIFE

stallation to Take Place on April 25 at Fleming Museum

[illegible] '33 of West Newton, [illegible] was elected to the highest office [illegible] organizations, that of president [illegible] Women's Student Union. Miss [illegible] a member of Alpha Xi Delta is prominent in campus activities. She belongs to Eta Sigma Phi; the Dramatic Club, Masque and Sandal and to the Women's Glee Club. This year she was president of Y. W. C. A. and was women's business manager of the Ariel. She has been active in debating; during her sophomore year she was on the class debating team and is now a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary forensic society. Each year she has been on the Dean's honor list. She has in addition taken several important parts in college dramatic productions.

Miss [illegible]'s new chief-justice is Caroline Taft [illegible] Wallingford. Miss Taft has been [illegible] counselor for three years and was secretary of her class her freshman year. She was corresponding-secretary of Y. W. C. A. her sophomore year; this year she was vice-president of W. A. A. She is on the varsity debating team and has won the Butler debating prize. Miss Taft is business manager of the Women's [illegible] belongs to Pan-Hellenic and Panhellenic councils. Miss Taft is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

[illegible] Durick '33 was elected first vice-president. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta, of W. A. A. and Y. W. C. A. Miss Durick is class vice-president this year and is now vice-president of the Cynic Club. She has served on the Student Union Council and on several [illegible] committees.

The second vice-president will be Helen [illegible]. She is a member of the class of '34 and of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. She belongs to W. A. A., Y. W. C. A. and to the Women's Glee Club. Miss [illegible] was business manager of the [illegible] opera last year and is on the Junior Council.

[illegible] Odell '33, secretary-elect, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Miss Odell has served on the house committee on the point system, the Sophomore Hop Committee and the Junior Week Committee. She was social chairman of Student Union and was chairman of the winter carnival her sophomore year. She was vice-president of her class her freshman year. This year Miss Odell has been in both the plays and the operas.

[illegible] Perry '33 will be treasurer. Miss Perry is a Pi Beta Phi, holds many offices on the campus. Her sophomore year she was a member of the choir, the orchestra, the Dramatic Club and the Health Council. She was on the Cynic staff and played on her basketball and baseball teams. At present she is assistant manager of debate, a grind editor on the Cynic board, a member of W. A. A. and Masque and also Bluestockings. She is on the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. The Health Council chairman will be [illegible] '34, who belongs to Kappa Alpha Theta. Miss Morris was chairman of the Social Service Committee, a member of the women's rifle team and also on the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet and W. A. A.

LECTURE ON DINOSAURS TO BE GIVEN SATURDAY

[illegible] afternoon at 2 o'clock, all [illegible] will meet at the museum [illegible] on dinosaurs. The purpose [illegible] them with the animals [illegible] they attend the movie [illegible] which will be shown [illegible] students on the following [illegible] at 10.30 a.m., and at 4

ROSS ELECTED CYNIC CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

[illegible] meeting of the Cynic [illegible] '34 was elected to the [illegible] editor upon the [illegible] of the editor-in-chief [illegible] was accepted. A motion [illegible] constitution committee was [illegible]

AGNES PARSONS '32
Retiring chief justice of Student Union

FRAT POLITICS GROUP CONTINUES ACTION AT MEETING LAST TUESDAY

Subcommittees Elected to Investigate Various Problems Involved

The Political Investigation Committee, instigated by Mortar Board, swung into action Tuesday night for the first time after the holidays. The committee, consisting of A. O. Eaton, F. R. Gorman, H. L. Woodard, H. M. Albert, S. Z. Pelofsky, J. E. Bigelow, R. W. Cobb, Janet Miller and Roberta Powers, was elected at a meeting of the various fraternities held recently under the sponsorship of Mortar Board. All the members are seniors with the exception of Bigelow who is a junior.

All the members were present at the organization meeting with the exception of Miss Powers who delegated Vivian Hubbard to act in her stead.

Four sub-committees were unanimously elected to study each of the four problems which the committee was formed to investigate. Raymond Cobb and Janet Miller agreed to conduct the investigation of systems for Ariel elections. Allen Eaton and Harry Albert volunteered to study plans for the appointments of athletic managers. James Bigelow and Roberta Powers are conducting the probe into the Kake Walk directors' elections. The most popular committee, that which is looking into the matter of class elections, has three members H. L. Woodard, S. Z. Pelofsky, and F. R. Gorman.

The investigation is being conducted by correspondence with other colleges, with the view to determining the best election system rather than a mere muck raking at home.

The desire to eliminate the worst features of fraternity politics has long been felt on the campus, and it is hoped that the reports will be ready by the first of May. Since practically all of the members are seniors it is necessary that the matter be brought to some sort of completion this spring. In order for the recommendations of the organization to go into effect, they will have to be voted on by every fraternity. Another meeting of the committee is scheduled for next Tuesday, the nineteenth.

PLAYERS FAMILIARIZING THEMSELVES WITH ROLES

Prof. John T. Metcalf, coach of this year's Junior Week Play, has already called four rehearsals of "Hay Fever." The work is taking form under his direction, and the various players are familiarizing themselves with their rôles preparatory to assuming them. Noel Coward has written this play as a contrast between utter unconventionality and ordinary, matter-of-fact living, and has worked with the proposition that as long as the audience will fail to appreciate some of his witticisms, he might as well fill his drama with humorous situations of which some will merit a large response. There is a laugh for every other speech.

Professor Metcalf recently broke his ankle on an icy sidewalk, and as a consequence of his coaching both the opera and the spring play, is making rapid progress in the art of crutch manipulation

ARMSTRONG, HOYT AND TOWER ELECTED TO BE 1933 W. A. A. OFFICERS

New Heads Have Participated in Athletics Since Their Freshman Year

MANY ACTIVITIES LISTED TO CREDIT OF OFFICERS

System of Points in Winning Awards Is Made Known to Rest of Student Body

W. A. A. will be headed this year by Ara Armstrong, a member of the class of '33. Miss Armstrong, who is a member of Alpha Xi Delta, is very active in athletics, having been on the varsity hockey team for three years, the varsity volleyball team for three years and the class basketball and baseball teams. She has been a member of Press Club for two years, Dramatic Club for two years, secretary of Dramatic Club for the coming year, and women's sport editor of the Ariel. The rest of Miss Armstrong's honors consist of the following: Student faculty (3), vice president of class (3), chairman of refreshments in Junior Week, W. A. A. Council (1, 2), and the Dean's list for three years.

The new vice-president of W. A. A. is Alice Hoyt of the class of '34. Miss Hoyt is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, Bluestockings and Y. W. C. A. She has also been on two W. A. A. councils for two years and on the volleyball team. Recently she was elected president of the Outing Club.

The new recording secretary is Peg Tower, a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Miss Tower is a women's editor of Ariel and is on the Faculty Student Council. She has also been very active in athletics, having been on the basketball team for two years.

The corresponding secretary is Sue France '35. Miss France has been very active in athletics, having participated in basketball, hockey, tennis and bowling. She was recently elected secretary of Y. W. C. A.

The new treasurer recently elected is Betty Woodward '34. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta, Press Club, Y. W. C. A. and Dramatic Club.

The new publicity manager is Ruth

(Continued on page 4)

HANDBOOK TO BE READY BY JUNE SAYS EDITOR

Camp Director to Make Camp Interesting—V. C. A. Has Many Broad Interests

"All freshmen and sophomores who wish to scrub the Frosh Handbook report to me as soon as possible" announced Jack Libby '34, newly elected editor-in-chief of the 1936 Freshman Handbook, in a Cynic reporter's interview. "Work will commence at once. The two scrubs who turn in the best work will attain assistant editorships in June. The book should be in the hands of the printer before vacation begins."

No major changes will be made this year from last year's book. Libby expressed the opinion that if a man is interested in different phases of college activities, he may write them up for the handbook. Any person who so desires should communicate with him at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

Irving Lisman '34, the new business manager, intends to cooperate with the editor in the making of the freshman book. The purpose of the book is to introduce the newcomers to college life. It is sent out under the auspices of the Vermont Christian Association to all incoming frosh.

Chet Eaton '34, the new director of the frosh camp, who succeeds Stan Carter '33, has many interesting ideas in mind. "In order to make camp as interesting as possible, I intend to invite some interesting speakers to address the incoming freshman. Freshman Camp is one of the finest institutions the V. C. A. has, and I will endeavor to continue the reputation," stated Chet.

Stan Carter '33 is the new director of entertainment. His plans in regard to the future may be summed up in his own words. "The Freshman Mixer will be held, as in former years, on the first Friday night after the opening of college. This year we hope to reinstate the Freshman Banquet, which was omitted in the past year. The Thanksgiving Dance will be held as formerly.

Junior Week Queen To Be Elected At Prom In May

New System is of Better Nature Than last Year's Method—Cynic Sponsoring Contest

JANICE DAVIS '31
Junior Week Queen and winner of Cynic Beauty Contest last year.

Again this year, as in 1931, the Vermont Cynic, in conjunction with the Junior Week Committees, will sponsor a beauty contest open to all co-eds to determine Queen of Junior Week. This year the most beautiful young lady will not be determined by a popular campus vote and judges' decision as was the case last year but will be chosen at the Junior Prom itself by those present. Prom tickets will have attached ballots which will be collected early in the evening of the night of the Promenade. The winner will be announced during intermission and presented with the Cynic Cup for the Queen of Junior Week.

The winner is to be selected in accordance with a definite system of voting, the details of which will be announced later. Any young lady at the Promenade will be eligible, irrespective of class. Selection is to be based on beauty, charm, and personality. The new method of choosing the most beautiful co-ed is superior to that of last year because only students interested in the Prom will be able to vote for its Queen.

(Continued on page 6)

DEBATERS RETURN FROM ANNUAL FORENSIC JAUNT WITH ENVIABLE RECORD

Six Victories, No Defeats and Five No-decision Debates are the Results of the Trip

WEST AND SOUTH VISITED AS 4,350 MILES COVERED

The varsity forensians, undefeated on their 4,350-mile tour of the West and South returned home Sunday bringing with them the scalps of six unfortunate colleges. Five other institutions were met in no decision contests. M. D. Powers, coach of debate, stated that this year's team has won more debates and conducted a more successful season than any past Vermont team.

The members of the quartet which made this enviable record are: P. J. LaCross '32, R. Peardon Donaghy '33, J. E. Bigelow '33, and R. E. McCuin '34.

The medium of transportation was McCuin's car; about 400 gallons of gasoline and 75 quarts of oil were consumed on the trip. Sixteen tire failures were reported, and the team finally devised a system of division of labor which reduced the time spent to 1¼ minutes per tire. Donaghy jacked up the car; McCuin removed the old tire while Bigelow prepared the spare for commission. LaCross supervised the proceedings.

The team left Burlington, Friday, March 25, driving to Niagara Falls the same day. They stayed over night at the Niagara Falls Hotel and then journeyed to Detroit. Unfortunately, through a misunderstanding in dates, the debate with the College of the City of Detroit had to be cancelled. Chicago was the port of call Sunday, but no casualties were reported. Monday morning the Vermont representatives left for Lake Forest, Ill. That night Lake Forest went down to defeat on the capitalism question. After staying over night at fraternity houses, the boys left for Dubuque, Iowa, where Columbia College was met. "Veni, Vidi, or Vinci" can be applied to the Columbia College fray. The team drove all that night to Columbus, Ohio, a jaunt of some 600 miles. Wednesday night Ohio State University was met in a no decision encounter.

The next day the team hopped off for Lexington, Kentucky where a critic judge decision was easily gained from Transylvania College. The quartet stayed over night at the college dormitory and

(Continued on page 4)

MORIZE TO LECTURE AT MUSEUM TOMORROW

Another lecture in the series being given by the Alliance Française will be delivered by M. Andre Morize at the Fleming Museum Saturday evening, April 16. M. Morize's subject will be "La France devant le Monde Moderne." He is a professor of French at Harvard University and teaches French at the Middlebury Summer Session. The lecture is sponsored by the local chapter of the Alliance Française, of which Mrs. P. D. Evans is president.

BATTALION PREPARING FOR ANNUAL INSPECTION WHICH IS MONTH AWAY

With the advent of spring to the University of Vermont comes the grooming and the perfecting of the appearance of the R. O. T. C. battalion, which will perform at Federal Inspection held during Junior Week on May 17 and 18. For the sophomores and the freshmen and the officers there will be no school, but the time will be occupied by maneuvers, drill and contests.

At the present time the various companies and the band are making an earnest effort to cop the American Legion Trophy which will be presented at the Inspection, to the company which has had the best record for drill beginning on March 14. Attendance and promptness at weekly drills will make up ten points towards the trophy, while the performances of the different companies during the year will count fifty points. The inspection by the officers at the annual Inspection will complete the number of points with forty. Last year and the year before, Company "D," the midget company of the battalion won the trophy. With the changed order of the companies this year it is anybody's cup.

At Federal Inspection, the Reserve Officers Cup will be presented to the fraternity which puts on the best drill squad. Last year as in the two previous years, the Delta Psi squad composed only of sophomores and freshmen won the cup. Many trick drills and difficult formations are put on at this time. Last year one of the groups entertained the onlookers with a "hick" squad which drew forth many laughs.

Scabbard and Blade, the military honorary society, will present to a freshman and a sophomore the cup for the best man in the drill down. This form of contest elicited much enthusiastic interest last year when Larry Palmer '33 and John Parker '34 came out on top in the competitive drill in the manual of arms.

The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States presents a saber to the best officers in the battalion. The award is made on the basis of forty points for theoretical knowledge, thirty points for practical application and twenty points for the individual personal character.

GLEE CLUB PRESENTS SPRING OPERA BY MOZART

Cosi Fan Tutte, a Mozart production, was presented last night before a capacity audience by the members of the Glee Club in the Robert Hull Fleming Museum. The members of the cast were: Mailla Putnam '32 who sang the part of Dorabella, Charlotte Odell '33 who acted as Dorabella, Priscilla Perry '33 as Despina, A. B. Wilcox '35 who portrayed Ferrando, D. W. Jenks '34 who sang the part of Guglielmo, and E. B. Rand '34 the part of Don Alphonso.

The musical parts of the opera were directed by Prof. H. G. Bennett of the music department, whil Prof. J. T. Metcalf coached the dramatics.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

Published by the Vermont Student Publishing Association

Member of the New England Collegiate Newspaper Association

Editor-in-Chief
Managing Editor
Business Manager
Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

Jonathan McCann '34

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

W. J. Corbett '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST
R. J. Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER
Prof. Leon W. Dean

THE FORUM

VOCATIONAL TEAS TO BE GIVEN FOR CO-ED BENEFITS

PROF. DEAN GIVES TALK TO SPRINGFIELD P. T. A.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of Eta Sigma Phi next Monday night in 34 South College at eight o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

There will be a meeting of Boulder tonight at seven at the Delta Psi House to elect officers.

All freshmen wishing to scrub varsity football should see Assistant Managers Eaton, Cogswell or Jenks immediately.

Watch next week Tuesday's Cynic for a review of the opera "Cosi Fan Tutte" written by Mrs. Jenks. Because of the time of the annual musical production, it was impossible to get the review together on time for this issue

Editorials

LIBERALISM?

DE OLYMPIAD

By Leonard Horowitz

The curiosity of a woman wrought Adam's fall in the Garden of Eden.

And true to tradition, a woman's curiosity was behind the world's best recorded "gate-crashing" incident which occurred during the ancient Olympic games.

Pherenice of Athens was the original gate-crasher; and it was all her son's fault, just as the male is always at fault. Pherenice's son, Peisirodus was famous for his Olympic victories. Pherenice, who by reason of the ancient rules debarring female spectators had never witnessed his exploits, was tempted into trouble that she might even for a moment bask in the glory of her son.

She disguised herself in the rude garments of a peasant and entered the ancient Stade (field).

As per usual, Pisidorus won. And poor Pherenice, forgetfully hurrying down to the field to shower affection upon her son, was discovered and rudely booted off the field—the original gate-crasher thus crashing with tortured haste into the weeds on the fields of Olympia.

After that Olympic athletes had to appear in the nude, thus obviating the danger of female gate-crashing.

MODERN WOMEN CRASH GATES

Pherenice of Athens ought to get Charon to ferry her back across the Styx, mythical river enclosing the Land of the Dead, so that she could visit the stirring scene of the events from July 30 to August 14 of 1932.

Flabbergasted, she would see more than 250 of her sex, from whom Zeus averted his face in the ancient Olympics, pouring in from all corners of the earth to form the largest feminine group ever to appear in the modern Olympiads.

Ruman Ohis, Finnish Olympic Attache and an international authority on the games, tells us "the feminine exponents of prowess rather than pulchritude are coming to the Olympiad this summer from Europe, South Africa, Australia, Canada, and Japan to participate in fourteen athletic swimming, diving and fencing competitions open to women."

They will occupy the entire 128 guest rooms of the fashionable Chapman Park Hotel.

Having caught the eye of the International Olympic Committee by the widely publicized Danish woman gymnast exhibition before the King of Greece at the 1906 games at Athens, the feminine sex won the right to official participation. Every Olympiad since has seen a heavy increase in the number of women athletes.

FEMININE AMBITION SOARS

American girls look to taking at least seven first places in the tenth Olympiad.

Georgia Coleman, muscular maiden from the University of Southern California and the Los Angeles Athletic Club, and winner of the silver medals at Amsterdam, has her heart set on the two gold medals for ten-foot and high springboard diving. Helene Madison, wonder girl from Seattle who swims the 100-meter free style in 1.06.6 doesn't know why, holding world's records in both events as she does, she shouldn't win the 100 and 400-meter events. Little fifteen-year-old Katherine Rawls, A. A. U. runner-up against Georgia Coleman in the 10-foot board event and holder of the United States record in the 220-yard breast stroke, intends to go Marching through Georgia for first place in the diving event at least.

Lillian Copeland, "the Herman Brix of woman athletes," will hurl the javelin for a very possible win and dispute the 1928 world discus championship at 120 feet 11¾ inches set by Halinaa Konipacka, ace of Poland's former fairer sex.

If Stella Walsh, formerly Poland's most popular woman athlete and winner of the 100-meter sprint in the semi-official Third Woman's Olympiad at Prague, Hungary, in 1930, is ruled eligible for the American team as a newly naturalized citizen, Myrtle Cook of Canada will have to look closely to her 100-meter dash laurels and her 1930 record of 11.8.

TO DO IT A NEW WAY

Disconsolate women of ancient Elis, scene of the Grecian games, had their figures set up around the Temple of Zeus, only 630 feet away from the arena, so they could hear enough to catch the roaring claims of triumphant men.

The distinguished women athletes of 1932, instead of having dead figures set up outside of the stadium, will be given cheers, dare Zeus's strong-lived glance by staying in living figures right into the Los Angeles Olympic Stadium and hear the cry of the world conquered there in the Tenth Olympiad of 1932.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Marjorie Eisenwanter ... week-end in town.

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Initiation was held Satur... April 9, at the Athena... Afterward the initiates ... on the Roof Garden of the ... mont. Roberta Powers ... local chapter of Delta Delta ... sided.

The initiates were ... '34, Katharine Shaw '34 ... '35, Grace Lutman '35.

After dinner speakers ... were Vivian Hubbard ... son '33, Grace Harris ... Conant '35. Mrs. Ray ... the Mothers' Club of Delta ...

At the initiation ... Tewksbury '32 passed ... ing her engagement to ... '30, of Worcester, Mass. ... bury comes from South ... Manning is a member of ... and is a teacher and athlete. Johnson.

ALPHA XI DELTA

Charlotte Kidder '32 ... for an indefinite period.

KAPPA DELTA

Bessie Faegen, inspector ... the national organization ... chapter this week. The ... gave a green and white ... Faegen Thursday afternoon, ... the Greenebowl. One member ... of the local sororities was ... ten.

K. E. L.

A meeting was held ... 10, at the home of Mrs. ... a former member of the ...

FORMAL DANCES CLOSE CO-ED SOCIAL SEASON

Several women's fraternities ... clude this season's social ... dances on April 29 and ... Alpha Theta, Sigma Gamma ... Delta Delta will hold ... 29 while Pi Beta Phi, ... Alpha Chi Omega, and ... have dances the following ...

Kappa Alpha Theta will ... on the Roof Garden of the ... mont on April 29, with the ... Serenaders furnishing the ... Mrs. C. E. Braun and Mrs. ... W. G. Van Note are to be ...

Sigma Gamma's dance ... 29, is to take place ... Daughters' Rooms with Prof. ... J. A. Bullard and Mr. ... Pollard acting as chaperons. ... Vermonters have been chosen ... the harmony.

Prof. and Mrs. C. ... Prof. L. D. Meredith ... Kelly will chaperone the ... Delta dance at the Burlington ... Club April 29. The Black ... Middlebury is the orchestra.

The Black Panthers will ... Pi Beta Phi dancers at the ... house on South Prospect ...

Alpha Xi Delta ... to the strains of Bob Mc... their rooms at 192½ ... and Mrs. J. H. Burke and ... G. V. Kidder are the ... dance, also May 6.

Alpha Chi Omega will ... at the chapter house ... May 6 with Prof. and Mrs. ... and Mr. and Mrs. W. ... chaperons. Lechner's ... scheduled to again furnish ...

The Burlington Country ... the scene of Kappa Delta's ... the Cunarders playing. ... date for this dance.

Unless one hundred ... raised by the middle of ... lege of St. Thomas is ... annual. The book itself ... but the bills must be ... magazine may be issued.

St. Stephen's is offering ... at a one thousand ... raffle is one cent and ... dollars.

A recent survey ... University revealed that ... of the student body ... ing honors, thirty ... sixty-eight percent ... hours each evening.

MAILLA PUTNAM '32

Was cast one of the leading rôles in "Cosi Fan Tutte," the opera presented by the University Glee Clubs last night at the Fleming Museum. During her college course Miss Putnam has been a leader in University social activities.

ROBERTA POWERS '32

One of the most active women in the senior class. Miss Powers is senior co-ed debater, president of Delta Delta Delta, and a member of the committee to investigate campus political condition. She has a part in "Hay Fever"—the 1932 Junior Week play.

LECHNYR TO PLAY AT MORTAR BOARD AFFAIR IN GYMNASIUM TONIGHT

Large Crowd Expected to Attend Annual Spring Dance of Women's Honorary Society

Tonight rings down the curtain on the Mortar Board social season. After three social get-together dances will be held at the gymnasium. Lechnyr's Vermonters will provide the music for tonight's festivity. The chaperons are expected to be Dean and Mrs. V. S. Jackson and Prof. Pierce and Miss Bloom will chaperone the dance.

Graham Mount '32 will be in charge of the girls' social duties. I hope that each and every one of you girls comes to the dance and enjoys yourselves, because Graham will certainly do his best to make the evening a success.

This dance marks the end of the 1932 Mortar Board's social functions. Earlier in the year the Harvest Dance was held, at which about two hundred couples attended. With the reduced rates, it is even probable that tonight's event will be even more popular than last fall's affair. To complete the evening, punch will be served.

The La Vie Collegienne of Lebanon College cheerily notes: "Man is a worm. He comes along, wiggles in the dust a while and then some chicken gets him." It's bad enough for a worm to wiggle, but why make him squirm?

Girls attending the Yale Prom are not allowed to wear flowers. The Yale News columnist thinks it would be better not to have the girls at all but to apply the money to the food bill.

TRI-STATE LITERARY CONTEST FINDS VERMONT WITH THREE ENTRANTS

U. V. M. Took First Place in Last Year's Event Against Maine and New Hampshire

Vermont has sent in her entries in the Tri-State Literary Contest. The manuscripts selected by the English department to represent Vermont in this year's contest have been sent on their way.

The contest which Vermont won last year is held with the universities of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont participating. It consists of competitions in poetry, essays and short stories. Three prizes of $20, $15 and $10 are awarded in each group.

Each college may send in three entries in each group. The contributions are scored by nationally known judges. Each of the three institutions sends in three judges and each group judges one class of literature.

The contest is scored by giving points for first, second, and third places. The institution with the highest number of points wins. Vermont has been first more times than either of the other entrants.

Last year Vermont students took one first, two seconds, and a third. The prize being shared by Edward Fitzgerald '32 and Frances Frost '31. Miss Frost took the first prize in poetry with her contribution "Three Acres." Constance Stone and Margaret Rice, both seniors, took second places in the short story and essay contest respectively.

The Lyne Fun of St. Stephens College is collecting pros and cons on fraternities. They have published columns for and against the Greeks, and are now writing campus comment.

The cigarette that's MILDER . . . that TASTES BETTER!

© 1932, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

VERMONT IS ORGANIZING PI GAMMA MU BRANCH

Social Science Honorary Society Petition is Accepted by National Headquarters

[illegible] the requirements of [illegible] eligible students whose names have been given to the local organizer, C. L. Stinehour. The eligibility requirement for membership is an average in eighty-five percent over the social science courses taken, with a minimum requirement of at least twenty hours in the social sciences. If any excluded student feels that his name should be included he may place his name and social science grades in the hands of the local organizer, who may be permitted because [illegible] to correct any mistakes of this nature.

[illegible] the local organizers of the national professional organization of the Honorary Constitution. The organization of groups cannot be completed by the withdrawal of charter until the first meeting after the publication of the membership list. The selection of members will be made at a meeting to be held [illegible] following that date.

ARMSTRONG AND HOYT CHOSEN TO HEAD W. A. A.

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] A member of Sigma Chi Omega. Her honors are: W. A. A. Council, Debating Club, Bluestockings, and the [illegible].

[illegible] of her honors are: Pan-[illegible] Council, treasurer of French Club, [illegible] Club, Women's Council, [illegible] Committee, House Committee, Freshman Hop Committee, Ruggles Hop Committee, [illegible] Committee, Y. W. C. A. Council, W. A. A. Council, and [illegible].

Miss Putnam is a member of Y. W. C. A. Council, W. A. A. Council, House Committee and chairman of Freshman Hop Committee at Ruggles. She is especially active in athletics having been on the [illegible] hockey team for two years and the volley-ball and hockey teams.

The sophomore representative is Helen Mount '35, a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Miss Mount is a member of W. A. A. and has won her numerals in this same organization. Her honors are: Y. W. C. A. Press Club, Class Basketball, vice-president of French Club, French Camp representative, and a participator in the freshman [illegible]. Miss Mount has been especially active in athletics. She was [illegible] basketball and on the [illegible] team, captain of basketball and on the first team, captain of swimming and on the hockey team.

The editor of the W. A. A. section of the [illegible] Yearbook is Phyllis Miller, a member of the class of '33. Miss Miller belongs to Alpha Chi Omega and is a member of Dramatic Club, W. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Press Club, Pi Gamma Mu and has a social science honorary scholarship. She is very active in athletics having been on the basketball team for three years, hockey team for three years and on the varsity volleyball team.

The chairman of the Health Council is Katherine Tillotson who is a member of the class of '33 and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Her honors are: Representative of Y. W. C. A., Press Club, Women's Council, Pan-Hellenic Council, 2 Yr. and W. A. A. Miss Tillotson has taken part in several sports at present.

The new chairman of the Outing Club is Mary Perras '33. She is a member of Y. W. C. A. and has won her numerals and emblem in W. A. A. Besides this Miss Perras has the following honors: Assistant athletic editor of Junior Class Play, Dramatic Club secretary and assistant manager of basketball. She has also participated in practically all of the athletics on campus, being captain of the [illegible] basketball team and on the [illegible] hockey team.

[illegible] A. A. [illegible] Perras very [illegible] taking part in [illegible] sports. [illegible] Perras [illegible] Miss Perras [illegible] year of 600 in two consecutive years shall receive her numerals in class colors providing she has been on the first team or has been campus tennis champion. If, however, she has not been on a first team but has obtained enough points, a special emblem surrounded by a circle will be awarded.

Any sophomore or upperclasswoman winning 800 points shall receive a U. V. M. emblem providing she has been on at least two first teams, has shown through her sports course, a spirit of good sportsmanship, and has good health and posture.

For a senior who wins 1,200 points, a green blazer will be awarded provided she has received a U. V. M. has been on one varsity team and has proven her ability in athletics.

Any senior who wins 400 points in addition to the 1,200 an English V will be given if she has been on two varsity teams, one in her senior year, has a C average in scholarship, and has qualities in leadership and sportsmanship.

[illegible]

KENYON SPEAKS BEFORE ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

[illegible] meeting of the student branch of the A. I. E. E. was held Tuesday in Williams Science Hall. F. P. Kenyon '33 spoke on "Powdered Iron Cores for Telephone Repeater Inductances." He explained that former materials [illegible] the cores used in telephone repeating inductories and transformers were rendered absolute during the war due to manufacturing difficulties and new demands on the equipment. Powdered iron cores were turned to as a material having the properties of uniform permeability over a range of very [illegible] magnetizing force as well as [illegible] stability under temperature for [illegible] Bell Telephone Laboratories.

[illegible] showing constants of these cores for different types of manufacture.

[illegible] also spoke on [illegible] a subject [illegible] personalities appearing [illegible] The [illegible] of its being [illegible] Laboratories.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW
NEW YORK
Case System Three-Year Course
NON-EDUCATIONAL
College Degree or Two Years of College Work with Good Grades Required
Transcript of Record Necessary in All Cases
Morning, Early Afternoon and Evening Classes
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE
CHARLES P. DAVIS, Registrar
140 Broadway, New York

WOMEN STUDENTS MUST FOLLOW NEW RULINGS

April 21, 27 and 28 is the Time When Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen Draw for Rooms

[illegible] the official notice from the Dean's office announcing the adoption by the Executive Committee of the following rules governing [illegible] for the coming year through the office of the Dean of Women:

"The following rules for women students are passed by the following points:

1. All women shall remain [illegible] the [illegible] in Burlington unless [illegible] to live at home or with a parent or guardian, or [illegible] a parent or guardian.

2. It is advisable to visit any rooms one plans to live in before the drawing of numbers.

3. Houses approved for 1931-32 are not necessarily approved for 1932-33. The list of approved houses will be posted as soon as official acceptance of the requirements has been filed by the householders.

4. If a student plans to live with relatives other than her parents, these requirements must also be satisfied by such relatives. The same applies to a student who works for board or room in a private house. If certain items of the standard of residence present difficulties to the prospective employers or relatives, they may confer with Assistant Dean Harris.

5. When a student takes a room in a private house, both student and householder are given cards to sign for their protection. The householder, however, is not required to sign her card unless she wishes, thus protecting her own interest.

6. Students are requested to draw numbers so as to present themselves at a specific time for conference. The time of drawing numbers is from two to five in the afternoon. Juniors will draw Thursday, April 21; sophomores Wednesday, April 27; and freshmen Thursday, April 28. First-year members of the teacher training course will draw with the members of the class of 1935.

ASHLEY TELLS STUDENTS TO BALANCE THEIR LIVES

Rev. Morgan Ashley, pastor of Trinity Church of Rutland, was the chapel speaker Wednesday morning. He made the statement that young people, especially college students, because of their greater opportunities, should try for a well-balanced life. The student should not permit one part of his life to dominate other important parts. Over-emphasis of the intellectual life should not cause the physical life to be neglected, while we all need to guard against minimizing the importance of the spiritual life.

Reverend Ashley was introduced by Professor Lynds of the department of [illegible]. The choir, without accompaniment rendered "O Thou Joy of Loving Hearts," under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett.

He bought a new suburban house and did he get stucco!

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO INSPECT OUR NEW LUNCH ROOM
RAND'S HOME LUNCH
81 COLCHESTER AVENUE
Opposite New Flemming Museum

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

NEW
U. V. M.
STATIONERY
Die-stamped
especially for you!
75c and 85c box
24 SHEETS AND ENVELOPES TO MATCH
McAULIFFE'S
Church and College Streets
Phone 679

[illegible] Mount '32
Retiring President of Student Union

DEBATERS RETURN FROM ANNUAL FORENSIC JAUNT

(Continued from page 1)

were entertained by a strolling darky minstrel with a guitar who entertained them with folk songs under their window. Sewanee, Tenn., was the next stop. The team was forced to go without supper in order to arrive at the University of the South on time for the debate, which was a no decision.

Saturday, Morehouse College, of Atlanta, Georgia was encountered. The team was forced to be satisfied with a no decision ruling. Sunday, after church, the team left for West Virginia on the longest haul of the trip. Monday night the Green and Gold forensicists earned their third win, when they defeated West Virginia State College. Tuesday found the team still in West Virginia making their headquarters at Buchanon, the home of West Virginia Wesleyan College. No decision was rendered here. Wednesday, April 6, Baltimore was the destination. Virginia Union University went down for the count that night. Thursday, our quartet invaded Susquehanna University of Selinsgrove, Pa., for their fifth win. Friday afternoon, New York University was met in a no decision return engagement. The undefeated team returned home Sunday tired and weary but with a record of six wins and no losses, setting up a record mark for succeeding forensicists to shoot at.

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

PUTNAM TO HOLD CHAIR OF Y. W. C. A. WITH HORAK, FRANCE, URIE ASSISTING

Newly Elected Have Won Many Honors for Themselves on the Campus

Y. W. C. A. has for its new [illegible] Daisy Putnam of the class of [illegible] a member of Alpha Xi Delta. [illegible] recent elections Miss Putnam was [illegible] junior representative of W. A. A. Besides the above mentioned she has the following honors, namely, Y. W. C. A. cabinet, secretary of Y. W. C. A. W. A. A. Council, chairman of the Freshman Hop Committee, House Committee [illegible] (two years), hockey team (2), basketball team (1), and bowling [illegible].

The vice-president of Y. W. C. A. is Mary Horak of the class of '34. She is a member of Press Club, W. A. A. and Dramatic Club. She has also been very active in athletics having been on the hockey team (2), basketball team (2), bowling team and volleyball team.

The newly elected secretary is Miss France '35. She is a member of W. A. A. and has recently been elected corresponding secretary in that same organization. Miss Frances has been especially active in athletics, having participated in basketball, hockey, tennis and bowling.

The treasurer of Y. W. C. A. is Esther Urie '33, a member of W. A. A. She has also taken active part in many different sports. Among them are basketball, baseball, hockey, volleyball and bowling.

As a part of the revolutionary system planned by President Maynard Hutchins of Chicago University, 720 members of the class of 1935 will go to classes only when they feel like it. They are to read the books which interest them and consult their professors when they please.

Students living in fraternity houses at Marquette have their names, characteristics, and peculiarities registered with the Milwaukee police.

TUFTS COLLEGE
DENTAL SCHOOL
Founded 1900
COLLEGE men and women—prepare for a profession of widening interest and opportunity. Recent research has enlarged the scope of every phase of dentistry. The field demands more than ever before men and women of ability backed by superior training. Such training Tufts College Dental School gives to its students. School opens on September 26, 1932. Our catalog may guide you in choosing your career. For information address
WILLIAM RICE, D.M.D., Sc.D., Dean
416 Huntington Avenue Boston, Mass

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

Important Notice
for Second Year
Teacher Training Students.
The University Store
has to send in your measurements for your Caps and Gowns before Founder's Day. A deposit of $1.00 is necessary when order is placed at the UNIVERSITY STORE OFFICE.

SPORTS NEWS

BASEBALL MEN DEPART SOON FOR SECOND TRIP OF DIAMOND SCHEDULE

Gardner Pleased With Southern Trip Showing, Expects the Goods From Team

B. U., BOSTON COLLEGE AND TUFTS TAKEN ON

Vermont Has the Advantage of Better Practice Than Her Opponents

[illegible] and Gold baseball men de- [illegible]sday for the second phase [illegible] baseball schedule. They [illegible]ollege, Boston University [illegible] a three-day schedule to [illegible]. The trip is a conditioner [illegible] series which will start with [illegible] game on May 5.

[illegible]ardner who was very much [illegible] the showing of the team [illegible] southern trip expects the [illegible] mid-season form in tackl- [illegible] experienced rivals. Boston [illegible] be taken on first in the series [illegible]

[illegible]niversity is the second victim [illegible]'s three-day schedule. The [illegible] had many games postponed [illegible] weather conditions. They [illegible] game scheduled with Tufts, [illegible] cold conditions, the game was [illegible] Boston University is handicapped [illegible]s in every position. They [illegible] a strong team up however, [illegible] of material from last season's [illegible]

[illegible]lumbos from Tufts are represented [illegible] strength nine made up of [illegible] The Blue and White team will [illegible] start Andy Andrusciewicz [illegible] Catamount batters.

[illegible] the entire Vermont squad [illegible] two exceptions will make the [illegible] the team. McKay, the lively [illegible]sman, Pires, veteran shortstop, [illegible] star second baseman and Ed [illegible] will complete the Green and Gold [illegible] the battery candidates have not [illegible] picked. Chet Rutkowski, the [illegible] moundsman, will go with the [illegible] may open against Boston Col- [illegible] In the outfield, Wesoly, Captain [illegible] Collins will accompany the nine [illegible] Massachusetts pilgrimage.

[illegible] team has had very light practice [illegible] return from the southern trip. [illegible] will start practice outdoors [illegible] Intensive training will [illegible] as the team gradually recovers [illegible] from the gruelling southern ven- [illegible]

COURSE IN EQUITATION BEGUN FOR HORSEMEN

[illegible] riding, which is being held [illegible] spring, began last Thursday, [illegible] at four in the afternoon. All [illegible] who wish to enroll in the class [illegible] requested to sign up immediately [illegible] Mr. Prentice, instructor in charge, [illegible] be necessary to limit the num- [illegible] the class.

[illegible] ten dollars will be charged for [illegible] the horses. The course will [illegible] seven hours of equitation. In- [illegible] will be furnished free of charge. [illegible]s will meet twice a week for [illegible]

[illegible] Stephens got a new nurse. [illegible] interviewed her and found [illegible], including her political [illegible] school, preferences in [illegible], authors, poets and [illegible]. The only thing they could [illegible] was her middle name.

[illegible] Milking the cow?"
[illegible] "Naw, just feeling her [illegible]

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

PRIZE CUPS
and
TROPHIES

Expert Repairing
and
Engraving

Fraternity Jewelry

A CORRECTION

At the meeting of the Athletic Council last Monday afternoon it was voted to award minor letters in fencing to Capt. H. Shuman '35 Med. of Fitchburg, Mass.; C. C. Kaufman '35 Med. of Plainville, Conn.; P. B. Berger '35 Med. of Burlington; Player-Manager G. H. Burrows, II, of Exeter, N. H. This is a correction to the Cynic of April 12.

SUGAR HIKE TOMORROW FOR CO-ED PEDESTRIANS

Ice Cubes to Take Place of Snow Originally Planned for Feast

Tomorrow at two o'clock, co-ed hikers will start on the long postponed sugar hike. Those who have signed up for this novel affair will journey to Essex Junction via automobiles where they will enjoy maple sugar, doughnuts, and coffee. Because of the long postponement of the hike, it probably will not be possible to serve the maple sugar on snow as was originally planned, but modern refrigeration will serve ice cubes for the party.

The hike part of the affair will consist of a tramp to the sugar orchard to obtain the refreshments. This is the second of a series of hikes by the women's physical education department to stimulate interest in outdoor life. Several other events of similar type have been scheduled for later dates. The committee in charge of the sugar hike is headed by Twink Mount '35, ably assisted by Rene LaFountain '35, Fanny Hosley '35, Willie Hurd '35 and Chris Yule '35.

One co-ed who will not find it hard for her to behave while she is attending classes is at Illinois College; her father and she attended classes together.

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
102A Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

Miles & Perry
Company

IF

If it is correct style, expert needlework and choice fabrics you desire for Spring . . . select a Charter House suit. The money you save will buy the necessary accompanying furnishings.

Charter House

SUITS and
TOPCOATS
$25.00
AND MORE

CAT'S MEOW

Sports Editor

UNCLE SAM THE HOST

During the last days of July and the first fourteen days of August, the United States plays host to the world and the games of the tenth Olympiad. To date the record number of forty nations have [illegible] their intention to participate [illegible] Southern California, the "Playground of America," and the scene of the events [illegible] preparing a spectacular welcome.

IT'S NOT SO

People think of the Olympic games as a type of glorified track meet."

Bill Henry, famed sports writer and expert, for twenty years a leading correspondent on assignments to every part of the globe, now sports technical director of the Olympic games, was telling us of his work.

"They are far more than that. Besides including an international contest in almost every field of sport with several score nations represented, they are in themselves a great gesture of international fellowship and a tradition rooted in antiquity.

"This," and the athletically built sports mentor in the tan sports suit emphasized his words, "will probably be the only time in the lives of persons now living that the games will be held in America."

OLYMPIA

These games had a deep symbolism in moss-covered antiquity.

It is a matter of historical fact that down in ancient Greece great battles were called off when the moon reached a certain position in the heavens during the summer solstice. The homicide squads on both sides of the battlefield would then adjourn and tramp off to Olympia on the west coast of Greece to hold the games.

In truth, they were not games, but athletic rites of purification dedicated to Zeus, invisible ruler of heaven and earth.

The serious business over, and the victors crowned with the proper herb, the athletes would return to the horse-play on the battlefield.

DEATH AND REVIVAL

Although the Greeks had a word for him and more, the Roman emperor

(Continued on page 6)

Polo Coats

The season's most remarkable Sport Coat. They come in the most appealing tans.

They fit both the pocketbook and the personality.

TURKS
Burlington

156-158 College Street

Athletic Enthusiasm Soars as Football Men Assemble

Extensive Campaign Carried Out When Different Coaches Made Rounds of the Different Fraternity Houses

POST SAYS TRACK MEN ARE STILL NEEDED TO COMPETE IN SCHEDULE

Interest in Track is on Decline at University of Vermont—It is Up to Individual to Support Team

ST. LAWRENCE CONTEST ONLY TWO WEEKS OFF

Some Good Material Out, But More Cinder Men Required for Season

By Archie Post

Easter vacation is over! April is well along. April 30 and St Lawrence will soon be here, all too soon! And what about that first meet? Well, right now things don't look very bright for a win. In the first place, some of our eligible men are not out and working. Why? Oh, various reasons, most of them purely personal, without any thought of the team and the University. And why can they refuse to come out and get away with it without being challenged? Because evidently the student body doesn't care whether we win or lose. Some of the men who were out before vacation have not reported back for practice; even though they were in the pink of condition before vacation, a two week lay off now, with less than three weeks of workouts left before the first meet can mean but one thing. They can't be in good shape for the test.

However, there are some rays of hope to be thankful for. Larry Bowers, who tossed the shot over thirty-seven feet at the indoor meet, has passed his spring makeup, and is eligible for reinstatement on a par basis. Likewise with Chick Grant, our diminutive sprinter. There is the possibility that Frank Busch may be eligible and take his place in the high jump where he is showing improvement every day. Stew Manning is venturing forth daily into the mud of the back campus to work on the hammer throw, and bids fair to be a point winner in that event as well as in the shotput. Eddie Meehan and Freddie Tupper are working hard on the pole vault, broad jump, and discus. Wilder, Brooks, Harwood, and Leach are consistently hammering off the miles in their training for the long runs, and are getting in good shape for these events. Joe Delfausse is coming fine for the quarter-mile and is only waiting for a chance to take to the outdoor track and cut loose. There are some other names that have not been sounded before, that may be heard ere the season is over. Stone and Utley in the runs, Walter in the hurdles (except for him, our field in the hurdles is very scarce), Gammel in the broad jump, Millet in the high jump. But—Billings is needed badly in the hurdles, Flagg in the half-mile, Hadley in the mile, and so on through a list of several other names.

PRACTICE TO CULMINATE IN ACTUAL TOURNAMENT

Athletic enthusiasm at Vermont reached a high point in recent years when forty-six prospective candidates attended the football meeting held in the auxiliary gym on Monday afternoon at four o'clock. At present an extensive campaign is being carried out for the purpose of securing new candidates. Ten coaches made the rounds of the fraternity houses last Monday night and delivered short pep talks to entice new athletes out for the six-week spring training season which began Wednesday.

Headed by Coach Burke the football coterie will include W. L. Gardner, H. A. Prentice, A. T. Post, K. K. Newton, A. K. Todhope, H. B. Levine, E. B. Sutton, S. C. Abell and Dr. F. S. Kent. All will assist the head coach by giving lectures and aiding the men. Burke, Sutton and Levine took over the reins on Wednesday afternoon, and they will later be joined by the other assistant coach, Paul Creban.

Monday's meeting more than satisfied the expectations of the coaches. None of the candidates who reported out is competing for a position on either the varsity or freshman track or baseball team. In commenting on the number at the meeting Coach Burke said, "We expect a greater number out. Just how many it is impossible to determine at the present time."

At the Monday meeting all present were given cards to fill out with their names and any past experience. There have been no line-ups on positions as yet. "The fellow who has had no experience is just as welcome as the experienced player," Coach Burke stated. "Spring training gives the coach an opportunity to get acquainted with his men, and the men to get acquainted with the coach. Most important of all, it eliminates rushing through the fundamentals in the fall."

The coaching staff has been plotting and planning their campaign for many weeks now. This week's drills have been limited to conditioning exercises to get the players in training for the week to terminate in a tournament of the various teams.

With all the enthusiasm reported this year it is of interest to compare this spring training season with that of last year. Last spring the first call was held at 4 p.m. Twelve men answered the summons. Two had had previous experience. The rest were freshmen. The candidates met with Coach Dave Dunn, smoked a few cigarettes and disbanded. The next day practice was of a half hour's duration with six men out. It was raining cats and dogs. They skipped the next day's practice. The following day spring football candidates at Vermont were represented by a solitary triumvirate. They never got out of doors and uniforms were never issued. No captain was elected.

This season, old style uniforms will be issued for the present. Future equipment has not been decided on. There is a chance that officials will insist on sponge rubber padding this year. If they do the University will probably not remodel the uniforms now in hand. The practices will be made as interesting as

(Continued on page 6)

Flannel Slacks

EVERYONE'S WEARING THEM THIS YEAR. FLANNEL TROUSERS CUT IN THE LATEST MANNER

$6.00 and $7.50

SPORT SHOES
$5.00 and $7.00

SPORT SOCKS
50c to $1.00

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

FOOTBALL MEN GATHER FOR SPRING TRAINING

(Continued from page 1)

JOHN DEWEY CLUB TO HEAR PROF. METCALF

MCVETTY TO CAPTAIN PUCKMEN NEXT YEAR

Robert H. McVetty '34 of Cranford has been elected captain of the University of Vermont hockey team for the season of 1934. The election took place at a meeting of the athletic council in the Billings Library. McVetty succeeds Captain Bill Mallory '33 as leader of the team. Other officers were also elected at the meeting.

McVetty, one of the fastest players on the ice team, scored the winning goal in the Vermont-Hockey Union game of last season. He has played hockey for three years and has set his mark for many points. He is now on a berth as goalie on the varsity basketball team.

Manager of the team is elected annually but served for the remainder of the season. He has assisted Manager Ray Lowe in the capacity of assistant manager for a year. He has assisted Manager Lowe in the capacity of assistant manager for a year. He has assisted Manager Lowe in the capacity of assistant manager for a year.

In Kansas the lowest rate is one to every five men getting some college graduates and one in every hundred among college graduates. The reason being probably that after college one can stand anything.

Dr. Dean University shows that but a small percentage of college men think that married young people have too much liberty, but greater of college women think that they have too little.

Why don't they freeze taxes to get jobs as the lobbyists use lawyers make more laws to make the people need more lawyers.

Dorothy Platt '33
Last week Miss Platt was elected Junior Lawton Class Basketball Captain

JUNIOR WEEK QUEEN TO BE CHOSEN AT PROM

(Continued from page 1)

The committee in charge of the Junior Week-end prom, John Jones, Bill Gale, [illegible] announced a method to be used in selecting the queen. Each girl present will be given a ballot on which to write the name of the girl she wishes to be voted on. Then a committee of three judges from the ranks of the faculty awarded the cup and title "Queen of Junior Week." to Janice Davis '34.

The committee in charge next year - consists of Dorothy Jackson, [illegible] editor of the Cynic; Lee [illegible] feature editor of the Cynic; and J. D. Dow '35 chairman of the Junior Prom.

The custom of choosing a beauty queen during Junior Week was started last year. Many other colleges in United States feature the annual advent of royalty in the midst of revellers during gala house celebration. In accordance with precedent donned the institution was inaugurated last year.

HORSEMEN PLAYERS HAVE FIRST FIELD PLAY

Outdoors for the first time this year, the Norwich baseball players put their new spikes to good use on Monday when there was outdoor batting practice. The previous workouts had been in the cages.

Captain Gale pitched batsman and Pat Lee, Vermont first sacker, showed their batting eye on Monday's practice. Next week-end marks a five days when the team tackles Williams at Williamstown. Coach Mahoney is at a loss as to how to use devoting the team into a successful team, before the schedule begins.

West Point athletic authorities announced that no player hereafter will be allowed to play on the same squad with his father. The old man is a hard proposition to [illegible]

CAT'S MEOW

(Continued from page 5)

PRESS CLUB MEETS TO ELECT OFFICERS TODAY

The University of Vermont Press Club will hold a meeting [illegible] tonight in 3 North College to elect officers for the coming year. A short time ago a meeting was held at the Pi Beta Phi house. There Prof. L. W. Dean commended the organization for its progressive work. In addition to the activities that were arranging, the members of the club send notices to the various high school papers and various newspapers throughout the country, which are concerned with the doings of Vermont students.

Even the "profs" miss up occasionally Here are some of their answers in a recent survey at Syracuse. Mr. and Mrs Culbertson are a famous dancing team Tony Wong is a notorious gangster. And Tom Collins is the name applied to an eavesdropper.

Carol Lee '33
[illegible] Elections

SYLVIA BOYD SENT TO MASS. STATE ASSEMBLAGE

Sylvia Boyd '33 newly elected president of Women's Student Union has been sent to a meeting of the Women's Student Government Association of New England. Miss Boyd will present to the conference any problems Vermont has had in regard to student officiating. The conference began yesterday and lasts today and tomorrow, and is being held at [illegible] State College, in Amherst, Massachusetts.

Because some one walked off with the needles the weekly phonograph concert at Rutgers University had to be postponed and the largest group that ever attended these concerts had to be turned away.

A co-ed at the University of Missouri was an hour and a half late for a final exam and was permitted to take it. But that isn't all. The professor also furnished her money to pay for her breakfast.

NO OUTDOOR PRACTICE FOR TENNIS CANDIDATES

Varsity Team Will Be Forced to Begin Schedule Without Actual Training

The University of Vermont net team must start the season without any outdoor practice because the courts are still covered with snow. To date the tennis stars have been practicing in the cage. Nevertheless the method of training is not as good as the open air method practice.

The schedule begins on April 28 when the court stars travel on their annual Massachusetts trip. Coach Carpenter is directing the play of the racket wielders in an effort to get them in shape for the long schedule of eleven matches that has begun. Captain Woodward of Rutland and Harry Alberts are the only varsity veterans out for the team this year. Fred Tupper, Jr., Vermont's tennis star has not appeared on the scene, preferring to devote his attentions to track this spring.

Holbrook, a junior, is showing improvement in his workouts. The members of last year's frosh team who are showing up well are Norman Myers, of Burlington, Bernard Mulcahy, of Barre, Richard Powell, of Island Pond and Hugh Wilson, of Windsor. As yet no one knows who is going to make the trip. But as the date approaches, the men will be seeded according to ability.

The freshman team will not be asked to come out until the courts have been condjtioned, which will be at least one week more. Their schedule will include matches with the Dartmouth frosh, Clark School, Montpelier, Rutland and Burlington High Schools.

University of Kansas has a course in "How to administer a parental rebuke." It all started when a professor asked a class what they would say to a little girl who had told a lie.

Bring out the Beauty of Your Figure with Lo-Bak (Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.) by Maiden Form

The charming accented silhouette that fashion makes so much of nowadays — bust subtly uplifted — waistline slender, hips smoothly rounded, makes essential the selection of the proper foundations. Maiden Form accomplishes all these lovely accents and at the same time gives you the correct support health authorities recommend. See Maiden Form Foundations at your dealer or write direct for style booklet. Maiden Form Brassiere Co., Inc. Dept. C 52 — 245 Fifth Ave., N.Y.

"Lo-Bak" [illegible] brassiere with back and sides reduced to a minimum, gives marvelous "uplift" to the [illegible] figure.

Brassieres $1.00 to $2.95
Girdles $2.95 to $12.50
Garter Belts $1.00 to $4.95

Stunning new girdle of mesh (marquisette lined) with side panels of five-inch elastic — cool, comfortable, slims the waist and controls the hips with exceptional ease.

"Non-A-Lastic" (Patent) — a new girdle with special non-stretchable center front for abdomen control. "Grecian Moon" brassiere has clever elastic insert between "up lift" [illegible]

"Maidenette Seamless" a new "wisp of a brassiere", for slight figures, with seams so tiny that they are practically invisible. The dainty garter belt is of net trimmed with narrow lace.

• There is a Maiden Form for every type of figure.

LOOK FOR THE NAME

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE

GIRDLES - GARTER BELTS

"Hello, Hawaii"

Bringing Hawaii within speaking distance of the United States is one of the latest achievements of the Bell System in its program of telephone service extension.

Five years ago the United States had telephone connection only with Canada, Cuba, and the Mexican border. Since then, Bell engineers have so developed radio telephony that handling calls to Europe, South America, Australia, Bermuda, Samoa, and Hawaii is daily routine. Today more than 31,000,000 telephones can be reached — approximately 92% of all the telephones in the world!

Making the telephone practically world-wide in reach promotes understanding between nations. It has far reaching effects commercially and politically. That's what puts the thrill into such Bell System pioneering

BELL SYSTEM

A NATION-WIDE SYSTEM OF INTER-CONNECTING TELEPHONES

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1932 | NUMBER 48

ALL PEOPLES MUST BE TAUGHT TO HAVE HORROR OF WAR SAYS M. MORIZE

Nations Must Become More Understanding of Other's Problems States French Lecturer

TALK IS LAST LECTURE IN SERIES OF ALLIANCE

Speaker Names Unfair Treaties, Debts Reparations and Disarmament as Major Problems Facing France

All nations must become more understanding of other nation's problems and all peoples must be taught to have a horror of war declared M. Andre Morize of Harvard speaking in French at the final Alliance Française lecture last Saturday evening in the Fleming Museum. His topic was "Le France devant le Monde Moderne."

M. Morize stated that he was not attempting to treat his subject from an economic or scientific point of view, since since professors are usually neither economists nor scientists. He named two major problems in his subject: The first, problems left by the war, such as unfair treaties and heavy debts and reparations; second, disarmament and its attendant problems.

"France," said M. Morize, "is being accused of hindering the payment of war debts and reparations. But France is facing the situation created by Germany's refusal to pay fair reparations, while she herself is still expected by other nations to pay her own debts. Each nation thinks the other should be the first to start the payment. Then there two differing viewpoints in this matter, that of America and that of France. America thinks of reparations as two separate matters, while France feels them to be inseparably tied. If all nations would agree to set aside war debts owed them," he said, "France would give up the reparations entirely."

He went on to say that Americans cannot view the situation. They are too far away to appreciate the true seriousness of the damage done to France by the war. They not only refuse to understand this, but even also hamper France's trade as well by high tariffs.

M. Morize also said that the Young plan is not practicable, yet France is accused of being the nation to hinder its working by some people who do not comprehend the situation. Another statement branded false by M. Morize was that France was the nation that caused the war.

Speaking of disarmament, M. Morize said that America simply could not grasp Europe's situation because of her own safety and distance from the scene of action. He doubted that disarmament would ever end and stated his belief that an international police force could not entirely take the place of national defenses.

Review of Opera "Cosi Fan Tutte"

By L. M. J.

On last Thursday evening the Fleming Museum Auditorium was filled with students, alumni and townspeople to hear Mozart's opera, "Cosi Fan Tutte" or "Women Are Lovers." This is the [illegible] which the combined Men's and Women's Glee Clubs have presented [illegible] though all have been artistic, the Mozart production has the best balance and well-[illegible] production.

Special mention has been given in the [illegible] and the decision to use the Auditorium in the Fleming [illegible] is due to Prof. J. T. Metcalf, [illegible] director, many problems, due [illegible] the small amount of back-[illegible] the difficulty was met in a [illegible] way. Steps leading from [illegible] floor to each side of the [illegible] stage entrances which [illegible] frequently. No curtain was [illegible] the stage settings were arranged [illegible] the chorus with such precision [illegible] as to indicate studied [illegible] the light panelled walls of [illegible] effective background for [illegible] Italian furniture and color-[illegible] in the set. The final [illegible] set hall illuminated with [illegible] white candles in silver [illegible] was marvelously beautiful. [illegible] Shank, of the Art Depart-[illegible] charge of properties.

[illegible] of this opera is of Mozart's [illegible] libretto full of comedy and

(Continued on page 4)

REPORTING POSITIONS NOW OPEN ON CYNIC

Four positions for men reporters on the staff of the Cynic are now open to members of the freshman class interested in writing. Aspirants to these positions should meet with the editor-in-chief at four o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Cynic office.

After a period of writing the four positions will be filled by eligible candidates working on a competitive basis. The Cynic offers excellent opportunity for experience in elementary newspaper work for those who will faithfully try out for it.

U. V. M. REPRESENTED AT STUDENT INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CONFERENCE

Fleischman, Patterson, Spiller and Taylor Attend Three-Day Meeting

CONF. IS HELD AT 20TH CENTURY CLUB IN BOSTON

Four students representing the University returned Sunday from the Student International Relations Conference held in Boston April 15, 16 and 17. The conference attended by about seventy-five delegates from New England colleges was held at the Twentieth Century Club of 3 Joyce Street as a sequel to the Student Disarmament Conference of last December. The Vermont delegates the trip making and taking part in the discussion included I. Fleischman '32, G. Patterson '34, S. N. Spiller '33 and T. I. Taylor '33.

The conference opened at 8.00 p.m. Friday, April 15, with an address given by Judge Frank Leveroni on "Facism and Its Personalities—Mussolini." Later, following Judge Leveroni's talk the Rev. Donald Lothrop spoke on "Communism and Its Personalities—Stalen." Prof. Clarence Skinner of Tufts College was chairman of the evening's program.

Saturday, the session began at 9.30 in the morning and until 1.00 o'clock in the afternoon discussions were held on the topic "Should America Join the League of Nations?" Students arguing for America's entrance to the League were led by Miss Ramona Sawyer of Tufts College and those opposed were chairmaned by Raoul Calkins of Boston University. The chairman was the Hon. Francis H. Russell, Boston attorney.

At 1.00 p.m. the delegates were admitted to a luncheon sponsored by the Twentieth Century Club where they heard Mr. Roger N. Baldwin of New York City speak on "Civil Liberty Today."

At the evening session, Miss Phyllis Crooker of Radcliffe College introduced Mr. A. Buel Trowbridge who spoke on "Cross Shadows of Student Leaders in the World." He was followed by ten representative students who discussed various phases of student activity abroad and in the American campus. The meeting adjourned with a dinner for all registrants.

At 10.30 the following morning Mr. Haridas T. Mazumdor, former associate of Mahatma Gandhi the Indian leader, spoke on "The Hindu Way of Life." The lecture was presented at the Boston Community Church.

Closing the conference meetings the Rev. Wynn C. Fairfield discussed the pros and cons of the pacifist Kagawa's system of absolute pacifism in international relations. His subject was "Kagawa, The Apostle of Love."

The conference was held under the personal supervision of John L. White, executive secretary at 72 Mount Vernon Street, Boston.

METCALF SPEAKS TONITE ON GENIUS AND INSANITY

Prof. John T. Metcalf, of the Psychology Department, will speak tonight on "Genius and Insanity" at the regular monthly meeting of the John Dewey Club. The lecture will be given at eight o'clock, in the children's room on the second floor of the Fleming Museum. The lecture is open to all members of the student body and faculty. A general discussion will follow Professor Metcalf's talk.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of the Research Club held in Morrill Hall last night.

Prof. Frederick Tupper, head of the English department, spoke on "Medieval Trots and Translations."

COMBINED GLEE CLUBS TO PRESENT SECOND PERFORMANCE OF MOZART'S OPERA "COSI FAN TUTTE," TOMORROW EVE, AT EIGHT O'CLOCK, IN THE FLEMING MUSEUM AUDITORIUM

Professor H. G. Bennett, Director, Says Thursday's Presentation Was Best Vermont's Musical Societies Have Ever Put On Believes it is an Unusual Opportunity to Hear a Mozart Opera

SAME CAST TO PERFORM

Principals Include the Misses Putnam, Odell, Perry and the Messrs. Wilcox, Jenks and Rand

"The Thursday presentation was the best operatic performance the Glee Clubs have even given," says Prof. H. G. Bennett, musical director of the opera, "partly because we want many more people to have a chance to hear it, and partly because a number have asked that it be given again, 'Cosi Fan Tutte' will be presented once more, tomorrow evening, April 20, at 8 o'clock instead of 8.15, in the Fleming Museum Auditorium. It is an unusual opportunity to hear a Mozart opera." The principals and chorus will be the same as they were last Thursday evening, with Mailla Putnam '32, as Fiordiligi; Charlotte Odell '33, as Dorabella; and Priscilla Perry '33, as Despina; A. R. Wilcox '35, who played Ferrando; D. W. Jenks '34, who acted as Guglielmo, and E. B. Rand '31 as Don Alfonso. The Men's and Women's Double Quartets form the choruses of soldiers and waiting maids.

"I could only say that I enjoyed the opera very much in my connection with it, and that the combination of a broad farcical plot with exquisitely beautiful music is a very rare and unusual combination, and it is extremely enjoyable," declared Prof. John T. Metcalf, the dramatic coach of the production, when interviewed. Mailla Putnam, speaking for the cast, said, "It is the most interesting and the most difficult thing we have ever put on." The other members of the cast could not be induced to make any comments, modesty being their excuse. R. S. Jenks '35, Medic, manager of the Boys' Glee Club, stated, "Thursday's performance was the smoothest ever put on. "Cosi Fan Tutte" is an opera which students can really enjoy if they go, and I feel that any student or faculty member who doesn't attend is missing something. This is one of the most worthy annual student productions that is put on, and certainly the presentation is just as finished as any other. There are so many fine ensembles and part singing."

"As for finances, the money taken in goes for costume rental and music purchasing, and if the second performance is only half as well attended as the first, we shall come out very nicely."

According to Mrs. Elizabeth Bradish, vocal coach of the cast, it ordinarily takes one year to learn an opera such as "Cosi Fan Tutte," and the present members have been rehearsing for four weeks.

The University Glee Clubs have been producing operas since 1927, when they put on "Dido and Æneas," by Purcell, and "Cosi Fan Tutte" is the first Mozart opera which has ever been attempted.

Tickets may be obtained at the University Store, and are seventy-five cents for center section reserved seats, and fifty cents for side section seats.

FOUNDER'S DAY CHAPEL EXERCISES WILL BE HELD ON SUNDAY, MAY ONE

Date is Changed From Preceding Saturday When R. O. T. C. Will Parade

For the first time in recent years chapel exercises of the annual Founder's Day are to take place on Sunday afternoon, May 1, instead of on the preceding Saturday morning. The usual parade and review of the R. O. T. C. battalion will be conducted on Saturday, April 30. At this time the annual exercises of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military society, and Boulder, honorary senior society, will be held at the Boulder in front of the Old Mill.

In past years, the chapel service has followed immediately upon completion of the battalion formation and the exercises at the Boulder, on the Saturday morning nearest to May 1. The holding of the exercises on this day has prevented a large number of townspeople from attending. The exercises will start at four o'clock.

The chapel exercises will be preceded by a procession of seniors and faculty members into the chapel. Seniors will appear in caps and gowns for the first time.

Prof. James E. Donahue '01 of the mathematics department is to be alumni speaker this year. The senior orator is A. O. Eaton of Worcester, Mass., and the junior orator will be J. E. Bigelow '33 of Fair Haven.

No classes will be held Saturday morning April 30. The R. O. T. C. battalion will assemble at 8.50 for the annual parade and review. It will then march to the front of the campus and form a hollow square around the boulder as in previous years. Men elected to Boulder, will advance and be met by the outgoing members. President Bailey will then deliver his address to the new members. The ceremony of pledging the newly elected members of Scabbard and Blade will follow.

WILDER ELECTED HEAD OF BOULDER SOCIETY

G. Everett Wilder '32 of Petersham, Mass. was elected president of Boulder, senior honorary society, at a business meeting held last Friday evening at the Delta Psi house. Sam Barker '32, of Montclair, N. J. was voted the new vice-president.

Both men have held numerous honorary positions on the campus. The former was one of the 1932 Kake Walk directors, was business manager of the Ariel and has been active on both the cross country and track teams. Barker was president of Wig and Buskin, business manager of the Cynic, has taken the leading rôle in several college dramatic productions and was on the cross country squad.

BIGELOW AND LACROSS DEBATE AT ROTARY CLUB

J. E. Bigelow '33 and P. J. Lacross '32, members of the varsity team who made the Middle West and Southern debating trip, confronted one another on the argumentative platform at the weekly Rotary Club luncheon yesterday. The two dissented concerning the question of capitalism. Lacross claiming that "Capitalism is not a failure in the United States," and Bigelow upholding the theorem that it is a failure.

The discussion involved "the depression," unemployment, the failure of capitalism in certain European countries, peace and war, and many other topics arising from the capitalism subject. Each man knew what the other would say, from past debates on capitalism in which Vermont took part, but that had no affect on the oratory displayed. Applause was received from the assembled Rotarians. The debate was a no decision.

The office of the Dean of Women wishes to announce that board in all University dormitories will be $30 cheaper for the year 1932-33.

Prof. J. T. Metcalf who speaks at the John Dewey Club Meeting tonight on "Genius and Insanity."

NITE PROWLER REMOVES CYNIC TELEPHONE BOX

Nelson Farnes Barnes, self-appointed staff investigator, issued a statement late yesterday in which he declared that a night prowler had removed the Cynic telephone box some time after the five o'clock closing of the editorial office.

He disclosed that a survey of the premises had brought forth evidence that the thief had worked single handed, possibly with the aid of an accomplice on the outside ready to sound the alarm. A cigarette butt was found smoldering on the business manager's desk and marks on the dust-laden floor indicated absence of any tools further than the imprint of a 1933 government stamped dime. The dime, Mr. Barnes explained to a group of eager Cynic reporters, was probably used to unscrew the telephone case which was connected to the missing wooden box. A note on a sheet of Hammemill bond typing paper bore the directions:

"Red tracer—left middle.
Right tracer—right top.
Green tracer—right middle."

According to the inspector, the note was evidently the kidnapper's (the prowler's) code to be used for ransom communication. A telephone official who had been summoned by an irate operator after several "number pleases" had been shouted through the office tubing, explained that the direction sheet was merely a courtesy extended to his department so that the wires might be replaced in their proper order.

A description of the box was broadcast over Station XVWX, giving its dimensions as 16½ x 13½—made of Vermont Mabel—coated with a skin—of white pain—t.

The complete list of questions addressed to Inspector Barnes, better known as Col. Nelson Farnes of the el Picador staff, and his answers:

Q. Do you find any motive showing vengeance or jealousy?

A. Yes, since a fraternity combine meeting had just adjourned.

Q. Are you holding any suspicious individual?

A. (No answer indicated.)

Q. Why do you set the time of the theft as 5 o'clock?

A. The janitor had declared "all well" at that hour.

Q. Do you suspect a faculty member?

A. No direct evidence.

Q. Have police been notified?

A. (None.)

As the Cynic went to press no more definite reports had filtered in. In his fortnightly bulletin Inspector Barnes stated:

"All members of the Cynic editorial board have been fingerprinted and a check-up tomorrow will fal-

(Continued on page 3)

EDITOR SAYS ARIEL TO BE READY BY JUNIOR WEEK

"The 1933 Ariel has gone to press and will be ready for distribution by Junior Week," stated Russell F. Colburn '33, editor-in-chief, yesterday afternoon. "In spite of poor cooperation on the part of most of the minor editors of the Ariel Board, the yearbook is now in the hands of the engravers and barring accidents there, will appear on time."

The editor went on to describe several changes in the arrangement of the Ariel from that of last year. As usual, the junior class and its activities will be featured and the other three classes will have individual sections.

The women's section in charge of Margaret Tower '33 contains summaries and pictures of the women's societies and teams. The fraternities and sorority pictures are arranged in a novel manner and will be composed of individual instead of group photographs.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The Weekly Student Newspaper of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

FRASER B. DREW '33 ..... Editor-in-Chief
DOROTHY C. JACKMAN '33 ..... Women's Editor
JEROME H. FARWELL '33 ..... Sports Editor
JAMES F. BIGELOW '33 ..... Managing Editor
STANLEY K. CARTER '33 ..... Recording Editor
CARL W. JANKE '33 ..... Business Manager
EDWARD E. DUNN '33 ..... Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

Jacob S. Ethel '34 — Augusta Cohen '34
William Cohen '34 — C. Jackson Libby '34
William Brulm '34 — Realtus McCuin '34

FEATURE EDITORS

Norma Carder '33
M. J. Greenberg '34
Dorine Lee '33
T. I. Taylor '33

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G. H. Burrows '34
W. J. Gilbert '34
Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

I. Lieman '34

COLUMNIST

R. J. Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

Founded in 1883. Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year, single copy, five cents.

All editorial and business communications must be signed and addressed to the proper Department head of The Vermont Cynic Office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in at the office not later than 3 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Office telephone 1044.

Acceptance for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 456 P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879, authorized October 14, 1926.

Office of Publication, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. 50 — April 19, 1932 — Number 48

VOCATIONAL GUIDES

During the time of economic depression, students are being advised by college presidents to remain in school as long as possible and not to add to the ever-growing list of unemployed.

Before he plans to continue his work in a graduate school, the average student is faced at the end of four years with the problem of finding a job. Unless he has made a valuable contact with a prospective employer he rarely finds a position in which he may become accustomed after completion of his college career. More often he finds it necessary to add a course in experience to his acquired degree and even then he must start at the bottom of whatever field he chooses.

The business man is wary of the college graduate who emerges with a "degree" willing to catch Dame Fortune and demand from her a life of success.

The teacher must submit to numerous interviews and grillings and perhaps find himself the chief factor in a rural school the instructor of grade one is the same person as the high school principal.

Lincoln Steffens tells the story in his autobiography of how he used to lure college enthusiasts of the journalistic trade. Applicants for a position were asked whether they wished to become "newspaper men" or "writers." If they answered the latter they secured a job and if the former they were dismissed.

The man who is happy at the occupation he is engaged in often has become so through advice of a well meaning friend.

Talks such as those being sponsored by Student Union and Mortar Board should be of definite interest to every co-ed at Vermont.

We would suggest that the men be given a similar opportunity to hear vocational talks. Prominent and famous men in different professional fields are always available and usually have a helpful message for the student body. Why not institute a series of lectures by men of national or local repute on vocational topics? Such a system of vocational guidance would be both interesting and instructive.

Rarely has a production staged by University players and musicians merited a second performance, but the insistent demand of students and townsfolk has resulted in the announcement that "Cosi Fan Tutte" will be presented for the second time tomorrow evening in the Fleming Museum.

The principals of the cast have neglected studies and private pleasures so that a successful presentation may be made. Tomorrow's offering is for especial benefit of those who missed the opportunity of seeing last Thursday's success. A capacity crowd in the Museum would convince the players that their work is appreciated and at the same time would defray the expenses incurred in placing the opera in its right setting.

A CHALLENGE

Perusal of the opinions set forth in the daily papers brings evidence that though the American student is spasmodically liberal he is on the whole inclined toward conservatism.

In the time he spends pursuing an education the European college man finds opportunity for discussion of politics and social conditions and entertains the fond ambition that some day he may take a hand in guiding the reins of his government.

American students, on the other hand, are just finding out that politics is a profession which is held in the public eye as a respectable life work and that the country's government has need of conscientious citizens who are not hesitant about giving tongue to their ideas and convictions.

The general comments of the press advise college youth not to meddle with existing conditions in the Kentucky mines, or question the objective in sentencing condemned negroes in the South; several leaders in the journalistic world, however, have expressed the opinion that the interest aroused in world-wide problems among American collegians is a healthy indication that the new world student is at last coming into his own as one justly demanding equal rights and freedom of expression.

In interviews with different members of the college faculty the Boston University News found teachers most emphatic in declaring that students have a perfect right to revolt when they find bad existing social conditions.

Prof. Charles M. Connell declares "It is the right thing for them to investigate conditions and act as they see fit because they are supposed to represent the thinking minority of people from which future leadership must come." Another Boston U. professor, Robert E. Moody, of C. L. A., says, "If people are right let the students come in to find out about it. They should be permitted to go ahead in such matters, for whether right or wrong it is dangerous to suppress them."

Samuel Guy Inman, writing in Sunday's New York Times, discloses that recent campus disturbances and demonstrations here are far outdone abroad.

In an article headed, "Student Uprisings Shake Many Lands," he gives the opinion that American revolts are tame affairs—that they are rightly termed "student pranks." He says Americans would be appalled to witness student strikes such as he has seen in other lands, where death and destruction are common results of such movements.

Surely a gradual evolutionary method of righting wrongs and setling grievances is more sane and logical than such a revolutionary trend.

Outbursts of student opinion show that people are thinking of other things than social success or athletic glory. Authorities, too often are willing to muzzle student ideas and label them radical. The method by which one's principles may be protected without rigid censorship from those higher up is a difficult problem. Its solution is a challenge to the ingenuity of the modern college student.

W. C.

Campus Comment

[illegible] the editor of the Cynic:

[illegible] problem of fraternity politics [illegible] and solution [illegible] all campus problems can be done away with [illegible] working on this problem.

First the misconception that fraternity politics are intrinsically bad and second that there isn't spirit enough on the hill to correct the present unsavory condition. As to the first one it is generally recognized that amongst any group of self-governing or semi self-governing bodies, politics is the one way to secure organization so as to allow the people a voice in the government. However, like so many other instruments designed for the benefit of the majority, it may be so used as to be for the interests of the few. Unfortunately, that has been true of campus politics for the past few years. Therefore the committee on Campus Politics is not trying to abolish politics but to so revise them that they may continue to be an instrument for the students' welfare.

As to the question of campus spirit. It has been amply shown in incident after incident that when a crisis arose the campus, as represented by its fraternities, has come to the fore and performed in a creditable manner. To wit, the spring baseball trip.

The statement has in the past been made that their are too many fraternities on the hill. Even the most rabid supporter of the Greeks will have to admit that this statement is to some extent true. Eighty percent of the student body (male) belong to one house or the other while a much smaller proportion of women go sorority. The reason for this is so obvious that it may have escaped notice. There is only one men's dormitory on the hill and that for freshmen, while the feminine element glory in at least eight. As long as the males on the hill feel that to get their modicum of college life they must join a fraternity, then nobody should complain about the lack of college spirit. When dormitories supplant fraternity houses then college spirit will dominate over fraternity loyalty. Fraternity loyalty is expressed in fraternity politics and the committee does not wish to curb this loyalty but to put it on a higher and more equitable basis.

It is true that certain disgruntled groups are doing all in their power to nullify our efforts. A whispering campaign has been instigated and to the surprised ears of the committee has come the rumors that they are nothing more nor less than a glorified fraternity combine! Anyone familiar with fraternity politics can readily see how preposterous this statement is, for on this committee are two distinct factions that have never been allied, and a third disinterested party, namely Mortar Board. It is analogous to saying that the Democrats and Republicans have combined to elect Norman Thomas as president. For your information let it be known that nothing will be accepted by the committee except by unanimous vote and that the entire work of the committee can be nulified by the fraternities if their suggestions are not accepted.

In a certain sense the campus is on trial. If the suggestions put forth are honestly considered by the fraternities then it is certain that an honest effort is being made. However if this work is to be cast aside without honest consideration then it is obvious that reform is not wanted and the present agitation is a mere smoke screen.

SAMUEL PELOFSKY.

CINEMA COLUMN

At the Flynn

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

Maurice Chevalier, co-starring with Jeanette Macdonald, in "One Hour With You," gives a fine performance as a doctor, a specialist who gives all his feminine patients serious heart trouble. Chevalier, the former Chase and Sanborn guest artist of the air, is out in front in this merry melodious, sparkling comedy of rollicking love.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

In tune with the times "Shanghai Express" a movie based on the seething warfare in China, vividly pictures for us the conditions existing in that far off country. Marlene Dietrich, the blond, glamorous and romantic star supported by Clive Brook as her lover, takes the leading part. "Shanghai Express" is unique in that the whole action takes place on board the train, which leaves Pekin with a heterogeneous collection of characters, and reveals the numerous, romantic, and harrowing experiences undergone by all passengers as the "Express" hurtles toward Shanghai.

At the State

Monday and Tuesday

Scintillating humorous, yet definitely dramatic "Three Wise Girls" relates the adventures of Jean Harlow, Mae Clarke and Marie Provost in the big city. Each of these actresses stars separately and together form a superb combination.

Wednesday and Thursday

The romantic tenor of Joan Crawford and Clark Gable in a fight [illegible] of a factory girl who b[illegible] of Park Avenue makes [illegible] talkie of "Possessed." W[illegible] teristic poise and dramat[illegible] Crawford plays her rôle [illegible]

Friday and Saturday

Who was the murderer? [illegible] plot furnishes the keynote t[illegible] and intrigue in "The Secret W[illegible] Una Merkel and William [illegible] featured in this movie.

At the Majestic

Monday and Tuesday

If you have the blues by all [illegible] "Misleading Lady" which [illegible] farce, romance and broad [illegible] one. The misleading lady, [illegible] bert is supported by Edmund [illegible]

Wednesday and Thursday

Robert Montgomery in "But [illegible] is Weak" exhibits a new style [illegible] "Loving." His technique [illegible] turns "no" into yes! Truly it [illegible] tional picture!

Friday and Saturday

"Amateur Daddy," a story that [illegible] the strange adventure of [illegible] bachelor with a family of waifs [illegible] Warner Baxter and Marian Nixon [illegible] ter is even better in this picture [illegible] star of "Daddy Long Legs."

M. J. G. '34

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

To MEN only!

NO NEED to park a "Girls Keep Out" at the top of this advertisement. They'll shy off quick enough when they find out what it's about.

For it's a strictly masculine privilege—solace, satisfaction, retreat, call it what you will—the joy of smoking a pipe!

It's the smoke "for men only," any girl will agree—one of the few rights the women haven't crowded us on. And the only smoke for men, many a thoughtful smoker calls it. For the deep consolation and rare comradeship of a mellow, richly aged pipe are something every man does well to know.

She likes to see him smoke a pipe

And you taste the rich satisfaction of pipe smoking at its best when you fill up your bowl with Edgeworth. There's a tobacco that's made for a pipe. Cool, dry, slow-burning. Blended of fine, mellow, full-flavored burleys.

He needs his pipe

You've a rare smoke coming if you've never tried Edgeworth. You will find Edgeworth at your tobacco dealer's. Or send for special free sample packet if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Virginia.

EDGEWORTH
SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

SPRING SALES

This Week's Specials

PENCILS 2 FOR 5c

SCRATCH PADS
1c, 2c, 2 for 5c

WRITING PADS, UVM 5c

FILLER 5740, 7¾x5, 10c

WRITING PAPER 50c

at the

University Stores

SPORTS NEWS

Vermont Athletes Turn Out En Masse For Six Open Air Sports

Abundance of Spring Sport Men Merely Magnifies Glaring Need of Better Gymnasium Equipment

...of Vermont has turned ... elsewhere around the Green ... one may find some en... ...ant to some varsity or ... A trip through the men's ... think of a five o'clock ... New York subway. Football ... players, track men, tennis ...sts, handball players, ... basketball players may be ... interesting trip preparing for ... workout. Over three hun... ... at the college are actively in... ...ne form of athletics.

...al field, the meeting place for ... of the athletes, vibrates with ... varied sounds; the crack of ... ball bat on ball, the snap of the ... glove of the punt of the toe on ... the thud of spikes on the cinder ... and the dull bump of the shot as ... the earth. Multicolored uni... ... sway in this array of talent. ... are available for candidates on the ... and frosh baseball teams, the var... ...ball squad, the varsity and frosh ... team and the varsity and frosh ... teams.

In the gymnasium a basketball game or ... are always in evidence. Some am... person is plodding around the ... indoor track. On the gym floor ... monkeys swinging on the fly... ...rings in true apian fashion. Fencers ... out into the open for a short breath... ...spell and then retire to their corner ... gymnasium, the military addition. ...nasts, wrestlers and handball players ...regate in their hole in the wall, the ...ulary gym. At about half past five, ... shower room (containing nine show... ...heads) is the most popular place in the ... There is no refreshing swim... ...pool to hop into, and there certainly ... not enough showers to accommodate ... vast numbers of athletes working out ... from four to six.

...ches, players and referees bewail ... lack of proper bathing facilities. The ... opinion is current in even the most ... of gymnasium classes, where the ... and sweaty students find it necessary ... wait for a place in the shower room. ...xt to showers, the greatest inconven... ...seems to be in the size and arrange... ...of the lockers. The crowded condi... ...that exist in the University lockers ... a little unhealthy, but what can be ... about it? There are in the country ... high school gymnasiums, including ...kers, showers and the like that would ... the University of Vermont gymna... ...to shame.

In spite of all the drawbacks, Vermont ...s the makings in its heart of several ...d teams. The men are willing to go ...ough many hardships to play on ...s and they are willing to practice ...y day until they are dog tired.

In a short time many of the inactive ...ons at present will feel the tennis ..., but again there are not enough ... to satisfy the vast increasing de... Varsity tennis candidates and ... certainly hold the fore on the col... ...courts, so that the average individual ...s no chance of improving his game, or ...ining the enjoyment he normally ...would if there were many courts.

The intense spirit shown at the present ... in the respective welfare of the vari... ...teams is a thing to be marveled at. ...And despite the enormous number of ap... ...ants for the various teams, track has ...been left in the lurch. Track is just as ...important as football or baseball, or ten... ...An individual, who is not capable of ... in any other sport, can find a ... adjusting himself to track, in a ...manner that will not only help himself ...but will help the track team. It does no ...good for a person to go out for track ...unless he really is willing to work and ...put time into the project.

...addition to the criticisms that the ...masculine athletes have to offer, the fem... ...performers have many other com... ...to register. No showers, no ade... ...lockers, less time in the gym than ...the boys are included in their difficulties. ...Their obstacles are even more numerous ...than the men and yet there is nothing ...they are able to do about it.

NITE PROWLER REMOVES CYNIC TELEPHONE BOX

(Continued from page 1)

low the round-up at the sorority houses."

A bulletin from the Colonel at one this morning said, "I am out to get my man and if it takes me until finals to achieve results I will keep hammering on the lake front. Everyone will be considered as the guilty party until proved otherwise. I believe in the integrity of the students. The police will not be called in."

FOOTBALL ENTHUSIASTS WORKING WITH GREAT ZEAL AT CENTENNIAL

New Equipment Spells Big Feature in Daily Workouts Under the Eyes of Burke, Sutton and Levine

The third day of spring football practice saw forty-five grid enthusiasts working out under ideal November conditions. The temperature was thirty-six degrees and a raw north wind was blowing. Coaches Sutton, Burke and Levine were on hand to supervise the general conditioning exercises which consisted of grass drill, falling on the ball, kicking and passing. After this the men were divided up into three groups. The backfield men practiced starts and throwing passes; the linesmen worked out on charging and receiving passes, the inexperienced men received drill on general fundamentals.

The new boxes for the training of broken field runners are proving their worth, as evidenced by the great number of barked shins of the backfield aspirants. Other equipment is expected to arrive very shortly, and will greatly increase the efficiency of the present training apparatus. The other devices ordered include blocking machines and charging dummies. All this new equipment is being secured in order to enliven the practices as well as to make better players out of candidates.

Freshman girls in the University of Arkansas dormitory must eat everything except peas and ice cream with a spoon—a knife is used for the articles.

Manhattan
SHIRTS
$1.95 to $5

Blues, tans, greens and whites. A Manhattan fitted shirt is something different than you'd expect—it fits, without crowding; it launders without shrinking. Collar attached or separate collars to match.

Manhattan
Shirts, Shorts
55c ea., Up

Clever designing has evolved just the Shirt and Short man wants . . . and a group of unusually appealing patterns.

TURKS
Burlington Vt.

156-158 College St.

CAT'S MEOW

SPORTS EDITOR

By C. L. Libby

Baseball seems to be the only major sport at Vermont where the varsity has shown a marked superiority over the frosh as evidenced by Saturday's bombast.

Congratulations, Frankie, on making captain of basketball!

Mike Valerio has begun to realize that "life is not a bowl of cherries" after the first workout under Coach Burke's football tutelage. For his size, the Amsterdam bearcat is a sweet athlete.

At Leland Stanford, Ben Eastman is clocking the 440-dash in 47⅘ seconds while at Vermont a quarter miler is good if he is timed at 53 seconds. We predict, however, that before the season is out Joe Delfausse will be doing the quarter mile in state record time.

However, the United States has yet to find a better marathoner than Clarence DeMar, who graduated from the University of Vermont in 1911.

Good luck, Larry, on the Massachusetts trip—make it hot for Boston College, Boston University and Tufts! Make those colleges feel as if they had been struck by murderer's row! The college is behind you, team!

The personal visits made by the several members of the various coaching staffs and interested alumni to the fraternities, during the early part of last week, indicate clearly that the coaches are doing all in their power to sustain student interest in athletic activities.

As a result, forty-six football candidates are reporting for spring football, the largest number ever to turn out at this time of the year when young men's fancies are supposed to be turning toward other directions.

Coach Larry Gardner's charges which depart on a three-day invasion of greater Boston tomorrow, will no doubt have their hands full, as they will stack up against three of the leading college hurlers in New England in the persons of Felix Andruscievicz, of Tufts; Buck Weafer, of B. U.; and Harry Downes, of Boston College.

For Your . . .
Riding Habit!

LEVIN'S
ARMY & NAVY STORE

Ladies Whipcord Breeches	$3.39
Ladies Jodphors	4.95
Ladies Riding Boots	9.75
Ladies Riding Coat	12.50

LEVIN'S
170 COLLEGE ST.
Opp. Chittenden County Bank
Tel. 3369-W

Flannel Slacks

EVERYONE'S WEARING THEM THIS YEAR. FLANNEL TROUSERS CUT IN THE LATEST MANNER.

$6.00 and $7.50

SPORT SHOES $5.00 and $7.00

SPORT SOCKS 50c to $1.00

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

Coach Gardner's Men Leave Tomorrow For Bay State

Boston College, Boston University and Tufts to be Met in Annual Massachusetts Invasion—All Teams Comprise Formidable Opponents for Green and Gold Outfit

WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM CLOSES ITS 1932 SEASON

Has a Record of Seven Wins, One Tie and Six Defeats—Matches Were All Closely Contested

Led by Captain-Manager Edith Bishop '33, the University of Vermont women's rifle team ended the 1932 season with a record of seven wins, one tie, and six defeats. All the losses were by a few points, the greatest being to the University of Wyoming by six points. Although the season was not as successful as last year's team when Captain Edith Pritchard became national champion, the team tied for fifth place in the National Rifle Association matches.

Opening with a postal match against Kansas State during the week of February 20, Captain Bishop, Putman, Poling, and Smith shot possibles and Thomas 99 to win 499 to 493.

The following week, the girls, in another postal match, defeated the University of Tennessee and Northwestern but lost to the Universities of Wyoming and to Idaho.

The week of March 5, the team broke even, winning from Carnegie Tech and losing to the University of Iowa.

Again, the next week following, the sharpshooters broke even, winning from the University of Wichita and from Pennsylvania University and losing to Maryland and the University of Missouri. Assistant Manager Smith scored the only possible.

Competing with the University of Syracuse and the University of Indiana during the week of March 19, the girls tied with Indiana but lost to Syracuse. Thomas and Fuller shot possibles.

The team closed the season the week of March 26 with a victory over the University of Washington by the slim margin of 494 to 493. Smith fired a possible.

Edith Bishop '33 was chosen honorary captain for life of the women's rifle team. She shares this honor with Edith Pritchard '31, last year's co-ed national champion.

PIRES TO CAPTAIN CAT BASKETEERS NEXT YEAR

Frank Pires, of Brooklyn, New York was elected captain of the University of Vermont basketball team of the tie which ensued after the first election between Chet Taft and himself. In the revote Pires came out on top. He has served three years on the court quintet, and has played shortstop on the baseball team.

WANTED

Freshmen to scrub the business side of the 1936 Freshman Handbook. Apply to Irving Lisman, manager, at the Phi Sigma Delta House. Anyone wishing to work on the editorial end, please see Charles Libby at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

SEVERAL MINOR SHIFTS MADE FOR SECOND TRIP

The baseball team will leave tomorrow noon for their annual three-day trip to Boston. Here they will line up against Boston University, Boston College and Tufts College. All three of their opponents have always been strong contenders in the baseball world. Tufts and Boston College were particularly strong last year. Comparisons are impossible this year as neither one of the three teams has played much baseball so far this year.

Plans are being made to leave Wednesday noon about one o'clock by three automobiles. They will arrive in Boston sometime that night, and will be exceedingly busy for the next three days, returning Sunday afternoon. While at Boston the team will stay at the Kenmore Hotel.

Unlucky or otherwise thirteen men are destined to make the trip. This is the same number of players that made the southern trip. A few minor changes are being contemplated. Burnell is to go as reserve moundsman in place of Spicer who has a bad arm which Coach Larry Gardner plans to give a rest for awhile. Possibly Bowers will go in place of Taft as catcher. There is one more minor shift which the diamond mentors have not decided upon as yet. Larry is looking over several prospective outfielders and sizing up their hitting possibilities.

Coach Gardner thoroughly believes in frequent shifts and giving all deserving men a chance. "We are planning on letting two or three men go who did not make the southern trip this time. In this way we figure on getting enough information on prospects for permanent positions" said Coach Gardner. "Give every deserving man a chance," is his motto.

"The results of the season are going to depend largely on the battery. Of course, we lost several of our moundsmen by last year's graduation. Rutkowski, veteran of former years, is the nucleus of this year's pitching staff," Coach Gardner commented. "In some ways the southern trip exceeded my expectations. Some latent hitting power was uncovered."

Last year's Massachusetts trip included Brown University of Providence, Wesleyan University of Middletown, Conn., and Springfield College of Springfield, Mass. Brown defeated Vermont 3-0, while Wesleyan swamped the Catamounts 7-0. The only win came when Sargent, 1931 moundsman, pitched the team to a 7-3 victory over the Y. M. C. A. College.

The trip is a hard grind for even the most seasoned player, because it necessitates three games one day after the other. Tufts and Boston University furnish sufficient opposition to make any Green and Gold team worry. Tufts has previously defeated Vermont in rather easy fashion on the basketball court. The diamond team is out for revenge of their college. Boston University broke even with Vermont during the basketball season.

The University of Vermont plays a return game with Boston University at Centennial Field on May 7, a Saturday. On May 30, Memorial Day, the Jumbos from Tufts College invade Burlington.

About eighty spectators braved the windy snow-laden air Saturday afternoon to witness the varsity swamp the freshmen, 3 to 14, in a six-inning practice game. Coaches Larry Gardner and Doc Newton tried out twenty-eight players in an endeavor to sift out the most likely aspirants for the coming season. McVetty and Farmer pitched for the varsity, each allowing two hits. Swartz, Collins and Carlson hurled for the kittens, allowing a total of nine bingles. A most sensational play occurred when Rock, playing short for the frosh, snared a low hot liner ten feet away from where he was standing in a pretty one-handed catch. He whipped it to Burns for a sweet double play, catching Winant off second.

NOTICE

Prof. H. G. Jordan, associate professor of histology in the College of Medicine will deliver the first of a series of talks to prospective medic students at 8.15 tomorrow evening in Hall A—Medical Building. His topic will be "The Premedical Years." All students interested are invited to attend.

Judge: And you say you were attacked by a crowd of hoodlums?

Latin Prof.: Hoodla, your honor!

REVIEW OF THE MOZART OPERA "COSI FAN TUTTE"

(Continued from page 1)

R. O. T. C. BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT AND DANCE

CYNIC ELECTS EIGHT AS REPORTERS TO ED BOARD

Five Men and Three Women of Frosh Class Get Posts on Basis of Credits and Exam Grade

NOTICES

Any freshmen interested in scrubbing varsity football are asked to report to Assistant Managers Cogswell, Eaton and Jenks at the equipment room any afternoon as soon after 3:45 as possible.

Said a bald-headed man to a waitress lately,
See here, young woman, my cocoa's cold!
She sweetfully answered, "I can't help that.
If the blamed thing's chilly, put on your hat."

and the second performance tomorrow will be a welcome opportunity to those who missed the first

Hamlin University, the oldest college in Minnesota, no longer requires students to have certain number of credits for graduation; instead, when they are ready to pass a comprehensive examination they receive their diploma.

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
Elias Lyman Coal Company
286 College Street

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 413 or 414

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2070, 2071, 2072

FRENCH SUMMER SCHOOL
Residential Summer School (co-educational) in the heart of French Canada. Old-Country French staff. Only French spoken. Elementary, Intermediate, Advanced. Certificate or College Credit. French entertainments, sight-seeing, sports, etc.
Fee $140, Board and Tuition, June 25-July 31. Write for circular to Secretary Residential French Summer School
McGILL UNIVERSITY
A-32 MONTREAL, CANADA

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
NEW YORK
Case System—Three-Year Course
CO-EDUCATIONAL
College Degree or Two Years of College Work with Good Grades Required
Transcript of Record Necessary in All Cases
Morning, Early Afternoon and Evening Classes
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE
CHARLES P. DAVIS, Registrar
233 Broadway, New York

they talk mildness— better taste—

Chesterfield

They Satisfy... ALL YOU COULD ASK FOR

Chesterfield Radio Program
MON. & THURS. TUES. & FRI. WED. & SAT.
BOSWELL SISTERS ALLEN GRAY RUTH ETTING
10:30 p.m. E.S.T. 10:30 p.m. E.S.T. 10 p.m. E.S.T.
9 p.m. E.S.T. CBS—WESTERN every night but Sunday
Paul Douglas, Announcer
COLUMBIA NETWORK

© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1932 NUMBER 40

ORATORICAL FINALISTS TO COMPETE FOR HONORS IN CONTEST TONIGHT

Six Girls to Vie for University Scholarships in Annual State Oratorical Contest

UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS WILL JUDGE CONTEST

[illegible] Fleming Museum auditorium will compete for scholarships ranging to $150, $100, and $75, offered by the University of Vermont to the three best prize speakers selected. The occasion is the finals of the state oratorical contest. The contestants are [illegible] Proctor, Elizabeth [illegible] Springfield, Marion Calcagni [illegible] Charlotte Gaither of Burlington, Katherine LeBaron of Morrisville and Ruth Joyal of Waterbury. This year a state elimination prize speaking contest has been substituted for the oratorical contest of former years.

In the southern district contest held on April 15 at Rutland, Cornelia Gale of Proctor High School won first prize, a $150 scholarship to the University of Vermont, reciting "The Highwayman" by Alfred Noyes. Elizabeth Jacobs of Springfield High gained second place and a scholarship of $100 to the University with her piece "A Night Out." Stuart Hawthorne of Vermont Academy took third place, presenting Richard's Soliloquy from "Henry VI." He will receive a $75 scholarship. Prof. James E. Donahue of the University acted as one of the judges.

In the central district contest which took place at Montpelier on April 13, Katherine LeBaron, representing Peoples Academy of Morrisville, won first place with her selection "The Prisoner of [illegible]." Ruth Joyal of Waterbury High gained second place by presenting "The Highwayman." The winners will receive scholarships of $150 and $100, respectively. Prof. W. E. Aiken of the University held one of the positions of judge.

In Burlington, on April 15, Marion [illegible] of Bellows Free Academy in [illegible] took first place in the northern district contest with her presentation "Telltale Heart" by Edgar Allen Poe. Charlotte Gaither of Burlington [illegible] second prize with her selection "Lady Bracknell Interviews Mr. Worthington" from Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest." The

(Continued on page 4)

NUMBER OF GENIUSES SMALL SAYS METCALF AT JOHN DEWEY CLUB

The number of geniuses is small, [illegible] the number of insane people in [illegible] greater than the number [illegible] students in the country at [illegible] Prof. John T. Metcalf in his talk on "Genius and Insanity" at the meeting of the John Dewey Club last [illegible].

"The special ability of the very [illegible] insanity, however, is the [illegible] mental processes which [illegible] and complete adjustment [illegible] is a great tendency to regard [illegible] insane people but they [illegible] vary widely from the normal." He explained that some geniuses have gone [illegible] have never done any [illegible] while in this state. Insane differ from geniuses in the [illegible] are detached from reality [illegible] deal more effectively than [illegible] with reality in their particular field.

He continued his speech by telling [illegible] the various kinds of insanity and giving examples. He then gave some interesting examples of the geniuses of the world.

An open forum was held after the meeting during which many questions were answered by Professor Metcalf. Only 36 members of the club and students were present. The next meeting of the club will be held May 24.

ZETA CHI INITIATES NEW MEN AT BANQUET

Zeta Chi held their annual formal [illegible] Monday, April 18. The new members are: R. P. Davison '35 of Bloomingford, W. B. Morgan '35 of Salisbury, R. S. Wright '35 of Burlington.

Several alumni returned for the occasion. [illegible] 30 addressed the initiates.

MISS HUBBARD IS CHOSEN PRESS CLUB PRESIDENT

Helen Hubbard '34 was elected president of Press Club at a business meeting held Friday afternoon, at one-thirty, in 3 North College. Alice Gunn '34 was chosen to the position of secretary-treasurer, and Katherine Shaw '34 was elected chairman of the social committee.

Helen Mount '35, chairman of the scrapbook committee, reports that the work is making good progress, and that more volunteer workers are needed. The scrapbook is a collection of items which are clipped from the CYNIC and other papers concerning U. V. M. students. Photographs are also sometimes included.

W. A. A. INSTALLATION BANQUET WILL BE HELD TUESDAY AT ROBINSON

W. A. A. awards will be made to those who have won them, and the newly elected officers will be installed at a rally for members of the Women's Athletic Association which will be held at Robinson Hall, Tuesday, April 26, at 5.30 p.m. Dinner will also be served there, for which women not living in college dormitories will be asked to pay thirty-five cents.

The new officers to be installed are Ara Armstrong '33, president; Jackie Hoyt '34, vice-president; Peg Tower '33, recording secretary; Sue France '35, corresponding secretary; Betty Woodward '34, treasurer; Ruth Erwin '34, publicity manager; Bunny Perry '33 and Leah Gowen '33, senior representatives; Daisy Putnam '34, junior representative; Twink Mount '35, sophomore representative; Elda Miller '33, editor of the W. A. A. section of the 1936 Freshman Handbook; Kay Tolman '33, chairman of Health Council; Mary Petras '33, chairman of Outing Club.

The varsity basketball team, which was announced at the basketball banquet, will also be announced at the rally. Those on the team are Mary Petras '33 and Margaret Wellinger '34, forwards; Sunny Maguire '35 and Ara Armstrong '33, guard; Helen Fogg '34, center; and Mary Lobdell '33, side center.

All women having W. A. A. points should hand them in at once, either to the Gymnasium office or to their class representative. Also if there are any sophomore women who think they have enough points for their numerals or U. V. M., they should see Daisy Putnam about it before Monday.

It takes only fifty points to become a member of W. A. A. These points are easily won by hiking, outdoor sports (which give two points an hour), and health cards (twenty-five points for each card kept). Making a first team in a major sport, too, gives 100 points, while a first team in a minor sport counts 75 points.

V. C. A. CABINET WILL HOLD RETREAT SUNDAY

In order that plans may be worked out for next year and that the new men may become acquainted with its work in the past, the Vermont Christian Association plans to hold a "Retreat" on Sunday, April 24.

"These Retreats have been held for the last two years," says M. D. Powers, "Y" secretary, following the example of most of the large colleges, "and have always been very helpful in giving the new officers a start, and in organizing plans for the following year." Chairman W. P. Stetson '34, declares, "We expect there will be more present at the 1932 Retreat than ever before. It's going to be a great success. We have a great many things to talk over—the freshman camp, the freshman handbook, the mixers, the freshman banquet, dances, the work of the past and coming years."

At a meeting of the newly-elected V. C. A. cabinet, held last Wednesday in the V. C. A. office, it was suggested by Chairman Stetson that a Retreat be held and the idea was unanimously noted a good one. So that instead of attempting to discuss and organize plans for the coming year at the meeting the cabinet decided to do so at the Retreat, when it would be easier to informally talk things over. The duties of the officers were also read.

EPSILON SIGMA

Mary Murphy and Beatrice Fitts were initiated Monday evening. Refreshments were served after the ceremony.

Epsilon Sigma will hold their formal dance on May 6 on the Hotel Vermont Roof Garden with the Black Pirates furnishing the music.

COMMUNITY CONCERT DRIVE ENDS SATURDAY

Membership Cards are Three Dollars and Will Admit Bearer to Concerts in Any City

ONLY CHANCE TO HEAR ARTISTS SAYS BENNETT

"The community concert series will quite likely be the only chance to hear outside artists next year," declares Prof. H. G. Bennett, head of the U. V. M. music department, "and students must purchase cards now in order to get memberships." This week is the only time that memberships for next year's community concert program may be secured, and 9.30 Saturday evening April 23, is definitely the final hour. After that time it will not be possible to obtain a membership.

The program will include at least three artists or groups of artists, the selection being based upon the number of memberships received. This year's series included Harold Bauer, pianist, Nelson Eddy, baritone, and the Cherniovsky.

Student memberships are three dollars, and Bailey's Music Rooms is the headquarters. Cards may also be secured from Mailla Putnam '32, Mrs. Laura Bamforth, director of Robinson Hall, and R. S. Wright '35.

These cards admit their bearers not only to the concerts in Burlington but also to concerts in any other of the one hundred fifty-four cities of the United States where community concerts are given. One man last year heard sixteen concerts on his one season membership.

Community concerts is the name of an organization composed of the Columbia Broadcasting Company allied with several of the largest managing agencies of the United States. Through them it is possible to bring almost any of the well-known musicians to a city. Such artists as Rosa Ponsellé, Lilli Pons, Harold Bauer, Richard Crooks, Fritz Kreisler, Albert Spaulding, Barrere and his little symphony are obtainable through them.

This is what happens. An agent is sent from New York and conducts a membership drive lasting for one week in Burlington. At the end of the drive, Saturday night at 9.30, the money is counted and the agent lays before a committee of the city the names of artists whom it is possible to secure for the sum at hand.

The musicians are selected and the bookings are made by the agent. There is no charge by the association for advertising, or any other expense connected with the membership drive, and the cost of the artist is no greater than it would be ordinarily.

Each member is issued a membership card, which admits him to each of the scheduled concerts. "The particular advantage of this plan," says Harlie T. Wilson, chairman of the Burlington committee, "is that for three dollars it is possible to hear really five artists for perhaps one-third of the ordinary cost, and without the trouble of making a trip to some larger city to hear them."

FELLOWSHIPS AWARDS GO TO PROMINENT STUDENTS

Appointments to research fellowships for the year 1932-1933 have been announced. They go to four men and one woman from five different colleges. The fellowship in Physics was awarded to Laurence C. Whitman '27 of the University of Vermont; German to John Ellis Craps '32, University of South Carolina; Organic Chemistry to Winifred Mills Randall '31, Smith College; Chemistry to W. G. Van Note '30, Rensselear, and English to Walter Van Tilbury Clark '31 of University of Nevada.

Five research fellowships are awarded each year and ten scholarships. A scholarship is free tuition and exemption from labatory fees. A fellowship is free tuition and exemption from laboratory fees but gives $700 the first year and $800 the second and requires some help in the department.

Both scholarships and fellowships are awarded on the basis of several points. First general scholarship; second, scholarship in the subject in which appliction is made; third, improvement while in college, and fourth, recommendations from professors in the subject in which they wish to specialize.

The committee on research scholarships and fellowships consists of Professors Jacobs, Eckhard, and Burns.

Y. W. C. A. installation of new officers at Grassmount Sunday night at 7:30, April 24. Every girl interested is invited to attend.

COMMITTEE CONVENES FOR SECOND TIME

A second meeting of the political investigation committee was held last Tuesday night. The main purpose of the meeting was to discover how much had been accomplished. Although definite progress is being made no committee felt prepared to bring forth definite data and facts. Discussion followed and several possible solutions of the political question are likely to arise. The committee will meet from time to time to discuss and advance remedies and suggestions to bring politics out into the open. The members are all actively engaged in gathering data and material for a thorough investigation and it is felt that success will crown the efforts put forth.

R. O. T. C. BAND CONCERT DANCE WILL BE HELD IN GYM TOMORROW NIGHT

Rhythmic movements both of the band and dancers are the program for Saturday, April 23, when the R. O. T. C. Military Band plays its annual concert in U. V. M. gym at 8.15 o'clock.

An informal dance incited by the Vermonters in a ten-piece unit. The admission is one dollar per couple.

To quote from a letter to a CYNIC of ten years ago by the drum major at that time:

"Everyone has heard of comments to the effect that the band sure makes all our intercollegiate contests more collegiate. The band does add spirit to our smokers and mass meetings, and note has been given by speakers to the part the band plays in keeping up college spirit."

This year, the band took its necessary annual part in Kake Walk, broadcasted twice, played a concert at the Memorial Auditorium for the American Legion, made the trip to Norwich with the football team, and assisted at several home games, both football and basketball.

"The bands of the past years have always been a credit to Vermont," states Joe Lechnyr, the band conductor, "and as far back as 1925, the University R. O. T. C. band was chosen to represent the State of Vermont at the inauguration of President Calvin Coolidge at Washington, D. C."

"The program will include several concert numbers, such as the "Badger Tournament Overture," "Danse Oriental," "Princess of India Overture," and "Jungle Drums," as well as the military marches, and possibly some of the more popular tunes of the day." "Jungle Drums," by the English composer, Ketelbey, is a foreign composition, and was written by him to give the effect of the tom-tom dancing of the African blacks. The band has been rehearsing this music for the past five months.

The chaperones are Colonel and Mrs. Frederick F. Black and Lieutenant and Mrs. J. W. Kullman.

VOCATIONAL TEAS TO BE HELD AT GRASSMOUNT

A series of vocational teas are being held, the first of which was at Grassmount last Tuesday. Esther Smith, president of Robinson Hall, introduced two speakers, Miss Florence Maddock of the Vermont Y. W. C. A. and Miss Mead, who is connected with the Vermont Library Extension Service. Miss Maddock talked about the club work, principles and unusual ideals and its influence in character-building nature. She streased the breadth of the views of leaders which has lately grown from worldly to universal. Miss Mead spoke on the library work in the urban communities. She advised girls planning to enter library work as a life profession to train at one of the numerous schools founded for this particular work and which in most cases require a prerequisite of college graduation. "Library work is divided into two phases, social and intellectual," said Miss Mead.

Tea was served following the program. Miss Helen LeBaron, Mortar Board, and Miss Sylvia Boyd, president of Student Union, poured. Elizabeth Eckhard, Margaret Ann Martin and Daisy Putnam served.

The second vocational tea will be held Tuesday, April 26, at which time Miss Holbrook of the University education department will be one of the speakers.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

The initiates of Kappa Alpha Theta gave a Victrola dance for the initiates of the other sororities on Saturday evening, April 16, at their chapter house.

Jeanette Beecher recently announced her engagement to Robert Olson, of New York.

WOMEN'S STUDENT UNION OFFICERS INSTALLED AT FORMAL MASS MEETING

Novel Procedure Introduces Newly-elected Women to the Offices

BOYD, PRESIDENT-ELECT, SPEAKS ON STUDENT UNION

The new officers of Women's Student Union were installed last evening at a formal mass meeting held in the auditorium of the Fleming Museum.

A procedure entirely new to U. V. M. but now employed in many other colleges was used. The retiring officers, wearing caps and gowns, entered from the rear of the auditorium, the president, vice president, treasurer and social calendar chairman using the left aisle, and the chief justice, second vice-president and secretary the right aisle. The president and second vice-president each carried gold ribbons, and the vice-president and chief justice carried green ribbons extending from the back of the auditorium to the front seat where they were tied, to literally "bind together the members of the student body."

A speech of interest to all was given by Sylvia Boyd '33, the newly-elected president of Women's Student Union, concerning the Women's Student Government Association meeting in Amherst, Mass., which she recently attended as Vermont's representative. She gave examples of the problems of student government in other colleges which were discussed at that meeting.

Following Miss Boyd's speech, a report of the past four years was given by Priscilla Perry '33, the incoming treasurer. She also gave a brief talk on the work done this year by Student Union.

Lillian Mount '32, retiring president, voiced an appreciation in her farewell address of the unusual cooperation shown by the student body this year. "The council has felt that it has been entirely backed by the student body in everything that it has done this year," she said, and added that, although the coun-

(Continued on page 4)

CAST DOES JUSTICE IN SECOND PRESENTATION OF "COSI FAN TUTTE"

One hundred eighteen listened to Mozart's Melodies, Wednesday, April 20, at the second presentation of "Cosi Fan Tutte" by the University Glee Clubs. It was an even smoother performance than last Thursday's, if judged by the audience applause.

The opera itself has been discussed in previous CYNIC issues, so that nothing serious, for a perplexed reporter, but to mention the various impressions left by this second performance.

Jenks and Jenks, sceneshifters and flourists extraordinary, transformed a drawing room to a loggia by descending from the stage, picking up a tree apiece, ascending the platform and planting them thuddingly in the background. Amazingly, but one hand seemed necessary to transport one full grown hedgetree pot and all.

The poison scene was especially affecting. The unusual effort of two suffering young men in their dying agonies apparently peacefully giving up the ghost only to resurrect themselves again and again to assist in their "requiem."

But these are but incidental. Mozart's music, expressed in the many ensembles and part songs was the one impression that stands out above all others and then the performance itself, pronounced by Professor Bennett and Mrs. Bradish, as the best ever given was productive of applause. The parts of Despina, played by Priscilla Perry '33, and Don Alfonso, taken by E. B. Rand, P. G., permitted of more freedom than the rules, and the two did full justice to them, if laughter is any guide.

JAFFE, VIOLINIST TO GIVE CONCERT THURSDAY

Florence Jaffe, violinist, is the artist who will present the concert next Thursday, April 28. The concert, held in the Fleming Museum auditorium, at 8.15 o'clock, is entirely free and open to the public. Madam Jaffe has been a pupil of Franz Kneisel, and for several years studied under Leopold Auer.

This concert is a gift to the University of an anonymous donor.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The Official Student Newspaper of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Women's Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Recording Editor
STANLEY K. CARTER '33 ..... Business Manager
EARL W. JANKE '33 ..... Advertising Manager
[illegible] Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34 Augusta Cohen '34
William Cohen '34 Charles J. Libby '34
William Brisin '34 Realtus McCuin '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] Carder '33
M. J. Greenberg '34
Lorraine Lee '33
T. I. Taylor '33

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G. H. Burrows '34
W. J. Gilbert '34
Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

I. Lieman '34

COLUMNIST

R. J. Weissman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

Founded in 1883. Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year, single copy, five cents.

All editorial and business communications must be signed and addressed to the proper department head of The Vermont Cynic Office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in at the office not later than 3 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Office telephone 1044.

Arrangement for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 412 P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879 authorized October 14, 1926.

Office of Publication, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. [illegible] April 22, 1932 Number 49

REVEREND TATUM SPEAKS AT CHAPEL SERVICE WED.

"Other people's lives are often sacrificed to mistaken ideas of religion. Many things which were morally wrong have been done with the purpose of serving God." This essentially was the message delivered by Rev. H. O. Tatum, pastor of the Baptist Church of Burlington, who conducted the morning chapel service Wednesday, April 20. He read the Old Testament story in which Abraham was ordered to offer up his son, Isaac as a sacrifice but was not required to carry out the command being told to spare the boy by a divine intervention.

Rev. Tatum said that for many centuries people have been missing the true significance of this episode, and that we may be missing a part of this significance even today. To explain his statement, he said that Abraham found a new significance in his relation to God there on the hilltop, when he was prevented from sacrificing his son. He gave as his belief concerning the divine intervention that it was brought about through Abraham's love for this child. Abraham discovered that so unnatural an act would not have pleased God rather the contrary. The message taken from this was that many things which are done in the name of religion are essentially wrong. He also said that when people learn to realize that it is not religion, but artificial human standards which they are following, they will question these faulty interpretations of divine words and seek to know the real truth.

The choir sang "Hail Holy Light" without accompaniment, under the direction of Prof. H. G. Bennett.

The lack of interest shown by students of the University in the free series of French lectures sponsored by the Alliance Française, of Burlington, is nothing short of unbelievable. Rarely have Vermont students had such an opportunity to hear lectures of merit and to supplement the advantages afforded them by purely academic courses. The lectures are delivered by men of learning, ability and personality who are nationally and international-ly known statesmen, authors, and educators. To secure their services is a difficult task, and the success of the Alliance Française in the undertaking is highly commendable. Mrs. Evans deserves much credit for her interest in the students which has often been shown by her cooperation with the college French club, Le Cercle Lafayette. The subjects discussed in the series are of value to any student interested in international relations, art, travel, literature, or the French language. To the student of French the lectures are of especially great value for they aid materially in the study of correct accentuation, vocabulary, and conversational style.

The Alliance Française has not only made it possible for students to attend these lectures at a very moderate expense, but has also issued complimentary tickets for the entire series to all students majoring in French and related subjects. Prizes will be awarded to the students passing the best comprehensive exam on the material covered by the lectures. In short, the Alliance Française has done its utmost to make the lectures attractive to the students of the University, and we feel that its efforts should be sincerely commended.

KINGSLEY ORATORICAL CONTEST WILL BE HELD

Freshman and Sophomore Men Should Get in Touch With M. D. Powers at Once [illegible] year freshman and sophomore men who [illegible] a competition for the Hon. Darwin P. Kingsley Oratorical Prize would give the [illegible] and submit his topic for approval soon," said M. D. Powers, coach of debating, in a recent Cynic interview.

This oratorical contest is held annually for the prizes of $25, $15 and $10, which are given by Darwin P. Kingsley '81, vice president of New York Life Insurance Company. The prizes are awarded for the best declamation or passages of oratorical prose.

Last year the prizes were awarded as follows: First to K. F. Jernegan '33, second to R. Van Dyke '34, third to J. E. Rugelow '33. Speeches may be either selections or written by the student this year. The contest will be held during Commencement week as in past years.

Campus Comment

[illegible]

[illegible] an indifferent sense they were [illegible] paper for any women's news.

Some of them unfortunately have the bad habit of following the Cynic for any coed notes that would interest them. Last Tuesday's issue appeared on the scene, and behold, not a line concerning the coming installation of new Women's Student Union officers at last night's mass meeting, for which attendance was compulsory. Upon investigation it was found that an advance was handed in to one of the news editors, the type was set, but no story was published. Instead the entire second column on the front page was devoted to some story of microscopic value concerning some useless piece of apparatus in the Cynic office.

We know for a fact that details for the annual [illegible] women's meet, scheduled for tonight was reported, edited and set up in type, but no story was published. It is not that that co-eds want a column advance on anything as important as tonight's event, but they do expect some sort of a story that will give the women a fair break.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Maddock of the Vermont Y. W. C. A. was scheduled to have given one of a series of vocational talks at Grassmount. The conscientious women readers would find out nothing concerning this from the paper, which is supposed to represent all campus irrelevant of type. With the exception of a story on the co-ed rifle team and a story on the election to the Cynic Board there was no women's news according to last Tuesday's paper. And yet there was an important mass meeting last night. There is the annual frosh-soph meet for which the girls are supposed to be prepared tonight. There was a vocational talk which should be of intense interest to both outgoing students as well as undergraduates. There will be a W. A. A. rally on Tuesday afternoon to install new officers, but points were to have been given to the various class representatives a week prior to the meeting.

Is there anything that can be done? Evidently the news is being covered, the work edited and from the latest reports, the type set up, but why is the news killed? It seems only right that we should figure as much in the college paper as some news that is published.

With hopes to betterment.

SYLVIA BOYD,
LEAH GOWEN,
LILLIAN G. MOUNT.

Students who engage in campus activities have a higher average of intelligence although their scholastic average is lower, the results of intelligence tests at the City College of New York show.

Society Notes

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Miss Corinne Cookingham '32 of South Burlington was given a surprise kitchen shower at the sorority rooms preceding the sorority meeting Monday evening. The surprise was in honor of Philip Manning '32 [illegible] announcement. Gifts in blue and yellow [illegible] were placed on a table over which was [illegible] of silver gold and blue [illegible]. Vivian Hubbard '32 acted as [illegible] and served refreshments following the shower.

PI BETA PHI

Miss E. Louise Richardson, province Vice-President, will spend the week-end in town as guest of the local chapter.

ALPHA XI DELTA

The local chapter went to Middlebury, Monday, April 18, to celebrate Founder's Day with the chapter of Middlebury College.

Eleanor Wood '31, of Jeffersonville, was in town this week-end.

SIGMA GAMMA

The following officers have recently been elected: President, Dorothy Jackman '33; vice-president, Marjorie Scott '33; rushing chairman, Norma Carder '33; secretary, Edith Holden '33; treasurer, Lydia Curler '33; and social chairman, Velma Purinton '34.

Lena Cochran '31 is in town.

KAPPA DELTA

The second degree was conferred on Sunday, April 17, to Wilma Hurd '35, Geneva Wilcox '34, Mabel Farquhar '34, and Susie Sanborn '35.

The chapter served at tea on Thursday, April 14, for the National Inspector, Miss Bessie Feagon. The tea was held at the Greenebowl, and representatives of the other sororities were present.

PROF. TUPPER SPEAKS AT RESEARCH CLUB MEET

Professor Tupper of the English Department, spoke on "Medieval 'Trots' and Translations" at the meeting of Research Club last Tuesday evening. His paper dealt widely with the use of Latin in the Middle Aes, and its relation to the vernacular.

The annual election of officers was also held at this meeting. The following were elected: president, Prof. R. M. Holmes; vice-president, Prof. G. F. Eckhard; secretary and treasurer, Prof. L. S. Rowell; assistant secretary, Prof. G. H. Nicholson; and an executive committee consisting of Professors Prindle, Moore, and Lindsay.

All eight o'clock classes have been called off for the rest of the year at the University of Rochester. Which means that now the professor can sleep too.

ANNUAL PRIZE DEBATE TO BE HELD AT VERMONT

Topic and Date However Has Not Been Decided for the Middlebury Debate

No date has yet been set [illegible] debate which is held annually between the University of Vermont and Middlebury College. The prizes are [illegible] groups established by [illegible] Lawrence of Rutland, U. V. M.

The first group of prizes [illegible] in memory of the donor's brother Lawrence '99 and is offered to students in the English Department of U. V. M. who show the greatest proficiency in debate. The second group established in memory of [illegible] rence '99 and the donor's father Lawrence, Middlebury '67, are awarded to students participating in joint debate between U. V. M. and Middlebury College, who in the opinion of the judges chosen show the greatest proficiency in debate. The prizes in both groups are two firsts, of twenty dollars each, two seconds of fifteen dollars, and two thirds of ten dollars each.

The Lawrence Prize Debate will be held the early part of May at U. V. M. No topic has yet been decided upon. Middlebury's wish to debate [illegible] which has been discussed by the [illegible] up to this time.

The co-eds at Mt. Morris [illegible] Friday night as ladies' night. They learn how it feels to be "turned down" when they do the inviting. The usual process is reversed, the women calling for the men, picking up purposely forgotten accessories, carrying refreshments, and at the end of the evening depositing their "dates" on the right doorsteps at that moment, we presume, the [illegible]

F. J. Preston & Son
INCORPORATED
JEWELERS
17 Upper Church Street

PRIZE CUPS
and
TROPHIES

Expert Repairing
and
Engraving

Fraternity Jewelry

SPRING SALES

This Week's Specials

PENCILS 2 FOR 5c

SCRATCH PADS
1c, 2c, 2 for 5c

WRITING PADS, UVM 5c

FILLER 5740, 7¾x5, 10c

WRITING PAPER 50c

at the

University Stores

"GRECIAN MOON" Maiden Form's latest BRASSIERE SENSATION

The definitely accented, form-fitting frocks of the new season demand that your figure be perfectly moulded—bust uplifted, waistline slender and hips smoothly rounded. With Maiden Form, it's easy to acquire this naturally beautiful silhouette. Maiden Form foundations are scientifically designed to mould the figure in harmony with fashion's dictates.

A new perfection in uplifting "upper" brassiere, with a [illegible] curved elastic insert between the two sections, [illegible] Just enough [illegible]

"NON A LACTIC" — girdle [illegible] special elastic [illegible] clusive [illegible] Maiden Form stretchable [illegible] center [illegible] abdomen [illegible] enough [illegible] through [illegible] and back [illegible] comfort [illegible] for heavier [illegible]

"Maidenette Seamless" a new "wisp of a brassiere", for slight figures, with tiny seams under the bust so that they're practically invisible. The dainty garter belt is of net trimmed with lace.

"Maiden [illegible] Double [illegible] the [illegible] popular with women of fuller figure. This new imported all-elastic girdle nips in the waistline and [illegible] controls the [illegible]

There is a Maiden Form for every type of figure.

LOOK FOR THE NAME
The Maiden Form BRASSIERE
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
GIRDLES · GARTER BELTS

Brassieres, $1.00 to $2.95.
Girdles, $2.95 to $12.50.
Garter Belts, $1.00 to $2.95

See Maiden Form styles at your dealer or write to us for booklet
Maiden Form Brassiere Co., Inc. Dept. [illegible]—245 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

SPORTS NEWS

BAT WIELDERS OPPOSE BOSTON UNIVERSITY IN GAME THIS AFTERNOON

Barnell or Beckley Will be on the Mound for the Green and Gold Players

TRIP IS MAINLY FOR EXPERIENCE THIS TIME

Boston College on Slate for Tomorrow

[illegible] of Vermont baseball [illegible] Boston College tomorrow [illegible] University this afternoon [illegible] two very strong teams. [illegible] defeated Fordham in a [illegible] 9-8 on Wednesday and is primed to take on the Green and Gold boys.

Boston University, this afternoon's opponents, is rather strong, having broken even in the only two games they have played to date. They dropped a close one to Providence College and they pulled out a ninth-inning victory over Tufts when they successfully worked a squeeze play.

Either Beckley or Burnell will be on the mound for the Catamounts in today's game. Burnell is on the trip in Spicer's place. "Babe" is temporarily laid up with a sore arm. Talbert is making the trip in place of Andy Wesoly. Ray Beckley saw action in Saturday's practice game, when he sent three hot ones out through second and third base. Bowers is on the trip in Tatt's place at second-string catcher. "Larry" is a heavy hitter, putting over two hundred pounds into every time he lines out.

The team seems to have a fair chance of winning over the Boston University, but Larry Gardner is not after victories on this invasion as much as he is out for the experience gained by the squad members. Several men who did not go on the southern trip are with the batsmen this trip.

The Boston College nine which the Green and Gold meets in tomorrow's game are fine players and are out to trim the Vermont nine. Chet Rutkowski will probably start in tomorrow's game. Eddie Winant will be playing the initial sack with Macomber at second, Pires at short and MacKay at third. Talbert, Burnell and Captain Jay will be grazing material. In all probability Coach Gardner will use Bowers in the receiver's berth because he did not profit by going along on the southern trip with the team.

We learn that Harvard has abolished the necktie from its dormitories. In line with this rather startling policy of Patrician it will be but a matter of time until the Vassar student body puts a ban on South cough drops and Yale takes definite action against the Harvard "hoodlums," says the Oregon Emerald.

Two years ago a Columbia jokester applied to the freize of Barnard Hall and painted a "Y" at a strategic position. Since then efforts to remove the name "Barnyard" by chemical means have failed and now the removal of the whole is contemplated.

Experiments at Marshall College recently on pedestrian honesty is at a low ebb. Numerous packages, wrapped and addressed, were dropped at various corners. Results showed that two out of three pedestrians displayed any real honesty.

W. A. A. NOTES

W. A. A. Council wishes to announce a revision in the point system. For every hour of indoor sport such as bowling, archery, rifle and basketball one point may be earned. Two points are given for every hour of outdoor exercise.

Please be sure to hand in all points as soon as possible in order to receive awards at the Rally. Points may be given to class representatives of the W. A. A. Council or may be left in the gym office. The class representatives are: Seniors, Lillian Mount, Lois Harrington; Juniors, Ara Armstrong; sophomores, Daisy Putnam; freshmen, Sue France.

KITTENS SHAPING WELL TO START 1932 SEASON AGAINST MONT. SEM.

Infield is Especially Strong in Every Position—Saturday's Game Pointed Out Weaknesses

The freshman baseball men have been shaping up well during the practice sessions that have been held every night at Centennial Field. Doc Newton's charges have improved greatly since the beginning of the season. The amount of reserve strength is very great this year as compared with last year. At present there are at least two men out for every position on the nine.

The infield which has prospects of being intensely strong has not as yet been finally picked. At first base Whitey Palmer and Ed Skodinski have been bidding for the position. They are both fast ball players and have potential batting ability. Both men played on their respective high school teams.

At second base, Burns seems to have the post well in hand, but there is plenty of strong competition against him. His performance in the varsity freshman game showed true diamond agility and a good baseball head. Don Rock is the logical candidate for short stop. His clear thinking and fast work last Saturday was the feature of the game. His hitting also showed a fine batting eye.

At third base Roly Delfausse seems to be fighting his way to the fore. Enos Ramon, another outstanding candidate for the hot corner was forced to retire from action because of warnings. Young Delfausse is going good and has the speed and natural ability to make a fine third baseman. His hitting has shown up better than anyone else's on the frosh outfit.

Other potential candidates for infield positions include Joly, Lanahan, Patch and Meligonis. Swartz, who performed so creditably in last Saturday's game, seems to be the only first string hurler on hand. Collins and Carlson will be on hand for relief duties.

The frosh are using the far diamond at Centennial Field for their pre-season practice. Coach Newton is putting the men through intensive batting workouts. While the varsity team is away on their Massachusetts excursion, the Kittens will be using the exhibition diamond.

NOTICE

Health Council is par king on one main project, that of instituting and building up a loan fund for women. Every University woman is asked to put two cents in a box found in Y room some time during the next two weeks. In this way ten dollars will be acquired as a foundation of the fund.

SPRING SPORTS ADOPTED BY PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT FOR MEN

Volley Ball, Baseball, Track and Field Sports and Special Courses Feature New Season

With the advent of the warm spring days there has been a noticeable lack of attendance in the Physical Education classes. The sudden interest in spring football training has helped considerably to detract from the ranks of the physical culturists. Former devotees of indoor physical training are also being enticed from the gymnasium by both freshman and varsity baseball, track, tennis and other sports of the spring season. The faithful few remaining are occupied in various pursuits.

Sophomore students are being put through their paces in volley ball, indoor baseball, strike ball, shot put, marching and commands and practice teaching. Outdoor baseball will, in all probability, start for the second year physical education students about May 9, weather permitting, and continue from then until the end of the school year.

Under the direction of Instructor Burke of the Physical Education Department the freshmen are taking up track in place of the basketball classes of the winter months. In this work they take up sprinting, running, standing and running broad jump, shot put, hammer throw and high jump.

The ranks of the attendants of the special classes which have been held regularly throughout the winter are also sadly depleted with the arrival of spring. A few persistent gymnasts are still taking tumbling in the auxiliary gym. Special development classes are being continued and will be kept up indefinitely. The main purpose of these classes is the building up of under-developed parts of the body. The physical education department has found that these classes are remarkably helpful in developing co-ordination.

A baseball coaching class started last Wednesday and will be held every Monday and Wednesday from then until the close of school. This class was initiated a year ago by the physical education department and it is hoped that those who take the course will obtain enough experience to coach baseball in secondary schools if they should be called on to do so.

A prominent social fraternity at the University of New Mexico requires its pledges to ride donkeys about the campus the week preceding their initiation.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the
U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor
All Work Guaranteed

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW
NEW YORK
Case System—Three-Year Course
CO-EDUCATIONAL
College Degree or Two Years of College Work with Good Grades Required
Transcript of Record Necessary in All Cases
Morning, Early Afternoon and Evening Classes
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE
CHARLES P. DAVIS, Registrar
233 Broadway, New York

NEW
U. V. M.
STATIONERY
Die-stamped
especially for you!
75c and 85c box
24 SHEETS AND ENVELOPES TO MATCH
McAULIFFE'S
Church and College Streets
Phone 629

CAT'S MEOW

Sports Editor

Coach Larry Gardner's charges will certainly have their hands full when they meet Boston University today, and Boston College. However, a win from the Terriers is not to be entirely unexpected.

We refuse to become skeptical over the Kittens prospects after that 14 to 3 swamping which they suffered at the hands of the Catamounts last Saturday.

Swartz, the starting pitcher, is certainly welcome material to any coach, while Burns, Rock and Bent all look like fine prospects.

Spring football is now well along in its second week with about sixty candidates reporting daily to Coaches Burke, Sutton and Levine.

Speaking of football, it is with pleasure that we read in the Fordham Ram that John Szymanski who was seriously injured in the Fordham-Bucknell game last fall, has recovered, and in his own words "is feeling remarkably well."

Ten years ago this month, Vermont was shut out by Fordham, 2 to 0. McNamara, who later saw service with the Braves and Giants, struck out eleven Catamounts.

The tennis team is beginning to shape up well in their workouts in the cage. Capt. Les Woodward and Hugh Wilson make a strong nucleus.

The annual Intertraternity Baseball Series gets under way Monday p.m. when the Phi Delts cross bats with the Delta Psis. These games are always good. Be on hand to hear and see Professor Kiphuth call them.

NOTICE

There will be an important meeting of all varsity letter men Tuesday evening, April 28, at seven p. m. in the auxiliary gym. All are urged to be present.

ED. WINANT.

Manhattan
SHIRTS
$1.95 to $5
Blues, tans, greens and whites. A Manhattan fitted shirt is something different than you'd expect—it fits, without crowding; it launders without shrinking. Collar attached or separate collars to match.

Manhattan
Shirts, Shorts
55c ea., Up
Clever designing has evolved just the Shirt and Short man wants . . . and a group of unusually appealing patterns.

TURKS
Burlington, Vt.
156-158 College St.

INTERMURAL BASEBALL TO START MONDAY AS DELTS FACE PHI DELTS

Teams Lack Practice Because of Late Snowfalls—Independents Are Defending Champs

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST AT CENTENNIAL, MAY 16

Eligibility Rules Quoted

The intertraternity baseball schedule has been completed, with the first game coming on Monday afternoon between Phi Delta Theta and Delta Psi. The late snow fall has prevented the fraternity teams from getting in any early practice and the first two teams go into the fray with little opportunity to size each other up.

Following the usual custom, all of the fraternities who are entering a team have been divided into two leagues, league A and league B.

In league A the first two contests come on April 25 and April 27 between Phi Delta Theta and Delta Psi, and Kappa Sigma and Phi Sigma Delta. The Independents will meet Sigma Phi on May 2. The two winners of the first two contests will clash on May 5. The victor of the Independents-Sigma Phi game will meet A. T. O., which is the bye in league A on May 9. The supremacy of league A will be determined on May 11.

In league B, Phi Mu Delta will encounter the S. A. E.'s on Tuesday, April 26. Sigma Delta will line up against I. F. P. on April 29. Zeta Chi and Sigma Nu meet on the diamond on May 3. The team coming out on top in this fray

(Continued on page 4)

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

Charter House

There has been a noticeable increase in value in spring suits and topcoats from Charter House. Noticeable in quality, in workmanship and in style. Incomparable at spring's lower price.

CHARTER HOUSE
SUITS
$30 $35

Miles & Perry Co.
QUALITY CLOTHIERS
Established 1896

Flannel Slacks
EVERYONE'S WEARING THEM THIS YEAR. FLANNEL TROUSERS CUT IN THE LATEST MANNER.
$6.00 and $7.50
SPORT SHOES $5.00 and $7.00
SPORT SOCKS 50c to $1.00
HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

INTERFRAT BASEBALL TO START ON MONDAY

(Continued from page 3)

are scheduled for a contest with the Delta Sigs at Dingle Ell. The team hopes to engage U. V. M. in some game on May 14 or suitable date for both teams.

The championship game will be played on Centennial Field on May 19 between the winners of the two leagues. Five innings or as many as are completed at time of the Greek letter contest will be played in order. Each team that participates will be allowed to use substitutes after a time equal to the A. T. O. nine which comes with the least [illegible] No team player each team entering may take part in more than two games. Substitutes were [illegible] by name for starting by Dartmouth in the A. T. O. [illegible]

Coaches and players involved in the championship games determining the winner will in no instance [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

A [illegible] rule has the approval of last year's [illegible] The Interfraternity [illegible] of the championship game of the preceding year among those qualified and [illegible]

Any [illegible] Adv student of the Medical College and of the Medical College who has not received a degree may play except the following

1 No student who has received the Varsity award in baseball either at Vermont or any other college or university

2 No member of the present Varsity and Freshman baseball squad [illegible] [illegible]

All games shall be played on the Davis baseball diamond and shall start at 4:45 p.m. Any team(s) whose team is not ready to play at that time shall forfeit the game to the opposing team which is ready to play

Any questions concerning weather and postponement of games will be settled by the decision of the officials in charge of the game

All games shall consist of five (5) innings except the championship game which shall be seven (7) innings

ORATORICAL FINALISTS TO COMPETE FOR HONORS

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] prize winner was Hazel Workman of Essex Junction High who chose for her topic "The Lady Christmas Carol" by Kate Douglas Wiggin. One fifty dollar [illegible] dollars $10 and $75 scholarships will be awarded to three [illegible] contestants. At this contest Prof. Frederick Tupper of the University will act as chairman of a judge and Prof. J. A. Woodward of the University [illegible]

At the state contest held in Burlington [illegible] the constitution. The first prizes were scholarships of $150 and $75 respectively, offered by the University of Vermont were Marjorie Chase of Brattleboro, first place, Lloyd Lawrence of Montpelier second place and Mary Wysmierski of Bennington third prize.

The subject of tonight's elimination will be open to the national contest by the Burlington Zeta Deuta to represent Vermont. Judges at the evening are all of the University of Vermont. Prof. [illegible] of the philosophy department, Prof. E. A. Hall of the English department and Prof. L. D. Meredith of the economics department. Professor Dean will preside.

On February 29 the Daily Kansan published a separate issue to men to be carried at the "mark" which would be weighed in that date by the co-ed.

Salem College, Winston-Salem, N. C. is the only women's college in the state that permits its students to smoke in public. Since W.S. makes its bread and butter in tobacco this is to be expected.

GREETING CARDS
For All Occasions
ISHAM NEWS and GIFT SHOP
184 Church St.
NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR OF FOUNDING CELEBRATED BY ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Beta Zeta Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega celebrated the forty-fifth anniversary of their founding Tuesday night at the chapter house at Williams Street. The following men were initiated: Raymond [illegible] '34 of Lyndonville, Robert E. Lantz '35 of Bethel, John P. Mahoney '35 of Burlington. Mahoney was the made candidate. Delegates from the chapters in Tuftsmouth and Worcester [illegible] were present at the ceremony.

The initiation banquet was held at the New Stevenson Hotel. About fifty were present including many alumni. A. J. Denham '32 of McGillicuddy acted as toastmaster and introduced the following speakers: President Guy W. Bailey, Prof. Frederick Tupper, Prof. Arthur D. Battenfield, Dr. J. L. Berry, Guy M. Page, George C. Stanley.

Two students at Kent State College were forced to leave their room because they could not pay the rent. Undaunted they dragged logs from a neighboring wood lot and built a log cabin. Where there's a will there's a way.

TUFTS COLLEGE
DENTAL SCHOOL
Founded 1868
College men and women - prepare for a profession of widening interest and opportunity. Recent research has enlarged the scope of every phase of dentistry. The field demands more than ever before men and women of ability backed by supreme training. Such training Tufts College Dental School offers to its students. School opens on September 29, 1932. Our catalog may guide you in choosing your career. For information address—
WILLIAM RICE, D.M.D., Sc.D., Dean
416 Huntington Avenue Boston, Mass.

CO-ED OUTDOOR SPORTS START NEXT MONDAY

With the freshman-sophomore meet on Friday, April 22 the indoor gym work comes to an end and outdoor sports will commence the following Monday April 25. The sports which may be chosen for the term and which should be signed for at the gym office during the coming week are: Tennis, baseball, archery and horseback riding. Those desiring to take riding which carries with a special fee should make their arrangements [illegible] Miss Cummings or Miss Blanchard not later than tomorrow night, April 20.

Those who passed high enough in beginners tennis may take intermediate tennis. There will be two tennis instructors from the advanced classes in the beginner's classes and three in the larger classes assuring greater progress because of the instruction in small groups. Those who have been chosen to coach the beginners are: Barbara Belcher '34, Ruth Dawson '34, Elizabeth Eckhard '33, Sue Frances '35, Dorothy Grover '35, Virginia Herr '35, Alice McConnell '34, Laura Trace '34, Mary K. Tupper, '35, Barbara Weaver '35, Lois Whitcomb '35.

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
144 Church Street Burlington, Vt.

WOMEN'S STUDENT UNION OFFICERS INSTALLED

(Continued from page 1)

cil has not accomplished all [illegible] wished to, it considered its [illegible] worthwhile.

After Miss Mount's speech [illegible] chief justice, Agnes Parsons [illegible] charge of the handing over [illegible] gowns of former officers to [illegible] ones. During this ceremony [illegible] songs were sung under the [illegible] Charlotte Odell '33. Roses were [illegible] ed to both the retiring and [illegible] justices also at this time.

The meeting was brought [illegible] as the newly-robed cabinet [illegible] taking with them the green and [illegible] bons to signify the assuming of [illegible] duties.

Ice was lacking for the hockey [illegible] Marquette University, so the [illegible] provided roller skates for his men [illegible] tice on.

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO INSPECT OUR NEW LUNCH ROOM
RAND'S HOME LUNCH
64 COLCHESTER AVENUE
Opposite New Flemming Museum

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

Just for you . . .

Chesterfield
They Satisfy ... ALL YOU COULD ASK FOR

© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 — BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1932 — NUMBER 59

Prom to be Peak of Gaiety During Gala Junior Week

Billy Murphy and His Royal Arcadians to Furnish Music at Most Novel Dance That Has Been Arranged in Years

CHAIRMAN MASSUCCO STATES PLANS COMPLETE

"The height of this year's Junior Week will be reached on Friday evening, May 13, at the Junior Prom," stated Frank J. Massucco, chairman of Junior Week, when interviewed as regards plans for the annual celebration which takes place every May at the University of Vermont. Billy Murphy and his Royal Arcadians will furnish harmony for this season's gala event. The orchestra, which is well known in New York and Massachusetts, is one of the best that has been obtained for a Vermont Prom in years.

Plans for the annual celebration have nearly completion and the committees have submitted their reports to Massucco. In addition to the fine orchestra that has been acquired, the dancers will enjoy new decorations in the form of an old-fashioned garden. Last year the ornamentations were in the form of a ship's deck. This year's type of decorations promises to be even more unique.

The Junior Promenade, which is one of a series of events during Junior Week, is the nucleus of all the activities. Coming on Friday night, the thirteenth, it is sandwiched between the play and the fraternity dances. The frolic at the Memorial Gymnasium will begin in the vicinty of eight o'clock and will terminate at one o'clock. Attempts were made to lengthen the time of the dance till two in the morning, but the appeals were of no avail this year. A petition must be made long before the event to be of any consequence is considered.

The committees have not decided whether or not a person attending the dance will be required to take a table. On the other hand it is usually the custom for dancers to have tables, at which a midnight lunch can be served during intermission. This year in addition to the novel plans already adopted, the beauty contest will also take place. Any person attending the dance will be eligible to vote, and the choosing must be done from the group of the dancers.

The most beautiful young lady at the Prom will acquire the title of Junior Week Queen, as well as the title of most beautiful women at the Prom. The cup, which will be awarded to the lucky person will be on display at Hayes and Lang's prior to the dance.

As the annual exuberance, Professor and Mrs. C. H. Braun and Mr. and Mrs. Burke will be on the receiving line. This year's Prom will mark another year in the history of Junior Proms at the University of Vermont. Even back in the days when the Cotillion Club put on the dances the arrangements were not made as elaborately as they are being made for this coming affair.

The patrons and guests there will be various methods of amusement in the form of baseball games, tennis matches, track meet and other interesting features. On Saturday, the Kittens play Troy Conference Academy at Centennial Field. Starting at two, the Green and Gold baseball stars will perform and at three-thirty the bat flourishers will show their athletic contest with Williams.

On Thursday, the Junior Week parade will form at the gymnasium before marching down street. The floats are to be judged for cleverness and value in portraying of the play "Hay Fever." Junior Week revelry will come to an end on the stroke of twelve, when the fraternity dances come to an end. The only exception there are open houses on the campus at Junior Week time, when the various Greek-letter organizations throw open their portals to fellow collegians. More interesting programs are arranged to amuse the newcomers.

ETA SIGMA PHI WILL HEAR PROF. J. E. POOLEY

The chapter of Eta Sigma Phi will hold its annual meeting tonight in 34 Mansfield College. After a short business meeting Prof. James E. Pooley of the Greek and Latin departments will read a paper on "Ancient Books and Writing." Caroline Howard '32 will read a paper entitled "My Favorite Latin Author" which includes selections from Horace. Mary Hope '32 will give "A Few Reasons for the Classical Course and Why I Appreciate its Value."

Professor Pooley is a graduate of Yale University and has taught in the classics at Vermont several years. At present he conducts classes in Greek, Latin and Ancient History.

The program of this meeting is in charge of Sylvia Boyd '33, vice-president.

ORATORICAL CONTEST WON BY PROCTOR GIRL

Cornelia Gale Takes First Honors With Charlotte Gaither of Burlington High Second

Cornelia Gale of Proctor High School won the fifth interscholastic state oratorical contest, held in the Fleming Museum auditorium last Friday evening, for the excellence of her delivery of Alfred Noyes' "The Highwayman." She will receive a $150 University of Vermont scholarship in addition to the $150 scholarship won as first prize in the district contest at Rutland.

The second state honor award, a $100 Vermont scholarship, went to Charlotte Gaither of Burlington High School, who recited "Lady Blacknell Interviews Mr. Worthing" from Oscar Wilde's play "The Importance of Being Earnest." She was also a second prize winner in her district, having won a $100 scholarship.

Third prize, a $75 scholarship, was awarded to Elizabeth Jacobs of Springfield High School for her presentation of "A Night Out" by Edward Peple. Miss Jacobs was also the recipient of a $100 scholarship, won at the district contest in Rutland.

The other speakers were Marion Colcagni of Bellows Free Academy in St. Albans, Ruth Joyal of Waterbury High School, and Katherine Lebaron of Peoples Academy in Morrisvile. Miss Calcagni offered a dramatization of "A Telltale Heart," by Edgar Allen Poe. She received a $150 University scholarship for winning the district contest held in Burlington recently.

Miss Joyal, the last speaker of the evening, presented "The Highwayman," by Alfred Noyes. She will be awarded a $100 scholarship for second prize winner in the district contest at Montpelier.

Miss Lebaron, the district winner at Montpelier and the recipient of the $150 scholarship offered there, recited "The Prisoner of Chillon," by Byron. A large audience attended the presentations and highly approved the decision of the judges.

Prof. Leon W. Dean of the English department presided while Prof. George Dykhuizen of the Philosophy department, Prof. Raymond A. Hall of the English department, and Prof. Lewis D. Meredith of the department of Economics acted in the capacity of judges.

Professor Dean also announced the finals of the state debating league between Peoples Academy of Morrisville and Brattleboro High School which will be held in the Fleming Museum next Friday evening. The question to be contested is "Resolved, that the several states should enact legislation providing for the adoption of Unemployment Insurance."

MANY STUDENTS ATTEND FIRST MEDICAL COLLEGE LECTURE FOR PRE-MEDS

Dr. H. Jordan, Dr. R. A. Costine and Dr. T. S. Brown Speak at Meeting in Medical Building

OTHER LECTURES TO BE GIVEN BEFORE VACATION

The first lecture in a series of Medical lectures to be delivered during the remaining few weeks of school was given last Wednesday evening at 8.15 in Room A of the Medical Building. The talk was attended by about twenty-five pre-medical students.

Dr. H. Jordan, Associate Professor of Histology; Dr. R. A. Costine, Instructor of Medicine, and Dr. T. S. Brown, Professor of Anatomy and Superintendent of Mary Fletcher Hospital, were the speakers of the evening.

Doctor Jordan, the first speaker, took as his topic "Pre-Medical Years." In addressing the pre-medical students present the speaker went on to explain the purpose of the lectures. He brought out the reasons for the various required subjects in the pre-medical curriculum, their intent and design. He endeavored to show that the pre-medical years were actually a foundation for future work in Medicine and stressed the need of a strong foundation.

In introducing Doctor Costine as the second speaker of the evening Doctor Jordan explained that he had attempted to secure a speaker who would be capable of giving the students a true insight into their future profession by means of relating a few of his own personal experiences in the field of Medicine.

Doctor Costine based his talk on the actual benefits which might be obtained from such an interesting study as that of Medicine. He said that the biggest lesson that he had learned while in college was to strive to get all possible out of studying and not be satisfied with a bare passing grade. He emphasized the necessity of constant application of the student while studying Medicine.

Doctor Brown, the last speaker, congratulated the students present and endeavored to impress them with the enormous possibilities in the field of Medicine, such as it is in the twentieth century. He pointed out that this field was infinitely greater than it was at the the time when he was studying Medicine. Doctor Brown discouraged the popular idea that Medicine was a constant grind and he attempted to show a few of the high lights and touches of color and humor which are to be found in the course. He reiterated Doctor Jordan's statement of the need for individual application and a sound plan of study for pre-medical students.

In closing Doctor Jordan announced the speaker for the next talk and asked the students who were planning on entering Medicine next year to sign up in order that an interview with the entrance committee might be arranged.

Reporter Finds Medics Use Living Patients in Surgery Practice Class

By A. A. Ross

Nine juvenile delinquents were found plastered in one of the subterranean rooms of the Medical Building last Wednesday afternoon by a ubiquitous CYNIC reporter.

However, the plaster was nothing more than our familiar plaster of Paris and the delinquents were none other than some ambitious young mercenaries from the fifth and sixth grades of the Ira Allen School.

For the past six weeks sophomore medics have been engaged in a practical surgery class and have found need of living patients to practice on. As a result they have hired pupils from the Ira Allen School.

Thirty-five cents an hour is the regular body-rental rate with a ten cent compensation for any cuts received during manouvres. Fifty cents is the fee demanded by the leader of the group, a boy of ten, who herds his charges together every Wednesday afternoon and conducts them to the Medical Building.

The requisites for the positions are not especially exacting. The candidate must be a boy in the fifth or sixth grade and have a fair amount of nerve. Here is an excellent opportunity for a determined kid to pick up a little pin money and the boys realize the possibilities of their "racket." They go cheerfully to the Medical Building once a week to offer up their small bodies for the interest of science—and the thirty-five cents.

At this time the embryo doctors practice applying plaster casts to the limbs of their young patients. Sometimes the knife slips in removing the cast. But fortunately for the wielder of the knife the price of flesh has dropped since the day of Shylock and the diminutive victim eagerly collects his ten cents.

"And sometimes they give tips," one of the urchins confided in the ear of the reporter. "Why I knew one guy that got seventy-five cents for bein' cut."

All of the eligible school boys seem eager for the job. But alas—here as in other fields of life there seems to be a monopoly existing, and at the present time, in view of the economic depression, nine "regler" little body-loaners are resolutely holding on to their jobs.

Four o'clock sharp every Wednesday sees the youthful coterie ready for action. They are told what part of the anatomy it will be necessary to expose on that particular afternoon. Then they're off to wash their arms or legs

(Continued on page 3)

Donahue to Give Alumni Address on Founder's Day

Scabbard and Blade, Boulder and R. O. T. C. Will Hold Exercises on Saturday, April 30—Chapel Services to Take Place on Following Day

Prof. James E. Donahue '01 who will be alumni speaker on Founder's Day.

UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES THAT SUMMER SESSION WILL OPEN ON JULY 5

Now that the February issue of the Vermont Bulletin has been released by the Department of Education, detailed information on the University of Vermont summer session is available. As previously announced the session will open July 5, when registration starts, and close August 13, inclosing a total of six weeks.

Teaching is given special stress in the Summer School schedule, the courses in school administration and school supervision for graduate students being among the few courses which are not given in the regular session of the University of Vermont. Other courses in teaching include methods of teaching modern languages, Latin, secretarial subjects, and English, music for the lower grades, music for the upper grades, rural arithmetic, techniques in teaching upper grades I, philosophy of education, psychology of adolescence, physical education teaching, and secondary education.

As for the other courses of the session, and the scope afforded by them, "There is less difference between the summer session and the regular session than there was in former years, and there is more graduate work done in some departments than during the regular college year. In the Department of Education, the number of graduate students is much larger in the summer session than in the regular college session," declared Prof. B. C. Douglass of the Department of Education, chairman of the Committee on Summer Sessions, when interviewed.

To quote from the Bulletin, "This school combines excellent instruction with superior advantages for recreation and physical improvement. Students have the opportunity to derive the benefits of summer study, and at the same time to provide for their physical upbuilding. The management of the summer session will arrange week-end trips to Taft Lodge on Mount Mansfield, Dunsmore Lodge on Bolton Mountain, Montclair Glen on Camel's Hump, and to other points of exceptional scenic beauty."

The University tennis courts may be used by Summer School students, and the Burlington Country Club and the Waubanakee Golf Club open their links to them, either by day or by session. Physical activities, such as baseball for men, tennis for men and women, and other games are arranged in cooperation with the summer session management. These usually take place in the afternoon.

As mentioned in a previous issue of the CYNIC, large numbers of Vermont teach-

(Continued on page 2)

DEBATING SOCIETY WILL INITIATE NEW MEMBERS

Roberta Powers '32, president of Tau Kappa Alpha, National Debating Society when interviewed said she had not yet decided the date of initiation, or the number to be initiated into Tau Kappa Alpha. Invitations have been sent out and it is expected at last four will be initiated and possibly more. Initiation will probably be held the last of this week or the first of next.

For eligibility, one must have participated in one intercollegiate debate and one intramural debate or two intercollegiate debates, and must be above a freshman. It is not necessary to have won the debates participated in. There are various other requirements, and permission must be obtained from national headquarters.

Tau Kappa Alpha has no regular meetings since the members prefer to spend all their time on debates instead, and there are no speakers or dues.

EATON AND J. BIGELOW TO BE OTHER SPEAKERS

Sunday will be the date for the celebration of Founder's Day this year, Dean Swift announced recently. This innovation was brought about through the cooperation of President Bailey and the senior class for the purpose of allowing alumni and friends to attend the exercises who would be unable to do so otherwise.

The review of the R. O. T. C. Battalion in connection with the exercises of Boulder Society and Scabbard and Blade will be held on Saturday as usual. The band and battalion will form at the gymnasium at 8.50 and will proceed to the front of the campus for the review. The unit will then form in a hollow square about the boulder as in previous years. Men elected to Boulder will advance and be met by the outgoing members. President Bailey will then deliver his address to the new members, followed by the pledging of the newly elected members of Scabbard and Blade. The schedule is as follows:

8.50—Assembly of Band and Battalion
9.05—Adjutant's Call
9.15—Battalion Review by the President of the University and the Deans of the Colleges.
9.25—Exercises of the Boulder Society at the Boulder
9.30—Exercises of the Scabbard and Blade Society at the Boulder

Immediately following the Scabbard and Blade ceremony the companies will march to the armory to put away arms and equipment, the Band playing until the last company has left the assembly area. The Band will then march to the gymnasium and put away their instruments. Attendance at this formation is ordered by the President of the University, and absentees will be reported to him.

The Founder's Day exercises will be held Sunday at four in the Ira Allen Chapel. The alumni speaker will be Prof. James E. Donahue '01. The senior and junior orators will be A. O. Eaton of Worcester, Mass., and J. E. Bigelow of Fair Haven.

The chapel exercises will be preceded by a formal procession of faculty members and seniors to the chapel. This is the first formal occasion where the seniors will meet in a body wearing their caps and gowns and President Bailey hopes that all seniors will attend.

LAMBDA IOTA CELEBRATES 96TH ANNIVERSARY

Lambda Iota Society celebrated the ninety-sixth anniversary of its founding with a formal dinner at the Owl House last Saturday evening. The active chapter and a large number of alumni were present at the celebration. The speakers of the evening were Edward J. Fitzgerald '32, president of the fraternity, for the active members, and Hugh J. Cole '19 of Easton, Pa., for the alumni.

Mr. Fitzgerald briefly outlined the history of the fraternity from the time of its founding by thirteen students of the University, April 23, 1836. Mr. Cole spoke of the wealth of tradition possessed by Lambda Iota, the oldest local fraternity in the United States.

THIEVES MAKE HAUL IN FRATERNITY ROBBERIES

Between 2 and 6 a.m. Friday morning burglars entered five fraternity houses and stole about $150 from the clothing of sleeping students. Finding the doors unlocked they simply walked in and went through the pockets of all the trousers they could find.

Clothing was strewn about and desk drawers rifled at the Alpha Tau Omega House on 21 Williams Street. The boys having retired on their sleeping porch, were not aware of the prowlers and about $50 was taken.

The Delta Psi House on Summit Street was entered and a sum of money taken. The Phi Delta Theta House on 480 College Street reported that the thieves took about $25. At the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House on Summit Street the robbers took about $50 and three leather jackets. Only $3.00 was reported stolen at the Sigma Phi House on College Street.

The city police are investigating all five of these burglaries; however, they have not many clews to work on.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The Weekly College Newspaper of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
[illegible] Women's Editor
[illegible] Sports Editor
[illegible] Managing Editor
[illegible] Recording Editor
[illegible] Business Manager
CARL W. JANKE '33 ..... Advertising Manager
EDWARD E. DUNN '33

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] '34 Augusta Cohen '34
William [illegible] '34 Charles J. Libby '34
William Braiin '34 Realtus McCuin '34

FEATURE EDITORS

[illegible] Carder '33
M. J. Greenberg '34
[illegible] Lee '33
T. L. Taylor '33

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G. H. Burrows '34
W. J. Gilbert '34
Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

I. Leeman '34

COLUMNIST

R. J. Weiseman '34

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof. Leon W. Dean

Entered as [illegible] Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year; single copy, five cents.

All editorial and business communications must be signed and addressed to the proper department head of The Vermont Cynic Office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in at the office not later than 3 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Office telephone [illegible]

Acceptance for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 460 P. L. and R. Act of March [illegible] authorized October 14 1926

Office of Publication, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

Vol. [illegible] [illegible] Number 50

VERMONT SENDS THREE DELEGATES TO STUDENT CONFERENCE IN BOSTON

I. Fleischman, S. N. Spiller and T. I. Taylor Attend International Relations Convention

[illegible] chosen to represent the University at the annual International Relations Conference held in Boston April [illegible] with an address given [illegible] Lawrence and Its Industries." Mr. [illegible] Judge Levi [illegible] expounded the Latest Response [illegible] with the subsequent reading [illegible] Lowell and her poetry to [illegible] following Judge Lovett [illegible] spoke on the Rev. Dennis Lathrop [illegible] on Communism and Its Personalities. The total aspects of [illegible] the communist movement, pointed to Mr. [illegible] and its influence on international affairs were discussed.

[illegible] the session began at 9:30 in the morning. The topic for discussion was "Should the United States Join the League of Nations." Students arguing [illegible] United States entrance to the League were led by Miss Ramona Sawyer of [illegible] College and their opponent were championed by Bowdoin College of Boston University. The students participating displayed great interest in their country and world relations.

The Vermont delegates sided with the group demanding America's entrance to the League. Mr. Fleischman led the discussion with a three-minute fire on the contention of anti-entrants that the League is imperialistic. Mr. Fleischman stated, "There is a tendency among many to state their objections and affirmations without forethought and investigation. From the very beginning the assertion has been made that the League of Nations was an agency of the former Allies to enforce the Treaty of Versailles and to foster the imperialistic designs of the great powers. I maintain that the League is not imperialistic in purpose and in fact and is accepted as America's principles. The League Covenant especially states that it is an association of nations designed to respect and preserve the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members nations by the firm establishment of the understandings of international law" and "by the maintenance of justice and a scrupulous respect for all treaty obligations in the dealings of organized people with one another." Mr. Fleischman closed his talk by declaring that "the United States should enter the League and assume our rightful position in the world. Our very existence demands it."

Mr Spiller upheld our entrance in the social field. He pointed out America's influence and its contributions to World Society in its many places.

Mr Taylor is quoted, "War, or the causes for war are in most cases fundamentally revolutionary. The negative says that the United States is not an imperialistic nation. That is not true. Without lessening my patriotism, I maintain the United States has and still is exercising imperialistic motives. To cite the Spanish-American War interventions in Nicaragua, are pacific annexations and South American affiliations is proof of the imperialism of our nation. Nevertheless, she is, by no means, alone in this field of activity. Yet, the negative loses sight of this angle of perception, when they picture the United States as the dove of peace among nations.

When they the negative, admit that the United States' economic boycott could have stopped Japan's Manchurian aggressions, they admit that the United States thought more of her economic gains and imperialistic tendencies, than to act the part of the dove of peace. The United States took no action, tied the hands of the League and remained aloof from that organization so as not to lose economically in her still very active imperialistic policies. Let the negative disapprove, or attempt to disprove, that United States was not imperialistic when eighty percent of Japan's trade depends on the United States. I maintain the United States should cooperate with the League, being the strongest nation in the world and thus must join the League, if she wants to live in a world of peace."

FAMOUS VIOLINIST TO PLAY HERE THURSDAY

A violin concert by Florence Jaffe [illegible] announced by the University of Vermont as a free concert for this Thursday [illegible] at 8:15 in the Fleming Museum auditorium. This concert, which is free and open to the public, will commence at 8:15.

Florence Jaffe is the wife of Dr. N. B. Jaffe '17 of New Britain, Conn. She began her musical career at the age of four studying under Madame Egri, a pupil of Cesar Thomson, and later with Prof. Ewald Sontum, a pupil of Jaques Thibaud. Some time ago her family moved to Philadelphia, where she studied for a time with Franz Kneisel of New York City. For five years she was under the tutorship of Prof. Leopold Auer. The concert is the gift of an anonymous donor, and is free and open to the public.

Her concert program is a difficult one, consisting as it does, the Handel Sonata and the Wieniawski Concerto. It follows:

1

Sonata No. 4, in D Major.....Handel
Adagio
Allegro
Larghetto
Allegro

2

Concerto, No. 2, in D Minor.Wieniawski
Allegro Moderato.
Romance—Andante ma non Troppo.
Allegro con fuoco—Allegro Moderato.

3

Walther's Prize Song (from Die Meistersinger).....Wagner-Wilhelmj
Variationen.....Tartini-Kreisler
Ave Maria.....Schubert-Wilhelmj
Siciliano et Rigaudon,
Francoeur-Kreisler
Air (on G string).....Bach
Gipsy Airs.....Sarasate

Israel Rosenberg at Piano

Stanford "profs" know their Eleanor Glyn. A wily sophomore submitted as a term paper, ten pages abstracted from one of Miss Glyn's works. The alert professor immediately detected the plagiarism.

U. V. M. SUMMER SESSION WILL OPEN ON JULY 5

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] and [illegible] summer students attend the sessions as well as [illegible] graduate students [illegible] and teachers from [illegible] other states.

[illegible] credit additional to the usual course of two semester hours [illegible] the same as those [illegible] U. V. M. in the regular session [illegible] to proceed by doing extra work under the guidance of the instructor, and paying the [illegible] fee [illegible] $5.00 per point of credit at the beginning of the Summer School.

Students of the summer session who desire to have their work count for credit toward an advanced degree should consult with the Summer Session Director regarding the selection of courses," advises the Bulletin. For credit toward the Master's degree, the courses are in the following departments: Botany, economics, education, English, French, German, Latin, history, mathematics, philosophy, political science, psychology, and zoology. Students who wish to do advanced or other special work may be able to arrange to do so by early communication with the director.

This is the calendar which will be followed for the 1932 Summer School session:

July 5. Registration, gymnasium, 9-12 a.m.; 2-5 p.m. Contest for scholarships in music, gymnasium, 8 p.m.
July 6. Registration, gymnasium, 9-12 a.m.; 2-5 p.m. All classes begin according to schedule.
July 7. First assembly, gymnasium, 10 a.m.
July 11. Parent Teacher Association lectures, 2 p.m. Opening entertainment and reception, gymnasium, 8.15 p.m.
July 16. Excursion to Ausable Chasm and Lake Placid.
July 20. Summer Session picnic.
July 23. Excursion to Fort Ticonderoga, Crown Point and Fort St. Frederick.
July 30. Excursion to Mount Mansfield.
August 4. Concert, New York String Quartet.
August 6. Excursion to Montreal.
August 8. Graduate Club dinner.
August 9. Recital by students in dramatics and piano.
August 10. Recital by students in vocal music.
August 13. Summer Session closes.

WOMEN DEBATE SKIDMORE COLLEGE ON CAPITALISM

Women's Varsity Debate team held its last contest of the season last night in the auditorium of Fleming Museum, with Skidmore College as the opponent.

"Resolved that capitalism is a failure" was the question argued, with Vermont upholding the affirmative. The Oxford system of debate was used, and each team was composed of two speakers. U. V. M.'s team included Roberta Powers '32 and Sophie Levin '33.

This contest closed a most successful season. The team has a large number of wins to its credit and has had a fuller schedule than ever before.

According to the records of the Boston police department, co-eds at Boston University cause twice as much trouble as the men students.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED FOR MEDICAL LECTURES

The following speakers, tentatively announced by Professor Jordan will have charge of the arrangements at the series of talks arranged for Pre-Medical students of the College of Arts and Sciences in cooperation with the College of Medicine. Any Pre-Medical student or any University student interested in this talk will be welcome to attend. All of the series will be held unless otherwise announced at 8:15 p.m. in Hall A, Medical Building. All students planning to apply for admission to the Medical College next fall are requested to be present at these meetings in order to arrange for their interviews with the committee.

The second talk Thursday evening—Opportunities (fields) for the Medical Graduate. Speaker: Dr. E. H. Buttles, Secretary of the Medical Faculty, Pathologist to the Mary Fletcher Hospital, Head of the Department of Pathology and Bacteriology, College of Medicine. Dr. C. H. Beecher will also speak on The General Practice of Medicine.

May 4—The Medical Specialties. Medicine. In charge of Doctor Beecher, Head of the Department of Medicine, College of Medicine. Attending physician to Mary Fletcher Hospital and DeGoesbriand Hospital. Consulting Physician to Fanny Allen Hospital.

May 11—The Medical Specialties. Surgery. In charge of Doctor Allen, Head of the Department of Surgery, College of Medicine. Attending Surgeon to Mary Fletcher Hospital, Fanny Allen Hospital, DeGoesbriand Hospital.

V. C. A. CABINET HOLDS MEETING AT CHARLOTTE

The men's cabinet of the Vermont Christian Association met at the Wildwood Inn in Charlotte last Sunday night. William P. Stetson '34, chairman, presided at the meeting at which were discussed such major functions of the V. C. A. as the annual freshman camp, freshman handbook publication, and the freshman and Thanksgiving dances. Nine members of the newly elected cabinet were present.

Freshman camp plans as outlined at the meeting will develop the program of former years. An effort will be made to present all activities on the hill to the freshman so that he may get some idea of their relative importance, which, it is hoped, will help him through the first few weeks of college life.

Plans were discussed for a more extensive freshman orientation program, for expansion of the deputation work, and for development of the student service function of the association.

The men attending last evening's dinner and meeting were: W. P. Stetson '34, chairman of the cabinet; L. N. Brock '33, vice-chairman; C. B. Eaton '34, secretary and freshman camp director; R. E. McCuin '34, treasurer; W. D. White, Jr., '35, publicity director; R. S. Wright '35, student service director; R. H. Bingham '34, church relations director; C. B. Harwood '34, world education director; and M. D. Powers, permanent secretary of the V. C. A.

Senior class vice-president co-ed at the University of California thinks that dirty cords and pants with pictures on them are just the best thing ever.

CYNIC REPORTER VISITS MEDIC SURGERY CLASS

(Continued from page 1)

[illegible] as the case—and possibly [illegible] demands. Woe betide the [illegible] neglects this sanitary [illegible] immediately draws down [illegible] head the reprobations of [illegible]

While the medical students [illegible] paring their materials the [illegible] in their bare feet on the [illegible] floor of the plaster room.

When all is made ready [illegible] take their stations on chairs [illegible] and sit patiently while the [illegible] wind their limbs with padding. [illegible] thing is now ready for the [illegible] viously prepared gauze [illegible] have been saturated with [illegible] dipped in buckets of water [illegible] wound spirally over the patient.

Layer by layer the casts are [illegible] while the young patients [illegible] the process. They sit [illegible] like one in an inquisition chamber [illegible] the casts take form.

The plaster sets very [illegible] within five minutes after the [illegible] pleted it is sufficiently hard [illegible] moved. Here is where the [illegible] of the work comes in. Sharp [illegible] a lot of muscle are necessary, [illegible] down through the brittle plaster. [illegible] times the knife cuts through [illegible] goes down through the [illegible] and into the patient's calf. [illegible] a heart-rending cry goes up that [illegible] probably been perfected by much practice.

However, there is no cause for [illegible] There have only been two casualties during the course of six weeks.

The boys are quite elated [illegible] El Dorado which they are working [illegible] are saving up their pennies for all [illegible] of things.

"How do you like your work," [illegible] reporter asked one of the "cast."

The boy looked up at him amazed [illegible] such ignorance.

"Say, yuh don't call this work, [illegible] yuh? They do the work. All we've got t' do is sit here."

Girls vote for

PIPES

(for men!)

•

ASK any girl you know to name her favorite smoke—for men! Ten to one she'll say a pipe!

She's discovered—trust her bright little eyes—that it's the BIG men on the campus and off, who welcome the mental stimulation and relaxation they get from this real man's smoke.

She likes a pipe—for you!

And if she's very wise in the ways of smokers, she'll go one better than that. She'll tell you the men who know, smoke Edgeworth!

No two ways about it, you do get a doubly satisfying smoke when you fill up your pipe with this famous old blend. It's a happy combination of choice burleys—cut long to give you a cool, slow-burning smoke. And its mellow flavor and rich aroma have made Edgeworth the favorite pipe tobacco on 42 out of 50 campuses.

A real man's smoke

Help yourself to a pipeful next time someone pulls Edgeworth out of his pocket. Pick up the familiar blue tin yourself at any good tobacco stand. Or for a special free sample packet write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH

SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidor tin.

What can YOU do

THAT OTHERS WILL PAY FOR?

OVER the past eleven years five leading companies alone, in the following industries, have taken three hundred and sixty-three Bentley men into their organizations:

Banking—42, Electrical Manufacturing—55, Public Utility—65, Chain Store System—68, Shipping and Importing—133; and one public accounting firm has taken 47.

The accounting division is the nervous system of the business organization. It is the department which reports the activities and results in all the others and gives a clear perspective of the whole. That is why so many accountants become comptrollers, treasurers, and presidents.

The Bentley School is widely known and endorsed by business men, public accountants, and educators as THE school where a man can fully specialize in accountancy.

Two years are required to complete the course.

Send for a catalog. Thirty minutes spent with it may lead you to the career for which you are best adapted.

The BENTLEY SCHOOL of ACCOUNTING and FINANCE

921 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass.

H. C. BENTLEY, C.P.A., President

SPORTS NEWS

ADVENT OF CREHAN IS TONIC TO CATAMOUNTS IN FOOTBALL TRAINING

Four Dartmouth Grid Stars Help Out Burke Over Week-end in Training for Opener vs. Dartmouth

EQUIPMENT ENLIVENS THE DAILY WORKOUTS

Viciousness of Snarling Candidates Rips Charging Dummy to Bits

With the advent of Paul Crehan, assistant football coach to John Burke, on the scene of spring training last Friday afternoon the candidates took a new interest in their practice. Crehan, who was backfield at Dartmouth has been signed to assist Head Coach Burke in working with the line, for the gridiron team. During spring workouts, the Dartmouth men will only be up for week-ends to assist in the conditioning of the men.

With Crehan came two ex-football stars at Dartmouth. One plays on the team Brums and the other is out of school. In comparison to the Dartmouth squad the Green and Gold Catamounts looked very small. Yet the pep with which the men are going through their work on the football field this spring fully makes up for deficit in size.

The latter part of last week the entire squad went to work on the blocking dummies which have been newly added to the training equipment. The men have been working out as hard as if they were in a game and were putting up a fight to win. The running boxes still are a part of the ordeal which the candidates have to go through.

Practice in passing the football also constitutes another part of the daily workouts under John Burke, Ed Sutton and Bumps Levine. Starts and receiving passes are also practiced. Every day practice is terminated by a run through the open field running boxes, and then a decline for the gymnasium.

The experienced backfield men worked out under the tutelage of Ed Sutton. Picking up fumbles was the first drill to be completed, then exercises calculated to train broken field runners followed. Scrimmages were the next order of the day, and forward pass work ensued. The last exercise preceding the finale, the customary two laps around the field for the backfield men, was practice knocking the charging dummy for a loop.

There was only one such dummy on hand, but it received such a battering the first night, that ten more of the same type were ordered. This device, a truncated cone of brown canvas about three feet high is utilized to a great advantage in developing potential line backers.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sports Editor—

The Bay State invasion, although not a decided success from a won and lost standpoint, had its benefits in supplying.

Particularly gratifying was the showing of Razor Talbert, the newly recruited first baseman, who not only played his position well but also hit in every game.

The game between the Kappa Sigs and the Phi Sigs tomorrow afternoon should supply the usual amount of fun for the spectators. Fans who like speed-ball baseball should look over "Murphy" Lenzer's offering.

Another apparent weakness seems to be the catchers throwing to the bases. Three stolen bases in two games is bad.

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

Have you thought of making
DENTISTRY
YOUR LIFE WORK?
The Harvard University Dental School offers an unsurpassed course in this field of health service with emphasis on medical correlations. A "Class A" school. Write for catalog.
Leroy M. S. Miner, D.M.D., M.D., Dean, Dept. S, 188 Longwood Ave., Boston, Mass.

NOTICE

There will be an important meeting of all varsity lettermen tonight, at seven p.m. in the auxiliary gym. All are urged to be present.

Ed. Winant.

NETMEN ENCAMP FOR PARTS SOUTH THURSDAY MEETING THREE RIVALS

Coach Carpenter and Assistant Coach Shedd to Accompany Team on Mass. Tour

OUTDOOR PRACTICE HELD ON SOLDIERS' COURTS

Early Thursday morning the varsity tennis team consisting of six players leaves by cars on a three-day trip to Boston. The men making the trip have not been definitely decided on as yet.

Wilson and Woodard, pillars of this year's varsity, are sure to go. The remaining four men will be picked from Myers, Mulcahy, Powell, Albert and Holbrook.

The team goes on this trip under much the same kind of a handicap which the baseball team encamps on their southern trip each spring. A late spring has prevented any outdoor practice until recently. Last Wednesday afternoon saw the first outdoor practice of the year when the team went over to play on the Fort Ethan Allen courts. A warm sun and dry weather have helped greatly in getting the courts into shape. The men have been practicing for some time now in the cage.

Starting from the University by car at seven o'clock Thursday morning the six players accompanied by Coach Carpenter and Assistant Coach, Barney Shedd, will reach Boston sometime that afternoon.

They will play Amherst Thursday afternoon. It is usually customary to play six sets of singles and three sets of doubles in these intercollegiate meets.

Friday the netmen will meet Worcester Tech in a similar encounter and the match with Boston University will take place on Saturday. The team will leave Boston on Sunday, arriving home sometime Sunday afternoon.

All three of the colleges which they are to play have always been strong contenders in the past, and in previous years have usually succeeded in defeating the unpracticed Catamount tennis team.

In all probability Wilson and Woodard will be paired off in the doubles. Wilson, a sophomore, saw considerable service last year with the freshmen and has developed a powerful serve and tricky lob. This is Woodard's third year of tennis at Vermont. A southpaw racket wielder, he is one of the most consistent players on the team. Holbrook, a senior, has been one of the outstanding players since he has been in college. Myers, Mulcahy and Powell all saw service as freshmen last year.

Spring football seems to still hold the attraction of many aspiring athletes. The presence of Line Coach Crehan, Ed Jeremiah and Bart Macdonough created unusual interest Friday and Saturday.

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2870, 2871, 2872

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW
NEW YORK
Case System—Three-Year Course
CO-EDUCATIONAL
College Degree or Two Years of College Work with Good Grades Required
Transcript of Record Necessary in All Cases
Morning, Early Afternoon and Evening Classes
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE
CHARLES P. DAVIS, Registrar
233 Broadway, New York

YEARLINGS BEAT SOPHS IN ANNUAL INDOOR MEET FOR CLASS SUPREMACY

Co-eds Participate Whole-heartedly in Tournament at Gym

SILVER BASKETBALLS AWARDED TO VARSITY

At the annual indoor meet between the Freshmen and the Sophomores, held Friday night, April 22, the yearlings won from the Sophomores by a score of 11 to 7.

The Freshman women were presented the indoor meet cup by Mildred Aiken '32, retiring president of W. A. A. At the same time the cup which is annually given to the class having the winning basketball team was given to the Freshman and Junior teams, which were tied for first place in the tournament.

The members of the varsity basketball team Mary Petras '33 and Margaret Wellinger '34, forwards, Sunny Maguire '35 and Ara Armstrong '33, guards; Helen Fogg '34, center; and Mary Lobdell '33, side center were awarded silver basketballs.

Following is the program of the meet and the points totalled by the competitors:

	Sophs	Frosh
I. Posture Marching	3	0
II. Relays
1. Cap Relay	1	0
2. Tandem Relay	0	1
3. Sedan Relay	0	1
III. Military Marching	0	3
IV. Philadelphia Kick Ball	3	0
V. Competition Dancing	0	3
VI. Demonstration Dance Sophomore Dancing Class
VII. Archery	0	3
	7	11

The judges of the posture marching were Miss Baldwin, Ara Armstrong '33 and Mildred Akins '32 and of the military marching Miss Cummings, Ara Armstrong '33 and Mildred Akins '32.

The dancing was judged by Miss Blanchard, Miss Cummings and Mildred Akins '32.

A Colorado stdent was sentenced to three years at Sunday school for drinking.

Manhattan
SHIRTS
$1.95 to $5
Blues, tans, greens and whites. A Manhattan fitted shirt is something different than you'd expect—it fits, without crowding; it launders without shrinking. Collar attached or separate collars to match.
Manhattan
Shirts, Shorts
55c ea., Up
Clever designing has evolved just the Shirt and Short man wants . . . and a group of unusually appealing patterns
TURKS Burlington Vt.
156-158 College St.

Vermont Tastes Three Hard Defeats in Bay State Tour

Tufts, Boston University and Boston College Take Measure of Vermonters as Numerous Errors are Chalked Up to Cats

VARSITY TRIMS FROSH AS DELFAUSSE SCORES HIGH FOR TRACK MEET

Fleet Foot Athlete Amasses Sixteen Points in Taking Three Firsts and Third

This years frosh track team failed to duplicate the performance of last year's freshmen, losing to the varsity 72 54 last Saturday at Centennial Field. Due mainly to the efforts of Joe Delfausse, Capt. Ed Meehan, and Stew Manning, the varsity rolled up nine firsts as against the Kittens' five.

J. J. Delfausse, our quartermiler and a member of last year's all-state grid team, garnered three firsts and a third for sixteen points, making him high man for the meet. Joe was busy all afternoon, placing in every event in which he entered. The honors for the frosh go to Roy Abbott, who gained twelve tallies. Red Cook, former track captain at Cushing Prep was close behind with eleven Captain Meehan and Stew Manning got ten and eleven points, respectively

The weather was not what had been ordered but the nasty wind was blowing at the sprinter's backs which was of some help. The track was slow and rather damp.

No new material was uncovered in the way of recordbreakers, all the old men showing up well in their specialties. However, several candidates failed to show up for the meet. Coach Tudhope said that although the freshmen failed to win the meet he thought that this year's frosh were the equal of last year's, due to the better balancing of point winners. Nineteen men were entered and twelve placed. The varsity only placed thirteen men out of twenty-five entered.

All of the dashes went off very well. Chris Meligonis equalled the conference record of 10.2 in the hundred with the wind at his back. Joe Delfausse won the 220 and quarter handily, looking in great shape for the coming state tilt on Memorial Day.

(Continued on page 4)

HITTING VERY POWERFUL BUT BATTERY WORK POOR

Tufts, led by the capable pitching arm of Andrewowitch, their star veteran hurler, took the measure of a fighting University of Vermont baseball team in a close 6-4 decision. Tufts' runs came in the sixth inning on a let down by Beckley, the Green and Gold slab man Farmer, relief pitcher, tried his best to hold the Jumboes down but the game was already in the fire.

The contest was the first of the three games that the Catamounts played on their annual Massachusetts diamond trip. The game was featured by the advent of several new players on the Vermont nine. Chief among the changes was the addition of Larry Bowers, second string catcher, to the line-up. Bowers performed well enough, and for the game replaced Tomassetti, the new first-string catcher.

Boston University 12—Vermont 7

On the second day of the trip, the Vermont batters dropped a disgraceful game to the Boston University ball club. When the ninth inning was over the Green Mountain boys were in the short end of a twelve to seven score. The Catamounts pushed out ten hits against Corson, Boston University moundsman, but their fielding was the loosest they have done this season. A total of eight errors was chalked up against the University of Vermont nine.

Burnell and Farmer shared the slab duties for the visiting team, while Bowers and Tomassetti shared the receiving honors. The catching department was especially weak in the game with the Terriers, who stole ten bases. Half of the errors were credited to the catchers.

Boston University profited by their timely hitting and the extremely loose fielding on the part of their opposition. Vermont opened the scoring with a run in the first inning, but Boston retaliated with two of their own. In the last inning the Catamount batters tried a ninth inning rally which netted them three runs, and looked as though it would not fall short, but it did.

Boston University must have been feeling revengeful, or the University of Vermont nine must have been very, very poor. Vermont played the Terriers just after they had taken a 29-3 defeat from the Harvard baseball nine; in fact, their game with Harvard was called off in the eighth because of darkness, otherwise the score might have been greater. The Crimson nine scored eleven runs in the eighth inning.

Box score of Vermont-Boston University game:

Vermont

	ab	r	h	o	a	e
Jay, cf.	4	2	1	2	1	0
Pires, ss.	4	0	0	2	3	1
Winant, 1b.	5	2	2	12	0	0

(Continued on page 4)

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 613 or 614

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
Elias Lyman Coal Company
286 College Street

AUTOS TO RENT
By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

Sport Apparel
Sport Shoes $5 to $7
Flannel Slacks $5 to $7
Sleeveless Sweaters $3 to $5
White Flannels $5 to $8.50
HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

U. V. M. LOSES 3 GAMES IN BAY STATE TOUR

(Continued from page 1)

Boston College 11—Vermont 7

GREY FRIARS WILL MEET TONIGHT AT OWL HOUSE

Grey Friars, the men's literary society, will hold the final meeting of the year at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Owl House on upper Pearl Street. I. W. Hooper, brother the president of the group, announces that all members are expected to be present, but need not bring manuscripts.

SOPHOMORE WOMEN WILL DEBATE FRESHMEN MAY 3

BUEHLER'S LATEST BOOK TO BE RELEASED IN MAY

Prof. Arnold G. Buehler's new book, "The Inventive Spirit," will be published around the middle of May. Professor Buehler has been a member of the mechanical department of the University for several years. At present he is giving his attention to elementary mechanics and working on problems in heating and ventilating. He is in touch during the coming summer months at Ohio State with the latest in the heating industry.

Professor Buehler has been studying this subject for many years and has written many articles on the subject. He has delved extensively into the past and considered experts. He has also predicted the new types that are developed by engineers of the present future. He discusses previously how it will work and what it will mean if adopted. It points out the advantages. This remarkable combination of detailed book in the past and many look on the future fact, and serves to be the authoritative one."

Prominent girls in the University of Wisconsin dormitory must eat everything but meat and ice cream with a spoon. A policy is used for these articles.

Oregon Lumberjacks believes in training our men to make good husbands. A course in cooking has been instituted for men only.

YEARLINGS BEAT SOPHS IN ANNUAL INDOOR MEET

(Continued from page 1)

Joe Delfausse pulled a surprise in the high jump. Roy Aldrett, using his eastern ... Delfausse, had tied for ... and gone back to the pit ... the ... to the pit from the ... and leaped over the bar ... better than his brother and ...

The weight events went rather poorly ... Jack Cook won the shot and ... while Gardner showed his old ... in the javelin, and Stew Manning ... the rewards of faithful practice ... the hammer throw.

And finally to the same survey, one ... damsel had the mental acumen and ... to write in: "Red hair stimulates women." Right you are, lads, and don't we know it.

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

A University of Michigan freshman ... is on the student newspaper's sports ... for the first time in that institution's history.

The names of 445 Washington ... College students appeared on the ... roll for the first semester of the ... school year.

ORDERS
for
INVITATIONS and
ANNOUNCEMENTS
are now being taken
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE

Last date possible to place order is April 30th.

Chesterfield Radio Program
... & THUR. ... TUES. & FRI. ... WED. & SAT.
BENNETT ... ALLEN ... RUTH ETTING
SMITH'S ORCHESTRA every night but Sunday
... Announcer
COLUMBIA NETWORK

Chesterfield
They Satisfy ... ALL YOU COULD ASK FOR

© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1932 NUMBER 51

HONORARY SOCIETIES CHOOSE SIXTY-ONE

Presid[illegible]ley Announces New Members of Class and Departmental Organizations

BOU[illegible]ER ELECTS FIVE

Senior Society Takes Five Men; Key and Serpent Increases Membership to Ten, Making Total of Eight

Boulder

[illegible] Boulder men are: Kenneth Russell [illegible], Ernest E. Drew, [illegible] E. Reed Wolcott, and Arthur Pinkerton.

Mortar Board

[illegible] eight women: Virginia Reed, Sylvia V. Reed, Elizabeth Eckhard, [illegible] E. Gowen Concord, Katherine Hamlin, Ruth Brattleboro, N. Y., [illegible] and Catherine [illegible].

Key and Serpent

The Key and Serpent members are: John L. [illegible] York, N. Y., William [illegible], Thomas Cogswell, Clarence L. Dobson, [illegible] Chester E. [illegible], William L. Gilman, Charles F. Libby, Rockland, and Donald F. Lobel.

BLUESTOCKINGS SELECTS EXECUTIVE LEADERS

[illegible] meeting held recently in the Lower Alpha Delta House. The newly elected are President Claire LaFlamme [illegible], secretary Marguerite Munson [illegible], treasurer Mildred Giles [illegible], and social committee Elizabeth Hall [illegible].

Members are selected as the result of competitive events at Bluestockings' tea dances or dinners at which the guests submit a team of [illegible] and at which time the members are selected by the merit of the [illegible] teams.

The returning officers are: President Hope Rancliffe '32, vice president Helen Lehman '32, secretary Marguerite Munson '32, treasurer Mildred Giles '32, [illegible] social committee Elizabeth Hall '32.

SOPHOMORE ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD ALL DAY ON MONDAY MAY NINTH

New System to be Used in 1934 Class Selection

NOMINATION COMMITTEE MEETS AT 4 TOMORROW

Ariel and Class Officers to be Chosen on Same Ballot

UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATE MONUMENT TO IRA ALLEN'S MEMORY, SAYS DONAHUE

Alumni Orator Praises U. V. M.; Senior Pays Tribute to President Daniel Sanders; Junior Speaker Talks On "I Am Content, Ira Allen"

UNDERGRADUATES PRAISE CO-FOUNDER'S DEVOTION

ALL SHOULD EMULATE IRA ALLEN'S LOYALTY

LaCross Selected by I. S. S. for Attendance at European Seminars

International Student Service Chooses Vermont Man as One of Twenty Delegates

News has been released recently to the Cynic announcing that P. J. LaCross '32 has been selected by the travel committee of the International Student Service to attend summer seminars and conferences at [illegible] College, Paris, [illegible] and Geneva, the summer [illegible]. LaCross [illegible] the travel committee's decision [illegible] and [illegible] throughout the [illegible] Service. Ten delegates are [illegible] to make the trip.

[illegible] has been selected as a delegate [illegible] because [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] Conference [illegible] and speak here and [illegible] the [illegible] people.

Members are selected as the result of competitive events at Bluestockings' tea dances or dinners at which the guests submit a team of [illegible] and at which time the members are selected by the merit of the [illegible] teams.

The returning officers are: President Hope Rancliffe '32, vice president Helen Lehman '32, secretary Marguerite Munson '32, treasurer Mildred Giles '32, [illegible] social committee Elizabeth Hall '32.

MISS LA FLAMME WILL BE WINNOWINGS EDITOR

Other Positions Fill Be Filled by the Misses Goodenough, Dunsmore, and Erwin

[illegible] will be larger number of contributing editors than usual, those chosen to that [illegible] being Eleanor Gates '33. Wil[illegible]

FOLK SONGS IS TOPIC AT BLUESTOCKINGS' TEA

[illegible] Vermont" will be the [illegible] Mrs. Helen Hartness [illegible] Vt., at a Blue[illegible] held at Grassmount [illegible] at four o'clock. All [illegible] of the Dayton [illegible] members are [illegible].

[illegible] will include [illegible] was of college [illegible] superbest in [illegible].

A number of the [illegible] authentic [illegible] following and [illegible] Vermont folk [illegible] She has traveled [illegible] the State collecting [illegible] learned before [illegible] the song and [illegible] Next to Vermont [illegible] interest and material [illegible] collecting [illegible] Canada.

[illegible] have all those men [illegible] their names [illegible] M. in Pinned [illegible] a sending to the Outing Club [illegible] Social Committee.

[illegible] We [illegible] are [illegible] for [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

U. V. M. LOSES 3 GAMES IN BAY STATE TOUR

(Continued from page 3)

Mahar, lb	5	1	2	6	0	1
Talbot, lf	5	0	1	1	2	0
Brown, c	5	1	1	3	2	1
Cavanaugh, rf	2	0	1	1	1	1
Macomber, 2b	4	1	1	2	0	2
Collins, cf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Russell, lb	3	0	0	0	1	0
Farmer, rf	1	0	1	0	0	0
Totals	28	2	7	14	6	5

Boston College 11—Vermont 7

The University of Vermont baseball team lost a third heartbreaker to the Boston College team last Saturday afternoon at University Heights, Boston, by a 11-7 score. The Eagles scored their winning runs in the eighth inning when Ruthven Mahar singled with the bases filled. Mahar had previously passed two men and allowed six hits. In this eventful inning Frank Perry Vermont shortstop was badly spiked when Mahar slid into second base on a steal. Several stitches had to be taken in his leg after he was taken to the hospital.

Vermont scored two runs in the first inning and in the second round tallied four more. However Boston College overcame that early lead with a smashing attack in the eighth inning. In that inning the Eagles pounds went through their entire group to score one hit after another on Kenyon's delivery.

The Green and Gold warriors knocked Curtis, Boston College opening pitcher, out of the box in the second inning. He was replaced by Downes, who muzzled Vermont to six hits and one run throughout the remainder of the game.

GREY FRIARS WILL MEET TONIGHT AT OWL HOUSE

Grey Friars, the men's literary society will hold the final meeting of the year at 7 o'clock this evening at the Owl house on upper Pearl Street. F. W. House, builder the president of the group, announces that all members are expected to be present, but need not bring manuscripts.

SOPHOMORE WOMEN WILL DEBATE FRESHMEN MAY 3

Proposed that legal censorship be abolished" will be debated by the freshmen and sophomore women's debating teams on May 3 at the Fleming Museum. The Lawson cup, which is now in the possession of the sophomore debaters will be awarded to the winners of this debate. The freshman team which will uphold the negative side of the question, is composed of Betty Bennett, Anita Kittell, and Irene LaFountain. Augusta Cohen, Helen Cass and Louise Farman are members of the sophomore team on the affirmative side.

BUEHLER'S LATEST BOOK TO BE RELEASED IN MAY

Prof. Alfred G. Buehler's new book "The General Sales Tax," will be released about the middle of May. Professor Buehler has been a member of the economics department at the University for several years. At present he conducts classes in elementary economics, money and banking, public finance, and marketing. He is to teach during the coming summer session at Ohio State, having for his special subject, public finance.

Professor Buehler has been studying sales taxes in many lands for many years. He has studied statistics and records and consulted experts. He has also analyzed the new sales tax developed by Congress for the United States. He almost precisely how it will work and what it will mean if adopted. To quote the publishers, "This remarkably complete, full, detailed book is the best and only book on the sales tax and certain to be the authoritative one."

Freshman girls in the University of Arkansas dormitory must eat everything but peas and ice cream with a spoon. A knife is used for these articles.

Oregon University believes in training her sons to make good husbands. A course in cooking has been instituted for men only.

YEARLINGS BEAT SOPHS IN ANNUAL INDOOR MEET

(Continued from page 3)

Winner of the championship cross-country team was the half mile with White and Merchant of the frosh harriers on his heels. The mile run was featured by a sensational finish, Red Jackson nosing out Ed Slater for second place with a grand spurt on the last turn. Brown captured first place.

Abbott won both the hurdle events easily, looking much better than he did at the interfrat meet when he was greatly handicapped with a bad ankle. Captain Meehan won his specialty, the pole vault, leaving his rival competitors MacDonald and Crosby Lawton six inches behind. They tied for first place in the indoor meet earlier this spring. Ed also won the broad jump which he just recently had taken up.

Joe Deltausse pulled a surprise in the high jump, Ross Abbott using his eastern rival and Robin Deltausse had tied for first place and gone back to the gym when Joe came over to the pit from the weight events and leaped over the bar for a full inch better than his brother and Ross.

The weight events went rather poorly, the men throwing into the wind most of the time. Red Cook won the shot and discus while Gardner showed his old form in the javelin, and Stew Manning reaped the rewards of faithful practice in the hammer throw.

And finally in the same survey, one fair damsel had the mental acumen and the experience to write in, "Red hair simply fascinates women." Right you are, lads, and don't we know it.

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

A University of Michigan freshman named is on the student newspaper's sports staff for the first time in that institution's history.

The names of 445 Washington State College students appeared on the honor roll for the first semester of the 1931-1932 school year.

ORDERS
for
INVITATIONS and
ANNOUNCEMENTS
are now being taken
at the
UNIVERSITY STORE

Last date possible to place order is April 30th.

Chesterfield Radio Program
MON & THUR: BOSWELL SISTERS, 10:30 p.m. E.D.T.
TUES & FRI: ALEX GRAY, 10:30 p.m. E.D.T.
WED & SAT: RUTH ETTING, 10 p.m. E.D.T.
SHILKRET'S ORCHESTRA every night but Sunday
NORMAN BROKENSHIRE Announcer
COLUMBIA NETWORK

Chesterfield
They Satisfy ...ALL YOU COULD ASK FOR
© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME [illegible] BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1932 NUMBER 51

HONORARY SOCIETIES CHOOSE SIXTY-ONE

President Bailey Announces New Members of Class and Departmental Organizations

BOULDER ELECTS FIVE

Senior Society Takes Five Men; Key and Serpent Increases Membership by One Making Total of Eight

[illegible] Boulder and three associates announced the election of new members to the annual Boulder's Breakfast Guy W. Bailey announced elected members [illegible] Boulder's secretary secured the seven [illegible] class of 1932. Two [illegible] secret before both [illegible] of a class honorary [illegible] who were members of [illegible] society last year.

[illegible] elected eight men [illegible] increasing its membership to [illegible] but one belonged to [illegible] Mortar Board increased its membership to eight and [illegible] elected fifteen in [illegible] year's eight.

Boulder

[illegible] elected Boulder men are [illegible] Newport, Russell [illegible] Fraser B. Drew [illegible] Reed, Wolcott [illegible] Webster, Burlington.

Mortar Board

[illegible] senior women's honorary [illegible] these eight women: Ara [illegible] Sylvia V. Boyd, [illegible] Mass.; Elizabeth Eckhard, [illegible] Gowen, Concord; [illegible] M. LaFlamme, Brattleboro; [illegible] Odell, Bronxville, N. Y.; [illegible] Springfield; and Caroline [illegible].

Key and Serpent

[illegible] elected to Key and Serpent, [illegible] society are: John L. [illegible] Neck, N. Y.; William [illegible] Cleveland, Thomas Cogswell, [illegible], Clarence F. Dobson, [illegible] Mass.; Chester B. [illegible], Mass.; William J. Gil[illegible], Charles J. Libby, Rich[illegible] N. Y.; and Donald J. Tobin, [illegible].

(Continued on page 8)

Miss O. Evans '32 [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

THE VERMONT CYNIC

NEWS EDITORS

FEATURE EDITORS

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

COLUMNIST

CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

FACULTY ADVISER

REPORTERS

HONORARIES

EATON PAYS TRIBUTE TO PRESIDENT SANDERS

BIGELOW SPEAKS ABOUT IRA ALLEN, CONTENT

NON FRATERNITY MEN HOLD MEETING IN GYM

PROF. EVAN THOMAS GIVES CHAPEL ADDRESS

Society Notes

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

PI BETA PHI

ALPHA XI DELTA

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

Greek Honorary Is Among Most Active Of Campus Organizations

With Thirty Members Fosters Interest in Classics and Promote Fellowship Among Students of Greek

SPEAKERS FEATURE OF FRENCH CLUB MEETINGS

Drew, Beardsley, S. Carter and L. Mount Lead Society First Semester

K. F. L.

Being Collegiate

MISS LAFLAMME WILL BE WINNOWINGS EDITOR

(Cont. from page 1)

Get that Boswell Rhythm!

What those sisters can't do to a tune!

Every Monday and Thursday evening at 10:30 E.D.T.

COLUMBIA coast-to-coast NETWORK

© 1935, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

ALL SHOULD EMULATE IRA ALLEN'S LOYALTY SAYS PROF. DONAHUE

(Continued from page 1)

PI GAMMA MU NEWEST OF VERMONT'S SOCIETIES

(Continued from page 1)

Administrators Praiseworthy

Activities Deserve Attention

Public Problems Should Interest Graduates

PERFECT YOUR FRENCH
McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL, CANADA

CUT FLOWERS PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

TELEPHONE 1613
Star Restaurant
Chinese and American Food
44 Church Street Burlington, Vt

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW
Two Years of College Work
Required
Graduates Admitted to the Bar in Many States
Without Examination
Graduates Required
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

NEW
U. V. M.
STATIONERY
Die-stamped
especially for you
75c and 85c box
24 SHEETS AND ENVELOPES
TO MATCH
McAULIFFE
Church and College
Phone 629

Gold Key Acts Without Duties of Past Years

Honorary Society ... taining of Teams Chief Function

... XERCISES NO ... OVER FRESHMEN

Retiring Men

... were issued by Gold ... sent and approval of ... until 1929 the society ... of Freshman Week, ... sent and all essential ... rule, strictly adhered ... keys to them. Pursuit ... up to these freshmen ... live up to the requirements ...

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES REVISED EXAM SCHEDULE

All Tests Will be Given in the Gym at Nine in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon

KAPPA PHI KAPPA MEN HOLD MONTHLY MEETINGS

Γ K A IS AN HONORARY SAYS ROBERTA POWERS HENCE NOT TOO ACTIVE

MORTAR BOARD, CO-ED HONORARY, CLOSES YEAR OF CHANGED ACTIVITIES

Arrange and Finance Student Tutoring, Conduct Fraternity Politics Investigation

MOWER, AKINS, MOUNT, LEBARON, MILLER, RETIRE

Boulder Society Performs Customary Duties This Year

Senior Organization Supervises Interclass Contests, Advises Honorary Societies, Sponsors Smokers and Dances, Ushers in Chapel

KEY AND SERPENT IS TWENTY-FOUR YEARS OLD

Purpose to Promote College Spirit, Further Interfrat Relations, Develop Fellowship

INFLUENCE BASEBALL TEAM'S SOUTHERN TRIP

Boulder Rock Found

OMICRON NU, WITH THREE MEMBERS DOES LITTLE

SPORTS NEWS

BASEBALL NINE TRIES TO RECUPERATE FROM ILLS ACQUIRED ON TRIP

Ruthowski Had Tonsil Operation While Pires Had Many Stitches Taken in Leg

GAME WITH HORSEMEN LESS THAN WEEK OFF

Hockey Sharpens Up Well to Make a Dependable Start Mar

W. A. A. INSTALLATIONS HELD LAST TUESDAY AT ANNUAL SPRING RALLY

Mildred Akins Awarded Major "V" at Ceremonies at Robinson Hall

CAT'S MEOW

KITTENS CUT TO FINAL STRENGTH BY NEWTON

Twenty-one Men Retained by Coach to Last Entire Schedule

CAT'S MEOW

BASEBALL TOURNAMENT EKES MUCH INTEREST FROM SHIVERING FANS

Phi Delta Theta, Phi Mu [illegible] and Phi Sigma Delta W[illegible] First Rounds Game

S.A.E. 1—Phi Mu Delta 1

[illegible]

Phi Sig 2—Kappa Sig 1

[illegible]

Miles & Perry Company

CHEVYTONS

Charter House SUITS $30

Manhattan SHIRTS $1.95 to $5

Manhattan Shirts, Shorts 55c ea., Up

Clever designing has evolved just the Shirt and Short man [illegible]

TURKS Burlington

156-158 College St.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO INSPECT OUR NEW LUNCH ROOM

RAND'S HOME LUNCH

64 COLCHESTER AVENUE

Opposite New Flemming Museum

AUTOS TO RENT

By the hour, day, week

On a mileage basis.

Ward's Drive-Yourself

Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

HAVE YOUR HATS CLEANED AND YOUR SHOES DYED ANY COLOR at the

U. V. M. Shoe Shine Parlor

All Work Guaranteed

GREETING CARDS

For All Occasions

[illegible] NEWS and GIFT SHOP

[illegible]

NEWSPAPERS & MAGAZINES GIFTS

F. J. Preston & Son

INCORPORATED

JEWELERS

17 Upper Church Street

[illegible]

Expert Repairing and Engraving

[illegible]

Flannel Slacks

WORN ON EVERY CAMPUS THIS YEAR

SPORT TROUSERS OF GRAY, TAN, BROWN and BLUE

$5.00 to $6.50

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.

127 Church Street

"Where Vermont Men Meet"

FOOTBALL CANDIDATES DWINDLE OFF BECAUSE WEATHER IS SO POOR

... to Fear Wintry Conditions That Have Swept Over ... mont for Week

MEN ... APING UP IN A ...NIFICANT MANNER

... Features Week's Workouts

... ing ... significant ... to ... fall a ... Although the boys ... Dartmouth, ... teams in the country ... are fighting intensely ... Sutton former ... has also made ... comment backs on the ... are during spring ... rocky Green lands ... best to make a team. ... Indians ... until ... this day and the boys ... the diamonds in their ... An interesting example ... expressed by Graham ... two diamonds were set ... argument was to side ... block one. As the ... past to let the first ... buttocks was given ... was surprising how ... to the work became ... camp was held a week ... Durant got his charges ... on the road of action ... was reported to most an ... the afternoon. The men ... ing up under the long ... and conditioning. These ... experienced in the art of ... are giving the experts ... a run for their post ... patient coaching of Lyle ...

... week old man weather ... ing with the football ... ask conditions. Snow ... and rain have combined ... give snappy, although, ... from the general run ... If a person is going to ... ball man, if he wants to ... some laurels, and if he ... his own reputation he ... he must still come out ... the workouts at Centennial ... grounds at variety of times ... his candidate a more ... addition to every ...

SENIOR AGGIE STUDENTS DO PRACTICE TEACHING

Prospects for Positions in Vocational Agriculture Favorable for Graduates

Morrill and Wrisley the ... to land ... ... high schools next ... ... interviews ... ... from High School ... ... observation ... ... and the seventeen ... ... has enrolled in ... ... course in that ... ... the students engaged in ... ... teacher training ... ... course in Methods ... ... Agriculture given by ... ... and required of all ... ... Supervised ... ... secured ... ... the ... ...

BOULDER SUPERVISES CUSTOMARY ACTIVITES

The New Members

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES REVISED EXAM SCHEDULE

MORTAR BOARD GROUP CLOSES ACTIVE YEAR

SOPHOMORE ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD MONDAY

Continued from page 1

ALPHA ZETA SPONSORS NO EVENTS THIS YEAR

NOTICE

A meeting of all Independent men will be held next Monday night at 7:30 in Morrill Hall. This is an important meeting and President H. G. Leach '32, urges all non-fraternity men to be present

HONORARY SOCIETIES CHOOSE SIXTY-ONE

Continued from page 1

Guild Key

Tau Kappa Alpha

Scabbard and Blade

Alpha Zeta

KAPPA DELTA

All women desiring to scrub properties side of Masque and Sandal for the Junior Week play report to Margaret Martin at the Kappa Alpha Theta House

KEY AND SERPENT IS TWENTY-FOUR YEARS OLD

SOCIAL FIELD, TOPIC SECOND VOCATIONAL TEA

Continued from page 1

GOLD KEY ACTS WITH ITS CUSTOMARY DUTIES

Change in Organizat...

TUFTS COLLEGE
DENTAL SCHOOL
Founded 1900
Wm. Law Reed, D.M.D., Sc.D., Dean
416 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass.

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

The Auction Sale
at the
University Store

Coat $5.00	Waste Basket $1.75
Laundry Case $3.00	Blanket $4.50
Pearl Book Ends $3.00	Pillow Cover $4.00
Smoking Set $4.50	Memory Book $7.35
Dictionary $5.00	Shield $6.25
Lamp with Seal $4.00	Cigaret Box $7.00

How Much Are We Offered?

Bring out the Beauty of Your Figure with Lo-Bak
by Maiden Form

The charming accented silhouette that fashion makes so much of nowadays ... subtly uplifted — w... slender, hips smooth... ed, makes essential th... tion of the proper found... Maiden Form acco... all these lovely accent... the same time gives ... correct support health a... recommend. See Ma... Foundations at your ... write direct for style ... Maiden Form Brassiere ... Dept. C.32 — 245 Fifth A...

"Lo-Bak"—dainty, exquisitely fitting—this new brassiere with back and sides reduced to a minimum, gives marvelous uplift to the slim figure.

Brassieres $1.00 to $2.95
Girdles $2.98 to $12.50
Garter Belts $1.00 to $2.95

Stunning new girdle of mesh (marquisette lined) with side panels of Ever-sheer elastic — cool, comfortable, slims the waist and rounds the hips with exceptional ease.

"Non-A-Lastic" (front) — a new girdle with special non-stretchable center front for abdomen control. "Grecian Moon" brassiere has clever elastic insert between "up lift" bust sections

"Mar... Sea... "w... str... fig... so t... are ... in... da... is ... w...

• There is a Maiden Form for every type of figure.

LOOK FOR THE NAME

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
The Maiden Form
BRASSIERE
GIRDLES - GARTER BELTS

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 58 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MAY 3, 1932 | NUMBER 52

Students Hear Drs. Buttles, Beecher in Second Talk of Pre-Medic Series

E. H. Buttles, head of the department of [illegible] and secretary of the [illegible] spoke on "Opportunities for the Medical Graduates," at the [illegible] series of talks for Pre-[illegible] held in Hall A, Medical Building [illegible] Tuesday evening at 8.15. Dr. [illegible] Beecher the second speaker of the [illegible] medicine spoke on the subject "The Practice of Medicine."

The meeting was orginally scheduled for Wednesday evening but owing to the unexpected absence of one of the principal speakers at that time the talk had to be postponed. There was an audience of about fifty persons, comprised mainly of pre-medics and medical students.

Dr. H. Jordan, assistant professor of zoology acted as chairman for the evening. He introduced Doctor Buttles who enumerated and explained the various fields in which medical men of today might work. As a few of the divisions of the medical profession he pointed out the need for doctors in the rôle of general practitioners, specialists in eye, ear, nose and throat work, surgeons, government physicians, and administrators in hospitals and various medical institutions.

However," he cautioned, "If you want to become wealthy do not enter the medical profession—take a business course and become a commercial man. There is intately more money in business than there is in medicine."

The speaker briefly discussed the medical societies in this country. He began by defining and showing the purposes of the American Medical Association.

There are three classes of medical colleges in the United States. These classifications were first established by the American Medical Association in 1902. The colleges are rated as A, B, or C according to their respective merits. In 1931 there were seventy-six schools in class A, none in class B, and four in class C. Doctor Buttles emphasized the importance of administrative work in the medical profession and said that many of our graduates went into this branch of medicine.

Doctor Beecher

Doctor Beecher, the next speaker, also devoted part of his talk to the American Medical Association. He explained that if a doctor belongs to the county medical association, he automatically becomes a member of the state association and consequently the national society. He derives innumerable benefits from this organization.

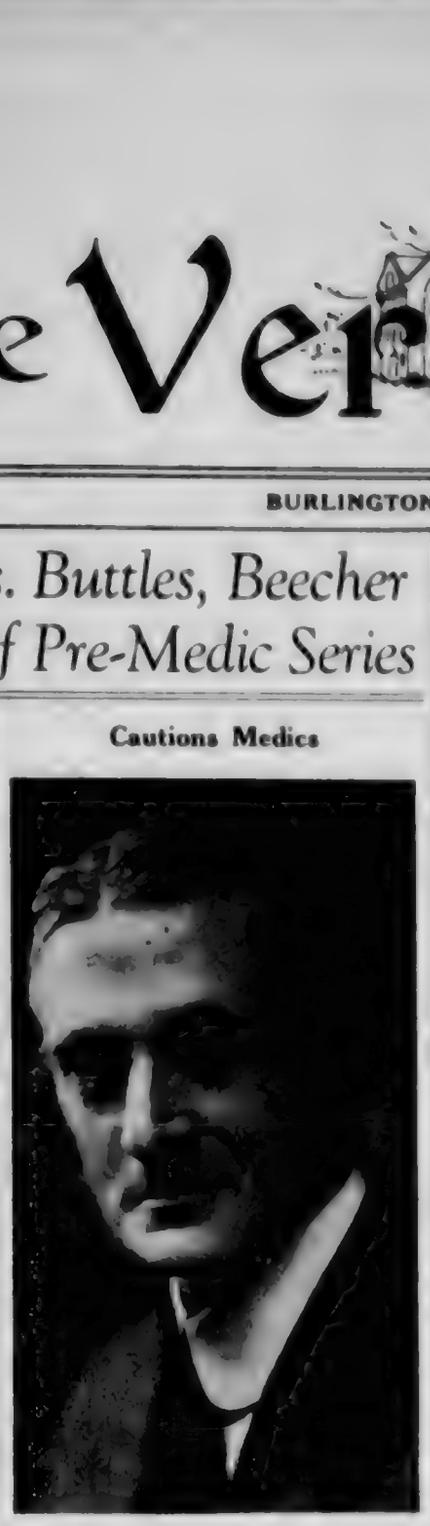
The society sends out pamphlets every week to all of its members. These medical journals have the greatest circulation of any similar publication in the world.

In his talk, Doctor Beecher led up to the graduation from college. He emphasized the importance for the young doctor starting out on his career to choose a place which was satisfactory to him and

(Continued on page 2)

SOCIAL CALENDAR WILL BE ARRANGED THURSDAY

Invitation Extended to Society Representatives Who Will Meet And Fix Tentative Schedule



There will be a meeting of all interested in the forming of a tentative social calendar for the coming year on Thursday, May 5, at 4.15 p.m., in Room 3, North College. All societies interested are asked to send representatives whenever possible who will be able to represent more than one organization, thus avoiding too large a gathering.

All those interested in discussing the social calendar for this year should come prepared to make constructive suggestions looking toward the improvement of next year's calendar.

It is proposed to arrange a tentative calendar at this meeting, post the calendar and publish it in the CYNIC, making the final draft later in the month after all those interested have had an opportunity for criticism.

The following organizations have either given dances or arranged events during the past year and they are cordially invited to be represented at this meeting: Spider, Key and Serpent, Gold Key, Cynic Board, Scabbard and Blade, Music Department, Physical Education department, Wig and Buskin, Masque and Sandal, Sophomore Class (1935), Junior Class (1934), Y. W. C. A., Medical Fraternities, Newman Club, Panhellenic and Interfraternity Conferences, and all men's and women's fraternities, departmental Clubs. Others interested are also invited to send representatives

Cautions Medics

Dr. E. H. Buttles who advised pre-medical students in a lecture Thursday to enter the business profession if they desired wealth.

COL. J. F. GOHN, CAPT. E. M. MCMILLAN WILL INSPECT R. O. T. C. BATTALION

Col. Joseph F. Gohn, Inf. D. O. L., of the First Corps Area Headquarters in Boston, and Capt. E. G. McMillan of the 97th division, Burlington will be the inspecting officers for the annual Federal Military Inspection to be held Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21.

Friday Morning

The program follows:

7.30-8.15 a.m. Theoretical Test, Second Year Advanced (seniors), Military Law and O. R. C. Regulations, Military History and Policy, Administration, Drill and Command, Combat Principles. First Year Basic (freshman), Military Hygiene and First Aid, Drill and Command, Scouting and Patrolling.

8.15 a.m. Call on President Bailey.

8.30-8.50 a.m. Battalion Review.

8.50-9.20 a.m. Company Inspection, Close Order Drill by Squads, Platoons and Companys, Extended Order Drill.

9.20-10.50 a.m. Practical Test of Classes. First Year Basic (freshman), First Aid, Rifle Marksmanship, Scouting and Patrolling, Military Courtesy and Discipline. Second Year Basic (sophomores), Musketry, Automatic Rifle, Scouting and Patrolling. First Year Advanced (juniors), Military Sketching, Machine Guns, 37 mm and 3-inch T. M. Second Year Advanced (seniors), Field Engineering, Combat Principles.

11.00-11.50 a.m. Theoretical Test, First Year Advanced (juniors), Drill and Command, Map Reading and Military Sketching, Machine Guns, 37 mm Gun and 3-inch Trench Mortar, Combat Principles. Second Year Basic (sopohmores), Drill and Command, Musketry, Scouting and Patrolling, Combat Principles.

Friday Afternoon

1.30-2.45 p.m. Tactical Exercise, Rifle Company in Attack.

2.45-5.00 p.m. Inspection of Medical Unit, Inspection of Grounds, Buildings, Ranges, and Storerooms.

Saturday

8.00-8.20 a.m. Battalion Parade.

8.20-12.00 a.m. Competitive Squad Drill for Reserve Officers' Cup, Competitive Drill in Manual of Arms for Scabbard and Blade Cups. (Freshman and soph.) Inspection of Records.

MOST EFFICIENT DRILL SQUAD TO RECEIVE CUP

Col. Robert McCuen, representing the reserve officers of Burlington has presented a new cup to be awarded to the most efficient squad as determined by competitive drill during Federal Inspection. It will be retained by the group furnishing the winning squad for one year and will become the permanent possession of the group winning it three times, not necessarily consecutive.

Col. F. Black will explain any of the rules for competition and will give all the information needed. The competition will be held Saturday morning May 21.

SOPHS BATTLE FROSH TODAY FOR CARLETON CUP

The Carleton cup, an annual award to the winners of the freshman-sophomore women's debate, will be presented this afternoon at four o'clock in the Fleming Museum to the class team which wins a judges' decision. Augusta Cohen and Elvira Farman will represent the sophomore class on the affirmative side of the debate, while Betty Boright and Anita Kittell will argue the negative for the freshmen.

The topic of the discussion will be "Resolved, That legal censorship be abolished." The Carleton cup was last year awarded to the sophomores and is now in their possession.

VOCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY OFFERED WOMEN WILL BE TOPIC OF FINAL TALKS

Faculty Members and Students to Discuss College Woman's Chances in Respective Fields

CO-EDS OF ALL CLASSES ARE URGED TO ATTEND

Four short talks on opportunities offered college women in the vocational fields of Home Economics, Physical Education, and the business world will be given by four different women speakers at the third and last of the series of vocational teas, to be held at Grassmount, Tuesday afternoon, May 3, at four p.m., under the auspices of Dean Marion Patterson. The speakers will be Miss Lillian Johnson, assistant in Home Economics research at the University of Vermont; Miss Eleanor S. Cummings, director of Physical Education for Women; Miss Catherine Nulty, assistant professor of Economics; and a member of the student body, Miss Barbara Russell.

Miss Johnson has had experience in several different types of work which were available to her after her training as an undergraduate in the Home Economics department of a western college.

Miss Cummings will outline the training necessary for a college graduate who wishes to prepare herself for a position as a director of Physical Education.

(Continued from page 2)

Morrisville Wins Championship Title

Peoples Academy Debaters Will Each Receive $150 Scholarship to U. V. M.

Defeating Brattleboro High School by a 2 to 1 decision, in the Fleming Museum, Friday evening, the debating team of People's Academy of Morrisville won the State interscholastic debating championship. The winners defended the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, that each state should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance."

Each member of the winning team, George Goodrich, Marion Hall, Frederick Timerman and Norman Lawson, will receive a full scholarship of $300 at the University, and each member of the losing team will receive a half scholarship of $150. The Morrisville debaters were presented with the Edwin W. Lawrence interscholastic debating trophy, given for the first time Friday evening to the State champion interscholastic debating team.

The University of Vermont sponsored the debate and the series of elimination debates which preceded it, assisted by a special committee of the Headmasters' Club consisting of James A. Boyd of Ludlow, director of debating; Richard Marble of Woodstock, secretary; and James E. Greig of Morrisville, treasurer.

Director Boyd presented the Lawrence trophy to the People's Academy team, then introduced Mr. Lawrence himself, Rutland attorney, State senator and trustee of the University of Vermont, who has shown much interest in stimulating debating in the high schools and colleges of Vermont. Mr. Lawrence spoke briefly, explaining his interest in debating and congratulating all the debaters upon the excellence of their efforts.

The chairman of the debate was Merrill D. Powers, debating coach at the University, and the judges were Paul D. Evans, professor of history; George V. Kidder, associate professor of Greek and Latin; and John T. Metcalf, associate professor of psychology.

Student Players Express Enthusiasm Over Hay Fever

Dorothy Murphy Praises Junior Week Comedy and Asks Students' Support—Other Principals Predict Enjoyable Evening's Entertainment May 12

I. R. CLUB TO DISCUSS HONORARY PLANS TONIGHT

There will be an important meeting of the International Relations Club this evening at 8 o'clock in the Museum Auditorium to discuss ways and means of making the organization an honorary club of the Political Science and History Departments, with definite requirements for membership. Plans will be formulated for committees to start work on next year's Model League Assembly to be held at Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

All students interested in the formation of such an organization are invited to attend and may also interview the present officers, Paul J. LaCross '32, president, and Sylvia Boyd '33, vice-president.

MEN'S VARSITY TO ARGUE IN LAWRENCE PRIZE TILT AGAINST MIDDLEBURY

Vermont's men's varsity debating team will meet a team from Middlebury College in the annual Lawrence prize debate which will be held Friday evening, May 6 in the Fleming Museum Auditorium. The Green and Gold trio, Bigelow, Donaghy and LaCross will argue the affirmative side of the question "Resolved that The Interallied War Debts Should Be Cancelled."

The Lawrence debating prizes of $25, $15, and $10 will be awarded to the participants who show the greatest proficiency in debate. The debate itself is decided by one set of judges, the prizes are given annually by Edwin Winship Lawrence '01 of Rutland. Mr. Lawrence has recently donated a cup which was awarded to the debating team from Peoples Academy of Morrisville who defeated Brattleboro High to win the State interscholastic debating championship.

HEALTH COUNCIL WILL SPONSOR BRIDGE FRIDAY

Health Council is sponsoring the bridge which will be held at the Home Economics Practice House and the Vermonters Club House, Friday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. Katherine Tolman '33, newly-elected president of Health Council is in charge. The proceeds will go to the Health Fund, which has been started by Health Council to aid those women who need glasses or teeth fixed and feel they can't spare the money. The money will be lent without interest.

Women members of the faculty and the townspeople are cooperating with the students and are jointly holding the bridge under their auspices. Faculty and townspeople will play in the Home Economics Practice House at $2 a table, and students will play in the Vermonters Club House at the special rate of $1 a table. Tea will be served at $.10 a cup and there will be prizes for students.

To date not many students have reserved tables. It is urged that all those wishing to attend, reserve their tables immediately from any of the following: Priscilla Perry '33, Slade Hall; Rachel Canedy '33, Robinson Hall; Elvira Farman '32, Redstone; Jessie Minckler '32, Grasmount; Priscilla Colton '35, Campus House; Agnes Parsons '32, Kappa Alpha Theta House; Leah Gowen '33, Alpha Chi Omega House; Doris Skinner '32, Pi Beta Phi House; Winifred Graham '32, Rand and Allen Houses; Helen Jenkins '34, University Terrace; Katherine Tolman '33, Town Girls.

One hundred and thirty-five pictures are shown in the second annual exhibition of the Northern Artists' Association which opened Sunday at the Fleming Museum.

The exhibition will continue throughout the week and will be open to the public every day from 2 to 5 o'clock. The pictures will also be shown on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

University of Pennsylvania has announced that most co-eds are temperamental—90 percent temper and 10 percent mental.

CAST MOST EXPERIENCED I EVER COACHED, METCALF

"It is quite the usual, and perhaps the trite thing to say that the cast is hugely enjoying rehearsals in preparation for the Junior Week play, but this time we are more than enthusiastic about it all," says Dorothy Murphy '33 of "Hay Fever," the Junior Week play. "Each and every one of us feels that Noel Coward's comedy is worthy of our best efforts, which we promise to give you on May 12. Do give us your support in making this one of the most memorable productions of the University players. We know you'll enjoy 'Hay Fever!'"

"I think it is really a swell play," seconds F. W. Householder, Jr. '32, and it is a pretty good gamble for anyone to come because it would be better than a fifty-fifty chance of a real good evening's entertainment."

Professor Metcalf, the "coach on crutches," has this to say. "The play 'Hay Fever' is described in Samuel French's catalogue as being for 'advanced casts.' It is undoubtedly a difficult play to present, but the cast is probably the most experienced one I have coached in college dramatics. 'Hay Fever' is variously described by different characters in the play as artistic temperament, hysteria, madness, bohemianism—but from any standpoint it is amusing."

Play Without Plot

"It is a play without a plot, depending almost entirely upon situations and amusing lines to keep up the audience interest, and in that way it is essentially modern. The brilliance and real humor of the lines is shown by the fact that although we have been rehearsing for sometime, we still get laughs out of it," Householder further commented.

Kathryn Rauh '32 plays Judith Bliss, the main character about whom the play is centered. She declares, "'Hay Fever' is just the type of play that we've all been waiting to see put on by the University Players; it is up-to-the-minute comedy, highly amusing and really worth while entertainment."

Roberta Powers '32 emphasized the personal help gained from participation in college plays. "The thing that makes it so interesting," she said, "is what one learns about dramatics and Mr. Coward has given us a great deal of opportunity with his clever staging."

R. S. Wright '35 remarked: "The play has nothing at all to do with hay fever—in fact it has nothing at all to do with anything. It is simply a snatch of the family life of the Blisses, with the author's cleverness creating really good character comedy."

The characters are: Judith Bliss, Kathryn Rauh '32; David Bliss, E. J. Fitzgerald '32; Sorel Bliss, Dorothy Murphy '33; Simon Bliss, F. J. Householder '32; Myra Arundel, Roberta Powers '32; Richard Greatham, Stuart Wright '35; Sandy Tyrell, Paul Westin '32; Jackie Coryton, Dorothea Edwards '33; Clara, Marie Maguire '35.

MRS. HELEN FLANDERS TO SPEAK ON "FOLK SONGS OF VERMONT" THURSDAY

Mrs. Helen Hartness Flanders of Springfield will speak on "Folk Songs of Vermont" at the tea sponsored by Blue-stockings, women's literary society, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The newly elected officers of the society will be in charge of the meeting, to which all students and faculty members are invited.

Mrs. Flanders is a well-known authority in her field. She is a member of the Vermont Country Life Commission, and co-author of the Commission's brochure on folk songs. She has travelled extensively throughout the State collecting songs and has appeared before many audiences, where she has sung and explained the songs. Her object in coming to the University is to interest and instruct the University students in collecting folk songs in their own communities.

Five reels of motion pictures were shown at the Fleming Museum, Saturday afternoon. The first reel, "Life Under the Sea" portrayed the strange creatures living fathoms deep. The second reel showed the history of airplanes, picturing the first aircraft built by the Wright brothers on up through later developments.

BOULDER SUPERVISES CUSTOMARY ACTIVITES

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES REVISED EXAM SCHEDULE

HONORARY SOCIETIES CHOOSE SIXTY-ONE

Gold Key

Tau Kappa Alpha

Scabbard and Blade

Alpha Zeta

KEY AND SERPENT IS TWENTY-FOUR YEARS OLD

GOLD KEY ACTS WITHOUT ITS CUSTOMARY DUTIES

Change in Organizat

SOCIAL FIELD, TOPIC SECOND VOCATIONAL TEA

MORTAR BOARD GROUP CLOSES ACTIVE YEAR

SOPHOMORE ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD MONDAY

KAPPA DELTA

All women desiring to scrub prop erties rule of Masque and Sandal for the Junior Week play report to Margaret Martin at the Kappa Alpha Theta House

TUFTS COLLEGE
DENTAL SCHOOL

College men and women prepare for a pro fession. Widening interest and opportunity. Recent research has enlarged the scope of every phase of dentistry. The best demands

Medford Mass

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men

B. J. BOYNTON
Shoes for the Family
65 Church Street
Burlington, Vt.

The Auction Sale

at the

University Store

Coat $5.00	Waste Basket $1.75
Laundry Case $3.00	Blanket $4.50
Pearl Book Ends $3.00	Pillow Cover $4.00
Smoking Set $4.50	Memory Book $7.35
Dictionary $5.00	Shield $6.25
Lamp with Seal $4.00	Cigaret Box $7.00

How Much Are We Offered?

Bring out the Beauty of Your Figure with

Lo-Bak by Maiden Form

The charming ac
houette that fash
so much of now a subtly uplifted slender, hips smoo
ed, makes essentia
tion of the proper fo
Maiden Form a
all these lovely ac
the same time g correct support heal recommend. See M
Foundations at yo write direct for st
Maiden Form Brassi
Dept. C52—245 Fifth

"Lo-Bak"—dain

Stunning new girdle of mesh

• There is a Maiden Form for every type of figure.

LOOK FOR THE NAME

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

The Maiden Form BRASSIERE

GIRDLES ~ GARTER BELTS

"Non-A-Last girdle with special non-stretchable center front for abdomen control.
"Grecian Moon"
brassiere has clever elastic insert between "up

ALPHA ZETA SPONSORS NO EVENTS THIS YEAR

NOTICE

A meeting of all independent men will be held next Monday night at 7:30 in Merrill Hall. This is an im portant meeting and President H. G. Leach '32, urges all non fraternity men to be present

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, TUESDAY, MAY 3, 1932 | NUMBER 53

Students Hear Drs. Buttles, Beecher in Second Talk of Pre-Medic Series

...Buttles, head of the department ... and secretary of the ... spoke on "Opportunities ... Graduates," at the ... series of talks for Pre... Hall A, Medical Build... evening at 8.15. Dr ... second speaker of the ... medicine spoke on the sub... of Medicine."

...originally scheduled for ... evening but owing to the un... of one of the principal ... time the talk had to be ... there was an audience of ... persons, comprised mainly of ... and medical students.

Dr. ..., assistant professor of ..., acted as chairman for the eve... announced Doctor Buttles who ... and explained the various ... medical men of today ... As a few of the divisions of ... profession he pointed out the ... ...ers in the rôle of general ... specialists in eye, ear, nose ... work, surgeons, government ... and administrators in hospi... medical institutions.

"If ..." he cautioned, "if you want ... wealthy do not enter the medi... profession -take a business course ... become a commercial man. There ... more money in business than ... medicine."

The speaker briefly discussed the medi... centers in this country. He began ... and showing the purposes of ... American Medical Association.

There are three classes of medical col... in the United States. These classi... were first established by the ... Medical Association in 1902. ... are rated as A, B, or C ac... their respective merits. In ... there were seventy-six schools in ... A, nine in class B, and four in ... Doctor Buttles emphasized the ... of administrative work in the ... profession and said that many of ... graduates went into this branch of ...

Doctor Beecher

Doctor Beecher, the next speaker, also ... part of his talk to the American ... Association. He explained that ... doctor belongs to the county medi... association, he automatically becomes ... member of the state association and ... the national society. He ... innumerable benefits from this ...

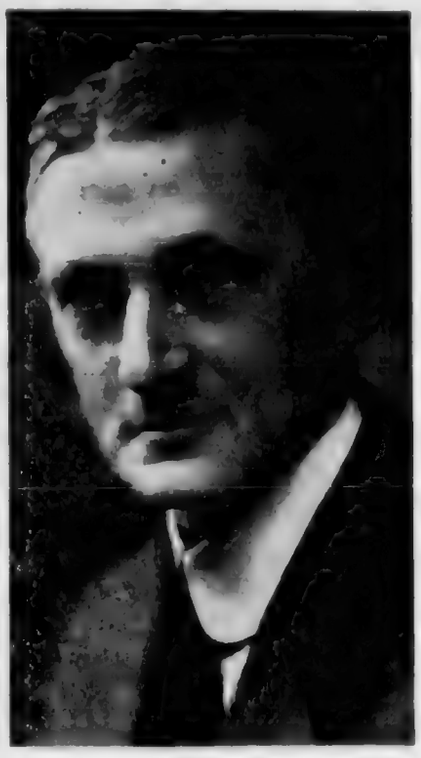
The society sends out pamphlets every ... to all its members. These medi... journals have the greatest circulation ... similar publication in the world.

In his talk Doctor Beecher led up to ... graduation from college. He em... the importance for the young ... starting out on his career to choose ... which was satisfactory to him and

(Continued on page 2)

SOCIAL CALENDAR WILL BE ARRANGED THURSDAY

Invitation Extended to Society Representatives Who Will Meet And Fix Tentative Schedule



...e will be a meeting of all inter... in the forming of a tentative social ...dar for the coming year on Thurs... May 5 at 4.15 p.m., in Room 3, ... College. All societies interested ... send representatives when... who will be able to repre... ... one organization, thus ... large a gathering.

...interested in discussing the ... for this year should come ... make constructive sugges... toward the improvement of ...dar.

...ed to arrange a tentative ... meeting, post the calen... it in the CYNIC, making ... later in the month after ... have had an oppor...

...organizations have either ... arranged events during ... and they are cordially in... represented at this meeting: ... and Serpent, Gold Key, ... Scabbard and Blade, ...nt, Physical Education ... and Buskin, Masque ...phomore Class (1935), ...934), Y. W. C. A., Med... Newman Club, Pan... Interfraternity Conferences, ... and women's fraternities, ... Clubs. Others interested ... to send representatives

Cautions Medics

Dr. E. H. Buttles who advised pre-medical students in a lecture Thursday to enter the business profession if they desired wealth.

COL. J. F. GOHN, CAPT. E. M. MCMILLAN WILL INSPECT R. O. T. C. BATTALION

Col. Joseph F. Gohn, Inf. D. O. L., of the First Corps Area Headquarters in Boston, and Capt. E. G. McMillan of the 97th division, Burlington will be the inspecting officers for the annual Federal Military Inspection to be held Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21.

Friday Morning

The program follows:

7.30-8.15 a.m. Theoretical Test, Second Year Advanced (seniors), Military Law and O. R. C. Regulations, Military History and Policy, Administration, Drill and Command, Combat Principles. First Year Basic (freshman), Military Hygiene and First Aid, Drill and Command, Scouting and Patrolling.

8.15 a.m. Call on President Bailey.

8.30-8.50 a.m. Battalion Review.

8.50-9.20 a.m. Company Inspection, Close Order Drill by Squads, Platoons and Companys, Extended Order Drill.

9.20-10.50 a.m. Practical Test of Classes, First Year Basic (freshman), First Aid, Rifle Marksmanship, Scouting and Patrolling, Military Courtesy and Discipline. Second Year Basic (sophomores), Musketry, Automatic Rifle, Scouting and Patrolling. First Year Advanced (juniors), Military Sketching, Machine Guns, 37 mm and 3-inch T. M. Second Year Advanced (seniors), Field Engineering, Combat Principles.

11.00-11.50 a.m. Theoretical Test, First Year Advanced (juniors), Drill and Command, Map Reading and Military Sketching, Machine Guns, 37 mm Gun and 3-inch Trench Mortar, Combat Principles. Second Year Basic (sopohmores), Drill and Command, Musketry, Scouting and Patrolling, Combat Principles.

Friday Afternoon

1.30-2.45 p.m. Tactical Exercise, Rifle Company in Attack.

2.45-5.00 p.m. Inspection of Medical Unit, Inspection of Grounds, Buildings, Ranges, and Storerooms.

Saturday

8.00-8.20 a.m. Battalion Parade.

8.20-12.00 a.m. Competitive Squad Drill for Reserve Officers' Cup, Competitive Drill in Manual of Arms for Scabbard and Blade Cups. (Freshman and soph.) Inspection of Records.

MOST EFFICIENT DRILL SQUAD TO RECEIVE CUP

Col. Robert McCuen, representing the reserve officers of Burlington has presented a new cup to be awarded to the most efficient squad as determined by competitive drill during Federal Inspection. It will be retained by the group furnishing the winning squad for one year and will become the permanent possession of the group winning it three times, not necessarily consecutive.

Col. F. Black will explain any of the rules for competition and will give all the information needed. The competition will be held Saturday morning May 21.

SOPHS BATTLE FROSH TODAY FOR CARLETON CUP

The Carleton cup, an annual award to the winners of the freshman-sophomore women's debate, will be presented this afternoon at four o'clock in the Fleming Museum to the class team which wins a judges' decision. Augusta Cohen and Elvira Farman will represent the sophomore class on the affirmative side of the debate, while Betty Boright and Anita Kittell will argue the negative for the freshmen.

The topic of the discussion will be "Resolved, That legal censorship be abolished." The Carleton cup was last year awarded to the sophomores and is now in their possession.

VOCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY OFFERED WOMEN WILL BE TOPIC OF FINAL TALKS

Faculty Members and Students to Discuss College Woman's Chances in Respective Fields

CO-EDS OF ALL CLASSES ARE URGED TO ATTEND

Four short talks on opportunities offered college women in the vocational fields of Home Economics, Physical Education, and the business world will be given by four different women speakers at the third and last of the series of vocational teas, to be held at Grassmount, Tuesday afternoon, May 3, at four p.m., under the auspices of Dean Marion Patterson. The speakers will be Miss Lillian Johnson, assistant in Home Economics research at the University of Vermont; Miss Eleanor S. Cummings, director of Physical Education for Women; Miss Catherine Nulty, assistant professor of Economics; and a member of the student body, Miss Barbara Russell.

Miss Johnson has had experience in several different types of work which were available to her after her training as an undergraduate in the Home Economics department of a western college.

Miss Cummings will outline the training necessary for a college graduate who wishes to prepare herself for a position as a director of Physical Education.

(Continued from page 2)

Morrisville Wins Championship Title

Peoples Academy Debaters Will Each Receive $150 Scholarship to U. V. M.

Defeating Brattleboro High School by a 2 to 1 decision, in the Fleming Museum, Friday evening, the debating team of People's Academy of Morrisville won the State interscholastic debating championship. The winners defended the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, that each state should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance."

Each member of the winning team, George Goodrich, Marion Hall, Frederick Timerman and Norman Lawson, will receive a full scholarship of $300 at the University, and each member of the losing team will receive a half scholarship of $150. The Morrisville debaters were presented with the Edwin W. Lawrence interscholastic debating trophy, given for the first time Friday evening to the State champion interscholastic debating team.

The University of Vermont sponsored the debate and the series of elimination debates which preceded it, assisted by a special committee of the Headmasters' Club consisting of James A. Boyd of Ludlow, director of debating; Richard Marble of Woodstock, secretary; and James E. Greig of Morrisville, treasurer.

Director Boyd presented the Lawrence trophy to the People's Academy team, then introduced Mr. Lawrence himself, Rutland attorney, State senator and trustee of the University of Vermont, who has shown much interest in stimulating debating in the high schools and colleges of Vermont. Mr. Lawrence spoke briefly, explaining his interest in debating and congratulating all the debaters upon the excellence of their efforts.

The chairman of the debate was Merrill D. Powers, debating coach at the University, and the judges were Paul D. Evans, professor of history; George V. Kidder, associate professor of Greek and Latin; and John T. Metcalf, associate professor of psychology.

Student Players Express Enthusiasm Over Hay Fever

Dorothy Murphy Praises Junior Week Comedy and Asks Students' Support—Other Principals Predict Enjoyable Evening's Entertainment May 12

I. R. CLUB TO DISCUSS HONORARY PLANS TONIGHT

There will be an important meeting of the International Relations Club this evening at 8 o'clock in the Museum Auditorium to discuss ways and means of making the organization an honorary club of the Political Science and History Departments, with definite requirements for membership. Plans will be formulated for committees to start work on next year's Model League Assembly to be held at Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

All students interested in the formation of such an organization are invited to attend and may also interview the present officers, Paul J. LaCross '32, president, and Sylvia Boyd '33, vice-president.

MEN'S VARSITY TO ARGUE IN LAWRENCE PRIZE TILT AGAINST MIDDLEBURY

Vermont's men's varsity debating team will meet a team from Middlebury College in the annual Lawrence prize debate which will be held Friday evening, May 6 in the Fleming Museum Auditorium. The Green and Gold trio, Bigelow, Donaghy and LaCross will argue the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved that The Interallied War Debts Should Be Cancelled."

The Lawrence debating prizes of $25, $15, and $10 will be awarded to the participants who show the greatest proficiency in debate. The debate itself is decided by one set of judges, the prizes are given annually by Edwin Winship Lawrence '01 of Rutland. Mr. Lawrence has recently donated a cup which was awarded to the debating team from Peoples Academy of Morrisville who defeated Brattleboro High to win the State interscholastic debating championship.

HEALTH COUNCIL WILL SPONSOR BRIDGE FRIDAY

Health Council is sponsoring the bridge which will be held at the Home Economics Practice House and the Vermonters Club House, Friday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. Katherine Tolman '33, newly-elected president of Health Council is in charge. The proceeds will go to the Health Fund, which has been started by Health Council to aid those women who need glasses or teeth fixed and feel they can't spare the money. The money will be lent without interest.

Women members of the faculty and the townspeople are cooperating with the students and are jointly holding the bridge under their auspices. Faculty and townspeople will play in the Home Economics Practice House at $2 a table, and students will play in the Vermonters Club House at the special rate of $1 a table. Tea will be served at $.10 a cup and there will be prizes for students.

To date not many students have reserved tables. It is urged that all those wishing to attend, reserve their tables immediately from any of the following: Priscilla Perry '33, Slade Hall; Rachel Canedy '33, Robinson Hall; Elvira Farman '32, Redstone; Jessie Minckler '32, Grasmount; Priscilla Colton '35, Campus House; Agnes Parsons '32, Kappa Alpha Theta House; Leah Gowen '33, Alpha Chi Omega House; Doris Skinner '32, Pi Beta Phi House; Winifred Graham '32, Rand and Allen Houses; Helen Jenkins '34, University Terrace; Katherine Tolman '33, Town Girls.

One hundred and thirty-five pictures are shown in the second annual exhibition of the Northern Artists' Association which opened Sunday at the Fleming Museum.

The exhibition will continue throughout the week and will be open to the public every day from 2 to 5 o'clock. The pictures will also be shown on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock.

University of Pennsylvania has announced that most co-eds are temperamental—90 percent temper and 10 per cent mental.

CAST MOST EXPERIENCED I EVER COACHED, METCALF

"It is quite the usual, and perhaps the trite thing to say that the cast is hugely enjoying rehearsals in preparation for the Junior Week play, but this time we are more than enthusiastic about it all" says Dorothy Murphy '33 of "Hay Fever," the Junior Week play. "Each and every one of us feels that Noel Coward's comedy is worthy of our best efforts, which we promise to give you on May 12. Do give us your support in making this one of the most memorable productions of the University players. We know you'll enjoy 'Hay Fever'."

"I think it is really a swell play," seconds F. W. Householder, Jr. '32 and it is a pretty good gamble for anyone to come because it would be better than a fifty-fifty chance of a real good evening's entertainment."

Professor Metcalf, the "coach on crutches," has this to say. "The play 'Hay Fever' is described in Samuel French's catalogue as being for 'advanced casts.' It is undoubtedly a difficult play to present, but the cast is probably the most experienced one I have coached in college dramatics. 'Hay Fever' is variously described by different characters in the play as artistic temperament, hysteria, madness, bohemianism—but from any standpoint it is amusing."

Play Without Plot

"It is a play without a plot, depending almost entirely upon situations and amusing lines to keep up the audience interest, and in that way it is essentially modern. The brilliance and real humor of the lines is shown by the fact that although we have been rehearsing for sometime, we still get laughs out of it," Householder further commented.

Kathryn Rauh '32 plays Judith Bliss, the main character about whom the play is centered. She declares, "'Hay Fever' is just the type of play that we've all been waiting to see put on by the University Players; it is up-to-the-minute comedy, highly amusing and really worthwhile entertainment."

Roberta Powers '32 emphasized the personal help gained from participation in college plays. "The thing that makes it so interesting," she said, "is what one learns about dramatics and Mr. Coward has given us a great deal of opportunity with his clever staging."

R. S. Wright '35 remarked: "The play has nothing at all to do with hay fever—in fact it has nothing at all to do with anything. It is simply a snatch of the family life of the Blisses, with the author's cleverness creating really good character comedy."

The characters are: Judith Bliss, Kathryn Rauh '32; David Bliss, F. J. Fitzgerald '32; Sorel Bliss, Dorothy Murphy '33; Simon Bliss, F. J. Householder '32; Myra Arundel, Roberta Powers '32, Richard Greatham, Stuart Wright '35, Sandy Tyrell, Paul Westin '32; Jackie Coryton, Dorothea Edwards '33; Clara, Marie Maguire '35.

MRS. HELEN FLANDERS TO SPEAK ON "FOLK SONGS OF VERMONT" THURSDAY

Mrs. Helen Hartness Flanders of Springfield will speak on "Folk Songs of Vermont" at the tea sponsored by Bluestockings, women's literary society, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The newly elected officers of the society will be in charge of the meeting, to which all students and faculty members are invited.

Mrs. Flanders is a well-known authority in her field. She is a member of the Vermont Country Life Commission, and co-author of the Commission's brochure on folk songs. She has travelled extensively throughout the State collecting songs and has appeared before many audiences, where she has sung and explained the songs. Her object in coming to the University is to interest and instruct the University students in collecting folk songs in their own communities.

Five reels of motion pictures were shown at the Fleming Museum, Saturday afternoon. The first reel, "Life Under the Sea" portrayed the strange creatures living fathoms deep. The second reel showed the history of airplanes, picturing the first aircraft built by the Wright brothers on up through later developments.

THE VERMONT CYNIC

The Official Student Newspaper of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College

Member of the New England Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

[illegible] Editor-in-Chief
DOROTHY C JACKMAN '33 ..... Women's Editor
JEROME H FARWELL '33 ..... Sports Editor
JAMES F BIGELOW '33 ..... Managing Editor
STANLEY K CARTER '33 ..... Recording Editor
CARL W JANKE '33 ..... Business Manager
EDWARD E DUNN '33 ..... Advertising Manager

NEWS EDITORS

[illegible] Kidwell '34 Augusta Cohen '34
William Cohen '34 Charles J Libby '34
William Brulin '34 Realtus McCain '34

FEATURE EDITORS

Norma Carder '33
M J Greenberg '34
Dorine Lee '33
T I Taylor '33

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

G H Burrows '34
W J Gilbert '34
Charles J. Libby '34

INTERCOLLEGIATE EDITOR

L Litman '34

COLUMNIST

R J Weissman '34

CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

[illegible]

FACULTY ADVISER

Prof Leon W. Dean

REPORTERS

[illegible] Winifred Perry '35
[illegible] Schaefer '35
Marjorie Kendall '33 Anita Weir '35
Dorothea Kennedy '35 W D White, Jr., '35
Helen Mount '35 A R Wilcox '35
Jane Parsons '35 P C Wright Jr '35

Founded in 1883. Published semi-weekly during the college year. Subscription $3.00 a year, single copy, five cents.

All editorial and business communications must be signed and addressed to the proper department head of The Vermont Cynic Office, North College. Brief notices must be handed in at the office not later than 3 p.m. Tuesday and Friday for the issue in which they are to appear. Office telephone 1644.

Acceptance for mailing to points outside Burlington at special rate provided for in Section 460 P. L. and R. Act of March 3, 1879, authorized October 14, 1926.

Office of Publication, Free Press Printing Co., Burlington, Vt.

[illegible] May 5, 1933 Number 52

THE FORUM

College Journalists

[illegible] journal of college newspapers a recent editorial stated that the student editor [illegible] He learns that a reformer is [illegible] He learns that he cannot be [illegible] He learns that he must be [illegible] He learns that he must be [illegible] He learns that he must

MUSEUM GETS DONATIONS FROM MRS. J. C. TURK

Gifts Include a Temple Gong, a Marble Buddha and "Thirteen States' Mirror"

... presented to the Elem... Mrs. J. C. Turk, of ... a temple gong from ... Buddha from India, ... The Thirteen States ...

... in a frame of teak ... ically on both sides ... Over the gong are ... in a kneeling position ... are other winged figures ... composed of traditional ... itself is painted black ... with gilt figures.

... received the Buddha from ... who took it from a ... in the interior of India. ... discovering that he held ... attempted to recover it, ... danger for a long time ... caped, carrying the image ...

... industrial arts room the mirror ... It is divided into two sec... measures about eight by fifteen ... upper part is a European ... framing. It derives its name ... small gilt balls represent... original states. It was ... in the United States just previous ... entrance into the Union.

... industrial arts room contains sev... displays. One of these is an ... of cabinet maker's tools, given ... Wash. S. Stone. One piece is a hand... thread cutter, and another a cutter ... the threads on wooden screws. ... are in the group a shingle splitter, ... adze, for trimming beams, a ... plane, and a beader.

... another exhibition, also given by Mr Stone, is a blotting shaker, which is a small polished wood bottle containing sand. The sand was shaken on a freshly written page and rolled back and forth ... until the page was dry. The sand was then put back into the bottle.

There are a pair of gold framed glasses, the bows of which have loops for thread to hold the glasses on the head.

Mr Teachout '88 has given the Mu... two teapots, and a wine set. One ... teapots is of blueware, and was ... owned by Eleazer K. Hard, a Bur... lawyer. The wine set, made of ... glass was the possession of ... D. Ballou, third mayor of Bur...

A pair of porcelain candle sticks, pre... by Mrs. Margaret A. Krogman, attracts much attention. They are about eighteen inches high. The main figure of ... is a youth, holding a glass, of the other a bar maid with a pitcher. Delicate raised carnations form the main decora... scheme, with their stems entwined about the standards. They are made to hold five candles, but the arms may be removed so that they hold one candle. The color of them is pink, with an orchid ... The costumes of the figures would ... a German origin.

Another interesting piece is a large platter with the picture of Hancock ... in Boston. This platter is sup... to have been used by George ... while he was in the hub city. ... was bought by Luman P. Norton, of ... a maker of pottery, and an... Mrs. Charles H. Darling, of ... who gave it to the Museum. ... also a pitcher estimated to be ... hundred years old.

... gave the Museum a pistol ... of brass, bearing the Amer... ... case are a foot warmer, ... The foot warmer is of ... It was originally filled with char... and in sleighs. The demijohn ... glass of about two and a half ... It is covered with a ... cane case, with a handle, ... over the top. It was carried in ... with handles at both ends.

In the entrance room stands the dress ... of a European knight. This has been in the possession of the University since the Museum was in the old building, but it has not been on display since a steam pipe burst in the old Cannon room, and rusted the armor, so that it could not be cleaned by hand. The Museum recently obtained a buffing machine, and cleaned the armor.

Bits of Bunk

A Long-armed Farewell

"Last morning as Mr. Bumpus was ... he would stand in the ... with his arms around his wife ... wave good-bye to her until she was out of sight."—From Cinn. Times-Star

... prisoners were driven ... cell blocks where they ... and shouted en... those outside."—From ...

... I need a coat, gloves ... and unmention... ... trolley passes out ... know whether it'll be ... or trade you in ...

Expert on Social Hygiene Calls Sophistication Sham

Dr. Helen McGillicuddy, head of the Massachusetts State Committee of Social Hygiene, says attitude of modern college girl is a defense reaction against reality.

Despite her cocksureness she is in a fog. She does not know what life is all about, although she pretends to. The new freedom, outgrowth of the World War, has created new standards to which women are struggling to conform."

The college girl, however, because of her superior training, is better adapted to meet these conditions and thus to make a better marriage, she believes. "It is most important to use one's head when choosing a mate. College girls are able to do this. They learn to control their emotions, and thereby to control themselves."

"Girls who do not attend co-educational colleges, make few mistakes in choosing their life partners, statistics showing that only one marriage in fifty-five among that class ends in divorce courts."

"An even better ratio is shown by girls in co-educational colleges," Doctor McGillicuddy continued. "Figures show that there is one divorce to seventy-five marriages, mainly because the young people are given opportunity to know each other better."

For Better Marriage

Doctor McGillicuddy believes that if young people would give more thought to their relations with the opposite sex, we would have much better marriages. Young people should have a regulated love. Monogamous marriage is decidedly the best. This new freedom is good for both sexes if it is not carried too far.

"Love is physical, spiritual and psychological. Too many young people forget about the last two elements, and put all their emphasis on the physical. This attitude is harmful to the young girl whose being is finely organized. Her emotional tenure may easily color her whole life and decide her personality. If her emotions are of the wrong type, they will damage her.

"One trouble with marriage today is that the physical has been mistaken for the real thing. This leads to divorce.

In the countries of Europe, young couples have no chance to exhaust the physical aspects until after marriage. They have a lower divorce rate than we have.

Danger in "Kicks"

"A big danger comes from mistaking the 'kick' obtained from physical contact, for love. Girls cannot always distinguish the thrill thus obtained from the real thing.

"No boy will want to neck and pet a girl whom he respects. He will want to protect her. Most boys are vain and do not want a girl who has been indiscriminately promiscuous. Yet to call such a girl a 'party girl' may not be fair, for she may be merely trying to be agreeable," Doctor McGillicuddy maintained.

"Girls should put a high price upon themselves. A boy likes a girl who is different and distinctive and is more appealed to by that type of girl," she concluded.

Doctor McGillicuddy has had much experience among girls in her field of social hygiene. Her own daughter is enrolled as a sophomore at Radcliffe College.

COMES FROM DENMARK

A student who has crossed the Atlantic three times to attend Boston University from his homeland in Denmark, Frank E. Horn, believes one of the greatest advantages he has acquired in America is the ability to "throw a line" in examinations and elsewhere.

At Copenhagen University, where he studied at a business college for one year, examinations are oral, and students find little chance for evasion in answering all questions directly, what with a professor and a censor, appointed by the state, pounding questions at them at a fast speed.

His mother wintering in Italy, his father, a telegraphic engineer, in Shanghai, his own birth in Newcastle, England of Danish parents, a record of having gone to a French school in China, as well as an English school there, are only a few of the international complications that make his background a panorama of interest.

Horn has encountered the experience of necessitated flight from three homes on the Continent, once when the Germans bombarded Libau in 1915, next from Petrograd, when a revolution burst there in 1917, and again from Finland because of revolution there.

Although he has visited and summered in eight European and Asiatic countries, most of his young manhood, from the age of twelve to nineteen was passed in the street almost militaristic surroundings of the ancient Sorø Academy (Copenhagen, which dates back to 1300).

"If students kick about hard work in America, let them consider forty-one hours a week, as we took at Copenhagen," Horn remarked. Asked the fundamental difference between American and Continental students, he replied, "Youth is ruling over here. On the other side one observes more reverence for older people. Students take off their hats and bow to professors, and address them as 'Sir.'"

"People here are more natural and straightforward, however. Abroad they live up to too much traditional politeness and snobbishness," according to Frank. "Education here is much more practical."

Horn sees his parents only once in four years, on his father's leave of absence from his position in Shanghai with a Danish firm. The last time he saw his parents was in the summer of 1931, when he crossed the Atlantic to meet them at Hamburg.

In 1919, on his way to Shanghai to join his parents, young Horn circled the globe, travelling from Europe to New York, and through the Panama Canal to Asia, thence eastward to Europe.

He became interested in Boston University when his cousin, Arthur Horn, sent him particulars and information about this college.

Horn converses fluently in six languages, including English, German, French, Swedish, Norwegian and his native tongue, Danish.

He claims that he has never once regretted coming to Boston University, and expects to land a job near Boston in the foreign trade field.

Ruth Etting

of "Harvest Moon" fame.
Now a regular Chesterfield
Radio feature

Every Wednesday and Saturday night at 10 o'clock E.D.T. Columbia
Coast-to-Coast Network

The Cigarette that's MILDER
—that TASTES BETTER

© 1932, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

SOCIAL CALENDAR FOR MAY

May 5
Bluestockings Tea

May 6
Women's Fraternity Dances

May 12
Junior Week Play

May 13
Junior Prom

May 14
Men's Fraternity Dances

May 16
Alliance Francaise Lecture

May 17
Research Club

May 20
Federal Military Inspection

May 21
Federal Military Inspection

May 24
John Dewey Club

May 25
Labor Day

May 30
Memorial Day

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT OPENS TO CAMP LEADERS

Positions Are Open to Twenty-five Men and Women—Also Lists of Recommended Hotels

GREY FRIARS, WIG AND BUSKIN, HAVE LITERARY-DRAMATIC PURPOSES

NEW SPORTS HONORARY ADOPTS CONSTITUTION

(Continued from page 1)

20 MEMBERS ATTEND MEETING OF DEWEY CLUB

Honorary Philosophical and Psychological Society Holds Five Gatherings

JUNIORS MUST CHECK UPON RECORDS, SWIFT

Dean Will Meet All Third-year Students in L. S., G. S., S. S., and Classical Curricula

AUTOS TO RENT

By the hour, day, week
On a mileage basis.
Ward's Drive-Yourself
Yandow's Garage, So. Winooski Ave.

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE
THE T. S. PECK INSURANCE AGENCY
152 College Street
BURLINGTON, VERMONT

ALEX VERRET
112 CHURCH ST.
The Health Food Center
Fancy Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables
Home Made Mayonnaise
FREE DELIVERY
Telephones: 2870, 2871, 2872

HENRY'S DINER
BANK STREET
We value the patronage of college students and wish to please them with clean, wholesome food at popular prices.
TRY US

JOBS
SEND A PHOTO WITH YOUR APPLICATION. SMALL PRICES WITH SMALL PICTURES
Open evenings
NEEDHAM PHOTO STUD O
72 Elmwood Ave. Phone 2289-M

BEST COAL AND SERVICE
* * *
Elias Lyman Coal Company
206 College Street

MEN
Live High
$10. A WEEK & UP
Gymnasium and game rooms, rest and reading rooms, lounges . . . congenial companionship Unsurpassed for college men and junior executives. Ideal locations
DAILY FROM $2
GEORGE A. RICHARDS, Man. Dir.
ALLERTON OPEN TO ALL
CLUB RESIDENCES
143 EAST 39th STREET (East of Lexington
22 EAST 38th STREET (Fraternity Clubs Bldg.
55th STREET and MADISON AVENUE

The Auction Sale
at the
University Store

Coat $5.00	Waste Basket $1.75
Laundry Case $3.00	Blanket $4.50
Pearl Book Ends $3.00	Pillow Cover $4.00
Smoking Set $4.50	Memory Book $7.35
Dictionary $5.00	Shield $6.25
Lamp with Seal $4.00	Cigaret Box $7.00

How Much Are We Offered?

SPORTS NEWS

Catamounts Face Horsemen Without Rutkowski Pitching

Norwich Team Prepared to Give Vermont a Run for Money in Conference Opener

THURSDAY'S GAME TO BEGIN DRIVE FOR TITLE

[illegible] prospects of Chet Rutkowski, [illegible] twirler, being out of the [illegible] Norwich on Thursday at [illegible] chances for a Green and [illegible] been materially dimin- [illegible] Pires, varsity shortstop, [illegible] to play in the game with [illegible] because of his bad leg.

[illegible] game will mark the Cata- [illegible] for the Green Mountain [illegible] championship. Vermont has [illegible] baseball title in Burlington for [illegible] time that it would be a novelty [illegible] disappointing surprise, if this sea- [illegible] team did not come through again.

Wenant, dependable first sacker, [illegible] with the diamond team in the [illegible] game, marking the fourth sea- [illegible] has played with the ball team in [illegible] for the title. Bob Macom- [illegible] guard the keystone sack. Bob [illegible] steady player, and can be counted [illegible] to the hottest of hot ones.

Gardner faces a tough problem [illegible] someone in Frankie Pires' place [illegible] Tommy Cogswell or Ben [illegible] will be called on to fill the boots [illegible] until the varsity man's leg has sufficiently to permit his playing. [illegible] prospective candidates have seen [illegible] baseball service, but have not [illegible] varsity ball yet this season. They [illegible] main cogs in the smooth-working [illegible] last year's frosh outfit, and per- [illegible] creditably at the bat.

McKay, veteran third baseman, [illegible] stopping the fast ones down the [illegible] the diamond. Dutch has ably [illegible] the hot corner position, and is a [illegible] batter. McKay came along at an [illegible] time to fill a big hole in the [illegible] created by Baker, who is ineligible [illegible] present. If Baker had any chance to [illegible] out from under warning, Coach [illegible] would be grooming him for the [illegible] post.

In all probability Tomassetti will be [illegible] receiving position for Thursday's [illegible] However, Bowers may be selected [illegible] last minute by Larry Gardner. [illegible] may be starting the Norwich [illegible] in the absence of Rutkowski. John [illegible] performed rather well in the three [illegible] he has hurled in this season. The [illegible] versity of Richmond game and the [illegible] game are good examples of what [illegible] can do when he is in top-notch [illegible] The Manhattan game was a bad [illegible] from the form he had shown.

Norwich has lost several games in this [illegible] already, but have a fairly strong [illegible] The Horsemen usually give Ver- [illegible] more competition in baseball than [illegible] Middlebury or St. Michael's. The [illegible] nine like the other Vermont [illegible] has been sadly handicapped by the [illegible] outdoor practice.

The Vermont-Norwich contest is part [illegible] Norwich's annual Junior Week cele- [illegible]

NET TEAM DEFEATED BY THREE RIVALS ON TRIP

The University of Vermont tennis team [illegible] last Sunday from its annual [illegible] trip after losing all three [illegible] matches. On Thursday after- [illegible] team dropped a 9-0 decision to [illegible] at Amherst. Friday found the [illegible] the mercy of a fighting M. I. T. [illegible] The Technicians won the hard- [illegible] match by a 4-3 score. On the [illegible] University courts the Terriers [illegible] Catamount net men by a 6-3 [illegible]

[illegible] showed his court genius in win- [illegible] majority of the matches he [illegible] on the trip. His top- [illegible] should help the team ma- [illegible] next match, which is on [illegible] courts against New York [illegible] College.

[illegible] and another student in an [illegible]

[illegible] prompt anyone during a [illegible]

[illegible] take portions of another's [illegible] English if you thought you could [illegible] with it?

[illegible] report anyone to the ju- [illegible]

[illegible] a few of the questions [illegible] College students have been [illegible] anonymously in an in- [illegible] the honor system at the [illegible] with a determination of the fate [illegible] system in the college

NEW "V" GROUP ADOPTS CONSTITUTION AT THURSDAY EVENING MEETING

Tom Collins, Dutch Mackay and Si Powell Elected President, Vice-president and Secretary

In the second meeting of the new letter society last Thursday evening at the gymnasium, the officers were elected to serve for the coming year. Tom Collins '33 football, baseball and basketball letter man was chosen president. Dutch McKay became the vice-president. Dutch has earned his letter on the Vermont baseball nine. Si Powell was selected secretary treasurer of the organization. Powell, a sophomore, earned his letter in football last fall.

The new constitution, which was submitted by a committee composed of Eaton Wilder, Bedell, Winant and Tupper, was unanimously ratified by the members present. It was informed that there would be another meeting tomorrow to discuss several problems that must be investigated.

Larry Gardner, baseball coach, was elected permanent advisor by the newly formed group. Gardner has turned out several state championship ball clubs since his advent to the University of Vermont. As yet the committee on hats has not decided what sort of insignia the members of the club will wear. It has been planned so that the club members will wear a head piece somewhat similar in the design of those of Key and Serpent and Gold Key.

The Constitution and By-Laws of the "V" Club

The "V" Club is composed of students who have earned their varsity letter in a major sport at the University of Vermont. The purpose of this club is to serve as an added honor to the aforementioned students and to further interests in athletics at the University.

Eligible members shall be voted upon after letters have been awarded in each sport. A majority vote being necessary for membership.

The officers shall be: President, (senior); vice-president, (junior); secretary-treasurer, (junior).

The voting shall be by ballot and the two receiving the highest number of ballots in the first balloting, shall be voted for in the final balloting.

Two-thirds of the members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting and it shall require a two-thirds vote of such a quorum for election.

Elections shall take place the last week of April. New officers to be announced on Founder's Day.

The organization shall sponsor a banquet annually at which varsity certificates will be presented to those students who fulfill the requirements in their sport. This banquet to take place the last week in April.

The organization shall present gold insignia to those men recommended by the coach, comprising a Conference Championship Team. No man shall receive more than one insignia in each sport.

All members shall take an oath to refrain from entering into fraternity politics in the election of captains, managers or assistant managers of the various sports.

(Continued on opposite page)

For Your . . .

Riding Habit!

LEVIN'S
ARMY & NAVY STORE

Ladies Whipcord Breeches	$3.39
Ladies Jodphors	4.95
Ladies Riding Boots	9.75
Ladies Riding Coat	12.50

LEVIN'S
170 COLLEGE ST.
Opp. Chittenden County Bank
Tel. 3309-W

FROSH NINE NOSES OUT MONTPELIER SEMINARY IN THRILLING CONTEST

Skinner Leads Teammates With Four Hits for Kitten Outfit

MORI, EX-VERMONT '35, STARS AT BAT FOR SEM.

Swartz Knocks in Tying Run in Ninth

In a close game characterized by heavy hitting and weak fielding, the Vermont frosh won their opener from Montpelier Seminary last Saturday afternoon at Centennial Field. The score was 12-11. Swartz, pitching for the Kittens, pulled a hero act in the ninth, batting in the tying and winning runs with a long two-bagger to center field when two men were out and the count on him was three and two. Bill Skinner of Bethel collected four singles and four runs which influenced the outcome considerably.

The game got off to a late start after the track meet and the ball was getting hard to see by the time the ninth frame rolled up. It was almost seven when the last man had left the field.

The first six innings looked like a walkaway for Vermont. Swartz allowed only two hits and whiffed eight Seminarians. The only sight of hitting strength was a triple by Mori, former Vermont freshman. This hit was the main cause for the visitors two runs. During the same interval, the Kittens collected nine bingles, none of them for extra bases, and nine runs were scored. Sladowitch the Montpelier hurler allowed free transportation to seven men out, looked like he was having trouble finding the plate. Things looked bad for the visitors at the beginning of the seventh. Seven runs behind and their hitters had not figured the pitcher out yet. Swartz must have thought he had the game sewed up too for he let down heavily and the Montpelier boys scored four runs on five hits, one of them a two-bagger. Ed then pulled himself together and found the last two men, each of which he had whiffed twice before. Our seventh inning was the worst of the game, none even reaching first. The same thing happened in the eighth. Swartz walked Passerini, and Higgins got on by a fielding error. Smith got on by a fielders choice, our boys preferring to play Higgins at home but Skinner dropped the ball. However things looked better when Sladowitch the opposing pitcher came up. He flied out to center field and Higgins was caught off second for a nice double play. Things were looking better for Vermont but Montpelier didn't give up. Tucker singled, Mori received a pass and then Buzzi booted one way out to centerfield for a two-bagger, scoring three runs. Coach Newton sent Hammy Carlson and Ray Collins out to the bull pen to warm up but they never saw service. Larson found Buzzi dying on third. The visitors had batted around. Montpelier Seminary was ahead 10-9. We had to do something, and we did it. Skinner got on base, by a third sacker booting the ball. Delfausse received free transportation to the initial sack. Lanahan flied out and Swartz whiffed.

Palmer singled and White, a pinch-hitter walked, forcing in a run. This tied up the score and Burns forced White at second for the third put out.

The excitement was at fever pitch now. The score was tied and every one was hitting the old apple. It sure looked like anybody's game. Swartz tightened up in

(Continued on page 6)

KIBBY PITCHES NO HIT GAME—SIGMA DELTS WIN

Elgin Kibby was responsible for the manner in which the Sigma Delta baseball nine came out over Tau Epsilon Phi, when he pitched the former nine to 24 to 2 victory, in the sloppiest game played so far in the Interfraternity Baseball Tournament. The big feature of the game was the pitching of Kibby, who struck out fourteen out of the eighteen men that faced him, allowed three base on balls and forced the other man to hit an easy one to second base. The Tau Epsilon runs were both unearned. The game was the first no-hit contest at the University of Vermont for the 1932 baseball season.

CAT'S MEOW

—Sports Editor—

Delfausse certainly flew during the last five yards of the two-twenty in Saturday's track meet. His last minute spurt put him way out in front, when he saw that Young was behind.

Archie Post deserves much of the credit for the work he has had in grooming his men for the St. Lawrence meet—his spirit succeeded in arousing more than a passing interest in the old cinder path sport.

It was Vermont's day on Saturday, when the Kittens won from Montpelier Seminary. However, after the Montpelier boys were through in the eighth inning it didn't look that way.

In the Sigma Delt-Tau Ep game, anyone who hit the ball got to first base. However, there were many instances where a man did not have to hit the ball to get there; ask Sargent how his side is, but he got to first base!

Maybe it would have been far better for the Tau Eps to forfeit the game to the Sigma Delts with a nine nothing count.

The Sports Editor would appreciate if any sports enthusiast would like to have a copy of the Olympic schedule printed in the Cynic. Anyone who is planning to go out to Los Angeles this summer might be interested in knowing what he will see. Please address letters commenting on the matter to the Sports Editor. It's your paper, remember!

Charley: Waiter, bring me some coffee, without cream.

Waiter: We haven't any cream, sir; but we have milk—you can have coffee without milk.

VERMONT CLEANSING CO.
SPECIALISTS IN DRY CLEANING
Work Called for and Delivered
Cleaning, Pressing, Repairing
Phone 61 or 61

CUT FLOWERS AND PLANTS
GOVE the Florist
184 Main St. Burlington

Flannel Slacks

WORN ON EVERY CAMPUS THIS YEAR

SPORT TROUSERS OF GRAY, TAN,

BROWN and BLUE

$5.00 to $6.50

HAYES & CARNEY, INC.
127 Church Street
"Where Vermont Men Meet"

VERMONT TRACK MEN SWAMP ST. LAWRENCE IN FIRST TRACK MEET

Catamounts Show Strength in the Sprints in Saturday's Contest

DELFAUSSE AND MEEHAN SCORE HIGH FOR CATS

First Meet in Two Years to be Won by U. V. M.

The Vermont track team won their first meet in two years Saturday, swamping the St. Lawrence red men 85½ to 40½ at Centennial Field. Vermont looked especially good on the paths, winning all but the 880 and the 220 low hurdles. Brooks was disqualified on the turns in the former event. In the weights only the javelin was won. The Catamounts won all the jumps giving them 10 firsts to St. Lawrence's 5.

Nine seconds and eight and a half thirds were also garnered giving the unexpectedly large total of 85½. Joe Delfausse was high-point man for Vermont as usual with two firsts and a tie—14 points. Captain Meehan was runner up with 13 tallies. Roberge, St. Lawrence's weight heaver, carried off the honor for the meet with 18 points. However, if the hammer handle hadn't come off, Manning would have won that event—but that is another story.

Eight men won letters, two of them sophomores. Captain Meehan, Joe Delfausse, Fletcher Proctor, Cliff Harwood, Stew Manning, Abe Gardner, Roy Brooks, and Freddy Tupper each won the coveted five points or more. Delfausse, Harwood, and Manning won their first track letter.

Cats Clean Up in Track Events

The meet opened auspiciously with Fletcher Proctor and Orson Wilder taking first and second in the high hurdles, time, 17.8. This gave us the lead which was never headed.

A surprise was uncorked in the century when Capt. Ed Meehan came out from behind in a poor start to win in state

(Continued on page 6)

Manhattan
SHIRTS
$1.95 to $5

Blues, tans, greens and whites. A Manhattan fitted shirt is something different than you'd expect. It fits, without crowding; it launders without shrinking. Collar attached or separate collars to match.

Manhattan
Shirts, Shorts
55c ea., Up

Clever designing has evolved just the Shirt and Short man wants . . . and a group of unusually appealing patterns.

TURKS Burlington Vt.
156-158 College St.

VERMONT TRACK MEN SWAMP ST. LAWRENCE

Continued from page 5

Vermont Outjumps Redmen

St. Lawrence Wins Weights

R. O. T. C. BAND CONCERT AND DANCE HELD AT GYM

RETIRED

The Dramatic Club will hold its last meeting of the season Wednesday, May 4, at four o'clock at the Alpha Chi Omega house on Main Street. This will be a social gathering and all members are urged to attend

FROSH NINE NOSES OUT MONTPELIER SEMINARY

Continued from page 5

Photo by Jones Director of Athletics at Montpelier Seminary

	ab	r	h	o	a	e
	5	3	2	1	1	0
	4	2	2	6	0	0
	4	0	2	1	3	1
	4	0	0	0	0	0
	3	0	0	3	0	0
	4	3	2	4	1	2
	5	1	1	2	1	4
	5	1	1	9	1	2
	5	1	1	0	5	0
	41	11	11	26	12	9

University Store Gives Auction Sale

The University Store ... next week, May 2-7 ... new and original an ... list of "Big Gives" will be ... who are interested and ... offered during the month ...

The usual "Sale stock" ... moved but there will be ... taken from the novelty ... store has always carried ... specials are listed in the ... event with the prices at ... listed in the store windows.

The bidding time limit ... Monday 8:15 a.m. next ... p.m. The highest bidder ... will be presented with the ... Monday morning, May 9. ... the good faith of the bidder ... cash must be made with ... Monday the store will return ... essful bids to the unsuccessful ... To raise a bid only the ... raise need be added to the ... posted. The highest bid will be posted with the articles being ... but the name of the bidder ... revealed.

Here are luxuries allowable ... pression, also an opportunity ... not be repeated unless enough ... shown. No bid will be ... small as a starter and the sky ... be the limit. — Advertisement

When the president of the ... of Michigan banned all corsages ... versity functions the co-eds ... protest and won their point ... majority of the men on ... since failed to send corsages.

DO YOU INHALE?

Why is this vital question so much avoided by other cigarettes?

EVER since Lucky Strike created that special process for purifying fine tobacco and told the full facts about cigarette smoking—the industry has been in an uproar. For Lucky Strike has dared to mention things that were considered "taboo" in the cigarette trade.

You may have noticed a striking avoidance generally of the word "inhale" in cigarette advertising. Why? Goodness only knows! For everybody inhales—knowingly or unknowingly! Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette. That's why it's all-important to be certain that your cigarette smoke is pure and clean—to be sure you don't inhale certain impurities.

Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question—for it gives you the protection you want . . . because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection against irritation—against cough

Copr. 1933, The American Tobacco Co.

O. K. AMERICA

TUNE IN ON LUCKY STRIKE—60 modern minutes with the world's finest dance orchestras and famous Lucky Strike news features, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening over N. B. C. networks.

The Vermont Cynic

VOLUME 50 | BURLINGTON, VERMONT, FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1932 | NUMBER 83

Royal Arcadians, Best Band to Play at Prom in Years

Junior Week to Afford Much Excitement and Interest to Guests and Students Next Week

PEERADE STARTS OFF ANNUAL CELEBRATION

Next week is Junior Week! The program is first, the play "Hay Fever" Monday night, the Prom Friday and Saturday night the fraternity Billy Murphy and his Royal Arcadians will furnish the music for the Prom which promises to be the best orchestra which is well known in New York and Massachusetts and the best that has been obtained for a Vermont Prom in years. The guests will enjoy, in addition to the music, novel decorations in the form of a Mediterranean garden. Last year the ballroom was ornamented to look like a ship's deck. This year's type of decorations promises to be even more novel.

Ballots Attached to Tickets

The Prom tickets this year are to have ballots attached, to vote for the Junior Week queen. These ballots will be collected during the early evening. At intermission the winner will be announced and presented with the "CYNIC" cup as queen of Junior Week. The Queen may be chosen those present at the Prom but other qualifications are required. She may come from any class.

The Peerade is on Thursday. The floats will be judged for cleverness and originality advertising the Junior Week theme "Hay Fever." The Peerade will form at the gymnasium before marching downtown.

The fraternity dances on Saturday are open-house. It is open-house night for all. Each fraternity will strive to have decorations and most interesting entertainment. After intermission there will be a general exodus from every hall and the last ones will fill up again. Some ambitious souls may go to every house but the hall or nearly every one.

Visitors and guests will find the week-end worth while in an athletic way. Saturday the Kittens will play Troy Conference Academy. While Saturday afternoon a track meet with Montreal Athletic Association and a baseball game with Williams.

SUCH TALENT SHOULD NOT BE LOST, SAY DEAN

Spring has reared its ugly head! The University choir no longer reigns on Tuesday morning, or any other morning for that matter. Ye proboscitical reporter was peacefully pursuing the irregular verb one fine morning in the Old Mill Chapel. Suddenly his ears were broken in upon by musical sounds issuing simultaneously with a certain sameness, from the next room. Upon careful reconnaissance of the suspected territory, he came to the conclusion that a sextet, a quintet, or a sextet or a septet, it was a number of voices harmoniously (?? ?) enunciating "When the Organ Peals Out at Night," and kindred subjects.

For a considerable length of time, during which quartet harmonies rose soft and sound, the-er-bunch reached the point where nothing could be heard and suddenly there was a rattled air, the first long, "Sweet Adeline," but just outside the door to the book store and the bland and benign countenance of Dean Swift appeared. The countenance belonged to Freshman No. 2. Freshman No. 2 looked back at the door, a greeting was exchanged and the mouth of Freshman No. 2 stayed open, no sound issuing.

Such talent should be heard that the world may hear, and in measure, why not Music Building? Incidentally, loitering to some extent in a class or so."

Freshmen No. 1 and 3, Sophomores No. 1 and Junior No. X closed their mouths. The freshmen looked at the sophomores looked at Junior No. X and Junior No. X looked at the fourth reported back to the group took up the purely transitive verb.

MISS NULTY SPEAKS AT FINAL VOCATIONAL TEA GIVEN BY CO-ED GROUPS

Outlines Possible Fields Open to Enterprising Business Women of Today

The last of a series of three vocational teas was held at Grassmount Tuesday afternoon, May 3. These teas, sponsored by Student Union and Mortar Board, which have been held on successive Tuesdays, have brought guest speakers in several vocations to the women University students.

Ara Armstrong '33, chairman of the program, first introduced Miss Nulty of the economics department who spoke on the commercial field. She outlined a plan for those who had taken a literary scientific course and after completing it decided to enter business. The three branches of commercial work are: The junior commercial department, the senior commercial department, and the executive department. Miss Nulty told some of the requirements and advantages offered by each of these branches. She emphasized the fact that women must bring skill into business in order to enter it because of the crowded, efficient field. Some of the positions open to women are: Filing executives, statisticians, business librarians, and ediphone operators. If one intends to advance in the field she must have a well-rounded training, the speaker concluded.

Home economics was the vocational line discussed by Miss Johnson, an assistant research worker in home economics in the College of Agriculture. She gave teaching, buying, extension work, dietetics, consultant work, and research work as some of the fields open to home economics students. She mentioned particularly the many types of work in the dietetics field. She also gave the characteristics necessary for a worker in the commercial food field.

Barbara Russell, a special student at the University, was the last speaker introduced by Miss Armstrong. Buying was the vocation which Miss Russell discussed. She stressed the value of deciding early in your college course what you would like your life work to be and planning your courses around this central idea. She outlined the opportunities offered by the Prince School of merchandising in Boston and the New York University of Retailing, giving the requirements necessary for admittance to these institutions.

Those who were especially interested in the vocations discussed were given the opportunity to consult the speakers after the program.

Tea was served with Mildred Akins '32 and Agnes Parsons '32 pouring.

FROSH-SOPH DEBATE IS OFF TILL NEXT TUESDAY

